SENATE BILL No. 291

By Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance

AN ACT concerning insurance; relating to anti-fraud investigations; granting subpoena and investigative powers to the commissioner of insurance; granting certain law enforcement duties to insurance investigators; requiring special law enforcement training of investigators before carrying firearms; amending K.S.A. 40-103 and 74-5602 and K.S.A. 2019 Supp. 40-113 and repealing the existing sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

Section 1. K.S.A. 40-103 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-103. (a) The commissioner of insurance shall have general supervision, control and regulation of corporations, companies, associations, societies, exchanges, partnerships, or persons authorized to transact the business of insurance, indemnity or suretyship in this state and shall have the power to make all reasonable rules and regulations necessary to enforce the laws of this state relating thereto, and take such other action as the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of chapter 40 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto.

(b) The commissioner shall have the authority to:

(1) Make investigations and examinations:

(A) In connection with any application for registration or licensure of any person or entity under the laws of this state relating thereto, or any registration or licensure already granted; or

(B) whenever it appears to the commissioner, upon the basis of a complaint or information, that reasonable grounds exist for the belief that an investigation or examination is necessary or advisable to provide more complete protection to the public;

(2) appoint investigators to aid in investigations conducted pursuant to K.S.A. 2019 Supp. 40-113, and amendments thereto;

(3) subpoena witnesses and compel them to attend and testify;

(4) compel the production of books, records and other documents; and

(5) order depositions to be taken of any witness residing within or outside the state. The depositions shall be taken in the manner prescribed by law for depositions in civil actions and made returnable to the commissioner.
(c) If any person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the commissioner, the commissioner may make application to any court of competent jurisdiction to order the person to appear before the commissioner and produce documentary evidence or give evidence as directed in the subpoena. Any person who fails to obey the order of the court shall be subject to punishment by the court as contempt of court.

(d) If any person does not appear or refuses to testify, file a statement, produce records, or otherwise does not obey a subpoena issued by the commissioner, the commissioner may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction or a court of another state to enforce compliance with the subpoena. The court may:

1. Hold the person in contempt;
2. Order the person to appear before the commissioner;
3. Order the person to testify about the matter under investigation or in question;
4. Order the production of records;
5. Grant injunctive relief, including restricting or prohibiting the transaction of the business of insurance;
6. Impose a civil penalty of not greater than $2,000 for each violation; and
7. Grant any other necessary or appropriate relief.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2019 Supp. 40-113 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-113. (a) There is hereby established within the insurance department a criminal anti-fraud division of the Kansas insurance department. The criminal anti-fraud division shall accept information and complaints regarding possible insurance fraud. The criminal anti-fraud division shall also investigate possible violations of Kansas criminal statutes pertaining to and related to insurance fraud. The criminal anti-fraud division shall prepare and refer criminal cases to the attorney general, or in consultation with the attorney general to the proper county or district attorney, who may, in such prosecutor's discretion, with or without such a reference, institute the appropriate criminal proceedings under the laws of this state. The commissioner may pay extradition and witness expenses and other costs associated with the case.

(b) Complaints of insurance fraud shall be accepted from Kansas consumers, other divisions within the insurance department, other state and federal law enforcement agencies, and insurance companies. The criminal anti-fraud division's investigators shall prepare clear and concise reports concerning investigations and preserve evidence.

(c) Each investigator appointed by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to K.S.A. 40-103, and amendments thereto, shall have the authority to make arrests, serve subpoenas and any other process, conduct searches and seizures, store evidence and carry firearms, concealed or otherwise, while investigating violations of chapter 40 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto. The director of police training at the law enforcement training center is authorized to offer and carry out a special course of instruction for investigators performing law enforcement duties under the authority of this section. Such investigators shall not carry firearms without having first successfully completed such special law enforcement training course.

(d) The criminal anti-fraud division shall assist in the preparation and presentation of criminal cases as requested by the attorney general or county or district attorney. The criminal anti-fraud division shall perform other such duties in the prevention, detection, investigation and prosecution of insurance fraud as may be necessary. Such preparation may include affidavits, interviews, preservation of evidence and securing the attendance of individuals involved in the case. In presenting the prosecution's case, members of the criminal anti-fraud division may testify as to the facts of the case.

Sec. 3. K.S.A. 74-5602 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-5602. As used in the Kansas law enforcement training act:
