

2023 Kansas Statutes

77-150. General index volumes; publication and sale of new volumes; annual republication. The revisor of statutes shall prepare in one or more paperbound volumes, to be included in the sale of supplements to the Kansas Statutes Annotated, a general index to replace the general index volume of Kansas Statutes Annotated and the supplement thereto. Such paperbound general index volume or volumes shall be republished each year and shall be full and detailed general indexes to the Kansas and United States constitutions, governor's executive reorganization orders, the rules of the supreme court of Kansas and to the Kansas general statutes then in force and effect or which will be in force and effect prior to publication of subsequent paperbound general index volume or volumes.

History: L. 1978, ch. 385, § 4; L. 1980, ch. 302, § 3; April 30.