Ranking Minority Member
Constitutional Provisions Governing the Kansas Legislature

State of Kansas
§ 1. Legislative power.—The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a house of representatives and senate.

§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sunday excepted.
Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor’s veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

(b) If any bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, one or more of such items may be disapproved by the governor while the other portion of the bill is approved by the governor. In case the governor does so disapprove, a veto message of the governor stating the item or items disapproved, and the reasons therefor, shall be appended to the bill at the time it is signed, and the bill shall be returned with the veto message to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and, in not more than thirty calendar days, the house of origin shall reconsider the items of the bill which have been disapproved. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to approve any item disapproved by the governor, the bill, with the veto message, shall be sent to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days also reconsider each such item so approved by the house of origin, and if approved by two-thirds of all the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, any such item shall take effect and become a part of the bill.

Whenever a bill or resolution is so reported, it shall be placed upon a separate calendar, to be known as the Consent Calendar. Each bill or resolution appearing on the Consent Calendar shall remain thereon for at least two full legislative days before being considered under the order of business Final Action. At any time prior to the call for the vote under the order of business Final Action on a bill or resolution on the Consent Calendar, any member may object to the same as being controversial and the same shall be stricken from the Consent Calendar and take its place on General Orders in the usual order. If no such objection is made prior to the call for such vote on the bill or resolution, it shall be voted upon with other bills and resolutions under the order of business Final Action but before consideration of other bills or resolutions appearing on the calendar under such order of business.

Rule 34. Final Action on Bills and Concurrent Resolutions. On final action on any bill or concurrent resolution, the reading clerk shall read the title, except citations to statutes amended or repealed. If the bill is reported for final action without debate, the question shall be at once put: "Shall the bill pass?" No debate shall be allowed, and no motion shall be in order except the motion for a call of the Senate, unless in case where a bill has been ordered to be placed on final action subject to amendment, or to amendment and debate or unless by the unanimous consent of the Senate, amendments may be made and considered. Rule 35. Final Passage by Yeas and Nays. The question upon the final passage of a bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of the constitution of Kansas or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be taken by a roll call vote of the yeas and nays, which shall be entered on the Journal, and unless the bill or concurrent resolution receives the number of votes required by the constitution to pass it, it shall be declared lost, except in cases provided for in Rule 36 (relating to the absence of a quorum).

Rule 36. No Quorum on Final Vote – Effect. If, on taking the vote on final action on a bill or concurrent resolution, it shall appear that a quorum is not present, then the bill or concurrent resolution shall retain its place on the Calendar and shall again be considered for final action when that order of business is again taken up by the Senate.

Rule 37. Roll Call Vote. A roll call vote shall be taken upon all questions upon the demand of five Senators.

Rule 38. Call of Senate – When Made – How Enforced. When a call is demanded, the President shall order the doors of the Senate to be closed and all members to be in their seats unless excused by the President. The President shall direct the Secretary to call the roll of the Senators and note the absentees, after which the names of the absentees shall be again called, and those for whose absence no sufficient excuse is given may be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant at Arms, or by Assistant Sergeants at Arms appointed for the purpose, and brought before the bar of the Senate, where unless excused by a majority of the Senators present, they shall be reproved by the President for the neglect of duty.
(b) No motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the Senate shall be entertained until the President shall be satisfied that the Sergeant at Arms has made diligent effort to secure the attendance of the absentees.

When there is no call of the Senate, the Senator may pass and shall be recorded in the Journal as present and passing. After the roll is completed and before the roll is closed, a Senator may change such Senator's vote. No vote shall be recorded and no change in vote may be made without unanimous consent of the Senate after announcement by the presiding officer that the roll is closed. No motion shall be in order during a roll call vote except as provided under Rule 34 for final action on bills and concurrent resolutions and except for a call of the Senate.

Rule 40. Committee of the Whole. On motion the Senate may go into Committee of the Whole. The President shall appoint a chairperson to preside over the Committee of the Whole. If the committee report is not adopted, the bill or resolution, without committee amendments, shall be considered section by section, and as each section is considered amendments from the floor are in order to that section. After a section has been considered, no amendment thereto shall be in order until the whole bill or resolution has been read through. After the original bill or resolution, together with standing committee amendments, has been considered section by section the chairperson shall announce "Amendments to the bill (or resolution) generally are in order," and amendments not before offered may be made to any part of the bill or resolution. A motion to amend the bill or resolution shall not be in order while a motion to strike the enacting clause or resolving clause is pending.

Rule 43. Amendments. (1) Amendments to bills shall be germane to the subject of the bill being amended, and the fact that an amendment is to a section in the same chapter of the Kansas Statutes Annotated as an existing section in the bill shall not automatically render the amendment germane. Amendments to concurrent resolutions for amendments of the constitution of Kansas or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be germane to the subject of the resolution being amended.

(2) All amendments to bills or resolutions shall be submitted in writing on a form provided by the Senate or on a form substantially similar. A motion that the Committee of the Whole shall rise and report progress on any bill shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate, and the matter being considered shall be the first order of business at the next session of the committee, subject to such postponement as the subsequent Committee of the Whole may determine. After a motion to rise and report progress has been adopted, the Subcommittee on Calendar of the Committee on Organization, Calendar and Rules may change for the resumption of the current session of the Committee of the Whole the order of consideration of bills and resolutions.

Rule 46. Division of the Senate. Whenever a voice vote has been taken upon any question in either the Senate or the Committee of the Whole, any Senator may call for a division of the Senate or Committee of the Whole.

session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of \( \frac{2}{3} \) of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 5, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and after April 3, 2020, during the 2020 regular session except bills vetoed by the governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

In accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and by virtue of her office as President of the Senate, Senator Susan Wagle declared the 2019 Senate to be in session.

President Wagle welcomed the Reverend Cecil T. Washington, who will again serve as the Senate Chaplain. Reverend Washington delivered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father, we're here for a new legislative session. We're here to serve Your people. And in doing so, we look to You. We look to You for strength. We look to You for wisdom. We look to You for guidance. We look to You for resources.

Lord, for all of that to come to fruition, we must look to You. In Proverbs 19:21, You said there are many plans in a man's heart, but it is Your counsel...Your direction...Your guiding principles of life, that will stand and endure.

You said in Psalm 33:10-12, that if our plans or strategies are merely of human origin they would crumble and come to ruin. But if our plans are actual extensions of Yours, they'll stand forever.

So, Lord, that's the desire...that the Hand of God be seen in everything we do.

Again, Lord, we ask for wisdom, strength, guidance and resources. So, when all is said and done, it will be declared that it was You and Your presence that prevailed in our midst.

I come to You, in the blessed Name of Jesus, the Christ, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

President Wagle introduced Dr. Jeremy Presley, president of the Kansas Academy of Family Physicians. Dr. Presley has practiced in Dodge City since 2010 as a partner at Family Practice Associates of Western Kansas. The Academy sponsors the Doctor of the Day program in the Statehouse. President Wagle thanked Dr. Presley and the Academy for their support of the program and for their outstanding assistance during session.

If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcour or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of $2/3$ of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.
(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 4, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and on February 3, 2020, during the 2020 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 13, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and on February 12, 2020, during the 2020 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 11, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and on February 10, 2020, during the 2020 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 15, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and on February 14, 2020, during the 2020 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 28, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and on February 27, 2020, during the 2020 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 27, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and March 25, 2020, during the 2020 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 5, 2019, during the 2019 regular session and after April 3, 2020, during the 2020 regular session except bills vetoed by the governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.
Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the house of representatives, any standing committee of the senate, the legislative coordinating council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the house of representatives or the senate, the house of representatives in session, the senate in session or a joint session of the house of representatives and the senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the state of Kansas.

Joint rule 6. Floor amendments to bills making appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no amendment from the floor in either house of the legislature to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill. Notwithstanding any rule in either house of the legislature, those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this rule shall be indivisible.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

Journal of the Senate

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 15, 2019, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Gracious Master, we turn to You again for guidance. Thank You for the assurance, that when we turn to You, we won’t be disappointed.

Among the unfailing promises of Your Word, we’re encouraged, in Hebrews 13:5-6, to know, and even be confident, that even though You’re invisible, Your presence is with us.

Lord, as we assume the significant responsibilities in these halls, help us by faith to look for and to see visible evidence, that not only did You keep the promise of Your presence; but in Your presence, You kept the promise of Your assistance…the promise of Your support.

So, as our days, weeks and months move forward, help us to move forward with the confidence, that You’ve got our backs…our fronts, our sides, our tops and bottoms.

I thank You Lord, that in You…and in Your authority…and in the Name of Your Son, everything that we need, is Amen and AMEN!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR REGARDING ISSUANCE OF EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

Pursuant to my authority under Article 1, Section 7 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I have on this date issued the following pardons and commutation of sentence:

- Wandaleen Thomas, a native of Wichita, Kansas, currently living in Fountain, Colorado, has received an unconditional pardon. Ms. Thomas was convicted of felony possession of drugs in 1992. She completed her sentence, now owns and operates her own business, and has maintained a record of good conduct as a law abiding citizen in the intervening 26 years since the conviction. Her conviction in the District Court of Sedgwick County was previously expunged by the court, and her pardon request was favorably recommended by the Prisoner Review Board.

- Christopher Rickerson of Wichita, Kansas, has received an unconditional pardon. Mr. Rickerson was convicted of felony possession of drugs in 2006, as well as property and drug misdemeanors in 2005 and 2006. He completed his sentences, now owns and operates his own business, and has maintained a record of good conduct as a law abiding citizen in the intervening 12 years since his convictions. His convictions in the District Courts of Sedgwick and Butler Counties were previously expunged by the courts, and his pardon request was favorably recommended by the Prisoner Review Board.
Regina Carter of Emporia, Kansas, has received a commutation of sentence. Ms. Carter was convicted of felony distribution/possession of drugs in 2016. She is a combat veteran who suffers from PTSD, and she was a first time offender who was nearing completion of a college degree. She has served nearly three years of her sentence for a first time offense that often results in lesser punishment, that could result in referral to a special veterans court in some jurisdictions, and as to which the statutory penalty has been reduced since her sentencing. Her 98 month sentence has been commuted to 43 months, with conditions requiring 36 months of post-release supervision, drug treatment, education, and drug testing. As a result of the commutation, she can be released from incarceration and into post-release supervision as early as May 2019.

I am providing this report pursuant K.S.A. 22-3703.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, once again I thank You for this privilege of praying for Your people.
We’re Liberals and Conservatives; We’re Democrats and Republicans; Men and Women…Pro and Con; and in so many other ways, we’re just plain different.
And with all our differences, we’re like magnets. We can attract or repel, depending on which side is showing.
The “Dream” that Dr. Martin Luther King shared with us, had to do with viewing one another based on the content of their character.
The problem is that too often, because of our differences, we’re prone to show the wrong side…a repulsive, unloving side. It’s a side that we do try to contain, but sometimes we just let it show.
Lord, when someone differs from us…when they oppose us…when they’re getting on our last nerve, remind us of Your words in Matthew 22:37-39, that even when we don’t feel like it, we’re to show love for that neighbor. You want us to show them the side that You have been showing to us; the side of love and compassion; the side of patience.
Lord, as we strive to serve Your people, even as we have times of disagreement, help us to show each other our pleasant, attractive sides. I pray in the name of Jesus, the Christ. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, You are the Author; the Design Originator, and Sustainer of life.
It was January 18, 1984, that President Ronald Reagan designated today, January 22, as Sanctity of Human Life Day, for it to coincide with the Roe vs. Wade date of legalizing abortion.
Lord, there would be no such thing as life, were it not for You, the Giver of life. And were it not for Your loving care, the life that exists, would not. Even from that which was dead, You brought forth life.
Many of us celebrate that 2,000 years ago, You brought forth life from the tomb. But we also celebrate that You bring forth life, from the womb.
Lord, I thank You for the life You’ve given me; and for the lives of everyone here! Thank You for the variety of gifts, abilities and talents that You have so miraculously encoded in the DNA of our being; that each of us might be a unique blessing to others.
Help us learn to value the life that You give. You said in James 1:17, that every good gift comes from You.
And Lord, Your Word also says in Deuteronomy 30:19 that both life and death; blessing and cursing have been set before us; and You admonish us to choose life, that we and our offspring may live.
So Lord, as we move forward, help us to establish a culture that values life. And we thank You for the challenge. In the Name of Jesus, the Christ, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Father God, many are the desires and expectations placed upon us. And they come at us from many sources; from family, friends, associates and even strangers. Sometimes stressed, with the weight of it all, we struggle with which direction to take; to whom do we listen? We realize that we must answer to others, but much more so, we're accountable to You.

So, help us to follow the wisdom You gave Solomon, the son of King David. In Proverbs 3:1-5, we find that the wisdom handed down from You is to be remembered and held close to the heart, because the insights coming from Your teachings bring quality and quantity of life. In verse 3, it says we're not to abandon the Godly qualities of mercy and truthfulness toward others.

And the results that You promise, and we can claim are favor and success in Your eyes, along with favor and success in the eyes of the people.

So Lord, help us to trust You...to acknowledge and recognize You in all our ways, knowing that you are faithful and that You will direct our paths. In the Name of the Christ, I come to your throne of grace. Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.

To: Corey Carnahan, Senate Secretary

Pursuant to Rule 8, I hereby appoint the following senators to the Select Committee

SUSAN WAGLE
Senate President

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 37 senators present.
Senators Estes, Hensley and Masterson were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

E pluribus unum! Lord, a translation for this 13 letter Latin phrase, is "Out of many, one"! Over 300 years ago, by Your inspiration and by an Act of Congress, it was adopted as the motto for this great nation. Many, uniting as One! A goal; an objective, not yet achieved!

And, Lord, it appears as though some of us have forgotten our motto or we're trying to change it to “Out of Many, Me!”

Lord, only by Your convicting and unifying Spirit can our prideful “me first” attitudes be set aside. Then, as we humbly yield to the thought of sharing, and to the collective merging of ideas, we will see You produce in and through us the growth and improvements needed in this generation.

As we consider the laws by which we are to be governed, keep us reminded of the one that’s most essential…the one that facilitates the fulfillment of our motto, the law of love.

This is so essential that in the 1 Peter 4:7-11 passage, You said in verse 8, “Above everything else, show sincere love for each other because love will cause people to be forgiving of one another’s shortcomings.”

Lord, let the love and harmony of E pluribus unum, prevail in these halls. I come to You in the Name of Jesus, Who loved us to death. Amen and Amen

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, it is Your design that in the family, parents are to lead and be an influence in the lives of their children, not only by their words or precepts but also by their examples. You hold parents to a higher standard.

Your Word reveals to us, in James 3:1, that as leaders in society, as persons who are to have influence, You hold us to a higher standard. You expect us to set standards and guidelines for others while applying them to ourselves as well.

Lord, I'm reminded when, as a Chaplain for the Police Department, I utilized my badge to get out of a traffic ticket. And when your conviction was heavy upon me I repented.

Now that I don't take advantage of my position, You have increased my influence for Your purposes. My prayer today is that You'll do the same for each one of us. Grant us the power of Your grace and mercy that we might measure up to the exemplary standards that You set for us in Your Word. And when we fall short, convict us to repent.

And by Your Holy Spirit, grant us Your grace and mercy, that even in our imperfections, positive influence among our families, friends and followers will increase.

Thank You, Lord, for Your love, grace and mercy. In Jesus' Name, I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Announcing adoption of SCR 1603.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, January 29, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

It is to You, Lord God, that we come once again. The cry today is for You to lovingly intervene in all our affairs and never leave us to ourselves. Because as smart as we are, we’re naturally dumb. As strong as we are, we’re naturally weak. When our original parents, the first man and woman, chose to go wrong in Genesis 2:16-17 and 3:6, a leaning…a bent toward wrong choices has plagued us and our world ever since.

And Lord, You regularly let us see it in the world around us. Even in nature, based on Genesis 3:17-19, the bias is toward the wild.

Lord, don’t leave us to ourselves. A lawn which is left to itself will by nature go to weeds. A child that’s left to itself will naturally go astray. And likewise, without Your guidance, we will naturally go awry.

Lord, You warned us, in Proverbs 3:5-7, to NOT follow the natural bent of our own thinking; that we are NOT to be wise in our own eyes, but to look to You in all that we do. So, Lord, don’t leave us to ourselves.

Like the gardener that lovingly intervenes to prevent its natural decline, please lovingly intervene as we move about in making decisions. Don’t let us follow the dangerous course of the natural. For when You step in, the results will be supernatural.

So Lord, have Your way today, tomorrow and on in the days to come. And in the midst of it all, don’t leave us to ourselves. In the dear name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Baumgardner rose on a Point of Personal Privilege and delivered the following remarks:

On January 30, 2019, the members of the Kansas Senate Education Committee didn’t need to be reminded by J. R. R. Tolkien to "Never laugh at live dragons." We had the privilege of hearing from students in the Belle Plaine High School Dragon Prints entrepreneurial program today.

Students shared how Dragon Prints began in their school, what printed products they produce and sell within their community, and how this experience has changed their high school learning experience. The Belle Plaine students that testified today exemplify the creativity, persistence, teamwork and technical skills that will serve them well in their future.
The Kansas Senate Education Committee recognizes that the successes of the Dragon Prints program haven’t happened on their own in a “Dragon Cave.” We appreciated learning about the specific financial support given by the Belle Plaine School Board, the vision and oversight provided by the Belle Plaine administration, and the dedicated classroom planning and supervision that is made available to these students every day. Best wishes for the continued success of the Dragon Prints program. And let it be known that the Kansas Senate will never, ever, laugh at these very successful live dragons!

Senators honored the students and their teacher with applause.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God, we’re here today, continuing in the fight for freedom; for the freedom of this nation as well as individual, personal freedoms. But Lord, keep us in tune with why You give us these freedoms.

Exodus 20, verse 1 shares with us what You chose to focus on…You gave freedom to Your people. Verse 2 then follows with what You want Your people to focus on…the Ten Commandments; Your vertical and horizontal standards for righteousness.

You give us this freedom, so we can make choices. But for our good and Your glory, You want to guide those choices. You free us from the damming enslavement, of the “I couldn’t help myself” syndrome; You free us from the self-centered, gravitational pull of “I want it MY way!”; that we may then pursue wanting it YOUR way!

You have created, and freed us to live in this world, yet not be controlled by this world; that as Godly men and women representing Your authority, our choices may just be countersignatures; ratifying Your ultimate will and the ways You want us to apply Your will.

Lord, after all is said and done, let it be that the exercise of our Godly freedom brought on greater and greater degrees of liberty. In the Name of Jesus, I thank You for the freedoms that we enjoy. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

All Knowing, Most Gracious, Most Loving God of Heaven and earth, we come before You today realizing that You have granted to us an abundance of mercy in that You have relieved us from some of the consequences of our unholy choices. You tell us in Lamentations 3:22-23, that Your love and mercies are new every day. Your grace toward us does not fail. Help us to love and serve others like You love and serve us.

In John 13, You provided a living example that we are to follow Jesus, as the authoritative and exalted leader of His disciples. He humbled Himself and showed us how to serve, how to care for people even when they’re not in tune with you and resistant to what you’re doing.

Knowing that Judas was opposed to Him and would betray Him, He still humbled Himself and served him; while at the same time He was serving others who supported Him. He washed the feet of His betrayer. The principle He puts forth is that the extent of our love, concern and service to others is not to be hindered, diminished or withheld just because they resist us, and we know who they are. Their feet need washing too!

So Lord, help us to love the unlovely; to serve and care for those who come against us. We’re just trainees, and You want us to learn by doing. So, Lord, help us regard our opposition as training opportunities. And when we’re struggling with the change that it may require just remind us to do like Michael Jackson said and look at the man in the mirror. Improvements are needed there as well.

By Your Spirit of love, mercy and graciousness, please motivate us to be more like You. I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

SIXTEENTH DAY

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, through the Prophet Isaiah, in chapter 40:6-8, You declare that all of us are like grass, in that our bodies dry up and don’t last. And the day will come when Maybelline, Clairol, male and female enhancements will all fail. Like the beautiful flower of the field, all our physical beauty will one day be gone.

The songwriter put it this way, “There’s a leak in this old building.” It’s gradually deteriorating and the day will come when we’ve got to move. In 2 Corinthians 5:1-5, our bodies are compared to tents, and tents are not meant to be permanent dwelling places. When it’s time to move, the stakes are pulled and the tent sags and folds. Lord, we can’t get away from the fact that a “sagging and folding” day is coming for each of us.

Our tents are leaking and beginning to lean. But in that Isaiah passage, You contrast our frailness and brevity of life with Your Holy Word which shall never fade and stands firm forever! With all of that in mind Lord, it just stands to reason that the best way to deal with the “leak” is to employ the Divine, everlasting principles of Your Holy Word.

So Lord, as we labor in the frailness and uncertain instability of these tents, we’re trying to serve Your purposes by serving others. So Lord, help us! Put a patch on some of our leaks and help us go on just a little while longer. I come to You in the precious Name of Jesus. Amen and Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 1604—

By Senator Kerschen

A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to equal rights
Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. Equal rights. All men are possessed of equal and inalienable natural rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Recognizing the authority of the state of Kansas to exercise its police power and its sovereign right to adopt individual liberties in the constitution of the state of Kansas more expansive than those conferred by the constitution of the United States, the state of Kansas shall hereby guarantee the inalienable rights, equal protection and due process of law of every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to expand the class of human beings who currently enjoy inalienable rights, equal protection, and due process of the law under the constitution of the state of Kansas to every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization.

"A vote for this proposition would amend the Kansas constitution to explicitly incorporate into it the inalienable right to life of every human being irrespective of age, race, gender, health, function, condition of dependency, including physical or mental dependency, or method of reproduction, from the beginning of their biological development, including fertilization. The proposed constitutional amendment also would prohibit the state from discriminating against any class of human beings in the application, interpretation and enforcement of its laws.

"A vote against this proposition would not amend the constitution, in which case the current federally mandated legal status of preborn humans would remain that of a class of human beings that can intentionally be killed."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2020, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

SB 9, AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2019, for the Kansas public employees retirement system; authorizing certain transfers from the state general fund to the Kansas public employees retirement fund, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 40; Nays 0; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote "Yes" on Senate Bill 9. I am supportive of having KPERS be actuarially strong, but I also believe we must be fiscally responsible and exercise caution with the ending balance. Revenue is still stabilizing and there is much uncertainty for our future. It is not a matter of if, but a matter of when, the next economic downturn occurs. We have to be prepared for that. The governor has proposed a balanced, commonsense budget that accounts for our state’s fragile financial outlook while still investing in schools, roads, and healthcare. It even includes an alternative proposal for KPERS that makes it more affordable by reducing the payment and more stable by reducing risk of skipping payments. However, Senate Bill 9 was not taken into consideration within the context of the entire budget, and it should have been. Although I would have preferred to weigh the benefits of the full picture – Senate Bill 9 and the governor’s budget – to determine what is truly best for our KPERS system and our fiscal situation, I vote "Yes." — Pat Pettey

Senators Bollier, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Holland and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on SB 9.

Mr. Vice President: I support transferring funds to make up for deferred employer contributions to our Kansas Public Employee Retirement System (KPERS) by the Legislature, however we need to acknowledge the payments that were made. In addition to committing to “layering” payments addressing the $64.1 million reduction in FY 2017 and the $194 million reduction in FY 2019, there were transfers of $82 million and $56 million made in FY 2018. That $138 million is $23 million above the $115 million we are told we owed for principal and interest on the deferred payments from FY 2016. We have complicated this issue with the various delays in payments and repayment plans. I think the transfer in SB 9 should have taken place after a thorough discussion of the Governor’s proposals and our overall budget as we address KPERS over the coming years. — Marcy Francisco Senator Hawk requested the record show he concurs with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Francisco on SB 9.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance recommends SB 28 be passed.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, February 6, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, we bow our heads, to indicate an inward bowing of our souls.
There’s a lot of discussion going on today, about the state of the union and about the condition of this nation we call home. Much of the dialogue and debate touches on the true status or quality of our existence and how to make improvements.

Some argue for one way; others, for another way. To whom do we listen? Who is making the determination and by what means? How is the state or quality of our existence to be measured?

Of all the various ideas put forth on how to improve the state or quality of our living, there’s one that tends to rise above them all. In Psalm 33:12, You give us the answer with these words: “Blessed (prosperous and to be envied) is the nation whose God is the Lord!” Proverbs 14:34 reveals that Your standard of Righteousness is what elevates a nation.

So, “In God We Trust” was added to our currency, and was added as our official motto. “Under God” was also added to our Pledge of Allegiance. So, the call to “Make America Great Again” has to rely on “Making America PRAY again!”

Lord, may the state of our homeland and the state of each of us as individuals be determined by the degree to which we bow in submission and trust to You. I appeal to You on behalf of us all, in the powerful, precious Name of Jesus. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 1605—

By Committee on Ethics, Elections and Local Government

A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to reapportionment of senatorial and representative districts.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. Reapportionment of senatorial and representative districts. (a) At its regular session in 1989, the legislature shall by law reapportion the state senatorial districts, the state senatorial districts or both the state representative and senatorial districts upon the basis of the latest census of the inhabitants of the state taken by authority of chapter 61 of the 1987 Session Laws of Kansas. At its regular session in 1992, and at its regular session every tenth year thereafter, the legislature shall by law reapportion the state senatorial districts and representative districts on the basis of the population of the state as established by the most recent census of population taken and published by the United States census bureau of the census. Senatorial and representative districts shall be reapportioned upon the basis of the population of the state adjusted: (1) To exclude nonresident military personnel stationed within the state and nonresident students attending colleges and universities within the state; and (2) to include military personnel stationed within the state who are residents of the state and students attending colleges and universities within the state who are residents of the state in the district of their permanent residence. Bills reapportioning legislative districts shall be published in the Kansas register immediately upon final passage and shall be effective for the next following election of legislators and thereafter until again reapportioned.

(b) Within 15 days after the publication of an act reapportioning the legislative districts within the time specified in (a), the attorney general shall petition the supreme court of the state to determine the validity thereof. The supreme court, within 30 days from the filing of the petition, shall enter its judgment. Should the supreme court determine that the reapportionment statute is invalid, the legislature shall enact a statute of reapportionment conforming to the judgment of the supreme court within 15 days.

(c) Upon enactment of a reapportionment to conform with a judgment under (b), the attorney general shall apply to the supreme court of the state to determine the validity thereof. The supreme court, within 10 days from the filing of such application, shall enter its judgment. Should the supreme court determine that the reapportionment statute is invalid, the legislature shall again enact a statute reapportioning the legislative districts in compliance with the direction of and conforming to the mandate of the supreme court within 15 days after entry thereof."
(d) Whenever a petition or application is filed under this section, the supreme court, in accordance with its rules, shall permit interested persons to present their views.
(e) A judgment of the supreme court of the state determining a reapportionment to be valid shall be final until the legislative districts are again reapportioned in accordance therewith.”
Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:
"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to eliminate the adjustment of census taken by the United States census bureau regarding nonresident military personnel and nonresident students when reapportioning

"A vote for this proposition would eliminate the adjustment of census taken by the United States census bureau regarding nonresident military personnel and nonresident students when reapportioning the Kansas senate and house of representatives.
"A vote against this proposition would continue in effect the requirement for the adjustment of census taken by the United States census bureau regarding nonresident military personnel and nonresident students when reapportioning the Kansas senate and house of representatives."
Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or Spirit of Life and Love, God of many names and no name at all; here in this, the people’s house, be with this body of leaders as they endeavor to serve communities across our state. Guide each heart and mind in making decisions that create sustainable communities with access to the resources of life and liberty for all. Guide each to build capacity and collaborate across differences, challenges and complexity.

Be with the people of Kansas, whose lives are impacted everyday by the decisions made here and whose voices are seldom heard here – teachers and children and youth in our schools and in programs like foster care and juvenile services, low wage workers struggling for adequate housing and healthcare, families in our domestic violence and homeless shelters, disabled people, the elderly, men and women serving time in jail or prison, military personnel and veterans, and immigrants working and contributing to our communities.

Walk with us in our discernment and guide us to listen and make careful decisions for the good of all people and places in this state. Guide these leaders and the many people who enter this building to look less for personal gain or expediency and endeavor instead for accountability and transparency to define the bottom line by more than money – to define it by the level of access and opportunity for all.

May we be a blessing to one another and this State of Kansas as You, Spirit of Life, have been a blessing to us. Although we pray with different names for the Holy, let our hearts be connected in unified purpose for the common good. May it ever be so, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

WHEREAS, In 1919, the Bureau was established as a grassroots organization by a group of members united in the belief that together they could better protect their way of life and achieve better futures for their families and communities; and

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote in support of SB 22 with considerable reservations. I understand and support providing the opportunity for 1000’s of Kansans to itemize their deductions which SB 22 accomplishes. I also see the need to be competitive with other states in not taxing repatriated funds. It seems to me that not approving this provision would put Kansas at a disadvantage as the state not only actively recruits companies and industries to Kansas but also as it makes strong efforts to grow existing business in the state. However the lack of a reliable estimate on the fiscal impact of SB 22 is very troubling. Kansas is a state that has a very fragile economy and we have now had two months with lower than expected revenues. It is my expectation that the fiscal impact of this bill be monitored carefully to avoid any deleterious consequences for the State of Kansas.—Ed Berger

Senators Billinger, Bowers, Givens, Hardy, Lynn, McGinn and Petersen request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Berger on SB 22.

Mr. Vice President: At this time, I find it fiscally irresponsible to support a change to our tax code that diminishes our state revenues, especially when the actual amount is speculative. When the legislature has presented and passed a budget, we can then move forward assessing our revenue stream and make changes to our tax code while funding those programs we find essential to the people of Kansas. Until we have fully funded our public schools, eliminated our waiting lists for home and community-based services, and brought back our federal dollars to expand Medicaid, I vote “NO” on SB 22.—Barbara Bollier Senators Francisco, Hawk, Hensley, Petey and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bollier on SB 22.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SB 22. As we discuss the impact of tax policy changes at the federal level on our state taxes, I hope we would focus on issues of equity, adequacy, and ease of administration. Eliminating taxes on repatriation and GILTI business income raises concerns of both equity and adequacy; allowing Kansas filers to itemize deductions even if they choose to take the standard Federal deduction makes it more difficult and expensive to administer. The change in the Federal standard deduction expires in 2025. It is estimated that the costs of making changes for this at the state level will be nearly $820,000 in FY 2020; there will be continuing costs for auditing. These costs will be paid by Kansas taxpayers. As we continue the discussion on taxes, I hope we look to different proposals such as increasing the Kansas standard deduction or reducing the sales tax on food that better address issues of equity, adequacy, and ease of administration in our tax policies. —Marci Francisco Senators Hawk, Petey and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SB 22.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on Senate Bill 22. This bill is bad policy that has been rushed through the process. It puts us back on the same path as the disastrous Brownback tax experiment, which led to deep cuts to schools, delayed transportation projects, and devastated our foster care system and other services for our most vulnerable Kansans. Kansans don’t want more irresponsible policies. They made that clear when they elected a governor committed to stabilizing the budget and investing in the future of Kansas. We should exercise restraint with the budget surplus instead of squandering the surplus on reckless tax policy. If we were to make tax policy changes, those changes should benefit every Kansan or, at the very least, those who need it the most. Giant multinational corporations with record profits don’t fit into either category.

For the cost of this bill, the food sales tax rate could be cut in half. Or, for a fraction of the cost, the food sales tax rebate could be restored to benefit 380,000 elderly, disabled, and low-income Kansans. Or, the standard deduction could be raised for Kansas families. It is for these reasons that I vote “NO.”—Anthony Hensley

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Hawk and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on SB 22.

Mr. Vice President: Many who voted for a so called tax cut, which we know was a 350 million dollar tax hike/revenue grab, HB 2059 in 2013 (which took away many of the same deductions presented in SB 22) now claim they are voting for SB 22 because they are protecting families by lowering the taxes on families. It is good to see them now appropriately voting for tax reform which REALLY does work in favor of the hardworking families of Kansas! Dare I ask, Does the Flip Flop fit?—Dennis Pyle

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SB 22. There are definitely things in the bill that makes it an attractive vote. However, there is one overriding objection I have. That is the sequence and timing of the tax cut. The state has mandated obligations that have not yet been addressed. We must prioritize those mandates, such as school finance, before making other budgetary adjustments. It is my hope that the legislature can address its mandated responsibilities, then address tax cuts.—Mary Jo Taylor

Senators Bollier, Haley, Hawk, Miller and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Taylor on SB 22.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “AYE” on Senate Bill 22, to prevent another tax increase on Kansas families and businesses. This bill allows parents, including hardworking single moms and dads, to take advantage of the increased federal standard deduction while also providing the ability to write off their property tax and mortgage deduction on state taxes. Senate Bill 22 empowers businesses that employ thousands of Kansans in every corner of our great state, the ability to repatriate foreign assets so they can continue to invest here at home, contributing to our economic health. Today, the Kansas Senate sends the signal that Kansas is open for business by refusing to stifle domestic investment. Today, we care for our senior citizens by allowing them the ability to write off their medical expenses. Today, we protect our Kansas families and businesses by not imposing a new tax on them, but instead, provide tax equity with some of our bordering states that have already done this. Today, we say no new barriers that suffocate job creation. I vote “AYE” to decouple from the federal tax system, protecting Kansas’ future prosperity for all our children and grandchildren who will call this great state, home.—Susan Wagle Senators Baumgardner, Lynn, Petersen and Pilcher-Cook request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Wagle on SB 22.

We ask You Lord, to give them the wisdom, understanding and grace to move through the business of this day. The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, You are God over all! Thank You for keeping each of us.
In Psalms 19:7-11, You give us powerful keys for top quality leadership. In verse 10, You reveal that the principles of Your Word are more to be desired than external wealth or sweetness to our taste buds. And Lord, one might ask why? Why should they be so desirable? In verse 11, You warn against ignoring them and You promise great reward for keeping them. Lord, we do want to enjoy the reward of successfully serving You, our loved ones and our neighbors...Your people.

So help us hold fast to those key principles. As You mention them in verses 7-9, You declare Your Holy Word to be our standard, the guiding principles for our attitudes and actions. And You give them six designations: law, testimony, precepts, commandments, fear and rules to follow. You also characterize them in six different ways: perfect, sure, right, pure, clean and true. Then You give us six results to look for when we hold to Your Word: revived souls, Godly wisdom, inner rejoicing, eyes being opened, enduring stability and tuned in to righteousness.

Therefore Lord, let the appeal of the Psalmist in verse 14 become our constant appeal. “Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.” Lord, I pray this, in the powerful Name of Jesus the Christ, Amen and Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Announcing passage of HB 2033, HB 2034.

INTRODUCTION OF HOUSE BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

HB 2033, HB 2034 were thereupon introduced and read by title.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

SR 1707, SR 1708, SR 1709 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Secretary of the Senate on February 11, 2019.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 12, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 38 senators present.
Senators Hilderbrand and Masterson were excused.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, over 200 years ago, on February 12, 1809, You brought Abraham Lincoln into the world. Raised in a log cabin without many of the conveniences we enjoy today, You led him into becoming a well-respected, self-taught lawyer who would eventually become President.

And Lord, only a week after he was inaugurated, that blood-filled civil war began due to the opposing and uncompromising positions regarding the issue of slavery. During this Black History Month, we’re reminded that five days after the end of that war, after he had freed millions of slaves, on April 14, 1865, his work on Earth was done. And You allowed him to come home to You at the hands of his assassin, John Wilkes Booth.

We sometimes wonder, what’s with a person like Lincoln, so sacrificially dedicated to the good of others…so devoted to making the world a better place? You led him to provide the answer in a speech on February 22, 1862. He said “Without the assistance of the Divine Being…I cannot succeed. With that assistance I cannot fail.” He went on to say “Trusting in Him Who can go with me, and remain…, and be everywhere for good, let us confidently hope that all will be well.” Romans 8:28

Lord, You said through Your prophet Jeremiah, speaking to a people in Romans 29:10-14, that even though they had fallen short as we all do, You would still bless them. Your words were, “I know the plans I have for You…plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” By faith, Master, help us hold on to Your Word, help us trust You with that same devotion and determination. I’m thanking You for Your faithfulness toward us. In Jesus’ Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

SR 1710 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Secretary of the Senate on February 12, 2019.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, February 13, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine. The roll was called with 40 senators present. Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, the Negro National Baseball League began on February 13, 1920, in Kansas City, Missouri. And Lord, I come today reminded of that great Hall of Fame baseball pitcher, Satchel Paige, who played for the Kansas City Monarchs. I'm reminded not only of his wisdom in the game of baseball but also of his wisdom in the game of life. He said to those who would listen, "Don't pray when it rains if you don't pray when the sun shines."

Lord, we know that things will not always go as we'd like. We'll want the rain when the sun is shining and we'll want the sun when it's raining. We'll want constructive criticism from folks while also wanting their kudos.

Help us to echo the Apostle Paul's words in Philippians 4:11-13 where he said "I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation. I can do all this through Him Who gives me the strength."

So, Master, teach us to pray with thanksgiving, whether rain or shine, up or down, want or plenty, whether feeling good or feeling not so good. For You always know what we need and when we need it.

I come to you in the precious Name of Jesus, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 14, 2019, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, when that 3rd-century priest, Valentine, was killed because he refused to deny his love and commitment to You, he set an example for us to follow. Realizing that love is a verb...an action, rather than just a feeling, help us become genuine, active lovers. First in communicating our love to You, then in demonstrating it to others.

Your Word says in the “Love Chapter” of 1 Corinthians 13, that this kind of love never fails. Though at times our love may falter, we should never give up. Help us love like You and not give up on people.

In the song “My Funny Valentine,” the nine-time Grammy winning Ella Fitzgerald, said, “each day is Valentine's Day.” In another one of her songs, she sang that “In time the Rockies may crumble and Gibraltar may tumble. They're only made of clay.” But when it came to love, she said it’s “here to stay!”

Lord, in that same 1 Corinthians 13 “Love Chapter,” in verse 13 You name the top 3 virtues of faith, hope and love. And You conclude that the greatest of all is love. And since we didn’t quite achieve it yesterday, thanks for giving us another chance today. And, since love is the greatest, help us do it even when we don’t feel it. Help us do it, until we do feel it!

When it comes to being genuine in our acts of love, in the words of M.C. Hammer, we want to be “too legit to quit!” I come to You In the Name of Him Who Loved Us To Death (John 3:16). Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Present and Passing: Longbine.

The bill passed.

SCR 1606, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION condemning the enactment of the Reproductive Health Act by the state of New York, because it violates the life and well-being of a woman and her unborn child, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 27; Nays 13; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nay: Bollier, Doll, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Miller, Pettey, Skubal, Sykes, Ware.

The resolution was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: As a young child, I was taught the song “This little light of mine, I’m going to let it shine.” As a young adult, I was taught the phrase “You are what you tolerate.” I’m letting this little light of mine shine with my “Yes” vote on SCR 1606. To vote otherwise is to turn a blind eye of tolerance for the Reproductive Health Act of the state of New York.—MOLLY BAUMGARDNER

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SCR 1606 that includes false and misleading information, questions the hearts and minds of others, and wastes Kansas taxpayer money. Who gets to decide what love is? The resolution presented today in the name of Kansas does not represent the values of many Kansans that I know, including me. Those Kansans include women who have had a very wanted pregnancy and tragically find that the fetus has severe anomalies not compatible with life outside of the womb. Some of those women believe the most loving thing to do is terminate that pregnancy; some of those women believe the most loving thing to do is deliver the baby and allow its natural death outside of the womb. In either instance, the result is the same: the loss of a dream and a hope and a prayer for a child. For any one of us to say “I know the best course of action for this woman and this pregnancy” is an affront. Who are you or I to know another person’s mind and heart? We are called to love one another, not condemn one another.—BARBARA BOLLIER

Senators Faust-Goudou and Francisco request the record to show that they concur with the Explanation of Vote offered by Senator Bollier on SCR 1606.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SCR 1606. I believe the New York Assembly and Senate have a legitimate interest in protecting the same rights for women in their state that are now afforded women under the Supreme Court’s Roe v. Wade decision. Even if you don’t share that belief, some inaccurate statements in the “WHEREAS” clauses reduce the already low chances for serious consideration of this resolution. Clauses say the Reproductive Health Act “repealed all protections from criminal acts of violence against a woman’s unborn child, leaving citizens no legal recourse for the killing of any child in the womb” and “lessens the consequences for perpetrators of domestic violence, when their actions cause the death of a woman’s unborn child”. The Act did eliminate criminal penalties for illegal abortions when it was put in public health law; former laws on abortion had been in New York’s penal code. However, there are other criminal penalties New York still has that address the loss of a fetus when a pregnant woman is assaulted including first-degree assault. I suggest that instead of this resolution, we focus on the health and well-being of children in Kansas.—MARCI FRANCISCO Senators Bollier and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SCR 1606.

Mr. Vice President: Given my consistent, now 25 year long, legislative history of standing up for any American’s right to choose their own health care and other options for themselves without intrusive, unwarranted governmental interference, it should come as no surprise that I do not support this Senate Concurrent Resolution condemning “enactment of the Reproductive Health Act by the state of New York.” In that a devastating fetal anomaly that can either end the life of the putative mother or the fetus may not be detected until way late into a pregnancy, it is unconscionable to demand no-option for an extremely difficult decision to terminate such a pregnancy. I realize many of you, Mr. Vice President, constantly pretend that such medical necessities are never the case, but if you would pretend, beyond your driven dogma and restrictive ideologies, for just one moment that a woman could die or become physically or mentally impaired or that the expectant child was found grossly abnormal and maybe even stillborn while in utero and close to birth that this provides foundation for such procedures then, perhaps, you might yield from this restrictive, un-American ideology and trust medical professionals and families to decide their own best health care decisions…since, again, such decisions are really not any of our business. Finally, on this Valentine’s Day, let me profess, without being cliché, I genuinely LOVE New York! A great State which produced, in its amazing diversity, two US Presidential nominees in 2016; one who’d win the national popular vote by 3,000,000 votes (Clinton) and the other who’d win, convincingly, the electoral college vote (Trump) New York has more population in just one of five boroughs in just one of its many cities (NYC) than all of Kansas. In loving the diversity of and respecting its well-reasoned debate and overwhelming support in enacting their legislation, I hardly believe they will note one whit what we waste our precious legislative time going through this day.—DAVID HALEY

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on SCR 1606.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on Senate Concurrent Resolution 1606. I have always considered myself to be pro-life and pro-choice...knowing this choice is a highly difficult moral and health decision that I believe the “government” should not make. I have also always respected my friends, family members and colleagues in the Legislature who have very different views on this issue. I believe this resolution condemning the enactment of a law in another state that in no way impacts Kansans is a waste of time, money, and resources. Our time as legislators is better spent addressing the challenges Kansans are currently facing, such as: underfunded public schools, a foster care system in crisis, rural healthcare in jeopardy, and staggering numbers of domestic violence cases. Furthermore, I think this resolution contains some false and inflammatory claims and is insulting to women and doctors in Kansas. Every pregnancy is different, and all healthcare decisions should always be left up to the woman and her doctor or the healthcare professionals she trusts. They will always know what is best for their healthcare needs. Government has no place in these important healthcare decisions. Finally, being neither a woman nor a doctor, I am uncomfortable interjecting myself in this critical health care issue. For these reasons, I vote “no”.—TOM HAWK Senator Pettey requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hawk on SCR 1606.

Mr. Vice President: Why are we sending this message to New York? One important reason is because we want our Kansas Supreme Court to know that we would find this abortion mentality in our state as depraved and totally unacceptable. The New York abortion law is devastatingly damaging to women and children, and to all of humanity. I vote “Aye” to promote justice in our state.—MARY PILCHER-COOK

Mr. Vice President: Today’s episode of political theater is as cynical as any that I have witnessed in the last three years. Today, we are wasting our time and the money of Kansas taxpayers. Today, we are pointing out the speck in a neighbor’s eye while we completely disregard the plank in our own. The cynic in me believes that the primary reason we are voting on this resolution is for postcards for 2020 elections. Does the resolution do anything for Kansans? NO! Instead of throwing stones at New York why don’t we get our own house in order? The issues facing our constituents are many. Instead of focusing on New York, why are we not discussing Medicaid expansion, transportation funding, stabilizing our payments to KPERS, ending the litigation on school funding, the 70 children that went missing from DCF on our watch, or the ever-growing waiting list for PRTF beds? How about mental health? These are the issues we should be discussing. These are the issues that affect Kansans! If we truly care about protecting life we would be actually working on policy to protect and invest in the children and families that we are entrusted to represent. —DINAH SYKES

Senators Bollier, Francisco, Hensley, Pettey and Skubal request the record to show that they concur with the Explanation of Vote offered by Senator Sykes on SCR 1606.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, the third Monday in February has been set aside as a Federal Holiday, to honor the first President, George Washington, and all succeeding Presidents.

Your Word, in 1 Timothy 2:1-4, directs us to pray for everyone in general, but particularly those in authority; that our lives may be quiet and peaceful and lived out in Godly and reverent ways. You said this is good and pleases You.

So Lord, in obedience to You and in view of Your promise, we petition You for the prevention of evil and the advancement of good. We intercede on behalf of others, and offer thanks for the blessings You’ve already provided.

We pray for the five Presidents that are still with us today: Presidents Jimmy Carter, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, Barack Obama and our current President Donald Trump. And Lord, even though we don’t understand it sometimes, You said in Romans 13:1-7, that no authority exists, except that which is granted by You, by Your permission.

So, Lord, help us by faith to look to You. Please use our President and all those to whom You have granted authority. Bless them and use them to Your glory and honor, to our good and to the strengthening of a Godly, free society. I come to You In Jesus’ Name, Amen.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1712—

A RESOLUTION recognizing September 1–7, 2019, as Resiliency Week in Kansas.

WHEREAS, Hazard mitigation is the effort to reduce loss of life and property by lessening the impact of disasters. It is most effective when implemented under a comprehensive, long-term mitigation plan; and

WHEREAS, The Pre-Disaster Mitigation Grant Program, administered by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, is designed to assist states and local communities in implementing a sustained pre-disaster natural-hazard mitigation program; and

WHEREAS, Federal legislation recently enacted the Disaster Recovery Reform Act, making new dollars available for states and communities to undertake pre-disaster mitigation measures and creating new incentives for states to build resiliently; and

WHEREAS, Since 1908, natural disasters have cost the country more than 1 trillion dollars; and

WHEREAS, Disasters affect the local and state economies in lost payrolls and lost sales and income tax, which in turn affect disaster-recovery times; and

WHEREAS, According to a FEMA-commissioned study conducted by the National Institute of Building Sciences, every $1 spent on hazard mitigation provides the nation with $6 in future benefits; and

WHEREAS, Twenty-five percent of small businesses that are impacted by a natural disaster never reopen their doors; and

WHEREAS, September is National Preparedness Month, and Kansas Preparedness Month is a recognition of the need for all Americans to prepare and plan for recovery after a disaster; and

WHEREAS, Mitigation planning is a key process used to break the cycle of disaster damage, reconstruction and repeated damages; and

WHEREAS, Effective pre-disaster mitigation reduces the demand for relief services on volunteer organizations, such as disaster, rescue and recovery teams, along with food banks and homeless shelters that serve communities by changing their operations to provide additional services to those affected by disaster; and

WHEREAS, This body honors the brave men and women who, as first responders, selflessly provide aid in a disaster to safeguard Kansas citizens; and

WHEREAS, This body encourages Kansas communities to build resilience and develop long-term mitigation strategies for protecting people and property from future hazard events: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we recognize September 1–7, 2019, as Resiliency Week in Kansas to raise public awareness about the continuing need to plan for future disasters by instituting a pre-disaster mitigation strategy; and

Washburn Rural is the third school to receive such recognition since the award's inception in 2016; and

WHEREAS, Washburn Rural is described as having one of Kansas' most successful performing arts programs, and it was selected for national recognition following its recent successes in speech, debate, music, and theater. Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

To our Holy and Righteous God, God of Heaven and Earth and all therein. Thanks for another day...for another opportunity to be an instrument in Your hands. Like the moon reflects the light of the sun and has no light of its own, like the light bulb that has no ability to shine unless power is provided, we approach our responsibilities today in dire need of Your light and Your power.

