Article 2.—LEGISLATIVE

§ 1. Legislative power.—The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a house of representatives and senate.

§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor's veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

(b) If any bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, one or more of such items may be disapproved by the governor while the other portion of the bill is approved by the governor. In case the governor does so disapprove, a veto message of the governor stating the item or items disapproved, and the reasons therefor, shall be appended to the bill at the time it is signed, and the bill shall be returned with the veto message to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and, in not more than thirty calendar days, the house of origin shall reconsider the items of the bill which have been disapproved. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to approve any item disapproved by the governor, the bill, with the veto message, shall be sent to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days also reconsider each such item so approved by the house of origin, and if approved by two-thirds of all the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, any such item shall take effect and become a part of the bill.

§ 15. Requirements before bill passed.—No bill shall be passed on the day that it is introduced, unless in case of emergency declared by two-thirds of the members present in the house where a bill is pending.

§ 16. Subject and title of bills; amendment or revival of statutes.—No bill shall contain more than one subject, except appropriation bills and bills for revision or codification of statutes. No member of the legislature shall be subject to arrest—except for treason, felony or breach of the peace—in going to, or returning from, the place of meeting, or during the continuance of the session; neither shall he be subject to the service of any civil process during the session, nor for fifteen days previous to its commencement.

§ 23. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

JOINT RULES OF THE
SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2017-2018

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even- numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 30, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on January 29, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 8, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 7, 2018, during the 2018 regular session. Nominations being in order for speaker, Rep. Concannon nominated Rep. Ron Ryckman for Speaker of the House. There being no further nominations, Rep. Ward moved the nominations be closed, and that the temporary clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Ryckman as Speaker of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Assistant Secretary of State Eric Rucker requested Rep. Ryckman to approach the bar for the oath of office.

Speaker-elect Ryckman subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Nuss.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee,ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of January, 2017.

LAWTON R. NUSS
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker Ryckman addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Mr. Chief Justice. And I express my strongest gratitude and appreciation to you, my friends, colleagues and fellow representatives of the people's House.

In Kansas, we are blessed to serve a state with interests as diverse as our landscape. We are blessed to come from different backgrounds. And, we are blessed with our own unique perspectives. While those blessings bring immeasurable value to our state, they also mean our priorities can conflict. Our constituents expect assurance that their local identity will be secured.

I am a product of Kansas public schools. I grew up in Meade, Kansas, a district my father represented in this body until he retired last year. As a Representative of District 78 in Olathe, I'm proud that my kids are also a product of Kansas Public Schools. Each of us here today bring a perspective from a wide variety of communities who take pride in Kansas. As Kansas City and Wichita face a wide range of urban issues, our friends in Sabetha and Weskan grapple with issues unique to their geography.

We all accept that these issues are not mutually exclusively and must be balanced with the greater good of the State of Kansas. Our State was founded in the diversity of its citizens and communities. Our task is to carry-on the tradition of good, small government that empowers the people and lays the path for our next generations.

Every single person who ran to serve in 2017 knew that the state was facing serious challenges and that the legislature hasn't enjoyed public admiration or support. But we ran anyway. We each face the daunting responsibility of representing those in our districts who have entrusted us, yet we all face the duty of governing in our great state's best interest.

Each of you sacrifice time at home with family and friends, yet you are serving in Topeka now for the sake of those same interests. It's because I want the best for my kids—Haley, Christian and Chase—that I give up a piece of each day to improve their tomorrow, and I know that each of you do too. We all want what is best for our families and I encourage each of you to strive for balance in this process and remember what is most important to you. I wouldn't have the opportunity to serve our state without the daily sacrifices of my wife, Kim, and my family. For that I am truly humbled and grateful. The families and issues that drive us to Topeka are different, but our goals are the same. We know we must do better.

I say this to each of you. Your thoughts and ideas matter. You are the voices of Kansas. You are the voice of the men and women who make this state home. Each of you has the responsibility to ensure that voice is shared. Together we, in this chamber, have the obligation to make sure we hear all those voices. We will listen, we will seek to understand, and together we will arrive at the best possible outcomes for our districts and state.

I believe our priorities and goals can be met this session, but only if we check our personal political agendas and work towards the collective goal of supporting the best outcome possible for our beloved state. If you want to see change for your communities and our state, then come to work with an open mind and list of fresh ideas, not non-negotiables. We won't be able to do it overnight or on our own. We won't implement each of our ideological views. But, we will still be heard. We will each bring something to the final product that contributed to our shared goal of representing the multitudes who sent us here on their behalf. We can and will do that together. We will leave this session knowing that our voices were heard. We will leave this session knowing we did our best to do what was right for Kansas. For, only together can we truly tackle key issues like our state's finances, how we ultimately fund our schools, and grow our economy to create jobs and opportunities for all Kansans. It means making Kansas a stronger home for those people who sent us here; to be their voices in their government.

Although the diverse interests and perspectives we represent may create healthy division at times, we are united for the common good of Kansas. I am honored to serve with you. Thank you and God Bless.

Speaker Ryckman was presented with the gavel by Assistant Secretary of State Eric Rucker and assumed the chair.

Speaker Ryckman announced the appointment of Susan Kannarr as Chief Clerk; Foster Chisholm as Sergeant-at-Arms and Eunice Brubaker as House Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Nominations being in order for Speaker pro tem, Rep. Concannon nominated Rep. Scott Schwab for Speaker pro tem of the House. There being no further nominations, Rep. Frownfelter moved the nominations be closed, and that the clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Schwab as Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Speaker Ryckman requested Rep. Schwab to approach the bar for the oath of office.

Speaker pro tem-elect Schwab subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Nuss.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee,ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of January, 2017.

LAWTON R. NUSS

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker pro tem Schwab addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Colleagues,

First I want to thank you for the honor to serve as your Speaker Pro Tem for the next 2 years. While it seems my commitment to the rules has helped get me here, I hope it is my commitment to integrity that keeps your belief in me.

I was first sworn in as a House member in 2003. 14 years ago. I was eager, I was excited. I had ideas. I also had a wonderful trait called arrogance. That trait gave me so much. It gave me heart ache, pain, frustration, irritation and demise. And an “oops I ran for Congress”.

When I returned here after that episode, I ran head on into a trait of humility. I was humbled that I was back. I was humbled my colleagues still respected me. I was humbled because people would actually listen to me. I was humble.

Politics is often called a game....and they that are the most humble win.

Once again, I am humbled to service in this role of leadership.

To the folks who haven't been here as long as I have, I may have some small advice for you.

1) Be humble the first time in the House. Might save you from having to experience the second time in the House.

2) You are free to make a good decision. When someone tries to take that freedom from you, call them on it. Ask, “Am I free to make a good decision here?”

3) Perspective. I have learned most recently. Saturday marked the 5th month since we have last seen our precious Caleb. A hyper focus of perspective has taken over our lives. I look at how proud I am of my other 3 boys, Nathan, Alexander, and Isaac. My wife who has such a courageous heart and a depth that makes the oceans seem so very shallow.

I don't want to dwell here the whole session. But I am just going to be real, this is where we are at. When people fail to understand you, appreciate what you have done or are doing. They misunderstand you or just don't vote the way you wanted. When your bill dies or your amendment fails, can I offer you some perspective?

Let it go. Life isn't worth wasting too much emotional energy on such things. I just want you to know it could be worse, and it will get better. At least that is what I believe.

So, in closing, we are in this together, until someone chooses not to be. So please, be humble, be free, and remember whatever happens.....do your best to have sober perspective.

Speaker Ryckman asked for announcements from party caucuses:

Rep. Concannon stated the majority (Republican) party had met and elected the following:

- Majority Leader, Representative Don Hineman
- Assistant Majority Leader, Representative Tom Phillips
- Majority Whip, Representative Kent Thompson
- Caucus Chairperson, Representative Susan Concannon

Rep. Hineman addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Speaker Ryckman, Speaker Pro Tem Schwab, and esteemed colleagues for this opportunity to address you. Let me begin by recognizing my lovely wife Betsy, for always being there and being supportive during my legislative career. Thank you, Betsy for the sacrifices you make and the love you give.

Next I wish to introduce my legislative staff: Chief of Staff Michael Steiner, Legislative Director Mitch Rucker, and Executive Assistant Diane Threadgold. Although the plate on the office door says they are my staff, in reality they work for you, so I encourage you to put them to work and regard them as a resource throughout the session.

To the forty-six newly-elected among us I offer a warm welcome. I know that each of you brings significant life experiences and unique abilities with you, and we intend to put those gifts to use for the good of all Kansans. Interestingly, among the forty-six newcomers there are five who are not truly freshmen because they have served in the House in the past and are now returning. To those five I must ask, "You, more than the others, understand the magnitude of the challenges facing this body and the state of Kansas and yet you chose to run for office again anyway. What were you thinking?"

Actually I believe I know what they were thinking. Those five were motivated to file and run for office by the same impulse that led each member of this body to make that run. We were driven by a desire to serve and a belief in our own abilities to contribute towards finding the best possible solutions for the state of Kansas and its citizens.

That willingness to serve at this moment in time sets us apart from others and binds us together in our quest for common goals. During my eight-year tenure I have reached an important conclusion which now shapes my perspective and guides my actions. I am convinced that every one of the individuals I have served with has been motivated by a genuine desire to create a better Kansas. On occasion we will vigorously disagree over the path to that goal and even what the vision of a better Kansas should look like. But let us not lose sight of the fact that our differences are vastly overshadowed by those beliefs and values which we all hold in common.

Serving as leader of the majority party represents a solemn obligation to serve the members of the caucus. I accept that role with the utmost respect for all caucus members and a determination to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability. And yet I recognize that there is something greater than service to party and that is service to the citizens of Kansas. We best achieve that goal by a process which fully includes all 125 members of this body and utilizes their experiences and abilities in the crafting of optimal legislative solutions.

There are skeptics who predict we will fail. There are others who are hoping we will fail. But I am convinced that it need not be so, and I invite you to join me with a determination to prove them wrong, to exceed the expectations of the doubters, and to make progress toward a better Kansas for all who live within its borders. If we work together I know we will succeed.

Rep. Ballard stated the minority (Democrat) party had caucused and elected the following officers:

- Minority Leader, Representative Jim Ward
- Assistant Minority Leader, Representative Stan Frownfelter
- Minority Whip, Representative Ed Trimmer
- Agenda Chairperson, Representative Brandon Whipple
- Caucus Chairperson, Representative Barbara Ballard
- Policy Chairperson, Representative Adam Lusker

Rep. Ward addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to first thank the people of southeast Wichita in the 86th District for the privilege and honor of being their representative. This is my 15th year to serve in the Kansas House of Representatives - the people's house - and I still get a thrill coming into this building every day.

I am humbled by the opportunity to serve alongside each of you and to participate in the debates on this floor that shape the direction of our state and determine the kind of future Kansans deserve.

During my tenure in public service I have worked with hundreds of people, many of whom I've agreed with, but countless others with whom I've shared passionate differences of opinion. Yet even in those contrasts, there was, and always will be, one common factor: a desire to build a better Kansas.

Each of us have been called here because we want to make Kansas the best place to raise a family, grow a business, and live out the American dream. On these goals, we do not disagree. That is the challenge and that is the opportunity we face over the coming weeks – ensuring we work together, acknowledging all voices, and enacting sensible policies that foster prosperity and progress for Kansans of every age, color and creed.

To the members of the House Democratic caucus whom I have the privilege of working alongside every day: Thank you. You are a group of thoughtful, determined, courageous and dedicated leaders. It's an honor to lead such a talented caucus knowing each of you is mindful of the importance of the task ahead.

To you, Speaker Ryckman - Congratulations on achieving the high honor of Speaker of this distinguished body. The past month has allowed us to develop a good working relationship and I anticipate building on this as we begin our difficult task.

Congratulations to each of the new members of the House. You are embarking on a grand adventure that will challenge, inspire, and at times overwhelm, but never doubt the relevance of your voice in this body. Yes, you're new to the legislature, but you bring with you a lifetime of experiences and insight that will be necessary as we carry out our work here. Don't be afraid to speak out.

But most importantly, remember - we are all blessed with this chance to serve and in doing so, we're called by Kansans to serve with respect for one another – even in disagreements. The men and women who aren't here today and who aren't involved in the political process, expect us to work together to solve our state's problems. They are not concerned with party labels or future elections, and neither should we.

Today, as we begin our work Kansas is in a state of crisis. Our financial future is in peril, our school system is in constant litigation, our elderly and our most vulnerable constituents are waiting in line for basic life sustaining services. The task before us is difficult and many are losing faith. We have a state to restore to prosperity and it will take the dedication of each and every one of us in this body to get it done.

I am convinced we can and will meet the challenges before us. We are the sons and daughters of a people who forged a state out of a bloody civil war, survived the great depression and fought world wars against oppression. Kansans have never failed to answer the call.

I'm honored to stand before you as one of the leaders in this quest.
God Bless you and God Bless the people of Kansas.

The roll was called with 124 members present.
Representative-elect Helgerson was excused on verified illness.

The amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any appropriation bill.

(1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;

(2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;

(3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the House including the provisions of items (1), (2), (3) or (4) of subsection (a), or any combination thereof.

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the action proposed to be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

Rule 2304. Previous Question. The "previous question" shall be: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2307. Motion to Strike Bills and Resolutions from Calendar When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the Calendar shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2308. Stating Question. Every motion shall be first stated by the presiding officer or read by the chief clerk, before debate, and again immediately before putting the question.

Rule 2309. Dividing Motion. If any motion, other than a motion under Rule 2105, contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the chairperson at the request of any member. Motions under Rule 2105 shall be divided in accordance with that rule.

Rule 2310. When Motions to be in Writing. Every motion, except those specified in Rules 2301 and 2303, shall be in writing if the Speaker or any member desires it. All motions to amend a bill or resolution and all resolutions shall be in writing.

Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House. (a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

(c) Suspension of the rules or unanimous consent shall not reduce the majority required under subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule.

Rule 2312. Mason's Manual; When Applicable. (a) In any case where rules of the House or the joint rules of the Senate and House do not apply, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2010 edition), with the exception of section 4, paragraph 2, shall govern.

(b) Rules of legislative procedure are derived from several sources and take precedence in the order listed below. For the Kansas House of Representatives, the principal sources are as follows: (a) Constitutional provisions; (b) statutory provisions; (c) adopted rules; (d) adopted parliamentary authority; (e) custom, usage and precedents.

In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote. When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain his or her vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change his or her vote?" If any member does desire to change his or her vote, such member when recognized by the presiding officer, shall advise how they desire to change such vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to make the appropriate change. A member who has not previously voted may vote at this time when permitted by the presiding officer. Such member shall advise how they wish to vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to record such vote. After all members who desire to vote or to change their votes have had reasonable opportunity to do so, the presiding officer shall announce the vote and, when the vote has been announced, shall direct the chief clerk to record the vote.

Rule 2503. Display of Recurring Totals. Under Rule 2502, recurring totals shall be displayed only after the roll is closed. No recurring totals shall be displayed for a determination of the vote upon a division of the assembly.

If a person not a member votes or attempts to vote for any member, such person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and, in addition to penalties prescribed by law, may be punished further as the House determines.

(c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote. Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

HCR 5002, by Representative Ryckman, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION adopting joint rules for the Senate and House of Representatives for the 2017-2018 biennium.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate, concurring therein: That the following joint rules shall be the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives for the 2017-2018 biennium.

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 2017-2018

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment,

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 30, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on January 29, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 8, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 7, 2018, during the 2018 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 6, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 5, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 23, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 22, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 30, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and March 29, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 7, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and after April 6, 2018, during the 2018 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the House of Representatives, any standing committee of the Senate, the Legislative Coordinating Council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the House of Representatives or the Senate, the House of Representatives in session, the Senate in session or a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the State of Kansas.

Joint rule 6. Floor amendments to bills making appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no amendment from the floor in either house of the legislature to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill. Notwithstanding any rule in either house of the legislature, those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this rule shall be indivisible.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kleeb are spread upon the Journal:

Despite some policy and political differences, the members of the legislature often become much more than just colleagues; over time, they develop into a treasured network of friends. As many of you know, I was married last month on December 23rd and I wanted to take this opportunity to introduce my wonderful bride, Becky, to you, my valued friends.

Three years ago under totally different circumstances I stood before you expressing my appreciation for your support and prayers after I lost Nancy, my wife of twenty-nine years, to pancreatic cancer. Over the past few months, I have come to realize even more how precious life and time are and what a blessing it is to have Becky in my life. So, we have decided to focus on spending more quality time with each other, on this new chapter of our lives, and on our family, friends and the community.

Although it has been my honor to serve in the Kansas House of Representatives for the past eight years, I have decided to retire from the legislature. The opportunity to meet and work with all the wonderful people throughout the State over the years while serving in the legislature has been a true blessing.

It is with gratitude and respect that I recognize the dedication and professionalism of our Research, Revisor and legislative staff. And, to my legislative colleagues, I want to express my appreciation for your friendship and for your personal sacrifice to serve the State.

May God bless Kansas, each of you, and your legislative work.

On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, January 10, 2017.

Journal of the House

SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, January 10, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

OATH OF OFFICE

Representative-elect, Abraham Rafe, of the 48th District and Representative-elect, Henry Helgerson, of the 83rd District, came forward, took and subscribed, or affirmed, to their respective oaths of office, administered to them by Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, Bryan A. Caskey, as follows:

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee, ss:

I, do solemnly swear or affirm, that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Kansas, and will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Representative of the State of Kansas, so help me God.

BRYAN A. CASKEY
Deputy Assistant Secretary of State
January 10, 2017

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Richard Sundermeyer, pastor, Family Life Church of the Nazarene, Topeka:

Let us pray.

On the second day of this current session so much is needing to be done. Agendas, procedures, planning, conferences, committee organizations, appointments...and the list could go on. While this is normal and to be expected in the work we have been called on to perform, we take these few moments to pause for divine wisdom and direction.

Many of us will feel that we have a mandate from our constituents. Others of us will know that our deeply held heart felt beliefs will inform our individual decision making process. And some of us will even look to party leadership for guidance. While none of these are bad or wrong, we acknowledge that we are in desperate need of wisdom to sort through all of the issues before us.

The New Testament writer, James, wrote these words which we affirm:

“If you are in need of wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking.” James 1:5 (NLT)

And the Apostle Peter reminded us of the wisdom from King Solomon in the Proverbs:

“In the same way, you who are younger must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you, dress yourselves in humility as you relate to one another, for ‘God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.’

So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor.” 1 Peter 5:5-6 (NLT)

We therefore ask you, God...

To bring agreement when great opposition confronts us

To inform us to the most crucial concerns in each issue

To cause us to act so that righteousness undergirds all we say and do

To insure justice always prevails

To protect the innocent, vulnerable, and outcast

To value all human life as made in Your divine image

It is in the name of Jesus the Christ that I pray these things...AMEN.

Governor Sam Brownback
2017 State of the State Address

Mr. Speaker, Madam President, members of the Kansas Supreme Court, members of the Cabinet, and my personal favorite, the First Lady of Kansas Mary Brownback.

Also here are my parents, Bob and Nancy Brownback.

My fellow Kansans, welcome.

Welcome to the State of the State address.

A chance to see old friends, to make new ones. A chance to celebrate the awesomeness of Kansas.

This event was once described to me as the beautiful ritual...conducted...just before the real battle begins.

So thanks for being here and thank you for your service. American self-government depends on citizens like you giving of your time and talents.

The American way also depends on the defense of freedom provided by the sacrifice from our men and women in uniform. Always recognizing "Duty First," America's First Infantry Division is celebrating this year their 100th anniversary. Playing a key role in every major conflict since its founding, today nearly 5,000 Big Red One soldiers are spread across Iraq, Afghanistan, and Korea. Joining us tonight are senior leaders from Fort Riley, Brigadier General Pat Frank and Command Sergeant Major Jonathan Stephens.

Also joining us this evening is a family of volunteer firefighters that fought the largest Prairie fire in modern history. David and Patty Johnson, along with their daughter Lori, stepped into danger to protect their local communities in Barber and Comanche Counties. Please help me in recognizing these heroes.

Over a third of the members in this chamber tonight are new to the Legislature.

This Legislature will not only welcome many new faces but also some familiar faces in new positions. Welcome to Ron Ryckman Jr, our new Speaker.

And Susan Wagle, our returning Senate President.

To Minority leaders Hensley and Ward, welcome.

Like the caucuses they serve, these are very different people, but they have something in common. They all chose to be here and serve.

As you meet your new colleagues, you'll be trying to determine what sort of people they are. Well, they are just like you. They love Kansas and sacrificed to be here. Cherish that connection. Value people over politics.

By many measures Kansas is the envy of the world.

Set in the most productive part of this blessed nation, Kansans enjoy unparalleled sunsets and a quality of life unimaginable to most humans throughout history.

Our people, numbering now almost three million, lead the planet in agriculture, telecommunications, engineering, aerospace, precision manufacturing, animal health, food safety, and composite material innovation.

Kansans are among the most hard-working, well-educated, and charitable people on earth.

That's why, even though Kansans value life and liberty under law, government has never been the source of our strength—our families, businesses, faith communities, and homes—these are the strength of Kansas.

Our state has record population, record new businesses, record grain production, and record income.

My fellow Kansans, it is for these reasons and more that I can report to you the state of our state is indeed strong.

Like our ancestors before us, we draw on this strength—in times of plenty, and in times of hardship.

With struggles in key sectors of our state's economy, most notably agriculture and oil & gas, our state government is confronting challenges.

Most immediately, we must address the imbalance between state revenues and expenditures.

As a first step, I encourage the Legislature to put a bill adjusting the 2017 budget on my desk by the end of the month.

Working with the relevant chairs and the leadership, we have many suggestions as to what that measure should look like.

But as the legislature is the spending branch, that work appropriately begins here. Our commitment to you is to support that process and, anticipating a workable product, to sign it.

But the scale of the challenge is such that even this bill will only amount to a first step.

That is why, tomorrow, Budget Director Sullivan will present in detail...a structurally balanced budget.

This budget is balanced.

Balanced in that it reconciles spending with available revenue.

Balanced in that it adequately supports the core functions of state government, while finding necessary efficiencies.

Balanced in that it addresses both sides of the ledger, revenue and expenditure.

The days of tax first, cut never have come to an end.

As President Bill Clinton even observed, "The era of big government is over."

Can we really ask Kansans to pay more for a government that maintains separate bureaucracies to license the practice of barbering AND cosmetology? Our budget will fix that.

Do we continue to need separate departments to regulate the state insurance and securities markets? Our budget will address that too.

Many times this administration has proposed similar efficiencies, and inevitably there were those who insisted that we couldn't possibly get along without both a Department of Transportation and Turnpike Authority; without both a Commerce Department AND a Technology Enterprise Corporation; without both a Department of Corrections AND a separate Juvenile Justice Authority. But just about every time, shortly after consolidations were complete, most people were left asking, 'Why didn't we do this before?'

And we owe it to Kansas taxpayers to find those efficiencies again, BEFORE asking for more revenue. That's why my budget adopts recommendations from the efficiency study commissioned by the legislature.

Having said that, we will propose modest, targeted revenue measures to fund essential state services.

In any proposal as vast as a state budget, people will find provisions to dislike. That's a necessary start of any conversation, but good negotiations require give and take. Kansans deserve no less.

As a state, we have pioneered new ground on small business policy. Kansas was the first state in the nation to pass such a small-business tax policy focused on lifting the income tax burden from job creators.

With two-thirds of Kansans working for small businesses, this policy is targeted support that Kansans have used to increase pay for their employees, hold prices down for their products, or expand their businesses.

Gilmore Tagge is one such Kansas business. Located in Clay Center, they were recently named Kansas Exporter of the Year. They used the tax benefit to increase the salary of their employees.

As new businesses decline nationally, we boast a record number of new businesses here. Businesses from Missouri are moving across the border, making Kansas City more of a Kansas city.

President-elect Trump's tax plan targets small businesses. Speaker Ryan's tax plan targets small businesses in much the same way as we did.

Other states, most notably Missouri, are looking at how to create an economic atmosphere for private sector job growth. The biggest creators of jobs in Kansas and America are small businesses. Hurting them puts us at a competitive disadvantage.

The purpose of our small business tax cut has been to increase the number of small businesses and increase private sector job growth. That policy has worked.

Fortunately for our budget, Kansas had the foresight to reform Medicaid—a policy others are following. Instead of an open-ended fee for service entitlement, Kansas became the first state in America to serve its entire Medicaid population through managed care.

Thanks to the Leadership of Lt. Governor Jeff Colyer, we have seen more Kansans served than ever before, steady or improving health outcomes for beneficiaries, and dramatic cost savings to taxpayers of $1.4 billion.

As challenging as our current budget situation is, imagine if we had followed the siren song of the Affordable Care Act.

Amid much discussion and dissent, our Administration determined that early adoption of ObamaCare was not in the best interests of Kansas, and returned a $31.5 million grant designed to establish a Kansas exchange. Six years later, the wisdom of that decision is obvious.

Of the 23 state exchanges established under ObamaCare, a majority have failed, at a cost of billions including significant hits to state budgets. As major insurers abandon the few remaining state exchanges, the decision to refuse early adoption looks increasingly like declining a discount ticket on the Titanic.

The same holds true for the policy choice not to take the bait on Medicaid expansion.

You've heard the promise—hundreds of thousands more beneficiaries at zero cost to the state—all paid for with 'free' federal money.

The new Congress and Administration in Washington are setting to work repealing and replacing ObamaCare, dramatically re-writing the Medicaid program. Promises of limitless 'free' money from Washington to cover expanded populations were never going to be kept, but that reality might now arrive sooner than later. For states who took the expansion path, the reckoning could be severe.

Given these facts, it would be foolish to endorse the ObamaCare expansion of Medicaid now—akin to airlifting on to the Titanic. Kansas was right. Kansas should stay the course.

We will continue to be at the vanguard in reform and improvement of our social services delivery.

To that end, Kansas will launching KanCare 2.0 in the coming year.

This Administration has focused efforts on solving long term issues facing our state like the need for more jobs—we've added 64,000 private sector jobs.

The need to preserve water resources—we've seen the life of the Ogallala Aquifer extended in some areas through conservation and new technology.

The need to expand wind energy production—we've seen $10 billion of wind investments brought to the prairie.

The need to help the poor amongst us—we've tripled the number of able-bodied adults leaving poverty.

The need to save innocent life—we've increased the number of mothers choosing life and health, for themselves and their children.

The need to address quality of life issues—we will see the groundbreaking for a new facility in Wyandotte County to host the American Royal, an internationally significant livestock show and the world's biggest and best barbecue competition.

We will also see the completion of the Flint Hills Nature Trail, a nearly 100 mile trail thru the heart of our beloved tall grass prairie.

The shortage of medical and dental personnel is one of those critical, long-term needs that we must address.

For as long as I can remember, Kansas has experienced a critical shortage of medical doctors, particularly in our rural areas.

We currently have 92 of our 105 counties classified as medically underserved, and 87 of our counties are underserved for dentistry.

We are proposing three solutions.

Five million dollars have been placed in the budget to start new residency programs in Kansas. This proposal came from the Rural Healthcare Working Group chaired by Dr. Colyer.

The second proposal is the establishment of a privately funded Doctor of Osteopathy School in Kansas.

Osteopathic schools have a higher percentage of their graduates practicing medicine in primary care and in rural areas. Because our needs are chronic and most acute in rural areas, I have asked Terry Holdren, CEO of the Kansas Farm Bureau, to head the Task Force in bringing a DO school to Kansas.

This school will follow the little-known medical legacy of one of our most famous Kansans: Phog Allen. Leaving KU for a time, Phog Allen attended medical school and became a Doctor of Osteopathy. He eventually returned to the Jayhawks and bolstered his illustrious career, not only as a coach, but also as a D.O., using his medical training to treat his players' injuries.

Finally, we need dentists, again particularly in our rural areas.

Kansas does not have a dental school and remains dependent on out-of-state schools. This is not a long term solution.

My proposed budget has money to begin the development of a Kansas dental school at the University of Kansas Medical Center.

Let us begin working toward the future now, moving forward to address the chronic health care needs of our state.

According to the most recent information from the federal Child and Family Services Review, our state's foster care program was first in the nation in protecting foster care kids from abuse and second in the nation in safely maintaining children in their homes. But other areas require improvement.

To that end, we are working with DCF and KSDE to improve the system for transferring records for youth in foster care. When students in foster care move homes, their school records must also move. This will empower teachers and foster parents to better understand and improve education for students in foster care.

Preparing for a brighter future also demands action from the legislature regarding Kansas students. The most significant legislative task you face is building a new school funding system that puts students first.

For decades, the children of Kansas suffered under an overly complicated education finance formula that lacked accountability for results, hand-cuffed local school boards, and spent money unrelated to student achievement.

With the Kansas State Board of Education, we've sought new ideas to better equip Kansas students for the twenty-first century.

The time has come to create a school finance system driven by outcomes that provide more opportunities to our students. We need predictability and sustainability for both educators and taxpayers. We need to measure success not by dollars spent, but by the achievement of our students.

Now is the time, this is the session, for us to craft a new school finance system that puts Kansas students first.

Our founders laid the groundwork for a suitable education for all Kansas students because they knew, as do we, that a key to preserving our liberty is educating the next generation. We have a moral imperative to improve the educational outcomes, opportunities, and character of every student—in the top of their class, the middle, or the bottom.

As we build this new funding system, we must innovate.

Blue Valley is one of the state's most innovative school districts. Their innovation works. Earlier this year, Blue Valley high school students placed second highest in the world for math and science test scores. Congratulations on your accomplishment.

Now, we need more innovation.

Projects like the EducationSuperHighway pave the way toward connectivity in the classroom so students can begin interacting with the tools of our time. We must prepare today's students for tomorrow's workforce. Every student, in every classroom, will have affordable, effective, high-speed internet.

The ability to read is critical. Inventive programs like Kansas Reading Roadmap ensure that struggling students receive the additional help they need to succeed. Connor Lee is seven years old and full of life. Born with Down Syndrome and several health complications, this young man has worked hard to reach goals that come easy to other children. He joined Kansas Reading Roadmap last August. Spending time with Shelley, his specialist, Connor is now able to better identify letters and words, and reading is right around the bend. Along with his mother, Tanya, this dynamic fellow and his reading specialist Shelley are with us tonight—Connor, can you wave to us?

We must also acknowledge and support the tens of thousands of Kansans who, like Shelley, dedicate their lives to educating our children. Two of my children teach; I too have taught. Educators are not simply working a job; they are fulfilling a calling. For those teachers leading the way, going above and beyond their duties, funds should be available to provide merit based pay increases.

Kansas has been blessed with a large number of talented, compassionate, and motivated educators. However, across the nation there is a growing demand for teachers. We must recruit talented educators to come to Kansas, but outdated regulations sometimes prevent this. Simple reforms in the teacher certification system can create a pathway bringing more teachers to Kansas.

We also have a responsibility to build up the next generation of educators. We need the best and brightest students following in the footsteps of the teachers that inspired them. But college costs can make this difficult. That is why I've announced the launch of TeachersKan, a new scholarship program for Kansas college students. If you are a successful Kansas student and commit to teaching in a hard to fill discipline or underserved community, we will help equip you to become a teacher of tomorrow.

Infrastructure and recruitment are partial keys to success, but we must also empower parents with information and choices, creating more competition in our education system. For parental information and transparency, we should create a grading system for our schools to measure and report their status to the public. Parents have the right to know how the performance of their child's school compares to other schools.

The zip code in which you are born should not determine the quality of education you receive. We should expand eligibility of the existing tax exempt scholarship program. We should continue to build our career and technical education programs that are empowering students to have good paying jobs upon graduation. And we should support education savings accounts that create opportunity for parents and students to improve their academic options.

Capping the education of many Kansas students is a college degree. Yet, while many of our students possess the academic ability to attend college, the financial cost of a bachelor's degree proves prohibitive.

Kansans deserve access to an affordable college option.

Tonight, I am laying out a challenge to our colleges and universities to provide the opportunity to earn a bachelor's degree—in total—for $15,000 or less.

While the challenge is great, the potential achievement is greater. I trust that Kansas colleges and universities are fully capable to rise to this call. With success in this field already proven in other states, my budget fully funds 50 student scholarships to the institution that first accomplishes the $15,000 degree.

There is much work to be done, both in K-12 and higher education, but I am confident that by working together we can create greater opportunity and a brighter future for our students.

You might be familiar with the story of Benjamin Franklin at the end of the Constitutional Convention.

He was the oldest delegate in attendance and had not often spoken during the proceedings, but in his final speech, he stated: "I confess that there are several parts of this constitution which I do not at present approve, but I am not sure I shall never approve them... [The] older I grow the more apt I am to doubt my own judgment, and to pay more respect to the judgment of others."

The judgment of others has brought each of us here. We owe them our wisdom, our labor, and progress.

Including my time as Secretary of Agriculture, White House Fellow, Congressman, Senator, and Governor—this will be my thirtieth year in public service.

To paraphrase Tony Blair:

'The danger of longevity in government is fatigue; the benefit is experience.'

If you'll permit me, some brief words of advice: make relationships your priority, and do things with the long view in mind.

Every day a Legislator faces the tyranny of the ringing phone and the inbox flooding with emails—the urgent crowding out the important. But it is in relationships that we actually get our work done over time.

I have been blessed with many close relationships in my life. My wife being the most important. Many here I have had the chance to grow close to, in good times and in difficult ones.

Here's one such relationship—Mario Goico. He is here tonight, a friend, former legislator, and all around good guy. Mario, I want to see the Right to Try bill you pursued, allowing access to cancer drugs at an earlier stage, pass. I'll always remember your signature line, "It doesn't get any better than this."

Let me close with a thought on the Great Seal of the State of Kansas.

You have heard often of our state motto, "Ad Astra Per Aspera," To the Stars Through Difficulty, a fitting motto for people like ours who have accomplished much and none of it easy.

One of the alternative mottos that was nearly accepted were the simple words, "We will." Not a bad choice either for such a determined and blessed people as we have been.

The picture on the seal represents many aspects of our state's past and present: The buffalo, Native Americans, a steam boat, settlers, farmers, and the home on the range.

But the visual that most catches my eye is the part of the seal easiest to ignore or escape notice altogether. It is the glow of the rising Sun. A glow that is both brilliant and oddly tranquil, almost otherworldly. Quite a contrast to all the action it oversees. That glow speaks to me of a future full of Light and Peace that we will only be achieved through difficulty. A future even beyond the stars.

This is the place our destiny lies. A place sung of in countless churches, synagogues, and places of worship across our vast prairie.

Kansas is a blessed place, a "good land." Let us never forget the God of our Forefathers who blessed it and us. And let our eyes never lose sight of the glow from that heavenly place where Peace reigns forevermore!

May God continue to bless the people of our home--Kansas.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
As we remembered the great life of Martin Luther King, Jr. yesterday,
I am reminded of some of his prayers that might be helpful to these leaders.
Help them to accept the tools you have given them.
However dull or different, help them to accept them and to set out to do what they can with these tools.
Help them to go throughout this session with proper faith and determination of will, so they may be able to make a contribution to this state.
Give them the intelligence to know your will and the courage to do your will to make a difference.
In Christ's Name I pray,
Amen.

(paraphrased from different prayers of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Vickrey.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

Excerpts from Martin Luther King, Jr., "I Have A Dream"

Five score years ago, a great American, in whose symbolic shadow we stand today, signed the Emancipation Proclamation. This momentous decree came as a great beacon light of hope to millions of Negro slaves who had been seared in the flames of withering injustice. It came as a joyous daybreak to end the long night of their captivity.

But there is something that I must say to my people, who stand on the warm threshold which leads into the palace of justice: In the process of gaining our rightful place, we must not be guilty of wrongful deeds. Let us not seek to satisfy our thirst for freedom by drinking from the cup of bitterness and hatred. We must forever conduct our struggle on the high plane of dignity and discipline. We must not allow our creative protest to degenerate into physical violence. Again and again, we must rise to the majestic heights of meeting physical force with soul force.

The marvelous new militancy which has engulfed the Negro community must not lead us to a distrust of all white people, for many of our white brothers, as evidenced by their presence here today, have come to realize that their destiny is tied up with our destiny. And they have come to realize that their freedom is inextricably bound to our freedom.

We cannot walk alone.

And as we walk, we must make the pledge that we shall always march ahead.

We cannot turn back.

Let us not wallow in the valley of despair, I say to you today, my friends.

Martin Luther King, Jr. quotes

“Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly.”

“We may have come in on different ships, but we are all on the same boat now.”

“Let no man or woman pull you so low as to hate him.”

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.”

“I can never be what I ought to be until you are what you ought to be. This is the interrelated structure of reality.”

“People fail to get along because they fear each other; they fear each other because they don’t know each other; they don’t know each other because they have not communicated with each other.”

“We will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends.”

“For when people get caught up with that which is right and they are willing to sacrifice for it, there is no stopping point short of victory.”

The largest moments in civil rights history are often celebrated in milestones:

The signing of the Emancipation Proclamation

The passage of the 19th Amendment

The passage of the 14th Amendment

The approval of the Civil Rights Act

The election of President Barack Obama

For many people, these points of change represent the simplest way to remember progress—by counting the visible achievements we have reached as a society. Unfortunately, what is often forgotten is the work that has been done to reach those points of progress. We are quick to celebrate our historical successes, but we fail to acknowledge the battles we faced to get to them. After the election of President Obama, many people began to talk about the achievement of a post-racial society. That, for some reason, the election of a black president was indicative of the elimination of racism. Herein lies the problem with our celebration of points of progress. The freeing of slaves did not mean people of color were equal citizens of the United States. Women’s right to vote did not mean all gender rights were given equal protection. Just because we have moved forward, does not mean we finished the race. If we are going to celebrate Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and his work, it’s important we acknowledge half of his battle was forcing people to realize there was even a fight to be had.

Martin Luther King Day has always been a day to realize the impact one individual had on African American history. This year, though, I want to remember the impact he had on the people that weren’t Black. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., forced people – regardless of race – to realize that our freedoms are inextricably tied to one another. It is important to remember that we are in this race together. We need you. We haven’t reached the finish line, and until we have, we can’t stop running.

its builders labor in vain.”

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Sawyer and Wheeler were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Blex, Landwehr and Schwab were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
for this another day of life and service,
thank You for the opportunities that lie before us.
Pour out Your Spirit on these leaders and make Your Word and Way known to them.
Help them to be men and women of integrity, understanding Your principles, and acting justly and righteously.
Give them wise and understanding hearts in the choices they have to make.
Make their hearts and ears attentive to Your counsel.
As they meet in the various committees and other meetings, bring order to what may seem like chaos;
bring unity in what could potentially be divisive; and bring respect for one another when the temptation may be to have contempt.
This I pray in Your Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Carpenter.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5004—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

HCR 5004-- A PROPOSITION to amend article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to counties by adding a new section 6 which pertains to home rule for counties.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 9 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"Article 9.—COUNTY AND TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION"

"§ 6. Counties' power of home rule. (a) Counties are hereby empowered to determine their local affairs and government including the levying of taxes, excises, fees, charges and other exactions, except when and as the levying of any tax, excise, fee, charge or other exaction is limited or prohibited by enactment of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties of the same class. The legislature may establish not to exceed four classes of counties for the purpose of imposing all such limitations or prohibitions. Counties shall exercise such determination by resolution passed by the governing body with referendums only in such cases as prescribed by the legislature, subject only to enactments of the legislature of statewide concern applicable uniformly to all counties, to other enactments of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties, to enactments of the legislature applicable uniformly to all counties of the same class limiting or prohibiting the levying of any tax, excise, fee, charge or other exaction and to enactments of the legislature prescribing limits of indebtedness. All enactments relating to counties now in effect or hereafter enacted and as later amended and until repealed shall govern counties, except as counties shall exempt themselves by charter resolutions as herein provided for in subsection (b).

(b) (1) Any county may by charter resolution elect in the manner prescribed in this section that the whole or any part of any enactment of the legislature applying to such county, other than enactments of statewide concern applicable uniformly to all counties, other enactments applicable uniformly to all counties, and enactments prescribing limits of indebtedness, shall not apply to such county.

