§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sunday excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

Whenever an amendment adopted by the Senate has materially changed the subject of a bill or resolution, the title of the bill or resolution so amended shall be read in the manner prescribed for the introduction of bills or resolutions, and take its place upon the Calendar under the order of business Final Action.

Rule 73. Subject Change by House. Whenever the House adopts amendments to a Senate bill or senate concurrent resolution which materially changes its subject, upon return of such bill or resolution to the Senate, the title of such bill or resolution shall be read in the manner prescribed for the introduction of bills or resolutions and such bill or resolution shall be referred as provided in Rule 32 (reference of bills and resolutions).

Rule 74. Determination of When Subject of Bill or Resolution Materially Changed. The President may determine when a bill or resolution is subject to Rule 72 (subject matter of bill or resolution materially changed by senate amendment) or Rule 73 (subject matter of senate bill or senate concurrent resolution materially changed by house amendment). The President's determination under this rule, that a bill or resolution has been materially changed is subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member. A 2/3 vote of the members of the Senate present and voting shall be required to overturn the ruling of the chair. The vote on an appeal to the Senate under this rule shall not be a roll call vote. Every appeal under this rule shall be taken without debate.

Rule 75. Executive Reorganization Orders. When an executive reorganization order is received from the Governor, it shall be referred to an appropriate committee by the President. The committee to which an executive reorganization order is referred shall report its recommendations thereon, by recommending adoption of a Senate resolution, not later than the 60th calendar day of any regular session and not later than 30 calendar days after it has received such referral whichever occurs first. If a committee fails to report upon an executive reorganization order within the time specified in this rule, such committee shall be deemed to have returned the same to the Senate without recommendation. When a report or return of an executive reorganization is made, it and all resolutions for approval or disapproval thereof shall be made the special order of business in accordance with Rule 6 (special order of business) at a time not later than the last day the executive reorganization order may be disapproved under section 6 of article 1 of the Constitution of Kansas. Rule 76. Censure or Expulsion. Whenever three or more Senators desire to lodge a complaint against any other Senator requesting that the Senator be censured or expelled for misconduct, the complaining Senators shall sign and file a written statement of such complaint with the Secretary of the Senate. In such event, the President shall appoint a select committee for consideration thereof composed of five Senators, no more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party, and none of whom shall have signed the complaint to be considered. The select committee may dismiss the complaint after inquiry or may set the matter for hearing. Reasonable notice and an opportunity to appear shall be afforded the Senator against whom a complaint has been filed. Select committees meeting under authority of this section shall be authorized to meet and exercise compulsory process without further authorization, subject only to the limitations and conditions prescribed in article 10 of chapter 46 of Kansas Statutes Annotated. Upon completing its hearing and deliberations thereon the select committee may dismiss the complaint or may submit a recommendation to the full Senate for censure or expulsion, and upon receiving such report the Senate may without further hearing or investigation censure or expel the member against whom the complaint was filed. Censure or expulsion of a Senator under this rule shall require a 2/3 majority vote of those members elected (or appointed) and qualified.

Rule 77. Taking from the Table. The affirmative vote of a 2/3 majority of all Senators then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall be required for the adoption of a motion to take any question or proposition from the table after the adoption of a motion to table or lay such question or proposition on the table. The provisions of this rule shall apply to motions both in standing committees and the Senate.

Rule 78. Placing Material on Members' Desks. JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 2017-2018

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 30, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on January 29, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 8, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 7, 2018, during the 2018 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 6, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 5, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 10, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 9, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 23, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and on February 22, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 30, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and March 29, 2018, during the 2018 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the legislature after April 7, 2017, during the 2017 regular session and after April 6, 2018, during the 2018 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the House of Representatives, any standing committee of the Senate, the Legislative Coordinating Council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the House of Representatives or the Senate, the House of Representatives in session, the Senate in session or a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the State of Kansas.

Joint rule 6. Floor amendments to bills making appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no amendment from the floor in either house of the legislature to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill. Notwithstanding any rule in either house of the legislature, those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this rule shall be indivisible.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT WAGLE

To my colleagues: thank you all for the votes of confidence you've given me today to lead this body as we get to work on behalf of our fellow Kansans. I am deeply humbled by your support, and it is truly an honor to serve in this distinguished chamber as your Senate President for another term. Four years ago, I committed to each of you that I would lead in an inclusive manner. I promised that my door would always be open, and while we ultimately would not all agree on every issue that came before us, I committed to work hard to ensure that every Senator be heard, appreciated and respected. Your vote today is affirmation that we are truly a partnership, with each of us holding an equal stake in managing the affairs that come before us as we set out on our quest for a Better Kansas.

I would also like to thank my family. Most of all, my husband, Tom, who as a legislative spouse has always taken on extra family duties in my absence; my children, who continue to support their mom participating in elective politics, even though they have seen misrepresentations broadcast over social media; and my grandchildren, some of whom have yet to experience climbing the top of the dome. As you can see, some of them are still growing into that very special experience we provide for our Capitol visitors.

As you all know, when we take the oath of office, our families take an oath, too: to understand when we have to miss soccer games or piano recitals, to ignore the sometimes not-so-flattering headlines that include our names, and to support us through the ups and downs. So, to all the families and friends here today, I'd like to personally thank you for the sacrifices you make so that your loved ones may serve our great state.

In recent weeks, I've had the good fortune of speaking to Kansans from all walks of life at a variety of public events. Candidly, I've also spoken to many understandably frustrated Kansans.

I remind these Kansans that legislators don't run for office for fame or fortune – in fact, quite the contrary. It often seems like the news and the media are often more critical than they are supportive of the positions legislators take on policy issues, and the salary received for the commitment and time inherently required to be a legislator is woefully short of what similar labor would earn in the open market.

This leads me to reminding Kansans why legislators do run for office.

As a veteran of this community, I'm proud to share with Kansans that legislators run for office because they have a cause. They think something needs to be fixed. And they think they can fix it. They are optimists. They are “can do” personalities. They relish the thought of a challenge and their singular objective is to improve the quality of life for their families, their neighbors, and other Kansans.

As I look around this room, I know that each and every one of you fit this mold. Your ideas and experiences are going to be vital to the success of this body during this critical period in our state’s history. I hope that we can hold to our convictions, find common ground, share our message with our constituents, and get this economy back to working for Kansans. Now is the time for bold ideas.

2017 promises to be a historic year. While we certainly have our challenges, if we work together, we will ensure that history is kind to us. Today, we face a record $350 million shortfall. Kansans must balance their budgets and live within their means – they rightfully expect the same of their elected officials. We will soon learn of the Governor’s recommendations for addressing this devastating metric: we will roll up our sleeves, and we will get to work. It will be incumbent upon this legislative body to remain united and to act swiftly. The sooner we provide budget stability and predictability, the better our state-funded entities will be able to adjust. We know the challenges we have ahead of us, but we’re ready to find permanent solutions to these challenges.

The eyes of the state and the nation will be on us – and I promise, as the leader of this body, to work relentlessly to create a Better Kansas. We will be required to balance the needs of individual taxpayers and businesses against the needs of funding our basic services. It will be a daunting, and at times, overwhelming task. A task where I, and your leadership team, will need to be open to your recommendations, and where you, likewise, will need to be open to all the voices who want to share their concerns back home.

To that end, it is my hope that we provide long-term budget solutions and stability for the State of Kansas this year. It is also my goal that our budget resolution encourages all Kansans and sparks a new optimism in our residents. Ultimately, our solution must inspire Kansans to open their checkbooks, make home and auto investments, and plant their roots in the state, and it must inspire businesses to also invest and grow. Upward mobility, prosperity and opportunity for all Kansans must be our unified vision, our ultimate objective, the end we seek, as we resolve our shortfall in the coming weeks. Taken together, these inputs will produce a Better Kansas. Now, let’s get to work.

REMARKS BY MINORITY LEADER HENSLEY

Madam President: On behalf of the Senate Democratic caucus, I first want to congratulate you on your re-election to another term as President of the Kansas Senate. You have once again made history by being the first woman to be re-elected Senate President and we applaud you for that.

I also take this opportunity to congratulate the other Senate Republicans who were elected to their caucus leadership positions. The members of our caucus look forward to working with you over the next four years.

We pledge to work with you but also realize that there will be those times in the process when we will “agree to disagree.”

I want to thank my fellow Democratic Senators for electing me to once again serve as their leader. This is a high honor you have given me and I will do my best to represent you.

I especially want to welcome the fourteen new Senators to my hometown and to this historic chamber. I can assure you that even after 40 years of serving my constituents in the Kansas Legislature, I am excited as always to begin a new term and a new legislative session. And, I welcome our family members to the Senate and thank them for supporting us during the 2016 election campaigns. I also thank you in advance for your patience and understanding while we are away from you during our time spent here in this legislative session and the sessions ahead.

I've always believed that the two-party system of government is good for the political process and good for the people of Kansas. That is why I thank the men and women who put their name and reputation on the line to run for state senate on the Democratic ticket.

But, now that the elections are over, and the oaths of office have been administered, we begin the legislative process of debating and deciding public policy.

It goes without saying that we face several major challenges in the 2017 session, not the least of which is a $350 million shortfall in the current fiscal year, developing a new school finance formula, restoring basic fairness to our state's tax system, keeping rural hospitals open, and maintaining the best possible safety net for the people of Kansas, particularly the most vulnerable among us.

I know I speak for our caucus when I express my hope that we will meet these challenges in a spirit of inclusion and bi-partisanship.

I'm also hopeful that we take to heart Dwight Eisenhower's advice on the east wall of the Capitol visitor's center: "The opportunist thinks of me and today. The statesman thinks of us and tomorrow."

In previous debates on this floor, I have on several occasions referred to Presidential history.

This year, 2017, marks the 100th anniversary of the birth of the first and so far only Roman Catholic to have been elected President of the United States.

Indelibly etched in my memory is going to Sunday school in 1960 and being asked by one of my classmates who my dad was going to vote for. And, while I was only 7 years old, I knew the answer to his question.

My dad was voting for John F. Kennedy, to which my classmate responded, "Oh, he shouldn't vote for Kennedy because Kennedy's a Catholic."

Well, I didn't know what that meant for sure, so I asked my dad, "What's wrong with being a Catholic?" My dad said, "Nothing. I'm voting for Kennedy because he's the best man for the job." And, of course, he was also the Democrat.

Then and there, I learned a valuable lesson from my dad. Never judge or look down on people because of their religion. Unfortunately, I believe that is a lesson lost on many people these days.

President Kennedy inspired an entire generation of young Americans to become involved in public service.

From the astronauts who walked on the moon to the 220,000 Americans who have worked in the Peace Corps in 141 countries over the past 55 years, President Kennedy left an everlasting legacy of hope and goodwill for people across the globe.

All of us recall that famous quote from his Inaugural Address: “Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country.”

But, I conclude these remarks with something else he said in that speech – not nearly as well known, but every bit as important. And, I believe applicable for us today as we begin to do the people’s work.

He finished his speech with this: “With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God’s work must truly be our own.”

Let us lead the state we love doing God’s work to improve the lives of the people of Kansas.

Every question of order shall be decided by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member. The vote on an appeal to the Senate under this rule shall not be a roll call vote. Every appeal on a question of order shall be taken without debate.

Rule 18. Explaining Votes. Senators may explain their votes only upon the call of their names upon any roll call vote, but not more than two minutes shall be allowed for any explanation. The explanation shall be inserted in the Journal if the Senator makes a request at the time of voting or makes a request of the Secretary of the Senate prior to adjournment, and the written explanation is presented to the Secretary of the Senate during or within two hours following that day's adjournment on the same legislative day. Such statements shall be made either immediately before or immediately after the vote is called but before the result is announced. The question on excusing any Senator from voting shall be taken without debate and a majority of those voting shall be necessary to excuse the Senator. If a Senator refuses to vote, when not excused, such refusal shall constitute contempt and the President shall, in such case, order the offending Senator before the bar of the Senate and all privileges of membership shall be refused such Senator until the contempt is corrected as determined by vote of the Senate.

Rule 20. When Not Permitted to Vote. No Senator shall be allowed to vote unless the Senator is seated in the Senator's assigned seat within the Senate chamber when the vote is taken.

Rule 21. Filling Certain Vacancies. (a) When a vacancy occurs in the office of President and the Legislature is adjourned to a date more than 60 days after the occurrence of the vacancy, the Senate shall meet within 30 days and elect a member to fill the vacancy. The Vice President shall within 10 days of such occurrence issue a call for the meeting at a time not less than 10 days and not more than 20 days after the date of the call.

(b) When a vacancy occurs in the office of Vice President or majority leader of the Senate, and the Legislature is adjourned to a date more than 30 days after the occurrence of the vacancy, the President shall appoint an acting Vice President or acting majority leader to serve until the convening of the next session of the Legislature, at which time the vacancy shall be filled as though the acting interim appointment had not been made.

(c) When a vacancy occurs in the office of minority leader of the Senate and the Legislature is adjourned to a date more than 30 days after the occurrence of the vacancy, the assistant minority leader shall become the acting minority leader to serve until the convening of the next session of the Legislature, at which time the vacancy shall be filled as though the acting minority leader had not so served.

(d) It is the intention of this rule that any person elected, appointed or designated to serve in accordance herewith to fill a vacancy shall exercise all of the duties and powers of the office so filled.

Rule 22. Party Affiliation – Change. If any Senator changes political party affiliation: (1) From the political party of such Senator at the time of the Senator's election; or (2) if the Senator was appointed, from the political party of the district convention which elected such person to be so appointed, the following shall apply:

(a) Such Senator shall be removed from all memberships on standing and other committees, from all positions of chairperson or vice chairperson of a standing or other committee, and from any office of the Senate held at the time of such change. The Committee on Organization, Calendar and Rules shall appoint a Senator to fill any vacancy which arises under this subpart (a).

(b) The proportion of Senators from major political parties on each standing committee originally determined under Rule 7 (providing for proportional representation of members of political parties upon standing committees) shall not be altered. The Committee on Organization, Calendar and Rules shall fill each standing committee member position vacated by such Senator by appointing a Senator of the political party from which such Senator changed.

Rule 23. Open Meetings Provisions. The open meeting law (K.S.A. 75-4317 et seq., and amendments thereto) shall apply to meetings of the Senate and all of its standing committees, select committees, special committees and subcommittees of any of such committees. Caucuses of Senate majority and minority parties and meetings of the Committee on Organization, Calendar and Rules and its subcommittees may be closed.

Rule 26. Motions in Order When Question Under Debate. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be in order, except:

Not Debatable

1. To fix time to which to adjourn.
2. To adjourn.
3. To lay on the table.
4. For the previous question.
5. To recess to a time certain.

Debatable

6. To postpone to a day certain.
7. To commit to a standing committee.
8. To commit to a special committee.
9. To commit to the Committee of the Whole.

The several motions specified in this rule shall have precedence in the order named and the first four shall be decided without debate.

Rule 27. Division of Question. (a) If the question in debate contains several points, any Senator may have the same divided, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible. When a bill or resolution is under consideration in the Senate and after debate is concluded and final action has been announced on the bill or resolution, a request for division of question shall not be in order.

(b) A request for division of question shall be in writing specifying the manner in which the question is to be divided.

(c) The rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 28. Reconsideration of Pending Matters. SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 10, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we're experiencing the early days...the embryonic stage of this new legislative session. As the birth of a new baby is filled with great hopes and dreams, let the birthing process of this new legislature carry with it optimistic thinking and bright expectations for the future. Whenever our thinking is out of line...and Lord, You know we get that way sometimes, we need You to Parent us...to guide us...to discipline us until we put aside childlike considerations. We're grown up in here. So help us to act like it. Help us to think and act with love and maturity. Like the young little engine needing the power and the will to pull a heavy load, Lord give us the power and the will to deal with the heavy load under this dome. Give us the determined mindset of "I think I can, I think I can, I think I can!" You said in Proverbs 23:7, that the way a person thinks is key to the way they are. So Lord help us to think and think and think, until we're thinking in harmony with Your Word, Your will and Your way. Take us to the day, when we can look back and say, I thought we could...I believed we could...I knew we could. In Jesus Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Heavenly Father, You have appointed some of the finest...and some of the most compassionate minds in this state to serve Your people. You've blessed us with servants who possess a rich, abundance of knowledge. But Lord, in addition to the vast knowledge...the broad accumulation of information, we need Your wisdom...that which surpasses mere human wisdom. We need to know how to use all this knowledge. And with the application of Your wisdom, You'll also give us understanding. We'll understand why self-guidance so often fails in light of Your guidance. Lord, You've given us Your Scriptures in 1 Kings, chapter 3, regarding King Solomon. Like us, he was blessed with the responsibility to serve. And like him, we're humbly in need of Your guidance. We're crying out to You that we might serve in a way that pleases You and blesses Your people. Thanks for the honor of serving. I come to You in the name of Jesus, Amen and Amen.

SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 17, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

The President introduced guest chaplain Reverend Gary Roten from Emmanuel Baptist Church, Topeka, who delivered the following invocation:

Jesus, thank You for these gathered here today. As a United States citizen, as a Kansas citizen, Jesus, as a Christian, I pray to You this day. Remind these here today they are public servants. Help them be our agents of stability in the state of Kansas. I pray for these in our Kansas Senate. I pray they will either continue to see or find God in their lives, for You are a God who is ALIVE. Jesus, in our state we still keep hearing a lot about money. We hear words like taxes, gas prices, groceries, jobs, renewable energy. We hear about rising healthcare cost. We hear of wasting money and that we need to provide for education. We hear we need to get control of costs and rebuild our economy. We keep hearing the state is not receiving enough taxes to fund current programs. Those who now gather have decisions to make. Those who now gather carry the burden of helping to choose the direction of our state. Give them the wisdom to solve our state's funding and budget challenges. Give them the courage to solve our state's funding and budget challenges. Help them. Guide them. I also pray for the individuals in this room. Some of them are also carrying burdens and worries in their personal life. You also brought me here this day to tell them that You love them. That You know of their challenges and Your desire for them to trust You. Amen

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1704—

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending Timothy (Tim) R. Graham for his years of dedicated service to Senate Democratic Leader Anthony Hensley, the Kansas Senate Democratic Caucus, and the people of Kansas.

WHEREAS, Timothy (Tim) R. Graham graduated from Fort Hays State University in May of 2000 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and a minor in History. He was admitted to Pi Sigma Alpha, the National Political Science Honor Society, which recognizes students for high academic achievement in the field of political science; and

WHEREAS, Prior to his graduation from Fort Hays State University, Tim served as an intern in the Kansas House of Representatives for Eber Phelps, driving from Hays to Topeka at least once a week to spend a full day at the Statehouse. Later that year, he took off a semester from school to work full-time as a Field Director for the Kansas Democratic Party in the 1998 election campaigns; and

WHEREAS, Tim first started working for Senator Hensley in the 2000 elections as a field organizer in Sedgwick County. His first session working in the Kansas Senate was in 2001, where he was the Special Assistant on Redistricting for the Senate Democratic Caucus. Tim was instrumental in drafting a Senate redistricting map initially approved by a bi-partisan group of 21 Senators, but vetoed by Governor Graves with suggested changes that would meet the Governor's approval. The final version of the map passed with 29 Senators voting for it and the Governor signing it into law; and

WHEREAS, Tim became Chief of Staff for Senator Hensley in August 2003, where he served continuously, except for nine months in 2010 when he was the Assistant Kansas Secretary of State. He worked in 16 legislative sessions and three special sessions under four different Governors and with 97 different Senators. Upon his resignation last month, only two Senators had served in the Senate longer than Tim's tenure working as legislative staff in the Senate; and

WHEREAS, In his 16 years of public service, Tim forged many lasting friendships among Democratic and Republican members of both the Kansas Senate and House of Representatives. Although he worked as a partisan staff person, he was widely respected for his integrity and honest dealings with people across the political spectrum; and

WHEREAS, The political process and the Kansas Legislature have played such a significant role in Tim's life, as he and his wife, Amalia, were married in the Kansas Senate chamber on August 22, 2009. Tim and Amalia are the proud parents of their son,

Reid, who is a kindergarten student at Langston Hughes Elementary School in Lawrence: Now, therefore,

Journal of the Senate

SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, January 18, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Estes was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, In Genesis 1:14-18, You created a huge light...the sun, to govern the day and a lesser light...the moon, to govern the night. Lord, that secondary light has no light of its own. In illuminating the dark for us, it is really using the true source of light...that of the Sun. What a picture You've given us, showing how You want to use us in reflecting Your light into all that we do in these halls. Keep us focusing on You that the light of Your Spirit and the light of Your Word may permeate our discussions and decisions. When the brilliance of work accomplished in these halls is considered, remind us to deflect praise and expressions of gratefulness to You. Remind us that we have no light of our own. Keep our faces turned ever toward You. In Jesus Name, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Tyson rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to recognize David Adam LaRoche, a former professional baseball first baseman, who played 12 seasons in Major League Baseball. He is the son of pitcher Dave LaRoche and the brother of third baseman Andy LaRoche. Adam is a 1998 graduate of Fort Scott High School. He was named an All-American in baseball as a senior in high school. His uncle, Dave Regan, was his high school head coach. He played for his father at Fort Scott Community College in 1999 before transferring to Seminole Community College in Seminole, Oklahoma, in 2000, where he was an All-American and the MVP of the Junior College World Series. Adam and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter, Montana, and a son, Drake. His hobbies include fishing, hunting, and golf. He is also one of the co-owners of Outdoor Networks hunting show Buck Commander. Adam is a devout Christian who helped the Washington Nationals promote "Faith Day" at Nationals Park.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1705—

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending Coach Jeff Sims on a successful gridiron campaign during the 2016 season and for receiving multiple national coach of the year honors.

WHEREAS, Coach Sims was hired to be the head football coach at Garden City Community College on November 20, 2014, and led the team to a 3-8 season in his first year at the helm in 2015; and

WHEREAS, Coach Sims helped lead a team with a 3-8 season from the year prior, to a perfect 10-0 regular season record. As a result, the team was invited to play in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) National Championship in football, which the Broncobusters subsequently won to finish the season with an 11-0 record. This marks the first time in school history the team has finished the season with an unblemished record. The team earned its first Jayhawk Conference title since 2001 and the first football national championship in school history; and

WHEREAS, Coach Sims became the first Jayhawk Conference head coach to be named the NJCAA Coach of the Year and was also the recipient of the 2016 American Community College Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year award, which is given to the top community college football coach in the country, regardless of which junior college organization the coach belongs to; and

WHEREAS, Throughout his career, Coach Sims has focused not just on winning football games, but on developing grounded young men. This objective is encompassed in his philosophy of "graduate, scholarship and championship." Through this motto and by the way he lives his life, Coach Sims exemplifies what it means to be a leader of young men; and

WHEREAS, The love, support and encouragement of his wife, Lecia, and their three children, Dylan, Jake and Samantha, have helped Coach Sims every step of the way: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend Coach Sims on a successful season and wish him the best of luck in the future; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send three enrolled copies of this resolution to Coach Sims.

Special remarks from Senator Doll: As in many aspects, when one has spent a significant time in a profession, one develops idiosyncrasies and understanding of that profession. The coaching world is no exception. Unless one has family or friend's kids on a team, a coach or former coach will more than likely see the game in an analytical way versus who may win or lose on the scoreboard. Most watch to see if the team is growing, what kind of character they possess and if a team is disciplined. When Coach Sims took over at Garden City Community College (GCCC), the program was a mess. Watching before his arrival, I could not see any of those virtues. Again, attending games once Coach Sims took over, my soul was made lighter watching as with each game I saw improvement in those areas. I saw a man taking a program that was lacking in most areas and build it up from the ground. The process took time. At the beginning, during his first year, the results were not evident on his win and loss record, but one could see he was building it on a solid foundation. After each game, I would walk away more impressed. Sometimes the team did not necessarily play better but he was teaching not only football but life lessons. Though I had not met Coach Sims at that time, I sent him several postcards expressing my support. Last spring I finally got the opportunity to meet Coach Sims. He is an impressive individual. Late this summer he called on an issue and we met several times in his office, reinforcing my positive opinion of his coaching abilities. Each time I left I was more impressed knowing the athletes that he coached would leave his program better men. This season it all came together. GCCC won its first National Football Championship. With a championship so many accolades come with the successes. Coach Sims won not one but two "Coach of the Year" honors: National Junior College Association and the American Community College Football Association "Coach of the Year". That includes all the junior colleges in the country. This is the first time a Kansas junior college coach has won the award simultaneously. I hope you will join me in honoring Coach Sims and the Garden City Broncobusters on their National Championship.

EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, January 19, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Estes was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, Your word says, in Genesis 4:1, that Adam knew Eve and she conceived a son. They became so intimate that new life was brought forth. The prayer today is that You would help us to know You...not just to know some things about You. But, help our knowledge of You to become so intimate that new life giving ideas and ways of thinking will be conceived. In Exodus 33:13, Moses asked You to show him Your ways, that he might know You and that You'd be pleased with him. Help us to know You to the degree that we will conceive and give birth to that which is new and improved. New and improved thoughts, new and improved decisions that will bring forth new and improved lives for us, for our families and for the people we serve. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

ELEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 24, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Gracious Father, as the labor in these halls continues, what we need is Your wisdom, Your guidance and Your grace. Your wisdom, to see issues through Your eyes. Your guidance, to know what course...what problem solving steps to take; and Your grace, so we'll have the favor of Your presence and Your power to escort us on the journey. In Exodus 33:14-16, You told Moses that Your presence would accompany him and he would have peace. Often, Lord, the only REAL peace we CAN have, is that which comes from You...the Prince of Peace. And Lord, I believe that's why Moses said in verse 15, that if Your presence didn't go along, he would NOT want to go forward. So, Lord, again, as we carry out our responsibilities, give us the peace of knowing You are with us. By Your Holy Spirit, bless us with a continuing awareness that Your wisdom, Your guidance and Your grace, are an ongoing presence. Let the results of our efforts show forth that we've been led by the Hand of the Lord. In the precious name of Jesus, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

(d) The legislature may enact laws to carry out the purposes of this section.

"§ 4. Budget stabilization fund and debt prepayment fund. (a) On July 1, 2019, a budget stabilization fund and a debt prepayment fund shall be established and maintained in the state treasury.

(b) For any fiscal year that commences on or after July 1, 2019, if the total state revenue exceeds the total fiscal year spending for that fiscal year, then, on July 1 of the ensuing fiscal year, such excess amount shall be transferred according to the following priority:

(1) To the budget stabilization fund, until the balance of such fund is an amount equal to 50% of the total state general fund spending for the preceding fiscal year; and

(2) to the debt prepayment fund, until the total amount of principal of bonded indebtedness serviced by appropriations from the state general fund equals 5% of the total state general fund spending for the preceding fiscal year.

(c) The legislature may provide, by law, for additional amounts of state revenue to be deposited in the budget stabilization fund and the debt prepayment fund.

(d) Any amount required to be maintained in the ending balance of the state general fund as provided by law shall be excluded from the amount available for transfer to the budget stabilization fund or debt prepayment fund.

(e) (1) Moneys in the budget stabilization fund may be invested as provided by law and the earnings thereon shall be retained in the budget stabilization fund as provided by law.

(2) Moneys in the debt prepayment fund may be invested as provided by law and the earnings thereon shall be retained in the debt prepayment fund as provided by law.

(A) Not more than the difference between the amount of the total state revenue for the prior fiscal year and the amount of the estimated total state revenue for the current fiscal year; or

(B) 50% of the balance in the budget stabilization fund.

(2) Under no other circumstances shall moneys be transferred or expended from the budget stabilization fund.

(g) (1) Withdrawals from the debt prepayment fund may occur only to provide for calling and redeeming selected bonds for which debt service is paid by appropriations from the state general fund in accordance with their terms on or after their first optional redemption date and prior to maturity.

(2) Prior to any withdrawal from the debt prepayment fund authorized by this subsection, the governor shall be responsible for determining and selecting which bonds will produce the greatest debt service savings to the state general fund, and the attorney general shall be responsible for certifying that the selected bonds are available for optional redemption. Any withdrawal authorized by this subsection shall be provided for by law, enacted in a separate bill that does not include any other matter, except a statement that the conditions prescribed by this subsection exist, and the authority to transfer a specific amount of money from the debt prepayment fund to the state general fund for the purpose of calling and redeeming selected bonds.

(h) The legislature may enact laws to carry out the purposes of this section.

"§ 5. Disposition of excess revenues. (a) Any excess amount of total state revenues for a fiscal year that remains after the transfers to the budget stabilization fund and the debt prepayment fund pursuant to section 4 of this article, if any, shall be reserved in the current fiscal year and shall be refunded as provided by law during the next ensuing fiscal year to the taxpayers who paid the state ad valorem property taxes or state income taxes, or both, for the preceding fiscal year, in a manner that is proportional, on a pro rata basis, in the manner in which such taxes were collected from such taxpayers for such fiscal year. Any amount required to be maintained in the ending balance of the state general fund as provided by law shall be excluded from the amount available to be reserved and refunded by the state as prescribed by this section.

(b) In a case of any amount that is received pursuant to any tax and required to be reserved and refunded to taxpayers by the state pursuant to this section and that is determined by the state in the manner prescribed by law to be insufficient for refunds to be made during the ensuing fiscal year, such amount shall be reserved for refunds to be made thereafter when the amount reserved is sufficient therefor.

"§ 6. Temporary borrowing. On and after July 1, 2019, during any fiscal year, transfers that are temporary and are to be repaid, or any other temporary borrowing, through certificates of indebtedness or any other device or manner, of any moneys in the state treasury to be credited to the state general fund are prohibited, unless the moneys so transferred or otherwise borrowed are restored or repaid to the original funds or accounts of the state treasury from the state general fund within the same fiscal year. The provisions of this section do not apply to transfers from the budget stabilization fund or the debt prepayment fund to the state general fund in accordance with this article.

"§ 7. General revenue supplanting. On and after July 1, 2019, any appropriation of moneys from the state treasury that either supplants any appropriation from the state general fund, or, if not made, would require an appropriation from the state general fund is prohibited. For purposes of this section, any appropriation of moneys in the state treasury that is funded by user charges for fees imposed on goods or services provided shall not be deemed to be an appropriation that supplants any appropriation from the state general fund.

"§ 8. Construction. (a) The provisions of this article shall be liberally construed for the purpose of effectuating the purposes thereof, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to authorize any new or increased tax of any kind, other than as provided or authorized by law enacted by the legislature in accordance with and subject to the other provisions of this constitution.

(b) In any case of a conflict between any provision of this article and any other provision contained in the constitution, the provisions of this article shall control.

