(i) If the sentencing judge finds substantial and compelling reasons to impose a departure based upon a finding that the current crime of conviction was sexually motivated, departure may be imposed to extend the postrelease supervision to a period of up to 60 months.

(ii) If the sentencing judge departs from the presumptive postrelease supervision period, the judge shall state on the record at the time of sentencing the substantial and compelling reasons for the departure. Departures in this section are subject to appeal pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4721, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6820, and amendments thereto.

(iii) In determining whether substantial and compelling reasons exist, the court shall consider:

- (a) Written briefs or oral arguments submitted by either the defendant or the state;
- (b) any evidence received during the proceeding;
- (c) the presentence report, the victim's impact statement and any psychological evaluation as ordered by the court pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4714(e), prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6813(e), and amendments thereto; and
- (d) any other evidence the court finds trustworthy and reliable.

(iv) The sentencing judge may order that a psychological evaluation be prepared and the recommended programming be completed by the offender. The department of corrections or the prisoner review board shall ensure that court ordered sex offender treatment be carried out.

(v) In carrying out the provisions of subsection (d)(1)(D), the court shall refer to K.S.A. 21-4718, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6817, and amendments thereto.

(vi) Upon petition and payment of any restitution ordered pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6604, and amendments thereto, the prisoner review board may provide for early discharge from the postrelease supervision period imposed pursuant to subsection (d)(1)(D)(i) upon completion of court ordered programs and completion of the presumptive postrelease supervision period, as determined by the crime of conviction, pursuant to subsection (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B) or (d)(1)(C). (viii) Persons convicted of K.S.A. 21-3510 or 21-3511, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5508, and amendments thereto, shall be required to participate in a treatment program for sex offenders during the postrelease supervision period.

(E) The period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraphs (A) and (B) may be reduced by up to 12 months and the period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraph (C) may be reduced by up to six months based on the offender's compliance with conditions of supervision and overall performance while on postrelease supervision. The reduction in the supervision period shall be on an earned basis pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of corrections.

(F) In cases where sentences for crimes from more than one severity level have been imposed, the offender shall serve the longest period of postrelease supervision as provided by this section available for any crime upon which sentence was imposed irrespective of the severity level of the crime. Supervision periods will not aggregate.

(G) Except as provided in subsection (u), persons convicted of a sexually violent crime committed on or after July 1, 2006, and who are released from prison, shall be released to a mandatory period of postrelease supervision for the duration of the person's natural life.

(2) Persons serving a period of postrelease supervision pursuant to subsections (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B) or (d)(1)(C) may petition the prisoner review board for early discharge. Upon payment of restitution, the prisoner review board may provide for early discharge.

(3) Persons serving a period of incarceration for a supervision violation shall not have the period of postrelease supervision modified until such person is released and returned to postrelease supervision.

(4) Offenders whose crime of conviction was committed on or after July 1, 2013, and whose probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction is revoked pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(c), and amendments thereto, or whose underlying prison term expires while serving a sanction pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D), and amendments thereto, shall serve a period of postrelease supervision upon the completion of the underlying prison term.

(5) As used in this subsection, "sexually violent crime" means:

(6) As used in this subsection, "sexually motivated" means that one of the purposes for which the defendant committed the crime was for the purpose of the defendant's sexual gratification.

(e) If an inmate is sentenced to imprisonment for a crime committed while on parole or conditional release, the inmate shall be eligible for parole as provided by subsection (c), except that the prisoner review board may postpone the inmate's parole eligibility date by assessing a penalty not exceeding the period of time which could have been assessed if the inmate's parole or conditional release had been violated for reasons other than conviction of a crime.

(f) If a person is sentenced to prison for a crime committed on or after July 1, 1993, while on probation, parole, conditional release or in a community corrections program, for a crime committed prior to July 1, 1993, and the person is not eligible for retroactive application of the sentencing guidelines and amendments thereto pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4724, prior to its repeal, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence, but shall begin when the person is paroled or reaches the conditional release date on the old sentence. If the offender was past the offender's conditional release date at the time the new offense was committed, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence but shall begin when the person is ordered released by the prisoner review board or reaches the maximum sentence expiration date on the old sentence, whichever is earlier. The new sentence shall then be served as otherwise provided by law. The period of postrelease supervision shall be based on the new sentence, except that those offenders whose old sentence is a term of imprisonment for life, imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 21-4628, prior to its repeal, or an indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment, for which there is no conditional release or maximum sentence expiration date, shall remain on postrelease supervision for life or until discharged from supervision by the prisoner review board.

(g) Subject to the provisions of this section, the prisoner review board may release on parole those persons confined in institutions who are eligible for parole when: (1) The board believes that the inmate should be released for hospitalization, deportation or to answer the warrant or other process of a court and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate; or (2) the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement, and the board believes that the inmate is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law abiding citizen and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate. Parole shall not be granted as an award of clemency and shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon.

(h) The prisoner review board shall hold a parole hearing at least the month prior to the month an inmate will be eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At least one month preceding the parole hearing, the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was convicted shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment sessions for the inmate to any victim of the inmate's crime who is alive and whose address is known to the county or district attorney or, if the victim is deceased, to the victim's family if the family's address is known to the county or district attorney. Except as otherwise provided, failure to notify pursuant to this section shall not be a reason to postpone a parole hearing. In the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the secretary of corrections shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment session for such inmate at least one month preceding the public comment session to any victim of such inmate's crime or the victim's family pursuant to K.S.A. 74-7338, and amendments thereto. If notification is not given to such victim or such victim's family in the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the board shall postpone a decision on parole of the inmate to a time at least 30 days after notification is given as provided in this section. Nothing in this section shall create a cause of action against the state or an employee of the state acting within the scope of the employee's employment as a result of the failure to notify pursuant to this section. If granted parole, the inmate may be released on parole on the date specified by the board, but not earlier than the date the inmate is eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At each parole hearing and, if parole is not granted, at such intervals thereafter as it determines appropriate, the board shall consider: (1) Whether the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement; and (2) all pertinent information regarding such inmate, including, but not limited to, the circumstances of the offense of the inmate; the presentence report; the previous social history and criminal record of the inmate; the conduct, employment, and attitude of the inmate in prison; the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made, including, but not limited to, risk factors revealed by any risk assessment of the inmate; comments of the victim and the victim's family including in person comments, contemporaneous comments and prerecorded comments made by any technological means; comments of the public; official comments; any recommendation by the staff of the facility where the inmate is incarcerated; proportionality of the time the inmate has served to the sentence a person would receive under the Kansas sentencing guidelines for the conduct that resulted in the inmate's incarceration; and capacity of state correctional institutions.

(i) In those cases involving inmates sentenced for a crime committed after July 1, 1993, the prisoner review board will review the inmate's proposed release plan. The board may schedule a hearing if they desire. The board may impose any condition they deem necessary to insure public safety, aid in the reintegration of the inmate into the community, or items not completed under the agreement entered into under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto. The board may not advance or delay an inmate's release date. Every inmate while on postrelease supervision shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary.

(j) (1) Before ordering the parole of any inmate, the prisoner review board shall have the inmate appear either in person or via a video conferencing format and shall interview the inmate unless impractical because of the inmate's physical or mental condition or absence from the institution. Every inmate while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary. Whenever the board formally considers placing an inmate on parole and no agreement has been entered into with the inmate under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the reasons for not granting parole. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the inmate has not satisfactorily completed the programs specified in the agreement, or any revision of such agreement, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the specific programs the inmate must satisfactorily complete before parole will be granted. If parole is not granted only because of a failure to satisfactorily complete such programs, the board shall grant parole upon the secretary's certification that the inmate has successfully completed such programs. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by such agreement, or any revision thereof, the board shall not require further program participation. However, if the board determines that other pertinent information regarding the inmate warrants the inmate's not being released on parole, the board shall state in writing the reasons for not granting the parole. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a crime other than a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than one year after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next three years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to three years but any such deferral by the board shall require the board to state the basis for its findings. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than three years after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next 10 years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to 10 years, but any such deferral shall require the board to state the basis for its findings.

(2) Inmates sentenced for a class A or class B felony who have not had a board hearing in the five years prior to July 1, 2010, shall have such inmates' cases reviewed by the board on or before July 1, 2012. Such review shall begin with the inmates with the oldest deferral date and progress to the most recent. Such review shall be done utilizing existing resources unless the board determines that such resources are insufficient. If the board determines that such resources are insufficient, then the provisions of this paragraph are subject to appropriations therefor.

(k) (1) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision shall be assigned, upon release, to the appropriate level of supervision pursuant to the criteria established by the secretary of corrections.

(2) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by a parole officer or a department of corrections enforcement, apprehension and investigation officer, at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant and with or without cause. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment.

(3) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity. Any law enforcement officer who conducts such a search shall submit a written report to the appropriate parole officer no later than the close of the next business day after such search. The written report shall include the facts leading to such search, the scope of such search and any findings resulting from such search.

(l) The prisoner review board shall promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with K.S.A. 77-415 et seq., and amendments thereto, not inconsistent with the law and as it may deem proper or necessary, with respect to the conduct of parole hearings, postrelease supervision reviews, revocation hearings, orders of restitution, reimbursement of expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services and other conditions to be imposed upon parolees or releasees. Whenever an order for parole or postrelease supervision is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof.

(m) Whenever the prisoner review board orders the parole of an inmate or establishes conditions for an inmate placed on postrelease supervision, the board:

(1) Unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision pay any transportation expenses resulting from returning the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision to this state to answer criminal charges or a warrant for a violation of a condition of probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, parole, conditional release or

postrelease supervision;

(2) to the extent practicable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision make progress towards or successfully complete the equivalent of a secondary education if the inmate has not previously completed such educational equivalent and is capable of doing so;

(3) may order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision perform community or public service work for local governmental agencies, private corporations organized not-for-profit or charitable or social service organizations performing services for the community;

(4) may order the parolee or person on postrelease supervision to pay the administrative fee imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 22-4529, and amendments thereto, unless the board finds compelling circumstances which would render payment unworkable;

(5) unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision reimburse the state for all or part of the expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services to provide counsel and other defense services to the person. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the prisoner review board shall take account of the financial resources of the person and the nature of the burden that the payment of such sum will impose. Such amount shall not exceed the amount claimed by appointed counsel on the payment voucher for indigents' defense services or the amount prescribed by the board of indigents' defense services reimbursement tables as provided in K.S.A. 22-4522, and amendments thereto, whichever is less, minus any previous payments for such services;

(6) shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision agree in writing to be subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by a parole officer or a department of corrections enforcement, apprehension and investigation officer, at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant and with or without cause. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment; and

(7) shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision agree in writing to be subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity.

(n) If the court which sentenced an inmate specified at the time of sentencing the amount and the recipient of any restitution ordered as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision, the prisoner review board shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the inmate pay restitution in the amount and manner provided in the journal entry unless the board finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of restitution unworkable.

(o) Whenever the prisoner review board grants the parole of an inmate, the board, within 14 days of the date of the decision to grant parole, shall give written notice of the decision to the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was sentenced.

(p) When an inmate is to be released on postrelease supervision, the secretary, within 30 days prior to release, shall provide the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was sentenced written notice of the release date.

(q) Inmates shall be released on postrelease supervision upon the termination of the prison portion of their sentence. Time served while on postrelease supervision will vest.

(r) An inmate who is allocated regular good time credits as provided in K.S.A. 22-3725, and amendments thereto, may receive meritorious good time credits in increments of not more than 90 days per meritorious act. These credits may be awarded by the secretary of corrections when an inmate has acted in a heroic or outstanding manner in coming to the assistance of another person in a life threatening situation, preventing injury or death to a person, preventing the destruction of property or taking actions which result in a financial savings to the state.

(s) The provisions of subsections (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B), (d)(1)(C) and (d)(1)(E) shall be applied retroactively as provided in subsection (t).

(t) For offenders sentenced prior to July 1, 2014, who are eligible for modification of their postrelease supervision obligation, the department of corrections shall modify the period of postrelease supervision as provided for by this section:

(1) On or before September 1, 2013, for offenders convicted of:

(A) Severity levels 9 and 10 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes;

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Masterson was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we're back from the weekend. And, we thank You for the unique opportunities we had to celebrate those who gave us life; those mothers, that through the pain of child bearing, brought us into this world.

You enabled them to give birth to us with dreams that we'd make a constructive difference in the world into which they were bringing us.

Lord, I remember asking You to let my Grandmother live long enough to see that what she was investing in me was not in vain. And, Lord, You did that.

According to Your Word, in 2 Corinthians 5:8, and due to her faith, she's now with You and can see even more so that her labors netted positive results.

Your Word further states, in 3 John 1:4, that the greatest joy or happiness a parent can have is to hear that their children are walking, abiding and diligently following the way of Truth.

So Lord, whether our mothers are still here, or now with You, enable them to see and experience the joy of knowing that we're following Your Word of Truth and that we're making a positive difference in the lives that we touch.

And then, Lord, bless us with that same joy, as we invest in those that come after us.

Dear God, I make this petition in the precious Name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Journal of the Senate

SIXTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, May 16, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, when You sent Moses to be a leader of Your people, it was expected they would want to know who was sending him; that they would want to know Your name.

Likewise, when we struggle and wrestle with the responsibilities of leadership, we need to know and the people we're leading need to know that we're not just here doing this on our own. It's essential for us to know who is backing us. What is the authority behind what we do? What is Your Name?

In Exodus 3:14-15, You said, tell the people 'ehyeh 'asher 'ehyeh' – "I Am that I Am." You told Moses to tell the people that "I Am" sent him.

Lord, we don't usually talk like that. For a statement to have logic, the sentence needs a subject and a predicate. The subject identifies the doer in the sentence while the predicate identifies what is done.

When You sent us forth to represent You and Your authority among the people, help us understand that the "Great I Am" is backing us. You are the Doer. You are the Source. You are the Power. You are our God! But, You also are the predicate to complete the sentence. You complete whatever we need. Whatever we need, that's who You are!

Strength and wisdom for today; understanding and hope for tomorrow; that's who You are! A bridge over troubled water; a Guide through the maze of life; a sin-bearing Savior and Chaperon to Heaven. That's who You are!

Thank You for being The Great I Am! In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chair: Voting "NO" on this amendment, which would allow only concealed carry PERMIT holders to access our public facilities, is easy for me. As a part of my Explanation of Vote for supporting SB 45 in 2015 (regarding public PERMITLESS concealed carry of weapons) stated (and which was signed on to by a record TWENTY Republican Senators), "...in our society, I prefer to favor the lawful over the lawless... provide the same personal safety and protection to a...law-abiding gun-owning citizen that parallels (simply)...unregistered gun possess(ing)." This amendment reinstates the economic and time-consumptive annual registration fees and training requirements which creates the disparity among those who CAN NOT afford either but deserve to be able to lawfully arm themselves just as much as those who CAN afford the money and the time to “register” and garner a “permit.” Again, I proudly and consistently vote NO on a reinstatement that will now, once again, perpetuate discrimination based on financial and free time ability favoring “legal” permit holders to carry weapons.—DAVID HALEY

Senator Bollier moved to further amend S Sub HB 2278.

Senator Olsen offered a priority motion to send the bill to the Committee on Federal and State Affairs.

Senator Schmidt offered a substitute motion that S Sub HB 2278 be rereferred back to the Committee on Ways and Means. The motion carried.

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

On motion of Senator Denning an emergency was declared by a 2/3 constitutional majority, and Sub HB 2277 was advanced to Final Action and roll call.

Sub HB 2277, AN ACT concerning alcoholic beverages; creating common consumption areas designated by cities and counties; authorizing common consumption area permits; relating to club memberships; amending K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 41-719 and 41-2641 and section 1 of 2017 House Substitute for Senate Bill No. 13 and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 35; Nays 5; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Journal of the Senate

SEVENTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, May 17, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Bowers was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, it is with great appreciation that we are blessed to come into these halls again. We're here to serve at Your behest. And so to have favor with You, and a good standing with the people, help us apply the ideals and wisdom of Proverbs 3.

In that passage, You call us to trust Your teachings and follow Your commands. And even though doing so, can sometimes be terrifying, clarify for us the need to put our total trust in You.

Lord, we often find that our calculators malfunction. So, it's good to know we don't have to figure out everything for ourselves. It's good to know that You are worthy of our trust and we can rely on You. All of Your promises are Amen and Amen. So, when we come to the forks in our roads, we can know that the Divine Calculator already has things figured out. And, we can trust You to reveal the way to take...the right from the wrong...the good from the better...if and when to compromise.

And when we follow Your lead, You've promised that our lives will enjoy both quantity of years and quality of years.

So, as this legislative process moves forward, guide each participant to do as the hymn writer, John Sammis, suggested all the way back in 1887, to "trust and obey...for there's no other way." In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate recessed until the sound of the gavel.

The Senate met pursuant to recess with President Susan Wagle in the Chair.

Otherwise, the court shall order that the person be placed in transitional release.

The treatment staff shall forward a report of its examination to the court. The court shall review the same. If the court determines that probable cause exists to believe that the person's mental abnormality or personality disorder has so changed that the person is safe to be placed in conditional release, the court shall then set a hearing on the issue. If the person is indigent and makes a request for an examiner, the court shall determine whether the services are necessary and shall determine the reasonable compensation for such services. The court, before appointing an examiner, shall consider factors including the person's compliance with institutional requirements and the person's participation in treatment to determine whether the person's progress justifies the costs of an examination. Lord God of Heaven and earth, there's much work yet to be done in these chambers. I pray that You provide the servants here with all they need to make wise decisions. Let the prayer of Jabez be ours. Conferees on part of Senate

Senator Longbine moved the Senate adopt the Conference Committee Report on SB 23.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 30; Nays 8; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 2.

Yeas: Alley, Baumgardner, Berger, Billinger, Bollier, Denning, Doll, Estes, Fitzgerald, Givens, Goddard, Hardy, Holland, Kerschen, Longbine, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Olson, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, V. Schmidt, Skubal, Suellentrop, Sykes, Taylor, Tyson, Wagle.

Nays: Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Hilderbrand, Kelly, Rogers.
 Absent or Not Voting: Bowers, Wilborn.

The Conference Committee Report was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: SB 23 is a better bill than Senate action alone. The reason we are doing this is because of past poor performance of our last two Securities Commissioners. I like the concept of making the Securities Commissioner work full time for their state duties/pay and moving attorneys to the Attorney General's office. I also like the public policy statement that the Attorney General's office has the prosecution authority for the state instead of spread throughout state agencies. I could support this bill if all duties were moved to the Attorney General's office. But we should have taken more care in appointing competent Securities Commissioners.—LYNN ROGERS Senators Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk and Hensley request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Rogers on SB 23.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote “NO” on the Conference Committee Report on House Bill 2313. While I support the proposal to allow the Kansas Lottery to use lottery ticket vending machines, I do not support the addition of the change to the definition of “instant bingo” in the report that allows the use of bingo games utilizing electronically generated tickets from an instant bingo vending machine. My “NO” is not based on a specific objection to such machines, but because that change was added to the report without having been part of a bill that passed in either the House or the Senate. I believe it is important to follow a process that allows for public comment, discussion in a committee, or amendments on the floor.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Journal of the Senate

SEVENTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, May 19, 2017, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 38 senators present.
Senators Lynn and Olson were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord of all, God of Heaven and earth, as a leader of Your people in the Old Testament, Elijah needed Your directions. And, with the noise of so many voices coming at him, he needed to know with certainty that he was following the right voice.

1 Corinthians 10:11 lets us know that some of the things that happened in the Old Testament were examples for us.

As leaders of Your people, like Elijah, we need Your direction. And with all the noises coming at us, we need the certainty that we're listening to the right voice.

In 1 Kings 19:10-12, Elijah found that he wasn't hearing from You through the loudness of a windstorm, or the rumbling of an earthquake or the bristling of a fire. But when he heard from You, it was in a small whisper, like a gentle breeze.

Lord, help us to not get distracted by all the loud voices, coming at us constantly with other agendas. Like a radio that's searching for the right signal, help us probe and pierce through all the static, until we hear Your voice; that quiet voice of Your Spirit that speaks to us within.

For the only way to get the direction that satisfies, and fulfills our task as leaders, is to get it from You.