(2) A charter resolution is a resolution which exempts a county from the whole or any part of any enactment of the legislature as referred to in this section and which may provide substitute and additional provisions on the same subject. Such charter resolution shall be so titled, shall designate specifically the enactment of the legislature or part thereof made inapplicable to such county by the adoption of such resolution and contain the substitute and additional provisions, if any, and shall require a two-thirds vote of the members-elect of the governing body of such county. Every charter resolution shall be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in the official county newspaper or, if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

(3) No charter resolution shall take effect until 60 days after its final publication. If, within 60 days of its final publication, a petition signed by a number of electors of the county equal to not less than 10% of the number of electors who voted at the last preceding regular county election shall be filed in the office of the clerk of such county demanding that such resolution be submitted to a vote of the electors, it shall not take effect until submitted to a referendum and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. An election, if called, shall be called within 30 days and held within 90 days after the filing of the petition. The governing body shall pass a resolution calling the election and fixing the date, which resolution shall be published once each week for three consecutive weeks in the official county newspaper or, if there be none, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, and the election shall be conducted as elections for officers and by the officers handling such elections. The proposition shall be: "Shall charter resolution No. _____, entitled (title of resolution) take effect?" The governing body may submit any charter resolution to a referendum without petition by the same publication of the charter resolution, and the same publication of the resolution calling the election as for resolutions upon petition and such charter resolution shall then become effective when approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon. Each charter resolution becoming effective shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book maintained for that purpose with a statement of the manner of adoption, and a certified copy shall be filed with the secretary of state, who shall keep an index of the same.

(4) Each charter resolution enacted shall control and prevail over any prior or subsequent act of the governing body of the county, and may be repealed or amended only by charter resolution or by enactments of the legislature applicable to all counties.

(c) Powers and authority granted to counties pursuant to this section shall be liberally construed for the purpose of giving to counties the largest measure of self-government.

(d) This amendment shall be effective on and after July 1, 2019."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would provide a constitutional basis for county home rule. A county could enact a charter resolution to exempt itself from non-uniform state laws that apply to the county and provide substitute or additional provisions to that law. The legislature could preempt counties from exercising home rule powers by the passage of uniform state laws that apply to all counties in the exact same manner. Counties could pass home rule resolutions to legislate locally on matters not covered by state law.

"A vote for this proposition would empower counties to determine their local affairs and government with a constitutional grant of power that could only be preempted by enactments of the legislature that apply uniformly to all counties in the exact same way.

"A vote against this proposition would retain the present law granting counties home rule power and other both uniform and non-uniform laws pertaining to counties that can be readily amended by the legislature to restrict home rule powers by statute."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2018 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God in Heaven,
 Thank You for a new week –
 a fresh new start for the work that lies ahead.
 As we face the challenges of the week, remind us often of Your words that You are already making it plain how to live, what to do, what You are looking for in each of us.
 It's quite simple: do what is fair and just to our neighbor, be compassionate and loyal in Your love.
 Don't take ourselves too seriously—but take You very seriously.
 Help each one to seek Your wisdom and guidance;
 act in Your power and strength, and give of the best of their ability.
 Please be with Rep. Wolfe Moore and her family in the passing of her mother.
 Bring comfort and grace to them today as they lean upon you for strength.
 This I ask in Christ's Name,
 Amen.
 (Micah 6:8, The Message)

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks by Rep. Hoffman are spread upon the Journal:

Rahel Mogo joins us today from Ethiopia. Rahel is on a reverse trade mission to Kansas, learning about sorghum use in food grade products, food safety protocol and milling functions and qualities. She represents a food company called EthioGreen.

During her time in Kansas, Rahel has spent time with Nu-Life Market in Scott City, Heartland Mill and Country Oven Bakery in Marienthal, the Kansas Department of Agriculture, Kansas State University Sorghum and Millet Innovation Lab, AIB International (American Institute of Baking), and the Kansas Wheat Innovation Center.

The Kansas Department of Agriculture was the first state department of agriculture to visit Ethiopia and the outlook for increased exports from Kansas to Ethiopia is very promising.

We welcome Rahel to Kansas on a reverse trade mission and we look forward to future agriculture trade with Rahel and her home country of Ethiopia.

Ms. Mogo presented Ethiopian coffee to Rep. Hoffman.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Humphries are spread upon the Journal:

I rise to call our attention to the 44th Anniversary of Roe versus Wade, the United States Supreme Court decision of January 23, 1973, which removed all legal protections from pre-born children and has resulted in the loss of an estimated 59 million lives here in the U.S.

Constitutional law professors across the country have voiced the opinion that Roe was a serious Constitutional mistake, and that an all-male court invented a right to abortion that is hard to justify based on the Constitution's text, specifically the Due Process Clause of the 14th Amendment.

That is the attorney in me speaking. But the woman in me goes to a deeper place. We all heard much this weekend about the Women's March on Washington . . . and this portion of their mission statement resonates deeply with me: "We stand together, recognizing that defending the most marginalized among us is defending all of us." Who is the most marginalized? The most vulnerable? Certainly women are in a hard place as they experience an unwanted pregnancy—we need to care for those women. And the women in their mother's womb—the unwanted, the unborn, the voiceless—are in a hard place. The most vulnerable place.

Science has advanced our understanding of life in the womb in these last 45 years. The millennial generation has become the most pro-life generation. Millions of women (and men) deal with post-abortive difficulties and we need to care for them with deep compassion.

We in this chamber believe in human dignity and worth, and work diligently to that end. Therefore, there is much we can agree on. As we heard so eloquently last week, Martin Luther King Jr.'s message and the civil rights movement in the U.S. reverberated all over the world. May our care and concern for human dignity and worth also reverberate across the globe as we defend the marginalized and the victims of Roe v. Wade.

Please join me and other Kansans on the south steps of the capitol at 12:45 to give voice to the voiceless and to defend those in hard places.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
Thank You for Your faithfulness and unfailing love.
Today I ask that You give to these Your leaders, the ability to recognize that the day is full of promise.
In their conversations and discussions,
I ask that Your Spirit give them harmony and unity.
Yes, there will be differences of perspective and opinion, but help them to remember that if everyone sang the same note, there wouldn't be any harmony.
In 2 Chronicles, Your Word admonishes
"...the hand of God was on the people to give them unity of mind to carry out what the king and his officials had ordered, following the word of the Lord."
It is this spirit of unity that I ask You to bestow upon these leaders today.
Amen.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Wilson are spread upon the Journal:

Good morning, colleagues. This year we are committed to using the House Health Committee as an opportunity to educate all of us here in the Kansas Legislature about health and health-related issues. Today we want to draw your attention to an important aspect of health policy: oral health and access to dental care.

Oral health is essential to overall health. Anything that happens in our mouth can affect our entire body. Untreated dental problems can lead to major medical problems, such as heart disease, diabetes, and stroke.

Unfortunately, the state of Kansas has a shortage of dental providers. Currently 87 of our 105 counties are classified as dentally underserved. Children, the elderly, those with disabilities, and those with KanCare insurance or no insurance face additional challenges to access dental care.

Today, over 160 dental health professionals, service providers, and advocates join us in the Kansas Statehouse to raise awareness of the importance of access to dental care. They are here because they are passionate about making sure that every Kansan can get the oral health care that they need to be healthy.

The Kansas Dental Project's Advocacy Day is an opportunity for them to visit with their elected officials about the importance of access to dental care for every Kansan in every part of our state. We are glad that they are here, we appreciate their message, and we commend them for their advocacy.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNORMESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR REGARDING COMPACT WITH TRIBAL NATION

In consultation with the Attorney General and the Department of Revenue, and pursuant to my authority under Article 1, Section 3 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I have entered into the following Compact:

Compact Relating to Cigarette and Tobacco Sales, Taxation and Escrow Collection with the Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas as of December 21, 2016.

I hereby give notice of this executive action and transmit the Compact to the Legislature for the required approval pursuant to applicable law.

Dated: January 24, 2017

SAM BROWNBACK
Governor of Kansas

COMPACT RELATING TO CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO SALES, TAXATION AND ESCROW COLLECTION

THIS COMPACT RELATING TO CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO SALES, TAXATION AND ESCROW COLLECTION (“Compact”) is entered into between the Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas (along with its agencies, boards, commissions and political subdivisions, the “Tribe”) and the State of Kansas (along with its agencies, boards, commissions and political subdivisions, the “State”). The Tribe and the State are each referred to herein as a “Party” and collectively referred to herein as the “Parties.”

Recitals

WHEREAS, the Tribe is a federally-recognized Indian tribe possessing and exercising inherent sovereign powers of self-government, as defined and recognized by treaties, federal laws and federal court decisions, and that it has responsibilities and needs similar to other governments;

WHEREAS, the State is a state within the United States of America possessing and exercising full powers of state government, as defined and recognized by the United States Constitution, federal laws, federal court decisions, the Kansas Constitution, State laws and State court decisions, and that it has responsibilities and needs similar to other governments;

WHEREAS, both the State and the Tribe recognize that pursuant to applicable law each is a sovereign with dominion over their respective territories and governments and that entry into this Compact is not intended nor shall it be construed to cause the sovereignty of either to be diminished;

WHEREAS, the Tribe is situated on and occupies a federally-established Indian Reservation situated within the borders of the State;

WHEREAS, federal law recognizes that tribal jurisdiction exists on Qualified Tribe Lands regarding the rights of the Tribe to pass its own laws and be governed by them;

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of both the State and the Tribe to prevent disputes between the Parties regarding possession, transport, distribution, and Sale of Cigarettes and other Tobacco Products, including but not limited to taxation and escrow collection, in the State of Kansas, on Compact Lands;

WHEREAS, each of the State and the Tribe recognize the financial, cultural, educational, and economic contributions of the other;

WHEREAS, each of the State and the Tribe respects the sovereignty of the other, and recognizes and supports the other's governmental responsibilities to provide for and govern its citizens, members and territory; the State recognizes the Tribe's inherent sovereign right to existence, self-government and self-determination; and the Tribe recognizes the State's inherent sovereign right to existence, self-government and self-determination;

WHEREAS, the Parties are of the opinion that cooperation between the Tribe and the State is mutually productive and beneficial and recognize the need to develop and maintain good Tribal-State governmental relations;

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the State to continue to reduce the financial burdens imposed on the State by Cigarette smoking and that said costs continue to be borne by Tobacco Product Manufacturers rather than by the State to the extent that such Tobacco Product Manufacturers either determine to enter into a settlement with the State or are found culpable by the courts;

WHEREAS, on November 23, 1998, the State became party to the MSA;

WHEREAS, certain Tobacco Product Manufacturers, which are party to the MSA, are obligated, in return for a release of past, present and certain future claims against them as described therein, to pay substantial sums to State (tied in part to their volume of Sales); to fund a national foundation devoted to the interests of public health; and to make substantial changes in their advertising and marketing practices and corporate culture, with the intention of reducing underage smoking;

WHEREAS, it would be contrary to the policy of State if Tobacco Product Manufacturers who determine not to enter into such a settlement could use a resulting cost advantage to derive large, short-term profits in the years before liability may arise without ensuring that State will have an eventual source of recovery from them if they are proven to have acted culpably;

WHEREAS, the State entered into a Secondary Settlement Agreement with certain participating Tobacco Product Manufacturers in 2012 settling State's obligations under the MSA and disputes regarding certain payment adjustments under the MSA with respect to NPMs (as that term is defined below) for calendar years 2003-2012;

WHEREAS, as part of said Secondary Settlement Agreement, State has agreed to undertake certain diligent enforcement efforts of its Cigarette and other Tobacco Product laws and more specifically, its MSA laws on Qualified Tribal Lands within the borders of State;

WHEREAS, State recognizes the importance to State of forming an alliance with Tribe to assist State in its diligent enforcement efforts;

WHEREAS, State further recognizes that the Tribe will incur certain economic costs in assisting State in its diligent enforcement efforts which Tribe should not be required to endure;

WHEREAS, it is altogether just and proper that State compensate the Tribe for its assistance to State in State's diligent enforcement obligation under the MSA and the Secondary Settlement Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the State and the Tribe agree that it will serve the interests of both the State and the Tribe for the Tribe to be able to generate revenue for governmental purposes through the collection of certain Tribal taxes in accordance with this Compact and resolve their differences regarding the State's collection of escrow on certain Cigarettes Sold on Compact Lands.

Subject to the prior full execution by the Parties, ratification by Tribe's Tribal Business Council by written resolution, and approval by State Legislature and publication in the Kansas Register, this Compact shall become effective on July 1, 2017 (the "Effective Date").

Section 3.02. Term.

(a) This Compact shall have an initial term of ten (10) years subject to automatic renewal for successive ten (10) year terms absent a requested revision in writing by any Party on or before August 1 in the calendar year prior to calendar year of the expiration of the then-current term. The Parties shall negotiate such requested revisions in good faith for a period ending fifteen (15) days before expiration of the then current term; provided, however, that if the Parties are not able to reach agreement on such requested revisions by such date, the Parties may agree to extend the then-current term beyond the expiration date for so long as the Parties agree that further negotiations are warranted; provided, further, that following expiration of the initial or any extended negotiation period, either Party may provide written notice of termination of the Compact effective on the later to occur of the expiration date of the then-current term or two Business Days following the date of delivery of such written notice of termination without giving effect to any extension agreed to by the Parties. (b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Compact to the contrary, in the event that State is subject to a final, binding arbitration award or decision of a court of competent jurisdiction that the State is non-compliant or has violated the terms of the MSA or Secondary Settlement Agreement due to State's compliance with its obligations under this Compact, the Parties shall attempt to negotiate amendments to this Compact for a period of not less than 90 days following State's written notice to Tribe of State's desire to initiate such negotiations. The Parties acknowledge that the purpose of such negotiations would be to amend the Compact in a manner acceptable to the Parties that would permit the State to comply with the terms and provisions of this Compact, the MSA, and the Secondary Settlement Agreement. If the Parties are unable to negotiate such amendments within such negotiation period, the State may terminate this Compact upon two weeks' prior written notice to the Tribe. Termination of this Compact pursuant to this Section 3.02(b) shall not be subject to the dispute resolution provisions of Article VII.

(c) In the event that the State is no longer subject to, or elects to withdraw from or cease performing under, the MSA and the Secondary Settlement Agreement, the Tribe and the State may jointly agree in writing to terminate this Compact prior to the expiration of the then-current term. If there is any modification to relevant State law or final judicial determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that negates the escrow deposit obligations pursuant to the Escrow Statutes, the State may terminate this Compact at any time thereafter by providing thirty days' written notice to the Tribe.

(d) In the event a federal Court of last appeal makes a final determination that the 1862 Treaty did not diminish the reservation boundaries as set forth in the Treaty with the Kickapoo of May 15, 1854, (10 Stat. 1078), the Parties shall attempt to negotiate amendments to this Compact for a period of not less than sixty (60) days following Tribe's written notice to initiate such negotiations. Section 5.01. Exercise of Tax Jurisdiction.

(a) The Tribe shall have the sole right to impose, collect, and retain Sales taxes and excise taxes on transactions conducted by Licensed Retailers and Licensed Distributors involving Cigarettes and other Tobacco Products ultimately Sold to Consumers by Licensed Retailers on Compact Lands. Further, the Tribe shall have the sole obligation hereunder to impose Sales taxes and excise taxes on such transactions to the extent described herein. With respect to such Cigarettes or other Tobacco Products, the State shall not impose any Sales tax, excise tax, privilege tax, use tax, other tax, licensing fee, user fee or other fee at any point in the stream of commerce:

- (i) where the legal incidence of any such tax or fee falls on any such Consumer; or
- (ii) which, if passed through in whole or in part to any such Licensed Retailer or Licensed Distributor, would have the effect of increasing such Licensed Retailer's or Licensed Distributor's cost of goods Sold; provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, such restrictions shall not apply to escrow payments, directory fees, or any bond required under the Escrow Statutes with respect to such Cigarettes. The State shall take no affirmative action to enable or authorize any other individual or entity to take any action which, if taken directly by the State, would violate this Section 5.01(a).

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 5.01(c) to the contrary, the Tribe shall levy upon the consensual Sale of Cigarettes by a Licensed Retailer to a Consumer on Compact Lands a tax computed as a percentage of the actual Sales price thereof exclusive of any rebates. For purposes of the preceding sentence, such Sales tax shall be levied at a rate no lower than the lowest of (i) five percent (5%), or (ii) the Kansas Sales tax rate in effect at the time of such Sale less 1.5%; provided, however, that the fixed amount computed pursuant to this Section 5.01(b) shall not be less than $0.00. Nothing in this Compact shall prohibit the Tribe, in its sole discretion, from levying Sales tax on such Sales at a rate higher than that required in the preceding sentence.

(c) Subject to Section 5.01(d), the Tribe shall levy upon the consensual Sale of Cigarettes on Compact Lands an excise tax computed from time to time as a fixed amount per Carton of Cigarettes or fractional part thereof. Nothing in this Compact shall prohibit the Tribe, at its sole discretion, from levying excise tax on such Cigarettes in an amount higher than that required in the preceding sentence. Such excise tax shall be paid only once and shall be imposed on and paid by the Licensed Distributor which Sells Cigarettes to a Licensed Retailer for Sale to Consumers on Compact Lands. For the avoidance of doubt, the Tribe shall not be required to levy such excise tax on any Sale of Cigarettes where the Licensed Distributor intends to Sell such Cigarettes outside Compact Lands.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Compact to the contrary, the Tribe shall levy upon the consensual Sale of roll-your-own tobacco on Compact Lands an excise tax of not less than 1% of the wholesale Sale price of such roll-your-own tobacco. The State shall produce, or cause to be produced, and deliver to the Tribe all such indicia as may be required for Tribe to comply with its obligations hereunder, including but not limited to Tribe's obligations pursuant to Section 4.01(a)(vi). The State shall cause said stamps to be produced and the cost split equally with the Tribe. (b) For purposes of this Compact, the Parties agree that the following shall constitute contraband:

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Compact to the contrary, any Cigarette in the possession of a Licensed Distributor with premises on Compact Lands or which are in transit, with proper bills of lading showing shipment from the relevant Tobacco Product Manufacturer or its importer to a Licensed Distributor with premises on Compact Lands, but in either case not bearing indicia of payment of excise tax pursuant to Section 5.02(a), or for which tax has not been paid pursuant to Section 5.01(d), shall be deemed not to be a common nuisance or contraband pursuant to State law and not subject to seizure, forfeiture, confiscation or destruction pursuant to State law or process, in each case on grounds of non-payment of State excise tax, if the related Tobacco Product Manufacturer is an Approved Manufacturer.

(d) Any Tobacco Product, other than Cigarettes, which is in the possession of a Licensed Distributor with premises on Compact Lands or is in transit, with proper bills of lading showing shipment from the relevant manufacturer or its importer to a Licensed Distributor with premises on Compact Lands, but in either case not bearing indicia of payment of excise tax pursuant to Section 5.02(a), or for which tax has not been paid pursuant to Section 5.01(d), shall be deemed not to be a common nuisance or contraband pursuant to State law and not subject to seizure, forfeiture, confiscation or destruction pursuant to State law or process, in each case on grounds of non-payment of any State tax.

(e) Any Tobacco Product, other than Cigarettes described in Section 5.02(c), in the possession of a Consumer which a Consumer can demonstrate was purchased from a Licensed Retailer, shall be deemed not to be a common nuisance or contraband pursuant to State law and not subject to seizure, forfeiture, confiscation or destruction pursuant to State law or process on grounds of non-payment of any State tax.

(f) In the event KSAG or KDOR has actual knowledge that any Pack of Cigarettes described in Section 5.02(c) or (d) or any Tobacco Product described in Section 5.02(e) is seized or confiscated under color of State law or process as in effect from time to time, then KSAG or KDOR, as applicable, shall transmit written notice of such seizure or confiscation to the Tribe within two Business Days of first acquiring such actual knowledge.

(g) Notwithstanding any provision of this Compact to the contrary, the possession, gift, or use on Qualified Tribe Lands of noncommercial privately produced tobacco for religious or ceremonial use shall be exempt from taxation by State and may be exempt from taxation by Tribe. Such tobacco shall be deemed not to be a common nuisance or contraband pursuant to State law and not subject to seizure, forfeiture, confiscation or destruction as a common nuisance or contraband pursuant to State law or process, in each case on grounds of non-payment of any State tax. For purposes of this Section 5.02(h), “tobacco” shall mean any plant, including parts or products thereof, within the genus Nicotiana and which does not constitute a “controlled substance” within the meaning of 21 U.S.C. § 802(6).

ARTICLE VI

AUDITS AND INSPECTIONS

Section 6.01. Purpose. The purpose of this Article VI is to provide a process for regular verification of the requirements of this Compact. The verification process is intended to reconcile data from all sources that make up the stamping, Selling, and taxing activities under this Compact.

Section 6.02. Tribe to Contract with Third Party Auditor. The Tribe and the State agree that, for purposes of verifying compliance with this Compact, the Tribe will contract with and retain an independent third party auditor (the “Auditor”). The Tribe and the State shall each bear fifty percent (50%) of the costs of the auditing services. The Tribe and the State shall be entitled to freely communicate with the Auditor; provided, however, that all information provided to the State by Auditor shall be provided directly to KDOR. The Tribe shall select the Auditor, subject to the approval of the KSAG; provided, further, that such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, further, that the Tribe's selection of any Auditor possessing a valid Kansas Permit to Practice issued by the Kansas Board of Accountancy shall be deemed approved by the KSAG. The Auditor will review records on an annual calendar year basis to issue an annual report and certification as provided in this Article VI.

Section 6.03. Audit Protocol. To verify compliance with this Compact, the Auditor must adhere to the following protocol:

(a) Period Under Review. The Auditor must review records for the calendar year under audit and may review records for earlier years that are after the Effective Date but only as necessary for an internal reconciliation of the relevant books. Subject to the foregoing, records relating to any period before the Effective Date are not open to review. In situations where the Auditor is responsible for verifying records on less than an annual basis, the period under review shall not include years previously reviewed by the Auditor, except when a violation is alleged to have occurred during the period previously reviewed.

(b) Records to be Examined. The Auditor must review Tribal Tax Department books and records for records and invoices of stamp purchases, records and invoice of Sales of stamped Cigarettes, stamp inventory, the stamping process, products Sold, product inventory records, and such additional records as are necessary to verify (1) the Units Sold, (2) the retail Selling price, including application of Tribal Sales and excise taxes, and (3) procedures demonstrating Tribe's compliance with Sections 4.01 and 5.01 of this Compact, all with respect to Sales of Cigarettes by Licensed Retailers on Compact Lands. In all situations, the Auditor is not responsible for examining, and shall not examine, records that do not relate to the stamping, Selling, or taxing activities of the Tribe, any Tribal Affiliate, or Tribe's licensees, unless a review of the records is necessary to an internal reconciliation of the books of the Tribe, any such Tribal Affiliate or any such licensee.

(c) Audit Standard. Each audit performed pursuant to this Article VI shall be performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Section 6.04. Audit Report and Certification. After each annual audit, the Auditor shall issue to KDOR and the Tribe an audit report and a certification, as further described below, with respect to compliance with this Compact. The annual audit report shall set forth the total Units Sold attributable to each Tobacco Product Manufacturer by Licensed Retailers on Compact Lands during the relevant period. The annual audit report shall also include a certified statement of the Auditor to the KDOR that the Auditor finds the Tribe to be in compliance with Sections 4.01 and 5.01 of this Compact or else that the Tribe is in compliance except for specifically listed items that are explained in the annual report.

Section 6.05. Audit Schedule. Audit reviews shall take place following each calendar year (or portion thereof) during the term of this Compact, with an audit report submitted no later than April 1 following such calendar year.

Section 6.06. Joint Audit Implementation and Review. The Tribe and the State shall meet jointly with the Auditor prior to the beginning of each annual audit. The purpose of such meeting will be to discuss the objectives of the upcoming audit, the expectations of the Tribe and of the State, the standards to be used in such audit, and any issues regarding conduct of the audit, records pertinent to the audit or the contents of the Auditor's report. Subsequent meetings before and during the audit may be held as required. As soon as practicable after the issuance of the Auditor's report and certification, the Tribe and the State may meet jointly with the Auditor as often as required to review the audit report and discuss any issue of concern. In the event that either the Tribe or the State disagrees with the Auditor's report or certification, or any audit finding contained therein, either Party may notify the other of the disagreement and follow the procedures for resolution of the disagreement in Article VII of this Compact.

Section 6.07. Inspections.

(a) The Parties agree that, subject to the requirements and limitations of this Section 6.07, agents or employees of the Tribal Tax Department and agents or employees of KSAG and/or KDOR will conduct joint inspections of Licensed Retailers and Licensed Distributors located on Compact Lands. In connection with any such joint inspection, the Tribe shall permit such agents or employees of the Tribe and agents or employees of KSAG and/or KDOR to review all documentation collected and maintained by the Tribal Tax Department pursuant to Section 4.01(b) and Section 4.01(d).

The agents or employees of the Tribe and agents or employees of KSAG and/or KDOR shall agree to a random sampling methodology for each joint inspection based on generally recognized valid and reliable sampling techniques. The Parties further agree such joint inspections shall not involve complete audits or complete inventories but shall be limited to random sample inspections of stock, tax indicia, and documentation on hand at the premises of a Licensed Retailer or Licensed Distributor, as applicable, for the purposes of verifying that all Cigarettes offered or intended for Sale by any Licensed Retailer on Compact Lands (i) are solely brands of Approved Manufacturers, (ii) were acquired from a Licensed Distributor, and (iii) bear indicia of payment of excise tax to the extent required in Section 5.02. In any event, such joint inspections shall not be disruptive of the business operations of any Licensed Retailer or Licensed Distributor.

(b) The State reserves the right hereunder to initiate and participate in up to twelve joint inspections described in Section 6.07(a) per calendar year, with a limit of up to two (2) such joint inspection per calendar month; provided, however, that joint inspections of any one or more separate premises on the same Business Day shall only constitute one "joint inspection" for purposes of the preceding limitations; provided, further, that if the State and Tribe inspection team notes any violations of this Compact by one or more Licensed Retailers or Licensed Distributors during any such joint inspection, the State may initiate, by giving notice in accordance with Section 6.07(c), one follow-up joint inspection with the Tribe of all premises involved in such violations on a subsequent Business Day following the earlier of notice of completed cure or conclusion of any cure period pursuant to Section 7.01(a) related to such violations, with such follow-up joint inspection not counting against the monthly or annual limits set forth in this sentence.

(c) The Tribe shall make its personnel available for joint inspections permitted hereunder on a Business Day between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. upon prior email notice to the Tribe transmitted by a representative of the State by 10:00 a.m. one Business Day prior to the requested inspection. State representatives and Tribal representatives shall coordinate the details of the joint inspection by 3:00 p.m. on the day of such email notice. ARTICLE VII

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 7.01. General.

(a) In the event Tribe is in default of its obligations pursuant to Section 4.01, Article V or Article VI of this Compact, Tribe shall cure such default within thirty days following receipt of written notice of such default from the State. The Tribe or its representatives shall promptly provide written notice of completion of such cure to State. In the event Tribe does not cure such default, the State may initiate dispute resolution procedures in accordance with the remainder of Article VII of this Compact.

(b) For purposes of this Article VII, each of the State and the Tribe may be referred to as a “Dispute Party.” Each Dispute Party warrants that it will use its best efforts to negotiate an amicable resolution of any and all disagreements, controversies or claims between any or all Tribal Claim Parties and the State (each, a “Dispute”) arising out of or in connection with this Compact (including without limitation claims relating to the validity, construction, performance, breach and/or termination of this Compact). Negotiation pursuant to this Section 7.01(b) shall be commenced by one Dispute Party providing written notice to the other Dispute Party of the existence of a Dispute. The written notice shall provide a concise summary of the nature of the Dispute. Promptly following delivery of any such written notice, and in no event later than thirty (30) days following such delivery, the Governor of the State of Kansas and the Tribe’s Chairperson, or their respective designees, shall commence good faith negotiations to resolve such Dispute(s). If the Dispute Parties are unable to negotiate an amicable resolution of any such Dispute within thirty (30) days following such commencement of good faith negotiations or such longer time period as the Dispute Parties may mutually agree in writing, either Dispute Party may submit the matter to arbitration for final resolution. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Compact to the contrary, either Dispute Party may immediately commence arbitration proceedings for the purpose of seeking emergency relief pursuant to the Rules addressing “Emergency Measures of Protection.”

Section 7.02. Arbitration.

(a) Initiation; Selection of Panel. Subject to the requirements of Section 7.01, arbitration may be initiated by either Dispute Party by serving written notice to the other Dispute Party and by complying with the requirements of the Rules. Within seven days following initiation of the arbitration proceedings, each Dispute Party shall notify the other Dispute Party and the AAA of its disinterested and independent nominee for an arbitrator. If the Dispute Parties agree upon the nomination of a single arbitrator for the Dispute within ten days following initiation of arbitration, such nominee shall serve as sole arbitrator of the Dispute. If the Dispute Parties do not agree to a single arbitrator, the arbitration panel shall consist of three disinterested and independent arbitrators. In that event, the two arbitrators nominated by the Dispute Parties shall nominate the third disinterested and independent arbitrator to serve with them. In the event the two arbitrators fail for any reason to name the third arbitrator within seven days, the AAA shall name the third arbitrator. In any event, such third arbitrator shall serve as chairperson of the arbitration panel. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Rules shall govern the selection and number of arbitrators for any Dispute governed by the Emergency Measures of Protection or Expedited Procedures provisions of the Rules, or both.

(b) Rules; Federal Question; Choice of Law. Except as the Dispute Parties may subsequently agree otherwise in writing, the arbitration shall be conducted and enforced in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures (the “Rules”) of the (“AAA”), as such Rules may be modified by this Compact, the Federal Arbitration Act, and to the extent not preempted by the Federal Arbitration Act, the Kansas Uniform Arbitration Act. The Parties agree and acknowledge that judicial resolution and enforcement of any Dispute or a settlement or arbitration decision issued hereunder with respect thereto, involves questions of federal law. The law governing any Dispute shall be limited to applicable federal law, the common law of the United States, and Kansas law, in that order and without reference to internal conflicts of laws principles.

(c) Proceedings. Any arbitration shall be conducted at a place designated by the arbitration panel in Topeka, Kansas or any other location as the Dispute Parties may mutually agree in writing. Except for proceedings governed by the Rules on “Emergency Measures of Protection” or by the “Expedited Procedures” contemplated by the Rules, if applicable, the arbitration panel shall commence proceedings within 30 days of appointment of the final arbitrator, and hold proceedings providing each Dispute Party a fair opportunity to present its side of the Dispute, together with any documents or other evidence relevant to resolution of the Dispute. The arbitration decision shall be final and binding upon the Parties unless, during or following completion of the arbitration proceedings, the Dispute Parties have met and arrived at a different settlement of the Dispute. The arbitrators shall have the power to grant equitable or injunctive relief and specific performance of this Compact. The arbitrators shall not have the power to award monetary relief, including damages, penalties, or costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, to the extent not otherwise expressly permitted by the terms of this Compact. The Parties and the arbitrators shall maintain strict confidentiality with respect to the arbitration.

(d) Expenses. The reasonable expenses of Dispute resolution shall be paid equally by the Dispute Parties, who shall also pay their own expenses; provided, however, that any Dispute Party who (1) fails or refuses to submit to arbitration following a proper demand by any other Dispute Party, or (2) fails or refuses to voluntarily comply with the terms of any settlement or arbitration decision issued hereunder, shall bear all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by such other Dispute Party in compelling arbitration of any Dispute or enforcing any settlement or arbitration decision.

(e) Enforcement. If enforcement of a settlement or arbitration decision becomes necessary by reason of failure of one or more Parties to implement its terms voluntarily, or if one of the Dispute Parties refuses to participate in arbitration as provided in this Section 7.02 and the other Dispute Party seeks enforcement of any provision of this Compact, the Parties agree that, subject to the limited waivers of sovereign immunity contained herein, the matter may be resolved by judicial resolution and enforcement and that venue for judicial resolution and enforcement shall be in the United States District Court for Kansas pursuant to the specific provisions of this Compact, in any other court of competent jurisdiction, and in any other court having appellate jurisdiction over any such court. In any such proceeding, service on any Dispute Party shall be effective if made by certified mail, return receipt requested to the address set forth in or otherwise designated pursuant to Section 8.06.

Section 7.03. Limited Waivers by Tribe. The Tribe hereby waives its sovereign immunity, its right to require exhaustion of tribal remedies, and its right to seek tribal remedies with respect to any Dispute, effective only if the Tribe fails to implement the terms of a settlement or arbitration decision voluntarily or refuses to participate in arbitration, and subject to the following specific limitations:

(1) Limitation of Claims. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall encompass (A) claims which seek monetary relief for direct damages attributable to Tribe's breach of this Compact and for costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the limited extent provided in Section 7.02(d), (B) claims for equitable remedies, and (C) actions to compel Dispute resolution by arbitration or for enforcement of a settlement or arbitration decision as provided in this Article VII. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Compact to the contrary, such limited waiver shall in no event extend to or encompass claims which seek indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive, exemplary or reliance damages (including, without limitation, lost or anticipated revenues, lost business opportunities or lost Sales or profits, whether or not any Party has been advised of the likelihood of such damages) against Tribe or any Tribal Affiliate, and neither Tribe nor any Tribal Affiliate shall be liable for any such damages.

(2) Time Period. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall commence upon the Effective Date of this Compact and shall continue until the date of its termination or cancellation pursuant to the terms of this Compact, except that the limited waiver shall remain effective for any proceedings then pending or initiated within 180 days following termination of this Compact for breach, and all permitted appeals therefrom.

(3) Recipient of Waiver. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 is granted to and for the sole benefit of the State, and may not be assigned or granted to any other individual or entity.

(4) No Revocation. The Tribe agrees not to revoke its limited waiver of sovereign immunity contained in this Section 7.03. In the event of any such revocation, the State may, at its option, declare this Compact terminated for breach by the Tribe.

(5) Limitation Upon Damages. Any monetary award or awards against the Tribe shall be limited, in the aggregate, to an amount equal to total tax revenues and gross profits actually received by the Tribe or Tribal Affiliates attributable to the Sale of Cigarettes during the term of this Compact.

(6) Credit of the Tribe and Tribal Affiliates. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 7.03, the limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall not implicate or in any way involve the credit of the Tribe or any Tribal Affiliate.

Section 7.04. Limited Waiver by State. The State hereby waives its sovereign immunity, effective only if the State fails to implement the terms of a settlement or arbitration decision voluntarily or refuses to participate in arbitration pursuant to this Compact, subject to the following specific limitations:

(1) Limitation of Claims. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall encompass (A) claims which seek monetary relief for direct damages attributable to State's breach of this Compact and for costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the limited extent provided in Section 7.02(d), (B) claims for equitable remedies, and (C) actions to compel Dispute resolution by arbitration or for enforcement of a settlement or arbitration decision as provided in this Article VII. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Compact to the contrary, such limited waiver shall in no event extend to or encompass claims which seek indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive, exemplary or reliance damages (including, without limitation, lost or anticipated revenues, lost business opportunities or lost Sales or profits, whether or not any Party has been advised of the likelihood of such damages) against the State, and the State shall not be liable for any such damages.

(2) Time Period. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall commence upon the Effective Date of this Compact and shall continue until the later of the date of its termination or cancellation pursuant to the terms of this Compact or the date on which the State has no surviving obligations pursuant to Section 8.02 and no surviving payment obligations pursuant to Section 4.02(a), except that the limited waiver shall remain effective for any proceedings pending on such date or initiated within 180 days following termination of this Compact for breach, and all permitted appeals therefrom.

(3) Recipient of Waiver. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.04 is granted to and for the sole benefit of the Tribe (for itself and the other Tribal Claim Parties), and may not be assigned or granted to any other individual or entity.

(4) No Revocation. The State agrees not to revoke its limited waiver of sovereign immunity contained in this Section 7.04. In the event of any such revocation, the Tribe may, at its option, declare this Compact terminated for breach by the State.

(5) Limitation Upon Damages. Any monetary award or awards against the State shall be limited, in the aggregate, to an amount equal to total tax revenues and gross profits actually received by the Tribe or Tribal Affiliates attributable to the Sale of Cigarettes during the term of this Compact.

Section 8.04. Most-Favored Nation. The State agrees that Tribe may propose an amendment to this Compact by written notice to the State based upon any provision of a compact permitted by Section 8.01 which Tribe desires to include as a provision in this Compact. If the State Legislature does not approve such proposed amendment at the legislative session next following the Tribe's request for such amendment, Tribe may terminate this Compact at any time thereafter by providing thirty days' written notice to State.

Section 8.05. Construction.

(a) Each Party has received independent legal advice from its attorney(s) of choice and neither Party shall be deemed the author or drafter of this Compact. Therefore, any rule or canon of construction (whether pertaining to contracts, statutes, treaties or otherwise) that, in the case of an ambiguity, such ambiguity is construed against the author or drafter is not applicable. Accordingly, any statutory or judicial rules or canon concerning the construction of vague or ambiguous terms (whether pertaining to contracts, statutes, treaties or otherwise) that might otherwise be used in the interpretation or enforcement of this Compact, including construction of ambiguities either in favor of or against a state or Indian Tribe, is not applicable to this Compact and shall not obtain to the benefit or detriment of any Party, nor shall the terms and conditions of this Compact be extended by implication to the benefit or detriment of any Party, it being the intent of the Parties that the construction of this Compact shall be controlled by its express terms and not by implication.

REPORT ON ENROLLED RESOLUTIONS

HR 6005 reported correctly enrolled and properly signed on January 27, 2017.

On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, January 30, 2017.

Journal of the House

FIFTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, January 30, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Reps. Dove, Kiegerl, Schwab and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Gracious Loving & Protective God,
Thank you for this new day –
the beginning of a new week.
Only You know what lies ahead from day to day, so help us to trust you and lean upon You for guidance.
Yesterday we celebrated the birthday of our statehood.
Throughout these 156 years, you have been faithful and have blessed this great state.
Through dust bowl, tornadoes, floods and ice storms,
You protected us.
Through momentous events such as bringing in the Santa Fe Railroad, Brown vs Board of Education, and others,
You encouraged us to be progressive thinkers.
With the establishment of Veteran's Day as a national holiday,
You gave us determination and persistence and a respect for those who give their lives to protect us.
And with the invention of the O'Henry candy bar in Arkansas City and the ICEE machine in Coffeyville, You've even helped us to remember to pause and enjoy life and not take everything so seriously.
As You have been with us in the past,
I ask that You continue to be with us in the future;
otherwise we have no hope.
In Christ's Name I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Markley.

CELEBRATION OF KANSAS DAY

In celebration of the 156th birthday of Kansas, Rep. Ballard led the members of the House in singing “Home on the Range.”

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Waymaster are spread upon the Journal:

As you all know Kansas turned 156 years old yesterday. On January 29, 1861 the territory of Kansas was admitted to the Union as the 34th state. To conclude our weekend long celebration, we have some special guests with us today who are bragging (if you will) on our state song!

As previously announced, a special film Home on the Range based on our famous song is playing today as a special premiere for legislators, staff and guests for Kansas Day here in our beautiful Capitol. The film is produced by Lone Chimney Films – a not for profit educational film company based in Kansas. It tells the story of the song, the cabin and the lawsuit that determined its origins. The film features the talents of Rance Howard (born in Dexter, KS) Buck Taylor (Newly from Gunsmoke) and our very own Mitch Holthus who grew up in Smith County near the famous cabin. His father, El Dean Holthus, raised such an awareness of the near worn-out cabin - which was even once used as a chicken coop - before more he spear headed an effort and collected over $500,000 to save this Kansas treasure which still sits upon the original site where the song was written.

Celebrating the day with us in the Capitol are some very special guests:

Ken Spurgeon is the Executive Director of Lone Chimney Films and the Director of the film. Ken is a long time educator and historian.

Shawn Bell is the President of the Board of Lone Chimney Films and a co-producer of the film.

Neil Bontrager is the President of Sperra Studios and a co-producer/editor of Home on the Range.

Orin Friesen is a member of the board of Lone Chimney Films and a co-writer and music producer for Home on the Range.

Tom Lahay-who portrayed Dr. Brewster Higley in the film.