(c) All laws in force at the time of the adoption of this amendment and consistent therewith shall remain in full force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature. The legislature shall repeal or amend all laws inconsistent with the provisions of this article to conform with the provisions of this article."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. Beginning July 1, 2019, this amendment: (1) Would require a supermajority of $\frac{2}{3}$ of all members of the House and Senate to pass certain bills related to the creation of a new tax or the increase in the rate of an existing tax; (2) would impose spending and revenue limits on the state based on increases in the rate of inflation and population, with provisions to adjust for economic downturns or transferred functions; (3) would permit expenditures in excess of the limit imposed if authorized by a majority of the voters at a general election; (4) would provide for a budget stabilization fund to be used when state revenue declines; (5) would provide for a debt prepayment fund to be used to redeem state bonds payable from the state general fund to produce debt service savings; (6) would provide for excess state revenues, after transfers to the budget stabilization fund and debt prepayment fund, to be refunded to state property or income taxpayers; (7) would limit state temporary borrowing to that repaid within the same year and would prohibit the state from replacing general revenues with excessive fees and charges for goods and services; and (8) would govern in case of conflicts with statutes or other state constitutional provisions.

"A vote for this proposition would limit state legislative authority and would require a supermajority of $\frac{2}{3}$ of each house of the legislature for state tax increases or extensions, would impose state spending and revenue limits, would permit the legislature to exceed the spending limit upon the authorization of a majority of voters at a general election, would require excess state revenues to be reserved for economic downturns and reducing state debt, with limits, or to be refunded to taxpayers, and would limit state temporary borrowing.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the present constitutional and statutory authority for state government taxing and spending by law, for disposition of tax revenues and for other related matters in the exercise of the legislative power of this state."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2018 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at a special election.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 38 senators present.
Senators Doll and Suellentrop were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Let us pray! Let's submit our thoughts, our emotions and our wills to our God, the One to Whom we owe our very existence. Lord, it is with bowed, and humble hearts, that we stand today in these blessed, stately halls of government. You said in Romans, Chapter 13, that this authority comes from You, and that sitting in these seats of government is really by YOUR appointment. Lord, when we consider the gravity of these assignments, we're confronted with the reality that we're standing on holy ground... that serving Your people from these seats of government is actually a sacred responsibility. And Lord, for those of us that are blessed to be served, remind us to respect these servants. To honor them and pray for them. We thank You for each of them. We pray for their strength, their guidance, their protection and inner satisfaction of knowing they were used by You to bless Your people. In honor and great appreciation, I lift this prayer, in Jesus Name, Amen.

THIRTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, January 26, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 37 senators present.

Senators Doll, LaTurner, and Wagle were excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, it is with humble appreciation that we stand here today. Remind us that we couldn't be here, much less work here, were it not for Your grace and mercy. Since hours, days and times of Your blessings come and go, help us to not be lulled into a complacent forgetfulness...that it is by Your gracious Hand and favor, that we are here each day. Sometimes Lord, we forget things. We tie the proverbial string around our finger to help our memories, then we forget about the string. We forget, and then we forget that we forgot. We forget things that we've done, or said, or where we put something. We struggle to remember names and faces. Sometimes Lord, we can't remember whether we're coming or going. Did we turn the light off or leave it on? There are times when our memory seems so awfully feeble. But, Lord, there are two things we really need You to help us remember. Number one is to love You with all our soul, mind and might, while number two is to love others as we love ourselves. In Matthew 22:36-40, You said, that all the other principles we need to remember would be summed up in those two. So Lord, help us tie a proverbial love string around our fingers. And in the Name of Jesus, help us remember that it's there. Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 24, 2017

Message from the Governor Regarding Compact with Tribal Nation:

In consultation with the Attorney General and the Department of Revenue, and pursuant to my authority under Article 1, Section 3 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I have entered into the following Compact:

- Compact Relating to Cigarette and Tobacco Sales, Taxation and Escrow Collection with the Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas as of December 21, 2016.

I hereby give notice of this executive action and transmit the Compact to the Legislature for the required approval pursuant to applicable law.

SAM BROWNBACK
Governor

COMPACT RELATING TO CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO SALES, TAXATION AND ESCROW COLLECTION

THIS COMPACT RELATING TO CIGARETTE AND TOBACCO SALES, TAXATION AND ESCROW COLLECTION (“Compact”) is entered into between the Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas (along with its agencies, boards, commissions and political subdivisions, the “Tribe”) and the State of Kansas (along with its agencies, boards, commissions and political subdivisions, the “State”). The Tribe and the State are each referred to herein as a “Party” and collectively referred to herein as the “Parties.”

Recitals

WHEREAS, the Tribe is a federally-recognized Indian tribe possessing and exercising inherent sovereign powers of self-government, as defined and recognized by treaties, federal laws and federal court decisions, and that it has responsibilities and needs similar to other governments;

WHEREAS, the State is a state within the United States of America possessing and exercising full powers of state government, as defined and recognized by the United States Constitution, federal laws, federal court decisions, the Kansas Constitution, State laws and State court decisions, and that it has responsibilities and needs similar to other governments;

WHEREAS, both the State and the Tribe recognize that pursuant to applicable law each is a sovereign with dominion over their respective territories and governments and that entry into this Compact is not intended nor shall it be construed to cause the sovereignty of either to be diminished;

WHEREAS, the Tribe is situated on and occupies a federally-established Indian Reservation situated within the borders of the State;

WHEREAS, federal law recognizes that tribal jurisdiction exists on Qualified Tribe Lands regarding the rights of the Tribe to pass its own laws and be governed by them;

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of both the State and the Tribe to prevent disputes between the Parties regarding possession, transport, distribution, and Sale of Cigarettes and other Tobacco Products, including but not limited to taxation and escrow collection, in the State of Kansas, on Compact Lands;

WHEREAS, each of the State and the Tribe recognize the financial, cultural, educational, and economic contributions of the other;

WHEREAS, each of the State and the Tribe respects the sovereignty of the other, and recognizes and supports the other's governmental responsibilities to provide for and govern its citizens, members and territory; the State recognizes the Tribe's inherent sovereign right to existence, self-government and self-determination; and the Tribe recognizes the State's inherent sovereign right to existence, self-government and self-determination;

WHEREAS, the Parties are of the opinion that cooperation between the Tribe and the State is mutually productive and beneficial and recognize the need to develop and maintain good Tribal-State governmental relations;

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the State to continue to reduce the financial burdens imposed on the State by Cigarette smoking and that said costs continue to be borne by Tobacco Product Manufacturers rather than by the State to the extent that such Tobacco Product Manufacturers either determine to enter into a settlement with the State or are found culpable by the courts;

WHEREAS, on November 23, 1998, the State became party to the MSA;

WHEREAS, certain Tobacco Product Manufacturers, which are party to the MSA, are obligated, in return for a release of past, present and certain future claims against them as described therein, to pay substantial sums to State (tied in part to their volume of Sales); to fund a national foundation devoted to the interests of public health; and to make substantial changes in their advertising and marketing practices and corporate culture, with the intention of reducing underage smoking;

WHEREAS, it would be contrary to the policy of State if Tobacco Product Manufacturers who determine not to enter into such a settlement could use a resulting cost advantage to derive large, short-term profits in the years before liability may arise without ensuring that State will have an eventual source of recovery from them if they are proven to have acted culpably;

WHEREAS, the State entered into a Secondary Settlement Agreement with certain participating Tobacco Product Manufacturers in 2012 settling State's obligations under the MSA and disputes regarding certain payment adjustments under the MSA with respect to NPMs (as that term is defined below) for calendar years 2003-2012;

WHEREAS, as part of said Secondary Settlement Agreement, State has agreed to undertake certain diligent enforcement efforts of its Cigarette and other Tobacco Product laws and more specifically, its MSA laws on Qualified Tribal Lands within the borders of State;

WHEREAS, State recognizes the importance to State of forming an alliance with Tribe to assist State in its diligent enforcement efforts;

WHEREAS, State further recognizes that the Tribe will incur certain economic costs in assisting State in its diligent enforcement efforts which Tribe should not be required to endure;

WHEREAS, it is altogether just and proper that State compensate the Tribe for its assistance to State in State's diligent enforcement obligation under the MSA and the Secondary Settlement Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the State and the Tribe agree that it will serve the interests of both the State and the Tribe for the Tribe to be able to generate revenue for governmental purposes through the collection of certain Tribal taxes in accordance with this Compact and resolve their differences regarding the State's collection of escrow on certain Cigarettes Sold on Compact Lands.

With respect to such Cigarettes or other Tobacco Products, the State shall not impose any Sales tax, excise tax, privilege tax, use tax, other tax, licensing fee, user fee or other fee at any point in the stream of commerce:
- a.a. where the legal incidence of any such tax or fee falls on any such Consumer; or provided, however, for the avoidance of doubt, such restrictions shall not apply to escrow payments, directory fees, or any bond required under the Escrow Statutes with respect to such Cigarettes. The State shall take no affirmative action to enable or authorize any other individual or entity to take any action which, if taken directly by the State, would violate this Section 5.01(a).

- (b) Notwithstanding any provision of Section 5.01(c) to the contrary, the Tribe shall levy upon the consensual Sale of Cigarettes by a Licensed Retailer to a Consumer on Compact Lands a tax computed as a percentage of the actual Sales price thereof exclusive of any rebates. For the avoidance of doubt, the Tribe shall not be required to levy such excise tax on any Sale of Cigarettes where the Licensed Distributor intends to Sell such Cigarettes outside Compact Lands.

In all situations, the Auditor is not responsible for examining, and shall not examine, records that do not relate to the stamping, Selling, or taxing activities of the Tribe, any Tribal Affiliate, or Tribe’s licensees, unless a review of the records is necessary to an internal reconciliation of the books of the Tribe, any such Tribal Affiliate or any such licensee.
- (c) Audit Standard. Each audit performed pursuant to this Article VI shall be performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Section 6.04. Audit Report and Certification. After each annual audit, the Auditor shall issue to KDOR and the Tribe an audit report and a certification, as further described below, with respect to compliance with this Compact. The annual audit report shall set forth the total Units Sold attributable to each Tobacco Product Manufacturer by Licensed Retailers on Compact Lands during the relevant period. The annual audit report shall also include a certified statement of the Auditor to the KDOR that the Auditor finds the Tribe to be in compliance with Sections 4.01 and 5.01 of this Compact or else that the Tribe is in compliance except for specifically listed items that are explained in the annual report.

Section 6.05. Audit Schedule. Audit reviews shall take place following each calendar year (or portion thereof) during the term of this Compact, with an audit report submitted no later than April 1 following such calendar year.

Section 6.06. Joint Audit Implementation and Review. The Tribe and the State shall meet jointly with the Auditor prior to the beginning of each annual audit. The purpose of such meeting will be to discuss the objectives of the upcoming audit, the expectations of the Tribe and of the State, the standards to be used in such audit, and any issues regarding conduct of the audit, records pertinent to the audit or the contents of the Auditor's report. Subsequent meetings before and during the audit may be held as required. As soon as practicable after the issuance of the Auditor's report and certification, the Tribe and the State may meet jointly with the Auditor as often as required to review the audit report and discuss any issue of concern. In the event that either the Tribe or the State disagrees with the Auditor's report or certification, or any audit finding contained therein, either Party may notify the other of the disagreement and follow the procedures for resolution of the disagreement in Article VII of this Compact.

Section 6.07. Inspections.

- (a) The Parties agree that, subject to the requirements and limitations of this Section 6.07, agents or employees of the Tribal Tax Department and agents or employees of KSAG and/or KDOR will conduct joint inspections of Licensed Retailers and Licensed Distributors located on Compact Lands. In connection with any such joint inspection, the Tribe shall permit such agents or employees of the Tribe and agents or employees of KSAG and/or KDOR to review all documentation collected and maintained by the Tribal Tax Department pursuant to Section 4.01(b) and Section 4.01(d).

The agents or employees of the Tribe and agents or employees of KSAG and/or KDOR shall agree to a random sampling methodology for each joint inspection based on generally recognized valid and reliable sampling techniques. The Parties further agree such joint inspections shall not involve complete audits or complete inventories but shall be limited to random sample inspections of stock, tax indicia, and documentation on hand at the premises of a Licensed Retailer or Licensed Distributor, as applicable, for the purposes of verifying that all Cigarettes offered or intended for Sale by any Licensed Retailer on Compact Lands (i) are solely brands of Approved Manufacturers, (ii) were acquired from a Licensed Distributor, and (iii) bear indicia of payment of excise tax to the extent required in Section 5.02. In any event, such joint inspections shall not be disruptive of the business operations of any Licensed Retailer or Licensed Distributor.

- (b) The State reserves the right hereunder to initiate and participate in up to twelve joint inspections described in Section 6.07(a) per calendar year, with a limit of up to two (2) such joint inspection per calendar month; provided, however, that joint inspections of any one or more separate premises on the same Business Day shall only constitute one “joint inspection” for purposes of the preceding limitations; provided, further, that if the State and Tribe inspection team notes any violations of this Compact by one or more Licensed Retailers or Licensed Distributors during any such joint inspection, the State may initiate, by giving notice in accordance with Section 6.07(c), one follow-up joint inspection with the Tribe of all premises involved in such violations on a subsequent Business Day following the earlier of notice of completed cure or conclusion of any cure period pursuant to Section 7.01(a) related to such violations, with such follow-up joint inspection not counting against the monthly or annual limits set forth in this sentence.
- (c) The Tribe shall make its personnel available for joint inspections permitted hereunder on a Business Day between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. upon prior email notice to the Tribe transmitted by a representative of the State by 10:00 a.m. one Business Day prior to the requested inspection. State representatives and Tribal representatives shall coordinate the details of the joint inspection by 3:00 p.m. on the day of such email notice. Any email notice provided to the Tribal Tax Department pursuant to the Section 6.07 shall be given to the Tribal Chairman at tax.department@ktik-nsn.gov or by written notice.
- (d) Any Packs of Cigarettes found for Sale at a Licensed Retailer during a permitted joint inspection that are not brands of an Approved Manufacturer or that do not bear indicia of payment of excise tax as required in Section 5.02 shall be removed by the Tribal Tax Department until the matter is resolved.
- (e) This Section 6.07 does not limit the Tribe from unilateral enforcement of its laws and regulations and does not authorize the State to unilaterally conduct inspections of Licensed Retailers or Licensed Distributors on Compact Lands; provided, however, that the State may conduct test purchases from Licensed Retailers located on Compact Lands and may conduct unobtrusive observation of those portions of Licensed Retailer and Licensed Distributor premises located on Compact Lands which are open to the general public.

ARTICLE VII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 7.01. General.

- (a) In the event Tribe is in default of its obligations pursuant to Section 4.01, Article V or Article VI of this Compact, Tribe shall cure such default within thirty days following receipt of written notice of such default from the State. The Tribe or its representatives shall promptly provide written notice of completion of such cure to State. In the event Tribe does not cure such default, the State may initiate dispute resolution procedures in accordance with the remainder of Article VII of this Compact.

- (b) For purposes of this Article VII, each of the State and the Tribe may be referred to as a “Dispute Party.” Each Dispute Party warrants that it will use its best efforts to negotiate an amicable resolution of any and all disagreements, controversies or claims between any or all Tribal Claim Parties and the State (each, a “Dispute”) arising out of or in connection with this Compact (including without limitation claims relating to the validity, construction, performance, breach and/or termination of this Compact). Negotiation pursuant to this Section 7.01(b) shall be commenced by one Dispute Party providing written notice to the other Dispute Party of the existence of a Dispute. The written notice shall provide a concise summary of the nature of the Dispute. Promptly following delivery of any such written notice, and in no event later than thirty (30) days following such delivery, the Governor of the State of Kansas and the Tribe’s Chairperson, or their respective designees, shall commence good faith negotiations to resolve such Dispute(s). If the Dispute Parties are unable to negotiate an amicable resolution of any such Dispute within thirty (30) days following such commencement of good faith negotiations or such longer time period as the Dispute Parties may mutually agree in writing, either Dispute Party may submit the matter to arbitration for final resolution. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Compact to the contrary, either Dispute Party may immediately commence arbitration proceedings for the purpose of seeking emergency relief pursuant to the Rules addressing “Emergency Measures of Protection.”

Section 7.02. Arbitration.

- (a) Initiation; Selection of Panel. Subject to the requirements of Section 7.01, arbitration may be initiated by either Dispute Party by serving written notice to the other Dispute Party and by complying with the requirements of the Rules. Within seven days following initiation of the arbitration proceedings, each Dispute Party shall notify the other Dispute Party and the AAA of its disinterested and independent nominee for an arbitrator. If the Dispute Parties agree upon the nomination of a single arbitrator for the Dispute within ten days following initiation of arbitration, such nominee shall serve as sole arbitrator of the Dispute. If the Dispute Parties do not agree to a single arbitrator, the arbitration panel shall consist of three disinterested and independent arbitrators. In that event, the two arbitrators nominated by the Dispute Parties shall nominate the third disinterested and independent arbitrator to serve with them. In the event the two arbitrators fail for any reason to name the third arbitrator within seven days, the AAA shall name the third arbitrator. In any event, such third arbitrator shall serve as chairperson of the arbitration panel. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Rules shall govern the selection and number of arbitrators for any Dispute governed by the Emergency Measures of Protection or Expedited Procedures provisions of the Rules, or both.
- (b) Rules; Federal Question; Choice of Law. Except as the Dispute Parties may subsequently agree otherwise in writing, the arbitration shall be conducted and enforced in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures (the “Rules”) of the (“AAA”), as such Rules may be modified by this Compact, the Federal Arbitration Act, and to the extent not preempted by the Federal Arbitration Act, the Kansas Uniform Arbitration Act. The Parties agree and acknowledge that judicial resolution and enforcement of any Dispute or a settlement or arbitration decision issued hereunder with respect thereto, involves questions of federal law. The law governing any Dispute shall be limited to applicable federal law, the common law of the United States, and Kansas law, in that order and without reference to internal conflicts of laws principles.

- (c) Proceedings. Any arbitration shall be conducted at a place designated by the arbitration panel in Topeka, Kansas or any other location as the Dispute Parties may mutually agree in writing. Except for proceedings governed by the Rules on “Emergency Measures of Protection” or by the “Expedited Procedures” contemplated by the Rules, if applicable, the arbitration panel shall commence proceedings within 30 days of appointment of the final arbitrator, and hold proceedings providing each Dispute Party a fair opportunity to present its side of the Dispute, together with any documents or other evidence relevant to resolution of the Dispute. The arbitration decision shall be final and binding upon the Parties unless, during or following completion of the arbitration proceedings, the Dispute Parties have met and arrived at a different settlement of the Dispute. The arbitrators shall have the power to grant equitable or injunctive relief and specific performance of this Compact. The arbitrators shall not have the power to award monetary relief, including damages, penalties, or costs and expenses, including attorneys’ fees, to the extent not otherwise expressly permitted by the terms of this Compact. The Parties and the arbitrators shall maintain strict confidentiality with respect to the arbitration.
- (d) Expenses. The reasonable expenses of Dispute resolution shall be paid equally by the Dispute Parties, who shall also pay their own expenses; provided, however, that any Dispute Party who (1) fails or refuses to submit to arbitration following a proper demand by any other Dispute Party, or (2) fails or refuses to voluntarily comply with the terms of any settlement or arbitration decision issued hereunder, shall bear all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, incurred by such other Dispute Party in compelling arbitration of any Dispute or enforcing any settlement or arbitration decision.
- (e) Enforcement. If enforcement of a settlement or arbitration decision becomes necessary by reason of failure of one or more Parties to implement its terms voluntarily, or if one of the Dispute Parties refuses to participate in arbitration as provided in this Section 7.02 and the other Dispute Party seeks enforcement of any provision of this Compact, the Parties agree that, subject to the limited waivers of sovereign immunity contained herein, the matter may be resolved by judicial resolution and enforcement and that venue for judicial resolution and enforcement shall be in the United States District Court for Kansas pursuant to the specific provisions of this Compact, in any other court of competent jurisdiction, and in any other court having appellate jurisdiction over any such court. In any such proceeding, service on any Dispute Party shall be effective if made by certified mail, return receipt requested to the address set forth in or otherwise designated pursuant to Section 8.06.

Section 7.03. Limited Waivers by Tribe. The Tribe hereby waives its sovereign immunity, its right to require exhaustion of tribal remedies, and its right to seek tribal remedies with respect to any Dispute, effective only if the Tribe fails to implement the terms of a settlement or arbitration decision voluntarily or refuses to participate in arbitration, and subject to the following specific limitations:

- (1) Limitation of Claims. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall encompass (A) claims which seek monetary relief for direct damages attributable to Tribe's breach of this Compact and for costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the limited extent provided in Section 7.02(d), (B) claims for equitable remedies, and (C) actions to compel Dispute resolution by arbitration or for enforcement of a settlement or arbitration decision as provided in this Article VII. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Compact to the contrary, such limited waiver shall in no event extend to or encompass claims which seek indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive, exemplary or reliance damages (including, without limitation, lost or anticipated revenues, lost business opportunities or lost Sales or profits, whether or not any Party has been advised of the likelihood of such damages) against Tribe or any Tribal Affiliate, and neither Tribe nor any Tribal Affiliate shall be liable for any such damages.
- (2) Time Period. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall commence upon the Effective Date of this Compact and shall continue until the date of its termination or cancellation pursuant to the terms of this Compact, except that the limited waiver shall remain effective for any proceedings then pending or initiated within 180 days following termination of this Compact for breach, and all permitted appeals therefrom.
- (3) Recipient of Waiver. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 is granted to and for the sole benefit of the State, and may not be assigned or granted to any other individual or entity.
- (4) No Revocation. The Tribe agrees not to revoke its limited waiver of sovereign immunity contained in this Section 7.03. In the event of any such revocation, the State may, at its option, declare this Compact terminated for breach by the Tribe.
- (5) Limitation Upon Damages. Any monetary award or awards against the Tribe shall be limited, in the aggregate, to an amount equal to total tax revenues and gross profits actually received by the Tribe or Tribal Affiliates attributable to the Sale of Cigarettes during the term of this Compact.
- (6) Credit of the Tribe and Tribal Affiliates. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 7.03, the limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall not implicate or in any way involve the credit of the Tribe or any Tribal Affiliate.

Section 7.04. Limited Waiver by State. The State hereby waives its sovereign immunity, effective only if the State fails to implement the terms of a settlement or arbitration decision voluntarily or refuses to participate in arbitration pursuant to this Compact, subject to the following specific limitations:

- (1) Limitation of Claims. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall encompass (A) claims which seek monetary relief for direct damages attributable to State's breach of this Compact and for costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the limited extent provided in Section 7.02(d), (B) claims for equitable remedies, and (C) actions to compel Dispute resolution by arbitration or for enforcement of a settlement or arbitration decision as provided in this Article VII. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Compact to the contrary, such limited waiver shall in no event extend to or encompass claims which seek indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive, exemplary or reliance damages (including, without limitation, lost or anticipated revenues, lost business opportunities or lost Sales or profits, whether or not any Party has been advised of the likelihood of such damages) against the State, and the State shall not be liable for any such damages.
- (2) Time Period. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.04 shall commence upon the Effective Date of this Compact and shall continue until the later of the date of its termination or cancellation pursuant to the terms of this Compact or the date on which the State has no surviving obligations pursuant to Section 8.02 and no surviving payment obligations pursuant to Section 4.02(a), except that the limited waiver shall remain effective for any proceedings pending on such date or initiated within 180 days following termination of this Compact for breach, and all permitted appeals therefrom.
- (3) Recipient of Waiver. The limited waiver granted pursuant to this Section 7.04 is granted to and for the sole benefit of the Tribe (for itself and the other Tribal Claim Parties), and may not be assigned or granted to any other individual or entity.
- (4) No Revocation. The State agrees not to revoke its limited waiver of sovereign immunity contained in this Section 7.04. In the event of any such revocation, the Tribe may, at its option, declare this Compact terminated for breach by the State.
- (5) Limitation Upon Damages. Any monetary award or awards against the State shall be limited, in the aggregate, to an amount equal to total tax revenues and gross profits actually received by the Tribe or Tribal Affiliates attributable to the Sale of Cigarettes during the term of this Compact.

ARTICLE VIII MISCELLANEOUS

By entering into this Compact, the Parties acknowledge and agree that, except as expressly provided herein, the State does not concede that its interests, jurisdiction or sovereignty, as authorized, permitted or recognized by federal law, is diminished, limited or preempted in any manner.

Section 8.04. Most-Favored Nation. The State agrees that Tribe may propose an amendment to this Compact by written notice to the State based upon any provision of a compact permitted by Section 8.01 which Tribe desires to include as a provision in this Compact. If the State Legislature does not approve such proposed amendment at the legislative session next following the Tribe's request for such amendment, Tribe may terminate this Compact at any time thereafter by providing thirty days' written notice to State.

Section 8.05. Construction.

- (a) Each Party has received independent legal advice from its attorney(s) of choice and neither Party shall be deemed the author or drafter of this Compact. Therefore, any rule or canon of construction (whether pertaining to contracts, statutes, treaties or otherwise) that, in the case of an ambiguity, such ambiguity is construed against the author or drafter is not applicable. The language of all parts of this Compact shall in all cases be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the Parties. It is the intent of the Parties that this Compact shall be construed to reflect that the Parties are of equal stature and dignity and have dealt with each other at arm's-length. Accordingly, any statutory or judicial rules or canon concerning the construction of vague or ambiguous terms (whether pertaining to contracts, statutes, treaties or otherwise) that might otherwise be used in the interpretation or enforcement of this Compact, including construction of ambiguities either in favor of or against a state or Indian Tribe, is not applicable to this Compact and shall not obtain to the benefit or detriment of any Party, nor shall the terms and conditions of this Compact be extended by implication to the benefit or detriment of any Party, it being the intent of the Parties that the construction of this Compact shall be controlled by its express terms and not by implication.

FIFTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, January 30, 2017, 1:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Olson was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, You brought us into this Capitol, under this dome, into these halls, for a new week of work. The work before us is demanding, challenging, taxing. We're being taxed with decisions that can potentially take a toll on us and the concerns of our people; decisions that have the potential of being either negative or positive. But before, during and after all the research and facts are gathered, help us turn to and rely upon Your guidance for the subsequent decisions. Because You can provide the wisdom to turn a negative into a positive and even turn a positive into something more positive. According to Your Word, in Ephesians 4:1-7, You have graciously given each of us differing gifts...divergent perspectives regarding the decisions we have to make. Yet, it's amazing how You can take the daunting tasks that we're taxed with and infuse them...permeate them with wisdom from on high; so much so that those of us making the decisions, along with those of us impacted by the decisions, will have to conclude, "Our results came from God!" As difficult, demanding work which is taxing Your people goes on in these halls, I pray that Your Spirit of Unity will prevail. In the precious Name of the Christ, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

SIXTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 31, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God of Heaven and earth, we've come to the end of our first month of the new year...the first month of this new legislative session. There's much ground yet to be covered, but it's encouraging to know that we can lean on You as we go forward. In fact, You've indicated that it's not wise to lean on any other. Back in 1972, Bill Withers came up with a song, where the singer was saying "Lean on Me" and I'll help you carry on. But he went on to say that it wouldn't be long before he'd need somebody to lean on. In the wisdom You've given us through Solomon, Proverbs 3:5-7, You let us know that we're not to lean on our human understanding or try to be wise in our own eyes. But if we acknowledge You in all our ways, You promised to show us the paths to take. So, Lord, as we press forward, help us to hear Your voice, calling us to lean on You, that You'd help us carry on. Thanks for Your loving direction and protection. In Jesus Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Wednesday, February 1, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Wilborn was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Dear God, our Creator...our Sustainer of life...our Provider; Once again, we're able to stand within these walls...these halls of freedom. It was through blood, sweat and tears; through pain and much suffering, that You enabled us to acquire the freedoms that we enjoy today. Give us Your wisdom and Your guidance as we strive to maintain those freedoms. Lord, we're blessed today, to see in this land of the free, indications of an improved economy. You said in Proverbs 11:11, that the good influence of godly citizens causes a city to prosper, but the moral decay of the wicked drives it downhill. You said in Proverbs 14:34 that righteousness elevates a people, while ungodliness denigrates them. In a moment, Lord, we'll be pledging allegiance to our flag...that symbol of the freedoms that we hold so dear. We thank You Master, for the abundance of blessings that we enjoy today. Help us now, to not forget where they come from. Help us to remember Your commands that Your righteousness might prevail, that under God, Your people may rejoice. In the name of our Lord, Amen and Amen.

EIGHTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 2, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Wilborn was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we gather today as a family...not a biological family, but You've placed each of us in the same household. You providentially put us together in this same legislative body, that we might labor together in making things better. You said in I Corinthians 13:13, that love is the number one principle; foundational to real betterment. And since love is being concerned with the highest good of the other person, help us to not scorn or be scorned due to opposing opinions. Like all families, in all households, You've made us with differences. But still, we're a family...a family that's concerned with good for each of us. So, help us to act like family. Remind us that our differences are products of the gifts You've given us. Teach us then, to LOVINGLY express them, in our interactions with one another. In 1979, Sis, Sledge and Jade made famous the song, "We Are Family." They said "I've got all my sisters with me." Then in 2009, the Chipmunks and the Chipettes expanded on it and said "I've got all my brothers with me". Here in 2017, let it be our song. Let it be a reality in this legislative household that in spite of our differences, we've got each other. As we labor together to make things better, let love for one another be the foundation upon which we build. In the Name of the One Who loves us, in spite of us, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 8 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 8. Organization and sessions. The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in odd-numbered years beginning with the year 2019 shall not exceed 90 calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond 90 calendar days by an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members elected or appointed to each house. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ~~ninety~~ 60 calendar days beginning with the year 2020. Such sessions may be extended beyond ~~ninety~~ 60 calendar days by an affirmative vote of ~~two-thirds~~ 2/3 of the members elected or appointed to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted. Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases. Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would limit the length of regular sessions of the legislature in even-numbered years to 60 calendar days unless the session is extended beyond 60 days by a vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members elected to each house. The length of regular sessions of the legislature in odd-numbered years would remain at 90 calendar days unless the session is extended beyond 90 days by a vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members elected or appointed to each house.

"A vote for this proposition would limit the length of the regular sessions of the legislature in even-numbered years to 60 calendar days unless extended by a vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members of each house. The length of regular sessions of the legislature in odd-numbered years would remain at 90 calendar days unless the session is extended beyond 90 days by a vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members elected or appointed to each house.

"A vote against this proposition favors retaining current constitutional provisions which provide for legislative sessions each year of not to exceed 90 calendar days unless such sessions are extended by an affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members of each house "

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2018 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

NINETEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, February 3, 2017, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 27 senators present.

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, LaTurner, Lynn, Masterson, Olson, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Suellentrop, Sykes, Wagle, and Wilborn were excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord God, You created us and You sustain us. You've carried us through another week of serving in these halls. We're preparing now to take off for the weekend, but we still need You to sustain and carry us. Take each one of us safely to our destinations. And as You did with Your servant, Job, in protecting him, please do the same for us. Chapter 1:10 says that You prospered him, putting a hedge of protection around him, his home and his property. No harm or hurt could come to him unless it first passed through Your approval.

And Lord, when You do allow us to experience unpleasantness, like the Apostle Paul in 2 Cor. 12:9-10, we find, that Your grace...Your sustaining sufficiency, will be all we need.

