Article 2.—LEGISLATIVE

§ 1. Legislative power.—The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a house of representatives and senate.

§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members than elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor’s veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

(b) If any bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, one or more of such items may be disapproved by the governor while the other portion of the bill is approved by the governor. In case the governor does so disapprove, a veto message of the governor stating the item or items disapproved, and the reasons therefor, shall be appended to the bill at the time it is signed, and the bill shall be returned with the veto message to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and, in not more than thirty calendar days, the house of origin shall reconsider the items of the bill which have been disapproved. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to approve any item disapproved by the governor, the bill, with the veto message, shall be sent to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days also reconsider each such item so approved by the house of origin, and if approved by two-thirds of all the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, any such item shall take effect and become a part of the bill.

§ 15. Requirements before bill passed.—No bill shall be passed on the day that it is introduced, unless in case of emergency declared by two-thirds of the members present in the house where a bill is pending.

§ 16. Subject and title of bills; amendment or revival of statutes.—No bill shall contain more than one subject, except appropriation bills and bills for revision or codification of statutes. The subject of each bill shall be expressed in its title. No law shall be revived or amended, unless the new act contain the entire act revived or the section or sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed. The provisions of this section shall be liberally construed to effectuate the acts of the legislature.

§ 17. Uniform operation of laws of a general nature.—All laws of a general nature shall have a uniform operation throughout the state: Provided, The legislature may designate areas in counties that have become urban in character as “urban areas” and enact special laws giving to any one or more of such counties or urban areas such powers of local government and consolidation of local government as the legislature may deem proper.

§ 18. Election or appointment of officers; filling vacancies.—The legislature may provide for the election or appointment of all officers and the filling of all vacancies not otherwise provided for in this constitution.

§ 19. Publication of acts.—No act shall take effect until the enacting bill is published as provided by law.

§ 20. Enacting clause of bills; laws enacted only by bill.—The enacting clause of all bills shall be “Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:”. No law shall be enacted except by bill.

§ 21. Delegation of powers’ of local legislation and administration.—The legislature may confer powers of local legislation and administration upon political subdivisions.

§ 22. Legislative immunity.—For any speech, written document or debate in either house, the members shall not be questioned elsewhere. No member of the legislature shall be subject to arrest—except for treason, felony or breach of the peace—in going to, or returning from, the place of meeting, or during the continuance of the session; neither shall he be subject to the service of any civil process during the session, nor for fifteen days previous to its commencement.

§ 23. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 24. Appropriations.—No money shall be drawn from the treasury except in pursuance of a specific appropriation made by law.

§ 25. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 26. This section was repealed by the adoption of 1972 HCR 1097, on Aug. 1, 1972.

Joint Rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security.
Joint Rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation.

(a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required.

Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required.

After one day’s previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions.

Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.
Joint Rule 2. Joint sessions.

(a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter.

A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable.

The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements.

All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

(a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion.

A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure.

When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee.

Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business.

Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk’s or secretary’s desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports.

All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report.

The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee.

If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year.

Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint Rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills.

The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members.

Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 1, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and on January 31, 2022, during the 2022 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members.

Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 10, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and on February 9, 2022, during the 2022 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees.

Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 8, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and on February 7, 2022, during the 2022 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees.

Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 12, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and on February 11, 2022, during the 2022 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline.

No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on March 5, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and on February 24, 2022, during the 2022 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline.

No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, the committee on assessment and taxation of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 31, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and on March 23, 2022, during the 2022 regular session.
(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure.

Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect.

In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect.

Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure.

In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions.

No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 9, 2021, during the 2021 regular session a and after April 1, 2022, during the 2022 regular session except bills vetoed by the governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702, and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

   (1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;
   (2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;
   (3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and
   (4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

   If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

   (c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert.

The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions.

Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations.

Assistant Secretary of State, Catherine Gunsalus, called the House to order.

Prayer by the Rev. Eunice Brubaker:

Almighty Creator God,
Thank You for this day we have to come together and to begin a work that You have started within and through our leaders.
Thank You for each one who have dedicated themselves, their time, energy and effort to serve the people of Kansas.
As we begin this new session, albeit in unusual circumstances and times,
I challenge each one to use the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi as a daily goal.
Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
I pray this in Your Son’s Name,
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Croft.

Assistant Secretary of State, Catherine Gunsalus requested Rep. Ryckman to approach the well for the oath of office.

Speaker-elect Ryckman subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Marla Luckert.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee, ss:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of January, 2021.

\[\text{MARLA LUCKERT}]

\textit{Chief Justice of the Supreme Court}

Speaker Ryckman addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Thank you, Chief Justice. On behalf of all of us, let me express our gratitude and appreciation to you for being with us today.

I also want to thank my family who is watching from home today ….. your families who - like mine - make many sacrifices so that we may be here to serve ….. and to you, my colleagues here in the people’s House.

Over this past year …. our families, our state and our nation have faced tremendous worry … pain… frustration … and loss. What we CANNOT lose is our sense of duty … to each other …. and to the people we took an oath to serve.

We have an added duty this session … a duty to keep each other safe so that every single one of us in this chamber – and every one working on the other side of these doors - goes home safe to their families.

Each of us comes to this position with our own set of hopes and goals. But, how do we realize those goals? How do we achieve real results …. not the kind that sound good in a headline or look nice on a campaign postcard … but the kind of results that bring people together and move our state forward through these uncertain times.

As Kansans, we know that divisiveness … blasting others from the shadows of social media … and talking past each other will not achieve the results we have a duty to deliver.

In order to do that, I urge you to ….

- Challenge what you’re told.
- Ask the difficult questions.
- Do your homework.
- Listen to what the other side is saying.
• Come to work with an open mind and fresh ideas, rather than list non-negotiables.
• Realize that the best solution may not happen overnight.
• And, appreciate that while none of us will get everything we want, we will all bring something to the final product for the good of our state and the people we serve.

We have ambitious goals ahead of us. To protect life … to ease the burden on hard-working Kansans … and to spur an economic recovery in the wake of this pandemic. We can and will accomplish all three of these.

Doing so will take hard work … patience … and a commitment to do right by the people who are counting on us. Now, more than ever, the people of Kansas are counting on us - the People’s House - to deliver for them.

In closing, I call upon each of you to serve with a servant’s heart. To focus less on temporary hardships and more on permanent good. To focus less on you alone and more on all of us together … and on doing the work of the people. May God Bless you in your service, and may God bless the Great State of Kansas.

Speaker Ryckman was presented the gavel by Assistant Secretary of State Catherine Gunsalus and assumed the chair.

Speaker Ryckman announced the appointment of Susan Kannarr as Chief Clerk; Foster Chisholm as Sergeant-at-Arms and the Rev. Eunice Brubaker as House Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Nominations being in order for Speaker pro tem, Rep. Rahjes nominated Rep. Blaine Finch for Speaker pro tem of the House. There being no further nominations, Rep. Sawyer moved the nominations be closed, and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for Rep. Finch as Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives. The motion prevailed.

Speaker Ryckman requested Rep. Finch to approach the well for the oath of office. Speaker pro tem-elect Finch subscribed to the following oath of office, which was administered by Chief Justice Luckert.

State of Kansas, County of Shawnee, ss:
I do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Kansas, and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Speaker pro tem of the House of Representatives, so help me God. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of January, 2021.

Marla Luckert
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court

Speaker pro tem Finch addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Good afternoon to each of you here today and to all of those listening along online. Thank you, Chief Justice Luckert, for being here to swear us in. To those of you returning representatives welcome back. To those of you who are newly elected, congratulations and welcome to your first day in the Kansas House. I regret to tell you that all of the work you did campaigning was the easy part. Now the hard part begins, governing. I also want to thank all of you for the honor of serving you as your speaker pro tem. It is not an obligation I take lightly.

As I thought about what I wanted to share with you today, I was drawn to the founding document of our nation, the Declaration of Independence. A beautiful document, filled with political poetry, and promises our country is still trying to fulfill. But the line that drew my attention was the last one: “And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.”

These signers knew their odds of success were long. They were a ragtag bunch of colonists facing the world’s greatest superpower. But they shared a common goal. The creation of a new nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to equality. They knew that a shared goal wouldn’t be enough. They needed a commitment to one another to see it through. They needed a pledge. A pledge is important. It signifies a commitment. It signifies that one is willing to pay a price to achieve a goal. And pay a price they did.

There were 56 signers. Almost all involved in the subsequent war in some way: 17 in the military; 12 in combat; 5 were imprisoned, and 6 made the ultimate sacrifice and gave their lives; and 17 were all but wiped out financially; including one Thomas Nelson Jr. who asked the continental army to turn their cannons on his own house rather than see British officers use it against the colonies. What commitment, what willingness to follow through with the commitment they had made.

So, what about us? We just stood on this floor raised our hands and made a pledge, to support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the state of Kansas, and to faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Representative of the State of Kansas.

Our pledge will require certain things of us as well. Among them are these three: responsibility, sacrifice and service.

Our pledge will require responsibility.

No matter where we are from, what party we belong to, or what was on our palm cards, I believe all of us are here today because we want to help. To improve lives, and to make Kansas the best place it can be. We may differ on what making Kansas the best place it can be may mean, but I believe we are all here because we want to do the right thing. And right now our state needs people like that more than ever. Our challenges are great. The needs of our fellow Kansans are great, and now is the hour that we must be great for them. Winston Churchill said, “The price of greatness is responsibility.” Let us pledge then, to practice responsibility in all things, great and small, to protect our health and the health of others, for it is only by working together that the greatness of our work can exceed the greatness of the challenges that lay before us.

Our pledge will require sacrifice.

It is worth noting that We did not pledge to enjoy all the benefits and privileges of the office of representative. We pledged to faithfully discharge our duties, and duty if it means anything at all, means sacrifice. Kansans know that too: Time and again our men and women have sacrificed. Kansas gave 8,500 lives in the bloody civil war that gave birth to our state and saved our Union. Tens of thousands more have served on battlefields around the globe, and some came back with new challenges, while some never came home at all. Kansas men and women on the home front have sacrificed too. They have endured rationing, shortages, and hardships. They planted victory gardens and bought war bonds to help defend freedom, and many sent their sons and daughters to serve not knowing if they would return. And after every natural disaster or act of terrorism you can find Kansans stepping up to serve and render aid, to give of themselves to help others. In the early days of this pandemic, when face masks were a rare commodity, it was a retired farmer from Troy, Kansas, who sent his one spare to New York with instructions to give it to a nurse or doctor fighting to save lives threatened by the scourage of Covid-19. Let us heed the example of those prior generations of Kansans, to make the necessary sacrifices and to do what must be done to keep our word and set a similar example for future generations to come.

Our pledge will require service.

It is fashionable these days to talk about freedom, as though it exists in a vacuum. As though freedom has no corresponding obligation. But freedom, though an inalienable right, is meant to be used in service. Freedom comes with an awesome moral imperative. Nearly 2,000 years ago the Apostle Paul wrote to the church in Galatia, "You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love. For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’" Freedom without service is selfish. Freedom used in service is sublime.

May we spend this session using our God given freedom to serve one another. Asking not what can be done for us, but what we can do for others.

In closing, I share what Teddy Roosevelt said in his second inaugural, “Much has been given us, and much will rightfully be expected from us. We have duties to others and duties to ourselves; and we can shirk neither.”

As you go about your work this session, remember this, and those signers and their pledge. They pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor. And though some gave their lives, and more gave their fortunes, they all would give their sacred honor. Through eight long years of war and hardship, when the public lost faith in the war, and military defeats made victory seem hopeless, all 56 stayed the course, not one broke their pledge, not one gave up.

And now it is our turn to be tested. To decide whether we will rise to this occasion. I have faith that we can, we will, and indeed for the sake of our state, we must.

Let us resolve then to go forward together, mutually pledging to each other, to face every peril, meet every challenge, make every sacrifice, and faithfully discharge every duty, so that it may ever be said that the representatives of this House paid the price, never gave up and always gave the full measure of their sacred honor in service to the people of Kansas.

May God bless each of you this session, may God bless those that you represent, and may God continue to bless the great state of Kansas.

Speaker Ryckman asked for announcements from party caucuses:

Rep. Rahjes stated the majority (Republican) party had met and elected the following:

• Majority leader, Representative Daniel Hawkins
• Assistant Majority Leader, Representative Les Mason
• Majority Whip, Representative Blake Carpenter
• Caucus Chairperson, Representative Ken Rahjes

Rep. Hawkins addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

This is truly a unique time we find ourselves in. I am going to keep my remarks brief in order to limit the amount of time we have to stay in this room.

First I want to thank the Republican caucus for the honor of once again representing you as your Majority Leader. It is one of the great honors of my life.

I also must thank my wife, Diane, and my daughters Hannah and Hayley for their support. I could not do this without you.

Most of all I want to thank God and ask for His blessing over this coming session.

Every year this body addresses big issues. The people in this room now are facing some of the biggest in the history of our state. We will often disagree but we owe it to the people of Kansas to work together to navigate these rough waters.

I pray that in a few years COVID and the unrest we’ve experienced in recent months will seem like ancient history. The work done by those of you in this Chamber will play a large part in making that the case here in Kansas.

This will likely be the toughest legislative session any of us ever experience. Let’s work together to ensure it will also be the most productive. Thank you.

Rep. Ballard stated the minority (Democrat) party had caucused and elected the following officers:

• Minority Leader, Representative Tom Sawyer
• Assistant Minority Leader, Representative Jason Probst
• Minority Whip, Representative Stephanie Clayton
• Agenda Chairperson, Representative Brandon Woodard
• Caucus Chairperson, Representative Barbara Ballard
• Policy Chairperson, Representative Rui Xu

Rep. Sawyer addressed the following remarks to the members of the House:

Welcome everyone to the Kansas House of Representatives. For the new members, this is a great place to work. It’s not only a beautiful building, but it’s also full of history. For those of you who have been here before, it’s like the first day of school—getting a chance to get reacquainted with everyone. I’ve been through several sessions; each one is unique and different. There is no doubt this one is going to be different.

We’ve had to make a lot of changes to deal with the pandemic. Kansas families and businesses continue to suffer during this pandemic, but while we are here together, we will continue to do work to ensure the betterment of the lives of all Kansans affected by the pandemic. I want to thank the Speaker for making it safer for us to be able to be here.

I want to congratulate the Speaker and the Speaker pro tem on their re-elections. I also want to congratulate the Majority leader and Republican leadership, as well as Jason Probst and the rest of the Democratic Leadership on their election.
There is one thing that unites us. We all come from different backgrounds, different districts, with different core beliefs, but we are all united under our desire to make Kansas a better place for all of us—especially the working families of Kansas.

We are ready to work with you to provide a better life for Kansans, but we are also the loyal opposition and will provide the necessary checks and balances to ensure that the majority party stays on the right track. We will always put everyday Kansans first.

However, what most new people may not realize, is that most bills that pass through here, pass by large bi-partisan majority.

My hope is that when we debate, we debate civilly. When we disagree, we disagree agreeably, and that we work hard to find the common ground to make Kansas a better place.

I look forward to working with all of you and the Governor to better improve the lives of Kansans.

The roll was called with 123 members present.
Representative-elect Blex was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.
Representative-elect Ralph was excused on verified illness.

Rule 2101. Germaneness. Amendments to bills and resolutions shall be germane to the subject of the bill or resolution. The principal test of whether an amendment is germane shall be its relationship to the subject of the bill or resolution, rather than to wording of the title thereof. The amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any appropriation bill.

Rule 2102. Form of Amendment Motions. Motions to amend bills and resolutions shall specify the page and line number, as shown on the printed bill or resolution, and shall be in writing on a form provided by the House or a form substantially similar. Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments. (a) When any motion to amend a bill or resolution contains distinct propositions, it shall be divided by the presiding officer at the request of any member. The division by the presiding officer shall be made in accordance with the following:

1. A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;
2. the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;
3. each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and
4. those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the presiding officer shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the presiding officer shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The presiding officer, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal, or in the chairperson's absence the vice chairperson of the Committee, on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson, or vice chairperson, on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.

Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the action proposed to be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

Rule 2304. Previous Question. The "previous question" shall be: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment. A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2307. Motion to Strike Bills and Resolutions from Calendar When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the Calendar shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2308. Stating Question. Every motion shall be first stated by the presiding officer or read by the chief clerk, before debate, and again immediately before putting the question.

Rule 2310. When Motions to be in Writing. Every motion, except those specified in Rules 2301 and 2303, shall be in writing if the Speaker or any member desires it. All motions to amend a bill or resolution and all resolutions shall be in writing.

Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House. (a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

1. A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

2. A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

(c) Suspension of the rules or unanimous consent shall not reduce the majority required under subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule.

Rule 2312. Mason's Manual; When Applicable. (a) In any case where rules of the House or the joint rules of the Senate and House do not apply, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2010 edition), with the exception of section 4, paragraph 2, shall govern.

(b) Rules of legislative procedure are derived from several sources and take precedence in the order listed below. For the Kansas House of Representatives, the principal sources are as follows: (a) Constitutional provisions; (b) statutory provisions; (c) adopted rules; (d) adopted parliamentary authority; (e) custom, usage and precedents.

ARTICLE 25. VOTING

Rule 2501. Control and Use of Voting System. The electronic voting system shall be under the control of the Speaker or other presiding officer and shall be operated by the chief clerk. The electronic voting system shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question and may be used for ascertaining the vote upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called. In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote. When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain his or her vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change his or her vote?" If any member does desire to change his or her vote, such member when recognized by the presiding officer, shall advise how they desire to change such vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to make the appropriate change. A member who has not previously voted may vote at this time when permitted by the presiding officer. Such member shall advise how they wish to vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to record such vote. After all members who desire to vote or to change their votes have had reasonable opportunity to do so, the presiding officer shall announce the vote and, when the vote has been announced, shall direct the chief clerk to record the vote.

Rule 2503. Display of Recurring Totals. Under Rule 2502, recurring totals shall be displayed only after the roll is closed. No recurring totals shall be displayed for a determination of the vote upon a division of the assembly.

Rule 2504. Voting by Members. (a) A member may vote only when at their desk or at any place within the chamber of the House when authorized by the presiding officer, who shall direct the chief clerk to so vote for such member.

(b) No member shall vote for another member. No person not a member shall cast a vote for a member, except as otherwise provided in the rules. In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who votes or attempts to vote for another member shall be subject to Article 49 of these rules. If a person not a member votes or attempts to vote for any member, such person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and, in addition to penalties prescribed by law, may be punished further as the House determines.

(c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote. Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. Such member shall be allowed not more than one minute for such explanation. Such explanation, if furnished in writing and signed, with printed name and district number, by such member by 4:00 p.m. upon the day the vote is taken or if the vote is taken subsequent to 3:30 p.m., within one-half hour after the adjournment of the House on that day, shall be entered in the Journal, provided it does not contain more than 100 words.

Rule 2506. Copies of Voting Records. (a) Unless otherwise ordered, the chief clerk shall record each roll call vote and make copies available for the use of the news media. No record shall be made of the vote of any member voting upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called.

(b) When a roll call vote is taken, it shall be recorded in the Journal by a statement of the names and total number voting in the affirmative, the names and total number voting in the negative, names and total number indicating presence but not voting and the names and total number absent or not voting, except that the provisions of this section shall not permit a member to fail to vote in violation of Rule 2508.

After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president; and (2) either: (a) A copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence; or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and the motion to concur may be renewed but not on the same legislative day. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not fewer than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent

A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. (j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 9, 2021, during the 2021 regular session and after April 3, 2020, Joint rule 6. Floor amendments to bills making appropriations. (a) Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no amendment from the floor in either house of the legislature to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill. Notwithstanding any rule in either house of the legislature, those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in this rule shall be indivisible.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the ending balance in the state general fund for the ensuing fiscal year is equal to 7.5% or more of the total amount authorized to be expended or transferred by demand transfer from the state general fund in such fiscal year based on the most recent budget profile of the Kansas legislative research department.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Representatives Highberger and Clayton

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION relating to the Joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives for 2021-2022; amending Joint rule 3; and revoking Joint rule 6.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That Joint rule 3 shall be amended to read as follows:

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. Subject to any limitations imposed under the constitution of the state of Kansas, no more than a total of four two additional bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions in conference or bills or concurrent resolutions or parts of bills or concurrent resolutions which have passed in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution, except that reports of conference committees on any taxation bill are not subject to the limitation contained in this provision. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house, electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of \( \frac{2}{3} \) of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All conference committee reports which contain any recommendation to strike all of the material in the bill subsequent to the enacting clause and insert new material shall be signed by all of the conferees, and a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree shall not be used when the conference committee makes any such recommendation. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Be it further resolved: That Joint rule 6 be revoked.

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

HCR 5003—A PROPOSITION to amend the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto stating that there is no constitutional right to abortion, and reserving to the people the ability to regulate abortion through the elected members of the legislature of the state of Kansas.

WHEREAS, This proposition to amend the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be known and may be cited as the Value Them Both Amendment.

Now, therefore:

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: The bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 22. Regulation of abortion. Because Kansans value both women and children, the constitution of the state of Kansas does not require government funding of abortion and does not create or secure a right to abortion. To the extent permitted by the constitution of the United States, the people, through their elected state representatives and state senators, may pass laws regarding abortion, including, but not limited to, laws that account for circumstances of pregnancy resulting from rape or incest, or circumstances of necessity to save the life of the mother."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The Value Them Both Amendment would affirm there is no Kansas constitutional right to abortion or to require the government funding of abortion, and would reserve to the people of Kansas, through their elected state legislators, the right to pass laws to regulate abortion, including, but not limited to, in circumstances of pregnancy resulting from rape or incest, or when necessary to save the life of the mother.

"A vote for the Value Them Both Amendment would affirm there is no Kansas constitutional right to abortion or to require the government funding of abortion, and would reserve to the people of Kansas, through their elected state legislators, the right to pass laws to regulate abortion.

"A vote against the Value Them Both Amendment would make no changes to the constitution of the state of Kansas, and could restrict the people, through their elected state legislators, from regulating abortion by leaving in place the recently recognized right to abortion."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at a special election which is hereby called on August 2, 2022, pursuant to section 1 of article 14 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, to be held in conjunction with the primary election held on such date.

By Committee on Elections

HCR 5004—A PROPOSITION to amend section 11 of article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to vacancies in executive offices.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 11 of article 1 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 11. Vacancies in executive offices. When the office of governor is vacant, the lieutenant governor shall become governor. In the event of the disability of the governor, the lieutenant governor shall assume the powers and duties of governor until the disability is removed. The legislature shall provide by law for the succession to the office of governor should the offices of governor and lieutenant governor be vacant, and for the assumption of the powers and duties of governor during the disability of the governor, should the office of lieutenant governor be vacant or the lieutenant governor be disabled. When the office of secretary of state or attorney general is vacant, the governor shall fill the vacancy by appointment, and the legislature shall provide by law for the filling of the vacancy for the remainder of the term. If the secretary of state or attorney general is disabled, the governor shall name a person to assume the powers and duties of the office until the disability is removed. The procedure for determining disability and the removal thereof shall be provided by law."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to replace the authority of the governor to fill vacancies in the offices of secretary of state and attorney general, by appointment, and to name persons to assume the powers and duties of the offices of secretary of state and attorney general, if the secretary of state or attorney general is disabled, with a grant of authority to the legislature to provide by law for the filling of vacancies in those offices and for the naming of persons to assume those offices in the event of a disability.

A vote for this proposition would amend the Kansas constitution to permit the legislature to provide, by law, for the filling of vacancies in the offices of the secretary of state and the attorney general and to provide, by law, for the naming of persons to assume the offices of secretary of state and attorney general, if the person holding that office became disabled."
"A vote against this proposition would not amend the constitution, in which case the current provision providing the governor with the authority to fill vacancies in the offices of secretary of state and attorney general, by appointment, and the authority to name persons to assume those offices in the event of disability would remain."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

APPOINTMENT OF SELECT COMMITTEE

Speaker Ryckman, pursuant to Article 49 of the House Rules and in accordance with K.S.A. Chapter 46, Article 10, appointed the following members to serve on a Select Investigative Committee in response to the complaint filed with the House Clerk, Susan Kannarr on January 12th, 2021:

January 12, 2021

Chief Clerk
House of Representatives

Pursuant to House Rule 4901, we are requesting censure procedures including consideration of expulsion of Representative Aaron Coleman for his actions after he became the Representative-elect of the 37th House District.

Representative Coleman brings to the Kansas Legislature a longstanding history of physically and emotionally abusive behavior. Some acts pre-date his election in 2020, yet illustrate a pattern of behavior that continues to the present day.

An attached document outlines some of his more recent and egregious offenses, including a public threat against the Governor of Kansas, recent physical abuse of a woman, and harassment of another woman that resulted in the filing of a request for a court protective order. This list is long, but it is not comprehensive.