Also joining us is Grammy winning artist Michael Martin Murphey and Cindy Tune. Mr. Murphey has been a very big supporter of the restored and treasured Cabin located in Smith County – House District #109 & Senate #36–where the famous poem “My Western Home” was penned in the 1870’s by Dr. Brewster M. Higley and later put to music by Daniel E. Kelley. Mr. Murphey is a co-founder of The Murphey Western Institute and is dedicated to preserving the arts, culture, history and legacy of the American West. He once told us at a fund raiser in Smith Center for the cabin – when he wants to relax – he comes to Kansas – to the Cabin – to the Home on the Range!

You will be able to meet our guest as they introduce the film in the Visitors Center and I encourage you to take the time if possible to see this special film which celebrates our state song that is known worldwide, we can be proud to call it a Kansas Song and the film proves it! Please join me in welcoming these guests who preserved the history of our state’s song.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Concannon are spread upon the Journal:

I can remember, as a little girl at Parsons Elementary, on the outskirts of Salina, the most excitement (for me) all year was when the art teacher arrived with a big block of clay to carefully divide amongst the students for our annual foray into the world of art, specifically sculpting. Little did I know that as I fashioned my project, the greatest ashtray ever made according to my mother, we were in the presence of greatness. You see, my art teacher, Dr. Richard Bergen, is the sculptor of our Ad Astra that sits atop our Capitol dome. Although he is originally from New Jersey, he is truly a notable Kansan. He won the opportunity to place his sculpture atop the Capitol, and when the state had no money and denied its placement, he didn't let that small detail get in the way. He initiated a fund raising campaign and followed through for years, until Ad Astra was successfully mounted atop the Capitol. He continues to work in his Salina studio with his son Rich Bergen, who also joins us today. So today as we celebrate Kansas Day, we also honor this man who has played a significant role in Kansas history through his beautiful depiction of our state in his artwork. We thank you Dr. Bergen!

Rep. Concannon presented Dr. Bergen and his son, Rich, with House certificates and Ad Astra lapel pins.

HCR 5007-- A PROPOSITION to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new article thereto, prescribing certain limits upon assessments, revenues and expenditures by the state and establishing a budget stabilization fund and a debt prepayment fund in the state treasury.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: The constitution of the state of Kansas is amended by adding a new article 16 to read as follows:

"Article 16. – REVENUE, ASSESSMENT AND EXPENDITURE LIMITATIONS

"§ 1. Definitions. As used within this article:

(a) "State" means the state government including all branches, state offices, authorities, agencies, boards, commissions, institutions, instrumentalities and any division or unit of state government that are directly supported with tax funds;

(b) "bond" means any bond, note, debenture, interim certificate, grant and revenue anticipation note, lease-purchase agreement, lease certificate of participation or other evidence of indebtedness that, in any such case, is entered into or establishes a debt obligation for longer than one fiscal year, whether or not the interest on such is subject to federal income taxation;

(c) "fiscal year" means the twelve-month fiscal period prescribed by law for the state;

(d) "fiscal year spending" means all expenditures and reserve increases except, as to both:

- (1) Expenditures for refunds of any kind;
- (2) expenditures of moneys received from the federal government, moneys received as grants, gifts or donations that are to be expended for purposes specified by the donor, moneys that are collections for another government, moneys received for pension contributions by employees and pension fund earnings; or

(3) budget stabilization reserve fund transfers, debt prepayment fund transfers, or expenditures in accordance with this article;

(e) "inflation" means the average changes in the consumer price index for all urban consumers as published by the United States department of labor for the preceding five calendar years, which shall not be less than zero;

(f) "population" means the more recent of either the periodic census conducted by the United States department of commerce or its successor agency, or the annual update of such census as prescribed by the legislature by law, which shall be adjusted every decade to match the federal decennial census;

(g) "total state revenue" means all moneys received by the state from any source, except any of the following:

(1) Moneys received for grants, gifts or donations that are to be expended for purposes specified by the donor;

(2) moneys received from the federal government; and

(3) moneys that are income earned on moneys in permanent endowment funds, trust funds, deferred compensation funds or pension funds and that are credited to such funds.

"§ 2. Supermajority for passage of certain bills for new or increased taxes. On and after July 1, 2019, a supermajority of two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill enacting or amending any law creating any new state tax or increasing the rate of any existing state income tax, sales tax, compensating use tax or other excise tax or a tax in the nature of an excise tax, property tax, or tax in the nature of a property tax, or estate or inheritance tax, or a tax in the nature of an estate or inheritance tax, or any combination thereof.

"§ 3. Spending and revenue limits. (a) Except as provided by this section, for any fiscal year that commences on or after July 1, 2019, fiscal year spending by the state shall not increase above the fiscal year spending for the preceding fiscal year by more than the maximum percentage increase determined pursuant to this section. The maximum percentage increase in fiscal year spending for a fiscal year shall be equal to the result obtained by adding the rate of inflation for the calendar year ending during the preceding fiscal year, plus the percentage change in state population during the calendar year ending during the preceding fiscal year, if a positive number, adjusted for revenue changes resulting from acts enacted in accordance with section 2 of this article. The limitation imposed on fiscal year spending shall not apply to expenditures of moneys transferred to the state general fund from the budget stabilization fund or the debt prepayment fund pursuant to section 4 of this article.

(b) For any fiscal year that commences on or after July 1, 2019, the total state revenue limitation shall be determined in accordance with this section. If the amount of the total state revenue for the preceding fiscal year exceeds the amount of total state revenue for the second preceding fiscal year, the total state revenue limitation for a fiscal year shall be the result obtained by adding: (1) The lesser of: (A) The amount of total state revenue for the preceding fiscal year; or (B) the amount of the total state revenue limitation for the preceding fiscal year; and (2) the product of: (A) The amount determined under clause (1) of this subsection; and (B) the sum of: (i) The rate of inflation for the calendar year ending during the preceding fiscal year; plus (ii) the percentage change in state population during the calendar year ending during the preceding fiscal year, if a positive number.

(c) No increase to the limitation imposed on fiscal year spending by this section may be authorized, unless the proposed law for increasing the spending limitation on a fiscal year first be submitted to a direct vote of the electors of the state at some general election, and, if such proposed law shall be ratified by a majority of all the votes cast at such general election, then the legislature next after such general election may enact such law and increase such fiscal year spending limitation.

(d) The legislature may enact laws to carry out the purposes of this section.

"§ 4. Budget stabilization fund and debt prepayment fund. (a) On July 1, 2019, a budget stabilization fund and a debt prepayment fund shall be established and maintained in the state treasury.

(b) For any fiscal year that commences on or after July 1, 2019, if the total state revenue exceeds the total fiscal year spending for that fiscal year, then, on July 1 of the ensuing fiscal year, such excess amount shall be transferred according to the following priority:

(1) To the budget stabilization fund, until the balance of such fund is an amount equal to 50% of the total state general fund spending for the preceding fiscal year; and

(2) to the debt prepayment fund, until the total amount of principal of bonded indebtedness serviced by appropriations from the state general fund equals 5% of the total state general fund spending for the preceding fiscal year.

(c) The legislature may provide, by law, for additional amounts of state revenue to be deposited in the budget stabilization fund and the debt prepayment fund.

(d) Any amount required to be maintained in the ending balance of the state general fund as provided by law shall be excluded from the amount available for transfer to the budget stabilization fund or debt prepayment fund.

(e) (1) Moneys in the budget stabilization fund may be invested as provided by law and the earnings thereon shall be retained in the budget stabilization fund as provided by law.

(2) Moneys in the debt prepayment fund may be invested as provided by law and the earnings thereon shall be retained in the debt prepayment fund as provided by law.

(f) (1) For any fiscal year that commences on or after July 1, 2019, if the amount of the total state revenue is less than the amount of the total state revenue for the prior fiscal year, the legislature may provide by enactment of a law for the transfer of moneys from the budget stabilization fund to the state general fund in an amount equal to the lesser of:

(A) Not more than the difference between the amount of the total state revenue for the prior fiscal year and the amount of the estimated total state revenue for the current fiscal year; or

(B) 50% of the balance in the budget stabilization fund.

(2) Under no other circumstances shall moneys be transferred or expended from the budget stabilization fund.

(g) (1) Withdrawals from the debt prepayment fund may occur only to provide for calling and redeeming selected bonds for which debt service is paid by appropriations from the state general fund in accordance with their terms on or after their first optional redemption date and prior to maturity.

(2) Prior to any withdrawal from the debt prepayment fund authorized by this subsection, the governor shall be responsible for determining and selecting which bonds will produce the greatest debt service savings to the state general fund, and the attorney general shall be responsible for certifying that the selected bonds are available for optional redemption. Any withdrawal authorized by this subsection shall be provided for by law, enacted in a separate bill that does not include any other matter, except a statement that the conditions prescribed by this subsection exist, and the authority to transfer a specific amount of money from the debt prepayment fund to the state general fund for the purpose of calling and redeeming selected bonds.

(h) The legislature may enact laws to carry out the purposes of this section.

"§ 5. Disposition of excess revenues. (a) Any excess amount of total state revenues for a fiscal year that remains after the transfers to the budget stabilization fund and the debt prepayment fund pursuant to section 4 of this article, if any, shall be reserved in the current fiscal year and shall be refunded as provided by law during the next ensuing fiscal year to the taxpayers who paid the state ad valorem property taxes or state income taxes, or both, for the preceding fiscal year, in a manner that is proportional, on a pro rata basis, in the manner in which such taxes were collected from such taxpayers for such fiscal year. Any amount required to be maintained in the ending balance of the state general fund as provided by law shall be excluded from the amount available to be reserved and refunded by the state as prescribed by this section.

(b) In a case of any amount that is received pursuant to any tax and required to be reserved and refunded to taxpayers by the state pursuant to this section and that is determined by the state in the manner prescribed by law to be insufficient for refunds to be made during the ensuing fiscal year, such amount shall be reserved for refunds to be made thereafter when the amount reserved is sufficient therefor.

"§ 6. Temporary borrowing. On and after July 1, 2019, during any fiscal year, transfers that are temporary and are to be repaid, or any other temporary borrowing, through certificates of indebtedness or any other device or manner, of any moneys in the state treasury to be credited to the state general fund are prohibited, unless the moneys so transferred or otherwise borrowed are restored or repaid to the original funds or accounts of the state treasury from the state general fund within the same fiscal year. The provisions of this section do not apply to transfers from the budget stabilization fund or the debt prepayment fund to the state general fund in accordance with this article.

"§ 7. General revenue supplanting. On and after July 1, 2019, any appropriation of moneys from the state treasury that either supplants any appropriation from the state general fund, or, if not made, would require an appropriation from the state general fund is prohibited. For purposes of this section, any appropriation of moneys in the state treasury that is funded by user charges for fees imposed on goods or services provided shall not be deemed to be an appropriation that supplants any appropriation from the state general fund.

"§ 8. Construction. (a) The provisions of this article shall be liberally construed for the purpose of effectuating the purposes thereof, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to authorize any new or increased tax of any kind, other than as provided or authorized by law enacted by the legislature in accordance with and subject to the other provisions of this constitution.

(b) In any case of a conflict between any provision of this article and any other provision contained in the constitution, the provisions of this article shall control.

(c) All laws in force at the time of the adoption of this amendment and consistent therewith shall remain in full force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature. The legislature shall repeal or amend all laws inconsistent with the provisions of this article to conform with the provisions of this article."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. Beginning July 1, 2019, this amendment: (1) Would require a supermajority of $\frac{2}{3}$ of all members of the House and Senate to pass certain bills related to the creation of a new tax or the increase in the rate of an existing tax; (2) would impose spending and revenue limits on the state based on increases in the rate of inflation and population, with provisions to adjust for economic downturns or transferred functions; (3) would permit expenditures in excess of the limit imposed if authorized by a majority of the voters at a general election; (4) would provide for a budget stabilization fund to be used when state revenue declines; (5) would provide for a debt prepayment fund to be used to redeem state bonds payable from the state general fund to produce debt service savings; (6) would provide for excess state revenues, after transfers to the budget stabilization fund and debt prepayment fund, to be refunded to state property or income taxpayers; (7) would limit state temporary borrowing to that repaid within the same year and would prohibit the state from replacing general revenues with excessive fees and charges for goods and services; and (8) would govern in case of conflicts with statutes or other state constitutional provisions.

"A vote for this proposition would limit state legislative authority and would require a supermajority of $\frac{2}{3}$ of each house of the legislature for state tax increases or extensions, would impose state spending and revenue limits, would permit the legislature to exceed the spending limit upon the authorization of a majority of voters at a general election, would require excess state revenues to be reserved for economic downturns and reducing state debt, with limits, or to be refunded to taxpayers, and would limit state temporary borrowing.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the present constitutional and statutory authority for state government taxing and spending by law, for disposition of tax revenues and for other related matters in the exercise of the legislative power of this state."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2018 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at a special election.

Journal of the House

SIXTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, January 31, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Gracious God,
Today is a new day for which we are thankful—another opportunity to do and be the people and leaders You intended.
Thank You for your compassionate heart.
I ask that you give each one a relentlessness in being compassionate and to never give up.
Protect these leaders from being easily discouraged and grant them spiritual and emotional strength to endure the hard and difficult decisions they face.
Help them to eagerly trust in You and turn to You for wisdom, understanding and direction.
Bring unity and community in the midst of differing opinions and perspectives.
This I humbly ask of Your Son, Christ Jesus,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Thompson.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Clark are spread upon the Journal:

This is the 50th anniversary of the largest body of water in the State of Kansas, Milford Reservoir, near my home in Junction City. I remember as a boy going out to watch the huge equipment move dirt and large rocks to create one of the most beautiful lakes in our State. Milford is also one of the sportsman's attractions in our State and a wonderful summer vacation site. There is also a newly opened convention center and restaurant at Acorn Resort. I would encourage all Kansans, who have not been, to come and enjoy a relaxing weekend at Milford this vacation season.

Dear Father in heaven, from You comes all rule and authority over the nations of the world for the punishment of evil doers and for the praise of those who do well.

Graciously regard your servants, those who make, administer, and judge the laws of this nation, and look in mercy upon all the rulers of the earth. Grant that all who receive the sword as Your servants may bear it according to Your command. Enlighten and defend them, and grant them wisdom and understanding that under their peaceable governance Your people may be guarded and directed in righteousness, quietness, and unity. And Father on this appointed day I pray blessings and peace over us your Native American people, Father grant us the desires of our heart, according to Your will and help us to live lives that are pleasing to you Father. INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hoffman are spread upon the Journal:

Last week we honored the 2017 Kansas Teacher of the Year, today I would like to honor the 2016 South Central Kansas Special Education Cooperative Teacher of the Year, Gina Hoffman from Coldwater Kansas. In August, she received this award after being selected from more than 100 fellow nominees from around the region. I know what you are thinking, Hoffman, that rings a bell. Yes, we are related, and it's definitely special for me to recognize her this morning. Not only has Gina been my sister-in-law for the last 27 years, she is also my former band teacher.

Gina Johnson began her career in 1981 fresh out of Fort Hays State University as the Coldwater USD 300 Jr./Sr. band instructor, a position she held at Coldwater for 17 years. An excellent teacher, her students always flourished and many times her bands and students received top honors at district, regional, and state contest; During those years, it was cool to be in the band and I have so many wonderful memories of band with Miss Johnson.

In 1990 she married my oldest brother, Roy, and soon after began work to get her Masters in Early Childhood Development from again Fort Hays, which she received in 1997. Incidentally, I graduated from High School in 1990, so I don't know if it was the trauma of dealing with my class all those years or being married to Roy, that prompted the change. All kidding aside, I know it was her desire to help and invest in students earlier in their lives, it has been a great move for Gina and the families and students in Comanche County; this award is the proof. She is now in her 18th year of teaching and working with 3-5 year olds with special needs at USD 300 through the Cooperative and just like her years teaching band, her students are excellent; she loves them and they adore her. Gina has been teaching for 35 years and I don't know how many more years she plans to teach, but I do know when retirement comes, her shoes will be very hard to fill.

It is with great honor that I present to Gina Hoffman this certificate from the Kansas House of Representatives and please help me recognize her for her many years of teaching and for being selected as the 2016 South Central Kansas Special Education Cooperative Teacher of the Year.

Rep. Hoffman presented a framed House certificate to Mrs. Hoffman.

EIGHTEENTH DAY

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
For this new day You have created for us to enjoy, we thank You.
The race is on for the next six weeks to see who can predict the weather more accurately, a hairy rodent or trained meteorologists.
But no matter what the weather may be doing outside, inside here, we can anticipate all kinds of climate as bills get introduced, discussed in committee, and debated in general session.
There may be days when the atmosphere appears rather cold—days when it will get pretty heated—and days when the temperature is just right and everyone is in agreement.
I ask You, Lord, that through it all,
You help these leaders keep cool heads while maintaining a heated desire to make decisions that You deem right for our people.
In Christ's Name I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ballard.

By Representatives Garber, Awerkamp, Blex, Brim, Carpenter, DeGraaf, Delperdang, Ellis, Eplee, Good, Highland, Huebert, Jacobs, R. Powell, Smith, A. and Smith, E.

HCR 5009— A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to equal rights.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. Equal rights. All men are possessed of equal and inalienable natural rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Recognizing the authority of the state of Kansas to exercise its police power and its sovereign right to adopt individual liberties in the constitution of the state of Kansas more expansive than those conferred by the constitution of the United States, the state of Kansas shall hereby guarantee the inalienable rights, equal protection and due process of law of every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to expand the class of human beings that currently enjoy inalienable rights, equal protection, and due process of the law under the constitution of the state of Kansas to every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization.

"A vote for this proposition would amend the Kansas constitution to explicitly incorporate into it the inalienable right to life of every human being irrespective of age, race, gender, health, function, condition of dependency, including physical or mental dependency, or method of reproduction, from the beginning of their biological development, including fertilization. The proposed constitutional amendment also would prohibit the state from discriminating against any class of human beings in the application, interpretation and enforcement of its laws.

"A vote against this proposition would not amend the constitution, in which case the current federally mandated legal status of preborn humans would remain that of a class of human beings that can intentionally be killed."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2018 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Heavenly Father,

I thank You that You are here with us today.

For all of those who are assembled together on, this February 6th, 2017, that You are present for us.

You are a safe and powerful place for us to find refuge!

You are a proven help in time of trouble; You're more than enough and always available whenever we need You.

Thank You, Father God, that You have showed up for us today, because You know there are those that are in this room right now that need a touch from You.

I pray that You will touch those that need healing in their bodies; those who are experiencing pain right now.

Spirit of God, touch them and deliver them from their pain.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

The following remarks of Rep. Neighbor are spread upon the Journal:

It is with great honor that I stand before you today along with Representative Lusk and Representative Frownfelter to honor some members of the Broadmoor Bistro from the Shawnee Mission School District.

Recently the Broadmoor Bistro was named one of 10 Slow Food Restaurants that are Sustainable and Scrumptious according to USA Today. “The public enjoys multi-course dinner in the program’s gorgeous, 120-seat restaurant on Wednesday evenings during the school year. Many seasonal ingredients come from their own urban garden, as well as other local providers,” writer Lisa Waterman Gray, travel and food expert, wrote about the restaurant.

Chefs Robert Brassard and Justin Hoffman, recognized in 2016 with the Leadership Innovation Award at the Center of the Advancement of Food Service Education Conference in Chicago, lead the Shawnee Mission culinary arts program. They often state that the Broadmoor Bistro is where “education has never tasted so good.” Today, we have Chef Justin Hoffman and students Allen Pepito and Nora Engelken joining us here in the Capitol.

The culinary excellence is a benefit many of us in the community are able to enjoy each week at the restaurant as students serve their delectable dishes and gain hands-on experience in all areas of restaurant operations.

In recent years, the student’s urban garden has served as a food resource for the restaurant and an educational center for students and community members to learn about sustainable food practices.

Broadmoor Bistro students also frequently host guest chef events featuring acclaimed culinary artists from across the country. These talented chefs mentor Shawnee Mission students in preparing a five-course meal to serve in the restaurant.

Finally, please come and see our new Living Wall that will provide fresh basil, thyme, etc. for our students to use in their delectable dishes.

Rep. Lusk presented a framed House certificate to the Bistro members.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
We stand before You today grateful for the many blessings and privileges You grant to us daily.
Help our leaders today to keep in their minds the thoughts of others, to have a listening and receptive heart, and an open mind.
Keep them mindful that they represent the people of this state and help them to do the will of what is best for the people.
May they draw upon the truth derived from a diversity of opinions to form a solid foundation upon which a stable future can be established.
Help them to not get caught up in short-term gains or even in self-interest, but help them to have clear analysis, wise depth perception, and creative solutions for the common good of our state.
This I ask in Christ's Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kelly.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Hawkins and Wilson are spread upon the Journal.

Remarks of Rep. Hawkins:

Multiple sclerosis (MS) is a chronic, unpredictable neurologic disease that affects the central nervous system. Symptoms vary and may include: abnormal fatigue, vision problems loss of balance and muscle coordination, slurred speech, tremors, stiffness, bladder problems and cognitive and emotional changes. Some symptoms will come and go over the course of the disease while others can be permanent. There is no cure at this time.

Approximately 20-25% of individuals with MS need long-term care services at some point during their illness. Another 5% will require care in a long-term care facility. The average age of admission to a nursing home for a person with MS is 58.

MS research is good for Kansas' economy. Since 2008, NIH has awarded over $762 million to Kansas institutions. The dollars are used for research and innovation at universities, medical centers and independent research institutes. NIH has helped make significant progress in understanding MS lesions and analyzing how the immune system responds to different stimulus. Approximately 20% of all FDA priority drugs are directly attributable to NIH researchers. NIH funding is the foundation of the biosciences industry and is essential for creating cures, discovering preventive measures and treatments.

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society advocates for changes in public policy to improve the quality of life for those with MS. Its priority policy areas focus on increased access to health care and prescription drugs, increased funding for MS research, healthcare transparency, long-term care services, and disability rights.

Remarks of Rep. Wilson:

Members of the Kansas MS Caucus will....

- Seek creative solutions to the challenges facing people with MS;
- Raise awareness and promote education about MS in our efforts to move closer to a world free of this disease;
- Network with others who would like to move closer to a world free of MS;
- Receive email communication about MS public policy priorities

Federal MS Caucus Members include Representative Lynn Jenkins, Kevin Yoder and Senator Jerry Moran.

The Kansas Senate MS Caucus Chair is Senator Dan Kershen.

Past House Chairs were Rep. Sue Boldra and Rep. James Todd, who each had a personal connection to MS. A chair with personal MS connection is needed for the 2017-18 session. Each legislator will have an orange folder delivered to their office that includes information about the caucus with MS Society contact information, if anyone is interested in becoming a House Chair.

Current House caucus members are Reps. Ballard, Barker, Bishop, Claeys, Concannon, Curtis, Corbet, Dierks, Gallagher, Hawkins, Hibbard, Johnson, Mason, Rooker, Ruiz, Sutton, Victors, Ward, Whipple, Wilson and Wolfe Moore.

Reps. Hawkins and Wilson were accompanied by family members and individuals who have a personal connection to Multiple Sclerosis. Rep. Hawkins read text of a resolution which will be introduced at a later date.

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 8, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Becker was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
For a new day to be used as Your servant,
and servants of the people, we thank You.
Lord, most – if not all – of the focus on these leaders is based upon what they do or don't do.
Help them to realize that in order to do what is right, they must be cognizant of who they are—of their being.
To be the most affective in being good people, remind them of the attitudes of being that Your Word gives us in the Gospel of Matthew.
“They are blessed when they are at the end of their rope – with less of them there is more of God and His rule.
They are blessed when they are content with just who they are—no more, no less.
That is the moment when they find themselves proud owners of everything that can't be bought.
They are blessed when they care.
At that moment of being full of care, they find themselves being cared for.
They are blessed when they get their inside world—their mind and heart—put right.
Then they can see God in the outside world.
They are blessed when they can show people how to cooperate instead of compete or fight.
That's when they discover who you really are,
and their place in Your family.”

These attitudes of being I pray for them today through the help and blessing of Your Son,
 Amen.

(Matthew 5, The Message)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Blex.

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 9, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Becker was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Kiegerl was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God our Help and Provider,
 as the Psalmist David once sang out, “I lift up my eyes to the hills—where does my help come from?
 My help comes from the Lord,
 the Maker of heavens and earth.”
 I ask, Lord, that you give help to these leaders today.
 Watch over them as they meet in this session and in various committees throughout the day.
 Guard their hearts—
 for what is in their hearts will be revealed through their words and actions.
 Open their ears and minds so they will listen and be understanding.
 Help them to stand strong in their convictions, but give them humility in realizing another solution may be better.
 All these things You have promised to provide if we just ask.
 So I ask and pray this in Christ’s Name,
 Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hibbard.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ruiz are spread upon the Journal:

Good morning Colleagues, it's always an honor to welcome diplomats from other countries to the Kansas House. This morning we have joining us a delegation from the Mexican Consulate based in Kansas City, Missouri.

It is an honor to have Consul Alfonso Navarro-Bernachi here with us today at the Kansas State Capitol. Mr. Bernachi received his Master degree in Diplomatic Studies rewarded by the Mexican Secretariat of Foreign Relations. Among Mr. Bernachi's many accomplishments a few of them are serving as the Deputy Director General for Consular Protection of Mexico Abroad, Deputy Consul General and Consul for Legal and Border Affairs.

The trade between Mexico and Kansas is among the highest in the Midwest. Mexico ranks as an export market for the state of Kansas at 17.0% with Mexico being Kansas' second largest export market.

We in the state of Kansas export 1.8 billion dollars to Mexico and receive 1.8 billion dollars in imports. We wish to continue that level of trade and in the near future raise the bar and with the continued efforts of Consul Navarro-Bernachi, Secretary Soave, make Kansas an example of an international relationship that benefits both the State of Kansas and the United Mexican States.

Please help me extend a warm welcome to the Kansas House to Consul Navarro-Bernachi!

Rep. Ward welcomed Consul Navarro-Bernachi and his staff to the House.

Rep. Ruiz presented the guests with a framed House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Elliott are spread upon the Journal:

Today we celebrate Kansas Aviation Day and recognize some of the major companies and institutions which have contributed over the years in designating our state and the City of Wichita as the Air Capital.

Aviation has been part of Kansas for over a century. In fact, history indicates that the first plane built in Kansas was here in Topeka in 1910. In Wichita, Clyde Cessna was the first to build a complete airplane in 1917 with its first flight in 1918.

The aviation industry has touched me personally for all of my life. My late father was an executive at Beech Aircraft Corporation, which is in my House district. I would tag along with him to the "plant" as he called it. I remember walking the assembly lines and smelling the fresh paint. Later in life, I learned to fly Beechcraft airplanes and worked in the marketing area after college.

While there have been changes in ownership over the years of companies like Beech and Cessna, the legacy continues for Wichita to be the hub for generating 21st century research and design of aerospace products.

The manufacturing techniques have evolved from sheet metal and rivets to composites. An adaptable workforce has been created through the many viable training programs created through WATC and NCAT.

And finally, the new Eisenhower National Airport, represents a state of the art facility in handling over 1.6 million passengers annually.

I hope you will all take time to walk through the exhibits on the first floor this afternoon. Again, please join me in recognizing these companies and thanking them for their many contributions to the aviation/aerospace presence in Kansas.

Rep. Elliott introduced to the members of the House: Tom Aldag, National Institute for Aviation Research; Travis Bryant, Textron Aviation; Peggy Deiter, Bombardier Business Aircraft; Sam Sackett, Spirit AeroSystems; Belinda Witt and Traci Nichols, Wichita Airport Authority and Jim Hill and Gayle Goetz, Wichita Area Technical College.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: In light of our large unfunded KPERS liability, a number of years ago, it was legislative intent that State agencies identify and sell off unused/surplus property for the purpose of depositing those funds into KPERS. It is important that we honor our commitment to our retired Kansas employees. While I appreciate the work done by our Appropriations Committee, this bill identifies a number of pieces of property, that in at least one case, the proceeds of the sale should be going to KPERS and is not. I vote NO on HB 2109. – PETE DEGRAAF, LEO DELPERDANG, FRANCIS AWERKAMP, WILLIE DOVE, LESLIE OSTERMAN, KEVIN JONES, RANDY POWELL, LES MASON, TOM COX, RANDY GARBER, JOHN R. Journal of the House

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 13, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Lusk was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Rep. Powell.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Holscher.

A closing prayer was led by guest chaplain, The Rev. Darryl Burton, pastor, United Methodist Church of the Resurrection, Leawood, and guest of Rep. Kessinger:

O God and gentle Spirit receive these words as an expression of gratitude and hope we find in you as we search the scriptures for the message of grace and faith we have because of you. We pray that the power of the Holy Spirit will create a new song in our hearts today so that we can rejoice and sing Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord our God. Embrace us dear Lord in your arms so that we are reminded of our collective purpose in life. We are instructed by Micah 6:8 “who has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God”. Guide the people of this body in a more excellent way with your wisdom and grace.

You are our redeemer who forgives us our trespasses everyday. It is our prayer Lord that you show us how to be more loving and caring to those who suffer with afflictions in our community. Teach us how to rebuild a more just society, where the powerful and powerless can unite as one.

“Holy Spirit you are welcome here, come and flood this place and fill this atmosphere with your presence, warmth and love O Lord”. Anoint our hearts and souls and help us live from day to day in a way that is acceptable to you.

Dear God, be our comforter in times of worry and uncertainty. Bind up all brokenness and remove all sadness from our lives so we can live on earth with the joy you give to us all. Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Victors are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I am humbled to introduce an Olympic medalist from my community the North Side of Wichita, Nico Hernandez. During the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio, Nico won an Olympic Bronze Medal for the United States in the Men's light flyweight division and the United States first Olympic Men's boxing medal since 2008. He is a good example of leadership and of what can happen when everyone invests and stands behind our youth. I would like to thank him for putting his life on the line every time he steps in that ring to represent us, but also thank his ancestors who had the courage to come here to the United States for opportunity, already knowing that one of their offspring would become something great and contribute to America. Again, Congratulations Nico! And God Bless you and your family! May you have continued success in your boxing career!

Rep. Victors introduced Nico Hernandez and his family to the members of the House.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 14, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Alcala was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Winn was excused on legislative business.

Rep. Mastroni was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving God in Heaven,
on this Valentine's Day,
I want to thank You for the great gift of love you have given to all of us.
Thank You for blessing each one of us every day with Your love which gives us power and strength.
Without this love,
we cannot be...we cannot function...we cannot even breathe, because we need Your love to sustain us.
Help us all to express Your love and share it with others.
Sometimes that is hard—some are harder to love than others.
But when we see through Your eyes, hear through Your ears,
and feel through Your heart,
it is easy to love as You love.
For this love – this mercy – which is new every morning,
I thank You and praise You.
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by the members of the House.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bill and concurrent resolution were introduced and read by title:

HB 2366, AN ACT concerning alcoholic beverages; relating to the beer and cereal malt beverage keg registration act; including hard cider in the provisions thereof; amending K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 41-311, 41-2703, 41-2708, 41-2901, 41-2902, 41-2903, 41-2904, 41-2905 and 41-2906 and repealing the existing sections, by Committee on Federal and State Affairs.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5010—

By Committee on Health and Human Services

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION opposing physician-assisted suicide.

WHEREAS, Kansas has an unqualified interest in the preservation of human life, and this state's prohibition on assisting suicide, like all homicide laws, both reflects and advances its commitment to this; and

WHEREAS, Neither this state's constitution nor the United States' Constitution contains a right to assisted suicide and, thus, no individual has the right to authorize another to kill oneself in violation of federal and state criminal laws; and

WHEREAS, Suicide is not a typical reaction to an acute problem or life circumstance and many individuals who contemplate suicide, including the terminally ill, suffer from treatable mental disorders, most commonly clinical depression, that frequently goes undiagnosed and untreated by physicians; and

WHEREAS, In Oregon, 46% of patients seeking assisted suicide changed their minds when their physicians intervened and appropriately addressed suicidal ideations by treating their pain, depression and other medical problems, if any; and

WHEREAS, Palliative care continues to improve and is nearly always successful in relieving pain and allowing a person to die naturally, comfortably and in a dignified manner without a change in the law; and

WHEREAS, The experiences in Oregon and the Netherlands explicitly demonstrate that palliative care options deteriorate with the legalization of physician-assisted suicide; and

WHEREAS, Kansas rejects abuses of palliative care through "futility care" protocols and the use of "terminal sedation" without life-sustaining care; and

WHEREAS, A physician's recommendation for assisted suicide relies on the physician's judgment— to include prejudices and negative perceptions—that a patient's life is not worth living, ultimately contributing to the use of "futility care" protocols and euthanasia; and

WHEREAS, Kansas rejects the "sliding-scale approach" which claims certain "qualities of life" are not worthy of equal legal protections; and

WHEREAS, The legalization of assisted suicide sends a message that suicide is a socially acceptable response to aging, terminal illnesses, disabilities and depression and subsequently imposes a "duty to die"; and

WHEREAS, The medical profession as a whole opposes physician-assisted suicide because it is contrary to the medical profession's role as healer and undermines the physician-patient relationship; and

WHEREAS, Assisted suicide is significantly less expensive than other care options, and Oregon's experience demonstrates that cost constraints can create financial incentives to limit care and offer assisted suicide; and

WHEREAS, As evidenced in Oregon, the private nature of end-of-life decisions makes it virtually impossible to police a physician's behavior to prevent abuses, making any number of safeguards insufficient; and

WHEREAS, A prohibition on assisted suicide, specifically physician-assisted suicide, is the only way to protect vulnerable citizens from coerced suicide and euthanasia: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the legislature strongly opposes and condemns physician-assisted suicide because the legislature has an unqualified interest in the preservation of human life; and

Be it further resolved: That the legislature strongly opposes and condemns physician-assisted suicide because anything less than a prohibition leads to foreseeable abuses and eventually to euthanasia by devaluing human life, particularly the lives of the terminally ill, elderly, disabled and depressed whose lives are of no less value or quality than any other citizen of this state; and

Be it further resolved: That the legislature strongly opposes and condemns physician-assisted suicide even for terminally ill, mentally competent adults because assisted suicide eviscerates efforts to prevent the self-destructive act of suicide and hinders progress in effective physician interventions, including diagnosing and treating depression, managing pain and providing palliative and hospice care; and

Be it further resolved: That the legislature strongly opposes and condemns physician-assisted suicide because assisted suicide undermines the integrity and ethics of the medical profession, subverts a physician's role as healer and compromises the physician-patient relationship; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of Kansas, the Kansas Secretary of Health and Environment and the Kansas Medical Society.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: HB 2048 implements certain teacher training standards. I support this. HB 2048 asks for the review and consideration of standards to widen the scope of sex-ed in schools. Historical parental concerns regarding sex-ed, promotion of objectively immoral activity in sex-ed, existing sex-ed curriculum that already educates and arguably excessively and inappropriately exposes children to sexuality, and sexual activity and abstinence being presented to youth equally, make it imprudent to promote the increase of sexual related curriculum in schools. Problems addressed by HB 2048 can, or are already addressed as schools see fit. This issue is best handled locally. I vote no on HB 2048. – RONALD L. HIGHLAND, KEN CORBET, FRANCIS AWERKAMP, RANDY GARBER, CHUCK WEBER, SUSAN HUMPHRIES, WILLIE DOVE, TREVOR JACOBS

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. Mastroni was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Excused later: Rep. DeGraaf.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Jehovah Jireh – God our Provider, today we come before you with thankfulness in our hearts for how You provide for us in so many ways.
 Each one of us is so blessed by the many gifts You give.
 You provide us with abilities, skills, talent, ideas, creativity, wisdom and discernment.
 Today as these leaders exercise these gifts, remind them in their decision making to seek You while You may be found; to call on You while You are near.
 Help them to remember that their thoughts are not Your thoughts, neither are their ways Your ways.
 “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are Your ways higher than their ways and Your thoughts than their thoughts.”
 Help them to take the higher road.
 I ask this in Christ’s Name,
 Amen.
 (Isaiah 55:6, 8-9)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Neighbor.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kiegerl are spread upon the Journal:

In 1959, long before most of you were born, my ship landed in NY harbor. Coming from a small German town and looking at the statue of liberty and the enormous skyline of Manhattan made an impression hard to describe. I had just turned 20 but my love affair with America had begun much earlier. At the end of the war I was 5 and the destruction was total but the occupying troops who had seen their comrades killed at Omaha Beach, the Huertgen Forrest, the battle of the Bulge – and the concentration camps being opened had every reason to despise and hate the German civilian population were unexpectedly friendly and helpful especially to us small children starving as we were – they gave us candy bars and chewing gum – which we did not know and we ate. Interestingly it was the black soldiers who seemed the most generous – who were still looking forward to returning to a segregated country with rampant segregation.

My entire treasure consisted of $200 but I had high hopes and expectations. In Chicago I had an aunt who was a Franciscan Sister and a nurse anesthetist. Immigration in those days was very different from today – you had to get a visa, medical exam, documents from the local police and an interview where you were explicitly informed that you could not expect any assistance from the US government until you became a citizen - which would take 5 years. Therefore you needed a sponsor who was responsible if you needed support. My aunt haunted the obstetricians to locate one for me. As a Nun, she had taken vows of chastity, obedience, and poverty, therefore all she could give me was lunch in the hospital cafeteria and advice. She sat me down and told me “now you will work, go to school, and save your money and you will become a big man” looking at my girth you can tell she was at least partially right!

I had my 1st job 4 days after arriving in town -what a job! An orderly in the hospital indelicate and unpleasant to the extreme. Giving enemas, emptying bed pans and transporting dead bodies from their room to the morgue – all for $1.45/hr. there was an unexpected benefit, however. An extremely buxom young graduate nurse worked on my floor. She was very kind, always in good spirits and attentive. Strictly speaking she was my superior and it took me a few weeks to ask her out. She accepted and as of today, we’ve been together 57 years and we have been married 54. That God put her on my side is the greatest blessing I have ever received .

The rest of the story is easily told. We had very few material goods, in fact we were poor. We raised a family and I progressed to numerous jobs each paying better cab driver at night University Of Illinois during the day, waiter, airplane reservation agent, flight service training instructor at the hostess academy, and service manager on the new magnificent 747. What a job that was, I was in charge of everything this side of the cockpit door and also of 17 young women who were selected for their beauty, charm and energy. Three times a month we flew from Los Angeles to London, where a bus picked us up and took us to the hotel. I soon concluded this was not a job for a married man with little kids and also that I would never be president of the airline. So, I quit and got a graduate degree in international economics. After that my wife and I with two others started a business. We had very little money and getting a tax bill for estimated taxes on money not yet earned and trying to meet out payroll jeopardized our survival several times. It is hard to underestimate the economic folly of ideologues who cannot be bothered by facts. On day one of this session a callipygian attorney expressed her opinion in tax committee. She moved to not only rescind the tax relief but to make it retroactive. A Republican advocating the Bernie Sanders school of economics policy.

We worked hard had the right service at the right time and after a couple of years of struggle and business took off. Fast forward ten years, we employed 150 people, 40 in KS, made millions of dollars and paid hundreds of thousands in taxes, and we became financially successful – only in America. Don't stifle success by the wrong fiscal policies – support growth.

After retiring at 60 I was persuaded to run for a seat in the house. I spent my own money and prevailed and I never lost an election. So I came here too old to have any other ambitions, to the best job I ever had – low paying as it is. I made lifelong friends and learned to appreciate friend and foe and the civility amongst my colleagues. Yesterday my eloquent attorney friend from Wichita with whom I fought many a battle reminded me of that once again. I still believe his view are misguided and he surely must believe the same about me, but our respect for each other remains intact.

All good things must come to an end and for me serving in this house is the best thing that ever happened to me. Goodbye.

Phi Theta Kappa is an International Honor Society for two year colleges that symbolizes excellence in higher education and a commitment to students. Students with a GPA of 3.5 or higher are invited to join Phi Theta Kappa whose mission is two-fold: To recognize and encourage the academic achievement of two-year college students, and to provide opportunities for individual growth and development through participation in honors, leadership, service and fellowship programming.