So, Lord as we take a break, renew, refresh and replenish. Renew our love for You and Your people. Refresh our determination to serve. And replenish our strength. Thank You for hearing and answering this prayer. In Jesus Name, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 6, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

"I know so little about being a leader!" Lord, these were the words of David's son, Solomon, in 1 Kings 3:7-9. He humbled himself when he saw You had elevated him to a leadership position and he asked for Your help.

Based on the positions You've given us, we will study the issues, and we'll give them our best shot. But like Solomon, we need Your help. Give us hearts of wisdom, hearts of humility and unpretentious hearts of sincere servants.

Lord, align our hearts with Yours, that we may discern truth from YOUR perspective...and in that way, know the difference between right and wrong.

You said You were pleased with Solomon's humility and the unselfishness of his request, in not asking for money or harm for his enemies. In ordering his priorities, he asked You to put some sense or understanding in his head, rather than some monetary cents in his pocket.

Yet for us, Lord, there's an ongoing struggle between the head and the pocket. We need both, in order to bless Your people. So, Lord, help us find a balance between the two...a balance that pleases You.

May You be as delighted with us, as You were with Solomon. It pleased You to give him more than what he asked for. You gave him what he needed and then some. YOU showered him with wisdom, money, righteous honor and long life. I pray today, that You shower us with Your grace...that You give us what we need and then some. Lord, let Your favor rain down upon this house and upon all our houses, in Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 7, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, You are the Almighty God of Heaven and earth. There is no person and nothing created that is on Your level. But Lord, can we just talk? Would you allow a feeble, fumbling, sometimes failing creation of Yours to approach You today? Can we talk?

There have been times when Your holiness was so real that it seemed impossible to cross the threshold into Your presence. How can a holy and totally righteous God be receptive to one so lowly?

But then You gave us that Isaiah moment. In chapter 6:1-9, he had a vision that contrasted Your holiness with his un-holiness. Considering Your majesty brought about his modesty.

He saw that he was not worthy to come talk to You. So, in Your love and mercy, You came to him. His un-holiness was forgiven. You touched his mouth and allowed him to talk to You. You even permitted him to talk for You.

In a like manner Lord, touch us with Your love and mercy. Forgive our un-holiness. Remind us that we should talk to You...that You do hear our prayers. And from time to time, when You provide the opportunity, we'll even talk for You.

In the precious name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 9, 2017, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Gracious Father, when we weigh our needs against our supply, our needs tip the scale. As drivers, we need charge in our batteries and gasoline in our tanks. As feeble human beings, we need water for our thirst and bread for our hunger. We need clothes for our backs, dwelling places for our safety. We need money to pay our bills. Sometimes, we just need a hug...we need a companion. The doctors say some of us need Valium for our nerves. We all have a need to be needed.

When there seems to be no earthly way that a need can be met, what a blessing it is to discover that You are our Need-Meter. Someway, somehow, when those needs become unbearable, You find a way.

In John 6, the cry was, "We just don't have enough!" The need was food for over 5,000 people. In the hands of man, 2 fish and 5 loaves, were nowhere near enough. But, Lord, You can take a supply that is minute and meet a need that is great.

Great has been our need for mercy. Great is our need for Your love and forgiveness. But much greater than our need, has been Your plentiful supply of grace. It was back in 1779, You used John Newton to pen the words "Amazing Grace. How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!"

Thank you! Thank You! Thank You for meeting our every need. I thank You that I can come to You in Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 13, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God, Creator, Sustainer of heaven and earth. Through the Prophet Isaiah (41:4), we learn that You were our beginning and You will be our ending. We learn through the Apostle James (1:17), that every good and perfect gift, especially the gift of love, comes from You. Through Your word in 1 John 4:8, we learn that Your very character is love...that You are the Real Deal when it comes to the expression of LOVE.

Help us show the love to others that You're showing toward us. You love us despite our differences. Your love is real! Teach us to love like You love.

On this eve of Valentine's Day, let the hallmark... the real standard of our service and interaction with others be love without hypocrisy.

It is Your love that has us entering another week of serving. Let the incentive for serving in these halls today stem from that same kind of love...love for You...love for each other and love for the people we serve. And all of it being inspired by Your love for us.

Since Your love is not selfish but heavenly, and concerned with our highest good, let our love in this earthly realm take on heavenly characteristics. Teach us to stretch across temporal differences like race and politics.

When we are scrutinized and examined under the magnifying glass of others, and when we stand before You in our final examination, help us to be seen as the Real McCoy's of love. In the name of Him who loved us to death, Amen and Amen.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 14, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord of Love, Mercy and Grace, it's Valentine's Day, and that strange phenomena called love is in the air. God, You've commanded us to love, and everything we do, we want to do it in love. But we need Your help in understanding what that means! A #1 song was recorded in 1955, which portrays our dilemma...our confusion. The words, by Paul Webster, said "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing." The lyric continued with "It's the April rose that only grows in the early spring...that it's nature's way of giving a reason to be living; That it's the golden crown that makes a man a king."

Lord, we're pretty good at poetry, and talking about love being multi-faceted. And we've come to know that it is. But, like a diamond takes in pure light and reflects it in a variety of brilliant hues, shine the pure light of Your love into our hearts to such a degree that we reflect it in a variety of ways. So much so, that those around us take note and say, "that's a man or woman who consistently demonstrates love."

Help us to regularly use, as a love test, the do's and don'ts of true love, found in the "Love Chapter" of Your Holy Word...1 Corinthians 13.

During this Valentine season and beyond, help us to start telling folk and showing folk that we love them.

I come to You again, in the name of Jesus, Who loved us to death, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 16, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Dear Lord and gracious Master, there's a song that reminds us of the ups and downs that we face in this life of service. Inspired by the prophet, Isaiah 43:16, the late Thomas Dorsey wrote the lyric, we're "like a ship that's tossed and driven, battered by an angry sea." And when it comes to serving, he said, "We try the best we can. Yet some that we are serving, refuse to shake our hands."

Lord, as these servants travel through the rugged seas of service...and as opposing winds come against them, bless them with the same awe and wonder of Matthew 8:27, that to You, even the winds and the seas are subject and obey.

So Lord, since You're the Master of the storms we experience, use them to keep us prayerful...use them to keep us looking to You for wisdom and guidance. With You at the helm, Oh, Good God Almighty, we can make it.

In 1 Thessalonians 4:7, You said we should always pray...always be in an attitude of prayer, having our antennae up, ready to receive Your wisdom and guidance.

Lord, You also said in Philippians 4:6-7, that we should pray about EVERYTHING...that nothing should be considered unworthy of prayer.

So, Lord in the same way that our cells phones and various forms of technology must be tuned in to the right frequency to receive clear and unbroken messages, keep us tuned in to You. When we experience interference, or we're going through those dead spots, keep the connection from being dropped.

As we navigate through the seas of life, trying to serve others, keep us turned on and and tuned in. Please maintain our connection. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, February 17, 2017, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we're facing another weekend and some of us will be traveling. Whether near or far...whether here in Topeka or to other parts of the state, give us shields of protection. Upon arriving at our destinations, may we find that things are well.

When You created us, You built within us a need for rest. We struggle to obtain it but Lord, You want us to strive for and guard times of rest.

In Mark 6:31-32 there was a lot of coming and going...a lot of busyness in the ranks of Your leaders. It says they needed to take a break and get a little rest. They didn't even have time to eat. So they got into a boat and went off to a remote place by themselves.

Lord, the coming and going...the busyness within our ranks is just as real today as it was then. So, over this weekend, please enable each of us to find a little rest from our labors, even if it's only behind a locked door, in a warm, soothing tub of water. Thanking You in advance. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: This bill does not solve Kansas' budget problem. It is the best start we have seen in 4 years. But it does not address our borrowing from the Bank of KDOT or KPERS, nor does it address our school finance needs. I appreciate adding the 3rd bracket and closing the LLC loophole. However, the weight of the bill is still on the backs of middle class families. Many of us campaigned on a platform of "fixing Topeka." Kansans overwhelmingly asked us to work together. I was sorely disappointed in yesterday's behavior. I am willing to support this as the best we have today. But I warn us all, we will have to return to this chamber to readdress our fiscal state. — LYNN ROGERS Senators Faust-Goudeau and Francisco request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Rogers on Sub HB 2178.

Mr. Vice President: Sub HB 2178 is a retroactive tax increasing tornado that leaves no Kansan untouched in its wake. It sweeps money right out of the pockets of families working multiple jobs just to make ends meet and entrepreneurs who took the risk to create their own job and help our economy grow. Gone are the campaign promises of merely eliminating the small business tax incentive and generating enough new revenue to balance the budget. Rather, Sub HB 2178 says the money Kansans earn belongs to the government first and the people last. We vote no. — MARY PILCHER-COOK Senators Fitzgerald, Masterson and Suellentrop request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pilcher-Cook on Sub HB 2178.

Mr. Vice President: I initially voted "Pass" but change my vote to "AYE" on Sub HB 2178. I appreciate the work done in the House to craft a tax bill to eliminate the non-wage income "loophole", repeal the future formulaic income tax reductions, and establish a third tier of income tax rates. I remain concerned that this bill sets the second tier for married individuals filing jointly and earning over $30,000 at 5.25%, higher than the current rate of 4.6%. It sets the third tier for married individuals earning over $100,000 at 5.45%, only .2% higher and a full percentage point less than it was in 2012, putting more of the burden on low and middle income Kansans. It continues to make our Kansas tax form complicated because it does not reinstate the deductions for mortgage interest and property tax allowed for on the federal tax form. The bill does not raise enough revenue to balance the current budget. None the less, I vote "AYE" to support this as a first step in this legislative session. I also pledge to continue to work on proposals to bring fairness to the Kansas tax structure and an appropriate amount of revenue to the state. — MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Kelly and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on Sub HB 2178.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate recessed to the sound of the gavel.

The Senate met pursuant to recess with President Wagle in the chair.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, February 20, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 39 senators present.
Senator Pilcher-Cook was excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

To Our Holy God of heaven and earth, we thank You for the reminder, in Lamentations 3:22-23, that Your mercies are new every day; that Your grace and faithfulness toward us continues to prevail.

On this 3rd Monday in February, we remember the first President that You gave to this country: George Washington, born February 22, 1732. Through the years, You promoted him and history says he was a great man of faith, and great for this country.

Lord, You led him to set an example of faith that all of us should follow. When he left home for a life of service, he remembered and recorded the words of faith his mother, Mary Washington, had taught him, when she said “remember that God is our only sure trust. To Him, I commend you...my son, neglect not the duty of secret prayer.”

Let the words of President Washington's mother ring in our ears as well. Help us to not neglect the duty of secret prayer.

We pray today for President Trump and all that surround him in the new administration. Help them to not forget the duty of prayer. Give them protection and direction, that this nation may be drawn more and more into Your will and Your way.

Lord, I'm thanking You again for Your grace and mercy. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 21, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, You've called these servants to serve; not to be self-serving, but to the humble task of serving Your people.

As we take on the responsibilities...the daunting responsibilities associated with this charge, keep us mindful of the promise You made, in Hebrews 13:5, to never leave us nor forsake us. For in not leaving us, we can count on your constant presence and in not forsaking us, we can count on Your ever-present support.

Again, I'm reminded of the advice coming from George Washington's mother, as he set out to serve Your people. She said, "remember that God is our only sure trust."

The early pilgrims were inspired to adopt the motto, "In God We Trust." But truly learning to trust You, is the most daunting task we face. It's so tempting to put our trust in the weak arm of the flesh and to reason, to our own disappointment...to our own setback, that "I've got this!"

In Proverbs 3:5-7, You used the Psalmist, in telling us to trust in You, and not lean on our own fragile, deficient sense of understanding.

Like You did with those in the early development of this country, inspire us, stir us, motivate us to adopt that foundational, under-girding motto, "In God We Trust." Not just to engrave it on our money, but to have it engraved in our hearts. For You and You alone, can totally be trusted. In Jesus' Name, I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, February 22, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, with heads bowed down in humility, we stand before You. You have blessed us in this country, to be able to pray in public. What a blessing it is to be able to post, broadcast and publicly engage in open prayer.

But, I'm again reminded of the counsel George Washington's mother gave him, as he set out to pursue public service. She said don't neglect the duty of secret prayer.

Her advice to her son was right in line with Your advice to us. In addition to the privilege of public prayer, you said, in Matthew 6:6, "when you pray, go into your most private room, and, closing the door, pray to your Father, who is in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you in the open."

Lord, help our prayers to not just be a display for the public, but during this moment, and for many moments to come, guide each of us into a secret place of connecting with You.

Then let the rewards of this time with You, be openly displayed in us, in our loved ones, in these halls of government and in all our affairs.

In the name of the Christ, Amen and Amen.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: Senate Substitute for SB 74 is a well-intended bill that, I fear, will not solve the problem it is attempting to solve. The bill is so broad that it is untenable for medical and mental health professionals to make a proper diagnosis and for police officers to determine the proper course of action. In addition, it calls into question whether people who “need assistance with cognition” should even qualify for a driver's license. Had the bill been limited to those persons on the autism spectrum, and had the bill stipulated additional training for those people as well as for the police officers who might deal with them, I could have been a proponent of the bill. As it stands now, the bill is ineffective and could cause more problems than it solves. It is with deep concern and sympathy for the family of Joey Weber and other families affected by autism that I vote NO on Sub SB 74.—TOM HAWK

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Announcing the House herewith transmits the veto message from the Governor, together with the enrolled copy of Substitute HB 2178, AN ACT concerning income taxation; relating to determination of Kansas adjusted gross income, rates, itemized deductions; amending K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 79-32,110, 79-32,117 and 79-32,120 and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 79-32,269., which was received and read on February 22, 2017.

Message from the Governor

My veto of Substitute for House Bill 2178 is based in my belief that, as the elected public servants of Kansas, we must not choose to resolve budget challenges on the backs of middle income Kansans with retroactive personal income tax increases.

We should be clear about what this bill will do. The proposed tax increase will raise income tax liability for married Kansans filing jointly earning at least $30,000 per year from 4.6% to 5.25%, and from 4.6% to 5.45% for those married filers earning more than $100,000 per year. At the same time, income tax rates for small businesses will increase from 0% up to 5.45%, depending on income. More to the point, any single full-time worker earning more than $9.74 per hour will see an income tax increase.

Working families and small businesses are the backbone of our economy, and we should not punish them.

Moreover, applying a retroactive tax increase on our citizens is irresponsible and will ultimately harm families and individuals who are working to make ends meet. Were this bill to become law, the majority of Kansans would see a significant reduction in their pay check immediately. This is unfair.

I also reject the idea that we must choose to either make large cuts to public education or burden every hard working Kansan with a higher tax rate. This dichotomy is false. In my budget proposal, I suggested modest revenue measures on targeted consumption and taxes paid by businesses. I have also proposed adoption of efficiencies recommended by the study commissioned by the Legislature, all of which result in a structurally balanced budget by Fiscal Year 2019. It is irresponsible to raise taxes on low and middle income Kansans without first ensuring we are doing everything we can to keep the cost of government low.

Kansas has pioneered new ground to generate small business growth and thus create jobs and economic opportunity for more Kansans. We have seen record levels of new business formation and consistently low unemployment. These efforts have been successful, and reversing course now will have a long term negative impact on growing business and opportunity in Kansas. Instead, this bill would raise the tax burden on every small business in the state, create a new tax bracket, raise the income tax liability of Kansans, and would result in undermining the economic health of our state and the opportunity for every Kansan to provide for themselves and their families.

It is our responsibility to make the decisions to build a brighter future for Kansas and to ensure that we do everything we can to provide high quality government service at the lowest cost to Kansans.

Over the coming weeks, I will remain committed to working with legislative leadership to develop a plan that structurally balances our budget without permanently harming hard working Kansans.

Accordingly, pursuant to Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby veto House Bill 2178.

Signed, Sam Brownback, Governor of Kansas

A motion was made that Substitute HB 2178 be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto. Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 23, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Sovereign Lord God, You blessed us this morning to see another day. And like the prophet Isaiah said in chapter 50, verse 4, You awaken us morning by morning. Lord, would You also awaken our ears? Awaken that inner ear, so we can listen and learn what You'd have us to say and do in service to others.

Help us develop an ear for Your voice, that we may hear Your still, small quiet voice over all other voices.

When we do, Isaiah said we would learn from You, how to sustain others who are weary...who are in need.

Then, we, who have been helped by You, can then help others, with the same help You've given us. We, who have been encouraged by You, can then encourage others, with the same encouragement.

As we move forward, let the theme of that 1972 song by Johnny Nash, belong to us, and to those we serve. "I can see clearly now, the rain is gone. I can see all obstacles in my way. Gone are the dark clouds that had me down. It's gonna be a bright, bright, sunshiny day."

Thank You for this day. Thank You for awakening us to another wonderful day. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: It is unfortunate when the Senate votes to weaken the process dealing with grand juries and the procedure to call for a grand jury. We have a clear process for requesting a grand jury. The changes proposed in this bill merely tie up our courts and expend public resources to challenge the courts' authority. This is a waste of taxpayer dollars. I vote No.—PAT PETTEY

Senators Francisco and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on SB 62.

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 6, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 38 senators present.

Senators Hensley and La Turner were excused.

Vice President Longbine introduced guest chaplain, Pastor Carl Frazier, Southwest Baptist Church, to deliver the invocation:

Dear Lord, we gather together this afternoon, in this place where many decisions are made that affect the lives of the rich, poor, women, men, youth and people of many backgrounds. I ask you to bless those who make the decisions that impact each of us. Keep them healthy and focused while making these decisions. My prayer today is that the legislators look down on the least of these persons and have mercy on their needs with every vote and law that is passed. John 14:27 says, "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." I pray for not only the peace of our legislators, but for all neighborhoods to have peace of mind and not worry about gun shots flying into their homes and killing their loved ones; for the school administrators all over the state of Kansas to have peace with their only concern being the education of our children, and not school funding. Provide peace for the parents of Kansas who have to make the hard decision if they can afford to take their child to the doctor because of lack of health care and insurance coverage; for any parent who worries if their child can obtain a higher education because of increasing costs of secondary education; peace for the people leaving the prison system who will now be confronted with the additional stigma of no jobs, inferior healthcare and no voting rights to allow them to make a difference; and, finally peace for those who struggle to make ends meet because of the lack of fair wages. Amos 5:24 says "But let justice run down like water, and righteousness like a mighty stream." Lord, for those who are troubled today because they need justice and righteousness from an unjust system, provide that justice not next year, not next month, not next week, nor tomorrow, but right now. This is my prayer in the mighty name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, for consideration of bills on the calendar under the heading of General Orders with Senator Petersen in the chair.

On motion of Senator Petersen the following report was adopted:

SB 175 be amended by the adoption of the committee amendments, be further amended by motion of Senator Francisco: on page 21, in line 38, after "be" by inserting ": (1)"; in line 41, after "F" by inserting "; or (2) subtracted from federal adjusted gross income passive losses incurred from activities deriving rents and royalties as reported on the taxpayer's form 1040 federal individual income tax return schedule C, E or F"; the amendment was adopted

Citing Rule 27, Senator Suellentrop moved to divide the question into five parts.

Part 1 containing the provisions of the bill which relate to the taxation of passive income from rents and royalties contained in section 11 of the bill was rejected.

Part 2 containing the provisions of the bill which relate to income tax rates contained in section 10 of the bill was rejected.

Part 3 containing the provisions of the bill which relate to the increase in liquor enforcement tax contained in section 21 of the bill was rejected.

Citing Rule 50 Senator Pyle moved to strike the enacting clause on SB 175. A roll call vote was required.

The motion carried.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 37; Nays 1; Present and Passing 1; Absent or Not Voting 1.

Yeas: Alley, Baumgardner, Berger, Billinger, Bollier, Bowers, Denning, Doll, Estes, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Givens, Goddard, Haley, Hardy, Hawk, Holland, Kelly, Kerschen, LaTurner, Longbine, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Petersen, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Rogers, V. Schmidt, Skubal, Suellentrop, Sykes, Taylor, Tyson, Wagle, Wilborn.

Nays: Francisco.

Present and Passing: Olson.

Absent or Not Voting: Hensley.

The bill was lost.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: Although I did not support SB 175, I do support a significant increase in taxes on cigarettes and other tobacco products. Tobacco use is the number one preventable cause of death. The side-effects caused by tobacco products significantly drive up medical costs, which drives up the base cost of insurance premiums. This affects all Kansans. The annual health care costs in Kansas directly caused by smoking are $1.12 billion, and this is coupled with $1.09 billion in smoking-caused productivity losses. Reducing the use of cigarettes will definitively cut the cost of Medicaid. At the appropriate time, I will vote for a tax plan that contains both a structural balance to our budget AND improves health outcomes with a substantial increase in cigarette and tobacco taxes.—BARBARA BOLLIER

Senators Hardy and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bollier on SB 175.

Madam President: I vote "NO" on the motion to eliminate the enacting clause from SB 175, a bill that included a number of provisions to raise revenue. The motion was made when the Senate was in the midst of a discussion on the taxation of cigarettes and tobacco products. A Senator had indicated that if those provisions passed, the Senator would be offering an amendment to use the revenue gained from those measures to reduce sales tax on food – a proposal I would support. We would have continued with a vote on the fifth part of the division which would give us the opportunity to eliminate the proposed changes in annual reporting fees. I vote NO because I believe we need to establish a Senate position on taxation. Those of us who have objections to the proposals in the bill should be offering amendments and continuing the discussion to establish a plan to generate revenue we need to balance the budget.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Madam President: The clock is ticking. We are at Day 48 of our legislative session, the halfway point no less, and are no closer to addressing our $800 million structural deficit, let alone the additional hundreds of millions in yet more revenue we will need to properly fund K-12 education. I urge the body to quickly craft and support a revenue package that truly repeals Governor Brownback's 2012 tax debacle and restores Kansas to a more solid financial footing.—TOM HOLLAND

Senator Pettey requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holland on SB 175.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Assessment and Taxation recommends SB 130 be amended on page 1, in line 17, by striking "January" and inserting "July"; in line 20, by striking "$.20" and inserting "$.05"; in line 28, by striking all after "liquid"; in line 29, by striking all after "solution"; in line 30, by striking all before "that" and inserting "or other material"; and the bill be passed as amended.

Also, SB 116 be passed and, because the committee is of the opinion that the bill is of a noncontroversial nature, be placed on the consent calendar.

Committee on Public Health and Welfare recommends SB 95 be amended by substituting a new bill as recommended by the Senate Committee on Public Health and Welfare as reported in the Journal of the Senate on February 21, 2017, and the substitute bill be amended by substituting a new bill to be designated as "Substitute for Substitute for SENATE BILL No. 95," as follows:

"Substitute for Substitute for SENATE BILL No. 95

By Committee on Public Health and Welfare

"AN ACT authorizing telephonic signatures for public assistance applications; relating to powers, duties and functions of the Kansas department for children and families.";

And the substitute bill be passed.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, March 8, 2017.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 8, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 38 senators present.
Senators Hensley and Schmidt were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Gracious Lord and loving God of all mercies, some of us are worried today. And we have many motivations for our worry. Some are work related. They're over decisions, we need to make or decisions others are making. And the worrying can become so intense that it can negatively impact what we're trying to do. Some worries pertain to personal issues. Maybe they're related to our health or they're connected to what's happening in the life of a loved one. Sometimes Lord, we can worry over the fact that we are worrying about something we know we shouldn't be worrying about.

You told us, in Matthew 6:25, 31 and 34 not to worry about anything.

Yet, Lord, You have given each of us significant responsibilities and You want us to be concerned about them. But help us to keep our concerns from turning into worry. When we are concerned, we only look at carrying our responsibility. When we worry, we're taking on the heaviness of responsibilities You haven't given us.

You said, in Matthew 6, that as long as we seek to put You first and concern ourselves with Your agenda, that You would take care of ours. If we make Your business our business, You would make our business Your business. And afterward, when we look back over our business, we'll see that You handled it much better than we could have.

So, Lord, please increase our little bit of faith. Help us to stop worrying about whatever we worry about. Remind us that Your hands are bigger, stronger and more compassionate than ours. Keep us mindful that as our Creator, Provider and Sustainer, You are much more concerned about the things that concern us.

Since frustration is trying to do something we haven't been given the power to do, help us to release to You...to give over to You all our causes of worry.

Thank You for looking beyond our faulty, sometimes failing, fumbling faith, in order to meet us at our point of need.

I come to You, in the Precious Name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 9, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Schmidt was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

I'm asking all of you to join me today. In 1 Timothy 2:2-3, the Lord says You should pray for all who have authority. Pray for the leaders so that we can have quiet and peaceful lives...lives full of worship and respect for God. Verse 3 says, "This is good, and it pleases God our Savior."

So, I'm asking all of you to join me today; everyone under the sound of my voice; on the floor; in the balcony; in the halls; if you can hear me, join me in sending up a chorus of audible...not just silent prayers. All of us here have some authority, so let's pray for each other and all that are in authority.

When we do this, God says, in Matthew 18:19-20, that we will be blessed with Divine, Heavenly power, due to our coming together; due to the synergy of us uniting in prayer.

So, please repeat after me this simple childlike prayer.

Heavenly Father, in this time of prayer, we come before You together, together in our need for Your wisdom; together in our need for Your guidance; together in our need for Your resources. Please meet everyone of us, at our various points of need; we come together today, praying for one another.

Republicans praying for Democrats; Democrats praying for Republicans; all of us praying for each other. We pray for the heads of this nation; for the heads of Kansas and all the United States; for the heads of our counties and cities; for the heads of our families; and all that are in authority. We thank You for the privilege of prayer and for the peace that follows.

Your Word says, "This is good, and it pleases God our Savior." Amen and Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, March 10, 2017, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 29 senators present.

Senators Estes, Faust-Goudeau, Fitzgerald, Hardy, Holland, LaTurner, Masterson, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Schmidt and Taylor were excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, we've come to the end of another week, and we thank You for Your continued grace and mercy. Bless all of us with traveling grace in going to our various destinations. Help us find things well upon our arrival.

Also, remind us Lord, to change our clocks on Sunday, in keeping with daylight saving time. Thanks for the additional light that we'll have and the additional safety it'll provide.

And even when the darkness comes, protect us from the evil deeds of the people who love the dark rather than light as mentioned in John 3:10.

Watch over all the servants under this dome and when we return, let us come back refreshed.

Thanks for helping us finish another week of service. In the precious name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 13, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Schmidt was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, thank You for bringing us back safely to these responsibilities. But, help us to follow Your example. Being motivated by love, help us to order better ways of life for Your people.

It was out of love, that You ordered better ways of life for each of us. But, Lord, even though we know that love is Your motivation, there are a few of Your guidelines that seem pretty hard to handle. Sometimes, they appear to go against the grain and seem to be filled with tension.

For example, Lord, in Matthew 5 and again in Luke 6, You say things like “Love your enemies; do good to those who hate you; pray for those who persecute you; if slapped on your right cheek, turn to them the other; if sued for your shirt, also give them your coat; if you're forced to go one mile, go for two; give to him who asks of you; and, don't turn away from him who wants to borrow.”

Lord, these are hard to grasp, but You're saying You want us to be like You. Because You bless the hateful as well as the righteous. You dispense equally upon us all, Your sunlight and rain...Your grace and mercy.

And You want us, who have received Your grace and mercy to be salt and light, likewise offering grace and mercy to others.

So, Lord, deliver us from the hypocrisy of handing down our directives to others while skirting around the ones You've handed down to us.

And although people will sometimes find our decisions hard to swallow, and although some may even express hatred, let every action we take be motivated by love. Fill us with Your loving Spirit and help us to be just like You.

In the name of Jesus, Who was Love personified. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

I invite you all to pray with me:

Almighty God, You rule over all. All authority comes from You. It comes from You to those servants who make and administer our laws.

In Your Holy Word it says, "Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God."

So it is then that we pray for these Your servants of the Kansas Senate. We ask that you guide them in their matters of deliberation and as they make decisions that they would benefit all residents of Kansas including all the volunteers of the Civil Air Patrol.

It is the dedicated volunteers of Kansas Wing Civil Air Patrol, who distinguish themselves in service to their communities, the state and our nation. We pray for all those of the Civil Air Patrol, the official auxiliary of the United States Air Force. We give thanks for all servants of the Civil Air Patrol who are dedicated to giving back to the communities through its three missions – Emergency Services, Aerospace Education, and Cadet Programs.

FORTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 15, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, Lord, God of Heaven and earth. We are honored to have many spiritual leaders in the Capitol today. Leaders that are responsible for guiding us in Your ways...ways designed to make us better people. You lead them to lead us, to a higher quality of life; not only here, but in the hereafter.

Help us to appreciate, and to show appreciation for their labors. Because Lord, the compilation of research, coming from the Fuller Seminary, George Barna and the Frances Schaefer Institute, reveal that our spiritual leaders are in dire need of our prayers and support.

Lord, the statistics say that:

- Fifteen hundred pastors leave the ministry each month due to spiritual burnout, contention in their churches or moral failure. Help them Lord.
- Fifty percent are so discouraged that they would leave the ministry if they could, but have no other way of making a living. Help them Lord.
- Seventy percent are constantly fighting depression. Help them Lord.

In fact, help us to be instruments in Your hands showing them favor. You said in Galatians 6:6, "The person who is taught God's word should share all good things with his teacher."

So Lord, help us to be sources of encouragement to our spiritual leaders. And help them, as it says in Galatians 6:9, to not get weary in their well-doing because the sheep need shepherds.

Lord, I know this prayer is in accord with Your will, because it's in accord with Your Word. So thank You for hearing. And thank You for providing.

I come to You in Jesus' name, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 16, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Gracious, compassionate Lord, in recognition of Your mercies that are new every day; once again, we stand grateful; grateful for another opportunity, that had not been promised to us, to exalt Your Holy Name.

It is amazing, that the Creator, the All Knowing, All Powerful, and altogether Holy Sustainer of righteousness, would look down upon us and smile.

We're in a world created by You and sustained by You, but in many areas wandering away from You. Even in our individual eyes, we must acknowledge that we often fail and fall far short of Your standards. Yet, You have put it in place, that the ills of our society are to be corrected, cured and healed through the humble, prayerful seeking of Your face and turning to Your ways, by Your people; 2 Chronicles 7:14.

As Your word says in 1 Peter 4:17, to amend attitudes and actions, the judgment needed must begin with Your people...those of us who are people of God and chosen to represent You. So Lord, let justice begin here, with us. Let love, equality and fair-mindedness begin here, in the hearts of Your servants.

And when folks do us, like they do You; when they hate on us, like they hate on You; when they don't show appreciation, or give thanks for our sacrifices, help us to respond to them in the same way You respond to us when we're messing up.

