

2023 Kansas Statutes

42-332. Record of boring of artesian well; filing in other counties. Any person owning or controlling any artesian well may record such certificate (provided for in K.S.A. 42-330 and 42-331) in any county or counties in addition to the county wherein such well is situated; and such record shall be to all parties boring or sinking any artesian well in any such county, notice of the priority of the appropriation of water claimed by the party recording such certificate, and the prior right of such appropriation may be enforced as against any and all parties in such county or counties having acquired or seeking to acquire any subsequent right of appropriation of such waters.

History: L. 1891, ch. 133, art. 4, § 12; May 20; R.S. 1923, 42-332.