

2023 Kansas Statutes

74-128. References to state agencies abolished under K.S.A. 74-127; transfer of records and property; conflict resolved by governor. (a) On and after July 1, 1984, whenever any state agency abolished under K.S.A. 74-127 is referred to or designated by a statute, contract or other document, such reference or designation shall be void and of no force and effect.

(b) On July 1, 1984, all books, records and other property of any state agency abolished under K.S.A. 74-127 are hereby transferred to the state agency to which the abolished state agency was advisory.

(c) Whenever any conflict arises as to the proper disposition of any books, records and other property as a result of any abolishment or transfer made under this act, or under authority of this act, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor and the decision of the governor shall be final.

History: L. 1984, ch. 1, § 2; July 1.