When we don't deserve it, You forgive us and love up on us. Help us to model that in all our interactions. Help us to be conduits connected to You, that from You and through us will flow help, healing and hope for the ills of our society. I pray You will bless, infuse and use every one of these servants. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

WHEREAS, The love for all people exhibited by Srinivas Kuchibhotla, Alok Madasani, Ian Grillot and Sam Goodrich, and their hope for peace, their courage to do right and their unrelenting passion for the American Dream, prevailed on February 22, 2017, against a notoriously evil deed; and

WHEREAS, The senseless taking of a good man's life, the wounding of two others and the egregious violation of peace and tranquility of a community was met with love, hope for peace, a desire to join together for healing and a renewed desire to fight for a better world; and

WHEREAS, The tragic taking of Srinivas Kuchibhotla's life, a Garmin aviation engineer from Telangana, India, from his loving wife, family and friends leaves a family, community and nation in anguish and mourning; and

WHEREAS, Despite the injuries inflicted upon Alok Madasani, Srinivas' friend and professional colleague, Alok called the shooting "an isolated incident that doesn't reflect the true spirit of Kansas, the Midwest and the United States"; and

WHEREAS, The State of Kansas is grateful for the respect and appreciation these two men and the entire Indian-American community have shown by seizing the opportunity to contribute, enrich and thrive in the land and culture they now call home; and

WHEREAS, The Indian-American community these men represent has contributed to the local economy, student academic success, and has introduced to the City of Olathe the great game of cricket; and

WHEREAS, Every Kansan stands in awe of Ian Grillot, the 24-year-old Marine veteran, lover of outdoors, 2010 graduate of Olathe North High School, and a true hero, who, guided by his faith, faced gunfire to defend his fellow citizens from a treacherous and violent act of pure evil; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Kansas Senate call for all Kansans to offer prayer and support for the Kuchibhotla, Madasani and Grillot families for their loss and suffering; and

PERSONAL REMARKS

Mr. Vice President: I join the Kansas Senate in the unanimous voice vote affirming SR 1727; honoring the life and public service of John William Crutcher, which I am proud beyond words to have sponsored. Mr. Crutcher was known by me for as long as I can remember, and by my sister, Anne, simply as “Uncle John.” He became our family out of this very process when he, a Senator from Hutchinson, Kansas and later a twice elected Lt. Governor, also serving in those days as the President of the Kansas Senate, befriended (and, ostensibly “adopted”) my father, former Republican Kansas Senator (and later U.S. Ambassador) George W. Haley, representing Kansas City, Kansas and my mother, Doris M. Haley. On the wall outside of the Senate Chamber, you can yet see his smiling, most handsome face on the picture (4th from the right bottom corner) among the many faces of the many men who have served as Senate President whose deeds, good and bad...large and small, in most cases have long since been forgotten.

But today, the impact of this great true gentleman on my family’s lives and on the lives of so many Kansans is remembered as he is laid to rest in Jefferson, North Carolina and our thoughts and fond remembrances of shared joy go out to his wife, Edith (also known as “Aunt Edie”).

The relationships forged by members of these Legislatures are often inspirational and life-changing. John W. Crutcher’s example in leadership, and in nurturing, grips the marrow of the human spirit and endears the magnificence of Kansas core values to the eager often wearied world. I love this man, Mr. Vice President. In his time and in his space, with God’s grace...John William Crutcher (Uncle John) made a difference.—

DAVID HALEY

Message from the Governor Regarding Compact with Tribal Nation:

In consultation with the Attorney General and the Department of Revenue, and pursuant to my authority under Article 1, Section 3 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I have entered into the following Compact:

- Compact Relating to Cigarette Sales, Taxation and Escrow Collection with the Sac and Fox Nation of Missouri in Kansas and Nebraska as of March 10, 2017.

I hereby give notice of this executive action and transmit the Compact to the Legislature for the required approval pursuant to applicable law.

SAM BROWNBACK

COMPACT RELATING TO CIGARETTE SALES, TAXATION

WHEREAS, the State is a state within the United States of America possessed of full powers of state government;

WHEREAS, the Tribe is situated on and occupies a federally-established Indian Reservation situated, in part, in the northeastern part of Kansas;

WHEREAS, federal law recognizes that tribal jurisdiction exists on Qualified Tribal Lands regarding the rights of an Indian Tribe to pass its own laws and be governed by them, including the right to levy taxes and regulate commerce;

as described therein, to pay substantial sums to State (tied in part to their volume of Sales); to fund a national foundation devoted to the interests of public health; and to make substantial changes in their advertising and marketing practices and corporate culture, with the intention of reducing underage smoking;

WHEREAS, it would be contrary to the policy of State if Tobacco Product Manufacturers who determine not to enter into such a settlement could use a resulting cost advantage to derive large, short-term profits in the years before liability may arise without ensuring that State will have an eventual source of recovery from them if they are proven to have acted culpably;

WHEREAS, the State entered into a Secondary Settlement Agreement with certain participating Tobacco Product Manufacturers in 2012 settling State's obligations under the MSA and disputes regarding certain payment adjustments under the MSA with respect to NPMs (as that term is defined below) for calendar years 2003-2012;

WHEREAS, as part of said Secondary Settlement Agreement, State has agreed to undertake certain diligent enforcement efforts of its Cigarette and other Tobacco Product laws and more specifically, its MSA laws on Qualified Tribal Lands within the borders of State;

WHEREAS, the Parties are of the opinion that cooperation between the Tribe and the State is mutually productive and beneficial;

WHEREAS, the State and the Tribe agree that it will serve the interests of both the State and the Tribe for the Tribe to be able to generate revenue for governmental purposes through the collection of certain Tribal taxes in accordance with this Compact and resolve their differences regarding the collection of escrow on certain Cigarettes Sold on Compact Lands;

WHEREAS, the Tribe has the authority pursuant to Article V of its Constitution to enter into agreements with the State and to enter into agreements for the economic benefit of the Tribe.

In connection with any such joint inspection, the Tribe shall permit such agents or employees of the Tribe and agents or employees of KSAG and/or KDOR to review all documentation collected and maintained by the Tribe pursuant to this Compact.

The joint inspections shall be conducted using a method as agreed upon by the Parties, provided, however, such joint inspections shall not involve complete audits or complete inventories but shall be limited to random sample inspections of stock, tax indicia, and documentation on hand at the premises of a Compact Licensed Retailer or Compact Licensed Distributor, as applicable, for the purposes of verifying that all Cigarettes offered or intended for Sale by any Compact Licensed Retailer on Compact Lands (i) are solely brands of Tobacco Product Manufacturers meeting the requirements as provided in paragraphs 23 and 24, (ii) were acquired from a Compact Licensed Distributor, and (iii) bear indicia of payment of excise tax to the extent required in this Compact. In any event, such joint inspections shall not be disruptive of the business operations nor damage any inventory of any Compact Licensed Retailer or Compact Licensed Distributor.

32. The State reserves the right hereunder to initiate and participate in up to twelve (12) joint inspections described in paragraph 31 per calendar year, with a limit of up to two (2) such joint inspection per calendar month; provided, however, that joint inspections of any one or more separate premises on the same Business Day shall only constitute one "joint inspection" for purposes of the preceding limitations; provided, further, that if the State and Tribe inspection team notes any violations of this Compact by one or more Compact Licensed Retailers or Compact Licensed Distributors during any such joint inspection, the State may initiate, by giving notice in accordance with paragraph 33, one follow-up joint inspection with the Tribe of all premises involved in such violations on a subsequent Business Day following the earlier of notice of completed cure related to such violations, with such follow-up joint inspection not counting against the monthly or annual limits set forth in this sentence.
33. The Tribe shall make its personnel available for joint inspections permitted hereunder on a Business Day between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. upon prior email notice to the Tribe transmitted by a representative of the State by 10:00 a.m. one Business Day prior to the requested inspection. State representatives and Tribal representatives shall coordinate the details of the joint inspection by 3:00 p.m. on the day of such email notice. Any email notice provided to the Tribe pursuant to this section shall be given at tribaltax@sacandfoxcasino.com or by written notice.
34. Any Packs of Cigarettes found for Sale at a Compact Licensed Retailer during a permitted joint inspection that are not brands of Tobacco Product Manufacturers meeting the requirements as provided in paragraphs 23 and 24 or that do not bear indicia of payment of excise tax as required in this Compact shall be removed by the Tribe until the matter is resolved.

35. Tribe and State shall select a third party auditor (the “Auditor”) for purposes of verifying compliance with this Compact. For purposes of verifying compliance with this Compact, the parties agree to jointly retain said Auditor and shall each bear fifty percent (50%) of the costs of the auditing services. The Auditor must possess a valid Kansas Permit to Practice issued by the Kansas Board of Accountancy. The Tribe and State shall be entitled to freely communicate with the Auditor. The Auditor will review records on an annual calendar year basis and issue an annual report and certification as provided herein.
 - (a) Audit Protocol. To verify compliance with this Compact, the Auditor must adhere to the following protocol:
 - (b) Period Under Review. The Auditor must review records for the calendar year under audit and may review records for earlier years that are after the Effective Date but only as necessary for an internal reconciliation of the relevant books. Subject to the foregoing, records relating to any period before the Effective Date are not open to review. In situations where the Auditor is responsible for verifying records on less than an annual basis, the period under review shall not include years previously reviewed by the Auditor, except when a violation is alleged to have occurred during the period previously reviewed.
 - (c) Records to be Examined. The Auditor must review records and invoices of stamp purchases, records and invoices of Sales of joint State-Tribal stamped Cigarettes, joint State-Tribal stamp inventory, the joint State-Tribal stamping process, products sold, product inventory records, and such additional records as are necessary to verify (1) the Units Sold (2) the retail selling price, including application of Tribal sales and excise taxes, and (3) procedures demonstrating the Tribe’s compliance with this Compact, all with respect to Sales of Cigarettes on Compact Lands by the Tribe. In all situations, the Auditor is not responsible for examining, and shall not examine, records that do not relate to the stamping, Selling, or taxing activities of the Tribe on Compact Lands.
 - (d) Audit Report and Certification. After each annual audit, the Auditor shall issue an audit report and a certification, as further described below, with respect to compliance with this Compact. The annual audit report shall set forth the total Units Sold attributable to each Tobacco Product Manufacturer by the Tribe during the relevant period. The annual audit report shall also include a certified statement of the Auditor to the KSAG that the Auditor finds the Tribe to be in compliance with this Compact or else that the Tribe is in compliance except for specifically listed items that are explained in the annual report.
 - (e) Audit Schedule. Audit reviews shall take place following each calendar year (or portion thereof) during the term of this Compact, with an audit report submitted no later than April 1 following such calendar year.

- (f) Joint Audit Implementation and Review. The Tribe and the State shall meet jointly with the Auditor prior to the beginning of each annual audit. The purpose of such meeting will be to discuss the objectives of the upcoming audit, the expectations of the Tribe and of the State, the standards to be used in such audit, and any issues regarding conduct of the audit, records pertinent to the audit or the contents of the Auditor's report. The Tribe and State agree that the report will audit the processes, controls and the supporting documentation of the Tribe's purchases and Sales of Cigarettes and tobacco products on Compact Lands using both Generally Accepted Auditing Standards and Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Subsequent meetings before and during the audit may be held as required. As soon as practicable after the issuance of the Auditor's report and certification, the Tribe and the State may meet jointly with the Auditor as often as required to review the audit report and discuss any issue of concern. In the event that either the Tribe or the State disagrees with the Auditor's report or certification, or any audit finding contained therein, either Party may notify the other of the disagreement and follow the procedures for resolution of the disagreement in Article III, Paragraph 1 of this Compact.
36. All information, including but not limited to, any lists showing total Sales of Cigarettes in paragraphs 30 and 31, provided to the State shall be held in confidence and only shared with other states, agencies, or other third parties (to which the State has a legal obligation to share such information), solely for enforcement purposes or for establishing the State's compliance with the MSA, Secondary Settlement Agreement and Escrow Statutes. The State agrees to provide notice to the Tribe ten (10) days prior to the release of such information to any of the Parties listed in this paragraph. The State may not share this information with any other person without written consent from the Compact Licensed Distributor that provided the information. Such information shall further be specifically exempt from disclosure under the Kansas Open Records Act (K.S.A. 45-215 et seq.).
37. The State agrees that Tribe may propose an amendment to this Compact by written notice to the State based on any provision of a compact which State may enter into with one or more of the foregoing Indian tribes which Tribe desires to include as a provision in this Compact. Any amendment proposed pursuant to this section will be subject to approval of the Kansas Legislature and the Tribe's Tribal Council.

38. The reference to and citation of State statutes and laws in this Compact shall be for reference only for the convenience of the Parties and considered nothing more than contractual terms and obligations. While the Tribe agrees to comply with all contractual obligations set forth in this Compact, no reference to or incorporation of laws, rules, or regulations in this Compact shall be construed as a waiver or cession of any sovereign authority or immunity of the Tribe or an agreement by the Tribe to be subject to such laws, rules or regulations within Indian Country except to the extent agreed to herein.
39. Notwithstanding any provision of this Compact to the contrary, the possession, gift, or use within the Tribe's Compact Lands of noncommercial privately produced tobacco for religious or ceremonial use shall be exempt from taxation by the State and may be exempt from taxation by the Tribe. Such tobacco shall be deemed not to be a common nuisance or contraband pursuant to State law or process, in each case on grounds of non-payment of any State tax. For the purposes of this section, "tobacco" shall mean any plant, including parts or products thereof, within the genus Nicotania and which does not constitute a "controlled substance" within the meaning of 21 U.S.C. 802(6).

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: Sub SB 85 (Simon's Law), addresses a situation that as a mother, I cannot imagine. While I do think we need to address the situation this bill highlights, I have some concerns. The bill appropriately ensures that information is provided to all involved upon the institution of a do-not-resuscitate order. No family should learn of DNR orders after the fact; this disrespects the humanity of the child and the parent(s). Section 1(c) raises some concerns. Healthcare decision-making should be collaborative with opportunities for providers and others to honestly present information followed by an ongoing discussion of how to proceed with care. The standard medical education paradigm, as I understand it, teaches that the goal of end-of-life care is a shared decision-making process where the priorities of the patient and family, as well as, the clinical decision-making of the physician are aligned. The proposed legislation does not encourage that process. The implication is that physicians routinely act with malicious intent prioritizing their expectation for a clinical outcome over the desires of the family or guardian. I cannot support this legislation as it stands today and believe there may be unintended consequences that further complicate already difficult situations rather than simplifying them.—DINAH SYKES

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 20, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God and Savior, it's the beginning of another week. It's Monday!! Blues singer, Fats Domino called it Blue Monday, while song writer, B.B. King called it Stormy Monday. Both of them said that Tuesday is just as bad and Wednesday is oh, so sad. And not until the weekend, would the grind of another work week be lifted.

Lord, help us rise above all of that. To promote the health benefits of happiness, humor and laughter, Dr. Dale Anderson was inspired to declare today, Monday, March 20th, as "Act Happy Day." He said that when we act happy, we set in motion a chemistry that makes it a reality.

Maybe he was inspired by Your words in James 1:2, where You told us to count it all joy when we encounter various difficulties, because You're using them to grow us.

Abraham Lincoln said "Most folks are as happy as they make up their minds to be." So, Lord, help us make up our minds to be happy!

Irrespective of the problems we must face today...regardless of the problems we must face, give us ways to demonstrate happiness.

And let the infectious chemistry of joy, that is produced when we start acting happy, begin to lift the spirits of those around us.

In the same way that the Pharrell Williams song, "Happy," started a "happydemic" of people joyously singing and dancing. Help us put on happy faces and broad smiles that will be contagious.

As we practice being happy, permeate all that we do with Your Spirit of joy.
To Your glory and to our good, I come in the name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 21, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we come today, in gratefulness. In Psalm 100:4-5, Your people are encouraged to come to You with thanksgiving; with praise and with blessing Your name.

There's gratefulness in these halls today; gratefulness for Your salvation and gratefulness for the opportunity to serve; gratefulness for the mind and ability to serve.

We thank You for the enumerable ways in which You bless the work being done under this dome.

And thanks for the gratefulness shown to us by others. And we must agree with Psalms 40, in declaring that we don't have enough time and we don't have enough numbers to count all Your many blessings toward us.

Yet, we have been challenged by the hymn-writer to "Count our many blessings; to name them one by one; and see that it'll surprise us; what the Lord has done."

So, Lord, even though it's beyond our capacity to fully appreciate Your love, Your mercy and Your grace; even though we can't thank You enough, in the humility of our finite humanity, we simply say, thank You for everything.

And, as You continue to bless us in our areas of service, help us to maintain attitudes of gratitude. In Jesus' name, I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 22, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

The President introduced Reverend LeSean Tarkington, Grant Chapel AME Church in Wichita, to deliver the invocation. Reverend Tarkington is a guest of Senator Haley.

We pray for our nation with hopes that those elected to lead, at every level, will work now for Your people. We pray these men and women will humble themselves to the sacred task of governing for the people who cast votes. We pray for legislators who will care about jobs for the unemployed and underemployed, education and opportunity for children, and health care for all, especially the most vulnerable among us. We pray for laws that will protect and respect the earth, this planet created to be a home for all humanity. We pray for governance that knows the difference between a financial system and an economy, that seeks to protect all living organisms of earth and human life. We pray for wisdom not rhetoric, generosity not indifference and justice not patronage. We want legislators working across the aisle, not erecting barriers like the border walls that imprison even those who seek to keep others out. We pray for a just sharing in the expense of government, let those blessed with great wealth give according to their means, let all give as they are able. We pray for leaders gifted in diplomacy, blessed with character and integrity; leaders who know our security comes from relationships of trust and communication, working together in peace and harmony. Precious Creator, give us the patience to give our leaders a chance to govern with grace, compassion, justice, and love. Let us support sincere effort and celebrate wise compromise. Make us accountable to our faith and so hold those we elect accountable to serve all the people. For our health we say thank You. For our life we say thank You. For the opportunity to servant lead we say thank You. Amen

WHEREAS, St. Mark's A.M.E. Church, in historic North Topeka, was established by a group of emancipated slaves known as "Exodusters," who migrated to Kansas from Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia and Texas, and worked at various jobs around Topeka; and

WHEREAS, St. Mark's is a part of the A.M.E. Church, the oldest African American incorporated religious denomination in America, which was born out of civil unrest and survived incredible perils, including attacks by the Ku Klux Klan, to establish Christian missions in the young state of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, St. Mark's endured extraordinary prejudices and racial hostilities while forming into a congregation that began a rich history of civil rights involvement from its founding in 1880; and

WHEREAS, Despite facing many adversities through the years, St. Mark's has continued to serve as a beacon in the North Topeka community that has illuminated the city, state, nation and world; and

WHEREAS, Reverend Oliver L. Brown, who was assigned as pastor of St. Mark's in 1953, was one of 12 plaintiffs listed in a public school desegregation suit originally filed in 1951. Brown's name was listed first, as he was filing on behalf of his daughter, Linda. The case reached the United States Supreme Court as Brown v. Board of Education, which declared segregation in public schools to be unconstitutional in 1954; and

WHEREAS, Linda Brown Thompson, the daughter of Reverend Brown, remains a member of St. Mark's and, until recent health problems, was the church's pianist; and

WHEREAS, Bishop Vinton R. Anderson, who served as pastor at St. Mark's, was the 92nd A.M.E. Church bishop and also one of the presidents of the World Council of Churches. Bishop Anderson died at the age of 86 in 2014; and

A RESOLUTION commemorating the 150th anniversary of the historic Chisholm Trail.

WHEREAS, The Chisholm Trail is celebrating its 150th anniversary after a long and storied history including the birth of the American folk-type cowboy, cowtowns, cowboy hats and the beginning of the Old West era in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The Chisholm Trail was initially developed in 1867 by Joseph McCoy, an Abilene stockyard owner, and was named after Jesse Chisholm, a Kansan who owned a trading post in Wichita and frequently traded with Native Americans throughout the region; and

WHEREAS, In the Chisholm Trail's heyday from the late 1860s through the 1880s, it stretched roughly from Lockhart, Texas to Abilene, Kansas, and served as a cattle pipeline leading herds from the Texas ranches to the Kansas stockyards and railroad hubs in Abilene, Caldwell, Dodge City, Ellsworth, Newton and Wichita; and

WHEREAS, The trail was an economic lifeline for Kansas, promoting the railroad and making ranching profitable by shipping millions of heads of cattle to the eastern parts of the country using newly formed rail hubs situated close to the Chisholm Trail in Kansas. The economic activity created by the Chisholm Trail boosted the economies of many surrounding towns close to the trail and helped build the reputation of Kansas as being a leader in the beef industry; and

WHEREAS, The Chisholm Trail is considered one of the great byways of America,

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 23, 2017, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God, Creator and Sustainer, we come together for this moment of prayer.

Thank You for the privilege of coming to You on behalf of these Senators. Thanks for enabling me to come in favor of all that are under the sound of my voice. Thanks for allowing me the honor of interceding on behalf of others.

But I also thank You, Lord, for the blessedness of "conference calling," that all of us can be connected with You at the same time.

The Psalmist captured this idea for us in Psalms 94:9 when he said, You who made the ear can hear far more than any ear You have made. And, You who made the eye can see far more than any eye You have made.

You hear us individually. And when gathered as a group, You hear us collectively and simultaneously, without any error or confusion.

It's a blessing to know that because You are God, there's no static on the line, and no dropped calls when we come to you in humble submission.

So, Lord, You can hear, absolutely, the quiet concerns of each one of us and You can see with total clarity every need that we have.

Your ears are so in tune with us; Your loving concern is so drawn to us, that You provide whatever we need when we ask in humble submission (1 John 5:14).

Keep us humble Lord, always appealing to Your listening ear and watchful eye.

I come to You again, grateful for this privilege. In Jesus' Name, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote "No" on SB 23. Kansas became the first state to pass a law regulating the sale of investments in 1911, 23 years before the Securities and Exchange Commission was created at the federal level. Since then, the Kansas Securities Commission has worked to protect the citizens of Kansas from fraud and scams in the securities industry. Completely dismantling this independent agency is completely unjustified. The Commission would be better served with new leadership at the top rather than dividing its important work between the Insurance Commissioner and Attorney General's Office. This bill is bad public policy and does more harm than good. That is why I vote "No" on SB 23.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Faust-Goudeau and Hawk request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on SB 23.

(a) The judicial administrator is authorized to enter into contracts in accordance with this section for collection services for debts owed to courts or restitution owed under an order of restitution. On and after July 1, 1999, the cost of collection shall be paid by the ~~defendant responsible party~~ as an additional court cost in all ~~criminal, traffic and juvenile offender~~ cases where ~~the defendant~~ such party fails to pay any ~~amount ordered by the court~~ debts owed to courts or restitution owed under an order of restitution and the court utilizes the services of a contracting agent pursuant to this section. (b) As used in this section:

(h) Whenever collection services are being utilized against the same debtor pursuant to both subsections (d) and (e), any amounts collected by a contracting agent shall be first applied to satisfy subsection (e) debts, debts pursuant to an order of restitution. Journal of the Senate

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, March 24, 2017, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Longbine.
The roll was called with 35 senators present.
Senators Fitzgerald, LaTurner, Masterson, Olson and Suellentrop were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, thanks for giving us another week to serve. As we move into the weekend, guide and guard us with Your powerful Hand. Put a hedge of protection around our vehicles. Help us find things well as we look in on loved ones, friends and family. You said in Psalm 127:1 "If the Lord does not build the house, it is useless for the builders to work on it and if the Lord does not protect a city, it is useless for the guard to stay alert."

So, Lord, let the umbrella of Your Sovereign protective grace be over all that we do this weekend.

While we're gone, recharge our batteries. Renew, refresh and return us re-energized. I thank You for this time, that we can take a break. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

(a) Any registered voter may file with the county election officer where the person is a resident, or where the person is authorized by law to vote as a former precinct resident, an application for an advance voting ballot. The signed application shall be transmitted only to the county election officer by personal delivery, mail, facsimile or as otherwise provided by law.

(b) If the registered voter is applying for an advance voting ballot to be transmitted in person, the voter shall provide identification pursuant to K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto.

(c) If the registered voter is applying for an advance voting ballot to be transmitted by mail, the voter shall provide with the application for an advance voting ballot the voter's current and valid Kansas driver's license number, nondriver's identification card number or a photocopy of any other identification provided by K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto.

(d) A voter may vote a provisional ballot according to K.S.A. 25-409, and amendments thereto, if:

(1) The voter is unable or refuses to provide current and valid identification; or

(2) the name and address of the voter provided on the application for an advance voting ballot do not match the voter's name and address on the registration book. The voter shall provide a valid form of identification as defined in K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto, to the county election officer in person or provide a copy by mail or electronic means before the meeting of the county board of canvassers. At the

If the county board of canvassers determines that a voter's identification is valid and the provisional ballot was properly cast, the ballot shall be counted.

(e) No county election officer shall provide an advance voting ballot to a person who is requesting an advance voting ballot to be transmitted by mail unless:

(1) The county election official verifies that the signature of the person matches that on file in the county voter registration records. Signature verification may occur by electronic device or by human inspection. In the event that the signature of a person who is requesting an advance voting ballot does not match that on file, the county election officer shall attempt to contact the person and shall offer the person another opportunity to provide the person's signature for the purposes of verifying the person's identity. If the county election officer is unable to reach the person, the county election officer may transmit a provisional ballot, however, such provisional ballot may not be counted unless a signature is included therewith that can be verified; and

(2) the person provides such person's full Kansas driver's license number, Kansas nondriver's identification card number issued by the division of vehicles, or submits such person's application for an advance voting ballot and a copy of identification provided by K.S.A. 25-2908, and amendments thereto, to the county election officer for verification. If a person applies for an advance voting ballot to be transmitted by mail but fails to provide identification pursuant to this subsection or the identification of the person cannot be verified by the county election officer, the county election officer shall provide information to the person regarding the voter rights provisions of subsection (d) and shall provide the person an opportunity to provide identification pursuant to this subsection. For the purposes of this act, Kansas state offices and offices of any subdivision of the state will allow any person seeking to vote by an advance voting ballot the use of a photocopying device to make one photocopy of an identification document at no cost.

(2) For the general election occurring on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November in both even-numbered and odd-numbered years, between 90 days prior to such election and the ~~last business day~~ Tuesday of the week preceding such general election.

(3) For question submitted elections occurring on the date of a primary or general election, the same as is provided for ballots for election of officers at such election.

(5) For any special election of officers, at such time as is specified by the secretary of state.

~~(6) For the presidential preference primary, between January 1 of the year in which such primary is held and the last business day of the week preceding such primary election.~~

The county election officer of any county may receive applications prior to the time specified in this subsection and hold such applications until the beginning of the prescribed application period. Such applications shall be treated as filed on that date.

(g) Unless an earlier date is designated by the county election office, applications for advance voting ballots transmitted to the voter in person in the office of the county election officer shall be filed on the Tuesday next preceding the election and on each subsequent business day until no later than 12 noon on the day preceding such election. If the county election officer so provides, applications for advance voting ballots transmitted to the voter in person in the office of the county election officer also may be filed on the Saturday preceding the election. Upon receipt of any such properly executed application, the county election officer shall deliver to the voter such ballots and instructions as are provided for in this act.

An application for an advance voting ballot filed by a voter who has a temporary illness or disability or who is not proficient in reading the English language or by a person rendering assistance to such voter may be filed during the regular advance ballot application periods until the close of the polls on election day.

The county election officer may designate places other than the central county election office as satellite advance voting sites. At any satellite advance voting site, a registered voter may obtain an application for advance voting ballots. Ballots and instructions shall be delivered to the voter in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as otherwise provided by this subsection.

(h) Any person having a permanent disability or an illness which has been diagnosed as a permanent illness is hereby authorized to make an application for permanent advance voting status. Applications for permanent advance voting status shall be in the form and contain such information as is required for application for advance voting ballots and also shall contain information which establishes the voter's right to permanent advance voting status.

(i) On receipt of any application filed under the provisions of this section, the county election officer shall prepare and maintain in such officer's office a list of the names of all persons who have filed such applications, together with their correct post office address and the precinct, ward, township or voting area in which the persons claim to be registered voters or to be authorized by law to vote as former precinct residents and the present resident address of each applicant. Names and addresses shall remain so listed until the day of such election. The county election officer shall maintain a separate listing of the names and addresses of persons qualifying for permanent advance voting status. All such lists shall be available for inspection upon request in compliance with this subsection by any registered voter during regular business hours. The county election officer upon receipt of the applications shall enter upon a record kept by such officer the name and address of each applicant, which record shall conform to the list above required. Before inspection of any advance voting ballot application list, the person desiring to make the inspection shall provide to the county election officer identification in the form of driver's license or other reliable identification and shall sign a log book or application form maintained by the officer stating the person's name and address and showing the date and time of inspection. All records made by the county election officer shall be subject to public inspection, except that the voter identification information required by subsections (b) and (c) and the identifying number on ballots and ballot envelopes and records of such numbers shall not be made public.

(j) If a person on the permanent advance voting list fails to vote in four consecutive general elections held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November of each even-numbered and odd-numbered year, the county election officer may mail a notice to such voter. The notice shall inform the voter that the voter's name will be removed from the permanent advance voting list unless the voter renews the application for permanent advance voting status within 30 days after the notice is mailed. If the voter fails to renew such application, the county election officer shall remove the voter's name from the permanent advance voting list. Failure to renew the application for permanent advance voting status shall not result in removal of the voter's name from the voter registration list.

The defendant shall receive full credit for time spent in custody under the sentence prior to correction. Unless the motion and the files and records of the case conclusively show that the defendant is entitled to no relief, the defendant shall have a right to a hearing, after reasonable notice to be fixed by the court, to be personally present and to have the assistance of counsel in any proceeding for the correction of an illegal sentence.

(2) Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

"Sec. 13. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 22-2302 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-2302. (a) If the magistrate finds from the complaint, or from an affidavit or affidavits filed with the complaint or from sworn testimony, that there is probable cause to believe both that a crime has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, a warrant for the arrest of the defendant shall issue, except that a summons instead of a warrant may be issued if: (1) The prosecuting attorney so requests; or (2) in the case of a complaint alleging commission of a misdemeanor, the magistrate determines that a summons should be issued. More than one warrant or summons may issue on the same complaint. If a defendant fails to appear in response to the summons, a warrant shall issue.

(b) For a warrant or summons executed prior to July 1, 2014, affidavits or sworn testimony in support of the probable cause requirement of this section shall not be made available for examination without a written order of the court, except that such affidavits or testimony when requested shall be made available to the defendant or the defendant's counsel for such disposition as either may desire.

(c) (1) For a warrant or summons executed on or after July 1, 2014, affidavits or sworn testimony in support of the probable cause requirement of this section shall not be open to the public until the warrant or summons has been executed. After the warrant or summons has been executed, such affidavits or sworn testimony shall be made available to:

(A) The defendant or the defendant's counsel, when requested, for such disposition as either may desire; and

(B) any person, when requested, in accordance with the requirements of this subsection.

(2) Any person may request that affidavits or sworn testimony be disclosed by filing such request with the clerk of the court. Upon entry of appearance by an attorney on behalf of the defendant, or indication by the defendant to the court that such defendant will represent the defendant's self, the clerk of the court shall promptly notify the defendant or the defendant's counsel, the prosecutor and the magistrate that such request was filed. The prosecutor shall promptly notify any victim. For the purposes of this subsection, victim shall include any victim of an alleged crime that resulted in the issuance of the arrest warrant, or, if the victim is deceased, the victim's family, as defined in K.S.A. 74-7335, and amendments thereto.

