Article 2.—LEGISLATIVE

§ 1. Legislative power.—The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a house of representatives and senate.

§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members than elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted.

Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases.

Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (2/3) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. If the governor does not approve a bill, the governor shall veto it by returning the bill, with a veto message of the objections, to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received), the house of origin shall reconsider the bill. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the veto message, to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days (excluding the day received) also reconsider the bill, and if approved by two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the governor’s veto.

If any bill shall not be returned within ten calendar days (excluding the day presented) after it shall have been presented to the governor, it shall become a law in like manner as if it had been signed by the governor.

(b) If any bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, one or more of such items may be disapproved by the governor while the other portion of the bill is approved by the governor. In case the governor does so disapprove, a veto message of the governor stating the item or items disapproved, and the reasons therefor, shall be appended to the bill at the time it is signed, and the bill shall be returned with the veto message to the house of origin of the bill. Whenever a veto message is so received, the message shall be entered in the journal and, in not more than thirty calendar days, the house of origin shall reconsider the items of the bill which have been disapproved. If two-thirds of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified shall vote to approve any item disapproved by the governor, the bill, with the veto message, shall be sent to the other house, which shall in not more than thirty calendar days also reconsider each such item so approved by the house of origin, and if approved by two-thirds of all the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified, any such item shall take effect and become a part of the bill.

§ 15. Requirements before bill passed.—No bill shall be passed on the day that it is introduced, unless in case of emergency declared by two-thirds of the members present in the house where a bill is pending.

§ 16. Subject and title of bills; amendment or revival of statutes.—No bill shall contain more than one subject, except appropriation bills and bills for revision or codification of statutes. The subject of each bill shall be expressed in its title. No law shall be revived or amended, unless the new act contain the entire act revived or the section or sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed. The provisions of this section shall be liberally construed to effectuate the acts of the legislature.

§ 22. Legislative immunity.—For any speech, written document or debate in either house, the members shall not be questioned elsewhere. No member of the legislature shall be subject to arrest—except for treason, felony or breach of the peace—in going to, or returning from, the place of meeting, or during the continuance of the session; neither shall he be subject to the service of any civil process during the session, nor for fifteen days previous to its commencement.

§ 23. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 24. Appropriations.—No money shall be drawn from the treasury except in pursuance of a specific appropriation made by law.

§ 25. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 26. This section was repealed by the adoption of 1972 HCR 1097, on Aug. 1, 1972.

§ 27. Impeachment.—The house of representatives shall have the sole power to impeach. All impeachments shall be tried by the senate; and when sitting for that purpose, the senators shall take an oath to do justice according to the law and the senators then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

§ 28. Officers impeachable; grounds; punishment.—The governor and all other officers under this constitution, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

powers upon interstate bodies, comprised of officers of this state or its political subdivisions acting in conjunction with officers of other jurisdictions, relating to the Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.
Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby, but if the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 31, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on January 30, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 9, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 8, 2012, during the 2012 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on February 7, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 6, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 11, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 10, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 25, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 24, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 23, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and March 21, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 2, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and after March 31, 2012, during the 2012 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702 and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the House of Representatives, any standing committee of the Senate, the Legislative Coordinating Council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the House of Representatives or the Senate, the House of Representatives in session, the Senate in session or a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the State of Kansas.

Rule 1905. Striking Bills and Resolutions from the Calendar While in Committee of the Whole. (a) While in Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the calendar shall be in order only after the chairperson has announced that the next order of business is such bill or resolution and has recognized a member to carry it.

(b) A motion to strike a bill from the calendar under this Rule 1905 (1) shall require a vote of a majority of the members present for adoption, and (2) shall be subject to roll call in accordance with subsection (e) of Rule 2507, but shall not be subject to a call of the House under Rule 2508.

Rule 1906. Requesting the Floor. Any member desiring to request the floor shall press such member’s “speak bill” button to speak on a bill or offer an amendment and “speak amendment” button to speak on a pending amendment, and shall not proceed until recognized by the chairperson of the Committee of the Whole.

Rule 1907. Rules Applicable. The same rules, except Rule 2508, shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole as in the House, so far as the same are applicable, except that the previous question and the motion to lay on the table shall not apply.

Rule 1908. Rise and Report. A motion for the Committee of the Whole to rise and report shall be in order at any stage, and shall be decided without debate. When the Committee of the Whole has a bill under consideration and rises without final action thereon, the bill shall retain a place on General Orders.

Rule 1909. Effect of Recommendation of Committee of the Whole. Bills recommended for passage and resolutions recommended for adoption by the Committee of the Whole shall not be subject to amendment or debate after the adoption by the House of the Committee of the Whole report. When a bill or resolution is reported with the recommendation that the enacting or resolving clause be stricken, and the Committee of the Whole report is adopted by the House, the bill or resolution shall be considered as killed and shall be stricken from the calendar.

Rule 1910. Report of Committee of the Whole. When the report of the Committee of the Whole recommends the passage of a bill or adoption of a resolution, and the report is adopted by the House, such bills and resolutions shall be considered as ordered to the order of business Final Action. If the bill or resolution has been amended by the Committee of the Whole it shall be
ARTICLE 21. AMENDMENT OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Rule 2101. Germaneness. Amendments to bills and resolutions shall be germane to the subject of the bill or resolution. The principal test of whether an amendment is germane shall be its relationship to the subject of the bill or resolution, rather than to wording of the title thereof. The amendment, including any amendment from the floor to strike all of the substantive provisions of a bill or resolution and insert other provisions, must be relevant, appropriate, and have some relation to or involve the same subject as the bill or resolution to be amended. For the purposes of this rule the subject matter of any appropriation bill is the spending and appropriating of money and any amendment which changes the amount of money spent in any state agency or program is germane to any appropriation bill.

Any member, upon recognition by the presiding officer, may request a ruling upon the germaneness of any amendment to a bill or resolution. All rulings upon the question of germaneness shall be made by the chairperson of the House Committee on Rules and Journal. At the time of making such ruling, the chairperson shall state the reasons or basis for such ruling. Appeals from rulings of the chairperson may be taken upon the motion of any member. Such appeals shall be in order at the time of the making of the ruling and shall take precedence over any question pending at the time the chairperson makes such ruling. Appeals from the ruling of the chairperson shall be debatable only by the member making the motion to amend which is the subject of the ruling, the member carrying the measure sought to be amended, the Majority Leader or a member designated by the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader or a member designated by the Minority Leader. Debate upon the ruling of the chairperson shall be limited to the question of the germaneness of the proposed amendment. At the conclusion of debate the presiding officer shall inquie: "Shall the chairperson's ruling be sustained?"

Rule 2102. Form of Amendment Motions. Motions to amend bills and resolutions shall specify the page and line number, as shown on the printed bill or resolution, and shall be in writing on a form provided by the House or a form substantially similar. A motion shall be out of order unless the written motion is first delivered to the chief clerk. In the case of amendment by substitute bill, motion shall be made to substitute a written bill for the bill under consideration.

Rule 2103. Reading Amendments; General Rule. Motions to amend bills and resolutions shall not require readings as for bills introduced, except as otherwise provided in Rule 2107, but shall be subject to Rule 2306.

Rule 2104. Motions to Amend Motions. A motion to amend a motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be in order.

Rule 2105. Dividing Amendments. (a) When any motion to amend a bill or resolution contains distinct propositions it shall be divided by the chairperson at the request of any member. The division by the chairperson shall be made in accordance with the following:

(1) A motion to strike out and insert words of less than a sentence shall be indivisible;

(2) the distinct propositions shall be only in the form submitted in the motion to amend;

(3) each proposition must be so distinct that, one being removed, the remainder may stand entirely on their own; and

(4) those portions of a motion to amend a bill as described in Rule 2110 shall be indivisible.

(b) Upon a request to divide a motion to amend a bill or resolution, the chairperson shall inquire as to whether there is a request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend. If such a request is made, the issue of germaneness shall be determined prior to dividing the motion.

If no request for a ruling on germaneness of the motion to amend is made, the chairperson shall proceed to divide the motion to amend in accordance with this rule, and no subsequent request for a ruling on germaneness of any distinct proposition of the motion so divided shall be in order.

(c) The chairperson, or any member, may request that the member requesting the division make the request in writing specifying the manner in which the motion to amend should be divided.

(d) The chairperson may request that the member requesting the division and the chairperson or the vice-chairperson of the Committee on Rules and Journal recommend an appropriate division, but the final ruling on how to divide the motion to amend shall be that of the chairperson who shall announce the division to the body.

(e) The division of the motion to amend shall be in accordance with the rules of the House and with items (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a). The ruling of the chairperson on how to divide the motion to amend shall not be subject to appeal except that any member may appeal the ruling of the chairperson on the grounds that the division is not in accordance with a rule of the House including the provisions of items (1), (2), (3) or (4) of subsection (a), or any combination thereof.

Rule 2106. Substitute Motions. No substitute motion to amend a bill or resolution shall be in order.

Rule 2107. Subject Change by Senate. (a) When the Senate adopts amendments to a House bill which materially changes its subject, upon return of such bill to the House, it shall be read as provided for the introduction of bills and be referred as provided in Rule 901.

(b) The Speaker may determine when a bill is subject to subsection (a). An affirmative vote of 70 members shall be required to sustain a challenge to the Speaker's determination hereunder.
Rule 2108. Motions to Strike Out and Insert. The rejection of a motion to amend a bill or resolution by striking out and inserting one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 2109. Identical Motions. Except upon the unanimous consent of the House, an identical motion to amend a bill or resolution shall not be made a second time on the same legislative day.

Rule 2110. Floor Amendments to Bills Making Appropriations. Unless by majority consent to correct an error in drafting, no floor amendment to increase the amount of expenditures that would be authorized in a provision of an appropriations bill shall be in order unless the amendment contains a provision reducing, by a like or greater amount, expenditures that would be authorized in another provision of such appropriations bill.

ARTICLE 23. PROCEDURAL MOTIONS

Rule 2301. Order of Motions. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except as specified under the Rules of the House, which motions shall have precedence in the following order:

(a) For adjournment of the House.
(b) For call of the House.
(c) To lay on the table.
(d) For the previous question.
(e) To postpone to a certain time.
(f) To commit to a standing committee.

(k) To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 2302. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken and until announced, or when a member has the floor, or when the previous question is pending; but a motion to recess is not equivalent to a motion to adjourn.

Rule 2303. Motion to Reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions except the motion to adjourn. No motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order, unless made on the same day or the legislative day following that on which the decision to be reconsidered took place, nor unless a member voting with the prevailing side shall move such reconsideration. A motion for reconsideration, being put and lost, shall not be renewed, nor shall any subject or vote be a second time reconsidered without unanimous consent, but this provision shall not be construed as preventing the introduction of a bill on the same subject. The member moving for reconsideration shall be allowed not more than two minutes for stating the reasons in support of the motion. Such motion shall be subject to debate by any member, stating reasons in support or opposition to the motion. Each of such members shall be allowed not more than one minute for the purpose of such debate. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of members equal in number to that required to take the action proposed to be reconsidered. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House shall be in order at any time prior to the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the record of the Senate. A motion to reconsider any final action of the House may be made after the time at which the message of the House thereon is read into the report of the Senate but any action taken pursuant thereto will be contingent upon the return of the measure to the House by the Senate.

Rule 2304. Previous Question. The "previous question" shall be: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments or debate. When voting on the previous question, the House decides that the main question shall not now be put, the main question shall be considered as still remaining under debate. The main question shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration. When amendments are pending, a vote shall first be taken upon such amendments in their order without further debate or amendment.

A majority vote of the members present shall order the previous question.

Rule 2305. Motions Not Subject to Debate. All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn, to change the order of consideration of a bill, for a call of the House, and to lay on the table shall be decided without amendment or debate. The several motions to postpone or commit shall preclude all debate on the main question.

Rule 2306. Motion to Refer Bills or Resolutions to Committee When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to refer a bill or resolution from the Calendar to a standing committee shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.

Rule 2307. Motion to Strike Bills and Resolutions from Calendar When Not in Committee of the Whole. When not in the Committee of the Whole, a motion to strike a bill or resolution from the Calendar shall be in order only when the body is meeting as the House of Representatives and shall be authorized only when offered by the Majority Leader, or in the absence of the Majority Leader, by the Assistant Majority Leader. Such motion shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House.
Rule 2308. Stating Question. Every motion shall be first stated by the presiding officer or read by the chief clerk, before debate, and again immediately before putting the question.

Rule 2309. Dividing Motion. If any motion, other than a motion under Rule 2105, contains distinct propositions it shall be divided by the chairperson at the request of any member. Motions under Rule 2105 shall be divided in accordance with that rule.

Rule 2310. When Motions to be in Writing. Every motion, except those specified in Rules 2301 and 2303, shall be in writing if the Speaker or any member desires it. All motions to amend a bill or resolution and all resolutions shall be in writing.

