PROTEST

Mr. Speaker: Pursuant to Article 2, Section 10 of the constitution of the State of Kansas, I protest passage of HB 2014.

The committee report before us today represents the sincere work of House conferees faced with the difficult task of balancing the myriad of sensitive policy and political issues inherent to any budget bill, but made especially pressing by the fiscal realities that confront us. A conservative member who, like me, is considering voting against this proposed budget must act with great circumspection in determining if this is in fact the correct path.

Prudence is a core political virtue and the disparagement of ½ a loaf in pursuit of unattainable ideological purity can be the cause of much mischief, making compromise impossible and thus imperiling the valid task of balancing the diverse interests found within any polity. With this in mind any conservative member inclined to vote no on this report must be careful to act only upon sufficient reflection, having weighed the consequences and having given due consideration to the fact that, human beings and human societies are inherently imperfect, and just as no perfect social order is possible, no budget that must consider a broad range of interests will ever be fully satisfactory to everyone.

We must not then reject this budget out of a fanciful adherence to an abstract ideology detached from the prudential considerations that our office as public servants... demand we consider. With this in mind conservatives who are considering voting against this budget must give due consideration to a number of salient arguments offered by its supporters, I will mention only four:

First, we are all keenly aware of the obligation of the legislature to pass a budget; failure to do so would have grave consequences that cannot be wished away. At some point, in some fashion a budget bill that can receive 63 votes in the House, 21 in the Senate and the Governor’s signature must be arrived at in order for vital functions of government to proceed. I agree conservatives should give due weight to this argument.

Second, the budget before us, it has been argued, should be looked at in total, not just through the lens of the growing SGF, but in the broader context of the All Funds budget which in fact decreases under this proposal. Conservatives should also examine this argument carefully and respectfully.

Third, it is further argued that the budget before us is a work of significant compromise with a recalcitrant Senate that is disinclined to enact serious fiscal reform and as such represents the best deal possible as a practical reality. This is an important argument that no conservative should dismiss out of hand.

And finally, some argue, were this budget to fail the most likely result is not an opportunity to vote on a more fiscally responsible proposal, but the empowerment of a renewed coalition of those who wish to add rather than subtract from the proposal we are considering today. This argument, I know, bears greatly on the thinking of many conservative members, who fear as I do allowing to adhere to a theoretical best case scenario to cause us to allow to slip through our grasp the best practically available result.

I ask every conservative member to consider these, and all other reasonable arguments in favor of a yes vote carefully and in good faith. I can say for my part that I have attempted to do so with an open mind and with humility, ready to concede that my own conclusions may indeed be in error.

Having done my level best, to consider all of these things I am left at the end of the day with one overriding concern. Many of you I would imagine have seen the great movie A Man for All Seasons which considers a portion of the life of English statesman and martyr Sir Thomas More. It is a movie of many memorable lines; but as I have wrestled with the decisions we are faced with tonight one of those lines in particular has continually come back to me, and it is this: “I think that when statesmen forsake their own private conscience for the sake of their public duties, they lead their country by a short route to chaos.”

There is no doubt that the legislature has a public duty to pass a budget. Yet this public duty of the legislature as a whole quite obviously cannot impose an obligation upon individual members to vote for just any budget. Nor, would I argue, can it impose a duty upon a member to vote for a budget that violates a core commitment. For me the point of conscience arises out of the commitment I have made in repeated public pronouncements and quite explicitly in my most recent campaign that I would not support expenditures in excess of available tax revenue, nor SGF increases of greater than inflation plus population growth. To say one thing while meaning or doing another is indeed a short road to chaos.

Still two further things must be considered, was the commitment I and perhaps others made correct, or was it made rashly based upon incorrect assumptions. And second has new information emerged that would justify deviating from such a commitment. In my own case I must answer these questions in the negative.

The nature and extent of the budget challenge we face this year should come as no surprise to anyone, I certainly knew it when I made the commitments I have made; it is the natural product of years of overspending and the blind acceptance and expenditure of federal stimulus dollars. Both of which I have not merely warned about, but have repeatedly over the years offered legislation and floor amendments to prevent. But of course, “I told you so” is not a policy proscription that abrogates the actual hard work of governing. Still, no new information or argument has convinced me that adherence to the simple principle of living within our means is inconsistent with the mandates of practical politics; indeed if it is then we are very far indeed down the road to our demise.