(3) Within five business days after receiving notice of a request for disclosure from the clerk of the court, the defendant or the defendant's counsel and the prosecutor may submit to the magistrate, under seal, either:

(A) Proposed redactions, if any, to the affidavits or sworn testimony and the reasons supporting such proposed redactions; or

(B) a motion to seal the affidavits or sworn testimony and the reasons supporting such proposed seal.

(4) The magistrate shall review the requested affidavits or sworn testimony and any proposed redactions or motion to seal submitted by the defendant, the defendant's counsel or the prosecutor. The magistrate shall make appropriate redactions, or seal the affidavits or sworn testimony, as necessary to prevent public disclosure of information that would:

(A) Jeopardize the physical, mental or emotional safety or well-being of a victim, witness, confidential source or undercover agent, or cause the destruction of evidence;

(B) reveal information obtained from a court-ordered wiretap or from a search warrant for a tracking device that has not expired;

(C) interfere with any prospective law enforcement action, criminal investigation or prosecution;

(D) reveal the identity of any confidential source or undercover agent;

(E) reveal confidential investigative techniques or procedures not known to the general public;

(F) endanger the life or physical safety of any person;

(G) reveal the name, address, telephone number or any other information which specifically and individually identifies the victim of any sexual offense described in article 35 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, prior to their repeal, or article 55 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6419 through 21-6422, and amendments thereto;

(H) reveal the name of any minor;

(I) reveal any date of birth, personal or business telephone number, driver's license number, nondriver's identification number, social security number, employee identification number, taxpayer identification number, vehicle identification number or financial account information; or

(J) constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. As used in this subparagraph, "clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" means revealing information that would be highly offensive to a reasonable person and is totally unrelated to the alleged crime that resulted in the issuance of the arrest warrant, including information totally unrelated to the alleged crime that may pose a risk to a person or property and is not of legitimate concern to the public. The provisions of this subparagraph shall only be used to redact and shall not be used to seal affidavits or sworn testimony.

(5) Within five business days after receiving proposed redactions or a motion to seal from the defendant, the defendant's counsel or the prosecutor, or within 10 business days after receiving notice of a request for disclosure, whichever is earlier, the magistrate shall either:

(A) Order disclosure of the affidavits or sworn testimony with appropriate redactions, if any; or

(B) order the affidavits or sworn testimony sealed and not subject to public disclosure.

(6) (A) If the magistrate orders disclosure of the affidavits or sworn testimony with appropriate redactions, if any, to any person in accordance with the requirements of this subsection, then such affidavits or sworn testimony shall become part of the court record and shall be accessible to the public.

(B) If the magistrate orders the affidavits or sworn testimony sealed and not subject to public disclosure in accordance with the requirements of this subsection, then such affidavits or sworn testimony shall become part of the court record that is not accessible to the public.

(C) Any request for disclosure of affidavits or sworn testimony in accordance with the requirements of this subsection shall become part of the court record and shall be accessible to the public, regardless of whether the magistrate orders disclosure with appropriate redactions, if any, or sealing of the requested affidavit or sworn testimony.

Sec. 14. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 22-3716 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-3716. (a) At any time during probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or pursuant to subsection (e) for defendants who committed a crime prior to July 1, 1993, and at any time during which a defendant is serving a nonprison sanction for a crime committed on or after July 1, 1993, or pursuant to subsection (e), the court may issue a warrant for the arrest of a defendant for violation of any of the conditions of release or assignment, a notice to appear to answer to a charge of violation or a violation of the defendant's nonprison sanction. The notice shall be personally served upon the defendant. The warrant shall authorize all officers named in the warrant to return the defendant to the custody of the court or to any certified detention facility designated by the court. Any court services officer or community correctional services officer may arrest the defendant without a warrant or may deputize any other officer with power of arrest to do so by giving the officer a written or verbal statement setting forth that the defendant has, in the judgment of the court services officer or community correctional services officer, violated the conditions of the defendant's release or a nonprison sanction. A written statement delivered to the official in charge of a county jail or other place of detention shall be sufficient warrant for the detention of the defendant. After making an arrest, the court services officer or community correctional services officer shall present to the detaining authorities a similar statement of the circumstances of violation. Provisions regarding release on bail of persons charged with a crime shall be applicable to defendants arrested under these provisions.

(b) (1) Upon arrest and detention pursuant to subsection (a), the court services officer or community correctional services officer shall immediately notify the court and shall submit in writing a report showing in what manner the defendant has violated the conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction.

(2) Unless the defendant, after being apprised of the right to a hearing by the supervising court services or community correctional services officer, waives such hearing, the court shall cause the defendant to be brought before it without unnecessary delay for a hearing on the violation charged. The hearing shall be in open court and the state shall have the burden of establishing the violation. The defendant shall have the right to be represented by counsel and shall be informed by the judge that, if the defendant is financially unable to obtain counsel, an attorney will be appointed to represent the defendant. The defendant shall have the right to present the testimony of witnesses and other evidence on the defendant's behalf. Relevant written statements made under oath may be admitted and considered by the court along with other evidence presented at the hearing.

(3) (A) Except as otherwise provided, if the original crime of conviction was a felony, other than a felony specified in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6804(i), and amendments thereto, and a violation is established, the court may impose the violation sanctions as provided in subsection (c)(1).

(B) Except as otherwise provided, if the original crime of conviction was a misdemeanor or a felony specified in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6804(i), and amendments thereto, and a violation is established, the court may:

(i) Continue or modify the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and impose confinement in a county jail not to exceed 60 days. If an offender is serving multiple probation terms concurrently, any confinement periods imposed shall be imposed concurrently;

(ii) impose an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail, to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(A) and (b)(4)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision; or

(iii) revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and require the defendant to serve the sentence imposed, or any lesser sentence, and, if imposition of sentence was suspended, may impose any sentence which might originally have been imposed.

(4) Except as otherwise provided, if the defendant waives the right to a hearing and the sentencing court has not specifically withheld the authority from court services or community correctional services to impose sanctions, the following sanctions may be imposed without further order of the court:

(A) If the defendant was on probation at the time of the violation, the defendant's supervising court services officer, with the concurrence of the chief court services officer, may impose an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail, to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(B) and (c)(1)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision; and

(B) if the defendant was assigned to a community correctional services program at the time of the violation, the defendant's community corrections officer, with the concurrence of the community corrections director, may impose an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail, to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(A) and (c)(1)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision.

(c) (1) Except as otherwise provided, if the original crime of conviction was a felony, other than a felony specified in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6804(i), and amendments thereto, and a violation is established, the court may impose the following sanctions:

(A) Continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction;

(B) continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(A) and (b)(4)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision;

(C) if the violator already had at least one intermediate sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (b)(4)(A), (b)(4)(B) or (c)(1)(B) related to the crime for which the original supervision was imposed, continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and remanding the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections for a period of 120 days, subject to a reduction of up to 60 days in the discretion of the secretary. This sanction shall not be imposed more than once during the term of supervision. The sanction imposed pursuant to this subparagraph shall begin upon pronouncement by the court and shall not be served by prior confinement credit, except as provided in subsection (c)(7);

(D) if the violator already had a sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (b)(4)(A), (b)(4)(B), (c)(1)(B) or (c)(1)(C) related to the crime for which the original supervision was imposed, continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and remanding the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections for a period of 180 days, subject to a reduction of up to 90 days in the discretion of the secretary. This sanction shall not be imposed more than once during the term of supervision. The sanction imposed pursuant to this subparagraph shall begin upon pronouncement by the court and shall not be served by prior confinement credit, except as provided in subsection (c)(7); or

(E) if the violator already had a sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) related to the crime for which the original supervision was imposed, revocation of the probation, assignment to a community corrections services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and requiring such violator to serve the sentence imposed, or any lesser sentence and, if imposition of sentence was suspended, imposition of any sentence which might originally have been imposed.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c)(3), (c)(8) and (c)(9), no offender for whom a violation of conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction has been established as provided in this section shall be required to serve any time for the sentence imposed or which might originally have been imposed in a state facility in the custody of the secretary of corrections for such violation, unless such person has already had at least one prior assignment to a community correctional services program related to the crime for which the original sentence was imposed.

(3) The provisions of subsection (c)(2) shall not apply to adult felony offenders as described in K.S.A. 75-5291(a)(3), and amendments thereto.

(4) The court may require an offender for whom a violation of conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction has been established as provided in this section to serve any time for the sentence imposed or which might originally have been imposed in a state facility in the custody of the secretary of corrections without a prior assignment to a community correctional services program if the court finds and sets forth with particularity the reasons for finding that the safety of the members of the public will be jeopardized or that the welfare of the inmate will not be served by such assignment to a community correctional services program.

(5) When a new felony is committed while the offender is on probation or assignment to a community correctional services program, the new sentence shall be imposed consecutively pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6606, and amendments thereto, and the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure.

(6) Except as provided in subsection (f), upon completion of a violation sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) such offender shall return to community correctional services supervision. The sheriff shall not be responsible for the return of the offender to the county where the community correctional services supervision is assigned.

(7) A violation sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) shall not be longer than the amount of time remaining on the offender's underlying prison sentence.

(8) (A) If the offender commits a new felony or misdemeanor while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction, the court may revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction of an offender pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(E) without having previously imposed a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D).

(B) If the offender absconds from supervision while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction, the court may:

(i) Revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction of an offender pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(E) without having previously imposed a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D); or

(ii) sanction the offender under subsection (c)(1)(A), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) without imposing a sanction under (c)(1)(B).

(9) The court may revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction of an offender pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(E) without having previously imposed a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) if:

(A) The court finds and sets forth with particularity the reasons for finding that the safety of members of the public will be jeopardized or that the welfare of the offender will not be served by such sanction; or

(B) the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction was originally granted as the result of a dispositional departure granted by the sentencing court pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6815, and amendments thereto.

(10) If an offender is serving multiple probation terms concurrently, any violation sanctions imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D), or any sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(11), shall be imposed concurrently.

(11) If the original crime of conviction was a felony, except for violations of K.S.A. 8-1567, 8-2,144 and K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 8-1025, and amendments thereto, and the court makes a finding that the offender has committed one or more violations of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction, the court may impose confinement in a county jail not to exceed 60 days upon each such finding. Such confinement is separate and distinct from the violation sanctions provided in subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C), (c)(1)(D) and (c)(1)(E) and shall not be imposed at the same time as any such violation sanction.

(12) The violation sanctions provided in this subsection shall apply to any violation of conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction occurring on and after July 1, 2013, regardless of when the offender was sentenced for the original crime or committed the original crime for which sentenced.

(d) A defendant who is on probation, assigned to a community correctional services program, under suspension of sentence or serving a nonprison sanction and for whose return a warrant has been issued by the court shall be considered a fugitive from justice if it is found that the warrant cannot be served. If it appears that the defendant has violated the provisions of the defendant's release or assignment or a nonprison sanction, the court shall determine whether the time from the issuing of the warrant to the date of the defendant's arrest, or any part of it, shall be counted as time served on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspended sentence or pursuant to a nonprison sanction.

(e) The court shall have 30 days following the date probation, assignment to a community correctional service program, suspension of sentence or a nonprison sanction was to end to issue a warrant for the arrest or notice to appear for the defendant to answer a charge of a violation of the conditions of probation, assignment to a community correctional service program, suspension of sentence or a nonprison sanction.

(f) For crimes committed on and after July 1, 2013, a felony offender whose nonprison sanction is revoked pursuant to subsection (c) or whose underlying prison term expires while serving a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) shall serve a period of postrelease supervision upon the completion of the prison portion of the underlying sentence.

(g) Offenders who have been sentenced pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, and who subsequently violate a condition of the drug and alcohol abuse treatment program shall be subject to an additional nonprison sanction for any such subsequent violation. Such nonprison sanctions shall include, but not be limited to, up to 60 days in a county jail, fines, community service, intensified treatment, house arrest and electronic monitoring.";

FIFTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 28, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Petersen was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Dear Lord, You've been very good to us. We thank You that, in Your divine providence, You've seen fit to give us another day to serve in these halls.

Another day, another work week and almost another month.

There are many who started this journey years ago and have given much of themselves in service to Your people.

Some have moved on to other things, while some have been called into their after-life.

But we want to thank You for those that are still here and still in service today. Thank You for the longevity and allegiance of those like Senator Hensley, and for the 20 plus years of Senator Haley and for the first female President and her endurance, Susan Wagle. Thank You Lord for all our senators.

But, not only the senators, thanks for all those that are supporting and protecting their work.

We thank You that even though differences of opinion may arise, whether among members of the same party or with those on the other side, we can look to You to bring about harmony in spite of differences.

Lastly, Lord, please bless, and thank You for the citizens of this great State.

I offer this prayer in the precious Name of Jesus, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: Until the federal government decides what is to happen with the Affordable Care Act and makes it clear on the direction for Medicaid Expansion, it is not the right time to pass it in Kansas. The cost to our state under the present financial condition is not something we can handle. The massive tax bill facing us, along with the difficult budgets that must be developed for the next two years and the new school funding formula which will cost millions more, makes this a most inopportune time for the added fiscal burden of Medicaid expansion. I understand the need for additional income opportunities for our hospitals as well as help for needy Kansans in the gap, but I think next session, we will better understand what we are taking on. Hopefully, our financial situation will be improving further, allowing for positive direction on the expansion question.—BUD ESTES

Senators Alley and Suellentrop request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Estes on HB 2044.

Mr. Vice President: I vote "Aye" on HB 2044 for all the ambled bodied Kansans that get up everyday and go to work for companies that work them less than 40 hours a week. Therefore, they don't qualify for insurance benefits. This bill will help them and their families. And, as it has been mentioned by expanding KanCare it will create jobs and lower health costs. Well, Mr. Vice President, I also believe that this legislation will prevent unnecessary deaths and Save Lives. And, furthermore I still believe, that whatever the cost we should put people first before profit! I vote yes on HB 2044.—OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

Senators Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Pettey and Rogers request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Faust-Goudeau on HB 2044.

Mr. Vice President: I vote Aye on HB 2044 because it's the right thing to do. The Alvarez and Marsal efficiency study recommended that the Legislature make sure federal tax dollars paid by Kansans are coming back to fully fund services that can be provided to Kansans. Expanding Medicaid does just that. The refusal to expand Medicaid has already cost our state more than $1.7 billion in our own tax dollars. Expanding Medicaid helps close the gap for thousands of working Kansans who earn too much to qualify for Medicaid, but not enough to afford a private health care plan. It means these Kansans gain access to preventive services, primary care, and other services. It reduces their personal debt load, which improves their credit scores, and it makes them healthier, giving them more opportunity to find and keep better jobs. Expansion also means rural hospitals, clinics, mental health centers, and other health care providers remain open by reducing the cost of uncompensated care. Further, it creates more than 3,800 new jobs. This bill is not only good for Kansans; it is good for the state of Kansas. That is why I vote Aye on HB 2044.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

(a) The system board shall consist of one or more representatives selected by each of the boards participating in the regional system, and one or more representatives appointed by the ~~governor~~ board of county commissioners of each county that is a part of the regional system to represent territory not within the district of participating library board but within the territory of the regional system of cooperating libraries. The petition provided for in K.S.A. 75-2549, and amendments thereto, may propose the number of representatives of each such board, but the determination thereof shall be made by the state board when approving such petition. The state board shall consider any petition presented to it as provided in this act and if it approves such petition it shall adopt a resolution officially designating such particular regional system of cooperating libraries and describing the territory thereof which shall include one or more counties but shall exclude the territory of any taxing district which regularly levies 0.25 or more mills of tax for the support of a public library upon the request of the governing body of the district making such levy. SPECIAL REMARKS

Abandoned properties and their ensuing blight to surrounding properties and entire neighborhoods continue to denigrate my home County of Wyandotte as well as many other Kansas municipalities. The amendment that I offer here today is comprised of language debated in many legislative committees and will, I believe, reconcile the urgency to put abandoned properties into the hands of responsible ownership without depriving a real property owner of their rights to due process or compensation. This amendment (a slight variation of this Session's SB 31 and HB 2404, both which appear dead for this year) defines "abandoned property" and "blight" and expedites the current provisions of delinquent property tax (or "sheriff's") sales. Specific application of this amendment as law will put abandoned, blighted houses and storefronts in more frequent sales, with renovation requirements for clear title to vest, and begin to immediately improve the neighborhoods these buildings currently infest. My commitment to cure blight and protect property rights is in earnest and it is indeed regrettable that the amendment is ruled to not be germane to the underlying bill which seemingly leaves the topic to be delayed and addressed for yet another pain-staking, eyesore inducing year. –
DAVID HALEY

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, March 29, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Gracious Master, we stand here today in the Senate...in this room where decisions are being made and laws are being voted up or down that affect individuals, families, businesses and almost all aspects of life here in Kansas.

In James 1:5-6, Your word declares that if we want to know what You want us to do, that all we need to do is ask You and You'd give us Your wisdom in abundance. In verse 6, You said that when we ask for it, we should be asking in confidence, trusting, expecting and anticipating Your guidance; like asking You for rain and making sure to bring an umbrella.

I know Lord, that we don't have to remind You of the things You say. We're the forgetful ones. We need the confident assurance that comes from reminding ourselves of the things You say. Because rehearsing this promise, that You will give us the wisdom we need, helps us to increase our faith and believe that the decisions we're making will ultimately be used by You to bless Your people.

So Lord, when we're tossing and turning over what to do, over which way to go, arrest our restlessness.

Remind us to ask for Your guidance, then remind us of Your promise to provide it.
Father, I come to You in the mighty Name of Jesus. Amen and Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 30, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God of Heaven and Earth, You created us with a tendency to be gregarious; an inclination to hook up with other human beings. The problem we struggle with is that we are all different. We have different, sometimes opposing views. Sometimes, we're like a magnet and we attract. Yet, at other times, we show a different side and we repel.

You said in Ecclesiastes 4:9, that two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. So, Lord, for our good, and for the good of the work, help us rise above our differences. And even though diverse opinions exist, blend our efforts together like a Master Chef combines the different contents of a well-planned recipe...one that winds up being good for everybody.

And, when You finish with us, when the people of this state are blessed by what You've done, let it be said that it was by Your Divine hand.

I come to You this morning, in the Name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote AYE on SB 189. During the most recent debate on a revenue package, many argued we needed a budget first so that we would know how much money we would need from a revenue package. This is a budget that gives us a solid start, and is a clear rejection of Governor Brownback's recommendations. Our work, however, is not done as this budget does not include funding for Medicaid expansion, K-12 education, the highway fund, or the water plan. With this budget we begin to restore cuts to higher education and ensure the stability of the Children's Initiatives Fund by not securitizing the tobacco settlement funds. These are positive steps in proving the value of adequately funding education at all levels. We give state employees a pay increase, which, for some, will be the first in almost a decade. We also provide a rate increase to Home and Community Based Services, which helps elderly and disabled Kansans receive quality care in their homes. For these reasons, I vote AYE on SB 189.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Hawk, Kelly, Pettey and Rogers request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on SB 189.

Madam President: I vote AYE on the S Sub SB 189. This bill makes a good start towards building a budget for Kansas for the next two years. The proposal eliminates the securitization of tobacco proceeds, makes expenditures from the Children's Initiative Fund, removes ill-thought out proposals for health insurance and procurement in K-12 schools, provides both a 2% salary increase for state employees and a 5% rate increase for providers of Home and Community Based Services, and restores unfair cuts to Kansas State University and the University of Kansas. I am aware that there is still much work ahead to address revenue needs including healthcare, highway construction, school funding, the Kansas Public Employees Retirement Fund, and the State Water Plan. However, with this beginning the Senate has a much better idea of the scope of our revenue needs. I stand ready to continue work on a budget and on a revenue package that balance to address the needs of our state.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Hawk and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on S Sub SB 189.

SB 202, AN ACT concerning tribal-state compacts; approving a compact between the Kickapoo Tribe in Kansas and the state of Kansas; approving a compact between the Sac and Fox Nation of Missouri in Kansas and Nebraska and the state of Kansas; relating to cigarette and tobacco sales, taxation and escrow collection, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I'm not an expert in the Constitution of the United States but I don't think passing HCR 5003 in such a slipshod manner is what our Founding Fathers expected. While suggesting a resolution to Congress is only the 1st step, it should be done in a serious, studious manner. A thorough vetting of the pros and cons needs to be done at a minimum. That was not done. No proponents came to the hearing. No questions were asked or answered. The committee spent all of 10 minutes discussing this before full passage. No one likes excessive regulation but this resolution steps over the bounds of Executive privilege. It will cause the work of the Congress to get bogged down into every major regulatory action. Do we realize that formulating, amending, or repealing regulations would also be covered? That's part of rule making. I think it's safe to say with the current atmosphere of Washington, DC, every regulation going forward would be challenged. Perhaps that is a good thing, but do we know the potential consequences? I think we owe it to Kansans to be more thoughtful in our legislation and that's why I cannot vote for this resolution at this time.—LYNN ROGERS Senators Francisco, Haley, Hawk and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Rogers on HCR 5003.

"A participating employer may employ a retirant without regard to the compensation limitation in this subsection for a period of one calendar year or one school year, as the case may be, if the following requirements are met:

(i) The employer certifies to the board that the position being filled has been vacated due to an unexpected emergency or the employer has been unsuccessful in filling the position;

(ii) the employer pays to the system a 30% employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment. On or before July 1, 2019, and at least every three years thereafter, the board, in consultation with the system's consulting actuary, shall evaluate the plan's experience with employment of such retirants and the corresponding employer contribution rate to assess whether the employer contribution rate can be expected to fund adverse experience or higher liabilities accruing under the system in connection with employment of such retirants, to the extent that such liability can be ascertained or estimated. Based on this evaluation of the plan's experience, the board may certify to the division of the budget, in the case of the state, and to the agent for each other participating employer, a new rate if needed to more fully fund such adverse experience or additional liabilities, but such rate shall not be less than 30%; and

(iii) the employer maintains documentation of its efforts to fill the position with a non-retirant and provides such documentation to the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits upon request of the committee.

The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(e) An employer may submit a written assurance protocol to the system to extend the exception provided for in subsection (7)(d) by one-year increments for a total extension not to exceed three years. "(4) (a) On and after July 1, 2016, a school district may hire a retired licensed professional to fill a special teacher position as defined in K.S.A. 72-962, and amendments thereto, if such retirant is hired not prior to 60 days after such retirant's retirement date without any prearrangement with such school district in the manner prescribed in this subsection. The participating employer shall enroll all retirants and report to the system when compensation is paid to a retirant as provided in this subsection. Such notice shall contain a certification by the appointing authority of the participating employer that any hired retirant has not been employed by the participating employer within 60 days of such retirant's retirement and that there was no prearranged agreement for employment between the participating employer and the hired retirant. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the participating employer shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

(b) A retirant hired under the provisions of this subsection may continue to receive such retirant's full retirement benefit for a period not to exceed three school years or 36 months, whichever is less, and shall not be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4914(5), and amendments thereto, which relate to a compensation limitation which when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in a position as described herein. Such retirant may be employed by such employer for some or all of a school year, and in subsequent school years if the employer is unable to permanently fill the position with active members, so long as the retirant's total term of employment with all employers under this subsection does not exceed 36 months or three school years, whichever is less. After such period, the retirant shall be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4914(7), and amendments thereto, which relate to a compensation limitation which when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in a position as described herein. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system a 30% employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment. On or before July 1, 2019, and at least every three years thereafter, the board, in consultation with the system's consulting actuary, shall evaluate the plan's experience with employment of such retirants and the corresponding employer contribution rate to assess whether the employer contribution rate can be expected to fund adverse experience or higher liabilities accruing under the system in connection with employment of such retirants, to the extent that such liability can be ascertained or estimated. Based on this evaluation of the plan's experience, the board may certify to the division of the budget, in the case of the state, and to the agent for each other participating employer, a new rate if needed to more fully fund such adverse experience or additional liabilities, but such rate shall not be less than 30%. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to retirants employed as substitute teachers. The provisions of K.S.A. 74-4914(5), and amendments thereto, shall be applicable to retirants employed as special teachers, except as specifically provided in this subsection.

(c) Each school district that uses the provisions of this subsection to hire retirants shall maintain documentation describing their recruiting efforts to obtain non-retirant employees to fill the special teacher positions. Upon request of the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits, an employer shall provide such documentation to the committee. If the committee finds that an employer has not made sufficient efforts to hire a non-retirant for the position or if the committee finds evidence of prearrangement in violation of this section, the three-year exemption provided pursuant to this subsection may be revoked. The committee shall notify the executive director of the system that a retirant's exemption has been revoked within 30 days of making such a determination.

(d) An employer may submit a written assurance protocol to the system to make a one-time extension to the exception provided for in this subsection by one year. Such written assurance protocol shall be signed by the superintendent and the board president of the school district. Such written assurance protocol shall state that the position was advertised on multiple platforms for a minimum of 30 calendar days and that at least one of the following conditions occurred:

- (i) No applications were submitted for the position;
- (ii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants met the reference screening criteria of the employer; or
- (iii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants possessed an appropriate teaching license for the state of Kansas or possessed the appropriate credentials to receive any type of teaching license from the state of Kansas.

(f) The provisions of this subsection shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(5) (a) On and after July 1, 2016, a school district may hire a retired licensed professional to fill a non-special teacher position if such retirant is hired not prior to 60 days after such retirant's retirement date without any prearrangement with such school district, and if such school district hires a retirant for a hard-to-fill position in the manner prescribed in this subsection. The participating employer shall enroll all retirants and report to the system when compensation is paid to a retirant as provided in this subsection. Such notice shall contain a certification by the appointing authority of the participating employer that any hired retirant has not been employed by the participating employer within 60 days of such retirant's retirement and that there was no prearranged agreement for employment between the participating employer and the hired retirant. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the participating employer shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

A retirant first hired under the provisions of this subsection may be retained by an employer even if such retirant's type of position is no longer one of the five types of positions certified by the state board of education. A retirant hired under the provisions of this subsection may continue to receive such retirant's full retirement benefit for a period not to exceed three school years or 36 months, whichever is less, and shall not be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4914(5), and amendments thereto, which relate to a compensation limitation which when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in a position as described herein. Such retirant may be employed by such employer for some or all of a school year, and in subsequent school years if the employer is unable to permanently fill the position with active members, so long as the retirant's total term of employment with all employers under this subsection does not exceed 36 months or three school years, whichever is less. After such period, the retirant shall be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4914(7), and amendments thereto, which relate to a compensation limitation which when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in a position as described herein. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system a 30% employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment. On or before July 1, 2019, and at least every three years thereafter, the board, in consultation with the system's consulting actuary, shall evaluate the plan's experience with employment of such retirants and the corresponding employer contribution rate to assess whether the employer contribution rate can be expected to fund adverse experience or higher liabilities accruing under the system in connection with employment of such retirants, to the extent that such liability can be ascertained or estimated. Based on this evaluation of the plan's experience, the board may certify to the division of the budget, in the case of the state, and to the agent for each other participating employer, a new rate if needed to more fully fund such adverse experience or additional liabilities, but such rate shall not be less than 30%. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to retirants employed as substitute teachers. The provisions of K.S.A. 74-4914(5), and amendments thereto, shall be applicable to retirants employed as described in this subsection, except as specifically provided in this subsection.

(c) Each school district that uses the provisions of this subsection to hire retirants for hard-to-fill positions shall maintain documentation describing their recruiting efforts to obtain non-retirant employees to fill the hard-to-fill positions. Upon request of the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits, a school district shall provide such documentation to the committee. If the committee finds that a school district has not made sufficient efforts to hire a non-retirant for the position or if the committee finds evidence of prearrangement in violation of this section, the three-year exemption provided pursuant to this subsection may be revoked. The committee shall notify the executive director of the system that a retirant's exemption has been revoked within 30 days of making such a determination.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote NO on Senate Substitute for House Bill 2053. This legislation comes from the American Legislative Exchange Council, and negatively affects veterans. Testimony provided by the Commander of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, indicates that exposure to asbestos is the only known cause of mesothelioma, and 30% of all mesothelioma deaths are U.S. veterans. The testimony also says, "This legislation robs veterans of their constitutional right to a trial by jury by giving asbestos corporations the power to run out the clock on sick and dying veterans. Our veterans who suffer from mesothelioma, if they are lucky enough to determine a specific defendant who may be liable, should not have their cause of action delayed while they do or do not pursue claims against a personal injury trust....This also forces veterans to wait indefinitely while their attorney files a claim with little, or no, chance for a meaningful recovery. This legislation may well result in a suit not being adjudicated prior to the veteran's death or incapacity to participate in their own trial." For our veterans, I vote NO on Senate Substitute for House Bill 2053.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Holland and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on S Sub HB 2053.

Mr. Vice President: This legislation robs victims of mesothelioma of their constitutional right to a trial by jury by giving asbestos corporations the power to run out the clock on sick and dying victims. Veterans make up 30% of deaths but, teachers, firefighters, construction workers and mechanics all face on-the-job exposure. Kansas laws have already been enacted to protect asbestos companies, and ensure fairness and transparency. I vote NO on S Sub HB 2053.—PAT PETTEY

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on S Sub HB 2053.

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, April 3, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 39 senators present.

Senator Masterson was excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, many have been praying for rain. And, Lord, You have richly provided. You've significantly reduced the need, the costs and labor, aimed at irrigation.

We know, by Your words, in Job 5:10, You send the rain to water the fields. And in Genesis 1:16, You made the sun to give us the light we need.

Now, Lord, please grant to us a steady balance of both. With Your blessings, we look forward to healthy crops, with far reaching benefits.

And, Lord, turning to the subject of health care, we want and need it; as our spirit, mind and bodies lean toward failing us. But there's division as we struggle over how to provide it; particularly for the neediest. Please provide wisdom, guidance and resources.

And, Lord, with all the craziness going on; although You didn't bless us to make the Final Four, bless those that did. As many come to enjoy or are saddened over the results, please provide safety for the teams, for the officials and for the crowds in attendance.

I humbly bow at Your throne of grace. In Jesus' Name, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

The following bills were stricken from the calendar in accordance with House Rule 1507 on March 30, 2017: SB 47, SB 78; H Sub Sub SB 8.

Announcing the House herewith transmits the veto message from the Governor on HB 2044, AN ACT concerning the department of health and environment; establishing the KanCare bridge to a healthy Kansas program; concerning clubhouse-based psychosocial rehabilitation programs, received and read on on March 30, 2017.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR REGARDING VETO OF HOUSE BILL 2044

I have long maintained three criteria for evaluating Medicaid expansion under Obamacare. Any attempt to expand this entitlement program should include a plan to eliminate the inherited waiting list for services to our disabled community, include work requirements to help Kansans escape poverty, and have a neutral impact on the state budget. This bill does not meet those requirements. Additionally, I am disappointed this bill will lead to an increase in funding for Planned Parenthood.