Lord, I pray that, as a result of this petition, You give us the determination to find that quiet place within, where to Your glory and our good we can hear Your voice. And Lord, once we're there, where we're tuned in to You, help us stay there. Help us make a home there.

In Jesus' Name, I thank You for the privilege of this prayer. Amen

Monday, May 22, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 39 senators present.
Senator Bowers was excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, Monday brings another opportunity to serve You and in serving You, to serve Your people.

Thanks for giving us the weekend...for allowing us to get away for a couple of days. It won't be long before another Friday has come and another week will end.

But we don't want it to end weak. For over five months, supported by Your grace, efforts have poured into crafting, studying, debating and passing legislation aimed at lifetime improvements.

Now, give us the energy, the wisdom and help we need to make use of the bright minds, dedication and the hard work of these servants, in moving Your agenda forward to a strong finish.

In addition to the more local concerns, we also pray for President Trump and all those traveling with him...that hearts, values, challenges and decisions will ultimately be influenced by You.

Lord, the war between good and evil, here and worldwide, can only be won by Your Supernatural intervention. You are the real Commander-in-Chief. You are the true Authority! So, as we wait and long for that day, when evil is ultimately overcome by good, help all of us in authority, realize, as it says in Romans 13, that all human authority, to suppress evil and reward good, comes from You.

Help us to apply our hearts to good and trust You in all we do. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1749—

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending the 2016-2017
Kansas Distinguished Financial Educator Award recipients.

WHEREAS, Three Kansas teachers are receiving the Distinguished Financial Educator Award, sponsored by the Offices of the State Bank Commissioner and the Securities Commissioner, for the 2016-2017 school year, based on their innovative teaching practices and commitment to educate students in the subject of personal finance and to advocate for financial education; and

WHEREAS, Financial literacy is recognized as a critical life skill, but is not a required course that students must take in order to graduate in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The 2017 Consumer Financial Literacy Survey conducted nationwide by the National Foundation for Credit Counseling demonstrated that there continues to be a growing need for financial education, finding an increase in American credit card debt, decreases in the number of people with non-retirement savings and higher levels of concern about long-term financial stability, including retirement savings; and

WHEREAS, These teachers have proven their dedication to improving the financial literacy of students in their community by using a variety of programs and resources that not only teach students information about managing their money, but also help them learn how to apply the knowledge they gain, so they can be well-equipped to make wise financial decisions for the rest of their lives: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend Aaron Dirks of Scott Community High School, Vicki Galloway of Haven Schools and Lisa Ward of Fort Scott High School for being selected as Distinguished Financial Educators for the 2016-2017 school year; and

SEVENTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, May 23, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 39 senators present.
Senator Bowers was excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, we thank You again for ALL the servants under this dome...for the Senators, for those in the House of Representatives, for All the guards, for the custodians behind the scenes trying to keep everything clean.

We thank You for the engineers, the technical people, for ALL the supporting staff that keep things running.

Lord, we're all part of the same team...a team charged with the significant responsibility of representing You in civil affairs.

Some of us carry the ball. Others of us open up opportunities to advance. Some of us run interference to prevent the blocking of progress.

Some of us are Democrats. Some of us are Republicans. Some say we're conservative. Some say we're liberal. But whether we're left or right, fore or aft, we're all in the same boat. And for good to overcome evil, for our team to win, love for our neighbors must prevail, despite our differences.

And Lord, we continue with the prayer of yesterday...praying for our President; those traveling with him; the foreign leaders they're meeting with and their combined efforts to seek peace.

We pray for those devastated by the murderous bombing in Manchester. Again, Lord, we long for the day, when evil is ultimately overcome by good. Let the authority, that You have given these leaders, mentioned in Romans 13, be effective in suppressing evil while encouraging and rewarding good.

I come to You Lord, in the Name of Him, Who is the Prince of Peace, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

If a retirant is employed in a covered position, as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 74-49,202, and amendments thereto, the participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate on the first $25,000 of such retirant's compensation in a calendar year and a 30% employer contribution on any compensation in excess of $25,000 in a calendar year during any such period of employment. If a retirant is employed by more than one participating employer or performing duties in more than one position, contributions shall be made

The law enforcement training center shall pay to the system the actuarially determined employer contribution and the statutorily prescribed employee contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment;

(iv) members of the Kansas police and firemen's retirement system pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4951 et seq., and amendments thereto, members of the retirement system for judges pursuant to K.S.A. 20-2601 et seq., and amendments thereto, or members of the state board of regents retirement plan pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4925 et seq., and amendments thereto;

Commencing January 1, 2018, the participating employer of a retirant described in this subsection (7)(b)(vii) who is employed in a covered position, as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 74-49.202, and amendments thereto, shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate on the first $25,000 of such retirant's compensation in a calendar year and a 30% employer contribution on any compensation in excess of $25,000 in a calendar year during any such period of employment. If a retirant is employed by more than one participating employer or performing duties in more than one position, contributions shall be made on compensation from all such employment for that calendar year. If a retirant is employed in a non-covered position, no employer contribution shall be paid to the system; or (viii) state or local elected officials. A retirant shall not be employed in an elected office within 30 days of such retirant's retirement, except that if a retirant is filling a vacant elected office, no waiting period shall be required.

(c) The participating employer shall enroll all retirants, including retirants under subsection (7)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), (vii) and (viii), and report to the system when compensation is paid to a retirant as provided in this subsection. Such report shall contain a certification by the appointing authority of the participating employer that any hired retirant has not been employed by the participating employer within 60 days of such retirant's retirement and that there was no prearranged agreement for employment between the participating employer and the hired retirant. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the participating employer shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this subsection. ~~Any participating employer who hires a retirant covered by this subsection shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate for such retirant, without regard to whether the retirant is receiving benefits.~~ No retirant shall make contributions to the system or receive credit for service while employed under the provisions of this subsection.

(d) A participating employer may employ a retirant without regard to the compensation limitation in this subsection for a period of one calendar year or one school year, as the case may be, if the following requirements are met:

(i) The employer certifies to the board that the position being filled has been vacated due to an unexpected emergency or the employer has been unsuccessful in filling the position;

(ii) the employer pays to the system a 30% employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment. ~~On or before July 1, 2019, and at least every three years thereafter, the board, in consultation with the system's consulting actuary, shall evaluate the plan's experience with employment of such retirants and the corresponding employer contribution rate to assess whether the employer contribution rate can be expected to fund adverse experience or higher liabilities accruing under the system in connection with employment of such retirants, to the extent that such liability can be ascertained or estimated. Based on this evaluation of the plan's experience, the board may certify to the division of the budget, in the case of the state, and to the agent for each other participating employer, a new rate if needed to more fully fund such adverse experience or additional liabilities, but such rate shall not be less than 30%; and~~

(iii) the employer maintains documentation of its efforts to fill the position with a non-retirant and provides such documentation to the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits upon request of the committee.

The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(e) An employer may submit a written assurance protocol to the system to extend the exception provided for in subsection (7)(d) by one-year increments for a total extension not to exceed three years. A written assurance protocol shall be submitted to the system for each one-year increment extension. If a school district submits a written assurance protocol, such written assurance protocol shall be signed by the superintendent and the board president of such school district. If a municipality, as defined in K.S.A. 75-1117, and amendments thereto, other than a school district, submits a written assurance protocol, such written assurance protocol shall be signed by the governing body or such governing body's designee for such municipality. Such written assurance protocol shall state that the position was advertised on multiple platforms for a minimum of 30 calendar days and that at least one of the following conditions occurred:

- (i) No applications were submitted for the position;
- (ii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants met the reference screening criteria of the employer; or
- (iii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants possessed the appropriate licensure, certification or other necessary credentials for the position.

The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on January 1, 2018.

~~(f) On July 1, 2021, and at least every five years thereafter, the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits shall study the issue of whether the compensation limitation prescribed in this subsection should be adjusted. The committee shall consider the effect of inflation and data on member retirement benefits and active employee compensation. Retirants who are independent contractors or employees of third-party entities who contract with a participating employer, shall not be subject to the compensation limitation or employer contribution requirements in this subsection or the requirements of subsection (7)(c) regarding enrollment and reporting to the system, so long as all of the following apply:~~

~~(A) The contractual relationship was not created to allow the retirant to continue employment with the participating employer after retirement in a position similar to the one such retirant held prior to retirement;~~

~~(B) the activities performed by the independent contractor or third-party entity are not normally performed exclusively by employees of that participating employer; and~~

~~(C) the retirant meets the classification of independent contractor as provided in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 44-768, and amendments thereto, or activities performed by the third-party entity that employs the retirant are performed on a limited-term basis and the third-party entity is not a participating employer in the system.~~

(g) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to create any right, or to authorize the creation of any right, which is not subject to amendment or nullification by act of the legislature.

~~(h) Any retirant hired by any participating employer under the provisions of subsection (7)(d) or K.S.A. 74-4937(3), (4) or (5), and amendments thereto, may continue to receive such retirant's full retirement benefit so long as, commencing July 1, 2016, such retirant's total term of employment with all participating employers under one or more of such provisions does not exceed 48 months or four school years, whichever is less. After such period, such retirant shall not receive any retirement benefit for any month in any calendar year in which such retirant receives compensation in an amount equal to $25,000 or more in such calendar year.~~

(8) If determined by the retirement system that a retirant entered into a prearranged agreement for employment with a participating employer prior to such retirant's retirement and prior to the end of the subsequent 60-day waiting period, or the 180-day waiting period under subsection (10), the monthly retirement benefit of such retirant shall be suspended during the period that begins on the month in which the retirant is re-employed and ends six months after the retirant's termination of such employment. The retirant shall repay to the retirement system all monthly retirement benefits paid to the retirant by the retirement system that the retirant received after such employment began. The participating employer which hired such retirant shall be required to pay to the system any fees, fines, penalties or any other cost imposed by the internal revenue service and indemnify the system for any cost incurred by the system to defend any action brought by the internal revenue service based on in-service distributions which are a result of any determined prearranged agreement and for any cost incurred by the system to collect any monthly retirement benefit required to be repaid by such retirant pursuant to this subsection.

(9) For the purposes of this section a prearranged agreement for employment may be determined by whether the facts and circumstances of the situation indicate that the employer and employee reasonably anticipated that further services would be performed after the employee's retirement.

(10) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5) or (7) to the contrary, commencing January 1, 2018, any retirant who is retired more than 60 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is 62 or older, or is retired more than 180 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is less than 62, and who is subsequently hired without any prearranged agreement with the participating employer in a covered position, as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 74-49,202, and amendments thereto, or an independent contractor or a third-party entity who contracts service to fill such covered position shall not be subject to an earnings limitation that when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in such covered position. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate on the first $25,000 of such retirant's compensation in a calendar year and a 30% employer contribution on any compensation in excess of $25,000 in a calendar year during any such period of employment. If a retirant is employed by more than one participating employer or performing duties in more than one position, contributions shall be made on compensation from all such employment for that calendar year.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5) or (7) to the contrary, commencing January 1, 2018, any retirant who is retired more than 60 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is 62 or older, or is retired more than 180 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is less than 62, and who is subsequently hired without any prearranged agreement with the participating employer in a non-covered position, or an independent contractor or a third-party entity who contracts service to fill such non-covered position, shall not be subject to an earnings limitation that when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in such non-covered position. No employer contribution shall be paid to the system on compensation paid to a retirant hired in a non-covered position.

(c) The participating employer shall enroll all retirants, including retirants under subsection (7)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), (vii) and (viii), and report to the system when compensation is paid to a retirant as provided in this subsection. Such report shall contain a certification by the appointing authority of the participating employer that any hired retirant has not been employed by the participating employer within 60 days of such retirant's retirement in the case of a retirant whose age on the date of retirement is 62 or older, or within 180 days of such retirant's retirement in the case of a retirant whose age on the date of retirement is less than 62, and that there was no prearranged agreement for employment between the participating employer and the hired retirant. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the participating employer shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this subsection. No retirant shall make contributions to the system or receive credit for service while employed under the provisions of this subsection.

(d) The provisions of this subsection relating to an earnings limitation and employer contributions shall not apply to any retirant described in subsection (7)(b) or to retirants who are independent contractors or employees of third-party entities who contract with a participating employer as described in subsection (7)(f), except as specifically provided in this subsection.

(e) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to create any right, or to authorize the creation of any right that is not subject to amendment or nullification by act of the legislature.";

49,204. The normal retirement date for a member of the system first employed by a participating employer on or after July 1, 2009, shall be the first day of the month coinciding with or following termination of employment with any participating employer not followed by employment with any participating employer within 60 days, or 180 days as provided in K.S.A. 74-4914(10), and amendments thereto, without any prearranged agreement for employment with any participating employer, and the attainment of age 65 with the completion of five years of credited service, or age 60 with the completion of 30 years of credited service. The provisions of this section shall apply to a member of the retirement system who is in school employment and who is subject to K.S.A. 74-4940, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 74-49,313 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-49,313. (a) Except as provided in subsection (e), a member who has a nonforfeitable interest in the member's retirement annuity account, at any time after termination from service with any participating employer not followed by employment with any participating employer within 60 days, or 180 days as provided in K.S.A. 74-4914(10), and amendments thereto, and without any prearranged agreement for reemployment with any participating employer, and the attainment of normal retirement age, shall receive an annuity based upon the balance in such member's retirement annuity account, using mortality rates established by the board by official action as of the member's annuity start date and an interest rate equal to the actuarial assumed investment rate of return established by the board minus 2%, as of the member's annuity start date. The legislature may from time to time prospectively change the interest rate and the board may from time to time prospectively change the mortality rates, and the legislature expressly reserves such rights to do so.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (e), a member who has a vested interest in the member's retirement annuity account, who terminates covered employment with any participating employer not followed by employment with any participating employer within 60 days, or 180 days as provided in K.S.A. 74-4914(10), and amendments thereto, and without any prearranged agreement for reemployment with any participating employer, without forfeiting such member's account, with the completion of at least 10 years of service, shall be eligible to receive, upon attainment of age 55, an annuity based upon employer credits and interest credits in such member's retirement annuity account, using mortality rates established by the board by official action as of the member's annuity start date and an interest rate established by the legislature as of the member's annuity start date, and such interest rate shall be equal to the actuarially assumed investment rate of return established by the board minus 2%, as of the member's annuity start date. The legislature may from time to time prospectively change the interest rate and the board may from time to time prospectively change the mortality rates, and the legislature expressly reserves such rights to do so.

(c) The form of benefit payable under subsections (a) and (b) shall be a single life annuity with 10-year certain. The member may elect any option described in K.S.A. 74-4918, and amendments thereto, except the partial lump-sum option, subject to actuarial factors established by the board from time to time. The benefit option selected may include a self-funded cost-of-living adjustment feature, in which the account value is converted to a benefit amount that increases by a fixed percentage over time. One or more fixed percentages shall be established by the board, which may be changed from time to time. In lieu of a part of an annuity, for a member entitled to a benefit under subsection (a), the member may elect to receive a lump-sum of such member's retirement annuity account of any fixed dollar amount or percent, but in no event may the lump-sum option elected under this section and the lump-sum option elected under K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 74-49,311(a), and amendments thereto, exceed 30% of the total value of such member's annuity savings account and retirement annuity account.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (e), in the case of an active or inactive member:

- (1) Who is vested in the member's retirement annuity account;
- (2) who has five or more years of service at death; and
- (3) who dies before attaining normal retirement age, with such member's spouse at time of death designated as such member's sole primary beneficiary, the member's surviving spouse on and after the date the member would have attained normal retirement age had such member not died, shall receive an annuity based upon employer credits and interest credits in the retirement annuity account, using factors established by the board by official action as of the beneficiary's annuity start date. The form of benefit shall be a single life annuity with 10-year certain.

(e) If a member's vested retirement annuity account is less than $1,000 upon separation from service, or the total of the member's vested retirement annuity account and annuity savings account balance is less than $1,000, the account balance or balances shall be mandatorily distributed to the member in accordance with section 401(a)(31)(B) of the federal internal revenue code. If the member does not elect to have such distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the participant in a direct rollover or to receive the distribution directly, then the board will pay the distribution to the member directly.";

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MADAM PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on House amendments to H Sub SB 60 submits the following report:

The Senate accedes to all House amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed as House Substitute for Senate Bill No. 60, as follows:

On page 2, by striking all in lines 9 through 17; in line 18, by striking all before "The"; in line 32, after the period by inserting "The secretary of agriculture shall reduce the inspection fee by adopting rules and regulations under this section whenever the secretary determines that the inspection fee is yielding more than is necessary for the purpose of administering the provisions of this act. The secretary may increase the inspection fee by adopting rules and regulations under this section when the secretary finds that such increase is necessary to produce sufficient revenues for the purpose of administering the provisions of this act, except that the inspection fee shall not be increased in excess of the maximum fee prescribed by this section.";

Also, on page 2, following line 32, by inserting:

"Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 2-2204 is hereby amended to read as follows: 2-2204. (a) Every agricultural chemical which is distributed, sold or offered for sale within this state or delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside this state shall be registered by the secretary. The secretary shall have the authority to classify or designate as restricted-use any pesticide registered for sale, use or distribution in the state of Kansas, according to rules and regulations promulgated by the secretary. The secretary may adopt rules and regulations to allow products to be registered for a period not to exceed three years. All registration of products shall expire on December 31 of the year the registration is set to expire, unless such registration shall be renewed, in which event expiration date shall be extended for each year of renewal registration, or until otherwise terminated. Products which have the same formula, and are manufactured by the same person, the labeling of which contains the same claims, and the labels of which bear a designation identifying the product as the same agricultural chemical may be registered as a single product and additional names and labels shall be added by supplement statements during the current period of registration. Within the discretion of the secretary, or an authorized representative of the secretary, a change in the labeling or formulas of an agricultural chemical may be made within the current period of registration without requiring a reregistration of the product. Any agricultural chemical imported into this state which is subject to the provisions of any federal act providing for the registration and which has been duly registered under the provisions of such federal act, in the discretion of the secretary, may be exempted from registration under this act when such agricultural chemical is sold or distributed in the unbroken immediate container in which such agricultural chemical was originally shipped.

(b) The registrant shall file with the secretary, a statement including: (1) The name and address of the registrant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the label if other than the registrant; (2) the name of the agricultural chemical; (3) a complete copy of the labeling accompanying the agricultural chemical and a statement of all claims made and to be made for it and a statement of directions for use; and (4) if requested by the secretary, or an authorized representative of the secretary, a full description of the tests made and the results thereof upon which the claims are based.

(c) The secretary may require the registrant to submit a copy of the product label registered by the EPA under the provisions of FIFRA.

(d) Any time the registrant modifies the label, the modified label shall be submitted to the secretary for review and approval prior to implementing the new label in Kansas.

(e) On the date of registration, the registrant shall pay a fee fixed by rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of agriculture. Such fee shall equal an amount per registered agricultural chemical, not to exceed $150 per year. Such fee shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited as follows: (1) An amount equal to $100 for each year of registration shall be credited to the state water plan fund created by K.S.A. 82a-951, and amendments thereto; and (2) the remainder shall be credited to the agricultural chemical fee fund to be used for carrying out the provisions of this act. The annual fee for each agricultural chemical registered which is in effect on the day preceding the effective date of this act shall continue in effect until the secretary of agriculture adopts rules and regulations fixing a different fee therefor under this subsection. ~~The secretary of agriculture is hereby authorized and empowered, shall reduce the fee imposed by this subsection by adopting rules and regulations whenever the secretary determines that the fee imposed by this subsection and paid into the state treasury as provided by law is yielding more revenue than is required for the purposes to which such fee is devoted by law, to reduce the fee imposed by this subsection for such period as the secretary shall deem justified by adopting rules and regulations under this subsection but not for less than one year. In the event that the secretary, after reducing such fee, finds that sufficient revenues are not being produced by such reduced fee, the secretary is authorized and empowered, may increase the fee by adopting rules and regulations under this subsection, to restore in full or in part such fee to an amount which, in the judgment of the secretary, will produce sufficient revenues for the purposes as provided in this section, but not exceeding the maximum amount of the fee imposed by this subsection.~~

(f) The secretary, or an authorized representative of the secretary, whenever it is deemed essential in the administration of this act, may require the submission of the complete formula or any other data in support of the registration for any pesticide. The complete formula and any other trade secrets submitted to support the registration application shall be considered as confidential. If it appears to the secretary, or an authorized representative of the secretary, that the composition of the product is such as to warrant the proposed claims for the product and if the product and its labeling and other material required to be submitted comply with the requirements of this act, the secretary shall register the product.