For the only way that good can be accomplished in this house is for You to do it through us. Reflecting on what the Apostle said in Romans 7:14-29, the good that we would do, we don't do and the not-so-good that we would not do, we do.

We'll be facing a brand new day and then forget to pray. We'll make a mess when we're really trying to bless, and we'll postpone until tomorrow what should be done today.

Lord, the Holy and Righteous standards of Your Word, by contrast, reveal our flaws and our need for the forgiveness You offer in 1 John 1:9-10. So, Lord, please forgive each of us and remove anything that's blocking or clogging up the conduit of our lives. Don't let our lives become clogged up with the daily stress and strain of trying to meet the undue expectations of others. Keep us clear-headed enough to stay focused on You and meeting Your expectations.

As a mirror that is under the light will reflect the image of whatever is in front of it, shine Your light upon us that we might show forth. You're the One in front.

Again, I thank You for the power of Your grace, mercy and forgiveness. And in Jesus' Name, I say Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for bringing us to, and we look forward to You taking us through another “Hump Day.” It’s the middle of the week and we do have some humps to get over...some difficulties to get past...some problems to solve. Yet, we can make it through with confidence.

We know that progress requires struggle. In Ecclesiastes 9:11, Your Word says, “the race is not given to the swift.” Realizing this as a truism, someone further stated that it is given to those who endure to the end. Getting through “Hump Day” is part of developing our endurance. And Lord, with Your help, getting beyond the tasks at hand is something we can look forward to.

This day is devoted to serving You and Your people. And, You didn’t bring us this far to leave us. In Nehemiah 8:10, Your people were told in that day that it was a good day...a day dedicated to You...a day to move forward. You encouraged them and told them to look out for those who were not able to provide for themselves, that the joy of the Lord would be their strength. So, Lord, help us in a like manner. You have blessed us beyond measure.

So, taking a word from the Geico commercial, we should be as happy as a camel on “Hump Day.” Thank You! Thank You for the strength and joy You provide. I look to You in Jesus’ Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, for consideration of bills on the calendar under the heading of General Orders with Senator Masterson in the chair.

On motion of Senator Masterson the following report was adopted:

SB 32 be amended by the adoption of the committee amendments, and the bill be passed as amended.

A motion offered by Senator Pettey was ruled not germane. The ruling of the chair was challenged. Upon the showing of five hands a roll call vote was requested.
On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 28; Nays 12; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nays: Bollier, Doll, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Miller, Pettey, Sykes, Ware.

The ruling was sustained.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: I vote “NO” on sustaining the ruling of the chair. Comments I have gotten from constituents to support Senate Bill 32 to help them obtain affordable health care and provide support for their hospitals also pertain to the amendment offered to expand Medicaid. I believe the amendment would address some of their concerns about healthcare in a much more positive way and without harming others in the insurance pool. I would have welcomed the chance to debate it.—Marci Francisco

Mr. Chairman: My “Aye” vote to sustain the chair in no way shape or form represents my view of the expansion of Medicaid.—Randall Hardy

A motion by Senator Hensley to amend SB 32 failed and the following amendment was rejected; on page 2, in line 37, after the period by inserting "No healthcare benefits coverage provided by a nonprofit agricultural membership organization incorporated in Kansas on June 23, 1931, or an affiliate thereof, issued or renewed within this state or issued or renewed outside this state covering residents within this state shall refuse to accept an individual regardless of any specific health conditions existing at or prior to the individual's application for coverage or limit or exclude benefits for specific health conditions existing at or prior to the effective date of coverage thereunder. Such policy may impose a preexisting condition exclusion, not to exceed 90 days following the date of enrollment, for benefits for conditions whether mental or physical, regardless of the cause of the conditions for which medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received in the 90 days prior to the effective date of enrollment. Any preexisting condition exclusion shall run concurrently with any waiting period."

Upon the showing of five hands a roll call vote was requested.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 15; Nays 24; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 1.

Yees: Bollier, Denning, Doll, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Longbine, Lynn, Miller, Petersen, Sykes, Ware.

Absent or Not Voting: Pettey.

The amendment failed.
EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: SB 32 is a “non-insurance healthcare benefits coverage” bill. Adding this amendment to the bill makes this an insurance bill. I vote “NO” to maintain the intent of the non-insurance healthcare benefits. To be clear, I believe that ALL insurance plans should be required to provide coverage for pre-existing health conditions. Thank you Mister Chair.—MOLLY BAUMGARDNER

Senators Berger, Bowers, Goddard, Hardy, Hilderbrand, Masterson, McGinn, Olson, Rucker, Tyson and Wagle request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Baumgardner on SB 32.

Mr. Chairman: As a Senator that has just come off an election, that saw my fair share of creative post cards, I would like to explain my “NO” vote on this amendment that would require a company that wants to offer a Health Benefit Plan to cover pre-existing conditions. This vote in no way was a vote to deny coverage to any Kansan that would have a pre-existing condition. They are still able to get coverage under the ACA Health Exchange which does offer Health Insurance Policies. A no vote on this Amendment only means that we are not going to require a Health Benefit Plan to be required to cover the same coverages as the ACA Health Insurance Policies.—RICHARD HILDERBRAND

Senators Bowers, Goddard, Masterson, Olson, Rucker and Tyson request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hilderbrand on SB 32.

Mr. Chairman: Pre-existing condition provisions caused skyrocketing premiums, pricing 2.5 million people out of insurance, as reported by the Kaiser Foundation. According to a Gallup poll, citizens are more concerned about rising health premiums than pre-existing conditions. We should support lower cost of acquiring health care coverage, so people can have it before they develop what would otherwise be pre-existing conditions.—MARY PILCHER-COOK

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

On motion of Senator Denning an emergency was declared by a 2/3 constitutional majority, and SB 32 was advanced to Final Action and roll call. SB 32, an ACT exempting certain non-insurance healthcare benefits coverage from the jurisdiction of the commissioner of insurance; amending K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 40-2222, 40-2222a and 40-2222b and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 28; Nays 11; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 1.

Nays: Bollier, Denning, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Miller, Sykes, Ware.

Absent or Not Voting: Pettey.

The bill passed, as amended.
EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SB 32. I appreciate the Farm Bureau bringing this idea to the Legislature and the spirited debate. I agree that SB 32 hopes to help farm families facing health care and health insurance issues. Unfortunately, SB 32 will allow the Farm Bureau to effectively launch their own health coverage business without having to follow most of the rules that insurance companies must obey. Consumers with pre-existing conditions will almost surely be turned away or offered excessive prices to buy into the Farm Bureau plans. There’s no legal requirement for the Farm Bureau to allow their customers to renew their health policies, meaning a customer who becomes sick with a costly condition could have their coverage ended legally. Farm Bureau has shared that they expect 42,000 enrollees, proving that this will be marketed far beyond farm families who may legitimately need help finding affordable insurance. We should be exploring solutions that will provide these families with comprehensive, affordable coverage that won’t leave them subject to substandard care and may, in fact, increase the cost of insurance for other Kansans.—TOM HAWK Senators Bollier, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Miller and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hawk on SB 32.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, You’ve blessed us to see another weekend. As we bring the week to an end, don’t let us end feeling weak. Give us a strong weekend. Give us a vigorous, yet easy weekend. As we take a break from the daily grind, let the weekend be refreshing and uplifting.

As we engage with family and loved ones…as we interact with neighbors, help us to protect and strengthen relationships. As we come and go, give us safe travel. If we find ourselves confronted with any problems, give us the energy, wisdom and guidance for resolution.

In Joshua 1:7, You gave Your people the keys to success. Help us apply them for ourselves. You told Your people to be strong, to be courageous, to be careful to obey You, to be careful to not stray, to be careful to follow all the principles in Your Word. Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, here we are again, grateful for Your provision. You've continued to sustain and keep us in Your care. As we take on the challenges that face us during this time, keep us from being so proud of our abilities that we think, "We've got this!"

For too often in the past You've allowed us to fall on our faces, so as to reveal our inadequacies when we're not leaning and depending upon You. In 2 Corinthians 12:6-9, the Apostle Paul admitted that he was forced to deal with a recurring problem that was too much for him. He said You allowed him to experience the enormity of the problem that it might humble him, that his inability to fix it would keep him looking to You and, in meekness, depending upon You. You then gave him the same assurance that we are seeking, that the provision of Your grace, the desire and power that comes from You, will be sufficient to meet the needs of today.

We've learned that You don't save us from problems...You don't take them away, You save us while we're facing them...while we're in them. You open our eyes to the reality that You are the Real Problem Solver. So, Lord, help us to just be vessels, just humble vessels of Your grace. I offer this petition, in the Name of the Savior, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 10:00, Tuesday, February 26, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

God of Heaven, full of Wisdom and all Truth. I want to thank You for being so faithful, so consistent and trustworthy. We can truly depend on You when the reliability of others will tend to fail short. Your precious promises are Amen and Amen! The Words that come from You serve as a bridge, that will carry us over and above falsehood and transport us from doubt and uncertainty to a confident, dependable, unfailing optimism.

For You mean what You say! And You say what You mean! Lord, keep us from the arrogance of believing that what we say will overrule! We hear the words that come from around us, but we need to hear the Words that come from above us. Lord, by Your Spirit of Love, keep us from turning a deaf ear when You give us the hard sayings.

For You said, in Psalm 66:18 and Proverbs 28:9, that if we closed our ears and refused to listen to You, You would close Your ears and refuse to listen to us. So, Lord, speak! For we really are listening. My appeal to You is in the Name of Christ Jesus, Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Chairman: The strength of the legislative process is the thorough vetting of legislation producing a product that has the best interests of Kansas and its citizens at the forefront. Legislation that is as significant as school finance, which comprises over 50 percent of the State Budget, deserves that consideration. School finance is too important to be submitted as an amendment offered on the floor of the Senate. It is my expectation that a school finance bill that has gone through the rigor of the committee process will be introduced for this body to debate by March 15. I vote “NO.”—Ed Berger

Senators Billinger, Goddard, Hardy, Skubal and Taylor request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Berger on SB 16.

SB 9 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Governor on February 26, 2019.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, February 27, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, God of all Heaven and Earth, knowing You as our God and knowing that You love us is so encouraging, especially in view of everything that confronts us. Many of the issues that challenge us are difficult to resolve and given that we have limited abilities it's just a blessing to know You have our back. Our ability to solve problems is naturally restricted to our human limitations, but Your approach to them is supernatural.

We have blurred vision and can only see so much. But, in Proverbs 15:3, nothing gets past You. There's no limit to Your presence. You are everywhere watching everything we face whether good or bad. We have hazy, distorted knowledge and what we do know is limited. But, in Hebrews 4:13, nothing is ever hidden or covered up from You. Everything is naked before You and held accountable.

Lord, our human limitations are ever before us. Even when You let us clearly see what we're facing and enable us to understand the issues, we find ourselves limited or even powerless. But we find, in Revelation 19:6, that You are Almighty, all Powerful and fully Sovereign. You are King of kings and Lord of lords! Therefore, Master, even when we don't have the answers we know that you do.

So, Lord, sovereignly guide us and help us to trust You for the results. I offer this prayer in the precious Name of Jesus. So be it and Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: Kansas law enforcement works every day to enforce the laws of Kansas for the safety of all. Audible or visual signals help Kansans know that law enforcement is at work. The changes in Sub SB 62 foster confusion for citizens and could create more problems than answers for the law enforcement community. I vote “NO.”—PAT PETTEY

Senators Bollier and Haley request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pettey on Sub SB 62.

Madam President: I vote “NO” on Sub SB 62. This bill will allow waivers for law enforcement to have to signal, or light or sound themselves while on duty, is a solution in search of a problem. There is no necessity for it. In other words, we don’t need it. Does a police officer write a ticket to another police officer for speeding, or failing to signal, or “U”-turn, or not using a siren or flashing light during a lawful surveillance and/or pursuit or any other example of recognized on-duty work? Are there any documented examples of a prosecutor pursuing such charge(s) or certainly judgment(s) against such law enforcement officer? Madame President, really. What are we doing here? And, since this bill really is not fully vetted nor seemingly necessary, now my concern, purely on behalf of public safety becomes: if any officer (due to NOT giving appropriate awareness of their on-duty-and-official-pursuit-status though even in the course of recognized duty) SHOULD contribute to a loss of life or limb of any innocent third party, does this bill provide a shield or immunity from contributory causation? Recognizing Senate Judiciary has been remiss this Session in even working unified consensus bills in committee, respectfully, this bill should not have come out of the Transportation Committee. I hope it will not confuse a need of greater public safety from chase-related accidents by an attempt to affirm all of our genuine respect for the appreciated service of diligent and attentive and safely-progressing on-duty law enforcement.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I do not believe that any state agency should be in direct competition with private business. By removing the fee cap, and giving them the ability to raise and lower their fees without any oversight, we are giving this agency an unfair advantage over our private businesses. We also heard concerns over whether or not the state had to follow the same safety requirements as our private business’s, without being given a definitive answer. For these reasons I vote ‘NO” on SB 49.—RICHARD HILDERBRAND

Mr. Vice President: I vote "NO" on SB 49. I support the concept of giving flexibility on the pricing of cabins. However, this bill removes the cap when they already have the authority to more than double the highest price cabins, and almost triple others under the current cap. Our state needs to encourage our own citizens to get outside and enjoy the outdoors and encourage tourists to visit our parks.—MIKE PETERSEN

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote “PRESENT BUT PASSING “ on SB 77 regarding a child under 18 years exhibiting a sexual behavior problem who allegedly commits sexual abuse against another person under 18. Under this bill, now our Department of Children & Family (DCF) must respond and, if proven, referred to the child-in-need-of-care (CINC) code and referred to a child advocacy center. I agree that we need greater scrutiny and response to the growing number of our youths acting aggressively and sexually abusive. My only hesitancy is the fiscal note, or costs through DCF, to increase the government’s role in ferreting out, then offering the parent(s) counseling for the aggressive child (and if refused by the parent, mandating the same). A quarter of a million for identifying and referring to designated counseling centers. Again, we definitely need to better police the growing number of aggressive sexual interludes between juveniles. But we also should explore less invasive, parentally-inclusive not overtly mandated and not so tax-payer expensive stop-gaps, too.—DAVID HALEY

Heavenly Father,
When I dream of Kansas,
A thousand pictures form:
Pictures of now and then,
Of peaceful times or storm.
Of waving wheat and rolling hills
And elevators tall;
Of blazing winter sunsets,
The cardinal's lilting call.
Names emerge adorning
The horizons of my mind:
Abilene and Hickok,
From the rough and tumble times.
Capper, White and Earhart;
Turkey Red and Hays.
Leavenworth and Wichita Brighten Kansas days.
I dream of frigid winters,
Of summers blistering hot.
I see the birth of character:
A prairie Camelot.
I sometimes cross its borders
To survey other scenes;
But my heart belongs to Kansas,
My land of pleasant dreams.
And I give You all the glory,
O God, For creating this land.
I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Lord of love and light, who has entrusted us with the great responsibility to steward Your resources, Your creation, Your people, Your love, grant we ask the mercy to be good stewards of all of those good gifts which you have bestowed upon us. Raise us up in a unity that can only come from a love planted deep within our souls for every person in Kansas, recognizing that every single one is created in Your image and worthy of the same love You have given to us. May we especially remember the poor, the suffering, the marginalized and those without voices, for we know they hold a special place in Your heart.

We ask You to deliver us from division, from tribalism, to save us from decisions and policies that are motivated by fear. Help us to be hospitable and charitable in our speech, discourse and even disagreement with one another. Bring a Godly shape to our dialogue and help us find solutions even when our perspectives may differ. We know that healthy democracy is formed when all voices are welcome at the table. Save us, God, from violence, discourse and confusion; from hubris and arrogance and from every evil way. Bring moral clarity to our policies and our decision making processes. Bless all of our lawmakers and their families and all who sacrifice for the good of public service and all of those in the good State of Kansas. In YOUR name, Amen.

Give us the same assurance that You gave Your servant Jacob. In Genesis 28:15-16, in the dream he had about the Ladder that reached into Heaven, You gave him the confidence he needed when You said, “Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go and will bring you back…For I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you!”

Moses said he didn’t want to go anywhere unless You went with him. So Lord, at every turn we take, give us an awareness of Your presence. Thank You again for one more day, for one more opportunity to say thank You. I come to Your Holy throne in the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God, Our Hope and our Keeper, we come thanking You for bringing us through another weekend. We’ve experienced another start of Daylight Savings Time. Lord, It was over a century ago, in 1885, when George Hudson gave birth to that concept. The idea was to spring our clocks forward an hour in the spring to gain an hour of daylight in the evening. And to fall back to standard time in the fall. Lord, we lost an hour of some real good sleep. And I guess we have to wait until November to try and get it back; that’s if we can.

Irrespective of what we do with the clock, the quality of our time, as well as the quantity is ultimately determined by You. Therefore, You challenge us, in Ephesians 5:15-16, to make the best use of whatever time You give us; to make the most of every opportunity for doing the good of serving others and pleasing You. As it says in Psalm 90:12, teach us to number our days, to tally each day, to make each and every day count, for not even tomorrow, is promised to us.

So Lord, when the day comes that we can no longer make adjustments to the clock; when the time of final accounting has come; when we stand in Your presence and give an accounting for the lives we’ve lived, we really want to hear You give us the words of Matthew 25:20-21, “Well done, good and faithful servant. You’ve been faithful with the little that I’ve given you responsibility for. I’ll now bring You from labor to reward. Come and enter into the joys of governing with your Master in a New Heaven and a New Earth.”

I come to You in the precious Name of Jesus, Amen and Amen.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, yesterday in song, our prayer was God Bless America; this land that we love. Stand beside her, and guide her, with Your light from above. Lord, what we need as a nation, as a state; what we need in our homes must ultimately come from Your Hand of blessings being extended to us. For You made it clear in James 1:17, that every good and perfect gift comes from You.

When the wheels of a vehicle are out of alignment, the sooner they’re corrected the better and the greater the chance of avoiding heavy repair costs. In a like manner Lord, the wheels that we run on need to be brought into alignment with You; with Your will, and with Your ways. In Psalm 33:12, Your Word says, “Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.”

When the crying Prophet Jeremiah observed the condition of his nation, in the 17th chapter, You used him to contrast the difference between a people being cursed by You or being blessed. In verse 6, the cursed was like a shrub in a dry desert not seeing prosperity. While in verse 8 the blessed one, the one in alignment with You, will be nourished like a tree planted by the waters, maintaining green leaves and bearing much fruit.

So Lord, like a Master Mechanic, hoist us up on Your rack and bring every wheel, every thought, attitude, action, and habit into the alignment appropriate for Your blessings. In the Name of Jesus, I come to You for continuing alignment. Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God of Heaven and Earth, Creator and Sustainer of Light – Genesis 1:14; when we observe the wonder of Your creation, when we examine this world that You’ve created, we’ve come to depend on the way in which You have maintained it. Down through the centuries, we’ve come to depend on the “Constants” that You’ve given us; the length of days, weeks, months and years; the water cycle of precipitation, evaporation, condensation as You cause it to constantly repeat itself.

March 14, is referred to as Pi day, because of the digits 3.14, that remind us of the mathematical equation pi (π), where the ratio or relationship between the circumference of a circle and the diameter of that circle will be constant, always the same no matter how big or small the circle gets. In a small way, this reminds us of You.

Your Words in Hebrews 13:8 and James 1:17 give us the assurance that You are constant! You’re the Father of all light. You’re not shifting like the shadows. You’re the same, yesterday, today and forever. What You have declared as right, was right, is right and will be right. Your code of ethics is not determined by where we are. Our codes are to be subject to where You are.

So, Lord, thank You for one more reminder of how reliable You are; of how faithful and dependable You are. With that in mind, help us to move forward with boldness, trusting in the “Constant” of Your continuing, day by day, moment by moment, mercy, wisdom and guidance.

Once again, I come to You in the Name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1608 –

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend sections 5, 6 and 9 of article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to the update of the language in the executive article.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Sections 5, 6 and 9 of article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 5. Governor's duties for legislature; messages; special sessions; adjournment. The governor may, on extraordinary occasions, call the legislature into special session by proclamation; and shall call the legislature into special session, upon petition signed by at least two-thirds 2/3 of the members elected to each house. At every session of the legislature the governor shall communicate in writing information in reference to the condition of the state, and recommend such measures as he the governor deems expedient. In case of disagreement between the two houses in respect of the time of adjournment, the governor may adjourn the legislature to such time as he the governor deems proper, not beyond its next regular session."

"§ 6. Reorganization of state agencies of executive branch. (a) For the purpose of transferring, abolishing, consolidating or coordinating the whole or any part of any state agency, or the functions thereof, within the executive branch of state government, when the governor considers the same necessary for efficient administration, he the governor may issue one or more executive reorganization orders, each bearing an identifying number, and transmit the same to the legislature within the first thirty 30 calendar days of any regular session. Agencies and functions of the legislative and judicial branches, and constitutionally delegated functions of state officers and state boards shall be exempt from executive reorganization orders.

(b) The governor shall transmit each executive reorganization order to both houses of the legislature on the same day, and each such order shall be accompanied by a governor's message, which shall specify with respect to each abolition of a function included in the order, the statutory authority for the exercise of the function. Every executive reorganization order shall provide for the transfer or other disposition of the records, property and personnel affected by the order. Every executive reorganization order shall provide for all necessary transfers of unexpended balances of appropriations of agencies affected by such order, and such changes in responsibility for and handling of special funds as may be necessary to accomplish the purpose of such order. Transferred balances of appropriations may be used only for the purposes for which the appropriation was originally made.

(c) Each executive reorganization order transmitted to the legislature as provided in this section shall take effect and have the force of general law on the July 1 following its transmittal to the legislature, unless within sixty 60 calendar days and before the adjournment of the legislative session either the senate or the house of representatives adopts by a majority vote of the members elected thereto a resolution disapproving such executive reorganization order. Under the provisions of an executive reorganization order a portion of the order may be effective at a time later than the date on which the order is otherwise effective.

(d) An executive reorganization order which is effective shall be published as and with the acts of the legislature and the statutes of the state. Any executive reorganization order which is or is to become effective may be amended or repealed as statutes of the state are amended or repealed."

"§ 9. State seal and commissions. There shall be a seal of the state, which shall be kept by the governor, and used by him the governor officially, and which shall be the great seal of Kansas. All commissions shall be issued in the name of the state of Kansas; and shall be signed by the governor, countersigned by the secretary of state, and sealed with the great seal."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would update language in article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, the executive article, by deleting all masculine pronouns from the article.

"A vote for this proposition would eliminate all masculine pronouns from article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas.

"A vote against this proposition favors retaining current constitutional provisions, which contain masculine pronouns in article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2020, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

By the Governor

On the appointment to the:

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Sub SB 69, AN ACT concerning electric utilities; requiring a study of electric rates; relating to the legislative coordinating council; state corporation commission, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 38; Nays 1; Present and Passing 1; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nays: Pyle.

Present and Passing: Francisco.

The substitute bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: I VOTE “AYE” on Substitute for SB 69. The amendment I offered to this bill failed on a voice vote. It would simply allow any customer-ratepayer of a Board of Public Utilities (or “BPU”), typically a municipally-operated utility, to write our Kansas Corporation Commission (or “KCC”) for information pertaining to any rule, charge, practice or procedure and to require the KCC to provide information to such customer (ratepayer) about whether such rule, change, practice or procedure differs and to what extent it differs for customers of electric utilities that ARE regulated by the KCC. Without such a provision, the KCKS BPU is still able to indiscriminately put policies in play (most recently, charging bills alleged from many years ago to many consumers or inflicting exorbitant, credit-based security deposits or assessing supplemental line item charges such as Payment In Lieu Of Taxes …aka “PILOT”…and water sewer and waste collection fees, etc.) without an “apple-to-apple” comparison as to how such practices are implemented to other Kansas utilities which our KCC DOES regulate. But the underlying substitute bill bringing a study of electric rates surprisingly DOES opt to include the KCKS BPU; one of several municipal utilities chosen to be included in the study. Reflecting the multiple concerns of literally thousands of Kansas Citizens’ about our monopoly utility, hearing their concerns about elected board member’s abilities to affect policies or change, I vow to continue to assist in bringing KCC access to the KCKS BPU one day. This future study, however small in its impact on us in KCKS, is but a tiny step in that direction acknowledging that ALL Kansas utility consumers deserve a neutral and responsive response and review to patterns and practices.—DAVID HALEY

Madam President: I vote “PASS” on Sub SB 69, and I do that because, while I am supportive of the study of many of the issues that were identified, I am concerned that we are also asking some questions that we can already answer and are not asking for other information we may need to craft the forward-looking electric policy we desire. I am hoping that the House will carefully review the items requested in the study and help consolidate the issues so we might provide better direction to the Legislative Coordinating Council for their requests for proposals. Let’s work together to save unnecessary expenses for our Kansas ratepayers in this study as we work to save costs on future electricity bills. I hope there will be changes that would allow me to fully support a conference committee report on this bill.—MARCIFRANCISCO

SCR 1605, A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to reapportionment of senatorial and representative districts, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 40; Nays 0; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The resolution was adopted.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate recessed to the sound of the gavel.

The Senate met pursuant to recess with Vice President Longbine in the chair.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, for consideration of bills on the calendar under the heading of General Orders with Senator Hilderbrand in the chair.

On motion of Senator Hilderbrand the following report was adopted:

SB 142 be passed.

A motion by Senator Masterson to amend SB 142 failed and the following amendment was rejected; on page 2, following line 35, by inserting:

"New Sec. 3. (a) Each school year, the board of education of each school district shall reasonably calculate and allocate a sufficient amount of money to have students enrolled in such school district who are not meeting the goal set forth in K.S.A. 72-3218(c), and amendments thereto, achieve that goal. The board of education and the superintendent of each school district shall certify to the state board of education that:

(1) The school district budget reasonably calculates and allocates a sufficient amount of funds and resources, including, but not limited to, licensed teachers, curriculum materials and supplies and any other costs categorized in function 1000, instruction, by the state board, as published in the state department of education's Kansas accounting handbook for unified school districts, as published in March 2018, or later versions adopted by the state board, to ensure that each student meets the goal set forth in K.S.A. 72-3218(c), and amendments thereto; and

(2) the school district has sufficient qualified personnel adequately trained to provide the curriculum established by the board of education and the school district's at-risk programs.

(b) The provisions of this section shall be effective on and after July 1, 2019.

And by renumbering sections accordingly.

Upon the showing of five hands a roll call vote was requested. On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 11; Nays 29; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

A motion by Pilcher-Cook to amend SB 142 failed.

SB 150 be amended by the adoption of the committee amendments, and the bill be passed as amended.

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

On motion of Senator Denning an emergency was declared by a 2/3 constitutional majority, and SB 142 and SB 150 were advanced to Final Action and roll call.

SB 142, AN ACT concerning education; relating to the instruction and financing thereof; making and concerning appropriations for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2020, and June 30, 2021, for the department of education; amending K.S.A. 72-5132 and repealing the existing section.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 32; Nays 8; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Baumgardner, Berger, Billinger, Bollier, Bowers, Braun, Denning, Doll, Estes, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Givens, Goddard, Haley, Hardy, Hawk, Hensley, Hilderbrand, Holland, Longbine, Lynn, McGinn, Miller, Olson, Petersen, Pettey, Rucker, Skubal, Sykes, Taylor, Ware, Wilborn.

The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I am voting for this bill only because I see no other way to meet the requirements placed on us by the Supreme Court. I respect the work of the education committee. I deeply regret that the plaintiffs have again attempted to change the numbers. That does not demonstrate a commitment to students. Being honest, upfront and honoring your word on SB 142 is showing a commitment to our students. My vote is for the schools who need to be able to plan their budgets. It is my hope that this is a 4-year solution to bring stability, predictability and credibility back to our state in regard to education funding. To the plaintiffs, please note, for me this is not an opening bid but rather a final offer before turning to other constitutional legislative options.—KEVIN BRAUN
Senator Lynn requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Braun on SB 142.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SB 142 so that I can vote yes for more funding for mental health programs, vote yes for increased funding for our correctional facilities, increased funding for disability programs and move more people off the waiting list. I want a state water plan that protects our resources and provides water for all our farms and communities. I’d like to vote yes for higher education for lower tuition. I want to fund KPERS and let KDOT build roads and bridges. And finally, I vote no so that I don’t have to vote for the tax increase that will be the result of its passage.—DAN KERSCHEN

Senators Alley, Braun, Pilcher-Cook, Suellentrop and Wagle request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Kerschen on SB 142.

Madam President: Today I voted yes on SB 142 to end the years and years of litigation. I feel we have no choice. We are being held hostage by the Kansas Supreme Court. Their threats to close our schools unless we put more dollars toward education must be taken seriously.

It is sad that the rest of our budget must suffer in order to add even more money than last year. Kansas has many other important obligations; mental health, social programs, highways, pensions, water, prisons, and health care to name a few.

Last year’s legislation added more dollars than our revenue can support and with this additional funding other needs of our state will continue to suffer.

The taxpayers of Kansas have said they do not support additional taxes on property, sales or income and I agree.

We do not have sufficient revenue to meet our obligations.—RICK BILLINGER

SB 150, AN ACT concerning victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking or stalking; relating to housing protections; notification requirements.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 40; Nays 0; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The bill passed, as amended.

CONSIDERATION OF MOTIONS TO CONCUR AND NONCONCUR

Senator Wagle moved the Senate concur in House amendments to SB 22.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 24; Nays 16; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nays: Bollier, Doll, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hardy, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Miller, Pettey, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Skubal, Sykes, Ware.

The Senate concurred.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: SB 22 as amended by the House is a catch 22 for legislators. I do not support the sales tax portion of this bill. I also do not support another tax increase on Kansans. If this bill is not signed into law, it will become yet another tax increase that Kansans will be forced to bear. This body should have had an opportunity to remove the sales tax portion from this bill. Unfortunately we do not have that opportunity before us today. The only option we now have is to either vote to concur, or to non-concur on this bill as it is amended by the House. If we vote against this bill, we will clearly be voting for yet another tax increase on the citizens of Kansas. Mr. Vice President because of this I reluctantly vote to concur with the house on SB 22.—RICHARD HILDERBRAND

Mr. Vice President: Far too often, there is a focus on getting special projects passed instead of focusing on issues that are most important to the people. SB 22 was simple, straightforward, important legislation that would ensure Kansans didn’t receive an unintended tax increase as a result of the federal tax cuts passed in 2017. Now it has special interests attached. I have long supported a food sales tax reduction, but it should not be considered in a bill that is simply meant to restore what taxpayers would otherwise lose. Food sales tax reduction should be considered, but it should be considered separately. The internet sales tax should be part of a broader sales tax debate that could ultimately lower the overall sales tax rate. SB 22 was meant to stop an unintended tax increase. It makes no sense how this is accomplished by adding a tax increase. These are the kinds of games that infuriate average Americans who follow the political process. We should keep it simple and straightforward, so the public knows exactly what battle is being fought and why, so they can weigh in and be a part of the debate. I vote “NO” on SB 22.—MARY PILCHER-COOK

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on the motion to concur to the House amendments to SB 22 so that I can vote YES for more funding for mental health programs, vote YES for increased funding for our correctional facilities, increased funding for disability programs and move more people off the waiting list. I want a state water plan that protects our resources and provides water for all our farms and communities. I’d like to vote YES for higher education for lower tuition. I want to fund KPERS and let KDOT build roads and bridges. And finally, I vote NO so that I don’t have to vote for the tax increase that will be the result of its passage.—VIC MILLER

Senator Bollier requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Miller on SB 22.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, in Matthew 13:33, You give us the parable of yeast working its way completely through each lump of dough to produce the bread. You said Your Kingdom is like that. So what we produce is to really be the result of You working Your way through each of us.

The reason the dough became a nourishing loaf of bread for the family is attributed to the yeast, while the reason we become beneficial to the community is accredited to what You are doing through us. Lord, that means that doing Your work is not so much our working for You as it is our depending on Your working through us.

Give us now a good weekend and keep Your hedge of protection around us. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we come today, once again, ready to hear from You; ready to receive Your guidance. Lord, we need to be, and we want to be, in tune with the leading of Your Spirit, Your HOLY Spirit. For Your word reveals, and all around us, life is revealing that there are ungodly spirits wanting to influence our attitudes and actions.

So Lord, as it says in Your Word in 1 John 4:1-5, we should test the spirits of the different thoughts and ideas being communicated to us. Are they from You or not? You want us to analyze the various thoughts that come to us. You want us to guard against the deceptions that are designed to weaken us and render us as ineffective instruments for good and Godly freedom. Lord Your desire is for us to be loving, fair and just in all our decisions. So, open our ears that we may hear; open our eyes that we may see; open our understanding that regardless of the source, we may distinguish Your Spirit of Truth and Justice over any spirit of lies and deception.

Let our phobia be the fear of crossing You in our judgments. Help us to run all our decisions through the grid, through the filter, through the Standard of Your Holy Word.

I thank You and praise You for hearing this prayer. In the precious Name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, March 19, 2019, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
The roll was called with 39 senators present.
Senator Hensley was excused.
The President introduced Reverend, Dr. Ed Farris, Heartland Hospice Care in Topeka and guest of Senator Denning, who delivered the invocation:

We come before You, Father God, and give You thanks for life and the blessing of living. As we look throughout our State of Kansas, seeing the needs and hurts of people in so many different areas, let us follow the words and advice of the prophet Jeremiah:
“Let not the wise man boast of his wisdom, or the strong man boast of his strength or the rich man boast of his riches but let him who boasts boast about this: that he understands and knows that I am the LORD who exercises kindness, justice and righteousness on earth, for in these I delight declares the LORD.”

There are many extremely important issues coming before this decision-making body that have to be dealt with. May Your wisdom and guidance direct our path. We depend on Your guidance in all our decision-making as we echo the words of Amos the Prophet, “Let justice roll on like a river, righteousness like a never-failing stream.”
In the name of Your Son, Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

SB 22 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Governor on March 19, 2019.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, March 20, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
 Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, in Genesis 1:14, as You were preparing a place for our existence, You said “Let there be light.” The power of Your Word, spoke our sun, moon and stars into existence. Their combined responsibility was to rule the light of day and the dark of night; to mark the days and years, and to oversee the seasons.
On this day, You’ve blessed us to see the spring of a new season. And we look forward, desiring fresh and new light for the tasks ahead. James 1:17 reveals that You’re the “Father of Lights.” Wisdom or enlightenment that is pure originates with You. While in John 8:44, we see in opposition, there is a “father of lies;” a spirit determined to lead us into darkness. But, Lord, as the beginning of spring anticipates a season of new growth, we anticipate a new season of Your blessings.
During the days, weeks and months ahead, revive the perennials of good character traits. Plant within us new seeds of unity; unity in our homes, in our communities and in our work places. Prune us and clear out any weeds that would hinder productivity. Help us to harvest a new and abundant crop of faith in You, hope for the future and love for one another.
I present this prayer as it springs from a heart of love, dedicated to Your purposes, in Jesus Name. Amen!

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

SB 125, AN ACT concerning economic development; relating to rural opportunity zones; extending the time period for eligibility in the loan repayment program and the income tax credit; amending K.S.A. 74-50,223 and K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-32,267 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 29; Nays 11; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SB 125 AND “NO” on SB 135. During the discussion of Rural Opportunity Zones (ROZ) sunset extension dates and expansion to additional counties, the legislature was careful to underscore ongoing support both from the inception of this concept (2011) and later during the addition for more Kansas counties to avail themselves of “ROZ” benefits. In the words of the late Kansas Representative Ted Powers (R-Mulvane) when using a famous quote from Shakespeare’s Macbeth to subtly complain about repetitious legislation of growing dubious origin or statewide benefit, now: “THRICE the brinded cat hath mew’d,” Mr. Vice President. Here we are in the Legislature again, now for the THIRD time, uncertain of what benefit other than population stabilization is conferred to Kansas for a substantial fiscal note through generous tax and loan forgiveness policies. We should not be picking winners and losers between our Kansas counties. We don’t even clearly define “rural” or “opportunity” in these enabling legislations. We have always supported economic development in every corner of Kansas. But here, this once promising “cat,” scarred now with no accountability or benefit, appears yet again, for a third time mewing to be fed; to live longer and grow to be an even larger “beast.” But enough now is enough. —DAVID HALEY

Senator Bollier requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on SB 125.

Mr. Vice President – I vote “NO” on SB 125. I am supportive of rural revitalization, and I know that the state is looking for effective ways to accomplish this, especially as we have a new administration and a new Lieutenant Governor who have made this a major priority. However only after an evaluation of the Rural Opportunity Zone program will we learn if or how it might fit into the strategic plan for our new Office of Rural Prosperity. I believe it would be important to have such an evaluation before we extend this program through 2026. I am hoping that we create a robust program that includes expanding local food production, rural health care, broadband, historic preservation, arts programming, and public radio along with any appropriate tax incentives to encourage people to become part of our rural Kansas communities.—
MARCIFRANCISCO

Senators Bollier, Pettey and Ware request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SB 125.

SB 135, AN ACT concerning rural opportunity zones; relating to eligible counties; amending K.S.A. 74-50,222 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 30; Nays 8; Present and Passing 2; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Goudeau, Givens, Goddard, Hardy, Hawk, Hensley, Hilderbrand, Holland, Kerschen, Tyson, Wagle, Wilborn.

Present and Passing: Francisco, Ware.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on SB 125 AND “NO” on SB 135. During the discussion of Rural Opportunity Zones (ROZ) sunset extension dates and expansion to additional counties, the legislature was careful to underscore ongoing support both from the inception of this concept (2011) and later during the addition for more Kansas counties to avail themselves of “ROZ” benefits. In the words of the late Kansas Representative Ted Powers (R-Mulvane) when using a famous quote from Shakespeare’s Macbeth to subtly complain about repetitious legislation of growing dubious origin or statewide benefit, now: “THRICE the brinded cat hath mew’d,” Mr.
Vice President. Here we are in the Legislature again, now for the THIRD time, ocertain of what benefit other than population stabilization is conferred to Kansas for a substantial fiscal note through generous tax and loan forgiveness policies. We should not be picking winners and losers between our Kansas counties. We don’t even clearly define “rural” or “opportunity” in these enabling legislations. We have always supported economic development in every corner of Kansas. But here, this once promising “cat,” scarred now with no accountability or benefit, appears yet again, for a third time mewing to be fed; to live longer and grow to be an even larger “beast.” But enough now is enough. —DAVID HALEY

Senator Bollier requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Haley on SB 135.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, it was March 21, 1960, when police in Sharpeville, South Africa, fired their guns, killing 69 people, because they were protesting the racially discriminating laws of apartheid. As a result, six years later, the United Nations declared March 21st to be observed annually, as “International Day for the Elimination of Racism.” Lord, let it become a daily observance for us.

You said in Genesis 9:5-7, that different from other forms of life, You created us as human beings, created in Your image and in Your likeness...created to be Your children with Your DNA.

You showed the Apostle Peter, in Acts 10:28-29, that it was wrong for him to be representing You, while at the same time looking down on and refusing to associate with people who are racially different. And after Peter learned the lesson, in verses 34-36, he said he understood that You don’t play favorites, but whoever respects You and practices righteousness is accepted by You regardless of their ethnicity.

For You made it clear in Acts 17:26, that You did all this, from the blood of one human being, You made all the nations that dwell on Earth, and You decided when and where every nation would be.

So, Lord, remind us that we’re all just distant cousins, born from the same original parents. And since we’re created in Your image, help us to start portraying Your image. Let the work we do flow from hearts void of racial discrimination, displaying love, mercy and righteousness. Teach us to love one another as brothers. In the Name of Him Who Loved Us To Death, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1729—

A RESOLUTION requesting the federal government address water quality issues in the Arkansas River Basin in Southeast Colorado and Southwest Kansas and the prevalence of radionuclides in the waters of the Arkansas River Basin.

WHEREAS, The waters of the Arkansas River are declining in quality, due to naturally occurring sources that are exacerbated by irrigation and return flow practices concentrated in the Arkansas River Valley, east of Pueblo, Colorado; and

WHEREAS, In each of the last two years, approximately 10 tons of uranium have been delivered in downstream river flows from Colorado to groundwater in Southwest Kansas. The affected region in Kansas includes Hamilton, Kearny, and Finney counties;
WHEREAS, Affected communities in Colorado and Kansas require assistance to remedy decades of poor water quality, which continues to worsen; and

WHEREAS, Federal standards on safe drinking water are intended to protect the health and safety of the public. Accordingly, it is within the interest of the federal government to partner with state and local water providers to develop remedies for the Basin; and

WHEREAS, Public assistance is vital to providing safe drinking water to Kansans in the Basin, whose water supply is currently contaminated in affected communities and is threatened to be contaminated in other communities by naturally occurring radionuclides beyond the standards established by the Safe Drinking Water Act, public law 93-523; and

WHEREAS, Without additional funding, Kansas’ affected communities cannot develop water management practices and necessary infrastructure to address the water quality concerns; and

WHEREAS, The U.S. Bureau of Reclamation has an established interest in providing alternative fresh water sources to portions of the affected Basin in Colorado. Currently, efforts are underway to accomplish this goal; and

WHEREAS, In 2014, the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation completed an Upper Arkansas River Basin Public Water Supply Alternatives Viability Analysis of Water Supply Alternatives for Hamilton, Kearny, and Finney counties in Kansas. WHEREAS, In 2015, the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation completed an Arkansas Basin from John Martin Reservoir to Garden City, Kansas, Final Plan of Study, acknowledging the shared water quality problems in Colorado and Kansas: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That the State of Kansas hereby requests that the Kansas congressional delegation work with the U.S. Congress to provide funding and direction to the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation to implement the efforts identified in the 2014 and 2015 studies, including, but not limited to:

• Further compiling information on existing, usable sources, and projected demands;
• developing Basin tools, including scientifically defensible hydrologic and economic modeling tools;
• completing system reliability and impact analyses to assess the current and future capability of existing natural and manmade infrastructure and operations to meet demands and useable water supply challenges;
• identifying adaptation strategies to improve operations and infrastructure and to address current and future water availability and quality challenges in the Basin; and
• developing recommendations to address the water quality challenges and to provide reliable, clean sources of drinking water in the affected areas of the Basin; and
Be it further resolved: That we request the Kansas Water Office, Southwest Kansas Groundwater Management District No. 3, and other state and local partners in Kansas and Colorado to work with the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation to complete these tasks and to address the concerns regarding the contamination of the Arkansas River Basin; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to Kansas Governor Laura Kelly, each member of Kansas' congressional delegation, the Kansas Water Office, Southwest Kansas Groundwater Management District No. 3, the Arkansas River Compact Administration, the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, and the current U.S. Secretary of the Interior.

FINAL ACTION ON CONSENT CALENDAR

SB 102, SB 164; HB 2097, HB 2123, HB 2127 having appeared on the Consent Calendar for the required two full legislative days without objection from any member, were considered on final action.

SB 102, AN ACT establishing the Kansas closed case task force; relating to identification and investigation relating to hits to the combined DNA index system (CODIS).

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 38; Nays 1; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 1.

Nays: Tyson.

Absent or Not Voting: Estes.

The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote “AYE” on SB 102 creating a task force to recommend the use of DNA technology for all criminal cases; either open or closed. The national DNA database (“CODIS”) houses, collects and retains valuable data which if applied to many cases may yield valuable evidence leading to clarity of, and perhaps even, to an exoneration of a conviction. The compelling philosophy behind SB 102 and this concept is simple and spans the breadth of political ideology. Society wants to insure that innocent people are not being held responsible for crimes they have not committed. No social utility is served if a true criminal is at-large for the crime that was committed and some innocent party is holding that conviction and, often, incarceration. SB 102 is a concept conceived, promoted and brought to this Legislature by the Innocence Project and by Alvin Sykes of the Emmitt Till Justice Campaign. If SB 102 survives the timetable of this Session (and the chicanery which often accompanies the same), Kansas will be the FIRST State in the Nation to impanel the task force that develops a model for applying these techniques and procedures. I predict if the House too passes this bill this year, eventually every State will one day be said to have followed Kansas. Our consent calendar presented and now nearly unanimously supported concept indeed on its way to fruition. We should all be proud to be leading the way with this innovative idea which perpetuates an ever justice-seeking atmosphere.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote "NO" on Substitute Senate Bill 75. After years of fiscal crises created by the Brownback tax experiment, Kansas is now on a path forward to recovery, opportunity, and prosperity. Governor Kelly proposed a stable budget that will provide priorities for the people of Kansas – funding our public schools, expanding Medicaid, adding employees to the Department of Children and Families to resolve the foster care crisis, and rewarding state employees – including corrections officers and court employees – with a much-needed pay increase. The earlier passage of Senate Bill 22 resulted in a tax giveaway for giant multi-national corporations that reduces revenues by $205 million and results in a $525 million negative ending balance by FY 2022. I vote no on Senate Bill 75 for the thousands of Kansans who deserve access to healthcare through Medicaid expansion. I vote no for the foster care children and their social workers. I vote no for the corrections officers, judicial branch employees, and other hardworking civil servants who deserve pay increases. I vote no so we can consider adequately funding higher education and keeping tuition affordable for our students and their families. I vote no so we can find ways to fund our highways/bridges and key transportation infrastructure. The governor has urged restraint, and appropriately so. I stand with the governor, and for these reasons I vote "NO".

Senators Bollier, Faust-Goudeau and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hawk on Sub SB 75.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we come before You today with much to do. There are so many needs to address. We truly need Your direction. What to prioritize, which way to go, what to let go, what should be on the list and what will others think of my list. Lord, Your guidance is needed here.

We’re serving here and we’re serving over there. Sometimes it feels like we’re serving everywhere. Yet, in the midst of all the hustle and bustle, that quiet comforting voice of Your Spirit comes through reminding us that You’ve got this! If we make Your business our business, You will make our business Your business. And You can do more with our business than we can.

You said in Matthew 6:19-34, that if we give priority to treating Your Name with reverence to advancing the rule of Your Kingdom for Your will to be done; if we treasure as first priority Your will and Your way, there’ll be nothing for us to worry about. For just as You provide for the birds of the air and the lilies of the field, we can know that You’ll provide for us.