Rule 2311. Suspension of Rules of the House. (a) No rule of the House shall be suspended except by unanimous consent or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) A motion to suspend the rules, and to declare an emergency and to advance a bill to the order of business Final Action, as contemplated in article 2, section 15 of the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(2) A motion to suspend the rules and to permit amendment and debate of a bill under the order of business Final Action shall require an affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the House.

(b) When under the rules of the House a motion, question or action requires a vote of a majority greater than a majority of the members present, the majority specified for such motion, question or action shall be required to suspend the rules for the purpose of such motion, question or action. When under the rules of the House notice of a motion reduces the required majority for adoption of the motion, the required majority shall not be reduced if the notice is disposed of by suspension of the rules.

(c) Suspension of the rules or unanimous consent shall not reduce the majority required under subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule.

Rule 2312. Mason's Manual; When Applicable. (a) In any case where rules of the House or the joint rules of the Senate and House do not apply, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure (2010 edition), with the exception of section 4, paragraph 2, shall govern.

(b) Rules of legislative procedure are derived from several sources and take precedence in the order listed below. For the Kansas House of Representatives, the principal sources are as follows: (a) Constitutional provisions; (b) statutory provisions; (c) adopted rules; (d) adopted parliamentary authority; (e) custom, usage and precedents.

ARTICLE 25. VOTING

Rule 2501. Control and Use of Voting System. The electronic voting system shall be under the control of the Speaker or other presiding officer and shall be operated by the chief clerk. The electronic voting system shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question and may be used for ascertaining the vote upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called. In the event that the system is not operating properly, roll call votes may be taken by calling the roll.

Rule 2502. Procedure for Taking a Roll Call Vote. When a roll call vote is taken, the presiding officer shall state the question and instruct the members to proceed to vote. When sufficient time has been allowed the members to vote, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Has every member had an opportunity to vote?" After a short pause the presiding officer shall direct the chief clerk to close the roll. After the roll has been closed, when Rule 2505 applies, the presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to explain their vote?" and any member so desiring may give such explanation when recognized by the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall inquire: "Does any member desire to change their vote?" If any member does desire to change their vote, such member when recognized by the presiding officer, shall advise how they desire to change such vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to make the appropriate change. A member who has not previously voted may vote at this time when permitted by the presiding officer. Such member shall advise how they wish to vote and the presiding officer shall then instruct the chief clerk to record such vote. After all members who desire to vote or to change their votes have had reasonable opportunity to do so, the presiding officer shall announce the vote and, when the vote has been announced, shall direct the chief clerk to record the vote.

In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who votes or attempts to vote for another member shall be subject to Article 49 of these rules. If a person not a member votes or attempts to vote for any member, such person shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session, and, in addition to penalties prescribed by law, may be punished further as the House determines.

(c) The Speaker shall not be compelled to vote except in case of a tie.

Rule 2505. Explaining Vote. Any member may, when a roll call vote is being taken on the passage or adoption of any bill or resolution, explain their vote. Such member shall be allowed not more than one minute for such explanation. Such explanation, if furnished in writing and signed, with printed name and district number, by such member by 4:00 p.m. upon the day the vote is taken or if the vote is taken subsequent to 3:30 p.m., within one-half hour after the adjournment of the House on that day, shall be entered in the Journal, provided it does not contain more than 100 words.

Rule 2506. Copies of Voting Records. (a) Unless otherwise ordered, the chief clerk shall record each roll call vote and make copies available for the use of the news media. No record shall be made of the vote of any member voting upon any measure upon which a division of the assembly has been called.

(b) When a roll call vote is taken, it shall be recorded in the Journal by a statement of the names and total number voting in the affirmative, the names and total number voting in the negative, names and total number indicating presence but not voting and the names and total number absent or not voting, except that the provisions of this section shall not permit a member to fail to vote in violation of Rule 2508.

(b) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any concurrent resolution to amend the Constitution of the state of Kansas, to call a Kansas constitutional convention, to extend a session of the Legislature in even-numbered years, to ratify any amendment of the Constitution of the United States, to make any application for Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States and when required by the joint rules of the House and Senate. A roll call vote is not required for adoption of concurrent resolutions pertaining to commendations or acknowledgments, unless required under subsection (e) of Rule 2507.

(c) A roll call vote shall be taken for the adoption of any House resolution to adopt, amend or revoke any rule of the House or to reject any executive reorganization order.

(d) A roll call vote shall be taken to concur in Senate amendments to any bill or concurrent resolution or to adopt any conference committee report other than a report agreeing to disagree.

(e) A roll call vote shall be taken on any question on demand of 15 members, unless a roll call vote is already pending.

When the call of the House is invoked, the doors to the House chamber shall be secured and all members shall be required to be in their seats unless excused by the Speaker. All members present during the call shall be required to vote before the call is raised. The call of the House shall not be raised (so long as 10 members continue the demand) until a reasonable effort, as determined by the Speaker, has been exerted to secure absentees.

(b) Any member, who is directly interested in a question, may be excused from voting, when there is a call of the House. The member, who is requesting to be excused from voting, shall state the reasons therefor, occupying not more than five minutes. The question on excusing such member from voting shall be taken without debate and a 2/3 majority of members present shall be necessary to excuse such member. If a member refuses to vote, when not excused, such refusal shall constitute grounds for reprimand, censure or expulsion under Article 49 of the Rules of the House.

Rule 2509. Voice Vote; Division of the Assembly. Except when a roll call vote is required a voice vote shall be taken on all questions. Any member may call for a division of the assembly to determine the vote by the voting system.

Journal of the House

TOPEKA, KS, MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 2012, 2:00 P.M.

This being the day fixed by the constitution of the State of Kansas for the assembling of the 2012 session of the legislature, the House was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Speaker Michael R. “Mike” O’Neal.

Speaker O’Neal announced that the Rev. Eunice Brubaker, executive associate pastor, Fairlawn Church of the Nazarene, Topeka, will serve as chaplain of the House for the 2012 session.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

“O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! Splendor and majesty are before you; strength and glory are in your sanctuary. Be exalted, o Lord, in your strength. May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine upon us.” Today at the beginning of the 2012 session, we pray for our leaders to whom You have entrusted leadership of the great state of Kansas. We pray for: calmness in the face of adversity, encouragement in the face of frustration, understanding in the face of disagreement, and humility in the face of success. Give them the wisdom to know and to do what is right, and the courage to say no to all that is contrary to Your statues of holy law. In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Legislators, Justices of the Kansas Supreme Court; leaders of Kansas sovereign Native American Nations, my wonderful wife and First Lady of Kansas, Mary – and My Fellow Kansans - Good evening and welcome back.

Our family just experienced its first wedding with our oldest daughter Abby marrying Eric Teetsel. After that excitement, emotion – and expense, I need to get back to work. So it’s great to see you!

STATE OF TRANSITION

Let me start by saying - I am bullish on Kansas!
We are a state in transition.
From a high tax state---to a low tax state.
From a state struggling to pay our day to day bills---to a state with a healthy bank account.
From issuing more bonds and borrowing from our kids---to paying down our debt.
Transitioning from losing private sector jobs ---to growing our private sector workforce.
From an unsound pension system---to an honest defined contribution system.
From a school finance system trapped in litigation---to a simpler system focused on getting dollars out of the court room and into the classroom.
We are transitioning from a Medicaid system lurching between cutting providers, patients or both---to one that gets better results for our most vulnerable Kansans.
From a modest wind energy investment to a top 5 state for projects under construction.
From a wasteful use-it-or-lose-it water law doctrine---to preserving our most precious natural resource: fresh water.
This state in transition will look less to what Washington can do for Kansas and more to what we can do for ourselves.
That’s a lot to accomplish. Can we get it done? Of course we can.
A year ago we met here facing two enormous challenges---a stagnant economy with fewer Kansans employed - and a big budget deficit. Many states across the country were struggling, but in 2010, Kansas ranked among the worst in private sector job creation.

Working together, we acted. Here are the results.
We overhauled our state’s economic development system, enacted modest tax relief, and sent word around the world that Kansas is open for business! Since January 2011, Kansas has added more than 11,000 net private sector jobs
On the budget, we faced a $500 million deficit --- but we did not raise taxes. Instead, we cut spending. Clearly, the era of ever-expanding government had to come to an end. In fact, ---for the first time in 40 years--- the budget for the state’s all funds spending actually went DOWN from one year to the next. By applying these fiscally conservative principles, you, the legislature, turned a $500 million deficit into a more than $100 million ending balance in one year!.

The Kansas Legislature got its job done on time and under budget. Thank you for doing that.
Those are the facts. And it’s why now Kansas is considered one of the ten best managed states in America. It is for these reasons, Mr. Speaker, Mr. President; I can report to you that the State of our State is STRONG – and getting STRONGER!

PRO-GROWTH TAX POLICY
Last session the Legislature gave our rural communities a new tool to help them reverse their population loss – and they have embraced the Rural Opportunity Zone program, offering no income tax and buying down of student loan debt to new or returning residents.

Joining us tonight is Benjamin Anderson, CEO of the Ashland Health Center. His hospital -- like many rural hospitals -- has struggled to attract medical professionals. Since the Rural Opportunity Zone has gone into effect, Ashland has recruited - from out of state - doctors, nurses, and social workers. Benjamin tells me they aren’t stopping there – they plan to recruit a dentist, a physical therapist and two more nurses.

It’s the kind of population and economic growth I envisioned the Rural Opportunity Zone would bring to Kansas.

Still - the economy remains one of our most pressing issues. While there are certainly factors a state cannot control when it comes to its economy, taxes are one area we do control. And when it comes to taxes, we have some of the highest in the region. This hurts our economic growth and job creation.

To address this, I’m proposing a major step in overhauling our state tax code to make it fairer, flatter, and simpler. My tax plan will lower individual income tax rates for all Kansans. It brings the highest tax rate down from 6.45 percent to 4.9 percent, the second lowest in the region - and lowers the bottom tax bracket to 3 percent. My plan also eliminates individual state income tax on most small business income.

As we modernize our tax code and lower everyone’s rates, it is also time to level the playing field and simplify state taxes by eliminating income tax credits, deductions, and exemptions — while expanding assistance to low-income Kansans through programs that are more effective and accountable. I firmly believe these reforms will set the stage for strong economic growth in Kansas – and will put more money into the pockets of Kansas families and businesses. Growth that will allow us to further reduce tax rates and increase our competitiveness. Growth that will see people move to Kansas instead of leaving our state.

With that in mind, I ask the legislature to limit further growth in government expenditures to no more than 2 percent a year — and devote all additional revenues to reductions in state tax rates. This will get us ever closer to the pro-growth states with no state income taxes - which are among the country’s strongest economic performers.

It also will enable us to keep the lid on state sales tax and property tax rates by providing robust economic growth. Let’s put our “lost decade” in the rear view mirror and speed ahead - at 75 miles per hour - to make this decade the decade of growth and job creation.

FY 2013 BUDGET
When I took office, the state had just ended the last fiscal year with only $876 in the State General Fund. Excuse me, 876 dollars and Five cents. I immediately instituted a policy of prioritizing expenditures; increasing efficiencies and studying our structural problems. This process required some difficult choices.

Last year when I addressed this body, I said that any fundamental solution to the state’s budget problems must include reforming taxes, Medicaid, the pension system and school finance. We also had to face the steep decline in federal money coming to Kansas.

In the last year, working with a committed group of Cabinet Secretaries and this Legislature, we began implementing the needed reforms. Today I am pleased to present the results of this process.

My proposed Fiscal Year 2013 budget provides for an ending balance of $465 million, exceeding the 7.5% statutory requirement. This budget fully funds or increases funding for essential services while holding State General Fund expenditures below last year’s levels.

This budget begins to address the long term structural issues that placed the state in years of fiscal peril.

DEBT
This budget also addresses the state’s ever increasing debt that has created a generational burden sent to our sons, daughters and grandchildren. State government is about to experience an influx of money in the expanded gaming fund with the opening of facilities in Wyandotte and Sumner Counties. To reduce the burden we leave to our children and grandchildren - we should use this increased revenue for its most important statutory purpose – to pay down our debt.

KPERS
For decades, state government shifted the burden of providing for state employees’ retirement to future Legislatures. As a result, KPERS has a shortfall of more than $8 billion. That’s a huge hole, and the first rule of getting out of any hole is to “stop digging.”

The KPERS Commission produced solid recommendations which will ensure that state government meets its obligation to retirees. Those who are currently receiving benefits or those who are vested in the current system will be fully protected. The state will increase its contributions to KPERS and require more from workers to pay those benefits. But for all new employees and those not currently vested, we can and should transition to a defined contribution system - like most private sector organizations in America.

The reason is simple---it guarantees that the state stays current in paying its bills and gives people the flexibility to freely move in and out of state employment instead of being trapped by our retirement system. State employees do important work and they deserve a fair and funded pension system. These reforms by the KPERS Commission do just that.

MEDICAID
We are committed to a strong, effective safety net for our most vulnerable Kansans. Medicaid spending continues to skyrocket, and it continues to place stress on funding for education, public safety, and other essential services. With additional funding cuts expected from the federal government, Kansas must transform Medicaid into a system that improves services while managing costs. Many states have made the choice to either kick people off Medicaid or pay doctors less. Neither of those choices provides better outcomes. Kansas has a better solution.