(g) If it does not appear to the secretary, or an authorized representative of the secretary, that the product is such as to warrant the proposed claims for it or if the product and its labeling and other material required to be submitted do not comply with the provisions of this act, the secretary shall notify the registrant of the manner in which the product, labeling, or other material required to be submitted fail to comply with the act and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto so as to afford the registrant an opportunity to make the necessary corrections. If, upon receipt of such notice, the registrant does not make the required changes within 30 days, the secretary may deny registration of the product. In addition, the secretary may deny registration of a product if the application for registration fails to comply with this act or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto. If the secretary denies a registration, the registrant may request a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act.

(h) Any pesticide registration canceled or suspended under the provisions of FIFRA shall be considered to be canceled or suspended under provisions of the agricultural chemical act of 1947, unless such cancellation is due to the nonpayment of registration fees required under FIFRA.

(i) If the secretary determines that a registered product fails to meet the claims made on its label, the secretary may suspend or revoke the product registration after a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act. In addition, if the secretary determines that a registered product or its labeling fails to comply with this act, or a rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this act, the secretary may suspend or revoke the product registration after a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act.

(j) In order to protect the public, the secretary, or a duly authorized representative of the secretary, on the secretary's own motion, may at any time, after written notice to the registrant, suspend or revoke the registration of an agricultural chemical. Any person so notified shall be given an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act with regard to the secretary's contemplated action, before any registration is suspended or revoked.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, registration is not required in the case of an agricultural chemical shipped from one plant within this state to another plant within this state operated by the same person.

(l) Any information required to be filed pursuant to this section, may be filed electronically pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated by the secretary.";

On page 21, in line 7, after the first comma by inserting "2-2204,"; in line 8, by striking ", 65-781";

Journal of the Senate

SEVENTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, May 24, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senators Bowers was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, in the beginning; in Genesis, the book of beginning began, You designed it to support humanity...to support us.

Then, to sustain us, after creating a place for us, You equipped it with plants and animals, fish and fowl; and everything we'd need. Then out of the dust, You brought forth the crown...the pinnacle of Your creation. You created us in Your image. You gave us the power of choice; the greatest privilege of all creation. So that in the same way that You chose to love us, we could choose to love You.

And based on Your Word, in Deuteronomy 6:5 and Matthew 22:36-40, what pleases You is love...to love You in the vertical, with all that we have and then to love others in the horizontal, as we love ourselves.

So Lord, by the loving guidance of Your Holy Spirit, help us to mimic You. In the same way that You were creative and made choice to love us, help us to be creative in choosing ways to love.

As we interact with others, whether at work, crafting legislation or at home engaging with loved ones, or in the community meeting with people, I pray that Love prevails. And Lord, when we fall short, because we'll never be perfect lovers, give us a nudge...prick our conscience and give us a push. For the only way we can become better lovers, is for You to jolt us into changing attitudes and actions that hinder the flow.

Help us to choose truthfulness verses deception, empathy more than sympathy, a desire to be understanding rather than to simply reject, to seek good over evil, peace over turmoil, harmony over discord and expressions of love over hate.

Let the stamp...the mark...the symbol of Your image of love permeate and prevail, in all that we do.

And lastly Lord, thank You for another answer to prayer. We asked You to bless Joyce Dugan, 2 year old daughter of Mark and Karris, who was in a coma after falling and hitting her head. Thanks for guiding the medical profession and bringing her out of that coma. We pray for her continued recovery.

I come to You, in the Name of Him who loved us to death, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

(d) The governing body or the chief administrative officer, if no governing body exists, of any of the following institutions may permit any employee, who is legally qualified, to carry a concealed handgun in any building of such institution, if the employee meets such institution's own policy requirements regardless of whether such building is conspicuously posted in accordance with the provisions of this section:

Public employers shall not be liable for any wrongful or negligent act of an employee carrying a concealed handgun that is not being carried in the course and scope of such employee's employment, concerning acts or omissions regarding such handguns.

SEVENTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, May 30, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we're returning to these halls today, after a pause. You gave us time to do some reflecting; a time to think about, celebrate and express our gratefulness for those whose lives have been a blessing to us; not only those who have served in the military, but those who have served domestically; parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, loved ones who poured into our lives.

We stand today on the shoulders of men and women who have given of themselves. They gave to provide for us personally, and for this country nationally, the freedoms and opportunities we enjoy today.

We're indebted to them...but even more so to You. For You inspired them. You enabled them. You gave them the determination to not give up. But to fight for and, if necessary, even die for the qualities of life we have today.

Through their dedication and the sacrifices, You led them to make, we can say, our living is the better.

Help us to not only stand on their shoulders and enjoy present day privileges, but help us reach higher. Use us to make life even better for those coming along behind.

Lord, let the day come, when those coming behind us, express gratefulness to You, for using us, to make life better for them.

I come to You again, in memory of, and in the name of Jesus, who loved us to death. Amen and Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

REFERENCE OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bill was referred to Committee as indicated:

Senate Select Committee on Education Finance: Sub HB 2410.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Hensley and Wagle introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1753—

A RESOLUTION commemorating May 29, 2017, as the 100th anniversary of the birth of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

WHEREAS, John Fitzgerald Kennedy was born on May 29, 1917, in Brookline, Massachusetts. He was the second son of Joseph P. Kennedy and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy, and was taught by his parents at an early age that his family's wealth brought a responsibility to help those who were less fortunate; and

WHEREAS, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, often referred to as JFK, was elected President of the United States in 1960 and was the first and only Roman Catholic to ever be elected President. At age 43, JFK was the youngest person ever elected President and the first person born in the 20th century to have served as President; and

WHEREAS, During the 1960 campaign, JFK and his opponent, Richard Nixon, appeared in the first televised presidential debates. JFK became the first "television" President, addressing the nation with many speeches and frequent news conferences, which aired on the major television networks; and

WHEREAS, JFK was sworn in as the 35th President on January 20, 1961. In his inaugural address, he spoke of the need for all Americans to be active citizens, and he famously remarked, "Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country." He also asked the nations of the world to join together to fight what he called the "common enemies of man: Tyranny, poverty, disease and war itself"; and

WHEREAS, JFK's domestic program was known as the "New Frontier," which ambitiously promised federal funding for education, medical care for the elderly, government intervention to halt the recession in the early 1960s, income tax reform, and an end to racial discrimination. He supported racial integration and civil rights, and he accomplished this by sending United States Marshals to integrate southern universities and by promoting legislation that would become the Civil Rights Act of 1964; and

WHEREAS, JFK's most famous foreign policy programs were the Alliance for Progress and the Peace Corps, which helped underdeveloped nations in areas such as education, farming, health care and construction projects. Troubled by the dangers of nuclear weapons proliferation, JFK pushed for the adoption of the Nuclear Test Ban Treaty. He established the space program and set a goal of landing a man on the moon by the end of the 1960s; and

WHEREAS, When U-2 spy planes photographed a Soviet missile site under construction in Cuba in 1962, JFK proposed a naval blockade of all ships in Cuban waters. This crisis, known as the Cuban Missile Crisis, which brought the world closer to nuclear war than at any time in history, was successfully averted; and

WHEREAS, JFK and his wife, Jacqueline, were extraordinarily popular and, along with their two young children, Caroline and John Jr., brought new life and vigor to the White House. The Kennedys made it a place to celebrate American history, culture, and achievement by inviting artists, writers, scientists, poets, musicians, actors, and Nobel Prize winners to visit. Jacqueline also restored all the rooms in the White House, and the charisma of JFK and his family led to the figurative label of "Camelot" for his administration; and

WHEREAS, On November 22, 1963, in Dallas, Texas, President Kennedy was assassinated while traveling in his motorcade and was pronounced dead at 1:00 p.m. CST – a moment so tragic in American history that most people still remember where they were and what they were doing when they heard the news. His death caused enormous sadness and grief among Americans and people across the globe, and millions watched his funeral and burial on television; and

WHEREAS, President Kennedy stands out in people's memories for his leadership, personality, wit, charm, and accomplishments, and he is regarded as an icon of American hope and aspirations for every new generation of Americans: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate May 29, 2017, as the 100th anniversary of the birth of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the John F. Kennedy Library and Museum, c/o James Roth, Acting Director, Columbia Point, Boston, Massachusetts 02125.

On emergency motion of Senator Hensley SR 1753 was adopted by voice vote.

No abortion shall be performed or induced without the voluntary and informed consent of the woman upon whom the abortion is to be performed or induced. Except in the case of a medical emergency, consent to an abortion is voluntary and informed only if:

(a) At least 24 hours before the abortion the physician who is to perform the abortion or the referring physician has informed the woman in writing, which shall be provided on white paper in a printed format in black ink with 12-point times new roman font, of:

(A) The name of such physician;

(B) the year in which such physician received a medical doctor's degree;

(C) the date on which such physician's employment commenced at the facility where the abortion is to be performed;

(2) a description of the proposed abortion method;

(3) a description of risks related to the proposed abortion method, including risk of premature birth in future pregnancies, risk of breast cancer and risks to the woman's reproductive health and alternatives to the abortion that a reasonable patient would consider material to the decision of whether or not to undergo the abortion;

(4) the probable gestational age of the unborn child at the time the abortion is to be performed and that Kansas law requires the following: "No person shall perform or induce an abortion when the unborn child is viable unless such person is a physician and has a documented referral from another physician not financially associated with the physician performing or inducing the abortion and both physicians determine that: (1) The abortion is necessary to preserve the life of the pregnant woman; or (2) a continuation of the pregnancy will cause a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman." (5) the probable anatomical and physiological characteristics of the unborn child at the time the abortion is to be performed;

(1) Medical assistance benefits may be available for prenatal care, childbirth and neonatal care, and that more detailed information on the availability of such assistance is contained in the printed materials given to her and described in K.S.A. 65-6710, and amendments thereto;

(3) the father of the unborn child is liable to assist in the support of her child, even in instances where he has offered to pay for the abortion except that in the case of rape this information may be omitted;

(4) the woman is free to withhold or withdraw her consent to the abortion at any time prior to invasion of the uterus without affecting her right to future care or treatment and without the loss of any state or federally-funded benefits to which she might otherwise be entitled;

(5) the abortion will terminate the life of a whole, separate, unique, living human being; and

(6) by no later than 20 weeks from fertilization, the unborn child has the physical structures necessary to experience pain. There is evidence that by 20 weeks from fertilization unborn children seek to evade certain stimuli in a manner that in an infant or an adult would be interpreted to be a response to pain. Anesthesia is routinely administered to unborn children who are 20 weeks from fertilization or older who undergo prenatal surgery.

(c) At least 30 minutes prior to the abortion procedure, prior to physical preparation for the abortion and prior to the administration of medication for the abortion, the woman shall meet privately with the physician who is to perform the abortion and such person's staff to ensure that she has an adequate opportunity to ask questions of and obtain information from the physician concerning the abortion.

(e) The woman certifies in writing on a form provided by the department, prior to the abortion, that the information required to be provided under subsections (a), (b) and (d) has been provided and that she has met with the physician who is to perform the abortion on an individual basis as provided under subsection (c). All physicians who perform abortions shall report the total number of certifications received monthly to the department. The total number of certifications shall be reported by the physician as part of the written report made by the physician to the secretary of health and environment under K.S.A. 65-445, and amendments thereto. The department shall make the number of certifications received available on an annual basis.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: Sixty-five percent of Kansas abortions are first time events, with the great majority of women knowing nothing about the procedure or the abortion provider, including the provider's training, skill or access to hospital facilities in the case of an emergency. Before this legislation in Kansas, there was no way for women to know when a clinic had a 100% turnover of their staff in 3 years, or about the recent hire of a 76-year-old neurologist that would give abortions but has not had ob-gyn training, or many other various issues that could endanger their health, but would likely be well known for other medical services because in that case there are no privacy concerns. Because of the nature of abortion, however, which causes women to want privacy for a variety of reasons, women need ready access to this information to make the best decisions for their care. I vote "Yes."—MARY PILCHER-COOK Senators Baumgardner, Estes, Fitzgerald, Lynn and Masterson request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pilcher-Cook on SB 83.

reasons therefor, and, except as provided in subsection (c)(2)(B), the defendant shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life and shall not be eligible for probation or suspension, modification or reduction of sentence. In addition, the defendant shall not be eligible for parole prior to serving 25 years' imprisonment, and such 25 years' imprisonment shall not be reduced by the application of good time credits. (B) The provisions of subsection (c)(2)(A) requiring the court to impose a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 25 years shall not apply if the court finds the defendant, because of the defendant's criminal history classification, ~~is~~ would be subject to presumptive imprisonment pursuant to the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes and the sentencing range ~~exceeds~~ would exceed 300 months if the sentence established for a severity level 1 crime was imposed. The defendant shall not be eligible for parole prior to serving such mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, and such mandatory minimum term of imprisonment shall not be reduced by the application of good time credits. No other sentence shall be permitted.

(d) The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to the crime of murder in the first degree based upon the finding of premeditated murder committed on or after September 6, 2013, but prior to July 1, 2014.

(1) If a defendant is convicted of murder in the first degree based upon the finding of premeditated murder, upon reasonable notice by the prosecuting attorney, the court shall determine, in accordance with this subsection, whether the defendant shall be required to serve a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 50 years or sentenced as otherwise provided by law.

(2) The court shall conduct a separate proceeding following the determination of the defendant's guilt for the jury to determine whether one or more aggravating circumstances exist. Such proceeding shall be conducted by the court before a jury as soon as practicable. If any person who served on the trial jury is unable to serve on the jury for the proceeding, the court shall substitute an alternate juror who has been impaneled for the trial jury. If there are insufficient alternate jurors to replace trial jurors who are unable to serve at the proceeding, the court may conduct such proceeding before a jury which may have 12 or less jurors, but at no time less than six jurors. If the jury has been discharged prior to the proceeding, a new jury shall be impaneled. Any decision of the jury regarding the existence of an aggravating circumstance shall be beyond a reasonable doubt. Jury selection procedures, qualifications of jurors and grounds for exemption or challenge of prospective jurors in criminal trials shall be applicable to the selection of such jury. The jury at the proceeding may be waived in the manner provided by K.S.A. 22-3403, and amendments thereto, for waiver of a trial jury. If the jury at the proceeding has been waived, such proceeding shall be conducted by the court.

(3) In the proceeding, evidence may be presented concerning any matter relating to any of the aggravating circumstances enumerated in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6624, and amendments thereto. Only such evidence of aggravating circumstances as the prosecuting attorney has made known to the defendant prior to the proceeding shall be admissible and no evidence secured in violation of the constitution of the United States or of the state of Kansas shall be admissible. No testimony by the defendant at the time of the proceeding shall be admissible against the defendant at any subsequent criminal proceeding. At the conclusion of the evidentiary presentation, the court shall allow the parties a reasonable period of time in which to present oral argument.

(4) At the conclusion of the evidentiary portion of the proceeding, the court shall provide oral and written instructions to the jury to guide its deliberations. If the prosecuting attorney relies on ~~subsection (a)~~ of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6624(a), and amendments thereto, as an aggravating circumstance, and the court finds that one or more of the defendant's prior convictions satisfy such subsection, the jury shall be instructed that a certified journal entry of a prior conviction is presumed to prove the existence of such prior conviction or convictions beyond a reasonable doubt.

(5) If, by unanimous vote, the jury finds beyond a reasonable doubt that one or more of the aggravating circumstances enumerated in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6624, and amendments thereto, exist, the jury shall designate, in writing, signed by the foreman of the jury, the statutory aggravating circumstances which it found. If, after a reasonable time for deliberation, the jury is unable to reach a unanimous sentencing decision, the court shall dismiss the jury and the defendant shall be sentenced as provided by law. In nonjury cases, the court shall designate, in writing, the specific circumstance or circumstances which the court found beyond a reasonable doubt.

(6) If one or more of the aggravating circumstances enumerated in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6624, and amendments thereto, are found to exist beyond a reasonable doubt pursuant to this subsection, the defendant shall be sentenced pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6623, and amendments thereto, unless the sentencing judge finds substantial and compelling reasons, following a review of mitigating circumstances, to impose the sentence specified in this paragraph. If the sentencing judge does not impose the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment required by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6623, and amendments thereto, the judge shall state on the record at the time of sentencing the substantial and compelling reasons therefor, and the defendant shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life and shall not be eligible for probation or suspension, modification or reduction of sentence. In addition, the defendant shall not be eligible for parole prior to serving 25 years' imprisonment, and such 25 years' imprisonment shall not be reduced by the application of good time credits. No other sentence shall be permitted.

(e) The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to the crime of murder in the first degree based upon the finding of premeditated murder committed prior to September 6, 2013.

(1) If a defendant is convicted of murder in the first degree based upon the finding of premeditated murder, upon reasonable notice by the prosecuting attorney, the court shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding in accordance with this subsection to determine whether the defendant shall be required to serve a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 40 years or for crimes committed on and after July 1, 1999, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 50 years or sentenced as otherwise provided by law.

(2) The sentencing proceeding shall be conducted by the court before a jury as soon as practicable. If the trial jury has been discharged prior to sentencing, a new jury shall be impaneled. Any decision to impose a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 40 or 50 years shall be by a unanimous jury. Jury selection procedures, qualifications of jurors and grounds for exemption or challenge of prospective jurors in criminal trials shall be applicable to the selection of such jury. The jury at the sentencing proceeding may be waived in the manner provided by K.S.A. 22-3403, and amendments thereto, for waiver of a trial jury. If the jury at the sentencing proceeding has been waived, such proceeding shall be conducted by the court.

(3) In the sentencing proceeding, evidence may be presented concerning any matter that the court deems relevant to the question of sentence and shall include matters relating to any of the aggravating circumstances enumerated in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6624, and amendments thereto, or for crimes committed prior to July 1, 2011, K.S.A. 21-4636, prior to its repeal, and any mitigating circumstances. Any such evidence which the court deems to have probative value may be received regardless of its admissibility under the rules of evidence, provided that the defendant is accorded a fair opportunity to rebut any hearsay statements. Only such evidence of aggravating circumstances as the prosecuting attorney has made known to the defendant prior to the sentencing proceeding shall be admissible and no evidence secured in violation of the constitution of the United States or of the state of Kansas shall be admissible. Only such evidence of mitigating circumstances subject to discovery pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3212, and amendments thereto, that the defendant has made known to the prosecuting attorney prior to the sentencing proceeding shall be admissible. No testimony by the defendant at the time of sentencing shall be admissible against the defendant at any subsequent criminal proceeding. At the conclusion of the evidentiary presentation, the court shall allow the parties a reasonable period of time in which to present oral argument.

(4) At the conclusion of the evidentiary portion of the sentencing proceeding, the court shall provide oral and written instructions to the jury to guide its deliberations. If the prosecuting attorney relies on ~~subsection (a)~~ of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6624(a), and amendments thereto, or for crimes committed prior to July 1, 2011, ~~subsection (a)~~ of K.S.A. 21-4636(a), prior to its repeal, as an aggravating circumstance, and the court finds that one or more of the defendant's prior convictions satisfy such subsection, the jury shall be instructed that a certified journal entry of a prior conviction is presumed to prove the existence of such prior conviction or convictions beyond a reasonable doubt.

(5) If, by unanimous vote, the jury finds beyond a reasonable doubt that one or more of the aggravating circumstances enumerated in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6624, and amendments thereto, or for crimes committed prior to July 1, 2011, K.S.A. 21-4636, prior to its repeal, exist and, further, that the existence of such aggravating circumstances is not outweighed by any mitigating circumstances which are found to exist, the defendant shall be sentenced pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6623, and amendments thereto; otherwise, the defendant shall be sentenced as provided by law. The sentencing jury shall designate, in writing, signed by the foreman of the jury, the statutory aggravating circumstances which it found. The trier of fact may make the findings required by this subsection for the purpose of determining whether to sentence a defendant pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6623, and amendments thereto, notwithstanding contrary findings made by the jury or court pursuant to ~~subsection (e)~~ of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6617(e), and amendments thereto, for the purpose of determining whether to sentence such defendant to death. If, after a reasonable time for deliberation, the jury is unable to reach a unanimous sentencing decision, the court shall dismiss the jury and the defendant shall be sentenced as provided by law. In nonjury cases, the court shall designate in writing the specific circumstance or circumstances which the court found beyond a reasonable doubt.