So keep us focused, Lord, on Your priorities for Your glory and for our good. I thank You, Father, for hearing the prayer of one of Your kids. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I VOTE “AYE” ON HB 2104 REGARDING DUI TESTING
AND PRELIMINARY SCREENING. Assuming the House has well vetted this bill (leading to its unanimous passage there), I trust that this Legislature has reconciled some of the Supreme Court’s rationale in suspected driving-under-the-influence cases where the driver refuses to take the “breathalyzer” and automatically faced criminal sanctions; prior to the Supreme Court overturning the measure on constitutional grounds. This bill appears to yet prescribe, for the same refusal, administrative sanctions including, but not limited to, suspension for first time DUI offenders. I hesitate to support a first-time potential DUI offender’s loss of driving privileges for simply wishing to invoke a Fifth Amendment to the Constitution right against self-incrimination by refusing to take a breathalyzer test. To compound this offense, I continue to hope we undo the travesty, undergirded by an “ignition interlock” industry committed not so much to public safety but more to its bottom-line, that has perverted the original intent of Kansas’ DUI laws that offered an OPTION to a first-time DUI offender to drive with ignition interlock during suspension into a MANDATORY ignition interlock sentence before license privileges are restored. So unnecessary and needlessly expensive.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I VOTE “AYE” AGAIN ON SUBSTITUTE FOR SB 69 AS AMENDED TECHNICALLY BY THE HOUSE: As stated in my Explanation of Vote on this bill at first passage (Journal 3/14/19), the Board of Public Utility (BPU) related amendment offered to this bill failed on voice vote. It would simply allow any customer-ratepayer of a BPU, typically a municipally-operated utility, to write our Kansas Corporation Commission (KCC) for information pertaining to rule, charge, practice or procedure and to require the KCC to provide information to such customer whether such rule, change, practice or procedure differs, and to what extent, for customers of electric utilities that ARE regulated by KCC. Without such a provision, the KCKS BPU is still able to indiscriminately keep heinous policies in play without an “apple-to-apple” comparison as to how such practices are implemented to other Kansas utilities which our KCC DOES regulate. But this underlying substitute bill surprisingly DOES opt to include the KCKS BPU; one of several municipal utilities chosen to be included in the study! Vowing continuance to bring KCC access to the KCKS BPU ratepayers one day, this future study, however small in its impact on us in KCKS, is a step in that direction acknowledging that ALL Kansas utility consumers deserve neutral response and review to patterns and practices.—DAVID HALEY

(b) Pending review of the sentence, the sentencing court or the appellate court may order the defendant confined or placed on conditional release, including bond.

(c) On appeal from a judgment or of conviction entered for a felony committed on or after July 1, 1993, the appellate court shall not review:

(1) Any sentence that is within the presumptive sentence for the crime; or
(2) any sentence resulting from an agreement between the state and the defendant which the sentencing court approves on the record.

(d) In any appeal from a judgment of conviction imposing a sentence that departs from the presumptive sentence prescribed by the sentencing grid for a crime, sentence review shall be limited to whether the sentencing court's findings of fact and reasons justifying a departure:

(1) Are supported by the evidence in the record; and
(2) constitute substantial and compelling reasons for departure.

(e) In any appeal from a judgment of conviction, the appellate court may review a claim that:

(1) A sentence that departs from the presumptive sentence resulted from partiality, prejudice, oppression or corrupt motive;
(2) the sentencing court erred in either including or excluding recognition of a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for criminal history scoring purposes; or
(3) the sentencing court erred in ranking the crime severity level of the current crime or in determining the appropriate classification of a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for criminal history purposes.

(f) The appellate court may reverse or affirm the sentence. If the appellate court concludes that the trial court's factual findings are not supported by evidence in the record or do not establish substantial and compelling reasons for a departure, it shall remand the case to the trial court for resentencing.

(g) The appellate court shall issue a written opinion whenever the judgment of the sentencing court is reversed. The court may issue a written opinion in any other case when it is believed that a written opinion will provide guidance to sentencing judges and others in implementing the sentencing guidelines adopted by the Kansas sentencing commission. The appellate courts may provide by rule for summary disposition of cases arising under this section when no substantial question is presented by the appeal.

(h) A review under summary disposition shall be made solely upon the record that was before the sentencing court. Written briefs shall not be required unless ordered by the appellate court and the review and decision shall be made in an expedited manner according to rules adopted by the supreme court.

(j) The amendments made to this section by this act are procedural in nature and shall be construed and applied retroactively.
Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 22-3504 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-3504.

(a) The court may correct an illegal sentence at any time while the defendant is serving such sentence. The defendant shall receive full credit for time spent in custody under the sentence prior to correction. Unless the motion and the files and records of the case conclusively show that the defendant is entitled to no relief, the defendant shall have a right to a hearing, after reasonable notice to be fixed by the court, to be personally present and to have the assistance of counsel in any proceeding for the correction of an illegal sentence.

(b) Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

(c) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Illegal sentence" means a sentence: Imposed by a court without jurisdiction; that does not conform to the applicable statutory provision, either in character or punishment; or that is ambiguous with respect to the time and manner in which it is to be served at the time it is pronounced. A sentence is not an "illegal sentence" because of a change in the law that occurs after the sentence is pronounced.

(2) "Change in the law" means a statutory change or an opinion by an appellate court of the state of Kansas, unless the opinion is issued while the sentence is pending an appeal from the judgment of conviction.

(d) The amendments made to this section by this act are procedural in nature and shall be construed and applied retroactively.

New Sec. 4. REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

SB 40, SB 41, SB 59 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Governor on March 26, 2019.

On motion of Senator Denning the Senate recessed to the sound of the gavel.

The Senate met pursuant to recess with Senator Hardy in the chair.

On motion of Senator Denning the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 27, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 39 senators present.
Senator Wagle was excused.
Invocation by Senator Tom Hawk:

As a high school student I went to my first church camp at Scott Lake and was exposed to the spiritual song “Kumbaya”: Someone's singing Lord, Kumbaya; Someone's laughing Lord, Kumbaya; Someone's crying Lord, Kumbaya; Someone's praying Lord, Kumbaya. Each a beautiful verse, easy to sing. For me it was a time of great hope and optimism. One of my recent daily devotionals reminded me of that word, its history, and that special time. For my prayer today, I want to share some of that hope found in Psalms 33:22.

Let us pray: Let your steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us, even as we hope in you. Come by here, my Lord, somebody's missing, Lord, come by here. We all need you, Lord, come by here. Lord look down from heaven, as it says in this old song, and see all humankind. Creator God, you know it all, while we can only hope. And, God, it can seem ridiculous at times...That hope can feel impossible and maybe even more absurd than sitting around a campfire singing "Kumbaya."

But Lord, in the old songbook of the church, hope is more than issues and ideas. Hope is where we find you God. Hope is where we realize that someone is missing. Someone is crying. We need to find our hope in God and we ask you Lord to come by here.

Sing with us, O God, Kumbaya. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by revising article 3 thereof, relating to the judiciary.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring
Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 3 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby revised to read as follows:

"Article 3.—JUDICIAL"

§ 1. Judicial power; seals; rules. The judicial power of this state shall be vested exclusively in one court of justice, which shall be divided into one supreme court, one court of appeals, district courts, and such other courts as are provided by law; and all courts of record shall have a seal. The supreme court shall have general administrative authority over all courts in this state.

§ 2. Supreme court. The supreme court shall consist of not less than seven justices who shall be selected as provided by this article. All cases shall be heard with not fewer than four justices sitting and the concurrence of a majority of the justices sitting and of not fewer than four justices shall be necessary for a decision. The term of office of the justices shall be six years except as hereinafter provided. The justice who is senior in continuous term of service shall be chief justice, and in case two or more have continuously served during the same period, the senior in age of these shall be chief justice. A justice may decline or resign from the office of chief justice without resigning from the court. Upon such declination or resignation, the justice who is next senior in continuous term of service shall become chief justice. During incapacity of a chief justice, the duties, powers and emoluments of the office shall devolve upon the justice who is next senior in continuous service.

§ 3. Jurisdiction and terms. The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in proceedings in quo warranto, mandamus, and habeas corpus; and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. It shall hold one term each year at the seat of government and such other terms at such places as may be provided by law, and its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the state.

§ 4. Reporter; clerk. There shall be appointed, by the justices of the supreme court, a reporter and clerk of such court, who shall hold their offices for two years, and whose duties shall be prescribed by law.

§ 5. Selection of justices of the supreme court. (a) (1) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any position to be open on the supreme court as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such justice's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a justice to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or a position opens on the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(3) In the event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the date such vacancy occurred or such position became open, the chief justice of the supreme court, with the consent of the senate, shall make the appointment of a person possessing the qualifications of office.
Whenever a vacancy in the office of justice of the supreme court exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy that will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of justice of the supreme court until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office, and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(c) (1) Each justice of the supreme court appointed pursuant to subsection (a) and consented to pursuant to subsection (b) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of any justice of the supreme court, the justice may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for retention in office. If a declaration is not filed as provided in this section, the position held by the justice shall be vacant upon the expiration of the justice's term of office. If such declaration is filed, the justice's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows: "Shall (Here insert name of justice), Justice of the Supreme Court, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining the justice in office, the position that the justice holds shall be vacant upon the expiration of the justice's term of office. Otherwise, unless the justice is removed for cause, the justice shall remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following the election. At the expiration of each term, unless by law the justice is compelled to retire, the justice shall be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the justice's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such justice who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for appointment to the office of justice of the supreme court prior to the expiration of six years after the expiration of the justice's term of office.

§  6.  Court of appeals.  (a)  (1) The court of appeals shall consist of 14 judges whose positions shall be numbered one through 14. The court of appeals shall be a part of the court of justice in which the judicial power of the state is vested by section 1 of this article and shall be subject to the general administrative authority of the supreme court. The court of appeals shall have such jurisdiction over appeals in civil and criminal cases and from administrative bodies and officers of the state as may be prescribed by law, and shall have such original jurisdiction as may be necessary to the complete determination of any cause on review. During the pendency of any appeal, the court of appeals, on such terms as may be just, may make an order suspending further proceedings in the court below until the decision of the court of appeals.

(2) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and any position to be open on the court of appeals as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such judge's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a judge to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor, with the consent of the senate, of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(3) Whenever a vacancy occurs, will occur or a position opens on the court of appeals, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(4) In the event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the date such vacancy occurred or such position became open, the chief justice of the supreme court, with the consent of the senate, shall make the appointment of a person possessing the qualifications of office.

(5) Whenever a vacancy in the office of judge of the court of appeals exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) No person appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall assume the office of judge of the court of appeals until the senate, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the senate then elected or appointed and qualified, consents to such appointment. The senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 60 days after such appointment is received by the senate. If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 60-day time limitation, the senate shall vote to consent to any such appointment not later than 20 days after the senate begins its next session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor, within 60 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee, shall appoint another person possessing the qualifications of office, and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed until a valid appointment has been made. No person who has been previously appointed but did not receive the consent of the senate shall be appointed again for the same vacancy. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within the time limitation imposed by this subsection, the senate shall be deemed to have given consent to such appointment.

(c) (1) Each judge of the court of appeals appointed pursuant to subsection (a) and consented to pursuant to subsection (b) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of any judge of the court of appeals, the judge may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for retention in office. If a declaration is not filed as provided in this section, the position held by the judge shall be vacant upon the expiration of the judge's term of office. (3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining the judge in office, the position that the judge holds shall be vacant upon the expiration of the judge's term of office. Otherwise, unless the judge is removed for cause, the judge shall remain in office for the regular term of four years from the second Monday in January following the election. At the expiration of each term, unless by law the judge is compelled to retire, the judge shall be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the judge's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such judge who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for appointment to the office of judge of the court of appeals prior to the expiration of four years after the expiration of the judge's term of office.

(d) The supreme court may assign a judge of the court of appeals to serve temporarily on the supreme court.

"§ 7. District courts. (a) The state shall be divided into judicial districts as provided by law. Each judicial district shall have at least one district judge. The term of office of each judge of the district court shall be four years. District court shall be held at such times and places as may be provided by law. The district judges shall be elected by the electors of the respective judicial districts unless the electors of a judicial district have adopted and not subsequently rejected a method of nonpartisan selection. The legislature shall provide a method of nonpartisan selection of district judges and for the manner of submission and resubmission thereof to the electors of a judicial district. A nonpartisan method of selection of district judges may be adopted, and once adopted may be rejected, only by a majority of electors of a judicial district voting on the question at an election in which the proposition is submitted. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district judge, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election that occurs more than 30 days after such vacancy, or as may be provided by such nonpartisan method of selection.

(b) The district courts shall have such jurisdiction in their respective districts as may be provided by law.
(c) The legislature shall provide for clerks of the district courts.
(d) Provision may be made by law for judges pro tem of the district court.
(e) The supreme court or any justice thereof shall have the power to assign judges of district courts temporarily to other districts.
(f) The supreme court may assign a district judge to serve temporarily on the supreme court.
(g) The supreme court or the court of appeals may assign a district judge to serve temporarily on the court of appeals.

§ 8. Qualifications of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall be at least 30 years of age and shall be duly authorized by the supreme court of Kansas to practice law in the courts of this state and shall possess such other qualifications as may be prescribed by law.

§ 9. Prohibition of political activity by justices and certain judges. No justice of the supreme court who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 5 of this article, nor any judge of the court of appeals who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 6 of this article, nor any judge of the district court holding office under a nonpartisan method authorized in section 7(a) of this article, shall directly or indirectly make any contribution to or hold any office in a political party or organization or take part in any political campaign.

§ 10. Extension of terms until successor qualified. All judicial officers shall hold their offices until their successors shall have qualified.

§ 11. Compensation of justices and judges; certain limitation. The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall receive for their services such compensation as may be provided by law, which shall not be diminished during their terms of office, unless by general law applicable to all salaried officers of the state. Such justices or judges shall receive no fees or perquisites nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the authority of the state, or the United States except as may be provided by law, or practice law during their continuance in office.

§ 12. Removal of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court may be removed from office by impeachment and conviction as prescribed in article 2 of this constitution. In addition to removal by impeachment and conviction, justices may be retired after appropriate hearing, upon certification to the governor, by the supreme court that such justice is so incapacitated as to be unable to perform adequately such justice's duties. Other judges shall be subject to retirement for incapacity, and to discipline, suspension and removal for cause by the supreme court after appropriate hearing.

§ 13. Savings clause. Nothing contained in this amendment to the constitution shall: (a) Shorten the term of office or abolish the office of any justice of the supreme court, any judge of the court of appeals, any judge of the district court, or any other judge of any other court who is holding office at the time this amendment becomes effective, or who is holding office at the time of adoption, rejection, or resubmission of a nonpartisan method of selection of district judges as provided in section 7(a) of this article, and all such justices and judges shall hold their respective offices for the terms for which elected or appointed, unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law; (b) repeal any statute of this state relating to the supreme court, the supreme court nominating commission, the court of appeals, district courts, or any other court, or relating to the justices or judges of such courts, and such statutes shall remain in force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and to do away with the supreme court nominating commission. The governor will appoint a qualified person, or if the governor fails to act, the chief justice of the supreme court would appoint a qualified person, and such person's appointment would require the consent of the senate. If the senate does not consent to the appointment by a majority vote, the governor would then appoint another qualified person, and such person's appointment would again go to the senate for consent. The same appointment and consent procedure would be followed until a valid appointment is made. If the senate fails to vote on an appointment within 60 days, it will be considered that the senate has given consent to the appointment.

"A vote for this proposition would provide a procedure whereby the governor or chief justice would appoint a person to be a supreme court justice or court of appeals judge, and the senate, by majority vote, would consent to the appointment of the supreme court justice or court of appeals judge.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the current system in which justices of the supreme court are appointed by the governor from a list of three individuals submitted by the supreme court nominating commission, and judges of the court of appeals are appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2020, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote “AYE” on Senate Bill 218 – Sheldon’s Law. Kansas’ mandatory reporting law currently includes teachers, social workers, firefighters, police, psychologists, therapists, and many other professionals, but it does not include clergy. Senate Bill 218 would include them on that list. Clergy leadership are adults that children and their parents must be able to trust to keep them safe. Senate Bill 218 mandates that duly ordained ministers of religion report suspected abuse or neglect to authorities. This bill provides a much-needed layer of protection for Kansas children in our houses of worship.—Tom Holland

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, for consideration of bills on the calendar under the heading of General Orders with Senator Suellentrop in the chair.

HB 2191 be passed.

An amendment was offered by Senator Haley. A ruling of the chair was requested as to the germaneness to the bill. The Rules Committee ruled the amendment not germane.

SB 108 be amended by the adoption of the committee amendments, be further amended by motion of Senator Miller; on page 4, following line 18, by inserting:

"Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6815 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6815.
(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), the sentencing judge shall impose the presumptive sentence provided by the sentencing guidelines unless the judge finds substantial and compelling reasons to impose a departure sentence. If the sentencing judge departs from the presumptive sentence, the judge shall state on the record at the time of sentencing the substantial and compelling reasons for the departure.
(b) Subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6817(b), and amendments thereto, any fact that would increase the penalty for a crime beyond the statutory maximum, other than a prior conviction, shall be submitted to a jury and proved beyond a reasonable doubt.
(c) Subject to the provisions of subsections (c)(3) and (e), the following nonexclusive list of mitigating factors may be considered in determining whether substantial and compelling reasons for a departure exist:
(A) The victim was an aggressor or participant in the criminal conduct associated with the crime of conviction, except that this factor shall not apply to a sexually violent crime as defined in K.S.A. 22-3717, and amendments thereto, or electronic solicitation as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5509, and amendments thereto, when: (i) The victim is less than 14 years of age and the offender is 18 or more years of age; or (ii) the offender hires any person by giving, or offering to or agreeing to give, anything of value to the person to engage in an unlawful sex act.
(B) The offender played a minor or passive role in the crime or participated under circumstances of duress or compulsion. This factor may be considered when it is not sufficient as a complete defense.
(C) The offender, because of physical or mental impairment, lacked substantial capacity for judgment when the offense was committed. The voluntary use of intoxicants, drugs or alcohol does not fall within the purview of this factor.
(D) The defendant, or the defendant's children, suffered a continuing pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and the offense is a response to that abuse.
(E) The degree of harm or loss attributed to the current crime of conviction was significantly less than typical for such an offense.
(F) The offender committed such crime as a result of an injury, including major depressive disorder, polytrauma, post-traumatic stress disorder or traumatic brain injury, connected to service in a combat zone, as defined in section 112 of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, in the armed forces of the United States of America. As used in this subsection, "major depressive disorder," "polytrauma," "post-traumatic stress disorder," "traumatic brain injury," "combat zone," and "armed forces of the United States of America."
"disorder" and "traumatic brain injury" shall mean the same as such terms are defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6630, and amendments thereto.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c)(3), the following nonexclusive list of aggravating factors may be considered in determining whether substantial and compelling reasons for departure exist:

(A) The victim was particularly vulnerable due to age, infirmity, or reduced physical or mental capacity which was known or should have been known to the offender.

(B) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested excessive brutality to the victim in a manner not normally present in that offense.

(C) The offense was motivated entirely or in part by the race, color, religion, ethnicity, national origin or sexual orientation of the victim or the offense was motivated by the defendant's belief or perception, entirely or in part, of the race, color, religion, ethnicity, national origin or sexual orientation of the victim whether or not the defendant's belief or perception was correct.

(D) The offense involved a fiduciary relationship which existed between the defendant and the victim.

(E) The defendant, 18 or more years of age, employed, hired, used, persuaded, induced, enticed or coerced any individual under 16 years of age to:

(i) Commit any person felony;

(ii) assist in avoiding detection or apprehension for commission of any person felony; or

(iii) attempt, conspire or solicit, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302 and 21-5303, and amendments thereto, to commit any person felony.

That the defendant did not know the age of the individual under 16 years of age shall not be a consideration.

(F) The defendant's current crime of conviction is a crime of extreme sexual violence and the defendant is a predatory sex offender. As used in this subsection:

(i) "Crime of extreme sexual violence" is a felony limited to the following:

(a) A crime involving a nonconsensual act of sexual intercourse or sodomy with any person;

(b) a crime involving an act of sexual intercourse, sodomy or lewd fondling and touching with any child who is 14 or more years of age but less than 16 years of age and with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization;

(c) a crime involving an act of sexual intercourse, sodomy or lewd fondling and touching with any child who is less than 14 years of age;

(d) aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age; or

(e) commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age.

(ii) "Predatory sex offender" is an offender who has been convicted of a crime of extreme sexual violence as the current crime of conviction and who:

(a) Has one or more prior convictions of any crimes of extreme sexual violence. Any prior conviction used to establish the defendant as a predatory sex offender pursuant to this subsection shall also be counted in determining the criminal history category; or

(b) suffers from a mental condition or personality disorder which makes the offender likely to engage in additional acts constituting crimes of extreme sexual violence.

(iii) "Mental condition or personality disorder" means an emotional, mental or physical illness, disease, abnormality, disorder, pathology or condition which motivates the person, affects the predisposition or desires of the person, or interferes with the capacity of the person to control impulses to commit crimes of extreme sexual violence.

(G) The defendant was incarcerated during the commission of the offense.

(H) The crime involved two or more participants in the criminal conduct, and the defendant played a major role in the crime as the organizer, leader, recruiter, manager or supervisor.

In determining whether aggravating factors exist as provided in this section, the court shall review the victim impact statement.

(3) If a factual aspect of a crime is a statutory element of the crime or is used to subclassify the crime on the crime severity scale, that aspect of the current crime of conviction may be used as an aggravating or mitigating factor only if the criminal conduct constituting that aspect of the current crime of conviction is significantly different from the usual criminal conduct captured by the aspect of the crime.

(d) In determining aggravating or mitigating circumstances, the court shall consider:

(1) Any evidence received during the proceeding;
(2) the presentence report;
(3) written briefs and oral arguments of either the state or counsel for the defendant; and
(4) any other evidence relevant to such aggravating or mitigating circumstances that the court finds trustworthy and reliable.

(e) Upon motion of the prosecutor stating that the defendant has provided substantial assistance in the investigation or prosecution of another person who is alleged to have committed an offense, the court may consider such mitigation in determining whether substantial and compelling reasons for a departure exist. In considering this mitigating factor, the court may consider the following:

(1) The court's evaluation of the significance and usefulness of the defendant's assistance, taking into consideration the prosecutor's evaluation of the assistance rendered;
(2) the truthfulness, completeness and reliability of any information or testimony provided by the defendant;
(3) the nature and extent of the defendant's assistance;
(4) any injury suffered, or any danger or risk of injury to the defendant or the defendant's family resulting from such assistance; and
(5) the timeliness of the defendant's assistance."

"New Sec. 7. The provisions of sections 7 through 23, and amendments thereto, shall be known as and may be cited as the golden years homestead property tax freeze act. The purpose of this act shall be to provide refunds arising from increased ad valorem tax assessments to: (a) Certain persons who are of qualifying age and who own their homesteads; or (b) certain persons who have a disability as a result of military service and who own their homesteads.

New Sec. 8. As used in this act:
(a) "Act" means the golden years homestead property tax freeze act.
(b) "Base year" means the year in which an individual becomes an eligible claimant and who is also eligible for a claim for refund pursuant to section 22, and amendments thereto. For any individual who would otherwise be an eligible claimant prior to 2018, such base year shall be deemed to be 2018 for the purposes of this act. In the event an individual is no longer an eligible claimant under this act, the individual shall establish a new base year in the year that the individual becomes an eligible claimant.
(c) "Claimant" means a person who has filed a claim under the provisions of this act and was, during the entire calendar year preceding the year in which such claim was filed for refund under this act, except as provided in section 9, and amendments thereto, both domiciled in this state and was: (1) A person who is 65 years of age or older; or (2) a disabled veteran. The surviving spouse of a person 65 years of age or older or a disabled veteran who was receiving benefits pursuant to this section at the time of the claimant's death, shall be eligible to continue to receive benefits until such time the surviving spouse remarries.
(d) "Disabled veteran" means a person who is a resident of Kansas and has been honorably discharged from active service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or the Kansas national guard and who has been certified by the United States department of veterans affairs or its successor to have a 50% permanent disability sustained through military action or accident or resulting from a disease contracted while in such active service.
(e) "Homestead" means the dwelling, or any part thereof, owned and occupied as a residence by the household and so much of the land surrounding it, as defined as a home site for ad valorem tax purposes, and may consist of a part of a multi-dwelling or multi-purpose building and a part of the land upon which it is built or a manufactured home or mobile home and the land upon which it is situated. "Owned" includes one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.

When a homestead is occupied by two or more individuals and more than one of the individuals is able to qualify as a claimant, the individuals may determine between them as to who the claimant will be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the secretary of revenue, whose decision shall be final.
(f) "Household" means a claimant, a claimant and spouse who occupy the homestead or a claimant and one or more individuals not related as married individuals who together occupy a homestead.

(g) "Household income" means all income received by all persons of a household in a calendar year while members of such household.

(h) "Income" means the sum of adjusted gross income under the Kansas income tax act effective for tax year 2019, and tax years thereafter, without regard to any maintenance, support money, cash public assistance and relief, not including any refund granted under this act, the gross amount of any pension or annuity, including all monetary retirement benefits from whatever source derived, including, but not limited to, all payments received under the railroad retirement act, except disability payments, payments received under the federal social security act, except that for determination of what constitutes income, such amount shall not exceed 50% of any such social security payments and shall not include any social security payments to a claimant who, prior to attaining full retirement age, had been receiving disability payments under the federal social security act in an amount not to exceed the amount of such disability payments or 50% of any such social security payments, whichever is greater, all dividends and interest from whatever source derived not included in adjusted gross income, workers compensation and the gross amount of loss of time insurance. Income does not include gifts from nongovernmental sources or surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency, nor shall net operating losses and net capital losses be considered in the determination of income. Income does not include veterans disability pensions or disability payments received under the federal social security act.

(i) "Property taxes accrued" means property taxes, exclusive of special assessments, delinquent interest and charges for service, levied on a claimant's homestead in 2018 or any calendar year thereafter by the state of Kansas and the political and taxing subdivisions of the state. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common and one or more of the persons or entities is not a member of the claimant's household, "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant's household. For purposes of this act, property taxes are levied when the tax roll is delivered to the local treasurer with the treasurer's warrant for collection. When a claimant and household own their homestead for only a part of a calendar year, "property taxes accrued" means only taxes levied on the homestead when both owned and occupied as a homestead by the claimant's household at the time of the levy, multiplied by the percentage of 12 months that the property was owned and occupied by the household as its homestead in that year. When a household owns and occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued shall be the sum of the taxes allocable to those several properties while occupied by the household as its homesteads during the year. Whenever a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a multi-purpose or multi-dwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes that is equal to the percentage of the value of the homestead compared to the total unit's value. For the purpose of this act, the word "unit" refers to that parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

New Sec. 9. The right to file a claim under this act may be exercised on behalf of a claimant by such person's legal guardian, conservator or attorney-in-fact. When a claimant dies after having filed a timely claim, the amount thereof shall be disbursed to another member of the household as determined by the director of taxation. If the claimant was the only member of such person's household, the claim may be paid to such person's executor or administrator, but if neither is appointed and qualified, the amount of the claim may be paid upon a claim duly made to any heir at law. In the absence of any such claim within two years of the filing of the claim, the amount of the claim shall escheat to the state. When a person who would otherwise be entitled to file a claim under the provisions of this act dies prior to filing such claim, another member of such person's household may file such claim in the name of such decedent, subject to the deadline prescribed by section 11, and amendments thereto, and the director shall pay the amount to which the decedent would have been entitled to such person filing the claim. If the decedent was the only member of such person's household, the decedent's executor or administrator may file such claim in the name of the decedent, and the claim shall be paid to the executor or administrator. In the event that neither an executor or administrator is appointed and qualified, such claim may be made by any heir at law and the claim shall be payable to such heir at law. Any of the foregoing provisions shall be applicable in any case where the decedent dies in the calendar year preceding the year in which a claim may be made under the provisions of this act, if such decedent was a resident of or domiciled in this state during the entire part of such year that such decedent was living. Where the decedent's death occurs during the calendar year preceding the year in which a claim may be made, the amount of the claim that would have been allowable if the decedent had been a resident of or domiciled in this state the entire calendar year of such person's death shall be reduced in a proportionate amount equal to a fraction of the claim otherwise allowable, the numerator of which fraction is the number of months in such calendar year following the month of the decedent's death, and the denominator of which is 12.

New Sec. 10. A claimant may claim property tax relief under this act with respect to property taxes accrued and, after audit by the director of taxation with respect to this act, the allowable amount of such claim shall be paid, except as otherwise provided in sections 12, 21 and 23, and amendments thereto, to the claimant from the income tax refund fund upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports pursuant to vouchers approved by the director of taxation or by any person designated by the claimant, but no warrant issued shall be drawn in an amount of less than $5. No interest shall be allowed on any payment made to a claimant pursuant to this act.

New Sec. 11. Except as provided in section 20, and amendments thereto, no claim in respect of property taxes levied in any year shall be paid or allowed unless such claim is actually filed with and in the possession of the department of revenue on or before April 15 of the year next succeeding the year in which such taxes were levied.

New Sec. 12. The amount of any claim otherwise payable under this act may be applied by the director of taxation against any liability outstanding on the books of the department of revenue against the claimant, or against any other individual who was a member of such person's household in the year that the claim relates.

New Sec. 13. Only one claimant per household per year shall be entitled to relief under this act.

New Sec. 14. (a) Commencing in tax year 2019, and all tax years thereafter, the amount of any claim pursuant to this act shall be computed by deducting the homestead ad valorem tax amount in the tax year the refund is sought from the amount of a claimant's base year homestead ad valorem tax amount.

(b) The amount of claim shall be computed only to the nearest $1.

c) A taxpayer shall not be eligible for a claim pursuant to this act if such taxpayer has received for such property for such tax year either: (1) A homestead property tax refund pursuant to K.S.A. 79-4501 et seq., and amendments thereo; or (2) the selective assistance for effective senior relief (SAFESR) credit pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-32,263, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 15. In administering this act, the director of taxation shall make available suitable forms with instructions for claimants. Copies of such forms shall also be made available to all county clerks and county treasurers in sufficient numbers to supply claimants residing in their respective counties. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to assist any claimant seeking assistance in the filing of a claim under the provisions of this act. The county treasurer of each county shall mail to each taxpayer, with the property tax statement of such taxpayer, information on eligibility for relief under this act to be provided by the secretary of revenue.

The secretary of revenue is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the administration of the provisions of this act.

New Sec. 16. (a) Every claimant under this act shall supply to the director of taxation, in support of a claim, reasonable proof of age and changes of homestead, household membership, household income, household assets and size and nature of property claimed as the homestead.

(b) Every claimant who is a homestead owner, or whose claim is based wholly or partly upon homestead ownership at some time during the calendar year, shall supply to the director of taxation, in support of a claim, the amount of property taxes levied upon the property claimed as a homestead and a statement that the property taxes accrued used for purposes of this act have been or will be paid by the claimant. Upon request by the director, such claimant shall provide a copy of the statement of property taxes levied upon the property claimed as a homestead. The amount of personal property taxes levied on a manufactured home or mobile home shall be set out on the personal property tax statement showing the amount of such tax as a separate item.

c) The information required to be furnished under subsection (b) shall be in addition to that required under subsection (a).

New Sec. 17. In any case in which it is determined that a claim is or was excessive and was filed with fraudulent intent, the claim shall be disallowed in full, and, if the claim has been paid, the amount paid may be recovered by assessment as income taxes are assessed, and such assessment shall bear interest from the date of payment or credit of the claim, until recovered, at the rate of 1% per month. The claimant in such case and any person who assisted in the preparation or filing of such excessive claim, or supplied information upon which such excessive claim was prepared, with fraudulent intent, shall be guilty of a class B misdemeanor. In any case in which it is determined that a claim is or was excessive and was negligently prepared, 10% of the corrected claim shall be disallowed, and, if the claim has been paid, the proper portion of any amount paid shall be similarly recovered by assessment as income taxes are assessed, and such assessment shall bear interest at the rate of 1% per month from the date of payment until recovered. In any case in which it is determined that a claim is or was excessive due to the fact that the claimant neglected to include certain income received during the year, the claim shall be corrected and the excess disallowed, and, if the claim has been paid, the proper portion of any amount paid shall be similarly recovered by assessment as income taxes are assessed.

New Sec. 18. No claim for relief under the provisions of this act shall be allowed to any claimant who is a recipient of public funds specifically designated for the payment of taxes during the period for which the claim is filed.

New Sec. 19. A claim shall be disallowed if the director of taxation finds that the claimant received title to such person's homestead primarily for the purpose of receiving benefits under this act.

New Sec. 20. For claims in respect to property taxes levied in any year, the director of taxation may extend the time for filing any claim or accept a claim filed after the filing deadline when good cause exists, if the claim has been filed within four years of the deadline.

New Sec. 21. (a) The director of taxation shall issue to the county clerk by October 15 of each year an electronic record containing the name of each eligible claimant who received a refund of property taxes under this act for the prior year.

(b) When initially filing a claim under this act, the claimant shall be given an election to receive such refund directly from the director of taxation or have such refund applied to the claimant's ad valorem taxes in the county. The claimant shall make the election on a form supplied by the director of taxation. Such refund shall not be applied to any special assessment.

(c) After the electronic record under subsection (a) has been received from the director of taxation, the county clerk of the county in which the property is located shall make any corrections needed, if any, based upon information known by the county clerk concerning any change in eligibility of any claimant listed in such record. After any needed corrections have been made to the electronic record, the county clerk, on behalf of each claimant listed in such record, shall certify the information contained in such record to the county treasurer in lieu of paying that portion of the first half of taxes on the claimant's homestead in the current year, which equals the amount of the golden years homestead property tax freeze refund received by the claimant for taxes levied in the preceding year up to the amount of the first half of the property taxes due.

(d) The county treasurer shall certify and return the electronic record referred to in subsection (a), including any changes made by the county clerk pursuant to subsection (c), to the director of taxation by December 31 of each year. After receiving a claim of any claimant who is listed in the electronic record submitted by the county treasurer, the director shall examine the same, and, if the claim is valid, the director of accounts and reports shall draw a warrant in favor of the county in which the claimant's homestead is located upon a voucher approved by the director of taxation in the amount of the allowable claim for refund. Sufficient information to identify the claimant shall be directed to the county treasurer with each warrant. Any taxes levied in any year on the homestead of any claimant who has obtained the eligibility herein provided for in excess of the amount paid to the county by the state and by the claimant on or before December 20 of such year shall be paid by the claimant on or before May 10 of the succeeding year.

(e) For the purposes of this section, "electronic record" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in K.S.A. 16-1602, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 22. A claimant shall only be eligible for a claim for refund under this act if: (a) The household income for the year in which the claim is filed is $50,000 or less; and (b) the appraised value of the homestead is $350,000 or less.

New Sec. 23. If there are delinquent property taxes on the claimant's homestead, the refund shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which such homestead is located and applied first to the oldest of such delinquent property taxes and applied forward to the most recent delinquent property taxes and then to any other property taxes due on the claimant's homestead.

Sec. 24. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-4501 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4501. The title of this act shall be the homestead property tax refund act. The purpose of this act shall be to provide ad valorem tax refunds to: (a) Certain persons who are of qualifying age who own their homestead; (b) certain persons who have a disability, who own or rent their homestead; and (c) certain persons other than persons included under the provisions of subsection (a) or (b) who have low incomes and dependent children and own their homestead.

Sec. 25. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-4502 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4502. As used in this act, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(a) "Income" means the sum of adjusted gross income under the Kansas income tax act effective for tax year 2013 and thereafter without regard to any modifications pursuant to K.S.A. 79-32,117(b)(xx) through (xxiii) and (c)(xx), and amendments thereto, maintenance, support money, cash public assistance and relief, not including any refund granted under this act, the gross amount of any pension or annuity, including all monetary retirement benefits from whatever source derived, including but not limited to, all payments received under the railroad retirement act, except disability payments, payments received under the federal social security act, except that for determination of what constitutes income such amount shall not exceed 50% of any such social security payments and shall not include any social security payments to a claimant who prior to attaining full retirement age had been receiving disability payments under the federal social security act in an amount not to exceed the amount of such disability payments or 50% of any such social security payments, whichever is greater, all dividends and interest from whatever source derived not included in adjusted gross income, workers compensation and the gross amount of "loss of time" insurance. Income does not include gifts from nongovernmental sources or surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency, nor shall net operating losses and net capital losses be considered in the determination of income. Income does not include veterans disability pensions. Income does not include disability payments received under the federal social security act.

(b) "Household" means a claimant, a claimant and spouse who occupy the homestead or a claimant and one or more individuals not related as husband and wife who together occupy a homestead.

(c) "Household income" means all income received by all persons of a household in a calendar year while members of such household.

(d) "Homestead" means the dwelling, or any part thereof, whether owned or rented that is occupied as a residence by the household and so much of the land surrounding it, as defined as a home site for ad valorem tax purposes, and may consist of a part of a multi-dwelling or multi-purpose building and a part of the land upon which it is built or a manufactured home or mobile home and the land upon which it is situated. " Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract, a life tenant, a beneficiary under a trust and one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.
(e) "Claimant" means a person who has filed a claim under the provisions of this act and was, during the entire calendar year preceding the year in which such claim was filed for refund under this act, except as provided in K.S.A. 79-4503, and amendments thereto, both domiciled in this state and was: (1) A person having a disability; (2) a person who is 55 years of age or older; (3) a disabled veteran; (4) the surviving spouse of active duty military personnel who died in the line of duty; or (5) a person other than a person included under paragraph (1), (2), (3) or (4) having one or more dependent children under 18 years of age residing at the person's homestead during the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which a claim is filed under this act. The surviving spouse of a disabled veteran who was receiving benefits pursuant to subsection (e)(3) of this section at the time of the veterans' death, shall be eligible to continue to receive benefits until such time the surviving spouse remarries.

When a homestead is occupied by two or more individuals and more than one of the individuals is able to qualify as a claimant, the individuals may determine between them as to whom the claimant will be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the secretary of revenue whose decision shall be final.

(f) "Property taxes accrued" means property taxes, exclusive of special assessments, delinquent interest and charges for service, levied on a claimant's homestead in 1979 or any calendar year thereafter by the state of Kansas and the political and taxing subdivisions of the state. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common and one or more of the persons or entities is not a member of claimant's household, "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant's household. For purposes of this act, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the local treasurer with the treasurer's warrant for collection. When a claimant and household own their homestead part of a calendar year, "property taxes accrued" means only taxes levied on the homestead when both owned and occupied as a homestead by the claimant's household at the time of the levy, multiplied by the percentage of 12 months that the property was owned and occupied by the household as its homestead in the year. When a household owns and occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued shall be the sum of the taxes allocable to those several properties while occupied by the household as its homestead during the year. Whenever a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a multi-purpose or multi-dwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For the purpose of this act, the word "unit" refers to that parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

(g) "Disability" means:

(1) Inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, and an individual shall be determined to be under a disability only if the physical or mental impairment or impairments are of such severity that the individual is not only unable to do the individual's previous work but cannot, considering age, education and work experience, engage in any other kind of substantial gainful work which exists in the national economy, regardless of whether such work exists in the immediate area in which the individual lives or whether a specific job vacancy exists for the individual, or whether the individual would be hired if application was made for work. With respect to any individual, for purposes of the preceding sentence (with respect to any individual), "work which exists in the national economy" means work which exists in significant numbers either in the region where the individual lives or in several regions of the country; for purposes of this subsection, a "physical or mental impairment" is an impairment that results from anatomical, physiological or psychological abnormalities which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques; or

(2) blindness and inability by reason of blindness to engage in substantial gainful activity requiring skills or abilities comparable to those of any gainful activity in which the individual has previously engaged with some regularity and over a substantial period of time.

(h) "Blindness" means central visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with the use of a correcting lens. An eye which is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees shall be considered for the purpose of this paragraph as having a central visual acuity of 20/200 or less.

(i) "Disabled veteran" means a person who is a resident of Kansas and has been honorably discharged from active service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or Kansas national guard and who has been certified by the United States department of veterans affairs or its successor to have a 50% permanent disability sustained through military action or accident or resulting from disease contracted while in such active service.

(j) "Gross rent" means the rental paid at arm's length solely for the right of occupancy of a homestead or space rental paid to a landlord for the parking of a mobile home, exclusive of charges for any utilities, services, furniture and furnishings or personal property appliances furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement, whether or not expressly set out in the rental agreement. Whenever the director of taxation finds that the landlord and tenant have not dealt with each other at arm's length and that the gross rent charge was excessive, the director may adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount for the purpose of the claim.

(k) "Rent constituting property taxes accrued" means 15% of the gross rent actually paid in cash or its equivalent in 2019 or any taxable year thereafter by a claimant and claimant's household solely for the right of occupancy of a Kansas homestead on which ad valorem property taxes were levied in full for that year. When a household occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, rent constituting property taxes accrued shall be computed by adding the rent constituting property taxes accrued for each property rented by the household while occupied by the household as its homestead during the year. For the provisions of this subsection, a claimant shall only include those persons satisfying the requirements of subsection (e)(3).

Sec. 26. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-4508 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4508. (a) Commencing in the tax year beginning after December 31, 2019, the amount of any claim pursuant to this act shall be computed by deducting the amount computed under column (2) from the amount of claimant's property tax accrued or rent constituting property tax accrued, or both.

(b) The director of taxation shall prepare a table under which claims under this act shall be determined. The amount of claim for each bracket shall be computed only to the nearest $1.

c) The claimant may elect not to record the amount claimed on the claim. The claim allowable to persons making this election shall be computed by the department which shall notify the claimant by mail of the amount of the allowable claim.

d) In the case of all tax years commencing after December 31, 2004, the upper limit threshold amount prescribed in this section, shall be increased by an amount equal to such threshold amount multiplied by the cost-of-living adjustment determined under section 1(f)(3) of the federal internal revenue code for the calendar year in which the taxable year commences.

Sec. 27. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-4509 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4509. In the event property taxes accrued or rent constituting property tax accrued, or the sum of both, exceeds $700 for a household in any one year, the amount thereof shall, for purposes of this act, be deemed to have been $700.

Sec. 28. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-4511 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4511. (a) Every claimant under this act shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, reasonable proof of age or disability, and changes of homestead, household membership, household income, and size and nature of property claimed as the homestead. A claim alleging disability shall be supported by a report of the examining physician of the claimant with a statement or certificate that the applicant has a disability within the meaning of subsection (g) of K.S.A. 79-4502(g), and amendments thereto.

(b) Every claimant who is a homestead owner, or whose claim is based wholly or partly upon homestead ownership at some time during the calendar year, shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, the amount of property taxes levied upon the property claimed as a homestead and a statement that the property taxes accrued used for purposes of this act have been or will be paid by the claimant. Upon request by the division, such claimant shall provide a copy of the statement of property taxes levied upon the property claimed as a homestead. The amount of personal property taxes levied on a manufactured home or mobile home shall be set out on the personal property tax statement showing the amount of such tax as a separate item.
(c) Every claimant who is a homestead renter, or whose claim is based wholly or partly upon homestead rental at some time during the calendar year, shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, a statement prescribed by the director certifying the amount of gross rent paid and that ad valorem property taxes were levied in full that year on the property, all or a part of which was rented by the claimant. When such claimant reports household income that is 150% or less of the homestead rental amount and has failed to provide any documentation or information requested by the division to verify such household income in support of a claim as required pursuant to subsection (a), within 30 days of such request, such homestead property tax refund claim shall be denied. The information required to be furnished under this subsection or subsection (b) shall be in addition to that required under subsection (a).

Sec. 29. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-4522 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4522. A person owning or occupying a homestead that is not rental property and for which the appraised valuation for property tax purposes exceeds $350,000 in any year shall not be entitled to claim a refund of property taxes under the homestead property tax refund act for any such year. The provisions of this section shall be part of and supplemental to the homestead property tax refund act.

"Sec. 7. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 79-32,143a is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,143a. (a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2011, a taxpayer may elect to take an expense deduction from Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state for the cost of the following property placed in service in this state during the taxable year: (1) Tangible property eligible for depreciation under the modified accelerated cost recovery system in section 168 of the internal revenue code, as amended, but not including residential rental property, nonresidential real property, any railroad grading or tunnel bore or any other property with an applicable recovery period in excess of 25 years as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended; and (2) computer software as defined in section 197(e)(3)(B) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and as described in section 197(e)(3)(A)(i) of the internal revenue code, as amended, to which section 167 of the internal revenue code, as amended, applies. If such election is made, the amount of expense deduction for such cost shall equal the difference between the depreciable cost of such property for federal income tax purposes and the amount of bonus depreciation being claimed for such property pursuant to section 168(k) of the internal revenue code, as amended, for federal income tax purposes in such tax year, but without regard to any expense deduction being claimed for such property under section 179 of the internal revenue code, as amended, multiplied by the applicable factor, determined by using, the table provided in subsection (f), based on the method of depreciation selected pursuant to section 168(b)(1), (2), or (3) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended. This election shall be made by the due date of the original return, including any extensions, and may be made only for the taxable year in which the property is placed in service, and once made, shall be irrevocable. If the section 179 expense deduction election has been made for federal income tax purposes for any asset, the applicable factor to be utilized is in the IRC § 168 (b)(1) column of the table provided in subsection (f) for the applicable recovery period of the respective assets.

(b) If the amount of expense deduction calculated pursuant to subsection (a) exceeds the taxpayer's Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state, such excess amount shall be treated as a Kansas net operating loss as provided in K.S.A. 79-32,143, and amendments thereto.

(c) If the property for which an expense deduction is taken pursuant to subsection (a) is subsequently sold during the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and in a manner that would cause recapture of any previously taken expense or depreciation deductions for federal income tax purposes, or if the situs of such property is otherwise changed such that the property is relocated outside the state of Kansas during such applicable recovery period, then the expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) shall be subject to recapture and treated as Kansas taxable income allocated to this state. The amount of recapture shall be the Kansas expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years remaining in the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, after such property is sold or removed from the state including the year of such disposition, and the denominator of which is the total number of years in such applicable recovery period.

(d) The situs of tangible property for purposes of claiming and recapture of the expense deduction shall be the physical location of such property. If such property is mobile, the situs shall be the physical location of the business operations from where such property is used or based. The situs of computer software shall be apportioned to Kansas based on the fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years remaining in the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, after such property is sold or removed from the state including the year of such disposition, and the denominator of which is the total number of the taxpayer's users of the licenses for such computer software used in the active conduct of the taxpayer's business operations everywhere.

(e) Any member of a unitary group filing a combined report may elect to take an expense deduction pursuant to subsection (a) for an investment in property made by any member of the combined group, provided that the amount calculated pursuant to subsection (a) may only be deducted from the Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated to or apportioned to this state by such member making the election.

(f) The following table shall be used in determining the expense deduction...

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I VOTE “AYE” THIS TIME INSTEAD OF “PRESENT BUT PASSING” AS I DID ON FEB. 27 ON SB 77 regarding a child under 18 years exhibiting a sexual behavior problem who allegedly commits sexual abuse against another person under 18. Under this bill, now our Department of Children and Families (DCF) must respond and, if proven, referred to the child-in-need-of-care (CINC) code and referred to a child advocacy center. I agree that we need greater scrutiny and response to the growing number of our youths acting aggressively and sexually abusive. My only hesitancy remains the fiscal note; costs through DCF, to increase government’s role in ferreting out, then offering parent(s) counseling for the aggressive child (and if refused by the parent, mandating the same.) A quarter of a million for identifying and referring to designated counseling centers. But honestly, only COMPLETE Legislative “peer-pressure” causes me to join the unanimous “Ayes” from BOTH Chambers today. Maybe I’m missing something here…? Again, society needs to better police the growing number of aggressive sexual interludes between juveniles. But we might also continue to explore less invasive, parentally-inclusive, not overtly mandated and not so tax-payer expensive stop-gaps too.—DAVID HALEY

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God of Heaven, You are full of All Wisdom and Truth. In Ecclesiastes 2:13, You used the image of light, having an advantage over darkness, to portray how wisdom (looking at everything from Your perspective) gives us an advantage over foolishness. Lord, there are times when we engage in some foolishness, such as what we have on “April Fool’s Day.” But then Lord, we don’t want the times of foolishness to carry over and undermine the times when we need to be serious.