Fifty-five students have been named to the All-Kansas Academic Team and they represent all nineteen Kansas community colleges from across Kansas and were named to this team based upon the academic achievement, leadership and community service. Because of their academic achievement, service and leadership they have been awarded scholarship and stipends to complete their education and I wanted to be sure you were aware of this impressive group of young scholars from the Kansas Community Colleges.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Sub HB 2178 because my constituents cannot afford this kind of a tax increase. I have a diverse district with underprivileged residents and affluent residents. Some can pay more, but a lot of them do not have the ability. In our Republican platform, we do not stand for retroactive taxes, and we do not stand for going after successful or working class people by raising their income taxes. Today, I am disappointed in our Republican caucus for voting on things we do not stand for as Republicans. – BLAKE CARPENTER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Sub HB 2178. Families all across the state know that we cannot spend more money than we have. That is good common sense and should be followed by the state as we spend those hard earned tax dollars of said Kansas families. – MIKE HOUSER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on Sub HB 2178. While we are in need of a level-headed fiscal solution, we are also in need of sensible tax reform. Tax increases on the middle class are not the answer. This is unfair for teachers, nurses, farmers, police officers and others who are trying to make ends meet. I agree that we must be cautious with our approach but we can't jump the gun on this. My constituents did not send me here to raise middle class taxes, and for this reason and more that I cannot support this bill. – RONALD B. ELLIS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Sub HB 2178. Though I recognize that Kansas faces an uncertain financial future I believe it is irresponsible to balance our budget and pay for excessive spending by raising taxes on job creators, the middle class and the working poor. Our state government has a spending problem NOT a revenue problem and until we recognize that undeniable fact and stop the cycle of denial we are in, we will continue to exemplify Einstein's definition of Insanity. – JOHN WHITMER, WILLIE DOVE, GREG LAKIN, RANDY POWELL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Sub HB 2178. I will not support Sub HB 2178. It takes money and security from hard working families and small businesses across this state including the 4th District. This bill is especially unjust to financially struggling families and small businesses. The state promised incentives for growth. Now that the citizens have invested in our communities they are being subjected to retroactive penalties and higher taxes by the state. Can the state ask for prosperity when it cuts the vital roots of growth? “The problem is not that people are taxed too little, the problem is that government spends too much.” Ronald Reagan. – TREVOR JACOBS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on Sub HB 2178. To teachers, firefighters, nurses and others who guide our children, protect our homes and care for our grandparents—we failed you. To the working poor - college and technical students and anyone else hustling each day to make ends meet and build a better life for yourself and others—we failed you. To entrepreneurs who innovate and risk everything to create opportunities for yourselves and others—we failed you. To any Kansan impacted by this vote-taking your hard-earned money and giving it to government makes your life harder. It's not fair. We can do better. And we will. – LESLIE OSTERMAN, CHUCK WEBER, BRENDA LANDWEHR, SUSAN HUMPHRIES, RONALD L. HIGHLAND

MR. SPEAKER: Since the day the tax cut was first proposed and adopted in 2012 I have been convinced that plan went too far, too fast. It created an inequitable tax system and destabilized state revenues. As elected officials we have an obligation to spend the people's tax money wisely and reduce taxes when possible. But we are also obligated to responsibly fund government and to provide those services that the people of Kansas need and expect. Sub HB 2178 corrects the excesses of the 2012 tax cut and puts our fiscal house in order. I vote yes on Sub HB 2178. – DON HINEMAN, RICH PROEHL, DON SCHROEDER, JAN KESSINGER, LINDA GALLAGHER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on Sub HB 2178 because this tax increase attempts to balance the budget on the backs of the middle class and small business owners. According to a recent SurveyUSA Market Research Study, Kansans' #1 preference for balancing the budget is not an income tax increase. To quote a constituent, “Raising taxes is bad enough, but making it retroactive is about as unethical as it gets!” Especially in light of the Alvarez & Marsal Statewide Efficiency Review that identified over 2 billion dollars in possible efficiencies. Kansans expect us to do better. – PETE DEGRAAF

MR. SPEAKER: Sub HB 2178 is a step backward on protecting our poorest citizens. It adds people who make less than $15,000 to the tax rolls and greatly increases the tax on the working middle class. It is a step backward for business creation. Small businesses lose their tax break while large corporations keep theirs. It is a step backward for fairness. It is unjust to pass a tax retroactively. For these and many other reasons, I vote No on Sub HB 2178. – KEITH ESAU, FRANCIS AWERKAMP

MR. SPEAKER: Sub HB 2178 represents the largest tax increase in the history of Kansas, targeting Kansas' businesses, the middle-class, and the working poor. In addition, it puts back in place a three tiered system and places an excessive burden on taxpayers statewide by retroactively taxing Kansans for 2017. This bill doesn't just fix a loophole, it creates ongoing, destructive tax policy for the future. I came to Topeka to create sensible, fair solutions for all citizens and Sub HB 2178 fails to do that. I vote no on Sub HB 2178. – KYLE HOFFMAN, JOHN BARKER, JACK THIMESCH, JOE SEIWERT, DANIEL R. HAWKINS, STEVE HUEBERT

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Sub HB 2178. Kansas legislators have repeatedly raised taxes when their spending has created budget troubles. While the people of Kansas were balancing their personal budgets, their government continuously created budget holes by spending more money than they collected. The legislature has demanded time after time the people of Kansas pay for their mismanagement. In 2017, the legislature is at it again. – KEN CORBET

MR. SPEAKER: Sub HB 2178 increases taxes on individuals to the tune of 1.4 billion dollars in the next 5 years. To say nothing of the 967-million-dollar bill on small business owners (if they stay in Kansas). Those pass-through entities accounted for 82% of the 36,000 private sector jobs created in years 2013 and 2014. I hope at some point this body will address the lost revenue due to sales tax exemptions which cost the state over 6 billion dollars a year. When will we truly address the issue of fairness in our tax code? Mr. Speaker I vote NO on Sub HB 2178. – RANDY GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: This is not prudent. I Vote No on Sub HB 2178. – KEVIN JONES

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on Sub HB 2178. It begins the long road to fiscal responsibility in Kansas. It repeals the loophole which allows 330,000 business owners to pay no state income tax. It returns Kansas to a fair tax structure where the wealthy pay their fair share for the common good. Some taxes will increase but the rates are lower than 2012. A family of four making $46,500 or less would pay NO increase in income tax over 2016. A family of four making $50,000 would pay $370.25 LESS in income taxes than they did in 2012. – TOM SAWYER, STEVE CRUM, JERRY STOGSDILL, PATSY TERRELL

MR. SPEAKER: During my recent campaign, I spoke to thousands of constituents who felt the 2012 tax plan created an inequitable tax system and destabilized state revenues. As newly elected officials, we have an obligation to spend the people's tax money wisely and reduce taxes when possible. We are also obligated to listen to our constituents and responsibly fund government to provide those services the people of Kansas need and expect. For my constituents, Sub HB 2178 corrects the excesses of the 2012 tax cut and puts our fiscal house in order. Mr. Speaker, I vote yes on Sub HB 2178. – SEAN TARWATER

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Rescission bills represent an opportunity to take a serious look at current government spending. They should certainly not involve an actual increase in spending, and that is exactly what Sub HB 2052 does to the tune of $138 million. We need a real rescission bill that reins in spending and limits the growth of government, not only for 2017 but for future fiscal years, as well. We support efforts to pass a rescission bill but feel we can do better than Sub HB 2052. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I vote No on Sub HB 2052. MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on Sub HB 2052. In my years of public service I have gotten used to having to choose between a bad option and a really bad option. As a result of tax and budget decisions made over the last 4 years, today we have had to choose between really bad options and really, really bad options. Only in extreme circumstances would I vote to borrow to pay operating expenses or to skip payments to our public employees retirement fund, and I have only done so today because I am confident that we will take the remaining steps we need to take to restore structural balance to our state budget.

DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER

MR. SPEAKER: AS a newly elected official, I have an obligation to spend the people’s tax money wisely and reduce taxes when possible. Because of others past fiscal irresponsibility, we were forced to pass a bill yesterday that raised taxes to fund those services the people of Kansas need and expect. I feel this bill could have gone further and we could have found more efficiencies and save constituent’s hard earned tax dollars. Kansans deserve to keep more of their own money and we need to do more to get our house in order. Mr. Speaker, I vote NO on Sub HB 2052. SEAN TARWATER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Resolving our budget imbalance and ensuring fiscal responsibility over the long haul requires a real commitment to reducing the growth of government. HB 2161, on the other hand, involves the use of one-time money, risks downgrading our credit further, and there is no assurance we will pay the money back. We need to be willing to make the tough decisions regarding our spending, not continue the bad habits of the past. For these reasons, Mr. Speaker, I vote no on HB 2161. – BLAKE CARPENTER, TREVOR JACOBS, JOHN R. WHITMER, LESLIE OSTERMAN, RONALD L. HIGHLAND, KEN CORBET, JOE SEIWERT

"Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 74-49,123 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-49,123. (a) This section applies to the Kansas public employees retirement system and to all other public retirement plans administered by the board of trustees.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Federal internal revenue code" means the federal internal revenue code of 1954 or 1986, as amended and as applicable to a governmental plan as in effect on July 1, 2008; and

(2) "retirement plan" includes the Kansas public employees retirement system and all other Kansas public retirement plans and benefit structures, which are administered by the board.

(c) In addition to the federal internal revenue code provisions otherwise noted in each retirement plan's law, and in order to satisfy the applicable requirements under the federal internal revenue code, the retirement plans shall be subject to the following provisions, notwithstanding any other provision of the retirement plan's law:

(1) The board shall distribute the corpus and income of the retirement plan to the members and their beneficiaries in accordance with the retirement plan's law. At no time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to members and their beneficiaries shall any part of the corpus and income be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than the exclusive benefit of the members and their beneficiaries.

(2) Forfeitures arising from severance of employment, death or for any other reason may not be applied to increase the benefits any member would otherwise receive under the retirement plan's law. However, forfeitures may be used to reduce an employer's contribution.

(3) All benefits paid from the retirement plan shall be distributed in accordance with a good faith interpretation of the requirements of section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations under that section. Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules and regulations, effective on and after January 1, 2003, the retirement plan is subject to the following provisions:

(A) Benefits must begin by the required beginning date, which is the later of April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the member reaches 70½ years of age or April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the member terminates employment. If a member fails to apply for retirement benefits by April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such member reaches 70½ years of age or April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such member terminates employment, whichever is later, the board will begin distributing the benefit as required by this section.

(B) The member's entire interest must be distributed over the member's life or the lives of the member and a designated beneficiary, or over a period not extending beyond the life expectancy of the member or of the member and a designated beneficiary. Death benefits must be distributed in accordance with section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code, including the incidental death benefit requirement in section 401(a)(9)(G) of the federal internal revenue code, and the regulations implementing that section.

(C) The life expectancy of a member, the member's spouse or the member's beneficiary may not be recalculated after the initial determination for purposes of determining benefits.

(D) If a member dies after the required distribution of benefits has begun, the remaining portion of the member's interest must be distributed at least as rapidly as under the method of distribution before the member's death and no longer than the remaining period over which distributions commenced.

(E) If a member dies before required distribution of the member's benefits has begun, the member's entire interest must be either:

(i) In accordance with federal regulations, distributed over the life or life expectancy of the designated beneficiary, with the distributions beginning no later than December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year of the member's death; or

(ii) distributed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the member's death.

(F) The amount of an annuity paid to a member's beneficiary may not exceed the maximum determined under the incidental death benefit requirement of the federal internal revenue code.

(G) The death and disability benefits provided by a retirement plan are limited by the incidental benefit rule set forth in section 401(a)(9)(G) of the federal internal revenue code and treasury regulation 1.401-1(b)(1)(i).

(4) Distributions from the retirement plans may be made only upon retirement, separation from service, disability or death.

(5) The board or its designee may not:

(A) Determine eligibility for benefits;

(B) compute rates of contribution; or

(C) compute benefits of members or beneficiaries, in a manner that discriminates in favor of members who are considered officers, supervisors or highly compensated, as prohibited under section 401(a)(4) of the federal internal revenue code.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this subsection, benefits paid from, and employee contributions made to, the retirement plans shall not exceed the maximum benefits and the maximum annual additions, respectively, permissible under section 415 of the federal internal revenue code.

(A) Before January 1, 1995, a member may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the limits specified in section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code, subject to the applicable adjustments in that section. Beginning January 1, 1995, a participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the dollar amount specified in section 415(b)(1)(A) of the federal internal revenue code, subject to the applicable adjustments in section 415 of the federal internal revenue code.

(B) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the board may modify a request by a participant to make a contribution to the retirement plans if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code subject to the following:

(i) Where the retirement plan's law requires a lump-sum payment, for the purchase of service credit, the board may establish a periodic payment plan in order to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code.

(ii) If the board's option under ~~subdivision clause~~ (i) will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code, the board shall reduce or deny the contribution.

(C) Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if an active member makes one or more contributions to purchase permissive service credit under a retirement plan, then the requirements of this section shall be treated as met only if:

(i) The requirements of section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of such section; or

(ii) the requirements of section 415(c) of the federal internal revenue code are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of such section. For purposes of applying ~~subparagraph clause~~ (i) a retirement plan shall not fail to meet the reduced limit under section 415(b)(2)(C) of the federal internal revenue code solely by reason of this ~~paragraph subparagraph~~ (C), and for purposes of applying ~~subparagraph clause~~ (ii), a retirement plan shall not fail to meet the percentage limitation under section 415(c)(1)(B) of the federal internal revenue code solely by reason of this paragraph.

(iii) For purposes of this ~~paragraph clause~~, the term "permissive service credit" means service credit:

(a) Specifically recognized by a retirement plan's law for purposes of calculating a member's benefit under that retirement plan;

(b) which such member has not received under a retirement plan; and

(c) which such member may receive under a retirement plan's law only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the retirement plan's law and procedures established by the board, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.

(iv) A retirement plan shall fail to meet the requirements of this ~~paragraph clause~~ if the retirement plan's law specifically provides for a purchase of nonqualified service purchase, and if:

(a) More than five years of nonqualified service credit are taken into account for purposes of this ~~paragraph subclause~~; or

(b) any nonqualified service credit is taken into account under this ~~paragraph subclause~~ before the member has at least five years of participation under a retirement plan. For purposes of this ~~paragraph subclause~~, effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, the term "nonqualified service credit" means the same as provided in section 415(n)(3)(C) of the federal internal revenue code.

(v) In the case of a trustee-to-trustee transfer after December 31, 2001, to which section 403(b)(13)(A) or 457(e)(17)(A) of the federal internal revenue code applies, without regard to whether the transfer is made between plans maintained by the same employer:

(a) The limitations of ~~subparagraph clause~~ (iv) shall not apply in determining whether the transfer is for the purchase of permissive service credit; and

(b) the distribution rules applicable under federal law to a retirement plan shall apply to such amounts and any benefits attributable to such amounts.

(vi) For an eligible member, the limitation of section 415(c)(1) of the federal internal revenue code shall not be applied to reduce the amount of permissive service credit which may be purchased to an amount less than the amount which was allowed to be purchased under the terms of the statute as in effect on August 5, 1997. For purposes of this ~~subparagraph clause~~, an eligible member is an individual who first became a member in the retirement plan before January 1, 1998.

(D) Subject to approval by the internal revenue service, the board shall maintain a qualified governmental excess benefit arrangement under section 415(m) of the federal internal revenue code. The board shall establish the necessary and appropriate procedures for the administration of such benefit arrangement under the federal internal revenue code. The amount of any annual benefit that would exceed the limitations imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code shall be paid from this benefit arrangement. The amount of any contribution that would exceed the limitations imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code shall be credited to this benefit arrangement. The qualified excess benefit arrangement shall be a separate portion of the retirement plan. The qualified excess benefit arrangement is subject to the following requirements:

(i) The benefit arrangement shall be maintained solely for the purpose of providing to participants in the retirement plans that part of the participant's annual benefit otherwise payable under the terms of the act that exceeds the limitations on benefits imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code; and

(ii) participants do not have an election, directly or indirectly, to defer compensation to the excess benefit arrangement.

(E) For purposes of applying these limits only and for no other purpose, the definition of compensation where applicable shall be compensation actually paid or made available during a limitation year, except as noted below and as permitted by treasury regulation section 1.415(c)-2. Specifically, compensation shall be defined as wages within the meaning of section 3401(a) of the federal internal revenue code and all other payments of compensation to an employee by an employer for which the employer is required to furnish the employee a written statement under sections 6041(d), 6051(a)(3) and 6052 of the federal internal revenue code. Compensation shall be determined without regard to any rules under section 3401(a) of the federal internal revenue code that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed, such as the exception for agricultural labor in section 3401(a)(2) of the federal internal revenue code.

(i) However, for limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, compensation shall also include amounts that would otherwise be included in compensation but for an election under sections 125(a), 402(e)(3), 402(h)(1)(B), 402(k) or 457(b) of the federal internal revenue code. For limitation years beginning after December 30, 2000, compensation shall also include any elective amounts that are not includable in the gross income of the employee by reason of section 132(f)(4) of the federal internal revenue code.

(ii) The definition of compensation shall exclude employee contributions picked up under section 414(h)(2) of the federal internal revenue code.

(iii) For limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, compensation for the limitation year will also include compensation paid by the later of two and a half months after an employee's severance from employment or the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the employee's severance from employment if:

(a) The payment is regular compensation for services during the employee's regular working hours or compensation for services outside the employee's regular working hours, such as overtime or shift differential, commissions, bonuses or other similar payments, and absent a severance from employment, the payments would have been paid to the employee while the employee continues in employment with the employer;

(b) the payment is for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation or other leave that the employee would have been able to use if employment had continued; or

(c) for limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2012, the payment is made pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payment would have been paid to the member at the same time if the member had continued employment with the employer and only to the extent that the payment is includable in the member's gross income.

(iv) Any payments not described in ~~paragraph clause~~ (iii) are not considered compensation if paid after severance from employment, even if they are paid within two and a half months following severance from employment, except for payments to the individual who does not currently perform services for the employer by reason of qualified military service, within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the federal internal revenue code, to the extent these payments do not exceed the amounts the individual would have received if the individual had continued to perform services for the employer rather than entering qualified military service.

(v) An employee who is in qualified military service, within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the federal internal revenue code, shall be treated as receiving compensation from the employer during such period of qualified military service equal to: (a) The compensation the employee would have received during such period if the employee were not in qualified military service, determined based on the rate of pay the employee would have received from the employer but for the absence during the period of qualified military service; or (b) if the compensation the employee would have received during such period was not reasonably certain, the employee's average compensation from the employer during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the qualified military service, or if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding the qualified military service.

(vi) Back pay, within the meaning of treasury regulation section 1.415(c)-2(g)(8), shall be treated as compensation for the limitation year to which the back pay relates to the extent the back pay represents wages and compensation that would otherwise be included under this definition.

(7) On and after January 1, 2009, for purposes of applying the limits under section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code, the following shall apply:

(A) A member's applicable limit shall be applied to the member's annual benefit in the first limitation year without regard to any automatic cost-of-living increases;

(B) to the extent the member's annual benefit equals or exceeds such limit, the member shall no longer be eligible for cost-of-living increases until such time as the benefit plus the accumulated increases are less than such limit;

(C) thereafter, in any subsequent limitation year, the member's annual benefit including any automatic cost-of-living increase applicable shall be tested under the then applicable benefit limit including any adjustment to the dollar limit under section 415(b)(1)(A) or 415(d) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations thereunder; and

(D) in no event shall a member's annual benefit payable from a retirement plan in any limitation year be greater than the limit applicable at the annuity starting date, as increased in subsequent years pursuant to section 415(d) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations thereunder. If the form of benefit without regard to the automatic benefit increase feature is not a straight life annuity, then the preceding sentence is applied by reducing the limit under section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code applicable at the annuity starting date to an actuarially equivalent amount determined using the assumptions specified in treasury regulation section 1.415(b)-1(c)(2)(ii) that take into account the death benefits under the form of benefit. This subsection applies to distributions made on and after January 1, 1993. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a transfer made from the retirement system.

(i) An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: (a) Any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments, not less frequently than annually, made for the life or the life expectancy of the distributee or the joint lives or joint life expectancies of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary or for a specified period of 10 years or more; (b) any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code; (c) the portion of any distribution that is not includable in gross income; and (d) any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Effective January 1, 2002, a portion of a distribution shall not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includable in gross income. However, such portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or annuity described in section 408(a) or (b) of the federal internal revenue code, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code or to a qualified plan described in section 403(a) of the federal internal revenue code, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred and earnings on such amounts, including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includable in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includable, or on or after January 1, 2007, to a qualified defined benefit plan described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code or to an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the federal internal revenue code, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred and earnings thereon, including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includable in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includable.

(ii) An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:

(a) An individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the federal internal revenue code;

(b) an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the federal internal revenue code;

(c) an annuity plan described in section 403(a) of the federal internal revenue code;

(d) a qualified trust described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code;

(e) effective January 1, 2002, an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the federal internal revenue code;

(f) effective January 1, 2002, a plan eligible under section 457(b) of the federal internal revenue code that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into the plan from a retirement plan; or

(g) effective January 1, 2008, a roth IRA described in section 408(A) of the federal internal revenue code.

Journal of the House

THIRTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 20, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.
Rep. Murnan was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Peter A. Luckey, pastor, Plymouth Congregational Church, Lawrence, and guest of Rep. Wilson:

O Holy God, as we assemble this morning to attend to the well-being of all Kansans, we are mindful of the important work before us. We know the actions we take or fail to take affect the lives of thousands, names we will never know.

Help us, O compassionate one, to see a face behind the faceless, to see a human being behind a statistic.

May you lead us to think of every Kansan, regardless of the color of their skin, their gender orientation, faith and economic background as kin to us, as if each citizen of our State were a member of our own family.

Remind us that the work of governing is always about people and their lives, and the land on which we live and share.

Make us mindful of the trust that the citizens have placed in us, so we may conduct ourselves in a way that is fitting and honors the high trust placed in us to do Your people's work.

This is an awesome and sacred task You have placed before us.

As much as we will try to read and learn as much as we can about every issue and bill that faces this body, we realize we can never fully be prepared. We cannot anticipate all the ramifications, the unintended consequences of our actions. We know we all have our blind spots; our prejudices and preconceived notions invariably influence our views, our outlook.

Therefore, we recognize this morning, at the beginning of our session, the need for Divine guidance. As King Solomon was said to be a wise King principally because he had the humility to admit he did not have all the answers, that he needed to turn to you, O God for wisdom and guidance.

May we all be humble enough as legislators this morning, to be able to admit what we don't know, what we have not yet understood, and that we all stand in the need of prayer.

Show us your Light, O God, that we may light the way for others.

Reveal to us now, your Path, that we can lead others on the journey.

Grant us a humble heart, so that we can truly listen as well as speak, that we try to understand more than worry about whether we are understood.

On this President's Day when we think of all the Presidents who have served this great land, we give thanks for the role we have been given to play, the leadership conferred upon us, the people of the great state of Kansas entrusted into our care.

It is a privilege and honor to serve here today. May Your Loving Spirit infuse all that we say and do here today. In God's name, we pray.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Cox.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I believe HB 2121 would be an unappreciated change in the eyes of liberty-concerned constituents in Kansas because: HB 2121 is vague, and doesn't make clear that it is collecting the names and medical decisions of individual Kansans; HB 2121 makes no provision for a parent or patient to opt out of having private medical information reported. I believe required reporting and compilation of medical information is not the job of government and encroaches on patient privacy.

Therefore, I vote no on HB 2121. – SUSAN HUMPHRIES, CHUCK WEBER, FRANCIS AWERKAMP, KEITH ESAU

As used in ~~this act~~ K.S.A. 72-5436 and 72-5438 through 72-5446, and amendments thereto: (a) "Teacher" means any professional employee who is required to hold a certificate to teach in any school district and any teacher or instructor in any technical college, the institute of technology at Washburn university or community college. The term "teacher" does not include within its meaning any supervisors, principals, superintendents or any person employed under the authority of K.S.A. 72-8202b, and amendments thereto, or any persons employed in an administrative capacity by any technical college, the institute of technology at Washburn university or community college.

(b) "Board" means the board of education of any school district, the governing body of any technical college or the institute of technology at Washburn university, and the board of trustees of any community college.

Sec. 35. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 72-5438 is hereby amended to read as follows: 72-5438. (b) Within 10 calendar days after the filing of any written request of a teacher to be heard as provided in subsection (a), the board shall notify the commissioner of education that a list of qualified hearing officers is required. Such notice shall contain the mailing address of the teacher. Within 10 days after receipt of notification from the board, the commissioner shall provide to the board and to the teacher, a list of five randomly selected, qualified hearing officers.

Any party desiring to use this alternative procedure shall so notify the other party in the notice required under subsection (a). If the parties agree to use this procedure, the parties shall make a joint request to the American arbitration association for a hearing officer within 10 days after the teacher files a request for a hearing. (f) The commissioner of education shall compile and maintain a list of hearing officers comprised of residents of this state who are attorneys at law. Such list shall include a statement of the qualifications of each hearing officer.

(g) Attorneys interested in serving as hearing officers under the provisions of this act shall submit an application to the commissioner of education. The commissioner shall determine if the applicant is eligible to serve as a hearing officer pursuant to the provisions of subsection (h).

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Father Matt Zimmerman, St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, Lawrence, and guest of Rep. Sloan:

In Solidarity with our Jewish Brothers and Sisters, I begin with the word of St. Francis:

Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Prayer of St. Francis.

Grant to these women and men present here today, the grace to pursue your will for our common life together. Bless them with perseverance and steadfastness in these difficult and challenging times. Most of all, I pray that they would have an awareness of your joy and peace as they go about this Holy work. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Lusk.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message with the Governor's objection to HB 2178, AN ACT concerning income taxation; relating to determination of Kansas adjusted gross income, rates, itemized deductions; amending K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 79-32,110, 79-32,117 and 79-32,120 and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 79-32,269. was received and read.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNORREGARDING VETO OF SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE BILL 2178

My veto of Substitute for House Bill 2178 is based in my belief that, as the elected public servants of Kansas, we must not choose to resolve budget challenges on the backs of middle income Kansans with retroactive personal income tax increases.

We should be clear about what this bill will do. The proposed tax increase will raise income tax liability for married Kansans filing jointly earning at least $30,000 per year from 4.6% to 5.25%, and from 4.6% to 5.45% for those married filers earning more than $100,000 per year. At the same time, income tax rates for small businesses will increase from 0% up to 5.45%, depending on income. More to the point, any single full-time worker earning more than $9.74 per hour will see an income tax increase.

Working families and small businesses are the backbone of our economy, and we should not punish them.

Moreover, applying a retroactive tax increase on our citizens is irresponsible and will ultimately harm families and individuals who are working to make ends meet. Were this bill to become law, the majority of Kansans would see a significant reduction in their pay check immediately. This is unfair.

I also reject the idea that we must choose to either make large cuts to public education or burden every hard working Kansan with a higher tax rate. This dichotomy is false. In my budget proposal, I suggested modest revenue measures on targeted consumption and taxes paid by businesses. I have also proposed adoption of efficiencies recommended by the study commissioned by the Legislature, all of which result in a structurally balanced budget by Fiscal Year 2019. It is irresponsible to raise taxes on low and middle income Kansans without first ensuring we are doing everything we can to keep the cost of government low.

Kansas has pioneered new ground to generate small business growth and thus create jobs and economic opportunity for more Kansans. We have seen record levels of new business formation and consistently low unemployment. These efforts have been successful, and reversing course now will have a long term negative impact on growing business and opportunity in Kansas. Instead, this bill would raise the tax burden on every small business in the state, create a new tax bracket, raise the income tax liability of Kansans, and would result in undermining the economic health of our state and the opportunity for every Kansan to provide for themselves and their families.

It is our responsibility to make the decisions to build a brighter future for Kansas and to ensure that we do everything we can to provide high quality government service at the lowest cost to Kansans.

Over the coming weeks, I will remain committed to working with legislative leadership to develop a plan that structurally balances our budget without permanently harming hard working Kansans.

Accordingly, pursuant to Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby veto House Bill 2178.

Dated: February 22, 2017

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2186. The underlying bill was a good and necessary bill to bring arbitration standards up to date. The amendment to bring back state mandated methods for providing due process to teachers is a step backward from local control and will invalidate gains teachers have made in some districts. This is an issue best handled by the local school boards and the people who elect them. The amendment simply says that we do not trust our local school boards and officials and for that reason, I vote no. — KEITH ESAU, TREVOR JACOBS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “no” on HB 2186 as amended. As an elected local school board member, it is easy to look over my shoulder and blame the State on funding, mandates, and the like. I prefer the responsibility of teacher due process be on my shoulders as a local school board member rather than this mandate before me as a State Legislator. We are stripping our local school boards of their given voice and given authority to our good teachers. – KEVIN JONES

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2186. The bill with the amendment mandates how school districts must deal with employees. We are either for local control by duly elected officials whom we trust to make decisions, or not. This bill says there is not trust in our locally elected officials and that troubles me moving forward. What's next, a state school czar and no local school boards? – RONALD HIGHLAND

THIRTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, February 23, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.
Excused later: Rep. Pittman

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Reverend Jason Carle, Overland Park Presbyterian Church, and guest of Rep. Ousley:

Lord,
You made the land Kansas is in:
a place of hills, wildflowers, wind, plains and big sky.
We are here as your people, shaped by the land, shaped by our communities:
small towns and farming communities, suburbs and cities.
We ask for your blessing on those gathered here as they seek to craft laws and enact policies that bring good governance for this part of your creation.
But we confess that we are a stiff-necked people,
O God, eager to be right rather than righteous.
Help us to bend our necks to the needs of our people.
May the work and deliberations this day be shaped by your values:
humility before You and each other,
a deep passion for justice, and care for the vulnerable, the orphan, the lost.
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kessinger.

By Representatives Parker, Bishop, Brim, Carlin, Clayton, Crum, S., Curtis, Deere, Finney, Gallagher, Gartner, Good, Highberger, Hodge, Holscher, Koesten, Kuether, Lusk, Murnan, Neighbor, Ohaebosim, Ousley, Pittman, Rooker, Stogsdill, Terrell, Trimmer, Whipple and Wolfe Moore

HCR 5011 – A PROPOSITION to revise article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to reapportionment of congressional districts, legislative districts and state board of education member districts.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby revised to read as follows:

"Article 10.—APPORTIONMENT OF CONGRESSIONAL, LEGISLATIVE AND STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION MEMBER DISTRICTS

"§ 1. Reapportionment of districts required. At its regular session in 2022, and at its regular session every 10th year thereafter, the legislature shall by law reapportion the United States congressional districts, the state senatorial districts, the state representative districts and the state board of education member districts as provided by this article. Reapportionment of such districts shall be on the basis of the population of the state as established by the most recent census of population taken and published by the United States bureau of the census. Senatorial, representative and state board of education member districts shall be reapportioned upon the basis of the population of the state adjusted: (a) To exclude nonresident military personnel stationed within the state and nonresident students attending colleges and universities within the state; and (b) to include military personnel stationed within the state who are residents of the state and students attending colleges and universities within the state who are residents of the state in the district of their permanent residence.

"§ 4. Establishment of redistricting commission. (a) Not later than February 15 of each year ending in one, a redistricting commission shall be established to recommend to the legislature redistricting plans for United States congressional districts, state representative districts, state senatorial districts and state board of education member districts.

- (b) The redistricting commission shall consist of the following members:
 - (1) One shall be appointed by the majority leader of the senate;

(2) one shall be appointed by the majority leader of the house of representatives;

(3) one shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate;

(4) one shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives; and

(5) within 30 days after the appointments described in paragraphs (1) through (4) have been made, but not later than March 15 of the year in which the commission is established, the four commission members so appointed shall select, by a vote of at least three members, the fifth commission member, who shall serve as chairperson.

(c) Any vacancy in the membership of the redistricting commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment or selection.

(d) No person, while a member of the commission, shall:

(1) Hold any federal, state or local office; or

(2) be an employee of the Kansas legislature, state board of education or United States congress.

(e) No person who has been a member of the redistricting commission shall be eligible, within two years after being a member of the commission, to:

(1) Be a member or employee of the Kansas legislature or state board of education; or

(2) hold any appointive state or federal office.

(f) The legislature shall provide by law for payment of compensation and expenses of members of the redistricting commission and for adequate staff, office space, equipment and materials for the commission.

(g) The terms of members of the redistricting commission shall expire on July 1 of each year ending in two, and the commission shall be inactive until reestablishment of the commission pursuant to this section.

"§ 5. Commission procedure and recommendations. (a) The redistricting commission shall establish rules and procedures as necessary to carry out the commission's functions. The rules and procedures shall include rules requiring formal submission to the commission of all communications with commission members. Ex parte communications with members of the commission in relation to the merits of matters before the commission shall be prohibited. Members of the commission shall report any violations of this prohibition to the attorney general and the legislature shall provide by law criminal penalties for such violations.

(b) The redistricting commission shall conduct public hearings throughout the state, including at least one public hearing in each state board of education member district.

(c) In recommending redistricting plans, the redistricting commission shall consider only the requirements of the constitution of the state of Kansas and the constitution of the United States, preservation of political subdivisions and preservation of communities of interest. The commission shall avoid placing more than one incumbent in a district except when necessary due to changes in the population of the state. Except as expressly provided in this subsection, the commission shall not intentionally develop redistricting plans that favor or discriminate against any individual, political party or group.

"§ 6. Legislative action; court review and action. (a) On or before the first day of the regular legislative session in each year ending in two, the redistricting commission shall introduce in the house of representatives a bill reapportioning the state representative districts and a bill reapportioning the United States congressional districts, and shall introduce in the senate a bill reapportioning the state senatorial districts and a bill reapportioning the state board of education member districts. The bills shall not be subject to amendment by either chamber of the legislature and each such bill shall be acted upon by each chamber within seven days after the bill is introduced in the chamber.

(b) If a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (a) is not enacted, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after rejection of the bill by either chamber of the legislature or veto of the bill by the governor, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. If the Kansas supreme court enters a judgment that a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (a) is invalid, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after entry of the judgment, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. Introduction of a bill pursuant to this section shall be in the same chamber as introduction of the original bill pursuant to subsection (a). The bill shall not be subject to amendment by either chamber and shall be acted upon by each chamber within seven days after the bill is introduced in the chamber.

(c) If a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (b) is not enacted, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after rejection of the bill by either chamber of the legislature or veto of the bill by the governor, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. If the Kansas supreme court enters a judgment that a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (b) is invalid, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after entry of the judgment, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. Introduction of a bill pursuant to this section shall be in the same chamber as introduction of the original bill pursuant to subsection (a). The bill shall be subject to amendment by either chamber and shall be acted upon by each chamber within 14 days after the bill is introduced in such chamber. When a bill is introduced pursuant to this subsection, the commission shall make the commission's staff and technical resources available to the legislature for use in preparation and consideration of amendments to the bill.

(d) If either chamber of the legislature rejects a bill introduced pursuant to this section, or the governor vetoes the bill, the chamber that rejects the bill, or the governor in the case of a veto, shall transmit to the commission a letter stating the reasons why the bill was not enacted, and the commission shall take such reasons into consideration in introducing a bill pursuant to this section, subject to the requirements of section 6(c). Any such letter shall be signed by both the speaker of the house of representatives and the minority leader of the house of representatives or both the president of the senate and the minority leader of the senate.

(e) Reapportionment bills shall be published in the Kansas register immediately upon final passage and approval by the governor. The districts enacted shall be effective for the next following regular election of legislators and thereafter until again the districts are reapportioned, except that the senatorial districts shall be effective for the next following regular election at which all senators are elected.

(f) Within 15 days after publication of any reapportionment bills enacted pursuant to this article, the attorney general shall petition the Kansas supreme court to determine the validity of the bill. The Kansas supreme court, in accordance with its rules, shall permit interested persons to present their views. Within 30 days after the filing of the petition, the Kansas supreme court shall enter its judgment. A judgment of the Kansas supreme court determining the bill to be valid shall be final until reapportionment of the districts is again required by this article.

"§ 7. Implementing legislation. The legislature may enact legislation, not in conflict with the provisions of this article, as reasonably necessary to implement such provisions."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. Current article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas governs reapportionment of state legislative districts. It provides for reapportionment by the legislature and requires that it be based on the most recent census taken by the United States bureau of the census, adjusted to exclude certain military personnel and certain students residing at colleges and universities. The revision of article 10 would govern reapportionment of the United States congressional districts, state legislative districts and the state board of education member districts. Under the revision, a redistricting commission would be established to recommend redistricting plans to the legislature. The legislature would enact a plan which would be subject to review by the Kansas supreme court. There would be strict deadlines for legislative action. Reapportionment of congressional districts, state legislative districts and state board of education member districts would be based on the most recent census taken by the United States bureau of the census, adjusted to exclude certain military personnel and certain students residing at colleges and universities.

"A vote for this proposition would change the procedure for reapportionment of United States congressional, state legislative and state board of education member districts.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the current procedures and basis for reapportionment."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2018 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2036. I believe in the principle of pay as you go, and while our rule regarding PAYGO does not technically apply to this bill, the principle and philosophy do. Legislation costing $7.7 million we don't have is irresponsible no matter how worthy the cause. – VIC MILLER

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: We were proud to vote YES on HB 2044, which included an amendment to expand Medicaid. We welcome the opportunity to discuss the suggested amendments during the course of Budget debate, when full fiscal notes are available to us regarding the financial impact of said suggested amendments. To pass the amendments without fiscal notes would not be looking after the states finances in a responsible manner. – STEPHANIE CLAYTON, LARRY HIBBARD, JOY KOESTEN, ANITA JUDD-JENKINS, SHELEE BRIM, TOM SLOAN, BRENDA DIETRICH, SUSIE SWANSON, DAVE BAKER, MARY MARTHA GOOD, DIANA DIERKS, GREG LEWIS, LONNIE CLARK, LINDA GALLAGHER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2044 due to the Medicaid Expansion amendment. We know that Medicaid changes are coming and the ACA will be repealed. Once this happens and expansion states are required to pay their regular FMAP, expansion will be unsustainable. It will place a financial burden on tax payers who are already under attack. The cost will exceed $464.5 million a year and growing. I hope the body thinks through the negative consequences of this action for our state and votes no with me. – DANIEL HAWKINS, LESLIE OSTERMAN, CHUCK WEBER, LES MASON, STEVE HUEBERT, KRISTEY

MR. SPEAKER: As offered in my testimony yesterday on HB 2044, there are thousands of hardworking Kansans that deserve access to healthcare even while considering the important issues of cost and overarching philosophy. I believe that HB 2044 responsibly provides that coverage for those Kansans in a way that can be budget neutral. I vote YES. – JOHN EPLEE, ELIZABETH BISHOP

MR. SPEAKER: While ObamaCare is on the verge of repeal by the US Congress and the President of the United States, this bill goes the other direction by expanding Medicaid to include able-bodied adults, forcing around 30,000 off their private plan and onto government assistance, and crowding out the disabled who are already on a waiting list. Expanding Medicaid is also estimated to add an additional $1.2 billion price tag over the next ten years to our State budget, something we simply can't afford. We support better ways to deliver healthcare to the poor and needy. Mr. Speaker, I vote no on HB 2044. – JOHN WHITMER, PETE DEGRAAF, BILL SUTTON, SEAN TARWATER, KEITH ESAU, WILLIE DOVE, RONALD ELLIS, KEVIN JONES, SUSAN HUMPHRIES, BLAKE CARPENTER, RANDY GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: I am proud to have voted YES on HB 2044, which includes an amendment to expand Medicaid. I also welcome the opportunity to discuss and consider the many amendments that were suggested during discussion of the bill, when full fiscal notes are available to us regarding the financial impact of said suggested amendments. I voted not to pass the amendments without fiscal notes as that would not be looking after the state's finances in a responsible manner. – JAN KESSINGER

HB 2066, AN ACT concerning use of state highway right-of-way; relating to reimbursement for certain relocation costs; public wholesale water supply districts; amending K.S.A. 68-415 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I can understand and empathize with the intent of HB 2304, but I cannot support it. I know first-hand how devastating it is to families who lose a child or grandchild unexpectedly. But where does this type of legislation end. Will it be when all childcare facilities are government run? We are telling private childcare providers how to run their business. This is government forcing its will on its citizenry. It is my opinion these decisions should be between the parent and the childcare provider. Mr. Speaker, I vote no on HB 2304. – RANDY GARBER, KEITH ESAU

Journal of the House

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, March 6, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Reps. Houser, Kuether, Pittman and Sawyer were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God in Heaven,
Thank you for this new day – new week after a brief break which was so needed and appreciated.
You have called these leaders to serve,
to live peacefully and to act justly.
Give to them today the wisdom, vision and resilience they need as they make decisions.
Give them a spirit of harmony and unity.
Help all of us to remember that our hope comes from You.
Your Word says we are blessed if we trust in You, and You bestow favor and honor on us if we walk blameless before You.
Show our leaders the way they should take in all the choices that come before them today.
Lord, we also pause today to remember the family of Srinivas Kuchibhotla who was tragically killed in Olathe.
Bring strength and comfort to them and help them realize and know that we are a people who truly desire to love all others as you love all.
This I pray in Christ's Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ousley.