(f) The amendments to subsection (e) by chapter 1 of the 2013 Session Laws of

Kansas (Special Session):

(1) Establish a procedural rule for sentencing proceedings, and as such shall be construed and applied retroactively to all crimes committed prior to the effective date of this act, except as provided further in this subsection; (2) shall not apply to cases in which the defendant's conviction and sentence were final prior to June 17, 2013, unless the conviction or sentence has been vacated in a collateral proceeding, including, but not limited to, K.S.A. 22-3504 or 60-1507, and amendments thereto; and (3) shall apply only in sentencing proceedings otherwise authorized by law.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (h), for all cases on appeal on or after September 6, 2013, if a sentence imposed under this section, prior to amendment by chapter 1 of the 2013 Session Laws of Kansas (Special Session), or under K.S.A. 21-4635, prior to its repeal, is vacated for any reason other than sufficiency of the evidence as to all aggravating circumstances, resentencing shall be required under this section, as amended by chapter 1 of the 2013 Session Laws of Kansas (Special Session), unless the prosecuting attorney chooses not to pursue such a sentence.

(h) In the event any sentence imposed under this section is held to be unconstitutional, the court having jurisdiction over a person previously sentenced shall cause such person to be brought before the court and shall sentence such person to the maximum term of imprisonment otherwise provided by law.

(i) If any provision or provisions of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6622 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6622.

(a) If, under K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6617, and amendments thereto, the county or district attorney has filed a notice of intent to request a separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the defendant should be sentenced to death and the defendant is convicted of the crime of capital murder, the defendant's counsel or the warden of the correctional institution or sheriff having custody of the defendant may request a determination by the court of whether the defendant is a person with intellectual disability. If the court determines that there is not sufficient reason to believe that the defendant is a person with intellectual disability, the court shall so find and the defendant shall be sentenced in accordance with K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6617, 21-6619, 21-6624, 21-6625, 21-6628 and 21-6629, and amendments thereto. If the court determines that there is sufficient reason to believe that the defendant is a person with intellectual disability, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant is a person with intellectual disability.

(b) If a defendant is convicted of the crime of capital murder and a sentence of death is not imposed, or if a defendant is convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree based upon the finding of premeditated murder, the defendant's counsel or the warden of the correctional institution or sheriff having custody of the defendant may request a determination by the court of whether the defendant is a person with intellectual disability. If the court determines that there is not sufficient reason to believe that the defendant is a person with intellectual disability, the court shall so find and the defendant shall be sentenced in accordance with K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6620, 21-6623, 21-6624 and 21-6625, and amendments thereto. If the court determines that there is sufficient reason to believe that the defendant is a person with intellectual disability, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant is a person with intellectual disability.

(c) At the hearing, the court shall determine whether the defendant is a person with intellectual disability. The court shall order a psychiatric or psychological examination of the defendant. For that purpose, the court shall appoint two licensed physicians or licensed psychologists, or one of each, qualified by training and practice to make such examination, to examine the defendant and report their findings in writing to the judge within 14 days after the order of examination is issued. The defendant shall have the right to present evidence and cross-examine any witnesses at the hearing. No statement made by the defendant in the course of any examination provided for by this section, whether or not the defendant consents to the examination, shall be admitted in evidence against the defendant in any criminal proceeding.

(d) If, at the conclusion of a hearing pursuant to subsection (a), the court determines that the defendant is not a person with intellectual disability, the defendant shall be sentenced in accordance with K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6617, 21-6619, 21-6624, 21-6625, 21-6628 and 21-6629, and amendments thereto.

(e) If, at the conclusion of a hearing pursuant to subsection (b), the court determines that the defendant is not a person with intellectual disability, the defendant shall be sentenced in accordance with K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6620, 21-6623, 21-6624 and 21-6625, and amendments thereto.

(f) If, at the conclusion of a hearing pursuant to this section, the court determines that the defendant is a person with intellectual disability, the court shall sentence the defendant as otherwise provided by law, and no sentence of death, life without the possibility of parole, or mandatory term of imprisonment pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6623, 21-6624 and 21-6625, and amendments thereto, shall be imposed hereunder.

(g) Unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause shown, the provisions of subsection (b) shall not apply if it has been determined, pursuant to a hearing granted under the provisions of subsection (a), that the defendant is not a person with intellectual disability.

"Sec. 7. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 22-3001 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-3001. (a) A majority of the district judges in any judicial district may order a grand jury to be summoned in any county in the district when it is determined to be in the public interest.

(b) The district or county attorney in such attorney's county may petition the chief judge or the chief judge's designee in such district court to order a grand jury to be summoned in the designated county in the district to consider any alleged felony law violation, including any alleged misdemeanor law violation which arises as part of the same criminal conduct or investigation. The attorney general in any judicial district may petition the chief judge or the chief judge's designee in such judicial district to order a grand jury to be summoned in the designated county in the district to consider any alleged felony law violation, including any alleged misdemeanor law violation which arises as part of the same criminal conduct or investigation, if authorized by the district or county attorney in such judicial district or if jurisdiction is otherwise authorized by law. The chief judge or the chief judge's designee in the district court of the county shall then consider the petition and, if it is found that the petition is in proper form, as set forth in this subsection, shall order a grand jury to be summoned within 15 days after receipt of such petition.

(c) (1) A grand jury shall be summoned in any county within 60 days after a petition praying therefor is presented to the district court, bearing the signatures of a number of electors equal to 100 plus 2% of the total number of votes cast for governor in the county in the last preceding election.

(2) The petition, upon its face, shall state the name, address and phone number of the person filing the petition, the subject matter of the prospective grand jury, a reasonably specific identification of areas to be inquired into and sufficient general allegations to warrant a finding that such inquiry may lead to information which, if true, would warrant a true bill of indictment.

(3) (A) The petition shall be in substantially the following form:

The undersigned qualified electors of the county of _____ and state of Kansas hereby request that the district court of _____ county, Kansas, within 60 days after the filing of this petition, cause a grand jury to be summoned in the county to investigate alleged violations of law and to perform such other duties as may be authorized by law.

(B) (i) The signatures to the petition need not all be affixed to one paper, but each paper to which signatures are affixed shall have substantially the foregoing form written or printed at the top thereof. Each signer shall add to such signer's signature such signer's place of residence, giving the street and number or rural route number, if any. One of the signers of each paper shall verify upon oath that each signature appearing on the paper is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be and that such signer believes that the statements in the petition are true.

(ii) The petition shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court who shall forthwith transmit it to the county election officer, who shall determine whether the persons whose signatures are affixed to the petition are qualified electors of the county. Thereupon, the county election officer shall return the petition to the clerk of the district court, together with such election officer's certificate stating the number of qualified electors of the county whose signatures appear on the petition and the aggregate number of votes cast for all candidates for governor in the county in the last preceding election.

(iii) The judge or judges of the district court of the county shall then consider the petition and, if it is found that the petition is in proper form and bears the signatures of the required number of electors, a grand jury shall be ordered to be summoned. If a grand jury is not summoned because of a finding that the petition, substantially in the form required by this subsection on its face, is not in proper form, the person who filed the petition and whose name, address and phone number appear on the face of each petition shall have the right to appeal the decision to not summon a grand jury as a final judgment pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3601, and amendments thereto.

(4) After a grand jury is summoned pursuant to this subsection, but before it begins deliberations, the judge or judges of the district court of the county in which the petition is presented shall provide instructions to the grand jury regarding its conduct and deliberations, which instructions shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) You have been impaneled as a grand jury pursuant to a citizens' petition filed in this court, signed by (insert number) qualified electors of this county, stating (insert the subject matter described in the petition, including a reasonably specific identification of the areas to be inquired into and the allegations sufficient to warrant a finding that the grand jury's inquiry may lead to information which, if true, would warrant a true bill of indictment). You are charged with making inquiry with regard to this subject matter and determining whether the facts support allegations warranting a true bill of indictment.

(B) The person filing the citizens' petition filed in this court must be the first witness you call for the purpose of presenting evidence and testimony as to the subject matter and allegations of the petition.

(C) You may, with the approval of this court, employ special counsel and investigators, and incur such other expense for services and supplies as you and this court deem necessary. Any special counsel or investigator you employ shall be selected by a majority vote of your grand jury. You may make such selection only after hearing testimony from the person who filed the citizens' petition. You may utilize the services of any special counsel or investigator you employ instead of, or in addition to, the services of the prosecuting attorney.

(D) If any witness duly summoned to appear and testify before you fails or refuses to obey, compulsory process will be issued by this court to enforce the witness' attendance.

(E) If any witness appearing before you refuses to testify or to answer any questions asked in the course of the witness' examination, you shall communicate that fact to this court in writing, together with a statement regarding the question the witness refuses to answer. This court will determine and inform you of whether the witness is bound to answer or not. However, no witness appearing before you can be compelled to make any statement which will incriminate such witness.

(F) Any person may file a written request with the prosecuting attorney or with the foreman of the grand jury and request to testify or retestify in an inquiry before a grand jury or to appear before a grand jury. Any written request shall include a summary of such person's written testimony.

(G) At the conclusion of your inquiry and determination, you will return either a no bill of indictment or a true bill of indictment.

(d) The grand jury shall consist of 15 members and shall be drawn, qualified and summoned in the same manner as petit jurors for the district court. Twelve members thereof shall constitute a quorum. The judge or judges ordering the grand jury shall direct that a sufficient number of legally qualified persons be summoned for service as grand jurors. In the case of grand juries impaneled pursuant to subsection (c), the judge or judges ordering the grand jury shall allow the person that filed the petition under the provisions of subsection (c)(2), and such person's attorney, to witness the instructions to the grand jury regarding its conduct and deliberations pursuant to subsection (c)(4).";

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 79-32,117 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,117. (a) The Kansas adjusted gross income of an individual means such individual's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, with the modifications specified in this section.

(b) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. Interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued after December 31, 1987, shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income.

(ii) Taxes on or measured by income or fees or payments in lieu of income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax. This paragraph shall not apply to taxes imposed under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-1107 or 79-1108, and amendments thereto, for privilege tax year 1995, and all such years thereafter.

(iii) The federal net operating loss deduction, except that the federal net operating loss deduction shall not be added to an individual's federal adjusted gross income for tax years beginning after December 31, 2016.

(iv) Federal income tax refunds received by the taxpayer if the deduction of the taxes being refunded resulted in a tax benefit for Kansas income tax purposes during a prior taxable year. Such refunds shall be included in income in the year actually received regardless of the method of accounting used by the taxpayer. For purposes hereof, a tax benefit shall be deemed to have resulted if the amount of the tax had been deducted in determining income subject to a Kansas income tax for a prior year regardless of the rate of taxation applied in such prior year to the Kansas taxable income, but only that portion of the refund shall be included as bears the same proportion to the total refund received as the federal taxes deducted in the year to which such refund is attributable bears to the total federal income taxes paid for such year. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, federal taxes shall be considered to have been deducted only to the extent such deduction does not reduce Kansas taxable income below zero.

(v) The amount of any depreciation deduction or business expense deduction claimed on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for any capital expenditure in making any building or facility accessible to the handicapped, for which expenditure the taxpayer claimed the credit allowed by K.S.A. 79-32,177, and amendments thereto.

(vi) Any amount of designated employee contributions picked up by an employer pursuant to K.S.A. 12-5005, 20-2603, 74-4919 and 74-4965, and amendments thereto.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: Tonight we have had a nice discussion around tax policy, and for that I thank my fellow Senators. Now, it is time for us to take care of Kansans in need. We must support those who are not able to care for themselves. From those with mental illness to those on the HCBS waiting list to children reported for possible abuse...all deserve a functioning, appropriately funded government to supply appropriate services. This state has suffered long enough from a failed tax policy brought by Governor Brownback. I stand in support of moving forward with a structural fix to our budget crisis and vote YES on the Conference Committee Report for HB 2067.—BARBARA BOLLIER

Senators Hardy and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bollier on HB 2067.

Madam President: The Senate has now voted twice on a conference committee report on HB 2067. The first time was on May 10 when the bill failed 18-22 and raised only $440 million in the first year. Seven of the nine Democrats voted against that bill. Tonight, this bill raises $591 million and goes a lot further in getting our fiscal house in order. This bill is necessary because of what happened in 2012. The Brownback income tax cuts went entirely too far and resulted in a self-inflicted budget crisis. The Senate Democrats unanimously vote for this bill to reverse the damage that's been done by Sam Brownback's failed experiment.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: After considerable consideration and debate in the Senate Select Committee on School Finance and the Senate Education Committee, we are here today with S Sub HB 2186. Committee members believe it “is reasonably calculated to have all Kansas public education students meet and exceed the standards set out in the Rose Capacities.” The Senate listened to the Kansas Supreme Court’s concerns about under performing students and drafted S Sub HB 2186 to target money toward those individuals. S Sub HB 2186 ends the use of at-risk dollars for general expenses, instead we mandate their use for “At-risk educational programs [and services] based on best practices...” What I particularly appreciate about this bill is that it requires school districts to account for all dollars spent specifically to enhance the education of under performing students. We consider this to be important verification of student outcome efforts. For the first time since the 1992 adoption of the SDFQPA, parents of students who have fallen short of the Rose Capacities will know how much has been spent on their child and will be assured that every dime of at-risk funding is dedicated to help their child succeed. For this reason, I vote yes for S Sub HB 2186.—MOLLY BAUMGARDNER

Senators Berger, Goddard, Hardy, Kerschen and Lynn request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Baumgardner on S Sub HB 2186.

Mr. Vice President: "Spending is not dispositive of adequacy," but "the outcomes of the state's public education system" are. S Sub HB 2186 does not focus only on the amount of money spent for under performing students, it also ensures that such dollars fund the best possible programs to help those students meet or exceed the Rose capacities as defined by the Kansas State Board of Education. S Sub HB 2186 requires the State Board of Education to identify (and districts to use) best practices for increasing at-risk student performance. The Board, through its Kansas CAN effort, promotes assessing and enhancing student performance. S Sub HB 2186 commits the Board to developing evidence-based best practices to maximize results for under performing students. Under S Sub HB 2186, the Board will also provide a series of assessment tools to best measure student performance based on what kids need to succeed in today's world. Schools can then use these best practices and assessment tools to put at-risk dollars to their most productive use. Because S Sub HB 2186 is a concerted legislative effort to put dollars, research and classroom focus on promoting real growth for all students, I vote yes.—BARBARA BOLLIER

Senators Berger, Goddard and Hardy request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bollier on S Sub HB 2186.

Mr. Vice President: As chair of the Select Committee on Education Finance, I tasked my committee with "reasonably calculating" K-12 funding to help students meet or exceed the Rose standards. As part of this process, we heard from Commissioner Randy Watson. He described the Kansas State Board of Education's process of analyzing districts whose students exceeded their expected performance by the greatest levels, using them as models to guide education policy and best practices for the rest of the state. My committee also focused on the forty districts that have most exceeded Board expectations of student achievement. S Sub HB 2186 examines the per student funding provided to those forty districts and sets that amount as the base state aid for all districts. S Sub HB 2186 further takes this base state aid figure and (after the 2018-19 school year) indexes this amount to inflation. By providing hundreds of millions of dollars in increased base state aid as determined by experts and applied by Kansas' most successful schools, S Sub HB 2186 is reasonably calculated to promote student success. I vote yes.—JIM DENNING

Senators Goddard, Hardy, Kerschen and Lynn request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Denning on S Sub HB 2186.

Mr. Vice President: I vote "no" on S Sub HB 2186. While the new finance formula hews closely to the old pre-block grant funding scheme formula and has the potential to provide both adequate and equitable K-12 funding, I do NOT believe that our Senate chamber has provided the needed justification in showing how the proposed amounts of BSAPP spending for the 2017-18 and 2018-19 school years will translate into Kansas schoolchildren achieving the desired Rose standards. My concerns regarding the proposed BSAPP spending amounts are further heightened when reviewing the significant cuts made to school funding starting with the 2009-10 school year and subsequent static funding levels. These proposed BSAPP amounts have not even kept up with inflation given the BSAPP amounts funded in the 2008-09 school year. While I sincerely appreciate the Senate's work on this most critical issue, I believe our work is incomplete and we must do better.—TOM HOLLAND

Senator Hawk request the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holland on S Sub HB 2186.

Mr. Vice President: I vote NO on S Sub HB 2186. It does little more than reinstitute an archaic finance formula that had gotten out of hand from years of politically parochial weighting adjustments from the powerful. As a result of those parochial changes, the "base" remains artificially low while at the same time overall spending grows at rates well over the rate of inflation and enrollment. This was confirmed by the testimony of the KASB. In addition, it allows that some of our richest districts receive funds from BOTH a cost of living weighting, for their wealth in one part of the formula, AND equalization aid for their poverty in another. It also provides for a grand deception by implementing things like a weighting for BOTH enrollment above 1622 AND below 1622 pushing funding into the multiplier and further suppressing the base. Separate from the wholly political discussion of whether or not more tax payer dollars should be spent on K-12, this formula serves to keep the public, the media, the courts, and even a bulk of the legislature in the dark and gives the legal team suing our population the ability to confuse the issue and make millions doing it.—TY MASTERSON

Senators Pilcher-Cook and Suellentrop request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Masterson on S Sub HB 2186.

Mr. Vice President: It's sad it took 102 days for this Chamber to debate School Finance. I appreciate yesterday – some bad amendments were defeated; some good amendments were lost but overall we made gains to a student focused school finance formula. As we heard multiple times, this bill does not meet adequacy. If this bill's new funding had not followed years of neglect by the State of Kansas, it might be enough. However, the Gannon 4 decision clearly stated we were millions below where we needed to be in 2012. School employees and our children have paid dearly. This formula, for the most part will be helpful to schools under the Rose Capacities. I am troubled by the systemic efforts in the formula to raise local property taxes that negatively effect equity. The Court was clear - "School districts must have reasonable equal access to similar educational opportunities through similar tax effort." Finally, this bill does not meet adequacy and we will be need to come back to fix it. Not only will that be expensive but we must bear the responsibility of playing chicken with the Court on school closing. Because I feel this bill in unconstitutional, I must vote no.—LYNN ROGERS Senators Faust-Goudeau, Hawk, Hensley and Petty request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Rogers on S Sub HB 2186.

Mr. Vice President: Today, I am a NO vote on S Sub HB 2186. While the Senate select committee did go to great lengths to address numerous issues in the Education bill, there remains a large segment of the K-12 cost, born by the taxpayers of the State of Kansas, that was not addressed. The cost of administration for Kansas K-12 administration has grown far faster and far greater than the rate of inflation and/or the rate of student growth over the last decade. Until this issue is given serious consideration and is addressed to control this spiraling growth, I cannot support this Senate K-12 education bill, therefore I vote NO.—GENE SUELLENTROP

Senators Masterson and Pilcher-Cook request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Suellentrop on S Sub HB 2186.

PROTEST

Protest by Senator Hensley against Senate Substitute for HB 2186

May 31, 2017

Mr. Vice President: I hereby exercise my right under Article 2, Section 10, of the Kansas Constitution to protest Senate Substitute for House Bill 2186.

On March 2, 2017, the Kansas Supreme Court affirmed the trial panel's decision that the public education financing system provided by the legislature for grades K-12 is constitutionally inadequate. In issuing its decision, the Court instructed the Legislature to implement a new school finance system which is "reasonably calculated to address the constitutional violations of the adequacy requirement while also satisfying the equity requirement." Senate Substitute for House Bill 2186 fails to satisfy both the adequacy and equity requirements of the Kansas Constitution.

Adequacy. Senate Substitute for House Bill 2186 is inadequate from the standpoint of new funding. It only provides $233 million in new K-12 funding over the next two school years. While it does provide for an increase in the base state aid, that increase fails to achieve the high-water mark of $4,400 in 2009. Meaning that five years from now we will be below where we were eight years ago. This also falls well short of the Kansas State Board of Education's recommended $893 million in new funding over two years and even further short of the estimated $1.4 billion in new funding called for in the legislatively commissioned cost studies.