Help us to have those lighthearted, innocent times of fooling around; those times of harmless fun stuff. But You did make it clear, in Ecclesiastes 3:1, that everything has its own time, and there’s a specific time for every activity.

So Lord, help us keep the distinctions clear. Give us the blessedness of laughter, when the time is right. And when the hour calls for it, give us Godly, clearheaded wisdom. What I’m asking Lord, is for You to keep us aware, of what time it is. I come to You in the Name of Wisdom Personified! In the Name of Jesus, Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote in support of the appointment of David Toland as a result of communication with economic development and chambers of commerce across Kansas but more importantly I had a local entrepreneur in the capitol earlier in the session and Mr. Toland took time to visit with him and explore ways that the state could be supportive of the growth of his business. That is the proactive approach that I am looking for in a Secretary of Commerce. Additionally, as an individual who has a 100 percent prolife voting record, I had concerns about the grants that the Allen County Hospital received from the Tiller Foundation through the Wichita Community Foundation. However my concerns were largely allayed when the grants to the hospital were not abortion-related and placed an emphasis on healthy pregnancies which is something that all individuals who are prolife should encourage. Therefore I vote in support of David Toland’s appointment as Secretary of Commerce.—ED BERGER Senators Bowers, Goddard, Longbine, McGinn and Wilborn request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Berger on David Toland, Secretary of Commerce appointment.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

SB 105 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Governor on April 1, 2019.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 2, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine. Roll was called with 40 senators present. Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, God, in facing the issues of life, we come to times of discouragement. We’ll enjoy a win. But before the celebration is over, the fight is on again. Lord, it gets hard sometimes…carrying all the responsibilities.

Like Your man Elijah, in 1 Kings 19:1-12, there’s a tendency to just get tired. He reached a point where he’d had enough! Tired of battle after battle and just wanting the war to be over, he was even ready to end his life! But Lord, in the midst of his despair You met him where he was and took him where You wanted him to be. And Lord, that’s what You do for us as well. You told him to get up! You weren’t finished with him. You then gave him the strength he needed to rise up and come into Your presence, that he might hear from You, that he might overcome all the resistance, and all the discouragement. Like Elijah, Lord, we’re listening for Your direction. Leaders with a job to do and needing Your guidance in doing it.

Help us to not be blown here and there by the contrary winds, or be shaken up by earth shattering events, or get all heated up and angry over the fires of opposition. Like Elijah, help us hear Your voice, Your still, small quiet voice. In the quietness of our spirit, Lord, help us to hear Your Spirit. So that when our work is done it won’t be us saying, we’ve had enough! It’ll be You saying we’ve done enough!

Thank You Lord! You’ve given us the strength for another day. I come to You in favor of the work You’ve called us to do. I come in the precious Name of Jesus, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

VETO MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Just two short years ago, the State of Kansas found itself on the brink of financial disaster. Even after depleting state savings and enduring multiple rounds of devastating budget cuts, unsustainable tax policy continued to perpetuate fiscal crisis. We saw schools close and class sizes grow. We saw an overwhelmed child welfare system let children fall through the cracks. And despite promises of immediate prosperity, Kansas routinely ranked among the nation’s worst in multiple economic indicators.

As the budget hole continued to grow, the legislature passed two sales tax increases, swept more than $2 billion from the state highway fund, delayed numerous payments to the state pension system, accumulated historic levels of debt, and raided every critical investment from early childhood education to public safety. But in the end, none of these short-term band aids could stem the bleeding caused by reckless tax policy. In November of 2016, Kansans called for change.

The very next year, the state hit “reset” in a historic act of bipartisanship with the passage of comprehensive tax reform. Our credit score improved within a week. The number of Kansans participating in the labor force increased for the first time since 2014. And we’ve finally begun to heal from the unprecedented devastation found in state agencies and state programs.

However, we have only just started the rebuilding process. Our recovery is tenuous; our budget is fragile. The State of Kansas cannot afford to make a U-turn.

Unfortunately, Senate Bill 22 would absolutely dismantle all the progress we’ve made. It would throw our state once again into a self-inflicted budget crisis, diminishing all the investments we’ve worked so hard to rebuild and restore. It would put our future at risk once again in order to give significant tax breaks to entities who need them the least, while continuing to leave working families behind.
Additionally, as noted by the Senate President during the floor debate, Senate Bill 22 will put Kansas out of compliance with the Streamlined Sales and Use Tax Agreement. This would potentially cost Kansas up to $18 million in lost revenue — on top of the bill’s already unaffordable $200 million price tag in the next fiscal year.

I look forward to working with the Kansas Legislature in the future to achieve our common goal of a reduced food sales tax. However, as I explained repeatedly — both as a candidate for governor and after I took office — we cannot responsibly enact a food sales tax cut until our state’s fiscal health stabilizes. This is not the time.

I share Kansas lawmakers’ desire to keep the state tax burden as low as possible and that will continue to be my priority. In January, I presented a structurally balanced budget to the Kansas Legislature that funded our schools and roads, reduced state debt, left Kansas with the largest ending balance in 20 years, and did so all without a tax increase.

The people of Kansas elected me to rebuild our state. They elected me to bring fiscally conservative and responsible principles back to our government. We must be patient, thoughtful, and prudent as we evaluate tax policy. And, when we move forward with commonsense tax relief, we must ensure that it benefits the Kansans who need it the most. Therefore, under Article 2, Section 14(a) of the Constitution, I hereby veto Senate Bill 22.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, today we’re sweating some pretty big stuff. There are concerns that are huge with far reaching implications. Lord, it’s like Your people in 1 Samuel 17 when they were facing a Goliath problem, a huge problem that would be devastating to Your people if it was not overcome.

While the problem of Goliath was threatening and ominous, all David had in his hand was five little stones. But what he had in his heart was a trust in You, to be the “Problem Solver.” You showed him and his people that when we trust in You we don’t have to sweat the big stuff. Because nothing and nobody is too big for You to handle.

So Lord, as we face what we think are the big problems, remind us that You are much bigger and we can trust in You. Give us the confidence to know, that as we use our little stones of knowledge and defense, You will have our backs and You will conquer every problem we confront.

I offer this prayer with the love, confidence and trust of little David. Thank You for reminding me to not sweat the big stuff. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to deliver remarks on the Occasion of the Anniversary Date of the Assassination of the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Junior, the following Remarks were offered: Today, April 4th, 2019 marks fifty-one (51) years to the day that a single rifle shot emanated from a depraved and racist would-be assassin. Now the bullet struck and, indeed, DID take the mortal life of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. as he stood with several of his associates on a balcony of the Lorraine Hotel in Memphis, Tennessee. Where were you; what were you doing, what did you feel if you were old enough to appreciate it, when you heard that King had been shot and killed…? Gentle colleagues, I remember exactly, as a boy of ten or so, how badly frightening and confused I was watching my mother, Doris, a high school teacher, pace around at the end of our house phone’s short knotted tether in my family’s Kansas City, KS kitchen; intermittently shocked, crying, worried, agitated like I had never seen her before as she received and dissected the news. My dad, George, a once Kansas Senator and local attorney, who had been a classmate of Martin Luther King’s at Morehouse College in Atlanta, GA wasn’t home yet so my younger, and only sibling, Anne, (now a wife and mother and respected LA attorney herself), my mother and I were only three-quarters of our family “team” together to contemplate the social strife that was ensuing. Some felt the dream of civil rights for all people, the dignity that should be the birthright inured to every American; life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness irrespective of race, religion, color, creed, gender…that many, many had fought for would surely too die. But thank God the dream DIDN’T die with “the dreamer” that day, fellow Senators. Today fifty-one (51) years later, we know that civil and equal rights and race and cultural relations are, sadly, yet deplorably juxtaposed; that we, as such a naturally diverse society in this country have a long way to go to reach neutrality and acceptance. May God continue to bless the true patriots of that which makes America strong and great; the intertwining of our many peoples to salute our unique worldly culture and ability. Despite an oft ebb to the contrary of progress, we must ever continue to stand and remember the cultivators like Dr. King who motivate and ensure that one dream will not die with but one great dreamer.

(2) The board shall establish rules and regulations for the administration of the system and for the transaction of business consistent with law, which rules and regulations shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

(6) The board may adopt all necessary actuarial tables to be used in the operation of the system as recommended by the actuary, and may compile such additional data as may be necessary for required actuarial valuations and calculations. Whenever the amount of any benefit is to be determined on the basis of actuarial assumptions, the assumptions specified by the board in a way that precludes employer discretion.

(7) Subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 74-49,123, and amendments thereto, the board or the investment committee may invest all cash not required for current payments in securities eligible for investment under this act. the investment and reinvestment of moneys of the fund as provided in K.S.A. 74-4921, and amendments thereto. Such internal management would replace the management of all or part of the fund by persons the board has contracted with as provided in subsection (7) of K.S.A. 74-4921(7), and amendments thereto. The board shall report such plan developed pursuant to this subsection to the legislature and the governor on or

(15) The board is hereby authorized and empowered, in the exercise of its fiduciary the maintenance of transparency in state government, to:

(a) Develop policies and procedures generally applicable to the procurement of goods and services, based upon sound business practices;

(b) make and enter into contracts and agreements necessary or incidental to the

Sec. 3. K.S.A. 74-4911 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-4911. (1) Any employee of a participating employer other than an elected official on the entry date of such employer shall be a member of the system on either the entry date or the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following the completion of one year of service, whichever is later, except that an employee of a participating employer who was first employed by a participating employer on or after July 1, 2008, but before July 1, 2009, shall be a member on July 1, 2009, and except that an employee who is first employed by a participating employer on or after July 1, 2009, shall be a member of the system on the first day of employment of such employee with such participating employer. On and after July 1, 2019, employees employed in direct support positions of an affiliated employer organized under K.S.A. 19-4001, and amendments thereto, and defined under K.S.A. 39-1803, and amendments thereto, may become a member of the system on the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following the completion of a two-year period of training, whichever is later. For purposes of this act occasional breaks in service which shall not exceed an aggregate of 10 days in any such year shall not constitute a break in service for purposes of determining the membership date of such employee.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, any employee other than an elected official who is employed by a participating employer after the entry date of such employer shall be a member of the system on the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following completion of one year of continuous service. For purposes of this act, occasional breaks in service which shall not exceed an aggregate of 10 days in any such year shall not constitute a break in continuous service for purposes of determining the membership date of such employee. For purposes of this subsection, any employee of a local governmental unit which has its own pension plan who becomes an employee of a participating employer as a result of a merger or consolidation of services provided by local governmental units, which occurred on January 1, 1994, may count service with such local governmental unit in determining whether such employee has met the one year of continuous service requirement contained in this subsection.

(3) Any employee who is an elected official and is eligible to join the system shall file, within 90 days after taking the oath of office, an irrevocable election to become or not to become a member of the system. Such election shall become effective immediately upon making such election, if such election is made within 14 days of taking the oath of office or, otherwise, on the first day of the first payroll period of the first quarter following receipt of the election in the office of the retirement system. In the event that such elected official fails to file the election to become a member of the retirement system, it shall be presumed that such person has elected not to become a member.

(4) Except as otherwise required by USERRA, any employee other than an elected official who is in military service or on leave of absence on the entry date of such employee's employer shall become a member of the system upon returning to active employment or on the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following the completion of one year of service, whichever is later. For purposes of this act, occasional breaks in service which shall not exceed an aggregate of 10 days in any such year shall not constitute a break in service for purposes of determining the membership date of such employee.

(5) Any employee of the state of Kansas other than an elected official, who is receiving or is eligible for assistance by the state board of regents in the purchase of a retirement annuity under K.S.A. 74-4925, and amendments thereto, and who becomes ineligible for such assistance because such employee's position is reclassified to a position in the classified service under the Kansas civil service act, or who becomes ineligible for such assistance because such person accepts and transfers to a position in the classified service under the Kansas civil service act shall be a member of the system on the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following the effective date of such reclassification or transfer. Any such employee who became ineligible for such assistance prior to the effective date of this act because of such a reclassification or such a transfer occurring prior to the effective date of this act and who is not a member of the system on the effective date of this act shall be a member of the system on the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following the effective date of this act.

(6) Any employee of the state board of regents or of an educational institution under its management, other than an elected official, who is a member of the system and who becomes ineligible to be a member of the system because such employee's position is reclassified to a position under the Kansas civil service act which is eligible for assistance by the state board of regents in the purchase of a retirement annuity under K.S.A. 74-4925, and amendments thereto, or who becomes ineligible to be a member of the system because such employee transfers to a position under the Kansas civil service act which is eligible for such assistance, shall become eligible for such assistance in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4925, and amendments thereto, unless such employee files a written election in the office of the retirement system, in the form and manner prescribed by the board of trustees thereof, to remain a member of the system prior to the first day of the first complete payroll period occurring after the effective date of such reclassification or transfer. Failure to file such written election shall be presumed to be an election not to remain a member of the system and to become eligible for assistance by the state board of regents in the purchase of a retirement annuity under K.S.A. 74-4925, and amendments thereto. Such election, whether to remain a member of the system or to become eligible for such assistance, shall be effective as of the effective date of such reclassification or transfer, and shall be irrevocable.

(7) Any elected official who at the time of becoming an elected official is already a member of the system by being or having been an employee of a participating employer shall continue as a member of the system.

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 74-4914 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-4914. (1) The normal retirement date for a member of the system shall be the first day of the month coinciding with or following termination of employment with any participating employer not followed by employment with any participating employer within 60 days, or 180 days as provided in subsection (10), and without any prearranged agreement for employment with any participating employer, and the attainment of age 65 or, commencing July 1, 1993, age 62 with the completion of 10 years of credited service or the first day of the month coinciding with or following the date that the total of the number of years of credited service and the number of years of attained age of the member is equal to or more than 85. In no event shall a normal retirement date for a member be before six months after the entry date of the participating employer by whom such member is employed. A member may retire on the normal retirement date or on the first day of any month thereafter upon the filing with the office of the retirement system of an application in such form and manner as the board shall prescribe. Such application shall contain a certification by the member that the member will not be employed with any participating employer within 60 days, or 180 days as provided in subsection (10), of retirement and the member has not entered into a prearranged agreement for employment with any participating employer. Nothing herein shall prevent any person, member or retirant from being employed, appointed or elected as an employee, appointee, officer or member of the legislature. Elected officers may retire from the system on any date on or after the attainment of the normal retirement date, but no retirement benefits payable under this act shall be paid until the member has terminated such member's office.

(2) No retirant shall make contributions to the system or receive service credit for any service after the date of retirement.

(3) Any member who is an employee of an affiliating employer pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4954b, and amendments thereto, and has not withdrawn such member's accumulated contributions from the Kansas police and firemen's retirement system may retire before such member's normal retirement date on the first day of any month coinciding with or following the attainment of age 55.

(4) Any member may retire before such member's normal retirement date on the first day of any month coinciding with or following termination of employment with any participating employer not followed by employment with any participating employer within 60 days, or 180 days as provided in subsection (10), and the attainment of age 55 with the completion of 10 years of credited service, but in no event before six months after the entry date, upon the filing with the office of the retirement system of an application for retirement in such form and manner as the board shall prescribe. The member's application for retirement shall contain a certification by the member that the member will not be employed with any participating employer within 60 days, or 180 days as provided in subsection (10), of retirement and the member has not entered into a prearranged agreement for employment with any participating employer.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (7) and (10), on or after July 1, 2006, through December 31, 2017, for any retirant who is first employed or appointed in or to any position or office by a participating employer other than a participating employer for which such retirant was employed or appointed during the final two years of such retirant's participation, and, on or after April 1, 2009, for any retirant who is employed by a third-party entity who contracts services with a participating employer other than a participating employer for which such retirant was employed or appointed during the final two years of such retirant's participation, and, on or after April 1, 2009, by any third-party entity who contracts services to fill a position covered under K.S.A. 72-5410(a), and amendments thereto, with such retirant, such participating employer shall pay to the system the actuarially determined employer contribution and the statutorily prescribed employee contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment or appointment. If a retirant is employed or appointed in or to any position or office for which compensation for service is paid in an amount equal to $25,000 or more in any one calendar year between July 1, 2016, and January 1, 2018, by any participating employer for which such retirant was employed or appointed during the final two years of such retirant's participation, and, on or after April 1, 2009, by any third-party entity who contracts services to fill a position covered under K.S.A. 72-5410(a), and amendments thereto, with such retirant with a participating employer for which such retirant was employed or appointed during the final two years of such retirant's participation, such retirant shall not receive any retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in such position or office. The participating employer who employs such retirant whether by contract directly with the retirant or through an arrangement with a third-party entity shall report to the system within 30 days of when the compensation paid to the retirant is equal to or exceeds any limitation provided by this section. Any participating employer who contracts services with any such third-party entity to fill a position covered under K.S.A. 72-5410(a), and amendments thereto, shall include in such contract a provision or condition which requires the third-party entity to provide the participating employer with the necessary compensation paid information related to any such position filled by the third-party entity with a retirant to enable the participating employer to comply with provisions of this subsection relating to the payment of contributions and reporting requirements. The provisions and requirements provided for in amendments made in this act which relate to positions filled with a retirant or employment of a retirant by a third-party entity shall not apply to any contract for services entered into prior to April 1, 2009, between a participating employer and third-party entity as described in this subsection. Any retirant employed by a participating employer or a third-party entity as provided in this subsection shall not make contributions nor receive additional credit under such system for such service except as provided by this section. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the secretary of revenue shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this act. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to retirants employed as substitute teachers without a contract or officers, employees or appointees of the legislature. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any other elected officials. Commencing July 1, 2005, the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to retirants who either retired under the provisions of subsection (1), or, if they retired under the provisions of subsection (4), were retired more than 30 days prior to the effective date of this act and are licensed professional nurses or licensed practical nurses employed by the state of Kansas in an institution as defined in K.S.A. 76-12a01(b) or K.S.A. 38-2302(k), and amendments thereto, the Kansas soldiers' home or the Kansas veterans' home. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to create any right, or to authorize the creation of any right, which is not subject to amendment or nullification by act of the legislature. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the actuarially determined employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment. The provisions of the subsection shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(6) For purposes of this section, any employee of a local governmental unit which has its own pension plan who becomes an employee of a participating employer as a result of a merger or consolidation of services provided by local governmental units, which occurred on January 1, 1994, may count service with such local governmental unit in determining whether such employee has met the years of credited service requirements contained in this section.

(7) (a) (i) Except as provided in K.S.A. 74-4937(3), (4), or (5), and amendments thereto, and the provisions of this subsection, commencing July 1, 2016, and ending January 1, 2018, any retirant who is employed or appointed in or to any position by a participating employer, an independent contractor or a third-party entity who contracts services with a participating employer to fill a position, without any prearranged agreement with such participating employer and not prior to 60 days after such retirant's retirement date, shall not receive any retirement benefit for any month in any calendar year in which the retirant receives compensation in an amount equal to $25,000 or more, pursuant to this subsection. Any participating employer who hires a retirant covered by this subsection shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate for such retirant, without regard to whether the retirant is receiving benefits.

(ii) Commencing January 1, 2018, for all retirements that occurred prior to such date, any retirant who is employed or appointed in or to any position by a participating employer, an independent contractor or a third-party entity who contracts services with a participating employer to fill a position, without any prearranged agreement with such participating employer and not prior to 60 days after such retirant's retirement date, shall not be subject to an earnings limitation that when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in such position. If a retirant is employed in a covered position, as defined in K.S.A. 74-49,202, and amendments thereto, the participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate for such retirant's compensation in a calendar year and a 30% employer contribution on any compensation in excess of $25,000 in a calendar year during any such period of employment. If a retirant is employed by more than one participating employer or performing duties in more than one position, contributions shall be made on compensation from all such employment for that calendar year. If a retirant is employed in a non-covered position, no employer contribution shall be paid to the system.

(b) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply, except as specifically provided in this subsection, to retirants who are:

(i) Licensed professional nurses or licensed practical nurses employed by the state of Kansas in an institution as defined in K.S.A. 76-12a01(b) or 38-2302(k), and amendments thereto, the Kansas soldiers' home or the Kansas veterans' home. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the actuarially determined employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation and the statutorily prescribed employee contribution during any such period of employment;

(ii) employed by a school district in a position as provided in K.S.A. 74-4937(3), (4) or (5), and amendments thereto;

(iii) certified law enforcement officers employed by the law enforcement training center. Such law enforcement officers shall receive their benefits notwithstanding this subsection. The law enforcement training center shall pay to the system the actuarially determined employer contribution and the statutorily prescribed employee contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment;

(iv) members of the Kansas police and firemen's retirement system pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4951 et seq., and amendments thereto, members of the retirement system for judges pursuant to K.S.A. 20-2601 et seq., and amendments thereto, or members of the state board of regents retirement plan pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4925 et seq., and amendments thereto;

(v) employed as substitute teachers without a contract or officers, employees or appointees of the legislature;

(vi) a poll worker hired to work an election day for a county election officer responsible for conducting all official elections held in the county;

(vii) employed by, or have accepted employment from, a participating employer prior to May 1, 2015. Any break in continuous employment by a retirant or move to a different position by a retirant during the effective period of this subsection shall be deemed new employment and shall subject the retirant to the provisions of this subsection. Commencing January 1, 2018, the participating employer of a retirant described in this subsection (7)(b)(vii) who is employed in a covered position, as defined in K.S.A. 74-49,202, and amendments thereto, shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate on the first $25,000 of such retirant's compensation in a calendar year and a 30% employer contribution on any compensation in excess of $25,000 in a calendar year during any such period of employment. If a retirant is employed by more than one participating employer or performing duties in more than one position, contributions shall be made on compensation from all such employment for that calendar year. If a retirant is employed in a non-covered position, no employer contribution shall be paid to the system; or (viii) state or local elected officials. A retirant shall not be employed in an elected office within 30 days of such retirant's retirement, except that if a retirant is filling a vacant elected office, no waiting period shall be required; or

(ix) employed by the Kansas academies of the United States department of defense STARBASE program.

(c) The participating employer shall enroll all retirants, including retirants under subsection (7)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), (vii) and (viii), and report to the system when compensation is paid to a retirant as provided in this subsection. Such report shall contain a certification by the appointing authority of the participating employer that any hired retirant has not been employed by the participating employer within 60 days of such retirant's retirement and that there was no prearranged agreement for employment between the participating employer and the hired retirant. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the participating employer shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this subsection. No retirant shall make contributions to the system or receive credit for service while employed under the provisions of this subsection.

(d) A participating employer may employ a retirant without regard to the compensation limitation in this subsection for a period of one calendar year or one school year, as the case may be, if the following requirements are met:

(i) The employer certifies to the board that the position being filled has been vacated due to an unexpected emergency or the employer has been unsuccessful in filling the position;

(ii) the employer pays to the system a 30% employer contribution based on the retirant's compensation during any such period of employment; and

(iii) the employer maintains documentation of its efforts to fill the position with a non-retirant and provides such documentation to the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits upon request of the committee.

The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(e) An employer may submit a written assurance protocol to the system to extend the exception provided for in subsection (7)(d) by one-year increments for a total extension not to exceed three years. A written assurance protocol shall be submitted to the system for each one-year increment extension. If a school district submits a written assurance protocol, such written assurance protocol shall be signed by the superintendent and the board president of such school district. If a municipality, as defined in K.S.A. 75-1117, and amendments thereto, other than a school district, submits a written assurance protocol, such written assurance protocol shall be signed by the governing body or such governing body's designee for such municipality. Such written assurance protocol shall state that the position was advertised on multiple platforms for a minimum of 30 calendar days and that at least one of the following conditions occurred:

(i) No applications were submitted for the position;
(ii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants met the reference screening criteria of the employer; or
(iii) if applications were submitted, none of the applicants possessed the appropriate licensure, certification or other necessary credentials for the position.

The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on January 1, 2018.

(f) Retirents who are independent contractors or employees of third-party entities who contract with a participating employer, shall not be subject to the compensation limitation or employer contribution requirements in this subsection or the requirements of subsection (7)(c) regarding enrollment and reporting to the system, so long as all of the following apply:

(A) The contractual relationship was not created to allow the retirant to continue employment with the participating employer after retirement in a position similar to the one such retirant held prior to retirement;
(B) the activities performed by the independent contractor or third-party entity are not normally performed exclusively by employees of that participating employer; and
(C) the retirant meets the classification of independent contractor as provided in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 44-768, and amendments thereto, or activities performed by the third-party entity that employs the retirant are performed on a limited-term basis and the third-party entity is not a participating employer in the system.

(g) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to create any right, or to authorize the creation of any right, which is not subject to amendment or nullification by act of the legislature.

(8) (a) Except as provided in subsection (8)(b), if determined by the retirement system that a retirant entered into a prearranged agreement for employment with a participating employer prior to such retirant's retirement and prior to the end of the subsequent 60-day waiting period, or the 180-day waiting period under subsection (10), the monthly retirement benefit of such retirant shall be suspended during the period that begins on the month in which the retirant is re-employed and ends six months after the retirant's termination of such employment. The retirant shall repay to the retirement system all monthly retirement benefits paid to the retirant by the retirement system that the retirant received after such employment began. The participating employer which hired such retirant shall be required to pay to the system any fees, fines, penalties or any other cost imposed by the internal revenue service and indemnify the system for any cost incurred by the system to defend any action brought by the internal revenue service based on in-service distributions which are a result of any determined prearranged agreement and for any cost incurred by the system to collect any monthly retirement benefit required to be repaid by such retirant pursuant to this subsection.

(b) For members who retired on and after July 1, 2016, and on or before July 1, 2019, if determined by the retirement system that a retirant entered into a prearranged agreement for employment with a participating employer prior to such retirant's retirement date and the subsequent 60-day waiting period, or the 180-day waiting period under subsection (10), and upon being notified of the violation, the retirant terminated such employment, the provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply. If any retirant had benefits suspended prior to July 1, 2019, such benefits shall be reimbursed by the retirement system, if the retirant terminated such prearranged employment in accordance with the provisions of this act. On and after July 1, 2019, the executive director may waive such penalties under this subsection if it is determined by the retirement system that any of the following conditions were satisfied:

(i) The retirant's total length of reemployment was less than 21 calendar days;

(ii) the retirant's total compensation during the total length of reemployment was less than 10% of the amount of such retirant's retirement benefit that would be suspended pursuant to this subsection; or

(iii) other facts and circumstances indicated that the retirant would not have been reemployed but for an error on the part of the participating employer or the retirement system in verifying the retirement status of such retirant and such retirant immediately terminated employment upon being notified of the violation.

(c) On or before the first day of each regular session of the legislature, beginning with the 2020 regular session, the executive director shall submit an annual report on the number of waivers granted pursuant to subsection (8)(b) in the prior calendar year to the joint committee on pensions, investments and benefits, the house of representatives standing committee on financial institutions and pensions and the senate standing committee on financial institutions and insurance, or the successors of such committees.

(9) For the purposes of this section a prearranged agreement for employment may be determined by whether the facts and circumstances of the situation indicate that the employer and employee reasonably anticipated that further services would be performed after the employee's retirement.

(10) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5) or (7) to the contrary, commencing January 1, 2018, any retirant who is retired more than 60 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is 62 or older, or is retired more than 180 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is less than 62, and who is subsequently hired without any prearranged agreement with the participating employer in a covered position, as defined in K.S.A. 74-49,202, and amendments thereto, or an independent contractor or a third-party entity who contracts service to fill such covered position shall not be subject to an earnings limitation that when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in such covered position. The participating employer of such retirant shall pay to the system the statutorily prescribed employer contribution rate on the first $25,000 of such retirant's compensation in a calendar year and a 30% employer contribution on any compensation in excess of $25,000 in a calendar year during any such period of employment. If a retirant is employed by more than one participating employer or performing duties in more than one position, contributions shall be made on compensation from all such employment for that calendar year.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5) or (7) to the contrary, commencing January 1, 2018, any retirant who is retired more than 60 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is 62 or older, or is retired more than 180 days, if such retirant's age on the date of retirement is less than 62, and who is subsequently hired without any prearranged agreement with the participating employer in a non-covered position, or an independent contractor or a third-party entity who contracts service to fill such non-covered position, shall not be subject to an earnings limitation that when met or exceeded requires that the retirant not receive a retirement benefit for any month for which such retirant serves in such non-covered position. No employer contribution shall be paid to the system on compensation paid to a retirant hired in a non-covered position.

(c) The participating employer shall enroll all retirants, including retirants under subsection (7)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), (vii) and (viii), and report to the system when compensation is paid to a retirant as provided in this subsection. Such report shall contain a certification by the appointing authority of the participating employer that any hired retirant has not been employed by the participating employer within 60 days of such retirant's retirement in the case of a retirant whose age on the date of retirement is 62 or older, or within 180 days of such retirant's retirement in the case of a retirant whose age on the date of retirement is less than 62, and that there was no prearranged agreement for employment between the participating employer and the hired retirant. Upon request of the executive director of the system, the participating employer shall provide such information as may be needed by the executive director to carry out the provisions of this subsection. No retirant shall make contributions to the system or receive credit for service while employed under the provisions of this subsection.

(d) The provisions of this subsection relating to an earnings limitation and employer contributions shall not apply to any retirant described in subsection (7)(b) or to retirants who are independent contractors or employees of third-party entities who contract with a participating employer as described in subsection (7)(f), except as specifically provided in this subsection.

(e) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to create any right, or to authorize the creation of any right that is not subject to amendment or nullification by act of the legislature.

On page 1, by striking all in lines 4 through 20 and inserting:

"New Section 1. (a) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, any person may enter into an operating agreement or amendment thereof by an agent, including an attorney-in-fact. An authorization, including a power of attorney, to enter into an operating agreement or amendment thereof need not be in writing, need not be sworn to, verified or acknowledged.

(b) For all purposes of the laws of the state of Kansas, unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a power of attorney or proxy with respect to a limited liability company granted to any person shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power or proxy. Such irrevocable power of attorney or proxy, unless otherwise provided therein or in an operating agreement, shall not be affected by subsequent death, disability, incapacity, dissolution, termination of existence or bankruptcy of, or any other event concerning, the principal. A power of attorney or proxy with respect to matters relating to the organization, internal affairs or termination of a limited liability company or granted by a person as a member or an assignee of a limited liability company interest and, in either case, granted to the limited liability company, a manager or member thereof, or any of their respective officers, directors, managers, members, partners, trustees, employees or agents shall be deemed coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power or proxy. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to limit the enforceability of a power of attorney or proxy that is part of an operating agreement.

New Sec. 2. (a) As used in this section, and section 7, and amendments thereto, and K.S.A. 17-7675, and amendments thereto:
(1) "Dividing company" means the domestic limited liability company that is effecting a division in the manner provided in this section.

(2) "Division" means the division of a dividing company into two or more domestic limited liability companies in accordance with this section.

(3) "Division company" means a surviving company, if any, and each resulting company.

(4) "Division contact" means, in connection with any division, a natural person who is a Kansas resident, any division company in such division or any other domestic limited liability company or other domestic entity as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-78-102, and amendments thereto, which division contact shall maintain a copy of the plan of division for a period of six years from the effective date of the division and shall comply with subsection (g)(3).

(5) "Organizational documents" means the articles of organization and operating agreement of a domestic limited liability company.

(6) "Resulting company" means a domestic limited liability company formed as a consequence of a division.

(7) "Surviving company" means a dividing company that survives the division.

(b) Pursuant to a plan of division, any domestic limited liability company may, in the manner provided in this section, be divided into two or more domestic limited liability companies. The division of a domestic limited liability company in accordance with this section and, if applicable, the resulting cessation of the existence of the dividing company pursuant to a certificate of division shall not be deemed to affect the personal liability of any person incurred prior to such division with respect to matters arising prior to such division, nor shall it be deemed to affect the validity or enforceability of any obligations or liabilities of the dividing company incurred prior to such division; except that such obligations and liabilities shall be allocated to and vested in, and valid and enforceable obligations of, such division company or companies to which such obligations and liabilities have been allocated pursuant to the plan of division, as provided in subsection (l). Each resulting company in a division shall be formed in compliance with the requirements of the Kansas revised limited liability company act and subsection (i).

(c) If the operating agreement of the dividing company specifies the manner of adopting a plan of division, the plan of division shall be adopted as specified in the operating agreement. If the operating agreement of the dividing company does not specify the manner of adopting a plan of division and does not prohibit a division of the limited liability company, the plan of division shall be adopted in the same manner as is specified in the operating agreement for authorizing a merger or consolidation that involves the limited liability company as a constituent party to the merger or consolidation. If the operating agreement of the dividing company does not specify the manner of adopting a plan of division or authorizing a merger or consolidation that involves the limited liability company as a constituent party and does not prohibit a division of the limited liability company, the adoption of a plan of division shall be authorized by the consent or approval of members who own more than 50% of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of the dividing company owned by all of the members. Notwithstanding prior consent or approval, a plan of division may be terminated or amended pursuant to a provision for such termination or amendment contained in the plan of division.
(d) Unless otherwise provided in a plan of division, the division of a domestic limited liability company pursuant to this section shall not require such limited liability company to wind up its affairs under K.S.A. 17-76,118, and amendments thereto, or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets under K.S.A. 17-76,119, and amendments thereto, and the division shall not constitute a dissolution of such limited liability company.

(e) In connection with a division under this section, rights or securities of, or interests in, the dividing company may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, the surviving company or any resulting company or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, an entity as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-78-102, and amendments thereto, that is not a division company, or may be canceled or remain outstanding, if the dividing company is a surviving company.

(f) (1) A plan of division adopted in accordance with subsection (c):
   (A) May effect: (i) Any amendment to the operating agreement of the dividing company if it is a surviving company in the division; or (ii) the adoption of a new operating agreement for the dividing company if it is a surviving company in the division; and
   (B) shall effect the adoption of a new operating agreement for each resulting company.

   (2) Any amendment to an operating agreement or adoption of a new operating agreement for the dividing company, if it is a surviving company in the division, or adoption of a new operating agreement for each resulting company made pursuant to this subsection shall be effective at the effective time or date of the division. Any amendment to an operating agreement or adoption of an operating agreement for the dividing company, if it is a surviving company in the division, shall be effective notwithstanding any provision in the operating agreement of the dividing company relating to amendment or adoption of a new operating agreement, other than a provision that by its terms applies to an amendment to the operating agreement or the adoption of a new operating agreement, in either case, in connection with a division, merger or consolidation.

(g) If a domestic limited liability company is dividing under this section, the dividing company shall adopt a plan of division that shall set forth:

   (1) The terms and conditions of the division, including:

   (A) Any conversion or exchange of the limited liability company interests of the dividing company into or for limited liability company interests or other securities or obligations of any division company or cash, property, or rights or securities or obligations of or interests in an entity as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-78-102, and amendments thereto, that is not a division company, or that the limited liability company interests of the dividing company shall remain outstanding or be canceled, or any combination of the foregoing; and

   (B) the allocation of assets, property, rights, series, debts, liabilities, and duties of the dividing company among the division companies;

   (2) the name of each resulting company and, if the dividing company will survive the division, the name of the surviving company;

   (3) the name and business address of a division contact, which shall have custody of a copy of the plan of division. The division contact, or any successor division contact, shall serve for a period of six years following the effective date of the division.
During such six-year period, the division contact shall provide, without cost, to any creditor of the dividing company, within 30 days following the division contact's receipt of a written request from any creditor of the dividing company, the name and business address of the division company to which the claim of such creditor was allocated pursuant to the plan of division; and

(4) any other matters that the dividing company determines to include therein.

(h) If a domestic limited liability company divides under this section, the surviving company, if any, or any other division company shall file a certificate of division executed by one or more authorized persons on behalf of such division company in the office of the secretary of state in accordance with K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7910, and amendments thereto, and articles of organization that comply with K.S.A. 17-7673, and amendments thereto, for each resulting company executed by one or more authorized persons in accordance with K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7908(b), and amendments thereto. The certificate of division shall state:

(1) The name of the dividing company and, if it has been changed, the name under which its articles of organization were originally filed and whether the dividing company is a surviving company;

(2) the name of each division company;

(3) the name and business address of the division contact required by subsection (g) (3);

(4) the future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of the division if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of division;

(5) that the division has been consented to or approved in accordance with this section;

(6) that the plan of division is on file at a place of business of such division company as is specified therein, and shall state the address thereof; and

(7) that a copy of the plan of division will be furnished by such division company as is specified therein, on request and without cost, to any member of the dividing company.

(i) The certificate of division and each articles of organization for each resulting company required by subsection (h) shall be filed simultaneously in the office of the secretary of state and, if such certificate and articles of organization are not to become effective upon their filing, then each such certificate shall provide for the same effective date or time in accordance with KS.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7911, and amendments thereto. Concurrently with the effective date or time of a division, the operating agreement of each resulting company shall become effective.

(j) A certificate of division shall act as a certificate of cancellation for a dividing company that is not a surviving company.

(k) An operating agreement may provide that a domestic limited liability company shall not have the power to divide as set forth in this section.

(l) Upon the division of a domestic limited liability company becoming effective:

(1) The dividing company shall be subdivided into the distinct and independent resulting companies named in the plan of division, and, if the dividing company is not a surviving company, the existence of the dividing company shall cease.

(2) For all purposes of the laws of the state of Kansas, all of the rights, privileges and powers, and all the property, real, personal, and mixed, of the dividing company and all debts due on whatever account to it, as well as all other things and other causes of action belonging to it, shall without further action be allocated to and vested in the applicable division company in such a manner and basis and with such effect as is specified in the plan of division, and the title to any real property or interest therein allocated to and vested in any division company shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the division.

3) Each division company shall, from and after effectiveness of the certificate of division, be liable as a separate and distinct domestic limited liability company for such debts, liabilities and duties of the dividing company as are allocated to such division company pursuant to the plan of division in the manner and on the basis provided in subsection (g)(1)(B).

4) Each of the debts, liabilities and duties of the dividing company shall without further action be allocated to and be the debts, liabilities and duties of such division company as is specified in the plan of division as having such debts, liabilities and duties allocated to it, in such a manner and basis and with such effect as is specified in the plan of division, and no other division company shall be liable therefor, so long as the plan of division does not constitute a fraudulent transfer under applicable law, and all liens upon any property of the dividing company shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the dividing company shall remain attached to the division company to which such debts, liabilities and duties have been allocated in the plan of division, and may be enforced against such division company to the same extent as if such debts, liabilities and duties had originally been incurred or contracted by it in its capacity as a domestic limited liability company.

5) In the event that any allocation of assets, debts, liabilities and duties to division companies in accordance with a plan of division is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to constitute a fraudulent transfer, each division company shall be jointly and severally liable on account of such fraudulent transfer notwithstanding the allocations made in the plan of division, except that the validity and effectiveness of the division are not otherwise affected thereby.

6) Debts and liabilities of the dividing company that are not allocated by the plan of division shall be the joint and several debts and liabilities of all of the division companies.

7) It shall not be necessary for a plan of division to list each individual asset, property, right, series, debt, liability or duty of the dividing company to be allocated to a division company so long as the assets, property, rights, series, debts, liabilities or duties so allocated are reasonably identified by any method where the identity of such assets, property, rights, series, debts, liabilities or duties is objectively determinable.

8) The rights, privileges, powers, and interests in property of the dividing company that have been allocated to a division company, as well as the debts, liabilities and duties of the dividing company that have been allocated to such division company pursuant to a plan of division, shall remain vested in each such division company and shall not be deemed, as a result of the division, to have been assigned or transferred to such division company for any purpose of the laws of the state of Kansas.

9) Any action or proceeding pending against a dividing company may be continued against the surviving company as if the division did not occur and against any resulting company to which the asset, property, right, series, debt, liability or duty associated with such action or proceeding was allocated pursuant to the plan of division by adding or substituting such resulting company as a party in the action or proceeding.
(m) In applying the provisions of the Kansas revised limited liability company act on distributions, a direct or indirect allocation of property or liabilities in a division is not deemed a distribution.

(n) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to limit the means of accomplishing a division by any other means provided for in an operating agreement or other agreement or as otherwise permitted by the Kansas revised limited liability company act or as otherwise permitted by law.

(o) All limited liability companies formed on and after July 1, 2019, shall be governed by this section. All limited liability companies formed prior to July 1, 2019, shall be governed by this section, except that if the dividing company is a party to any written contract, indenture or other agreement entered into prior to July 1, 2019, that, by its terms, restricts, conditions or prohibits the consummation of a merger or consolidation by the dividing company with or into another party, or the transfer of assets by the dividing company to another party, then such restriction, condition or prohibition shall be deemed to apply to a division as if it were a merger, consolidation or transfer of assets, as applicable.

New Sec. 3. (a) Pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, one or more series may merge or consolidate with or into one or more other series of the same limited liability company with such series as the agreement shall provide being the surviving or resulting series. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, an agreement of merger or consolidation shall be consented to or approved by each series that is to merge or consolidate by members of such series who own more than 50% of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of such series owned by all of the members of such series. In connection with a merger or consolidation hereunder, rights or securities of, or interests in, a series which is a constituent party to the merger or consolidation may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights, or securities of, or interests in, an entity as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-78-102, and amendments thereto, that is not the surviving or resulting series in the merger or consolidation, may remain outstanding or may be canceled. Notwithstanding prior consent or approval, an agreement of merger or consolidation may be terminated or amended pursuant to a provision for such termination or amendment contained in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

(b) If a series is merging or consolidating under this section, the series surviving or resulting in or from the merger or consolidation shall file a certificate of merger or consolidation executed by one or more authorized persons on behalf of the series when it is the surviving or resulting series in the office of the secretary of state. The certificate of merger or consolidation shall state:

(1) The name of each series that is to merge or consolidate and the name of the limited liability company that formed such series;

(2) that an agreement of merger or consolidation has been consented to or approved and executed by or on behalf of each series that is to merge or consolidate;

(3) the name of the surviving or resulting series;

(4) such amendment, if any, to the certificate of designation of the series that is the surviving or resulting series to change the name of the surviving series, as is desired to be effected by the merger;
(5) the future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of the merger or consolidation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger or consolidation;

(6) that the agreement of merger or consolidation is on file at a place of business of the surviving or resulting series or the limited liability company that formed such series and shall state the address thereof; and

(7) that a copy of the agreement of merger or consolidation will be furnished by the surviving or resulting series, upon request and without cost, to any member of any series that is to merge or consolidate.

(c) Unless a future effective date or time is provided in a certificate of merger or consolidation, a merger or consolidation pursuant to this section shall be effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger or consolidation in the office of the secretary of state.

(d) A certificate of merger or consolidation shall act as a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation of the series that is not the surviving or resulting series in the merger or consolidation. A certificate of merger or consolidation that sets forth any amendment in accordance with subsection (b)(4) shall be deemed to be an amendment to the certificate of designation of the surviving or resulting series, and no further action shall be required to amend the certificate of designation of the surviving or resulting series under K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,143, and amendments thereto, with respect to such amendments set forth in the certificate of merger or consolidation. Whenever this section requires the filing of a certificate of merger or consolidation, such requirement shall be deemed satisfied by the filing of an agreement of merger or consolidation containing the information required by this section to be set forth in the certificate of merger or consolidation.

(e) An agreement of merger or consolidation consented to or approved in accordance with subsection (a) may effect any amendment to the operating agreement relating solely to the series that are constituent parties to the merger or consolidation. Any amendment to an operating agreement relating solely to the series that are constituent parties to the merger or consolidation made pursuant to the foregoing sentence shall be effective at the effective time or date of the merger or consolidation and shall be effective notwithstanding any provision of the operating agreement relating to amendment of the operating agreement, other than a provision that by its terms applies to an amendment to the operating agreement in connection with a merger or consolidation. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a merger or of any of the matters referred to herein by any other means provided for in an operating agreement or other agreement or as otherwise permitted by law, including that the operating agreement relating to any constituent series to the merger or consolidation, including a series formed for the purpose of consummating a merger or consolidation, shall be the operating agreement of the surviving or resulting series.

(f) (1) (A) When any merger or consolidation shall have become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Kansas, all of the rights, privileges and powers of each of the series that have merged or consolidated, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due to any of such series, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to each of such series, shall be vested in the surviving or resulting series, and shall thereafter be the property of the surviving or resulting series as they were of each of the series that have merged or consolidated, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise, under the laws of the state of Kansas, in any of such series, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Kansas revised limited liability company act.

(B) All rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of any of the series that have merged or consolidated shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of each of such series that have merged or consolidated shall thereafter attach to the surviving or resulting series, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if such debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed, a merger or consolidation of a series that is not the surviving or resulting series in the merger or consolidation, shall not require such series to wind up its affairs under K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,143, and amendments thereto, or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets under K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,143, and amendments thereto, and the merger or consolidation shall not constitute a dissolution of such series.

(g) An operating agreement may provide that a series of such limited liability company shall not have the power to merge or consolidate as set forth in this section.

(h) This section shall take effect on and after July 1, 2020.

New Sec. 4. (a) A series whose certificate of designation has been canceled pursuant to K.S.A. 17-76,139, and amendments thereto, may be reinstated by filing in decision implicating the balance requirement in subsection (a), will be deemed to satisfy such person's fiduciary duties to members and the limited liability company if such person's decision is both informed and disinterested and not such that no person of ordinary, sound judgment would approve.

If a statutory public benefit limited liability company does not have a website, it shall provide a copy of such statement, without charge, to any person that requests a copy. Any compensation paid to any person and any other financial or proprietary information contained in the statement described in subsection (a) may be omitted from any statement that is publicly posted or provided to any person pursuant to this subsection, other than a statement provided to a member, manager or other person with authority to manage or direct the business and affairs of the statutory public benefit limited liability company.
(e) The articles of organization or the operating agreement of a statutory public benefit limited liability company may require that the statutory public benefit limited liability company obtain a periodic third-party certification addressing the statutory public benefit limited liability company's promotion of the public benefit or public benefits identified in the articles of organization or the best interests of those materially affected by the statutory public benefit limited liability company's conduct, or both.

(b) If restated articles of organization merely restate and integrate but do not further amend the initial articles of organization, as previously amended or supplemented by any certificate or instrument that was executed and filed pursuant to K.S.A. 17-7673 through 17-7683, and amendments thereto, the business entity standard treatment act, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7901 et seq., and amendments thereto, they shall be specifically designated in their heading as "restated articles of organization" together with such other words as the limited liability company may deem appropriate and shall be executed by an authorized person and filed with the secretary of state as provided in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7910, and amendments thereto. Restated articles of organization shall also state that they were duly executed and are being filed in accordance with this section. If restated articles of organization only restate and integrate and do not further amend a limited liability company's articles of organization as previously amended or supplemented and there is no discrepancy between those provisions and the restated articles of organization, they shall state that fact as well.

(d) Upon the filing of restated articles of organization with the secretary of state, or upon the future effective date of restated articles of organization as provided for therein, the initial articles of organization, as previously amended or supplemented, shall be superseded. Thereafter the restated articles of organization, including any further amendment or changes made thereby, shall be the articles of organization of the limited liability company, but the original effective date of formation shall remain unchanged.

(e) Any amendment or change effected in connection with the restatement and integration of the articles of organization shall be subject to any other provision of this the Kansas revised limited liability company act, not inconsistent with this section, which would apply if a separate certificate of amendment were filed to effect such amendment or change.

Sec. 21. On and after July 1, 2020, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7680, as amended by section 20 of this act, is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-7680. (a) Restated
A limited liability company may, whenever desired, integrate into a single instrument all of the provisions of its articles of organization which are then in effect and operative as a result of there having previously been filed with the secretary of state one or more certificates or other instruments pursuant to K.S.A. 17-7673 through 17-7683, and amendments thereto, and the business entity standard treatment act, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7901 et seq., and amendments thereto, and sections 2 and 3, and amendments thereto, and it may at the same time also further amend its articles of organization by adopting restated articles of organization.