Living within our means is not an unrealistic goal, a perusal of the headlines tells us we can do better. Indiana passed a budget that spends less than available tax revenue, leaving a $1 billion surplus, while reducing the corporate income tax 24% and creating a process for returning cash reserves to the taxpayers. Such results are attainable here, if we have the political courage to make it so.

No argument for this budget can overcome the simple fact that we will spend $6.058 billion despite estimated available tax revenue of $5.8 billion; and that we will spend approximately $380 million more SGK dollars in FY 2012 than in FY 2011 and $785 million more than FY 2010. For me to vote for such a budget would be to violate core campaign pledges and as such to violate my private conscience in the name of public duty. To do so would not be honest and would be a disservice to our state, it would indeed be a short route to chaos. I urge each of you to examine your own conscience and to vote accordingly.—LANCE KINZER

Any person who violates this section is guilty of a class B misdemeanor, except that, upon conviction of a second or subsequent violation of this section, such person is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

Sec. 44. On January 1, 2012, K.S.A. 65-1130 is hereby amended to read as follows: 65-1130. (a) No professional nurse shall announce or represent to the public that such person is an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner unless such professional nurse has complied with requirements established by the board and holds a valid certificate of qualification license as an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) The board shall establish standards and requirements for any professional nurse who desires to obtain a certificate of qualification licensure as an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner. Such standards and requirements shall include, but not be limited to, standards and requirements relating to the education of advanced practice registered nurse practitioners. The board may require that some, but not all, types of advanced registered nurse practitioners hold an academic degree beyond the minimum educational requirement for qualifying for a license to practice as a professional nurse. The board may give such examinations and secure such assistance as it deems necessary to determine the qualifications of applicants.

(c) The board shall adopt rules and regulations applicable to advanced practice registered nurses nurse practitioners which:

1. Establish categories roles and identify titles and abbreviations of advanced practice registered nurse practitioners which are consistent with nursing practice specialties recognized by the nursing profession.

2. Establish education and qualifications necessary for certification licensure for each category role of advanced practice registered nurse practitioner established by the board at a level adequate to assure the competent performance by advanced practice registered nurse practitioners of functions and procedures which advanced practice registered nurse practitioners are authorized to perform. Advanced practice registered nursing is based on knowledge and skills acquired in basic nursing education, licensure as a registered nurse and graduation from or completion of a master's or higher degree in one of the advanced practice registered nurse roles approved by the board of nursing.

3. Define the role of advanced practice registered nurse practitioners and establish limitations and restrictions on such role. The board shall adopt a definition of the role under this subsection (c)(3) which is consistent with the education and qualifications required to obtain a certificate of qualification license as an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner, which protects the public from persons performing functions and procedures as advanced practice registered nurse practitioners, for which they lack adequate education and qualifications and which authorizes advanced practice registered nurse practitioners to perform acts generally recognized by the profession of nursing as capable of being performed, in a manner consistent with the public health and safety, by persons with postbasic education in nursing. In defining such role the board shall consider: (A) The education required for a certificate or qualification licensure as an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner; (B) the type of nursing practice and preparation in specialized practitioner advanced practice skills involved in each category role of advanced practice registered nurse practitioner established by the board; (C) the scope and limitations of advanced practice of nursing specialties and limitations thereon prescribed by national advanced practice organizations which certify nursing specialties; and (D) acts recognized by the nursing profession as appropriate to be performed by persons with postbasic education in nursing.

(d) An advanced practice registered nurse practitioner may prescribe drugs pursuant to a written protocol as authorized by a responsible physician. Each written protocol shall contain a precise and detailed medical plan of care for each classification of disease or injury for which the advanced practice registered nurse practitioner is authorized to prescribe and shall specify all drugs which may be prescribed by the advanced practice registered nurse practitioner. Any written prescription order shall include the name, address and telephone number of the responsible physician. The advanced practice registered nurse practitioner may not dispense drugs, but may request, receive and sign for professional samples and may distribute professional samples to patients pursuant to a written protocol as authorized by a responsible physician. In order to prescribe controlled substances, the advanced practice registered nurse practitioner shall (1) register with the federal drug enforcement administration; and (2) notify the board of the name and address of the responsible physician or physicians. In no case shall the scope of authority of the advanced practice registered nurse practitioner exceed the normal and customary practice of the responsible physician. An advanced practice registered nurse practitioner certified in the role category of registered nurse anesthetist while functioning as a registered nurse anesthetist under K.S.A. 65-1151 to 65-1164, inclusive, and amendments thereto, shall be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 65-1151 to 65-1164, inclusive, and amendments thereto, with respect to drugs and anesthetic agents and shall not be subject to the provisions of this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection, "responsible physician" means a person licensed to practice medicine and surgery in Kansas who has accepted responsibility for the protocol and the actions of the advanced practice registered nurse practitioner when prescribing drugs.