Representative Coleman’s past and present behavior renders him unfit for office. His removal is further necessary to ensure the safety and well-being of legislators and Capitol staff.

We the undersigned hereby desire to lodge a formal complaint.

Tom Sawyer, Jason Probst, Jo Ella Hoye, Lindsay Vaughn, Christine Haswood, Jennifer Day, Mari-Lynn Poskin, Stephanie Byers, Linda Featherston, Barbara Ballard, Stephanie Clayton, Brandon Woodard, Rui Xu.

By Committee on Judiciary

HCR 5006—A PROPOSITION to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by revising article 3 thereof, relating to the judiciary.
Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 3 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby revised to read as follows:

"Article 3.—JUDICIAL

§ 1. Judicial power; seals; rules. The judicial power of this state shall be vested exclusively in one court of justice, which shall be divided into one supreme court, one court of appeals, district courts, and such other courts as are provided by law; and all courts of record shall have a seal. The supreme court shall have general administrative authority over all courts in this state.

§ 2. Supreme court. The supreme court shall consist of not less than seven justices who shall be selected as provided by this article. All cases shall be heard with not fewer than four justices sitting and the concurrence of a majority of the justices sitting and of not fewer than four justices shall be necessary for a decision. The term of office of the justices shall be six years except as hereinafter provided. The justice who is senior in continuous term of service shall be chief justice, and in case two or more have continuously served during the same period the senior in age of these shall be chief justice. A justice may decline or resign from the office of chief justice without resigning from the court. Upon such declination or resignation, the justice who is next senior in continuous term of service shall become chief justice. During incapacity of a chief justice, the duties, powers and emoluments of the office shall devolve upon the justice who is next senior in continuous service.

§ 3. Jurisdiction and terms. The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in proceedings in quo warranto, mandamus, and habeas corpus; and such appellate jurisdiction as may be provided by law. It shall hold one term each year at the seat of government and such other terms at such places as may be provided by law, and its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the state.

§ 4. Reporter; clerk. There shall be appointed, by the justices of the supreme court, a reporter and clerk of such court, who shall hold their offices two years, and whose duties shall be prescribed by law.

§ 5. Selection of justices of the supreme court. (a) (1) Any vacancy occurring in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any position to be open thereon as a result of enlargement of the court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such justice's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a justice to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor of one of three persons possessing the qualifications of office who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission established as hereinafter provided.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs or will occur or a position opens on the supreme court, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.
(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the time the names of the nominees are submitted to the governor, the chief justice of the supreme court shall make the appointment from such nominees.

(4) Whenever a vacancy in the office of justice of the supreme court exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) (1) Each justice of the supreme court appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

If a declaration is not so filed, the position held by such justice shall be open from the expiration of such justice's term of office. If such declaration is filed, such justice's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows:

"Shall (Here insert name of justice.), Justice of the Supreme Court, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining such justice in office, the position or office which such justice holds shall be open upon the expiration of such justice's term of office; otherwise such justice shall, unless removed for cause, remain in office for the regular term of six years from the second Monday in January following such election. At the expiration of each term such justice shall, unless by law such justice is compelled to retire, be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the justice's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such justice who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for nomination or appointment to the office of justice of the supreme court prior to the expiration of six years after the expiration of the justice's term of office.

(d) A nonpartisan nominating commission whose duty it shall be to nominate and submit to the governor the names of persons for appointment to fill vacancies in the office of any justice of the supreme court and any judge of the court of appeals is hereby established, and shall be known as the "supreme court nominating commission." The commission shall be organized as hereinafter provided.

(e) The supreme court nominating commission shall be composed as follows: One member, who shall be chairperson, chosen from among their number by the members of the bar who are residents of and licensed in Kansas;
one member from each congressional district chosen from among their number by the resident members of the bar in each such district; and one member, who is not a lawyer, from each congressional district, appointed by the governor from among the residents of each such district.

(f) The terms of office, the procedure for selection and certification of the members of the commission and provision for their compensation or expenses shall be as provided by the legislature.

(g) No member of the supreme court nominating commission shall, while a member, hold any other public office by appointment or any official position in a political party or for six months thereafter be eligible for nomination for the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the court of appeals. The commission may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members.

"§ 6. Court of appeals. (a) (1) The court of appeals shall consist of not less than 14 judges. Any vacancy occurring in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and any position to be open on the court of appeals as a result of enlargement of such court, or the retirement or failure of an incumbent to file such judge's declaration of candidacy to be retained in office as hereinafter required, or failure of a judge to be elected to be retained in office, shall be filled by appointment by the governor of one of three persons possessing the qualifications of office who shall be nominated and whose names shall be submitted to the governor by the supreme court nominating commission established by section 5 of this article.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs or will occur or a position opens on the court of appeals, the clerk of the supreme court shall promptly give notice to the governor.

(3) In event of the failure of the governor to make the appointment within 60 days from the time the names of the nominees are submitted to the governor, the chief justice of the supreme court shall make the appointment from such nominees.

(4) Whenever a vacancy in the office of judge of the court of appeals exists at the time the appointment to fill such vacancy is made pursuant to this section, the appointment shall be effective at the time it is made, but where an appointment is made pursuant to this section to fill a vacancy which will occur at a future date, such appointment shall not take effect until such date.

(b) (1) Each judge of the court of appeals appointed pursuant to subsection (a) shall hold office for an initial term ending on the second Monday in January following the first general election that occurs after the expiration of 12 months in office.

(2) Not less than 60 days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of such judge's term of office, any judge of the court of appeals may file in the office of the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy for election to be retained in office. If a declaration is not so filed, the position held by such judge shall be open from the expiration of such judge's term of office. If such declaration is filed, such judge's name shall be submitted at the next general election to the electors of the state on a separate judicial ballot, without party designation, reading substantially as follows:
"Shall (Here insert name of judge.), Judge of the Court of Appeals, be retained in office?"

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining such judge in office, the position or office which such judge holds shall be open upon the expiration of such judge's term of office; otherwise such judge shall, unless removed for cause, remain in office for the regular term of four years from the second Monday in January following such election. At the expiration of each term such judge shall, unless by law such judge is compelled to retire, be eligible for retention in office by election in the manner prescribed in this section.

(4) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against the judge's retention, the secretary of state, following the final canvass of votes on the question, shall certify the results to the clerk of the supreme court. Any such judge who has not been retained in office pursuant to this section shall not be eligible for nomination or appointment to the office of judge of the court of appeals prior to the expiration of four years after the expiration of the judge's term of office.

c) The supreme court may assign a judge of the court of appeals to serve temporarily on the supreme court.

"§ 7. District courts. (a) The state shall be divided into judicial districts as provided by law. Each judicial district shall have at least one district judge. The term of office of each judge of the district court shall be four years. District court shall be held at such times and places as may be provided by law. The district judges shall be elected by the electors of the respective judicial districts unless the electors of a judicial district have adopted and not subsequently rejected a method of nonpartisan selection. The legislature shall provide a method of nonpartisan selection of district judges and for the manner of submission and resubmission thereof to the electors of a judicial district. A nonpartisan method of selection of district judges may be adopted, and once adopted may be rejected, only by a majority of electors of a judicial district voting on the question at an election in which the proposition is submitted. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of district judge, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor until the next general election that occurs more than 30 days after such vacancy, or as may be provided by such nonpartisan method of selection.

(b) The district courts shall have such jurisdiction in their respective districts as may be provided by law.

c) The legislature shall provide for clerks of the district courts.

d) Provision may be made by law for judges pro tem of the district court.

e) The supreme court or any justice thereof shall have the power to assign judges of district courts temporarily to other districts.

"§ 9. Prohibition of political activity by justices and certain judges. No justice of the supreme court who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 5 of this article, nor any judge of the court of appeals who is appointed or retained under the procedure of section 6 of this article, nor any judge of the district court holding office under a nonpartisan method authorized in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, shall directly or indirectly make any contribution to or hold any office in a political party or organization or take part in any political campaign.

"§ 10. Extension of terms until successor qualified. All judicial officers shall hold their offices until their successors shall have qualified.

"§ 11. Compensation of justices and judges; certain limitation. The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the district courts shall receive for their services such compensation as may be provided by law, which shall not be diminished during their terms of office, unless by general law applicable to all salaried officers of the state. Such justices or judges shall receive no fees or perquisites nor hold any other office of profit or trust under the authority of the state, or the United States, except as may be provided by law, or practice law during their continuance in office.

"§ 12. Removal of justices and judges. Justices of the supreme court may be removed from office by impeachment and conviction as prescribed in article 2 of this constitution. In addition to removal by impeachment and conviction, justices may be retired after appropriate hearing, upon certification to the governor, by the supreme court that such justice is so incapacitated as to be unable to perform adequately such justice's duties. Other judges shall be subject to retirement for incapacity, and to discipline, suspension and removal for cause by the supreme court after appropriate hearing.

"§ 13. Savings clause. Nothing contained in this amendment to the constitution shall: (a) Shorten the term of office or abolish the office of any justice of the supreme court, any judge of the court of appeals, any judge of the district court, or any other judge of any other court who is holding office at the time this amendment becomes effective, or who is holding office at the time of adoption, rejection, or resubmission of a nonpartisan method of selection of district judges as provided in subsection (a) of section 7 of this article, and all such justices and judges shall hold their respective offices for the terms for which elected or appointed unless sooner removed in the manner provided by law; or (b) repeal any statute of this state relating to the supreme court, the supreme court nominating commission, the court of appeals, district courts, or any other court, or relating to the justices or judges of such courts, and such statutes shall remain in force and effect until amended or repealed by the legislature.

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:
"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution and change the nomination and appointment process for judges of the court of appeals. This amendment would continue in effect the current provisions of Article 3 of the Kansas Constitution, including the provisions requiring the supreme court nominating commission to nominate and submit to the governor the names of three persons for appointment to fill any vacancy in the office of any justice of the supreme court and requiring the governor to appoint one of such persons. This amendment would change the nomination and appointment process for the office of judge of the court of appeals by requiring the supreme court nominating commission to nominate and submit to the governor the names of three persons for appointment to fill any vacancy in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and requiring the governor to appoint one of such persons.

"A vote for this proposition would place the law concerning the court of appeals into the constitution. The supreme court nominating commission would nominate and submit to the governor the names of three persons for appointment to fill any vacancy in the office of any judge of the court of appeals and the governor would appoint one of such persons. The supreme court nominating commission would continue to nominate and submit to the governor the names of three persons for appointment to fill any vacancy in the office of any justice of the supreme court and the governor would appoint one of such persons.

"A vote against this proposition would leave the law concerning the court of appeals in the Kansas statutes and continue in effect the current nomination and appointment process in which judges of the court of appeals are appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. The supreme court nominating commission would continue to nominate and submit to the governor the names of three persons for appointment to fill any vacancy in the office of any justice of the supreme court and the governor would appoint one of such persons."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HR 6004. As a newly elected representative, I’m disappointed that my constituents can’t be fairly heard in the house they paid for, the people’s house. (2) A referendum on a bill, or any part thereof, may be ordered by a petition signed by not less than 5% of the qualified electors who voted in the last preceding gubernatorial election.

(3) A referendum petition shall be filed with the secretary of state not more than 120 days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature at which the bill was passed.
(4) A referendum petition shall not be allowed on any part of a bill:
   (A) Necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety; or
   (B) making or repealing any appropriation of moneys.
(5) A referendum ordered by petition on a part of a bill shall not delay the remainder of the bill from becoming effective.
(6) A referendum on a bill may be ordered by the legislature by law.
(7) Notwithstanding section 14 of article 2 of this constitution, a bill ordering a referendum and a bill on which a referendum is ordered shall not require the signature of the governor or be subject to veto by the governor.
(d) (1) Before an initiative or referendum petition may be circulated for signatures, a draft of such petition shall be submitted to the secretary of state in the form in which such petition will be circulated for signatures. Upon submission of a draft petition to the secretary of state, the name and address of an individual shall be provided to the secretary of state as the individual to whom any notices shall be sent. The secretary of state shall transmit a copy of the draft petition to the attorney general for review. The secretary of state and the attorney general shall each review the draft petition for sufficiency as to form, approve or reject the form of the draft petition and state the reasons for rejection, if any.
    (2) Upon receipt of a draft petition from the secretary of state, the attorney general shall examine the draft petition as to form. The attorney general the attorney general and make a final decision as to the approval or rejection of the form of the draft petition. The secretary of state shall send written notice of such approval or rejection, including the reasons for rejection, to the individual designated to receive notices within 30 days after submission of the draft petition.

(e) All elections on initiative and referendum measures shall be held at the regular general elections in even-numbered years, unless otherwise ordered by the legislature pursuant to subsection (c)(6).
(f) Notwithstanding any provision of this constitution to the contrary, an initiative or referendum measure shall become effective 30 days after the day on which it is enacted or approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon. When conflicting measures are approved at the same election, the one receiving the largest affirmative vote shall prevail.
(g) The provisions of this section shall be self-executing, but legislation may be enacted to facilitate its implementation.
Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:
"Explanatory statement. This amendment would allow the people to propose and enact or reject amendments to the constitution of the state of Kansas by initiative, independent of the legislature. This amendment would also allow the people to propose and enact or reject laws by initiative, independent of the legislature. Finally, this amendment would allow a referendum on any bill enacted by the legislature, either by petition from the people or by order of the legislature by law. A referendum petition would not be allowed on any part of a bill necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety or any part of a bill making or repealing any appropriation.

"A vote for this proposition would reserve to the people the power to propose and enact or reject laws and amendments to the constitution of the state of Kansas by initiative, independent of the legislature, and the power to approve or reject by referendum any bill enacted by the legislature.

"A vote against this proposition would not make any changes to the constitution and would not reserve the powers of initiative and referendum to the people."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mister Speaker: While the outcome of today’s debate is not surprising, the path to which the Majority achieved the result are disappointing. Just eleven days ago, the People’s House of Representatives stood here and swore an oath to the Kansas Constitution. Today, we are here re-writing it because of a disagreement with a co-equal branch of government.

Unlike today’s resolution which does nothing to prevent unplanned pregnancies, I hope you will advance legislation that is proven to prevent unexpected pregnancies: expanding Medicaid, investing in mental health, universal coverage of contraception, and comprehensive, age-appropriate sexual education. I vote NO on HCR 5003. – Brandon Woodard

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on House Concurrent Resolution 5003 because a constitutional right should not be subject to a popular vote. That is why it is called a right. – Elizabeth Bishop

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on HCR 5003 because I trust women. – Boog Highberger, John Carmichael, Jarrod Ousley

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on House Concurrent Resolution 5003. Individuals in the United States and Kansas have the right to a safe, legal abortion. A popular vote on this right risks medically unnecessary restrictions on healthcare that could leave doctors wasting time determining whether the best method to save a life violates the law. Lawmakers shouldn’t interfere between physicians and their patients. Our role is to protect the safety of patients by ensuring that the practice of medicine is well regulated and improve access to prenatal and postpartum care. We must not deprive Kansans of the Constitutional right to personal autonomy by unjustly singling out abortion. - Jo Ella Hoye, Jim Gartner, Jerry Stogsdill, Mike Amyx, KC Ohaebosim, Rui Xu, John Alcala, Cindy Neighbor, L. E. Ruiz, Gail Finney

Mr. Speaker: As a clinical social worker, I must defend human rights. This does not only mean the rights of men. This amendment will strip away women’s reproductive rights and everyone knows it. This is nothing but a political move. I know that to be true because of the hypocrisy I have witnessed since we began this session. The President of the Senate spoke about “individual rights” when deciding to wear a mask. I sit in the gallery where many refuse to wear a mask but voted “yes” to this amendment. I guess “individual rights” doesn’t apply to women. If that is hypocrisy, I don’t know what is. – Susan Ruiz
MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on House Concurrent Resolution 5003. As a mother and a person of faith, I know the value of life. This bill doesn’t end abortion. It ends safe, state regulated abortions. This endangers pregnant people’s lives. If we really want to end abortion, we need to address violence against those that can become pregnant and access to appropriate and affordable health care. Additionally, this bill discriminates against pregnant people by limiting their ability to receive complete medical care. I do not vote for discriminate. – LINDA FEATHERSTON

MR. SPEAKER, I vote yes on HCR 5003. I believe the Value Them Both Amendment is a step in the right direction, since it would get the Kansas Supreme Court out of the abortion issue. However, I believe that we should do far more. I don’t believe that those of us who are pro life should be content with simply regulating abortion. Rather, our goal should be to abolish abortion entirely. That’s what I’ll continue to push for over the next two years. – BRETTFAIRCHILD, MICHAEL MURPHY, TATUM LEE-HAHN, DAVID W. FRENCH

MR. SPEAKER, I vote no on House Concurrent Resolution 5003. As the mom of seven children, I will not vote for a DEATH SENTENCE for any of my daughters or daughters-in-law who might tragically develop a life-threatening condition during pregnancy. Nor would I strip my granddaughters' parents of their right to make decisions regarding these girls' well-being should, God forbid, the horror of a rape also result in the trauma of a childhood pregnancy. Like the majority of my constituents, I don’t believe legislators or voters should insert themselves into the physician-patient relationship. Instead, I support evidence-based best practices that are proven to reduce abortion rates.–MARI-LYNN POSKIN

MR. SPEAKER, I vote no on HCR 5003, for the following: I am looking forward to perhaps working on legislation that provides the funding for education and care for the reproductive rights of the citizens of Kansas. I would prefer to live in a state, and in a country, where reproductive decisions are mine, and mine alone to make. I have a right to these choices. I will be defending that right for myself and others by voting no on this bill today. – JENNIFER DAY, LINDSAY VAUGHN, BRODERICK HENDERSON

MR. SPEAKER, I proudly cast my vote in the Affirmative on HCR 5003. The Kansas Supreme Courts 2019 Hodes decision was an odious denial of justice for the unborn. Any appeal to ‘personal autonomy’ that facilitates the death of another human being is invalid and inhumane. Any court ruling that will lead to taxpayers of all persuasions having to fund abortion through their tax money is deeply immoral. To merely return Kansas abortion law to where it was in 2018 is, frankly, the least we could do. Strict scrutiny? I say let the voters of 2022 scrutinize the legal and moral irrationality of the Kansas Supreme Court! – PAUL WAGGONER, BILL RHILEY

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HCR 5003. As a distinctly unique individual in this chamber, as one who has been blessed to seeing life through a man’s eyes, but with a woman’s heart, I believe that people who can become pregnant should have the right to personal body autonomy. For these reasons, I vote NO. – STEPHANIE BYERS
Mr. Speaker: I vote no on House Concurrent Resolution 5003. This bill is too extreme for Kansas. Stripping the rights of bodily autonomy is an all-out attack on women with no exceptions for the horrors of rape, incest, or saving the life of the mother. Furthermore, putting this constitutional amendment on the August ballot will absolutely deny the rights of ALL Kansans to voice their opinion. This is purely a political maneuver by Republicans to refuse women their rights to make their own decisions. These very personal and private decisions ought to be between a woman, her doctor, and God. - TOM SAWYER, SYDNEY CARLIN

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes, because I trust women and men in Kansas to make the decision if there is a right to abortion in the Kansas Constitution. The Constitution, by the way, that was ratified by a vote of the citizens of Kansas. If we sit idly by, women and babies will be harmed. I trust that Kansans want to protect the rights of all women in Kansas – born and unborn women. Give them that choice. – SUSAN HUMPHRIES, KRISTEY WILLIAMS, BRENDALANDWEHR, SUSANESTES, BARBARAWASINGER

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on HCR 5003. This resolution goes out of its way to say to pregnant Kansans whose lives are in danger that the members of this legislature reserve the right to deny them lifesaving care. It does so in support of so called “protections” previously passed. I place the lives of pregnant Kansans ahead of condescending font size mandates. Mr. Speaker, I vote no. – BRETT PARKER

Mr. Speaker: I vote, "Yes" on HCR 5003. The rights that have been given to us by our Creator God are meant to be defended and honored for the prosperity and protection of future generations. This should assure us that the people of Kansas who enjoy and possess equal and inalienable natural rights such as Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness, should be upheld and defended by this Legislative body through the "Value Them Both Amendment.” The will and voices of Kansans should be heard as they make the choice for themselves who will represent the values, they have personally placed upon their owns lives. – TREVOR JACOBS

Mr. Speaker: I vote no today on HCR 5003. This language grants too great a power to the legislature, under the pretense of allowing Kansans to vote. Yet the question is placed on an August primary, when turnout historically is less than half of most general elections. By doing so, the majority party is in effect disenfranchising more than 550,000 unaffiliated voters in its attempt to amass unchecked power through a small and select group of voters. A compromise resolution crafted in good faith and offered in a general election in the only acceptable way to significantly alter the constitution. --JASON PROBST

Mr. Speaker: I vote Yes on HCR 5003. Working toward passage of “Value Them Both” was the initial reason I ran for the House of Representatives. Providing Kansas citizens the opportunity to affirm a fundamental right to life for all Kansans through the Value Them Both Amendment to the Kansas Constitution reflects legislative prudence and fulfills an obligation we have to our constituents. Kansans have the right to decide. Passage of “Value Them Both” assures that the governance of life issues remains in the hands of the citizens of our great state. I am privileged to cast my vote in favor of “Value Them Both.” – LISA M. M. MOSER

Mr. Speaker: I vote YES on HCR 5003. The right to life is the preeminent of all rights. Without life, no (other) right can be exercised or enjoyed. Section 1 of the Kansas Constitution's Bill of Rights, in which “life” is the first of the expressly enumerated “equal and inalienable natural rights,” recognizes this. I will support the natural and fundamental right to “life” which Section 1 of our Bill of Rights broadly protects. –JESSE BURRIS

Mr. Speaker – I vote yes to protect human life in Kansas which has been endangered by an errant "finding" by our state supreme court. Their decision attempts to redefine the words right to life to mean a "right to kill life". Now the people will have a chance to once again protect the inalienable right to life in our Constitution. – JOHN TOPLIKAR

Mr Speaker: I vote no on House Concurrent Resolution 5003. My district is home to many smart young individuals who have a uterus. As one of those young individuals I must speak on their behalf. Our rights should not be put on a ballot, we are smart enough to make decisions that impact our future, and we should continue to have that choice as a constitutional right. Many young individuals who are of childbearing capabilities will not get a chance to vote come to this being on the 2022 ballot. I stand by my constituents and their futures and vote no to HCR 5003. – CHRISTINA HASWOOD

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes today for HCR 5003. I stand for the protection of all Kansans, both standing and those not yet born. That is my sworn duty as a member of this body. I will not waiver. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. – EMIL BERGQUIST

Mr. Speaker: I voted yes on HCR 5003. This was a question of what the words of the constitution mean. The question was brought about by a court decision. It is not the courts constitution nor the legislatures constitution, it is the peoples constitution. So the answer to the question should come from the people. Therefore, I voted yes to put it on the ballot so Kansans can vote. – CARL TURNER

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on HCR 5003 because it will not accomplish the goal of reducing abortions in Kansas, it denies women the ability to manage their own healthcare and to have total control over their own bodies, I also vote no because of the supporters of this bill's hypocritical refusal to support the sanctity of life by expanding Medicaid, by refusing to support bills to reduce deaths from gun violence and to support health protocols designed to keep Kansans healthy and alive during this pandemic. This HCR was about politics NOT life. – JERRY STOOGSDILL

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Executive Reorganization Order No. 47
By Governor Laura Kelly
January 25, 2021

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6, of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, today I transmit Executive Reorganization Order No. 47 to the Kansas Legislature along with this message to the House of Representatives.

Effective July 1, 2021, this reorganization creates the Kansas Department of Human Services (“KDHS”), which will be responsible for all current programs, responsibilities, functions, and duties of the Department for Children and Families (“DCF”) and the Department for Aging and Disability Services (“KDADS”). Unlike Executive Reorganization Order 44, which was submitted last year, this order does not affect the juvenile services division of the Department of Corrections. DCF and KDADS will be dissolved, but no current responsibilities, duties, or functions will be abolished.

Creating the Department of Human Services ensures Kansas families and individuals have easier access to critical services and improves engagement among our service centers, clients, and local stakeholders by creating a single point of entry for those accessing a variety of critical services. The new KDHS will allow us to focus on prevention, so that we can identify and serve Kansans in need before their situation becomes a crisis that is more costly to both themselves and our communities. Through partnering with communities across the state, KDHS will establish a one-stop-shop for Kansans in need of such services and will ensure that our government delivers those services in the most efficient and effective manner.

I look forward to working with the House of Representatives to improve our ability to serve Kansans in need and to build healthy communities across our State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Executive Reorganization Order No. 48
By Governor Laura Kelly
January 25, 2021

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6, of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, today I transmit Executive Reorganization Order No. 48 to the Kansas Legislature along with this message to the House of Representatives.