The Lt. Governor, Dr. Jeff Colyer, and our cabinet team, with input from legislators and more than 1,800 stakeholders, have produced a measured, innovative and compassionate proposal. Unlike the current one-size-fits-all system, we will offer all Kansans a choice of plans that best fit their needs.

Kansans with long-term disabilities will have an integrated care coordinator. Those with developmental disabilities can keep their case manager if they choose. Many disabled Kansans want to work, but are stuck in government programs that provide neither respect nor independence. I propose Kansas be a national leader in helping the disabled find meaningful jobs. All Kansans should have the opportunity to pursue their dreams. With jobs providing an off ramp from Medicaid, we will be able help those in need of services and reduce our waiting list.

For years Medicaid was spread among several cabinet agencies. This year we will continue to make government smaller and better focused by consolidating multiple agencies into a restructured Department of Aging and Disability Services. By running government more efficiently and effectively, we can save money and provide better service.

SCHOOL FINANCE

The people of Kansas know what’s best for their kids. Parents know better than elected officials. Parents know better than federal bureaucrats. And parents know better than unelected judges. It is past time to get education dollars out of the courtroom and into the classroom.

My plan is straightforward---no district gets less state money, every district gets more flexibility. Let me repeat that - NO DISTRICT will see its state aid go down. I propose adding 45 million dollars in state funding for our poorest school districts.

I also propose to give local school boards more flexibility to spend that money in the way they want because the government closest to the people works best. Local districts should be allowed to invest in the excellence of their schools to the extent their voters believe is appropriate. As more districts make those investments, my plan establishes a mechanism which will protect poorer districts so that they too benefit.

Some people ask me why reform the school finance formula now? Why not kick the can down the road for another year? The fact is the lawsuit is scheduled for trial this summer. And the People elected us – not the courts – to run our schools.

This new school finance formula should be sunsetted after four years. Thus ending the cycle of litigation and beginning a cycle of legislation.

WATER

The honor of my professional life has been to serve the people of Kansas, first as their Secretary of Agriculture; later as a Congressman, a Senator and in Governor. A regret I have is that more has not been done to preserve the Ogallala Aquifer.

Almost since statehood, we have told Kansans with water rights they must “use-it-or-lose-it.” This has encouraged the overuse of water, particularly of the Ogallala.

I propose to repeal the “use-it-or-lose-it” doctrine of our water law. It is way past time we move from a development policy with our water to a conservation ethic. We have no future without water. This is altogether fitting and proper. For our government is not only a compact among those who are living, but a covenant with those who are yet to be.

SESQUICENTENNIAL

Our great state is one hundred and fifty years old. Many have come before us and God willing many more will come after us.

I would like to recognize the first Kansans, our Native American Leaders who are with us tonight. From the Iowa Tribe - Chairman Tim Rhodd; Kickapoo Tribe - Chairman Steve Cadue; and from the Prairie Band Potawatomi Tribal - Council Treasurer, Noah Wahquahboshkuk.

Also joining us tonight is Guy Monroe, Chairman of the Kaw Nation, also known as the Kansa Indians, after whom our State, Kansas, is named. And of course, this building is crowned with the statue of a Kansa Indian…shooting for the stars. Thank you for being with us tonight.

This last year we also celebrated some of our most Notable Kansans.

One of the most inspirational was Clyde Cessna---the man responsible as much as anyone for making Wichita The Air Capital of the World.

When we look at the achievements of great Kansans, it's easy to overlook the fact that even for them not every day was a successful day. They knew tears in their time, setbacks, and reversals. Clyde Cessna survived thirteen crashes before he achieved a successful aircraft design.

Kansas received some rough aviation news last week. We suffered a setback. But even in the face of that, we see hope. Yesterday, I was in Wichita to announce an agreement with Bombardier Learjet which will see that company expand its workforce in Wichita. And we aren’t done. There will be more.

Because, like Clyde Cessna, we’re not going to quit. We’re going to keep trying, keep innovating, keep growing. We’re going to keep our faith in a loving God and a promising future…working together and praying together for a better Kansas.

I began tonight talking about my daughter’s wedding. What a wonderful day. Seeing your child get married inspires a few tears and many emotions. For one, it makes you…feel…very…OLD. Or shall we say more mature. But it also reminds us of why we are here. That our season is short, the needs are great and people, particularly our children, are depending on us.

You as legislators sacrifice a great deal to be here. I appreciate that. The people of Kansas appreciate that. You leave your homes, businesses and communities to come here and serve the people. Thank you for what you do to make this a better state!

Together we will succeed…for we must.

Thank you. God bless you and may God continue to bless the People of Kansas.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Father God, To meet the needs of the people of this great state, will, in the next few weeks, cause quite the debate. From Elkhart to Hiawatha people represent many a dogma. From Atwood to Coffeyville, their requests we desire to fulfill. From Harper to Norton, accomplishing results for their good is for certain. But above and beyond all, it is Your will from which we do not want to fall. In Christ’s name I pray, Amen.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father, yesterday we celebrated the life and legacy of a great leader of our nation. We are thankful for the courage of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. who spoke to our nation as a prophet from God—pointing out the sin we did not want to see. Like many prophets, he paid a high price for speaking the truth and calling us to repentance. He was a gift from God to us and we were not worthy of him. Help us to follow his example in listening and knowing what You have to say, and having the courage to stand up and speak out. In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Rhoades.

Answer: African-American Infantry Regiment

SPECIAL REMARKS

In recognition of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and there being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Ballard and Rubin are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks by Rep. Ballard:
I am proud to join with all Americans as we celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. As our nation commemorates Martin Luther King Jr. Day, let us remember the legacy of the man who spread a message of peace and justice and challenged America to fulfill the true promise of Democracy.
It has been 44 years since the death of Dr. King, yet the movement that he sparked so many years ago still lives on through us all. Prior to his passing, Dr. King announced plans for a Poor People's campaign. The effort was formed to shine a light on the plight of the poor and working poor, and would have culminated with a march on Washington demanding a $12 billion Economic Bill of Rights to guarantee employment to the able-bodied, incomes to those unable to work and an end to housing discrimination.

Remarks by Rep. Rubin:
I share with you an abiding admiration for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., whose birthday we celebrated yesterday. Dr. King was one of the greatest American leaders of the past 100 years and a founding father of the modern American civil rights movement. Moreover, I consider his August 28, 1963 “I Have a Dream” speech, delivered from the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in the 100th anniversary year of the Emancipation Proclamation, one of the seminal moments in American history, forever changing the course of both our public policy and cultural attitudes and, more than any other event, precipitating the landmark Civil Rights Act of 1965. This speech has always moved me deeply, not only because it so eloquently espouses the political and social beliefs that have spurred my public service – fairness, justice and equality of opportunity for all Americans – but because, as a Catholic devoted to Birdie, my Jewish wife of 40 years, and the proud father-in-law of an African-American son-in-law in Denver, Stephen McNeil, who with our daughter Shana has now presented us with an African-American grandson whom we adore – and whose photo I have placed on your desks this morning – the speech resonates with me on a profound personal level.

So, by your leave, Mr. Speaker, I would like now to present to our Chamber the words of Dr. King that changed the course of American history.

Reps. Rubin and Ballard then shared in reading Dr. Martin Luther King's speech:

I am happy to join with you today in what will go down in history as the greatest demonstration for freedom in the history of our nation.

Five score years ago, a great American, in whose symbolic shadow we stand today, signed the Emancipation Proclamation. This momentous decree came as a great beacon light of hope to millions of Negro slaves who had been seared in the flames of withering injustice. It came as a joyous daybreak to end the long night of their captivity. But one hundred years later, the Negro still is not free. One hundred years later, the life of the Negro is still sadly crippled by the manacles of segregation and the chains of discrimination. One hundred years later, the Negro lives on a lonely island of poverty in the midst of a vast ocean of material prosperity. One hundred years later, the Negro is still languishing in the corners of American society and finds himself an exile in his own land. So we have come here today to dramatize a shameful condition.

In a sense we have come to our nation's capital to cash a check. When the architects of our republic wrote the magnificent words of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, they were signing a promissory note to which every American was to fall heir. This note was a promise that all men, yes, black men as well as white men, would be guaranteed the unalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

It is obvious today that America has defaulted on this promissory note insofar as her citizens of color are concerned. Instead of honoring this sacred obligation, America has given the Negro people a bad check, a check which has come back marked "insufficient funds." But we refuse to believe that there are insufficient funds in the great vaults of opportunity of this nation. So we have come to cash this check — a check that will give us upon demand the riches of freedom and the security of justice. We have also come to this hallowed spot to remind America of the fierce urgency of now. This is no time to engage in the luxury of cooling off or to take the tranquilizing drug of gradualism. Now is the time to make real the promises of democracy. Now is the time to rise from the dark and desolate valley of segregation to the sunlit path of racial justice. Now is the time to lift our nation from the quick sands of racial injustice to the solid rock of brotherhood. Now is the time to make justice a reality for all of God's children.

It would be fatal for the nation to overlook the urgency of the moment. This sweltering summer of the Negro's legitimate discontent will not pass until there is an invigorating autumn of freedom and equality. Nineteen sixty-three is not an end, but a beginning. Those who hope that the Negro needed to blow off steam and will now be content will have a rude awakening if the nation returns to business as usual. There will be neither rest nor tranquility in America until the Negro is granted his citizenship rights. The whirlwinds of revolt will continue to shake the foundations of our nation until the bright day of justice emerges.

But there is something that I must say to my people who stand on the warm threshold which leads into the palace of justice. In the process of gaining our rightful place we must not be guilty of wrongful deeds. Let us not seek to satisfy our thirst for freedom by drinking from the cup of bitterness and hatred.

We must forever conduct our struggle on the high plane of dignity and discipline. We must not allow our creative protest to degenerate into physical violence. Again and again we must rise to the majestic heights of meeting physical force with soul force. The marvelous new militancy which has engulfed the Negro community must not lead us to a distrust of all white people, for many of our white brothers, as evidenced by their presence here today, have come to realize that their destiny is tied up with our destiny. They have come to realize that their freedom is inextricably bound to our freedom. We cannot walk alone.

As we walk, we must make the pledge that we shall always march ahead. We cannot turn back. There are those who are asking the devotees of civil rights, "When will you be satisfied?" We can never be satisfied as long as the Negro is the victim of the unspeakable horrors of police brutality. We can never be satisfied, as long as our bodies, heavy with the fatigue of travel, cannot gain lodging in the motels of the highways and the hotels of the cities. We cannot be satisfied as long as the Negro's basic mobility is from a smaller ghetto to a larger one. We can never be satisfied as long as our children are stripped of their selfhood and robbed of their dignity by signs stating "For Whites Only". We cannot be satisfied as long as a Negro in Mississippi cannot vote and a Negro in New York believes he has nothing for which to vote. No, no, we are not satisfied, and we will not be satisfied until justice rolls down like waters and righteousness like a mighty stream.

I am not unmindful that some of you have come here out of great trials and tribulations. Some of you have come fresh from narrow jail cells. Some of you have come from areas where your quest for freedom left you battered by the storms of persecution and staggered by the winds of police brutality. You have been the veterans of creative suffering. Continue to work with the faith that unearned suffering is redemptive.
Go back to Mississippi, go back to Alabama, go back to South Carolina, go back to Georgia, go back to Louisiana, go back to the slums and ghettos of our northern cities, knowing that somehow this situation can and will be changed. Let us not wallow in the valley of despair.

I say to you today, my friends, so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal."

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a state sweltering with the heat of injustice, sweltering with the heat of oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day, down in Alabama, with its vicious racists, with its governor having his lips dripping with the words of interposition and nullification; one day right there in Alabama, little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

This is our hope. This is the faith that I go back to the South with. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day.

This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with a new meaning, "My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring."

And if America is to be a great nation this must become true. So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania! Let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado!

Let freedom ring from the curvaceous slopes of California!

But not only that; let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia!

Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee!

Let freedom ring from every hill and molehill of Mississippi. From every mountainside, let freedom ring.

And when this happens, when we allow freedom to ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, "Free at last! free at last! thank God Almighty, we are free at last!"

Rep. Ballard then led the members of the House in singing “We Shall Overcome.”

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. HCR 5029—

A PROPOSITION to amend section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to equal rights.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. Equal rights. All men are possessed of equal and inalienable natural rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Recognizing the authority of the state of Kansas to exercise its police power and it sovereign right to adopt individual liberties in the constitution of the state of Kansas more expansive than those conferred by the constitution of the United States, the state of Kansas shall hereby guarantee the inalienable rights, equal protection and due process of law of every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to expand the class of human beings that currently enjoy inalienable rights, equal protection, and due process of the law under the constitution of the state of Kansas to every human being from the beginning of the biological development of that human being, including fertilization.