The most effective welfare program is one that helps people find a good paying job, escape poverty, and gain economic security. This bill's work component is nothing more than a work referral program, which will not lead to real employment gains for low income families. A true work requirement, as currently exists in the TANF and SNAP programs, would encourage and assist low-income able-bodied Kansans in receiving the educational and employment opportunities they deserve. We cannot help our citizens build better lives without also incentivizing them to find a permanent path out of poverty.

Prior administrations created and expanded waitlists for Kansans with disabilities. Over the course of my administration, I have worked to reduce the disability waitlist for these services. Yet, instead of continuing this critical work, HB 2044 prioritizes service for able-bodied adults without dependents instead of members of the disability community who need services now.

The cost of expanding Medicaid under ObamaCare is irresponsible and unsustainable. A recent third party study from Aon Hewitt estimates that expansion will cost Kansas taxpayers over $1.2 billion from the state general fund over the coming years. In fact, states that have expanded have seen cost overruns of 110 percent or more than double the projection of enrollees. This bill is not budget neutral, instead placing a burden on the budget of unrestrainable costs.

Furthermore, this legislation ensures a significant increase in state and federal Medicaid dollars funneled towards abortion providers like Planned Parenthood. Kansas is a pro-life state, respecting the value and dignity of each unique human life. Our citizens do not want their tax dollars supporting organizations that are antithetical to human dignity. We cannot and will not support this legislation that continues to fund organizations that undermine a culture of life.

Finally, it is unwise to undertake such a drastic change to our Medicaid system in Kansas while our partners in Washington, D.C. continue working to overhaul the Affordable Care Act. Congressional actions indicate there are many changes to Medicaid on the horizon. Despite lack of Congressional action last week, the White House and House Leadership have restarted negotiations on legislation to repeal the Affordable Care Act. These changes may impact many aspects of the Kansas Medicaid program, and attempting to overhaul our current system while these changes are still being worked out is potentially harmful to our state.

Accordingly, pursuant to Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby veto House Bill 2044.

SAM BROWNBACK, Governor of Kansas

A motion was made that HB 2044 be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto. By a vote of 81 Yeas and 44 Nays, the motion failed to receive the required two-thirds constitutional majority of the elected members or appointed to the House of Representatives and the veto was sustained.

FIFTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, April 4, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

The President introduced guest Chaplain, Elias B. Bracamonte, Associate Pastor, Emmanuel Baptist Church in Topeka, to deliver the invocation:

Heavenly Father, we come before Your presence with a humble heart, knowing that apart from You we can do nothing.

We acknowledge that You are sovereign, Lord of lords and King of kings.

Your word tells us that, "...if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land. Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place."

We pray that You will grant us Your continued blessings and providence to meet our needs.

(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. (x) Amounts received as nonqualified withdrawals, as defined by K.S.A. 2016

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, April 5, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

We thank You for the rain we've had and for the rain yet to come. While You're blessing the crops, Lord, fulfill our need for wisdom. And, the need we have is for Your wisdom. In 1 Corinthians 1:19, we learn that there's a wisdom that is not of You; a wisdom that is void of Your Divine influence.

Since true wisdom is seeing everything from Your perspective, increase our ability to see things as You see them.

Show us with the wisdom needed for today; wisdom for the tasks that stand before us; wisdom regarding how to reach across the aisle; wisdom regarding interpersonal relationships. Give us Your insights and Your guidance on how to rise above the irritations of others.

In fact, Lord, in the wisdom of Proverbs 27:17, You said that as iron scrapes against iron, it sharpens it. So, the various scuffs and scratches of others are used by You to improve us. And, Lord, we want to improve. We want to be better...better in this house...in our house and in all the houses we enter.

So, strengthen our resolve to be wise in following You, for You are the Potter and we are the clay. Mold us, Lord, in Your way.

I pray in the Name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 1607—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to equal rights, by Committee on Federal and State Affairs:

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. Equal rights. All men are possessed of equal and inalienable natural rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Recognizing the authority of the state of Kansas to exercise its police power and its sovereign right to adopt individual liberties in the constitution of the state of Kansas more expansive than those conferred by the constitution of the United States, the state of Kansas shall hereby guarantee the inalienable rights, equal protection and due process of law of every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to expand the class of human beings that currently enjoy inalienable rights, equal protection, and due process of the law under the constitution of the state of Kansas to every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization.

"A vote for this proposition would amend the Kansas constitution to explicitly incorporate into it the inalienable right to life of every human being irrespective of age, race, gender, health, function, condition of dependency, including physical or mental dependency, or method of reproduction, from the beginning of their biological development, including fertilization. The proposed constitutional amendment also would prohibit the state from discriminating against any class of human beings in the application, interpretation and enforcement of its laws.

"A vote against this proposition would not amend the constitution, in which case the current federally mandated legal status of preborn humans would remain that of a class of human beings that can intentionally be killed."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2018 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, April 6, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, Creator of us all.

We come today, with debts we're incapable of settling; that we're unable to pay off. In Romans 13:7-10, You said we should always pay what we owe; taxes, revenue, respect and honor. Whatever debt is owed, we're to pay it. But verse 8 is where You get us. That's where You said we can never be debt free, because we'll always owe love to one another.

You said in verse 10 that love is the fulfillment of Your law.

So Lord, since we can never fully pay our indebtedness, help us do better at making a stab at it.

But, sometimes, our love capitol seems to be running a little low, especially when You tell us to love our enemies or those that don't like us or disagree with us or even try to undermine us. Lord, help us take the love and forgiveness that You offer to us and guide us in offering it to others.

Teach us how to forgive and love those who rub us the wrong way. Help us express love to those on the other side as well as those on the same side.

You said that we reap what we sow; that what goes around comes around. So, as You use others to pay to us, use us to pay to others. Thanks for the giving and receiving as we serve one another in love.

In the Name of Him Who loved us to death. Amen and Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: I vote "NO" on the amendment to Senate Bill 214 to reduce the sales tax on food to 0% starting in 2019. While I strongly support measures to reduce the sales tax on food and food ingredients, the bill is being offered to raise some of the revenue needed to balance our state budget. Senate Bill 214 proposes having a single rate for income tax. I am concerned that we would need to raise that single income tax rate in this bill to replace the taxes now generated from the sales of food, transferring much of that burden to low and moderate income Kansas households – the very people we are saying we want to help by removing sales tax from food.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Mr. Chairman: We all know and agree on the need to lower the egregious sales tax on food. I also understand and agree with the Senator from Johnson, Senator Pilcher-Cook's desire to bring the tax to zero. However, we are facing financial challenges unprecedented in our history. With the current budget deficit as well as additional spending, including our constitutional responsibility to fund an education formula, this is not a fiscally conservative or a realistic solution at this time.—JULIA LYNN

Senators Berger, Bollier, Hawk and McGinn request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Lynn on SB 214.

A motion by Senator Tyson to amend SB 214 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate recessed until 2:30 p.m.

The Senate met pursuant to recess with President Wagle in the chair.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

On motion of Senator LaTurner, the morning report and the following afternoon report were adopted.

Senator Alley moved SB 214 be rereferred to the Committee on Assessment and Taxation.

Upon the showing of five hands a roll call vote was requested.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 15; Nays 25; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Alley, Baumgardner, Bowers, Estes, Fitzgerald, Givens, Goddard, LaTurner, Lynn, Masterson, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Suellentrop, Tyson, Wilborn.

Nays: Berger, Billinger, Bollier, Denning, Doll, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hardy, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, Kerschen, Longbine, McGinn, Olson, Pettey, Pyle, Rogers, V. Schmidt, Skubal, Sykes, Taylor, Wagle.

The motion failed.

Senator Tyson moved SB 214 be passed as further amended.

Upon the showing of five hands a roll call vote was requested.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 32; Nays 6; Present and Passing 2; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Schmidt, Skubal, Suellentrop, Taylor, Tyson, Wagle, Wilborn.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on SB 146. This bill reauthorizes the statewide mill levy for school years 2017-2018 and 2018-2019, but we do not have a tax plan or a school finance plan at this time. How do we know what our mill levy should be? We don't!—

A constitutional majority having failed to vote in favor of the bill, SB 214 did not pass.

The Call of the Senate was lifted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I support the work of the Tax Committee and I support the structure of this tax plan. It is fair and provides a method to tax the people of Kansas. I do not support this tax bill due to its large tax increase to the taxpayers of Kansas.—
LARRY ALLEY

Senator Baumgardner requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Alley on SB 214.

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on Senate Bill 214. I cannot support a bill that negatively impacts low-income Kansans, especially knowing that if this bill passes, it will provide justification to make the Earned Income Tax Credit nonrefundable; causing even greater harm to Kansans who regularly struggle to make ends meet. The Senate tax committee already passed out of committee Substitute for Senate Bill 192 as a conceptual bill to make EITC nonrefundable. It was passed without the specific language drafted and without holding hearings. Not only is this bad policy-making, it is just plain bad policy for the people of Kansas. Hardworking Kansans deserve better than this. That is why I vote no on Senate Bill 214.—OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

Senators Haley, Hensley, Holland, Pettey and Rogers request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Faust-Goudeau on SB 214.

Mr. Vice President: Today, I vote no on SB 214. I believe we are on the right path, but we are not quite there yet with this bill. I support a broad, flat and fair tax system that will solve our budget issue and move Kansas to a simpler, fairer method of taxation. But, the vote today isn't about the underlying policy question at hand. Unfortunately, this was about political gamesmanship, attempting to send a false message to the public that a flat and fair approach to our tax system is somehow dead. The truth is, this vote today tells us nothing. The people of Kansas deserve better. I hope we can continue the process, and bring back a proposal that meets the needs of the state and moves us to a fairer tax structure.—TY MASTERSON

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, April 7, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 38 senators present.
Senators Masterson and Olson were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, as we enter this State House...this Capitol Building that rivals the U.S. Capitol, we see massive stones helping to form a firm, reliable foundation. And Lord, in looking at the history of this building, we find that it's so firm and strong that it withstood the Dust Bowl, and EF5 tornado with gusts of wind up to 200 miles an hour. It withstood the Legislative War of 1893, an actual battle in the House of Representatives, that involved a sledgehammer and the Kansas National Guard. Yet, with some loving care, it still stands; strong and firm.

Lord, when we think about that, let it remind us of Your words in Isaiah 28:16. You are Sovereignly and firmly establishing Your Kingdom with a strong foundation and we want to be included. You then paralleled the firmness and patience of what You desire to build in us, with the firmness of faith and trust, we're to build in You. You said, "Faith that is firm is also patient."

So, Lord, increase our faith and our patience. Remind us that what you intend to build in us and in this house will take time.

Give us a firm faith and determination to withstand the storms and winds of opposition; that Your purposes and the good of Your people will prevail.

Lastly, Lord, give wisdom, guidance and protection to the President and leaders of this great nation; that decisions will be under girded by You.

In Jesus' Name, I pray, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I am voting yes on H Sub SB 13 today because small businesses in my District have asked me too. These small businesses provide the livelihood to over 150 individuals or families who live in my district. Many of those owners were part of the discussion and deliberation process for H Sub SB 13 and reluctantly become proponents of compromise. The 3 big box grocery stores and convenience stores in my district have told me they would simply add some shelf space for product and not hire additional staff if major changes were made to our liquor laws. While access to liquor and wine in these kind of stores would be convenient, it would have meant fewer jobs and businesses for District 25. I'm glad these small businesses were part of the process on this bill because this Senate body was not. With no hearing in our Chamber and only finding out about the compromise in the last couple days, I would have liked more time to hear from constituents. I hope the 10 year compromise referenced by lobbyists and in this chamber will be honored. I for one, will remember it clearly.—LYNN ROGERS

Senator Faust-Goudeau request the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Rogers on H Sub SB 13.

(B) a merger or consolidation that would result in the conversion of the corporation's stock into or exchange of the corporation's stock for the right to receive shares or other equity interests in a domestic or foreign entity other than a public benefit corporation or similar entity; and

(2) has neither voted in favor of such amendment or such merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6518, and amendments thereto.

(e) No appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation or amendment, were either: (1) Listed on a national securities exchange; or (2) held of record by more than 2,000 holders, unless, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation to accept for such stock anything except: (A) Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders; (B) cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in subparagraph (A); or (C) any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in subparagraphs (A) and (B).

New Sec. 4. Any stock certificate issued by a public benefit corporation shall note conspicuously that the corporation is a public benefit corporation formed pursuant to sections 1 through 9, and amendments thereto. Any notice sent by a public benefit corporation pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6401(f), and amendments thereto, shall state conspicuously that the corporation is a public benefit corporation formed pursuant to sections 1 through 9, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 5. (a) The board of directors shall manage or direct the business and affairs of the public benefit corporation in a manner that balances the pecuniary interests of the stockholders, the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct and the specific public benefit or public benefits identified in its articles of incorporation.

(b) A director of a public benefit corporation shall not, by virtue of the public benefit provisions or section 2(a), and amendments thereto, have any duty to any person on account of any interest of such person in the public benefit or public benefits identified in the articles of incorporation or on account of any interest materially affected by the corporation's conduct and, with respect to a decision implicating the balance requirement in subsection (a), will be deemed to satisfy such director's fiduciary duties to stockholders and the corporation if such director's decision is both informed and disinterested and not such that no person of ordinary, sound judgment would approve.

(c) The articles of incorporation of a public benefit corporation may include a provision that any disinterested failure to satisfy this section shall not, for the purposes of K.S.A. 17-6002(b)(8) or 17-6305, and amendments thereto, constitute an act or omission not in good faith, or a breach of the duty of loyalty.

New Sec. 6. (a) A public benefit corporation shall include in every notice of a meeting of stockholders a statement to the effect that it is a public benefit corporation formed pursuant to sections 1 through 9, and amendments thereto.

(b) A public benefit corporation shall no less than annually provide its stockholders with a statement as to the corporation's promotion of the public benefit or public benefits identified in the articles of incorporation and of the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct. The statement shall include:

(1) The objectives the board of directors has established to promote such public benefit or public benefits and interests;

(2) the standards the board of directors has adopted to measure the corporation's progress in promoting such public benefit or public benefits and interests;

(3) objective factual information based on those standards regarding the corporation's success in meeting the objectives for promoting such public benefit or public benefits and interests; and

(4) an assessment of the corporation's success in meeting the objectives and promoting such public benefit or public benefits and interests.

(c) A public benefit corporation shall provide the statement described in subsection (b) to its stockholders at the time prescribed by K.S.A. 17-7503, and amendments thereto, for the filing of the public benefit corporation's annual report.

(d) The statement described in subsection (b) shall be based on a third-party standard. A "third-party standard" means a standard for defining, reporting and assessing promotion of the public benefit or public benefits and interests identified in the public benefit corporation's articles of incorporation that: (1) Is developed by a person or entity that is independent of the public benefit corporation; and (2) is transparent because the following information about the standard is publicly available: (A) The factors considered when measuring the performance of a business; (B) the relative weightings of those factors; and (C) the identity of the persons who developed the standard and who control changes to the standard and the process by which those changes are made. For purposes of this section, the term "independent" means having no material relationship with the public benefit corporation or any of its directors, officers, or affiliates, as determined by the board of the public benefit corporation or a committee thereof.

(e) A public benefit corporation shall post its most recent statement described in subsection (b) on the public portion of its website, if any, concurrently with the delivery of such statement to its stockholders under subsection (c). If a public benefit corporation does not have a website, it shall provide a copy of such statement, without charge, to any person that requests a copy. The compensation paid to directors and any other financial or proprietary information contained in the statement described in subsection (b) may be omitted from any statement that is publicly posted or provided to any person pursuant to this subsection, other than a statement provided to a stockholder, director or officer.

(f) The articles of incorporation or bylaws of a public benefit corporation may require that the corporation obtain a periodic third-party certification addressing the corporation's promotion of the public benefit or public benefits identified in the articles of incorporation or the best interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct, or both.

New Sec. 7. Stockholders of a public benefit corporation owning individually or collectively, as of the date of instituting such derivative suit, at least 2% of the corporation's outstanding shares or, in the case of a corporation with shares listed on a national securities exchange, the lesser of such percentage or shares of at least $2,000,000 in market value, may maintain a derivative lawsuit to enforce the requirements set forth in section 5(a), and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 9, and amendments thereto, shall not affect a statute or rule of law that is or would be applicable to any corporation that is organized under the Kansas general corporation code but is not a public benefit corporation, except as provided in section 3, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 9, and amendments thereto, shall be part of and supplemental to the Kansas general corporation code, articles 60 through 74 of chapter 17 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto.

(3) a "nonprofit nonstock corporation" is a nonstock corporation that does not have membership interests; and

(4) a "nonstock corporation" is any corporation organized under the Kansas general corporation code that is not authorized to issue capital stock.

~~(e) This section shall be part of and supplemental to article 60 of chapter 17 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto.~~

Sec. 11. K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 17-6712 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-6712. (a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this state who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6518, and amendments thereto, shall be entitled to an appraisal by the district court of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c). As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6701, and amendments thereto, other than a merger effected pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6701(g), and amendments thereto, and, subject to subsection (b)(3), K.S.A. 17-6701(h), 17-6702, 17-6705, 17-6706, 17-6707 and 17-6708, and amendments thereto:

(1) Except as expressly provided in section 3, and amendments thereto, no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either: (A) Listed on a national securities exchange; or (B) held of record by more than 2,000 holders, except that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in K.S.A. 17-6701(f), and amendments thereto.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (b)(1), appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6701, 17-6702, 17-6705, 17-6706, 17-6707 and 17-6708, and amendments thereto, to accept for such stock anything except:

(A) Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

(B) shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

(C) cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in subparagraphs (A) and (B); or

(D) any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in subparagraphs (A), (B) and (C).

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Kansas corporation party to a merger effected under K.S.A. 17-6701(h) or 17-6703, and amendments thereto, is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Kansas corporation.

(4) In the event of an amendment to a corporation's articles of incorporation contemplated by section 3, and amendments thereto, appraisal rights shall be available as contemplated by section 3, and amendments thereto, and the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e), shall apply as nearly as practicable, with the word "amendment" substituted for the words "merger or consolidation," and the word "corporation" substituted for the words "constituent corporation" or "surviving or resulting corporation."

(c) Any corporation may provide in its articles of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its articles of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the articles of incorporation contain such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e), shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting, or such members who received notice in accordance with K.S.A. 17-6705, and amendments thereto, with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if one of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 17-6014, and amendments thereto. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6518, 17-6701(h) or 17-6703, and amendments thereto, then, either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if one of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 17-6014, and amendments thereto. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6701(h), and amendments thereto, within the later of the consummation of the tender or exchange offer contemplated by K.S.A. 17-6701(h), and amendments thereto, and 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either: (A) Each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation; or (B) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to K.S.A. 17-6701(h), and amendments thereto, later than the later of the consummation of the tender or exchange offer contemplated by K.S.A. 17-6701(h), and amendments thereto, and 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the district court demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d), upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d), whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a), a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the clerk of the court in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The clerk of the court, if so ordered by the court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by one or more publications at least one week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the court is located or such publication as the court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the clerk of the court for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After the court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the district court, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the federal reserve discount rate, including any surcharge, as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the clerk of the court, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the district court may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this state or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the court and taxed upon the parties as the court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock, except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation; provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e), or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the district court shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the court deems just, except that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e).

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

Journal of the Senate

SIXTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, May 3, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, we come today on the eve of the National Day of Prayer. But, I'm grateful that we don't have to wait for a national pronouncement. For, according to Psalm 39:5, tomorrow isn't promised to us and we need prayer today.

Due to the value of the work being done here, the enemy of righteous progress hinders, and even undermines, the progress that blesses Your people.

So, Lord, I pray that You'll meet the needs of the these servants today. And, I thank You for the gift of prayer.

Lord, I want to reiterate the words of the Apostle John, when he expressed confidence in the fact that You hear and that You respond to the prayers of those who trust in You. Under the leading of Your Spirit, he said in 1 John 5:14-15, "This is the confidence which we have before Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests which we have asked from Him."

So, Lord, help us to be like John today. We want Your will to prevail. And even though we don't always know what that is, that's what we want.

So, help us lean with confident assurance, that Your Word never fails. Increase our faith, that we may see Your powerful Hand moving in our affairs.

And when our faith falters, let our prayer be like that of the man in Matthew 9:24, when he asked You to help his unbelief.

Thank You, Lord, for hearing this prayer. In the name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

(b) Sentences expressed in the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes represent months of imprisonment.

(c) The sentencing guidelines grid is a two-dimensional crime severity and criminal history classification tool. The grid's vertical axis is the crime severity scale which classifies current crimes of conviction. The grid's horizontal axis is the criminal history scale which classifies criminal histories.

(d) The sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes as provided in this section defines presumptive punishments for felony convictions, subject to the sentencing court's discretion to enter a departure sentence. The appropriate punishment for a felony conviction should depend on the severity of the crime of conviction when compared to all other crimes and the offender's criminal history.

(e) (1) The sentencing court has discretion to sentence at any place within the sentencing range. In the usual case it is recommended that the sentencing judge select the center of the range and reserve the upper and lower limits for aggravating and mitigating factors insufficient to warrant a departure.

(2) In presumptive imprisonment cases, the sentencing court shall pronounce the complete sentence which shall include the:

- (A) Prison sentence;
- (B) maximum potential reduction to such sentence as a result of good time; and
- (C) period of postrelease supervision at the sentencing hearing. Failure to pronounce the period of postrelease supervision shall not negate the existence of such period of postrelease supervision.

(3) In presumptive nonprison cases, the sentencing court shall pronounce the:

- (A) Prison sentence; and
- (B) duration of the nonprison sanction at the sentencing hearing.

(f) Each grid block states the presumptive sentencing range for an offender whose crime of conviction and criminal history place such offender in that grid block. If an offense is classified in a grid block below the dispositional line, the presumptive disposition shall be nonimprisonment. If an offense is classified in a grid block above the dispositional line, the presumptive disposition shall be imprisonment. If an offense is classified in grid blocks 5-H, 5-I or 6-G, the court may impose an optional nonprison sentence as provided in subsection (q).

(g) The sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3415, prior to its repeal, aggravated battery against a law enforcement officer committed prior to July 1, 2006, or a violation of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5412(d), and amendments thereto, aggravated assault against a law enforcement officer, which places the defendant's sentence in grid block 6-H or 6-I shall be presumed imprisonment. The court may impose an optional nonprison sentence as provided in subsection (q).

(h) When a firearm is used to commit any person felony, the offender's sentence shall be presumed imprisonment. The court may impose an optional nonprison sentence as provided in subsection (q).

(i) (1) The sentence for the violation of the felony provision of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 8-1025, K.S.A. 8-2,144, K.S.A. 8-1567, K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5414(b)(3), K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5823(b)(3) and (b)(4), K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6412 and K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6416, and amendments thereto, shall be as provided by the specific mandatory sentencing requirements of that section and shall not be subject to the provisions of this section or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6807, and amendments thereto.

(2) If because of the offender's criminal history classification the offender is subject to presumptive imprisonment or if the judge departs from a presumptive probation sentence and the offender is subject to imprisonment, the provisions of this section and K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6807, and amendments thereto, shall apply and the offender shall not be subject to the mandatory sentence as provided in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5823, and amendments thereto.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section, the term of imprisonment imposed for the violation of the felony provision of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 8-1025, K.S.A. 8-2,144, K.S.A. 8-1567, K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5414(b)(3), K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5823(b)(3) and (b)(4), K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6412 and K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6416, and amendments thereto, shall not be served in a state facility in the custody of the secretary of corrections, except that the term of imprisonment for felony violations of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 8-1025 or K.S.A. 8-2,144 or K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, may be served in a state correctional facility designated by the secretary of corrections if the secretary determines that substance abuse treatment resources and facility capacity is available. The secretary's determination regarding the availability of treatment resources and facility capacity shall not be subject to review. Prior to imposing any sentence pursuant to this subsection, the court may consider assigning the defendant to a house arrest program pursuant to K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6609, and amendments thereto.

(j) (1) The sentence for any persistent sex offender whose current convicted crime carries a presumptive term of imprisonment shall be double the maximum duration of the presumptive imprisonment term. The sentence for any persistent sex offender whose current conviction carries a presumptive nonprison term shall be presumed imprisonment and shall be double the maximum duration of the presumptive imprisonment term.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, as used in this subsection, "persistent sex offender" means a person who:

(A) (i) Has been convicted in this state of a sexually violent crime, as defined in K.S.A. 22-3717, and amendments thereto; and

(ii) at the time of the conviction under subsection (j)(2)(A)(i) has at least one conviction for a sexually violent crime, as defined in K.S.A. 22-3717, and amendments thereto, in this state or comparable felony under the laws of another state, the federal government or a foreign government; or

(B) (i) has been convicted of rape, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3502, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5503, and amendments thereto; and

(ii) at the time of the conviction under subsection (j)(2)(B)(i) has at least one conviction for rape in this state or comparable felony under the laws of another state, the federal government or a foreign government.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (j)(2)(B), the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any person whose current convicted crime is a severity level 1 or 2 felony.

(k) (1) If it is shown at sentencing that the offender committed any felony violation for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang, with the specific intent to promote, further or assist in any criminal conduct by gang members, the offender's sentence shall be presumed imprisonment. The court may impose an optional nonprison sentence as provided in subsection (q).

(2) As used in this subsection, "criminal street gang" means any organization, association or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, having as one of its primary activities:

(A) The commission of one or more person felonies; or

(l) Except as provided in subsection (o), the sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(a)(1), and amendments thereto, or any attempt or conspiracy, as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5301 and 21-5302, and amendments thereto, to commit such offense, when such person being sentenced has a prior conviction for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3715(a) or (b), prior to its repeal, 21-3716, prior to its repeal, K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(a)(1) or (a)(2), or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(b), and amendments thereto, or any attempt or conspiracy to commit such offense, shall be presumptive imprisonment.

Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(o) The sentence for a felony violation of theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(a), and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has no prior convictions for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3701 or 21-3715, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(a), and amendments thereto; or the sentence for a felony violation of theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has one or two prior felony convictions for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 or 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto; or the sentence for a felony violation of burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(a), and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has one prior felony conviction for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 or 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto, shall be the sentence as provided by this section, except that the court may order an optional nonprison sentence for a defendant to participate in a drug treatment program, including, but not limited to, an approved after-care plan, if the court makes the following findings on the record:

- (1) Substance abuse was an underlying factor in the commission of the crime;
- (2) substance abuse treatment in the community is likely to be more effective than a prison term in reducing the risk of offender recidivism; and
- (3) participation in an intensive substance abuse treatment program will serve community safety interests.

A defendant sentenced to an optional nonprison sentence under this subsection shall be supervised by community correctional services. The provisions of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6824(f)(1), and amendments thereto, shall apply to a defendant sentenced under this subsection. The sentence under this subsection shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(p) The sentence for a felony violation of theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has any combination of three or more prior felony convictions for violations of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 or 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto; or the sentence for a violation of burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(a), and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has any combination of two or more prior convictions for violations of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 and 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto, shall be presumed imprisonment and the defendant shall be sentenced to prison as provided by this section, except that the court may recommend that an offender be placed in the custody of the secretary of corrections, in a facility designated by the secretary to participate in an intensive substance abuse treatment program, upon making the following findings on the record:

- (1) Substance abuse was an underlying factor in the commission of the crime;
- (2) substance abuse treatment with a possibility of an early release from imprisonment is likely to be more effective than a prison term in reducing the risk of offender recidivism; and
- (3) participation in an intensive substance abuse treatment program with the possibility of an early release from imprisonment will serve community safety interests by promoting offender reformation.

The intensive substance abuse treatment program shall be determined by the secretary of corrections, but shall be for a period of at least four months. Upon the successful completion of such intensive treatment program, the offender shall be returned to the court and the court may modify the sentence by directing that a less severe penalty be imposed in lieu of that originally adjudged within statutory limits. If the offender's term of imprisonment expires, the offender shall be placed under the applicable period of postrelease supervision. The sentence under this subsection shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

- (2) the recommended treatment program is available and the offender can be admitted to such program within a reasonable period of time; or
- (3) the nonprison sanction will serve community safety interests by promoting offender reformation.

Any decision made by the court regarding the imposition of an optional nonprison sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(r) The sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5413(c)(2), and amendments thereto, shall be presumptive imprisonment and shall be served consecutively to any other term or terms of imprisonment imposed. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(s) The sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5512, and amendments thereto, shall be presumptive imprisonment. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(t) (1) If the trier of fact makes a finding beyond a reasonable doubt that an offender wore or used ballistic resistant material in the commission of, or attempt to commit, or flight from any felony, in addition to the sentence imposed pursuant to the Kansas sentencing guidelines act, the offender shall be sentenced to an additional 30 months' imprisonment.

(2) The sentence imposed pursuant to subsection (t)(1) shall be presumptive imprisonment and shall be served consecutively to any other term or terms of imprisonment imposed. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(3) As used in this subsection, "ballistic resistant material" means: (A) Any commercially produced material designed with the purpose of providing ballistic and trauma protection, including, but not limited to, bulletproof vests and kevlar vests; and (B) any homemade or fabricated substance or item designed with the purpose of providing ballistic and trauma protection.

Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(v) The sentence for a third or subsequent violation of K.S.A. 8-1568, and amendments thereto, shall be presumptive imprisonment and shall be served consecutively to any other term or terms of imprisonment imposed. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(w) The sentence for aggravated criminal damage to property as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5813(b), and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has a prior conviction for any nonperson felony shall be presumptive imprisonment. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(x) The sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5807(a)(1), and amendments thereto, shall be presumptive imprisonment if the offense under such paragraph is classified in grid blocks 7-C, 7-D or 7-E. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(y) (1) Except as provided in subsection (y)(3), if the trier of fact makes a finding beyond a reasonable doubt that an offender committed a nondrug felony offense, or any attempt or conspiracy, as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5301 and 21-5302, and amendments thereto, to commit a nondrug felony offense, against a law enforcement officer, as defined in K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5111(p)(1) and (3), and amendments thereto, while such officer was engaged in the performance of such officer's duty, or in

No other sentence shall be permitted.

(ii) The provisions of subsection (y)(1)(B)(i) requiring the court to impose a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 25 years shall not apply if the court finds the offender, because of the offender's criminal history classification, is subject to presumptive imprisonment and the sentencing range exceeds 300 months. In such case, the offender is required to serve a mandatory minimum term equal to the sentence established pursuant to the sentencing range.

(2) The sentence imposed pursuant to subsection (y)(1) shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(3) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to an offense described in subsection (y)(1) if the factual aspect concerning a law enforcement officer is a statutory element of such offense.";

"Sec. 9. K.S.A. 22-3504 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-3504. (1) The court may correct an illegal sentence at any time. The defendant shall receive full credit for time spent in custody under the sentence prior to correction. Unless the motion and the files and records of the case conclusively show that the defendant is entitled to no relief, the defendant shall have a right to a hearing, after reasonable notice to be fixed by the court, to be personally present and to have the assistance of counsel in any proceeding for the correction of an illegal sentence.

(2) Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

(i) If the sentencing judge finds substantial and compelling reasons to impose a departure based upon a finding that the current crime of conviction was sexually motivated, departure may be imposed to extend the postrelease supervision to a period of up to 60 months.