This is crucial as the Court found that student achievement demonstrated CLASS's implementation was not reasonably calculated to meet the Rose standards due to underfunding. The Court instructed that "actual costs remain a valid factor to be considered during application of our test for determining constitutional adequacy under Article 6. Accordingly, the state should not ignore them in creating a remedy." This new funding is not based on consideration of actual costs and clearly ignores the cost studies and State Board's recommendations.

The at-risk floor contained in section 23 of the bill provides $2 million for two school districts while many other districts with more at-risk students than free-lunch students do not get extra funds for their at-risk students. This floor is structurally flawed and not cost-based which creates an adequacy violation. Section 25 of the bill provides that no local school boards have any authority to spend at-risk funds until the State Board completes a best practice study on or before July 1, 2018. This is structurally unsound and creates an adequacy violation. The same is true for the increase in special education funding which is distributed by FTE as opposed to a formula. This causes funding to be distributed regardless of whether a district has special education students and costs causing an adequacy violation.

Equity. Sections 15, 17, 30, 31, 32, 49, 86 and 98 all contain equity violations because they do not provide reasonably equal access to substantially similar educational opportunities through similar tax effort. Section 15 provides that 44 school districts will get $30 million in additional funding without having an election while others will not have such access because they cannot get taxpayer approval for an increase in their LOB. Section 17 will result in delays in equalization to districts with declining AVPP while allowing districts with increasing AVPP to retain unwarranted equalization funds.

The Declining enrollment weighting, Ancillary school facilities weighting, Cost-of-living weighting and Capital outlay tax levy sections all violate the equity test by not providing equal access to similar tax efforts. The Ancillary school facilities weighting section will result in five districts raising $24 million in local unequalized funding through this levy while districts with low valuations will be unable to access these funds. The Cost-of-living weighting will allow for six districts to raise $20 million in unequalized local funding while 21 districts qualify for it. The inclusion of the protest petition also means that not all qualifying districts will be able to access these funds.

Section 86 provides for the addition of utility expenses and property and casualty insurance to the Capital outlay fund usage which creates a large equity violation. Property and casualty insurance expenses are approximately $35 million statewide while utility expenses are approximately $106 million statewide. The inclusion of both of these in Capital outlay would be an expansion by 53%. Expanding the use of a wealth limited fund allows districts with high wealth to shift vastly more operating expenditures into capital outlay, freeing up their general fund or LOB for offering additional education opportunities to their students. Districts with lower wealth will not have the same ability to shift expenditures as wealthy districts.

Section 98 provides the same equity violations as the other sections outlined above. By making facilities used primarily for extracurricular activity projects ineligible for capital improvement state aid unless necessary for safety or disability access, this section will force poor districts to raise unequalized funds for extracurricular activity projects which they will be unable to do. This is important because extracurricular activities have been found to be beneficial to increasing achievement.

For those reasons, it is clear that Senate Substitute for House Bill 2186 does not meet the constitutional requirements of the Gannon decision. This is in no way constitutional or acceptable for the school children of Kansas. —ANTHONY HENSLEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I appreciate the fiscal concerns that the University of Kansas Medical Center and the State Hospitals have for coming into compliance with concealed carry and securing their facilities. However, there are 60 plus rural health care organizations that have similar fiscal concerns with compliance and they are not included in this amendment. Many of these hospitals are under considerable financial stress and this would just compound that problem. Therefore I cannot support this amendment.—ED BERGER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I am voting no on this amendment. I am supportive of another Senator who suggests that concealed carry on college campuses be part of a different bill and considered separately from the bill before us. I also want to honor the carrier of this bill who has requested that this bill be passed out of this chamber with no amendments and focus exclusively on healthcare facilities.—ED BERGER

Senators Hardy, Hawk, Rogers, Skubal and Taylor request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Berger on S Sub HB 2278.

Mr. Vice President: I vote "AYE" on the amendment to the S Sub HB 2278 to strike the date of July 1, 2017, in Section 2 (j). The change would allow a governing body of any postsecondary educational institution to exempt any building of such institution from the requirement of the Personal and Family Protection Act to provide adequate security measures or allow for the carrying of a concealed handgun beyond that date. The substitute bill was recommended to exempt state or municipally-owned medical care facilities, adult care homes, community mental health centers and indigent health care clinics from that requirement and I fully support doing that. However, the Lawrence campus of the University of Kansas is in my district and I recognize that many of my constituents are just as concerned with the impending change for that campus, especially as there are no longer requirements for licensing and training, as they are with the change for the Bert Nash Mental Health Center and the Lawrence Memorial Hospital. Allowing concealed carry in any of these institutions makes no sense to me. My vote is to allow the prohibition of concealed carry in all of them.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Any such voluntary reporting shall be made within 45 days after the date the sheriff receives the application. Any sheriff or chief law enforcement officer submitting a voluntary report shall not incur any civil or criminal liability as the result of the good faith submission of such report.

(3) All funds retained by the sheriff pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be credited to a special fund of the sheriff's office which shall be used solely for the purpose of administering this act.

The attorney general is authorized to use the information obtained from the state or national criminal history record check to determine the applicant's eligibility for such license.

(e) Within 90 days after the date of receipt of the items listed in subsection (b), the attorney general shall:

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: Voting “NO” on this amendment which would allow only concealed carry PERMIT holders to access our public facilities is easy for me. As a part of my Explanation of Vote for supporting SB 45 in 2015 (regarding public PERMITLESS concealed carry of weapons) stated (and which was signed on to by a record TWENTY Republican Senators), “...in our society, I prefer to favor the lawful over the lawless...provide the same personal safety and protection to a...law-abiding gun owning citizen that parallels (simply)...unregistered gun possess(ing).” This amendment reinstates, though lowers the cost of, the economic and time-consumptive annual registration fees and training requirements which creates the disparity among those who CAN NOT afford either but deserve to be able to lawfully arm themselves just as much as those who CAN afford the money and the time to “register” and garner a “permit.” Again, I proudly and consistently vote NO on a reinstatement that will now, once again, perpetuate discrimination based on financial and free time ability favoring “legal” permit holders to carry weapons.—DAVID HALEY

The substitute bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: As a strong supporter of the Second Amendment and a member of NRA it is with concerns that I vote in support of this bill. Earlier I proposed an amendment that would have provided a solid compromise between those who would allow guns on hospital campuses and those who would prohibit guns in these facilities. It would have only allowed those with concealed carry permits to carry in these environments. It would not have provided any burden for security, the same process and procedures that are currently in place could have been utilized. It would have provided assurance that those carrying had the appropriate training, had respect for the weapon, could use the weapon and were aware of safety issues. Contrast this with those carrying without the permit who do not necessarily have respect for the weapon or the skills necessary to use the weapon. This amendment passed the Senate but did not have adequate support to stay in the bill. Being aware of the economic impact of compliance and the fact that no other state allows guns on their campuses I reluctantly vote for this bill.—ED BERGER

Senators Givens, Goddard, and Hardy request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Berger on S Sub HB 2278.

Mr. Vice President: I vote yes. I support S Sub HB 2278 that provides for sanity on the carrying of guns in our state mental hospitals, our state and municipal-owned medical care facilities, our adult care homes, our community mental health centers, our indigent health care clinics, and the University of Kansas Hospital Authority. The United States Supreme Court in its Heller decision on the Second Amendment stated "like most rights, The Second Amendment right is not unlimited... The Court's opinion should not be taken to cast doubt on longstanding prohibitions on the possession of firearms by felons and the mentally ill, or laws forbidding the carrying of firearms in sensitive places such as schools and government buildings.” Strong reasons were made in debate that supported the legal, safety and financial wisdom of this decision today. I believe those same reasons should also apply to campus carry in our state’s post-secondary institutions. Recognizing and supporting the importance of keeping the hospital portion of this bill as a prime focus, I remain disappointed that we have not been able to deal with the prohibition of guns on our college campuses. It is my sincere hope that we will deal with the original SB 53 on the floor of this Senate before final adjournment.—TOM HAWK

Senators Bollier, Francisco, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, Pettey, Rogers, Skubal and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hawk on S Sub HB 2278

Mr. Vice President: I would like to thank the ladies who were here with us today, the “Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense” group. I appreciate their presence and patience in working to have their voices heard. I also want to recognize one of their members, Alison Bauer, who was tragically killed in an auto accident nearly two weeks ago. I saw and spoke with Alison nearly three weeks ago here when she was advocating on this issue. Alison, this one’s for you.—TOM HOLLAND

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holland on S Sub HB 2278.

Mr. Vice President: I vote yes on S Sub HB 2278. I rise on behalf of the 10,000 plus employees and the tens of thousands of grateful patients from every corner of Kansas and give voice to their respectful support of this legislation. Passage of this bill will maintain that the Kansas University hospital authority will have the same policy as all other hospitals in a 7-county metro area with the prohibition on guns.—PAT PETTEY

Senators Hawk, Holland, Kelly, Rogers, Skubal, and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on S Sub HB 2278.

President Wagle introduced Father John Pilcher, Mater Dei Catholic Church in Topeka, to deliver the invocation:

Lord God, Almighty, Lord of heaven and earth. You are awesome in all of Your works especially in the fact that You give us an opportunity to love You in our work. Thank You for the gift of life and for the gift of each other. We ask for Your presence and for Your help in the things that we consider and do today. We pray for all Your people, especially the people of Kansas. Guide us in Your ways for You are the one who put order in the universe and gave us laws that we may observe the wonders of Your majesty. Help us to make laws that are in keeping with Your design and that help us to love one another as You have loved us. May we learn from one another and grow in mutual respect for those whom we don't necessarily agree. Give us wisdom and right judgment so that all we do and say may please You. Bless all our senators in their work and all of our Kansas government so that we may glorify Your Holy Name. EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote "NO" on HB 2409. Nonviolent political boycotts have consistently been held as core political speech, unquestionably protected under the First Amendment. Further, the United States Constitution prohibits government from conditioning eligibility for public contracts upon political affiliation. Government contractors are protected against unconstitutional conditions placed on the exercise of constitutional rights, including coercion of political association and, as in this bill, coercion of non-association. I do believe, however, that we should address our concerns, and I urge Kansas citizens to exercise their constitutional rights and carefully consider their individual purchases. —MARC FRANCISCO

Senators Bollier, Haley, Kelly and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on HB 2409.

Mr. Vice President: I vote "No" on the CCR for HB 2409. While strongly in favor of the underlying bill, when an amendment was added, it created such a large loophole, it made the underlying bill ineffective. It is better not to have legislation at all rather than to deceive Kansas citizens so they think the legislation actually helps to protect Israel.

—MARY PILCHER-COOK

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MADAM PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on Senate amendments to HB 2079 submits the following report:

The House accedes to all Senate amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed with Senate Committee of the Whole amendments as follows:

"New Section 1. (a) An eligible provider, as described in subsection (b), in addition to the rate of payment that the provider would otherwise receive for medicaid ground emergency medical transportation services, shall receive supplemental medicaid reimbursement to the extent provided by law.

(b) A provider shall be eligible for supplemental reimbursement only if the provider meets the following conditions during the reporting period:

(1) Provides ground emergency medical transportation services to medicaid beneficiaries;

(2) is a provider that is enrolled as a medicaid provider for the period being claimed; and

(c) An eligible provider's supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section shall be calculated and paid as follows:

(1) The supplemental reimbursement to an eligible provider, as described in subsection (b), shall be equal to the amount of federal financial participation received as a result of the claims submitted pursuant to subsection (f)(2);

(2) in no instance may the amount certified pursuant to subsection (c)(1), when combined with the amount received from all other sources of reimbursement from the medicaid program, exceed or be less than 100% of actual costs, as determined pursuant to the medicaid state plan, for ground emergency medical transportation services; and

(3) the supplemental medicaid reimbursement provided by this section must be distributed exclusively to eligible providers under a payment methodology based on ground emergency medical transportation services provided to medicaid beneficiaries by eligible providers on a per-transport basis or other federally permissible basis. The department of health and environment shall obtain approval from the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services for the payment methodology to be utilized, and shall not make any payment pursuant to this section prior to obtaining that approval.

(d) (1) It is the legislature's intent in enacting this section to provide the supplemental reimbursement described in this section without any expenditure from the state general fund. An eligible provider, as a condition of receiving supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section, shall enter into, and maintain, an agreement with the department for the purposes of implementing this section and reimbursing the department for the costs of administering this section.

(2) The nonfederal share of the supplemental reimbursement submitted to the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services for purposes of claiming federal financial participation shall be paid only with funds from the governmental entities described in subsection (b)(3) and certified to the state as provided in subsection (e).

(e) Participation in the program by an eligible provider described in this section is voluntary. If an applicable governmental entity elects to seek supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section on behalf of an eligible provider, the governmental entity shall do the following:

(3) submit data as specified by the department to determine the appropriate amounts to claim as expenditures qualifying for federal financial participation; and

(4) keep, maintain, and have readily retrievable any records specified by the department to fully disclose reimbursement amounts to which the eligible provider is entitled, and any other records required by the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services.

(f) The department shall promptly seek any necessary federal approvals for the implementation of this section. The department may limit the program to those costs that are allowable expenditures under title XIX of the federal social security act, 42 U.S.C. § 1396 et seq. If federal approval is not obtained for implementation of this section, this section shall not be implemented.

(1) The department shall submit claims for federal financial participation for the expenditures for the services described in subsection (e) that are allowable expenditures under federal law.

(2) The department shall submit any necessary materials to the federal government to provide assurances that claims for federal financial participation will include only those expenditures that are allowable under federal law. The department may utilize intergovernmental transfers or certified public expenditures to implement this section subject to the same provisions and requirements of section 2, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 2. (a) The department of health and environment shall design and implement, in consultation and coordination with eligible providers as described in subsection (b), an intergovernmental transfer program relating to medicaid managed care, ground emergency medical transport services and those services provided by emergency medical services personnel at the emergency medical responder, emergency medical technician, advanced emergency medical technician and paramedic levels in the pre-stabilization and preparation for transport.

(b) A provider shall be eligible to transfer public funds to the state pursuant to this section only if the provider meets both of the following conditions in an applicable reporting period:

(1) Provides ground emergency medical transport services to medicaid managed care enrollees pursuant to a contract or other arrangement with a medicaid managed care plan; and

(2) is owned or operated by the state, a political subdivision or local government that employs or contracts with persons or providers who are licensed or permitted to provide emergency medical services in the state of Kansas, including hospitals and private entities to the extent permissible under federal law.

(c) To the extent intergovernmental transfers are voluntarily made by, and accepted from, an eligible provider described in subsection (b), or a governmental entity affiliated with an eligible provider, the department shall make increased capitation payments to applicable medicaid managed care plans.

(1) The increased capitation payments made pursuant to this section shall be, at a minimum, in actuarially determined amounts to the extent permissible under federal law.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (f), funds associated with intergovernmental transfers made and accepted pursuant to this section shall be used to fund additional payments to medicaid managed care plans.

(3) Medicaid managed care plans shall enter into contracts or contract amendments with eligible providers for the disbursement of increased capitation payments made pursuant to this section.

(d) The intergovernmental transfer program developed pursuant to this section shall be implemented on the date federal approval is obtained, and only to the extent intergovernmental transfers from the eligible provider, or the governmental entity with which it is affiliated, are provided for this purpose. To the extent permissible under federal law, the department shall implement the intergovernmental transfer program and increased capitation payments under this section on a retroactive basis as approved by the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services.

(e) Participation in the intergovernmental transfers under this section is voluntary on the part of the transferring entities for purposes of all applicable federal laws.

(f) This section shall be implemented without any additional expenditure from the state general fund. As a condition of participation under this section, each eligible provider as described in subsection (b), or the governmental entity affiliated with an eligible provider, shall agree to reimburse the department for any costs associated with implementing this section. Intergovernmental transfers described in this section are subject to an administration fee of up to 20% of the non-federal share paid to the department and shall be allowed to count as a cost of providing the services not to exceed 120% of the total amount.

(g) As a condition of participation under this section, medicaid managed care plans, eligible providers as described in subsection (b), and governmental entities affiliated with eligible providers shall agree to comply with any requests for information or similar data requirements imposed by the department for purposes of obtaining supporting documentation necessary to claim federal funds or to obtain federal approvals.

(h) This section shall be implemented only if and to the extent federal financial participation is available and is not otherwise jeopardized and any necessary federal approvals have been obtained.

(i) To the extent that the department determines that the payments made pursuant to this section do not comply with federal medicaid requirements, the department may return or not accept an intergovernmental transfer and may adjust payments pursuant to this section as necessary to comply with federal medicaid requirements.

(j) The state of Kansas and the department of health and environment shall implement whatever program the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services approves for use in Kansas under sections 1 and 2, and amendments thereto.

All expenditures from the community mental health center improvement fund shall be made in accordance with appropriation acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the secretary for aging and disability services or the secretary's designee.

Journal of the Senate

EIGHTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Sunday, June 4, 2017, 2:00 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Senator Carolyn McGinn delivered the invocation:

During Pope Francis' incisive homily on Pentecost Sunday, Pope Francis spoke of two "recurrent temptations" in the 21st century. The first "seeks diversity without unity," while the second "seeks unity without diversity."

He explained that both are contrary to the Spirit of the Risen Jesus. He explained that the first temptation "seeks diversity without unity." This happens, he said, "when we want to separate, when we take sides and form parties, when we adopt rigid and airtight positions, when we become locked into our own ideas and ways of doing things, perhaps even thinking that we are better than others, or always in the right." It happens when "we choose the part over the whole, belonging to this or that group before belonging to the Church." It happens when "we become avid supporters for one side, rather than brothers and sisters in the one Spirit. We become Christians of the "right" or the "left," before being on the side of Jesus, unbending guardians of the past or the avant-garde of the future before being humble and grateful children of the Church. The result is diversity without unity."

He described the second "recurrent temptation" as that of "seeking unity without diversity." When this happens, "unity becomes uniformity, where everyone has to do everything together and in the same way, always thinking alike. Unity ends up being homogeneity and no longer freedom. But, as Saint Paul says, "where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom."

He prayed, too, that the Spirit of the Risen Jesus "may give peace to the entire world, and heal the wounds of war and terrorism, which last night struck innocent civilians in London." He asked everyone to pray for the victims and the families of this latest terrorist attack.

Peace Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,

to be loved as to love.
 For it is in giving that we receive,
 it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
 and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam Chair: We vote yes on this amendment because it is nothing more than political games and an attempt to force us to vote no or give the public a false impression of what we stand for. We will not play the game and stand strong for the tax payers. It deceives the public into thinking we do not support funding for front-line service workers which is patently false. This vote represents nothing more than our desire to hold all NEW spending until there are dollars to pay for it. We know that those proposing this amendment yet voting no are counting on, and promoting, a massive new tax plan to draw billions of additional dollars from our constituents, but that has not come to pass. Yet, they push to add tens of millions in new spending in anticipation of such an event. Only government can budget to add massive spending increase before they even have their tax in hand. The timing is nothing less than irresponsible.—Ty MASTERSON

Present and Passing: Baumgardner, Hilderbrand, Lynn, Tyson.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam Chair: We will not be intimidated into voting for new spending, regardless of the reason, when we are in a deficit situation. We must first look at other spending and prioritize. In recent polls from both sides, the Docking Institute and the State Chamber, confirmed our constituents want us in large part (75% and 57% respectively) to include spending cuts as part of the deficit solution. What is being proposed is ADDING spending, inflating the deficit, and trying to convince the people a massive retroactive tax plan is somehow "necessary." This is absolutely false and the Republican Balanced Budget Solution released last week proves that. We simply ask those supporting a massive retroactive tax to be honest with the people and admit it is not a "have to" situation, they simply want to impose massive new taxes to make government budgeting decisions easier regardless of the fact it makes the decisions of our constituents at home more difficult.—TY MASTERSON

(b) The tax required under subsection (a) shall be levied at a rate of 20 mills in the school years 2017-2018 and 2018-2019.

(c) The proceeds from the tax levied by a district under authority of this section, except the proceeds of such tax levied for the purpose described in subsection (a)(3), shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state school district finance fund.

(d) No school district shall proceed under K.S.A. 79-1964, 79-1964a or 79-1964b, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 15. (a) In each school year, the board of education of a school district may adopt, by resolution, a local option budget that does not exceed the state prescribed percentage.

