

2023 Kansas Statutes

23-2717. Obligation to comply with orders not suspended by other party's failure to comply. If a party fails to comply with a provision of a decree, temporary order or injunction issued under articles 27 through 38 of chapter 23 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, the obligation of the other party to make payments for support or maintenance or to permit visitation or parenting time is not suspended, but the other party may request by motion that the court grant an appropriate order.

History: L. 2011, ch. 26, § 11; L. 2012, ch. 162, § 41; May 31.