Sec. 41. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 75-6706 is hereby amended to read as follows: 75-6706. (a) On July 1, 2017, the budget stabilization fund is hereby established in the state treasury.

(b) On or before the 10th day of each month commencing July 1, 2017, the director of accounts and reports shall transfer from the state general fund to the budget stabilization fund interest earnings based on:

(1) The average daily balance of moneys in the budget stabilization fund, for the preceding month; and

(2) the net earnings rate of the pooled money investment portfolio for the preceding month.

(c) On and after July 1, 2017, no moneys in the budget stabilization fund shall be expended pursuant to this subsection unless the expenditure either has been approved by an appropriation or other act of the legislature or has been approved by the state finance council acting on this matter, which is hereby characterized as a matter of legislative delegation and subject to the guidelines prescribed in K.S.A. 75-3711(c), and amendments thereto.

(d) (1) The legislative budget committee shall study and review the policy concerning the balance of, transfers to and expenditures from the budget stabilization fund. The legislative budget committee study and review shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) Risk-based budget stabilization fund practices utilized in other states.

(B) The appropriate number of years to review the state general fund:

(i) Revenue variances from projections; and

(ii) expenditure variances from budgets.

(C) The entity to certify the amount necessary in the budget stabilization fund to maintain the appropriate risk-based balance.

(D) Plan to fund the budget stabilization fund.

(E) Process and circumstances to reach the appropriate risk-based balance, including the amount of risk that is acceptable.

(F) Circumstances under which expenditures may be made from the fund.

(2) The legislative budget committee may make recommendations and introduce legislation as it deems necessary to implement such recommendations.

(e) On or before August 15, 2021, the director of the budget, in consultation with the director of legislative research, shall certify the amount of the unencumbered ending balance in the state general fund for fiscal year 2021. Such ending balance shall not include the transfers made pursuant to K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 75-6707, and amendments thereto. Upon-making such certification, the director of the budget shall authorize the director of accounts and reports to transfer 10% of such ending balance from the state general fund to the budget stabilization fund. The debt prepayment fund is hereby established in the state treasury.

(f) On or before the 10th day of each month commencing on July 1, 2019, the director of accounts and reports shall transfer from the state general fund to the debt prepayment fund interest earnings based on:

(1) The average daily balance of moneys in the debt prepayment fund, for the preceding month; and

(2) the net earnings rate of the pooled money investment portfolio for
the preceding month.

(g) The provisions of subsections (h), (i), (j) and (k) shall be in effect

(h) When state tax receipts for a fiscal year increase by more than 3% over state tax receipts for the preceding fiscal year: (1) Any increase in excess of 3% up to the next 1% of excess state tax receipts collected shall be deposited in the budget stabilization fund; and (2) any increase in excess of 4% up to the next 1/2% of excess state tax receipts collected shall be deposited in the debt prepayment fund. Nothing in this subsection shall require state tax receipts to be deposited in the budget stabilization fund when the budget stabilization fund balance exceeds 15% of the preceding fiscal year's state tax receipts. Nothing in this subsection shall require state tax receipts to be deposited in the debt prepayment fund when the debt prepayment fund balance exceeds 15% of the preceding fiscal year's total amount of principal of bonded indebtedness services by appropriations from the state general fund.

(i) (1) Withdrawals from the budget stabilization fund may occur in the current fiscal year only when the current fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts are less than the amount of actual state tax receipts collected or otherwise received in the preceding fiscal year. The amount subject to withdrawal shall not exceed the difference between the current fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts and the amount of actual state tax receipts collected or otherwise received in the preceding fiscal year, except that such difference shall be reduced by the amount of the current fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts not collected or otherwise received as a result of any kind of tax reduction legislation passed by the legislature and enacted into law in the current or preceding fiscal year.

(2) Withdrawals from the budget stabilization fund may occur in the ensuing fiscal year only when the ensuing fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts are less than the amount of estimated state tax receipts in the current fiscal year. The amount subject to withdrawal shall not exceed the difference between the ensuing fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts and the amount of estimated state tax receipts in the current fiscal year, except that such difference shall be reduced by the amount of the ensuing fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts not collected or otherwise received as a result of any kind of tax reduction legislation passed by the legislature and enacted into law in the current or preceding fiscal year.

(3) If the conditions of subsection (i)(1) or (i)(2) are met, the director of the budget may certify such amount for the current or ensuing fiscal year, as applicable. Whenever for any fiscal year it appears that the resources of the general fund are likely to be insufficient to cover the appropriations made against such general fund and the conditions of subsection (i)(1) or (i)(2) are met, the director of the budget may, in such amount as the director may determine, transfer moneys from the budget stabilization fund to the state general fund. The amount of any such transfer shall not exceed the amount of such insufficiency. The director shall transmit a copy of each such transfer to the director of legislative research.

(4) For the purposes of subsections (i)(1) and (i)(2), the director of the budget, in consultation with the director of legislative research, shall certify whether any kind of tax reduction legislation was passed by the legislature and enacted into law, and if so, the director of the budget shall certify the amount of such reduction.

(j) (1) Withdrawals from the debt prepayment fund may occur only to provide for calling and redeeming selected bonds for which debt service is paid by appropriations from the state general fund in accordance with their terms on or after their first optional redemption date and prior to maturity.

(2) Prior to any withdrawal from the debt prepayment fund authorized by this subsection, the director of the budget shall be responsible for determining and selecting which bonds will produce the greatest debt service savings to the state general fund, and for certifying that the selected bonds are available for optional redemption.

(3) The director of the budget shall certify the amount, if any, of any such called and redeemed bonds to the state finance council. No moneys in the debt prepayment fund shall be expended pursuant to this subsection unless the expenditure has been approved by the state finance council acting on this matter, which is hereby characterized as a matter of legislative delegation and subject to the guidelines prescribed in K.S.A. 75-3711(c), and amendments thereto. This matter may be submitted to the state finance council for approval at any time, including periods of time during which the legislature is in session.

(k) As used in this section, "state tax receipts" means receipts from any state income tax, sales tax, compensating use tax or other excise tax or tax in the nature of an excise tax, or estate or inheritance tax, or tax in the nature of an estate or inheritance tax, but shall not include receipts from any property tax, or tax in the nature of a property tax, or any tax on motor fuels.

Sec. 42. Severability. If any provision or clause of this act or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Sec. 43. Appeals to exceed expenditure limitations. (a) Upon written application to the governor and approval of the state finance council, expenditures from special revenue funds may exceed the amounts specified in this act.

(b) This section shall not apply to the expanded lottery act revenues fund, the state economic development initiatives fund, the children’s initiatives fund, the state water plan fund or the Kansas endowment for youth fund, or to any account of any of such funds.

Sec. 44. If any fund or account name described by words and the numerical accounting code that follows such fund or account name do not match, it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature intended that the fund or account name described by words is the correct fund or account name, and such fund or account name described by words shall control over a contradictory or incorrect numerical accounting code.

Sec. 45. K.S.A. 2018 Supp. 75-4209, 75-6706 and 75-6707 are hereby repealed.

Sec. 46. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Kansas register.