Journal of the House

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 7, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Rep. Kuether was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Alcalá, Houser, Parker, Schwab and Winn were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Rep. Phelps:

Heavenly Father, we pause this Tuesday morning for reflection. So often as humans we seem to lose our way and wonder, "How did we get here?" We put our faith in maps and guides and think that if we just find the right one, all our problems will go away. Help us to remember that even as we despair, others are on much darker paths and need our help more than ever. Grant us the ability to recognize that our own differences are minor compared to the real challenges faced by the people we represent. Renew in us our charge: to help those less fortunate live out the same prairie optimism that exists for all Kansans. Whether that is road, schools or maps, please help us complete our work.

In your most holy and precious name we pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Gallagher.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Eplee are spread upon the Journal:

After falling one point short of a state championship in 2015, the Troy High School Football Team was able to capture the school's first ever football state title in 2016. The Trojans defeated the Plainville Cardinals 28-24 in a very exciting game on November 26, 2016, in Hays, Kansas. It was a perfect season for Troy as they finished with a record of 13-0. The 2016 Trojan Football Team was led by a strong Senior Class of 13 individuals who are not only outstanding athletes but amazing young men off the field, three of whom I delivered. Please join me in recognizing and congratulating these young men and their coaches.

Rep. Eplee introduced Head Coach Derek Jasper; Assistant Coach Don Cash (who coached Derek); the senior members of the Troy High School Trojans and the underclassmen in the gallery to the members of the House. He presented the coaches with framed House certificates.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

Today we celebrate the 30th birthday of the Kansas Lottery.

In 1986, Kansas voters approved an amendment to the Kansas Constitution to establish a state lottery. The 1987 Kansas Legislature and Governor Mike Hayden established the Kansas Lottery Act.

The 2006 Kansas Legislature and Governor Kathleen Sebelius established the Kansas Expanded Lottery Act.

Transfers from the Traditional Lottery provide support for the Economic Development Initiatives Fund (EDIF), veterans' programs, prison construction, juvenile detention facilities construction, Problem Gambling Addictions Grant Fund, and the State General Fund

Since selling the first ticket November 12, 1987...

- The Lottery has sold more than $5.4 billion worth of lottery products.
- Lottery players have won nearly $3.0 billion in prizes
- Kansas Lottery retailers have earned $309 million in commissions and bonuses.
- The Lottery has transferred more than $1.6 billion to the State of Kansas.

Expanded Lottery oversees four gaming zones and pari-mutuel racing. That includes contracting with casino managers to oversee the day-to-day operations of the four state casinos.

Transfers from the Expanded Lottery provide support to pay off state debt; state infrastructure improvements, the University Engineering Initiative and KPERS Actuarial Liability. 2% also goes to the Problem Gaming and Addictions Grant Fund and 3% to local governments.

Cumulative Casino Revenue Fund Transfers since 2009 include:

- More than $420 million to the state
- More than $38 million to the Problem Gambling and Addictions Grant Fund
- More than $57 million to City and County Recipients

The Kansas Lottery is a leader in innovation.

- Kansas was a founding member of the Multi-State Lottery Association and the Lotto America game, which later became Powerball.
- The Kansas Lottery launched eScratch, the first interactive Internet lottery game of its kind in the world.
- The Kansas Lottery was the first in the world to offer the Electronic Game Card, an electronic version of an instant scratch ticket.
- The Kansas Lottery developed a series of "Made in Kansas" instant games featuring Kansas events and Kansas companies.
- The Kansas Lottery was the first lottery to partner with the Kansas City Chiefs on an instant scratch game and the first state lottery in the country to partner with a professional soccer team for an instant ticket.

- A Kansas resident from Franklin County claimed one third of a $656 million Mega Millions jackpot, the largest Mega Millions jackpot to date.
- Since the beginning, the Kansas Lottery has created 92 millionaires.
- The Kansas Lottery set new records in Fiscal Year 2016, selling more than $272 million in Lottery products and transferring $78.2 million to the State of Kansas.

And today, we celebrate 30 years of the Lottery and all the contributions it has made to our state.

Kessinger introduced the following officials to the members of the House: Lottery Executive Director Terry Presta; Lottery Public Affairs Director, Sally Lunsford; Employees who joined the Lottery during its first year: Mike Todd, Pollie Unruh, Lori Koepsel, Ginger Tillman, Glenda Fletcher, Greg Coleman and Kevin Raine; Lottery Commissioners: Jim Washington and Alana Roethle; the Lottery's first Executive Director, Larry Montgomery and his wife Gwen; Linda Stomboly, of Cosentino's Food Stores, representing the Lottery's more than 1,735 lottery retailers; Ryan Hogue and Eric Peterson, Kansas Speedway, representing The Lottery's marketing partners and Dan Ihm, Kansas Star Casino and Resort, representing the Lottery's casino managers.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6016—

By Representatives Humphries, Blex, Brim, Crum, S., Elliott, Garber, Highland, Jacobs, Murnan, Osterman, R. Powell, Rafie, Resman, Smith, A., Smith, E., Sutton, Weber, C., Whitmer, K. Williams and Wilson

HR 6016 – A RESOLUTION recognizing that pornography is a public health hazard that leads to a broad spectrum of individual and public health impacts and societal harms.

WHEREAS, Pornography is creating a public health crisis and perpetuates a sexually toxic environment; and

WHEREAS, Efforts to prevent pornography exposure and addiction, to educate individuals and families concerning its harms and to develop recovery programs must be addressed systematically; and

WHEREAS, Due to advances in technology and the universal availability of the internet, young children are exposed to pornography at an alarming rate, with 27% of millennials, aged 25 to 30, reporting that they first viewed pornography before puberty, based on a 2016 Barna Group study; and

WHEREAS, This early exposure can lead to low self-esteem and body image disorders, an increase in problematic sexual activity at younger ages and an increased desire among adolescents to engage in risky sexual behavior; and

WHEREAS, Exposure to pornography often serves as a child's and a teen's sex education and shapes their sexual understanding, because pornography treats women and children as objects and commodities for the viewer's use. Pornography teaches girls that they are to be used and teaches boys to be users; and

WHEREAS, Pornography normalizes violence and abuse against women and children by treating women and children as objects, and often depicts rape and abuse as if they are harmless. Moreover, pornography equates violence towards women and children with sex, and equates pain with pleasure, which increases child sexual abuse and child pornography and the demand for sex trafficking and prostitution, according to a 2012 study published in The Protection Project Journal of Human Rights and Civil Society; and

WHEREAS, The potential detrimental effects on viewers of pornography can impact brain development and functioning, contribute to emotional and medical illnesses, shape deviant sexual arousal, as well as problematic or harmful sexual behaviors and addiction and lead to difficulty in forming or maintaining intimate relationships; and

WHEREAS, Recent research indicates that pornography is potentially biologically addictive, which means the user requires more mental stimulation, often in the form of more shocking material, in order to be satisfied. This biological addiction often leads to increasing themes of risky sexual behaviors, extreme degradation, violence and child sexual abuse images and child pornography; and

WHEREAS, Pornography use is linked to lessened desire in young men and women to marry, dissatisfaction in marriage and infidelity, which has a detrimental effect on the family unit; and

WHEREAS, Pornography has contributed to a rise in the occurrence of erectile dysfunction in young men; and

WHEREAS, Overcoming pornography's harms is extremely difficult for the afflicted individual to address alone: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize pornography is a public health hazard that leads to a broad spectrum of individual and public health impacts and societal harms; and

Be it further resolved: That we recognize the need for additional education, prevention, research and policy change at the community and societal levels, and we urge this chamber and other governing bodies to take appropriate steps to ensure progress is made; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to the Kansas Attorney General, Derek Schmidt; the Kansas Bureau of Investigation Director, Kirk Thompson; the Kansas Highway Patrol Superintendent, Colonel Mark Bruce; the Kansas Department of Health and Environment Secretary, Susan Mosier; the Kansas Library Association; the Kansas County & District Attorneys Association; the Kansas Sheriffs' Association; the Kansas Association of Chiefs of Police; the Kansas Association of District Court Clerks and Administrators; the Kansas Appellate Courts and the Kansas Supreme Court; the League of Kansas Municipalities; the Kansas County Commissioners Association; the American Family Association of Kansas and Missouri State Director, Phillip Cosby; and Representative Humphries.

On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Garber in the chair.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Rep. Garber, Committee of the Whole report, as follows, was adopted:

Recommended that on motion of Rep. Curtis to amend SB 43, Rep. Esau requested a ruling on the amendment being germane to the bill. The Rules Chair ruled the amendment not germane, and SB 43 be passed.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Taxation recommends HB 2162 be amended on page 2, in line 9, by striking "$80" and inserting "$400"; in line 11, by striking "$3,200" and inserting "$4,000"; in line 13, by striking "$3,200" and inserting "$4,000";

On page 3, in line 9, after "after" by inserting "January 1, 2018, and"; and the bill be passed as amended.

WHEREAS, More than 70,000 youth who attend an after-school program in Kansas are participating in project-based learning and apprenticeships that allow them to improve their 21st century skills; and

WHEREAS, Research shows that after-school programs help students perform better in school, improve work habits, elevate graduation rates, reduce juvenile crime and prepare students for in-demand careers, like those in STEM fields, which are expected to grow by 13% between 2012 and 2020; and

WHEREAS, Through after-school programs, students engage in enriching experiences that foster leadership, collaboration and responsibility; and

WHEREAS, For every one student enrolled in an after-school program, two are waiting to get into a program, and this ratio increases in rural areas to three students who are waiting to get into an after-school program; and

WHEREAS, Learning in after-school settings is often enhanced by an environment that supports personal attention from caring adults, positive peer groups, activities that youth find interesting, and building self-esteem; and

WHEREAS, These after-school programs provide healthy snacks and, sometimes, a meal accompanied by a health and nutrition lesson; and

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no Objection, the following remarks of Rep. Wheeler are spread upon the Journal:

The Kansas Humanitarian Commission works to empower Kansas citizens and businesses to serve their communities, meet local and global humanitarian needs, and promote a spirit of service through dialogue, acts and commerce. A special emphasis is to encourage young Kansans to live a life where service to our neighbors is second nature. The Commission was created by Lt. Governor Dr. Jeff Colyer and is made up of community leaders throughout the state. The first Kansas Annual Humanitarian of the Year Award for the year 2016 is our own native son, Dr. Luther Fry from Garden City, Kansas.

Born in Montezuma, Kansas, Dr. Fry attained his Eagle Scout in 1956. He is the founder of Fry Eye Associates. His specialty is cataract extraction and intraocular lens implantation.

Dr. Fry served in the U.S. Army as the Battalion Surgeon in the First Calvary Division in Vietnam. He is a fellow of the American College of Eye Surgeons and a diplomat of the American Board of Ophthalmology. Dr. Fry sits on the boards of the International Intraocular Implant Club and KU Advisory. He was a founding member and the 1988 Capital Campaign for the High Plains Public Radio, starting their endowment fund.

Dr. Fry lectures world-wide and holds an appointment as a KU volunteer faculty member. Dr. Fry has provided over 400 scholarships for young students to attend Garden City Community College. He has also donated money to purchase a much needed Atheresis machine to St. Catherine's Hospital in Garden City, Kansas.

Some other non-profits that Dr. Fry has touched are as follows:

Benincase House (housing for families needing medical treatment)

Emmaus House (housing for homeless)

Sante Fe Trail Council, BSA (rebuilding the council camp after a forest fire)

Finney County Zoo and Museum (Capital Campaign)

Smokey Hills Public Television Station (lead giver for the Capital Campaign)

Big Brothers and Big Sisters (program expansion)

I think it is important in understanding the true nature of Dr. Fry to give you some of the quotes from the person who nominated him for this award, Janie Welsh.

"Thanks to Dr. Fry no patient has ever been denied care because of his or her inability to pay. In fact, in just one year alone, 185 patients received over $160,000 in free or reduced cost of care."

"Dr. Fry has a true humanitarian vision, not only for the rural areas but also for the city, county, for the State, for our Nation and globally."

"He not only gives his money. He also gives of himself. Dr. Fry has touched and continues to touch so many people."

"When you look at him, you don't see someone dripping in jewels or fancy clothes. You see a humble man. You see a gentleman who has been, and still is, as generous to others as the good Lord has been to him."

"Governor Sam Brownback has said, 'Our states greatest resource is her people.' I believe that Dr. Fry personifies Kansas traits such as hard work and service to others. I believe there is no better humanitarian for the first Kansas Annual Humanitarian Year Award for 2016 than our own native son, Dr. Luther Fry."

I feel I must also note that of all the multi-thousand surgeries performed by Dr. Fry, his wife, Artis Fry, has attended at his side as his nurse.

Rep. Wheeler presented a House certificate to Dr. Fry.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the remarks of Rep. Swanson are spread upon the Journal:

Representative Davis and I are honored to recognize the wonderful work of the many organizations who support this life giving opportunity.

Two years ago Representative Davis and I shared our stories of life giving donations. Representative Davis donated stem cells to a young boy and I donated a kidney to a middle aged women. We are living proof that you don't have to die to donate!

However, the typical organ donation occurs at the time of death. By simply signing the back of your drivers license, you can affect the lives of so many people as a deceased donor.

- You can save up to eight lives through organ donation.
- You can improve up to 50 lives through tissue donation.
- You can renew vision for up to two people through cornea donation.
- You can change the lives of potentially millions through disease research and therapy.

If you are a little more adventuresome, you can be a live donor. By offering a kidney, lobe of a lung, portion of the liver, pancreas, intestine, or stem cells, living donors offer their loved one or friend an alternative to waiting on the national transplant waiting list for an organ from a deceased donor.

Currently in Kansas, nearly 400 people are awaiting a lifesaving transplant. Nationally more than 119,000 men, women, and children are on the waiting list. Every 10 minutes a name is added to the waiting list and an average of 22 people a day die while awaiting a transplant.

The Midwest Transplant Network has served Kansas and western Missouri with the mission of honoring the gift of donation with dignity and compassion. They are making great strides in educating our communities about the serious need for organ and tissue donors.

Members of Donate Life Kansas Team participating in Blue & Green Day at the Capitol today are in the House Gallery. They include: Midwest Transplant Network, Saving Sight, Kansas Eye Bank and Cornea Research Center, National Kidney Foundation, Kansas Kidney Coalition, Kansas Department of Revenue - Division of Vehicles, The Center for Transplantation at The University of Kansas Hospital and Hein Governmental Consulting.

Please be sure to stop by their booths on the 1st Floor, south wing for more information or to hear heartwarming stories about saving lives through donation.

Please join me in recognizing these vital organizations.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Wilson, HR 6017, A RESOLUTION recognizing after-school programs in Kansas and the increased exposure to Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) they provide to K-12 youth., was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Wilson are spread upon the Journal:

I would like to recognize these students from Quincy Elementary Visual Arts Learning Academy afterschool program, French Middle School STEAM afterschool program, and Olathe Northwest High School First Robotics team as well as the Kansas

Regional Afterschool Ambassadors.

Since 80 percent of youth's time is spent outside of the regular school day, afterschool, before-school and summer learning opportunities help keep Kansas youth safe, inspire them to learn and support working families. These programs provide a broad array of additional services designed to reinforce and complement the regular academic studies such as: hands-on experiments that excite students about science, technology, engineering, and math, access to physical activity, drug and violence prevention programs, formal and informal mentoring, counseling programs, art, music, health and wellness activities, and technology education programs.

Specifically, the students participating in afterschool programs that focus on science, technology, engineering, and math also known as STEM report an increase interest in science careers and gains in important 21st century skills such as critical thinking and perseverance—skills in high demand for today's workforce. Most recently, some of the Kansas afterschool programs participated in the Afterschool & STEM System Building Evaluation 2016, which found that 70 percent of students across all the states reported positive gains in areas of science interest, science identity, science career interest and career knowledge, and 21st century skills.

According to the labor market data, STEM jobs are among the fastest-growing and highest paying jobs in the country. Millions of STEM jobs are projected to go unfilled due to the gap between the skills employers need and the skills workers have. It's not only jobs directly in STEM occupations: by some estimates, nearly 80% of all new jobs created nationwide over the next decade will require STEM skills such as critical thinking, problem solving, creativity, perseverance, and experimentation. Additionally, 67% of Kansas jobs will require some level of postsecondary education or credential, by 2018. Afterschool programs have significant potential to help young people find their spark and prepare for success in school today and jobs tomorrow.

More than 70,000 students in Kansas participate in afterschool programs, yet 132,000 would participate in a program if one were available. For every 1 student enrolled in a program, 2 are waiting to get in. This increases in rural areas: for every 1 student enrolled, 3 are waiting to get into a program. Just by attending an afterschool program, students like these today, are improving their grades, school attendance and behavior. The Kansas Regional Ambassadors are working hard to create and sustain these wonderful out of school opportunities for youth in their communities. I encourage you to reach out to learn more.

FORTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 14, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.
Rep. Thimesch was excused on verified illness.
Rep. Seiwert was excused on legislative business.
Rep. Blex was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
This is the day in which You have made.
Help us to be good stewards of our time and wise in our actions throughout this day.
It's March Madness time again.
There is a lot of studying and learning going on right now;
discovering the other side's weaknesses, strength, go-to plays and patterns.
When the ball is dropped,
there will be passing, guarding, blocking, and shooting.
Screens will be set, quick transitions made, cuts executed and swift movements before a shot is taken.
Unfortunately, there will also be fouls made.
It is important that the team gets its best players into position to make the best plays for the whole team.
However, the most important thing is that the team works and plays together and exhibits good sportsmanship no matter the outcome.
As it is on the basketball court, may it be so in this legislature.
Sometimes we may see ourselves as opposing teams, but in reality we are one team playing for the win for our Kansas residents.
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ruiz.

Prayer by guest chaplain, James Collins, pastor, First Southern Baptist Church, Ft. Scott, and guest of Rep Jacobs.

Heavenly Father, Almighty God,

It is great to be in a place where we can worship and honor You. For You are the reason that we are here. You gave us the muscular and mental ability and vision to rise up and be available to be in your presence. It is not by accident. We know, Oh Lord, that there is no place on earth we can go that will separate us from Your love, protection, provision, and peace. I ask you now, O God, to fill us with the sense of your presence and refresh us with your eternal power.

Now, as a citizen of Kansas, I come before you today on behalf of all of the citizens of this great State. Lord, Your Word tells us that we should pray for those in authority over us. So, we now pause to pray for our House of Representatives. They have, and they continue to lead with purpose, vision, and direction. We look to you as you guide them in their initiatives, their efforts, and their accomplishments. Help these leaders as they work to make Kansas a better place.

We thank You, O God, that You are with us. We ask you to continue to inspire and protect us. For Yours is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory forever and ever.

This I pray in Your Mighty Name, Jesus. Amen.

Good morning colleagues! Today is Kansas Nonprofit Day at the Statehouse! We have volunteers and leaders representing more than twenty nonprofits in the Capitol today highlighting their organizations' mission-based work and the economic impact of nonprofits in Kansas.

One of these charitable organizations, the YMCA, has nearly fifty volunteers and staff advocates here from the ten Kansas YMCA associations located throughout the State.

The YMCA strengthens community and makes a difference in Kansas by focusing on three key areas: Youth Development, Healthy Living, and Social Responsibility. As the largest childcare provider in the State, the YMCA is investing in the future of our kids. I would like to take this moment to introduce to you some of our State's future leaders. Please help me welcome these YMCA preschoolers who attend preschool just down the street at the Early Learning Center at the Downtown Branch of the Greater Topeka YMCA, their Child Care Director, DeeDee Reedy, and the other students and volunteers in the balcony.

The YMCA would like to invite all legislators to their showcase booth on the 2nd floor of the rotunda where you can have your blood pressure checked or engage in a STEM activity, making paper airplanes out of alphabet letters, with the Topeka YMCA preschoolers.

In addition, all legislators are welcome to join the YMCA and the other Kansas nonprofits today at a networking reception from 5-7pm at the Dillon House.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I reluctantly vote No on HB 2168. I believe that the state has a responsibility to encourage economic development in rural areas, but I believe that this bill needs further review to ensure that it accomplishes its goals. Specifically, it appears to me that the tax credits issued under this bill could be used to offset the tax liability of an affiliate of an investment company regardless of whether the company itself successfully creates rural jobs. I think it is telling that the primary proponent of the bill was a venture capitalist, while our Department of Commerce stayed silent. – DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2168. I applaud the effort to attract businesses to our smaller communities, but this is not the way. We should help our existing businesses grow by ensuring they have access to high speed internet, employee job training programs and health care providers. Providing tax credits to new businesses will not be successful, if four years of no income tax liabilities for many businesses has not resulted in businesses locating in rural Kansas. – TOM SLOAN

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2168. I sincerely hope this bill fulfills its laudable purpose and does not result in the victimization of Kansas businesses by out-of-state venture capital companies. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

HB 2228, AN ACT concerning property taxation; relating to exemptions; allowing county appraisers to exempt certain property without order from the board of tax appeals; amending K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 79-213 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

- Compact Relating to Cigarette Sales, Taxation and Escrow Collection with the Sac and Fox Nation of Missouri in Kansas and Nebraska as of March 10, 2017.

I hereby give notice of this executive action and transmit the Compact to the Legislature for the required approval pursuant to applicable law.

Dated: March 14, 2017

SAM BROWNBACK
Governor of Kansas

COMPACT RELATING TO CIGARETTE SALES, TAXATION AND ESCROW COLLECTION

Between

The Sac And Fox Nation Of Missouri In Kansas And Nebraska

and

The State Of Kansas

This Compact Relating to Cigarette Sales, Taxation and Escrow Collection (“Compact”) is entered into between the Sac And Fox Nation Of Missouri In Kansas And Nebraska (“Tribe”) and the State of Kansas (“State”) and its agencies. The Tribe and the State are collectively referred to as the “Parties.” The Parties agree as follows:

WHEREAS, the Tribe is a federally-recognized tribe with certain sovereign powers of self-government;

WHEREAS, the State is a state within the United States of America possessed of full powers of state government;

WHEREAS, the Tribe is situated on and occupies a federally-established Indian Reservation situated, in part, in the northeastern part of Kansas;

WHEREAS, federal law recognizes that tribal jurisdiction exists on Qualified Tribal Lands regarding the rights of an Indian Tribe to pass its own laws and be governed by them, including the right to levy taxes and regulate commerce;

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of both the State and the Tribe to prevent disputes between the Parties regarding possession, transport, distribution, and Sale of Cigarettes and other Tobacco Products, including but not limited to taxation and escrow collection, in the State of Kansas, on Compact Lands;

WHEREAS, on November 23, 1998, the State became party to the MSA;

WHEREAS, certain Tobacco Product Manufacturers, which are party to the MSA, are obligated, in return for a release of past, present and certain future claims against them as described therein, to pay substantial sums to State (tied in part to their volume of Sales); to fund a national foundation devoted to the interests of public health; and to make substantial changes in their advertising and marketing practices and corporate culture, with the intention of reducing underage smoking;

WHEREAS, it would be contrary to the policy of State if Tobacco Product Manufacturers who determine not to enter into such a settlement could use a resulting cost advantage to derive large, short-term profits in the years before liability may arise without ensuring that State will have an eventual source of recovery from them if they are proven to have acted culpably;

WHEREAS, the State entered into a Secondary Settlement Agreement with certain participating Tobacco Product Manufacturers in 2012 settling State's obligations under the MSA and disputes regarding certain payment adjustments under the MSA with respect to NPMs (as that term is defined below) for calendar years 2003-2012;

WHEREAS, as part of said Secondary Settlement Agreement, State has agreed to undertake certain diligent enforcement efforts of its Cigarette and other Tobacco Product laws and more specifically, its MSA laws on Qualified Tribal Lands within the borders of State;

WHEREAS, the Parties are of the opinion that cooperation between the Tribe and the State is mutually productive and beneficial;

WHEREAS, the State and the Tribe agree that it will serve the interests of both the State and the Tribe for the Tribe to be able to generate revenue for governmental purposes through the collection of certain Tribal taxes in accordance with this Compact and resolve their differences regarding the collection of escrow on certain Cigarettes Sold on Compact Lands;

WHEREAS, the Tribe has the authority pursuant to Article V of its Constitution to enter into agreements with the State and to enter into agreements for the economic benefit of the Tribe.

NOW THEREFORE, the State, as signed by the Governor and approved by the Kansas Legislature, and the Tribe, as approved by the Tribe's Tribal Council hereby enter into this Compact for the mutual benefit of the State and the Tribe, to-wit:

Distributor, and (iii) bear indicia of payment of excise tax to the extent required in this Compact. In any event, such joint inspections shall not be disruptive of the business operations nor damage any inventory of any Compact Licensed Retailer or Compact Licensed Distributor.

32. The State reserves the right hereunder to initiate and participate in up to twelve (12) joint inspections described in paragraph 31 per calendar year, with a limit of up to two (2) such joint inspection per calendar month; provided, however, that joint inspections of any one or more separate premises on the same Business Day shall only constitute one “joint inspection” for purposes of the preceding limitations; provided, further, that if the State and Tribe inspection team notes any violations of this Compact by one or more Compact Licensed Retailers or Compact Licensed Distributors during any such joint inspection, the State may initiate, by giving notice in accordance with paragraph 33, one follow-up joint inspection with the Tribe of all premises involved in such violations on a subsequent Business Day following the earlier of notice of completed cure related to such violations, with such follow-up joint inspection not counting against the monthly or annual limits set forth in this sentence.

33. The Tribe shall make its personnel available for joint inspections permitted hereunder on a Business Day between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. upon prior email notice to the Tribe transmitted by a representative of the State by 10:00 a.m. one Business Day prior to the requested inspection. State representatives and Tribal representatives shall coordinate the details of the joint inspection by 3:00 p.m. on the day of such email notice. Any email notice provided to the Tribe pursuant to this section shall be given at tribaltax@sacandfoxcasino.com or by written notice.

34. Any Packs of Cigarettes found for Sale at a Compact Licensed Retailer during a permitted joint inspection that are not brands of Tobacco Product Manufacturers meeting the requirements as provided in paragraphs 23 and 24 or that do not bear indicia of payment of excise tax as required in this Compact shall be removed by the Tribe until the matter is resolved.

35. Tribe and State shall select a third party auditor (the “Auditor”) for purposes of verifying compliance with this Compact. For purposes of verifying compliance with this Compact, the parties agree to jointly retain said Auditor and shall each bear fifty percent (50%) of the costs of the auditing services. The Auditor must possess a valid Kansas Permit to Practice issued by the Kansas Board of Accountancy. The Tribe and State shall be entitled to freely communicate with the Auditor. The Auditor will review records on an annual calendar year basis and issue an annual report and certification as provided herein.

(a) Audit Protocol. To verify compliance with this Compact, the Auditor must adhere to the following protocol:

(b) Period Under Review. The Auditor must review records for the calendar year under audit and may review records for earlier years that are after the Effective Date but only as necessary for an internal reconciliation of the relevant books. Subject to the foregoing, records relating to any period before the Effective Date are not open to review. In situations where the Auditor is responsible for verifying records on less than an annual basis, the period under review shall not include years previously reviewed by the Auditor, except when a violation is alleged to have occurred during the period previously reviewed.

(c) Records to be Examined. The Auditor must review records and invoices of stamp purchases, records and invoices of Sales of joint State-Tribal stamped Cigarettes, joint State-Tribal stamp inventory, the joint State-Tribal stamping process, products sold, product inventory records, and such additional records as are necessary to verify (1) the Units Sold (2) the retail selling price, including application of Tribal sales and excise taxes, and (3) procedures demonstrating the Tribe's compliance with this Compact, all with respect to Sales of Cigarettes on Compact Lands by the Tribe. In all situations, the Auditor is not responsible for examining, and shall not examine, records that do not relate to the stamping, Selling, or taxing activities of the Tribe on Compact Lands.

(d) Audit Report and Certification. After each annual audit, the Auditor shall issue an audit report and a certification, as further described below, with respect to compliance with this Compact. The annual audit report shall set forth the total Units Sold attributable to each Tobacco Product Manufacturer by the Tribe during the relevant period. The annual audit report shall also include a certified statement of the Auditor to the KSAG that the Auditor finds the Tribe to be in compliance with this Compact or else that the Tribe is in compliance except for specifically listed items that are explained in the annual report.

(e) Audit Schedule. Audit reviews shall take place following each calendar year (or portion thereof) during the term of this Compact, with an audit report submitted no later than April 1 following such calendar year.

(f) Joint Audit Implementation and Review. The Tribe and the State shall meet jointly with the Auditor prior to the beginning of each annual audit. The purpose of such meeting will be to discuss the objectives of the upcoming audit, the expectations of the Tribe and of the State, the standards to be used in such audit, and any issues regarding conduct of the audit, records pertinent to the audit or the contents of the Auditor's report. The Tribe and State agree that the report will audit the processes, controls and the supporting documentation of the Tribe's purchases and Sales of Cigarettes and tobacco products on Compact Lands using both Generally Accepted Auditing Standards and Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Subsequent meetings before and during the audit may be held as required. As soon as practicable after the issuance of the Auditor's report and certification, the Tribe and the State may meet jointly with the Auditor as often as required to review the audit report and discuss any issue of concern. In the event that either the Tribe or the State disagrees with the Auditor's report or certification, or any audit finding contained therein, either Party may notify the other of the disagreement and follow the procedures for resolution of the disagreement in Article III, Paragraph 1 of this Compact.

36. All information, including but not limited to, any lists showing total Sales of Cigarettes in paragraphs 30 and 31, provided to the State shall be held in confidence and only shared with other states, agencies, or other third parties (to which the State has a legal obligation to share such information), solely for enforcement purposes or for establishing the State's compliance with the MSA, Secondary Settlement Agreement and Escrow Statutes. The State agrees to provide notice to the Tribe ten (10) days prior to the release of such information to any of the Parties listed in this paragraph. The State may not share this information with any other person without written consent from the Compact Licensed Distributor that provided the information. Such information shall further be specifically exempt from disclosure under the Kansas Open Records Act (K.S.A. 45-215 et. seq.).

37. During the Term of this Compact, State may enter into and be party to one or more compacts or other agreements regarding possession, transport, distribution, or Sale of Cigarettes or other Tobacco Products, including but not limited to taxation and escrow collection, with the Iowa Tribe of Kansas and Nebraska, the Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas or the Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation but State shall not enter into or be party to any such compact or agreement with any Indian Tribe other than the foregoing. The State agrees that Tribe may propose an amendment to this Compact by written notice to the State based on any provision of a compact which State may enter into with one or more of the foregoing Indian tribes which Tribe desires to include as a provision in this Compact. Any amendment proposed pursuant to this section will be subject to approval of the Kansas Legislature and the Tribe's Tribal Council.

38. The reference to and citation of State statutes and laws in this Compact shall be for reference only for the convenience of the Parties and considered nothing more than contractual terms and obligations. While the Tribe agrees to comply with all contractual obligations set forth in this Compact, no reference to or incorporation of laws, rules, or regulations in this Compact shall be construed as a waiver or cession of any sovereign authority or immunity of the Tribe or an agreement by the Tribe to be subject to such laws, rules or regulations within Indian Country except to the extent agreed to herein.

39. Notwithstanding any provision of this Compact to the contrary, the possession, gift, or use within the Tribe's Compact Lands of noncommercial privately produced tobacco for religious or ceremonial use shall be exempt from taxation by the State and may be exempt from taxation by the Tribe. Such tobacco shall be deemed not to be a common nuisance or contraband pursuant to State law or process, in each case on grounds of non-payment of any State tax. For the purposes of this section, "tobacco" shall mean any plant, including parts or products thereof, within the genus Nicotania and which does not constitute a "controlled substance" within the meaning of 21 U.S.C. 802(6).

40. All notices under this Compact shall be in writing and sent by way of certified U.S. mail to the following officials or their successors in office:

ADDRESS OF CHIEF JUSTICE LAWTON R. NUSS TO THE JOINT SESSION OF THE 2017 LEGISLATURE

THE STATE OF THE KANSAS JUDICIARY IN 2017

Speaker Ryckman, President Wagle, distinguished members of the House and Senate, honored guests, and my fellow Kansans.

In 2011 and 2012 I stood in this same spot and told you about my great-grandparents. They once lived in a dugout carved in a creek bank outside Dodge City where they were homesteading their claim. I also said that as a descendant from these humble beginnings, I considered it a special honor to stand before all of you in this magnificent chamber of the people – and to report on the judicial branch of my native state. I still consider it a very special honor.

I thank Speaker Ryckman for generously offering me this third opportunity. And I thank President Wagle for graciously agreeing to the scheduling of this event.

Mr. Speaker, I also thank you for inviting my judicial colleagues who are with me today: the justices on the Supreme Court and the judges on the Court of Appeals. For many years the Supreme Court justices worked in the Capitol building, holding their proceedings in the courtroom here. So members of our three branches of government got to see one another on a regular basis, and perhaps they got to know each other as individuals. Once the courts moved to the Kansas Judicial Center in 1978, however, those opportunities for forging personal relationships between jurists and legislators decreased. So it's nice to have an occasion like this to get to know each other a little better because, after all, we all work for the people of Kansas. Or as cowboy singer and bronc rider Chris LeDoux would say, we're all "riding for the [Kansas] brand."

And toward that end, we have been allowed to schedule a reception outside the old Supreme Court chamber after my remarks. To help you navigate that reception, please permit me to now briefly introduce the jurists by court and by seniority. Starting with the:

Supreme Court justices:

- I am native of Salina: central part of state
- Marla Luckert: native of Goodland (western border)
- Carol Beier: native of KCK (eastern border)
- Eric Rosen: native of Topeka
- Lee Johnson: native of Caldwell (southern border)
- Dan Biles: native of El Dorado
- Caleb Stegall: native of Lawrence

Court of Appeals judges:

--Chief Judge Karen Arnold-Burger: of Overland Park (And recent recipient of an Award for Teaching Excellence as a faculty member of the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada)

- G. Joseph Pierron, Jr.: Lawrence
- Henry W. Green, Jr.: Leavenworth
- Stephen D. Hill: Paola
- Michael B. Buser: Overland Park
- Melissa Taylor Standridge: Leawood
- G. Gordon Atcheson: Overland Park
- David Bruns: Kansas City, Kansas
- Tony Powell: Wichita
- Kim Schroeder: Hugoton
- Kathryn Gardner: Topeka

These are your appellate jurists.

A few minutes ago I mentioned cowboy singer Chris LeDoux and "ridin' for the brand." That lyric comes from his song, "You Just Can't See Him, From The Road." Now LeDoux is talking about cowboys – working out in the pastures far away from public view and any public acclaim but still in the saddle and still working. The same can often be said about many of the 250 judges and 1,600 employees in the judicial branch. Kansans don't see us until they need us. So allow me to tell you a little bit about what "you just can't see, from the road" – but only from within the courthouses in our 105 counties.

This task creates a bit of a challenge. Because many of you are new to the legislature and may be unaware of judicial branch events the last few years. Others of you may not be new but for one reason or another were unable to attend my State of the Judiciary speeches after 2012. Still others may have been keeping close track of our events. So I have tried to strike a balance among these groups. My apologies to those who already know a lot of this.

In 2010, the Supreme Court had to close all Kansas courts for 4 days for lack of money. While virtually unavoidable due to the poor condition of the economy, it motivated the Court to see if we could improve our administration of justice, be more efficient, and make best use of the hard-earned money of Kansas taxpayers. So we started Project Pegasus. It consisted of two parts: (1) a weighted caseload study to measure the actual workloads of all district courts in our 105 counties and (2) a 24-person Blue Ribbon Commission.

The commission's purpose was to review the judicial branch operations and make recommendations to the Supreme Court for possible changes. In doing so, it performed the most extensive review of Judicial Branch operations statewide since the 1970's. One of its members, John Wheeler, is now a member of this House. Another member, Sam Williams, is now the Secretary of the Department of Revenue.

One of the Blue Ribbon Commission's main recommendations in Project Pegasus was to improve Judicial Branch efficiencies by making fuller use of advances in technology. So let me start by updating you on our electronic courts project which I first talked about in my speech here in 2011.

I will begin with electronic filing (or e-filing). You probably know this enables legal documents to be filed with the courts electronically. At this time I'm very proud to report some exciting news. After years of work, implementation of an e-filing system was completed in 2016 for all state courts – in 105 counties and in both the appellate courts.

The first years were funded through federal grants. But the completion was made possible because the legislature earmarked some docket fee revenues for the project the last several years. I join many Kansans in thanking you for those important appropriations. It means hundreds of thousands of court documents are being filed without people having to travel to the courthouses or put them in the mail.

I mentioned in past years that the plan has been for e-filing to eventually be integrated with an electronic case management and document management system different from the ones presently used by most court personnel in processing cases. This will allow us to shift from a paper-based system to one that will provide judges, court staff and attorneys with immediate, statewide access to case information, details, and records provided by the Kansas courts. And our employees in any county courthouse should be able to work from their computers on court business for other counties. This alone is a big benefit because it allows the Supreme Court to more effectively and efficiently manage the state's court system. Eventually, the Kansas e-court system will also provide the public with statewide 24-hour access to some of the most frequently requested court services from any computer with an internet connection.

Over a year ago the planning committee for our multi-million dollar e-courts project began to discuss exactly how to link the computer systems from courts in 105 counties to become one centralized computer network. Because a variety of systems have developed in the different district courts over time, you can appreciate this is a massive undertaking. One subcommittee surveyed the state to identify the existing technical capacities and capabilities of all the different courthouses. The full committee then received vendor bids in response to our request for proposal based upon that survey. In about 3 weeks the committee will observe vendor demonstrations as a step toward final selection. During this time, another subcommittee has been looking to standardize the various practices currently performed throughout all the state courts.

We anticipate that the statewide e-courts project will be completed within 3 years. That will be an important day because it will bring more uniformity and efficiency to the entire court system to benefit Kansans – one of the greatest achievements since court unification in the 1970's.

upon today is the weighted caseload study. This statewide study allowed us to accurately determine, by actual workloads, how many judges and court clerks were needed and where they were needed in the state. But it excluded any employee not working directly in the offices of the clerks of the court, such as administrative assistants, court reporters, and probation officers.

So last year we conducted a "position inventory" to include these additional 700 employees. This process reviewed not only the hard data from the continually-updated weighted caseload study from Pegasus, but it also considered the experience and actual observations of our 31 chief judges and their longtime employees. This assessment, together with the updated weighted caseload information, helps us determine needed personnel levels on an ongoing basis. It also allows us to consider the impact of recent advancements in technology on those staffing needs.

These studies and our increased use of technology such as e-filing have indeed been valuable tools in modernizing court operations. That in turn benefits the Kansans we serve.

But as we are gaining efficiency through them, we are also losing efficiency through increased turnover of highly experienced judges and employees. Besides retirement, these losses are primarily because of low compensation. For the same reason, we often have had real trouble finding suitable replacements in many courthouses.

According to the polls, the team from my alma mater, the University of Kansas, was recently ranked #1 in the nation for playing basketball. A lot of Kansans are rightfully proud of that – even some diehard K-State fans like Justice Luckert and Wichita State graduates like my son Graham. By contrast, according to the National Center for State Courts, Kansas district judges (the trial judges in your communities), rank next to last in the nation for what they get paid. And only 45th when adjusted for cost of living.

The National Center for State Courts does not maintain information from all other states that we can compare with the compensation earned by our (1) court employees and (2) district magistrate judges. So using a grant, last year we hired the experts from that organization to study these two groups.

For magistrate pay, among the things the National Center's compensation study revealed:

A little over 22% is needed to raise district magistrate judge salaries to market level.