“A vote for this proposition would amend the Kansas constitution to explicitly incorporate into it the inalienable right to life of every human being irrespective of age, race, gender, health, function, condition of dependency, including physical or mental dependency, or method of reproduction, from the beginning of their biological development, including fertilization. The proposed constitutional amendment also would prohibit the state from discriminating against any class of human beings in the application, interpretation and enforcement of its laws.

“A vote against this proposition would not amend the constitution, in which case the current federally mandated legal status of preborn humans would remain that of a class of human beings that can intentionally be killed.”

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate shall be entered onto the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors at the primary election in the year 2012.

Tune your ears to the world of wisdom; set your heart on a life of understanding. … if you make insight your priority, and won't take no for an answer… you'll have come upon the knowledge of God. … God gives out wisdom free, is plainspoken in knowledge and understanding. He's a rich mine of common sense for those who live well, a personal bodyguard to the candid and sincere. He keeps his eye on all who live honestly, and pays special attention to his loyally committed ones. ….Lady Wisdom will be your close friend, and Brother Knowledge your pleasant companion. Good Sense will scout ahead for danger, Insight will keep an eye out for you.” May these words encourage us today. In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen. (Proverbs 2, The Message)

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS
There being no objection, the following remarks by Rep. Schroeder are hereby spread upon the Journal:

The Mission of Kansas Agriculture and Rural Leadership, known simply as KARL, is never ending: To provide first-class leadership development for agricultural and rural stakeholders by offering challenging education and enrichment programs as well as a forum for continuous engagement.

Formed in 1989 as a charitable not for profit organization, KARL has conducted intensive training programs without tax derived funds save for the in-kind gift of office space at Kansas State University. Participants selected through application are provided a 52 day seminar series to develop leadership skills, obtain information and develop contacts. A range of experiences from local decision making through international trade topics helps them step into leadership roles to better serve others.

To date, $4.3 million of private money has been raised and spent on this program. That money has been invested over the last twenty years in 300 new key agricultural and rural leaders through cultural experiences in Kansas, Washington DC, as well as countries around the world.

Every major commodity association board, several commissions and multiple boards, advisories and councils from the local through national level involve KARL alumni.

Today, KARL is the preferred partner in developing excellence in agricultural and rural leadership. Assistance has been provided for seven states to form similar programs and three other states are using the KARL model – with more autonomy than previous programs that connected more directly to tax derived support.

The KARL motto states: “With Leadership Comes Responsibility.” It is my privilege to recognize Jack Lindquist and Marisa Larson as President and Vice President of the nationally recognized agricultural leadership program as they continue their quest to develop agricultural leadership excellence across the great state of Kansas. Please join me in honoring the Kansas Agriculture and Rural Leadership program along with Jack and Marisa.

Our Heavenly Father,
in this group of 125,

for that vote to be provided.
When the atmosphere is like a ticking bomb,
it only takes one
to speak words of peace and calm.
When disagreements and arguments are in the air,
it only takes one
to encourage all to speak and play fair.
Help each individual to seriously consider that at any given time, on any given day, they may be the one who makes the difference.
In Your Son’s Name, I pray, Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Tyson are spread upon the Journal:

We all have family of whom we are proud. I would like to introduce today a Kansas Son of whom we can all be proud, Dane Simoneau.

Great leaders are team players- and Dane is both a leader and a team player. After earning all-league honors in baseball at Washburn, he went on to complete his senior season in football and lead the Washburn Ichabods to a school-record 10 wins and Washburn's first ever playoff win.

Dane has earned five All-American honors:

• Runner-up for the Harlon Hill Division II National Player of the Year
• Associated Press Little All-American First Team Quarterback
• American Football Coaches Association All-American First Team
• Don Hansen Football Gazette All-American First Team
• D2 Football.com All-American First Team

Out of 152 teams and over 13,700 NCAA Division II football players, Dane was the number one D2 quarterback in the nation. He broke his own single-season record passing for 4,089 yards. In the season opener against Sioux Falls, he completed 27 passes for another school record of 452 yards throwing for five touchdowns. He owns 35 Washburn career season, and single game records.

Dane will be the first to tell you the importance of teamwork. He has demonstrated that working together and a positive attitude are key for success. He leads by example.

Dane's team includes some very special people: The Washburn Ichabod football team and fans, Head Coach Craig Shurig, and his coaching staff, Washburn President Jerry Farley, Athletic Director Loren Ferre, Sports Information, Gene Cassel, friends, family including aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents (some of whom have joined us today), his sisters Abby and Tayler, and two of his strongest supporters, his parents, Don and Jennifer Simoneau.

It is an honor and privilege to recognize Dane today for “exemplary Leadership and Teamwork as an All-American Quarterback for the Washburn Ichabods and a role model for all Kansans.” Congratulations Dane.

Rep. Tyson presented Dane with a framed House certificate.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
Thank you for this past weekend that we have had to take a break—to step back for a brief moment from the tasks that lie ahead.
Today as we begin this new week and the work and responsibilities it holds, help us cling to Your promise,
“i myself will prepare your way, leveling mountains and hills...
and reveal to you the hidden treasures of spiritual knowledge.”
Drive away all our fears.
Our only hope and comfort—is to turn to you,
to put all our trust in you,
to call inwardly upon you,
and to wait for your comfort with patience.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord, today as we come to You seeking Your help, wisdom and guidance,
I pray for the spirit of encouragement for these leaders.
Daily they receive hundreds of emails and calls.
Some are encouraging and nice,
some downright attack and bite.
And even though these leaders may have strong personalities and traits, criticism still wounds the spirit and the strong will it frustrates.
So I pray today that they will find strength and comfort, stamina and fortitude,
and mercy and understanding,
Most of all, Lord, help them to recognize and lean upon
Your never ending faithfulness.
I pray for Federal Judge Wesley Brown's family.
Thank you for this man of outstanding service.
Today, bring comfort and strength to his family in this time of loss.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kiegerl are spread upon the Journal:

I rise to share some joyous news with you. Last week we heard from two proud grandfathers introducing their grandchildren. I'll do them even better – I want you to take a look at the picture of Ashlynn Christine Loomis, my great granddaughter. The candy bar coming with her picture is not nearly as sweet as she is.

My granddaughter Megan, mother of Ashlynn, is 18 years old as is the father. Our great granddaughter was born under less than ideal circumstances but I am proud she was born at all. At no time did they consider terminating this pregnancy and also it was inconvenient. Megan started nurses training last week rather than last fall. She is a great blessing.

I cannot adequately express what a joy and comfort it is for an old man to see a new life begin its terrestrial pilgrimage while his is about to end.

You may have seen my license plate OPA7 which will be replaced by a new one – UR – OPA1 – great grandpa of one.

TWELFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, January 25, 2012, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.
Reps. Donohoe and Suellentrop were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, The Rev. Dr. Bruce L. Emmert, Senior Pastor, First United Methodist Church of Topeka, and guest of Rep. Tietze:

"14I am strong, and I offer sensible advice and sound judgment.
15By my power kings govern, and rulers make laws that are fair.
16Every honest leader rules with help from me."
–Proverbs 8:14-16 (CEV)

Lord our God,

In your word you declare that you offer sensible advice and sound judgment. You declare that by your power those in authority govern and through your wisdom those in office are enabled to make laws that are fair to all the people.

Pour out your spirit on these our elected leaders and fill them with your understanding of justice and your standard of righteousness so that they make sound judgments. Give them a vision of your best for the people who live in our state and give them your wisdom so that they are able to make laws that are fair to all the people.

Give them an extra measure of your grace as they seek to shoulder the burdens of elected office so that they do not grow weary under the weight of their responsibilities. Give them a sense of common purpose and friendship that transcends rural and urban, small town and large city, conservative and liberal for no one understands the weight of elected office except those who serve in that capacity.

With thanksgiving for these men and women I lift up this prayer to you, Lord our God, to the glory of your name.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Siegfreid.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Mast are spread upon the Journal:

I am privileged to stand before you today with a winning team. For two years in a row these boys have walked away as State Champions in 8 man football for the State of Kansas. Last year the team outscored their opponents 739 points to 156 with six shutouts before outlasting Hill City 52-44 in a wild championship game. This year they only had one scare, a 50-44 overtime win against Lebo and then went on to beat South Gray to again repeat the title of Division 1 Champions.

I would like to recognize these players as I call their names. Kole Schankie, Collin Kile, Corey McClelland, Mitchell Murphy, Sage Blubaugh, Tanner Bybee, Tyler Williams, Braxton Butler, Zeke Leiser, Braden Livers, Blaine Platt, Ed Alvarez, Sean West, Dallas Thompson, Marcus Ramirez, Gavin Beyer, Owen Reed, Matthew Glazier, Bryan Fankhauser, Dustin Stutesman, Chance Bankson, Willie Derryberry, Kaleb Crane, Nick Young, Matthew Ramirez, Dillon Crane, Christian Drake, Quentin Haas, Bubba Smith, Sven Beitz, Austin Buce, Hayden Serrer, Damian Gutierrez. The Coach Fred McClain; Assistant Coaches: Brett Dannels, Tracy Griffin, Mitch Martin, Caleb Hamilton, the Superintendent/Principal: Ryan Bradbury.

I would like to talk for a minute about the man who has been named 2011 Coach of the Year by the Kansas Coaches Association. Coach McClain had actually moved to Madison to take early retirement from an already successful career of coaching in New Jersey where he was inducted into the New Jersey High School Hall of Fame in 1995. I would like to give a special recognition to Coach McClain for setting a wonderful example of working hard, setting goals and enduring through the tough times to become a champion.

Rep. Mast presented framed House certificates to the players and the coach.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Father God,

As a pastor I often say,

lost, broken, hurting people matter to God;

therefore they should matter to us.

When I put this statement in the context of this legislature, whether people are living in affluent neighborhoods of our large cities, or under a bridge on the streets;

employers trying to make the business succeed, or employees trying to hang on to their jobs;

individuals burning the candle at both ends to make ends meet, or those with no initiative demanding handouts;

those who have the ability and means to gain an education, or those who lack the means by which to better themselves;

those who obey the law,

or those who disobey the law;

those who want a say and vote in elections, or those who want a say but don’t vote—

all of these people matter to You, and, therefore, should matter to us.

So grant wisdom, discernment, understanding and common sense in order to pass legislation that reflects that all these Kansans matter to us.

In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. S. Gatewood.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hill, on behalf of Rep Mast, are spread upon the Journal:

Today I am pleased to be joined by Representative Mast and to have the opportunity to introduce the new Emporia State University President, Dr. Michael Shonrock. Dr. Shonrock who is a native of Illinois is actually coming back to Kansas. After graduating from Western Illinois Dr. Shonrock came to Pittsburg State University where he was a staff member and completed his Ed.S. degree. After receiving his degree at PSU Dr. Shonrock moved to Lawrence and KU where he received his PhD. Dr. Shonrock left KU and joined the administration at Texas Tech where he has served in a variety of positions with increasing responsibility for the last 20 years.

When the Presidency at Emporia State became vacant an extensive search was conducted and having had the opportunity to meet and interact with all four of the finalists, I know the pool of talent from which the Regents had to choose the new President was exceptional.

Dr. Shonrock assumed his duties at ESU on January 3 and he has already quite clearly demonstrated his intellect, his bias for action, his vision, his interest in community involvement and the depth of his experience in public higher education, as well as in university strategic planning and enrollment management.

Above all President Shonrock has exhibited his commitment to the students he serves and his infectious enthusiasm.

We have been delighted to welcome Dr. Shonrock and his lovely wife Karen to Emporia and I ask you now to join me in a warm Kansas House of Representatives welcome to new Emporia State University President, Michael Shonrock.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Dear God—
Although what we do here in this session has much more importance and lasting effect than any sporting event, this prayer of an athlete to play fair in the game of life, is a prayer to guide us in our life and work here.
"...in the struggle that goes on through life we ask for a field that is fair, a chance that is equal with all the strife,
the courage to strive and to dare;
and if we should lose, let it be by the code, with our faith and our honor held high;
and if we should lose, let us stand by the road and cheer as the winners go by."
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Father God,
In the words of Mother Theresa—“People are often unreasonable, irrational, and self-centered.
Forgive them anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives.
Be kind anyway.
If you are honest and sincere people may deceive you.
Be honest and sincere anyway.
If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous.
Be happy anyway.
The good you do today, will often be forgotten.
Do good anyway.
Give the best you have, and it will never be enough.
Give your best anyway.
In the final analysis, it is between you and God.
It was never between you and them anyway.”
Whatever tasks these leaders face today, help them to do it all as unto You.
In Your Son’s Name, I pray, Amen.
(Mother Theresa – on wall of room)

SIXTEENTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, January 31, 2012, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.
Rep. Smith was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Matt Bachtold, Delaware Baptist Church of Fairview, and guest of Rep. Garber:

Lord, Maker of Heaven and earth, You who's Spirit fills every inch of this great state of Kansas. I humbly call upon you today and ask that by your mercy you would bring prosperity and wisdom to this House of Representatives.
Your Word says in Romans 13:1 that you establish all authority on Earth, and that no authority exists without you, so I declare your Lordship over this House today.
May your name be honored by the actions of its members, may they call out to you for wisdom, and would you instill in them the fortitude to stand up for what is right and good, protecting the voice of those who cannot speak for themselves.
As a pastor, I ask you to forgive us, your body for being complacent and self-seeking in our obedience of you, allowing ourselves to focus on dead religious activities instead of doing your work in helping the poor, causing this assembly to believe it must act in our stead. Father, forgive us and bring order to this great state.
Will you protect this house and this state's government from men or women who are corrupt and self-serving. If there are any such persons, please expose and remove them so that your blessings can rest upon us.
Lord, please guide this state and its citizens into prosperity in every area of their lives.
In the powerful name of Jesus, Amen and Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kiegerl.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

HB 2589, AN ACT concerning institutions of higher learning and student athletes, by Representative McCray-Miller.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

I would like to take a minute to introduce my newest grandson, Michael Joseph Weninger, who is 6 weeks old. Born December 16th, he plans on taking my place. Already, he doesn't like being here. Now, however, your applause seems to settle him down.
The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
help our leaders today to remember they lead as an expression of who they are, yet they must always be more than the leadership role they play.
People may see them in terms of the visible leadership role which You have entrusted to them, but only You know who they really are inside.
Their integrity as a person—and as a leader—depends on seeing themselves and what they do as You see them.
Help them to remember “Man looks at the outward appearance,
But the Lord looks at the heart.”
Today I ask that in the midst of all their responsibilities,
You guard their hearts.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.
(I Samuel 16:7, NIV)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Mah.