(b)(2) If restated articles of organization merely restate and integrate but do not further amend the initial articles of organization, as previously amended or supplemented by any certificate or instrument that was executed and filed pursuant to K.S.A. 17-7673 through 17-7683, and amendments thereto, and the business entity standard treatment act, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7901 et seq., and amendments thereto, they shall be specifically designated in their heading as "restated articles of organization" together with such other words as the limited liability company may deem appropriate and shall be executed by an authorized person and filed with the secretary of state as provided in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7910, and amendments thereto. If restated articles of organization restate and integrate and also further amend in any respect the articles of organization, as previously amended or supplemented, they shall be specifically designated in their heading as "amended and restated articles of organization" together with such other words as the limited liability company may deem appropriate and shall be executed by at least one authorized person and filed as provided in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7910, and amendments thereto.

(c)(3) Restated articles of organization shall state, either in their heading or in an introductory paragraph, the limited liability company's present name; if it has been changed, the name under which it was originally filed; the date of filing of its original articles of organization with the secretary of state; and the future effective date, which shall be a date certain, of the restated articles of organization if they are not to be effective upon the filing of the restated articles of organization with the secretary of state, such future effective date must be within 90 days of the date of filing such restated articles of organization with the secretary of state. Restated articles of organization shall also state that they were duly executed and are being filed in accordance with this section. If restated articles of organization only restate and integrate and do not further amend a limited liability company's articles of organization as previously amended or supplemented and there is no discrepancy between those provisions and the restated articles of organization, they shall state that fact as well.

(d)(4) Upon the filing of restated articles of organization with the secretary of state, or upon the future effective date of restated articles of organization as provided for therein, the initial articles of organization, as previously amended or supplemented, shall be superseded. Thereafter the restated articles of organization, including any further amendment or changes made thereby, shall be the articles of organization of the limited liability company, but the original effective date of formation shall remain unchanged.

(e)(5) Any amendment or change effected in connection with the restatement and integration of the articles of organization shall be subject to any other provision of this act, not inconsistent with this section, which would apply if a separate certificate of amendment were filed to effect such amendment or change.

(b) Restated certificate of designation.

(1) A series of a limited liability company may, whenever desired, integrate into a single instrument all of the provisions of its certificate of designation that are then in effect and operative as a result of there having previously been filed with the secretary of state one or more certificates or other instruments pursuant to K.S.A. 17-7673 through 17-7683, and amendments thereto, the business entity standard treatment act, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7901 et seq., and amendments thereto, and sections 2 and 3, and amendments thereto, and it may at the same time further amend its certificate of designation by adopting a restated certificate of designation.

(2) If a restated certificate of designation merely restates and integrates but does not further amend the initial certificate of designation, as previously amended or supplemented by any instrument that was executed and filed pursuant to K.S.A. 17-7673 through 17-7683, and amendments thereto, the business entity standard treatment act, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7901 et seq., and amendments thereto, and sections 2 and 3, and amendments thereto, it shall be specifically designated in its heading as a "restated certificate of designation" together with such other words as the series may deem appropriate and shall be executed by an authorized person and filed as provided in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7910, and amendments thereto. If a restated certificate restates and integrates and also further amends in any respect the certificate of designation as previously amended or supplemented, it shall be specifically designated in its heading as an "amended and restated certificate of designation" together with such other words as the series may deem appropriate and shall be executed by at least one authorized person and filed as provided in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7910, and amendments thereto.

(3) A restated certificate of designation shall state, either in its heading or in an introductory paragraph, the name of the limited liability company, the present name of the series, and, if the name of the series has been changed, the name under which it was originally filed, and the future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of the restated certificate of designation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the restated certificate of designation. A restated certificate shall also state that it was duly executed and is being filed in accordance with this section. If a restated certificate only restates and integrates and does not further amend a certificate of designation, as previously amended or supplemented and there is no discrepancy between those provisions and the restated certificate, it shall state that fact as well.

(4) Upon the filing of a restated certificate of designation with the secretary of state, or upon the future effective date or time of a restated certificate of designation as provided for therein, the initial certificate of designation, as theretofore amended or supplemented, shall be superseded. Thereafter, the restated certificate of designation, including any further amendment or changes made thereby, shall be the certificate of designation of such series, but the original effective date of formation of the series, as applicable, shall remain unchanged.

(5) Any amendment or change effected in connection with the restatement and integration of a certificate of designation shall be subject to any other provision of the Kansas revised limited liability company act, not inconsistent with this section, which would apply if a separate certificate of amendment were filed to effect such amendment or change.

Sec. 22. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7681 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-7681. (a) Pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, one or more domestic limited liability companies may merge or consolidate with or into one or more limited liability companies formed under the laws of the state of Kansas or any other state or any foreign country or other foreign jurisdiction, or any combination thereof, with such limited liability company as the agreement shall provide being the surviving or resulting limited liability company.

(1) (A) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, an agreement of merger or consolidation shall be consented to or approved by each domestic limited liability company which is to merge or consolidate by members who own more than 50% of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic limited liability company owned by all of the members;

(B) unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a limited liability company whose original articles of organization were filed with the secretary of state and effective on or prior to June 30, 2019, shall not be governed by subsection (a)(1)(A), but shall be governed by this subparagraph. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, an agreement of merger or consolidation shall be consented to or approved by each domestic limited liability company which is to merge or consolidate by the members, or if there is more than one class or group of members, then by each class or group of members, in either case, by members who own more than 50% of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic limited liability company owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate.

(2) In connection with a merger or consolidation hereunder, rights or securities of, or interests in, a domestic limited liability company which is a constituent party to the merger or consolidation may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, the surviving or resulting limited liability company or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, a limited liability company which is not the surviving or resulting limited liability company in the merger or consolidation, may remain outstanding, or may be canceled.

(3) Notwithstanding prior consent or approval, an agreement of merger or consolidation may be terminated or amended pursuant to a provision for such termination or amendment contained in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

(b) The limited liability company surviving or resulting in or from the merger or consolidation shall file a certificate of merger or consolidation executed by one or more authorized persons on behalf of the domestic limited liability company when it is the surviving or resulting entity with the secretary of state. The certificate of merger or consolidation shall state:

(1) The name and jurisdiction of formation or organization of each of the limited liability companies which is to merge or consolidate;

(2) that an agreement of merger or consolidation has been consented to or approved and executed by each of the limited liability companies which is to merge or consolidate;

(3) the name of the surviving or resulting limited liability company;

(4) in the case of a merger in which a domestic limited liability company is the surviving entity, such amendments, if any, to the articles of organization of the surviving domestic limited liability company to change its name, registered office or resident agent as are desired to be effected by the merger;

(5) the future effective date or time, which shall be a date certain, of the merger or consolidation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger or consolidation, which date shall, in no event, exceed 90 days after the date the certificate is filed with the secretary of state;

(6) that the agreement of merger or consolidation is on file at a place of business of the surviving or resulting limited liability company, and shall state the address thereof;

(7) that a copy of the agreement of merger or consolidation will be furnished by the surviving or resulting limited liability company, on request and without cost, to any member of any limited liability company which is to merge or consolidate; and

(8) if the surviving or resulting limited liability company is not a domestic limited liability company, a statement that such surviving or resulting limited liability company agrees that it may be served with process in the state of Kansas in any action, suit or proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic limited liability company which is to merge or consolidate, irrevocably appointing the secretary of state as its agent to accept service of process in any such action, suit or proceeding and specifying the address to which a copy of such process shall be mailed to it by the secretary of state.

c) A certificate of merger or consolidation shall act as a certificate of cancellation for a domestic limited liability company which is not the surviving or resulting limited liability company in the merger or consolidation. A certificate of merger that sets forth any amendment in accordance with subsection (b)(4) shall be deemed to be an amendment to the articles of organization of the limited liability company, and the limited liability company shall not be required to take any further action to amend its articles of organization under K.S.A. 17-7674, and amendments thereto, with respect to such amendments set forth in the certificate of merger. Whenever this section requires the filing of a certificate of merger or consolidation, such requirement shall be deemed satisfied by the filing of an agreement of merger or consolidation containing the information required by this section to be set forth in the certificate of merger or consolidation.

d) An agreement of merger or consolidation consented to or approved in accordance with subsection (a) of this section may:

(1) Effect any amendment to the operating agreement; or

(2) effect the adoption of a new operating agreement, for a limited liability company if it is the surviving or resulting limited liability company in the merger or consolidation.

Any amendment to an operating agreement or adoption of a new operating agreement made pursuant to the foregoing sentence shall be effective at the effective time or date of the merger or consolidation and shall be effective notwithstanding any provision of the operating agreement relating to amendment or adoption of a new operating agreement, other than a provision that by its terms applies to an amendment to the operating agreement or the adoption of a new operating agreement, in either case, in connection with a merger or consolidation. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a merger or of any of the matters referred to herein by any other means provided for in an operating agreement or other agreement or as otherwise permitted by law, including that the operating agreement of any constituent limited liability company to the merger or consolidation, including a limited liability company formed for the purpose of consummating a merger or consolidation, shall be the operating agreement of the surviving or resulting limited liability company.

(e) When any merger or consolidation shall have become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Kansas, all of the rights, privileges and powers of each of the limited liability companies that have merged or consolidated, and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due to any of the limited liability companies, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to each of such limited liability companies, shall be vested in the surviving or resulting limited liability company, and shall thereafter be the property of the surviving or resulting limited liability company as they were of each of the limited liability companies that have merged or consolidated, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise, under the laws of the state of Kansas, in any of such limited liability companies, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this act, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of any of the limited liability companies shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of each of the limited liability companies that have merged or consolidated shall thenceforth attach to the surviving or resulting limited liability company, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it. Unless otherwise agreed, a merger or consolidation of a domestic limited liability company, including a domestic limited liability company which is not the surviving or resulting entity in the merger or consolidation, shall not require such domestic limited liability company to wind up its affairs under K.S.A. 17-76,118, and amendments thereto, or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets under K.S.A. 17-76,119, and amendments thereto, and the merger or consolidation shall not constitute a dissolution of such limited liability company.

(f) A limited liability company may merge or consolidate with or into any other entity in accordance with the business entity transactions act, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-78-101 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(g) An operating agreement may provide that a domestic limited liability company shall not have the power to merge or consolidate as set forth in this section.

Sec. 23. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7687 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-7687. (a) An operating agreement may provide for classes or groups of members having such relative rights, powers and duties as the operating agreement may provide, and may make provision for the future creation in the manner provided in the operating agreement of additional classes or groups of members having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups of members. An operating agreement may provide for the taking of an action, including the amendment of the operating agreement, without the vote, consent or approval of any member or class or group of members, including an action to create under the provisions of the operating agreement a class or group of limited liability company interests that was not previously outstanding. An operating agreement may provide that any member or class or group of members shall have no voting rights.

(b) An operating agreement may grant to all or certain identified members or a specified class or group of the members the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of the members or managers, on any matter. Voting by members may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group or any other basis.

(c) An operating agreement may set forth provisions relating to notice of the time, place or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any members, waiver of any such notice, action by consent or approval without a meeting, the establishment of a record date, quorum requirements, voting in person or by proxy, or any other matter with respect to the exercise of any such right to vote.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, meetings of members may be held by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this subsection shall constitute presence in person at the meeting. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, on any matter that is to be voted on, consented to or approved by members, the members may take such action without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if consented to or approved, in writing or, by electronic transmission, or by any other means permitted by law, by members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, if a person, whether or not then a member, consents to or approves as a member any matter and provides that such consent or approval will be effective at a future time, including a time determined upon the happening of an event, then such person shall be deemed to have consented or approved as a member at such future time so long as such person is then a member. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, on any matter that is to be voted on by members, the members may vote in person or by proxy, and such proxy may be granted in writing, by means of electronic transmission or as otherwise permitted by applicable law. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a consent or approval transmitted by electronic transmission by a member or by a person or persons authorized to act for a member shall be deemed to be written and signed for purposes of this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, the term "electronic transmission" means any form of communication not directly involving the physical transmission of paper, including the use of, or participation in, one or more electronic networks or databases, including one or more distributed electronic networks or databases, that creates a record that may be retained, retrieved and reviewed by a recipient thereof and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by such a recipient through an automated process.

(e) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement or in this Kansas revised limited liability company act, every member holding an interest in profits shall be entitled to vote.

(f) If an operating agreement provides for the manner in which it may be amended, including by requiring the approval or consent of a person who is not a party to the operating agreement or the satisfaction of conditions, it may be amended only in that manner or as otherwise permitted by law, including as permitted by subsection (c) of K.S.A. 17-7681(e), and amendments thereto, provided that the approval or consent of any person may be waived by such person and that any such conditions may be waived by all persons for whose benefit such conditions were intended. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a supermajority amendment provision shall only apply to provisions of the operating agreement that are expressly included in the operating agreement. As used in this section, "supermajority amendment provision" means any amendment provision set forth in an operating agreement requiring that an amendment to a provision of the operating agreement be adopted by no less than the vote or consent or approval required to take action under such latter provision.

(g) If an operating agreement does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended, the operating agreement may be amended with the approval or consent of all of the members or as otherwise permitted by law, including as permitted by subsection (e) of K.S.A. 17-7681(e), and amendments thereto. This subsection shall only apply to a limited liability company whose original articles of organization were filed with the secretary of state on or after July 1, 2014.

Sec. 24. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7689 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-7689. A person ceases to be a member of a limited liability company upon the happening of any of the following events:

(a) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, or with the written consent or approval of all members, a member:
   (1) Makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors;
   (2) files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy;
   (3) is adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent, or has entered against the member an order for relief, in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding;
   (4) files a petition or answer seeking for the member any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any statute, law or regulation;
   (5) files an answer or other pleading admitting or failing to contest the material allegations of a petition filed against the member in any proceeding of this nature;
   (6) seeks, consents to or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee, receiver or liquidator of the member or of all or any substantial part of the member's properties; or
   (b) unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, or with the written consent or approval of all members, 120 days after the commencement of any proceeding against the member seeking reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any statute, law or regulation, if the proceeding has not been dismissed, or if within 90 days after the appointment without the member's consent or acquiescence of a trustee, receiver or liquidator of the member or of all or any substantial part of the member's properties, the appointment is not vacated or stayed, or within 90 days after the expiration of any such stay, the appointment is not vacated.

Sec. 25. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7690 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-7690. (a) Each member of a limited liability company, in person or by attorney or other agent, has the right, subject to such reasonable standards, including standards governing what information and documents are to be furnished at what time and location and at whose expense, as may be set forth in an operating agreement or otherwise established by the manager or, if there is no manager, then by the members, to obtain from the limited liability company upon reasonable demand for any purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member of the limited liability company:
   (1) True and full information regarding the status of the business and financial condition of the limited liability company;
   (2) promptly after becoming available, a copy of the limited liability company's federal, state and local income tax returns for each year;
(3) a current list of the name and last known business, residence or mailing address of each member and manager;

(4) a copy of any written operating agreement and articles of organization and all amendments thereto, together with executed copies of any written powers of attorney pursuant to which the operating agreement and any certificate and all amendments thereto have been executed;

(5) true and full information regarding the amount of cash and a description and statement of the agreed value of any other property or services contributed by each member and which each member has agreed to contribute in the future, and the date on which each became a member; and

(6) other information regarding the affairs of the limited liability company as is just and reasonable.

(b) Each manager shall have the right to examine all of the information described in subsection (a) for a purpose reasonably related to the position of manager.

(c) The manager of a limited liability company shall have the right to keep confidential from the members, for such period of time as the manager deems reasonable, any information which the manager reasonably believes to be in the nature of trade secrets or other information the disclosure of which the manager in good faith believes is not in the best interest of the limited liability company or could damage the limited liability company or its business or which the limited liability company is required by law or by agreement with a third party to keep confidential.

(d) A limited liability company may maintain its records in other than a written form, including on, by means of, or in the form of any information storage device, method, or one or more electronic networks or databases, including one or more distributed electronic networks or databases, if such form is capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

(e) Any demand by a member under this section shall be in writing and shall state the purpose of such demand. In every instance where an attorney or other agent is the person who seeks the right to obtain the information described in subsection (a), the demand shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or such other writing that authorizes the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the member.

(f) Any action to enforce any right arising under this section shall be brought in the district court. If the limited liability company refuses to permit a member, or attorney or other agent acting for the member, to obtain or a manager to examine the information described in subsection (a) or does not reply to the demand that has been made within five business days, or such shorter or longer period of time as is provided for in an operating agreement, but not longer than 30 business days, after the demand has been made, the demanding member or manager may apply to the district court for an order to compel such disclosure. The district court may summarily order the limited liability company to permit the demanding member to obtain or manager to examine the information described in subsection (a) and to make copies or abstracts therefrom, or the district court may summarily order the limited liability company to furnish to the demanding member or manager the information described in subsection (a) on the condition that the demanding member or manager first pay to the limited liability company the reasonable cost of obtaining and furnishing such information and on such other conditions as the district court deems appropriate. When a demanding member seeks to obtain or a manager seeks to examine the information described in subsection
(a), the demanding member or manager shall first establish: (1) That the demanding member or manager has complied with the provisions of this section respecting the form and manner of making demand for obtaining or examining of such information, and (2) that the information the demanding member or manager seeks is reasonably related to the member's interest as a member or the manager's position as a manager, as the case may be. The district court may, in its discretion, prescribe any limitations or conditions with reference to the obtaining or examining of information, or award such other or further relief as the district court may deem just and proper. The district court may order books, documents and records, pertinent extracts therefrom, or duly authenticated copies thereof, to be brought within the state of Kansas and kept in the state of Kansas upon such terms and conditions as the order may prescribe.

(g) The rights of a member or manager to obtain information as provided in this section may be restricted in an original operating agreement or in any subsequent amendment consented to, approved or adopted by all of the members or in compliance with any applicable requirements of the operating agreement. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to limit the ability to impose restrictions on the rights of a member or manager to obtain information by any other means permitted under this the Kansas revised limited liability company act.

(h) A limited liability company shall maintain a current record that identifies the name and last known business, residence, or mailing address of each member and manager.

Sec. 26. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7695 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-7695. (a) An operating agreement may provide for classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties as the operating agreement may provide, and may make provision for the future creation in the manner provided in the operating agreement of additional classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups of managers. An operating agreement may provide for the taking of an action, including the amendment of the operating agreement, without the vote, consent or approval of any manager or class or group of managers, including an action to create under the provisions of the operating agreement a class or group of limited liability company interests that was not previously outstanding.

(b) An operating agreement may grant to all or certain identified managers or a specified class or group of the managers the right to vote, separately or with all or any class or group of managers or members, on any matter. Voting by managers may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group or any other basis. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, if more than one manager is appointed, all managers shall have an equal vote per capita.

(c) An operating agreement may set forth provisions relating to notice of the time, place or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any manager or class or group of managers, waiver of any such notice, action by consent or approval without a meeting, the establishment of a record date, quorum requirements, voting in person or by proxy, or any other matter with respect to the exercise of any such right to vote.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, meetings of managers may be held by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this subsection shall constitute presence in person at the meeting. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, on any matter that is to be voted on, consented to or approved by the managers, the managers may take such action without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if consented to or approved, in writing—by electronic transmission, or by any other means permitted by law, by managers having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all managers entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, if a person, whether or not then a manager, consents to or approves as a manager any matter and provides that such consent or approval will be effective at a future time, including a time determined upon the happening of an event, then such person shall be deemed to have consented or approved as a manager at such future time, so long as such person is then a manager. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, on any matter that is to be voted on by managers, the managers may vote in person or by proxy, and such proxy may be granted in writing, by means of electronic transmission or as otherwise permitted by applicable law. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a consent or approval transmitted by electronic transmission by a manager or by a person or persons authorized to act for a manager shall be deemed to be written and signed for purposes of this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, the term "electronic transmission" means any form of communication not directly involving the physical transmission of paper, including the use of, or participation in, one or more electronic networks or databases, including one or more distributed electronic networks or databases, that creates a record that may be retained, retrieved and reviewed by a recipient thereof and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by such a recipient through an automated process.

Sec. 27. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7698 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-7698. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a member or manager of a limited liability company has the power and authority to delegate to one or more other persons any or all of the member's or manager's, as the case may be, rights and powers and duties to manage and control the business and affairs of the limited liability company, including to delegate. Any such delegation may be to agents, officers and employees of a member or manager or the limited liability company, and to delegate by a management agreement or another agreement with, or otherwise to, other persons. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, such delegation by a member or manager shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, such delegation by a member or manager shall not cause the member or manager to cease to be a member or manager, as the case may be, of the limited liability company or cause the person to whom any such rights and powers and duties have been delegated to be a member or manager, as the case may be, of the limited liability company. No other provision of the Kansas revised limited liability company act shall be construed to restrict a member's or manager's power and authority to delegate any or all of its rights, powers, and duties to manage and control the business and affairs of the limited liability company.

Sec. 28. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,106 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,106. (a) A member may resign from a limited liability company only at the time or upon the happening of events specified in an operating agreement and in accordance with the operating agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under applicable law, unless an operating agreement provides otherwise, a member may not resign from a limited liability company prior to the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a limited liability company whose original articles of organization were filed with the secretary of state and effective on or prior to June 30, 2014, shall continue to be governed by this section as in effect on June 30, 2014, and shall not be governed by this section. A member may resign from a limited liability company only at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the operating agreement and in accordance with the operating agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under applicable law, unless the operating agreement provides otherwise, a member may resign from a limited liability company prior to the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company. Upon resignation, the member shall be deemed to be an assignee and shall have only the rights of an assignee. The resigned member is not released from the member's liability, if any, to a limited liability company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under applicable law, the operating agreement may provide that a limited liability company interest may not be assigned prior to the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company.

Sec. 29. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,112 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,112. (a) A limited liability company interest is assignable in whole or in part except as provided in an operating agreement. The assignee of a member's limited liability company interest shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of a limited liability company, except as provided in an operating agreement or, unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, upon the affirmative vote or written consent or approval of all of the members of the limited liability company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under applicable law, an operating agreement may provide that a limited liability company interest may not be assigned prior to the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement:

(1) An assignment of a limited liability company interest does not entitle the assignee to become or to exercise any rights or powers of a member;

(2) an assignment of a limited liability company interest entitles the assignee to share in such profits and losses, to receive such distribution or distributions, and to receive such allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit or similar item to which the assignor was entitled, to the extent assigned; and

(3) a member ceases to be a member and to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member upon assignment of all of the member's limited liability company interest. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, the pledge of, or granting of a security interest, lien or other encumbrance in or against, any or all of the limited liability company interest of a member shall not cause the member to cease to be a member or to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member.

(c) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a member's interest in a limited liability company may be evidenced by a certificate of limited liability company interest issued by the limited liability company. An operating agreement may provide for the assignment or transfer of any limited liability company interest represented by such a certificate and make other provisions with respect to such certificates. A limited liability company shall not have the power to issue a certificate of limited liability company interest in bearer form.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement and except to the extent assumed by agreement, until an assignee of a limited liability company interest becomes a member, the assignee shall have no liability as a member solely as a result of the assignment.

(e) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a limited liability company may acquire, by purchase, redemption or otherwise, any limited liability company interest or other interest of a member or manager in the limited liability company. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, any such interest so acquired by the limited liability company shall be deemed canceled.

Sec. 30. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,113 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,113.

(a) On application by a judgment creditor of a member or of a member's assignee, a court having jurisdiction may charge the limited liability company interest of the judgment debtor to satisfy the judgment. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the right to receive any distribution or distributions to which the judgment debtor would otherwise have been entitled in respect of such limited liability company interest.

(b) A charging order constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's limited liability company interest.

(c) This The Kansas revised limited liability company act does not deprive a member or member's assignee of a right under exemption laws with respect to the judgment debtor's limited liability company interest.

(d) The entry of a charging order is the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a member or of a member's assignee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's limited liability company interest, and attachment, garnishment, foreclosure, or other legal or equitable remedies are not available to the judgment creditor, whether the limited liability company has one member or more than one member.

(e) No creditor of a member or of a member's assignee shall have any right to obtain possession of, or otherwise exercise legal or equitable remedies with respect to, the property of the limited liability company.

(f) The district court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any matter relating to any such charging order.

Sec. 31. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,114 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,114.

(a) An assignee of a limited liability company interest may become a member:

(1) As provided in the operating agreement; or

(2) unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, upon the affirmative vote or written consent or approval of all of the members of the limited liability company; or

(3) unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement by a specific reference to this subsection (a) or otherwise provided in connection with the assignment, upon the voluntary assignment by the sole member of the limited liability company of all of the limited liability company interests in the limited liability company to a single assignee. An assignment will be voluntary for purposes of this subsection (a) if it is consented to or approved by the member at the time of the assignment and is not effected by foreclosure or other similar legal process.

(b) An assignee who has become a member has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under an operating agreement and this the Kansas revised limited liability company act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, an assignee who becomes a member is liable for the obligations of the assignor to make contributions as provided in K.S.A. 17-76,100, and amendments thereto, but shall not be liable for the obligations of the assignor under K.S.A. 17-76,104 through 17-76,110, and amendments thereto. However, the assignee is not obligated for liabilities, including the obligations of the assignor to make contributions as provided in K.S.A. 17-76,100, and amendments thereto, unknown to the assignee at the time the assignee became a member and which could not be ascertained from an operating agreement.

c) Whether or not an assignee of a limited liability company interest becomes a member, the assignor is not released from liability to a limited liability company under K.S.A. 17-7699 through 17-76,110, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 32. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,116 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,116.

(a) A limited liability company is dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up upon the first to occur of the following:

1. At the time specified in an operating agreement, but if no such time is set forth in the operating agreement, then the limited liability company shall have a perpetual existence;

2. upon the happening of events specified in an operating agreement;

3. (A) unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, upon the affirmative vote, consent or written approval of members who own ⅔ or more of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of the limited liability company owned by all of the members; or

(B) unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a limited liability company whose original articles of organization were filed with the secretary of state and effective on or prior to June 30, 2019, shall not be governed by subparagraph (A) but shall be governed by this subparagraph. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, upon the vote or consent of the members of the limited liability company or, if there is more than one class or group of members, then by each class or group of members, in either case, by members who own more than ⅔ of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of the limited liability company owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate;

4. at any time there are no members, provided that, the limited liability company is not dissolved and is not required to be wound up if:

(A) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, within 90 days or such other period as is provided for in the operating agreement after the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of the last remaining member, the personal representative of the last remaining member agrees in writing to continue the limited liability company and to the admission of the personal representative of such member or its nominee or designee to the limited liability company as a member, effective as of the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of the last remaining member, except that an operating agreement may provide that the personal representative of the last remaining member shall be obligated to agree.
writing to continue the limited liability company and to the admission of the personal representative of such member or its nominee or designee to the limited liability company as a member, effective as of the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of the last remaining member; or

(B) a member is admitted to the limited liability company in the manner provided for in the operating agreement, effective as of the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of the last remaining member, within 90 days or such other period as is provided for in the operating agreement after the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of the last remaining member, pursuant to a provision of the operating agreement that specifically provides for the admission of a member to the limited liability company after there is no longer a remaining member of the limited liability company; or

(5) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under K.S.A. 17-76,117, and amendments thereto.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of any member shall not cause the limited liability company to be dissolved or its affairs to be wound up, and upon the occurrence of any such event, the limited liability company shall be continued without dissolution.

Sec. 33. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,118 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,118.

(a) (1) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a manager who has not wrongfully dissolved a limited liability company or, if none, the members or a person consented to or approved by the members, in either case, by members who own more than 50% of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of the limited liability company owned by all of the members, may wind up the limited liability company's affairs, but the district court upon cause shown, may wind up the limited liability company's affairs upon application of any member or manager, or the member's personal representative or assignee, and in connection therewith, may appoint a liquidating trustee.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a limited liability company whose original articles of organization were filed with the secretary of state and effective on or prior to June 30, 2019, shall not be governed by paragraph (1) but shall be governed by this paragraph. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a manager who has not wrongfully dissolved a limited liability company or, if none, the members or a person consented to or approved by the members or, if there is more than one class or group of members, then by each class or group of members, in either case, by members who own more than 50% of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of the limited liability company owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate, may wind up the limited liability company's affairs; but the district court upon cause shown, may wind up the limited liability company's affairs upon application of any member or manager, or the member's personal representative or assignee, and in connection therewith, may appoint a liquidating trustee.

(b) Upon dissolution of a limited liability company and until the filing of a certificate of cancellation as provided in K.S.A. 17-7675, and amendments thereto, the persons winding up the limited liability company's affairs may, in the name of, and for and on behalf of, the limited liability company, prosecute and defend suits, whether civil, criminal or administrative, gradually settle and close the limited liability company's business, dispose of and convey the limited liability company's property, discharge or make reasonable provision for the limited liability company's liabilities, and distribute to the members any remaining assets of the limited liability company, all without affecting the liability of members and managers and without imposing liability on a liquidating trustee.

or foreign limited liability company shall be classified in the same manner as it is classified for federal income tax purposes. For purposes of any tax imposed by the state of Kansas or any instrumentality, agency or political subdivision of the state of Kansas, a member or an assignee of a member of a domestic limited liability company formed under this act or a foreign limited liability company qualified to do business in the state of Kansas as a foreign limited liability company shall be treated as either a resident or nonresident partner unless classified otherwise for federal income tax purposes, in which case the member or assignee of a member shall have the same status as such member or assignee of a member has for federal income tax purposes.

Sec. 38. On and after July 1, 2020, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,139 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,139. (a) Every limited liability company organized and on and after July 1, 2020, each series thereof formed or in existence under the laws of this state shall make an annual report in writing to the secretary of state, stating the prescribed information concerning the limited liability company or series, as applicable, at the close of business on the last day of its tax period next preceding the date of filing. If the limited liability company's tax period is other than the calendar year, it shall give notice of its different tax period in writing to the secretary of state prior to December 31 of the year it commences the different tax period. The annual report shall be filed at the time prescribed by law for filing the limited liability company's annual Kansas income tax return, or if applicable law does not prescribe a time for filing an annual Kansas income tax return for a series, the annual report for the series shall be filed at, and for purposes of this section its tax period shall be deemed to be, the time prescribed by law for filing the annual Kansas income tax return for the limited liability company to which the series is associated. The annual report shall be made on a form prescribed by the secretary of state. The report shall contain the following information:

1. The name of the limited liability company or series, as applicable; and
2. A list of the members owning at least 5% of the capital of the limited liability company or series, as applicable, with the post office address of each.

(b) Every foreign limited liability company shall make an annual report in writing to the secretary of state, stating the prescribed information concerning the limited liability company at the close of business on the last day of its tax period next preceding the date of filing. If the limited liability company's tax period is other than the calendar year, it shall give notice in writing of its different tax period to the secretary of state prior to December 31 of the year it commences the different tax period. The annual report shall be filed at the time prescribed by law for filing the limited liability company's annual Kansas income tax return. The annual report shall be made on a form prescribed by the secretary of state. The report shall contain the name of the limited liability company.

(c) The annual report required by this section shall be executed by one or more authorized persons, and filed with the secretary of state. The execution of such annual report by a person who is authorized by this the Kansas revised limited liability company act to execute such annual report, upon filing such annual report with the secretary of state, constitutes an oath or affirmation, under penalties of perjury that, to the best of such person's knowledge and belief, the facts stated therein are true. At the time of filing the report, the limited liability company or series shall pay to the secretary of state an annual report fee in an amount equal to $40.
(d) The provisions of K.S.A. 17-7509, and amendments thereto, relating to penalties for failure of a corporation to file an annual report or pay the required annual report fee, and the provisions of K.S.A. 17-7510(a), and amendments thereto, relating to penalties for failure of a corporation to file an annual report or pay the required annual report fee, shall be applicable to the articles of organization of any domestic limited liability company, the certificate of designation of any series thereof, or to the authority of any foreign limited liability company which fails to file its annual report or pay the annual report fee within 90 days of the time prescribed in this section for filing and paying the same or, in the case of an annual report filing and fee received by mail, postmarked within 90 days of the time for filing and paying the same. Whenever the articles of organization of a domestic limited liability company, the certificate of designation of a series thereof, or the authority of any foreign limited liability company are forfeited or canceled for failure to file an annual report or to pay the required annual report fee, the domestic limited liability company or the authority of a foreign limited liability company may be reinstated by filing a certificate of reinstatement, pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,146, and amendments thereto, and the certificate of designation may be reinstated by filing a certificate of reinstatement, pursuant to section 4, and amendments thereto, and in each case, paying to the secretary of state all fees, including any penalties thereon, due to the state.

(e) No limited liability company or series shall be required to file its first annual report under this the Kansas revised limited liability company act, or pay any annual report fee required to accompany such report, unless such limited liability company has filed its articles of organization or application for authority or the certificate of designation of such series has been filed at least six months prior to the last day of its tax period.

(f) All copies of applications for extension of the time for filing income tax returns submitted to the secretary of state pursuant to law shall be maintained by the secretary of state in a confidential file and shall not be disclosed to any person except as authorized pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-3234, and amendments thereto, a proper judicial order, or subsection (g). All copies of such applications shall be preserved for one year and thereafter until the secretary of state orders that they be destroyed.

(g) A copy of such application shall be open to inspection by or disclosure to any person who was a member of such limited liability company or series during any part of the period covered by the extension.

Sec. 39. On and after July 1, 2020, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,143 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,143. (a) An operating agreement may establish or provide for the establishment of one or more designated series of members, managers or limited liability company interests having or assets. If an operating agreement so provides for the establishment or formation of one or more series, then a series may be formed by complying with this section. Any such series may have separate rights, powers or duties with respect to specified property or obligations of the limited liability company or profits and losses associated with specified property or obligations, and to the extent provided in the operating agreement, any such series may have a separate business purpose or investment objective. A series is formed by the filing of a certificate of designation in the office of the secretary of state. Other than pursuant to section 3, and amendments thereto, a series may not merge, convert, or consolidate pursuant to any section of the Kansas revised limited liability company act, the business entity transactions act, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-78-101 et seq., and amendments thereto, or any other statute of this state.

(b) Notice of the limitation on liabilities of a series as referenced in subsection (c) shall be set forth in the articles of organization of the limited liability company. Notice in articles of organization of the limitation on liabilities of a series as referenced in subsection (c) shall be sufficient for all purposes of this subsection whether or not the limited liability company has formed any series when such notice is included in the articles of organization, and there shall be no requirement that any specific series of the limited liability company be referenced in such notice. The fact that articles of organization that contain the foregoing notice of the limitation on liabilities of a series is on file in the office of the secretary of state shall constitute notice of such limitation on liabilities of a series.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this section the Kansas revised limited liability company act or under other applicable law, in the event that an operating agreement establishes or provides for the establishment of one or more series, and if to the extent the records maintained for any series account for the assets associated with such series separately from the other assets of the limited liability company, or any other series thereof, and if the operating agreement so provides, and if notice of the limitation on liabilities of a series as referenced in this subsection is set forth in the articles of organization of the limited liability company and if the limited liability company has filed a certificate of designation for each series which is to have limited liability under this section, then the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to a particular such series shall be enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the limited liability company generally or any other series thereof, and, unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, none of the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to the limited liability company generally or any other series thereof shall be enforceable against the assets of such series. The fact that the articles of organization contain the foregoing notice of the limitation on liabilities of a series and a certificate of designation for a series is on file in the office of the secretary of state shall constitute notice of such limitation on liabilities of a series. A series with limited liability shall be treated as a separate entity to the extent set forth in the articles of organization. Each series with limited liability may, in its own name, contract, hold title to assets, grant security interests, sue and be sued and otherwise conduct business and exercise the powers of a limited liability company under this act. The limited liability company and any of its series may elect to consolidate their operations as a single taxpayer to the extent permitted under applicable law, elect to work cooperatively, elect to contract jointly or elect to be treated as a single business for purposes of qualification to do business in this or any other state. Such elections shall not affect the limitation of liability set forth in this section except to the extent that the series have specifically accepted joint liability by contract.

(e) Except in the case of a foreign limited liability company that has adopted an assumed name pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7933, and amendments thereto, the name of the series with limited liability must contain the entire name of the limited liability company and be distinguishable from the names of the other series set forth in the articles of organization. In the case of a foreign limited liability company that has adopted an assumed name pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7933, and amendments thereto, the name of the series with limited liability must contain the entire name under which the foreign limited liability company has been admitted to transact business in this state.

(d) Upon the filing of the certificate of designation with the secretary of state setting forth the name of each series with limited liability, the series' existence shall begin, and copies of the filed certificate of designation marked with the filing date shall be conclusive evidence, except as against the state, that all conditions precedent required to be performed have been complied with and that the series has been or shall be legally organized and formed under this act. If different from the limited liability company, the certificate of designation for each series shall list the names of the members if the series is member managed or the names of the managers if the series is manager managed. The name of a series with limited liability under subsection (b) may be changed by filing with the secretary of state a certificate of designation identifying the series whose name is being changed and the new name of such series. If not the same as the limited liability company, the names of the members of a member managed series or of the managers of a manager managed series may be changed by filing a new certificate of designation with the secretary of state. A series with limited liability under subsection (b) may be dissolved by filing with the secretary of state a certificate of designation identifying the series being dissolved or by the dissolution of the limited liability company as provided in subsection (m). Certificates of designation may be executed by the limited liability company or any manager, person or entity designated in the operating agreement for the limited liability company.

(e) A series of a limited liability company will be deemed to be in good standing as long as the limited liability company is in good standing.

(f) The resident agent and registered office for the limited liability company in Kansas shall serve as the agent and office for service of process in Kansas for each series.

(g) An operating agreement may provide for classes or groups of members or managers associated with a series having such relative rights, powers and duties as the operating agreement may provide, and may make provision for the future creation of additional classes or groups of members or managers associated with the series having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups of members or managers associated with the series.

(h) A series may be managed by either the member or members associated with the series or by a manager or managers chosen by the members of such series, as provided in the operating agreement. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, the management of a series shall be vested in the members associated with such series.

(i) An operating agreement may grant to all or certain identified members or managers or a specified class or group of the members or managers associated with a series the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of the members or managers associated with the series, on any matter. An operating agreement may provide that any member or class or group of members associated with a series shall have no voting rights.

(j) Except to the extent modified in this section, the provisions of this act which are generally applicable to limited liability companies, their managers, members and transferees shall be applicable to each particular series with respect to the operation of such series.

(k) Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, any event under this act or in an operating agreement that causes a manager to cease to be a manager with respect to a series shall not, in itself, cause such manager to cease to be a manager of the limited liability company or with respect to any other series thereof.

(l) Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, any event under this act or an operating agreement that causes a member to cease to be associated with a series shall not, in itself, cause such member to cease to be associated with any other series or terminate the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company or cause the termination of the series, regardless of whether such member was the last remaining member associated with such series.

(m) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a series may be dissolved and its affairs wound up without causing the dissolution of the limited liability company. The dissolution of a series established in accordance with subsection (b) shall not affect the limitation on liabilities of such series provided by subsection (b). A series is terminated and its affairs shall be wound up upon the dissolution of the limited liability company under article 76 of chapter 17 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto.

(n) If a limited liability company with the ability to establish a series does not register to do business in a foreign jurisdiction for itself and certain of its series, a series of a limited liability company may itself register to do business as a limited liability company in the foreign jurisdiction in accordance with the laws of the foreign jurisdiction. Neither the preceding sentences nor any provision pursuant thereto in an operating agreement, articles of organization or certificate of designation shall: Restrict a series or limited liability company on behalf of a series from agreeing in the operating agreement or otherwise that any or all of the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to the limited liability company generally or any other series thereof shall be enforceable against the assets of such series; or restrict a limited liability company from agreeing in the operating agreement or otherwise that any or all of the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to a series shall be enforceable against the assets of the limited liability company generally. Assets associated with a series may be held directly or indirectly, including in the name of such series, in the name of the limited liability company, through a nominee or otherwise. Records maintained for a series that reasonably identify its assets, including by specific listing, category, type, quantity, computational, or allocational formula or procedure, including a percentage or share of any asset or assets, or by any other method where the identity of such assets is objectively determinable, will be deemed to account for the assets associated with such series separately from the other assets of the limited liability company, or any other series thereof. As used in the Kansas revised limited liability company act, a reference to assets of a series includes assets associated with such series, a reference to assets associated with a series includes assets of such series, a reference to members or managers of a series includes members or managers associated with such series, and a reference to members or managers associated with a series includes members or managers of such series. The following shall apply to a series:
(1) A series may carry on any lawful business, purpose or activity, whether or not for profit, with the exception of the business of granting policies of insurance, assuming insurance risks, or banking as defined in K.S.A. 9-702, and amendments thereto. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a series shall have the power and capacity to, in its own name, contract, hold title to assets, including real, personal, and intangible property, grant liens and security interests, and sue and be sued.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by the Kansas revised limited liability company act, no member or manager of a series shall be obligated personally for any debt, obligation or liability of such series, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, solely by reason of being a member or acting as manager of such series. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, under an operating agreement or under another agreement, a member or manager may agree to be obligated personally for any or all of the debts, obligations and liabilities of one or more series.

(3) An operating agreement may provide for classes or groups of members or managers associated with a series having such relative rights, powers and duties as the operating agreement may provide, and may make provision for the future creation in the manner provided in the operating agreement of additional classes or groups of members or managers associated with such series having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups of members or managers associated with such series. An operating agreement may provide for the taking of an action, including the amendment of the operating agreement, without the vote, consent or approval of any member or manager or class or group of members or managers, including an action to create under the provisions of the operating agreement a class or group of a series of limited liability company interests that was not previously outstanding. An operating agreement may provide that any member or class or group of members associated with a series shall have no voting rights.

(4) An operating agreement may grant to all or certain identified members or managers or a specified class or group of the members or managers associated with a series the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of the members or managers associated with such series, on any matter. Voting by members or managers associated with a series may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group or any other basis.

(5) Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, the management of a series shall be vested in the members associated with such series in proportion to the then-current percentage or other interest of members in the profits of such series owned by all of the members associated with such series, the decision of members owning more than 50% of such percentage or other interest in the profits controlling, except that if an operating agreement provides for the management of a series, in whole or in part, by a manager, the management of such series, to the extent so provided, shall be vested in the manager who shall be chosen in the manner provided in the operating agreement. The manager of a series shall also hold the offices and have the responsibilities accorded to the manager as set forth in an operating agreement. A series may have more than one manager. Subject to K.S.A. 17-76,105, and amendments thereto, a manager shall cease to be a manager with respect to a series as provided in an operating agreement. Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, any event under the Kansas revised limited liability company act or in an operating agreement that causes a manager to cease to be a manager with respect to a series shall not, in itself, cause such manager to cease to be a manager of the limited liability company or with respect to any other series thereof.

(6) Notwithstanding K.S.A. 17-76,109, and amendments thereto, but subject to subsections (c)(7) and (c)(10), and unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, at the time a member of a series becomes entitled to receive a distribution with respect to such series, the member has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of such series, with respect to the distribution. An operating agreement may provide for the establishment of a record date with respect to allocations and distributions with respect to a series.

(7) Notwithstanding K.S.A. 17-76,110(a), and amendments thereto, a limited liability company may make a distribution with respect to a series. A limited liability company shall not make a distribution with respect to a series to a member to the extent that at the time of the distribution, after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of such series, other than liabilities to members on account of their limited liability company interests with respect to such series and liabilities for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specified property of such series, exceed the fair value of the assets associated with such series, except that the fair value of property of such series that is subject to a liability for which the recourse of creditors is limited shall be included in the assets associated with such series only to the extent that the fair value of that property exceeds that liability. For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, the term "distribution" shall not include amounts constituting reasonable compensation for present or past services or reasonable payments made in the ordinary course of business pursuant to a bona fide retirement plan or other benefits program. A member who receives a distribution in violation of this subsection, and who knew at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated this subsection, shall be liable to the series for the amount of the distribution. A member who receives a distribution in violation of this subsection, and who did not know at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated this subsection, shall not be liable for the amount of the distribution. Subject to K.S.A. 17-76,110(c), and amendments thereto, which shall apply to any distribution made with respect to a series under this subsection, this subsection shall not affect any obligation or liability of a member under an agreement or other applicable law for the amount of a distribution.

(8) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a member shall cease to be associated with a series and to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member with respect to such series upon the assignment of all of the member's limited liability company interest with respect to such series. Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, any event under the Kansas revised limited liability company act or an operating agreement that causes a member to cease to be associated with a series shall not, in itself, cause such member to cease to be associated with any other series or terminate the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company or cause the dissolution of the series, regardless of whether such member was the last remaining member associated with such series.

(9) Subject to K.S.A. 17-76,116, and amendments thereto, except to the extent otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a series may be dissolved and its affairs wound up without causing the dissolution of the limited liability company. The dissolution of a series shall not affect the limitation on liabilities of such series provided by this subsection (c). A series is dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up upon the dissolution of the limited liability company under K.S.A. 17-76,116, and amendments thereto, or otherwise upon the first to occur of the following:

(A) At the time specified in the operating agreement;
(B) upon the happening of events specified in the operating agreement;
(C) unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, upon the vote, consent or approval of members associated with such series who own \( \frac{2}{3} \) or more of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of such series of the limited liability company owned by all of the members associated with such series; or
(D) the dissolution of such series under subsection (c)(11).

(10) Notwithstanding K.S.A. 17-76,118(a), and amendments thereto, unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a manager associated with a series who has not wrongfully dissolved such series or, if none, the members associated with such series or a person consented to or approved by the members associated with such series, in either case, by members who own more than 50% of the then-current percentage or other interest in the profits of such series owned by all of the members associated with such series, may wind up the affairs of such series, but the district court, upon cause shown, may wind up the affairs of a series upon application of any member or manager associated with such series, or the member's personal representative or assignee, and in connection therewith, may appoint a liquidating trustee. The persons winding up the affairs of a series may, in the name of the limited liability company and for and on behalf of the limited liability company and such series, take all actions with respect to such series as are permitted under K.S.A. 17-76,118(b), and amendments thereto. The persons winding up the affairs of a series shall provide for the claims and obligations of such series and distribute the assets of such series as provided in K.S.A. 17-76,119, and amendments thereto, which section shall apply to the winding up and distribution of assets of a series. Actions taken in accordance with this subsection shall not affect the liability of members and shall not impose liability on a liquidating trustee.

(11) On application by or for a member or manager associated with a series, the district court may decree dissolution of such series whenever it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business of such series in conformity with an operating agreement.

(12) For all purposes of the laws of the state of Kansas, a series is an association, regardless of the number of members or managers, if any, of such series.

(d) In order to form a series of a limited liability company, a certificate of designation must be filed in accordance with this subsection.

(1) (A) A certificate of designation shall set forth:
(i) The name of the limited liability company; and
(ii) the name of the series.
(B) A certificate of designation may include any other matter that the members of such series determine to include therein.

(C) A certificate of designation properly filed with the secretary of state prior to July 1, 2020, shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of this paragraph.

(2) A certificate of designation shall be executed in accordance with K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7908(b), and amendments thereto, and shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state in accordance with K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7910, and amendments thereto. A certificate of designation is not an amendment to the articles of organization.
A certificate of designation may be amended by filing a certificate of amendment thereto in the office of the secretary of state.

(A) The certificate of amendment shall set forth:

(i) The name of the limited liability company;

(ii) the name of the series; and

(iii) the amendment to the certificate of designation.