More than one-fourth of our magistrate judges who responded to the survey indicated they are seeking employment outside the judicial branch. The number one reason given? Compensation.

For employee pay, among the things we learned:

More than one-fourth of our employee positions have starting salaries below the federal poverty level for a family of four.

Every single judicial branch job classification is below market pay rate, some by as much as 22%.

Approximately 700 of our 1,600 employees are paid about 18% below market.

Nearly one-third of our employees also need to work jobs outside the Judicial Branch to make ends meet. This is 24 % higher than the Kansas average.

One hour before my State of the Judiciary speech in 2014, legislators voted to give our employees a 2% cost of living adjustment. In my remarks, I led the audience in applauding and publicly thanking the legislature. Outside of that adjustment, no compensation increase has been provided to Judicial Branch employees or judges since July 2008 – nearly 9 years ago.

Conclusion: It is human nature for people to devote their time and money to those things that are most valuable to them. So all Kansans may want to ask themselves: what value do we place on the administration of justice in our state?

Getting down to brass tacks, or hard facts, what do all these people in the Judicial Branch do for the money you currently invest in them? Well, last fiscal year, they processed almost 400,000 new cases filed in the district courts. This caseload included more than 20,000 felony cases and more than 14,000 misdemeanor cases. They supervised nearly 17,000 convicted criminals on probation, including 3,000 convicted sex offenders. They protected almost 7,000 children who were in need of care by ruling on requests related to their safety and wellbeing. And they protected nearly 14,000 people by issuing restraining orders, to say nothing of the civil cases, probate, juvenile, domestic, traffic, and others.

Last year our court clerks also collected more than $180 million. This included restitution for crime victims and monies for private judgments, for some state agencies, and for the general funds of counties and the State. Of that $180 million, we collected $53 million to fund state government.

Returning to a few other Blue Ribbon Commission recommendations, one generally was to increase Judicial Branch use of technology in addition to e-courts. One specific example I will share is the expanded use of:

Videoconferencing: Our Court of Appeals continues with its pilot project to use videoconferencing for certain activities instead of requiring attorneys to sustain the expense of coming to Topeka. Last year it heard its first cases argued by videoconference. In the latest case, the judges sat in their courtroom in the Judicial Center and the attorneys spoke from their offices in Hill City more than 250 miles away. Everyone involved pronounced it a success; so look for more cost-saving videoconference arguments in the future.

Specialty Courts: The Commission also recommended we continue examining the effectiveness of our specialty or problem-solving courts across the state. They differ from the usual courts because they coordinate services provided to criminal offenders with direct, sometimes intense, supervision by a judge. Most of these are drug courts which attempt to address an offender's underlying substance abuse problems – problems that often lead to a frustrating cycle of criminal offenses, incarceration, and then more offenses. National research has shown that drug courts can be effective in reducing offender recidivism. That in turn saves considerable judicial and correctional resources.

Two new types of specialty courts have recently been established with this same goal in mind. Johnson County District Court started our state's first veterans' court in 2016 for those who have committed misdemeanors or lower-level felonies and who are eligible for treatment by the Veterans Administration. Like drug courts, veterans' courts offer alternatives to incarceration. They do not treat criminal defendant veterans differently just because they happen to be veterans. Rather, they help veterans who may be suffering as a result of serving our country. The veterans' court programs allow eligible veterans to voluntarily participate in a 12-18 month program of frequent court appearances, drug and alcohol testing at least twice a week, treatment, recovery support meetings, and mentoring by another veteran. As a veteran myself, and the grandfather of a soldier who deploys to Afghanistan next month, I am especially pleased to report that currently about 20 veterans are participating in the program with the first one graduating several weeks ago.

Similarly, Douglas County District Court established a Behavioral Health Court to target those whose mental health issues may have contributed to the criminal charges against them. Inmates with mental health issues or dual diagnosis of mental illness and substance abuse are released from the county jail to the court, which then orders and monitors treatment. The goal is to dismiss the charges after a period of successful intervention and treatment. The Behavioral Health Court expects to divert as many as 30 inmates from the jail each year. This program represents excellent collaboration among the court, the District Attorney, Court Services, a behavioral health center, local law enforcement, and other community based treatment providers.

Time Standards: Acting on another Commission recommendation, the Supreme Court created a committee to help review and revise time standards for decisions in appellate court and district court cases. The committee includes judges from the appellate courts, judges and magistrate judges of the district court, civil practice lawyers, prosecutors, and criminal defense lawyers. While its work is not complete, it has resulted in the Supreme Court adopting internal standards for timeliness of issuing its decisions. Those standards are:

25 percent of all decisions released to the public within 90 days of oral argument 50 percent released within 180 days; and 95 percent within 270 days.

Death penalty cases are the exception.

Supreme Court travel: My last topic on the State of the Kansas Judiciary is not a Commission recommendation but nevertheless of great value. That is, the appellate courts have taken their proceedings directly to the people of Kansas. The Court of Appeals has heard cases argued across the state for years.

Starting in 2011, the Supreme Court followed that lead and heard cases in Salina, Greensburg and Wichita. Since then, we have heard cases in Garden City, Hays, Hiawatha, Hutchinson, Kansas City, Overland Park, Pittsburg and Topeka. Later this month we will be in Winfield. That session will be our sixth one held in the evening; so that people who work during the day can come and see for themselves, who we are, what we do, and how we do it.

To date it appears that Hays has the record turnout: nearly 700 people attended. But remember, Winfield, records are made to be broken.

CONCLUSION:

During recent times, it has become especially clear that Americans hold different views on important subjects: Democrats and Republicans; conservative Republicans and moderate Republicans; Progressives and Libertarians, maybe even Jayhawks and Shockers. One side quotes its guru while another side quotes its own champion from history. In my past State of the Judiciary speeches I too have quoted historic figures. They ranged from Abraham Lincoln in 1859 to Winston Churchill in the 20th century. And tonight I quoted a more recent, but lesser-known, Chris LeDoux.

But for a conclusion, I searched for someone who not only is well-known but also is nonpartisan – who is as uncontroversial as possible. I found someone who served as head of the Army; as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; as the unanimously-elected chairman of the constitutional convention of 1787; as the first president of the United States – twice receiving all electoral college votes; a man who refused to serve more than two terms as president because he was concerned about abuse of power. I speak, of course, of George Washington. So what did President Washington say that is of relevance to us this afternoon?

"The administration of justice – is the firmest pillar of government."

Your Kansas judges and Judicial Branch employees have been proudly "firming up" this pillar of government for the last 156 years. With your help, we can look forward to doing so for years to come.

Now I am well aware you are facing many challenges during this legislative session. Maybe some of the biggest ones ever. But I also believe that you will continue to take fair account of the needs of the Judicial Branch – our judges and employees – as we administer justice to Kansans.

And finally, for the good work you have done for the people of our state in these difficult times, I want to express my gratitude.

I look forward to visiting with you at the reception. I bid you Godspeed.

On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, March 16, 2017.

FORTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 16, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Kenneth J. Harder, pastor, Emmanuel Mennonite Church, Meade, and guest of Rep. Orr:

Dear Heavenly Father, What a privilege is to serve you and this great State of Kansas. You say in your Holy Word that if any lack wisdom we were to ask you for it, not trust in ourselves for it. I ask you for wisdom. Infuse your divine wisdom into the representatives of this house, to the senators also, and the governor. Protect their families as we know that families are the backbone and foundation of a prospering society. Thank you Lord for each family and the situations which they are facing today. Thank you also for our firefighters who protected us last week during the wild fires. Bless them and their families. Renew the land once again by sending us the rain and restore what has been lost and comfort those who have lost loved ones. Bring us together to rebuild for your glory and our benefit. Then last but not least, thank you for all of the human and material resources we as Kansans have access to; they belong to you. Since they belong to you, will you bless us again and show us how to get out of the budget shortfall. Let the decisions that come forth from this legislature and from judges in our courts be just and right God honoring.

I ask all these things in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ who died to pay our sins. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Curtis.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Ryckman, HR 6023, A RESOLUTION honoring the life of Srinivas Kuchibhotla and recognizing a united community and state, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ryckman are spread upon the Journal:

In February, an innocent life was taken in Olathe, at Austin's Bar and Grill. Our hearts go out to the family, friends, coworkers, and neighbors of Srinivas Kuchibhotla who are grieving and mourning at home and abroad. Srinivas was a specialized engineer at Garmin, who came to Kansas to pursue the American Dream.

These two gentlemen, Alok Madasani and Ian Grillot, were injured and are still actively recovering. We are very grateful that both of them could be with us today. They acted in good faith and are heroes, and we would like to thank them.

We would also like to thank the India Association of Kansas City, the City of Olathe, and Garmin for providing so much support for the community, and especially for the victims families.

This tragedy has devastated Olathe, and while it has been a shock, it has also strengthened our community and reaffirmed our compassion and unity. This event certainly does not represent our city, our county, or our state. Thousands have come together to offer love, support, and continued prayers. These evil acts do not define us, and they will not divide us. This is Kansas, and acts of evil, like this, have no place here.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Rep. Landwehr, Committee of the Whole report, as follows, was adopted:

Recommended that HB 2343 be passed.

Roll call was demanded on motion of Rep. Hodge to amend SB 17 on page 1, following line 4, by inserting:

"WHEREAS, The amendments to K.S.A. 40-284 and K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 40-3107 by this act shall be known and may be cited as the injured motorist fair compensation act.

Now, therefore:"

Also on page 1, following line 31, by inserting:

"Sec. 2. On and after January 1, 2018, K.S.A. 40-284 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-284. (a) No automobile liability insurance policy covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle shall be renewed, delivered or issued for delivery in this state on or after January 1, 2018, with respect to any motor vehicle registered or principally garaged in this state, unless the policy contains or has endorsed thereon, a provision with coverage limits equal to the limits of liability coverage for bodily injury or death in such automobile liability insurance policy sold to the named insured for payment of part or all sums which the insured or the insured's legal representative shall be legally entitled to recover as damages from the uninsured owner or operator of a motor vehicle because of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death, resulting therefrom, sustained by the insured, caused by accident and arising out of ownership, maintenance or use of such motor vehicle, or providing for such payment irrespective of legal liability of the insured or any other person or organization. No insurer shall be required to offer, provide or make available coverage conforming to this section in connection with any excess policy, umbrella policy or any other policy which does not provide primary motor vehicle insurance for liabilities arising out of the ownership, maintenance, operation or use of a specifically insured motor vehicle.

(b) Any uninsured motorist coverage shall include an underinsured motorist provision with coverage limits equal to the limits of liability provided by such uninsured motorist coverage which enables the insured or the insured's legal representative to recover from the insurer the amount of damages for bodily injury or death to which the insured is legally entitled from the owner or operator of another motor vehicle ~~with coverage limits equal to the limits of liability provided by such uninsured motorist coverage~~ to the extent such ~~coverage exceeds damages exceed~~ the limits of the bodily injury coverage carried by the owner or operator of the other motor vehicle. In no event shall the amount of available underinsured motorist coverage be reduced because of any payment by or on behalf of the owner or operator of the other motor vehicle or any third party.

(c) The insured named in the policy shall have the right to reject, in writing, the uninsured motorist coverage required by subsections (a) and (b) which is in excess of the limits for bodily injury or death set forth in K.S.A. 40-3107, and amendments thereto. A rejection by an insured named in the policy of the uninsured motorist coverage shall be a rejection on behalf of all parties insured by the policy. Unless the insured named in the policy requests such coverage in writing, such coverage need not be provided in any subsequent policy issued by the same insurer for motor vehicles owned by the named insured, including, but not limited to, supplemental, renewal, reinstated, transferred or substitute policies where the named insured had rejected the coverage in connection with a policy previously issued to the insured by the same insurer.

(d) Coverage under the policy shall be limited to the extent that the total limits available cannot exceed the highest limits of any single applicable policy, regardless of the number of policies involved, persons covered, claims made, vehicles or premiums shown on the policy or premiums paid or vehicles involved in an accident.

(e) Any insurer may provide for the exclusion or limitation of coverage:

(1) When the insured is occupying or struck by an uninsured automobile or trailer owned or provided for the insured's regular use;

(2) when the uninsured automobile is owned by a self-insurer or any governmental entity;

(3) when there is no evidence of physical contact with the uninsured motor vehicle and when there is no reliable competent evidence to prove the facts of the accident from a disinterested witness not making claim under the policy;

(4) to the extent that workers' compensation benefits apply;

(5) when suit is filed against the uninsured motorist without notice to the insurance carrier; and

(6) to the extent that personal injury protection benefits apply.

(f) An underinsured motorist coverage insurer shall have subrogation rights under the provisions of K.S.A. 40-287, and amendments thereto. If a tentative agreement to settle for liability limits has been reached with an underinsured tortfeasor, written notice must be given by certified mail to the underinsured motorist coverage insurer by its insured. Such written notice shall include written documentation of pecuniary losses incurred, including copies of all medical bills and written authorization or a court order to obtain reports from all employers and medical providers. Within 60 days of receipt of this written notice, the underinsured motorist coverage insurer may substitute its payment to the insured for the tentative settlement amount. The underinsured motorist coverage insurer is then subrogated to the insured's right of recovery to the extent of such payment and any settlement under the underinsured motorist coverage. If the underinsured motorist coverage insurer fails to pay the insured the amount of the tentative tort settlement within 60 days, the underinsured motorist coverage insurer has no right of subrogation for any amount paid under the underinsured motorist coverage.";

On page 2, following line 4, by inserting:

"Sec. 4. On and after January 1, 2018, K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 40-3107 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-3107. Every policy of motor vehicle liability insurance issued or renewed on or after January 1, ~~2017~~ 2018, by an insurer to an owner residing in this state shall:

(a) Designate by explicit description or by appropriate reference of all vehicles with respect to which coverage is to be granted;

(b) insure the person named and any other person, as insured, using any such vehicle with the expressed or implied consent of such named insured, against loss from the liability imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of any such vehicle within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada, subject to the limits stated in such policy;

(c) state the name and address of the named insured, the coverage afforded by the policy, the premium charged and the policy period;

(d) contain an agreement or be endorsed that insurance is provided in accordance with the coverage required by this act;

(e) contain stated limits of liability, exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each vehicle for which coverage is granted, not less than ~~$25,000~~ $50,000 because of bodily injury to, or death of, one person in any one accident and, subject to the limit for one person, to a limit of not less than ~~$50,000~~ $100,000 because of bodily injury to, or death of, two or more persons in any one accident, and to a limit of not less than $25,000 because of harm to or destruction of property of others in any one accident;

(f) include personal injury protection benefits to the named insured, relatives residing in the same household, persons operating the insured motor vehicle, passengers in such motor vehicle and other persons struck by such motor vehicle and suffering bodily injury while not an occupant of a motor vehicle, not exceeding the limits prescribed for each of such benefits, for loss sustained by any such person as a result of injury. The owner of a motorcycle, as defined by K.S.A. 8-1438, and amendments thereto, or motor-driven cycle, defined by K.S.A. 8-1439, and amendments thereto, who is the named insured, shall have the right to reject in writing insurance coverage including such benefits for injury to a person which occurs while the named insured is operating or is a passenger on such motorcycle or motor-driven cycle; and unless the named insured requests such coverage in writing, such coverage need not be provided in or supplemental to a renewal policy when the named insured has rejected the coverage in connection with a policy previously issued by the same insurer. The fact that the insured has rejected such coverage shall not cause such motorcycle or motor-driven cycle to be an uninsured motor vehicle;

(g) notwithstanding any omitted or inconsistent language, any contract of insurance which an insurer represents as or which purports to be a motor vehicle liability insurance policy meeting the requirements of this act shall be construed to obligate the insurer to meet all the mandatory requirements and obligations of this act;

(h) notwithstanding any other provision contained in this section, any insurer may exclude coverage required by subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section while any insured vehicles are:

(1) Rented to others or used to carry persons for a charge, however, such exclusion shall not apply to the use of a private passenger car on a share the expense basis; or

(2) being repaired, serviced or used by any person employed or engaged in any way in the automobile business. This does not apply to the named insured, spouse or relative residents; or the agents, employers, employees or partners of the named insured, spouse or resident relative; and

(i) in addition to the provisions of subsection (h) and notwithstanding any other provision contained in subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section, any insurer may exclude coverage:

(1) For any damages for which the United States government might be liable for the insured's use of the vehicle;

(2) for any damages to property owned by, rented to, or in charge of or transported by an insured, however, this exclusion shall not apply to coverage for a rented residence or rented private garage;

(3) for any obligation of an insured, or the insured's insurer under any type of workers' compensation or disability or similar law;

(4) for liability assumed by an insured under any contract or agreement;

(5) if two or more vehicle liability policies apply to the same accident, the total limits of liability under all such policies shall not exceed that of the policy with the highest limit of liability;

- (6) for any damages arising from an intentional act;
- (7) for any damages to any person who would be covered for such damages under a nuclear energy liability policy;
- (8) for any obligation of the insured to indemnify another for damages resulting from bodily injury to the insured's employee by accident arising out of and in the course of such employee's employment;
- (9) for bodily injury to any fellow employee of the insured arising out of and in the course of such employee's employment;
- (10) for bodily injury or property damage resulting from the handling of property:
 - (A) Before it is moved from the place where it is accepted by the insured for movement into or onto the covered auto; or
 - (B) after it is moved from the covered auto to the place where it is finally delivered by the insured;
- (11) for bodily injury or property damage resulting from the movement of property by a mechanical device, other than a hand truck, not attached to the covered auto; and
- (12) for bodily injury or property damage caused by the dumping, discharge or escape of irritants, pollutants or contaminants; however, this exclusion does not apply if the discharge is sudden and accidental.

(j) Commencing with the 2026 legislative interim period, and at least every 10 years thereafter, subject to authorization by the legislative coordinating council, a legislative interim study committee shall study the issue of whether the minimum limits of liability in subsection (e) should be adjusted.";

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Agriculture recommends SB 46, as amended by Senate Committee, be amended on page 1, following line 5, by inserting:

"Section 1. K.S.A. 82a-716 is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-716. If any appropriation, or the construction and operation of authorized diversion works results in an injury to any common-law claimant, such person shall be entitled to due compensation in a suitable action at law against the appropriator for damages proved for any property taken. Any person with a valid water right or permit to divert and use water may, after first exhausting the remedies available under K.S.A. 82a-717a, and amendments thereto, restrain or enjoin in any court of competent jurisdiction a subsequent diversion by a common-law claimant without vested rights without first condemning those common-law rights. After first exhausting the remedies available under K.S.A. 82a-717a, and amendments thereto, an appropriator shall have the right to injunctive relief to protect his or her prior right of beneficial use as against use by an appropriator with a later priority of right.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 82a-717a is hereby amended to read as follows: 82a-717a. (a) No common-law claimant without a vested right, or other person without a vested right, a prior appropriation right, or an earlier permit shall divert or threaten to divert water if such diversion or threatened diversion impairs or would impair any vested right, appropriation right, or right under a permit to appropriate water. But any common-law claimant with a vested right, or other person with a vested right, a prior appropriation right, or an earlier permit may divert water in accordance with any such right or permit although such diversion or use thereunder conflicts with the diversion, use, proposed diversion, or proposed use made or proposed by a common-law claimant who does not have a vested right, or other person who does not have a vested right, a prior appropriation right or an earlier permit.

(b) (1) ~~Moreover, Any common-law claimant with a vested right, or other person with a vested right, a prior appropriation right, or an earlier permit may~~ restrain or enjoin in any court of competent jurisdiction, in accordance with this subsection, obtain an order from the chief engineer that limits, curtails or prevents any diversion or proposed diversion that impairs or would impair such right in the event that any such diversion or proposed diversion is made or is threatened to be made by any common-law claimant, or other person who does not have a vested right, a prior appropriation right, or an earlier permit.

(2) Any common-law claimant with a vested right, or other person with a vested right, a prior appropriation right, or an earlier permit who claims impairment of such right by any other person without a prior right to the same water shall submit a complaint to the chief engineer in accordance with rules and regulations of the chief engineer.

(A) Within two weeks of receiving a complaint of impairment, the chief engineer shall initiate an investigation of such complaint and provide notice of such investigation to the complainant and the allegedly impairing party or parties. As part of the investigation, the chief engineer shall provide an opportunity for the parties to submit any relevant information, including submission of an engineering study that meets standards designated by the chief engineer through rules and regulations.

(B) Following the investigation, the chief engineer may issue an order, consistent with K.S.A. 82a-706b, and amendments thereto, and rules and regulations of the chief engineer, that limits, curtails or prevents the diversion and use of water by any person without a prior right to the same water or that otherwise disposes of the complaint.

(C) The chief engineer shall complete any investigation initiated pursuant to this subsection within 12 months of the date the complaint was submitted to the chief engineer, provided that the chief engineer may extend the investigation for good cause by notifying the parties in writing of the amount of time needed to complete the investigation.

(3) Concurrent with submission of a complaint under paragraph (2), or during the pendency of the chief engineer's investigation pursuant to the complaint, the complainant may petition the chief engineer to issue a temporary order, to be effective until a final order is issued under paragraph (2)(B), that limits, curtails or prevents the diversion and use of water by any person without a prior right to the same water upon a finding by the chief engineer that a substantial likelihood exists that impairment is occurring or will occur and that an order limiting, curtailing or preventing diversion and use of water by any person without a prior right to the same water would not be adverse to the public interest.

(4) Any order issued by the chief engineer pursuant to this subsection is subject to review in accordance with the Kansas judicial review act.";

Journal of the House

FORTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, March 17, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 119 members present.

Reps. Brim, Miller, Neighbor, Parker, Powell and Sawyer were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Excused later: Reps. Hawkins and Williams.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Everett Schultz, Deacon, First Mennonite Church, Pretty Prairie, and guest of Rep. Seiwert:

Dear heavenly Father. I come before you this morning to request that you provide these good people in this room wisdom, understanding, and camaraderie so they can work together to provide adequate opportunities for all Kansans. Give them a sense of oneness so that they can work together in harmony and agreement. Father, you can provide these good people with wisdom from above to fully understand how to meet the needs of the state and how to provide for their constituents. May You give them a new purpose, a new solidarity, and new vision for our state. May they work with the governor and the Senate to provide the correct legislation that would meet the state's needs.

Father, it seems our state is at a crossroads where values have been eroded, where what was right is no longer right, but in some cases, is wrong. As I grew up, in school we were taught the Golden Rule, "do unto others as you would have them do unto you." It seems we have lost that mindset in our society Father, and I pray that this mindset will be acceptable again. May we become more accepting of each other.

Father, I know there are many different viewpoints in this room. There are people here who are for bigger government, for more regulation, and for more control. There are those who are for smaller government, for less taxes, for equal representation for all. Help these people to be able to balance the budget, to meet the needs not only of the educational system of our state, but to realize that our infrastructure needs attention, and that our businesses need the ability to make a profit without excess taxes. Help the people in this room to reach out to their colleagues in the Supreme Court and the Senate and as well as the Governor to strive to achieve a workable solution. And may each one work together to achieve a rewarding path forward.

But most importantly Father, if there is someone in this room who does not know if they are bound for heaven, I pray that you will lead them to someone who can explain from the Bible how they can know they are going to heaven. If there is one here that needs that wisdom, please meet that need.

I ask these things in Jesus name. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Seiwert.

Journal of the House

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, March 20, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 118 members present.

Reps. Alford, Deere and Highland were excused on verified illness.

Reps. Arnberger, Holscher, Schwab and Wilson were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Father Kerry Ninemire, Seven Dolores Church, Manhattan, and guest of Rep. Carlin:

Lord God, we gather in this Capitol building today, on this very beautiful but dry first day of spring. We are conscious that many Kansans may not be in the State today: many are on Spring Break and others following one of our three successful basketball teams. Pray for their safe travel.

But our Representatives are here because their work is too important to take a break, whether it is how to best fund the education of our youth and young adults, how to balance a budget and still care for those at risk, and so much more.

We pray for these legislators, Lord.

Grant them the grace of wisdom to best discern, the grace of courage to be unpopular for the greater cause and the graces of faith and hope when they are discouraged or feeling hopeless. May all that is done this day be for Your greater honor and glory. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Burroughs.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Mason, HR 6014, A RESOLUTION recognizing the 28th anniversary of sister-state relations between the State of Kansas and Taiwan, was adopted.

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Mason are spread upon the Journal:

This morning, we will vote on the adoption of HR 6014, "Recognizing the 28th anniversary of sister-state relations between the State of Kansas and Taiwan."

Why is this recognition important? In 2014, Kansas' exports to Taiwan reached $185 million, which was a 44% increase from two years earlier, and Taiwan is Kansas' 5th largest export market in Asia. Well over half of that total came from the agribusiness and food sectors. The balance of that, of course, was from other industrial sectors.

Taiwan regularly dispatches procurement missions to the U.S. to sign major supply deals. Kansas farms and factories alike, are well poised to benefit from increasing Taiwanese demand for U.S. products.

With us, this morning, is Director General Jerry Chang, from the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Denver. Mr. Chang has an impressive resume in government service to his nation. His career spans nearly 25 years, and includes assignments in Singapore, Hungary, and New York, to name a few. Rep. Mason also introduced Forster Lee, Director, also of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office.

Please join me, this morning, in a warm welcome for our honored guests.

CONSENT CALENDAR

No objection was made to SB 15, SB 100, SB 166 appearing on the Consent Calendar for the second day.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
thank You for your goodness, Your mercy, and Your faithfulness that You give to us freely each and every day.

We thank You for all that has been accomplished thus far.

We recognize that there is much more to do and as these leaders face even more difficult challenges and decisions in the days remaining, the temptation might be to become less patient and more aggressive; less tolerant and more insensitive;
less agreeable and more belligerent;
less soft spoken and more verbally abusive.

Through Your Spirit I ask that You give to each one a spirit of unity and harmony.

Help each one to have a gentle response, humbleness and gentleness, and to give grace as they have been given grace.

In Christ's Name I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Dove.

Miss Kansas is a state preliminary to Miss America, one of the nation’s leading achievement programs and the world’s largest provider of scholarship assistance for young women; over $45 million in tuition assistance is made available annually at the local, state and national levels. The program exists to provide personal and professional opportunities for young women to express their viewpoints, talents and accomplishments to audiences relative to culture, politics, and community service. Through the four program hallmarks, also known as the 4 points of the crown are scholarship, service, style and success, women are empowered and educated to be outstanding leaders.

(5) Each licensed insurance agent who is an individual and holds a life insurance license solely for the purpose of selling pre-need funeral insurance or annuity products shall file a report on or before such agent's biennial due date affirming that such agent transacted no other insurance business during the period covered by the report. Upon request of the commissioner, an agent shall provide certification from an officer of each insurance company which has appointed such agent that the agent transacted no other insurance business during the period covered by the report. Agents who have offered to sell or sold only pre-need funeral insurance are exempt from the requirement to obtain C.E.C.s.

However, no C.E.C. shall be applied to satisfy both the biennial property or casualty requirement, or both, and the biennial requirement for life, accident and health or variable contracts, or any combination thereof.

(e) An instructor of an approved subject shall be entitled to the same C.E.C. as a student completing the study.

(f) (1) An individual insurance agent who has been licensed for more than one year, on or before such insurance agent's biennial due date, shall file a report with the commissioner certifying that such insurance agent has met the continuing education requirements for the previous biennium ending on such insurance agent's biennial due date. Each individual insurance agent shall maintain a record of all courses attended together with a certificate of attendance for the remainder of the biennium in which the courses were attended and the entire next succeeding biennium.

(2) If the required report showing proof of continuing education completion is not received by the commissioner by the individual insurance agent's biennial due date, such individual insurance agent's qualification and each and every corresponding license shall be suspended automatically for a period of 90 calendar days or until such time as the producer satisfactorily demonstrates completion of the continuing education requirement whichever is sooner. In addition the commissioner shall assess a penalty of $100 for each license suspended. If such insurance agent fails to furnish to the commissioner the required proof of continuing education completion and the monetary penalty within 90 calendar days of such insurance agent's biennial due date, such individual insurance agent's qualification and each and every corresponding license shall expire on such insurance agent's biennial due date. If after more than three but less than 12 months from the date the license expired, the insurance agent wants to reinstate such insurance agent's license, such individual shall provide the required proof of continuing education completion and pay a reinstatement fee in the amount of $100 for each license suspended. If after more than 12 months from the date an insurance agent's license has expired, such insurance agent wants to reinstate such insurance agent's license, such individual shall apply for an insurance agent's license, provide the required proof of continuing education completion and pay a reinstatement fee in the amount of $100 for each license suspended. Upon receipt of a written application from such insurance agent claiming extreme hardship, the commissioner may waive any penalty imposed under this subsection.

(3) On and after the effective date of this act, any applicant for an individual insurance agent's license who previously held a license which expires on or after June 30, 2001, because of failure to meet continuing education requirements and who seeks to be relicensed shall provide evidence that appropriate C.E.C.s have been completed for the prior biennium.

(4) Upon receipt of a written application from an individual insurance agent, the commissioner, in cases involving medical hardship or military service, may extend the time within which to fulfill the minimum continuing educational requirements for a period of not to exceed 180 days.

(5) This section shall not apply to any inactive insurance agent during the period of such inactivity. For the purposes of this paragraph, "inactive period" or "period of inactivity" shall mean a continuous period of time of not less than two years and not more than four years starting from the date inactive status is granted by the commissioner. Before returning to active status, such inactive insurance agent shall:

(A) File a report with the commissioner certifying that such agent has met the continuing education requirement; and

(B) pay the renewal fee. If the required proof of continuing education completion and the renewal fee is not furnished at the end of the inactive period, such individual insurance agent's qualification and each and every corresponding license shall expire at the end of the period of inactivity. For issuance of a new license, the individual shall apply for a license and pass the required examination.

(6) Any individual who allows such individual's insurance agent license in this state and all other states in which such individual is licensed as an insurance agent to expire for a period of four or more consecutive years, shall apply for a new insurance agent license and pass the required examination.

(g) (1) Each course, program of study, or subject shall be submitted to and certified by the commissioner in order to qualify for purposes of continuing education.

(2) Each request for certification of any course, program of study or subject shall contain the following information:

- (I) a nonrefundable annual provider fee of $100.

(3) Upon receipt of such information, the commissioner shall grant or deny certification of any submitted course, program of study or subject as an approved subject, program of study or course and indicate the number of C.E.C.s that will be recognized for each approved course, program of study or subject. Each approved course, program of study or subject shall be assigned by the commissioner to one or both of the following classes:

- (A) Property and casualty; or
- (B) life insurance, including annuity and variable contracts, and accident and health insurance.

(4) Each course, program of study or subject shall have a value of at least one C.E.C.

(5) Each provider seeking approval of a course, program of study or subject for continuing education credit shall issue or cause to be issued to each person who attends a course, program of study or subject offered by such provider a certificate of attendance. The certificate shall be signed by either the instructor who presents the course, program of study or course or such provider's authorized representative. Each provider shall maintain a list of all individuals who attend courses offered by such provider for continuing education credit for the remainder of the biennium in which the courses are offered and the entire next succeeding biennium.

The commissioner shall accept, without substantive review, any course, program of study or subject submitted by a provider which has been approved by the insurance supervisory authority of any other state or territory accredited by the NAIC. The commissioner may disapprove any individual instructor or provider who has been the subject of disciplinary proceedings or who has otherwise failed to comply with any other state's or territory's laws or regulations.

(7) The C.E.C. value assigned to any course, program of study or subject, other than a correspondence course, computer based training, interactive internet study training or other course pursued by independent study, shall in no way be contingent upon passage or satisfactory completion of any examination given in connection with such course, program of study or subject. The commissioner shall establish, by rules and regulations criteria for determining acceptability of any method used for verification of the completion of each stage of any computer based or interactive internet study training. Completion of any computer based training or interactive internet study training shall be verified in accordance with a method approved by the commissioner.

(h) Upon request, the commissioner shall provide a list of all approved continuing education courses currently available to the public.

(i) An individual insurance agent who independently studies an insurance course, program of study or subject which is not an agent's examination approved by the commissioner and who passes an independently monitored examination, shall receive credit for the C.E.C.s assigned by the commissioner as recognition for the approved subject. No other credit shall be given for independent study.

(j) Any licensed individual insurance agent who is unable to comply with license renewal procedures due to military service or some other extenuating circumstances may request a waiver of those procedures from the commissioner. Such agent may also request from the commissioner a waiver of any examination requirement or any other fine or sanction imposed for failure to comply with renewal procedures.

"Section 1. On and after July 1, 2018, K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 8-2110 is hereby amended to read as follows: 8-2110. (a) Failure to comply with a traffic citation means failure either to: (1) Appear before any district or municipal court in response to a traffic citation and pay in full any fine and court costs imposed; or (2) otherwise comply with a traffic citation as provided in K.S.A. 8-2118, and amendments thereto. Failure to comply with a traffic citation is a misdemeanor, regardless of the disposition of the charge for which such citation was originally issued.

(b) (1) In addition to penalties of law applicable under subsection (a), when a person fails to comply with a traffic citation, except for illegal parking, standing or stopping, the district or municipal court in which the person should have complied with the citation shall mail notice to the person that if the person does not appear in district or municipal court or pay all fines, court costs and any penalties within 30 days from the date of mailing notice, the division of vehicles will be notified to suspend the person's driving privileges. The district or municipal court may charge an additional fee of $5 for mailing such notice. Upon the person's failure to comply within such 30 days of mailing notice, the district or municipal court shall electronically notify the division of vehicles. Upon receipt of a report of a failure to comply with a traffic citation under this subsection, pursuant to K.S.A. 8-255, and amendments thereto, the division of vehicles shall notify the violator and suspend the license of the violator until satisfactory evidence of compliance with the terms of the traffic citation has been furnished to the informing court. When the court determines the person has complied with the terms of the traffic citation, the court shall immediately electronically notify the division of vehicles of such compliance. Upon receipt of notification of such compliance from the informing court, the division of vehicles shall terminate the suspension or suspension action.

(2) (A) In lieu of suspension under paragraph (1), the driver may submit to the division of vehicles a written request for restricted driving privileges, with a non-refundable $25 application fee, to be applied by the division of vehicles for additional administrative costs to implement restricted driving privileges. The division shall remit all restricted driving privilege application fees to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the division of vehicles operating fund.

(B) A person whose driver's license has expired during the period when such person's driver's license has been suspended for failure to pay fines for traffic citations, the driver may submit to the division of vehicles a written request for restricted driving privileges, with a non-refundable $25 application fee, to be applied by the division of vehicles for additional administrative costs to implement restricted driving privileges. The division shall remit all restricted driving privilege application fees to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the division of vehicles operating fund. An individual shall not qualify for restricted driving privileges pursuant to this section unless the following conditions are met: (i) The suspended license that expired was issued by the division of vehicles; (ii) the suspended license resulted from the individual's failure to comply with a traffic citation pursuant to subsection (b)(1); (iii) the traffic citation that resulted in the failure to comply pursuant to subsection (b)(1) was issued in this state; and (iv) the individual has not previously received a stayed suspension as a result of a driving while suspended conviction.

(C) Upon review and approval of the driver's eligibility, the driving privileges will be restricted by the division of vehicles for a period up to one year or until the terms of the traffic citation have been complied with and the court shall immediately electronically notify the division of vehicles of such compliance. If the driver fails to comply with the traffic citation within the one year restricted period, the driving privileges will be suspended by the division of vehicles until the court determines the person has complied with the terms of the traffic citation and the court shall immediately electronically notify the division of vehicles of such compliance. Upon receipt of notification of such compliance from the informing court, the division of vehicles shall terminate the suspension action. When restricted driving privileges are approved pursuant to this section, the person's driving privileges shall be restricted to driving only under the following circumstances: (i) In going to or returning from the person's place of employment or schooling; (ii) in the course of the person's employment; (iii) in going to or returning from an appointment with a health care provider or during a medical emergency; and (iv) in going to and returning from probation or parole meetings, drug or alcohol counseling or any place the person is required to go by a court.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (d), when the district or municipal court notifies the division of vehicles of a failure to comply with a traffic citation pursuant to subsection (b), the court shall assess a reinstatement fee of ~~$59~~ $100 for each charge on which the person failed to make satisfaction regardless of the disposition of the charge for which such citation was originally issued and regardless of any application for restricted driving privileges. Such reinstatement fee shall be in addition to any fine, restricted driving privilege application fee, district or municipal court costs and other penalties. The court shall remit all reinstatement fees to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury and shall credit ~~42.37%~~ the first $15 of such reinstatement fee to the judicial branch nonjudicial salary adjustment fund and of the remaining amount, 29.41% of such moneys to the division of vehicles operating fund, ~~34.78%~~ 22.06% to the community alcoholism and intoxication programs fund created by K.S.A. 41-1126, and amendments thereto, ~~10.59%~~ 7.36% to the juvenile alternatives to detention fund created by K.S.A. 79-4803, and amendments thereto, and ~~15.26%~~ 41.17% to the judicial branch nonjudicial salary adjustment fund created by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 20-1a15, and amendments thereto.

(d) The district court or municipal court shall waive the reinstatement fee provided for in subsection (c), if the failure to comply with a traffic citation was the result of such person enlisting in or being drafted into the armed services of the United States, being called into service as a member of a reserve component of the military service of the United States, or volunteering for such active duty, or being called into service as a member of the state of Kansas national guard, or volunteering for such active duty, and being absent from Kansas because of such military service. ~~In any case of a failure to comply with a traffic citation which occurred on or after August 1, 1990, and prior to the effective date of this act, in which a person was assessed and paid a reinstatement fee and the person failed to comply with a traffic citation because the person was absent from Kansas because of any such military service, the reinstatement fee shall be reimbursed to such person upon application therefor. The state treasurer and the director of accounts and reports shall prescribe procedures for all such reimbursement payments and shall create appropriate accounts, make appropriate accounting entries and issue such appropriate vouchers and warrants as may be required to make such reimbursement payments.~~

(e) Except as provided further, the reinstatement fee established in this section shall be the only fee collected or moneys in the nature of a fee collected for such reinstatement. Such fee shall only be established by an act of the legislature and no other authority is established by law or otherwise to collect a fee. On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 22, 2017.

Journal of the House

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 22, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Orr was excused on legislative business.

Rep. Pittman was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. LeSean Tarkington, pastor, Grant Chapel AME Church, Wichita, and guest of Rep. Finney:

We pray for our nation with hopes that those elected to lead, at every level, will work now for your people. We pray these men and women will humble themselves to the sacred task of governing for the people who cast votes. We pray for legislators who will care about jobs for the unemployed and underemployed, education and opportunity for children, and health care for all, especially the most vulnerable among us.

We pray for laws that will protect and respect the earth—this planet created to be a home for all humanity. We pray for governance that knows the difference between a financial system and an economy, that seeks to protect all living organisms of earth and human life.

We pray for wisdom not rhetoric; generosity not indifference, and justice not patronage. We want legislators working across the aisle, not erecting barriers like the border walls that imprison even those who seek to keep others out. We pray for a just sharing in the expense of government, let those blessed with great wealth give according to their means, let all give as they are able.

We pray for leaders gifted in diplomacy, blessed with character and integrity; leaders who know our security comes from relationships of trust and communication, working together in peace an harmony.

Precious Creator, give us the patience to give our leaders a chance to govern with grace, compassion, justice, and love. Let us support sincere effort and celebrate wise compromise. Make us accountable to our faith and so hold those we elect accountable to serve all the people.

For our heath we say thank you.

For our life we say thank you

For the opportunity to servant lead we say thank you.

Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Winn.

Journal of the House

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 23, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
We come to You today with hearts of gratitude for all You do to watch over and provide for us each day.
Thank You for the many blessings You have given us.
Along with these blessings come a great responsibility to live and lead by example.
To do this, Your grace and guidance is greatly needed.
Help these leaders to trust not in their own understanding, but to trust and acknowledge You in all their ways.
If they do this, You will make the way known to them.
The decisions to be made require wisdom and insight beyond human understanding and ability.
So today, I pray for divine wisdom and discernment as they work together in making difficult decisions.
In Christ's Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Brim.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Markley are spread upon the Journal:

Today I stand before you to honor the Blue Valley Northwest High School 2017 State Champion "We the People" team. This is the 6th state win in a row for the Huskies and the 8th in the last nine years. They will represent Kansas next month in the 30th annual national competition in Washington, DC.