(b) Subject to the limitations of subsection (a), in each school year, the board of education of a school district may adopt, by resolution, a local option budget in an amount that does not exceed:

(1) The amount that the board was authorized to adopt under any resolution adopted pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 72-6471, prior to its expiration; or

(2) the state-wide average for the preceding school year as determined by the state board pursuant to subsection (i).

The adoption of a resolution pursuant to this section shall require a majority vote of the members of the board. Such resolution shall be effective upon adoption and shall require no other procedure, authorization or approval.

(c) If the board of a school district desires to increase its local option budget authority above the amount authorized under subsection (b), the board may adopt, by resolution, such budget in an amount not to exceed the state prescribed percentage. The adoption of a resolution pursuant to this subsection shall require a majority vote of the members of the board. The resolution shall be published at least once in a newspaper having general circulation in the school district. The resolution shall be published in substantial compliance with the following form:

Unified School District No. _____, _____ County, Kansas.

RESOLUTION

Be It Resolved that:

The board of education of the above-named school district shall be authorized to adopt a local option budget in each school year in an amount not to exceed ____% of the amount of total foundation aid. The local option budget authorized by this resolution may be adopted, unless a petition in opposition to the same, signed by not less than 5% of the qualified electors of the school district, is filed with the county election officer of the home county of the school district within 30 days after publication of this resolution. If a petition is filed, the county election officer shall submit the question of whether adoption of the local option budget shall be authorized to the electors of the school district at an election called for the purpose or at the next general election, as is specified by the board of education of the school district.

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that the above resolution was duly adopted by the board of education of unified school district No. _____, _____ County, Kansas, on the _____ day of _____, _____.

Clerk of the board of education.

All of the blanks in the resolution shall be filled appropriately. If a sufficient petition is not filed, the board may adopt a local option budget. If a sufficient petition is filed, the board may notify the county election officer of the date of an election to be held to submit the question of whether adoption of a local option budget shall be authorized. Any such election shall be noticed, called and held in the manner provided by K.S.A. 10-120, and amendments thereto. If the board fails to notify the county election officer within 30 days after a sufficient petition is filed, the resolution shall be deemed abandoned and no like resolution shall be adopted by the board within the nine months following publication of the resolution.

(d) Unless specifically stated otherwise in the resolution, the authority to adopt a local option budget shall be continuous and permanent. The board of any school district that is authorized to adopt a local option budget may choose not to adopt such a budget or may adopt a budget in an amount less than the amount authorized. If the board of any school district whose authority to adopt a local option budget is not continuous and permanent refrains from adopting a local option budget, the authority of such school district to adopt a local option budget shall not be extended by such refrainment beyond the period specified in the resolution authorizing adoption of such budget.

(e) The board of any school district may initiate procedures to renew or increase the authority to adopt a local option budget at any time during a school year after the tax levied pursuant to section 19, and amendments thereto, is certified to the county clerk under any existing authorization.

(f) The board of any school district authorized to adopt a local option budget prior to July 1, 2017, under a resolution that authorized the adoption of such budget in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 72-6471, prior to its expiration, may continue to operate under such resolution for the period of time specified in the resolution or may abandon the resolution and operate under the provisions of this section. Any such school district shall operate under the provisions of this section after the period of time specified in any previously adopted resolution has expired.

(g) Any resolution adopted pursuant to this section may revoke or repeal any resolution previously adopted by the board. If the resolution does not revoke or repeal previously adopted resolutions, all resolutions that are in effect shall expire on the same date. The maximum amount of the local option budget of a school district under all resolutions in effect shall not exceed the state prescribed percentage in any school year.

(h) (1) There is hereby established in each school district that adopts a local option budget a supplemental general fund, which shall consist of all amounts deposited therein or credited thereto according to law.

(2) Subject to the limitations imposed under subsection (h)(3), amounts in the supplemental general fund may be expended for any purpose for which expenditures from the general fund are authorized or may be transferred to any categorical fund of the school district. Amounts in the supplemental general fund attributable to any percentage over 25% of total foundation aid determined for the current school year may be transferred to the capital improvements fund of the school district and the capital outlay fund of the school district if such transfers are specified in the resolution authorizing the adoption of a local option budget in excess of 25%.

(3) Amounts in the supplemental general fund may not be expended for the purpose of making payments under any lease-purchase agreement involving the acquisition of land or buildings that is entered into pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 72-8225, and amendments thereto.

(4) (A) Except as provided in subsection (h)(4)(B), any unexpended moneys remaining in the supplemental general fund of a school district at the conclusion of any school year in which a local option budget is adopted shall be maintained in such fund.

(B) If the school district received supplemental state aid in the school year, the state board shall determine the ratio of the amount of supplemental general state aid received to the amount of the local option budget of the school district for the school year and multiply the total amount of the unexpended moneys remaining by such ratio. An amount equal to the amount of the product shall be transferred to the general fund of the school district or remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of any such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the same in the state treasury to the credit of the state school district finance fund.

(i) Each year, the state board shall determine the statewide average percentage of local option budgets legally adopted by school districts for the preceding school year.

(j) The provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of section 16, and amendments thereto.

(k) As used in this section:

(1) "Authorized to adopt a local option budget" means that a school district has adopted a resolution pursuant to subsection (c).

(2) "State prescribed percentage" means 33% of the total foundation aid of the school district in the current school year.

(3) "Total foundation aid" means the same as such term is defined in section 4, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 16. (a) (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (e), the provisions of this subsection shall apply in any school year in which the amount of BASE aid is $4,490 or less.

(2) The board of education of a school district may adopt a local option budget that does not exceed the local option budget calculated as if the BASE aid was $4,490, or that does not exceed the local option budget as calculated pursuant to section 15, and amendments thereto, whichever is greater.

(b) The board of education of a school district may adopt a local option budget that does not exceed the local option budget calculated as if the school district received state aid for special education and related services equal to the amount of state aid for special education and related services received in school year 2008-2009, or that does not exceed the local option budget as calculated pursuant to section 15, and amendments thereto, whichever is greater.

(c) The board of any school district may exercise the authority granted under subsection (a) or (b) or both subsections (a) and (b).

(d) To the extent that the provisions of section 15, and amendments thereto, conflict with this section, this section shall control.

(e) For school year 2019-2020, and each school year thereafter, the specified dollar amount used in subsection (a) for purposes of determining the local option budget of a school district shall be the specified dollar amount used for the immediately preceding school year plus an amount equal to the average percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers in the midwest region as published by the bureau of labor statistics of the United States department of labor during the three immediately preceding school years.

New Sec. 17. (a) In each school year, each school district that has adopted a local option budget is eligible to receive supplemental state aid. Except as provided by section 18, and amendments thereto, supplemental state aid shall be determined by the state board as provided in subsection (b).

(b) The state board shall:

(1) (A) For school year 2017-2018, determine the amount of the assessed valuation per student in the preceding school year of each school district; and

(B) for school year 2018-2019 and each school year thereafter, determine the average assessed valuation per student of each school district by adding the assessed valuation per student for each of the three immediately preceding school years and dividing the resulting sum by three;

(2) rank the school districts from low to high on the basis of the amounts of assessed valuation per student determined under subsection (b)(1);

(3) identify the amount of the assessed valuation per student located at the 81.2 percentile of the amounts ranked under subsection (b)(2);

(4) divide the assessed valuation per student of the school district as determined under subsection (b)(1) by the amount identified under subsection (b)(3); and

(5) (A) if the quotient obtained under subsection (b)(4) equals or exceeds one, the school district shall not receive supplemental state aid; or

(B) if the quotient obtained under subsection (b)(4) is less than one, subtract the quotient obtained under subsection (b)(4) from one, and multiply the difference by the amount of the local option budget of the school district for the immediately preceding school year. The resulting product is the amount of supplemental state aid the school district is to receive for the school year.

(c) Payments of supplemental state aid shall be distributed to school districts on the dates prescribed by the state board. The state board shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the amount due each school district, and the director of accounts and reports shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer payable to the treasurer of the school district. Upon receipt of the warrant, the treasurer of the school district shall credit the amount thereof to the supplemental general fund of the school district to be used for the purposes of such fund.

(d) For the purposes of determining the total amount of state moneys paid to school districts, all moneys appropriated as supplemental state aid shall be deemed to be state moneys for educational and support services for school districts.

New Sec. 18. (a) (1) For the purposes of determining the amount of supplemental state aid, the state board shall determine the ranking of each of the former school districts of which the school district is composed as required by section 17(b)(2), and amendments thereto, for the school year prior to the effectuation of the consolidation or attachment.

(2) For the school year in which the consolidation or attachment is effectuated and the next succeeding two school years, the ranking of the school district for the purposes of section 17(b)(2), and amendments thereto, shall be the ranking of the school district receiving the highest amount of supplemental state aid determined under subsection (a) (1).

(b) The provisions of this section shall apply to school districts that have consolidated or disorganized on and after July 1, 2004.

(c) As used in this section, "school district" means:

(1) Any school district formed by consolidation in accordance with article 87 of chapter 72 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto; or

(2) any school district formed by disorganization and attachment in accordance with article 73 of chapter 72 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, if all the territory which comprised a disorganized school district is attached to a single school district.

New Sec. 19. (a) In each school year, the board of each school district that has adopted a local option budget may levy an ad valorem tax on the taxable tangible property of the school district for the purposes of:

(1) Financing that portion of the school district's local option budget that is not financed from any other source provided by law;

(2) paying a portion of the principal and interest on bonds issued by cities under authority of K.S.A. 12-1774, and amendments thereto, for the financing of redevelopment projects upon property located within the school district; and

(3) funding transfers to the capital improvement fund of the school district and the capital outlay fund of the school district if such transfers are specified in the resolution authorizing the adoption of a local option budget in excess of 25% of the total foundation aid determined for the current school year.

(b) The proceeds from the tax levied by a school district under authority of this section, except the proceeds of such tax levied for the purpose of paying a portion of the principal and interest on bonds issued by cities under authority of K.S.A. 12-1774, and amendments thereto, for the financing of redevelopment projects upon property located within the school district, shall be deposited in the supplemental general fund of the school district.

(c) No school district shall proceed under K.S.A. 79-1964, 79-1964a or 79-1964b, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 20. (a) The transportation weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

(1) Determine the total expenditures of the school district during the preceding school year from all funds for transporting students of public and nonpublic schools on regular school routes;

(2) determine the sum of: (A) The number of students who were included in the enrollment of the school district in the preceding school year who resided less than $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles by the usually traveled road from the school building such students attended and for whom transportation was made available by the school district; and (B) the number of nonresident students who were included in the enrollment of the school district for the preceding school year and for whom transportation was made available by the school district;

(3) determine the number of students who were included in the enrollment of the district in the preceding school year who resided $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles or more by the usually traveled road from the school building such students attended and for whom transportation was made available by the school district;

(4) multiply the number of students determined under subsection (a)(3) by 2.8;

(5) divide the amount determined under subsection (a)(2) by the product obtained under subsection (a)(4);

(6) add one to the quotient obtained under subsection (a)(5);

(7) multiply the sum obtained under subsection (a)(6) by the amount determined under subsection (a)(3);

(8) divide the amount determined under subsection (a)(1) by the product obtained under subsection (a)(7). The resulting quotient is the per-student cost of transportation;

(9) on a density-cost graph, plot the per-student cost of transportation for each school district;

(10) construct a curve of best fit for the points so plotted;

(11) locate the index of density for the school district on the base line of the density-cost graph and from the point on the curve of best fit directly above this point of index of density follow a line parallel to the base line to the point of intersection with the vertical line, which point is the formula per-student cost of transportation of the school district;

(12) divide the formula per-student cost of transportation of the school district by the BASE aid; and

(13) multiply the quotient obtained under subsection (a)(12) by the number of students who are included in the enrollment of the school district, are residing $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles or more by the usually traveled road to the school building they attend, and for whom transportation is being made available by, and at the expense of, the district.

(b) (1) For school years 2017-2018 through 2020-2021, the transportation weighting of the school district shall be either the product determined under subsection (a)(13), or that portion of such school district's general state aid for school year 2016-2017 that was attributable to the school district's transportation weighting, whichever is greater.

(2) For school year 2021-2022, and each school year thereafter, the transportation weighting of the school district shall be the product determined under subsection (a)(13).

(c) For the purpose of providing accurate and reliable data on student transportation, the state board is authorized to adopt rules and regulations prescribing procedures that school districts shall follow in reporting pertinent information, including uniform reporting of expenditures for transportation.

(d) As used in this section:

(1) "Curve of best fit" means the curve on a density-cost graph drawn so the sum of the distances squared from such line to each of the points plotted on the graph is the least possible.

(2) "Density-cost graph" means a drawing having: (A) A horizontal or base line divided into equal intervals of density, beginning with zero on the left; and (B) a scale for per-student cost of transportation to be shown on a line perpendicular to the base line at the left end thereof, such scale to begin with zero dollars at the base line ascending by equal per-student cost intervals.

(3) "Index of density" means the number of students who are included in the enrollment of a school district in the current school year, are residing the designated distance or more by the usually traveled road from the school building they attend, and for whom transportation is being made available on regular school routes by the school district, divided by the number of square miles of territory in the school district.

New Sec. 21. (a) The low enrollment weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

(1) For school districts with an enrollment of fewer than 100 students, multiply the enrollment of the school district by 1.014331. The resulting product is the low enrollment weighting of the school district;

(2) for school districts with an enrollment of at least 100 students, but fewer than 300 students:

- (A) Subtract 100 from the enrollment of the school district;
- (B) multiply the difference obtained under subsection (a)(2)(A) by 9.655;
- (C) subtract the product obtained under subsection (a)(2)(B) from 7,337;
- (D) divide the difference obtained under subsection (a)(2)(C) by 3,642.4;
- (E) subtract one from the quotient obtained under subsection (a)(2)(D); and
- (F) multiply the difference obtained under subsection (a)(2)(E) by the enrollment of the school district. The resulting product is the low enrollment weighting of the school district;

(3) for school districts with an enrollment of at least 300 students, but fewer than 1,622 students:

- (A) Subtract 300 from the enrollment of the school district;
- (B) multiply the difference obtained under subsection (a)(3)(A) by 1.2375;
- (C) subtract the product obtained under subsection (a)(3)(B) from 5,406;
- (D) divide the difference obtained under subsection (a)(3)(C) by 3,642.4;
- (E) subtract one from the quotient obtained under subsection (c)(D); and
- (F) multiply the difference obtained under subsection (a)(3)(E) by the enrollment of the school district. The resulting product is the low enrollment weighting of the school district.

(b) For school districts with an enrollment of at least 1,622 students, multiply the enrollment of the school district by 0.03504. The resulting product is the high enrollment weighting of the school district.

New Sec. 22. The bilingual weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

(a) Determine the full-time equivalent enrollment in approved programs of bilingual education during the preceding school year and multiply such enrollment by 0.395;

(b) determine the number of students enrolled in approved programs of bilingual education during the preceding school year and multiply such enrollment by 0.185; and

(c) the bilingual weighting shall be either the amount determined under subsection (a) or (b), whichever is greater.

New Sec. 23. (a) The at-risk student weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

(1) Determine the number of at-risk students included in the enrollment of the school district; and

(2) for a school district with an enrollment that consists of 10% or more at-risk students, multiply the number determined under subsection (a)(1) by 0.484. The resulting sum is the at-risk student weighting of the school district; or

(3) for a school district with an enrollment that consists of less than 10% at-risk students, multiply the number of students equal to 10% of such school district's enrollment by 0.484. The resulting sum is the at-risk student weighting of the school district. A school district whose at-risk student weighting is determined pursuant to this paragraph shall submit a report to the state board in such form and manner as required by the state board that identifies those students enrolled in such school district who are receiving at-risk program services and the criteria each such student satisfies in order to receive at-risk program services. The state board shall adopt rules and regulations that establish the criteria for eligibility for at-risk program services. The provisions of this paragraph shall only apply to those school districts that offer instruction in kindergarten and grades one through 12.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (b)(4), the high-density at-risk student weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

(1) (A) If the enrollment of the school district is at least 35% at-risk students, but less than 50% at-risk students:

(i) Subtract 35% from the percentage of at-risk students included in the enrollment of the school district;

(ii) multiply the difference determined under subsection (b)(1)(A)(i) by 0.7; and

(iii) multiply the product determined under subsection (b)(1)(A)(ii) by the number of at-risk students included in the enrollment of the school district; or

(B) if the enrollment of the school district is 50% or more at-risk students, multiply the number of at-risk students included in the enrollment of the school district by 0.105; or

(2) (A) if the enrollment of a school in the school district is at least 35% at-risk students, but less than 50% at-risk students:

(i) Subtract 35% from the percentage of at-risk students included in the enrollment of such school;

(ii) multiply the difference determined under subsection (b)(2)(A)(i) by 0.7; and

(iii) multiply the product determined under subsection (b)(2)(A)(ii) by the number of at-risk students included in the enrollment of such school; or

(B) if the enrollment of a school in the school district is 50% or more at-risk students, multiply the number of at-risk students included in the enrollment of such school by 0.105; and

(C) add the products determined under subsections (b)(2)(A)(iii) and (b)(2)(B) for each such school in the school district, respectively.

(3) The high-density at-risk weighting of the school district shall be the greater of the product determined under subsection (b)(1) or the sum determined under subsection (b)(2)(C).

(4) Commencing in school year 2018-2019, school districts that qualify to receive the high-density at-risk weighting pursuant to this section shall spend any money attributable to the school district's high-density at-risk weighting on the at-risk best practices developed by the state board pursuant to section 25(d), and amendments thereto. If a school district that qualifies for the high-density at-risk weighting does not spend such money on such best practices, the state board shall notify the school district that it shall either spend such money on such best practices or shall show improvement within five years of notification. Improvement shall include, but not be limited to, the following: (A) The percentage of students at grade level on state math and English language arts assessments; (B) the percentage of students that are college and career ready on state math and English language arts assessments; (C) the average composite ACT score; or (D) the four-year graduation rate. If a school district does not spend such money on such best practices and does not show improvement within five years, the school district shall not qualify to receive the high-density at-risk weighting in the succeeding school year.

(5) The provisions of this subsection shall expire on July 1, 2019.

New Sec. 24. (a) If a student submits an application for free meals under the national school lunch act on or before the date on which the enrollment of the school district is calculated and it is later determined by the school district or the department of education that the student should not have been eligible for free meals, the school district or the department shall notify the state board of such determination. Except as provided in subsection (b), upon receipt of such notice, the state board shall recompute the adjusted enrollment of the school district and the general fund budget of the school district based on the adjusted enrollment of the school district excluding the at-risk student weighting and high-density at-risk student weighting, if any, assigned to such student.

(b) If a student becomes ineligible to receive free meals under the national school lunch act for failure to submit, in a timely manner, any documentation necessary for verification of eligibility as required by the national school lunch act, but subsequently submits such documentation, such student shall not be excluded from the calculation of the adjusted enrollment of the school district if the school district forwards a copy of such documentation to the state board no later than January 14 of the school year.

New Sec. 25. (a) There is hereby established in every school district an at-risk education fund, which shall consist of all moneys deposited therein or transferred thereto according to law. The expenses of a school district directly attributable to providing at-risk student assistance or programs shall be paid from the at-risk education fund.

(b) Any balance remaining in the at-risk education fund at the end of the budget year shall be carried forward into the at-risk education fund for succeeding budget years. Such fund shall not be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-2925 through 79-2937, and amendments thereto. In preparing the budget of such school district, the amounts credited to and the amount on hand in the at-risk education fund, and the amount expended therefrom shall be included in the annual budget for the information of the residents of the school district. Interest earned on the investment of moneys in any such fund shall be credited to that fund.

(c) Commencing in school year 2018-2019, expenditures from the at-risk education fund of a school district shall only be made for the following purposes:

(1) At-risk educational programs based on best practices identified pursuant to subsection (d);

(2) personnel providing educational services in conjunction with such programs; or

(3) services contracted for by the school district to provide at-risk educational programs based on best practices identified pursuant to subsection (d).

(d) On or before July 1, 2018, the state board shall identify and approve evidence-based best practices for at-risk programs and instruction of students receiving at-risk program services. The state board shall review and update such best practices as part of its five-year accreditation system review process.