By Representatives O'Brien, Arpke, Calloway, Garber, Goodman, Gregory, Grosserode, M. Holmes, Huebert, Kelley, Knox, Mast, Meigs, O'Hara and Scapa

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the United States Congress to adopt the parental rights amendment, a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to parental rights.

WHEREAS, The right of parents to direct the upbringing and education of their children is a fundamental right protected by the Constitution of the United States and the state of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Our nation has historically relied first and foremost on parents to meet the real and constant needs of children; and

WHEREAS, The interests of children are best served when parents are free to make child-rearing decisions about education, religion and other areas of a child's life without state interference; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court in Wisconsin v. Yoder, 406 U.S. 205 (1972), held that “This primary role of the parents in the upbringing of their children is now established beyond debate as an enduring American tradition”; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court in Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000), however, produced six different opinions on the nature and enforceability of parental rights under the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, This decision created confusion and ambiguity about the fundamental nature of parental rights in the laws and society of the several states; and

WHEREAS, Representative John Fleming of the state of Louisiana introduced House Joint Resolution 3 in the United States House of Representatives, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to prevent erosion of the enduring American tradition of treating parental rights as fundamental rights, which reads as follows:

Section 2. Neither the United States nor any State shall infringe upon this right without demonstrating that its governmental interest as applied to the person is of the highest order and not otherwise served.

Section 3. No treaty may be adopted nor shall any source of international law be employed to supersede, modify, interpret, or apply to the rights guaranteed by this article.”; and

WHEREAS, This amendment will add explicit text to the Constitution of the United States to protect in perpetuity the rights of parents as they are now enjoyed, without substantive change to current state or federal laws respecting these rights; and

WHEREAS, Such enumeration of these rights in the text of the Constitution of the United States will preserve them from being infringed upon by the shifting ideologies and interpretations of the United States Supreme Court. Now, therefore,
Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the Congress of the United States is urged to adopt and submit to the states for ratification the Parental Rights Amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by Representative John Fleming in House Joint Resolution 3; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the Senate, each member of the United States Senate, the speaker of the United States house of Representatives and each member of the United States House of Representatives.

By Joint Committee on Kansas Security

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the United States Department of Defense to reevaluate the types of treatment facilities where the TRICARE military health care program provides coverage of substance abuse treatment and to seriously consider allowing coverage in less restrictive outpatient environments.

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Defense requires that substance abuse treatment, referred to as substance use disorder treatment (SUD), covered by the TRICARE military health care program must be provided in an authorized hospital or a treatment program in an authorized freestanding or hospital-based substance abuse treatment program; and

WHEREAS, Kansas community mental health centers are not hospitals and do not meet the requirements for freestanding or hospital-based substance abuse treatment programs; and

WHEREAS, Restrictions on the types of facilities where TRICARE SUD treatment may be provided were adopted in the late 1970s, while current treatment models permit active treatment in less restrictive outpatient environments; and

WHEREAS, Other insurers provide coverage of substance abuse treatment provided to many Kansans by community mental health centers and other state licensed community-based providers; and

WHEREAS, The military is facing growing demand for substance abuse and mental health services and their own SUD treatment programs are routinely reserved for active duty service members; and

WHEREAS, Kansans covered by TRICARE are dispersed throughout the state, many in areas where there are few, if any, SUD treatment providers: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the Legislature urges the United States Department of Defense to reevaluate requirements placed on the types of facilities where TRICARE provides coverage of SUD treatment and give serious consideration to allowing coverage of treatment provided in less restrictive outpatient environments, including community mental health centers and other state licensed community-based providers, without regard to whether the client has a mental health diagnosis; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State is directed to send enrolled copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the United States Secretary of Defense and to each member of the Kansas Congressional delegation.

"Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 74-49,123 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-49,123. (a) This section applies to the Kansas public employees retirement system and to all other public retirement plans administered by the board of trustees.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Federal internal revenue code" means the federal internal revenue code of 1954 or 1986, as amended and as applicable to a governmental plan as in effect on July 1, 2008; and

(2) "retirement plan" includes the Kansas public employees retirement system and all other Kansas public retirement plans and benefit structures, which are administered by the board.

(c) In addition to the federal internal revenue code provisions otherwise noted in each retirement plan's law, and in order to satisfy the applicable requirements under the federal internal revenue code, the retirement plans shall be subject to the following provisions, notwithstanding any other provision of the retirement plan's law:

(1) The board shall distribute the corpus and income of the retirement plan to the members and their beneficiaries in accordance with the retirement plan's law. At no time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to members and their beneficiaries shall any part of the corpus and income be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than the exclusive benefit of the members and their beneficiaries.

(2) Forfeitures arising from severance of employment, death or for any other reason may not be applied to increase the benefits any member would otherwise receive under the retirement plan's law. However, forfeitures may be used to reduce an employer's contribution.

(3) All benefits paid from the retirement plan shall be distributed in accordance with a good faith interpretation of the requirements of section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations under that section. Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules and regulations, effective on and after January 1, 2003, the retirement plan is subject to the following provisions:

(A) Benefits must begin by the required beginning date, which is the later of April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the member reaches 70 1/2 years of age or April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the member terminates employment. If a member fails to apply for retirement benefits by April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such member reaches 70 1/2 years of age or April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such member terminates employment, whichever is later, the board will begin distributing the benefit as required by this section.

(B) The member's entire interest must be distributed over the member's life or the lives of the member and a designated beneficiary, or over a period not extending beyond the life expectancy of the member or of the member and a designated beneficiary. Death benefits must be distributed in accordance with section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code of 1954, as amended and as applicable to governmental plans as in effect on July 1, 2008; and revenue code, including the incidental death benefit requirement in section 401(a)(9)(G) of the federal internal revenue code, and the regulations implementing that section.

(C) The life expectancy of a member, the member's spouse or the member's beneficiary may not be recalculated after the initial determination for purposes of determining benefits.

(D) If a member dies after the required distribution of benefits has begun, the remaining portion of the member's interest must be distributed at least as rapidly as under the method of distribution before the member's death and no longer than the remaining period over which distributions commenced.

(E) If a member dies before required distribution of the member's benefits has begun, the member's entire interest must be either:

(i) In accordance with federal regulations, distributed over the life or life expectancy of the designated beneficiary, with the distributions beginning no later than December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year of the member's death; or

(ii) distributed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the member's death.

(F) The amount of an annuity paid to a member's beneficiary may not exceed the maximum determined under the incidental death benefit requirement of the federal internal revenue code.

(G) The death and disability benefits provided by a retirement plan are limited by the incidental benefit rule set forth in section 401(a)(9)(G) of the federal internal revenue code and treasury regulation 1.401-1(b)(1)(i).

(4) Distributions from the retirement plans may be made only upon retirement, separation from service, disability or death.

(5) The board or its designee may not:

(A) Determine eligibility for benefits;

(B) compute rates of contribution; or

(C) compute benefits of members or beneficiaries, in a manner that discriminates in favor of members who are considered officers, supervisors or highly compensated, as prohibited under section 401(a)(4) of the federal internal revenue code.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this subsection, benefits paid from, and employee contributions made to, the retirement plans shall not exceed the maximum benefits and the maximum annual additions, respectively, permissible under section 415 of the federal internal revenue code.

(A) Before January 1, 1995, a member may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the limits specified in section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code, subject to the applicable adjustments in that section. Beginning January 1, 1995, a participant may not receive an annual benefit that exceeds the dollar amount specified in section 415(b)(1)(A) of the federal internal revenue code, subject to the applicable adjustments in section 415 of the federal internal revenue code.

(B) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the board may modify a request by a participant to make a contribution to the retirement plans if the amount of the contribution would exceed the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code subject to the following:

(i) Where the retirement plan's law requires a lump-sum payment, for the purchase of service credit, the board may establish a periodic payment plan in order to avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code.

(ii) If the board's option under subdivision (i) will not avoid a contribution in excess of the limits under section 415(c) or 415(n) of the federal internal revenue code, the board shall reduce or deny the contribution.

(C) Effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, if an active member makes one or more contributions to purchase permissive service credit under a retirement plan, then the requirements of this section shall be treated as met only if:

(i) The requirements of section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code are met, determined by treating the accrued benefit derived from all such contributions as an annual benefit for purposes of such section; or

(ii) the requirements of section 415(c) of the federal internal revenue code are met, determined by treating all such contributions as annual additions for purposes of such section. For purposes of applying subparagraph (i) a retirement plan shall not fail to meet the reduced limit under section 415(b)(2)(C) of the federal internal revenue code solely by reason of this paragraph (C), and for purposes of applying subparagraph (ii), a retirement plan shall not fail to meet the percentage limitation under section 415(c)(1)(B) of the federal internal revenue code solely by reason of this paragraph.

(iii) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "permissive service credit" means service credit:

(a) Specifically recognized by a retirement plan's law for purposes of calculating a member's benefit under that retirement plan;

(b) which such member has not received under a retirement plan; and

(c) which such member may receive under a retirement plan's law only by making a voluntary additional contribution, in an amount determined under the retirement plan's law and procedures established by the board, which does not exceed the amount necessary to fund the benefit attributable to such service credit.

(iv) A retirement plan shall fail to meet the requirements of this paragraph if the retirement plan's law specifically provides for a purchase of nonqualified service purchase, and if:

(a) More than five years of nonqualified service credit are taken into account for purposes of this paragraph; or

(b) any nonqualified service credit is taken into account under this paragraph before the member has at least five years of participation under a retirement plan. For purposes of this paragraph, effective for permissive service credit contributions made in limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, the term "nonqualified service credit" means the same as provided in section 415(n)(3)(C) of the federal internal revenue code.

(v) In the case of a trustee-to-trustee transfer after December 31, 2001, to which section 403(b)(13)(A) or 457(e)(17)(A) of the federal internal revenue code applies, without regard to whether the transfer is made between plans maintained by the same employer:

(a) The limitations of subparagraph (iv) shall not apply in determining whether the transfer is for the purchase of permissive service credit; and

(b) the distribution rules applicable under federal law to a retirement plan shall apply to such amounts and any benefits attributable to such amounts.
(vi) For an eligible member, the limitation of section 415(c)(1) of the federal internal revenue code shall not be applied to reduce the amount of permissive service credit which may be purchased to an amount less than the amount which was allowed to be purchased under the terms of the statute as in effect on August 5, 1997. For purposes of this subparagraph, an eligible member is an individual who first became a member in the retirement plan before January 1, 1998.

(D) Subject to approval by the internal revenue service, the board shall maintain a qualified governmental excess benefit arrangement under section 415(m) of the federal internal revenue code. The board shall establish the necessary and appropriate procedures for the administration of such benefit arrangement under the federal internal revenue code. The amount of any annual benefit that would exceed the limitations imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code shall be paid from this benefit arrangement. The amount of any contribution that would exceed the limitations imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code shall be credited to this benefit arrangement. The qualified excess benefit arrangement shall be a separate portion of the retirement plan. The qualified excess benefit arrangement is subject to the following requirements:

(i) The benefit arrangement shall be maintained solely for the purpose of providing to participants in the retirement plans that part of the participant's annual benefit otherwise payable under the terms of the act that exceeds the limitations on benefits imposed by section 415 of the federal internal revenue code; and

(ii) participants do not have an election, directly or indirectly, to defer compensation to the excess benefit arrangement.