The 'We the People' competition requires in-depth knowledge of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, the Bill of Rights and issues relating to the founding documents. In Kansas, this program is sponsored by the Center for Civic Education and Kansas State University.

The following is an example of the type of questions these students research and debate. This is from the ‘We People High School National Hearing Questions for 2016-2017. Unit 2, Question 3:’

In a speech to his fellow Virginians in 1775 Patrick Henry noted, “I have but one lamp by which my feet are guided, and that is the lamp of experience.”

Question #1- What lessons from history and experiences led the colonists to develop and structure their legislatures and their relationships to their executives and judiciaries the way they did in their new constitutions?

Question #2- To what extent, if at all, did both the Federalists and the Anti-Federalists use the “lamp of experience” in their arguments over the legislative branch during the ratification debates?

Colleagues, take a look, maybe you see yourself in one of these young people. They are the students who care passionately about civics, history, public service and public policy. They are the kids who spend hours and hours researching historical and philosophical foundations of the American political system. They are our future leaders. Students, take a look at the esteemed men and women seated before you on the floor of the Kansas House of Representatives. If you so choose, you too could be a State Representative one day...for better or worse, this could be your future.

My friends, please join me in acknowledging the hard work and accomplishments of these young men and women.

Rep. Markley presented the “We the People” team with a framed House certificate.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I do not support HB 2313. I oppose the expansion of gambling, aka the Kansas Lottery. I am not in favor of Vending Machines that produce false hopes and disappointments at the expense of the people. I am not in favor of a government that is called to protect the people then uses its power to exploit the people in their weaknesses or in their addictions to fund "moral causes." Expanding the scope and accessibility to the addictive properties of gambling all in the name of "state revenue" is wrong and should be against the law. – TREVOR JACOBS, RANDY GARBER, KEVIN JONES

MR. SPEAKER: It is with great reluctance that I vote "No" on HB 2313. Clubhouses are important, and some are located in my district. The bill brings necessary funding to this worthwhile program; but I cannot agree to the expansion of gambling, particularly vending machine gambling, as the price of funding Clubhouses. I therefore reluctantly vote "No" on HB 2313. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

FORTY-NINTH DAY

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
Thank You for this new day and week
You have given us to continue to serve and represent the residents of this great state.
Thank you that You are the God of the impossible.
Help each leader to trust in Your ability and not their own.
Teach them to see the difficult challenges from Your perspective.
Help them to focus on You and Your wisdom as they determine the various decisions to be made.
Psalm 82:1 says that “God presides in the great assembly...”
I do ask that You lead and guide these leaders through all the obstacles they face this week.
Remind them that they need not figure everything out on their own, that You already know the best plan and it is Your desire to do what’s right for all the people.
Help each one to truly grasp and believe that with You, nothing is impossible.
This I ask in Your Son’s Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Karleskint.

FIFTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, March 28, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Reps. Alford and Williams were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, William A. Jones, President, Bethany College, Lindsborg, and guest of Rep. Concannon:

Dear Giver, Sustainer, and Renewer of Life,

Thank you for spring. We are grateful for the additional sunshine found in longer days, for warmer temperatures, for spring showers, for the bloom and the growth, and for the sweet harmony sung by all of creation this time of year. Thank you for the opportunity to arise anew.

Thank you for the Kansas House of Representatives and the servant leaders who labor here. On this morning, we ask you to give them love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Please bless these Representatives, their staff members, and their communities.

As they legislate during this season of renewal, dear God, may we all resolve to give food to the hungry and drink to the thirsty. May we welcome the stranger, care for the sick, and visit those who are in prison. We pray that such acts of your love outnumber the seeds of all the sunflowers past, present, and future.

May young and old from the Kansas prairie to the Neosho River, from small towns to big cities, be inspired by the love this body has for you and for all people.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Frownfelter.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Schreiber are spread upon the Journal:

Colleagues, I want to introduce Kelly Moten, a member of the Emporia State Lady Hornets, and her coach Jory Collins. Kelly was recently named as the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball National Player of the Year. Coach Collins and Kelly led the Lady Hornets to the national Sweet Sixteen this year.

Emporia State is a member of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA), which is one of the toughest conferences in the country. Their competition includes Ft. Hays State University, Washburn and Pitt State, as well as teams from Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma. It is not uncommon to have 2 or 3 of these teams nationally ranked every year.

But before we present Kelly with a certificate, let me tell you her backstory. Kelly grew up in Gary, Indiana. Coach Collins told the Emporia Gazette when he went to Kelly's house for a recruiting visit the first time, "I'm sure there's nice parts to Gary, but I didn't see any on that trip." Kelly was successful at the high school level, but wasn't recruited for college ball...until Coach Collins came to visit.

She worked extremely hard to get where she is today, fighting to become better every day as a person and a teammate. In one particularly hard time between her sophomore and junior years, she lost several close friends. She contemplated not continuing to play basketball. But as she has shown on the court innumerable times, she persisted and grew to become not only a great ballplayer, but also a dependable and valuable teammate.

Her on-court accomplishments include being the first player in Division II history to score 1900 points, grab 600 rebounds, dish out 500 assists, make 200 steals and 100 blocked shots! She was also selected as the Central Region Player of the Year, the MIAA Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and was the first player to earn MIAA All-Tournament Team honors four straight years.

Besides her on-court skills which have captivated Emporia State fans for years, Kelly has also become a strong role model for young women.

Please help me congratulate Kelly Moten on her many honors.

In recognition of her accomplishments on and off the court, Rep. Schreiber presented Ms. Moten with a framed House certificate.

HR 6025—A RESOLUTION recognizing the month of April as Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month.

WHEREAS, Parkinson's disease is the second most common neurodegenerative disease in the United States, second only to Alzheimer's disease; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that Parkinson's disease affects over 1,000,000 people in the United States, including thousands of Kansans; and

WHEREAS, The exact cause and progression of the disease is still unknown; and
WHEREAS, There is no objective test for Parkinson's disease, which results in a high rate of delayed diagnosis or misdiagnosis; and

WHEREAS, Symptoms of Parkinson's disease vary from person to person and can include tremors, slowness, difficulty with balance, swallowing, chewing and speaking, rigidity, cognitive problems, dementia, mood disorders, such as depression and anxiety, constipation, skin problems, and sleep disruptions; and

WHEREAS, Medications mask some symptoms of Parkinson's disease for a limited amount of time each day, often with dose-limiting side effects; and

WHEREAS, Ultimately, the medications and treatments lose their effectiveness, generally after four to eight years, leaving the person unable to move, speak or swallow; and

WHEREAS, There is no cure, therapy or drug to slow or halt the progression of Parkinson's disease; and

WHEREAS, Increased education and research are needed to aid in early and accurate diagnosis, and to help find more effective treatments or a cure for Parkinson's disease; and

WHEREAS, The federal government, through the National Institute of Health, the Department of Defense Neurotoxin Exposure Treatment Parkinson's Research Program, the Veterans Affairs Parkinson's Disease Research, Education and Clinical Center, and other agencies, supports vital work to better understand Parkinson's disease and to find new treatments; and

WHEREAS, In Kansas, many people associated with the Kansas House of Representatives are dealing with, or have encountered Parkinson's disease, such as past members: The Honorable J. Basil Dannebohm and the Honorable Ramon Gonzales; current members: Representative Pete DeGraaf and Representative Brenda Dietrich's husband, Gerald, who are both currently fighting the disease; also Speaker of the House Executive Assistant, Sharon Chandler, whose husband recently passed away from complications associated with Parkinson's disease; and many others who have relatives affected by Parkinson's disease; and

WHEREAS, In the fight against Parkinson's, Kansans can be proud. The University of Kansas Medical Center's Parkinson's Disease Center, under the direction of Dr. Rajesh Pahwa, M.D., and his outstanding staff, is designated as a National Parkinson's Foundation Center of Excellence. Kansas also has many excellent support groups and organizations, such as the National Parkinson's Foundation – Heartland in Leawood; the Parkinson's Program at Meadowlark Hills in Manhattan, under the direction of Michelle Haub; and many other advocates who are working to promote Parkinson's disease awareness, education and patient support: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we designate the month of April as Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month. We will continue to support research to find better treatments and, eventually, a cure for Parkinson's disease; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative DeGraaf.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. DeGraaf are spread upon the Journal:

It is a personal honor to be co-sponsoring this resolution. As a person with Parkinson's, this effort to educate and honor a few of our heroes is very important to me. While I can't control the fact that I have this disease, I can control how I respond it. My faith in a loving God, a supportive wife, family and friends has been essential in my journey with Parkinson's.

At your desk is a handout outlining the many of the issues that people with Parkinson's may deal with. I emphasize may because one of the first things you learn is that everyone with Parkinson's has different symptoms at varying levels of severity. There is no test you can take to determine if you have Parkinson's.

Thirty percent of us do not have tremors, but most of us have difficulty with balance, our posture is stooped, and we experience a slow shuffle walk, with loss of arm swing. While some of us experience early onset, generally we are in our 60's when diagnosed and most of us have been dealing with symptoms for years, before we finally have a "name" for all things that have been bothering us. As we look back one of the first indicators many of us have is a diminished sense of smell. That was thirteen years ago for me.

Parkinson's affects the way our brain and muscles work (or in this case – don't work together). Our handwriting gets smaller and smaller, our fingers hit the wrong keys, the muscles in our eyes don't always want to focus, we misjudge our steps, and have trouble standing or walking; we even lose the ability to blink and swallow.

Most of us know that President George Bush (senior) has Parkinson's as does Billy Graham. We also know the name Michael Fox. Closer to home, but not with us today are past Representatives Basil Dannebohm and Ramon Gonzalez, both of whom currently struggle with the disease.

A few of my heroes are here today. For those of us with Parkinson's, our caregivers are our heroes. As most of you know, Karen is mine. Most of you know Sharon Chandler. She works as the Executive Assistant for the Speaker. What you may not know is that Sharon is one of the hero caregivers. Her husband recently passed away from complications associated with Parkinson. Sharon was a faithful caregiver and we want to honor her today.

Also with us is Representative Brenda Dietrich whose husband Gerald has Parkinson's. Doug Henkle serves as a caregiver to his wife Nan. We have become great friends.

Michelle Haub, is a dynamo. Neither she or nor her husband have Parkinson's, but for the last 10 years she has served the Parkinson's community at Meadowlark in Manhattan, where she leads an active program for people affected by Parkinson's with exercise and voice classes, "Rock Steady Boxing", education meetings, social activities, and community outreach and fundraising. Her program should be replicated across the country! One of the couples that are part of her program are Don and Bea Rasmussen. Don has benefitted greatly from her service.

On behalf of all of us with Parkinson's, we standing here appreciate your support. Colleagues, this is the 5th year in a row that this chamber has dedicated April as Parkinson's Awareness Month.

Journal of the House

FIFTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, March 29, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Rev. Tobias Schlingensiepen, Senior Minister, First Congregational Church, Topeka, and guest of Rep. Kuether:

All-merciful Creator of us all,
I lift up before you this morning a young child, a girl, whose first name begins with the letter K.
You know her, O God - and You would have us know her, too.
How much she has had to endure at her young age! Her father succumbed to suicide, her mother to drugs and alcohol. Several adoptions have fallen through for her and she is struggling, waiting for a family, a home, an opportunity to live in the embrace of people who love her and can show her a hopeful future of well-being and -living.

You have created us, O God, with a conscience, where You meet each and every one of us; where You remind us - whether we care for that reminder or not - that each of us is created for connection with each other - and that each of us is responsible for making that connection. You call us to make and care for our life together.

Beyond all the other wills luring us to look past K. and the many thousands like her across our land - beyond them all is You, standing before us, unwilling to let us pass until we have seen them, really seen them - until we follow in Your steps, find them. and our arms become Your arms, embracing every one of them.

Let us not keep you waiting. O God. Encourage us to do
Your Will, for K,'s sake, as well as our own. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Henderson.

by Reps. Ohaebosim and Finney

HR 6026—A RESOLUTION recognizing Storytime Village, Inc. for its work in giving young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through its literacy programs.

A RESOLUTION recognizing Storytime Village, Inc. for its work in giving young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through its literacy programs.

WHEREAS, According to the Annie E. Casey Foundation, children who are proficient in reading by the end of third grade are more likely to graduate from high school and be economically successful in adulthood; and

WHEREAS, Storytime Village, Inc., under the leadership of Director Prisca Barnes, has been working since 2009 to help Kansas children, beginning at birth through age eight, thrive in partnerships that provide early childhood development, family engagement involving reading, and access to books; and

WHEREAS, Storytime Village, Inc. is currently the only nonprofit organization based in Kansas that focuses exclusively on children's literacy; and

WHEREAS, With the support of parents and the help of many dedicated volunteers, Storytime Village, Inc. inspires children, regardless of their socio-economic background, race or gender, to read by providing them free books and literacy resources; and

WHEREAS, March 29, 2017, is marked as Literacy Day at the Capitol, which will focus on addressing the literacy gap in Kansas by mobilizing high school students to raise their voices through meetings with legislators, panel discussions, and an advocacy workshop, with the theme: "Why Reading Matters": Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize Storytime Village, Inc. for its work in giving young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through its literacy programs; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to Prisca Barnes and Representative Ohaebosim.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ohaebosim are spread upon the Journal:

According to the Annie E. Casey Foundation, children who are proficient in reading by the end of third grade are more likely to graduate from high school and be economically successful in adulthood.

However, many underserved populations are lacking the quality literacy skills essential for future success in school and in life. While the nation's reading proficiency rates have improved for most demographic groups over the last decade, large disparities still exist by race and income status.

Kansas is among the states where the literacy achievement gap widened. A national assessment for educational progress study (NAEP) shows that the gap in proficiency between low income and high income Kansas students grew from 24 percent to 32 percent over the last ten years.

This year marks Storytime Village's third Literacy Day at the Capitol. The event is sponsored by the Kansas African American Affairs Commission and Butler County Community College.

Joining Storytime Village for this impactful day are high school students from Wichita, KS, including Literacy Champions from the Independent School and The NAACP Youth Council students from Wichita East High and Heights High School along with students from Junction City High School.

Students from Highland Park High School in Topeka, KS will join Literacy Day and their school's choir will be featured during the Literacy Champions Luncheon at noon, sponsored by Olive Garden.

Since its beginning in 2009, Storytime Village has worked to help the youngest in our communities thrive through partnerships that provide early childhood development, family engagement around reading and access to books.

The mission of Storytime Village, Inc., with the support of parents and the community, is to inspire a lifelong love of reading for underserved Kansas children from birth to age 8.

The theme for Literacy Day at the Capitol is “Why Reading Matters” and will address the literacy achievement gap in the state of Kansas by mobilizing high school students to raise their voices and bring awareness to the critical issue. The day will feature panel discussions, workshops and the opportunity to network and discuss these important issues with state leaders. A Kansas youth will be named the “Outstanding Youth Literacy Advocate” during our Literacy Champions Luncheon.

Rep. Ohaebosim introduced guests representing Storytime Village to members of the House.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Committee on Taxation

HCR 5013—A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging Congress to take action to regulate interstate commerce and allow states to collect sales tax directly from remote retailers.

WHEREAS, Small businesses have been hurt in recent years by online and catalog purchases by customers who believe they get a discount by not paying sales tax; and

WHEREAS, The brick-and-mortar retailers collect the sales tax at the time of purchase in a store, but the responsibility for paying the tax from an online purchase shifts to the internet customer who should pay the sales tax when filing annual state tax returns; and

WHEREAS, The present system is ineffective and has serious enforcement problems. State tax administrators have no way of assessing or collecting use taxes on many internet purchases. As a result, the integrity of the states' tax bases are being undermined, and severe damage is being done to the perceived equity of the tax system; and

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court's decision in Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 504 U.S.

298 (1992), left state and local governments unable to adequately enforce their existing sales tax laws on sales by out-of-state catalog and online sellers; and

WHEREAS, The inability to collect sales and use taxes due on remote sales threatens the future viability of the sales tax as a stable revenue source for state and local governments; and

WHEREAS, Keeping track of local tax rates is no longer an insurmountable technical, administrative, or financial burden; and

WHEREAS, In the Quill decision, the Supreme Court did state that Congress had the constitutional authority to pass legislation overruling its decision; and

WHEREAS, If Congress acts to regulate interstate commerce, state and local governments could collect taxes owed on internet and mail order sales: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the Kansas Legislature does hereby urge the United States Congress to take action to regulate interstate commerce by allowing individual states the authority to collect sales tax directly from remote retailers; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to each member of the Kansas congressional delegation and to the President of the United States.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Creator God,
 thank You for another day You have given us.
 Thank You for this rain that we have needed.
 I ask for Your blessing upon this body today.
 Although You are never far,
 the busyness of their responsibilities may make them sense You are distant.
 Frustrations, fears, worries, and pressures can sometime block Your guidance and make them feel overwhelmed.
 I ask that You replace these with humility, perseverance, integrity, diligence and an openness to new possibilities.
 In Christ's Name I pray,
 Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Becker are spread upon the Journal:

As an alumnus of Hutchinson Community College, I want to share my pride with my legislative family.

Last Saturday evening while watching the Kansas Jayhawks, I was listening to my HCC Blue Dragons play Eastern Florida State College in the Hutchinson Sports Arena. While the outcome of the Jayhawks' game was disappointing, the disappointment was tempered when my Blue Dragons drained that East Florida swamp by 26 points!! In doing so they ended their season with a 35-2 record and the NJCAA 2017 National Championship.

It is spring break at HCC this week and many of the student athletes are home. Those coming to Topeka today to allow me this personal privilege are: James Conley, Trent Webster and Tiyler Cotton, team players; Cody Baker, team manager; Steve Eck, Head Coach; Jay Cyriac and Cortland Carney, Assistant Coaches; Carter File, President; Josh Gooch, Athletic Director, Denny Stoecklein, Director of Marketing; Steve Kappenman, Assistant Athletic Director; Steve Carpenter, Transportation and Sports Information and Scott Brooks, Administrative Assistant to the athletic director.

I invite all of you to help me congratulate the team on this accomplishment.

Rep. Becker presented the team with a framed House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Humphries are spread upon the Journal:

Today we have the privilege to honor two couples with the Kansas Humanitarian Award for 2016. Lieutenant Governor, Dr. Jeff Colyer, started The Kansas Humanitarian Commission in 2015 with the goal to empower Kansas citizens and businesses to serve their communities, meet local and global humanitarian needs, and promote a spirit of service through dialogue, acts and commerce.

The Commission, which is made up of community leaders from throughout the state, went on a search across the state to carefully choose the inaugural recipients of the Kansas Humanitarian Award, and they found three very worthy candidates.

You may recall that two weeks ago we honored Dr. Luther Frye from Garden City. Today we have the great honor to meet and congratulate the other two recipients, who are Kansans that selflessly aim to improve the lives of others.

They are: Dr. Shaker and Mrs. Kathi Dakhil, from Wichita. Dr. Dakhil, a renown oncologist, devoted his career to treating cancer patients and launched the Wichita Cancer Foundation for benefit of patients struggling to afford health care. The Dakhils have generously given their time and resources to countless organizations for education, to help alleviate poverty, for orphans, their church, and many more. A source said Dr. Dakhil lives by the Bible verse in Luke 12:48 which says “from everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.”

Mr. Jack and Mrs. Marilyn DeBoer from Wichita. The DeBoers, world renown entrepreneurs, took a trip around the world in 1988 to assess the world situation. They then dedicated their lives to relieving the effects of poverty in Myanmar through the DeBoer Foundation and through partnership with World Vision. In addition, the DeBoers have tirelessly served on countless boards and civic groups, especially focusing on advancing principles of democracy and business entrepreneurship with the goal of alleviating social, health, financial, and physical needs.

The Kansas Humanitarian Commission and our Lt. Gov. hopes this annual award will inspire others to service and follow in the footsteps of these great Kansans who give back so much to their communities. Join me in honoring these very worthy Kansas Humanitarians!

Rep. Humphries presented framed House certificates to the Dakhils and the DeBoers.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message with the Governor's objection to HB 2044, AN ACT concerning the department of health and environment; establishing the KanCare bridge to a healthy Kansas program; concerning clubhouse-based psychosocial rehabilitation programs, was received and read.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

REGARDING VETO OF HOUSE BILL 2044

I have long maintained three criteria for evaluating Medicaid expansion under Obamacare. Any attempt to expand this entitlement program should include a plan to eliminate the inherited waiting list for services to our disabled community, include work requirements to help Kansans escape poverty, and have a neutral impact on the state budget. This bill does not meet those requirements. Additionally, I am disappointed this bill will lead to an increase in funding for Planned Parenthood.

The most effective welfare program is one that helps people find a good paying job, escape poverty, and gain economic security. This bill's work component is nothing more than a work referral program, which will not lead to real employment gains for low income families. A true work requirement, as currently exists in the TANF and SNAP programs, would encourage and assist low-income able-bodied Kansans in receiving the educational and employment opportunities they deserve. We cannot help our citizens build better lives without also incentivizing them to find a permanent path out of poverty.

Prior administrations created and expanded waitlists for Kansans with disabilities. Over the course of my administration, I have worked to reduce the disability waitlist for these services. Yet, instead of continuing this critical work, HB 2044 prioritizes service for able-bodied adults without dependents instead of members of the disability community who need services now.

The cost of expanding Medicaid under ObamaCare is irresponsible and unsustainable. A recent third party study from Aon Hewitt estimates that expansion will cost Kansas taxpayers over $1.2 billion from the state general fund over the coming years. In fact, states that have expanded have seen cost overruns of 110 percent or more than double the projection of enrollees. This bill is not budget neutral, instead placing a burden on the budget of unrestrainable costs.

Furthermore, this legislation ensures a significant increase in state and federal Medicaid dollars funneled towards abortion providers like Planned Parenthood. Kansas is a pro-life state, respecting the value and dignity of each unique human life. Our citizens do not want their tax dollars supporting organizations that are antithetical to human dignity. We cannot and will not support this legislation that continues to fund organizations that undermine a culture of life.

Finally, it is unwise to undertake such a drastic change to our Medicaid system in Kansas while our partners in Washington D.C. continue working to overhaul the Affordable Care Act. Congressional actions indicate there are many changes to Medicaid on the horizon. Despite lack of Congressional action last week, The White House and House Leadership have restarted negotiations on legislation to repeal the Affordable Care Act. These changes may impact many aspects of the Kansas Medicaid program, and attempting to overhaul our current system while these changes are still being worked out is potentially harmful to our state.

Accordingly, pursuant to Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby veto House Bill 2044.

MR. SPEAKER: Thank you. A ruling in 2016 by the US Supreme Court stated “states cannot place burdens on women's healthcare providers that are medically unnecessary or do not meaningfully protect a woman's health and safety.” Also, any individual can access information on hospitals and doctors on the internet at any time. Today, I vote “No” on HB 2319. CINDY NEIGHBOR

MR. SPEAKER: The Legislature needs to give up its obsession with shaming women and doctors, and instead, work on preventing unintended pregnancies with birth control and sex education, so we won't be sitting here worrying about font sizes. I vote no on HB 2319. PONKA-WE VICTORS

MR. SPEAKER: Making sure a woman is informed of her doctor's practices and qualifications prior to a life-changing procedure allows for an additional degree of caution and an additional opportunity to reflect on this life-changing decision. This bill allows for additional transparency and consideration during what is often a very difficult time for a woman. Therefore, I vote aye on HB 2319. KRISTEY WILLIAMS, ERIN DAVIS

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Simon Crosier's rights were violated, his parents were denied their parental rights. Someone else decided their son's life didn't have value. Care was withheld, a DNR was ordered, without their knowledge or consent. Ultimately, their wishes were ignored and Simon's death was expedited. By voting YES for SB 85 we hope to lend our voices to those most vulnerable children who cannot speak for themselves. Simon's Law gives us a chance to do just that, to ensure that life and death decisions are made by parents not strangers. Mr. Speaker, we vote YES on SB 85. — JOHN WHITMER, BLAKE CARPENTER, LEO DELPERDANG, RANDY POWELL, RON ELLIS, KENT THOMPSON, KYLE HOFFMAN, CHUCK WEBER, JOHN R. EPLEE, SUSAN HUMPHRIES, DOUG BLEX, LESLIE OSTERMAN, KEN RAHJES, SEAN E. TARWATER, WILLIE DOVE, KEITH ESAU, JOHN RESMAN, GREG LAKIN, DANIEL R. HAWKINS, STEVE HUEBERT, TROY WAYMASTER, RON RYCKMAN, BRENDA

K. LANDWEHR, ADAM SMITH, FRANCIS AWERKAMP, LES MASON

MR. SPEAKER: Today I voted yes for SB 85 (Simon's Law). The postcards, sponsored ads, emails, and 2018 election do not concern me. Doing the right thing is what matters to me. Little blessings like Simon may be on Earth for a matter of minutes, hours, or years. These vulnerable babies are not yet able to speak for themselves and I feel that their parents are their voices, NOT the doctors. We may not know the reason for the brevity of a baby's life, but there is a reason. Simon's life taught an important lesson and my hope is that we learn from this and make changes. – SHELEE BRIM

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on SB 85. I sincerely believe that one of government's most essential and valuable responsibilities is to protect the life of its weakest and most vulnerable citizens, and that is the life of a child. That is why, I voted "Yes" for SB 85, or more respectfully known as "Simon's Law." In the Hebrew language, Simon means "to listen or to hear." I have heard the cry for help and for justice. I stand for the sanctity of life and I will always respond to the cry for help, as long as I live, so help me God. – TREVOR JACOBS

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, April 3, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Heavenly Father God,
We stand before You this morning with what promises to be a long and perhaps difficult week.
Thank You for Your faithfulness and for how You have helped these leaders throughout this session.
Today, I especially ask that You will bring into completion the work that You have begun in these leaders.
I pray that You will help each one abound more and more in Your knowledge and depth of insight, so they may be able to discern what is best and right.
I ask that You help them to imitate You by doing nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility, consider others better than themselves.
Help them to look not to their own interests, but to the interests of others.
This I pray in Christ's Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Deere.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Weber are spread upon the Journal:

I come before you today to shine a light on a bit of Kansas history you may not know about--and to honor the memory of Kansans who helped build this great state.

If you would, take your minds and imaginations back 100 years. America was engaged in the war to end all wars...World War I.

Kansas oilfield workers were fueling that fight for freedom—working 60 to 70 or more hours a week coaxing crude oil out of the ground. It was tough, dangerous work. Oil towns filled with families popped up everywhere the drill found black gold.

But on Sunday, instead of kicking back with a cool drink, these same roughnecks put on wool uniforms similar to what you see worn here, and took to the baseball diamond to play for their Town Team.

Historians tell us that between 1900 and 1910, there were at least 300 Town Teams across the State of Kansas. The residents of those towns lived and died with their teams. We like to think about “the good old days,” but the fact of the matter is...life was tough...and entertainment was a real luxury in Kansas. That's where the Town Teams filled the void. Dodge City and Deerfield; Newton and Norton; Wakeeny and Wamego; Atchison and Iola...and dozens of other Town Teams ...many of the towns don't even exist anymore.

The Kansas City Monarchs - the premier professional Negro League Championship team of that era—would also travel across the state to play exhibition games drawing huge crowds. Even then, due to the scourge of segregation, baseball brought people together who otherwise wouldn't be together.

In fact, baseball was the Social Media network of its day—a way of connecting one town to another—and very often a point of not just community pride, but a competitive selling point for economic development. Town Teams were bigger than Baseball...much bigger.

It's a story you probably haven't heard before—until now. Thanks to the innovation, drive and creativity of a home-grown Kansas Company, DHTV Digital of Shawnee, this forgotten era of Kansas history is forgotten no more.

The historical documentary Town Teams—Bigger Than Baseball is a Kansas-produced treasure that will be showing in the Visitor's Center Theater here in the Capitol at noon. Town Teams—Bigger Than Baseball is written and produced by Mark Honer, a Kansas native from El Dorado who once attended Oil Hill Elementary School.

The documentary features two Kansans reminiscent of a once-forgotten era of state history—Ruth Bramble Humphrey is the granddaughter of Fred "Dad" Bramble, the star player for Oil Hill who is featured in the film.

We are also joined by Bill Hesse, one of the last Town Team era ball players from the 1940's who is also featured in the film.

Ruth and Bill are here as living examples symbolizing the grit, determination and spirit of the Kansas oil worker and their families who carved out a slice of civilization from an unforgiving frontier while also finding the time and energy to bring together baseball fans from across this great state.

And so, it is fitting on this the official Opening Day of the Major League Baseball season, that we honor the memory of these great Kansans, while also taking a moment to bask in the glory of America's Game—made even greater by the Kansas legacy of these newly discovered Town Teams.

I ask you now to rise and honor these Kansans by joining them in singing “Take Me Out to the Ballgame,” where we'll root, root, root for the Town Team...a one, a two a three....

Rep. Weber led the members of the House in singing “Take Me Out to the Ballgame” and presented framed House certificates to his guests.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I have serious concerns with provisions in this plan. However, with one local hospital for sale and both absorbing increasing financial pressures, I am also concerned with ensuring health care access for our families. The hospital association and our health providers indicate expansion will help alleviate those financial pressures, protecting our community from hospital closures and job losses. For this reason, I vote to override the Governor on HB 2044. I call on the hospital association to quickly develop improvements to this bill that include work requirements, self-funding mechanisms and protections for taxpayers based on more effective plans implemented in other states. — FRED C. PATTON

MR. SPEAKER: My constituents depend on the stability of our Western Kansas hospitals. Though expansion has been promoted as a solution for our rural hospitals, this plan does not prioritize rural Kansas. Estimates indicate half the funding would go to hospitals in Kansas City and Wichita. Meanwhile, Western Kansas hospitals stand to benefit the least with some receiving as little as $3,000. Furthermore, the fiscal note estimates the 2nd year cost to be over $56 million. Without pay-fors, expansion will take scarce funding from other critical services. For these reasons, I cannot support HB 2044. — SHANNON FRANCIS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote in favor of overriding the governor's veto. The research I have done indicates expansion will be a benefit to Kansas and Kansans. From a personal perspective, I would like to share the story of our daughter, Gretchen. She is 28 and works four jobs to pursue her dream in an expansion state. With her physical birth defects, she is unable to find health insurance on her, but found it in the state's marketplace. My vote is not for our Gretchen, but for the next Gretchen. – MARK SCHREIBER

MR. SPEAKER: In addition to the reasons already given by my colleagues, my vote today is on behalf of my constituents who are currently in the process of paying their federal income tax bills. Those checks being written to the US Treasury are the dollars we are leaving on the table by not expanding Medicaid. Bringing those dollars home to Kansas will benefit our economy here at home. I vote YES to override the governor's veto of HB 2044 to put Kansas taxpayer dollars back to work in the Kansas economy on behalf of our citizens. – MELISSA ROOKER

MR. SPEAKER: After the veto message was read last week I was very concerned that some of us would back away from supporting the Medicaid Expansion, hiding behind the Governor's abortion related comments. So, I called my Bishop. I received an email from him this morning that said, "all four Bishops support the Expansion." I vote yes to override. – SYDNEY CARLIN

MR. SPEAKER: I stand today in support of the Override of the Governor's Veto regarding Medicaid Expansion. This past weekend I received several emails and phone calls from my constituents regarding this vote, the majority of which encouraged me to vote yes. I am sure that there are several in the Gallery that feel the same way. I vote yes on the override. – DIANA DIERKS

MR. SPEAKER: The tribal clinics and hospitals of Kansas are on the line as well, since they pay for those who are not insured. The tribal governments must pick up all remaining costs associated with clinic operations and provider costs. Medicaid Expansion will help the tribe of Kansas pay for these cost in order for tribal members to receive adequate health care. I vote Yes on the override of the Governor's veto. – PONKA-WE VICTORS

MR. SPEAKER: I voted no today because I do not believe Medicaid Expansion is the answer to the pressing challenges facing our state. I very much respect my colleagues in this chamber who have come to a different conclusion.

With the perilous budget situation we have in Kansas, the recent school finance decision, and the continued uncertainty at the federal level, now is not the time to take upon a multi year commitment that our state may not be able to afford. – DANIEL R. HAWKINS, GREG LAKIN, TONY MAIRE ARNBERGER, RANDY POWELL, KYLE D. HOFFMAN, TREVOR JACOBS, JACK THIMESCH, STEVE HUEBERT, JOHN RESMAN, LEO DELPERDANG, JOHN E. BARKER, KRISTEY WILLIAMS, RONALD L. HIGHLAND, WILLIE DOVE, LESLIE OSTERMAN, JOE SEIWERT

Mr. Speaker: I represent the 87th District in East Wichita. Wichita is a mecca for major medical services which are next to none. However, there are several thousand Sedgwick County residents who are not receiving medical care at the time, and I cannot turn my back on them. I continue to vote "Aye" on this important issue. – ROGER ELLIOTT

MR. SPEAKER: The proponents of this bill point out this bill helps hard working Kansans. My contention is just the opposite. I own a business with a location in St. Louis. We employ Illinois workers that benefit from expansion. These workers will not accept a promotion or a raise. In some cases, they request fewer hours or to be paid with cash because it will affect their expanded Medicaid. Therefore, our Missouri employees receive the promotions and are bettering themselves and their families. This bill will repress hard working Kansans. I vote NO on HB 2044. – SEAN TARWATER

MR. SPEAKER: That moment is here for us. We have the ability to help people who truly need it the most. We have the ability to make a decision today that will save lives. Not just one, but potentially thousands. Who would you be helping? 150,000 Kansans who are primarily the working poor. Of that number: 80% are working full or part time. -Notably, 7,400 of these people are veterans. VETERANS!!! I ask you to help our veterans, and help the needy by supporting expansion. – CINDY HOLSCHER

MR. SPEAKER: I rise to explain my “aye” vote to override the governor’s veto on Medicaid expansion. The Kansas Hospital Association has estimated that Kansas has missed out on $1.7 billion that could have gone to hospitals, clinics, and mental health institutions – Let alone help our citizens out. This is money that our rural communities are missing out on. If we continue to defund health care, education, and roads, we will continue to turn the lights out on our small towns. – TIM HODGE

MR. SPEAKER: This weekend I received many calls and emails to vote for the Medicaid Expansion override. I replied I planned to vote in favor and would also speak in favor of the override. There are many Kansans who need health care and we represent these individuals. It is our responsibility to provide the help they need. I hope you will change your No vote. – BARBARA BALLARD

MR. SPEAKER: I vote YES to override to the Governor’s veto of HB 2044. In this chamber, we talk a lot about putting people to work. Passing this bill would help thousands of Kansans with physical disabilities find work or keep work. Without Medicaid expansion, many people with disabilities are in the position of having to choose between working a minimum wage job (which even at full time pays less than 138% of the federal poverty level, making them ineligible for subsidized insurance under the ACA), or applying for disability and not working, but getting health care. Is that the kind of choice we want to force people to make? I support overriding the Governor’s veto. – DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER

MR. SPEAKER: As leaders we are to imagine what the world should look like and compare it to where we are now. Then, as a leader, we must work to close the gap. Expansion was a chance to narrow the gap to be a society where individuals have affordable healthcare available. It was a chance to remove the incentive for the working poor to lower their income (go on welfare) in order to qualify for current KanCare. I weighed the balance between expense in medical coverage and providing healthcare to the needy. I voted to override. – JAN KESSINGER

MR. SPEAKER: Committing taxpayers to another $70+ million while the budget remains unbalanced will ultimately backfire on our families, resulting in less funding for our schools and essential services. I cannot in good conscience expand coverage for some knowing it could jeopardize funding for others in need. I recognize the financial pressures on our hospitals, the needs of Kansans, and the benefits of increased coverage. I would support a budget-neutral plan that contains costs and has able-bodied recipients contribute something to the costs of their care. I am committed to working with hospitals, health foundations and others to develop that Kansas solution. – BLAINE FINCH

MR. SPEAKER: I support the veto override of HB 2044. My constituents overwhelmingly support Medicaid expansion. The reasons cited by the governor for his veto are not valid. It is disingenuous to use the waiting lists for HCBS waiver services as an excuse to oppose expansion. The disability community overwhelmingly supports and needs expansion. It is wrong to link this issue with work requirements. This isn't a welfare bill, it's about providing access to healthcare for the working poor, caregivers and others. It's time for Kansas tax dollars to come back here to work for us, rather than going to other states. – LINDA GALLAGHER

"Sec. 12. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 17-12a302 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-12a302. (a) Required filing of records. With respect to a federal covered security, as defined in section 18(b)(2) of the securities act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. § 77r(b)(2)), that is not otherwise exempt under K.S.A. 17-12a201 through 17-12a203, and amendments thereto, a rule adopted or order issued under this act may require the filing of any or all of the following records:

(1) Before the initial offer of a federal covered security in this state, all records that are part of a federal registration statement filed with the securities and exchange commission under the securities act of 1933 and a consent to service of process complying with K.S.A. 17-12a611, and amendments thereto, signed by the issuer and the payment of a fee not to exceed $2,500;

(2) after the initial offer of the federal covered security in this state, all records that are part of an amendment to a federal registration statement filed with the securities and exchange commission under the securities act of 1933; and

(3) to the extent necessary or appropriate to compute fees, a report of the value of the federal covered securities sold or offered to persons present in this state, if the sales data are not included in records filed with the securities and exchange commission and payment of a fee not to exceed $2,500.

(b) Notice filing effectiveness and renewal. A notice filing under subsection (a) is effective for one year commencing on the later of the notice filing or the effectiveness of the offering filed with the securities and exchange commission. On or before expiration, the issuer may renew a notice filing by filing a copy of those records filed by the issuer with the securities and exchange commission that are required by rule or order under this act to be filed and by paying a renewal fee not to exceed $2,500. A previously filed consent to service of process complying with K.S.A. 17-12a611, and amendments thereto, may be incorporated by reference in a renewal. A renewed notice filing becomes effective upon the expiration of the filing being renewed.

(d) Stop orders. Except with respect to a federal security under section 18(b)(1) of the securities act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. § 77r(b)(1)), if the administrator finds that there is a failure to comply with a notice or fee requirement of this section, the administrator may issue a stop order suspending the offer and sale of a federal covered security in this state. If the deficiency is corrected, the stop order is void as of the time of its issuance and no penalty may be imposed by the administrator other than a late filing fee.

(a) Registration requirement. It is unlawful for an individual to transact business in this state as an agent unless the individual is registered under this act as an agent or is exempt from registration as an agent under subsection (b).

(b) Exemptions from registration. The following individuals are exempt from the registration requirement of subsection (a):

(2) an individual who represents a broker-dealer that is exempt under K.S.A. 17-12a401(b) or (d), and amendments thereto;

(3) an individual who represents an issuer with respect to an offer or sale of the issuer's own securities or those of the issuer's parent or any of the issuer's subsidiaries, and who is not compensated in connection with the individual's participation by the payment of commissions or other remuneration based, directly or indirectly, on transactions in those securities;

(4) an individual who represents an issuer and who effects transactions in the issuer's securities exempted by K.S.A. 17-12a202, and amendments thereto, other than K.S.A. 17-12a202 (11) and (14), and amendments thereto;

(5) an individual who represents an issuer that effects transactions solely in federal covered securities of the issuer, but an individual who effects transactions in a federal covered security under section 18(b)(3) or 18(b)(4)(~~E~~)(~~F~~) of the securities act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. § 77r(b)(3) or 77r(b)(4)(~~E~~)(~~F~~)) is not exempt if the individual is compensated in connection with the agent's participation by the payment of commissions or other remuneration based, directly or indirectly, on transactions in those securities;

(6) an individual who represents a broker-dealer registered in this state under K.S.A. 17-12a401(a), and amendments thereto, or exempt from registration under K.S.A. 17-12a401(b), and amendments thereto, in the offer and sale of securities for an account of a nonaffiliated federal covered investment adviser with investments under management in excess of $100,000,000 acting for the account of others pursuant to discretionary authority in a signed record;

(7) an individual who represents an issuer in connection with the purchase of the issuer's own securities;

(8) an individual who represents an issuer and who restricts participation to performing clerical or ministerial acts; or

(9) any other individual exempted by rule adopted or order issued under this act.

(c) Registration effective only while employed or associated. The registration of an agent is effective only while the agent is employed by or associated with a broker-dealer registered under this act or an issuer that is offering, selling, or purchasing its securities in this state.

