Sheriff’s Office and Kansas Chamber of Commerce provided proponent testimony, stating enactment of the bill is necessary to address an increase in “porch piracy” cases throughout the state. No other testimony was provided.

Fiscal Information

According to the fiscal note prepared by the Division of the Budget on the bill, the Kansas Sentencing Commission estimates enactment of the bill could have an impact on prison admissions and bed space, but the effect cannot be determined at this time.

The Department of Corrections indicates enactment of the bill would have no fiscal effect.

The Office of Judicial Administration indicates enactment of the bill could have a fiscal effect on expenditures of the Judicial Branch because the bill increases the penalty for mail theft, which could require court services officers to supervise such offenders for a longer period of time. However, a fiscal effect cannot be estimated because the number of potential cases is unknown. Any fiscal effect associated with enactment of the bill is not reflected in The FY 2023 Governor’s Budget Report.