(E) For purposes of applying these limits only and for no other purpose, the definition of compensation where applicable shall be compensation actually paid or made available during a limitation year, except as noted below and as permitted by treasury regulation section 1.415(c)-2. Specifically, compensation shall be defined as wages within the meaning of section 3401(a) of the federal internal revenue code and all other payments of compensation to an employee by an employer for which the employer is required to furnish the employee a written statement under sections 6041(d), 6051(a)(3) and 6052 of the federal internal revenue code. Compensation shall be determined without regard to any rules under section 3401(a) of the federal internal revenue code that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed, such as the exception for agricultural labor in section 3401(a)(2) of the federal internal revenue code.

(i) However, for limitation years beginning after December 31, 1997, compensation shall also include amounts that would otherwise be included in compensation but for an election under sections 125(a), 402(e)(3), 402(h)(1)(B), 402(k) or 457(b) of the federal internal revenue code. For limitation years beginning after December 30, 2000, compensation shall also include any elective amounts that are not includable in the gross income of the employee by reason of section 132(f)(4) of the federal internal revenue code.

(ii) The definition of compensation shall exclude employee contributions picked up under section 414(h)(2) of the federal internal revenue code.

(iii) For limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2007, compensation for the limitation year will also include compensation paid by the later of two and a half months after an employee's severance from employment or the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the employee's severance from employment if:

(a) The payment is regular compensation for services during the employee's regular working hours or compensation for services outside the employee's regular working hours, such as overtime or shift differential, commissions, bonuses or other similar payments, and absent a severance from employment, the payments would have been paid to the employee while the employee continues in employment with the employer; or

(b) the payment is for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation or other leave that the employee would have been able to use if employment had continued; or

(c) for limitation years beginning on and after January 1, 2012, the payment is made pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payment would have been paid to the member at the same time if the member had continued employment with the employer and only to the extent that the payment is includible in the member's gross income.

(iv) Any payments not described in paragraph (iii) are not considered compensation if paid after severance from employment, even if they are paid within two and a half months following severance from employment, except for payments to the individual who does not currently perform services for the employer by reason of qualified military service, within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the federal internal revenue code, to the extent these payments do not exceed the amounts the individual would have received if the individual had continued to perform services for the employer rather than entering qualified military service.

(v) An employee who is in qualified military service, within the meaning of section 414(u)(1) of the federal internal revenue code, shall be treated as receiving compensation from the employer during such period of qualified military service equal to: (a) The compensation the employee would have received during such period if the employee were not in qualified military service, determined based on the rate of pay the employee would have received from the employer but for the absence during the period of qualified military service; or (b) if the compensation the employee would have received during such period was not reasonably certain, the employee's average compensation from the employer during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the qualified military service, or if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding the qualified military service.

(vi) Back pay, within the meaning of treasury regulation section 1.415(c)-2(g)(8), shall be treated as compensation for the limitation year to which the back pay relates to the extent the back pay represents wages and compensation that would otherwise be included under this definition.

(7) On and after January 1, 2009, for purposes of applying the limits under section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code, the following shall apply:

(A) A member's applicable limit shall be applied to the member's annual benefit in the first limitation year without regard to any automatic cost-of-living increases;

(B) to the extent the member's annual benefit equals or exceeds such limit, the member shall no longer be eligible for cost-of-living increases until such time as the benefit plus the accumulated increases are less than such limit;

(C) thereafter, in any subsequent limitation year, the member's annual benefit including any automatic cost-of-living increase applicable shall be tested under the then applicable benefit limit including any adjustment to the dollar limit under section
415(b)(1)(A) or 415(d) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations thereunder; and

(D) in no event shall a member's annual benefit payable from a retirement plan in any limitation year be greater than the limit applicable at the annuity starting date, as increased in subsequent years pursuant to section 415(d) of the federal internal revenue code and the regulations thereunder. If the form of benefit without regard to the automatic benefit increase feature is not a straight life annuity, then the preceding sentence is applied by reducing the limit under section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code applicable at the annuity starting date to an actuarially equivalent amount determined using the assumptions specified in treasury regulation section 1.415(b)-1(c)(2)(ii) that take into account the death benefits under the form of benefit. This subsection applies to distributions made on and after January 1, 1993. A distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a transfer made from the retirement system.

(i) An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: (a) Any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments, not less frequently than annually, made for the life or the life expectancy of the distributee or the joint lives or joint life expectancies of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary or for a specified period of 10 years or more; (b) any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the federal internal revenue code; (c) the portion of any distribution that is not includable in gross income; and (d) any other distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Effective January 1, 2002, a portion of a distribution shall not fail to be an eligible rollover distribution merely because the portion consists of after-tax employee contributions that are not includable in gross income. However, such portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or annuity described in section 408(a) or (b) of the federal internal revenue code, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code or to a qualified plan described in section 403(a) of the federal internal revenue code, that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred and earnings on such amounts, including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible.

(ii) An eligible retirement plan is any of the following that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution:

(a) An individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the federal internal revenue code;

(b) an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the federal internal revenue code;

(c) an annuity plan described in section 403(a) of the federal internal revenue code;
(d) a qualified trust described in section 401(a) of the federal internal revenue code;
(e) effective January 1, 2002, an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the federal internal revenue code;
(f) effective January 1, 2002, a plan eligible under section 457(b) of the federal internal revenue code that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into the plan from a retirement plan; or
(g) effective January 1, 2008, a roth IRA described in section 408(A) of the federal internal revenue code.

(iii) Effective January 1, 2002, the definition of eligible rollover distribution also includes a distribution to a surviving spouse, or to a spouse or former spouse who is an alternate payee under a domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the federal internal revenue code.

(iv) A distributee includes an employee or former employee. It also includes the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the federal internal revenue code. Effective July 1, 2007, a distributee further includes a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by section 401(a)(9)(E) of the federal internal revenue code. However, a nonspouse beneficiary may rollover the distribution only to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.

(v) A direct rollover is a payment by the retirement system to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

(8) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the board may accept a direct or indirect eligible rollover distributions for the purpose of the purchase of service credit. In addition, the board may accept a direct trustee to trustee transfer from a deferred compensation plan under section 457(b) of the federal internal revenue code or a tax sheltered annuity under section 403(b) of the federal internal revenue code for: (A) The purchase of permissive service credit, as defined under section 415(n)(3)(A) of the federal internal revenue code; or (B) a repayment to which section 415 of the federal internal revenue code does not apply pursuant to section 415(k)(3) of the federal internal revenue code. Any such transfer shall be allowed as provided in this subsection to the extent permitted by law, subject to any conditions, proofs or acceptance established or required by the board or the board's designee.

(9) Where required by the act, an employer shall pick up and pay contributions that would otherwise be payable by members of a retirement plan in accordance with section 414(h)(2) of the federal internal revenue code as follows:

(A) The contributions, although designated as employee contributions, are being paid by the employer in lieu of contributions by the employee;
(B) the employee must not have been given the option of receiving the amounts directly instead of having them paid to the retirement plan; and
(C) the pickup shall apply to amounts that a member elects to contribute to receive credit for prior or participating service if the election is irrevocable and applies to amounts contributed before retirement.

(10) (A) Notwithstanding any provision of this plan to the contrary, contributions, benefits and service credit with respect to qualified military service will be provided in accordance with section 414(u) of the federal internal revenue code and the uniformed services employment and reemployment rights act of 1994.

(B) Effective with respect to deaths occurring on or after January 1, 2007, while a member is performing qualified military service, as defined in chapter 43 of title 38, United States code, to the extent required by section 401(a)(37) of the federal internal revenue code, survivors of a member in the system, are entitled to any additional benefits that the system would provide if the member had resumed employment and then died, such as accelerated vesting or survivor benefits that are contingent on the member's death while employed. A deceased member's period of qualified military service must be counted for vesting purposes.

(C) Effective with respect to deaths or disabilities, or both, occurring on or after January 1, 2007, while a member is performing qualified military service, as defined in chapter 43 of title 38, United States code, to the extent permitted by section 414(u)(9) of the federal internal revenue code, for the benefit accrual purposes and in the case of death, for vesting purposes, the member will be treated as having earned years of service for the period of qualified military service, having returned to employment on the day before the death or disability, or both, and then having terminated on the date of death or disability. This provision shall be applied to all similarly situated individuals in a reasonably equivalent manner.

(D) Beginning January 1, 2009, to the extent required by section 414(u)(12) of the federal internal revenue code, an individual receiving differential wage payments, as defined under section 3401(h)(2) of the federal internal revenue code, from an employer shall be treated as employed by that employer, and the differential wage payment shall be treated as compensation for purposes of applying the limits on annual additions under section 415(c) of the federal internal revenue code. This provision shall be applied to all similarly situated individuals in a reasonably equivalent manner.

(11) Upon the complete or partial termination of a retirement plan, the rights of members to benefits accrued to the date of termination, to the extent funded, or to the amounts in their accounts are nonforfeitable, and amounts in their accounts may be distributed to them.

e The limitation year for purposes of section 415 of the federal internal revenue code is the calendar year.

(f) The board may not engage in a transaction prohibited by section 503(b) of the federal internal revenue code.

(g) (1) For purposes of determining an "actuarial equivalent" or of an "actuarial computation" for members hired prior to July 1, 2009, the board shall use the following:

(4) For benefit testing under section 415(b) of the federal internal revenue code, the factors required by treasury regulations shall be used. INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bill and concurrent resolution were thereupon introduced and read by title:

HB 2599, AN ACT concerning motor vehicles; relating to certain antique license plates; providing for registration decals; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 8-172 and repealing the existing section, by Committee on Transportation.

By Committee on Corrections and Juvenile Justice

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION commending the positive approach and best practices of the Crisis Intervention Team program and encouraging the development of active crisis intervention team programs statewide.
WHEREAS, Mental illness is a serious medical condition that affects children, adolescents, adults and the elderly; and

WHEREAS, In response to the need for law enforcement officers to better understand and resolve issues arising from persons with mental illness, 1,250 Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) programs have been developed nationally and in the Kansas counties of Reno, Lyon, Johnson, Shawnee, Sedgwick and Wyandotte; and

WHEREAS, More than 900 law enforcement officers statewide have been trained by local CIT councils and the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Center, including officers of the Capitol Police, Kansas Department of Corrections, as well as School Resource Officers and local jail and dispatch personnel; and

WHEREAS, CIT training is a 40-hour curriculum, based on the Memphis Police Department Crisis Intervention Team model of best practices for law enforcement intervention with persons who have a mental illness;

WHEREAS, The CIT program trains law enforcement officers to effectively and humanely intervene and assist in situations involving children and adults who find themselves in psychiatric crisis; and

WHEREAS, Implementing the CIT program on a statewide basis means building strong working partnerships between law enforcement agencies and mental health resources in the community, which enable law enforcement and mental health agencies to collaborate to identify appropriate and long-term solutions for persons with mental illness; and

WHEREAS, The CIT program is proven to reduce the likelihood of physical confrontation and use of force in intervention situations, improve officer safety and decrease injuries to law enforcement officers involved in crisis intervention; and

WHEREAS, The CIT program decreases the use of arrest and detention of persons experiencing a mental health crisis by providing these persons with better access to timely and appropriate mental health treatment and community services; and

WHEREAS, The CIT program provides an immediate response to crisis intervention situations by specially trained law enforcement officers; and

WHEREAS, Many local jails now operate as the largest mental health institutions in their community and CIT programs reduce the number of nonviolent persons with mental illness in local jails as a result of minor offenses; and

WHEREAS, Most of those incarcerated with mental illness also have alcohol and drug problems and are categorized as having "co-occurring disorders"; and

WHEREAS, Such persons are better served through treatment of their mental illness in the community than by being detained in jail, thereby resulting in significant cost savings for both police and jails, while providing treatment that will reduce the likelihood of recidivism; and

WHEREAS, The CIT program promotes good will between law enforcement and members of the community; and

WHEREAS, Not all law enforcement agencies in Kansas have CIT-trained officers; and not all CIT-trained officers are connected to a CIT program that is implemented in partnership with mental health providers: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, the Senate concurring therein: That the Legislature of the State of Kansas recognizes the outstanding leadership of the Crisis Intervention Team programs and CIT as a model of best practice for law enforcement intervention with persons who have a mental illness;
and

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature encourages law enforcement agencies to lead the effort in partnership with community mental health centers and local advocacy organizations representing individuals living with mental illnesses and their family members to establish local and regional CIT programs; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the Kansas Association of Chiefs of Police, the Kansas Sheriffs Association, the Kansas Peace Officers Association, the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Center, and the Secretaries of Social and Rehabilitation Services and the Kansas Department of Corrections.

REPORT ON ENGROSSED BILLS

HB 2273 reported correctly engrossed January 31, 2012.