Effective July 1, 2021, this reorganization moves the Division of Tourism out of the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks, and Tourism and relocates the Division of Tourism in the Kansas Department of Commerce. This move will more closely align our state’s efforts to increase tourism with the economic development efforts of the Department of Commerce. None of the Division of Tourism’s current responsibilities, duties, or functions will be abolished.

This reorganization is the product of consultation and discussion with businesses, destination marketing organizations, and other key industry partners, including the Travel Industry Association of Kansas, the Kansas Restaurant & Hospitality Association, and the Kansas Economic Development Alliance. The move will send a clear message to our industry partners and prospective companies that Kansas will use every tool at its disposal to spur new economic development.

Kansas is not just a great place to live and work, it’s a great place to visit. I look forward to working with the House of Representatives to build on our efforts to support and increase tourism as we help our economy recover.

WHEREAS, The Medal of Honor was awarded to 353 Americans during World War II; and WHEREAS, Only two of these 353 Americans are alive today; and WHEREAS, These courageous servicemen, Charles H. Coolidge of Tennessee and Hershel Woodrow Williams of West Virginia, risked their lives while serving their country with gallantry and therefore, deserve the gratitude of the American people; and

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we urge the President of the United States to honor the last surviving World War II Medal of Honor recipient with a designated state funeral; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Croft.
There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Croft are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you...for the opportunity to speak on House Resolution 6008.

I want to thank my colleagues for the opportunity to be the voice of all 125 members of this chamber as we came together to unanimously sponsor this resolution to honor the “Greatest Generation.”

I asked members prior to the beginning of the session to give me a word or two to describe the World War II generation. The words provided are below:

- Personal Responsibility
- Integrity
- Work Ethic
- Financial Prudence
- Faithful
- Committed
- Selfless
- Honorable
- Special
- Strong

The greatest generation is defined generally by AN event - World War II. That event unified the people of this nation, toward a common aim, freedom from tyranny.

We had the front lines and our Home fronts in America, all playing a role in preserving freedom all around the world.

This generation had several other outcomes:

- Establishing of the United Nations
- Beginning of the European Union
- Massive growth in the U.S. economy – leading the U.S. economy to be #1 in the world…
- Massive growth in U.S. manufacturing
- Established America as a leader in the world
- Built the strongest and most advanced military in the world;
- The youngest being a military member at 12, since the Civil War. There was such an incredible passion to serve.

They deserve our highest gratitude.

When I am told “thank you for your service,” I feel like I am the one who should be saying thank you especially to those who came before and set the conditions for what we enjoy today. The best reply I can give is thank you for your support.

I’d like to take a moment to recognize all the veterans in the chamber and thank them for their service. Will all the veterans stand to be recognized.

When people tell me thank you for your service it comes with a lot of responsibility

- The WWII generation fought, and many died for our freedoms
- They built a foundation for us to reach for the stars
- It is our responsibility, it is our duty, to build upon that foundation and continue the journey

As President Kennedy once said, “as we express our gratitude we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words but to LIVE them.”
The World War II generation made tremendous sacrifices to preserve our democratic way of life. It is that courageous sacrifice and love for our country that we cherish and honor with this unanimous request.

Four hundred and sixty-one (461) were awarded the Medal of Honor, eight (8) from Kansas, more than the combined number from all wars and conflicts since. Those 461 represent the nation’s heroes and the greatest generation. Unfortunately, there are only two remaining alive.

HR 6008 honors the greatest generation by asking President Biden to lay in state the last surviving World War II medal of honor recipient upon their passing.

Far too many of our Nation’s heroes are all but forgotten to anyone other than their families. They are gone, but we shall never forget, and this resolution is our way to publicly say and demonstrate that we are grateful, thankful, appreciative, and, we are ONE TEAM, we are ONE NATION UNDER GOD!

Thank you all for this great honor to represent you today for this resolution.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Speaker pro tem Finch, HCR 5005, A RESOLUTION honoring COVID-19 frontline workers, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Speaker pro tem Finch are spread upon the Journal:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members of the body. This resolution was originally planned to be our first vote of the session and I think that is important as it shows the priority we place on honoring those Kansans who are working on the frontlines throughout this pandemic. Frontline workers have been called on to meet our state’s basic needs. Frontline workers are defined as a subcategory of essential workers in occupation groups where a large majority of workers cannot feasibly work from home.

Frontline workers include: first responders and health care workers, like fire and police, emergency medical services, doctors, nurses and dentists; those working in education like our teachers, their support staff, and daycare employees who worked hard to keep educating and caring for the children of Kansas; food and agriculture workers, many of the outbreaks at the onset of the pandemic were in meatpacking facilities and other food-processing plants and we saw how important those operations were to our state; manufacturing and production which cannot be done from home; corrections workers; U.S. Postal Service workers; public transit workers; and grocery store workers who kept shelves stocked and saw numerous people come through their checkout lines with little between them and potential infection.

Our fellow Kansans have exhibited bravery and courage throughout this pandemic and kept our state running in the face of adversity. But if you asked them, they would — in stoic Kansas fashion — tell you that they are simply doing their jobs. I ask that you support HCR 5005 with a yes vote, and that you stand with me to honor the hardworking men and women of Kansas. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Victors are spread upon the Journal:

Good morning! I wanted to take this time to acknowledge this very special day, Native American Legislative Day. This day occurs on the first Wednesday of every February and was made a law in 2012 signed by Governor Brownback. Native American Legislative Day is where the 4 tribes of Kansas: Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation, Kickapoo tribe of Kansas, Iowa tribe of Kansas and Nebraska, and the Sac and Fox Nation of Kansas come to the Capitol to meet with the state officials to strengthen their government-to-government relationship. Due to the pandemic, the tribal leaders will not be in attendance this year.

I want to acknowledge and bring attention to the horrible and the devastating impact that COVID-19 has had on our local tribes as well as Native American tribes across the country. Unfortunately, the COVID-19 positive cases continue to rise in local tribal communities due to high health complications, poverty, and limited opportunities to practice social distancing. Tribal nations have been doing their best to protect their communities especially the elders and children. However, many tribes have suffered a great loss by losing their elders to the pandemic. Elders are the protectors of our rich cultural heritage, traditions, and tribal language. Some of our Kansas tribes are in mourning and I ask that you please remember to keep them in your thoughts and prayers. Weblahah!

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I would support the second portion of this bill to clarify legislative intent regarding the use of special sentencing rules. However, I cannot support the first part. People who are on release from custody for committing a felony, and who then commit another felony while on release, should receive the maximum possible sentence and those sentences should run back to back, and not at the same time. This bill would allow for some of those sentences to run at the same time and therefore I must vote no on HB 2081. – Blaine Finch, John E. Barker, Carl Turner, Susan Oliver Estes, Patrick Penn

HCR 5012—A PROPOSITION to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by revising article 10, relating to reapportionment of congressional districts, legislative districts and state board of education member districts.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby revised to read as follows:
"Article 10.—APPORTIONMENT OF CONGRESSIONAL, LEGISLATIVE AND STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION MEMBER DISTRICTS

"§ 1. Reapportionment of districts required. At its regular session in 2022, and at its regular session every 10th year thereafter, the legislature shall by law reapportion the United States congressional districts, the state senatorial districts, the state representative districts and the state board of education member districts as provided by this article. Reapportionment of such districts shall be on the basis of the population of the state as established by the most recent census of population taken and published by the United States bureau of the census. Senatorial, representative and state board of education member districts shall be reapportioned upon the basis of the population of the state.

"§ 2. Establishment of redistricting commission. (a) Not later than February 15 of each year ending in one, a redistricting commission shall be established to recommend to the legislature redistricting plans for United States congressional districts, state representative districts, state senatorial districts and state board of education member districts.

(b) The redistricting commission shall consist of the following members:

(c) Any vacancy in the membership of the redistricting commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment or selection.

(d) No person, while a member of the commission, shall:

1. Hold any federal, state or local office; or
2. be an employee of the Kansas legislature, state board of education or United States congress.

(e) No person who has been a member of the redistricting commission shall be eligible, within two years after being a member of the commission, to:

"§ 3. Commission procedure and recommendations. (a) The redistricting commission shall establish rules and procedures as necessary to carry out the commission's functions. The rules and procedures shall include rules requiring formal submission to the commission of all communications with commission members. Ex parte communications with members of the commission in relation to the merits of matters before the commission shall be prohibited. Members of the commission shall report any violations of this prohibition to the attorney general and the legislature shall provide by law criminal penalties for such violations.

(b) The redistricting commission shall conduct public hearings throughout the state, including at least one public hearing in each of the 10 state board of education member districts.

(c) In recommending redistricting plans, the redistricting commission shall consider only the requirements of the constitution of the state of Kansas and the constitution of the United States, preservation of political subdivisions and preservation of communities of interest. Except as expressly provided in this subsection, the commission shall not intentionally develop redistricting plans that favor or discriminate against any individual, political party or group.

"§ 4. Legislative action; court review and action. (a) On or before the first day of the regular legislative session in each year ending in two, the redistricting commission shall introduce in the house of representatives a bill reapportioning the state representative districts and a bill reapportioning the United States congressional districts, and shall introduce in the senate a bill reapportioning the state senatorial districts and a bill reapportioning the state board of education member districts. The bills shall not be subject to amendment by either chamber of the legislature and each such bill shall be acted upon by each chamber within seven days after the bill is introduced in the chamber.

(b) If a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (a) is not enacted, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after rejection of the bill by either chamber of the legislature or veto of the bill by the governor, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. If the Kansas supreme court enters a judgment that a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (a) is invalid, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after entry of the judgment, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. Introduction of a bill pursuant to this section shall be in the same chamber as introduction of the original bill pursuant to subsection (a). The bill shall not be subject to amendment by either chamber and shall be acted upon by each chamber within seven days after the bill is introduced in the chamber.

(c) If a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (b) is not enacted, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after rejection of the bill by either chamber of the legislature or veto of the bill by the governor, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. If the Kansas supreme court enters a judgment that a bill introduced pursuant to subsection (b) is invalid, the redistricting commission, within 10 days after entry of the judgment, shall introduce another bill reapportioning such districts. Introduction of a bill pursuant to this section shall be in the same chamber as introduction of the original bill pursuant to subsection (a).

(d) If either chamber of the legislature rejects a bill introduced pursuant to this section, or the governor vetoes the bill, the chamber that rejects the bill, or the governor in the case of a veto, shall transmit to the commission a letter stating the reasons why the bill was not enacted, and the commission shall take such reasons into consideration in introducing a bill pursuant to this section, subject to the requirements of section 6(c). Any such letter shall be signed by both the speaker of the house of representatives and the minority leader of the house of representatives or both the president of the senate and the minority leader of the senate.

(c) Reapportionment bills shall be published in the Kansas register immediately upon final passage and approval by the governor. The districts enacted shall be effective for the next following regular election of legislators and thereafter until again the districts are reapportioned, except that the senatorial districts shall be effective for the next following regular election at which all senators are elected.

(f) Within 15 days after publication of any reapportionment bills enacted pursuant to this article, the attorney general shall petition the Kansas supreme court to determine the validity of the bill. The Kansas supreme court, in accordance with its rules, shall permit interested persons to present their views. Within 30 days after the filing of the petition, the Kansas supreme court shall enter its judgment. A judgment of the Kansas supreme court determining the bill to be valid shall be final until reapportionment of the districts is again required by this article.

"§ 5. Implementing legislation. The legislature may enact legislation, not in conflict with the provisions of this article, as reasonably necessary to implement such provisions."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. Current article 10 of the constitution of the state of Kansas governs reapportionment of state legislative districts. It provides for reapportionment by the legislature and requires that it be based on the most recent census taken by the United States bureau of the census, adjusted to exclude certain military personnel and certain students residing at colleges and universities. The revision of article 10 would govern reapportionment of the United States congressional districts, state legislative districts and the state board of education member districts. Under the revision, a redistricting commission would be established to recommend redistricting plans to the legislature. The legislature would enact a plan which would be subject to review by the Kansas supreme court. There would be strict deadlines for legislative action. Reapportionment of congressional districts, state legislative districts and state board of education member districts would be based on the most recent census taken by the United States bureau of the census, adjusted to exclude certain military personnel and certain students residing at colleges and universities.

"A vote for this proposition would change the procedure for reapportionment of United States congressional, state legislative and state board of education member districts.

"A vote against this proposition would continue the current procedures and basis for reapportionment."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Almighty God,
As the Psalmist cried out “I lift up my eyes to the mountains—where does my help come from?
My help comes from the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.”
As we stand before you today, we repent of our dependence on our own power and wisdom and diligently seek Your help.
May our deliberations reflect Your mindfulness and our decisions represent Your vision.
Help us to live up to Your faith and believe in us.
This I pray in Christ’s name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kuether.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

On emergency motion of Rep. Hawkins pursuant to House Rule 2311, HB 2001, HB 2074, HB 2103, HB 2109, HB 2120, HB 2121, HB 2134, HB 2165 and SB 15 were advanced to Final Action on Bills and Concurrent Resolutions.

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

SB 15, AN ACT concerning financial institutions; enacting the Kansas economic recovery loan deposit program; relating to credit unions, field of membership; banks, trust companies and savings and loan institutions, privilege tax, deduction of net interest received from certain agricultural real estate loans and single family residence loans; amending K.S.A. 75-4237 and 79-1109 and K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 17-2205 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

Nays: Alcala.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Victors.

The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker, I voted YES on SB 15. Last year I voted NO on a similar bill because the credit union “compromise” was outside the original vision and mission of credit unions. By increasing the field of membership to community up to 2,500,000 people those businesses are getting asset sizes that are now looking, ating and competing with small banks. When you start acting like a bank you should play by for-profit banking rules and pay bank fees to the State. – BILL RHILEY

HB 2103, AN ACT concerning agriculture; relating to environmental remediation; establishing the Kansas pesticide waste disposal program and the Kansas pesticide waste disposal fund; permitting annual transfers from the Kansas agricultural remediation fund to the Kansas pesticide waste disposal fund; amending K.S.A. 2-3702 and K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 2-3708 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

HB 2109, AN ACT concerning the board of indigents' defense services; relating to appointments to the board; increasing population threshold of a county required to have a lawyer member; increasing number of lawyer members; decreasing number of non-lawyer members; amending K.S.A. 22-4519 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 87; Nays 36; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Victors.
The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker, I voted NO on HB 2109 because I disagree that the number of non-lawyer members on the Indigent Defense Board should be decreased and the licensed lawyers should increase by one. It is important to maintain a civilian balance on a board that oversees lawyers that are working for the public interest to protect the least financially capable of our state – Bill Rhiley, Randy Garber, Tatum Lee-Hahn HB 2121, AN ACT concerning crimes, punishment and criminal procedure; relating to defendants who abscond from supervision; definitions; amending K.S.A. 75-5217 and K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 22-2202 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Victors.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2120. While I abhor abuse, especially when perpetuated within the sacred bounds of marriage, we have laws that address spousal abuse. In addition, I had less than 24 hours to study this bill as I do not sit on the committee where it was heard and only learned it was up 20 hours ago. I might have been a yes if given an additional 24 hours to consider the ramifications of this change in statute but with a non-emergency EFA action that option was not provided. — CHARLOTTE ESAU

Prayer by Rep. Helgerson:

Today is Ash Wednesday, the First Day of Lent.
Traditionally, it is a day of fasting and prayer.
A time when ashes are placed on the foreheads of Catholics and Christians as a reminder of our future death.
And this year we have all been facing even more death in our families, friends, and constituents.
Every day, death stalks the halls of this building.
But there is also rebirth.
A new life for us all.
We must embrace that future and become better individuals with more love and more forgiveness.
May God Bless all of us and the State of Kansas.
Amen

   Thy will...not my will...be done.
   We are reminded in so many ways that our power is insufficient. Help us remember Your grace is sufficient. Help us to receive Your grace and to give grace to one another.
   Today, we pray especially for our sister Eunice that your healing hand is upon her in Houston as well as at home. We pray for the Estes family as they grieve, and for safe travel for all who go to share with them in mourning and in celebrating a life well lived.
   In our journey together to the stars, we can only make it with Your great love and guidance. When hate, envy or deceit wells within or around us, help us to instead reflect Your love, understanding and truth.
   Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Jennings are spread upon the Journal:

   Rep. Jennings was joined at the well by members of former Rep. Leonard Mastroni’s family.
I rise today to honor the memory of our colleague and friend, Representative Leonard Mastroni. The priorities of our life demonstrate who we are. Leonard was defined by his: Faith, Family and Friends. Leonard enjoyed a deeply personal relationship and unyielding faith in his God. He was always devoted to his family in both the good and difficult times and he was a true and faithful friend.

Leonard committed his life to public service. His career of service included serving as a police officer with the Denver, Colorado Police Department, Special Agent in Charge of the Central Kansas Drug Task Force, District Magistrate Judge in Rush County of the 23rd Judicial District, Rush County Commissioner and as State Representative for the 117th House District.

Leonard and his wife of 51 years, Linda, were blessed with four children, Shawn, Shelia, Sarah and James and three grandchildren, Mark, Amanda and Sutton. Leonard and Linda experienced the greatest fear of any parent when they lost two of their four children, Shawn and Shelia. Leonard’s faith never wavered. He never asked the question: Why me? He placed his faith in God and accepted that God’s will be done here on earth.

Representative Mastroni was an advocate for his district. He was a champion for the mental health and corrections programs located on the Larned campus. Leonard understood that mental health was a serious and expanding need for our state and he honored the service of the people who served this population in need of help.

The passing of Leonard on September 30, 2020 was honored by the Governor through her order directing that flags be flown at half-staff until the day of his funeral on October 6, 2020. This was a fitting and most deserved public recognition of his dedicated service to the people of Kansas.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: We vote No on HB 2087. We appreciate the procedural cleanup this bill represents in fixing problems with the 2018 statute of HB 2280. Regulatory reform is a big issue. Over-regulation hurts business and it hurts consumers. The problem with HB 2087 is that the $3m threshold takes the numbers of regulations scrutinized from over 1,040 to only about 11. It is a 99% drop in regulations that can be challenged. We genuinely appreciate the work that went into this bill but truly believe a $1 million threshold better serves the public interest. – PAUL WAGGONER, BILL RHILEY, RANDY GARBER, TREVOR JACOBS, TATUM LEE-HAHN

HB 2096, AN ACT concerning the Kansas open records act; relating to exceptions to disclosure; public websites that identify home addresses or home ownership; restricting access to identifying information of employees of the department of corrections, local correctional officers or local detention officers, employees of the judicial branch, employees of a municipal court and administrative hearing officers; amending K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 45-221 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker, I voted YES today on HB 2104. I am fully supportive of the Cerebral Palsy Research Foundation and their mission to upgrade their Timbers apartments for their client and save money by not paying sales tax on building materials. I disagree that the State would continue to add exemptions to paying State Sales Tax without taking away an exemption from another entity. It will get to a point that we will have limited State General Funds. They should (if not already) get a tax break on their property and income taxes. – Bill Rhiley, Paul Waggoner

Mr. Speaker: While the exemption in HB 2104 is for a worthy cause I cannot support it. In 2019 sales sales and tax exemptions totaled 7.8 billion dollars. That same year the State of Kansas had sales tax revenue of 2.5 billion dollars. We continue to erode our sales tax base for the benefit of some while passing the burden of funding our ever-growing government to the others. I long for the day when we have a fair tax system for every Kansas Taxpayer. Mr. Speaker, I vote “NO” on HB 2104. – Randy Garber, John Carmichael

HB 2115, AN ACT concerning the legislature; relating to children and minors; the safety and well-being of children in the child welfare system in the state of Kansas; establishing the joint committee on child welfare system oversight; prescribing duties and membership thereof; requiring an annual report to the legislature, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 118; Nays 4; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 3.

Nays: Burris, Fairchild, Helmer, Rhiley.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Baker, Bishop, Howard.

The bill passed, as amended.
EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on HB 2115. I believe that the foster care system in our state has serious problems and needs to be reformed, and I support creating an office of child advocate to reform our foster care system. However, I think that creating this sub committee is an example of unnecessary government bureaucracy and is an inefficient use of taxpayer money. All the different issues that this sub committee will be studying could just as easily be studied by the current Children and Seniors Committee during the legislative session. – Brett Fairchild, Bill Rhiley

Mr. Speaker: I vote “Yes” on HB 2115. However, I do not believe more government is the answer to the broken state of Kansas families. Yes, we do need hearings, open-door policies, and strict government accountability with oversite for all government agencies. Still importantly we need better educational teaching in societal living, family living, personal accountability and personal responsibility with respect according to the Word of God. Without exercising moral traditional values Kansas will continue to look to government and not God and common sense for individual freedom, answers, and solutions. – Trevor Jacobs, Randy Garber, Tatum Lee-Hahn

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2187, as the way the bill is currently drafted, it allows any individual of any income to create an account to designate a beneficiary in a manner that allows the transfer of funds tax free. Research has shown that this type of tax incentive does not benefit those who struggle to save to purchase a home, nor will it increase affordable housing stock, but rather provides tax free intergenerational wealth transfers. In Kansas this could cost the state general fund approximately $3 million a year, with no increased housing access for those who are lower income.– JARROD OUSLEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker, We voted NO today on HB 2114. We are fully supportive of getting updated information on Alzheimer’s, dementia, and other age-related mental health conditions. It is also important to review safeguards to medication given in adult care homes. We do have agencies to oversee the daycare business.

Regardless that this task force has a sunset, these task forces seem to continue and continue. This work should be done as a subcommittee during the time frame of the session so there is no additional expense to taxpayers for per diems, staff time, research and revisor staff time. Also we would recommend nonprofit senior organizations such as AMAC. – Brett Fairchild, Bill Rhiley

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker,

Our Heavenly Father
Through the Psalmist You have encouraged us to seek You – to seek Your face.
If we do so, we can be confident that we will see the goodness of the Lord.
In these unprecedented discouraging and disruptive times,
I am sure it has been especially frustrating for our leaders to have to work on such serious issues without being able to sit across from each other and have face-to-face conversations.
To have to do most work virtually can be exasperating and perhaps somewhat unsatisfying.
Please continue to give our leaders the strength, determination and encouragement to work within the unusual circumstances and be able to resolve the differences to come to decisions.
In Your Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Miller.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker,

Gracious loving and giving God, thank You for this beautiful day that You have given us.
Your word admonishes us to cast all our anxiety on You because You care for us.
In all that will be discussed and accomplished today,
there may be moments of anxiety and angst.
To overcome this, it is important to remember that trust and thanksgiving will carry us safely throughout the day.
Trusting protects us from worrying and obsessing.
Thankfulness keeps us from criticizing and complaining.
Help us all to first trust You and be thankful for You and who You are and how You help us—and to acknowledge that you will never do anything to cause us not to trust You or be thankful.
Then help us to trust one another and be thankful, and to be on guard to not break that trust or cause for thankfulness for one another.
This I pray in Your Son’s Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Charles Smith.

REPORT ON ENGROSSED BILLS

HB 2254, HB 2262 reported correctly engrossed February 23, 2021.

On motion of Rep. Hawkins, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, February 25, 2021.
The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. Howard was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker,

Almighty God,
For this day that You have created,
we are thankful and desire to make it count.
Whatever the demands that face us today remind us often that nothing is too difficult for You.
We are amazed that You would choose us to accomplish Your purposes.
Help our leaders to not fear their limitations or measure the day’s demands against their strength.
In their weaknesses, Your power is made strong.
Help them to realize that they can do all things through You who strengthens them.
May they rely upon Your power and strength.
This I pray in Your name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Bergquist.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

It is my honor and privilege to stand before you this morning to recognize my friend of many years. Information in my presentation was taken from an article in the Lawrence Journal-World in December of 2017 written by Joanna Hlavacek. I also wish to acknowledge assistance from Travis Vathauer.

Leonard Monroe knew he could run. He ran the quarter mile in just 48.9 seconds, 2nd fastest time in the state, while at Liberty Memorial High School in Lawrence. He thought his talent would impress the track and field coaching staff at the University of Kansas. He wanted to attend there even after being offered scholarships elsewhere. But this was 1951 and Monroe was black.

On the first day of practice, head track coach Bill Easton told him there was no chance of him ever competing as a Jayhawk. “He said, ‘You’ll never run for me,’”
Monroe recalled to the Journal-World in 2015. “I was heartbroken, it was pitiful.”

Leonard’s rejection from KU’s track and field team was hardly his first brush with racism in Lawrence. As a student at Liberty Memorial High School, he competed on a separate, all-black high school basketball team called the Lawrence Promoters. Jim Crow laws kept sports leagues segregated until 1950, Leonard’s senior year.

