

2023 Kansas Statutes

76-2028. State park, site or facility; employment of police officers; powers; jurisdiction of courts. The Kansas state historical society may employ and commission a person or persons as police officers at any such historical site, park or building, and such person so commissioned shall have the authority of any police officer or sheriff for the purpose of enforcing this act. The jurisdiction of any prosecution arising hereunder is hereby conferred upon the district court of the county in which such site, park or building is located.

History: L. 1959, ch. 334, § 2; L. 1977, ch. 105, § 28; July 1.