

2023 Kansas Statutes

19-101c. Home rule powers to be liberally construed. The powers granted counties pursuant to this act shall be referred to as county home rule powers and they shall be liberally construed for the purpose of giving to counties the largest measure of self-government.

History: L. 1974, ch. 110, § 4; July 1.