He turned down numerous track scholarships to black colleges because he dreamed of running at KU. Schools with majority white enrollments were not keen in those days to offer scholarships to black athletes — if they allowed them to play at all.

If he was going to do anything with his life, he felt he had to go into the service. And that is what he did.

Heartbroken after his encounter with Coach Easton, Leonard dropped out of KU and enlisted in the US Air Force. He served in both the Korean and Vietnam wars, and found himself stationed in Japan, Europe, Vietnam, and later New Mexico, where he met his future wife, Jackie.

After 23 years in the Air Force, Leonard retired and moved back to Lawrence, where he spent another 23 years working as the city’s supervisor of vehicle maintenance until retiring in 2000.

Leonard overcame adversity his entire life but did not hold grudges or bitterness. Despite his rejection, Leonard remained a lifetime Jayhawk fan. He cheered for KU baseball as his son played centerfield for the 1993 KU team that reached the College World Series. He forged a friendship with Roy Williams, during his tenure as basketball coach. Yet he never brought up his own rejection from the Athletic Department.

It took someone outside the family to make good on Leonard’s connections and get him the athletics letter he so rightly deserved. A family friend contacted KU Athletics after hearing about Leonard’s passing in 2017 at 86 years old. Numerous former KU athletes reached out, and the response from the current KU track coach, Stanley Redwine, was almost immediate. The K Club presented a chenille letter “K” and a letter written by its Senior Director, to his daughter, Maria, on the morning of his funeral.

Leonard loved people, and his funeral was evidence of that. The service at St. Luke AME Church was standing room only. When Maria read the K Club letter aloud, emotion filled the room, with clapping and cheering.

“I think he would have been proud that justice was served,” his daughter Maria said. “And proud to be a member, an official member, of the KU athletics community he so adored.”

“I wish he would have known that that had happened,” his son Michael said, “But I think he does know, somewhere, what happened.”

Leonard was the father of six children: Michael, LeAnette, Linda, Darryl, Doria, and Maria, and nine grandchildren. I believe he would proudly say his family was his greatest achievement.

My tribute to Leonard Monroe is about the past and present. It is about the injustice of one person enduring a wrong and another person, involving others, making it right. It is about caring, kindness, and justice. It is about “Doing unto others as you would have them do unto you.”

A quote from Dr. Martin Luther King:

“There comes a time when one must take a position that is neither safe, nor politic, nor popular, but she or he must take it because conscience tells us it is right.”
We need more caring, kindness, and forgiveness. Leonard Monroe demonstrated all three. I believe Leonard would have the biggest smile on his face. After all these years, his dream came true.

To his family and friends, watching this on YouTube, know that we in the Kansas House of Representatives are proud to recognize Leonard H. Monroe during Black History Month.

Rep. Ballard will be presenting the family of Mr. Monroe with a House certificate at a later date.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I am voting no on HB 2078 because the bill clearly states that it “suspends statutory speedy trial rights” and it is “eliminating such rights in any criminal case” for up to three years. The right to a speedy trial is embedded in the fabric of our Bill of Rights and can not be suspended or eliminated by this legislative body or any legislative body. – DAVID W. FRENCH

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2078. This bill suspends the right to a speedy trial until 2024, but I don’t believe we should ever suspend the Constitution. Current law requires trials for people charged with a crime to be held within 150 days of each person’s arraignment on the charge, and I believe this is a reasonable application of the 6th Amendment’s right to a speedy trial. I believe that courts in Kansas should’ve held trials remotely since covid started. The U.S Supreme Court has heard their cases remotely. Defendants in Kansas shouldn’t be deprived of their rights because of the incompetency of our judicial system. – Brett Fairchild

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on HB 2078 because it is yet another disruption of Constitutional civil rights by one branch of government and codified by another. While the virus has disrupted our daily lives, it is the response to the virus by government that has created greater issues in people's lives. Businesses, families, schools and this body have all made adaptations to accomplish the jobs with which we are tasked. The judicial branch could and should have done their part and not rely on the legislature to rubberstamp their shortcomings. – Michael Murphy, Charlotte Esau

Mr. Speaker: I am voting no on HB 2078. I STRONGLY oppose any legislation that would suspend the constitution at the state or federal level. The constitution overrides any statutory standard. It is lunacy that the judiciary decided that in a pandemic they were going to slow their case load and leave the public in a potentially dangerous situation. Doing so eliminates due process of the accused. Following the constitution should not ever be an option, but be the guiding document to which every decision is made. The accused should always have the right to a speedy trial. – Tatum Lee-Hahn

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes on HB 2078. Bottom line legislators should not take the heat when we have to start cutting loose rapists and murderers due to some arbitrary statutory deadline. This bill has ZERO effect on our US or State Constitutional rights to speedy trial. Thank you Mr. Speaker. – Stephen Owens

Mr. Speaker I voted NO today on HB 2078. I understand also how this affects a person’s rights under the Kansas Constitution to a speedy and fair trial. I am voting based on the practical cost of housing a person in a jail waiting for trial. The sheriff in each county is responsible for the welfare and safety of inmates. This includes an unlimited expense for meals, reasonable comfort, health care, medicines, and nurse or doctor visits. The longer a person is confined the higher the cost. This is paid through the county budget and ultimately by county tax payers. – Bill Rhiley

Mr. Speaker: I voted NO today on HB 2244. I am voting based on the logic that the Department of Agriculture is still the best agency for oversight of production and processing of this industry. The KDA has known this industry since the beginning and if this is to be treated as an Agriculture crop as originally advertised then we need it to continue in the Department of Agriculture’s scope of business. We are legislating this industry out of business with all our regulation. Small businesses need less regulation not more. – Bill Rhiley

HB 2277, AN ACT concerning crimes, punishment and criminal procedure; relating to definitions in the Kansas criminal code; modifying the definition of possession; amending K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 21-5111 and 21-5701 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on SB 39. Although it could be argued that this bill creates a new fee, the purpose of the fee is simply to allow the animal health commissioner to recover the actual costs of calfhood vaccination tags from those who voluntarily buy them. We were told that previously, the tags were paid for by a federal grant that has expired. Since this bill simply allows the commissioner to recover the actual costs of the tags that people choose to buy, I don’t have a problem with the fee that’s included in this bill. – BRETT FAIRCHILD

"Sec. 5. K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 22-3437 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-3437. (a) (1) In any hearing or trial, a report concerning forensic examinations and certificate of forensic examination executed pursuant to this section shall be admissible in evidence if the report and certificate are prepared and attested by a criminalist or other employee of the Kansas bureau of investigation, Kansas highway patrol, Johnson County sheriff's laboratory, Sedgwick County regional forensic science center, or any laboratory of the federal bureau of investigation, federal postal inspection service, federal bureau of alcohol, tobacco and firearms or federal drug enforcement administration. If the examination involves a breath test for alcohol content, the report must also be admissible pursuant to K.S.A. 8-1001, and amendments thereto, or section 2, and amendments thereto, and be conducted by a law enforcement officer or other person who is certified by the department of health and environment as a breath test operator as provided by K.S.A. 65-1,107 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(2) Upon the request of any law enforcement agency, such person as provided in paragraph (1) performing the analysis shall prepare a certificate. Such person shall sign the certificate under oath and shall include in the certificate an attestation as to the result of the analysis. The presentation of this certificate to a court by any party to a proceeding shall be evidence that all of the requirements and provisions of this section have been complied with. This certificate shall be supported by a written declaration pursuant to K.S.A. 53-601, and amendments thereto, or shall be sworn to before a notary public or other person empowered by law to take oaths and shall contain a statement establishing the following: The type of analysis performed; the result achieved; any conclusions reached based upon that result; that the subscriber is the person who performed the analysis and made the conclusions; the subscriber's training or experience to perform the analysis; the nature and condition of the equipment used; and the certification and foundation requirements for admissibility of breath test results, when appropriate. When properly executed, the certificate shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) and notwithstanding any other provision of law, be admissible evidence of the results of the forensic examination of the samples or evidence submitted for analysis and the court shall take judicial notice of the signature of the person performing the analysis and of the fact that such person is that person who performed the analysis.

(3) Whenever a party intends to proffer in a criminal or civil proceeding, a certificate executed pursuant to this section, notice of an intent to proffer that certificate and the reports relating to the analysis in question, including a copy of the certificate, shall be conveyed to the opposing party or parties at least 21 days before the beginning of a hearing where the proffer will be used. An opposing party who intends to object to the admission into evidence of a certificate shall give notice of objection and the grounds for the objection within 14 days upon receiving the adversary's notice of intent to proffer the certificate. Whenever a notice of objection is filed, admissibility of the certificate shall be determined not later than two days before the beginning of the trial. A proffered certificate shall be admitted in evidence unless it appears from the notice of objection and grounds for that objection that the conclusions of the certificate, including the composition, quality or quantity of the substance submitted to the laboratory for analysis or the alcohol content of a blood or breath sample will be contested at trial. A failure to comply with the time limitations regarding the notice of objection required by this section shall constitute a waiver of any objections to the admission of the certificate. The time limitations set forth in this section may be extended upon a showing of good cause.

(b) (1) In any hearing or trial where there is a report concerning forensic examinations from a person as provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (a)(1), district and municipal courts may, upon request of either party, use two-way interactive video technology, including internet-based videoconferencing, to take testimony from that person if the testimony is in relation to the report.

(b) Except as provided by subsections (c), (d), (e) and (f), a person, whether or not a party, has a privilege in a civil action or in a prosecution for a misdemeanor, other than a prosecution for a violation of K.S.A. 8-2,144 or 8-1567, and amendments thereto, or a city ordinance or county resolution which prohibits the acts prohibited by those statutes, to refuse to disclose, and to prevent a witness from disclosing, a communication, if the person claims the privilege and the judge finds that: (1) The communication was a confidential communication between patient and physician; (2) the patient or the physician reasonably believed the communication necessary or helpful to enable the physician to make a diagnosis of the condition of the patient or to prescribe or render treatment therefor; (3) the witness (i) is the holder of the privilege, (ii) at the time of the communication was the physician or a person to whom disclosure was made because reasonably necessary for the transmission of the communication or for the accomplishment of the purpose for which it was transmitted or (iii) is any other person who obtained knowledge or possession of the communication as the result of an intentional breach of the physician's duty of nondisclosure by the physician or the physician's agent or servant; and (4) the claimant is the holder of the privilege or a person authorized to claim the privilege for the holder of the privilege.

(c) There is no privilege under this section as to any relevant communication

(d) There is no privilege under this section in an action in which the condition of the patient is an element or factor of the claim or defense of the patient or of any party claiming through or under the patient or claiming as a beneficiary of the patient through a contract to which the patient is or was a party.

(e) There is no privilege under this section: (1) As to blood drawn at the request of a law enforcement officer pursuant to K.S.A. 8-1001, and amendments thereto, or section 2, and amendments thereto; and (2) as to information which the physician or the patient is required to report to a public official or as to information required to be recorded in a public office, unless the statute requiring the report or record specifically provides that the information shall not be disclosed.

(f) No person has a privilege under this section if the judge finds that sufficient evidence, aside from the communication has been introduced to warrant a finding that the services of the physician were sought or obtained to enable or aid anyone to commit or to plan to commit a crime or a tort, or to escape detection or apprehension after the commission of a crime or a tort.

(g) A privilege under this section as to a communication is terminated if the judge finds that any person while a holder of the privilege has caused the physician or any agent or servant of the physician to testify in any action to any matter of which the physician or the physician's agent or servant gained knowledge through the communication.

(h) Providing false information to a physician for the purpose of obtaining a prescription-only drug shall not be a confidential communication between physician and patient and no person shall have a privilege in any prosecution for unlawfully obtaining or distributing a prescription-only drug under K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 21-5708, and amendments thereto.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,
Thank You for this beautiful day—
a day closer to Spring.
This turn-around week is going to be a busy week.
Be with each of our leaders throughout all the discussion, debate and final action.
Renew their minds, individually and collectively.
Help them to not be conformed to divisive patterns but transformed by Your grace.
Help them to not think so highly of themselves that they fail to be reasonable and use careful judgement.
Remind them to discern Your will—that which is good, pleasing and right.
In Your Name I pray, Amen.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
Thank You for the blessing and opportunity
To enjoy another beautiful day that You have created.
As our leaders continue their work today;
help them to pursue righteousness and not rightness;
to exercise faith and not exploit others flaws;
to speak in love and not with license;
to find paths to peace rather than to give in to resentment.
May our efforts today bring a better tomorrow.
Remind each one that none are here by accident, but by Your plan to fulfill Your purpose.
This I pray in Your Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Samsel.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Blake Carpenter, HR 6010, A RESOLUTION supporting the United States Army Future Vertical Lift program, was adopted.

There being on objection, the following remarks of Rep. Blake Carpenter are spread upon the Journal:

Good morning Body. Bell Helicopter has recently started operations in the Air Capitol of the World. They currently have hired approximately 50 Kansas engineers, with plans to quickly grow the engineering center to 100 engineers. These are high paying jobs that grow our Kansas economy while also allowing more Kansans to contribute in the effort to protect the United States of America and defend democracy and American interests throughout the world.

The United States Army modernization plan involves six mutually supporting priorities, including future vertical lift or (FVL), to enable the joint force to counter evolving threats. The FVL program involves a next-generation family of aircraft, enabling the US Department of Defense to successfully meet these emerging and rapidly evolving threats. Bell is a leader in the development of FVL technology that will create this new aircraft for our American military.

Our troops require vertical lift aircraft with greater reach, speed, agility, lethality and survivability to compete in the anti-access, anti-denial threat environment. FVL is a national imperative as a key enabler of many facets of Multi-Domain Operations and serves as a blueprint for Army modernization. Bell Helicopter is a leader in this effort.

We welcome Bell to Wichita and thank them for the jobs they’ve brought to Kansas.
It is our hope that this is just the start and that we will someday soon see Bell manufacturing vertical lift aircraft right here in Kansas. Representatives of Bell Helicopter are here in the Kansas Capitol today. Due to COVID-19 we are unable to have them join us in the Chamber. However, they are right outside the Chamber and listening to our proceedings. Please join me in welcoming these Bell Helicopter Representatives to Kansas.

This will show that the state of Kansas supports the United States Army’s Future Vertical Lift program, including the Future Long-Range Assault Aircraft program as part of the US Army modernization plan.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I voted NO today on HB 2128. A majority of our Sumner County offenders now are out of the area Wichita etc. if we transfer them all to Sedgwick County District we would be out of clients. I also think we want to prosecute the offenders that are committing crimes in Sumner county. I think it would overload Sedgwick even more then what they are now. I think we owe it to our victims that reside in Sumner County to have these cases remain in our county. In addition, we already transfer supervision around the state. – Bill Rhiley

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I voted NO today on HB 2212. I disagree with the removal of language in this bill that allows out of state residency. I agree with the language to allow across county line owning of licenses but not across state lines, this would allow large businesses from Texas, California, and New York to own a business instead of local family owned business. – BILLY RHILEY

Mr. Speaker: I vote aye on HB 2212 to assure that our Liquor Control Act is constitutional. It is important that all changes to this Act carefully provide for reasonable regulation, for public health and safety and protect our state's authority to regulate under the 21st amendment of the United States Constitution. – TOM KESSLER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “No” today on HB 2259 for two reasons: First we have been told this would only apply to patients with chlamydia, but nowhere in the bill does the word “chlamydia” appear and quite to the contrary, the bill specifies this would apply to any sexually transmitted disease.

Second, we have all been taught from a very young age that we should never share drugs prescribed to us with other people. This bill would allow and indeed encourage patients to do just the opposite of that longstanding principle and would set a dangerous precedent going forward. – CLARKE SANDERS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2259. When government continues to push sexual perversion and indoctrinates children in schools what other outcome does the state have to expect? This legislation does not stop the spread of sexually transmitted diseases in our society. On the contrary, it encourages more sexual promiscuity with little cure for personal responsibility. The prevention of sexual diseases is a more prudent standard to live by and would drastically reduce or eliminate sexual diseases if we the people returned to the moral absolutes that God has given us to live by. “An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.” – TREVOR JACOBS, TIMOTHY JOHNSON, RANDY GARBER, RON ELLIS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote YES on HB 2259. This bill is overdue and allows Kansas to make strides in decreasing the incidence of Chlamydia STDs with its many complications. Kansas will be the 47th state to provide Expedited Partner Therapy (E.P.T.) for eligible patients and their partner(s). This bill appropriately aligns E.P.T., with C.I.N.C. Statutes (Child in Need of Care.) Younger patients can be treated timely when a parent or guardian is not present. As all providers of healthcare are mandatory reporters of sexual abuse, we will have an opportunity to reduce sex trafficking in the state. This bill is an important step forward in combating STDs in Kansas. – JOHN R. EPLEE, JIM KELLY, MARK
HB 2264. AN ACT concerning student athletes at postsecondary educational institution student athletes; permitting compensation for the use of a student athlete's name, image, likeness rights or athletic reputation; prohibiting certain conduct by postsecondary educational institutions and athletic associations, was considered on final action.

The bill passed.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote YES on House Bill 2264, which makes long overdue changes to put our student athletes in charge of the value of their own name, image, and likeness, rather than the athletic corporations. This is where collegiate athletics are headed, and this bill will keep us ahead of changes coming from the Federal government. It also empowers athletes to decide whether to accept a contract, their compensation, and provides the freedom to make their own decisions. It is time to pay the players. – BRANDON WOODARD

MR. SPEAKER: I voted NO today on HB 2264. It is not fair and equitable for students that are able to get a scholarship based on academics and are not rewarded when typically an athlete can receive a full scholarship and keep it and also receive a multimillion dollar advertising check. I am against post secondary athletes receiving professional compensation until after they enter a professional sport. – BILL RHILEY

MR. SPEAKER: I came to the Capitol yesterday prepared to vote against Sub for HB 2066. Amendments adopted yesterday improved the bill. Lt. Gov. Toland shared strong support for the legislation with our caucus.

Despite erroneous statements at the well concerning the Hyatt tragedy, the negligence of the architects clearly contributed to the disaster. I followed that event and subsequent findings closely as one of my dear friends and a colleague of ours lost a sister-in-law that evening.

I vote AYE and am hopeful the Senate will address remaining problems with the bill particularly with regard to the treatment of architects. – VIC MILLER
MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2066. We tried to exempt architecture from this legislation. I represent K-State and thousands of it’s employees. I also support Ft. Riley and participated in several BRAC efforts—one lasting more than 4 hours. But many times these professionals don’t stay in Kansas and the construction projects they design need to last.

I also support Ft. Riley and welcome its members. I wrote the Military Child Education Compact Act, and the bill to allow dependents to pay in-state tuition and many more bills that support the military in Kansas.

While I want to be welcoming to new coming professionals I was disappointed that architecture was included in the bill. For that reason I vote No. – SYDNEY CARLIN

MR. SPEAKER, I vote NO on HB 2066. While solid efforts were made to improve this bill, the exclusion of Architects is a bridge too far for me. I will vote No, with the hope that this profession is included in the conference committee process. - STEPHANIE CLAYTON, MARI-LYNN POSKIN

HB 2138, AN ACT concerning alcoholic beverages; relating to licensure under the club and drinking establishment act; authorizing the issuance of a license to an individual whose spouse is a law enforcement officer; amending K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 41-311 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 120; Nays 4; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote No on HB 2138. The original concept behind this bill made sense. Granting a liquor license in one county to the spouse of a law enforcement person who works in another county I support. It does not raise conflict of interest questions. Alcohol is a highly controlled, highly taxed, highly regulated industry by the government. It’s interface with law enforcement is potentially deep. Further, even private industry has rules against nepotism for supervisors and employees. This bill is a bad precedent for future law enforcement integrity, particularly when “medical” marijuana looms on the horizon. – Paul Waggoner, Trevor Jacobs

HB 2153, AN ACT concerning crimes, punishment and criminal procedure; relating to crimes against persons; mistreatment of a dependent adult or elder person; increasing criminal penalty when victim is a resident of an adult care home; amending K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 21-5417 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

HB 2183, AN ACT concerning elections; prohibiting the governor, the executive branch and the judicial branch from altering election laws; limiting the authority of the secretary of state from entering into consent decrees with any court without legislative coordinating council approval, was considered on final action.

Present but not voting: Samsel.
Absent or not voting: Howard.
The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote No on HB 2183. While it purports to uphold the state constitution and defend the legislature's role in determining election law, it appears to attempt to limit judicial review of election statutes in violation of our state constitution, and even in cases when the legislature is in session, it vests authority in the legislative coordinating council, which is a body not mentioned in our constitution and is most certainly not the same as the legislature. – DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 122; Nays 2; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

Nays: Fairchild, Jacobs.

Present but not voting: None.
Absent or not voting: Howard.
The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on HB 2279. While I support the concept of entering into this compact, I oppose this bill because it requires physical therapists to be fingerprinted and undergo a criminal background check. The bill even goes so far as to authorize a member state to obtain biometric-based information from each physical therapist licensure applicant and give that information to the federal government. I don’t believe that we should enter into a compact which will result in violating the civil liberties of the people of our state. – BRETT FAIRCHILD

"Sec. 8. K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 44-706 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-706. The secretary shall examine whether an individual has separated from employment for each week claimed. The secretary shall apply the provisions of this section to the individual's most recent employment prior to the week claimed. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

(a) If the individual left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the work or the employer, subject to the other provisions of this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, "good cause" is cause of such gravity that would impel a reasonable, not supersensitive, individual exercising ordinary common sense to leave employment. Good cause requires a showing of good faith of the individual leaving work, including the presence of a genuine desire to work. Failure to return to work after expiration of approved personal or medical leave, or both, shall be considered a voluntary resignation. After a temporary job assignment, failure of an individual to affirmatively request an additional assignment on the next succeeding workday, if required by the employment agreement, after completion of a given work assignment, shall constitute leaving work voluntarily. The disqualification shall begin the day following the separation and shall continue until after the individual has become reemployed and has had earnings from insured work of at least three times the individual's weekly benefit amount. An individual shall not be disqualified under this subsection if:

1) The individual was forced to leave work because of illness or injury upon the advice of a licensed and practicing health care provider and, upon learning of the necessity for absence, immediately notified the employer thereof, or the employer consented to the absence, and after recovery from the illness or injury, when recovery was certified by a practicing health care provider, the individual returned to the employer and offered to perform services and the individual's regular work or comparable and suitable work was not available. As used in this paragraph "health care provider" means any person licensed by the proper licensing authority of any state to engage in the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy, chiropractic, dentistry, optometry, podiatry or psychology;

2) the individual left temporary work to return to the regular employer;

3) the individual left work to enlist in the armed forces of the United States, but was rejected or delayed from entry;

4) the spouse of an individual who is a member of the armed forces of the United States who left work because of the voluntary or involuntary transfer of the individual's spouse from one job to another job, which is for the same employer or for a different employer, at a geographic location which makes it unreasonable for the individual to continue work at the individual's job. For the purposes of this provision the term "armed forces" means active duty in the army, navy, marine corps, air force, coast guard or any branch of the military reserves of the United States;

5) the individual left work because of hazardous working conditions; in determining whether or not working conditions are hazardous for an individual, the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety and morals, the individual's physical fitness and prior training and the working conditions of workers engaged in the same or similar work for the same and other employers in the locality shall be considered; as used in this paragraph, "hazardous working conditions" means working conditions that could result in a danger to the physical or mental well-being of the individual; each determination as to whether hazardous working conditions exist shall include, but shall not be limited to, a consideration of: (A) The safety measures used or the lack thereof; and (B) the condition of equipment or lack of proper equipment; no work shall be considered hazardous if the working conditions surrounding the individual's work are the same or substantially the same as the working conditions generally prevailing among individuals performing the same or similar work for other employers engaged in the same or similar type of activity;

6) the individual left work to enter training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the federal trade act of 1974, provided the work left is not of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment, as defined for purposes of the federal trade act of 1974, and wages for such work are not less than 80% of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the federal trade act of 1974;

7) the individual left work because of unwelcome harassment of the individual by the employer or another employee of which the employing unit had knowledge and that would impel the average worker to give up such worker's employment;

8) the individual left work to accept better work; each determination as to whether or not the work accepted is better work shall include, but shall not be limited to,
consideration of: (A) The rate of pay, the hours of work and the probable permanency of the work left as compared to the work accepted; (B) the cost to the individual of getting to the work left in comparison to the cost of getting to the work accepted; and (C) the distance from the individual's place of residence to the work accepted in comparison to the distance from the individual's residence to the work left;

(9) the individual left work as a result of being instructed or requested by the employer, a supervisor or a fellow employee to perform a service or commit an act in the scope of official job duties which is in violation of an ordinance or statute;

(10) the individual left work because of a substantial violation of the work agreement by the employing unit and, before the individual left, the individual had exhausted all remedies provided in such agreement for the settlement of disputes before terminating. For the purposes of this paragraph, a demotion based on performance does not constitute a violation of the work agreement;

(11) after making reasonable efforts to preserve the work, the individual left work due to a personal emergency of such nature and compelling urgency that it would be contrary to good conscience to impose a disqualification; or

(12) (A) the individual left work due to circumstances resulting from domestic violence, including:
   (i) The individual's reasonable fear of future domestic violence at or en route to or from the individual's place of employment;
   (ii) the individual's need to relocate to another geographic area in order to avoid future domestic violence;
   (iii) the individual's need to address the physical, psychological and legal impacts of domestic violence;
   (iv) the individual's need to leave employment as a condition of receiving services or shelter from an agency which provides support services or shelter to victims of domestic violence; or
   (v) the individual's reasonable belief that termination of employment is necessary to avoid other situations which may cause domestic violence and to provide for the future safety of the individual or the individual's family.
   (B) An individual may prove the existence of domestic violence by providing one of the following:
      (i) A restraining order or other documentation of equitable relief by a court of competent jurisdiction;
      (ii) a police record documenting the abuse;
      (iii) documentation that the abuser has been convicted of one or more of the offenses enumerated in articles 34 and 35 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, prior to their repeal, or articles 54 or 55 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, or K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 21-6104, 21-6325, 21-6326 or 21-6418 through 21-6422, and amendments thereto, where the victim was a family or household member;
      (iv) medical documentation of the abuse;
      (v) a statement provided by a counselor, social worker, health care provider, clergy, shelter worker, legal advocate, domestic violence or sexual assault advocate or other professional who has assisted the individual in dealing with the effects of abuse on the individual or the individual's family; or
      (vi) a sworn statement from the individual attesting to the abuse.
   (C) No evidence of domestic violence experienced by an individual, including the individual's statement and corroborating evidence, shall be disclosed by the department of labor unless consent for disclosure is given by the individual.

