

2023 Kansas Statutes

75-106. Required signature, certain documents. All proclamations, warrants and requisitions required by law to be made or issued by and in the name of the executive of the state shall be signed by the governor or in the absence of the governor, the lieutenant governor, or in the absence of both, a person designated by the governor or, when authorized by the governor, by the governor's electronic signature.

History: L. 1879, ch. 166, § 9; R.S. 1923, 75-106; L. 2001, ch. 181, § 1; July 1.