On motion of Rep. Siegfreid, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, February 2, 2012.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dr. M. Rex Fuller, Faith Baptist Church of Concordia, and guest of Rep. Bowers:

Dear Lord, Thank you for your blessings on the 151 years of Kansas history and for the heritage that we enjoy. Thank you for the men and women in this room who have the great responsibility of establishing laws within the framework of the Kansas Constitution. I pray that all of us will be reminded of the words of Benjamin Franklin during the Constitutional Convention in 1787, “I have lived, Sir, a long time, and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth – that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the sacred writings, that 'except the Lord build the House they labour in vain that build it.” So, dear Lord, here today we ask for your hand of guidance and blessing upon every member of the Kansas House of Representatives. May they find and follow your leadership in every decision they make. In Jesus' holy name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Bowers.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Dear Father God,
In Your Word we are told,
“do not be afraid or discouraged…
for the battle is not yours, it is God’s.”
Help us to realize that as leaders we are stewards of Your purposes and resources. Too often, we act as if we are the owners.
It is easy for us to try to play God…
to think we work miracles for You,
rather than You working miracles for us.
This day is yours;
these people are yours;
the resources are yours;
the challenges we face are yours—
as is anything we hope to accomplish.
Help us to let go and recognize…
it is all Yours—not ours.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.
(2 Chronicles 20:15)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Meigs.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. LeDoux are spread upon the Journal:

I rise to a Point of Personal Privilege to pay respects to PVC Cody Baker of Holton, Kansas. Six months ago today Cody lost his life in Afghanistan defending our country.

On the day of Cody's funeral in Holton, countless men, women and children wore Cody's memorial shirts and waved American Flags on the streets of that small town. A few days ago, Cody's mother, Candy McManigal, sent out an email asking he citizens of Holton to wear their memorial shirts this day.

That day last summer was one I shall never forget. I have never seen so many American Flags as the people of Holton lined the streets to pay their respects too our fallen hero. I was honored to stand with my fellow Holtonians and shield Cody and his family from the protestors who were on hand.

Mr. Speaker, PFC Baker gave his life defending the rights that so many of us sadly take for granted today. Daily, we in the Kansas House exercise these rights as we freely debate the issues facing our great state. True to form of our soldiers, he defended even the rights of those who protested his memorial service. Amazing.

I want to express that today the citizens of Holton and Jackson County honor PFC Baker's life and his service. I am proud to stand before you all today and pay my own respects to Cody, his parents Mike and Candy McManigal, and his entire family.

I am also very pleased the men and women of the Kansas House of Representatives honor Cody as well on this day.

PFC Cody Baker, thank you for your service. Godspeed, young man. Well done, good and faithful servant

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Executive Reorganization Order No. 41
By Governor Sam Brownback
February 6, 2012

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 41 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor’s Message.

Following nearly a year long process of stakeholder input and studying Medicaid, Lieutenant Governor Jeff Colyer, M.D. and I announced a comprehensive plan to reform Medicaid to improve the health of vulnerable Kansans while transforming Medicaid into a program that will be sustainable for years to come. A crucial component in the reform plan is to more efficiently administer the state agencies that administer the Medicaid program.

When Dr. Colyer and I came into office, Medicaid was spread across four state agencies, service was highly fragmented, and communication between agencies was a challenge. Following this reorganization, major Medicaid agencies will be consolidated from four to two and each more closely aligned with their core mission. The Kansas Department of Health and Environment Division of Health Care Finance will consolidate the financing arm of Medicaid. The former Department on Aging will become the Department for Aging and Disability Services, consolidating all disability waiver and mental health services from the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services into one agency that will manage the programmatic functions of Medicaid. This reorganization will transform the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services into the new Department for Children and Families which will focus, in a targeted way, on child and family welfare issues. The consolidations and transfers are summarized as follows:

1) The disability and behavioral health services section of the Kansas department for children and families as established by K.S.A. 75-3301, et. seq; K.S.A. 75-5375, et. seq; and other statutory and rule and regulation authority as set forth more fully in Executive Reorganization Order No. 41, is transferred to the Kansas department for aging and disability services.
2) All institutions, as defined by subsection (b) of K.S.A. 76-12a01 and the programs operated by such institutions shall be transferred from the Kansas department for children and families to the Kansas department for aging and disability services.

3) Parts of the health occupations credentialing program of the department of health and environment under the Kansas act on credentialing, K.S.A. 65-5001 through 65-5011 along with other statutory and rule and regulation authority as set forth more fully in Executive Reorganization Order No. 41, shall be transferred to and shall be administered by the secretary for aging and disability services.

4) The criminal history record check program, as authorized by individual credentialing statutes or rules and regulations, K.S.A. 39-969, K.S.A. 39-970, and subsection (b) of K.S.A. 22-4707, shall be transferred from the department of health and environment to the Kansas department for aging and disability services.

5) The psychiatric residential treatment facility licensure program of the department of health and environment under K.S.A. 65-501 et seq. along with other statutory and rule and regulation authority as set forth more fully in Executive Reorganization Order No. 41, is hereby transferred to the Kansas department for aging and disability services and shall be a part thereof.

Kansas is asking providers and consumers of Medicaid to change the way they do business to improve outcomes for the most vulnerable Kansans while managing costs. This reorganization will enhance the Administration’s ability to serve those Kansans in an effective and efficient manner. I look forward to working with the Legislature to achieve these important goals for Kansans.
document regardless of whether such reference is in regard to any of the powers, duties, or functions transferred pursuant to this order or not, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the secretary for children and families.

Sec. 3. (a) The disability and behavioral health services section of the Kansas department for children and families is hereby transferred to the Kansas department for aging and disability services and shall be a part thereof. The disability and behavioral health services section transferred to the Kansas department for aging and disability services by this order shall be administered by the secretary for aging and disability services.

The programs to be transferred by this section are:

1. Mental health and substance abuse, serious emotionally disturbed, developmental disability, physical disability, traumatic brain injury, autism, technology assistance, and money-follows-the-person Medicaid waivers and programs;

4. licensure of private psychiatric hospitals, as defined by K.S.A. 75-3307b, and amendments thereto;
5. licensure and regulation of facilities and providers of residential services, as defined by K.S.A. 75-3307b, and amendments thereto;

7. any other programs and related grants administered by the disability and behavioral health services section of the Kansas department for children and families prior to the effective date of this order.

Sec. 4. (a) All institutions, as defined by subsection (b) of K.S.A. 76-12a01, and amendments thereto, and the programs operated by such institutions are hereby transferred from the Kansas department for children and families to the Kansas department for aging and disability services. MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. O'Neal, HR 6006, a resolution in memory of Representative Rocky Fund, was adopted.
Remarks of Rep. O’Neal:
During my 28 years of service here in the Kansas House, it’s been my distinct privilege to serve with many wonderful Kansans who have come from all corners of the state and from all walks of life. Many have left lasting impressions in their own way but some stand out more than others in ways that are as surprising as they are remarkable.

To me, Rocky was one of those remarkable shining lights, a man who lit up a room by his mere presence and warmed your heart with his kind and respectful demeanor. A true servant of his constituents, he embodied all that is good in a democratic process.

In these 28 years I’ve mourned the loss of several colleagues whom God has called home before our hearts were ready. This loss, in many ways, has been my most difficult to accept, but accept it I must and today we honor Rocky's memory and thank his family members for their unselfish act of sharing Rocky with us.

Joining us today are a number of Rocky's family members, including his loving wife Linda, son Matt and wife Angalee, granddaughter Layla and grandson Cody. His daughter Jesse could not be with us today. We are also joined by brothers Alan and wife Brenda Fund, Larry and wife Betty Fund, Dennis and wife Mary Beth Fund and sisters Sharon Heiman, Karen McClaskey and Nancy and husband Larry Rilinger.

Linda, please know how much we appreciate Rocky’s service. He will always represent to those of us who knew him the best example of selfless and honorable service. He inspired us and is and will be greatly missed.

The following written remarks of Rep. LeDoux are printed with special permission:

Today I pay tribute to my predecessor, the late Representative Rocky Fund. You all had the privilege of serving in this body with Rocky, and each of you knows what a kind and warm-hearted gentleman he was.

Rocky served his fellow man in many ways; he was a member of the armed services, a longtime educator in Jackson County public schools, and a farrier who helped many a farmer and rancher with his unique skills. Finally, Rocky was a dedicated member of the Kansas House of Representatives. While here, he served those of us back home with characteristic honor, integrity and humility.

In 2006, Rocky and I both ran for the 50th District seat when the previous occupant retired. In that race, Rocky defeated me by a little over 100 votes. But Mr. Speaker, there was no sting in that defeat. Rocky was a good and decent man, and I can tell you, when you get beat by a good person, it doesn’t hurt so bad. Rocky won on a Tuesday, and when the sun came up on Wednesday, I went to our local newspaper and placed an ad thanking my supporters and urging them all to support Rocky. As I said then “Rocky Fund is a good man, and he will serve us well”. My friends, he did exactly that; for the ensuing five years Rocky Fund served his neighbors back home ably.

So today, Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Rocky’s memory and to give thanks for his selfless service to Kansas. To his wife, Linda, and his children Matt and Jesse, I say thank you for sharing your husband and father with the rest of us.

And to Representative Rocky Fund, Godspeed. Well done, good and faithful servant. Well done.

Dear Lord,
These things I specifically pray for today for these leaders:
strength and stamina to endure the long days;
wisdom and discernment to make the right choices;
a sense of humor and lightheartedness to lessen the tension;
kind words and actions to avoid hostility;
patience and gentleness when responding to constituents and each other;
and a peace and understanding that only comes from You.
And if all else fails—remind them of Your unfailing love for them…
that thought alone is enough to help them through anything life throws their way.
In Your Son’s Name I pray, Amen.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Bowers are spread upon the Journal:

2012 has been designated "International Year of Cooperatives" globally, and here in Kansas, Governor Brownback has proclaimed 2012 as the “Year of Cooperatives” as well. Cooperatives are member-owned, member-controlled business’ where profits are returned to patrons based on the volume of business conducted with the co-op.
The co-op business model is adaptable to nearly every sector of our economy. In Kansas, the success of the business model is evident in every county in our state through more than 239 individual cooperatives doing business in our state as credit unions, rural electric and telecommunications providers, consumers and grocery cooperatives, housing co-ops, Farm Credit associations, and grain and farm supply cooperatives.

The “Year of Cooperatives” theme – Cooperative Enterprises Build a Better World” emphasizes how cooperative businesses positively influence members lives and the communities around them. By meeting member needs, cooperatives provided light to rural Kansas, opened marketing opportunities for ag producers, brought financing options to communities, and increased housing and grocery choices. Co-op are also vital community members contributing to youth programs, supporting charitable initiatives, and providing good jobs all across our state. Our Kansas cooperatives are carrying forward on the mission to build better communities, a better state and to better the world around them.

It is my pleasure to recognize the “Year of Cooperatives” and our co-ops across Kansas. We have several cooperative members in the statehouse today - the Kansas Credit Union Association’s Day at the Capitol and members of the KCUA and Kansas Cooperative Council in the gallery this morning.

The House Certificate requested by Representative Michael O’Neal reads:

Be it hereby known to all that: Sincere congratulations are offered to ALL KANSAS COOPERATIVES for contributing to the success of individuals and communities across the state and for helping to build a better state and world commemorating The “International year of Cooperatives” – 2012. The entire membership extends it very best wishes on this memorable achievement and continued success.

Again, congratulations to all our Kansas cooperatives as we celebrate the “Year of Cooperatives” today and throughout 2012.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6009—
By Representatives O'Brien, Arpke, Calloway, Garber, Goodman, Gregory, Grosserode, M. Holmes, Huebert, Kelley, Knox, Mast, Meigs, O'Hara and Scapa

A RESOLUTION urging the United States Congress to adopt the parental rights amendment, a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to parental rights.

WHEREAS, The right of parents to direct the upbringing and education of their children is a fundamental right protected by the Constitution of the United States and the state of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Our nation has historically relied first and foremost on parents to meet the real and constant needs of children; and

WHEREAS, The interests of children are best served when parents are free to make child-rearing decisions about education, religion and other areas of a child's life without state interference; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court in Wisconsin v. Yoder, 406 U.S. 205 (1972), held that "This primary role of the parents in the upbringing of their children is now established beyond debate as an enduring American tradition"; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court in Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000), however, produced six different opinions on the nature and enforceability of parental rights under the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, This decision created confusion and ambiguity about the fundamental nature of parental rights in the laws and society of the several states; and

WHEREAS, Representative John Fleming of the state of Louisiana introduced House Joint Resolution 3 in the United States House of Representatives, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to prevent erosion of the enduring American tradition of treating parental rights as fundamental rights, which reads as follows:

"Section 1. The liberty of parents to direct the upbringing and education of their children is a fundamental right.

Section 2. Neither the United States nor any State shall infringe upon this right without demonstrating that its governmental interest as applied to the person is of the highest order and not otherwise served.

Section 3. No treaty may be adopted nor shall any source of international law be employed to supersede, modify, interpret, or apply to the rights guaranteed by this article."; and

WHEREAS, This amendment will add explicit text to the Constitution of the United States to protect in perpetuity the rights of parents as they are now enjoyed, without substantive change to current state or federal laws respecting these rights; and

WHEREAS, Such enumeration of these rights in the text of the Constitution of the United States will preserve them from being infringed upon by the shifting ideologies and interpretations of the United States Supreme Court: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That the Congress of the United States is urged to adopt and submit to the states for ratification the Parental Rights Amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by Representative John Fleming in House Joint Resolution 3; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the Senate, each member of the United States Senate, the speaker of the United States house of Representatives and each member of the United States House of Representatives.

