A PROPOSITION to amend the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto stating that there is no constitutional right to abortion and reserving to the legislature the power to regulate abortion.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: The bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 22. Regulation of abortion. The constitution of the state of Kansas does not create or secure a right to abortion or the right to require government funding of abortion. Except as limited by the constitution of the United States, the legislature may pass laws allowing, limiting or otherwise regulating abortion."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would reserve to the legislature the power to allow, limit or otherwise regulate abortion in this state because there is no right to abortion or to require government funding of abortion under the state constitution.

"A vote for this proposition would reserve to the legislature the power to allow, limit or otherwise regulate abortion in this state because there is no right to abortion or to require government funding of abortion under the state constitution.

"A vote against this proposition would make no changes to the state constitution regarding the right to abortion or to require government funding of abortion."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2020.