(d) Limit on employment or association. It is unlawful for a broker-dealer, or an issuer engaged in offering, selling, or purchasing securities in this state, to employ or associate with an agent who transacts business in this state on behalf of broker-dealers or issuers unless the agent is registered under subsection (a) or exempt from registration under subsection (b).

(e) Limit on affiliations. An individual may not act as an agent for more than one broker-dealer or one issuer at a time, unless the broker-dealer or the issuer for which the agent acts are affiliated by direct or indirect common control or are authorized by rule or order under this act.";

FIFTY-FOURTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, April 4, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
We are thankful today for the hope and the mercy that You give anew each and every day.
As these leaders continue to make decisions that affect the citizens of this great state, help them to seek wisdom that comes from You – wisdom that is pure, peace-loving, considerate, full of mercy, impartial and sincere.
May they be quick to listen, slow to speak;
quick to ask for guidance, slow to criticize.
Help them to be wise in the way they act towards each other;
to make the most of every opportunity;
and may their conversation be always full of grace.
In Christ's Name I pray,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Pittman.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Highland are spread upon the Journal:

It is an honor to bring before you today the athletes and coaches representing the Christian Homes in Educational Fellowship (CHIEF) boys' basketball team. CHIEF is a non-profit organization that provides support to Christian homeschooling families in the Manhattan and Wamego areas.

They earned their way to the state and national championship tournaments, with an outstanding record that included four overtime victories. In March, the CHIEF boys' basketball team won the 2017 National Championship title in the boys' Varsity Large Program Division 2C at the National Christian Homeschool Championship held in Springfield, Missouri. There were 340 teams from 18 states present at this Championship.

This is a great achievement they earned, and is a direct result of the hard work and dedication these young men have displayed. I am proud to congratulate and introduce the players and coaches associated with the CHIEF boys' basketball team today.

The players here with me today are Patrick Schrader 1, Cody Mericle 2, Josh Upshaw 3, Derek Bowman 4, Nathan McNellis 5, Luke Casada 13, Luke McNellis 15, Noah Salts 20, Dylan Peters 22, Josh Patterson 24, James Wilson 44. The coaches include Head Coach John Peters, Assistant Coaches DeQuaan Simmons, Sid Catterson, John McNellis, and Doug Mericle. The Athletic Director is Troy Bowman. It is my honor to present the team and coaches with a certificate from the Kansas House of Representatives.

Please join me in congratulating them on their win.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Rafie are spread upon the Journal:

27,000 children are touched by the child welfare system in KS each year. In those same communities, 1.3 million adults claim the Christian faith. The math is simple. If each church mobilized its people, there would be more support then needed.

CarePortal is a platform for that mobilization.

The technology enables child welfare professionals from participating agencies to quickly communicate with participating churches by inputting a need and connecting with churches in the same zip code of the child or family that they are serving. This allows the church a simple, vetted and immediate way to respond to those in crisis, right in their own neighborhoods. Some have called the CarePortal technology "the Uber of the child welfare system".

The concept is so easy, and it's already working. Since March of 2015t 173 congregations in 19 counties in Kansas have impacted 1,698 children. Nationwide, 1,092 congregations in 11 states have impacted nearly 10,000 children. We are so excited to see this church/state partnership expand to every county in Kansas. To learn more, visit CarePortal.org or email Tate@goproject.org

Rep. Rafie recognized the following people: Tate Williams, State Director CarePortal; Jim West, Sr. Pastor, Colonial Presbyterian Church; Deacon Dana Narmeyer, Director of Evangelization, Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas and LaRochelle Young, Deputy Director, DCF Faith Based and Community Initiatives.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Kelly, HR 6027, A RESOLUTION designating April 4, 2017, as Senior Corps and National Service Day at the Capitol, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kelly are spread upon the Journal:

More than 3,900 seniors in Kansas contribute their time and talents in one of three Senior Corps programs. Foster Grandparents serve one-on-one as tutors and mentors to more than 7,100 young people who have special needs. Senior Companions help more than 490 homebound seniors and other adults maintain independence in their own homes. RSVP volunteers renovate homes, tutor and mentor youth, respond to natural disasters, provide transportation to medical appointments, serve our veterans and military, deliver meals, help at food pantries, offer free tax preparation services and provide other services through more than 740 groups across Kansas. In a recent report, the Kansas Association of Senior Corps Directors reported an average of over one million hours in volunteer service is provided each year by Senior Corps Volunteers in these three programs.

Not only do our state and our communities benefit from Senior Corps Volunteers, but, over the past two decades there has been research that indicates volunteering provides individual health benefits, in addition to social ones, to the volunteers.

Today I have with me representatives from these three Senior Corps programs: Foster Grandparents – Ada Wilson; RSVP Volunteers – Luella Lovelace & Kathy Shepard; Senior Companions – Samuel Linnebur.

At a time when fiscal restraint is a must, National Service is a wise investment of taxpayer dollars and is good for Kansans. Please join with me in thanking these Senior Corps Volunteers who represent these three programs that are truly making a difference in the state of Kansas.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2407. The Governor has ignored votes in both Chambers. As long as he continues to ignore those, and continues to tie the hands of our local governments, our communities, and our neighborhoods, there is no reason he should be able to pick and choose what he wants when he does not allow our communities to do so. Therefore, I must vote no on this bill. — STAN FROWN FELTER

Journal of the House

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, April 5, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Creator God,
 We have noticed in the last few weeks
 how Spring has struggled to establish itself, warm and sunny one week,
 the last few days gloomy with dark skies and rain.
 Perhaps the same could be said about inside the chamber...
 one day decisions have been made that brighten their hopes, the next day, decisions made that cause some to feel as gray and gloomy as the sky.
 Today, Lord, I ask for discernment and clarity as they judge anew their adherence to principle, conviction, and commitment.
 Give them the ability to listen to one another and work cooperatively to solve the important issue of the day.
 Heal that which is broken—restore relationships that are separated by party lines—surprise the cynical—humble the exalted—and awaken the exhausted.
 In Your Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Sloan.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Deere are spread upon the Journal:

I am excited for the opportunity to stand before you today to recognize two remarkable young women who are students from Lansing High School. Sisters Marie and Mykala Caraccilo are the recent winners of a national competition sponsored by DECA and Herff Jones!

Twenty teams from all over the country participated with the goal of increasing yearbook sales by creating a four-tier marketing plan. Marie and Mykala worked with their yearbook and DECA advisors to research sales history and buying patterns, create an interactive marketing plan, and conduct surveys of students and parents.

They entered the contest by submitting a 10-minute video detailing their project. Herff Jones executives chose the top three teams, flew them to Florida, where each team gave a 30-minute presentation of their project to a group of 25 corporate marketing executives from Herff Jones.

These executives were very impressed with Marie and Mykala's work, praised them, and encouraged them to continue working in the marketing field after high school. A week later, it was announced that the girls won 1st place in the competition and also won $5,000 for travel to the International Career Development Conference in Anaheim, California later this month, where they will receive their award in front of approximately 18,000 students from the United States and Canada!

This is the 1st time in Kansas history for a team to compete and win this contest! This competition gave these young women a chance to practice real world skills in marketing, advertising, research, project development, and much more through a partnership with the LHS DECA and yearbook programs.

I see a very bright future ahead for Marie and Mykala!

I want to introduce everyone standing before you: DECA Sponsors, Dustin Myers and Kelsey Rook; Yearbook Sponsor, Heather Waters; LHS Principal, Steve Dike; Lansing Superintendent, Dr. Darrel Stufflebeam; Marie and Mykala's parents, Edward and Tracy Caraccilo; last, but not least, Marie and Mykala Caraccilo.

Please join me in presenting them with framed certificates from the Kansas House of Representatives and in congratulating them on this wonderful achievement!

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Judd-Jenkins, HR 6028, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

By Representative Judd-Jenkins

HR 6028—A RESOLUTION recognizing the Etzanoa Conservancy for its work to uncover the history of the great Native American settlement of Etzanoa.

A RESOLUTION recognizing the Etzanoa Conservancy for its work to uncover the history of the great Native American settlement of Etzanoa.

WHEREAS, In 1601, during an expedition from New Mexico into Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, Don Juan de Oñate, the Spanish conquistador who founded New Mexico, discovered what he called "the Great Settlement," which was known to the village's inhabitants as "Etzanao"; and

WHEREAS, Etzanao is also the likely location of a battle in 1601 between de Oñate's forces and a band of Wichita tribe ancestors, the Escanjaques as they were called by the Spanish; and

WHEREAS, It is accepted that the inhabitants of Etzanao are the ancestors of the modern-day Wichita people of the Wichita and Affiliated Tribes; and

WHEREAS, The exact location of Etzanao was unknown for many years, and several places, including Arkansas City, Kansas, were considered possible locations for the settlement; and

WHEREAS, With the revelation of new research and archaeological evidence, Dr. Donald Blakeslee, a Wichita State University Professor of Anthropology, became convinced that the east side of Arkansas City along the Walnut River was the location of Etzanao; and

WHEREAS, In June, 2015, Dr. Blakeslee organized a research team of archaeologists, students and volunteers to conduct field work on the Etzanao site and, as a result of this expedition, Dr. Blakeslee was able to confirm the site as the location of the settlement of Etzanao; and

WHEREAS, The archaeological site of Etzanao has the potential, based on the description of the settlement by de Oñate and artifacts found at the site, to be one of the largest Native American settlements to have existed in the United States; and

WHEREAS, This research would not have been possible without the contributions of Dr. Blakeslee, the V. J. Wilkins Foundation, the City of Arkansas City and the Arkansas City Historical Society; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Blakeslee believes that, based on the evidence, the Etzanao archaeological site is a great candidate for being designated as both a World Heritage Site by UNESCO and a National Historic Landmark: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the Etzanao Conservancy for its work to uncover the history of the great settlement of Etzanao and the many individuals who have contributed time and finances to better understand this American treasure; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send 21 enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Judd-Jenkins.

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Judd-Jenkins are spread upon the Journal:

In a renewed quest to find Quivira, the city of gold, Spanish conquistador Don Juan de Onate lead an army expedition in 1601, north and east from New Mexico into Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas. This founder of the colony of New Mexico discovered what he called the "Great Settlement," called "ETZANOAO" by the natives. The journals of this expedition comprise a large volume of materials, including a map drawn by Spanish expedition member Enrique Martinez. An Etzanao native enslaved by the expedition drew an additional map. The extensive transcripts of interrogations of the army of Spanish explorers detailing their visit to ETZANOAO are preserved in Seville, Spain. The exact modern day location of ETZANOAO had been debated for years among archaeologists.

In the 1870's the early residents of Arkansas City found many Native American artifacts. Large mounds of river mussel shells, rock Petroglyphs, earth pits full of bones, broken pots, and tools. Citizens of Arkansas City have always known this fork of the Arkansas and Walnut Rivers was someplace special long before settlers had ever arrived.

Prior to the new bypass being built in the 1990's, a Kansas State Historical Society survey discovered artifacts dating from 600-1800 AD, determined through carbon dating. There have been numerous artifacts from other periods discovered in Cowley County and the surrounding area that date back at least 10,000 years.

Wichita State University archeology professor, Dr. Don Blakeslee, organized a research team of archaeologists, students and volunteers in the Arkansas City area in June 2015. The team included a very sophisticated Mobile Archeology Lab and highly regarded archaeology professionals using noninvasive sensing equipment to begin the detailed research needed to prove that Arkansas City is the exact location of ETZANOA.

Based on the evidence, the ETZANOA archaeological site of a 5 mile long settlement of an estimated 20,000 ancestors of the Wichita tribe, thrived from about 1425 to the early 1700's. Archaeologists agree that a city of this size would be the second-largest prehistoric Native American site ever discovered in the U.S. and Canada, making it a possible candidate for being designated as both a World Heritage Site by UNESCO and a National Historic Landmark.

With the generous funding of the V.J. Wilkins Foundation, the Archaeology Channel spent two weeks filming the 2015 archaeological studies conducted by Dr. Blakeslee and his teams, with cooperation and support from the city of Arkansas City, and the Arkansas City Historical Society. Today in the Statehouse Visitors Center Auditorium you may view this fascinating 28-minute film titled "QUIVIRA: CONQUISTADORS ON THE PLAINS" describing the work and discovery of the true ETZANOA on the banks of the Walnut River in south central Kansas, just above the Oklahoma border.

Rep. Judd-Jenkins introduced the following guests to the House that were an integral in the discovery, preservation and promotion of ETZANOA: Dr. Don Blakeslee, Wichita University. Professor of Archaeology; Dr. Robert Hoard, Kansas Sate archaeologist; Otis Morrow, V.J. Wilkins Foundation Trustee; Karen Zeller, V.J. Wilkins Foundation Trustee; Otis Morrow, V.J. Wilkins Foundation Trustee; Nick Hernandez, Arkansas City Manager; Jay Warren, Arkansas City Councilman and former Mayor; Hap McLeod, ETZANOA Conservancy President, archaeological site land owner; Adam Ziegler, Lawrence Free State High School, and discoverer of the first Spanish Artifact confirming the site of the ETZANOA battle; Jann Ziegler, ETZANOA Conservancy member and grandmother of Adam Ziegler; Carol House, ETZANOA Conservancy member and archaeological site land owner; Jason Smith, ETZANOA Conservancy member and Foss Farrar, ETZANOA Conservancy member, archaeological site land owner and freelance news reporter.

I welcome you to celebrate this great American treasure recently discovered in the great state of Kansas.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2409. The occupation of the Gaza Strip and the West Bank by the State of Israel is in its 50th year, and there is no end in sight. The government of Israel continues to build and expand settlements in the occupied West Bank, in defiance of our own government and in violation of international law. Despite that, I do not oppose the section of this bill that prevents our state from boycotting the State of Israel. I do oppose the section that requires state contractors to provide a certificate of political correctness, because I think that puts us on a very slippery slope and may well be unconstitutional. – DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “aye” on HB 2409. Israel is a strong trade partner with Kansas, and any company openly boycotting Israel and its products, is perpetrating an act of economic warfare against a Kansas trade partner and ally. It is in our financial interest to continue our strong trade partnership with Israel, advocate for our ally, and defend the companies who have decided to make a financial investment in Kansas. I stand with Israel. – BILL SUTTON, JOHN RESMAN, LESLIE OSTERMAN, SUSAN HUMPHRIES, TREVOR JACOBS, ERIC L. SMITH, CHUCK WEBER, RANDY GARBER, LEO DELPERDANG, KEITH ESAU, RANDY POWELL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “No” on HB 2409, not because I support a boycott of the Nation of Israel. Israel is a friend of our country and our state. Instead, I vote “No” on HB 2409 because it imposes an unnecessary regulatory burden on Kansas businesses. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Jimmy Holbrook, pastor, Overland Park Community Church, and guest of Rep. Rafie:

Heavenly Father,

We thank you for this day. We thank you for your love and mercy that is new every morning. We realize that we do not deserve your grace, but we desire it Lord! I thank you Lord for ordaining government and giving us leaders to serve. Please look down upon these men and women today who sit in these positions of leadership. Grant them your wisdom Lord to make decisions that are just and right for the state of Kansas. I pray Lord that you would help them unify over things that benefit the people of Kansas. I pray that you would give them the courage and wisdom to know when to stand on what would be harmful for Kansans. Their job is not easy Lord. They face critics from all sides. Keep them encouraged and help them through this day. I ask all these things in the name of Christ.

Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ellis.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ellis are spread upon the Journal:

At this time, I would like to recognize an organization that has done so much for their community. They raise money to paint murals on city buildings. They help coordinate the Perry Pride Days in September, called the Fall Festival. They adopt children and families at Christmas to provide Christmas gifts. They provide funeral dinners, meals for senior citizens, and even bought a new stove for their community building. They commissioned an artist to paint inside the Perry Post Office with a patriotic theme. They are currently raising money for basketball goals for kids of their community. This year they received the "Community of Excellence" award by the Kansas Pride Program through K-State. They improve the lives of citizens and the image of the community. They illustrate what I believe Kansas is all about: helping your neighbors and your community with time, talent, and money.

Today I award and recognize the Perry Pride Organization with congratulations on a job well done.

The Army places a special emphasis on the children through high standards for academics in education. In April 2009 I came before this body to introduce to you the Military Child Interstate Education Compact in recognition of the special situations facing children of the military.

The Army places a special emphasis on the health of military children by providing recreational facilities and activities which provide an opportunity to bring families and friends together, such as ball fields and recreation centers and Ft. Riley's Apple Days.

Today when I asked my pages if any of them were children of military parents, two of my five pages said yes. I would like to introduce Nevaeh Buffington and Ilimah Lewis from Manhattan.

I appreciate that 100% of this body supported recognizing April as the Month of the Military Child. Through words and actions today we recognize the contributions and the significant impact the Army has on its children.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2180. I believe we should restore the 4% cuts to our health providers, but this is not the answer. When our insurance providers (Aetna, BCBS Kansas and BCBS KC) drop their HMO insurance package more than 100,000 Kansans will lose their Primary care physician and be placed on the preferred provider network and will see their cost for medical insurance increase by 20-25%. When we raised privilege fees from 1% to 3.3% in 2015, the legislature promised to lower it to 2% in Jan. 2018. Instead we are raising it to 5.7%. This is the wrong way to fix the problem. – RANDY GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2180. The commercial HMO insurance companies receive no benefit from the Medicaid system. Yet they pay an HMO tax to pull down dollars from the Federal Government and the revenue is used to offset Medicaid Expenses. The $6 million dollar cost to them is a totally unfair tax. Hospitals on the other hand receive revenue from Medicaid, but refuse to increase their Hospital Assessment fee to pull down Federal dollars for the Medicaid system. This is no way consistent with our taxing system. I urge the body to vote no on HB 2180. – DANIEL R. HAWKINS, KEITH ESAU, BLAKE CARPENTER, RANDY POWELL, KEVIN JONES, JOHN WHITMER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR SPEAKER: I vote "Yes" on HB 2279. Drivers' license reinstatement fees are a terrible way to fund non-judicial salaries, but our court clerks and other non-judicial employees are receiving below market wages, in some cases now qualify for public assistance, and often must work two jobs to make ends meet. So, to those who vote "No" today, I suggest the next time you are in your courthouse, look those constituents in the eye and apologize for your vote here today. I therefore vote "Yes" on HB 2279. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for SB 13. Kansas is driven by small mom and pop businesses. It just seems wrong to ask us to change the law so that big corporations can add just one more product to their inventory at the expense to the 700 plus liquor stores in Kansas. – KEN CORBET, KENT THOMPSON, RONALD L. HIGHLAND, MIKE HOUSER, JOHN CARMICHAEL

MR. SPEAKER: After speaking with my local small businesses, I vote yes on H Sub for SB 13. I vote yes reluctantly, however, as I and those small businesses both share the fear that the mutual agreement by all parties to not bring this before the legislature again for 10 years may not be upheld. – STAN FROWN FELTER, TOM BURROUGHS

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: This bill borrows over $650 million to pay for operating expenses. It is a clear sign of the financial vulnerability facing Kansas and its citizens. The Governor is asking us to borrow another 1.5 billion dollars to balance next year's budget. Borrowing 16% of your budget is financially destructive and will lead to a systemic failure of our government. I vote no on S Sub for Sub HB 2052. – HENRY HELGERSON

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Financial Institutions and Pensions recommends SB 205, as amended by Senate Committee, be amended on page 5, following line 43, by inserting:

On and after July 1, 1993, the annual spouse's benefit under this subsection (2) shall accrue from the first day of the month coinciding with or following the member's death and shall continue until the spouse's death. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to members of the legislature prior to January 8, 2000. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any other elected officials prior to the term of office of such elected official which commences on or after July 1, 2000. The provisions of this subsection shall apply to any other elected official, except an elected city or county officer as further provided in this subsection, on and after the term of office of such other elected official which commences on or after July 1, 2000. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, when an elected city or county officer is retired under the provisions of subsection (1) or (4) of this section and is paid an amount of compensation of $25,000 or more in any one calendar year between July 1, 2016, and July 1, 2020, such officer may receive such officer's salary, and still be entitled to receive such officer's retirement benefit pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4915 et seq., and amendments thereto. Except as otherwise provided, commencing January 8, 2001, the provisions of this subsection shall apply to members of the legislature. For determination of the amount of compensation paid pursuant to this subsection, for members of the legislature, compensation shall include any amount paid as provided pursuant to K.S.A. 46-137a(a), (b), (c) and (d), and amendments thereto, or pursuant to K.S.A. 46-137b, and amendments thereto. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, when a member of the legislature is paid an amount of compensation of $20,000 or more in any one calendar year, the member may continue to receive any amount provided in K.S.A. 46-137a(b) and (d), and amendments thereto, and still be entitled to receive such member's retirement benefit. Commencing July 1, 2005, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to retirants who either retired under the provisions of subsection (1), or, if they retired under the provisions of subsection (4), were retired more than 30 days prior to the effective date of this act and are licensed professional nurses or licensed practical nurses employed by the state of Kansas in an institution as defined in K.S.A. 76-12a01(b) or K.S.A. 38-2302~~(f)~~(k), and amendments thereto, the Kansas soldiers' home or the Kansas veterans' home. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to create any right, or to authorize the creation of any right, which is not subject to amendment or nullification by act of the legislature. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the actuarially determined employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment.

(6) For purposes of this section, any employee of a local governmental unit which has its own pension plan who becomes an employee of a participating employer as a result of a merger or consolidation of services provided by local governmental units, which occurred on January 1, 1994, may count service with such local governmental unit in determining whether such employee has met the years of credited service requirements contained in this section.

(7) (a) Except as provided in K.S.A. 74-4937(3), (4), or (5), and amendments thereto, and the provisions of this subsection, commencing July 1, 2016, and ending July 1, 2020, any retirant who is employed or appointed in or to any position by a participating employer or a third-party entity who contracts services with a participating employer to fill a position, without any prearranged agreement with such participating employer and not prior to 60 days after such retirant's retirement date, shall not receive any retirement benefit for any month in any calendar year in which the retirant receives compensation in an amount equal to $25,000 or more, pursuant to this subsection. The provisions of this subsection shall apply to members of the legislature.

(b) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply, except as specifically provided in this subsection, to retirants ~~that~~ who are:

(i) Licensed professional nurses or licensed practical nurses employed by the state of Kansas in an institution as defined in K.S.A. 76-12a01(b) or 38-2302~~(f)~~(k), and amendments thereto, the Kansas soldiers' home or the Kansas veterans' home. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the actuarially determined employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation and the statutorily prescribed employee contribution during any such period of employment;

(ii) employed by a school district in a position as provided in K.S.A. 74-4937(3), (4) or (5), and amendments thereto. Any retirant employed by a school district in a position under K.S.A. 74-4937(3), (4) or (5), and amendments thereto, shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (7)(h) which relate to a limitation on the total term of employment with any participating employer in which a retirant may receive such retirant's full retirement benefit;

(iii) certified law enforcement officers employed by the law enforcement training center. Such law enforcement officers shall receive their benefits notwithstanding this subsection. The law enforcement training center shall pay to the system the ~~actuarial~~ actuarially determined employer contribution and the statutorily prescribed employee contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment;

(iv) members of the Kansas police and firemen's retirement system pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4951 et seq., and amendments thereto, ~~or~~ members of the retirement system for judges pursuant to K.S.A. 20-2601 et seq., and amendments thereto, or members of the state board of regents retirement plan pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4925 et seq., and amendments thereto;

(v) employed as substitute teachers or officers, employees or appointees of the legislature;

(vi) a poll worker hired to work an election day for a county election officer responsible for conducting all official elections held in the county; and

(vii) employed by, or have accepted employment from, a participating employer prior to May 1, 2015. Any break in continuous employment by a retirant or move to a different position by a retirant during the effective period of this subsection shall be deemed new employment and shall subject the retirant to the provisions of this subsection.

(c) The participating employer shall enroll all retirants and report to the system when compensation is paid to a retirant as provided in this subsection. Such report shall contain a certification by the appointing authority of the participating employer that any hired retirant has not been employed by the participating employer within 60 days of such retirant's retirement and that there was no prearranged agreement for employment between the participating employer and the hired retirant. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the participating employer shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this subsection. Any participating employer who hires a retirant covered by this subsection shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate for such retirant, without regard to whether the retirant is receiving benefits. No retirant shall receive credit for service while employed under the provisions of this subsection.

(d) A participating employer may employ a retirant without regard to the compensation limitation in this subsection for a period of one calendar year or one school year, as the case may be, if the following requirements are met:

(i) The employer certifies to the board that the position being filled has been vacated due to an unexpected emergency or the employer has been unsuccessful in filling the position;

(ii) the employer pays to the system a 30% employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment. On or before July 1, 2019, and at least every three years thereafter, the board, in consultation with the system's consulting actuary, shall evaluate the plan's experience with employment of such retirants and the corresponding employer contribution rate to assess whether the employer contribution rate can be expected to fund adverse experience or higher liabilities accruing under the system in connection with employment of such retirants, to the extent that such liability can be ascertained or estimated. Based on this evaluation of the plan's experience, the board may certify to the division of the budget, in the case of the state, and to the agent for each other participating employer, a new rate if needed to more fully fund such adverse experience or additional liabilities, but such rate shall not be less than 30%; and

(iii) the employer maintains documentation of its efforts to fill the position with a non-retirant and provides such documentation to the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits upon request of the committee.

(e) An employer may submit a written assurance protocol to the system to extend the exception provided for in subsection (7)(d) by one-year increments for a total extension not to exceed three years. A written assurance protocol shall be submitted to the system for each one-year increment extension. If a school district submits a written assurance protocol, such written assurance protocol shall be signed by the superintendent and the board president of such school district. If a municipality, as defined in K.S.A. 75-1117, and amendments thereto, other than a school district, submits a written assurance protocol, such written assurance protocol shall be signed by the governing body or such governing body's designee for such municipality. Such written assurance protocol shall state that the position was advertised on multiple platforms for a minimum of 30 calendar days and that at least one of the following conditions occurred:

(i) No applications were submitted for the position;

(ii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants met the reference screening criteria of the employer; or

(iii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants possessed the appropriate licensure, certification or other necessary credentials for the position.

(f) On July 1, 2021, and at least every five years thereafter, the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits shall study the issue of whether the compensation limitation prescribed in this subsection should be adjusted. The committee shall consider the effect of inflation and data on member retirement benefits and active employee compensation.

(g) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to create any right, or to authorize the creation of any right, which is not subject to amendment or nullification by act of the legislature.

(h) Any retirant hired by any participating employer under the provisions of subsection (7)(d) or K.S.A. 74-4937(3), (4) or (5), and amendments thereto, may continue to receive such retirant's full retirement benefit so long as, commencing July 1, 2016, such retirant's total term of employment with all participating employers under one or more of such provisions does not exceed 48 months or four school years, whichever is less. After such period, such retirant shall not receive any retirement benefit for any month in any calendar year in which such retirant receives compensation in an amount equal to $25,000 or more in such calendar year.

(8) If determined by the retirement system that a retirant entered into a prearranged agreement for employment with a participating employer prior to such retirant's retirement and prior to the end of the subsequent 60-day waiting period, the monthly retirement benefit of such retirant shall be suspended during the period that begins on the month in which the retirant is re-employed and ends six months after the retirant's termination of such employment. The retirant shall repay to the retirement system all monthly retirement benefits paid to the retirant by the retirement system that the retirant received after such employment began. The participating employer which hired such retirant shall be required to pay to the system any fees, fines, penalties or any other cost imposed by the internal revenue service and indemnify the system for any cost incurred by the system to defend any action brought by the internal revenue service based on in-service distributions which are a result of any determined prearranged agreement and for any cost incurred by the system to collect any monthly retirement benefit required to be repaid by such retirant pursuant to this subsection.

(9) For the purposes of this section a prearranged agreement for employment may be determined by whether the facts and circumstances of the situation indicate that the employer and employee reasonably anticipated that further services would be performed after the employee's retirement.

Sec. 5. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 74-49,123 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-49,123. (a) This section applies to the Kansas public employees retirement system and to all other public retirement plans administered by the board of trustees.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Federal internal revenue code" means the federal internal revenue code of 1954 or 1986, as amended and as applicable to a governmental plan as in effect on July 1, 2008; and

(2) "retirement plan" includes the Kansas public employees retirement system and all other Kansas public retirement plans and benefit structures, which are administered by the board.

(c) In addition to the federal internal revenue code provisions otherwise noted in each retirement plan's law, and in order to satisfy the applicable requirements under the federal internal revenue code, the retirement plans shall be subject to the following provisions, notwithstanding any other provision of the retirement plan's law:

(1) The board shall distribute the corpus and income of the retirement plan to the members and their beneficiaries in accordance with the retirement plan's law. At no time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to members and their beneficiaries shall any part of the corpus and income be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than the exclusive benefit of the members and their beneficiaries.

(2) Forfeitures arising from severance of employment, death or for any other reason may not be applied to increase the benefits any member would otherwise receive under the retirement plan's law. However, forfeitures may be used to reduce an employer's contribution.

(3) All benefits paid from the retirement plan shall be distributed in accordance with a good faith interpretation of the requirements of section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations under that section. Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules and regulations, effective on and after January 1, 2003, the retirement plan is subject to the following provisions:

(A) Benefits must begin by the required beginning date, which is the later of April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the member reaches 70½ years of age or April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the member terminates employment. If a member fails to apply for retirement benefits by April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such member reaches 70½ years of age or April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such member terminates employment, whichever is later, the board will begin distributing the benefit as required by this section.

(B) The member's entire interest must be distributed over the member's life or the lives of the member and a designated beneficiary, or over a period not extending beyond the life expectancy of the member or of the member and a designated beneficiary. Death benefits must be distributed in accordance with section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code, including the incidental death benefit requirement in section 401(a)(9)(G) of the federal internal revenue code, and the regulations implementing that section.

(C) The life expectancy of a member, the member's spouse or the member's beneficiary may not be recalculated after the initial determination for purposes of determining benefits.

(D) If a member dies after the required distribution of benefits has begun, the remaining portion of the member's interest must be distributed at least as rapidly as under the method of distribution before the member's death and no longer than the remaining period over which distributions commenced.

(E) If a member dies before required distribution of the member's benefits has begun, the member's entire interest must be either:

(i) In accordance with federal regulations, distributed over the life or life expectancy of the designated beneficiary, with the distributions beginning no later than December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year of the member's death; or

(ii) distributed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the member's death.

(F) The amount of an annuity paid to a member's beneficiary may not exceed the maximum determined under the incidental death benefit requirement of the federal internal revenue code.

(G) The death and disability benefits provided by a retirement plan are limited by the incidental benefit rule set forth in section 401(a)(9)(G) of the federal internal revenue code and treasury regulation 1.401-1(b)(1)(i).

(4) Distributions from the retirement plans may be made only upon retirement, separation from service, disability or death.

(5) The board or its designee may not:

(A) Determine eligibility for benefits;

(B) compute rates of contribution; or

(C) compute benefits of members or beneficiaries, in a manner that discriminates in favor of members who are considered officers, supervisors or highly compensated, as prohibited under section 401(a)(4) of the federal internal revenue code.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this subsection, benefits paid from, and employee contributions made to, the retirement plans shall not exceed the maximum benefits and the maximum annual additions, respectively, permissible under section 415 of the federal internal revenue code.

(A) Before January 1, 1995, a member may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the limits specified in section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code, subject to the applicable adjustments in that section. Beginning January 1, 1995, a participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the dollar amount specified in section 415(b)(1)(A) of the federal internal revenue code, subject to the applicable adjustments in section 415 of the federal internal revenue code.

(B) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the board may modify a request by a participant to make a contribution to the retirement plans if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code subject to the following:

(i) Where the retirement plan's law requires a lump-sum payment, for the purchase of service credit, the board may establish a periodic payment plan in order to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code.

(ii) If the board's option under ~~subdivision clause~~ (i) will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code, the board shall reduce or deny the contribution.

(C) Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if an active member makes one or more contributions to purchase permissive service credit under a retirement plan, then the requirements of this section shall be treated as met only if:

(i) The requirements of section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of such section; or

(ii) the requirements of section 415(c) of the federal internal revenue code are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of such section. For purposes of applying ~~subparagraph clause~~ (i) a retirement plan shall not fail to meet the reduced limit under section 415(b)(2)(C) of the federal internal revenue code solely by reason of this ~~paragraph subparagraph~~ (C), and for purposes of applying ~~subparagraph clause~~ (ii), a retirement plan shall not fail to meet the percentage limitation under section 415(c)(1)(B) of the federal internal revenue code solely by reason of this paragraph.

(iii) For purposes of this ~~paragraph clause~~, the term "permissive service credit" means service credit:

(a) Specifically recognized by a retirement plan's law for purposes of calculating a member's benefit under that retirement plan;

(b) which such member has not received under a retirement plan; and

(c) which such member may receive under a retirement plan's law only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the retirement plan's law and procedures established by the board, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.

(iv) A retirement plan shall fail to meet the requirements of this ~~paragraph clause~~ if the retirement plan's law specifically provides for a purchase of nonqualified service purchase, and if:

(a) More than five years of nonqualified service credit are taken into account for purposes of this ~~paragraph subclause~~; or

(b) any nonqualified service credit is taken into account under this ~~paragraph subclause~~ before the member has at least five years of participation under a retirement plan. For purposes of this ~~paragraph subclause~~, effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, the term "nonqualified service credit" means the same as provided in section 415(n)(3)(C) of the federal internal revenue code.

(v) In the case of a trustee-to-trustee transfer after December 31, 2001, to which section 403(b)(13)(A) or 457(e)(17)(A) of the federal internal revenue code applies, without regard to whether the transfer is made between plans maintained by the same employer:

(a) The limitations of ~~subparagraph clause~~ (iv) shall not apply in determining whether the transfer is for the purchase of permissive service credit; and

(b) the distribution rules applicable under federal law to a retirement plan shall apply to such amounts and any benefits attributable to such amounts.

(vi) For an eligible member, the limitation of section 415(c)(1) of the federal internal revenue code shall not be applied to reduce the amount of permissive service credit which may be purchased to an amount less than the amount which was allowed to be purchased under the terms of the statute as in effect on August 5, 1997. For purposes of this ~~subparagraph clause~~, an eligible member is an individual who first became a member in the retirement plan before January 1, 1998.

(D) Subject to approval by the internal revenue service, the board shall maintain a qualified governmental excess benefit arrangement under section 415(m) of the federal internal revenue code. The board shall establish the necessary and appropriate procedures for the administration of such benefit arrangement under the federal internal revenue code. The amount of any annual benefit that would exceed the limitations imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code shall be paid from this benefit arrangement. The amount of any contribution that would exceed the limitations imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code shall be credited to this benefit arrangement. The qualified excess benefit arrangement shall be a separate portion of the retirement plan. The qualified excess benefit arrangement is subject to the following requirements:

(i) The benefit arrangement shall be maintained solely for the purpose of providing to participants in the retirement plans that part of the participant's annual benefit otherwise payable under the terms of the act that exceeds the limitations on benefits imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code; and

(ii) participants do not have an election, directly or indirectly, to defer compensation to the excess benefit arrangement.

(E) For purposes of applying these limits only and for no other purpose, the definition of compensation where applicable shall be compensation actually paid or made available during a limitation year, except as noted below and as permitted by treasury regulation section 1.415(c)-2. Specifically, compensation shall be defined as wages within the meaning of section 3401(a) of the federal internal revenue code and all other payments of compensation to an employee by an employer for which the employer is required to furnish the employee a written statement under sections 6041(d), 6051(a)(3) and 6052 of the federal internal revenue code. Compensation shall be determined without regard to any rules under section 3401(a) of the federal internal revenue code that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed, such as the exception for agricultural labor in section 3401(a)(2) of the federal internal revenue code.

(i) However, for limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, compensation shall also include amounts that would otherwise be included in compensation but for an election under sections 125(a), 402(e)(3), 402(h)(1)(B), 402(k) or 457(b) of the federal internal revenue code. For limitation years beginning after December 30, 2000, compensation shall also include any elective amounts that are not includable in the gross income of the employee by reason of section 132(f)(4) of the federal internal revenue code.

(ii) The definition of compensation shall exclude employee contributions picked up under section 414(h)(2) of the federal internal revenue code.

(iii) For limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, compensation for the limitation year will also include compensation paid by the later of two and a half months after an employee's severance from employment or the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the employee's severance from employment if:

(a) The payment is regular compensation for services during the employee's regular working hours or compensation for services outside the employee's regular working hours, such as overtime or shift differential, commissions, bonuses or other similar payments, and absent a severance from employment, the payments would have been paid to the employee while the employee continues in employment with the employer;

(b) the payment is for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation or other leave that the employee would have been able to use if employment had continued; or

(c) for limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2012, the payment is made pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payment would have been paid to the member at the same time if the member had continued employment with the employer and only to the extent that the payment is includable in the member's gross income.

(iv) Any payments not described in ~~paragraph~~ clause (iii) are not considered compensation if paid after severance from employment, even if they are paid within two and a half months following severance from employment, except for payments to the individual who does not currently perform services for the employer by reason of qualified military service, within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the federal internal revenue code, to the extent these payments do not exceed the amounts the individual would have received if the individual had continued to perform services for the employer rather than entering qualified military service.

(v) An employee who is in qualified military service, within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the federal internal revenue code, shall be treated as receiving compensation from the employer during such period of qualified military service equal to: (a) The compensation the employee would have received during such period if the employee were not in qualified military service, determined based on the rate of pay the employee would have received from the employer but for the absence during the period of qualified military service; or (b) if the compensation the employee would have received during such period was not reasonably certain, the employee's average compensation from the employer during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the qualified military service, or if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding the qualified military service.

(vi) Back pay, within the meaning of treasury regulation section 1.415(c)-2(g)(8), shall be treated as compensation for the limitation year to which the back pay relates to the extent the back pay represents wages and compensation that would otherwise be included under this definition.

(7) On and after January 1, 2009, for purposes of applying the limits under section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code, the following shall apply:

(A) A member's applicable limit shall be applied to the member's annual benefit in the first limitation year without regard to any automatic cost-of-living increases;

(B) to the extent the member's annual benefit equals or exceeds such limit, the member shall no longer be eligible for cost-of-living increases until such time as the benefit plus the accumulated increases are less than such limit;

(C) thereafter, in any subsequent limitation year, the member's annual benefit including any automatic cost-of-living increase applicable shall be tested under the then applicable benefit limit including any adjustment to the dollar limit under section 415(b)(1)(A) or 415(d) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations thereunder; and

(D) in no event shall a member's annual benefit payable from a retirement plan in any limitation year be greater than the limit applicable at the annuity starting date, as increased in subsequent years pursuant to section 415(d) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations thereunder. If the form of benefit without regard to the automatic benefit increase feature is not a straight life annuity, then the preceding sentence is applied by reducing the limit under section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code applicable at the annuity starting date to an actuarially equivalent amount determined using the assumptions specified in treasury regulation section 1.415(b)-1(c)(2)(ii) that take into account the death benefits under the form of benefit. This subsection applies to distributions made on and after January 1, 1993. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a transfer made from the retirement system.

(i) An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: (a) Any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments, not less frequently than annually, made for the life or the life expectancy of the distributee or the joint lives or joint life expectancies of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary or for a specified period of 10 years or more; (b) any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code; (c) the portion of any distribution that is not includable in gross income; and (d) any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Effective January 1, 2002, a portion of a distribution shall not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includable in gross income. However, such portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or annuity described in section 408(a) or (b) of the federal internal revenue code, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code or to a qualified plan described in section 403(a) of the federal internal revenue code, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred and earnings on such amounts, including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includable in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includable, or on or after January 1, 2007, to a qualified defined benefit plan described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code or to an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the federal internal revenue code, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred and earnings thereon, including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includable in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includable.

(ii) An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:

(a) An individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the federal internal revenue code;

(b) an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the federal internal revenue code;

(c) an annuity plan described in section 403(a) of the federal internal revenue code;

(d) a qualified trust described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code;

(e) effective January 1, 2002, an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the federal internal revenue code;

(f) effective January 1, 2002, a plan eligible under section 457(b) of the federal internal revenue code that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into the plan from a retirement plan; or

(g) effective January 1, 2008, a roth IRA described in section 408(A) of the federal internal revenue code.