(B) A certificate of designation properly filed with the secretary of state prior to July 1, 2020, that changed a previously filed certificate of designation shall be deemed to be a certificate of amendment thereto for purposes of this paragraph.

(4) A manager of a series or, if there is no manager, then any member of a series who becomes aware that any statement in a certificate of designation filed with respect to such series was false when made, or that any matter described therein has changed making the certificate of designation false in any material respect, shall promptly amend the certificate of designation.

(5) A certificate of designation may be amended at any time for any other proper purpose.

(6) Unless otherwise provided in the Kansas revised limited liability company act or unless a later effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, is provided for in the certificate of amendment, a certificate of amendment shall be effective at the time of its filing with the secretary of state.

(7) A certificate of designation shall be canceled upon the cancellation of the articles of organization of the limited liability company named in the certificate of designation, or upon the filing of a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation, or upon the future effective date or time of a certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation, or as provided in K.S.A. 17-76,139(d), and amendments thereto, or upon the filing of a certificate of merger or consolidation if the series is not the surviving or resulting series in a merger or consolidation or upon the future effective date or time of a certificate of merger or consolidation if the series is not the surviving or resulting series in a merger or consolidation. A certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation may be filed at any time, and shall be filed, in the office of the secretary of state to accomplish the cancellation of a certificate of designation upon the dissolution of a series for which a certificate of designation was filed and completion of the winding up of such series.

(A) A certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation shall set forth:

(i) The name of the limited liability company;

(ii) the name of the series;

(iii) the future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of cancellation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of cancellation; and

(iv) any other information the person filing the certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation determines.

(B) A certificate of designation properly filed with the secretary of state prior to July 1, 2020, that dissolved a series shall be deemed to be a certificate of cancellation thereto for purposes of this paragraph.

(8) A certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation that is filed in the office of the secretary of state prior to the dissolution or the completion of winding up of a series may be corrected as an erroneously executed certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation by filing with the office of the secretary of state a certificate of correction of such certificate of cancellation of the certificate of designation in accordance with K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7912, and amendments thereto.

(9) The secretary of state shall not issue a certificate of good standing with respect to a series if the certificate of designation is canceled or the limited liability company has ceased to be in good standing.

(e) The name of each series as set forth in its certificate of designation:

(1) Shall include the name of the limited liability company, including any word, abbreviation or designation required by K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7920, and amendments thereto;

(2) may contain the name of a member or manager;

(3) must comply with the requirements of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7918, and amendments thereto, to the same extent as a covered entity; and

(4) may contain any word permitted by K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7920, and amendments thereto, and may not contain any word prohibited to be included in the name of a limited liability company under Kansas law.

(f) If a foreign limited liability company, as permitted in the jurisdiction of its organization, has established a series having separate rights, powers or duties and has limited the liabilities of such series so that it is registered to do business in this state in accordance with K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7931, and amendments thereto, is governed by an operating agreement that establishes or provides for the establishment of a series of members, managers, limited liability company interests or assets having separate rights, powers or duties with respect to specified property or obligations of the foreign limited liability company or profits and losses associated with specified property or obligations, that fact shall be so stated on the application for registration as a foreign limited liability company. In addition, the foreign limited liability company shall state on such application whether the debts, liabilities and obligations incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series, if any, are enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the foreign limited liability company generally or any other series thereof, or so that and whether any of the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to the foreign limited liability company generally or any other series thereof are not shall be enforceable against the assets of such series; then the limited liability company, on behalf of itself or any of its series, or any of its series on their own behalf may register to do business in the state in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7921, and amendments thereto. The limitation of liability shall be so stated on the application for admission as a foreign limited liability company and a certificate of designation shall be filed for each series being registered to do business in the state by the limited liability company. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, the debts, liabilities and obligations incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series of such a foreign limited liability company shall be enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the foreign limited liability company generally or any other series thereof and none of the debts, liabilities, obligations and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to such a foreign limited liability company generally or any other series thereof shall be enforceable against the assets of such series.
Sec. 40. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-76,145 is hereby amended to read as follows: 17-76,145. (a) If an operating agreement provides the manner in which a dissolution may be revoked, it may be revoked in that manner and, unless an operating agreement prohibits revocation of dissolution, then notwithstanding the occurrence of an event set forth in subsections (a)(1) through (a)(4) of K.S.A. 17-76,116(a)(1) through (a)(4), and amendments thereto, the limited liability company shall not be dissolved and its affairs shall not be wound up if, prior to the filing of a certificate of cancellation with the secretary of state, the limited liability company is continued, effective as of the occurrence of such event, pursuant to the affirmative vote or written consent of all remaining members of the limited liability company or the personal representative of the last remaining member of the limited liability company if there is no remaining member, and any other person whose approval is required under the operating agreement to revoke a dissolution pursuant to this section, except that if the dissolution was caused by a vote or written consent, the dissolution shall not be revoked unless each member and other person, or their respective personal representatives, who voted in favor of, or consented to, the dissolution has voted or consented in writing to continue the limited liability company:

(1) In the case of dissolution effected by the vote, consent or approval of the members or other persons, pursuant to such vote, consent or approval, and the vote, consent or approval of any members or other persons whose vote, consent or approval is required under the operating agreement to revoke a dissolution contemplated by this paragraph;

(2) in the case of dissolution under K.S.A. 17-76,116(a)(1) or (2), and amendments thereto, other than a dissolution effected by the vote, consent or approval of the members or other persons or the occurrence of an event that causes the last remaining member to cease to be a member, pursuant to such vote, consent or approval that, pursuant to the terms of the operating agreement, is required to amend the provision of the operating agreement effecting such dissolution, and the vote, consent or approval of any members or other persons whose vote, consent or approval is required under the operating agreement to revoke a dissolution contemplated by this paragraph; and

(3) in the case of dissolution effected by the occurrence of an event that causes the last remaining member to cease to be a member, pursuant to the vote, consent or approval of the personal representative of the last remaining member of the limited liability company or the assignee of all of the limited liability company interests in the limited liability company, and the vote, consent, or approval of any other person whose vote, consent or approval is required under the operating agreement to revoke a dissolution contemplated by this paragraph.

(b) If there is no remaining member of the limited liability company and the personal representative of the last remaining member or the assignee of all of the limited liability company interests in the limited liability company votes in favor of, consents to or approves the continuation of the limited liability company, such personal representative or such assignee, as applicable, shall be required to agree in writing to the admission of the personal representative of such member or its nominee or designee to the limited liability company as a member, effective as of the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of the last remaining member.

c) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a revocation of dissolution by other means permitted by law.

4) any other matters the persons executing the certificate of reinstatement determine to include therein.

(c) Upon the filing of a certificate of reinstatement, a limited liability company and all series thereof that have been formed and whose certificate of designation has not been canceled prior to the cancellation of the articles of organization shall be reinstated with the same force and effect as if its articles of organization or authority to do business had not been canceled or forfeited pursuant to K.S.A. 17-76,139(d) or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 17-7926(b), 17-7929(b) or 17-7934(f), and amendments thereto. After its reinstatement, the limited liability company shall be as exclusively liable for all contracts, acts, matters and things made, done or performed in its name and on its behalf by its members, managers, employees and agents prior to its reinstatement as if its articles of organization or authority to do business had at all times remained in full force and effect.

(f) In addition to any other penalty, a person who violates this statute shall be ordered to make restitution to the insurer or any other person or entity for any financial loss sustained as a result of such violation. An insurer shall not be required to provide coverage or pay any claim involving a fraudulent insurance act.

(1) "Amount involved" means the greater of: (A) The actual pecuniary harm resulting from the fraudulent insurance act; (B) the pecuniary harm that was intended to result from the fraudulent insurance act; or (C) the intended pecuniary harm that would have been impossible or unlikely to occur, such as in a government sting operation or a fraud in which the claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy exceeded the allowed value. The aggregate dollar amount of the fraudulent claims submitted to the insurance company shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount of intended loss and is sufficient to establish the aggregate amount involved in the fraudulent insurance act, if not rebutted; and

(2) "pecuniary harm" means harm that is monetary or that otherwise is readily measurable in money, and does not include emotional distress, harm to reputation or other non-economic harm.

Nothing herein shall be construed to create or imply a private cause of action for a violation of this section. (g) The provisions of this section shall take effect on and after July 1, 2019.

Sec. 4. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 40-2404 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-2404. The following are hereby defined as unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the business of insurance:

1. Misrepresentations and false advertising of insurance policies. Making, issuing, circulating or causing to be made, issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular, statement, sales presentation, omission or comparison which:
   (a) Misrepresents the benefits, advantages, conditions or terms of any insurance policy;
   (b) misrepresents the dividends or share of the surplus to be received on any insurance policy;
   (c) makes any false or misleading statements as to the dividends or share of surplus previously paid on any insurance policy;
   (d) is misleading or is a misrepresentation as to the financial condition of any person, or as to the legal reserve system upon which any life insurer operates;
   (e) uses any name or title of any insurance policy or class of insurance policies misrepresenting the true nature thereof;
   (f) is a misrepresentation for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce the lapse, forfeiture, exchange, conversion or surrender of any insurance policy;
   (g) is a misrepresentation for the purpose of effecting a pledge or assignment of or effecting a loan against any insurance policy; or
   (h) misrepresents any insurance policy as being shares of stock.

2. False information and advertising generally. Making, publishing, disseminating, circulating or placing before the public, or causing, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated or placed before the public, in a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter or poster, or over any radio or television station, or in any other way, an advertisement, announcement or statement containing any assertion, misrepresentation or statement with respect to the business of insurance or with respect to any person in the conduct of such person's insurance business, which is untrue, deceptive or misleading.

3. Defamation. Making, publishing, disseminating or circulating, directly or indirectly, or aiding, abetting or encouraging the making, publishing, disseminating or circulating of any oral or written statement or any pamphlet, circular, article or literature which is false, or maliciously critical of or derogatory to the financial condition of any person, and which is calculated to injure such person.

4. Boycott, coercion and intimidation. Entering into any agreement to commit, or by any concerted action committing, any act of boycott, coercion or intimidation resulting in or tending to result in unreasonable restraint of the business of insurance, or by any act of boycott, coercion or intimidation monopolizing or attempting to monopolize any part of the business of insurance.

(5) False statements and entries. (a) Knowingly filing with any supervisory or other public official, or knowingly making, publishing, disseminating, circulating or delivering to any person, or placing before the public, or knowingly causing directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, delivered to any person, or placed before the public, any false material statement of fact as to the financial condition of a person.

(b) Knowingly making any false entry of a material fact in any book, report or statement of any person or knowingly omitting to make a true entry of any material fact pertaining to the business of such person in any book, report or statement of such person.

(6) Stock operations and advisory board contracts. Issuing or delivering or permitting agents, officers or employees to issue or deliver, agency company stock or other capital stock, or benefit certificates or shares in any common-law corporation, or securities or any special or advisory board contracts or other contracts of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance. Nothing herein shall prohibit the acts permitted by K.S.A. 40-232, and amendments thereto.

(7) Unfair discrimination. (a) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and equal expectation of life in the rates charged for any contract of life insurance or life annuity or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon, or in any other of the terms and conditions of such contract.

(b) Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and of essentially the same hazard in the amount of premium, policy fees or rates charged for any policy or contract of accident or health insurance or in the benefits payable thereunder, or in any of the terms or conditions of such contract, or in any other manner whatever.

(c) Refusing to insure, or refusing to continue to insure, or limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available to an individual, or charging an individual a different rate for the same coverage solely because of blindness or partial blindness. With respect to all other conditions, including the underlying cause of the blindness or partial blindness, persons who are blind or partially blind shall be subject to the same standards of sound actuarial principles or actual or reasonably anticipated experience as are sighted persons. Refusal to insure includes denial by an insurer of disability insurance coverage on the grounds that the policy defines "disability" as being presumed in the event that the insured loses such person's eyesight. However, an insurer may exclude from coverage disabilities consisting solely of blindness or partial blindness when such condition existed at the time the policy was issued.

(d) Refusing to insure, or refusing to continue to insure, or limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available for accident and health and life insurance to an applicant who is the proposed insured or charge a different rate for the same coverage or excluding or limiting coverage for losses or denying a claim incurred by an insured as a result of abuse based on the fact that the applicant who is the proposed insured is, has been, or may be the subject of domestic abuse, except as provided in subpart (v) subsection (7)(d) of K.S.A. 60-3102, and amendments thereto. "Abuse" as used in this subsection (7)(d) paragraph means one or more acts defined in subsection (a) or (b) of K.S.A. 60-3102, and amendments thereto, between family members, current or former household members, or current or former intimate partners.

(i) An insurer may not ask an applicant for life or accident and health insurance who is the proposed insured if the individual is, has been or may be the subject of domestic abuse or seeks, has sought or had reason to seek medical or psychological treatment or counseling specifically for abuse, protection from abuse or shelter from abuse.

(ii) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a person from declining to issue an insurance policy insuring the life of an individual who is, has been or has the potential to be the subject of abuse if the perpetrator of the abuse is the applicant or would be the owner of the insurance policy.

(iii) No insurer that issues a life or accident and health policy to an individual who is, has been or may be the subject of domestic abuse shall be subject to civil or criminal liability for the death or any injuries suffered by that individual as a result of domestic abuse.

(iv) No person shall refuse to insure, refuse to continue to insure, limit the amount, extent or kind of coverage available to an individual or charge a different rate for the same coverage solely because of physical or mental condition, except where the refusal, limitation or rate differential is based on sound actuarial principles.

(v) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a person from underwriting or rating a risk on the basis of a preexisting physical or mental condition, even if such condition has been caused by abuse, provided that:

(A) The person routinely underwrites or rates such condition in the same manner with respect to an insured or an applicant who is not a victim of abuse;

(B) the fact that an individual is, has been or may be the subject of abuse may not be considered a physical or mental condition; and

(C) such underwriting or rating is not used to evade the intent of this section or any other provision of the Kansas insurance code.

(vi) Any person who underwrites or rates a risk on the basis of preexisting physical or mental condition as set forth in subsection (7)(d)(v), shall treat such underwriting or rating as an adverse underwriting decision pursuant to K.S.A. 40-2,112, and amendments thereto.

(vii) The provisions of subsection (d) this paragraph shall apply to all policies of life and accident and health insurance issued in this state after the effective date of this act and all existing contracts which are renewed on or after the effective date of this act.

(e) Refusing to insure, or refusing to continue to insure, or limiting the amount, extent or kind of coverage available for life insurance to an individual, or charging an individual a different rate for the same coverage, solely because of such individual's status as a living organ donor. With respect to all other conditions, persons who are living organ donors shall be subject to the same standards of sound actuarial principles or actual or reasonably anticipated experience as are persons who are not organ donors.

(8) Rebates. (a) Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, knowingly permitting, offering to make or making any contract of life insurance, life annuity or accident and health insurance, or agreement as to such contract other than as plainly expressed in the insurance contract issued thereon; paying, allowing, giving or offering to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly, as inducement to such insurance, or annuity, any rebate of premiums payable on the contract, any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits thereon, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the contract; or giving, selling, purchasing or offering to give, sell or purchase as inducement to such insurance contract or annuity or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, association or partnership, or any dividends or profits accrued thereon, or anything of value whatsoever not specified in the contract.

(b) Nothing in subsection (7) or (8)(a) shall be construed as including within the definition of discrimination or rebates any of the following practices:

(i) In the case of any contract of life insurance or life annuity, paying bonuses to policyholders or otherwise abating their premiums in whole or in part out of surplus accumulated from nonparticipating insurance. Any such bonuses or abatement of premiums shall be fair and equitable to policyholders and for the best interests of the company and its policyholders;

(ii) in the case of life insurance policies issued on the industrial debit plan, making allowance to policyholders who have continuously for a specified period made premium payments directly to an office of the insurer in an amount which fairly represents the saving in collection expenses; or

(iii) readjustment of the rate of premium for a group insurance policy based on the loss or expense experience thereunder, at the end of the first or any subsequent policy year of insurance thereunder, which may be made retroactive only for such policy year.

(9) Unfair claim settlement practices. It is an unfair claim settlement practice if any of the following or any rules and regulations pertaining thereto are committed flagrantly and in conscious disregard of such provisions, or committed with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice:

(a) Misrepresenting pertinent facts or insurance policy provisions relating to coverages at issue;

(b) failing to acknowledge and act reasonably promptly upon communications with respect to claims arising under insurance policies;

(c) failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims arising under insurance policies;

(d) refusing to pay claims without conducting a reasonable investigation based upon all available information;

(e) failing to affirm or deny coverage of claims within a reasonable time after proof of loss statements have been completed;

(f) not attempting in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair and equitable settlements of claims in which liability has become reasonably clear;

(g) compelling insureds to institute litigation to recover amounts due under an insurance policy by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such insureds;

(h) attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable person would have believed that such person was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application;

(i) attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application which was altered without notice to, or knowledge or consent of the insured;

(j) making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which payments are being made;

(k) making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration;

(l) delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, claimant or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information;

(m) failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage; or

(n) failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable law for denial of a claim or for the offer of a compromise settlement.

(10) Failure to maintain complaint handling procedures. Failure of any person, who is an insurer on an insurance policy, to maintain a complete record of all the complaints which it has received since the date of its last examination under K.S.A. 40-222, and amendments thereto; but no such records shall be required for complaints received prior to the effective date of this act. The record shall indicate the total number of complaints, their classification by line of insurance, the nature of each complaint, the disposition of the complaints, the date each complaint was originally received by the insurer and the date of final disposition of each complaint. For purposes of this subsection, "complaint" means any written communication primarily expressing a grievance related to the acts and practices set out in this section.

(11) Misrepresentation in insurance applications. Making false or fraudulent statements or representations on or relative to an application for an insurance policy, for the purpose of obtaining a fee, commission, money or other benefit from any insurer, agent, broker or individual.

(12) Statutory violations. Any violation of any of the provisions of K.S.A. 40-216, 40-276a, 40-2,155 or 40-1515, and amendments thereto.

(13) Disclosure of information relating to adverse underwriting decisions and refund of premiums. Failing to comply with the provisions of K.S.A. 40-2,112, and amendments thereto, within the time prescribed in such section.

(14) Rebates and other inducements in title insurance. (a) No title insurance company or title insurance agent, or any officer, employee, attorney, agent or solicitor thereof, may pay, allow or give, or offer to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly, as an inducement to obtaining any title insurance business, any rebate, reduction or abatement of any rate or charge made incident to the issuance of such insurance, any special favor or advantage not generally available to others of the same classification, or any money, thing of value or other consideration or material inducement. The words "charge made incident to the issuance of such insurance" includes, without limitations, escrow, settlement and closing charges.

(b) No insured named in a title insurance policy or contract nor any other person directly or indirectly connected with the transaction involving the issuance of the policy or contract, including, but not limited to, mortgage lender, real estate broker, builder, attorney or any officer, employee, agent representative or solicitor thereof, or any other person may knowingly receive or accept, directly or indirectly, any rebate, reduction or abatement of any charge, or any special favor or advantage or any monetary consideration or inducement referred to in subsection (14)(a).
(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting:

(i) The payment of reasonable fees for services actually rendered to a title insurance agent in connection with a title insurance transaction;

(ii) the payment of an earned commission to a duly appointed title insurance agent for services actually performed in the issuance of the policy of title insurance; or

(iii) the payment of reasonable entertainment and advertising expenses.

(d) Nothing in this section prohibits the division of rates and charges between or among a title insurance company and its agent, or one or more title insurance companies and one or more title insurance agents, if such division of rates and charges does not constitute an unlawful rebate under the provisions of this section and is not in payment of a forwarding fee or a finder's fee.

(e) As used in paragraphs (e) through (i) of this subpart subsections (14)(e) through (14)(i), unless the context otherwise requires:

(i) "Associate" means any firm, association, organization, partnership, business trust, corporation or other legal entity organized for profit in which a producer of title business is a director, officer or partner thereof, or owner of a financial interest; the spouse or any relative within the second degree by blood or marriage of a producer of title business who is a natural person; any director, officer or employee of a producer of title business or associate; any legal entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a producer of title business or associate; and any natural person or legal entity with whom a producer of title business or associate has any agreement, arrangement or understanding or pursues any course of conduct, the purpose or effect of which is to evade the provisions of this section.

(ii) "Financial interest" means any direct or indirect interest, legal or beneficial, where the holder thereof is or will be entitled to 1% or more of the net profits or net worth of the entity in which such interest is held. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an interest of less than 1% or any other type of interest shall constitute a "financial interest" if the primary purpose of the acquisition or retention of that interest is the financial benefit to be obtained as a consequence of that interest from the referral of title business.

(iii) "Person" means any natural person, partnership, association, cooperative, corporation, trust or other legal entity.

(iv) "Producer of title business" or "producer" means any person, including any officer, director or owner of 5% or more of the equity or capital or both of any person, engaged in this state in the trade, business, occupation or profession of:

(A) Buying or selling interests in real property;
(B) making loans secured by interests in real property; or
(C) acting as broker, agent, representative or attorney for a person who buys or sells any interest in real property or who lends or borrows money with such interest as security.

(v) "Refer" means to direct or cause to be directed or to exercise any power or influence over the direction of title insurance business, whether or not the consent or approval of any other person is sought or obtained with respect to the referral.

(f) No title insurer or title agent may accept any order for, issue a title insurance policy to, or provide services to, an applicant if it knows or has reason to believe that the applicant was referred to it by any producer of title business or by any associate of such producer, where the producer, the associate, or both, have a financial interest in the title insurer or title agent to which business is referred unless the producer has disclosed to the buyer, seller and lender the financial interest of the producer of title business or associate referring the title insurance business.

(g) No title insurer or title agent may accept an order for title insurance business, issue a title insurance policy, or receive or retain any premium, or charge in connection with any transaction if: (i) The title insurer or title agent knows or has reason to believe that the transaction will constitute controlled business for that title insurer or title agent, and (ii) 70% or more of the closed title orders of that title insurer or title agent during the 12 full calendar months immediately preceding the month in which the transaction takes place is derived from controlled business. The prohibitions contained in this paragraph shall not apply to transactions involving real estate located in a county that has a population, as shown by the last preceding decennial census, of 10,000 or less.

(h) Within 90 days following the end of each business year, as established by the title insurer or title agent, each title insurer or title agent shall file with the department of insurance and any title insurer with which the title agent maintains an underwriting agreement, a report executed by the title insurer's or title agent's chief executive officer or designee, under penalty of perjury, stating the percent of closed title orders originating from controlled business. The failure of a title insurer or title agent to comply with the requirements of this section, at the discretion of the commissioner, shall be grounds for the suspension or revocation of a license or other disciplinary action, with the commissioner able to mitigate any such disciplinary action if the title insurer or title agent is found to be in substantial compliance with competitive behavior as defined by federal housing and urban development statement of policy 1996-2.

(i) (1) No title insurer or title agent may accept any title insurance order or issue a title insurance policy to any person if it knows or has reason to believe that such person was referred to it by any producer of title business or by any associate of such producer, where the producer, the associate, or both, have a financial interest in the title insurer or title agent to which business is referred unless the producer has disclosed in writing to the person so referred the fact that such producer or associate has a financial interest in the title insurer or title agent, the nature of the financial interest and a written estimate of the charge or range of charges generally made by the title insurer or agent for the title services. Such disclosure shall include language stating that the consumer is not obligated to use the title insurer or agent in which the referring producer or associate has a financial interest and shall include the names and telephone numbers of not less than three other title insurers or agents that operate in the county in which the property is located. If fewer than three insurers or agents operate in that county, the disclosure shall include all title insurers or agents operating in that county. Such written disclosure shall be signed by the person so referred and must have occurred prior to any commitment having been made to such title insurer or agent.

(2) No producer of title business or associate of such producer shall require, directly or indirectly, as a condition to selling or furnishing any other person any loan or extension thereof, credit, sale, property, contract, lease or service, that such other person shall purchase title insurance of any kind through any title agent or title insurer if such producer has a financial interest in such title agent or title insurer.

(3) No title insurer or title agent may accept any title insurance order or issue a title insurance policy to any person it knows or has reason to believe that the name of the title company was pre-printed in the sales contract, prior to the buyer or seller selecting that title company.

(4) Nothing in this subpart (i) paragraph shall prohibit any producer of title business or associate of such producer from referring title business to any title insurer or title agent of such producer's or associate's choice, and, if such producer or associate of such producer has any financial interest in the title insurer, from receiving income, profits or dividends produced or realized from such financial interest, so long as:

(a) Such financial interest is disclosed to the purchaser of the title insurance in accordance with part paragraphs (i)(1) through (i)(4) of this subpart;

(b) the payment of income, profits or dividends is not in exchange for the referral of business; and

(c) the receipt of income, profits or dividends constitutes only a return on the investment of the producer or associate.

(5) Any producer of title business or associate of such producer who violates the provisions of paragraphs (i)(2) through (i)(4), or any title insurer or title agent who accepts an order for title insurance knowing that it is in violation of paragraphs (i)(2) through (i)(4), in addition to any other action which that may be taken by the commissioner of insurance, shall be subject to a fine by the commissioner in an amount equal to five times the premium for the title insurance and, if licensed pursuant to K.S.A. 58-3034 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall be deemed to have committed a prohibited act pursuant to K.S.A. 58-3602, and amendments thereto, and shall be liable to the purchaser of such title insurance in an amount equal to the premium for the title insurance.

(6) Any title insurer or title agent that is a competitor of any title insurer or title agent that, subsequent to the effective date of this act, has violated or is violating the provisions of subpart (i) this paragraph, shall have a cause of action against such title insurer or title agent and, upon establishing the existence of a violation of any such provision, shall be entitled, in addition to any other damages or remedies provided by law, to such equitable or injunctive relief as the court deems proper. In any such action under this subsection, the court may award to the successful party the court costs of the action together with reasonable attorney fees.

(b) Any rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner which implement article V of the model regulation adopted on September 26, 2000, by the national association of insurance commissioners entitled "Privacy of consumer financial and health information regulation" shall become effective on and after February 1, 2002.

4) audited annual financial statements or reports for the two most recent fiscal years that demonstrate that the applicant has a positive net worth. If the applicant has been in existence for less than two fiscal years, the uniform application shall include financial statements or reports, certified by at least two officers, owners or directors of the applicant and prepared in accordance with GAAP, for any completed fiscal years and for any month during the current fiscal year for which such financial statements or reports have been completed. An audited annual financial report prepared on a consolidated basis shall include a columnar consolidating or combining worksheet that shall be filed with the report and include the following:

(A) Amounts shown on the consolidated audited financial report shown on the worksheet;

(B) amounts for each entity stated separately; and

(C) explanations of consolidating and eliminating entries included.

The applicant shall also include such other information as the commissioner may require in order to review the current financial condition of the applicant;
(5) in lieu of submitting audited financial statements, and upon written application by an applicant and good cause shown, the commissioner may grant a hardship exemption from filing audited financial statements and allow the submission of unaudited financial statements. Acceptable formats for unaudited financial statements, that shall include notes, are:

(A) Reports compiled or reviewed by a certified public accountant; or
(B) internal financial reports prepared in accordance with GAAP, certified by at least two officers, owners or directors of the administrator.

If unaudited financial statements are submitted, the applicant must also secure and maintain a surety bond in a form prescribed by the commissioner for the use and benefit of the commissioner to be held in trust for the benefit and protection of covered persons and any payor or self-funded plan against loss by reason of acts of fraud or dishonesty, for the greater of 10% of funds handled for the benefit of Kansas residents or $20,000. (8) such other pertinent information as may be required by the commissioner.

(c) An administrator licensed or applying for licensure under the provisions of this section shall make available for inspection by the commissioner, copies of all contracts with payors or other persons utilizing the services of the administrator.

(d) An administrator licensed or applying for licensure under the provisions of this section shall produce its accounts, records and files for examination, and makes its officers available to give information with respect to its affairs, as often as reasonably required by the commissioner.

(e) The commissioner may refuse to issue a license if the commissioner determines that the applicant or any individual responsible for the conduct of affairs of the applicant is not competent, trustworthy, financially responsible or of good personal and business reputation, or has had an insurance or an administrator certificate of authority or license denied or revoked for cause by any jurisdiction, or if the commissioner determines that any of the grounds set forth in K.S.A. 40-3810, and amendments thereto, exist with respect to the applicant.

(f) A license issued under this section shall remain valid, unless surrendered, suspended or revoked by the commissioner, for so long as the administrator continues in business in this state and remains in compliance with the provisions of this act and any applicable rules and regulations.

(g) An administrator licensed or applying for licensure under the provisions of this section shall immediately notify the commissioner of any material change in its ownership, control or other fact or circumstance affecting its qualification for a license in this state.
(h) An administrator licensed or applying for a home state license that administers or will administer governmental or church self-insured plans in this state or any other state shall maintain a surety bond for the use and benefit of the commissioner to be held in trust for the benefit and protection of covered persons and any payor or self-funded plan against loss by reason of acts of fraud or dishonesty. The bond shall be in the greater of the following amounts:

1) $100,000; or

2) an amount equal to 10% of the aggregate total amount of self-funded coverage under church plans or governmental plans handled in this state and all additional states in which the administrator is authorized to do business.

Sec. 6. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 40-3813 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-3813. (a) Unless an administrator has obtained a home state license in this state, any administrator who performs duties as an administrator in this state shall obtain a nonresident administrator license in accordance with the provisions of this section by filing with the commissioner the uniform application, accompanied by a letter of certification. In lieu of requiring an administrator to file a letter of certification with the uniform application, the commissioner may verify the nonresident administrator's home state certificate of authority or license status through an electronic database maintained by the NAIC, its affiliates or subsidiaries.

(b) An administrator shall not be eligible for a nonresident administrator license under the provisions of this section if it does not hold a license in a home state that has adopted a substantially similar law governing administrators.

(c) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (h) the commissioner shall issue to the administrator a nonresident administrator license promptly upon receipt of a complete application.

(d) Each nonresident administrator shall file biennially, as a part of its application for renewal of its license, a statement that its home state administrator license remains in force and has not been revoked or suspended by its home state during the preceding years. Each nonresident administrator renewal application shall be accompanied by a renewal application fee in the amount of $200.

(e) At the time of filing the application for licensing required under the provisions of this section, the nonresident administrator shall pay a license application fee as provided for by rules and regulations in the amount of $400.

(f) An administrator licensed or applying for licensure under the provisions of this section shall produce its accounts, records and files for examination, and make its officers available to give information with respect to its affairs, as often as reasonably required by the commissioner.

(g) A nonresident administrator is not required to hold a nonresident administrator license in this state if the administrator is licensed in its home state and the administrator's duties in this state are limited to:

1) The administration of a group policy or plan and no more than a total of 20% of covered persons, for all plans the administrator services, reside in this state; and

2) the total number of covered persons residing in this state is less than 100.
(h) The commissioner may refuse to issue a nonresident administrator license, or delay the issuance of a nonresident administrator license, if the commissioner determines that, due to events or information obtained subsequent to the home state's licensure of the administrator, the nonresident administrator cannot satisfy the requirements of this act or that grounds exist for the home state's revocation or suspension of the administrator's home state certificate of authority or license.

Sec. 7. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 40-3814 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-3814. (a) Each administrator licensed under the provisions of this act shall file an annual report for the preceding calendar year with the commissioner on or before July 1 of each year, or within such extension of time as the commissioner may grant for good cause, accompanied by an annual report fee in the amount of $100. The annual report shall include:

(1) An audited financial statement attested to by an independent certified public accountant. An audited annual financial report prepared on a consolidated basis shall include a columnar consolidating or combining worksheet that shall be filed with the report and include the following:

(A) Amounts shown on the consolidated audited financial report shown on the worksheet;
(B) amounts for each entity stated separately; and
(C) explanations of consolidating and eliminating entries included.

(2) In lieu of submitting an audited financial statement, and upon written application by an administrator and good cause shown, the commissioner may grant a hardship exemption from filing audited financial statements and allow the submission of unaudited financial statements. Acceptable formats for unaudited financial statements, that shall include notes, are:

(A) Reports compiled or reviewed by a certified public accountant; or
(B) internal financial reports prepared in accordance with GAAP, certified by at least two officers, owners or directors of the administrator.

If unaudited financial statements are submitted, the administrator must secure and maintain a surety bond in a form prescribed by the commissioner for the use and benefit of the commissioner to be held in trust for the benefit and protection of covered persons and any payor or self-funded plan against loss by reason of acts of fraud or dishonesty, for the greater of 10% of funds handled for the benefit of Kansas residents or $20,000.

(b) The annual report shall be in the form and contain such matters as the commissioner prescribes and shall be verified by at least two officers, owners or directors of the administrator.

(c) The annual report shall include the complete names and addresses of all payors and for self-funded plans, all employers and trusts, with which the administrator had agreements during the preceding fiscal year. The report shall also include the number of Kansas residents covered by each of the plans.

Sec. 8. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 40-2209 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-2209. (a) (1) Group sickness and accident insurance is declared to be that form of sickness and accident insurance covering groups of persons, with or without one or more members of their families or one or more dependents. Except at the option of the employee or member and except employees or members enrolling in a group policy after the close of an open enrollment opportunity, no individual employee or member of an insured group and no individual dependent or family member may be excluded from eligibility or coverage under a policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits both with respect to policies issued or renewed within this state and with respect to policies issued or renewed outside this state covering persons residing in this state. For purposes of this section, an open enrollment opportunity shall be deemed to be a period no less favorable than a period beginning on the employee's or member's date of initial eligibility and ending 31 days thereafter.

(2) An eligible employee, member or dependent who requests enrollment following the open enrollment opportunity or any special enrollment period for dependents as specified in subsection paragraph (3) shall be considered a late enrollee. An accident and sickness insurer may exclude a late enrollee, except during an open enrollment period. However, an eligible employee, member or dependent shall not be considered a late enrollee if:

(A) The individual:

(i) Was covered under another group policy which provided hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits or was covered under section 607(1) of the employee retirement income security act of 1974 (ERISA) at the time the individual was eligible to enroll;

(ii) states in writing, at the time of the open enrollment period, that coverage under another group policy which provided hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits was the reason for declining enrollment, but only if the group policyholder or the accident and sickness insurer required such a written statement and provided the individual with notice of the requirement for a written statement and the consequences of such written statement;

(iii) has lost coverage under another group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits or under section 607(1) of the employee retirement income security act of 1974 (ERISA) as a result of the termination of employment, reduction in the number of hours of employment, termination of employer contributions toward such coverage, the termination of the other policy's coverage, death of a spouse or divorce or legal separation or was under a COBRA continuation provision and the coverage under such provision was exhausted; and

(iv) requests enrollment within 30 days after the termination of coverage under the other policy; or

(B) a court has ordered coverage to be provided for a spouse or minor child under a covered employee's or member's policy.

(3) (A) If an accident and sickness insurer issues a group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expenses and makes coverage available to a dependent of an eligible employee or member and such dependent becomes a dependent of the employee or member through marriage, birth, adoption or placement for adoption, then such group policy shall provide for a dependent special enrollment period as described in subsection (3)(B) of this section during which the dependent may be enrolled under the policy and in the case of the birth or adoption of a child, the spouse of an eligible employee or member may be enrolled if otherwise eligible for coverage.

(B) A dependent special enrollment period under this subsection shall be a period of not less than 30 days and shall begin on the later of:

(i) The date such dependent coverage is made available; or

(ii) the date of the marriage, birth or adoption or placement for adoption.
(C) If an eligible employee or member seeks to enroll a dependent during the first 30 days of such a dependent special enrollment period, the coverage of the dependent shall become effective: (i) In the case of marriage, not later than the first day of the first month beginning after the date the completed request for enrollment is received; (ii) in the case of the birth of a dependent, as of the date of such birth; or (iii) in the case of a dependent's adoption or placement for adoption, the date of such adoption or placement for adoption.

(4) (A) No group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits issued or renewed within this state or issued or renewed outside this state covering residents within this state shall limit or exclude benefits for specific conditions existing at or prior to the effective date of coverage thereunder. Such policy may impose a preexisting conditions exclusion, not to exceed 90 days following the date of enrollment for benefits for conditions whether mental or physical, regardless of the cause of the condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received in the 90 days prior to the effective date of enrollment. Any preexisting conditions exclusion shall run concurrently with any waiting period.

(B) Such policy may impose a waiting period after full-time employment starts before an employee is first eligible to enroll in any applicable group policy.

(C) A health maintenance organization which offers such policy which does not impose any preexisting conditions exclusion may impose an affiliation period for such coverage, provided that: (i) Such application period is applied uniformly without regard to any health status related factors; and (ii) such affiliation period does not exceed two months. The affiliation period shall run concurrently with any waiting period under the plan.

(D) A health maintenance organization may use alternative methods from those described in this subsection to address adverse selection if approved by the commissioner.

(E) For the purposes of this section, the term "preexisting conditions exclusion" shall mean, with respect to coverage, a limitation or exclusion of benefits relating to a condition based on the fact that the condition was present before the date of enrollment for such coverage, provided that: (i) Such application period is applied uniformly without regard to any health status related factors; and (ii) such affiliation period does not exceed two months. The affiliation period shall run concurrently with any waiting period under the plan.

(F) For the purposes of this section, the term "date of enrollment" means the date the individual is enrolled under the group policy or, if earlier, the first day of the waiting period for such enrollment.

(G) For the purposes of this section, the term "waiting period" means with respect to a group policy the period which must pass before the individual is eligible to be covered for benefits under the terms of the policy.

(5) Genetic information shall not be treated as a preexisting condition in the absence of a diagnosis of the condition related to such information.

(6) A group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits may not impose any preexisting condition exclusion relating to pregnancy as a preexisting condition.

(7) A group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits may not impose any preexisting condition waiting period in the case of a child who is adopted or placed for adoption before attaining 18 years of age and who, as of the last day of a 30-day period beginning on the date of the adoption or placement for adoption, is covered by a policy specified in subsection (a). This subsection shall not apply to coverage before the date of such adoption or placement for adoption.

(8) Such policy shall waive such a preexisting conditions exclusion to the extent the employee or member or individual dependent or family member was covered by:

(A) A group or individual sickness and accident policy specified in section 607(1) of the employees retirement income security act of 1974 (ERISA);

(C) a group specified in K.S.A. 40-2222, and amendments thereto;

(L) a group subject to K.S.A. 12-2616 et seq., and amendments thereto, which provided hospital, medical and surgical expense benefits within 63 days prior to the effective date of coverage.

Any period that the employee or member is in a waiting period for any coverage under a group health plan or is in an affiliation period shall not be taken into account in determining the continuous period under this subsection.

(b) (1) An accident and sickness insurer which offers group policies providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits shall provide a certification as described in subsection (b)(2):

(A) At the time an eligible employee, member or dependent ceases to be covered under such policy or otherwise becomes covered under a COBRA continuation provision;

(B) in the case of an eligible employee, member or dependent being covered under a COBRA continuation provision, at the time such eligible employee, member or dependent ceases to be covered under a COBRA continuation provision;

(C) on the request on behalf of such eligible employee, member or dependent made not later than 24 months after the date of the cessation of the coverage described in subsection (b) paragraph (1)(A) or (b)(1)(B), whichever is later.

(d) (1) An accident and sickness insurer offering a group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits must renew or continue in force such coverage at the option of the policyholder or certificateholder except as provided in paragraph (2) below.

(2) An accident and sickness insurer may nonrenew or discontinue coverage under a group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits based only on one or more of the following circumstances:

A) If the policyholder or certificateholder has failed to pay any premium or contributions in accordance with the terms of the group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits or the accident and sickness insurer has not received timely premium payments;

B) if the policyholder or certificateholder has performed an act or practice that constitutes fraud or made an intentional misrepresentation of material fact under the terms of such coverage;

C) if the policyholder or certificateholder has failed to comply with a material plan provision relating to employer contribution or group participation rules;

D) if the accident and sickness insurer is ceasing to offer coverage in such group market in accordance with subsections subsection (d)(3) or (d)(4);

E) in the case of accident and sickness insurer that offers coverage under a policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits through an enrollment area, there is no longer any eligible employee, member or dependent in connection with such policy who lives, resides or works in the medical service enrollment area of the accident and sickness insurer or in the area for which the accident and sickness insurer is authorized to do business; or

F) in the case of a group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits which is offered through an association or trust pursuant to subsections subsection (f)(3) or (f)(5), the membership of the employer in such association or trust ceases but only if such coverage is terminated uniformly without regard to any health status related factor relating to any eligible employee, member or dependent.

3) In any case in which an accident and sickness insurer which offers a group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits decides to discontinue offering such type of group policy, such coverage may be discontinued only if:

A) The accident and sickness insurer notifies all policyholders and certificateholders and all eligible employees or members of such discontinuation at least 90 days prior to the date of the discontinuation of such coverage;

B) the accident and sickness insurer offers to each policyholder who is provided such group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits which is being discontinued the option to purchase any other group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits currently being offered by such accident and sickness insurer; and

C) in exercising the option to discontinue coverage and in offering the option of coverage under subparagraph (B), the accident and sickness insurer acts uniformly without regard to the claims experience of those policyholders or certificateholders or any health status related factors relating to any eligible employee, member or dependent covered by such group policy or new employees or members who may become eligible for such coverage.

4) If the accident and sickness insurer elects to discontinue offering group policies providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits or group coverage to a small employer pursuant to K.S.A. 40-2209f, and amendments thereto, such coverage may be discontinued only if:

A) The accident and sickness insurer provides notice to the insurance commissioner, to all policyholders or certificateholders and to all eligible employees and members covered by such group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits at least 180 days prior to the date of the discontinuation of such coverage;

This subsection shall not be construed to require a policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits to provide particular benefits other than those provided under the terms of such group policy or to prevent a group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits from establishing limitations or restrictions on the amount, level, extent or nature of the benefits or coverage for similarly situated individuals enrolled under the group policy.

(f) Group accident and health insurance may be offered to a group under the following basis:

(1) Under a policy issued to an employer or trustees of a fund established by an employer, who is the policyholder, insuring at least two employees of such employer, for the benefit of persons other than the employer. The term "employees" shall include the officers, managers, employees and retired employees of the employer, the partners, if the employer is a partnership, the proprietor, if the employer is an individual proprietorship, the officers, managers and employees and retired employees of subsidiary or affiliated corporations of a corporation employer, and the individual proprietors, partners, employees and retired employees of individuals and firms, the business of which and of the insured employer is under common control through stock ownership contract, or otherwise. The policy may provide that the term "employees" may include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship. A policy issued to insure the employees of a public body may provide that the term "employees" shall include elected or appointed officials.

(2) Under a policy issued to a labor union which shall have a constitution and bylaws insuring at least 25 members of such union.

associations. The term "employees" shall include the officers, managers, employees and retired employees of the employer and the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(4) A policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure debtors of the creditor, subject to the following requirements: (a) The debtors eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the debtors of the creditor whose indebtedness is repayable in installments, or all of any class or classes determined by conditions pertaining to the indebtedness or to the purchase giving rise to the indebtedness. (b) the premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the creditor's funds or from charges collected from the insured debtors, or from both.

(5) A policy issued to an association that has been organized and is maintained for the purposes other than that of obtaining insurance, insuring at least 25 members, employees, or employees of members of the association for the benefit of persons other than the association or its officers. The term "employees" shall include retired employees. The premiums for the policies shall be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from association funds, or funds contributed by the members of such association, or by employees of such members or any combination thereof.

(6) Under a policy issued to any other type of group which the commissioner of insurance may find is properly subject to the issuance of a group sickness and accident policy or contract.

(g) Each such policy shall contain in substance: (1) A provision that a copy of the application, if any, of the policyholder shall be attached to the policy when issued, that all statements made by the policyholder or by the persons insured shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no statement made by any person insured shall be used in any contest unless a copy of the instrument containing the statement is or has been furnished to such person or the insured's beneficiary.

(2) A provision setting forth the conditions under which an individual's coverage terminates under the policy, including the age, if any, to which an individual's coverage under the policy shall be limited, or, the age, if any, at which any additional limitations or restrictions are placed upon an individual's coverage under the policy.

(3) Provisions setting forth the notice of claim, proofs of loss and claim forms, physical examination and autopsy, time of payment of claims, to whom benefits are payable, payment of claims, change of beneficiary, and legal action requirements. Such provisions shall not be less favorable to the individual insured or the insured's beneficiary than those corresponding policy provisions required to be contained in individual accident and sickness policies.

(4) A provision that the insurer will furnish to the policyholder, for the delivery to each employee or member of the insured group, an individual certificate approved by the commissioner of insurance setting forth in summary form a statement of the essential features of the insurance coverage of such employee or member, the procedure to be followed in making claim under the policy and to whom benefits are payable. Such certificate shall also contain a summary of those provisions required under paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection (g) in addition to the other essential features of the insurance coverage. If dependents are included in the coverage, only one certificate need be issued for each family unit.

(h) No group disability income policy—which that integrates benefits with social security benefits, shall provide that the amount of any disability benefit actually being paid to the disabled person shall be reduced by changes in the level of social security benefits resulting either from changes in the social security law or due to cost of living adjustments which become effective after the first day for which disability benefits become payable.

(i) A group policy of insurance delivered or issued for delivery or renewed—which that provides hospital, surgical or major medical expense insurance, or any combination of these coverages, on an expense incurred basis, shall provide that an employee or member or such employee's or member's covered dependents whose insurance under the group policy has been terminated for any reason, including discontinuance of the group policy in its entirety or with respect to an insured class, and who has been continuously insured under the group policy or under any group policy providing similar benefits—which that it replaces for at least three months immediately prior to termination, shall be entitled to have such coverage nonetheless continued under the group policy for a period of 18 months and have issued to the employee or member or such employee's or member's covered dependents by the insurer, at the end of such eighteen-month period of continuation, a policy of health insurance—which that conforms to the applicable requirements specified in this subsection. This requirement shall not apply to a group policy which provides benefits for specific diseases or for accidental injuries only or a group policy issued to an employer subject to the continuation and conversion obligations set forth at title I, subtitle B, part 6 of the employee retirement income security act of 1974 or at title XXII of the public health service act, as each act was in effect on January 1, 1987, to the extent federal law provides the employee or member or such employee's or member's covered dependents with equal or greater continuation or conversion rights; or an employee or member or such employee's or member's covered dependents shall not be entitled to have such coverage continued or a converted policy issued to the employee or member or such employee's or member's covered dependents if termination of the insurance under the group policy occurred because:

1. The employee or member or such employee's or member's covered dependents failed to pay any required contribution after receiving reasonable notice of such required contribution from the insurer in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner of insurance; (2) any discontinued group coverage was replaced by similar group coverage within 31 days; (3) the employee or member is or could be covered by medicare (title XVIII of the United States social security act as added by the social security amendments of 1965 or as later amended or superseded); (4) the employee or member is or could be covered to the same extent by any other insured or lawful self-insured arrangement which provides expense incurred hospital, surgical or medical coverage and benefits for individuals in a group under which the person was not covered prior to such termination; or (5) coverage for the employee or member, or any covered dependent thereof, was terminated for cause as permitted by the group policy or certificate of coverage approved by the commissioner. In the event the group policy is terminated and not replaced the insurer may issue an individual policy or certificate in lieu of a conversion policy or the continuation of group coverage required herein if the individual policy or certificate provides substantially similar coverage for the same or less premium as the group policy. In any event, the employee or member shall have the option to be issued a conversion policy which meets the requirements set forth in this subsection in lieu of the right to continue group coverage.

(j) The continued coverage and the issuance of a converted policy shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) Written application for the converted policy shall be made and the first premium paid to the insurer not later than 31 days after termination of coverage under the group policy or not later than 31 days after notice is received pursuant to paragraph (20) of this subsection.