(e) As used in this section, "drug" means those articles and substances defined as drugs in K.S.A. 65-1626 and 65-4101, and amendments thereto.

(f) A person registered to practice as an advanced registered nurse practitioner in the state of Kansas immediately prior to the effective date of this act shall be deemed to be licensed to practice as an advanced practice registered nurse under this act and such person shall not be required to file an original application for licensure under this act. Any application for registration filed which has not been granted prior to the effective date of this act shall be processed as an application for licensure under this act.

(2) The board may issue a certificate license to practice nursing as an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner to an applicant who has been duly licensed or certified as an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner under the laws of another state or territory if, in the opinion of the board, the applicant meets the licensure qualifications required of an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner in this state. Verification of the applicant's licensure or certification status shall be required from the original state of licensure or certification.

(3) An application to the board for a certificate of qualification, for a certificate of qualification license, a license with temporary permit, for renewal of a certificate of qualification license and for reinstatement of a certificate of qualification license shall be upon such form and contain such information as the board may require and shall be accompanied by a fee, to be established by rules and regulations adopted by the board, to assist in defraying the expenses in connection with the issuance of certificates of qualification licenses as advanced practice registered nurses, nurse practitioners, in an amount fixed by the board under K.S.A. 65-1118, and amendments thereto.

(b) The board may grant a one-time temporary permit to practice as an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner for a period of not more than 180 days pending completion of the application for a certificate of qualification license.

c) Exempt certificate license. The board may issue an exempt certificate license to any advanced practice registered nurse practitioner as defined in rules and regulations who makes written application for such certificate license on a form provided by the board, who remits a fee as established pursuant to K.S.A. 65-1118, and amendments thereto, and who is not regularly engaged in advanced practice registered nursing practice in Kansas but volunteers advanced practice registered nursing services or is a charitable health care provider as defined by K.S.A. 75-6102, and amendments thereto. Each exempt advanced practice registered nurse practitioner shall be subject to all provisions of the nurse practice act. Each exempt license may be renewed biennially subject to the provisions of this section. To convert an exempt license certificate to an active license certificate, the exempt advanced practice registered nurse practitioner shall meet all the requirements of subsection (a) or K.S.A. 65-1132, and amendments thereto. The board shall have authority to write rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

laws of any state, or by a person who is licensed as a physician assistant under the laws of this state when such person is working at the direction of or in collaboration with a person licensed to practice medicine and surgery, or by a person holding a license shall be required to submit a certification of health if the person presents a signed statement that the person is an adherent of a religious denomination whose religious teachings are opposed to physical examinations. Such persons shall be permitted to submit, as an alternative to a certification of health, certification signed by a person

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS

On motion of Rep. Siegfried, SCR 1609, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION relating to the 2011 regular session of the legislature and providing for an adjournment thereof, was introduced and adopted.

REPORT ON ENROLLED RESOLUTIONS

HCR 5024; HR 6033 reported correctly enrolled and properly signed May 12, 2011.

On motion of Rep. Siegfreid, the House adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, June 1, 2011.
The House met pursuant to SCR 1609 with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

