

2023 Kansas Statutes

17-7935. Corrections to application for registration of a foreign covered entity. If any statement in the application for registration of a foreign covered entity was false in any material respect when made or any arrangements or other facts described have changed, making the application inaccurate in any material respect, the foreign covered entity shall file promptly with the secretary of state a certificate, executed by an authorized person, correcting the statement, together with a fee if authorized by law, as provided by K.S.A. 17-7910, and amendments thereto. This section shall take effect on and after January 1, 2015.
