

2023 Kansas Statutes

66-228. Same; penalty; time within which to restore crossing. Every person or corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, for each and every violation hereof and each day same shall be allowed to remain out of repair shall be a separate offense: Provided, however, When any such crossings have been properly constructed as provided in this act, and shall become defective because of accident or unusual severe or stormy weather, the person or corporation whose duty it is to maintain the same, shall have ten days in which to restore said crossing to its proper condition before the penalty herein provided for shall attach.

History: L. 1915, ch. 280, § 2; December 1; R.S. 1923, 66-228.