(b) If the individual has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with the individual's work. The disqualification shall begin the day following the separation and shall continue until after the individual becomes reemployed and in cases where the disqualification is due to discharge for misconduct has had earnings from insured work of at least three times the individual's determined weekly benefit amount, except that if an individual is discharged for gross misconduct connected with the individual's work, such individual shall be disqualified for benefits until such individual again becomes employed and has had earnings from insured work of at least eight times such individual's determined weekly benefit amount. In addition, all wage credits attributable to the employment from which the individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with the individual's work shall be canceled. No such cancellation of wage credits shall affect prior payments made as a result of a prior separation.

(1) For the purposes of this subsection, "misconduct" is defined as a violation of a duty or obligation reasonably owed the employer as a condition of employment including, but not limited to, a violation of a company rule, including a safety rule, if:
(A) The individual knew or should have known about the rule; (B) the rule was lawful and reasonably related to the job; and (C) the rule was fairly and consistently enforced.

(2) (A) Failure of the employee to notify the employer of an absence and an individual's leaving work prior to the end of such individual's assigned work period without permission shall be considered prima facie evidence of a violation of a duty or obligation reasonably owed the employer as a condition of employment.
(B) For the purposes of this subsection, misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, violation of the employer's reasonable attendance expectations if the facts show:
(i) The individual was absent or tardy without good cause;
(ii) the individual had knowledge of the employer's attendance expectation; and
(iii) the employer gave notice to the individual that future absence or tardiness may or will result in discharge.

(C) For the purposes of this subsection, if an employee disputes being absent or tardy without good cause, the employee shall present evidence that a majority of the employee's absences or tardiness were for good cause. If the employee alleges that the employee's repeated absences or tardiness were the result of health related issues, such evidence shall include documentation from a licensed and practicing health care provider as defined in subsection (a)(1).

(3) (A) The term "gross misconduct" as used in this subsection shall be construed to mean conduct evincing extreme, willful or wanton misconduct as defined by this subsection. Gross misconduct shall include, but not be limited to: (i) Theft; (ii) fraud; (iii) intentional damage to property; (iv) intentional infliction of personal injury; or (v) any conduct that constitutes a felony.

(B) For the purposes of this subsection, the following shall be conclusive evidence of gross misconduct:
(i) The use of alcoholic liquor, cereal malt beverage or a nonprescribed controlled substance by an individual while working;
(ii) the impairment caused by alcoholic liquor, cereal malt beverage or a nonprescribed controlled substance by an individual while working;
(iii) a positive breath alcohol test or a positive chemical test, provided:
   (a) The test was either:
      (1) Required by law and was administered pursuant to the drug free workplace act, 41 U.S.C. § 701 et seq.;
      (2) administered as part of an employee assistance program or other drug or alcohol treatment program in which the employee was participating voluntarily or as a condition of further employment;
      (3) requested pursuant to a written policy of the employer of which the employee had knowledge and was a required condition of employment;
      (4) required by law and the test constituted a required condition of employment for the individual's job; or
      (5) there was reasonable suspicion to believe that the individual used, had possession of, or was impaired by alcoholic liquor, cereal malt beverage or a nonprescribed controlled substance while working;
   (b) the test sample was collected either:
      (1) As prescribed by the drug free workplace act, 41 U.S.C. § 701 et seq.;
      (2) as prescribed by an employee assistance program or other drug or alcohol treatment program in which the employee was participating voluntarily or as a condition of further employment;
      (3) as prescribed by the written policy of the employer of which the employee had knowledge and which constituted a required condition of employment;
      (4) as prescribed by a test which was required by law and which constituted a required condition of employment for the individual's job; or
      (5) at a time contemporaneous with the events establishing probable cause;
   (c) the collecting and labeling of a chemical test sample was performed by a licensed health care professional or any other individual certified pursuant to paragraph (b)(3)(A)(iii)(f) or authorized to collect or label test samples by federal or state law, or a federal or state rule or regulation having the force or effect of law, including law enforcement personnel;
   (d) the chemical test was performed by a laboratory approved by the United States department of health and human services or licensed by the department of health and environment, except that a blood sample may be tested for alcohol content by a laboratory commonly used for that purpose by state law enforcement agencies;
   (e) the chemical test was confirmed by gas chromatography, gas chromatography-mass spectroscopy or other comparably reliable analytical method, except that no such confirmation is required for a blood alcohol sample or a breath alcohol test;
   (f) the breath alcohol test was administered by an individual trained to perform breath tests, the breath testing instrument used was certified and operated strictly according to a description provided by the manufacturers and the reliability of the instrument performance was assured by testing with alcohol standards; and

c) If the individual has failed, without good cause, to either apply for suitable work when so directed by the employment office of the secretary of labor, or to accept suitable work when offered to the individual by the employment office, the secretary of labor, or an employer, such disqualification shall begin with the week in which such failure occurred and shall continue until the individual becomes reemployed and has had earnings from insured work of at least three times such individual's determined weekly benefit amount. In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the secretary of labor, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, shall consider the degree of risk involved to health, safety and morals, physical fitness and prior training, experience and prior earnings, length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation or work for which the individual is reasonably fitted by training or experience, and the distance of the available work from the individual's residence. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, an otherwise eligible individual shall not be disqualified for refusing an offer of suitable employment, or failing to apply for suitable employment when notified by an employment office, or for leaving the individual's most recent work accepted during approved training, including training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the trade act of 1974, if the acceptance of or applying for suitable employment or continuing such work would require the individual to terminate approved training and no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this act to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions: (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout or other labor dispute; (2) if the remuneration, hours or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; (3) if as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to join or to resign from or refrain from joining any labor organization; and (4) if the individual left employment as a result of domestic violence, and the position offered does not reasonably accommodate the individual's physical, psychological, safety, or legal needs relating to such domestic violence.

d) For any week with respect to which the secretary of labor, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, finds that the individual's unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists because of a labor dispute or there would have been a work stoppage had normal operations not been maintained with other personnel previously and currently employed by the same employer at the factory, establishment or other premises at which the individual is or was last employed, except that this subsection (d) shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the secretary of labor, or a person or persons designated by the secretary, that: (1) The individual is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the labor dispute which caused the stoppage of work; and (2) the individual does not belong to a grade or class of workers of which, immediately before the commencement of the stoppage, there were members employed at the premises at which the stoppage occurs any of whom are participating in or financing or directly interested in the dispute. If in any case separate branches of work which are commonly conducted as separate businesses in separate premises are conducted in separate departments of the same premises, each such department shall, for the purpose of this subsection be deemed to be a separate factory, establishment or other premises. For the purposes of this subsection, failure or refusal to cross a picket line or refusal for any reason during the continuance of such labor dispute to accept the individual's available and customary work at the factory, establishment or other premises where the individual is or was last employed shall be considered as participation and interest in the labor dispute.

In addition to the penalties set forth in K.S.A. 44-719, and amendments thereto, an individual who has knowingly made a false statement or representation or who has knowingly failed to disclose a material fact to obtain or increase benefits under this act or any other unemployment compensation law administered by the secretary of labor shall be liable for a penalty in the amount equal to 25% of the amount of benefits unlawfully received. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such penalty shall be deposited into the employment security trust fund.

contract, if the individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform services in any such capacity for any educational institution in the second of such academic years or terms.

(j) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in any capacity other than service in an instructional, research, or administrative capacity in an educational institution, as defined in K.S.A. 44-703(v), and amendments thereto, if such week begins during the period between two successive academic years or terms if the individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform such services in the second of such academic years or terms, except that if benefits are denied to the individual under this subsection and the individual was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for the educational institution for the second of such academic years or terms, such individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week for which the individual filed a timely claim for benefits and for which benefits were denied solely by reason of this subsection.

(k) For any week of unemployment on the basis of service in any capacity for an educational institution as defined in K.S.A. 44-703(v), and amendments thereto, if such week begins during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess, if the individual performs services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

(l) For any week of unemployment on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, if such week begins during the period between two successive sport seasons or similar periods if such individual performed services in the first of such seasons or similar periods and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the later of such seasons or similar periods.

(m) For any week on the basis of services performed by an alien unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed, including an alien who was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of section 212(d)(5) of the federal immigration and nationality act. Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits. In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of such individual's alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

(n) For any week in which an individual is receiving a governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment under a plan maintained by a base period employer and to which the entire contributions were provided by such employer, except that: (1) If the entire contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer but such individual's weekly benefit amount exceeds such governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment attributable to such week, the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual shall be reduced, but not below zero, by an amount equal to the amount of such pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment which is attributable to such week; or (2) if only a portion of contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer, the weekly benefit amount payable to such individual for such week shall be reduced, but not below zero, by the prorated weekly amount of the pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment after deduction of that portion of the pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment that is directly attributable to the percentage of the contributions made to the plan by such individual; or (3) if the entire contributions to the plan were provided by such individual, or by the individual and an employer, or any person or organization, who is not a base period employer, no reduction in the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual for such week shall be made under this subsection; or (4) whatever portion of contributions to such plan were provided by the base period employer, if the services performed for the employer by such individual during the base period, or remuneration received for the services, did not affect the individual's eligibility for, or increased the amount of, such pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity or other similar periodic payment, no reduction in the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual for such week shall be made under this subsection. No reduction shall be made for payments made under the social security act or railroad retirement act of 1974.

The remuneration shall be allocated to the week or weeks in the manner as specified in the award or agreement, or in the absence of such specificity in the award or agreement, such remuneration shall be allocated to the week or weeks in which such remuneration, in the judgment of the secretary, would have been paid.

"Sec. 8. K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 44-706 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-706. The secretary shall examine whether an individual has separated from employment for each week claimed. The secretary shall apply the provisions of this section to the individual's most recent employment prior to the week claimed. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

(a) If the individual left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the work or the employer, subject to the other provisions of this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, "good cause" is cause of such gravity that would impel a reasonable, not supersensitive, individual exercising ordinary common sense to leave employment. Good cause requires a showing of good faith of the individual leaving work, including the presence of a genuine desire to work. Failure to return to work after expiration of approved personal or medical leave, or both, shall be considered a voluntary resignation. After a temporary job assignment, failure of an individual to affirmatively request an additional assignment on the next succeeding workday, if required by the employment agreement, after completion of a given work assignment, shall constitute leaving work voluntarily. The disqualification shall begin the day following the separation and shall continue until after the individual has become reemployed and has had earnings from insured work of at least three times the individual's weekly benefit amount. An individual shall not be disqualified under this subsection if:

(1) The individual was forced to leave work because of illness or injury upon the advice of a licensed and practicing health care provider and, upon learning of the necessity for absence, immediately notified the employer thereof, or the employer consented to the absence, and after recovery from the illness or injury, when recovery was certified by a practicing health care provider, the individual returned to the employer and offered to perform services and the individual's regular work or comparable and suitable work was not available. As used in this paragraph "health care provider" means any person licensed by the proper licensing authority of any state to engage in the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy, chiropractic, dentistry, optometry, podiatry or psychology;

(2) the individual left temporary work to return to the regular employer;

(3) the individual left work to enlist in the armed forces of the United States, but was rejected or delayed from entry;

(4) the spouse of an individual who is a member of the armed forces of the United States who left work because of the voluntary or involuntary transfer of the individual's spouse from one job to another job, which is for the same employer or for a different employer, at a geographic location which makes it unreasonable for the individual to continue work at the individual's job. For the purposes of this provision the term "armed forces" means active duty in the army, navy, marine corps, air force, coast guard or any branch of the military reserves of the United States;

(5) the individual left work because of hazardous working conditions; in determining whether or not working conditions are hazardous for an individual, the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety and morals, the individual's physical fitness and prior training and the working conditions of workers engaged in the same or similar work for the same and other employers in the locality shall be considered; as used in this paragraph, "hazardous working conditions" means working conditions that could result in a danger to the physical or mental well-being of the individual; each determination as to whether hazardous working conditions exist shall include, but shall not be limited to, a consideration of: (A) The safety measures used or the lack thereof; and (B) the condition of equipment or lack of proper equipment; no work shall be considered hazardous if the working conditions surrounding the individual's work are the same or substantially the same as the working conditions generally prevailing among individuals performing the same or similar work for other employers engaged in the same or similar type of activity;

(6) the individual left work to enter training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the federal trade act of 1974, provided the work left is not of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment, as defined for purposes of the federal trade act of 1974, and wages for such the work are not less than 80% of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the federal trade act of 1974;

(7) the individual left work because of unwelcome harassment of the individual by the employer or another employee of which the employing unit had knowledge and that would impel the average worker to give up such the worker's employment;

(8) the individual left work to accept better work; each determination as to whether or not the work accepted is better work shall include, but shall not be limited to, consideration of: (A) The rate of pay, the hours of work and the probable permanency of the work left as compared to the work accepted; (B) the cost to the individual of getting to the work left in comparison to the cost of getting to the work accepted; and (C) the distance from the individual's place of residence to the work accepted in comparison to the distance from the individual's residence to the work left;

(9) the individual left work as a result of being instructed or requested by the employer, a supervisor or a fellow employee to perform a service or commit an act in the scope of official job duties which is in violation of an ordinance or statute;

(10) the individual left work because of a substantial violation of the work agreement by the employing unit and, before the individual left, the individual had exhausted all remedies provided in such the agreement for the settlement of disputes before terminating. For the purposes of this paragraph, a demotion based on performance does not constitute a violation of the work agreement;

(11) after making reasonable efforts to preserve the work, the individual left work due to a personal emergency of such nature and compelling urgency that it would be contrary to good conscience to impose a disqualification; or

(12) (A) the individual left work due to circumstances resulting from domestic violence, including:

(i) The individual's reasonable fear of future domestic violence at or en route to or from the individual's place of employment;

(ii) the individual's need to relocate to another geographic area in order to avoid future domestic violence;

(iii) the individual's need to address the physical, psychological and legal impacts of domestic violence;

(iv) the individual's need to leave employment as a condition of receiving services or shelter from an agency which provides support services or shelter to victims of domestic violence; or

(v) the individual's reasonable belief that termination of employment is necessary to avoid other situations which may cause domestic violence and to provide for the future safety of the individual or the individual's family.

(B) An individual may prove the existence of domestic violence by providing one of the following:

(i) A restraining order or other documentation of equitable relief by a court of competent jurisdiction;

(ii) a police record documenting the abuse;

(iii) documentation that the abuser has been convicted of one or more of the offenses enumerated in articles 34 and 35 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, prior to their repeal, or articles 54 or 55 of chapter 21 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, or K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 21-6104, 21-6325, 21-6326 or 21-6418 through 21-6422, and amendments thereto, where the victim was a family or household member;

(iv) medical documentation of the abuse;

(v) a statement provided by a counselor, social worker, health care provider, clergy, shelter worker, legal advocate, domestic violence or sexual assault advocate or other professional who has assisted the individual in dealing with the effects of abuse on the individual or the individual's family; or

(vi) a sworn statement from the individual attesting to the abuse.

(C) No evidence of domestic violence experienced by an individual, including the individual's statement and corroborating evidence, shall be disclosed by the department of labor unless consent for disclosure is given by the individual.

(b) If the individual has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with the individual's work. The disqualification shall begin the day following the separation and shall continue until after the individual becomes reemployed and in cases where the disqualification is due to discharge for misconduct has had earnings from insured work of at least three times the individual's determined weekly benefit amount, except that if an individual is discharged for gross misconduct connected with the individual's work, such the individual shall be disqualified for benefits until such the individual again becomes employed and has had earnings from insured work of at least eight times such the individual's determined weekly benefit amount. In addition, all wage credits attributable to the employment from which the individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with the individual's work shall be canceled. No such cancellation of wage credits shall affect prior payments made as a result of a prior separation.

(1) For the purposes of this subsection, "misconduct" is defined as a violation of a duty or obligation reasonably owed the employer as a condition of employment including, but not limited to, a violation of a company rule, including a safety rule, if: (A) The individual knew or should have known about the rule; (B) the rule was lawful and reasonably related to the job; and (C) the rule was fairly and consistently enforced.

(2) (A) Failure of the employee to notify the employer of an absence and an individual's leaving work prior to the end of such the individual's assigned work period without permission shall be considered prima facie evidence of a violation of a duty or obligation reasonably owed the employer as a condition of employment.

(B) For the purposes of this subsection, misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, violation of the employer's reasonable attendance expectations if the facts show:

(i) The individual was absent or tardy without good cause;
(ii) the individual had knowledge of the employer's attendance expectation; and
(iii) the employer gave notice to the individual that future absence or tardiness may or will result in discharge.

(C) For the purposes of this subsection, if an employee disputes being absent or tardy without good cause, the employee shall present evidence that a majority of the employee's absences or tardiness were for good cause. If the employee alleges that the employee's repeated absences or tardiness were the result of health related issues, the evidence shall include documentation from a licensed and practicing health care provider as defined in subsection (a)(1).

(3) (A) The term "gross misconduct" as used in this subsection shall be construed to mean conduct evincing extreme, willful or wanton misconduct as defined by this subsection. "Sec. 8. K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 44-706 is hereby amended to read as follows: 44-706. The secretary shall examine whether an individual has separated from employment for each week claimed. The secretary shall apply the provisions of this section to the individual's most recent employment prior to the week claimed. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

For purposes of this subsection, "good cause" is cause of such gravity that would impel a reasonable, not supersensitive, individual exercising ordinary common sense to leave employment. Good cause requires a showing of good faith of the individual leaving work, including the presence of a genuine desire to work. Failure to return to work after expiration of approved personal or medical leave, or both, shall be considered a voluntary resignation. After a temporary job assignment, failure of an individual to affirmatively request an additional assignment on the next succeeding workday, if required by the employment agreement, after completion of a given work assignment, shall constitute leaving work voluntarily. The disqualification shall begin the day following the separation and shall continue until after the individual has become reemployed and has had earnings from insured work of at least three times the individual's weekly benefit amount. An individual shall not be disqualified under this subsection if:

(1) The individual was forced to leave work because of illness or injury upon the advice of a licensed and practicing health care provider and, upon learning of the necessity for absence, immediately notified the employer thereof, or the employer consented to the absence, and after recovery from the illness or injury, when recovery was certified by a practicing health care provider, the individual returned to the employer and offered to perform services and the individual's regular work or comparable and suitable work was not available. As used in this paragraph "health care provider" means any person licensed by the proper licensing authority of any state to engage in the practice of medicine and surgery, osteopathy, chiropractic, dentistry, optometry, podiatry or psychology;

(2) the individual left temporary work to return to the regular employer;"
(3) the individual left work to enlist in the armed forces of the United States, but was rejected or delayed from entry;

(4) the spouse of an individual who is a member of the armed forces of the United States who left work because of the voluntary or involuntary transfer of the individual's spouse from one job to another job, which is for the same employer or for a different employer, at a geographic location which makes it unreasonable for the individual to continue work at the individual's job. For the purposes of this provision the term "armed forces" means active duty in the army, navy, marine corps, air force, coast guard or any branch of the military reserves of the United States;

(5) the individual left work because of hazardous working conditions; in determining whether or not working conditions are hazardous for an individual, the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety and morals, the individual's physical fitness and prior training and the working conditions of workers engaged in the same or similar work for the same and other employers in the locality shall be considered; as used in this paragraph, "hazardous working conditions" means working conditions that could result in a danger to the physical or mental well-being of the individual; each determination as to whether hazardous working conditions exist shall include, but shall not be limited to, a consideration of: (A) The safety measures used or the lack thereof; and (B) the condition of equipment or lack of proper equipment; no work shall be considered hazardous if the working conditions surrounding the individual's work are the same or substantially the same as the working conditions generally prevailing among individuals performing the same or similar work for other employers engaged in the same or similar type of activity;

(6) the individual left work to enter training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the federal trade act of 1974, provided the work left is not of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment, as defined for purposes of the federal trade act of 1974, and wages for such the work are not less than 80% of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the federal trade act of 1974;

(7) the individual left work because of unwelcome harassment of the individual by the employer or another employee of which the employing unit had knowledge and that would impel the average worker to give up such the worker's employment;

(8) the individual left work to accept better work; each determination as to whether or not the work accepted is better work shall include, but shall not be limited to, consideration of: (A) The rate of pay, the hours of work and the probable permanency of the work left as compared to the work accepted; (B) the cost to the individual of getting to the work left in comparison to the cost of getting to the work accepted; and (C) the distance from the individual's place of residence to the work accepted in comparison to the distance from the individual's residence to the work left;

(9) the individual left work as a result of being instructed or requested by the employer, a supervisor or a fellow employee to perform a service or commit an act in the scope of official job duties which is in violation of an ordinance or statute;

(d) (1) It shall not be a violation of the personal and family protection act for a person to carry a concealed handgun into a state or municipal building, or any public area thereof, so long as that person has authority to enter through a restricted access entrance into such building, or public area thereof, that provides adequate security measures at all public access entrances and the building, or public area thereof, is conspicuously posted in accordance with K.S.A. 75-7c10, and amendments thereto.

(2) Any person, who is not an employee of the state or a municipality and is not otherwise authorized to enter a state or municipal building through a restricted access entrance, shall be authorized to enter through a restricted access entrance, provided such

Such authorization does not permit the individual to carry a concealed weapon into a public building, which has adequate security measures, as defined by this act, and which is conspicuously posted in accordance with K.S.A. 75-7c10, and amendments thereto.

(e) A state agency or municipality that provides adequate security measures in a state or municipal building and which conspicuously posts signage in accordance with K.S.A. 75-7c10, and amendments thereto, prohibiting the carrying of a concealed handgun in such building shall not be liable for any wrongful act or omission relating to actions of persons carrying a concealed handgun concerning acts or omissions regarding such handguns.

(f) A state agency or municipality that does not provide adequate security measures in a state or municipal building and that allows the carrying of a concealed handgun shall not be liable for any wrongful act or omission relating to actions of persons carrying a concealed handgun concerning acts or omissions regarding such handguns.

(h) Nothing in this section shall limit the ability of the chief judge of each judicial district to prohibit the carrying of a concealed handgun by any person into courtrooms or ancillary courtrooms within the district provided the public area has adequate security measures to ensure that no weapons are permitted to be carried into such public area and the public area is conspicuously posted in accordance with K.S.A. 75-7c10, and amendments thereto.

(i) The governing body or the chief administrative officer, if no governing body exists, of a state or municipal building, may exempt the building, or any public area thereof, from this section until July 1, 2017, by adopting a resolution, or drafting a letter, listing the legal description of such building, listing the reasons for such exemption, and including the following statement: "A security plan has been developed for the building being exempted which supplies adequate security to the occupants of the building and merits the prohibition of the carrying of a concealed handgun." A copy of the security plan for the building shall be maintained on file and shall be made available, upon request, to the Kansas attorney general and the law enforcement agency of local jurisdiction. Notice of this exemption, together with the resolution adopted or the letter drafted, shall be sent to the Kansas attorney general and to the law enforcement agency of local jurisdiction. Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God, again, we thank you for a beautiful day.
As the date reflects, help us to “March Fourth.”
The past cannot be changed.
We do not want to forget the past, but we want to learn from the past.
We want to take full advantage of the present in order to prepare for the future.
So, we take from Your Word these challenging words, “I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.”
We are to stand firm…letting nothing move us…
always giving of ourselves fully to the work God has called us to, because we know that our work is not in vain.
This I pray in Your Name, Amen.