(ii) If the sentencing judge departs from the presumptive postrelease supervision period, the judge shall state on the record at the time of sentencing the substantial and compelling reasons for the departure. Departures in this section are subject to appeal pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4721, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6820, and amendments thereto.

(viii) Persons convicted of K.S.A. 21-3510 or 21-3511, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5508, and amendments thereto, shall be required to participate in a treatment program for sex offenders during the postrelease supervision period.

(E) The period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraphs (A) and (B) may be reduced by up to 12 months and the period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraph (C) may be reduced by up to six months based on the offender's compliance with conditions of supervision and overall performance while on postrelease supervision. The reduction in the supervision period shall be on an earned basis pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of corrections.

(F) In cases where sentences for crimes from more than one severity level have been imposed, the offender shall serve the longest period of postrelease supervision as provided by this section available for any crime upon which sentence was imposed irrespective of the severity level of the crime. Supervision periods will not aggregate.

(G) (i) Except as provided in subsection (u), persons ~~convicted of~~ sentenced to imprisonment for a sexually violent crime committed on or after July 1, 2006, when the offender was 18 years of age or older, and who are released from prison, shall be released to a mandatory period of postrelease supervision for the duration of the person's natural life.

(ii) Persons sentenced to imprisonment for a sexually violent crime committed on or after the effective date of this act, when the offender was under 18 years of age, and who are released from prison, shall be released to a mandatory period of postrelease supervision for 60 months, plus the amount of good time and program credit earned and retained pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4722, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-6821, and amendments thereto.

(D) criminal sodomy, K.S.A. 21-3505(a)(2) and (a)(3), prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5504(a)(3) and (a)(4), and amendments thereto;

(E) aggravated criminal sodomy, K.S.A. 21-3506, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5504(b), and amendments thereto;

(F) indecent solicitation of a child, K.S.A. 21-3510, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5508(a), and amendments thereto;

(G) aggravated indecent solicitation of a child, K.S.A. 21-3511, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5508(b), and amendments thereto;

(H) sexual exploitation of a child, K.S.A. 21-3516, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5510, and amendments thereto;

(I) aggravated sexual battery, K.S.A. 21-3518, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5505(b), and amendments thereto;

(J) aggravated incest, K.S.A. 21-3603, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5604(b), and amendments thereto;

(K) aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3447, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if committed in whole or in part for the purpose of the sexual gratification of the defendant or another;

(6) As used in this subsection, "sexually motivated" means that one of the purposes for which the defendant committed the crime was for the purpose of the defendant's sexual gratification.

(e) If an inmate is sentenced to imprisonment for a crime committed while on parole or conditional release, the inmate shall be eligible for parole as provided by subsection (c), except that the prisoner review board may postpone the inmate's parole eligibility date by assessing a penalty not exceeding the period of time which could have been assessed if the inmate's parole or conditional release had been violated for reasons other than conviction of a crime.

(f) If a person is sentenced to prison for a crime committed on or after July 1, 1993, while on probation, parole, conditional release or in a community corrections program, for a crime committed prior to July 1, 1993, and the person is not eligible for retroactive application of the sentencing guidelines and amendments thereto pursuant to K.S.A. 21-

4724, prior to its repeal, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence, but shall begin when the person is paroled or reaches the conditional release date on the old sentence. If the offender was past the offender's conditional release date at the time the new offense was committed, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence but shall begin when the person is ordered released by the prisoner review board or reaches the maximum sentence expiration date on the old sentence, whichever is earlier. The new sentence shall then be served as otherwise provided by law. The period of postrelease supervision shall be based on the new sentence, except that those offenders whose old sentence is a term of imprisonment for life, imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 21-4628, prior to its repeal, or an indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment, for which there is no conditional release or maximum sentence expiration date, shall remain on postrelease supervision for life or until discharged from supervision by the prisoner review board.

(g) Subject to the provisions of this section, the prisoner review board may release on parole those persons confined in institutions who are eligible for parole when: (1) The board believes that the inmate should be released for hospitalization, deportation or to answer the warrant or other process of a court and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate; or (2) the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement, and the board believes that the inmate is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law abiding citizen and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate. Parole shall not be granted as an award of clemency and shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon.

(h) The prisoner review board shall hold a parole hearing at least the month prior to the month an inmate will be eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At least one month preceding the parole hearing, the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was convicted shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment sessions for the inmate to any victim of the inmate's crime who is alive and whose address is known to the county or district attorney or, if the victim is deceased, to the victim's family if the family's address is known to the county or district attorney. Except as otherwise provided, failure to notify pursuant to this section shall not be a reason to postpone a parole hearing. In the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the secretary of corrections shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment session for such inmate at least one month preceding the public comment session to any victim of such inmate's crime or the victim's family pursuant to K.S.A. 74-7338, and amendments thereto. If notification is not given to such victim or such victim's family in the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the board shall postpone a decision on parole of the inmate to a time at least 30 days after notification is given as provided in this section. Nothing in this section shall create a cause of action against the state or an employee of the state acting within the scope of the employee's employment as a result of the failure to notify pursuant to this section. If granted parole, the inmate may be released on parole on the date specified by the board, but not earlier than the date the inmate is eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At each parole hearing and, if parole is not granted, at such intervals thereafter as it determines appropriate, the board shall consider: (1) Whether the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement; and (2) all pertinent information regarding such inmate, including, but not limited to, the circumstances of the offense of the inmate; the presentence report; the previous social history and criminal record of the inmate; the conduct, employment, and attitude of the inmate in prison; the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made, including, but not limited to, risk factors revealed by any risk assessment of the inmate; comments of the victim and the victim's family including in person comments, contemporaneous comments and prerecorded comments made by any technological means; comments of the public; official comments; any recommendation by the staff of the facility where the inmate is incarcerated; proportionality of the time the inmate has served to the sentence a person would receive under the Kansas sentencing guidelines for the conduct that resulted in the inmate's incarceration; and capacity of state correctional institutions.

(i) In those cases involving inmates sentenced for a crime committed after July 1, 1993, the prisoner review board will review the inmate's proposed release plan. The board may schedule a hearing if they desire. The board may impose any condition they deem necessary to insure public safety, aid in the reintegration of the inmate into the community, or items not completed under the agreement entered into under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto. The board may not advance or delay an inmate's release date. Every inmate while on postrelease supervision shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary.

(j) (1) Before ordering the parole of any inmate, the prisoner review board shall have the inmate appear either in person or via a video conferencing format and shall interview the inmate unless impractical because of the inmate's physical or mental condition or absence from the institution. Every inmate while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary. Whenever the board formally considers placing an inmate on parole and no agreement has been entered into with the inmate under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the reasons for not granting parole. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the inmate has not satisfactorily completed the programs specified in the agreement, or any revision of such agreement, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the specific programs the inmate must satisfactorily complete before parole will be granted. If parole is not granted only because of a failure to satisfactorily complete such programs, the board shall grant parole upon the secretary's certification that the inmate has successfully completed such programs. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by such agreement, or any revision thereof, the board shall not require further program participation. However, if the board determines that other pertinent information regarding the inmate warrants the inmate's not being released on parole, the board shall state in writing the reasons for not granting the parole. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a crime other than a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than one year after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next three years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to three years but any such deferral by the board shall require the board to state the basis for its findings. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than three years after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next 10 years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to 10 years, but any such deferral shall require the board to state the basis for its findings.

(2) Inmates sentenced for a class A or class B felony who have not had a board hearing in the five years prior to July 1, 2010, shall have such inmates' cases reviewed by the board on or before July 1, 2012. Such review shall begin with the inmates with the oldest deferral date and progress to the most recent. Such review shall be done utilizing existing resources unless the board determines that such resources are insufficient. If the board determines that such resources are insufficient, then the provisions of this paragraph are subject to appropriations therefor.

(k) (1) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision shall be assigned, upon release, to the appropriate level of supervision pursuant to the criteria established by the secretary of corrections.

(2) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by a parole officer or a department of corrections enforcement, apprehension and investigation officer, at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant and with or without cause. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment.

(3) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity. Any law enforcement officer who conducts such a search shall submit a written report to the appropriate parole officer no later than the close of the next business day after such search. The written report shall include the facts leading to such search, the scope of such search and any findings resulting from such search.

Whenever an order for parole or postrelease supervision is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof.

(m) Whenever the prisoner review board orders the parole of an inmate or establishes conditions for an inmate placed on postrelease supervision, the board:

(1) Unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision pay any transportation expenses resulting from returning the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision to this state to answer criminal charges or a warrant for a violation of a condition of probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision;

(2) to the extent practicable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision make progress towards or successfully complete the equivalent of a secondary education if the inmate has not previously completed such educational equivalent and is capable of doing so;

(5) unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision reimburse the state for all or part of the expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services to provide counsel and other defense services to the person. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the prisoner review board shall take account of the financial resources of the person and the nature of the burden that the payment of such sum will impose. Such amount shall not exceed the amount claimed by appointed counsel on the payment voucher for indigents' defense services or the amount prescribed by the board of indigents' defense services reimbursement tables as provided in K.S.A. 22-4522, and amendments thereto, whichever is less, minus any previous payments for such services;

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment; and

(7) shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision agree in writing to be subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity.

(n) If the court which sentenced an inmate specified at the time of sentencing the amount and the recipient of any restitution ordered as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision, the prisoner review board shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the inmate pay restitution in the amount and manner provided in the journal entry unless the board finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of restitution unworkable.

(o) Whenever the prisoner review board grants the parole of an inmate, the board, within 14 days of the date of the decision to grant parole, shall give written notice of the decision to the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was sentenced.

(q) Inmates shall be released on postrelease supervision upon the termination of the prison portion of their sentence. Time served while on postrelease supervision will vest.

(r) An inmate who is allocated regular good time credits as provided in K.S.A. 22-3725, and amendments thereto, may receive meritorious good time credits in increments of not more than 90 days per meritorious act. These credits may be awarded by the secretary of corrections when an inmate has acted in a heroic or outstanding manner in coming to the assistance of another person in a life threatening situation, preventing injury or death to a person, preventing the destruction of property or taking actions which result in a financial savings to the state.

(s) The provisions of subsections (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B), (d)(1)(C) and (d)(1)(E) shall be applied retroactively as provided in subsection (t).

The Conference Committee Report was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I'm chagrined to vote "Pass" on the CCR on SB 112; which I reluctantly, and in smallest of lettering, did sign as Ranking Minority of Senate Judiciary. This "bill" bundles TEN distinct measures which we now, no matter how we feel about any individual one of these measures, can only vote FOR or AGAINST. We established rules to limit topics to FOUR in a single "bundled" bill. What a charade this has become. How very violating and disingenuous of our intended rules SB 112 is. Beyond major procedural infractions, I oppose creating a virtual "hate crime" sentencing enhancement for crimes committed against law enforcement officers ("LEO's") due to their status, employed and optional no less, motivated by being a LEO's. Attacking a police officer solely for LEO dislike is reprehensible and heightened sentencing is appropriate. Yes, "blue lives matter." But Madame President, in our State, garnering international attention on tragic occasions recently, how can we implement a first mandatory sentence enhancement for hate crimes against LEO but ignore the same punishment for crimes motivated against other populations of Kansas? GLBT lives matter. Jewish, Muslim and Christian lives matter. And, besides the "sheddable" blue skins of LEO's, White and Black and Brown and Yellow and Red skinned lives matter, TOO. —DAVID HALEY Restraints or seclusion shall never be used as a punishment or for the convenience of staff. The extent of the restraints or seclusion applied to the patient shall be the least restrictive measure necessary to prevent such injury to the patient or others, and the use of restraint or seclusion in a crisis intervention center shall not exceed three hours without medical reevaluation, except that such medical reevaluation shall not be required, unless necessary, between the hours of 12:00 midnight and 8:00 a.m. When restraints or seclusion are applied, there shall be monitoring of the patient's condition at a frequency determined by the treating physician or psychologist, which shall be no less than once per each 15 minutes. The head of the crisis intervention center or a physician or psychologist shall sign a statement explaining the treatment necessity for the use of any restraint or seclusion and shall make such statement a part of the permanent treatment record of the patient.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not prevent, for a period not exceeding two hours without review and approval thereof by the head of the crisis intervention center or a physician or psychologist:

(2) the use of restraints when needed primarily for examination or treatment or to ensure the healing process; or

(3) the use of seclusion as part of a treatment methodology that calls for time out when the patient is refusing to participate in treatment or has become disruptive of a treatment process.

(c) As used in this section:

(12) to be treated humanely, consistent with generally accepted ethics and practices.

(b) The head of the crisis intervention center may, for good cause only, restrict a patient's rights under this section, except that the rights enumerated in subsection (a)(5) through (12), and the right to mail any correspondence that does not violate postal regulations, shall not be restricted by the head of the crisis intervention center under any circumstances. Each crisis intervention center shall adopt policies governing the conduct of all patients being treated in such crisis intervention center, which regulations shall be consistent with the provisions of this section. A statement explaining the reasons for any restriction of a patient's rights shall be immediately entered on such patient's medical record and copies of such statement shall be made available to the patient, and to the patient's attorney. records of any person who has been admitted to a crisis intervention center pursuant to this act that are in the possession of any district court or crisis intervention center treatment facility shall be privileged and shall be not disclosed except as provided under K.S.A. 59-2979, and amendments thereto.

(a) Any property owner requesting an exemption from the payment of ad valorem property taxes assessed, or to be assessed, against their property shall be required to file an initial request for exemption, on forms approved by the state board of tax appeals and provided by the county appraiser.

(b) The initial exemption request shall identify the property for which the exemption is requested and state, in detail, the legal and factual basis for the exemption claimed.

(c) The request for exemption shall be filed with the county appraiser of the county where such property is principally located.

(d) After a review of the exemption request, and after a preliminary examination of the facts as alleged, the county appraiser shall recommend that the exemption request either be granted or denied, and, if necessary, that a hearing be held. If a denial is recommended, a statement of the controlling facts and law relied upon shall be included on the form.

(e) The county appraiser, after making such written recommendation, shall file the request for exemption and the recommendations of the county appraiser with the state board of tax appeals. With regard to a request for exemption from property tax pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-201g and 82a-409, and amendments thereto, not filed with the board of tax appeals by the county appraiser on or before the effective date of this act, if the county appraiser recommends the exemption request be granted, the exemption shall be provided in the amount recommended by the county appraiser and the county appraiser shall not file the request for exemption and recommendations of the county appraiser with the state board of tax appeals. The county clerk or county assessor shall annually make such adjustment in the taxes levied against the real property as the owner may be entitled to receive under the provisions of K.S.A. 79-201g, and amendments thereto, as recommended by the county appraiser, beginning with the first period, following the date of issue of the certificate of completion on which taxes are regularly levied, and during the years which the landowner is entitled to such adjustment.

(f) Upon receipt of the request for exemption, the board shall docket the same and notify the applicant and the county appraiser of such fact.

(g) After examination of the request for exemption and the county appraiser's recommendation related thereto, the board may fix a time and place for hearing, and shall notify the applicant and the county appraiser of the time and place so fixed. A request for exemption pursuant to: (1) Section 13 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; or (2) K.S.A. 79-201a Second, and amendments thereto, for property constructed or purchased, in whole or in part, with the proceeds of revenue bonds under the authority of K.S.A. 12-1740 ~~to through~~ 12-1749, ~~inclusive~~, and amendments thereto, prepared in accordance with instructions and assistance which shall be provided by the department of commerce, shall be deemed approved unless scheduled for hearing within 30 days after the date of receipt of all required information and data relating to the request for exemption, and such hearing shall be conducted within 90 days after such date. Such time periods shall be determined without regard to any extension or continuance allowed to either party to such request. In any case where a party to such request for exemption requests a hearing thereon, the same shall be granted. Hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act. In all instances where the board sets a request for exemption for hearing, the county shall be represented by its county attorney or county counselor.

(h) Except as otherwise provided by subsection (g), in the event of a hearing, the same shall be originally set not later than 90 days after the filing of the request for exemption with the board.

In the event that taxes have been assessed against the subject property, no interest shall accrue on any unpaid tax for the year or years in question nor shall the unpaid tax be considered delinquent from the date the request is filed with the county appraiser until the expiration of 30 days after the board issued its order thereon. In the event the board determines an application for exemption is without merit and filed in bad faith to delay the due date of the tax, the tax shall be considered delinquent as of the date the tax would have been due pursuant to K.S.A. 79-2004 and 79-2004a, and amendments thereto, and interest shall accrue as prescribed therein.

(j) In the event the board grants the initial request for exemption, the same shall be effective beginning with the date of first exempt use except that, with respect to property the construction of which commenced not to exceed 24 months prior to the date of first exempt use, the same shall be effective beginning with the date of commencement of construction.

(k) In conjunction with its authority to grant exemptions, the board shall have the authority to abate all unpaid taxes that have accrued from and since the effective date of the exemption. In the event that taxes have been paid during the period where the subject property has been determined to be exempt, the board shall have the authority to order a refund of taxes for the year immediately preceding the year in which the exemption application is filed in accordance with subsection (a).

Journal of the Senate

SIXTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, May 4, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, today has been dubbed "The National Day of Prayer." And outside of our power to control, there are global, national, statewide, local and personal concerns prompting us to pray. In fact, You said in Philippians 4:6, that we should pray about everything. So, Lord, as we navigate the many serious roads we must travel, keep us humble enough to see the need for a spiritual GPS system.

You said in Proverbs 14:12 and 16:25, that there's a way that seems right, but it has a dead end.

So, Lord we need tracking from two perspectives; from the human and from the Divine. From the human stand point, we need the determination to be tracking You...following Your guidance...stopping, turning and going as You direct us.

And from the Divine stand point, when we miss, ignore or even rebel against Your guidance, we need You to help us know that You're still there to lead us; that You see where we are versus where we should be, and You're recalculating for us, giving us the new stops and turns that we need to get back on the right track.

Thanks Lord, for the privilege, power, pleasure and preference of prayer! In Jesus' Name, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

On page 14, following line 15, by inserting:

"Sec. 4. On and after January 1, 2018, K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 40-221a is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-221a. (a) ~~Any insurance company organized under the laws of this state may (1) with the consent of the commissioner of insurance, cede all of its risks to any other solvent insurance company authorized to transact business in this state or accept all of the risks of any other company, (2) accept all or any part of an individual risk or all or any part of a particular class of risks which it is authorized to insure, and (3) cede all or any part of an individual risk or all or any part of a particular class of risks to another solvent insurer or insurers having the power to accept such reinsurance.~~

~~(b) Any insurance company organized under the laws of this state may take credit as an asset or as a deduction from loss and unearned premium reserves on such ceded risks to the extent reinsured by an insurer or insurers authorized to transact business in this state, but such credit on ceded risks reinsured by any insurer which is not authorized to transact business in this state may be taken in an amount not exceeding:~~

~~(1) The amount of deposits by, and funds withheld from, the assuming insurer pursuant to express provision therefor in the reinsurance contract, as security for the payment of the obligations thereunder, if such deposits or funds are held subject to withdrawal by, and under the control of, the ceding insurer or are placed in trust for such purposes in a qualified United States financial institution, if withdrawals from such trust cannot be made without the consent of the ceding company;~~

~~(2) the amount of a clean and irrevocable letter of credit issued by a qualified United States financial institution if such letter of credit is initially issued for a term of at least one year and by its terms is automatically renewed at each expiration date for at least an additional one year term unless at least 30 days prior written notice of intention not to renew is given to the ceding company by the issuing qualified United States financial institution or the assuming company and provided that such letter of credit is issued under arrangements satisfactory to the commissioner of insurance as constituting security to the ceding insurer substantially equal to that of a deposit under paragraph (1) of this subsection; or~~

~~(3) the amount of loss and unearned premium reserves on such ceded risks to an assuming insurer which maintains a trust fund in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in (b)(3)(D), for the payment of the valid claims of its United States ceding insurers, their assigns and successors in interest. The assuming insurer~~

~~shall report annually to the commissioner information substantially the same as that required to be reported on the national association of insurance commissioners annual statement form by licensed insurers to enable the commissioner to determine the sufficiency of the trust fund. In the case of a single assuming insurer, the trust shall consist of a trusteed account representing the assuming insurer's liability attributable to business written in the United States and, in addition, the assuming insurer shall maintain a trusteed surplus of not less than $20,000,000. In the case of a group including incorporated and individual unincorporated underwriters, the trust shall consist of a trusteed account representing the group's liabilities attributable to business written in the United States and, in addition, the group shall maintain a trusteed surplus of which $100,000,000 shall be held jointly for the benefit of United States ceding insurers of any member of the group; the incorporated members of the group shall not be engaged in any business other than underwriting as a member of the group and shall be subject to the same level of solvency regulation and control by the group's domiciliary regulator as are the unincorporated members; and the group shall make available to the commissioner an annual certification of the solvency of each underwriter by the group's domiciliary regulator and its independent public accountants.~~

~~(A) Such trust must be in a form approved by the commissioner of insurance. The trust instrument shall provide that contested claims shall be valid and enforceable upon the final order of any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States. The trust shall vest legal title to its assets in the trustees of the trust for its United States ceding insurers, their assigns and successors in interest. The trust and the assuming group or insurer shall be subject to examination as determined by the commissioner. The trust, described herein, must remain in effect for as long as the assuming group or insurer shall have outstanding obligations due under the reinsurance agreements subject to the trust.~~

~~(B) No later than February 28 of each year the trustees of the trust shall report to the commissioner in writing setting forth the balance of the trust and listing the trust's investments at the preceding year end and shall certify the date of termination of the trust, if so planned, or certify that the trust shall not expire prior to the next following December 31.~~

~~(C) The credit authorized under subsection (b)(3) shall not be allowed unless the assuming group or insurer agrees in the reinsurance agreements:~~

~~(i) That in the event of the failure of the assuming group or insurer to perform its obligations under the terms of the reinsurance agreement, the assuming group or insurer, at the request of the ceding insurer, shall submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction in any state of the United States, will comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction, and will abide by the final decision of such court or of any appellate court in the event of an appeal; and~~

~~(ii) to designate the commissioner or a designated attorney as its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served any lawful process in any action, suit or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of the ceding company.~~

~~(iii) This provision is not intended to conflict with or override the obligation of the parties to a reinsurance agreement to arbitrate their disputes, if such an obligation to do so is created in the agreement.~~

~~(D) (i) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (3) of subsection (b), a "qualified United States financial institution" means, for purposes of those provisions of this law~~ specifying those institutions that are eligible to act as a fiduciary of a trust, an institution that:

~~(aa) Is organized, or (in the case of a U.S. branch or agency office of a foreign banking organization) licensed, under the laws of the United States or any state thereof and has been granted authority to operate with fiduciary powers; and~~

~~(bb) is regulated, supervised and examined by federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies.~~

~~(ii) For the purposes of paragraph (2) of subsection (b), "qualified United States financial institution" means, for the purpose of those provisions of this law specifying those institutions that are eligible to issue a letter of credit, an institution that:~~

~~(aa) Is organized or (in the case of a United States office of a foreign banking organization) licensed, under the laws of the United States or any state thereof;~~

~~(bb) is regulated, supervised and examined by United States federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies; and~~

~~(cc) has been determined by the insurance commissioner to meet such standards of financial condition and standing as are considered necessary and appropriate to regulate the quality of financial institutions whose letters of credit will be acceptable to the commissioner.~~

~~In making determinations under this clause, the commissioner may consult with the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners.~~

~~(e) No credit shall be allowed, as an admitted asset or deduction from liability, to any ceding insurer organized under the laws of this state for reinsurance, unless the reinsurance contract provides, in substance, that in the event of the insolvency of the ceding insurer, the reinsurance shall be payable under a contract reinsured by the assuming insurer on the basis of the liability of the ceding company under the contract or contracts reinsured, as approved by the liquidation court, without diminution because of the insolvency of the ceding company. Any reinsurance agreement entered into with a domestic insurer which may be canceled on less than 90 days' notice, and which cancellation would constitute a material cancellation as defined by K.S.A. 40-2-156a, and amendments thereto, must provide in the reinsurance agreement, in substance, for a run-off of the reinsurance in force at the date of cancellation, unless the agreement is canceled for nonpayment of premium or fraud in the inducement. Reinsurance payments shall be made directly to the ceding insurer or to its domiciliary liquidator except: (1) Where the reinsurance contract or policy reinsured specifically provides another payee of such reinsurance in the event of the insolvency of the ceding insurer; or (2) where the assuming insurer, with the consent of the direct insured, has assumed such policy obligations of the ceding insurer as direct obligations of the assuming insurer to the payees under such policies and in substitution for the obligations of the ceding insurer to such payees.~~

~~(d) The reinsurance agreement may provide that the domiciliary liquidator of an insolvent ceding insurer shall give written notice to the assuming insurer of the pendency of a claim against such ceding insurer on the contract reinsured within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the liquidation proceeding. During the pendency of such claim, any assuming insurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it deems available to the ceding insurer, or its liquidator. Such expense may be filed as a claim against the insolvent ceding insurer to the extent of a~~ proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the ceding insurer solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the assuming insurer. Where two or more assuming insurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose a defense to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of the reinsurance agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the ceding insurer. Credit for reinsurance shall be allowed a domestic ceding insurer as either an asset or a reduction from liability on account of reinsurance ceded only when the reinsurer meets the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) or (6). Credit shall be allowed under paragraphs (1), (2) or (3) of this subsection only as respects cessions of those kinds or classes of business that the assuming insurer is licensed or otherwise permitted to write or assume in its state of domicile or, in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer, in the state through which it is entered and licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance. Credit shall be allowed only under paragraphs (3) or (4) of this subsection if the applicable requirements of paragraph (7) have been satisfied.

(1) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that is licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state.

(2) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that is accredited by the commissioner as a reinsurer in this state. In order to be eligible for accreditation, an assuming insurer must:

(A) File with the commissioner evidence of the assuming insurer's submission to this state's jurisdiction;

(B) submit to this state's authority to examine the assuming insurer's books and records;

(C) be licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in at least one state, or in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer, be entered through and licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in at least one state;

(D) file annually with the commissioner a copy of the assuming insurer's annual statement filed with the insurance department of the assuming insurer's state of domicile and a copy of the assuming insurer's most recent audited financial statement; and

(E) demonstrate to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it has adequate financial capacity to meet the assuming insurer's reinsurance obligations and is otherwise qualified to assume reinsurance from domestic insurers. An assuming insurer is deemed to meet this requirement as of the time of the assuming insurer's application if it maintains a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount not less than $20,000,000 and its accreditation has not been denied by the commissioner within 90 days after submission of its application.

(3) (A) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that is domiciled in, or in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer is entered through, a state that employs standards regarding credit for reinsurance substantially similar to those applicable under this statute and the assuming insurer or United States branch of an alien assuming insurer:

(i) Maintains a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount not less than $20,000,000; and

(ii) submits to the authority of this state to examine the assuming insurer's books and records.

(B) The requirement of subsection (a)(3)(A)(i) does not apply to reinsurance ceded and assumed pursuant to pooling arrangements among insurers in the same holding company system.

(4) (A) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that maintains a trust fund in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in subsection (c)(2), for the payment of the valid claims of the assuming insurer's United States ceding insurers, their assigns and successors in interest. To enable the commissioner to determine the sufficiency of the trust fund, the assuming insurer shall report annually to the commissioner information substantially the same as that required to be reported on the national association of insurance commissioners annual statement form by licensed insurers. The assuming insurer shall submit to examination of its books and records by the commissioner and bear the expense of examination:

(B) (i) credit for reinsurance shall not be granted under this subsection unless the form of the trust and any amendments to the trust have been approved by either of the following:

(a) The commissioner of the state where the trust is domiciled; or

(b) the commissioner of another state who, pursuant to the terms of the trust instrument, has accepted principal regulatory oversight of the trust.

(ii) The form of the trust and any trust amendments also shall be filed with the commissioner of every state in which the ceding insurer's beneficiaries of the trust are domiciled. The trust instrument shall provide that contested claims shall be valid and enforceable upon the final order of any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States. The trust shall vest legal title to the trust's assets in its trustees for the benefit of the assuming insurer's United States ceding insurers, their assigns and successors in interest. The trust and the assuming insurer shall be subject to examination as determined by the commissioner.

(iii) The trust shall remain in effect for as long as the assuming insurer has outstanding obligations due under the reinsurance agreements subject to the trust. No later than February 28 of each year, the trustee of the trust shall report to the commissioner in writing the balance of the trust and the listing of the trust's investments at the preceding year-end and shall certify the date of termination of the trust, if so planned, or certify that the trust will not expire prior to the following December 31.

(C) The following requirements apply to the following categories of the assuming insurer:

(i) The trust fund for a single assuming insurer shall consist of funds in trust in an amount not less than the assuming insurer's liabilities attributable to reinsurance ceded by United States ceding insurers, and, in addition, the assuming insurer shall maintain a trustee surplus of not less than $20,000,000, except as provided in subsection (a)(4)(C)

(ii) At any time after the assuming insurer has permanently discontinued underwriting new business secured by the trust for at least three full years, the commissioner with principal regulatory oversight of the trust may authorize a reduction in the required trustee surplus, but only after a finding, based on an assessment of the risk, that the new required surplus level is adequate for the protection of United States ceding insurers, policyholders and claimants in light of reasonably foreseeable adverse loss development. The risk assessment may involve an actuarial review, including an independent analysis of reserves and cash flows, and shall consider all material risk factors, including, when applicable, the lines of business involved, the stability of the incurred loss estimates and the effect of the surplus requirements on the assuming insurer's liquidity or solvency. The minimum required trusteed surplus shall not be reduced to an amount less than 30% of the assuming insurer's liabilities attributable to reinsurance ceded by United States ceding insurers covered by the trust;

(iii) (a) in the case of a group including incorporated and individual unincorporated underwriters, all of the following requirements are met:

(1) For reinsurance ceded under reinsurance agreements with an inception, amendment or renewal date on or after January 1, 1993, the trust shall consist of a trusteed account in an amount not less than the respective underwriters' several liabilities attributable to business ceded by United States domiciled ceding insurers to any underwriter of the group;

(2) for reinsurance ceded under reinsurance agreements with an inception date on or before December 31, 1992, and not amended or renewed after that date, notwithstanding the other provisions of this act, the trust shall consist of a trusteed account in an amount not less than the respective underwriters' several insurance and reinsurance liabilities attributable to business written in the United States; and

(3) in addition to the trusts described in subsections (a)(4)(B)(iii)(a)(1) and (a)(4)(B)(iii)(a)(2), the group shall maintain in trust a trusteed surplus of which $100,000,000 shall be held jointly for the benefit of the United States domiciled ceding insurers of any member of the group for all years of account.

(b) The incorporated members of the group shall not be engaged in any business other than underwriting as a member of the group and shall be subject to the same level of regulation and solvency control by the group's domiciliary regulator as are the unincorporated members of the group; and

(c) within 90 days after its financial statements are due to be filed with the group's domiciliary regulator, the group shall provide to the commissioner an annual certification by the group's domiciliary regulator of the solvency of each underwriter member, or if a certification is unavailable, financial statements prepared by independent public accountants of each underwriter member of the group.