(2) The converted policy shall be issued without evidence of insurability.

(3) The employer shall give the employee and such employee's covered dependents reasonable notice of the right to continuation of coverage. The terminated employee or member shall pay to the insurance carrier the premium for the eighteen-month continuation of coverage and such premium shall be the same as that applicable to members or employees remaining in the group. Failure to pay such premium shall terminate coverage under the group policy at the end of the period for which the premium has been paid. The premium rate charged for converted policies issued subsequent to the period of continued coverage shall be such that can be expected to produce an anticipated loss ratio of not less than 80% based upon conversion, morbidity and reasonable assumptions for expected trends in medical care costs. In the event the group policy is terminated and is not replaced, converted policies may be issued at self-sustaining rates that are not unreasonable in relation to the coverage provided based on conversion, morbidity and reasonable assumptions for expected trends in medical care costs. The frequency of premium payment shall be the frequency customarily required by the insurer for the policy form and plan selected, provided that the insurer shall not require premium payments less frequently than quarterly.

(4) The effective date of the converted policy shall be the day following the termination of insurance under the group policy.

(5) The converted policy shall cover the employee or member and the employee's or member's dependents who were covered by the group policy on the date of termination of insurance. At the option of the insurer, a separate converted policy may be issued to cover any dependent.

(6) The insurer shall not be required to issue a converted policy covering any person if such person is or could be covered by medicare (title XVIII of the United States social security act as added by the social security amendments of 1965 or as later amended or superseded). Furthermore, the insurer shall not be required to issue a converted policy covering any person if:

(A) (i) Such person is covered for similar benefits by another hospital, surgical, medical or major medical expense insurance policy or hospital or medical service subscriber contract or medical practice or other prepayment plan or by any other plan or program, or

(ii) such person is eligible for similar benefits (whether or not covered therefor) under any arrangement of coverage for individuals in a group, whether on an insured or uninsured basis, or

(iii) similar benefits are provided for or available to such person, pursuant to or in accordance with the requirements of any state or federal law, and

(B) the benefits provided under the sources referred to in clause subparagraph (A) for such person or benefits provided or available under the sources referred to in subparas (A)(ii) and (A)(iii) above for such person, together with the benefits provided by the converted policy, would result in over-insurance according to the insurer's standards. The insurer's standards must bear some reasonable relationship to actual health care costs in the area in which the insured lives at the time of conversion and must be filed with the commissioner of insurance prior to their use in denying coverage.

(7) A converted policy may include a provision whereby the insurer may request information in advance of any premium due date of such policy of any person covered as to whether:

(A) Such person is covered for similar benefits by another hospital, surgical, medical or major medical expense insurance policy or hospital or medical service subscriber contract or medical practice or other prepayment plan or by any other plan or program;
(B) such person is covered for similar benefits under any arrangement of coverage for individuals in a group, whether on an insured or uninsured basis; or
(C) similar benefits are provided for or available to such person, pursuant to or in accordance with the requirements of any state or federal law.

(8) The converted policy may provide that the insurer may refuse to renew the policy and the coverage of any person insured for the following reasons only:

(A) Either the benefits provided under the sources referred to in subpara (A)(i) and (A)(ii) of paragraph (A)(iii) for such person or benefits provided or available under the sources referred to in clause (A)(iii) of paragraph (A)(iii) for such person, together with the benefits provided by the converted policy, would result in over-insurance according to the insurer's standards on file with the commissioner of insurance, or the converted policyholder fails to provide the requested information;
(B) fraud or material misrepresentation in applying for any benefits under the converted policy; or
(C) other reasons approved by the commissioner of insurance.

(9) An insurer shall not be required to issue a converted policy which provides coverage and benefits in excess of those provided under the group policy from which conversion is made.

(10) If the converted policy provides that any hospital, surgical or medical benefits payable may be reduced by the amount of any such benefits payable under the group policy after the termination of the individual's insurance or the converted policy includes provisions so that during the first policy year the benefits payable under the converted policy, together with the benefits payable under the group policy, shall not exceed those that would have been payable had the individual's insurance under the group policy remained in force and effect, the converted policy shall provide credit for deductibles, copayments and other conditions satisfied under the group policy.

(11) Subject to the provisions and conditions of this act, if the group insurance policy from which conversion is made insures the employee or member for major medical expense insurance, the employee or member shall be entitled to obtain a converted policy providing catastrophic or major medical coverage under a plan meeting the following requirements:

(A) A maximum benefit at least equal to either, at the option of the insurer, the amount described in clause (i) or (ii) below:
(i) The smaller of the following amounts:

The maximum benefit provided under the group policy or a maximum payment of $250,000 per covered person for all covered medical expenses incurred during the covered person's lifetime.

(ii) The smaller of the following amounts:

The maximum benefit provided under the group policy or a maximum payment of $250,000 for each unrelated injury or sickness.

(B) Payment of benefits at the rate of 80% of covered medical expenses which are in excess of the deductible, until 20% of such expenses in a benefit period reaches $1,000, after which benefits will be paid at the rate of 100% during the remainder of such benefit period. Payment of benefits for outpatient treatment of mental illness, if provided in the converted policy, may be at a lesser rate but not less than 50%.

(C) A deductible for each benefit period which, at the option of the insurer, shall be:

(i) The sum of the benefits deductible and $100;

(ii) The corresponding deductible in the group policy. The term "benefits deductible," as used herein, means the value of any benefits provided on an expense incurred basis which are provided with respect to covered medical expenses by any other hospital, surgical, or medical insurance policy or hospital or medical service subscriber contract or medical practice or other prepayment plan, or any other plan or program whether on an insured or uninsured basis, or in accordance with the requirements of any state or federal law and, if pursuant to the conditions of paragraph (13), the converted policy provides both basic hospital or surgical coverage and major medical coverage, the value of such basic benefits.

If the maximum benefit is determined by clause subparagraph (A)(ii) of this paragraph, the insurer may require that the deductible be satisfied during a period of not less than three months if the deductible is $100 or less, and not less than six months if the deductible exceeds $100.

(D) The benefit period shall be each calendar year when the maximum benefit is determined by clause subparagraph (A)(i) of this paragraph or 24 months when the maximum benefit is determined by clause subparagraph (A)(ii) of this paragraph.

(E) The term "covered medical expenses," as used above, shall include at least, in the case of hospital room and board charges 80% of the average semiprivate room and board rate for the hospital in which the individual is confined and twice such amount for charges in an intensive care unit. Any surgical schedule shall be consistent with those customarily offered by the insurer under group or individual health insurance policies and must provide at least a $1,200 maximum benefit.

(12) The conversion privilege required by this act shall, if the group insurance policy insures the employee or member for basic hospital or surgical expense insurance as well as major medical expense insurance, make available the plans of benefits set forth in paragraph (11). At the option of the insurer, such plans of benefits may be provided under one policy.

The insurer may also, in lieu of the plans of benefits set forth in paragraph (11), provide a policy of comprehensive medical expense benefits without first dollar coverage. The policy shall conform to the requirements of paragraph (11). An insurer electing to provide such a policy shall make available a low deductible option, not to exceed $100, a high deductible option between $500 and $1,000, and a third deductible option midway between the high and low deductible options.
(13) The insurer, at its option, may also offer alternative plans for group health conversion in addition to those required by this act.

(14) In the event coverage would be continued under the group policy on an employee following the employee's retirement prior to the time the employee is or could be covered by medicare, the employee may elect, in lieu of such continuation of group insurance, to have the same conversion rights as would apply had such person's insurance terminated at retirement by reason of termination of employment or membership.

(15) The converted policy may provide for reduction of coverage on any person upon such person's eligibility for coverage under medicare (title XVIII of the United States social security act as added by the social security amendments of 1965 or as later amended or superseded) or under any other state or federal law providing for benefits similar to those provided by the converted policy.

(16) Subject to the conditions set forth above, the continuation and conversion privileges shall also be available:

(A) To the surviving spouse, if any, at the death of the employee or member, with respect to the spouse and such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, otherwise to each surviving child whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, or, if the group policy provides for continuation of dependents' coverage following the employee's or member's death, at the end of such continuation;

(B) to the spouse of the employee or member upon termination of coverage of the spouse, while the employee or member remains insured under the group policy, by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, with respect to the spouse and such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates at the same time; or

(C) to a child solely with respect to such child upon termination of such coverage by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, if a conversion privilege is not otherwise provided above with respect to such termination.

(17) The insurer may elect to provide group insurance coverage—which that complies with this act in lieu of the issuance of a converted individual policy.

(18) A notification of the conversion privilege shall be included in each certificate of coverage.

(19) A converted policy—which that is delivered outside this state must be on a form—which that could be delivered in such other jurisdiction as a converted policy had the group policy been issued in that jurisdiction.

(20) The insurer shall give the employee or member and such employee's or member's covered dependents: (A) Reasonable notice of the right to convert at least once during the eighteen-month continuation period; or (B) for persons covered under 29 U.S.C. §§ 1161 et seq., notice of the right to a conversion policy required by this subsection (d) shall be given at least 30 days prior to the end of the continuation period provided by 29 U.S.C. §§ 1161 et seq. or from the date the employer ceases to provide any similar group health plan to any employee. Such notices shall be provided in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner of insurance.

(k) (1) No policy issued by an insurer to which this section applies shall contain a provision—which that excludes, limits or otherwise restricts coverage because medicaid benefits as permitted by title XIX of the social security act of 1965 are or may be available for the same accident or illness.

(2) Violation of this subsection shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by K.S.A. 40-2407 and 40-2411, and amendments thereto.

(l) The commissioner is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: Justice Roberts made it clear and he firmly reiterated the idea that our state governments have the duty to defend the powers they retained under the U.S.
Constitution, in his opinion in the first Obamacare Supreme Court challenge – NFIB v.
Sebelius he wrote: “In the typical case we look to the States to defend their prerogatives by adopting ‘the simple expedient of not yielding’ to federal blandishments when they do not want to embrace the federal policies as their own.” Justice Roberts then added, “The States are separate and independent sovereigns. Sometimes they have to act like it.” Today in this Senate Chamber we acted like it and have exercised our 10th Amendment rights, by passing HB 2209. For these reasons I am proud to have voted in favor of HB 2209.—RICHARD HILDERBRAND

Senator Lynn requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hilderbrand on HB 2209.

Mr. Vice President: The people of Kansas do need help getting affordable health care, but the conference committee report for HB 2209 is not a good way to accomplish that. This is not insurance! Company representatives in their committee testimonies said, “This is not insurance”. The intention is for this coverage to be more affordable, but we have no numbers. We also have no details on what will or will not be covered. What does it matter that it’s not actual insurance? Oversight. State and federal regulation and oversight ensure that enrollees receive the protections promised them under contract, solvency is monitored, and fraudulent activity is investigated. The company would not be subject to the “external review” statute that requires the right to have a claim denial reviewed by a third party or to the “prompt payment” statute. Coverage. Although 30% of Kansans live with pre-existing conditions, this bill would allow the plan to cover only the healthiest Kansans, creating a very uneven playing field thereby destabilizing our insurance industry and leaving the real insurance companies with a less healthy pool. We all desperately want better, more affordable healthcare for Kansans, but again, this is most definitely not the way to do that.—MARY WARE

Senators Bollier, Francisco, Haley and Hensley request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Ware on HB 2209.

Mr. Vice President: I have additional concerns with the proposed changes for Association Health Plans included in the Conference Committee Report on HB 2209. These plans cannot guarantee lower rates for the members yet will likely increase costs for other insurance customers. More questions have been raised since a Federal District Court invalidated the U.S Department of Labor’s Health Plan Rule in March. Our Kansas Department of Insurance will likely receive questions about the fate of Association Health Plans formed under the new rule. It seems inappropriate to encourage the formation of new Association Health Plans and allow them to market themselves to new members before this is resolved.—MARCIFRANCISCO

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote "AYE" on House Substitute for SB 16. In its Gannon VI order on June 25, 2018, the Kansas Supreme Court ruled, “The State has not met the adequacy requirement in Article 6 of the Kansas Constitution.” The court gave the 2019 Legislature the opportunity to appropriate additional money for inflation while keeping our $522 million, five-year commitment to K-12 education we made last session. This bill represents a bipartisan, good-faith effort by the 2019 Legislature to comply with the Gannon adequacy requirement. After years of litigation under Gannon, which began in 2011, the people want us to act responsibly to adequately and fairly fund quality schools for every child in our state, regardless of their special needs, their family’s income, or where they live. The school children of Kansas cannot wait another day, another month, or another school year, to receive the suitable education they deserve. I vote for this bill because my most important duty is to ensure that every Kansas child is given the best education possible. Our children’s success for tomorrow depends on the effectiveness of their schools today.—Anthony Hensley

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Holland, Pettey and Ware request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on H Sub SB 16.

Mr. Vice President, I vote “AYE” on H Sub SB 16. I voted no when it originally passed the Senate and while I still have concerns regarding the endless cycle of school finance litigation in Kansas, SB 16 provides a much-needed policy fix with the inclusion of the Tax Credit for Low Income Students Scholarship Program. As a former special education teacher, I am confident early intervention for at-risk children has better outcomes than intervention at a later age. This policy fix provides critical funding to elementary age students who are just beginning their educational journey and therefore I vote "AYE.”—Susan Wagle

ORIGINAL MOTION

On motion of Senator Tyson, the Senate acceded to the request of the House for a conference on HB 2160.

On page 1, by striking all in lines 7 through 36;
On page 14, by striking all in lines 1 through 27; following line 27, by inserting:

"Section 1. (a) As used in this section:
(1) "Abortion" means the same as defined in K.S.A. 65-6701, and amendments thereto.
(2) "Medication abortion" means the use or prescription of any drug for the purpose of inducing an abortion.
(3) "Medical emergency" means the same as defined in K.S.A. 65-6701, and amendments thereto.

(b) (1) Any private office, freestanding surgical outpatient clinic, hospital or other facility or clinic where medication abortions that use mifepristone are provided shall post a conspicuous sign that is clearly visible to patients, that is printed with lettering that is legible and at least \( \frac{3}{4} \) of an inch boldfaced type and that reads:

"NOTICE TO PATIENTS HAVING MEDICATION ABORTIONS THAT USE MIFEPRISTONE: Mifepristone, also known as RU-486 or misoprostol, alone is not always effective in ending a pregnancy. It may be possible to reverse its intended effect if the second pill or tablet has not been taken or administered. If you change your mind and wish to try to continue the pregnancy, you can get immediate help by accessing available resources."

The notice shall also include information about the department of health and environment website, required to be maintained under K.S.A. 65-6710, and amendments thereto, and other relevant telephone and internet resources containing information on where the patient can obtain timely assistance to attempt to reverse the medication abortion.

(2) (A) Any private office or freestanding surgical outpatient clinic where medication abortions that use mifepristone are provided shall post the sign required by paragraph (1) in each patient waiting room and patient consultation room used by patients for whom medication abortions are provided.

(B) A hospital or other facility where medication abortions that use mifepristone are provided that is not a private office or freestanding surgical outpatient clinic shall post the sign required by paragraph (1) in each patient admission area used by patients for whom medication abortions that use mifepristone are provided.

(c) (1) Except in the case of a medical emergency, no physician shall provide, induce or attempt to provide or induce a medication abortion that use mifepristone without informing the woman, in writing, in the manner prescribed by K.S.A. 65-6709, and amendments thereto, and also either by telephone or in person, at least 24 hours prior to the medication abortion:

(A) That it may be possible to reverse the intended effects of a medication abortion that uses mifepristone, if the woman changes her mind, but that time is of the essence; and

(B) information on reversing the effects of a medication abortion that uses mifepristone is available on the department of health and environment's website, required to be maintained under K.S.A. 65-6710, and amendments thereto, and other relevant telephone and internet resources containing information on where the patient can obtain timely assistance to attempt to reverse the medication abortion.

(2) After a physician dispenses or provides an initial administration of mifepristone to a patient for the purposes of performing a medication abortion, the physician or an agent of the physician shall provide a legible, written notice to the patient that includes the same information as required under subsection (b)(1).

(d) When a medical emergency compels the performance of a medication abortion that use mifepristone, the physician shall inform the woman, prior to the medication abortion, if possible, of the medical indications supporting the physician's judgment that an abortion is necessary to avert the woman's death or that a 24-hour delay would create serious risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function, excluding psychological or emotional conditions.

(e) Within 90 days after the effective date of this section, the department of health and environment shall cause to be published, in English and in each language that is the primary language of 2% or more of the state's population, in print and on the website required to be maintained under K.S.A. 65-6710, and amendments thereto, comprehensible materials designed to inform women of the possibility of reversing the effects of a medication abortion that uses mifepristone and information on resources available to reverse the effects of a medication abortion that uses mifepristone. The website shall also include other relevant telephone and internet resources containing information on where the patient can obtain timely assistance to attempt to reverse the medication abortion.

(f) Upon a first conviction of a violation of this section, a person shall be guilty of a class A person misdemeanor. Upon a second or subsequent conviction of a violation of this section, a person shall be guilty of a severity level 10, person felony.
(g) The department of health and environment shall assess a fine of $10,000 to any private office, freestanding surgical outpatient clinic, hospital or other clinic or facility that fails to post a sign required by subsection (b). Each day that a medication abortion that uses mifepristone, other than a medication abortion that is necessary to prevent the death of the pregnant woman, is performed in any private office, freestanding surgical outpatient clinic, hospital or other facility or clinic when the required sign is not posted during a portion of that day's business hours when patients or prospective patients are present shall be a separate violation. The department of health and environment shall remit all moneys received from fines under this subsection to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount into the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund.

(h) (1) If a physician provides a medication abortion using mifepristone in violation of this section, the following individuals may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the physician for actual damages, exemplary and punitive damages and any other appropriate relief:

(A) A woman to whom such medication abortion has been provided;
(B) the father of the unborn child who was subject to such medication abortion; or
(C) any grandparent of the unborn child who was subject to such medication abortion, if the woman was not 18 years of age or older at the time the medication abortion was performed or if the woman died as a result of the medication abortion.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any action commenced in accordance with this subsection shall be filed within two years after the later of:

(A) The date of the discovery of the violation under this section; or
(B) the conclusion of a related criminal case.

(3) In any action brought under this section, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees and costs to:

(A) A prevailing plaintiff; or
(B) a prevailing defendant upon a finding that the action was frivolous and brought in bad faith.

(i) In any civil or criminal proceeding or action brought under this section, the court shall rule whether the anonymity of any woman to whom a medication abortion has been provided, induced or attempted to be provided or induced shall be preserved from public disclosure, if she does not give her consent to such disclosure. The court, upon motion or sua sponte, shall make such a ruling and, upon determining that the woman's anonymity should be preserved, shall issue orders to the parties, witnesses and counsel and shall direct the sealing of the record and exclusion of individuals from courtrooms or hearing rooms to the extent necessary to safeguard the woman's identity from public disclosure. Each such order shall be accompanied by specific written findings explaining why the anonymity of the woman should be preserved from public disclosure, why the order is essential to that end, how the order is narrowly tailored to serve that interest and why no reasonable less restrictive alternative exists. In the absence of written consent of the woman to whom a medication abortion has been provided, induced or attempted to be provided or induced, any person, other than a public official, who brings an action under this section shall do so under a pseudonym. This subsection shall not be construed to conceal the identity of the plaintiff or witnesses from the defendant.
(j) If any provision of this section, or any application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid by court order, then such invalidity shall not affect the remainder of this section and any application thereof to any person or circumstance that can be given effect without such invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this section are declared to be severable.

(k) Any person licensed by the state board of healing arts or the board of nursing who prescribes or administers progesterone for the purpose of reversing a medication abortion shall:

1. Report to the department of health and environment that the person has prescribed or administered progesterone to a patient for the purpose of reversing a medication abortion within 14 days of such prescription or administration;

2. If the progesterone treatment fails to reverse the effects of the medication abortion, report to the department of health and environment within 14 days of such failure; and

3. If the woman to whom progesterone is prescribed or administered for the purpose of reversing a medication abortion successfully carries the pregnancy to term, report to the department of health and environment the maternal and newborn health conditions at the time of birth within 14 days of the birth.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on the Conference Committee Report containing SB 67. The legislature should not insert itself into the private physician-patient relationship and the practice of medicine. Requiring a physician to tell a patient that a non-scientifically based treatment may change the outcome of a medical abortion is misleading to patients. Women in Kansas should be confident that their physicians and other caregivers provide information that they believe to be true. The American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology stands opposed to this legislation, calling it based on junk science. This bill did not receive a hearing in the Public Health and Welfare committee to fully vet this issue. Kansas women deserve better.—BARBARA BOLLIER

Senators Francisco, Hawk, Hensley, Sykes and Ware request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bollier on SB 67.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “NO” on the Conference Committee Report on Senate Bill 67. I am concerned with the infringement upon the physician-patient relationship. I also cannot understand why, if we are requiring a notice be posted in a caregiver’s office, hospital or clinic to inform a woman that it may be possible to reverse the intended effects of a medication abortion that uses mifepristone, we include information about the Department of Health and Environment website and other relevant telephone and internet resources containing information on where the patient can obtain timely assistance to reverse the medication abortion without any suggestion that they might talk directly to their caregiver.—MARCI FRANCISCO project including principal of and interest on special obligation bonds issued by such city or county to finance, in whole or in part, such project.

Senators Bollier and Hawk request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SB 67.

Sec. 10. K.S.A. 12-5245 and 12-5250 and K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 12-5248, 75-5133

ORIGINAL MOTION

Senator Hensley rose to submit the following:

Pursuant to Senate Rule 11, I move to withdraw House Bill No. 2066 from the Committee on Public Health and Welfare and the bill be placed on the calendar under the order of business General Orders.

House Bill No. 2066 establishes the KanCare bridge to a healthy Kansas program.

The purpose of this motion is to allow for debate and vote on Medicaid expansion on the floor of the Kansas Senate in this legislative session. This motion is made on behalf of the thousands of Kansans who have contacted their Senator directly to express their desire for the Kansas Senate to debate this important issue during the 2019 Session of the Kansas Legislature.

The reasons for this motion include several facts beyond dispute: 36 states and the District of Columbia have had this debate and chosen to expand Medicaid.

Kansas has forgone more than $3 billion that would have come to our state had we expanded Medicaid in 2014. The Kansas Hospital Association estimates for each day of delay on Medicaid expansion, the state loses slightly more than $2 million.

Kansas Hospitals annually register more than one billion dollars in uncompensated care.

Medicaid expansion would provide improved healthcare access to 130,000 Kansans.
This debate will build on the deliberative work the legislature has already done over the past five years. There have been legislative hearings, round table discussions, local and regional stakeholder meetings – all with the purpose of engaging legislators, citizens and experts to explore the benefits and risks of expanding Medicaid. The action requested for in this motion is not arbitrary, but rather is the culmination of years of work.

The Kansas House of Representatives responded to their constituents by conducting a vigorous debate and passing House Bill No. 2066 on March 21, 2019. The time has come for the Kansas Senate to debate Medicaid expansion on the floor and vote on the issue prior to adjournment of the 2019 Session.

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

Sub SB 130 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Governor on April 5, 2019.

On motion of Senator Denning, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, May 1, 2019.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President Jeff Longbine.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the times when we can break away; when we can get away from the steady grind of our labors. But caution us Lord and even convict us, when we take breaks and get away from You. You said in Philippians 4:6-7, that prayer is vital to getting the answers we need.

Larnell Harris wrote a song about being so busy that we bypass that spiritual place of spending time with You. Reflecting back on the times that You were there and we were not, he wrote these words. “There He was just waiting, in our old familiar place. An empty spot beside Him, where once I used to wait. To be filled with strength and wisdom, for the battles of the day. And I would have passed Him by again, but I clearly heard Him say I miss My time with you, those moments together. I need to be with you each day. And it hurts Me when you say you’re too busy, busy trying to serve Me. But how can you serve Me when your spirit's empty? There’s a longing in My heart wanting more than just a part of you. It’s true I miss My time with you.”

And Lord, he heard You say, “What do I have to offer you? How can I truly care? My efforts have no meaning when your presence isn’t there.” So, our God will provide the power if we take time to pray. If we stay right there beside Him, we’ll never have to hear Him say, “I miss My time with you. I miss My time with you.” Deliver us Lord, from occasional, inconsistent prayer. In Jesus’ Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President Longbine.

VETO SUSTAINED

The Governor's objection to SB 22 is sustained as the 30th day to override has passed.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGE

April 22, 2019

Senate Bill 67 will interfere with the relationship between patients and their physicians. This unwarranted legislation would create confusion, could be harmful to women's health, and would subject health professionals to criminal penalties for failing to follow a government mandate that is not adequately supported by medical science.
The practice of medicine should be left to licensed health professionals, not elected officials.
Therefore, under Article 2, Sections 14(a) of the Constitution, I hereby veto Senate Bill 67.

Laura Kelly
Governor

ACTION ON VETO MESSAGE

President Wagle announced a veto message from the Governor having been received on April 22, 2019 and read, the time had arrived for consideration.

President Wagle moved SB 67 be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto.

SB 67, AN ACT concerning abortion; relating to medication abortions; notification requirements.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 27; Nays 13; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nays: Bollier, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hardy, Hawk, Hensley, Holland, Miller, Pettey, Skubal, Sykes, Ware.

A two-thirds constitutional majority having voted in favor of overriding the Governor's veto, the motion prevailed and the bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I think that SB 67 is probably a good bill that deserves consideration. I have enough reservations about this bill that I would feel better if this bill was considered in the 2020 Session. This body is known for its preference to pause and reflect on many bills, and I believe that this bill is in that category.—Randall Hardy

ORIGINAL MOTION

President Wagle announced the time had arrived to consider the motion submitted April 5, 2019 in writing by Senator Anthony Hensley, citing Rule 11(b), to withdraw HB 2066 from the Committee on Public Health and Welfare and be placed on the calendar under the heading of General Orders.

HB 2066, AN ACT concerning the department of health and environment; establishing the KanCare bridge to a healthy Kansas program; amending K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 40-3213 and repealing the existing section.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 23; Nays 13; Present and Passing 4; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nays: Alley, Braun, Hilderbrand, Kerschen, Lynn, Masterson, Olson, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Suellentrop, Tyson, Wagle.
Pursuant to Senate Rule 11(b) requiring majority vote of 24, the motion failed and HB 2066 remains in committee.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I am voting yes for the welfare mother who finally got a job only to discover that she was not eligible for KanCare, I am voting yes for the 45 year old woman who could not afford to see a physician about a lump on her breast which ultimately metastasized, I am voting yes for the asthmatic child whose parents cannot afford health insurance, I am voting yes for the pregnant woman who was abandoned by her husband and could not afford prenatal care and had a late term miscarriage depriving her of having that son that she wanted, I am voting yes for the millions of dollars of uncompensated care that are being paid for by all of us, I am voting yes for the small rural hospitals that need a life line and my constituents who are overwhelmingly supportive. I vote “YES” for HB 2066.—ED BERGER

Senators Billinger, Haley, Hawk, Pettey, Skubal and Taylor request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Berger on HB 2066.

Mr. Vice President: Kansans lost today…they lost on the issue of democracy. To be denied over and over the opportunity to hear, work, and ultimately vote on this bill to expand Medicaid is unconscionable. Over 21 Senators support Medicaid expansion, the number needed to pass this bill, yet the process denies us the ability to cast a vote. I find this decision to deny Kansas citizens health care abhorrent.—BARBARA BOLLIER

Senators Haley and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bollier on HB 2066.

Mr. Vice President: I vote yes because I believe transparency and open debate are critical to our democratic process. While this issue deserves to be studied further, it also deserves a timely conversation. Waiting another year does nothing to move good policy forward. My local doctors and hospital experts indicate they are losing $4.53 million in federal dollars each year – dollars that are intended to ensure our rural communities have access to a local hospital. I look forward to addressing this situation in a way that is effective and efficient for our rural communities.—ELAINE BOWERS

Mr. Vice President: During the break I did extensive research on this issue, and the fact that the most needy are put in line or can be put in line in back of those less needy able-bodied people has drawn me to the conclusion to look at this in the future and examine further what the options are but at this time that is the reason for my vote.—KEVIN BRAUN

Senators Kerschen, Lynn and Petersen request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Braun on HB 2066.

Mr. Vice President: Today I vote "PASS." I’m not saying No; I’m saying this policy isn’t ready. Since session started, I’ve been transparent with my district, the media, and the Governor’s Office….it is not prudent for this Senate body to support Medicaid Expansion spending plan until we know how the Supreme Court rules on K-12 funding. This Expansion bill was a gut n’ go passed by the House and sent to the Senate without any proper committee hearings or testimony. I have committed to working on a Medicaid plan over the interim in a transparent manner and I believe a modernized present-day bill will be debated on Senate floor early next session. This body should not support policy based on political wins or losses, but rather good sound policy that benefits the State of Kansas and its constituents. —Jim Denning

Senators Alley, Estes, Goddard, Kerschen, Lynn, Petersen and Wilborn request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Denning on HB 2066.

Mr. Vice President: I vote “YES” for HB 2066 on behalf of Titus Tsimonjela, Isiah Tsimonjela, and Linda Williams.—Oletha Faust-Goudeau

Mr. Vice President: I vote “AYE” on the motion to withdraw House Bill 2066 from committee so the full Senate can debate the issue of Medicaid expansion. I want to express my appreciation to my Senate colleagues for voting in favor of this motion. Their willingness to allow for a debate on Medicaid expansion shows they are listening to their constituents who also want that debate. I also express my appreciation to the thousands upon thousands of Kansans who have voiced their support for Medicaid expansion. I was especially moved when I drove into the Statehouse parking garage today to see the three dozen or so Kansans who held up signs in favor of Medicaid expansion. Despite being one vote short of withdrawing House Bill 2066 from committee, this issue will not go away. We will continue to fight to insure that 130,000 uninsured Kansans will get the access to healthcare they deserve.—Anthony Hensley

Mr. Vice President: I vote “YES” and would like to explain my vote. This has been a very difficult discussion for me not because I do not believe in expansion but because of the difficult process we have had to go through just to advance expansion forward. Because of the overwhelming response I have received from my constituents from my district as well as the Newton and Wichita Chambers of Commerce. In addition to trying to listen to my constituents, I have fiduciary responsibility as a hospital board member to support policy that helps my rural hospital survive. Our state has lost over 3 billion federal dollars by not expanding. We need to bring our federal dollars back home. I have faith in our Health and Public Policy Chair that he will lead this process to work on policy so we will have a good product to debate next year.—Carolyn McGinn

Senator Goddard requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator McGinn on HB 2066.

WHEREAS, To prepare for their regional and national competitions, the teams sacrifice part of their winter break and weekends for extra practice. These teams work hard each year to maintain their tradition of success; and

WHEREAS, The team members’ character, sportsmanship, and love shine through on the stage as much as their technical execution and synchronization. Their experience on the team teaches powerful life lessons of hard work, dedication, and confidence: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend the Olathe Northwest High School Raven Dance Team, their coaches, parents and family members, administrators, faculty, and Olathe Northwest for the team's National Championship title win, and we wish them continued success; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send 30 enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Lynn.

On emergency motion of Senator Lynn SR 1740 was adopted unanimously.

(2) subsection (a)(3) is a severity level 4, person felony; and

(3) subsection (a)(5) is a severity level 3, person felony.

Sec. 6. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5602 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-5602.

Sec. 7. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6815 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6815.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), the sentencing judge shall impose the presumptive sentence provided by the sentencing guidelines unless the judge finds substantial and compelling reasons to impose a departure sentence. If the sentencing judge departs from the presumptive sentence, the judge shall state on the record at the time of sentencing the substantial and compelling reasons for the departure.

(b) Subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6817(b), and amendments thereto, any fact that would increase the penalty for a crime beyond the statutory maximum, other than a prior conviction, shall be submitted to a jury and proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

(c) (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (c)(3) and (e), the following nonexclusive list of mitigating factors may be considered in determining whether substantial and compelling reasons for a departure exist:

(A) The victim was an aggressor or participant in the criminal conduct associated with the crime of conviction, except that this factor shall not apply to a sexually violent crime as defined in K.S.A. 22-3717, and amendments thereto, or electronic solicitation as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5509, and amendments thereto, when: (i) The victim is less than 14 years of age and the offender is 18 or more years of age; or (ii) the offender hires any person by giving, or offering to or agreeing to give, anything of value to the person to engage in an unlawful sex act.

(B) The offender played a minor or passive role in the crime or participated under circumstances of duress or compulsion. This factor may be considered when it is not sufficient as a complete defense.

(C) The offender, because of physical or mental impairment, lacked substantial capacity for judgment when the offense was committed. The voluntary use of intoxicants, drugs or alcohol does not fall within the purview of this factor.

(D) The defendant, or the defendant's children, suffered a continuing pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and the offense is a response to that abuse.

(E) The degree of harm or loss attributed to the current crime of conviction was significantly less than typical for such an offense.

(F) The offender committed such crime as a result of an injury, including major depressive disorder, polytrauma, post-traumatic stress disorder or traumatic brain injury, connected to service in a combat zone, as defined in section 112 of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, in the armed forces of the United States of America. As used in this subsection, "major depressive disorder," "polytrauma," "post-traumatic stress disorder" and "traumatic brain injury" shall mean the same as such terms are defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6630, and amendments thereto.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (c)(3), the following nonexclusive list of aggravating factors may be considered in determining whether substantial and compelling reasons for departure exist:

(A) The victim was particularly vulnerable due to age, infirmity, or reduced physical or mental capacity which was known or should have been known to the offender.

(B) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested excessive brutality to the victim in a manner not normally present in that offense.

(C) The offense was motivated entirely or in part by the race, color, religion, ethnicity, national origin or sexual orientation of the victim or the offense was motivated by the defendant's belief or perception, entirely or in part, of the race, color, religion, ethnicity, national origin or sexual orientation of the victim whether or not the defendant's belief or perception was correct.

(D) The offense involved a fiduciary relationship which existed between the defendant and the victim.

(E) The defendant, 18 or more years of age, employed, hired, used, persuaded, induced, enticed or coerced any individual under 16 years of age to:

(i) Commit any person felony;

(ii) assist in avoiding detection or apprehension for commission of any person felony; or

(iii) attempt, conspire or solicit, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302 and 21-5303, and amendments thereto, to commit any person felony.

That the defendant did not know the age of the individual under 16 years of age shall not be a consideration.

(F) The defendant's current crime of conviction is a crime of extreme sexual violence and the defendant is a predatory sex offender. As used in this subsection:

(i) "Crime of extreme sexual violence" is a felony limited to the following:
(a) A crime involving a nonconsensual act of sexual intercourse or sodomy with any person;
(b) a crime involving an act of sexual intercourse, sodomy or lewd fondling and touching with any child who is 14 or more years of age but less than 16 years of age and with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization;
(c) a crime involving an act of sexual intercourse, sodomy or lewd fondling and touching with any child who is less than 14 years of age;
(d) aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age; or
(e) commercial sexual exploitation of a child, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6422, and amendments thereto, if the victim is less than 14 years of age.
(ii) "Predatory sex offender" is an offender who has been convicted of a crime of extreme sexual violence as the current crime of conviction and who:
(a) Has one or more prior convictions of any crimes of extreme sexual violence. Any prior conviction used to establish the defendant as a predatory sex offender pursuant to this subsection shall also be counted in determining the criminal history category; or
(b) suffers from a mental condition or personality disorder which makes the offender likely to engage in additional acts constituting crimes of extreme sexual violence.
(iii) "Mental condition or personality disorder" means an emotional, mental or physical illness, disease, abnormality, disorder, pathology or condition which motivates the person, affects the predisposition or desires of the person, or interferes with the capacity of the person to control impulses to commit crimes of extreme sexual violence.
(G) The defendant was incarcerated during the commission of the offense.
(H) The crime involved two or more participants in the criminal conduct, and the defendant played a major role in the crime as the organizer, leader, recruiter, manager or supervisor.

In determining whether aggravating factors exist as provided in this section, the court shall review the victim impact statement.

(3) If a factual aspect of a crime is a statutory element of the crime or is used to subclassify the crime on the crime severity scale, that aspect of the current crime of conviction may be used as an aggravating or mitigating factor only if the criminal conduct constituting that aspect of the current crime of conviction is significantly different from the usual criminal conduct captured by the aspect of the crime.
(d) In determining aggravating or mitigating circumstances, the court shall consider:
(1) Any evidence received during the proceeding;
(2) the presentence report;
(3) written briefs and oral arguments of either the state or counsel for the defendant; and
(4) any other evidence relevant to such aggravating or mitigating circumstances that the court finds trustworthy and reliable.
(e) Upon motion of the prosecutor stating that the defendant has provided substantial assistance in the investigation or prosecution of another person who is alleged to have committed an offense, the court may consider such mitigation in determining whether substantial and compelling reasons for a departure exist. In considering this mitigating factor, the court may consider the following:

1. The court's evaluation of the significance and usefulness of the defendant's assistance, taking into consideration the prosecutor's evaluation of the assistance rendered;
2. the truthfulness, completeness and reliability of any information or testimony provided by the defendant;
3. the nature and extent of the defendant's assistance;
4. any injury suffered, or any danger or risk of injury to the defendant or the defendant's family resulting from such assistance; and
5. the timeliness of the defendant's assistance.

Sec. 8. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6604 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6604. (a) Whenever any person has been found guilty of a crime, the court may adjudge any of the following:

1. Commit the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections if the current crime of conviction is a felony and the sentence presumes imprisonment, or the sentence imposed is a dispositional departure to imprisonment; or, if confinement is for a misdemeanor, to jail for the term provided by law;
2. impose the fine applicable to the offense and may impose the provisions of subsection (q);
3. release the defendant on probation if the current crime of conviction and criminal history fall within a presumptive nonprison category or through a departure for substantial and compelling reasons subject to such conditions as the court may deem appropriate. In felony cases except for violations of K.S.A. 8-1567 or 8-2,144, and amendments thereto, the court may include confinement in a county jail not to exceed 60 days, which need not be served consecutively, as a condition of an original probation sentence;
4. assign the defendant to a community correctional services program as provided in K.S.A. 75-5291, and amendments thereto, or through a departure for substantial and compelling reasons subject to such conditions as the court may deem appropriate, including orders requiring full or partial restitution;
5. assign the defendant to a conservation camp for a period not to exceed six months as a condition of probation followed by a six-month period of follow-up through adult intensive supervision by a community correctional services program, if the offender successfully completes the conservation camp program;
6. assign the defendant to a house arrest program pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6609, and amendments thereto;
7. order the defendant to attend and satisfactorily complete an alcohol or drug education or training program as provided by K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6602(c), and amendments thereto;
8. order the defendant to repay the amount of any reward paid by any crime stoppers chapter, individual, corporation or public entity which materially aided in the apprehension or conviction of the defendant; repay the amount of any costs and expenses incurred by any law enforcement agency in the apprehension of the defendant, if one of the current crimes of conviction of the defendant includes escape from custody or aggravated escape from custody, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5911, and amendments thereto; repay expenses incurred by a fire district, fire department or fire company responding to a fire which has been determined to be arson or aggravated arson as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5812, and amendments thereto, if the defendant is convicted of such crime; repay the amount of any public funds utilized by a law enforcement agency to purchase controlled substances from the defendant during the investigation which leads to the defendant's conviction; or repay the amount of any medical costs and expenses incurred by any law enforcement agency or county. Such repayment of the amount of any such costs and expenses incurred by a county, law enforcement agency, fire district, fire department or fire company or any public funds utilized by a law enforcement agency shall be deposited and credited to the same fund from which the public funds were credited to prior to use by the county, law enforcement agency, fire district, fire department or fire company;

(9) order the defendant to pay the administrative fee authorized by K.S.A. 22-4529, and amendments thereto, unless waived by the court;

(10) order the defendant to pay a domestic violence special program fee authorized by K.S.A. 20-369, and amendments thereto;

(11) if the defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor or convicted of a felony specified in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6804(i), and amendments thereto, assign the defendant to work release program, other than a program at a correctional institution under the control of the secretary of corrections as defined in K.S.A. 75-5202, and amendments thereto, provided such work release program requires such defendant to return to confinement at the end of each day in the work release program. On a second or subsequent conviction of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, an offender placed into a work release program shall serve the total number of hours of confinement mandated by that section;

(12) order the defendant to pay the full amount of unpaid costs associated with the conditions of release of the appearance bond under K.S.A. 22-2802, and amendments thereto;

(13) impose any appropriate combination of (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11) and (12); or

(14) suspend imposition of sentence in misdemeanor cases.

(b) (1) In addition to or in lieu of any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution, which shall include, but not be limited to, damage or loss caused by the defendant's crime, unless the court finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of restitution unworkable. In regard to a violation of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6107, and amendments thereto, such damage or loss shall include, but not be limited to, attorney fees and costs incurred to repair the credit history or rating of the person whose personal identification documents were obtained and used in violation of such section, and to satisfy a debt, lien or other obligation incurred by the person whose personal identification documents were obtained and used in violation of such section. In regard to a violation of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5801, 21-5807 or 21-5813, and amendments thereto, such damage or loss shall include the cost of repair or replacement of the property that was damaged, the reasonable cost of any loss of production, crops and livestock, reasonable labor costs of any kind, reasonable material costs of any kind and any reasonable costs that are attributed to equipment that is used to abate or repair the damage to the property. If the court finds a plan of restitution unworkable, the court shall state on the record in detail the reasons therefor.

(2) If the court orders restitution, the restitution shall be a judgment against the defendant, which may be collected by the court by garnishment or other execution as on judgments in civil cases. If, after 60 days from the date restitution is ordered by the court, a defendant is found to be in noncompliance with the plan established by the court for payment of restitution, and the victim to whom restitution is ordered paid has not initiated proceedings in accordance with K.S.A. 60-4301 et seq., and amendments thereto, the court shall assign an agent procured by the attorney general pursuant to K.S.A. 75-719, and amendments thereto, to collect the restitution on behalf of the victim. The chief judge of each judicial district may assign such cases to an appropriate division of the court for the conduct of civil collection proceedings.

(c) In addition to or in lieu of any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to submit to and complete an alcohol and drug evaluation, and pay a fee therefor, when required by K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6602(d), and amendments thereto.

(d) In addition to any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to reimburse the county general fund for all or a part of the expenditures by the county to provide counsel and other defense services to the defendant. Any such reimbursement to the county shall be paid only after any order for restitution has been paid in full. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the court shall take account of the financial resources of the defendant and the nature of the burden that payment of such sum will impose. A defendant who has been required to pay such sum and who is not willfully in default in the payment thereof may at any time petition the court which sentenced the defendant to waive payment of such sum or any unpaid portion thereof. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose manifest hardship on the defendant or the defendant's immediate family, the court may waive payment of all or part of the amount due or modify the method of payment.

(e) In releasing a defendant on probation, the court shall direct that the defendant be under the supervision of a court services officer. If the court commits the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections or to jail, the court may specify in its order the amount of restitution to be paid and the person to whom it shall be paid if restitution is later ordered as a condition of parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision.

(f) (1) When a new felony is committed while the offender is incarcerated and serving a sentence for a felony, or while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision for a felony, a new sentence shall be imposed consecutively pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6606, and amendments thereto, and the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure.

(2) When a new felony is committed during a period of time during which the defendant would have been on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision for a felony had the defendant not been granted release by the court pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6608(d), and amendments thereto, or the prisoner review board pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3717, and amendments thereto, the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure.
(3) When a new felony is committed while the offender is incarcerated in a juvenile correctional facility pursuant to K.S.A. 38-1671, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 38-2373, and amendments thereto, for an offense, which if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of a felony, upon conviction, the court shall sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure. The conviction shall operate as a full and complete discharge from any obligations, except for an order of restitution, imposed on the offender arising from the offense for which the offender was committed to a juvenile correctional facility.

(4) When a new felony is committed while the offender is on release for a felony pursuant to the provisions of article 28 of chapter 22 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, or similar provisions of the laws of another jurisdiction, a new sentence may be imposed consecutively pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6606, and amendments thereto, and the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure.

(g) Prior to imposing a dispositional departure for a defendant whose offense is classified in the presumptive nonprison grid block of either sentencing guideline grid, prior to sentencing a defendant to incarceration whose offense is classified in grid blocks 5-H, 5-I or 6-G of the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes, in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012, or in grid blocks 4-E, 4-F, 4-G, 4-H or 4-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012, prior to sentencing a defendant to incarceration whose offense is classified in grid blocks 4-E or 4-F of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012, or in grid blocks 5-C, 5-D, 5-E or 5-F of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012, and whose offense does not meet the requirements of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, prior to revocation of a nonprison sanction of a defendant whose offense is classified in grid blocks 4-E or 4-F of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012, or in grid blocks 5-C, 5-D, 5-E or 5-F of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012, and whose offense does not meet the requirements of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, or prior to revocation of a nonprison sanction of a defendant whose offense is classified in the presumptive nonprison grid block of either sentencing guideline grid or grid blocks 5-H, 5-I or 6-G of the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes, in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012, or in grid blocks 4-E, 4-F, 4-G, 4-H or 4-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012, the court shall consider placement of the defendant in the Labette correctional conservation camp, conservation camps established by the secretary of corrections pursuant to K.S.A. 75-52,127, and amendments thereto, or a community intermediate sanction center. Pursuant to this subsection the defendant shall not be sentenced to imprisonment if space is available in a conservation camp or community intermediate sanction center and the defendant meets all of the conservation camp's or community intermediate sanction center's placement criteria unless the court states on the record the reasons for not placing the defendant in a conservation camp or community intermediate sanction center.

(h) In committing a defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections, the court shall fix a term of confinement within the limits provided by law. In those cases where the law does not fix a term of confinement for the crime for which the defendant was convicted, the court shall fix the term of such confinement.

(i) In addition to any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to reimburse the state general fund for all or part of the expenditures by the state board of indigents’ defense services to provide counsel and other defense services to the defendant. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the court shall take account of the financial resources of the defendant and the nature of the burden that payment of such sum will impose. A defendant who has been required to pay such sum and who is not willfully in default in the payment thereof may at any time petition the court which sentenced the defendant to waive payment of such sum or any unpaid portion thereof. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose manifest hardship on the defendant or the defendant's immediate family, the court may waive payment of all or part of the amount due or modify the method of payment. The amount of attorney fees to be included in the court order for reimbursement shall be the amount claimed by appointed counsel on the payment voucher for indigents' defense services or the amount prescribed by the board of indigents' defense services reimbursement tables as provided in K.S.A. 22-4522, and amendments thereto, whichever is less.

(j) This section shall not deprive the court of any authority conferred by any other Kansas statute to decree a forfeiture of property, suspend or cancel a license, remove a person from office or impose any other civil penalty as a result of conviction of crime.

(k) An application for or acceptance of probation or assignment to a community correctional services program shall not constitute an acquiescence in the judgment for purpose of appeal, and any convicted person may appeal from such conviction, as provided by law, without regard to whether such person has applied for probation, suspended sentence or assignment to a community correctional services program.

(l) The secretary of corrections is authorized to make direct placement to the Labette correctional conservation camp or a conservation camp established by the secretary pursuant to K.S.A. 75-52,127, and amendments thereto, of an inmate sentenced to the secretary's custody if the inmate:

(1) Has been sentenced to the secretary for a probation revocation, as a departure from the presumptive nonimprisonment grid block of either sentencing grid, for an offense which that is classified in grid blocks 5-H, 5-I or 6-G of the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes, in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012, in grid blocks 4-E, 4-F, 4-G, 4-H or 4-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012, or for an offense which that is classified in grid blocks 4-E or 4-F of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012, or in grid blocks 5-C, 5-D, 5-E or 5-F of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012, and such offense does not meet the requirements of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto; and

(2) otherwise meets admission criteria of the camp.

