Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2019 Supp. 39-1113 is hereby amended to read as follows: 39-1113. As used in this act and in K.S.A. 39-1101 through 39-1109 et seq., and amendments thereto:

(a) "Accredited training facility" means an assistance dog training organization that is accredited by assistance dogs international or a similar internationally recognized institution whose main purpose is to grant accreditation to assistance dog organizations based on standards of excellence in all areas of assistance dog acquisition, training and placement.

(b) "Assistance dog" means any guide dog, hearing assistance dog or service dog. The presence of a dog for comfort, protection or personal defense does not qualify a dog as being trained to mitigate an individual's disability and therefore does not qualify the dog as an assistance dog covered under the provisions of this act.

(c) "Guide dog" means a dog which is being prepared to be or has been specially selected, trained and tested by an accredited training facility for the purpose of guiding a person who is legally blind.

(d) "Hearing assistance dog" means a dog which is being prepared to be or has been specially selected, trained and tested by an accredited training facility to alert or warn individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing to specific sounds.

(e) "Professional therapy dog" means a dog which is selected, trained and tested by an unaccredited or accredited training facility, school or trainer to provide specific physical or therapeutic functions, under the direction and control of a qualified handler who works with the dog as a team, and as a part of the handler's occupation or profession. Such dogs, with their handlers, perform such functions in institutional settings, community based group settings, or when providing services to specific persons who have disabilities. "Professional therapy dog" does not include dogs, certified or not, which are used by volunteers for pet visitation therapy.

(f) "Service dog" means a dog which is being prepared to be or has been specially selected, trained and tested by an accredited training facility to perform a variety of tasks for persons with disabilities. These tasks include, but are not limited to: Pulling wheelchairs; lending balance support; picking up dropped objects; or providing assistance in, or to avoid, a medical crisis; or to otherwise mitigate the effects of a disability.
(f) The presence of a dog for comfort, protection or personal defense does not qualify a dog as being trained to mitigate an individual's disability and therefore does not qualify the dog as an assistance dog covered under the provisions of this act.

(g) "Trainer" means an employee or volunteer of an accredited training facility who trains or raises assistance dogs.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the statute book.