Reps. Aurand, Bollier, Boman, Brown, Bruchman, Carlin, Cassidy, Collins, Crum, Donohoe, Goico, Grant, Hayzlett, Hedke, Hineman, Kelley, Kelly, Kiegerl, Kleeb, Knox, McCray-Miller, Mosier, Moxley, Rhoades, Roth, Schwab, Seiwert, Slattery, Wetta, Williams and B. Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
Today we gather for sine die,
which otherwise might be known as sign or die!
As we look back over the session
we first want to thank You for Your faithfulness.
We have sought Your wisdom and direction and hopefully made every effort to follow that.
Some of the decisions were easy to make,
some were heart-wrenching and painful.
Secondly I want to give thanks for these dedicated leaders who have worked hard and long to make decisions
to make a better Kansas.
With some of the decisions they are pleased,
with others they might still be struggling.
Give them a sense of peace in knowing
They did the best they could.
Thank you for understanding families that supported them in being absent from the home
to be here working.
Thirdly, I pray for Kansans around the state.
In the upcoming months,
many of them will have to make major adjustments
due to the resolutions passed here.
Give them grace and wisdom in making those changes.
When it is all said and done,
please find us faithful in doing all that we could
To feed the hungry,
give drink to the thirsty,
care for the stranger,
clothe the homeless,
and serve those in need.
For in doing this for the least of our brothers,
we did it for You.
(Matthew 25:37-40)
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Grange.

VETO MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message with the Governor's objection to S. Sub. for HB 2014, AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30, 2011, June 30, 2012, June 30, 2013, June 30, 2014, June 30, 2015, and June 30, 2016, for state agencies; authorizing certain transfers, capital improvement projects and fees, imposing certain restrictions and limitations, reducing compensation for state officers, and directing or authorizing certain receipts, disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 2-223, 12-5256, 49-514, 55-193, 72-8814, 74-99b34, 75-2319, 75-6702, 76-775, 76-783, 76-7,107, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i, 79-34,156, 79-34,171 and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing section 138 of chapter 165 of the 2010 Session Laws of Kansas, was received and read.

Message to the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

I want to congratulate the 2011 Legislature on putting together a fair budget in the midst of a down economy. Filling a $500 million budget hole without raising taxes is a difficult task, but the Committees on Appropriations and Ways and Means and the entire House and Senate took on the challenge and produced a budget that funds state priorities while maintaining a responsible $50 million real ending balance. And this balance will grow throughout FY 2012. In fact, in the time period between passage of this bill and today, it is estimated that KPERS will show $4 million in additional savings in FY 2011 and $11 million in FY 2012. I am proud of everyone’s hard work. I will sign this bill.

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby return S. Sub. for HB 2014 with my signature approving the bill, except for the items enumerated below. The net effect of these line item vetoes will be an increase in the ending balance of $498,000.
Kansas Technology Enterprise Corporation

Pipeline
Section 26 has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.
As part of my agency reorganizations, I recommended elimination of KTEC. This is an unnecessary appropriation from a fund (the EDIF) that is short of cash for an agency that will not exist on July 1. Other sources are now available to keep the entrepreneurial program running.

Department of Health & Environment—Division of Health Care Finance Preferred Mental Health Drug List
Section 108(e) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.
The Preferred Drug List for the Medicaid Program has been in use for several years and has helped in controlling pharmacy expenditures which had been growing exponentially. Expanding the Preferred Drug List to include mental health drugs and using the Mental Health Preferred Drug List (PDL) Advisory Committee to recommend appropriate medically-indicated management of mental health drugs dispensed under the MediKan program will reduce expenditures. My veto of this provision will not require implementation of a PDL, but would allow for improved patient safety; timely access to medications, support of systematic, best-practice guidance for providers, and lower overall costs. The use of a PDL is standard practice in most private health insurance plans.

State Employee Health Benefits Program Surcharge
Section 108(f) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.
After further review of this provision, it appears that the revenues that might be generated from a surcharge on state employee health premiums are far less than originally anticipated. After a thorough review, the actual revenues that can reasonably be anticipated from this surcharge are $790,000. Given the legal concerns the provision may create as it relates to the Kansas Wage Payment Act coupled with the smaller revenues produced, I am compelled to veto the surcharge. I have further directed the Secretary of the Kansas Department of Health and Environment that upon the effective date of the state reorganization of the Kansas Health Policy Authority, the state employee gift card program shall be phased out. This administrative action is reasonably anticipated to generate savings to the Health Plan of $600,000, which amount shall essentially offset the lost revenue as a result of this specific line-item veto.

Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services
Quarterly Reporting
That portion of Section 111(a) that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed:
“And provided further, That in addition to the other purposes for which expenditures may be made by the above agency from the state operations account for fiscal year 2012, expenditures shall be made by the above agency from the state operations account for fiscal year 2012 to report, at least quarterly during such fiscal year, to the legislative budget committee concerning the budget and financial status of the department of social and rehabilitation services and any other matter the committee may request.”
I have directed my administration to maintain open lines of communication with the Legislature, instructing them to operate transparently and provide timely information on our policies, ongoing progress, and the challenges we must meet. The language contained in this provision would place an unfair and unnecessary administrative burden on one state agency, so I have vetoed it.