If the inmate successfully completes a conservation camp program, the secretary of corrections shall report such completion to the sentencing court and the county or district attorney. The inmate shall then be assigned by the court to six months of follow-up supervision conducted by the appropriate community corrections services program. The court may also order that supervision continue thereafter for the length of time authorized by K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6608, and amendments thereto.

(m) When it is provided by law that a person shall be sentenced pursuant to K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 21-4628, prior to its repeal, the provisions of this section shall not apply.

(n) (1) Except as provided by K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6630 and 21-6805(f), and amendments thereto, in addition to any of the above, for felony violations of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5706, and amendments thereto, the court shall require the defendant who meets the requirements established in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, to participate in a certified drug abuse treatment program, as provided in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 75-52,144, and amendments thereto, including, but not limited to, an approved after-care plan. The amount of time spent participating in such program shall not be credited as service on the underlying prison sentence.

(2) If the defendant fails to participate in or has a pattern of intentional conduct that demonstrates the defendant's refusal to comply with or participate in the treatment program, as established by judicial finding, the defendant shall be subject to sanction or revocation pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 22-3716, and amendments thereto. If the defendant's probation is revoked, the defendant shall serve the underlying prison sentence as established in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6805, and amendments thereto.

(A) Except as provided in subsection (n)(2)(B), for those offenders who are convicted on or after July 1, 2003, but prior to July 1, 2013, upon completion of the underlying prison sentence, the offender shall not be subject to a period of postrelease supervision.

(B) Offenders whose crime of conviction was committed on or after July 1, 2013, and whose probation is revoked pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(c), and amendments thereto, or whose underlying prison term expires while serving a sanction pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D), and amendments thereto, shall serve a period of postrelease supervision upon the completion of the underlying prison term.

(o) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (3), in addition to any other penalty or disposition imposed by law, upon a conviction for unlawful possession of a controlled substance or controlled substance analog in violation of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5706, and amendments thereto, in which the trier of fact makes a finding that the unlawful possession occurred while transporting the controlled substance or controlled substance analog in any vehicle upon a highway or street, the offender's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state shall be suspended for one year.

(2) Upon suspension of a license pursuant to this subsection, the court shall require the person to surrender the license to the court, which shall transmit the license to the division of motor vehicles of the department of revenue, to be retained until the period of suspension expires. At that time, the licensee may apply to the division for return of the license. If the license has expired, the person may apply for a new license, which shall be issued promptly upon payment of the proper fee and satisfaction of other conditions established by law for obtaining a license unless another suspension or revocation of the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle is in effect.

(3) (A) In lieu of suspending the driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state of any person as provided in paragraph (1), the judge of the court in which such person was convicted may enter an order which places conditions on such person's privilege of operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state, a certified copy of which such person shall be required to carry any time such person is operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. Any such order shall prescribe the duration of the conditions imposed, which in no event shall be for a period of more than one year.

(B) Upon entering an order restricting a person's license hereunder, the judge shall require such person to surrender such person's driver's license to the judge who shall cause it to be transmitted to the division of vehicles, together with a copy of the order. Upon receipt thereof, the division of vehicles shall issue without charge a driver's license which shall indicate on its face that conditions have been imposed on such person's privilege of operating a motor vehicle and that a certified copy of the order imposing such conditions is required to be carried by the person for whom the license was issued any time such person is operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. If the person convicted is a nonresident, the judge shall cause a copy of the order to be transmitted to the division and the division shall forward a copy of it to the motor vehicle administrator of such person's state of residence. Such judge shall furnish to any person whose driver's license has had conditions imposed on it under this paragraph a copy of the order, which shall be recognized as a valid Kansas driver's license until such time as the division shall issue the restricted license provided for in this paragraph.

(C) Upon expiration of the period of time for which conditions are imposed pursuant to this subsection, the licensee may apply to the division for the return of the license previously surrendered by such licensee. In the event such license has expired, such person may apply to the division for a new license, which shall be issued immediately by the division upon payment of the proper fee and satisfaction of the other conditions established by law, unless such person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state has been suspended or revoked prior thereto. If any person shall violate any of the conditions imposed under this paragraph, such person's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state shall be revoked for a period of not less than 60 days nor more than one year by the judge of the court in which such person is convicted of violating such conditions.

(4) As used in this subsection, "highway" and "street" mean the same as in K.S.A. 8-1424 and 8-1473, and amendments thereto.

(p) In addition to any of the above, for any criminal offense that includes the domestic violence designation pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 22-4616, and amendments thereto, the court shall require the defendant to: (1) Undergo a domestic violence offender assessment conducted by a certified batterer intervention program; and (2) follow all recommendations made by such program, unless otherwise ordered by the court or the department of corrections. The court may order a domestic violence offender assessment and any other evaluation prior to sentencing if the assessment or evaluation would assist the court in determining an appropriate sentence. The entity completing the assessment or evaluation shall provide the assessment or evaluation and recommendations to the court and the court shall provide the domestic violence offender assessment to any entity responsible for supervising such defendant. A defendant ordered to undergo a domestic violence offender assessment shall be required to pay for the assessment and, unless otherwise ordered by the court or the department of corrections, for completion of all recommendations.

(q) In imposing a fine, the court may authorize the payment thereof in installments. In lieu of payment of any fine imposed, the court may order that the person perform community service specified by the court. The person shall receive a credit on the fine imposed in an amount equal to $5 for each full hour spent by the person in the specified community service. The community service ordered by the court shall be required to be performed by the later of one year after the fine is imposed or one year after release from imprisonment or jail, or by an earlier date specified by the court. If by the required date the person performs an insufficient amount of community service to reduce to zero the portion of the fine required to be paid by the person, the remaining balance shall become due on that date. If conditional reduction of any fine is rescinded by the court for any reason, then pursuant to the court's order the person may be ordered to perform community service by one year after the date of such rescission or by an earlier date specified by the court. If by the required date the person performs an insufficient amount of community service to reduce to zero the portion of the fine required to be paid by the person, the remaining balance of the fine shall become due on that date. All credits for community service shall be subject to review and approval by the court.

(r) In addition to any other penalty or disposition imposed by law, for any defendant sentenced to imprisonment pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4643, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6627, and amendments thereto, for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2006, the court shall order that the defendant be electronically monitored upon release from imprisonment for the duration of the defendant's natural life and that the defendant shall reimburse the state for all or part of the cost of such monitoring as determined by the prisoner review board.

(s) Whenever the court has released the defendant on probation pursuant to subsection (a)(3), the defendant's supervising court services officer, with the concurrence of the chief court services officer, may impose the violation sanctions as provided in K.S.A. 22-3716(c)(1)(B), and amendments thereto, without further order of the court, unless:

(1) The court has specifically withheld this authority in its sentencing order; or

(2) the defendant, after being apprised of the right to a revocation hearing before the court pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(b), and amendments thereto, refuses to waive such right.

(t) Whenever the court has assigned the defendant to a community correctional services program pursuant to subsection (a)(4), the defendant's community corrections officer, with the concurrence of the community corrections director, may impose the violation sanctions as provided in K.S.A. 22-3716(c)(1)(B), and amendments thereto, without further order of the court unless:

(1) The court has specifically withheld this authority in its sentencing order; or

(2) the defendant, after being apprised of the right to a revocation hearing before the court pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(b), and amendments thereto, refuses to waive such right.

(u) In addition to any of the above, the court shall authorize an additional 18 days of confinement in a county jail to be reserved for sanctions as set forth in K.S.A. 22-3716(b)(3)(B), (b)(4) or (c)(1)(B), and amendments thereto.

Sec. 9. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6824 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6824. (a) There is hereby established a nonprison sanction of certified drug abuse treatment programs for certain offenders who are sentenced on or after November 1, 2003. Placement of offenders in certified drug abuse treatment programs by the court shall be limited to placement of adult offenders, convicted of a felony violation of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5705 or 21-5706, and amendments thereto, whose offense is classified in grid blocks:

(2) 5-A, 5-B, 4-E, 4-F, 4-G, 4-H or 4-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes, such offender has no felony conviction of K.S.A. 65-4142, 65-4159, 65-4161, 65-4163 or 65-4164, prior to their repeal, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 21-36a03, 21-36a05 or 21-36a16, prior to their transfer, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5703, 21-5705 or 21-5716, and amendments thereto, or any substantially similar offense from another jurisdiction, if the person felonies in the offender's criminal history were severity level 8, 9 or 10 or nongrid offenses of the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes, and the court finds and sets forth with particularity the reasons for finding that the safety of the members of the public will not be jeopardized by such placement in a drug abuse treatment program.

(b) As a part of the presentence investigation pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6813, and amendments thereto, offenders who meet the requirements of subsection (a), unless otherwise specifically ordered by the court, shall be subject to:

(1) A drug abuse assessment which shall include a clinical interview with a mental health professional and a recommendation concerning drug abuse treatment for the offender; and

(2) a criminal risk-need assessment. The criminal risk-need assessment shall assign a high or low risk status to the offender.

(c) If the offender is assigned a high risk status as determined by the drug abuse assessment performed pursuant to subsection (b)(1) and a moderate or high risk status as determined by the criminal risk-need assessment performed pursuant to subsection (b)(2), the sentencing court shall commit the offender to treatment in a drug abuse treatment program until the court determines the offender is suitable for discharge by the court. The term of treatment shall not exceed 18 months. The court may extend the term of probation, pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6608(c)(3), and amendments thereto. The term of treatment may not exceed the term of probation.

(d) (1) Offenders who are committed to a drug abuse treatment program pursuant to subsection (c) shall be supervised by community correctional services.

(2) Offenders who are not committed to a drug abuse treatment program pursuant to subsection (c) shall be supervised by community correctional services or court services based on the result of the criminal risk assessment.

(e) Placement of offenders under subsection (a)(2) shall be subject to the departure sentencing statutes of the revised Kansas sentencing guidelines act.

(f) (1) Offenders in drug abuse treatment programs shall be discharged from such program if the offender:

(A) Is convicted of a new felony; or
(B) has a pattern of intentional conduct that demonstrates the offender's refusal to comply with or participate in the treatment program, as established by judicial finding.

(2) Offenders who are discharged from such program shall be subject to the revocation provisions of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6604(n), and amendments thereto.

(g) As used in this section, "mental health professional" includes licensed social workers, persons licensed to practice medicine and surgery, licensed psychologists, licensed professional counselors or registered alcohol and other drug abuse counselors licensed or certified as addiction counselors who have been certified by the secretary of corrections to treat offenders pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 75-52,144, and amendments thereto.

(h) (1) Offenders who meet the requirements of subsection (a) shall not be subject to the provisions of this section and shall be sentenced as otherwise provided by law, if such offenders:

(A) Are residents of another state and are returning to such state pursuant to the interstate corrections compact or the interstate compact for adult offender supervision; or

(B) are not lawfully present in the United States and being detained for deportation; or

(C) do not meet the risk assessment levels provided in subsection (c).

(2) Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(i) The court may order an offender who otherwise does not meet the requirements of subsection (c) to undergo one additional drug abuse assessment while such offender is on probation. Such offender may be ordered to undergo drug abuse treatment pursuant to subsection (a) if such offender is determined to meet the requirements of subsection (c). The cost of such assessment shall be paid by such offender.

Sec. 10. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 22-3716 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-3716. (a) At any time during probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or pursuant to subsection (e) for defendants who committed a crime prior to July 1, 1993, and at any time during which a defendant is serving a nonprison sanction for a crime committed on or after July 1, 1993, or pursuant to subsection (e), the court may issue a warrant for the arrest of a defendant for violation of any of the conditions of release or assignment, a notice to appear to answer to a charge of violation or a violation of the defendant's nonprison sanction. The notice shall be personally served upon the defendant. The warrant shall authorize all officers named in the warrant to return the defendant to the custody of the court or to any certified detention facility designated by the court. Any court services officer or community correctional services officer may arrest the defendant without a warrant or may deputize any other officer with power of arrest to do so by giving the officer a written or verbal statement setting forth that the defendant has, in the judgment of the court services officer or community correctional services officer, violated the conditions of the defendant's release or a nonprison sanction. A written statement delivered to the official in charge of a county jail or other place of detention shall be sufficient warrant for the detention of the defendant. After making an arrest, the court services officer or community correctional services officer shall present to the detaining authorities a similar statement of the circumstances of violation. Provisions regarding release on bail of persons charged with a crime shall be applicable to defendants arrested under these provisions.

(b) (1) Upon arrest and detention pursuant to subsection (a), the court services officer or community correctional services officer shall immediately notify the court and shall submit in writing a report showing in what manner the defendant has violated the conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction.

(2) Unless the defendant, after being apprised of the right to a hearing by the supervising court services or community correctional services officer, waives such hearing, the court shall cause the defendant to be brought before it without unnecessary delay for a hearing on the violation charged. The hearing shall be in open court and the state shall have the burden of establishing the violation. The defendant shall have the right to be represented by counsel and shall be informed by the judge that, if the defendant is financially unable to obtain counsel, an attorney will be appointed to represent the defendant. The defendant shall have the right to present the testimony of witnesses and other evidence on the defendant's behalf. Relevant written statements made under oath may be admitted and considered by the court along with other evidence presented at the hearing.

(3) (A) Except as otherwise provided, if the original crime of conviction was a felony, other than a felony specified in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6804(i), and amendments thereto, and a violation is established, the court may impose the violation sanctions as provided in subsection (c)(1).

(B) Except as otherwise provided, if the original crime of conviction was a misdemeanor or a felony specified in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6804(i), and amendments thereto, and a violation is established, the court may:

(i) Continue or modify the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and impose confinement in a county jail not to exceed 60 days. If an offender is serving multiple probation terms concurrently, any confinement periods imposed shall be imposed concurrently;

(ii) impose an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail, to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(A) and (b)(4)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision, except as provided in subsection (h); or

(iii) revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and require the defendant to serve the sentence imposed, or any lesser sentence, and, if imposition of sentence was suspended, may impose any sentence which that might originally have been imposed.

(4) Except as otherwise provided, if the defendant waives the right to a hearing and the sentencing court has not specifically withheld the authority from court services or community correctional services to impose sanctions, the following sanctions may be imposed without further order of the court:

(A) If the defendant was on probation at the time of the violation, the defendant's supervising court services officer, with the concurrence of the chief court services officer, may impose an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail, to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(B) and (c)(1)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision, except as provided in subsection

(B) if the defendant was assigned to a community correctional services program at the time of the violation, the defendant's community corrections officer, with the concurrence of the community corrections director, may impose an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail, to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(A) and (c)(1)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision except as provided in subsection (h).

(c) (1) Except as otherwise provided, if the original crime of conviction was a felony, other than a felony specified in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6804(i), and amendments thereto, and a violation is established, the court may impose the following sanctions:

(A) Continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction;

(B) continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and an intermediate sanction of confinement in a county jail to be imposed as a two-day or three-day consecutive period. The total of all such sanctions imposed pursuant to this subparagraph and subsections (b)(4)(A) and (b)(4)(B) shall not exceed 18 total days during the term of supervision except as provided in subsection (h); or

(C) if the violator already had at least one intermediate sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (b)(4)(A), (b)(4)(B) or (c)(1)(B) related to the crime for which the original supervision was imposed, continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and remanding the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections for a period of 120 days, subject to a reduction of up to 60 days in the discretion of the secretary. This sanction shall not be imposed more than once during the term of supervision. The sanction imposed pursuant to this subparagraph shall begin upon pronouncement by the court and shall not be served by prior confinement credit except as provided in subsection (e)(7);

(D) if the violator already had a sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (b)(4)(A), (b)(4)(B), (c)(1)(B) or (c)(1)(C) related to the crime for which the original supervision was imposed, continuation or modification of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and remanding the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections for a period of 180 days, subject to a reduction of up to 90 days in the discretion of the secretary. This sanction shall not be imposed more than once during the term of supervision. The sanction imposed pursuant to this subparagraph shall begin upon pronouncement by the court and shall not be served by prior confinement credit except as provided in subsection (e)(7); or

(E) if the violator already had a sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (e)(1)(C) or (e)(1)(D) (c)(1)(B) related to the crime for which the original supervision was imposed, revocation of the probation, assignment to a community corrections services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction and requiring such violator to serve the sentence imposed, or any lesser sentence and, if imposition of sentence was suspended, imposition of any sentence which might originally have been imposed.
(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c)(3), (c)(8), and (c)(9)(7), no offender for whom a violation of conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction has been established as provided in this section shall be required to serve any time for the sentence imposed or which might originally have been imposed in a state facility in the custody of the secretary of corrections for such violation, unless such person has already had at least one prior assignment to a community correctional services program related to the crime for which the original sentence was imposed.

(3) The provisions of subsection (c)(2) shall not apply to adult felony offenders as described in K.S.A. 75-5291(a)(3), and amendments thereto.

(4) The court may require an offender for whom a violation of conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction has been established as provided in this section to serve any time for the sentence imposed or which might originally have been imposed in a state facility in the custody of the secretary of corrections without a prior assignment to a community correctional services program if the court finds and sets forth with particularity the reasons for finding that the safety of the members of the public will be jeopardized or that the welfare of the inmate will not be served by such assignment to a community correctional services program.

(5) When a new felony is committed while the offender is on probation or assignment to a community correctional services program, the new sentence shall be imposed consecutively pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6606, and amendments thereto, and the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure.

(6) Except as provided in subsection (f), upon completion of a violation sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) such offender shall return to community correctional services supervision. The sheriff shall not be responsible for the return of the offender to the county where the community correctional services supervision is assigned.

(7) A violation sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) shall not be longer than the amount of time remaining on the offender's underlying prison sentence.

(8)(A) If the offender commits a new felony or misdemeanor while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction, the court may revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction of an offender pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(E) without having previously imposed a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D).

(B) If the offender absconds from supervision while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction, the court may: (i) Revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction of an offender pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(E) without having previously imposed a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D); or

(ii) sanction the offender under subsection (c)(1)(A), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) without imposing a sanction under (c)(1)(B).

(9)(7) The court may revoke the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction of an offender pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(E) without having previously imposed a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) if:

(A) the court finds and sets forth with particularity the reasons for finding that the safety of members of the public will be jeopardized or that the welfare of the offender will not be served by such sanction; or

(B) the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction was originally granted as the result of a dispositional departure granted by the sentencing court pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6815, and amendments thereto; or

(C) the offender commits a new felony or misdemeanor while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction; or

(D) the offender absconds from supervision while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction.

(10) If an offender is serving multiple probation terms concurrently, any violation sanctions imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D), or any sanction imposed pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(E), shall be imposed concurrently.

(11) If the original crime of conviction was a felony, except for violations of K.S.A. 8-1567 or 8-2,144, and amendments thereto, and the court makes a finding that the offender has committed one or more violations of the release conditions of the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction, the court may impose confinement in a county jail not to exceed 60 days upon each such finding. Such confinement is separate and distinct from the violation sanctions provided in subsection (c)(1)(B), (c)(1)(C), (c)(1)(D) and (c)(1)(E) and shall not be imposed at the same time as any such violation sanction.

(12) The violation sanctions provided in this subsection shall apply to any violation of conditions of release or assignment or a nonprison sanction occurring on and after July 1, 2013, regardless of when the offender was sentenced for the original crime or committed the original crime for which sentenced.

(d) A defendant who is on probation, assigned to a community correctional services program, under suspension of sentence or serving a nonprison sanction and for whose return a warrant has been issued by the court shall be considered a fugitive from justice if it is found that the warrant cannot be served. If it appears that the defendant has violated the provisions of the defendant's release or assignment or a nonprison sanction, the court shall determine whether the time from the issuing of the warrant to the date of the defendant's arrest, or any part of it, shall be counted as time served on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspended sentence or pursuant to a nonprison sanction.

(e) The court shall have 30 days following the date probation, assignment to a community correctional service program, suspension of sentence or a nonprison sanction was to end to issue a warrant for the arrest or notice to appear for the defendant to answer a charge of a violation of the conditions of probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or a nonprison sanction.

(f) For crimes committed on and after July 1, 2013, a felony offender whose nonprison sanction is revoked pursuant to subsection (c) or whose underlying prison term expires while serving a sanction pursuant to subsection (c)(1)(C) or (c)(1)(D) shall serve a period of postrelease supervision upon the completion of the prison portion of the underlying sentence.

(g) Offenders who have been sentenced pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, and who subsequently violate a condition of the drug and alcohol abuse treatment program shall be subject to an additional nonprison sanction for any such subsequent violation. Such nonprison sanctions shall include, but not be limited to, up to 60 days in a county jail, fines, community service, intensified treatment, house arrest and electronic monitoring.

(h) If the court continues or modifies the probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction, pursuant to subsection (b) or (c), the court shall authorize an additional 18 days of sanction time in a county jail to be reserved for sanctions as set forth in subsection (b)(3), (b)(4) or (c) (1).

(B) an additional 15 years, without deduction of good time credits, for each crime which is a class A felony.

(d) (1) Persons sentenced for crimes, other than off-grid crimes, committed on or after July 1, 1993, or persons subject to subparagraph (G), will not be eligible for parole, but will be released to a mandatory period of postrelease supervision upon completion of the prison portion of their sentence as follows:

(A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (D) and (E), persons sentenced for nondrug severity levels 1 through 4 crimes, drug severity levels 1 and 2 crimes committed on or after July 1, 1993, but prior to July 1, 2012, and drug severity levels 1, 2 and 3 crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012, must serve 36 months on postrelease supervision.

repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5509, and amendments thereto, or unlawful sexual relations, K.S.A. 21-3520, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5512, and amendments thereto, shall serve the period of postrelease supervision as provided in subsections (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B) or (d)(1)(C), plus the amount of good time and program credit earned and retained pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4722, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6821, and amendments thereto, on postrelease supervision.

(i) If the sentencing judge finds substantial and compelling reasons to impose a departure based upon a finding that the current crime of conviction was sexually motivated, departure may be imposed to extend the postrelease supervision to a period of up to 60 months.

(ii) If the sentencing judge departs from the presumptive postrelease supervision period, the judge shall state on the record at the time of sentencing the substantial and compelling reasons for the departure. Departures in this section are subject to appeal pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4721, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6820, and amendments thereto.

(iii) In determining whether substantial and compelling reasons exist, the court shall consider:

(a) Written briefs or oral arguments submitted by either the defendant or the state;
(b) any evidence received during the proceeding;
(c) the presentence report, the victim's impact statement and any psychological evaluation as ordered by the court pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4714(e), prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6813(e), and amendments thereto; and
(d) any other evidence the court finds trustworthy and reliable.

(iv) The sentencing judge may order that a psychological evaluation be prepared and the recommended programming be completed by the offender. The department of corrections or the prisoner review board shall ensure that court ordered sex offender treatment be carried out.

(v) In carrying out the provisions of subsection (d)(1)(D), the court shall refer to K.S.A. 21-4718, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6817, and amendments thereto.

(vi) Upon petition and payment of any restitution ordered pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6604, and amendments thereto, the prisoner review board may provide for early discharge from the postrelease supervision period imposed pursuant to subsection (d)(1)(D)(i) upon completion of court ordered programs and completion of the presumptive postrelease supervision period, as determined by the crime of conviction, pursuant to subsection (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B) or (d)(1)(C). Early discharge from postrelease supervision is at the discretion of the board.

(vii) Persons convicted of crimes deemed sexually violent or sexually motivated shall be registered according to the offender registration act, K.S.A. 22-4901 through 22-4910, and amendments thereto.

(viii) Persons convicted of K.S.A. 21-3510 or 21-3511, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5508, and amendments thereto, shall be required to participate in a treatment program for sex offenders during the postrelease supervision period.

(E) The period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraphs (A) and (B) may be reduced by up to 12 months and the period of postrelease supervision provided in subparagraph (C) may be reduced by up to six months based on the offender's compliance with conditions of supervision and overall performance while on postrelease supervision. The reduction in the supervision period shall be on an earned basis pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of corrections.

(F) In cases where sentences for crimes from more than one severity level have been imposed, the offender shall serve the longest period of postrelease supervision as provided by this section available for any crime upon which sentence was imposed irrespective of the severity level of the crime. Supervision periods will not aggregate.

(G) (i) Except as provided in subsection (u), persons sentenced to imprisonment for a sexually violent crime committed on or after July 1, 2006, when the offender was 18 years of age or older, and who are released from prison, shall be released to a mandatory period of postrelease supervision for the duration of the person's natural life.

(ii) Persons sentenced to imprisonment for a sexually violent crime committed on or after the effective date of this act, when the offender was under 18 years of age, and who are released from prison, shall be released to a mandatory period of postrelease supervision for 60 months, plus the amount of good time and program credit earned and retained pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4722, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6821, and amendments thereto.

(2) Persons serving a period of postrelease supervision pursuant to subsections (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B) or (d)(1)(C) may petition the prisoner review board for early discharge. Upon payment of restitution, the prisoner review board may provide for early discharge.

(3) Persons serving a period of incarceration for a supervision violation shall not have the period of postrelease supervision modified until such person is released and returned to postrelease supervision.

(4) Offenders whose crime of conviction was committed on or after July 1, 2013, and whose probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, suspension of sentence or nonprison sanction is revoked pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(c), and amendments thereto, or whose underlying prison term expires while serving a sanction pursuant to K.S.A. 22-3716(c)(1)(C) or (e)(1)(D), and amendments thereto, shall serve a period of postrelease supervision upon the completion of the underlying prison term.

(5) As used in this subsection, "sexually violent crime" means:

(H) sexual exploitation of a child, K.S.A. 21-3516, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5510, and amendments thereto;
(I) aggravated sexual battery, K.S.A. 21-3518, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5505(b), and amendments thereto;

(K) aggravated human trafficking, as defined in K.S.A. 21-3447, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5426(b), and amendments thereto, if committed in whole or in part for the purpose of the sexual gratification of the defendant or another;
(L) internet trading in child pornography, as defined in K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5514(a), and amendments thereto;

(6) As used in this subsection, "sexually motivated" means that one of the purposes for which the defendant committed the crime was for the purpose of the defendant's sexual gratification.

(e) If an inmate is sentenced to imprisonment for a crime committed while on parole or conditional release, the inmate shall be eligible for parole as provided by subsection (c), except that the prisoner review board may postpone the inmate's parole eligibility date by assessing a penalty not exceeding the period of time which could have been assessed if the inmate's parole or conditional release had been violated for reasons other than conviction of a crime.

(f) If a person is sentenced to prison for a crime committed on or after July 1, 1993, while on probation, parole, conditional release or in a community corrections program, for a crime committed prior to July 1, 1993, and the person is not eligible for retroactive application of the sentencing guidelines and amendments thereto pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4724, prior to its repeal, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence, but shall begin when the person is paroled or reaches the conditional release date on the old sentence. If the offender was past the offender's conditional release date at the time the new offense was committed, the new sentence shall not be aggregated with the old sentence but shall begin when the person is ordered released by the prisoner review board or reaches the maximum sentence expiration date on the old sentence, whichever is earlier. The new sentence shall then be served as otherwise provided by law. The period of postrelease supervision shall be based on the new sentence, except that those offenders whose old sentence is a term of imprisonment for life, imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 21-4628, prior to its repeal, or an indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment, for which there is no conditional release or maximum sentence expiration date, shall remain on postrelease supervision for life or until discharged from supervision by the prisoner review board.

(g) Subject to the provisions of this section, the prisoner review board may release on parole those persons confined in institutions who are eligible for parole when: (1) The board believes that the inmate should be released for hospitalization, deportation or to answer the warrant or other process of a court and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate; or (2) the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement, and the board believes that the inmate is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law abiding citizen and is of the opinion that there is reasonable probability that the inmate can be released without detriment to the community or to the inmate. Parole shall not be granted as an award of clemency and shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon.

(h) The prisoner review board shall hold a parole hearing at least the month prior to the month an inmate will be eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At least one month preceding the parole hearing, the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was convicted shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment sessions for the inmate to any victim of the inmate's crime who is alive and whose address is known to the county or district attorney or, if the victim is deceased, to the victim's family if the family's address is known to the county or district attorney. Except as otherwise provided, failure to notify pursuant to this section shall not be a reason to postpone a parole hearing. In the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the secretary of corrections shall give written notice of the time and place of the public comment session for such inmate at least one month preceding the public comment session to any victim of such inmate's crime or the victim's family pursuant to K.S.A. 74-7338, and amendments thereto. If notification is not given to such victim or such victim's family in the case of any inmate convicted of an off-grid felony or a class A felony, the board shall postpone a decision on parole of the inmate to a time at least 30 days after notification is given as provided in this section. Nothing in this section shall create a cause of action against the state or an employee of the state acting within the scope of the employee's employment as a result of the failure to notify pursuant to this section. If granted parole, the inmate may be released on parole on the date specified by the board, but not earlier than the date the inmate is eligible for parole under subsections (a), (b) and (c). At each parole hearing and, if parole is not granted, at such intervals thereafter as it determines appropriate, the board shall consider: (1) Whether the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by any agreement entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, or any revision of such agreement; and (2) all pertinent information regarding such inmate, including, but not limited to, the circumstances of the offense of the inmate; the presentence report; the previous social history and criminal record of the inmate; the conduct, employment, and attitude of the inmate in prison; the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made, including, but not limited to, risk factors revealed by any risk assessment of the inmate; comments of the victim and the victim's family including in person comments, contemporaneous comments and prerecorded comments made by any technological means; comments of the public; official comments; any recommendation by the staff of the facility where the inmate is incarcerated; proportionality of the time the inmate has served to the sentence a person would receive under the Kansas sentencing guidelines for the conduct that resulted in the inmate's incarceration; and capacity of state correctional institutions.

(i) In those cases involving inmates sentenced for a crime committed after July 1, 1993, the prisoner review board will review the inmate's proposed release plan. The board may schedule a hearing if they desire. The board may impose any condition they deem necessary to insure public safety, aid in the reintegration of the inmate into the community, or items not completed under the agreement entered into under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto. The board may not advance or delay an inmate's release date. Every inmate while on postrelease supervision shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary.

(j) (1) Before ordering the parole of any inmate, the prisoner review board shall have the inmate appear either in person or via a video conferencing format and shall interview the inmate unless impractical because of the inmate's physical or mental condition or absence from the institution. Every inmate while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the secretary of corrections and is subject to the orders of the secretary. Whenever the board formally considers placing an inmate on parole and no agreement has been entered into with the inmate under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the reasons for not granting parole. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the inmate has not satisfactorily completed the programs specified in the agreement, or any revision of such agreement, the board shall notify the inmate in writing of the specific programs the inmate must satisfactorily complete before parole will be granted. If parole is not granted only because of a failure to satisfactorily complete such programs, the board shall grant parole upon the secretary's certification that the inmate has successfully completed such programs. If an agreement has been entered under K.S.A. 75-5210a, and amendments thereto, and the secretary of corrections has reported to the board in writing that the inmate has satisfactorily completed the programs required by such agreement, or any revision thereof, the board shall not require further program participation. However, if the board determines that other pertinent information regarding the inmate warrants the inmate's not being released on parole, the board shall state in writing the reasons for not granting the parole. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a crime other than a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than one year after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next three years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to three years but any such deferral by the board shall require the board to state the basis for its findings. If parole is denied for an inmate sentenced for a class A or class B felony or an off-grid felony, the board shall hold another parole hearing for the inmate not later than three years after the denial unless the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing if held in the next 10 years or during the interim period of a deferral. In such case, the board may defer subsequent parole hearings for up to 10 years, but any such deferral shall require the board to state the basis for its findings.

(2) Inmates sentenced for a class A or class B felony who have not had a board hearing in the five years prior to July 1, 2010, shall have such inmates' cases reviewed by the board on or before July 1, 2012. Such review shall begin with the inmates with the oldest deferral date and progress to the most recent. Such review shall be done utilizing existing resources unless the board determines that such resources are insufficient. If the board determines that such resources are insufficient, then the provisions of this paragraph are subject to appropriations therefor.

(k) (1) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision shall be assigned, upon release, to the appropriate level of supervision pursuant to the criteria established by the secretary of corrections.

(2) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by a parole officer or a department of corrections enforcement, apprehension and investigation officer, at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant and with or without cause. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment.

(3) Parolees and persons on postrelease supervision are, and shall agree in writing to be, subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity. Any law enforcement officer who conducts such a search shall submit a written report to the appropriate parole officer no later than the close of the next business day after such search. The written report shall include the facts leading to such search, the scope of such search and any findings resulting from such search.

(l) The prisoner review board shall promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with K.S.A. 77-415 et seq., and amendments thereto, not inconsistent with the law and as it may deem proper or necessary, with respect to the conduct of parole hearings, postrelease supervision reviews, revocation hearings, orders of restitution, reimbursement of expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services and other conditions to be imposed upon parolees or releasees. Whenever an order for parole or postrelease supervision is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof.

(m) Whenever the prisoner review board orders the parole of an inmate or establishes conditions for an inmate placed on postrelease supervision, the board:

(1) Unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision pay any transportation expenses resulting from returning the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision to this state to answer criminal charges or a warrant for a violation of a condition of probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision;

(2) To the extent practicable, shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the parolee or the person on postrelease supervision make progress towards or successfully complete the equivalent of a secondary education if the inmate has not previously completed such educational equivalent and is capable of doing so;

(3) May order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision perform community or public service work for local governmental agencies, private corporations organized not-for-profit or charitable or social service organizations performing services for the community;

(4) May order the parolee or person on postrelease supervision to pay the administrative fee imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 22-4529, and amendments thereto, unless the board finds compelling circumstances which would render payment unworkable;

(5) Unless it finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of payment unworkable, shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision reimburse the state for all or part of the expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services to provide counsel and other defense services to the person. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the prisoner review board shall take account of the financial resources of the person and the nature of the burden that the payment of such sum will impose. Such amount shall not exceed the amount claimed by appointed counsel on the payment voucher for indigents' defense services or the amount prescribed by the board of indigents' defense services reimbursement tables as provided in K.S.A. 22-4522, and amendments thereto, whichever is less, minus any previous payments for such services;

(6) shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision agree in writing to be subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by a parole officer or a department of corrections enforcement, apprehension and investigation officer, at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant and with or without cause. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize such officers to conduct arbitrary or capricious searches or searches for the sole purpose of harassment; and

(7) shall order that the parolee or person on postrelease supervision agree in writing to be subject to searches of the person and the person's effects, vehicle, residence and property by any law enforcement officer based on reasonable suspicion of the person violating conditions of parole or postrelease supervision or reasonable suspicion of criminal activity.

(n) If the court which that sentenced an inmate specified at the time of sentencing the amount and the recipient of any restitution ordered as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision, the prisoner review board shall order as a condition of parole or postrelease supervision that the inmate pay restitution in the amount and manner provided in the journal entry unless the board finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of restitution unworkable.

(o) Whenever the prisoner review board grants the parole of an inmate, the board, within 14 days of the date of the decision to grant parole, shall give written notice of the decision to the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was sentenced.

(p) When an inmate is to be released on postrelease supervision, the secretary, within 30 days prior to release, shall provide the county or district attorney of the county where the inmate was sentenced written notice of the release date.

(q) Inmates shall be released on postrelease supervision upon the termination of the prison portion of their sentence. Time served while on postrelease supervision will vest.

(r) An inmate who is allocated regular good time credits as provided in K.S.A. 22-3725, and amendments thereto, may receive meritorious good time credits in increments of not more than 90 days per meritorious act. These credits may be awarded by the secretary of corrections when an inmate has acted in a heroic or outstanding manner in coming to the assistance of another person in a life-threatening situation, preventing injury or death to a person, preventing the destruction of property or taking actions which result in a financial savings to the state.

(s) The provisions of subsections (d)(1)(A), (d)(1)(B), (d)(1)(C) and (d)(1)(E) shall be applied retroactively as provided in subsection (t).

(t) For offenders sentenced prior to July 1, 2014, who are eligible for modification of their postrelease supervision obligation, the department of corrections shall modify the period of postrelease supervision as provided for by this section:
(1) On or before September 1, 2013, for offenders convicted of:
   (A) Severity levels 9 and 10 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes;
   (B) severity level 4 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012; and
   (C) severity level 5 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on and after July 1, 2012;

(2) on or before November 1, 2013, for offenders convicted of:
   (A) Severity levels 6, 7 and 8 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes;
   (B) level 3 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed prior to July 1, 2012; and
   (C) level 4 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012; and

(3) on or before January 1, 2014, for offenders convicted of:
   (A) Severity levels 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes;
   (B) severity levels 1 and 2 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed at any time; and
   (C) severity level 3 crimes on the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes committed on or after July 1, 2012.

(u) An inmate sentenced to imprisonment pursuant to K.S.A. 21-4643, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6627, and amendments thereto, for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2006, shall be placed on parole for life and shall not be discharged from supervision by the prisoner review board. When the board orders the parole of an inmate pursuant to this subsection, the board shall order as a condition of parole that the inmate be electronically monitored for the duration of the inmate's natural life.

(v) Whenever the prisoner review board orders a person to be electronically monitored pursuant to this section, or the court orders a person to be electronically monitored pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6604(r), and amendments thereto, the board shall order the person to reimburse the state for all or part of the cost of such monitoring. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the board shall take account of the financial resources of the person and the nature of the burden that the payment of such sum will impose.

(w) (1) On and after July 1, 2012, for any inmate who is a sex offender, as defined in K.S.A. 22-4902, and amendments thereto, whenever the prisoner review board orders the parole of such inmate or establishes conditions for such inmate placed on postrelease supervision, such inmate shall agree in writing to not possess pornographic materials.

   (A) As used in this subsection, "pornographic materials" means any obscene material or performance depicting sexual conduct, sexual contact or a sexual performance; and any visual depiction of sexually explicit conduct.

   (B) As used in this subsection, all other terms have the meanings provided by K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5510, and amendments thereto.

   (2) The provisions of this subsection shall be applied retroactively to every sex offender, as defined in K.S.A. 22-4902, and amendments thereto, who is on parole or postrelease supervision on July 1, 2012. The prisoner review board shall obtain the written agreement required by this subsection from such offenders as soon as practicable.

Sec. 12. On and after July 1, 2019, K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 22-2307 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-2307. (a) All law enforcement agencies in this state shall adopt written policies regarding domestic violence calls as provided in subsections (b) and (c). These policies shall be made available to all officers of such agency.

(b) Such written policies shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) As a prior person felony if the prior conviction or adjudication was classified as a burglary as defined in K.S.A. 21-3715(a), prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5807(a)(1), and amendments thereto.

(2) As a prior nonperson felony if the prior conviction or adjudication was classified as a burglary as defined in K.S.A. 21-3715(b) or (c), prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5807(a)(2) or (a)(3), and amendments thereto.

The facts required to classify prior burglary adult convictions and juvenile adjudications shall be established by the state by a preponderance of the evidence.

(e) (1) Out-of-state convictions and juvenile adjudications shall be used in classifying the offender's criminal history.

(2) An out-of-state conviction will be classified as either a felony or a misdemeanor according to the convicting jurisdiction.

(A) If a crime is a felony in the convicting jurisdiction, it will be counted as a felony in Kansas.

(B) If a crime is a misdemeanor in the convicting jurisdiction, the state of Kansas shall refer to the comparable offense under the Kansas criminal code in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed to classify the out-of-state crime as a class A, B or C misdemeanor. If the comparable offense in the state of Kansas is a felony, the out-of-state crime shall be classified as a class A misdemeanor. If the state of Kansas does not have a comparable offense in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed, the out-of-state crime shall not be used in classifying the offender's criminal history.
(C) If a crime is not classified as either a felony or a misdemeanor in the convicting jurisdiction, the state of Kansas shall refer to the comparable offense under the Kansas criminal code in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed to classify the out-of-state crime as either a felony or a misdemeanor. If the state of Kansas does not have a comparable offense in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed, the out-of-state crime shall not be used in classifying the offender's criminal history.

(3) The state of Kansas shall classify the crime as person or nonperson.

(A) In designating a crime misdemeanor as person or nonperson, comparable offenses under the Kansas criminal code in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed shall be referred to. If the state of Kansas does not have a comparable person offense in effect on the date the current crime of conviction was committed, the out-of-state crime shall be classified as a nonperson crime.

(B) In designating a felony crime as person or nonperson, the felony crime shall be classified as follows:

(i) An out-of-state conviction or adjudication for the commission of a felony offense, or an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation to commit a felony offense, shall be classified as a person felony if one or more of the following circumstances is present as defined by the convicting jurisdiction in the elements of the out-of-state offense:

(a) Death or killing of any human being;
(b) Threatening or causing fear of bodily or physical harm or violence, causing terror, physically intimidating or harassing any person;
(c) Bodily harm or injury, physical neglect or abuse, restraint, confinement or touching of any person, without regard to degree;
(d) The presence of a person, other than the defendant, a charged accomplice or another person with whom the defendant is engaged in the sale, distribution or transfer of a controlled substance or non-controlled substance;
(e) Possessing, viewing, depicting, distributing, recording or transmitting an image of any person;
(f) Lewd fondling or touching, sexual intercourse or sodomy with or by any person or an unlawful sexual act involving a child under the age of consent;

(h) Entering or remaining within any residence, dwelling or habitation.

(ii) An out-of-state conviction or adjudication for the commission of a felony offense, or an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation to commit a felony offense, shall be classified as a person felony if the elements of the out-of-state felony offense that resulted in the conviction or adjudication necessarily prove that a person was present during the commission of the offense. For purposes of this clause, the person present must be someone other than the defendant, a charged accomplice or another person with whom the defendant is engaged in the sale, distribution or transfer of a controlled substance or non-controlled substance. The presence of a person includes physical presence and presence by electronic or telephonic communication.

(iii) An out-of-state conviction or adjudication for the commission of a felony offense, or an attempt, conspiracy or criminal solicitation to commit a felony offense, shall be classified as a nonperson felony if the elements of the offense do not require proof of any of the circumstances in subparagraph (B)(i) or (ii).

(4) Convictions or adjudications occurring within the federal system, other state systems, the District of Columbia, foreign, tribal or military courts are considered out-of-state convictions or adjudications.

(5) The facts required to classify out-of-state adult convictions and juvenile adjudications shall be established by the state by a preponderance of the evidence.

(f) Except as provided in K.S.A. 21-4710(d)(4), (d)(5) and (d)(6), prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6810(d)(3)(B), (d)(3)(C), (d)(3)(D), (d)(4) and (d)(5), and amendments thereto, juvenile adjudications will be applied in the same manner as adult convictions. Out-of-state juvenile adjudications will be treated as juvenile adjudications in Kansas.

(g) A prior felony conviction of an attempt, a conspiracy or a solicitation as provided in K.S.A. 21-3301, 21-3302 or 21-3303, prior to their repeal, or K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5301, 21-5302 or 21-5303, and amendments thereto, to commit a crime shall be treated as a person or nonperson crime in accordance with the designation assigned to the underlying crime.

(h) Drug crimes are designated as nonperson crimes for criminal history scoring.

(i) If the current crime of conviction is for a violation of K.S.A. 8-1602(b)(3) through (b)(5), and amendments thereto, each of the following prior convictions for offenses committed on or after July 1, 2011, shall count as a person felony for criminal history purposes: K.S.A. 8-235, 8-262, 8-287, 8-291, 8-1566, 8-1567, 8-1568, 8-1602, 8-1605 and 40-3104, and amendments thereto, and K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-5405(a)(3) or (a)(5) and 21-5406, and amendments thereto, or a violation of a city ordinance or law of another state which would also constitute a violation of such sections.

(j) The amendments made to this section by chapter 5 of the 2015 Session Laws of Kansas are procedural in nature and shall be construed and applied retroactively.

Sec. 14. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6820 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6820. (a) A departure sentence is subject to appeal by the defendant or the state. The appeal shall be to the appellate courts in accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court.

(b) Pending review of the sentence, the sentencing court or the appellate court may order the defendant confined or placed on conditional release, including bond.

(c) On appeal from a judgment of conviction entered for a felony committed on or after July 1, 1993, the appellate court shall not review:

(1) Any sentence that is within the presumptive sentence for the crime; or

(2) any sentence resulting from an agreement between the state and the defendant which the sentencing court approves on the record.

(d) In any appeal from a judgment of conviction imposing a sentence that departs from the presumptive sentence prescribed by the sentencing grid for a crime, sentence review shall be limited to whether the sentencing court's findings of fact and reasons justifying a departure:

(1) Are supported by the evidence in the record; and

(2) constitute substantial and compelling reasons for departure.

(e) In any appeal from a judgment of conviction, the appellate court may review a claim that:

(1) A sentence that departs from the presumptive sentence resulted from partiality, prejudice, oppression or corrupt motive;
(2) the sentencing court erred in either including or excluding recognition of a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for criminal history scoring purposes; or

(3) the sentencing court erred in ranking the crime severity level of the current crime or in determining the appropriate classification of a prior conviction or juvenile adjudication for criminal history purposes.

(f) The appellate court may reverse or affirm the sentence. If the appellate court concludes that the trial court's factual findings are not supported by evidence in the record or do not establish substantial and compelling reasons for a departure, it shall remand the case to the trial court for resentencing.

(g) The appellate court shall issue a written opinion whenever the judgment of the sentencing court is reversed. The court may issue a written opinion in any other case when it is believed that a written opinion will provide guidance to sentencing judges and others in implementing the sentencing guidelines adopted by the Kansas sentencing commission. The appellate courts may provide by rule for summary disposition of cases arising under this section when no substantial question is presented by the appeal.

(h) A review under summary disposition shall be made solely upon the record that was before the sentencing court. Written briefs shall not be required unless ordered by the appellate court and the review and decision shall be made in an expedited manner according to rules adopted by the supreme court.

(i) The sentencing court shall retain authority irrespective of any notice of appeal for 90 days after entry of judgment of conviction to modify its judgment and sentence to correct any arithmetic or clerical errors.

(j) The amendments made to this section by this act are procedural in nature and shall be construed and applied retroactively.

Sec. 15. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 22-3504 is hereby amended to read as follows:

22-3504. (1) The court may correct an illegal sentence at any time while the defendant is serving such sentence. The defendant shall receive full credit for time spent in custody under the sentence prior to correction. Unless the motion and the files and records of the case conclusively show that the defendant is entitled to no relief, the defendant shall have a right to a hearing, after reasonable notice to be fixed by the court, to be personally present and to have the assistance of counsel in any proceeding for the correction of an illegal sentence.

(2) Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Illegal sentence" means a sentence: Imposed by a court without jurisdiction; that does not conform to the applicable statutory provision, either in character or punishment; or that is ambiguous with respect to the time and manner in which it is to be served at the time it is pronounced. A sentence is not an "illegal sentence" because of a change in the law that occurs after the sentence is pronounced.

(2) "Change in the law" means a statutory change or an opinion by an appellate court of the state of Kansas, unless the opinion is issued while the sentence is pending an appeal from the judgment of conviction.

(d) The amendments made to this section by this act are procedural in nature and shall be construed and applied retroactively.

New Sec. 16. If the amendments made to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6811, 21-6820 and 22-3504 are, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the amendments made to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6811, 21-6820 and 22-3504 that can be given effect without the invalid provision or provisions or application, and to this end the amendments made to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6811, 21-6820 and 22-3504 are severable.

Sec. 17. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 21-6811, 21-6811c, 21-6820 and 22-3504 are hereby repealed.