(e) Each year the board of education of each school district shall prepare and submit to the state board a report on the assistance or programs provided by the school district for students identified as at-risk. Such report shall include the number of students identified as at-risk who were served or provided assistance, the type of service provided, the research upon which the school district relied in determining that a need for service or assistance existed, the results of providing such service or assistance and any other information required by the state board.

(f) In order to achieve uniform reporting of the number of students provided service or assistance by school districts in at-risk student programs, school districts shall report the number of students served or assisted in the manner required by the state board.

New Sec. 26. (a) There is hereby established in every school district a preschool-aged at-risk education fund, which shall consist of all moneys deposited therein or transferred thereto according to law. The expenses of a school district directly attributable to providing preschool-aged at-risk assistance or programs shall be paid from the preschool-aged at-risk education fund.

(b) Any balance remaining in the preschool-aged at-risk education fund at the end of the budget year shall be carried forward into the preschool-aged at-risk education fund for succeeding budget years. Such fund shall not be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-2925 through 79-2937, and amendments thereto. In preparing the budget of such school district, the amounts credited to and the amount on hand in the preschool-aged at-risk education fund, and the amount expended therefrom shall be included in the annual budget for the information of the residents of the school district. Interest earned on the investment of moneys in any such fund shall be credited to that fund.

(c) Each year the board of each school district shall prepare and submit to the state board a report on the preschool-aged at-risk student assistance or programs provided by the school district. Such report shall include the number of students who were served or provided assistance, the type of service provided, the research upon which the school district relied in determining that a need for service or assistance existed, the results of providing such service or assistance and any other information required by the state board.

New Sec. 27. (a) The career technical education weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board by multiplying the full-time equivalent enrollment in approved career technical education programs during the preceding school year by 0.5. The resulting product is the career technical education weighting of the school district.

(b) The provisions of this section shall expire on July 1, 2019.

New Sec. 28. (a) For each school year in which the school facilities weighting may be assigned to the enrollment of the school district, such weighting of such school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

(1) Determine the number of students included in the enrollment of the school district who are attending a new school facility;

(2) multiply the number of students determined under subsection (a)(1) by 0.25. The resulting product is the school facilities weighting of the school district.

(b) The school facilities weighting may be assigned to the enrollment of a school district only if:

(1) The school district adopted a local option budget for school year 2014-2015 in an amount equal to at least 25% of the amount of the state financial aid determined for the school district in such school year pursuant to K.S.A. 72-6433, prior to its repeal;

(2) the contractual bond obligations incurred by the school district were approved by the electors of the school district at an election held on or before July 1, 2015; and

(3) (A) the school district commences operation of a new school facility and the construction of such facility was financed primarily with such contractual bond obligations; or

(B) the school district commences operation of a new school facility and the construction of such facility was financed primarily with federal funds and such facility is located on a military reservation.

(c) The school facilities weighting may be assigned to the enrollment of the school district only in the school year in which operation of a new school facility is commenced and in the next succeeding school year.

New Sec. 29. The special education and related services weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

(a) Add the amount of payments received by the school district under the provisions of K.S.A. 72-979, and amendments thereto, to the amount of any grants received by the school district under the provisions of K.S.A. 72-983, and amendments thereto; and

(b) divide the sum obtained under subsection (a) by the BASE aid. The resulting quotient is the special education and related services weighting of the school district.

New Sec. 30. (a) (1) The board of education of a school district to which the provisions of this section apply may levy an ad valorem tax on the taxable tangible property of the school district each year for a period of time not to exceed two years in an amount not to exceed the amount authorized by the state board of tax appeals under this subsection for the purpose of financing the costs incurred by the state that are directly attributable to assignment of ancillary school facilities weighting to the enrollment of the school district. The state board of tax appeals may authorize the school district to make a levy that will produce an amount that is not greater than the difference between the amount of costs directly attributable to commencing operation of one or more new school facilities and the amount that is financed from any other source provided by law for such purpose. If the school district is not eligible, or will be ineligible, for ancillary school facilities weighting in any one or more years during the two-year period for which the school district is authorized to levy a tax under this subsection, the state board of tax appeals may authorize the school district to make a levy, in such year or years of ineligibility, that will produce an amount that is not greater than the actual amount of costs attributable to commencing operation of the facility or facilities.

(2) The state board of tax appeals shall certify to the state board the amount authorized to be produced by the levy of a tax under this subsection.

(3) The state board of tax appeals may adopt rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the provisions of this subsection, including rules and regulations relating to the evidence required in support of a school district's claim that the costs attributable to commencing operation of one or more new school facilities are in excess of the amount that is financed from any other source provided by law for such purpose.

(b) The board of education of a school district that has levied an ad valorem tax on the taxable tangible property of the school district each year for a period of two years under authority of subsection (a) may continue to levy such tax under authority of this subsection each year for an additional period of time not to exceed six years in an amount not to exceed the amount computed by the state board as provided in this subsection if the board of the school district determines that the costs attributable to commencing operation of one or more new school facilities are significantly greater than the costs attributable to the operation of other school facilities in the school district. The tax authorized under this subsection may be levied at a rate that will produce an amount that is not greater than the amount computed by the state board as provided in this subsection. In computing such amount, the state board shall:

(1) Determine the amount produced by the tax levied by the school district under authority of subsection (a) in the second year for which such tax was levied and add to such amount the amount of state foundation aid directly attributable to ancillary school facilities weighting that was received by the school district in the same year;

(2) compute 90% of the amount of the sum obtained under subsection (b)(1), which computed amount is the amount the school district may levy in the first year of the six-year period for which the school district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection;

(3) compute 75% of the amount of the sum obtained under subsection (b)(1), which computed amount is the amount the school district may levy in the second year of the six-year period for which the school district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection;

(4) compute 60% of the amount of the sum obtained under subsection (b)(1), which computed amount is the amount the school district may levy in the third year of the six-year period for which the school district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection;

(5) compute 45% of the amount of the sum obtained under subsection (b)(1), which computed amount is the amount the school district may levy in the fourth year of the six-year period for which the school district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection;

(6) compute 30% of the amount of the sum obtained under subsection (b)(1), which computed amount is the amount the school district may levy in the fifth year of the six-year period for which the school district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection; and

(7) compute 15% of the amount of the sum obtained under subsection (b)(1), which computed amount is the amount the school district may levy in the sixth year of the six-year period for which the school district may levy a tax under authority of this subsection.

In determining the amount produced by the tax levied by the school district under authority of subsection (a), the state board shall include any moneys apportioned to the ancillary school facilities fund of the school district from taxes levied under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-5101 et seq. and 79-5118 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(c) The proceeds from any tax levied by a school district under authority of this section shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state school district finance fund.

(d) The ancillary school facilities weighting may be assigned to the enrollment of a school district only if the school district has levied a tax under the authority of subsection (a), and remitted the proceeds from such tax to the state treasurer. The ancillary school facilities weighting of each school district shall be determined in each school year in which such weighting may be assigned to the enrollment of the school district as follows:

(1) Add the amount to be produced by a tax levy as authorized under subsection (a) and certified to the state board by the state board of tax appeals to the amount computed under subsection (b) to be produced by a tax levy, if any; and

(2) divide the sum obtained under subsection (d)(1) by the BASE aid. The resulting quotient is the ancillary school facilities weighting of the school district.

(e) The provisions of this section apply to any school district that:

(1) Commenced operation of one or more new school facilities in the school year preceding the current school year or has commenced or will commence operation of one or more new school facilities in the current school year;

(2) adopted a local option budget; and

(3) is experiencing extraordinary enrollment growth as determined by the state board.

New Sec. 31. (a) Subject to subsection (b), the board of education of a school district may levy a tax on the taxable tangible property within the school district for the purpose of financing the costs incurred by the state that are attributable directly to assignment of the cost-of-living weighting to the enrollment of the school district.

(b) The state board shall determine whether a school district may levy a tax under this section as follows:

(1) Determine the statewide average appraised value of single family residences for the calendar year preceding the current school year;

(2) multiply the amount determined under subsection (b)(1) by 1.25;

(3) determine the average appraised value of single family residences in each school district for the calendar year preceding the current school year; and

(4) subtract the amount determined under subsection (b)(2) from the amount determined under subsection (b)(3). If the amount determined for the school district is a positive number and the school district has adopted a local option budget in an amount equal to at least 31% of the total foundation aid for the school district, the school district qualifies for assignment of cost-of-living weighting and may levy a tax on the taxable tangible property of the school district for the purpose of financing the costs that are attributable directly to assignment of the cost-of-living weighting to the enrollment of the school district.

(c) (1) No tax may be levied under this section unless the board of education adopts a resolution authorizing such a tax levy and publishes the resolution at least once in a newspaper having general circulation in the school district. Except as provided by subsection (e), the resolution shall be published in substantial compliance with the following form:

Unified School District No. _____,

RESOLUTION _____ County, Kansas.

Be It Resolved that:

The board of education of the above-named school district shall be authorized to levy an ad valorem tax in an amount not to exceed the amount necessary to finance the costs attributable directly to the assignment of cost-of-living weighting to the enrollment of the school district. The ad valorem tax authorized by this resolution may be levied unless a petition in opposition to the same, signed by not less than 5% of the qualified electors of the school district, is filed with the county election officer of the home county of the school district within 30 days after the publication of this resolution. If a petition is filed, the county election officer shall submit the question of whether the levy of such a tax shall be authorized in accordance with the provisions of this resolution to the electors of the school district at the next general election of the school district, as is specified by the board of education of the school district.

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that the above resolution was duly adopted by the board of education of Unified School District No. _____, _____ County, Kansas, on the ____ day of _____, (year)_____.

Clerk of the board of education.

(2) All of the blanks in the resolution shall be filled appropriately. If no petition as specified above is filed in accordance with the provisions of the resolution, the resolution authorizing the ad valorem tax levy shall become effective. If a petition is filed as provided in the resolution, the board may notify the county election officer to submit the question of whether such tax levy shall be authorized. If the board fails to notify the county election officer within 30 days after a petition is filed, the resolution shall be deemed abandoned and of no force and effect and no like resolution shall be adopted by the board within the nine months following publication of the resolution. If a majority of the votes cast in an election conducted pursuant to this provision is in favor of the resolution, such resolution shall be effective on the date of such election. If a majority of the votes cast is not in favor of the resolution, the resolution shall be deemed of no force and effect and no like resolution shall be adopted by the board within the nine months following such election.

(d) There is hereby established in every school district a cost-of-living fund, which shall consist of all moneys deposited therein or transferred thereto in accordance with law. All moneys derived from a tax imposed pursuant to this section shall be credited to the cost-of-living fund. The proceeds from the tax levied by a school district credited to the cost-of-living fund shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state school district finance fund.

(e) In determining the amount produced by the tax levied by the school district under the authority of this section, the state board shall include any moneys apportioned to the cost-of-living fund of the school district from taxes levied under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-5101 et seq. and 79-5118 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(f) The cost-of-living weighting of a school district shall be determined by the state board in each school year in which such weighting may be assigned to the enrollment of the school district as follows:

(1) Divide the amount determined under subsection (b)(4) by the amount determined under subsection (b)(2);

(2) multiply the quotient determined under subsection (f)(1) by 0.095;

(3) multiply the school district's total foundation aid for the current school year, excluding the amount determined under this provision, by the lesser of the product determined under subsection (f)(2) or 0.05; and

(4) divide the product determined under subsection (f)(3) by the BASE aid for the current school year. The quotient is the cost-of-living weighting of the school district.

New Sec. 32. (a) (1) (A) The board of education of a school district may levy an ad valorem tax on the taxable tangible property of the school district each year for a period of time not to exceed two years, unless authority to make such levy is renewed by the state board of tax appeals, in an amount not to exceed the amount authorized by the state board of tax appeals under this section for the purpose of financing the costs incurred by the state that are directly attributable to assignment of declining enrollment weighting to the enrollment of the school district. The state board of tax appeals may authorize the school district to make a levy that will produce an amount that is not greater than the amount of revenues lost as a result of the declining enrollment of the school district. Such amount shall not exceed 5% of the general fund budget of the school district in the school year in which the school district applies to the state board of tax appeals for authority to make a levy pursuant to this subsection. The state board of tax appeals may renew the authority to make such levy for periods of time not to exceed two years.

(B) For school year 2017-2018, as an alternative to the authority provided in subsection (a)(1)(A), if a school district was authorized to make a levy pursuant to K.S.A. 72-6451, prior to its repeal, in school year 2006-2007, such school district shall remain authorized to make a levy at a rate necessary to generate revenue equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount that was generated in school year 2007-2008.

(2) The state board of tax appeals shall certify to the state board the amount authorized to be produced by the levy of a tax under this section.

(3) The state board shall prescribe guidelines for the data that school districts shall include in cases before the state board of tax appeals pursuant to this section. The state board shall provide to the state board of tax appeals such school data and information requested by the state board of tax appeals and any other information deemed necessary by the state board.

(b) There is hereby established in every school district a declining enrollment fund, which shall consist of all moneys deposited therein or transferred thereto according to law. The proceeds from the tax levied by a school district under authority of this section shall be credited to the declining enrollment fund of the school district. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state school district finance fund.

(c) In determining the amount produced by the tax levied by the school district under authority of this section, the state board shall include any moneys apportioned to the declining enrollment fund of the school district from taxes levied under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-5101 et seq. and 79-5118 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(d) The declining enrollment weighting of a school district shall be determined by the state board in each school year in which such weighting may be assigned to the enrollment of the school district. The state board shall divide the amount certified under subsection (a)(2) by the BASE aid. The resulting quotient is the declining enrollment weighting of the school district.

(e) As used in this section:

(2) "School district" means a school district that: (A) Has a declining enrollment; and (B) has adopted a local foundation budget in an amount that equals at least 31% of the total foundation aid for the school district at the time the school district applies to the state board of tax appeals for authority to make a levy pursuant to this section.

(f) The provisions of this section shall expire on July 1, 2018.

New Sec. 33. For the purpose of determining the general fund budget of a school district, weightings shall not be assigned to a student enrolled in and attending KAMS. (6) On or before July 1, 2024, the house and senate standing committees on education shall review the bilingual student weighting, as such term is defined in section 4, and amendments thereto, to ensure that such weighting is reasonably calculated to have students meet or exceed the educational goal set forth in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 72-1127(c), and amendments thereto.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the county treasurer shall distribute such taxes as may be collected in the same manner as if such property were located outside a redevelopment district. Each redevelopment district established under the provisions of this act shall constitute a separate taxing unit for the purpose of the computation and levy of taxes.

(b) (1) Commencing in school year 2017-2018, the state board of education shall not approve any application submitted during the current school year if such approval would result in the aggregate amount of all general obligation bonds approved by the state board for such school year exceeding the aggregate principal amount of all general obligation bonds retired in the immediately preceding school year. In determining whether to approve an application, the state board shall prioritize applications in accordance with the priorities set forth as follows in order of highest priority to lowest priority:

(A) Safety of the current facility and disability access to such facility as demonstrated by a state fire marshal report, an inspection under the Americans with disabilities act, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., or other similar evaluation;

(D) energy usage and other operational inefficiencies as demonstrated by a district-wide energy usage analysis, district-wide architectural analysis or other similar evaluation.

(2) The state board shall not consider a school district's eligibility for capital improvement state aid, or the amount of capital improvement state aid a school district would be eligible to receive, in determining whether to approve such district's application.

(3) The provisions of subsection (b)(1) shall not apply to school districts that have not issued any general obligation bonds in the 25 years prior to the current school year.

(c) After reviewing the application and examining the supportive evidence, the state board of education shall issue an order either granting or denying the application. (d) Any application that is denied pursuant to subsection (b) may be tentatively approved by the state board of education for the immediately succeeding school year. The amount of general obligation bonds approved in any such application shall be counted first towards the aggregate amount of all general obligation bonds approved by the state board for such school year.

(e) Commencing in school year 2017-2018, the state board of education shall determine the aggregate principal amount of general obligation bonds retired in the immediately preceding school year.

(f) The provisions of subsections (b), (d) and (e) shall expire on June 30, 2022.

Sec. 102. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 75-2319 is hereby amended to read as follows: 75-2319. (a) There is hereby established in the state treasury the school district capital improvements fund. The fund shall consist of all amounts transferred thereto under the provisions of subsection (c).

(B) determine the median AVPP of all school districts;

(C) prepare a schedule of dollar amounts using the amount of the median AVPP of all school districts as the point of beginning. The schedule of dollar amounts shall range upward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the highest AVPP of all school districts and shall range downward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the lowest AVPP of all school districts;

(D) determine a state aid percentage factor for each school district by assigning a state aid computation percentage to the amount of the median AVPP shown on the schedule, decreasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the median AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval above the amount of the median AVPP, and increasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the median AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval below the amount of the median AVPP. Except as provided by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 75-2319c, and amendments thereto, the state aid percentage factor of a school district is the percentage assigned to the schedule amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district. The state aid percentage factor of a school district shall not exceed 100%. The state aid computation percentage is 25%;

(E) determine the amount of payments that a school district is obligated to make from its bond and interest fund attributable to general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held prior to July 1, 2015; and

(F) multiply the amount determined under subsection (b)(1)(E) by the applicable state aid percentage factor.

(2) For general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2015, the state board of education shall:

(B) prepare a schedule of dollar amounts using the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the lowest AVPP of all school districts as the point of beginning. The schedule of dollar amounts shall range upward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the highest AVPP of all school districts;

(C) determine a state aid percentage factor for each school district by assigning a state aid computation percentage to the amount of the lowest AVPP shown on the schedule and decreasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the lowest AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval above the amount of the lowest AVPP. Except as provided by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 75-2319c, and amendments thereto, the state aid percentage factor of a school district is the percentage assigned to the schedule amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district. The state aid computation percentage is 75%;

(D) determine the amount of payments that a school district is obligated to make from its bond and interest fund attributable to general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2015; and

(E) multiply the amount determined under subsection (b)(2)(D) by the applicable state aid percentage factor.

(3) For general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or before June 30, 2016, the sum of the amount determined under subsection (b)(1)(F) and the amount determined under subsection (b)(2)(E) is the amount of payment the school district is entitled to receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year.

(4) For general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2016, the amount determined under subsection (b)(2)(E) is the amount of payment the school district shall receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year, except the total amount of payments school districts receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year for such bonds shall not exceed the six-year average amount of capital improvement state aid as determined by the state board of education.

(A) The state board of education shall determine the six-year average amount of capital improvement state aid by calculating the average of the total amount of moneys expended per year from the school district capital improvements fund in the immediately preceding six fiscal years, not to include the current fiscal year.

(B) (i) Subject to clause (ii), the state board of education shall prioritize the allocations to school districts from the school district capital improvements fund in accordance with the priorities set forth as follows in order of highest priority to lowest priority:

(a) Safety of the current facility and disability access to such facility as demonstrated by a state fire marshal report, an inspection under the Americans with disabilities act, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., or other similar evaluation;

(b) enrollment growth and imminent overcrowding as demonstrated by successive increases in enrollment of the school district in the immediately preceding three school years;

(c) impact on the delivery of educational services as demonstrated by restrictive inflexible design or limitations on installation of technology; and

(d) energy usage and other operational inefficiencies as demonstrated by a district-wide energy usage analysis, district-wide architectural analysis or other similar evaluation.

(ii) In allocating capital improvement state aid, the state board shall give higher priority to those school districts with a lower AVPP compared to the other school districts that are to receive capital improvement state aid under this section.

(C) On and after July 1, 2016, the state board of education shall approve the amount of state aid payments a school district shall receive from the school district capital improvements fund pursuant to subsection (b)(5) prior to an election to approve the issuance of general obligation bonds.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (b)(6) and (b)(7), the sum of the amounts determined under subsection (b)(3) and the amount determined or allocated to the district by the state board of education pursuant to subsection (b)(4), is the amount of payment the school district is entitled to receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year.

(6) A school district that had an enrollment of less than 260 students in the school year immediately preceding the school year in which an election is held to approve the issuance of general obligation bonds shall not be entitled to receive payments from the school district capital improvements fund unless such school district applied for and receive approval from the state board of education to issue such bonds prior to holding an election to approve such bond issuance. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2017, that are issued for the purpose of financing the construction of new school facilities.