Kansas Arts Commission

Agency Operations

Section 115(a) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety. That portion of Section 143(a) that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed:

“Kansas Arts Commission................................................................. 6.00”

This veto strikes State General Fund appropriations made to the Commission and removes the Commission’s FTE position limitation. My FY 2012 Budget Report recommended no funding for the Commission and outlined a transition plan in order to fund the arts in Kansas with private donations while maintaining the state’s federal match. In difficult fiscal times such as these, the state must prioritize how to spend its limited resources and focus its attention on providing core services. The arts will continue to thrive in Kansas when funded by private donations, and I intend to personally involve myself in efforts to make this happen.

Across the Board Reduction

That portion of Section 175 that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed:

“Provided further, That the aggregate amount lapsed in each account of the state general fund of the state agency under this section shall be the amount in the account budgeted for state operations which bears the same relation to $5,900,000 as the aggregate amount budgeted for state operations from the state general fund for the state agency in the Governor’s Budget Report for FY 2012 bears to the aggregate amount budgeted for state operations from the state general fund for all state agencies in the Governor’s Budget Report for FY 2012:”

My administration remains committed to right-sizing the state budget and reducing the likelihood of allotments by maintaining a responsible ending balance. While I fully intend to make these reductions, I must have the flexibility to impose them where I believe they can be made without harming key services. The $5.9 million reduction is left intact with this veto and the certification of reductions will be made as provided for in the bill. These reductions, however, should not be made on a pro-rata basis, so I have vetoed this proviso.

Moving Forward

As we look toward more challenges ahead, I encourage the Legislature to join me in thoroughly reviewing areas where we can reduce the reach of state government. One of these areas is state subsidization of public broadcasting. I intend again to include no funding for public broadcasting operations grants in my FY 2013 budget, so I encourage recipients of these grants to make appropriate preparations.

Again, I commend the Legislature for its work during the 2011 session, and I look forward to working with all of you in the coming months and years as we get our state’s budget and economy back on track.

CONSIDERATION OF VETOED LINE ITEMS

The governor's line item objections to S. Sub. for HB 2014 having been read (see this Journal, pp. 1662-1664), the time arrived for reconsideration of S. Sub. for HB 2014, AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30,

There was no motion to reconsider the line items in Section 26, Section 108(e), Section 108 (f), portion of Section 111(a), and Section 175. The chair ruled the line items had been reconsidered and the vetos sustained.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS

On motion of Rep. Kuether the House proceeded to reconsider the line item veto in Section 115(a) and a portion of Section 143(a) of S. Sub. for HB 2014 (see this Journal, p. 1664), AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30, 2011, June 30, 2012, June 30, 2013, June 30, 2014, June 30, 2015, and June 30, 2016, for state agencies; authorizing certain transfers, capital improvement projects and fees, imposing certain restrictions and limitations, reducing compensation for state officers, and directing or authorizing certain receipts, disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing; amending K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 2-223, 12-5256, 49-514, 55-193, 72-8814, 74-99b34, 75-2319, 75-6702, 76-775, 76-783, 76-7,107, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i, 79-34,156, 79-34,171 and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing section 138 of chapter 165 of the 2010 Session Laws of Kansas.

The Governor's objection of the line item having been read, the question being, shall the line item be passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto?

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 50; Nays 44; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 31.

Present but not voting: None.

A two-thirds majority of the members elected to the House not having voted in favor of the line item over the Governor's veto, the motion did not prevail, the line item veto did not pass.
EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Vetoing state support for the arts in Kansas is not about fiscal responsibility. It is in fact a job-killing veto, especially in rural areas. It is not about returning to “core” functions of government. Governments have supported the arts since governments began, because it is important for the arts to flourish. How will we attract employers here when our Governor delivers a message that Kansas is too backward to support quality of life in this state? This veto makes Kansas the laughing stock of the nation. I vote yes to override the veto on S. Sub. for HB 2014. It is what the people of Kansas want.-- ANN E. MAH
