

2023 Kansas Statutes

44-827. Dues check-off. An agricultural employer may agree to extend to an employee organization certified or recognized pursuant to this act right to dues check-off, upon presentation of dues deduction and authorization cards signed by individual employees; however, said employer shall be prohibited from continuing to deduct dues from the pay of any employee from and after the date said employee presents said employer with a written revocation of said authority.

History: L. 1972, ch. 193, § 10; July 1.