

2023 Kansas Statutes

76-137. Custody of deeds or bonds for deeds of certain state institutions. All deeds or bonds for deeds to real estate the title to which is in the state of Kansas, of property belonging to any of the institutions under the control or management of said board [*], shall be and remain in the custody of the secretary of state.

History: L. 1901, ch. 353, § 30; May 1; R.S. 1923, 76-137.

* "Board" refers to "board of administration" which is no longer in existence.