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Blex are spread upon the Journal:

Body, I am bringing to you, for your consideration today a resolution honoring our Kansas Army and Air National Guard men and women. They answer the call of duty at home and abroad. Recently over 300 Kansas National Guard answered a moment’s notice call to protect our nation’s Capitol. Imagine the thought entering their mind making the decision to utilize, maybe deadly force against their fellow citizens, thank God that did not happen.

In many ways our citizen/soldiers have a more difficult time adjusting to the call of duty than our honorable soldiers that are on active duty. A long time ago while on active duty I was deployed for a combat tour in Vietnam for 14 months, but at least I had a 30 day notice to prepare.

I watched a young neighbor lady with 3 young children ages 6 months to 4 years trying to arrange for a 24-7 child care arrangement for very young children. Her husband was out of town on a construction job and could not be available for 2 weeks. Only the mothers in this body can understand the emotional stress of leaving your young children in care of someone else and not being able to say for sure when she would be back. She came to our house and we agreed to watch and care for her farm animals and pets. It was a small gesture on our part, but a big relief for her.

I watched her tearfully kiss and hug her small children and tell them bye, “Mommy will see you soon.” It was comforting to the 4 year old, but the younger children did not comprehend. She knew in her heart she was not sure when the “see you soon” would be.

She loaded her gear and was off to defend our nation’s Capitol, why, because she loved our country, believed in the American greatness and was willing to sacrifice the separation from her children and family to answer the call of duty. I know some of you in this chamber who have served can understand this feeling. For others than may have not had the privilege of serving in the military, I only ask that you support your friends and neighbors who answer that call!! That young lady was my granddaughter and I could not be more proud of her. Thank you Body, for your support!!

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I voted NO on HB 2058. You have heard it before, the usual arguments used to justify purchasing and carrying a gun. They are, “any law-abiding citizen” and “I should have the right to protect myself and my family”. And it has worked. This propaganda has been used by the gun industry to instill fear that somehow someone is always out to hurt you and/or your family. This is a bad bill given our current political climate that perpetuates nationalism and racial division. It is a bad bill given the high rate of suicide among young people. – Susan Ruiz

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on House Bill 2058, a far-reaching and dangerous bill. Why would we allow 18, 19, and 20 year-olds to load and hide handguns that they can’t legally purchase at federally licensed gun dealers? Lowering the conceal carry permitting age puts young Kansans and their families at-risk. Crimes are more serious and deadly when guns are involved. Why did this bill stall in 2018? I remember, because I was here at the Capitol on Valentine’s Day when a 19-year-old former student shot and killed 17 children and teachers. If enacted, it won’t be a crime for 19-year-old former students to carry handguns into K-12 schools. – Jo Ella Hoye, Lindsay Vaughn, Mari-Lynn Poskin, Linda Featherston, Christina Haswood, Jennifer Day, Rui Xu

Mr. Speaker: I support the second amendment. However, House Bill 2058, as amended, contains a dangerous provision that allows teenagers to carry hidden, loaded handguns. This bill weakens our gun laws and creates loopholes in Kansas law that could allow 18-, 19-, and 20-year-olds to carry guns in K-12 schools without committing a crime – which they are currently prohibited from doing. We should be doing everything we can to minimize risks to our children, not increase the chance of endangering their lives. This is a reckless bill. I hope that we will continue to work on legislation ensuring safe, responsible gun ownership. Therefore, I vote no on House Bill 2058. – VALDENIA WINN, STEPHANIE BYERS, JIM GARTNER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Substitute for House Bill 2196. For years, Republicans have shown no interest in helping working and unemployed Kansans. They have stripped funding from the Department of Labor, refused to work on legislation that would benefit workers and the unemployed, and continue to shift the blame for their mistakes. This bill cuts unemployment benefits and only complicates the process. The modernization piece is already in the Governor’s recommendations. This bill will become a roadblock for Kansans that desperately need help. – Tom Sawyer, Rui Xu, Annie Kuether, Elizabeth Bishop, Lindsay Vaughn, Cindy Neighbor, Barbara W. Ballard, Valdenia Winn, Sydney Carlin, John Alcala, Stephanie Byers, Mari-Lynn Poskin, Jo Ella Hoye, Linda Featherston, Jennifer Day, Jim Gartner

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2227. While I support the aspect of this bill which allows for cases to be heard virtually, I believe this bill gives the Chief Justice too much power. At the very least, I think there should be some sort of independent board put in place to review the Chief Justice’s decisions. There needs to be checks and balances on the Chief Justice’s power. – BRETT FAIRCHILD

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “Yes” on HB 2416. Violating Section 7 of the Kansas Constitution's Bill of Rights, and targeting Christendom, the Governor ordered churches closed and sought to regulate worship. Yet Section 7 has no pandemic or other emergency exception.

Also, what's the good of being “protected” from an emergency if your livelihood is arbitrarily deemed “nonessential” and, consequently, you cannot pay bills, you face losing your vehicle or your home (or both), you can barely feed your family, and you're unemployed (or underemployed) and you never receive your unemployment benefits?
HB 2416 takes steps toward protecting Kansans from unconstitutional, overbroad, overbearing, and unnecessary gubernatorial emergency action. – JESSE BURRIS, CHARLES E. SMITH, SUSAN OLIVER ESTES, LEO DELPERDANG, TIM JOHNSON, AND PATRICK A. PENN

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “Yes” on HB 2416. Being cautiously optimistic about the outcome of the new KEMA restrictions, I do recognize the pertinent work that must be fashioned in the conference committee to further ensure the provisions and protections that confirm the liberties of the people. I do expect that the government that swore to support the US Constitution and Kansas Bill of Rights would be mindful that Constitutional Liberties must not be infringed upon ever again in the State of Kansas. “You ought to be extremely cautious, watchful, jealous of your liberty; for instead of securing your rights, you may lose them forever.” Patrick Henry. – TREVOR JACOBS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “No” on HB 2416 For the first time in Kansas, this bill would manage serious-but-non-emergency situations through an emergency management statute. This is a fundamental, perilous, and—as presently written—permanent mistake. Experience is the surest standard to test this breathtaking shift of power from the people’s duly elected Legislature to the Governor and 7-member Legislative Coordinating Council. For many trying months in 2020, this entrustment of power hindered the life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness of Kansans. Although undeniably well intended, it silenced 121 State Representatives and 37 State Senators. 96% of the Legislature could not govern. With utmost care, I respectfully resist. – MARK SAMESL

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on House Bill 2416. The Legislature should be focused on helping Kansans that are suffering from the pandemic, but instead, this bill focuses on stripping the Governor’s power to effectively lead Kansans through a pandemic and other natural disasters. The Kansas Supreme Court has held that the Governor has executive authority forming the basis of the governor’s ability to deal with a statewide crisis. It does not rely on other legislative action to empower the governor with any executive authority. Although I believe in checks and balances of government, I strongly question whether or not this is legislative overreach. – JOHN CARMICHAEL, MIKE AMXY, JIM GARTNER, ANNIE KUETHER, RUI XU, LINDSAY VAUGHN, BRANDON WOODARD, CINDY NEIGHBOR, SUSAN RUIZ, TOM BURROUGHGS, JENNIFER DAY, LINDA FEATHERSTON, CHRISTINA HASWOOD, PAM CURTIS, VALDENIA WINN, JOHN ALcala, BARBARA W. BALLARD, SYDNEY CARLIN, STEPHANIE BYERS, VIRGIL WEIGEL, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, JO ELLA HOYE, TOM SAWYER, STEPHANIE CLAYTON

MR. SPEAKER, I vote no on House Bill 2416. The Legislature should be focused on helping Kansans that are suffering from the pandemic, but instead, Republicans have shown again that they are interested in just political gains. This bill would strip the Governor’s power to effectively lead Kansans through a pandemic and other natural disasters. Republican’s attempts to diminish the Governor’s power further solidifies the danger of them giving themselves unchecked, authoritative power. This is nothing less than a power grab. If it were a Republican on the second floor, I am certain that we would not be voting on a bill like this today. – ELIZABETH BISHOP, GAIL FINNEY, PONKA-WE VICTORS
MR. SPEAKER: I support HB 2416 as a thoughtful freedom loving reform of the Kansas Emergency Management Act. The experience of Americans across this land in 2020 is that governmental overreach in times of a declared emergency is a real threat to our livelihoods and our liberties. It was only because we had in place the limited checks and balances of HB 2416 that Kansas citizens were protected from the governmental outrages seen in California, New York, Michigan and other states. Eternal vigilance remains the cost of protecting our rights as citizens. – PAUL WAGGONER

MR. SPEAKER: I vote “present” on HB 2416 because I believe that although we must curb government overreach during COVID, we have much work to do regarding upholding the liberties of Kansans. Citizens should not have to sue their government incurring costs or stress to simply have rights protected. I hope the conference committee considers adding language allowing freedom to nursing home residents to see their families during crisis and never have their right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness INFRINGED upon regardless of emergency. I look forward to voting “yes” on this bill once the committee provides legislation with teeth to protect LIBERTY. – TAMU LEE-HAHN

(a) Except as otherwise provided by subsection (b), (d) or (h), all revenue received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the following manner:

(1) One-half \( \frac{1}{2} \) of all revenue received by the director of taxation shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the proportion that the total tangible property tax levies made in such county in the preceding year for all funds of each such governmental unit bear to the total of all such levies made in the preceding year; and
(2) one-half \( \frac{1}{2} \) of all revenue received by the director of taxation from such countywide retailers' sales tax shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county, first to the county that portion of the revenue equal to the proportion that the population of the county residing in the unincorporated area of the county bears to the total population of the county, and second to the cities in the proportion that the population of each city bears to the total population of the county, except that no persons residing within the Fort Riley military reservation shall be included in the determination of the population of any city located within Riley county.

All revenue apportioned to a county shall be paid to its county treasurer and shall be credited to the general fund of the county.

(b) (1) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), all revenue received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed within Johnson county at the rate of 0.75%, 1% or 1.25% after July 1, 2007, shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the following manner:

(A) The revenue received from the first 0.5% rate of tax shall be apportioned in the manner prescribed by subsection (a); and

(B) the revenue received from the rate of tax exceeding 0.5% shall be apportioned as follows:

(i) One-fourth \( \frac{1}{4} \) shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county in the proportion that the total tangible property tax levies made in such county in the preceding year for all funds of each such governmental unit bear to the total of all such levies made in the preceding year;

(ii) one-fourth \( \frac{1}{4} \) shall be apportioned among the county and each city located in such county, first to the county that portion of the revenue equal to the proportion that the population of the county residing in the unincorporated area of the county bears to the total population of the county, and second to the cities in the proportion that the population of each city bears to the total population of the county; and

(iii) one-half \( \frac{1}{2} \) shall be retained by the county for its sole use and benefit.

(2) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), all money received by the director of taxation from a countywide sales tax imposed within Montgomery county pursuant to the election held on November 8, 1994, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged. (3) In lieu of the apportionment formula provided in subsection (a), on and after the effective date of this act, all moneys received by the director of taxation from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed within Phillips county pursuant to the election held on September 20, 2005, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged.

(c) (1) Except as otherwise provided by paragraph (2) of this subsection, for purposes of subsections (a) and (b), the term "total tangible property tax levies" means the aggregate dollar amount of tax revenue derived from ad valorem tax levies applicable to all tangible property located within each such city or county. The ad valorem property tax levy of any county or city district entity or subdivision shall be included within this term if the levy of any such district entity or subdivision is applicable to all tangible property located within each such city or county.

(2) For the purposes of subsections (a) and (b), any ad valorem property tax levied on property located in a city in Johnson county for the purpose of providing fire protection service in such city shall be included within the term "total tangible property tax levies" for such city regardless of its applicability to all tangible property located within each such city. If the tax is levied by a district which extends across city boundaries, for purposes of this computation, the amount of such levy shall be apportioned among each city in which such district extends in the proportion that such tax levied within each city bears to the total tax levied by the district.

(d) (1) All revenue received from a countywide retailers' sales tax imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 12-187(b)(2), (3)(C), (3)(F), (3)(G), (3)(I), (6), (7), (8), (9), (12), (14), (15), (16), (17), (18), (19), (20), (22), (23), (25), (27), (28), (29), (30), (31) and (32), and amendments thereto, shall be remitted to and shall be retained by the county and expended only for the purpose for which the revenue received from the tax was pledged.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Gracious God, as we pray we ask that You draw near,
and remind us once again how good it is to be close to You.
Come alongside our lawmakers today and this week so that that their walk would fall in step with Your own purpose.
Provide them encouragement when their work and their desire for progress seems frustrated and hopeless.
Guide them with Your counsel
when they find themselves inclined to lead on impulse.
And grant them confidence in Your grace plan when they are confounded with uncertainty and hesitation.
Show them the importance of patience
when they face unyieldingness among their colleagues.
And when, on this journey, their hearts become embittered, show us how to love as You have loved us.
You are the strength of our hearts and our reward forever.
We claim this promise and stand on it to get us through.
I pray this in Christ’s Name, Amen

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: Since the beginning of the pandemic, the CDC reports that anxiety and depression has tripled among adolescents. Remote-only students face higher rates of academic failure, absenteeism, and the negative effects of prolonged isolation which impacts their safety, security, and well-being. Besides the physical, psychological, and academic losses, remote-only students are denied an equal and adequate education raising serious equity issues. It’s time to put the excuses to rest and say yes to every student in Kansas who needs and desires in-person instruction. Mr. Speaker, I vote yes on SB 235. – Kristey Williams, Kyle Hoffman, Steve Huebert, Stephen Owens, Charles Smith, Susan Humphries

Mr. Speaker: I vote nay on SB 235. In February, Salina Public Schools announced a plan to reopen full-time in-person school for all students in grades 7-12 beginning April 1st. It is important to note that all elementary aged students in Salina have been doing full-time in-person school since last fall. While I appreciate the urgency to get students in other parts of the state back to the classroom, this one-size fits-all legislation removes local control, and sets an arbitrary date which conflicts with the date set by the largest school system in my district. I respectfully vote nay. – Steven K. Howe

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on Senate Bill 235. It’s time to be hopeful and focus on the future. Schools are open and children will be all be back in the classrooms soon. Return-to-school plans are in place, teachers have been vaccinated, and schools have funding to adapt buildings for ventilation and purification. We must prioritize these safety efforts and support a seamless transition to help students, teachers and staff recover from this disaster. School Districts had unique challenges so they navigated the pandemic differently. This bill is unnecessary. Permanently ending local control for education delivery just as we're nearing a shift toward normalcy harms school districts struggling the most. – PONKA-WE VICTORS, TOM SAWYER, JO ELLA HOYE, LINDSAY VAUGHN, JENNIFER DAY, JOHN CARMichael, BARBARA BALLARD, CINDY NEIGHBOR, ANNIE KUETHER, RUI XU, VALDENIA WINN, STEPHANIE CLAYTON, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, L. E. RUIz, GAIL FINNEY, SYDNEY CARLIN, PAM CURTIS, ELIZABETH BISHOP, JOHN ALCALA, JASON PROBST, LINDA FEATHERSTON, BRANDON WOODARD, BRETT PARKER, SUSAN RUIZ, STEPHANIE BYERS, MARI-LYNN POSKIN

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

On motion of Rep. Eplee, Committee of the Whole report, as follows, was adopted:

Recommended that HB 2248 be passed.

Committee report recommending a substitute bill to HB 2094 be adopted; and Sub HB 2094 be passed.

Committee report to HB 2339 be adopted.

Also, on motion of Rep. Finch, HB 2339 be amended as amended by House Committee, on page 1, in line 16, by striking "intentionally" and the bill be passed as amended.

On motion of Rep. T. Johnson, HB 2021 be amended on page 1, in line 13, by striking "$17,500,000" and inserting "$10,500,000" and the bill be passed as amended.

The court shall grant the request for relief unless the court finds such executive order is narrowly tailored to respond to the state of disaster emergency and uses the least restrictive means to achieve such purpose. The court shall issue an order on such petition within seven days after the hearing is conducted. If the court does not issue an order on such petition within seven days, the relief requested in the petition shall be granted.

(2) Relief under this section shall not include a stay or injunction concerning the contested executive order that applies beyond the county in which the petition was filed.

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION supporting the adoption of the COVID-19 Vaccine Bill of Rights for the purposes of defending the constitutional liberties of Kansas citizens and outlining a framework of best practices for state and federal agencies to develop during this evolving phase of experimental vaccine administration.

WHEREAS, The Founding Fathers deemed that a Bill of Rights was necessary to guard an individual's liberty against encroachments from state and federal actions, both public and private; and

WHEREAS, The 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States explicitly directs states not to "deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws"; and

WHEREAS, No COVID-19 vaccine has been officially approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), but the vaccines are sanctioned by the FDA for distribution under an emergency use authorization; and

WHEREAS, Emergency use products are specifically prohibited by federal law, 21 U.S.C. § 360bbb-3, from being mandated: "Authorization for medical products for use in emergencies... require… the option to accept or refuse administration of the product"; and

WHEREAS, The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices affirmed in August 2020 that under an emergency use authorization, experimental vaccines shall not be mandatory; and

WHEREAS, Universally accepted codes of medical ethics, including the Nuremberg Code and the Declaration of Helsinki, absolutely prohibit any form of coercion to make individuals participate in a medical experiment; and

WHEREAS, According to the Pew Research Center, approximately 40% of respondents reported that they would opt out of taking experimental COVID-19 vaccines; and

WHEREAS, It is neither feasible nor safe to mandate experimental vaccination considering the large number of patients in the general population who have recovered from COVID-19 and in light of the fact that FDA, Pfizer and Moderna protocols treat patients who have recovered from COVID-19 differently; and

WHEREAS, Public and private entities are considering mandating experimental vaccinations so citizens may enjoy participating in certain public activities and functions of daily American life, including employment, in-person school attendance, public transportation and concert performances; and

WHEREAS, "Vaccine passports," "digital health IDs" and such other required documentations pose substantial risks to personal privacy and equal treatment before the law for all Kansans and United States citizens; and
WHEREAS, According to guidelines established by the CDC's Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, administration of experimental COVID-19 vaccines does not provide adequate protections for average Americans who are rightly concerned about potential health hazards associated with the inoculations; and

WHEREAS, The public is entitled to receive from their public health officials unbiased, transparent and easily accessible medical information related to all vaccines; and

WHEREAS, The emergency powers assumed by the chief executives of certain states, as well as municipal leaders, violated certain unalienable rights guaranteed under the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights and, therefore, deserve redress; and

WHEREAS, While these legitimate grievances are pursued by the courts of various states, state lawmakers must enshrine certain rights against encroachment by decrees that are not medically or scientifically indicated, such as vaccine mandates, in order to ensure the continuity of our unalienable rights; and

WHEREAS, A COVID-19 Vaccine Bill of Rights, memorialized by this resolution to address COVID-19 vaccine mandates, provides an example for adoption by legislative bodies across the United States, for recognition and upholding by all state attorney generals; and

WHEREAS, The major principles of the COVID-19 Vaccine Bill of Rights shall include a minimum of four of the following six provisions:

1. No person shall be mandated, coerced, forced or pressured to take an experimental or "investigational" medication.

2. No physician or nurse shall be asked by an employer to promote a COVID-19 vaccine.

3. All persons shall determine what is in their own best medical interests without threat to their livelihood or freedom of movement at all times.

4. All persons shall be given access to independent information that will help them determine what is in their own best medical interests. This shall include information regarding the risk of death from contracting COVID-19 alone, based on age or medical condition. This information shall be from independent sources that bear no conflict of interest, unlike pharmaceutical companies and governmental or quasi-governmental institutions, which have inherent conflicts of interest. Such information shall be included but shall not be the sole source of information.

5. Frail and elderly persons shall be entitled to a knowledgeable, independent advocate with medical training to help them determine such person's own best medical interests.

6. Private businesses operating within their jurisdictions shall not require any person to take medication or experimental medication; and

WHEREAS, The technical guidance for employers released by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission in December 2020 should not be construed in a way by employers that would undermine an employee's constitutional rights; and

WHEREAS, State legislative bodies must practice oversight of federal assistance, consistent with their powers; and

WHEREAS, Once the COVID-19 Bill of Rights is adopted, out-of-state commercial vendors, including Ticketmaster, would not require venue operators and organizers to mandate the presentation of proof of vaccination from concertgoers and other paying customers before freely entering a venue on private or public property; and

WHEREAS, Once the COVID-19 Bill of Rights is adopted, vaccinations for K-12 students and teachers would not be required without applying certain clear and consistent exemptions, among them medical and conscience clauses, otherwise, a board of education shall run the risk of forfeiting its authority for such a mandate. Notwithstanding a board of education's mandate to vaccinate their populations, legislators shall not consider it a factor in K-12 education funding; and

WHEREAS, Once the COVID-19 Bill of Rights is adopted, interstate carriers such as airlines and all forms of public transit calling for so-called "vaccine passports," as a condition of entry, would not be allowed to operate with state licensure and waivers. Furthermore, the Kansas legislature calls on federal entities such as the Federal Aviation Administration to issue new rules that shall prohibit COVID-19 vaccine mandates for all carrier crews and customers: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the Kansas legislature memorializes the COVID-19 Vaccine Bill of Rights for the purposes of defending the constitutional liberties of Kansas citizens and outlining a framework of best practices for state and federal agencies to develop during this evolving phase of experimental vaccine administration; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the United States Senate, the Federal Aviation Administration Administrator, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U.S. Secretary of Labor and the U.S. Justice Department's Civil Rights Division.

Let us give thanks.
For the hungry, he is the bread-baker.
For the imprisoned, he is the freedom-giver.
For the lonely, he is the companion-maker.
Who do you say that I am?
For the excluded, he is the table-setter.
For the broken, he is the grace-giver.
For the silenced, he is the word-maker.
Who do you say that I am?

God of grace, we gather here in your presence to remember who we are and to whom we belong. You call prophets to lead us through the wilderness. We ask that you would call us too.

Be our companion on this road.
Where our hope falters, bring your light.
When we grow weary, give us strength.
May it be so and may it be soon, we pray,
Amen

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Sub HB 2089, AN ACT concerning education; relating to firearms; standardizing firearm safety education training programs in school districts; establishing the Roy'Ale act, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 75; Nays 47; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 3.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Samsel, Wasinger.

The substitute bill passed.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: The only study done on Eddie the Eagle Program shows it's not effective. Only one out of ten could properly respond to the questions asked after instruction. I don't want young children becoming familiar with guns. When they are familiar they become more sure, more bold, more curious and more confident. I don't want to mix schools and guns. Gun familiarity should be determined by moms and dads. Parents must decide whether their child should be taught about guns and when. I vote NO on Substitute for HB 2089. – Vic Miller, John Alcala, KC Ohaebosim, Elizabeth Bishop, Jennifer Day, John Carmichael

Mr. Speaker: I vote “NO” on Substitute for HB 2089. I do not vote no because I am against gun safety or teaching our youth gun safety. I vote “NO” because we have too many students failing or close to failing in our schools. Some of that is because we are not able to have enough classroom time with them. Gun safety education should be handled in our FFA, 4-H or Gun Clubs where any student could join and take Gun Safety classes. If this is truly voluntary, it should be in the extracurricular programs. I spent 16 years on our local school board and know how tight our class time schedules are. – JOE NEWLAND, CHARLES E. SMITH

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on Substitute for House Bill 2089. I believe that standardizing the National Rifle Association’s curriculum undermines our elected officials on school board and the State Board of Education. Our schools should be allowed the flexibility to choose a program that is best suited for their students. Without this flexibility, our children would be mandated to adhere to a program without any input from the schools, diminishing local control. Without the addition of amendments offered by House Democrats that would have addressed many of these concerns, I cannot in good faith vote in support of this bill. – JIM GARTNER, CINDY NEIGHBOR, VIRGIL WEIGEL, GAIL FINNEY

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on Substitute for House Bill 2089. Standardizing the National Rifle Association’s curriculum for K-8 students goes too far and undermines our elected officials on the State Board of Education. Adults bear the responsibility of protecting children from the dangers of unsupervised or unsecured guns. I cannot in good faith vote in support of this bill without a provision that prohibits the use, demonstration, or possession of a firearm or live ammunition as part of the program. Guns do not belong in Kindergarten classrooms. – JO ELLA HOYE, BRODERICK HENDERSON, STEPHANIE CLAYTON, RUI XU, SUSAN RUIZ, STEPHANIE BYERS, LINDSAY VAUGHN

Mr Speaker: I vote NO on Substitute for House Bill 2089. Dictating which curriculum schools should use goes too far and undermines our elected officials on the State Board of Education. Adults bear the responsibility of protecting children from the dangers of unsupervised or unsecured guns. I cannot in good faith vote in support of this bill without a provision that prohibits the use, demonstration, or possession of a firearm or live ammunition as part of the program. Guns do not belong in Kindergarten classrooms. – LINDA FEATHERSTON

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Creator God,
thank You for this new week – this new day.
   We ask that You guide us in Your way.
      Spring has sprung and the madness of March has begun.
As for basketball madness, done in are most of our brackets which may be causing quite the racket.
   As for our legislative transactions, may we not fear the reactions.
   Help each one to lean upon You for the solutions we pursue.
   We need Your wisdom and guidance to know when to speak and when to be silent.
   Help us not to be like sheep and go astray but to listen to Your advice and go Your way.
   This, in Your Name I pray,
      Amen.