(iv) In the case of a group of incorporated underwriters under common administration, the group shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Have continuously transacted an insurance business outside the United States for at least three years immediately prior to making application for accreditation;

(b) maintain an aggregate policyholders' surplus of at least $10,000,000,000;

(c) maintain a trust fund in an amount not less than the group's several liabilities attributable to business ceded by United States domiciled ceding insurers to any member of the group pursuant to reinsurance contracts issued in the name of the group;

(d) in addition, maintain a joint trusteed surplus of which $100,000,000 shall be held jointly for the benefit of United States domiciled ceding insurers of any member of the group as additional security for these liabilities; and

(e) within 90 days after the group's financial statements are due to be filed with the group's domiciliary regulator, make available to the commissioner an annual certification of each underwriter member's solvency by the member's domiciliary regulator and financial statements of each underwriter member of the group prepared by its independent public accountant.

(5) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that has been certified by the commissioner as a reinsurer in this state and the reinsurer secures its obligations in accordance with the following requirements:

(A) In order to be eligible for certification, the assuming insurer shall meet all of the following requirements:

(i) Be domiciled and licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in a qualified jurisdiction, as determined by the commissioner pursuant to subsection (a)(5)(C);

(ii) maintain minimum capital and surplus, or its equivalent, in an amount to be determined by the commissioner pursuant to regulation;

(iii) maintain financial strength ratings from two or more rating agencies deemed acceptable by the commissioner pursuant to regulation;

(iv) agree to submit to the jurisdiction of this state, appoint the commissioner as the assuming insurer's agent for service of process in this state, and agree to provide security for 100% of the assuming insurer's liabilities attributable to reinsurance ceded by United States ceding insurers if the assuming insurer resists enforcement of a final United States judgment;

(v) agree to meet applicable information filing requirements as determined by the commissioner, both with respect to an initial application for certification and on an ongoing basis; and

(vi) satisfy any other requirements for certification deemed relevant by the commissioner.

(B) An association including incorporated and individual unincorporated underwriters may be a certified reinsurer. In order to be eligible for certification, in addition to satisfying the requirements of subsection (a)(5)(A) and all of the following requirements:

(i) The association shall satisfy its minimum capital and surplus requirements through the capital and surplus equivalents, net of liabilities, of the association and its members, which shall include a joint central fund that may be applied to any unsatisfied obligation of the association or any of its members, in an amount determined by the commissioner to provide adequate protection;

(ii) the incorporated members of the association shall not be engaged in any business other than underwriting as a member of the association and shall be subject to the same level of regulation and solvency control by the association's domiciliary regulator as are the unincorporated members of the association; and

(iii) within 90 days after the association's financial statements are due to be filed with the association's domiciliary regulator, the association shall provide to the commissioner an annual certification by the association's domiciliary regulator of the solvency of each underwriter member. If a certification is unavailable, financial statements prepared by independent public accountants of each underwriter member of the association shall be provided instead.

(C) The commissioner shall create and publish a list of qualified jurisdictions under which an assuming insurer licensed and domiciled in such jurisdiction is eligible to be considered for certification by the commissioner as a certified reinsurer.

(i) In order to determine whether the domiciliary jurisdiction of a non-United States assuming insurer is eligible to be recognized as a qualified jurisdiction, the commissioner shall evaluate the appropriateness and effectiveness of the reinsurance supervisory system of the jurisdiction, both initially and on an ongoing basis, and consider the rights, benefits and the extent of reciprocal recognition afforded by the non-United States jurisdiction to reinsurers licensed and domiciled in the United States. In order to be recognized as a qualified jurisdiction, a jurisdiction must agree to share information and cooperate with the commissioner with respect to all certified reinsurers domiciled within that jurisdiction. A jurisdiction shall not be recognized as a qualified jurisdiction if the commissioner has determined that the jurisdiction does not adequately and promptly enforce final United States judgments and arbitration awards. Additional factors may be considered in the discretion of the commissioner.

(ii) A list of qualified jurisdictions shall be published through the national association of insurance commissioners' process. The commissioner shall consider this list in determining qualified jurisdictions. If the commissioner recognizes a jurisdiction as qualified that does not appear on the list of qualified jurisdictions, the commissioner shall provide thoroughly documented justification in accordance with criteria to be developed under rules and regulations.

(iii) United States jurisdictions that meet the requirement for accreditation under the national association of insurance commissioners' financial standards and accreditation program shall be recognized as qualified jurisdictions.

(iv) If a certified reinsurer's domiciliary jurisdiction ceases to be a qualified jurisdiction, the commissioner has the discretion to suspend the reinsurer's certification indefinitely, in lieu of revocation.

(D) The commissioner shall assign a rating to each certified reinsurer, giving due consideration to the financial strength ratings that have been assigned by rating agencies deemed acceptable to the commissioner pursuant to rules and regulations. The commissioner shall publish a list of all certified reinsurers and their ratings.

(E) A certified reinsurer shall secure obligations assumed from United States ceding insurers under this subsection at a level consistent with the certified reinsurer's rating, as specified in rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(i) In order for a domestic ceding insurer to qualify for full financial statement credit for reinsurance ceded to a certified reinsurer, the certified reinsurer shall maintain security in a form acceptable to the commissioner and consistent with the provisions of subsection (b), or in a multi-beneficiary trust in accordance with subsection (a)(4), except as otherwise provided in this subsection.

(ii) If a certified reinsurer maintains a trust to fully secure its obligations subject to subsection (a)(4), and chooses to secure its obligations incurred as a certified reinsurer in the form of a multi-beneficiary trust, the certified reinsurer shall maintain separate trust accounts for its obligations incurred under reinsurance agreements issued or renewed as a certified reinsurer with reduced security as permitted by this subsection or comparable laws of other United States jurisdictions and for its obligations subject to subsection (a)(4). It shall be a condition to the grant of certification under subsection (a) (5) that the certified reinsurer shall have bound itself, by the language of the trust and agreement with the commissioner who has principal regulatory oversight of each such trust account, to fund, upon termination of any such trust account, any deficiency of any other such trust account out of the remaining surplus of the terminated trust account.

(iii) The minimum trusteed surplus requirements provided in subsection (a)(4) are not applicable with respect to a multi-beneficiary trust maintained by a certified reinsurer for the purpose of securing obligations incurred under this subsection, except that such trust shall maintain a minimum trusteed surplus of $10,000,000.

(iv) With respect to obligations incurred by a certified reinsurer under this subsection, if the security is insufficient, the commissioner shall reduce the allowable credit by an amount proportionate to the deficiency, and the commissioner has the discretion to impose further reductions in allowable credit upon finding there is a material risk that the certified reinsurer's obligations will not be paid in full when due.

(v) For purposes of this subsection, a certified reinsurer whose certification has been terminated for any reason shall be treated as a certified reinsurer required to secure 100% of its obligations.

(a) As used in this paragraph, the term "terminated" includes revocation, suspension, voluntary surrender and inactive status.

(b) If the commissioner continues to assign a higher rating as permitted by other provisions of this subsection, this requirement does not apply to a certified reinsurer in inactive status or to a reinsurer whose certification has been suspended.

(F) If an assuming insurer applying for certification as a reinsurer in this state has been certified as a reinsurer in an another jurisdiction accredited by the national association of insurance commissioners, the commissioner has the discretion to defer to that jurisdiction's certification, and has the discretion to defer to the rating assigned by that jurisdiction, and such assuming insurer shall be considered to be a certified reinsurer in this state.

(G) A certified reinsurer that ceases to assume new business in this state may request to maintain the reinsurer's certification in inactive status in order to continue to qualify for a reduction in amount of security required for the reinsurer's in force business. An inactive certified reinsurer shall continue to comply with all applicable requirements of this subsection, and the commissioner shall assign a rating that takes into account, if relevant, the reasons why the reinsurer is not assuming new business.

(6) Credit shall be allowed when the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that does not meet the requirements of subsections (a)(1) through (a)(5), but only as to the insurance of risks located in jurisdictions where the reinsurance is required by applicable law or regulation of that jurisdiction.

(7) If the assuming insurer is not licensed, accredited or certified to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state, the credit permitted by subsections (a)(3) and (a)(4) of this section shall not be allowed, unless the assuming insurer agrees in the reinsurance agreement to do all of the following:

(A) (i) In the event of the failure of the assuming insurer to perform its obligations under the terms of the reinsurance agreement, the assuming insurer, at the request of the ceding insurer, will: Submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction in any state of the United States; comply with all requirements necessary to give the court jurisdiction; and abide by the final decision of the court or of any appellate court in the event of an appeal; and

(ii) the assuming insurer will designate the commissioner or a designated attorney as its true and lawful attorney to receive lawful process in any action, suit or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of the ceding insurer.

(B) This subsection is not intended to conflict with or override the obligation of the parties to a reinsurance agreement to arbitrate their disputes, if the obligation is created in the agreement.

(8) If the assuming insurer does not meet the requirements of subsection (a)(1), (a)(2) or (a)(3), the credit permitted by subsection (a)(4) or (a)(5) shall not be allowed unless the assuming insurer agrees in a trust agreement to the following conditions:

(A) Notwithstanding any other provisions in the trust instrument, if the trust fund is inadequate because the trust fund contains an amount less than the amount required by subsection (a)(4)(C), or if the grantor of the trust has been declared insolvent or has been placed into receivership, rehabilitation, liquidation or similar proceedings under the laws of the trust's state or country of domicile, the trustee shall comply with an order of the commissioner with regulatory oversight over the trust or with an order of a court of competent jurisdiction directing the trustee to transfer all of the assets of the trust fund to the commissioner with regulatory oversight over the trust.

(B) The assets shall be distributed and claims shall be filed with and valued by the commissioner with regulatory oversight in accordance with the laws of the state in which the trust is domiciled that are applicable to the liquidation of domestic insurance companies.

(C) If the commissioner with regulatory oversight over the trust determines that the assets of the trust fund or any part of the trust fund are not necessary to satisfy the claims of the United States ceding insurers of the grantor of the trust, the assets of the trust or part of those assets shall be returned by the commissioner with regulatory oversight over the trust to the trustee for distribution in accordance with the trust agreement.

(D) The grantor shall waive any right otherwise available to it under United States law that is inconsistent with the provisions of this subsection.

(9) Credit for reinsurance ceded to a certified reinsurer is limited to reinsurance contracts entered or renewed on or after the effective date of the certification of the assuming insurer by the commissioner.

(10) If an accredited or certified reinsurer ceases to meet the requirements of this section for accreditation or certification, the commissioner may suspend or revoke the reinsurer's accreditation or certification.

(A) The commissioner shall give the reinsurer notice and opportunity for a hearing prior to such suspension or revocation. The suspension or revocation shall not take effect until after the commissioner's order on hearing, unless one of the following applies:

(i) The reinsurer waives its right to a hearing;

(ii) the commissioner's order is based on regulatory action by the reinsurer's domiciliary jurisdiction or by the voluntary surrender or termination of the reinsurer's eligibility to transact insurance or reinsurance business in its domiciliary jurisdiction or in the primary certifying state of the reinsurer under subsection (a)(5)(F); or

(iii) the commissioner finds that an emergency requires immediate action and a court of competent jurisdiction has not stayed the commissioner's action.

(B) While a reinsurer's accreditation or certification is suspended, a reinsurance contract issued or renewed after the effective date of the suspension does not qualify for credit, except to the extent that the reinsurer's obligations under the reinsurance contract are secured in accordance with subsection (b). If a reinsurer's accreditation or certification is revoked, credit for reinsurance shall not be granted after the effective date of the revocation, except to the extent that the reinsurer's obligations under the contract are secured in accordance with subsection (a)(5)(A) or (a)(5)(B).

(11) (A) A domestic ceding insurer shall take steps to manage its reinsurance recoverables proportionate to its own book of business. A domestic ceding insurer shall notify the commissioner within 30 days after reinsurance recoverables from any single assuming insurer, or group of affiliated assuming insurers, exceeds 50% of the domestic ceding insurer's last reported surplus to policyholders, or after it is determined that reinsurance recoverables from any single assuming insurer, or group of affiliated assuming insurers, is likely to exceed this limit. The notification shall demonstrate that the exposure is safely managed by the domestic ceding insurer.

(B) A domestic ceding insurer shall take steps to diversify its reinsurance program. A domestic ceding insurer shall notify the commissioner within 30 days after ceding to any single assuming insurer, or group of affiliated assuming insurers, more than 20% of the ceding insurer's gross written premium in the prior calendar year, or after the domestic ceding insurer has determined that the reinsurance ceded to any single assuming insurer, or group of affiliated assuming insurers, is likely to exceed this limit. The notification shall demonstrate that the exposure is safely managed by the domestic ceding insurer.

(b) An asset or a reduction from liability for the reinsurance ceded by a domestic insurer to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of subsection (a) shall be allowed in an amount not exceeding the liabilities carried by the ceding insurer. The reduction shall be in the amount of funds held by or on behalf of the ceding insurer, including funds held in trust for the ceding insurer, under a reinsurance contract with the assuming insurer as security for the payment of obligations under the contract, if the security is held in the United States subject to withdrawal solely by, and under the exclusive control of, the ceding insurer; or, in the case of a trust, held in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in subsection (c)(2). The security may be in the form of any of the following:

(1) Cash;

(2) a security listed by the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners, including those securities deemed exempt from filing as defined by the purposes and procedures manual of the national association of insurance commissioners investment analysis office, and qualifying as admitted assets;

(3) (A) clean, irrevocable, unconditional letters of credit, issued or confirmed by a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in subsection (c)(1), effective no later than December 31 of the year for which the filing is being made, and in the possession of, or in trust for, the ceding insurer on or before the filing date of the ceding insurer's annual statement; or

(B) a letter of credit meeting applicable standards of issuer acceptability as of the date of the letter of credit's issuance, or confirmation, shall, notwithstanding the issuing or confirming, institution's subsequent failure to meet applicable standards of issuer acceptability, continue to be acceptable as security until their expiration, extension, renewal, modification or amendment, whichever first occurs; or

(4) any other form of security acceptable to the commissioner.

(c) (1) For purposes of subsection (b)(3), a "qualified United States financial institution" means an institution that meets all of the following requirements:

(A) Is organized or, in the case of a United States office of a foreign banking organization, licensed under the laws of the United States or any state thereof;

(B) is regulated, supervised and examined by United States federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies; and

(C) has been determined by either the commissioner or the securities valuation office of the national association of insurance commissioners to meet the standards of financial condition and standing as are considered necessary and appropriate to regulate the quality of financial institutions whose letters of credit will be acceptable to the commissioner.

(2) For purposes of those provisions of this law specifying those institutions that are eligible to act as a fiduciary of a trust, a "qualified United States financial institution" means an institution that meets all of the following requirements:

(i) Is organized, or in the case of a United States branch or agency office of a foreign banking organization, is licensed under the laws of the United States or any state of the United States and has been granted authority to operate with fiduciary powers; and

(ii) is regulated, supervised and examined by federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies.

(d) The commissioner is hereby authorized to adopt any rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this law. Such rules and regulations shall be adopted no later than January 1, 2019.

(e) This section shall apply to all cessions under reinsurance contracts that occur on or after January 1, 2018.";

Journal of the Senate

SIXTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, May 5, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, as we move into the weekend, and as more efforts go toward the tasks at hand, please give wisdom, guidance and resources.

And, nonetheless, we need discernment. We need the ability to discriminate between that which truly comes from You and that which is a counterfeit.

As we work in these halls to elevate Your people, there is an undertaking in our midst, designed to take us under. Sometimes we feel it in these halls. Sometimes we feel it in our communities. And, sometimes we feel it in our homes.

As a result, we're often tempted to listen to counterfeit wisdom; to heed faulty guidance and to grab for resources found in quicksand...resources that will pull us down. Where You provide butter, there's usually an offer of margarine.

The decisions we make are so important, that in 2 Timothy 2:1-5, You command people to pray for those of us in authority, so we all can prosper and live in peace.

So, Lord, as You honor the multitude of prayers being offered for all the servants in these halls, help us to discern and to experience Your wisdom, Your guidance and resources that come from Your hand.

For all of this, we praise You and shower blessings upon Your people. I thank You Lord for hearing and answering, in the Name of Jesus, Amen and Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Senator Petersen moved the Senate adopt the Conference Committee Report on SB 89.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 32; Nays 7; Present and Passing 1; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Alley, Baumgardner, Berger, Billinger, Bollier, Bowers, Denning, Estes, Fitzgerald, Francisco, Givens, Goddard, Hardy, Hawk, Hensley, Hilderbrand, Kelly, Kerschen, Longbine, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Olson, Petersen, Pettey, Rogers, V. Schmidt, Skubal, Suellentrop, Sykes, Taylor, Wilborn.

Nays: Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Holland, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Tyson, Wagle.

Present and Passing: Doll.

The Conference Committee Report was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote "NO" on CCR SB 89; primarily increasing the fines for not wearing a seat belt, either by the driver and/or passenger(s). Over the years in the Legislature I have, albeit often reluctantly, voted first to make not wearing a seat belt a secondary traffic offense then, later, a primary traffic offense despite my belief then (and now) that often a pretextual stop will ensue by law enforcement of what would otherwise be a flimsy or pretextual stop of a driver which is really motivated by "biased profiling"; racially or otherwise. (If the "thought-I-saw-a-busted-taillight" doesn't apply, the "didn't-see-your-seatbelt-harness-across-your-shoulder" excuse for pulling someone over might. And we know what population, Mr. Vice President, these pretextual, profiling stops MOST disaffect, don't we?) But, the public safety data is clear. Wearing a seat belt saves life and prevents greater injury in vehicle accidents to both driver and passenger. So, I voted for the previous measures. The data is in and clear on fine enhancement between the amount of the fine and general compliance. As in so many other examples of penalty enhancement(s), there is NO correlation between an increase of this fine and greater compliance. Zero. Accordingly, I see no reason to tax people with a fee increase which serves NO public utility whatsoever.—DAVID HALEY

SIXTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, May 8, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God, Creator and Sustainer, thank You for the beginning of another week. Help us to gain fresh awareness of Your presence in our midst, Your persistence in our governance and Your passion on our behalf. Show us Your will in all our situations.

We can't see You with our natural eye. But Lord, open our spiritual eyes and let us see continuing evidence of Your presence, persistence and passion.

Give us eyes to see like the ruler in Jerusalem. In Ecclesiastes 1:12-14, with all his wisdom, he came to see that everything that is under the sun and only earthly, in its perspective, void of an eternal focus, is finally as disappointing as chasing after the wind.

In Phillipians 3:14, You revealed to Paul, that in spite of his tremendous education, upbringing and status in the community, he needed to see beyond all of that. Since all in this life eventually fades away, You led him to prioritize a consistent press toward the higher calling...a calling that would ultimately be rewarded by You in eternity.

So Lord, as we struggle down here, working to improve things, help us to be looking beyond the immediate.

As it says in 2 Corinthians 4:18, help us look beyond the troubles we can see now, and fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen. For the things we see now will soon be gone, but the things we cannot see will last forever.

Give us Your perspective in everything we do. I'm asking all this in the precious Name of Jesus. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

The House adopts the Conference Committee report on HB 2301.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Petersen, Alley, Baumgardner, Berger, Billinger, Bollier, Bowers, Denning, Doll, Estes, Fitzgerald, Francisco, Givens, Goddard, Haley, Hardy, Hawk, Hilderbrand, Kelly, Kerschen, Longbine, Lynn, Masterson, McGinn, Olson, Rogers, V. Schmidt, Skubal, Suellentrop, Sykes, Taylor, Wagle and Wilborn introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1745—

A RESOLUTION commemorating the 80th anniversary of the American System of Conservation Funding.

WHEREAS, More than a century ago, hunters, anglers and trappers were among the first conservationists to realize that America's natural resources were in peril and such resources could not sustain unregulated harvest and habitat destruction; and

WHEREAS, Hunters, anglers and trappers took it upon themselves to support laws that stopped excessive harvest of fish and wildlife, established game and fish agencies to protect fish, wildlife and their habitats, and supported fishing and hunting license fees to help fund the new agencies' efforts to provide healthy natural resources for future generations; and

WHEREAS, Upon realizing that license fees alone were insufficient to restore and sustain healthy fish and wildlife populations, hunters, anglers and trappers supported excise taxes on firearms, ammunition, archery equipment, hunting equipment and fishing equipment to raise additional funds to support restoration and enhance the efforts of state wildlife agencies; and

WHEREAS, This "user-pays, public-benefits" system became known as the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program, which began with the passage of the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act in 1937, was bolstered by the passage of the Federal Aid in Sport Fish Restoration Act in 1950, and was further expanded by the Wallop-Breaux amendment to the Sport Fish Restoration Act in 1984; and

WHEREAS, The Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program also permanently linked revenue from hunting and fishing licenses to conservation, which created the American System of Conservation Funding as it exists today; and

WHEREAS, Since 1939, the combined contribution of the American System of Conservation Funding to state fish and wildlife agencies has exceeded $57 billion – more than any other single conservation effort in United States history; and

WHEREAS, The manufacturers of firearms, ammunition, hunting, fishing and boating equipment have collected excise taxes on firearms, ammunition, archery equipment, manufactured fishing tackle, electric trolling motors, marine electronics and motorboat fuel, and distributed these funds to the states through the United States Fish and Wildlife Service; and

WHEREAS, This cooperative partnership between industry, hunters, anglers, trappers, boaters, recreational shooters, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service and state natural resource agencies has resulted in the most successful model of fish and wildlife management in the world, restoring species populations from coast to coast and in Alaska and Hawaii: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we recognize America's hunters, anglers, trappers, boaters, recreational shooters, equipment manufacturers, state fish and wildlife agencies and the United States Fish and Wildlife Service for their role in restoring healthy populations of fish, wildlife, and other natural resources, both game and non-game, to the abundance we see today through the American System of Conservation Funding, on this, the 80th anniversary year of America's greatest conservation story; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism and all Kansas Congressional offices so that all may know and appreciate the foresight and contributions from anglers, hunters, trappers, recreational shooters, equipment manufacturers, state fish and wildlife agencies and the United States Fish and Wildlife Service on behalf of our nation's natural resources.

On emergency motion of Senator Petersen SR 1745 was adopted by voice vote.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I reluctantly vote “AYE” on the Conference Committee’s SECOND Report on HB 2041 and AGAIN express my disapproval of legislative bundling of MULTIPLE, often conflicting, measures under a SINGLE number. Estimated at potentially $10,000,000, the need to now extend authorization for judicial surcharges on different docket fees is mandatory to retain the fiscal continuity of our court system. As the only lawyer left in the Senate, I have to support our courts and all of us should. But come on, Mr. Vice-President. Hiking reinstatement fees on often hapless suspended motorists from $59 to $100 (ESPECIALLY when only $75 will meet actual appropriations needs) is “highway robbery”; it’s government greed at its worst. Further, lifting the ceiling to 33% and codifying collection fees as a part of the underlying reinstatement fee is further extortion of the citizenry, in my opinion. But BOTH the legitimate need and the naked greed are STILL in this CCR of HB 2041; which the Senate actually sent back to conference for reevaluation before returning here, unchanged, for this vote now. I wouldn’t be the twenty-first vote to pass it. But I do join, again reluctantly, one of a greater than such required majority. —DAVID HALEY

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MADAM PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on Senate amendments to HB 2054 submits the following report:

The House accedes to all Senate amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed with Senate Committee amendments, as follows:

The Kansas tort claims act, K.S.A. 75-6101 et seq., and amendments thereto, and the Kansas workers compensation act, K.S.A. 44-501 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall be interpreted consistent with the provisions of this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the actions of law enforcement officers or agencies conducted pursuant to K.S.A. 19-828, and amendments thereto.

- (1) Be a United States citizen;
- (2) have been fingerprinted and a search of local, state and national fingerprint files made to determine whether the applicant has a criminal record;

- (4) have graduated from a high school accredited by the Kansas state board of education or the appropriate accrediting agency of another state jurisdiction or have obtained the equivalent of a high school education as defined by rules and regulations of the commission;

(5) be of good moral character sufficient to warrant the public trust in the applicant as a police officer or law enforcement officer;

(6) have completed an assessment, including psychological testing approved by the commission, to determine that the applicant does not have a mental or personality disorder that would adversely affect the ability to perform the essential functions of a police officer or law enforcement officer with reasonable skill, safety and judgment;

(7) be free of any physical or mental condition which adversely affects the ability to perform the essential functions of a police officer or law enforcement officer with reasonable skill, safety and judgment; and

(8) be at least 21 years of age.

(c) The commission may deny a provisional or other certification upon a finding that the applicant has engaged in conduct for which a certificate may be revoked, suspended or otherwise disciplined as provided in K.S.A. 74-5616, and amendments thereto. When it appears that grounds for denial of a certification exist under this subsection, after a conditional offer of employment has been made to an applicant seeking appointment as a police officer or law enforcement officer, the applicant's appointing authority or agency head may request an order from the commission to determine whether a provisional certification will be issued to that applicant.

Journal of the Senate

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, May 10, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, in humble appreciation, we must acknowledge that there are no adjectives big enough, wide enough or deep enough to embrace Your being. There are no words to fully capture or enable us to apprehend the scope of Your being. YOU ARE GOD!

Your Word in Psalms 139:1-16, reveals that there's no place that any of us can hide from Your presence. You can't be outsmarted, outdone, outpaced or overwhelmed. You can't be caught off guard, overpowered, shocked, stunned or dumbfounded by anything. YOU ARE GOD!

And even though we are created by You, and our human understanding is vastly limited, You have given us an awareness that You are vastly unlimited.

You are unrestricted and unrestrained in all that You choose to do. So, thank You for choosing to reveal Yourself and even share with us, various qualities of Your being, along with the many blessings You provide.

Your mercies are new every day. Your compassion fails not and Your grace is sufficient for all our needs.

Keep us ever aware of Your loving kindness and save us from being a part of that group mentioned in Romans 1:18:32, where they refused to glorify You as God and were not thankful.

Help us to maintain a daily awareness and appreciation that YOU ARE GOD! In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I vote yes. Perfect can be the enemy of good. I had deeply hoped for better. HB 2067 does not address school funding, yet it is the first bite...a first bite at fixing the structurally unbalanced budget due to the disastrous tax cut plan of 2012. This is an anguished vote for me. I realize the political reality we face. First, that we might get a better plan if we wait longer or secondly, that we have looked at much worse bills, and could look at even worse ones should HB 2067 fail. I vote yes with the promise and the hope that we will take the second bite and truly pass an additional tax bill next week that will address an adequate school finance plan, and also eventually deal with our highways, our state water plan, our inadequate state employee salaries, and our underfunded court system. This bill is but a start—not perfect, maybe good, but definitely better.—TOM HAWK

CONSTITUTIONAL PROTEST

Protest of Senator Hensley

Against the Conference Committee Report for House Bill 2067

May 10, 2017

Madam President: I hereby exercise my right under Article 2, Section 10, of the Kansas Constitution to protest the Conference Committee Report for House Bill 2067.

On March 2, 2017, the Kansas Supreme Court affirmed the trial panel's decision that the public education financing system provided by the legislature for grades K-12 is constitutionally inadequate. While the Court provided no specific recommendations as to the structure or implementation of a new school finance system, it did place the burden on the state to demonstrate that any new school financing system must be “reasonably calculated to address the constitutional violations” of the adequacy requirement while also satisfying the equity requirement.”

The legislature’s attorney has counseled both the House and Senate that the burden on the State to establish compliance with the Court’s ruling requires the legislature to “show its work.” This includes demonstrating the ability to fund any school finance formula passed by the legislature. Currently, House Bill 2410 is the only school finance plan which has had a hearing and has been discussed in any meeting this legislative session. Assuming it were to become law, House Bill 2410 would provide for $150 million each year over five years.

The budget profile attached to this protest only includes funding for the first three years of the plan included in House Bill 2410. This profile clearly establishes that the Conference Committee Report for House Bill 2067 falls well short of sustaining this school finance plan. In FY 2019, the state general fund would have a negative balance of $173.8 million. In FY 2020, that shortfall grows to $387.6 million. We have done the math and have shown our work. The Conference Committee Report for House Bill 2067 doesn’t meet the constitutional requirements of the Gannon decision. This is in no way constitutional or acceptable for the school children of Kansas.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Madam President: I vote AYE on the Conference Committee Report for House Bill 2067, but with a caveat: our work is not done. This is not a comprehensive plan. It does not solve our problems nor does it provide for a sustainable school finance plan. It is just the first step, but I believe it is a first step we should take. We can no longer balance our budget by borrowing and spending down reserves. As we are increasing income taxes, this proposal also eliminates the non-wage income “loophole”, repeals the future formulaic income tax reductions, establishes a third tier in the income tax rates and reduces the tax “cliff” created in 2012. There is more we could and should do. I do understand that in voting for this, I am committing to work to pass another plan to ensure that Kansas public schools are constitutionally funded. Knowing that this is a solid first step to solving our problems, I am willing to make that commitment.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Senator Hawk requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on HB 2067.

Madam President: I, like many in this room, was elected to repeal the Brownback experiment; an experiment which has left the economy of our state reeling. Today's budget bill does much that we know needs to be done: repeals the LLC exemption, removes the glide path to zero and returns our tax structure to three brackets. I have supported similar bills, but that was before the final Gannon Decision. That decision was a game changer and left no doubt as to what course we are to take. I was also elected to fund public education. This bill does not come close to meeting our constitutional duty because it does not fund education in a sustainable manner. It is a thinly veiled attempt to retain flat funding. The Supreme Court and the Kansas Constitution mandate adequate and sustainable funding. We are at the 86th day of the 2017 Legislative session and approximately the 680th day of the unconstitutional block grant education funding mechanism. Fifty one days remain to fix this problem. The clock is ticking on our self-imposed and now Court mandated deadline. A structural fix is not a fix if we do not fund education. I vote no on HB 2067.—LYNN ROGERS

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, May 11, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Almighty God, there's abundant knowledge in these halls, yet there's much we don't know. We have many strong points, yet we're weak. We win but yet we lose. We stand firm and then we crumble. We're sturdy, yet we're frail; able, but not. Sometimes rising, sometimes falling, sometimes up and sometimes down.

Our journey seems to be similar to the voyage of Paul and the 276 travelers in Acts 27:44. The ship they were traveling on had been battered and beaten, worn out by a storm. But they hung on to the wreckage. They clung to the broken pieces and safely reached their destination.

Lord, in a like manner, all of us are traveling on broken pieces. Promises have been made, but broken. Personal and professional relationships have been fractured. We're traveling on broken pieces.

Many of us can't run and jump like we used to...can't remember things like we used to. We're traveling on broken pieces.

But if You will be our Super Glue and hold tight, the pieces we have, then like Paul and those traveling with him, we're going to keep the faith and we're going to finish the course.

This I pray and declare it as so, in the Name of Jesus. Amen and Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.