(7) For general obligation bonds approved for issuance at an election held on or after July 1, 2017, in determining the amount under subsection (b)(2)(D), the state board shall exclude payments for any capital improvement project, or portion thereof that proposes to construct, reconstruct or remodel a facility that would be used primarily for extracurricular activities, unless the construction, reconstruction or remodeling of such facility is necessary due to concerns relating to the safety of the current facility or disability access to such facility as demonstrated by a state fire marshal report, an inspection under the Americans with disabilities act, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., or other similar evaluation.

(c) The state board of education shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the entitlements of school districts determined under the provisions of subsection (b), and an amount equal thereto shall be transferred by the director from the state general fund to the school district capital improvements fund for distribution to school districts. All transfers made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection shall be considered to be demand transfers from the state general fund, except that all such transfers during the fiscal years ending ~~June 30, 2013~~, ~~June 30, 2014~~ 2017, ~~June 30, 2015~~ 2018, and ~~June 30, 2016~~ 2019, shall be considered to be revenue transfers from the state general fund.

(d) Payments from the school district capital improvements fund shall be distributed to school districts at times determined by the state board of education to be necessary to assist school districts in making scheduled payments pursuant to contractual bond obligations. The state board of education shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the amount due each school district entitled to payment from the fund, and the director of accounts and reports shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer payable to the treasurer of the school district. Upon receipt of the warrant, the treasurer of the school district shall credit the amount thereof to the bond and interest fund of the school district to be used for the purposes of such fund.

(e) The provisions of this section apply only to contractual obligations incurred by school districts pursuant to general obligation bonds issued upon approval of a majority of the qualified electors of the school district voting at an election upon the question of the issuance of such bonds.

(f) On or before the first day of the legislative session in 2017, and each year thereafter, the state board of education shall prepare and submit a report to the legislature that includes information on school district elections held on or after July 1, 2016, to approve the issuance of general obligation bonds and the amount of payments school districts were approved to receive from the school district capital improvements fund pursuant to subsection (b)(4)(C).

(b) The initial exemption request shall identify the property for which the exemption is requested and state, in detail, the legal and factual basis for the exemption claimed.

(c) The request for exemption shall be filed with the county appraiser of the county where such property is principally located.

(d) After a review of the exemption request, and after a preliminary examination of the facts as alleged, the county appraiser shall recommend that the exemption request either be granted or denied, and, if necessary, that a hearing be held. If a denial is recommended, a statement of the controlling facts and law relied upon shall be included on the form.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: Kansas has a vital interest in limiting state debt and that of local governments. High debt levels can harm bond ratings, increasing borrowing costs and taxes. Good policy also ensures that as many education dollars as possible be used for classroom instruction. SB 19 prioritizes classroom spending and fiscal prudence by empowering the State Board to limit total district indebtedness to current levels. Fast growing districts, those whose buildings have safety concerns, and ones that have not issued bonds for 25 years will keep priority for debt financing to build and renovate facilities. I vote yes.—JIM DENNING

Madam President: We vote “no” on SB 19. Addressing the Court’s concern over adequacy doesn’t require additional overall funding. It requires that funding be allocated to benefit the students at risk of not achieving state outcomes. This bill does nothing to ensure that the allocation of funds, once appropriated, will actually benefit those children. There’s no accountability. The State is held accountable; why not the schools, whose teachers and leaders deliver the education product? What good is having the Legislature “reasonably calculate” an amount if there’s no accountability built in to ensure the schools’ allocation of resources is “reasonably calculated” to achieve results? Our constituents deserve better.—MARY PILCHER-COOK Senators Fitzgerald and Senator Masterson request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pilcher-Cook on SB 19.

Madam President: While I like the increase in base state aid and the changes to at-risk and ELL weightings, I still count 11 equity violations and 4 adequacy violations. This bill benefits property rich districts and not those who need it most. It doesn't do enough for our rural and urban schools unless they raise their own taxes. We can stick our head in the sand and hope the Court does what we want - give us more time if we don't get it right this time. But we have known about these things since the ruling in March and 2 years of the unconstitutional Block grants. Many in this room have dismissed this as a concern but the State has lost that bet the last 11 times. It's wrong to put our kids, schools and communities through this. I vote no.—LYNN ROGERS Senators Hawk and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Rogers on SB 19.

Madam President: I have serious concerns about this bill but I am a reluctant yes. I am voting yes so that our districts can begin preparing for the next school year. Not knowing is more harmful and our school boards need to set their budgets. I believe we will see this again and hopefully then we will address these concerns and craft a better bill.—DINAH SYKES

Senators Kelly, Skubal and Taylor request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Sykes on SB 19.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROTEST

Protest of Senate Hensley

Against the Conference Committee Report for Senate Bill 19

June 5, 2017

Madam President: I hereby exercise my right under Article 2, Section 10, of the Kansas Constitution to protest the Conference Committee Report for Senate Bill 19 ("CCR for SB 19").

The Kansas Constitution in Article 6, Section 6, subsection (b) provides "[t]he legislature shall make suitable provision for the finance of the educational interests of the state." Over the last 30 years the Kansas Supreme Court has heard several lawsuits challenging the legislature's failure to meet this constitutional obligation. The Court has identified two basic constitutional requirements in school finance cases, equitable distribution of funds reasonably calculated to meet each child's educational needs and adequate funding so that schools can meet the demands placed upon them.

On March 2, 2017, the Kansas Supreme Court issued its decision in Gannon v. State of Kansas (Gannon IV) and found that "[u]nder the facts of this case, the state's public education financing system provided by the legislature for grades K-12, through its structure and implementation, is not reasonably calculated to have all Kansas public education students meet or exceed the . . . Rose standards . . . presently codified in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 72-1127." The Court further directed that "[o]nce a new financing system is enacted, the State will have to satisfactorily demonstrate to this court by June 30, 2017, that its proposed remedy is reasonably calculated to address the constitutional violates identified, as well as comports with previously identified constitutional mandates such as equity."

The CCR for SB 19 fails to satisfy both the adequacy and equity requirements of the Kansas Constitution in several significant areas.

1. Adequate funding. CCR for SB 19 provides only $294 million in new K-12 money in the next two school years. This means the per pupil amount will only grow from $4,006 to $4,128 over that same period. While this is an increase in base state aid from what was provided in CLASS, it falls far short of achieving the high-water mark of $4,400 in the 2008-2009 school year, meaning that five years from now we will still be below where we were eight years ago.

In finding that student achievement demonstrated in CLASS's implementation was not reasonably calculated to meet the Rose standards, the Court found a correlation between funding and achievement and noted CLASS's unconstitutionality was due to underfunding. The Court further instructed that actual costs remain a valid factor to be considered in determining constitutional adequacy under Article 6 and instructed the state to not ignore the legislatively commissioned cost studies in creating a remedy.

The Kansas State Board of Education has recommended $893 million in new money over the same period as funded in the CCR for SB 19. The cost studies commissioned by the legislature estimated a need for $1.4 billion of new money for K-12. By whatever measurement used, it is clear that CCR for SB 19 is woefully inadequate in funding for our schools which puts us in clear violation of the Kansas Constitution.

2. At-Risk 10% Floor. The 10% at-risk floor contained in this report provides $2 million a year in additional money for two school districts while many other districts with more at-risk students than free-lunch students do not get extra funds for their at-risk students. There is no cost-based reasoning for this funding and its implementation is structurally flawed. This is both an adequacy and equity violation.

3. High Density At-Risk. The high-density at-risk student weighting provides that when the enrollment of a school or school district is at least 50% at-risk students, the school or school district will receive a high-density at-risk weighting equal to 10.5 percent of the at-risk students of the district. The change to a school level as opposed to the school district level provides $1.9 million in additional funding to two school districts while leaving roughly half of the other school districts with nothing. This is structurally flawed as it provides supports to individual schools as opposed to school districts as a whole. This is an adequacy violation.

4. Ancillary School Facilities Weighting. The Ancillary weighting allows districts to acquire additional money to defray the costs associated with commencing the operation of new facilities. It benefits primarily five districts with $24 million additional local funding that is not equalized.

5. Declining Enrollment Weighting. The Declining Enrollment weighting is allowed for two districts. These districts will be able to raise $3.7 million from increases in their LOB above 31%. Low valuation districts are not able to access these funds which results in inequity.

6. Cost-of-Living Weighting. The Cost-of-Living Weighting will allow for six districts to raise $20 million in unequalized local funding while 21 districts qualify for it. The inclusion of the protest petition also means that not all qualifying districts will be able to access the funds.

7. Extraordinary Declining Enrollment. CCR for SB 19 provides $2,593,452 in one-time money for school districts with extraordinary declining enrollment. There is no cost-based reasoning for this funding making it difficult to defend based on equity.

8. Local Option Budget. Prior Local Option Budget authorization is grandfathered in this report providing 44 districts an extra $30 million in funding due to an additional 3% of LOB authority without an election while other school districts will be required to obtain taxpayer approval for an increase in their LOB. There is no cost-based reasoning for this funding making it difficult to defend based on equity.

9. Local Option Budget Equalization. LOB equalization changes create inequity by changing the assessed valuation per pupil (AVPP) from calculating on current year to using prior year numbers, then after FY 2019 changes again to an average of the prior three years. This method will delay equalization to districts with declining AVPP and allows some districts with increasing AVPP to retain unwarranted equalization money.

10. Artificial Local Option Budget Base Aid. The Artificial Local Option Budget Base Aid allows for the use of a base aid amount of $4,490 for purposes of calculating the LOB authority for local school districts if the base aid is less than $4,490. This artificial number has been indexed beginning in the 2019-2020 school year using a 3-year rolling average CPI. Meaning the actual base aid will never catch-up to the artificial base used for calculating LOB authority. This lacks any cost-based reasoning and is inequitable.

11. Capital Outlay Equalization. Capital Outlay Equalization changes operate in the same manner as LOB equalization and will result in the same inequity.

12. Expansion of Capital Outlay Fund Usage. The Capital Outlay Fund usage has been expanded for the addition of utility expenses and property and casualty insurance which creates a major equity violation. Property and Casualty Insurance expenses are approximately $35 million statewide while utility expenses are approximately $106 million statewide. The inclusion of both of these in Capital Outlay would be an expansion by 53%. Expanding the use of a wealth limited fund allows districts with high wealth to shift vastly more operating expenditures into capital outlay, freeing up their general fund or LOB for offering additional educational opportunities to their students. Districts with lower wealth will not have the same ability to shift expenditures as wealthy districts.

13. Miscellaneous Problems.

a. Tax Credit for Low Income Students Scholarship. This program is now expanded to individuals and LLCs to take advantage of the tax credit. This program contributes nothing to solve the adequacy problem while draining resources away from the state general funds needed to meet constitutional responsibilities.

b. Virtual Schools. Virtual Schools continue despite having little to no data showing contribution to the outcomes necessary to meet constitutional responsibilities. For those reasons, it is clear that the CCR for SB 19 does not meet the constitutional requirements of the Gannon decision. This is in no way constitutional or acceptable for the school children of Kansas. – ANTHONY HENSLEY

Dear Heavenly Creator, the women and men in this Kansas Senate have been blessed with a tremendous privilege and responsibility. We are collectively tasked to provide good stewardship for this bountiful and beautiful state we love and call Kansas. Yet as we toil in this historic chamber to craft solutions that meet our constituents' needs, our own human frailties cause us to struggle. At times our ignorance, arrogance, fears, and restlessness sidetrack our work, leading us astray from doing those good deeds required to realize Your chosen path for our great state and nation. Today, we humbly come before You and ask you for good sense and principled decision-making. We come before you and ask for modesty. We come before you and ask for courage. We come before you and ask for patience. And with Your divine strength, may we go forth in our work here today, hopeful that not only will our efforts be of great benefit to our fellow citizens but ultimately pleasing to You as well. Amen

REGARDING VETO OF SENATE BILL 30

I appreciate the efforts of members during this intense lawmaking process. We have worked hard in Kansas to move our tax policy toward a pro-growth orientation. Unfortunately, Senate Bill 30 takes us backward in that effort. We can and we must balance our budget without negatively harming Kansas families.

Accordingly, pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 (a) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby veto Senate Bill 30.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1757—

A RESOLUTION urging President Donald J. Trump to grant a full pardon to Shane Cox and Jeremy Kettler.

WHEREAS, Under the Second Amendment Protection Act (SAPA), passed into law in 2013, all firearms, firearm accessories, including silencers, and ammunition manufactured and sold within the borders of Kansas, are wholly governed by Kansas law; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Shane Cox, a law-abiding resident of Kansas and father of an active-duty member of the military, was a manufacturer of firearms and firearm accessories in Kansas in full compliance with SAPA; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Cox subsequently sold a silencer that he manufactured in compliance with Kansas law to Mr. Jeremy Kettler, also a law-abiding Kansas resident and a veteran of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan; and

WHEREAS, Both Mr. Cox and Mr. Kettler were subsequently indicted by a federal grand jury on several counts for violating federal laws. On November 14, 2016, Mr. Cox was convicted on eight counts for illegally making and marketing firearms. Mr. Kettler was convicted on one count for purchasing a silencer without registering it under the National Firearms Act; and

WHEREAS, The federal court based part of their conviction on a Kansas law that criminalized the possession of sound suppressors in Kansas which was enacted prior to SAPA, and which, due to an oversight, was left unchanged; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Cox and Mr. Kettler relied, to their detriment, on a law that authorized them to do the very acts that they were convicted of; and

WHEREAS, There was no intent on the part of Mr. Cox or Mr. Kettler to circumvent federal law. Instead, they were merely doing what they understood to be permitted under Kansas law; and

WHEREAS, But for their reliance on the Kansas law, a law they thought protected them, these two upstanding men would not have felony convictions on their records: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we urge President Donald J. Trump to grant a full pardon to Shane Cox and Jeremy Kettler; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States of America, the United States Attorney General, the Kansas Attorney General, the Governor of the State of Kansas and each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

Journal of the Senate

EIGHTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, June 7, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Lynn was excused.

Senator Anthony Hensley delivered the invocation followed by the singing of the Lord's Prayer by Doug Bowen from Topeka First UMC:

Edward Everett Hale was a Unitarian Minister who became chaplain of the United States Senate in 1903 at the age of 81.

He was once asked, "Do you pray for the Senators, Dr. Hale?" To which he responded, "No, I look at the Senators and I pray for the country."

Today, I pray for the Senators in the tradition of our former chaplain, Fred Holloman, who prayed using poetry. Let us pray:

The first names in the roll call are Alley, Baumgardner, Berger and Bollier,
Help them through this, yet another day.

Next are Bowers, Denning and Doll,

Give them your strength to answer the call.

Then there's Estes, Faust-Goudeau and Fitzgerald, too,

Let them feel refreshed as we start this day anew.

Francisco, Givens and Goddard,

Please make their job easier not harder.

Haley, Hardy, Hawk and Hensley,

Help them to be the best persons they can be.

Hilderbrand, Holland, Kerschen and Longbine,

Grant them your blessings so divine.

Lynn, Masterson, Olson, Petersen and Pettey,

They need your helping hand so steady.

Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Rogers and Schmidt,

May you give them the stamina to never quit.

Skubal, Sullentrop and Sykes,

We pray we won't work too late tonight.

Taylor, Tyson, Wagle and Wilborn,

Bestow upon them the energy to stay in top form.

As I read through the roll, I intentionally left out,

Three of our fellow Senators whose work is so devout.

They are spending their time on behalf of us,

Negotiating with the House on the bill called Omnibus.
 They're the Senate conferees, this team of three,
 Senators McGinn, Billinger and Kelly.
 And as we pray to you on Day One Hundred and Ten,
 Provide them the wisdom to bring this session to an end. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Patsy was well known for her work in the community as an advocate for the arts as well as other community based organizations. I have known Patsy since the early 80's when she worked for Hutchinson Community College's public radio station, a position that she held for over 18 years. As a fellow freshman legislator she was active in the women's caucus and was a frequent poster on Facebook, in fact she posted at 5:30 am the day that she passed away. (a) Except as otherwise provided by subsection (b), (d) or (h), all revenue received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the following manner: (1) One-half of all revenue received by the director of taxation shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the proportion that the total tangible property tax levies made in such county in the preceding year for all funds of each such governmental unit bear to the total of all such levies made in the preceding year; and (2) one-half of all revenue received by the director of taxation from such countywide retailers' sales tax shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county, first to the county that portion of the revenue equal to the proportion that the population of the county residing in the unincorporated area of the county bears to the total population of the county, and second to the cities in the proportion that the population of each city bears to the total population of the county, except that no persons residing within the Fort Riley military reservation shall be included in the determination of the population of any city located within Riley county. All revenue apportioned to a county shall be paid to its county treasurer and shall be credited to the general fund of the county.

(b) (1) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), all revenue received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed within Johnson county at the rate of 0.75%, 1% or 1.25% after July 1, 2007, shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the following manner: (A) The revenue received from the first 0.5% rate of tax shall be apportioned in the manner prescribed by subsection (a); and (B) the revenue received from the rate of tax exceeding 0.5% shall be apportioned as follows: (i) One-fourth shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the proportion that the total tangible property tax levies made in such county in the preceding year for all funds of each such governmental unit bear to the total of all such levies made in the preceding year; (ii) one-fourth shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county, first to the county that portion of the revenue equal to the proportion that the population of the county residing in the unincorporated area of the county bears to the total population of the county, and second to the cities in the proportion that the population of each city bears to the total population of the county; and (iii) one-half shall be retained by the county for its sole use and benefit.

(2) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), all money received by the director of taxation from a countywide sales tax imposed within Montgomery county pursuant to the election held on November 8, 1994, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged. All revenue apportioned and paid from the imposition of such tax to the treasurer of any city prior to the effective date of this act shall be remitted to the county treasurer and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged.

The ad valorem property tax levy of any county or city district entity or subdivision shall be included within this term if the levy of any such district entity or subdivision is applicable to all tangible property located within each such city or county.

(2) For the purposes of subsections (a) and (b), any ad valorem property tax levied on property located in a city in Johnson county for the purpose of providing fire protection service in such city shall be included within the term "total tangible property tax levies" for such city regardless of its applicability to all tangible property located within each such city. If the tax is levied by a district which extends across city boundaries, for purposes of this computation, the amount of such levy shall be apportioned among each city in which such district extends in the proportion that such tax levied within each city bears to the total tax levied by the district.

(d) (1) All revenue received from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 12-187(b)(2), (3)(C), (3)(F), (3)(G), (6), (7), (8), (9), (12), (14), (15), (16), (17), (18), (19), (20), (22), (23), (25), (27), (28), (29), (30) ~~and~~ (31) ~~and~~ (32), and amendments thereto, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged.

(e) All revenue apportioned to the several cities of the county shall be paid to the respective treasurers thereof and deposited in the general fund of the city. Whenever the territory of any city is located in two or more counties and any one or more of such counties do not levy a countywide retailers' sales tax, or whenever such counties do not levy countywide retailers' sales taxes at a uniform rate, the revenue received by such city from the proceeds of the countywide retailers' sales tax, as an alternative to depositing the same in the general fund, may be used for the purpose of reducing the tax levies of such city upon the taxable tangible property located within the county levying such countywide retailers' sales tax.

(f) Prior to March 1 of each year, the secretary of revenue shall advise each county treasurer of the revenue collected in such county from the state retailers' sales tax for the preceding calendar year.

(f) Upon receipt of the request for exemption, the board shall docket the same and notify the applicant and the county appraiser of such fact.

In the event that taxes have been assessed against the subject property, no interest shall accrue on any unpaid tax for the year or years in question nor shall the unpaid tax be considered delinquent from the date the request is filed with the county appraiser until the expiration of 30 days after the board issued its order thereon. In the event the board determines an application for exemption is without merit and filed in bad faith to delay the due date of the tax, the tax shall be considered delinquent as of the date the tax would have been due pursuant to K.S.A. 79-2004 and 79-2004a, and amendments thereto, and interest shall accrue as prescribed therein.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: It is unfortunate that after many years of study in legislative interim and standing committees, in which year after year expose the deficiencies in our child welfare system, we are once again back to the drawing board. It is the job of all child care agencies, departments, and providers to work together on a daily basis to provide safety and security for our most vulnerable families and children. This is their collective job. The job is not being done. It is my hope and desire that the task force will provide clear purpose and direction with aggressive standards and outcomes to hold all agencies and providers accountable. This is the Kansas Way.—JULIA LYNN