Shed Your light in the darkness of alienation and division.
Remind us that You have created us in Your image

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: I vote “Yes” on House Sub for SB 26. Honoring the memory of U.S. Army Vietnam veterans, Corporal Allen E. Oatney and Specialist 4th Class Gene Allen Myers in the naming of a rural segment of U.S. Highway 77 in District 106, which I have the privilege to represent in this body, is a small gesture compared to the price paid by their lives in service to our national freedom. I am privileged to cast my “Yes” vote for this concise and important piece of legislation. – Lisa Moser

H Sub for SB 63, AN ACT concerning education; relating to student attendance; enacting the back to school act; requiring school districts to provide for a full-time, in person attendance option in school year 2020-2021, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 77; Nays 46; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2:

Present but not voting: None.
Absent or not voting: Howard, Neighbor.
The substitute bill passed.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on House Substitute for Senate Bill 63. We have already voted down Senate Bill 235 for the same reasons that I will be voting this legislation down. The changes to this bill, applying only for the current school year, does not change the fact that we are still overstepping our legislative boundaries and restricting local control of our elected school officials. Teachers have been getting vaccinated and children are returning to the classrooms that have been transformed to provide a safe learning environment. This body needs to be focusing on helping our school districts during this transitional phase rather than drawing moot points with unnecessary legislation. – Tom Sawyer, Brandon Woodard, Aaron Coleman, Elizabeth Bishop, John Carmichael, Jim Garten, Ponka-We Victors, Rui Xu, Sydney Carlin, Christina Haswood, Tom Burroughs, Jerry W. Stogs disillusion, Louis E. Ruiz, Pam Curtis, Valdenia Winn, Linda Featherston

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on House Substitute for Senate Bill 63. This bill is silent on whether schools could use fully remote learning for an inclement weather day or disaster instead of closing school. Exactly how the State Board and local boards would interpret and apply this new provision in relation to their constitutional and statutory authority is unknown. If the bill is enacted, school districts will lose flexibility to provide fully remote learning days for all students from March 31 to the end of the year. We should not impose this restriction on schools as they near the end of the most difficult school year I’ve experienced in my lifetime. – Jo Ella Hoye

Mr. Speaker: I almost supported H Sub for SB 63. Children in my legislative district returned to full-time, in-person school, so it seemed benign. However, the invective against public schools expressed during debate yesterday show the motivation behind this legislation are nefarious.

The contents of H Sub for SB 63 were previously rejected by a bi-partisan majority of House members. A process is underway, to safely return Kansas schools to in-person learning. We must reopen schools AND protect our children and educators. Feigning concern for the plight of Kansas families while striking at the heart of the very institutions upon which the depend is in poor taste. I vote NO. – Stephanie Clayton

Mr Speaker: Ideally parents and teachers voicing their concerns over policies to their local school boards can bring an agreeable resolution for all. We now know it is possible to have in-person school safely, we know many students and families are struggling without it, and their needs are not being addressed in a timely manner despite parents asking for this. I hope that passing this bill will strongly encourage those districts not providing full-time in-person learning for all students who want that option to make it available for the remainder of this school year; therefore, I VOTE YES on H Sub for SB 63. – Charlotte Esau, Timothy Johnson

SB 67, AN ACT concerning motor vehicles; relating to all-terrain vehicles and recreational off-highway vehicles; expanding the definitions thereof; amending K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 8-126 and 8-1402a and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Neighbor.

The bill passed, as amended.

SB 95, AN ACT concerning motor vehicles; relating to odometer requirements upon transfer of vehicle; exempting certain odometer certification requirements; amending K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 8-135 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 123; Nays 0; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

Nays: None.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Neighbor.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 121; Nays 2; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

The substitute bill passed.

SB 118, AN ACT concerning municipalities; relating to the dissolution of special districts and assumption of responsibilities by cities or counties, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 121; Nays 2; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

Nays: Corbet, Helmer.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Neighbor.

The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: I vote no on SB 118. The reason is: 18,700 Sedgwick voters do not want Century II or the historic Library destroyed. This bill includes control of library districts by cities and counties. I object to this bill SB 118. – CHERYL HELMER

Such tax credit shall be deducted from the taxpayer's income tax liability for the taxable year in which the expenditures are made by the taxpayer. If the amount of such tax credit exceeds the taxpayer's income tax liability for such taxable year, the amount thereof which exceeds such tax liability may be carried over for deduction from the taxpayer's income tax liability in the next succeeding taxable year or years until the total amount of the tax credit has been deducted from tax liability, except that no such tax credit shall be carried over for deduction after the fourth taxable year succeeding the taxable year in which the expenditures are made.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS
The following bill and concurrent resolution were introduced and read by title:

HB 2448, AN ACT concerning foster care; relating to licenses for family foster homes; creating an exemption to allow the secretary for the department of children and families to license a family foster home where a former foster care youth with juvenile adjudications resides; amending K.S.A. 65-516 and repealing the existing section, by Committee on Appropriations.
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5018—
By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend section 22 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas; relating to legislative immunity from arrest and civil service of process.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 22 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 22. Legislative immunity. For any speech, written document or debate in either house, the members shall not be questioned elsewhere. No member of the legislature shall be subject to arrest — except for treason, felony or breach of the peace — in going to, or returning from, the place of meeting, or during the continuance of the session; neither shall he be subject to the service of any civil process during the session, nor for fifteen days previous to its commencement."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to remove the constitutional provision allowing legislators to have immunity from being arrested in going to, or returning from, the place of meeting, or during the continuance of the legislative session or from being served with civil process during the legislative session or 15 days prior to the commencement of the legislative session.

A vote for this proposition would remove the provision in the Kansas constitution that provides for immunity from arrest while going to, or returning from, the place of meeting, or during the continuance of the legislative session and from civil service of process for legislators during the legislative session or 15 days prior to the commencement of the legislative session.

A vote against this proposition would not make any changes to the constitution and would maintain the current provisions related to legislative immunity."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2022, unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Almighty God,

thank You for this a new day.
Remind each of us today that You are our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.
Therefore, we will not fear.
No matter the tasks which lie ahead, we can trust You to equip and empower us to complete them.
All we need to do is to be still and know that You are God-- to relax and cease from our own efforts, and allow You to be who You can be.
This gives us hope to endure because when all is said and done,
You will be exalted and Your people will be cared for correctly and rightly.
In Christ’s Name, I pray, Amen.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker – I vote no on HB 2406 for the following reason: The four Ps. Pee Poor Prior Planning – Ronald Highland

Mr. Speaker: I'm not opposed of someone drinking if they choose to stay on their side of the road and conduct themselves in a responsible fashion. But I do believe that the state of Kansas has gone too far by opening alcohol sales and encouraging consumption as early as 9:00 in the morning on Sundays. I'm amazed that enough is not enough when it comes to expanding gambling, drugs, alcohol, and sexual deviances in this state. I hope there will be a day when we will say enough is enough before it is too late. I vote “No” on \textbf{HB 2406}. – \textsc{Trevor Jacobs, John Carmichael, Bill Rhiley}

\textbf{Mr. Speaker} – I vote no on \textbf{HB 2406} allowing alcohol sales on Sunday mornings as we must respect the religious institutions in our communities. If you need alcohol during this time period please join me in church for some sacramental wine. – \textsc{Timothy Johnson, Patrick Penn}

\textbf{HCR 5015}, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the United States Congress to reject legislation to federalize elections in the United States of America and oppose the For the People Act of 2021, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 84; Nays 38; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 3.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Howard, Schreiber, Vaughn.

The resolution was adopted, as amended.

\textbf{EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE}

\textbf{Mr. Speaker}: I support portions of HR 1, I vote for \textbf{HCR 5015} because I oppose the nationalization of elections. I cite unintended consequences of the National Voter Registration Act of 1993. Motor voter made it easier for citizens to register to vote, which was very beneficial. It also added an extended waiting period to remove inactive from the rolls. It is harder for states to remove people from the rolls who have moved. I encounter parents who say their children have grown and moved away, and homeowners report owning their homes for many years and receiving election mail for the previous owner(s). – \textsc{Susan Estes, Lisa M. Moser, Charlotte Esau}

\textbf{Mr Speaker}: I vote NO on \textbf{House Concurrent Resolution 5015}. Voting is our civic duty and one of the most important rights and responsibilities that we have as American citizens. There is nothing “tedious” about protecting voter rights. This Resolution is nothing more than a political move that supports disenfranchising and suppressing voters, allowing for partisan gerrymandering, and loose ethic laws. The Legislature should be working to ensure everyone has the ability to vote rather than focus on these partisan political games. Condemning the Voting Acts of 1965 made it unfortunately clear that this body would rather move backwards than forward. – Tom Sawyer, Cindy Neighbor, Brandon Woodard, Jo Ella Hoye, Linda Featherston, Jim Gartner, Pam Curtis, Susan Ruiz, Jennifer Day, Stephanie Byers, Ponka-We Victors, Christina Haswood, Elizabeth Bishop, Louis Ruiz, Tom Burroughs, Jerry Stogsdill, Broderick Henderson, John Alcala, Gail Finney, Mike Amyx, Virgil Weigel.

Mr Speaker: Yesterday, I sat and listened to the hypocrisy and deliberate indifference to what we know to be fact. After watching a political “gang” relentlessly attack our president for 4 years, trying to find some way to connect him to election tampering, yet OVERNIGHT declare NO election fraud when they get their candidate elected; after watching two blatantly failed impeachments by this same POLITICAL “GANG,” it should not surprise anyone we are more than a little gun-shy to let that same mob-mentality fundamentally change our election processes and take even more power from the states. I vote in favor of HCR 5015. – Eric Smith, Trevor Jacobs, Chuck Smith, Patrick Penn

Mr. Speaker: The For the People Act is a bill in the United States Congress to expand voting rights, change campaign finance laws to reduce the influence of money in politics, limit partisan gerrymandering, and create new ethics rules for federal officeholders.

Since the founding of our country, some of us were considered lesser than others—3/5 of a person.

Since the ratification of the 15th Amendment in 1870, voter suppression has permeated parts of our country in the name of “states' rights.”

I support all efforts to overcome these impediments to voting and vote NO on HCR 5015. – Vic Miller.

Mr. Speaker: I vote Yes on HCR 5015. The preamble to the resolution lays out the facts accurately and dammingly about HB 1 and SB 1 in the U.S. Congress. Those federal bills strike at sensible voter ID laws, state laws requiring advance voter registration, and institute Federal mandates in their place. Not only is HB 1/SB 1 unconstitutional it is an insult to the body politic and the ability of our state to set our own election laws. HCR 5015 is wise and prudent and it saddened me deeply we had to listen to spurious, lengthy, non-factual, and irrational attacks in the chamber on this legislation. – Paul Waggoner, Bill Rhiley, Clarke Sanders, Stephen Owens.

SB 24, AN ACT concerning municipalities; prohibiting any requirements that impact a customer's use of energy; relating to the retail provision of natural gas and propane; creating the Kansas energy choice act, was considered on final action.

Sec. 5. K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 40-3414 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-3414. (a)(1) Any health care provider or any health care system organized and existing under the laws of this state which owns and operates more than one medical care facility or more than one health care facility, as defined in K.S.A. 40-3401, and amendments thereto, licensed by the state of Kansas, whose aggregate annual insurance premium is or would be $100,000 or more for basic coverage calculated in accordance with rating procedures approved by the commissioner pursuant to K.S.A. 40-3413, and amendments thereto, may qualify as a self-insurer by obtaining a certificate of self-insurance from the board of governors. Upon application of any such health care provider or health care system, on a form prescribed by the board of governors, the board of governors may issue a certificate of self-insurance if the board of governors is satisfied that the applicant possesses and will continue to possess the ability to pay any judgment for which liability exists equal to the amount of basic coverage required of a health care provider obtained against such applicant arising from the applicant's rendering of professional services as a health care provider.

(2) In making such determination the board of governors shall consider:

(1) The financial condition of the applicant;
(2) the procedures adopted and followed by the applicant to process and handle claims and potential claims;
(3) the amount and liquidity of assets reserved for the settlement of claims or potential claims; and
(4) any other relevant factors the board deems relevant.

(3) Any applicant for self-insurance that owns and operates more than one medical care facility or more than one healthcare facility shall be deemed qualified by the board of governors if such applicant is insured by a captive insurance company, as defined in K.S.A. 40-4301, and amendments thereto, or under the laws of the state of domicile of any such captive insurance company.

(4) The certificate of self-insurance may contain reasonable conditions prescribed by the board of governors. Upon notice and a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act, the board of governors may cancel a certificate of self-insurance upon reasonable grounds therefor. Failure to pay any judgment for which the self-insurer is liable arising from the self-insurer's rendering of professional services as a health care provider, the failure to comply with any provision of this act or the failure to comply with any conditions contained in the certificate of self-insurance shall be reasonable grounds for the cancellation of such certificate of self-insurance. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to the Kansas soldiers' home, the Kansas veterans' home or to any person individual who is a self-insurer pursuant to subsection (d) or (e).
(b) Any such health care system that holds a certificate of self-insurance shall pay the applicable surcharge set forth in K.S.A. 40-3402(c), and amendments thereto.

(c) The Kansas soldiers' home and the Kansas veterans' home shall be self-insurers and shall pay the applicable surcharge set forth in K.S.A. 40-3402(c), and amendments thereto.

Such self-insurance shall be applicable to a person engaged in residency training only when such person is engaged in medical activities which do not include extracurricular, extra-institutional medical service for which such person receives extra compensation and which have not been approved as provided in K.S.A. 40-3401(r)(1) and (2), and amendments thereto.

(e) (1) A person engaged in a postgraduate training program approved by the state board of healing arts at a medical care facility or mental health center in this state may be self-insured by such medical care facility or mental health center in accordance with this subsection (e) and in accordance with such terms and conditions of eligibility therefor as may be specified by the medical care facility or mental health center and approved by the board of governors. A person self-insured under this subsection (e) by a medical care facility or mental health center shall be deemed a self-insurer for purposes of the health care provider insurance availability act. Upon application by a medical care facility or mental health center, on a form prescribed by the board of governors, the board of governors may authorize such medical care facility or mental health center to self-insure persons engaged in postgraduate training programs approved by the state board of healing arts at such medical care facility or mental health center if the board of governors is satisfied that the medical care facility or mental health center is possessed and will continue to be possessed of ability to pay any judgment for which liability exists equal to the amount of basic coverage required of a health care provider obtained against a person engaged in such a postgraduate training program and arising from such person's rendering of or failure to render professional services as a health care provider.

(2) In making such determination the board of governors shall consider:
   (A) The financial condition of the medical care facility or mental health center;
   (B) the procedures adopted by the medical care facility or mental health center to process and handle claims and potential claims;
   (C) the amount and liquidity of assets reserved for the settlement of claims or potential claims by the medical care facility or mental health center; and
   (D) any other factors the board of governors deems relevant.

The board of governors may specify such conditions for the approval of an application as the board of governors deems necessary. Upon approval of an application, the board of governors shall issue a certificate of self-insurance to each person engaged in such postgraduate training program at the medical care facility or mental health center who is self-insured by such medical care facility or mental health center.
(3) Upon notice and a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act, the board of governors may cancel, upon reasonable grounds therefor, a certificate of self-insurance issued pursuant to this subsection (e) or the authority of a medical care facility or mental health center to self-insure persons engaged in such postgraduate training programs at the medical care facility or mental health center. Failure of an individual engaged in such postgraduate training program to comply with the terms and conditions of eligibility to be self-insured by the medical care facility or mental health center, the failure of a medical care facility or mental health center to pay any judgment for which such medical care facility or mental health center is liable as self-insurer of such person, the failure to comply with any provisions of the health care provider insurance availability act or the failure to comply with any conditions for approval of the application or any conditions contained in the certificate of self-insurance shall be reasonable grounds for cancellation of such certificate of self-insurance or the authority of a medical care facility or mental health center to self-insure such persons.

(4) A medical care facility or mental health center authorized to self-insure persons engaged in such postgraduate training programs shall pay the applicable surcharge set forth in K.S.A. 40-3402(c), and amendments thereto, on behalf of such persons.

(5) As used in this subsection (e), "medical care facility" does not include the university of Kansas medical center or those community hospitals or medical care facilities described in K.S.A. 40-3401(r)(2), and amendments thereto.

(f) For the purposes of subsection (a), "health care provider" may include each health care provider in any group of health care providers who practice as a group to provide physician services only for a health maintenance organization, any professional corporations, partnerships or not-for-profit corporations formed by such group and the health maintenance organization itself. The premiums for each such provider, health maintenance organization and group corporation or partnership may be aggregated for the purpose of being eligible for and subject to the statutory requirements for self-insurance as set forth in this section.

(h) Each private practice corporation or foundation and their full-time physician faculty employed by the university of Kansas medical center and each nonprofit corporation organized to administer the graduate medical education programs of community hospitals or medical care facilities affiliated with the university of Kansas school of medicine shall be deemed a self-insurer for the purposes of the health care provider insurance availability act. EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on SB 175. I support licensing rural emergency hospitals, which would allow hospitals to downsize and give them a better chance of staying open. However, SB 175 was merged in committee with HB 2174, and I oppose HB 2174. That bill establishes the rural hospital grant program. It would result in 10 million dollars from the state general fund being sent to hospitals in our state. I simply don’t believe this is fiscally responsible given the uncertainly regarding our state’s fiscal situation. Also, hospitals in our state have received a lot of federal covid relief money.

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on S Sub SB 238. This is a monumental step, and will ensure that more Kansans can receive timely, high quality mental health service. This matters for our children suffering from anxiety while waiting for school to return to normal. This matters for our veterans suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder after bravely serving our country. This matters for our farmers and ranchers suffering from increased rates of depression, fearing the loss of their family farm. Sec. 7. K.S.A. 79-3221o is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-3221o. (a) In order to raise awareness of liabilities of use taxes levied in article 37 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, for purchases of tangible personal property made outside this state to be consumed within this state, and to increase compliance with such provisions of law, the director of taxation is hereby directed to not include a line for the remittance of sales tax on out-of-state and internet purchases where the tax was not paid on individual tax returns for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2016.

(b) The director shall include the following information in the income tax form instructions:

(1) An explanation of an individual's obligation to pay use tax on items purchased from mail order, internet or other sellers that do not collect state and local sales and use taxes on the items; and

(2) A method to help an individual determine the amount of use tax the individual owes. The method may include a table that gives the average amounts of use tax payable by taxpayers in various income ranges.

(c) No penalties or interest shall be applied with respect to any taxes remitted pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 8. K.S.A. 79-32,117 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,117. (a) The Kansas adjusted gross income of an individual means such individual's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, with the modifications specified in this section.

(b) There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(i) Interest income less any related expenses directly incurred in the purchase of state or political subdivision obligations, to the extent that the same is not included in federal adjusted gross income, on obligations of any state or political subdivision thereof, but to the extent that interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued prior to January 1, 1988, is specifically exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of such obligations, it shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income. Interest income on obligations of this state or a political subdivision thereof issued after December 31, 1987, shall be excluded from computation of Kansas adjusted gross income whether or not included in federal adjusted gross income.

Such refunds shall be included in income in the year actually received regardless of the method of accounting used by the taxpayer. For purposes hereof, a tax benefit shall be deemed to have resulted if the amount of the tax had been deducted in determining income subject to a Kansas income tax for a prior year regardless of the rate of taxation applied in such prior year to the Kansas taxable income, but only that portion of the refund shall be included as bears the same proportion to the total refund received as the federal taxes deducted in the year to which such refund is attributable bears to the total federal income taxes paid for such year. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, federal taxes shall be considered to have been deducted only to the extent such deduction does not reduce Kansas taxable income below zero.

(v) The amount of any depreciation deduction or business expense deduction claimed on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for any capital expenditure in making any building or facility accessible to the handicapped, for which expenditure the taxpayer claimed the credit allowed by K.S.A. 79-32,177, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 13. K.S.A. 79-32,143a is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,143a. (a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2011, a taxpayer may elect to take an expense deduction from Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state for the cost of the following property placed in service in this state during the taxable year: (1) Tangible property eligible for depreciation under the modified accelerated cost recovery system in section 168 of the internal revenue code, as amended, but not including residential rental property, nonresidential real property, any railroad grading or tunnel bore or any other property with an applicable recovery period in excess of 25 years as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended; and (2) computer software as defined in section 197(e)(3)(B) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and as described in section 197(e)(3)(A)(i) of the internal revenue code, as amended, to which section 167 of the internal revenue code, as amended, applies. If such election is made, the amount of expense deduction for such cost shall equal the difference between the depreciable cost of such property for federal income tax purposes and the sum of the amount of bonus depreciation being claimed for such property pursuant to section 168(k) and the amount of expensing deduction being claimed for such property pursuant to section 179 of the internal revenue code, as amended, for federal income tax purposes for such property, but without regard to any expense deduction being claimed for such property under section 179 of the internal revenue code, as amended, multiplied by the applicable factor, determined by using, the table provided in subsection (f), based on the method of depreciation selected pursuant to section 168(b)(1), (2), or (3) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended. This election shall be made by the due date of the original return, including any extensions, and may be made only for the taxable year in which the property is placed in service, and once made, shall be irrevocable. If the section 179 expense deduction election has been made for federal income tax purposes for any asset, the applicable factor to be utilized is in the IRC § 168 (b)(1) column of the table provided in subsection (f) for the applicable recovery period of the respective assets.

(b) If the amount of expense deduction calculated pursuant to subsection (a) exceeds the taxpayer's Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state, such excess amount shall be treated as a Kansas net operating loss as provided in K.S.A. 79-32,143, and amendments thereto.

(c) If the property for which an expense deduction is taken pursuant to subsection (a) is subsequently sold during the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and in a manner that would cause recapture of any previously taken expense or depreciation deductions for federal income tax purposes, or if the situs of such property is otherwise changed such that the property is relocated outside the state of Kansas during such applicable recovery period, then the expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) shall be subject to recapture and treated as Kansas taxable income allocated to this state. The amount of recapture shall be the Kansas expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years remaining in the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, after such property is sold or removed from the state including the year of such disposition, and the denominator of which is the total number of years in such applicable recovery period.

(d) The situs of tangible property for purposes of claiming and recapture of the expense deduction shall be the physical location of such property. If such property is mobile, the situs shall be the physical location of the business operations from where such property is used or based. The situs of computer software shall be apportioned to Kansas based on the fraction, the numerator of which is the number of the taxpayer's users located in Kansas of licenses for such computer software used in the active conduct of the taxpayer's business operations, and the denominator of which is the total number of the taxpayer's users of the licenses for such computer software used in the active conduct of the taxpayer's business operations everywhere.

(e) Any member of a unitary group filing a combined report may elect to take an expense deduction pursuant to subsection (a) for an investment in property made by any member of the combined group, provided that the amount calculated pursuant to subsection (a) may only be deducted from the Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated to or apportioned to this state by such member making the election.

(f) The following table shall be used in determining the expense deduction calculated pursuant to subsection (a):

REPORT ON ENROLLED BILLS

HB 2063, HB 2078, HB 2124 reported correctly enrolled, properly signed and presented to the Governor on March 26, 2021.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Ryckman in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.
Rep. Howard was excused on verified illness.
Rep. Victors was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.
Excused later: Reps. Poetter and Samsel.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

    God in heaven,
    thank You for this day –
    the second day of Holy Week on the Christian calendar.
    It was on this day that Christ cursed the fig tree in order to teach His disciples about faith and trust in You.
    The disciples were taught that if they believed,
    they would receive whatever they asked for in prayer.
    So today, I ask that You give our leaders wisdom, and a spirit of unity.
    Give them a willingness to hear Your voice as you speak to them of truth, integrity, justice and fairness.
    This I pray in Christ’s Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Minnix.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

    There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Gartner are spread upon the Journal:

    Today is Vietnam War Veterans Day!

    It is a day that helps us remember and respect the nine million American men and women – more than six million of whom are living today who served on active duty in the U. S. armed forces during our involvement in Vietnam from November 1, 1955 to May 7, 1975.
Now a few statistics to share:

- 2,709,918 Americans served in Vietnam
- 1-1.6 million either fought in combat, provided close support or were at least regularly exposed to enemy attack.
- 7,484 women (6,250 or 83.5% were nurses) served in Vietnam. Total deaths were 58,202
- 8 nurses died
- 61% of men killed were 21 or younger
- 303,704 were wounded
- The state of Kansas lost 627 souls in the war

On May 7th, 1975, President Gerald Ford announced that the Vietnam era was over. Ours is the story of what happened next. There were no parades welcoming us home, many veterans were scorned and criticized for their role in the war and many became isolated. Today let’s celebrate and honor our colleagues and spouses on the floor and all Kansans who served in the Vietnam war.

A member may continue to serve for a period of 90 days after the expiration of the member's term, or until a successor has been appointed and confirmed, whichever is shorter. Except as otherwise provided, such terms of office shall expire on January 15 of the last year of such term. If a vacancy occurs on the board, or in the position for chief hearing officer, the governor shall appoint a successor to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the governor from reappointing any member of the board, including the chief hearing officer, for additional four-year terms. The governor shall select one of its members to serve as chairperson. The votes of two members shall be required for any final order to be issued by the board. Meetings may be called by the chairperson and shall be called on request of a majority of the members of the board and when otherwise prescribed by statute.

(b) Any member appointed to the state board of tax appeals and the chief hearing officer may be removed by the governor for cause, after public hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act.

(c) The state board of tax appeals shall appoint, subject to approval by the governor, an executive director of the board, to serve at the pleasure of the board. The executive director shall: (1) be in the unclassified service under the Kansas civil service act; (2) devote full time to the executive director's assigned duties; (3) receive such compensation as determined by the board, subject to the limitations of appropriations thereof; and (4) have familiarity with the tax appeals process sufficient to fulfill the duties of the office of executive director. The executive director shall perform such other duties as directed by the board.

(d) Appeals decided by the state board of tax appeals shall be made available to the public and shall be published by the board on the board's website within 30 days after the decision has been rendered. The board shall also publish a monthly report that includes all appeals decided that month as well as all appeals which have not yet been decided and are beyond the time limitations as set forth in K.S.A. 74-2426, and amendments thereto. Such report shall be made available to the public and transmitted by the board to the members of the Kansas legislature.

(e) After appointment, members of the state board of tax appeals that are not otherwise a state certified general real property appraiser shall complete the following course requirements: (1) A tested appraisal course of not less than 30 clock hours of instruction consisting of the fundamentals of real property appraisal with an emphasis on the cost and sales approaches to value; (2) a tested appraisal course of not less than 30 clock hours of instruction consisting of the fundamentals of real property appraisal with an emphasis on the income approach to value; (3) a tested appraisal course of not less than 30 clock hours of instruction with an emphasis on mass appraisal; (4) an appraisal course with an emphasis on Kansas property tax laws; (5) an appraisal course on the techniques and procedures for the valuation of state assessed properties with an emphasis on unit valuation; and (6) a tested appraisal course on the techniques and procedures for the valuation of land devoted to agricultural use pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1476, and amendments thereto. Any member appointed to the board who is a certified real property appraiser shall only be required to take such educational courses as are required to maintain the appraisal license. The executive director shall adopt rules and regulations prescribing a timetable for the completion of the course requirements and prescribing continued education requirements for members of the board.

(f) The state board of tax appeals shall have no capacity or power to sue or be sued.

(g) It is the intent of the legislature that proceedings in front of the board of tax appeals be conducted in a fair and impartial manner and that all taxpayers are entitled to a neutral interpretation of the tax laws of the state of Kansas. The provisions of the tax laws of this state shall be applied impartially to both taxpayers and taxing districts in cases before the board. Valuation appeals before the board shall be decided upon a determination of the fair market value of the fee simple of the property. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a property owner, during a property valuation appeal before the board, from raising arguments regarding classification. Cases before the board shall not be decided upon arguments concerning the shifting of the tax burden or upon any revenue loss or gain which may be experienced by the taxing district.

(h) Notwithstanding any provisions of subsection (a) to the contrary, the governor may appoint a former member in good standing of the board of tax appeals to serve as a member pro tempore of the board for a period not to exceed one year when, after having exercised due diligence, more than one vacancy on the board exists. Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
Thank You for this day and this opportunity to once again be entrusted to that which You provide.
As we recognize the beginning of Spring with new life emerging, may we be as confident and sure of Your care and purpose as the flowers and trees that You created.
As the heat of pressure increases, and the schedules of long days become withering, refresh each one with Your spirit.
As storms of debate and disagreements increase, help each one to lean into Your promises.
When the drought of uncertainty and insignificance depletes us of hope, revive our faithfulness in You and the purpose for which we are here.
In Your Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hoye.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: I vote “No” on HB 2412. I stand in amazement that government passes laws to expand drugs, alcohol and other addictive properties then government is shocked that societal problems have risen. Then in the government's “wisdom” it sues or taxes those activities and then offers another government program to deal with the problem it created.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker, I vote no on Senate Bill 50. Year after year, the majority party campaigns on the promise of lower taxes. But given the opportunity, they consistently chose the state’s largest corporations over the well-being of average Kansans. The House majority rejected easing the tax burden on the unemployed. They rejected food sales tax relief for our poorest families. They refused meaningful aid for every tax filer in Kansas by rejecting a larger increase in the state’s standard deduction – all so they could further line the pockets of the wealthiest multi-national corporations in our state that have evaded paying their fair share by hiding money overseas. – Tom Sawyer, Stephanie Byers, Lindsay Vaughn, Cindy Neighbor, Christina Haswood, Rui Xu, Jennifer Day, Elizabeth Bishop, Jason Probst, Linda Featherston

Mr. Speaker: I strongly oppose the provision in SB 50 that imposes a sales tax on internet sales. Jeff Bezos and Amazon aren't paying this tax; our neighbors are. In the smallest communities in our state, many Kansans depend on internet retailers to get the items they need to live their lives.

But the other provisions in this bill are vitally needed for Kansas to recover from Governor Kelly's disastrous Coronavirus economic shutdown. They put money back in the pockets of small business owners so they can restore their businesses, hire back our neighbors, and bring jobs and opportunity back to Kansas. For that reason, only, I still vote “yes” on SB 50. – Pat Proctor, Charles E. Smith, Tatum Lee-Hahn

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on Senate Bill 50. The majority party had an opportunity today to provide meaningful tax relief to Kansans. Unfortunately, they chose the state's largest multi-national corporations over our state's taxpayers. In a year that has seen Kansas families face unimaginable difficulties, the majority party rejected every attempt to ease Kansans' burden. Instead they dutifully worked to provide tax relief to companies that have realized record profits while Kansas families struggled to pay their bills. SB 50 is a familiar road we've been down before – it gives the meat of the tax cuts to the wealthiest, while offering only crumbs of token relief to working families. – Tom Burroughs

Mr. Speaker: I vote “No” on SB 50. I am not opposed of helping and supporting all legal, moral businesses. However, I will not vote “Yes” on raising taxes on one group of businesses. I agreed to lower taxes to achieve a “fair playing field” for all taxpayers. In the Republican State Party Platform, it declares “our economy will grow when government is smaller and efficient.” Maybe instead of expanding government, government should become less burdensome and more efficient and save taxpayers their own hard-earned money! – Trevor Jacobs, Michael Houser

Mr Speaker: I proudly vote Yes on SB 50. It is a common sense tax-reform package that rectifies most of the negative effects on Kansas businesses and families from the 2018 Federal tax act. The state of Kansas had admitted in committee testimony that they were raking in up to $150 million tax dollars annually via their stealth 2018 tax hike. This bill eliminates that burden on our taxpayers. It makes Kansas a better place for international business and keeps us economically competitive with other states in the Midwest. Good tax policy matters, and SB 50 is GOOD tax policy. – PAUL WAGGONER

SB 60, AN ACT concerning crimes, punishment and criminal procedure; relating to criminal sodomy, aggravated criminal sodomy and aggravated sexual battery; creating criminal liability for such offenses when consent was obtained through a knowing misrepresentation; jurisdictional application; defining proximate result for purposes of determining when a crime is committed partly within this state; amending K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 21-5106, 21-5504 and 21-5505 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: What is our mission? Is it to educate all kids, including those most at-risk? Or, to maintain and protect an educational system even when the system cannot deliver or protect failing students who make up over 29% of our enrollment? For me, our mission must be protecting, inspiring, and engaging all learners. Our mission must be student-focused, not system-focused. Fully funding our public schools is not mutually exclusive with providing at-risk kids a chance to break free from a cycle of failure. Let’s give all Kansas kids a fighting chance. I vote yes on Sub. HB 2119. – KRISTEY WILLIAMS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote yes on Sub HB 2119. Please make note of this: We DO have education choice for students who are not served by their school…oh but wait, that choice is only for families who can pick up and move to attend a school that meets their needs better. It is unconscionable to me that anyone would deny that opportunity and freedom to other students and families so their children can be better served. This bill fully funds schools, and more importantly, it offers HOPE for the most vulnerable and those who need it most. – SUSAN HUMPHRIES, LEO DELPERDANG, CHARLES E. SMITH

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on Substitute for House Bill 2119. This bill combines the K-12 Education Budget with policy that shifts our public tax dollars to private schools with no strings attached. This disastrous bill puts our commitment to adequately fund our public schools at risk and uses one-time funds for long-term programs without a sustainable funding plan. Mixing essential appropriations with controversial bills is bad for Kansas kids. – TOM SAWYER, JASON PROBST, LOUIS RUIZ, PONKA-WE VICTORS, PAM CURTIS, BRANDON WOODARD, STEPHANIE CLAYTON, VALDENIA C. WINN, RUI XU, JO ELLA HOYE, CINDY NEIGHBOR, MIKE AMYX, SUSAN RUIZ, SYDNEY CARLIN, GAIL FINNEY, JOHN ALCALA, BRODERICK HENDERSON, JOHN CARMICHAEL, ELIZABETH BISHOP, JENNIFER DAY, VIRGIL WEIGEL, LINDSAY VAUGHN, BRETT PARKER, LINDA FEATHERSTON, MARI-LYNN POSKIN, STEPHANIE BYERS

MR. SPEAKER: Republicans are funding our public schools with around $5.8 Billion – the full Governor’s recommendation, plus critical item funding the Governor denied! If you care about:
• ensuring “the funding follows the child”
• giving hope, educational opportunities, and options to our At-Risk students to break the systemic cycle of failure ...and • public school system accountability then THIS BILL’S FOR YOU. VOTE YES!

Don’t fear the special interests, who eagerly trade our kids and teachers for their bottom line and control. Their vote in 2022 will be the same as 2020—not for you. Let’s keep our word and fight for our kids! I vote yes on Sub HB 2119 – PATRICK PENN
MR. SPEAKER: Sub HB 2119 fully funds the Governor’s budget for FY2021, 2022 and the consensus estimate for 2023. If an at-risk student chooses other educational opportunities, the base-state-aid funds the student while the current school’s funding is held harmless. It allows at-risk students to remain at their current school while funding a class, community college, books, tutoring, whatever they need to succeed. At-risk funding is but a small part of the budget. If I had my perfect bill it would have changes but as with most big issues, this is a result of compromises to reach a consensus. It is good legislation. For these reasons, I vote yes on Sub HB 2119. – Charlotte Esau

MR. SPEAKER: Education is the most important gift we can give the children of the state next to our love. Yet, there is no perfect formula for providing that gift of knowledge. The current bill for providing that gift of knowledge may not be the perfect combination, but it clearly has all of the ingredients needed to produce a healthy stone soup meal of knowledge. Mr. Speaker, I vote yes on Substitute House Bill 2119. – Tim Johnson

MR. SPEAKER: I strongly support Sub HB 2119 on education funding and reform. Competition is a good thing, for business, for cities, and even for schools. The tax-funded scholarships and Education savings accounts of Sub HB 2119 have been tried successfully in multiple other states. It leverages choice in a way that benefits both our public and private schools in Kansas. It does this within the framework of the Gannon decision, so there is no way public schools can contend they are financially harmed. The focus in K-12 education should always be on the child and not the system. Sub HB 2119 is a positive step in that direction. – Paul Waggoner

HB 2448, AN ACT concerning foster care; relating to licenses for family foster homes; creating an exemption to allow the secretary for the department of children and families to license a family foster home where a former foster care youth with juvenile adjudications resides; amending K.S.A. 65-516 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

Sub HB 2397, AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30, 2021, June 30, 2022, June 30, 2023, and June 30, 2024, for state agencies; authorizing certain transfers, capital improvement projects and fees, imposing certain restrictions and limitations, and directing or authorizing certain receipts, disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing; amending K.S.A. 75-4209, 75-6702 and 75-6706 and K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 2-223, 12-1775a, 12-5256, 55-193, 65-180, 72-5462, 74-50,107, 74-99b34, 75-2263, 75-6707, 76-775, 76-7,107, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-34251, 79-34,171, 79-4804 and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 71; Nays 52; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

Present but not voting: None.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on SUB HB 2397. When I was elected, I said to my district that to the best of my ability I would be a good steward of their money like it was my own. The budgeting process is broken. The spending is out of control. In a year when our state has been shut down, businesses forced to close, we cannot in good moral conscience vote to increase government. Commas and dollar signs matter. They matter to our family budgets and they should matter in government also. In a Republican controlled House and Senate, now is our time to pull back. – TATUM LEE-HAHN, MARK SAMESL, BRETT FAIRCHILD

Mr. Speaker: I vote No on Substitute for House Bill 2397. Cuts were made to core functions of government, including K-12 education funding. This puts us at risk of going back to court. We must ensure we constitutionally fund education to avoid this. Medicaid Expansion was also not included, so we offered an amendment that would expand Medicaid. This would not only have provided healthcare to over 160,000 Kansans, but it also would have provided Kansas significant budget relief. Rejecting Medicaid Expansion leaves around $460 million on the table of federal aid. Therefore, I cannot in good faith support this bill. – Tom Sawyer, Stephanie Clayton, Jo Ella Hoye, Cindy Neighbor, Susan Ruiz, Stephanie Byers, Mari-Lynn Poskin, Linda Featherston, Brett Parker, Lindsay Vaughn, Virgil Weigel, Jennifer Day, Elizabeth Bishop, Broderick Henderson, John Alcala, Gail Finney, Sydney Carlin

MR. SPEAKER: As the State of Kansas begins to emerge from an unprecedented pandemic, the importance of rebuilding our state’s economy is more imperative than ever. In order to successfully produce the workforce of tomorrow, we must make significant investment in every level of our higher education system. I cannot, in good conscience, vote for a budget that cuts funding for our institutions of higher learning. I vote NO on Sub HB 2397. – Brandon Woodard

SB 159, AN ACT concerning certain claims against the state; making appropriations; authorizing certain transfers; imposing certain restrictions and limitations; directing or authorizing certain disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 106; Nays 17; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

Present but not voting: None.

As we go through this day, help us to trust You to provide the strength we need moment by moment.
May we not waste energy wondering if we are adequate to manage this day’s responsibilities, but remind us that Your Spirit is more than sufficient to handle whatever this day may bring.
This I pray in Your Name, Amen.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving and Caring God,

thank You for this day.

As our leaders continue to travel through their work,

be the wind in their sails.

Help them to allow You to steer and guide them in the right direction.

Give them strength to keep going.

Be their harbor when they need rest.

Be the light when things seem the darkest.

Be the hand that reaches out to them when they are overwhelmed and feel they are drowning.

You are the lighthouse that provides them confidence and safety.

For this, I thank You and pray in Your Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Borjon.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

March is designated Women’s History Month, but we adjourned early for Easter before we could present our planned program. The 2021 theme is a continuation of 2020’s “Valiant Women of the Vote: Refusing to be Silenced.” This theme recognizes the battle for over 70 years for Women’s Right to Vote, which was gained with the passage of the 19th Amendment in 1920. We did not celebrate the 100th Anniversary in 2020 due to our early departure because of the pandemic.

I wish to thank this diverse group of legislators, standing with me, for being a part of this program. This morning it is our pleasure to honor 10 outstanding women.
Representative Gail Finney:

Madam C.J. Walker (1867-1919), born Sarah Breedlove, was an African American entrepreneur, philanthropist, and political activist. She is recorded as the first female self-made millionaire in America in the Guinness Book of World Records because of her haircare products empire. She was passionate about teaching women not only how to sell her products, but how to budget, build their own businesses and achieve financial independence. During this time, women were limited in the financial services sectors and did not hold the right to vote. Madam C.J. Walker died just 4 days after the 19th Amendment passed the House. It would be decades longer before African Americans gained the right to vote. Upon retirement, she passed her company to her daughter. Madam C.J. Walker was inducted into the National Women’s Hall of Fame in 1993 and was the subject of a biographical Netflix series in 2020.

Representative Christina Haswood:

One of the first female Native attorneys, Eliza Burton “Lyda” Conley (1869-1946) graduated from the Kansas City School of Law in 1902 and became the first woman admitted to the Kansas bar. The sale of the Wyandot Nation’s sacred Kansas burial ground to the US federal government in 1906 upset Conley, who was a member of the tribe. She and her sisters launched a campaign to protect and preserve the Huron Cemetery in Kansas City, where many of their own ancestors were laid to rest. They took up camp just outside the cemetery, standing guard with muskets drawn and “Trespassers, Beware!” signs to prevent the sale. Conley stood her ground for years. And in 1909, her fight to protect her tribe’s sacred land went all the way to the US Supreme Court. That year she put her legal skills to work and became only the third woman, the second female attorney, and first Native American woman to argue a case in front of the Supreme Court. Many believe her case, in which she argued that Native American burial grounds were entitled to federal protection, was the first of its kind, too. Despite the case’s dismissal, Conley prevailed in 1916 when the cemetery was designated a federal park. She was buried in the park upon her death in 1946. Today, the renamed, Wyandot National Burial Ground enjoys National Historic Landmark status.

Representative Megan Lynn:

Rosalind Elsie Franklin (1920-1958) was a British chemist and X-ray crystallographer. Her work was central to the understanding of the molecular structure of DNA, viruses, coal, and graphite. She traveled the world for scientific collaboration. Photo 51 is an X-ray technique that does not require the sample to be in crystal form and led to the discovery of the DNA double-helix. Did others steal Rosalind Franklin’s data? The answer is yes, YES they did. They used her unpublished data without either her permission or her knowledge. Why didn’t Rosalind Franklin get a Nobel Prize for her work? She did not share the 1962 Nobel Prize because she died of ovarian cancer four years earlier and the Nobel Committee does not consider posthumous candidacies.

Representative Annie Kuether:

Raye Jean Montague (1935-2018) was born and educated in Little Rock. As an African American, educational opportunity was restricted, and she chose to be a woman in the male dominated engineering field. She was forced to attend what is now University of Arkansas-Pine Bluff because the engineering program at the University of Arkansas did not admit African American students. Despite these challenges, she became an American Naval engineer who broke barriers in the US Navy. She was employed as a typist and learned CAD at night. She jumped in to run the UNIVAC computer when “the guys” were sick. She is credited with creating the first computer-generated rough draft of a US Naval ship. She was the first female program manager of ships in the US Navy. She would later work on such naval programs as the Seawolf-class submarines and Nimitz class aircraft carrier systems.

Representative Kristey Williams:

Grace Murray Hopper (1906-1992), a legacy of innovation and service. Grace Brewster Murray Hopper was a computer pioneer and naval officer. In 1985, she became the first female Rear Admiral in the US Navy. She was probably the first mathematician to have a warship named after her. Hopper believed that computers would someday be widely used and helped to make them more user friendly. Best known for her trailblazing contributions to development of computer languages. She was known as irreverent, sharp-tongued, and brilliant. She enjoyed long and influential careers in both the US Navy and the private sector. The 2014 movie “Born with Curiosity” documents her life and accomplishments. Today she rests in Arlington National Cemetery.

Representative Susan Ruiz:

Dolores Huerta (1930-), is a civil rights icon who showed farmworkers ‘Si Se Puede’ (Yes We Can.) Huerta was 25 when she became the political director of the Community Service Organization and met Cesar Chavez. In 1962, she co-founded what became the United Farmworkers Association, organizing farmworkers who toiled for wages as low as 70 cents per hour, in brutal conditions. She has lived her life as a political activist, fighting for better working conditions for farmworkers and the rights of the downtrodden. She was on the platform in California, shortly before Robert Kennedy was shot, but never lost faith in the power of political organizing to effect change. In 2012 she was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom. At 89, Huerta remains outspoken and indefatigable. Through her foundation, she continues to work with agricultural communities, organizing people to run for office, and advocating on issues of health, education, and economic development. You may have met her when she visited Topeka in 2020.

Representative Brenda Landwehr:

Lori Robinson (1959-), US Air Force General is the highest-ranking woman in United States’ military history. Robinson’s family is steeped in military tradition. Her father was an Air Force fighter pilot during the Vietnam War and retired as a Colonel. Lori Robinson joined the Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (ROTC) program while at the University of New Hampshire. In 1981, she was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant and in 1986 served as the first female instructor at the USAF Fighter Weapons School at Nellis Air Force Base. Robinson served as the USAF liaison to the US House of Representatives. In 2008, she was promoted to Brigadier General. Robinson rose quickly through the general ranks and was pinned with her fourth star when she took command of the Pacific Air Forces in 2014. In 2016, Robinson became the highest-ranking woman in United State military history. While she was just the second woman in USAF history to hold the rank of General, she was the first air battle manager to do so. General Robinson retired in May 2018.

Representative Lindsay Vaughn:
The student body of the US Naval Academy, founded 175 years ago, had never been led by a black woman until 2021. The first to assume the top role leading fellow students at the US Naval Academy is Midshipman 1st Class Sydney Barber, who is currently serving this semester. Brigade Commander is the highest leadership position within the student body. The semester-long position is selected through an application and interview process by senior leadership and the Commandant’s staff. Barber, of Lake Forest, Illinois, is a mechanical engineering major and aspires to commission as a Marine Corps ground officer. Barber is the 16th woman selected as Brigade Commander in the 44 years women have been attending the academy.

Representative Susan Concannon:
The Fab 5 – An all-women board now presides over LA County’s 10 million plus residents. Asked when there would be enough women on the US Supreme Court, the late Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg famously replies: “When there are nine.” It seems voters of Los Angeles agree. With the election of Holly J. Mitchell in LA’s 2nd District in November, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors- the largest local government in the nation-has made history with the first all-women board in its more than 150-year history. The five supervisors (known as “county commissioners” elsewhere) are some of the most powerful elected local officials in the nation. The board’s members were once nicknamed the Five Little Kings, though the current board has garnered a different moniker: The Fab Five. Seven years ago, only one of the five supervisors was a woman. Now, Supervisors Kathryn Barger (R), Janice Hahn (D), Sheila Kuehl (D), Holly Mitchell (D), and Hilda L. Solis (D) control the board’s $38 billion annual budget, and if it were a nation it would hold the 19th largest economy in the world.

Representative Barbara Ballard:
When Miami CEO Derek Jeter first phoned to talk about her dream job, Kim Ng wondered how to say no. Jeter had known Ng for 22 years, but he could not truly understand what it was like to be her. The lines on her resume read seven years starting out with the White Sox, one year as director of player records and waivers for the American League, 13 years as assistant general manager for the Yankees and Dodgers, and 10 year as MLB’s senior vice president of baseball operations – do not tell her whole story. Everywhere she went, nobody looked like her. Ng trained herself to be a general manager, even as she wondered whether she would ever get the chance. After years of being passed over, in November 2020 Ng became the first woman, and the first of East Asian decent to be named General Manager of a North American professional men’s team. Landing the job with the Miami Marlins was a breakthrough, but Kim Ng knows that to keep it – and help others like her to follow – she will have to win. This past weekend she got her first victory…watching her team beat the Tampa Bay Rays, for the first time in three years, 12-7 on Saturday.
As we celebrate March as Women’s History Month, it is important to recognize these outstanding women. They helped cultural and scientific advancements, built business empires and control governments. All while often working without equal pay, equal treatment, and for too long without equal protection under the law. Still, they broke barriers, sometimes having to work harder and longer to get where they wanted to be, but they got there. We must remember these biographies not as history, but as encouragement for the next generation of women leaders!

A list of applications for changes to, abandonments of or discontinuances of any authority, as well as any abandonments of authority by operation of law for failure to renew, shall be published on the commission's web site.