On motion of Rep. Siegfreid, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Suellentrop in the chair.

Kansas Trivia Question – Although Harold Ross and Jane Grant, the married founders of a national magazine, targeted it specifically at people who were not from Dubuque, Iowa, Grant may have had in mind the Kansans in her home town of Girard. What is the name of Ross and Grant's magazine that was not for little old ladies?
Answer: The New Yorker

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Crum are spread upon the Journal:

It is a great pleasure to introduce the 2011 Class 4A Champion Rose Hill Football team. The Rockets under the direction of head coach, Greg Slade, went 13 and 1 and wrapped up it's first state football championship in fine fashion with a shut-out over Eudora 21 to 0 in the championship game.
The Rockets demonstrated great team work all season and learned that hard work and dedication can result in success.
Rep. Crum presented a framed House certificate to the team.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Victors are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I invited the Kansas Native American tribes, businesses, organizations and Haskell University for the 1st Annual Native American day at the Kansas state capitol. I believe this day is important to help raise issues about Native Americans at the state level. This day will help serve as a reminder of the relationship between the state and its tribal communities and to strengthen our government to government relationships. I hope to continue this tradition in order to take an opportunity to celebrate and honor the history, customs, cultures, and traditions of the tribes of the great state of Kansas. Now, I would like to introduce the tribal chairmen of the Kansas tribes and present them with a certificate and a traditional Native American blanket for appreciation of the work they do for their tribes. Now let me introduce our guests, Prairie band of Potawatomi Nation, Chairman Steve Ortiz; Kickapoo Nation of Kansas, Chairman Steve Cadue; Sac & Fox Nation, Chairman Mike Dougherty, and representation from the Iowa tribe of Kansas and Nebraska, and the Kaw Nation.

Now let me leave you with a quote from my very great grandfather, Chief Standing Bear of the Ponca tribe, who was the first Native American to be successful in U.S. District Court in 1879, which granted “Native Americans are persons within the meaning of the law.” In 1879, the trial drew to a close; the judge announced that Chief Standing Bear would be allowed to make a speech in his own behalf. Raising his right hand, Chief Standing Bear proceeded to speak. Among his words were, “This hand is not the color of yours, but if I prick it, the blood will flow, and I shall feel pain,” said Standing Bear. “The blood is of the same color as yours. God made me, and I am a man.” Therefore, the law should protect and give the same rights to Native Americans.

Rep. Victors presented framed House certificates and a traditional Native American blanket to the representatives from each tribe.

INTRODUCTION OF SENATE BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following Senate bill was introduced and read by title:

SB 300.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6010--
By Representative Trimmer

A RESOLUTION requesting that the United States Department of Labor continue to exempt young persons under the age of 16 from the provisions of child labor laws when the work is farm related.
WHEREAS, It has been a long tradition in American agriculture that young people under 16 years of age have helped on the farm; and
WHEREAS, Many of these young people are members of a family helping to support a family farm; and
WHEREAS, The number of agriculturally related accidents among youngsters under the age of 16 working on a farm is no greater than the number of accidents involving youngsters under the age of 16 which occur on the highway or in other youth-related activities; and
WHEREAS, Prohibiting youngsters under the age of 16 from working on farms would have a severely negative impact on many farm family incomes; and
WHEREAS, The tradition of children of farm families working on the family farm not only strengthens the family unit, but it also builds character in the children which serves them well in later life; and
WHEREAS, Prohibiting youngsters under the age of 16 from working on farms would place some farm families in an extremely difficult position by having to choose between violating the law while preserving a long-standing and highly cherished agricultural tradition or following the law to the detriment of the farm family and the family farm: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we urge the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Labor to make no changes in the current laws or regulations regarding child labor which would disrupt or have a detrimental effect on agriculture and the ability of children under the age of 16 to work on a farm; and

Be it further resolved: That copies of this resolution be provided to Hilda L. Solis, Secretary of the U. S. Department of Labor and to the Kansas congressional delegation.

REPORT ON ENGROSSED BILLS

HB 2460, HB 2461 reported correctly engrossed February 7, 2012.

On motion of Rep. Siegfried, the House adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, February 9, 2012.
The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O’Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.
Rep. Shultz was excused on legislative business.
Rep. Denning was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Reverend Billy Simar, Pratt Assembly of God, and guest of Rep. Hoffman.

In the authority of Jesus Christ, as a man who has been transformed by His merciful and mighty power, I thank you for the opportunity to pray for these men and women who are willing to serve our great state.

I thank you for their personal sacrifice and their willingness to leave their homes to come and serve us, the Kansas people, by giving of their time and talents. I know you hear my cry today for help on behalf of each of them and our state.

Lord, I cry out with the Psalmist today:

Whom have I in heaven but you? And earth has nothing I desire besides you. Psalms 73: 25 (NIV)

God you are the only one that can impact man’s heart and make a difference in our lives, regardless of the state of our economy or the ability of local government to meet needs. You and only you can change man. I know that change will not come until we desire nothing but you!! Oh God, help us desire nothing but you! Burn that in our hearts today!! Nothing but you!

Psalmist Asaph further declared:

My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. Psalms 73:26

Again, I pray that you would move in our midst and stir our hearts to trust you and you alone. Man’s wisdom will not change the destiny of our state or country. Man’s labor will not change the destiny of our state our country. But God, if you would become the strength of our heart and our portion forever, then and only then can we lead a state or nation.
Those who are far from you will perish; you destroy all who are unfaithful to you. (Psalm 73:27) ... Asaph declared in this Psalm. I pray oh sovereign God, that these men and women with the power to make changes in our great state would understand that God cannot lie. If we work tirelessly to legislate our laws to govern our people to live better; but neglect their sole, we have failed them.

And finally my precious Lord and Savior, as Asaph so eloquently stated in Psalm 73, I plead for these men and this state. Oh God, may this ring true in each of our lives and may this be the words spoken over each of us when we breath our last:

But as for me, it is good to be near God. I have made the Sovereign LORD my refuge; I will tell of all your deeds. Psalm 73:28

This is my prayer today for this session, these men, and this state!

Once again thank you for hearing us, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Montgomery.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Ballard are spread upon the Journal:

The Kansas African American Affairs Commission is hosting the Annual African American Greek Day at the Capitol throughout the day. The Commission has planned numerous activities intended to enhance the civic leadership skills of the fraternities and sororities to become better informed, more involved, and successfully collaborate with the State of Kansas. African American fraternities and sororities serve and are recognized as grassroots leaders in their local community. They become members of their organization of choice during their undergraduate years and they continue public service after college thru involvement in graduate chapters in their communities throughout the State of Kansas. The programs and projects African American fraternities and sororities implement are often driven by national agendas that closely mirror equity issues, included in a document on the “State of African Americans in Kansas” developed by the Kansas African American Affairs Commission. On behalf of the African American Legislators we want to thank you for coming to our Capitol for many years during Black History Month. I would like to ask our Greek organizations in the gallery to stand and be recognized by members of the House of Representatives.

signature may be made by another person at the voter's direction if the signature reflects such voter's intention.

c) A member of the election board shall:
(1) Announce the voter's name in a loud and distinct tone of voice, and, if the name is in the registration books, the member of the election board having the registration record shall repeat the name;
(2) request the voter's signature on the registration or poll book;
(3) provide the required signature at the request of and on behalf of any voter who is unable to personally affix a signature by reason of temporary illness or disability, or

Creator God—
This morning we do celebrate You as our Creator.
You have created the heavens and the earth.
You have created us – uniquely and differently.
You have created us male and female;
some short, some tall;
some with hair, some with not;
some introverted, some extroverted;
some driven by logic, some by feelings;
some motivated by tasks, some by people.

We won’t, though, hold you responsible for creating us as Democrats or Republicans—as Wildcats or Jayhawks.
The reality is, each of us are created distinctively different, yet, as a corporate body
we are to work together for the greater good.

We are to strive for unity in the midst of our diversity.
This can only come about as Your Word instructs us to, “do this with humility and discipline—not in fits and starts, but steadily, pouring ourselves out for each other in acts of love, alert at noticing differences and quick at mending fences…
speaking truth in love.”
This I ask of You today in Your Son, Christ Jesus, Amen.
(Ephesians 4:2, 15 – The Message)
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Howell.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Loving God,
Today is a day that we turn our attention and focus to “love.”
As we show expressions of our love to one another, may we not neglect to reflect upon the love that You have for us.
“You put Your love on the line for us by offering Your Son in sacrificial death while we were of no use whatever to You.”
You then go on to tell us to “love each other as You have loved us.”
As we reach out to one another in a loving way, we reach out to our colleague, Representative Grant, whose brother just passed away.
Please show him and the family Your love, strength, grace and comfort in these days.
We also pray for Sergeant-at-Arms, Wayne Owen, who today is going through a very serious and potentially dangerous surgery.
Thank you for those whom you have gifted with knowledge, skills and abilities to perform this surgery.
Please be present in that operating room—guiding and directing all medical personnel.
Be the source of strength and courage to the Owen family, and bring complete healing to his body.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Even though this provision is not often used, HB 2515 promotes state intervention in how local governments choose to spend their money. Bigger, more intrusive state government is reason enough to vote no. But this is also an attempt to preclude local governments from ensuring that local workers get jobs and that those jobs pay a living wage. This is a thinly-veiled notch in the belt for the anti-labor, anti-Kansas worker lobby. A sad day for Kansas. I vote no. – ANN MAH

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Lynn R. Dickson, pastor, First Christian Church, Leavenworth, and guest of Rep. Goodman:

Blessed are You God of the Universe, Creator of Earth and Heaven and Giver of Life. We acknowledge Your Presence in the world and seek Your blessing in this new day. Grant that we may recognize the beauty of life and the joys of sharing it with one another and the people of this great State. We praise You for all the richness of our State with her resources and power to produce life giving bread, riches from under the earth, and power from her winds and sky. Most of all we thank you for all her people and the blessings they bring; for they are our greatest asset and bring our greatest responsibility.

The citizens of this House of Representatives have been charged with a greater responsibility to charter direction and to provide leadership for Kansas that all our people may prosper. Like Albus Dumbledore we recognize that “Dark and difficult times lie ahead. Soon we must all face the choice between what is right and what is easy.” Give these House members courage to make the choices that show true leadership in providing life and opportunity to all of the citizens of this great State.

We know that we all will be judged. May this House be judged as one who didn't waste its time or the money of the people, but worked selflessly in cooperation with others to make this State even greater and provided for the common good by lifting up the weak and insuring that all her citizens had all they needed. May Kansas be known not just as the home State of great basketball, but as a State where the ideals and characteristics of America are lived at their highest. Amen.
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Gregory.

Kansas Trivia Question – During the early years of the twentieth century, the state legislature considered declaring Kansas a bilingual state. One language was to be English and what was the other?
   Answer: German

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Seiwert and Kerschen are spread upon the Journal:

This morning I would like to recognize a school from my district, St. Joseph’s Catholic School Ost in Mount Hope, Kansas for receiving the Governor’s Award for Excellence in Education. To achieve this award schools must attain the “Standard of Excellence” in reading and mathematics and also make adequate yearly progress in both of these subjects. One hundred percent of all students at St. Joseph’s passed their state assessment tests.

Out of all the elementary and middle schools in Kansas, St. Joseph’s was one of forty three schools to achieve this honor. For this I commend the students, teaching staff, and the principal of St. Joseph’s Catholic School Ost.

St Joseph’s is represented today by its principal Eva Harmon and four students, Mackenzie Puetz, Chip Dockers, Chloe Allmond, and Allie Frasher. The students are also serving today as pages.

Reps. Seiwert and Kerschen presented a framed House certificate to the school.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Calloway and Grant are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks by Rep. Calloway:

With a record of 13-1, the Pittsburg State University Gorilla's are the 2011 NCAA Division II National Champions. The 2011 National Championship is the fourth in the history of the university. Twelve Gorillas earned All-MIAA honors, 12 Gorillas earned All-Super Region Four honors and nine Gorillas captured NCAA Division II All-American recognition.

We are extremely proud of this team's accomplishments on the field, but we are also proud of their accomplishments in the classroom. In addition to bringing home a national championship, this team also earned a cumulative 3.0 GPA in the classroom. It is an indication of the focus Pittsburg State places on its academics.

Coach Tim Beck was selected as the 2011 Liberty Mutual NCAA Division II Coach of the Year, the 2011 FieldTurf NCAA Division II Coach of the Year, and the 2011 Don Hansen NCAA Division II Coach of Year.

Remarks by Rep. Grant:

It is with great GORILLA PRIDE, I stand before you today and tell you how proud southeast Kansas and the state of Kansas is of the 2011 NCAA Division II National Champion Pittsburg State University Gorillas. These coaches and team members ended the 2010 season with a win but also a 6-6 season.

To watch them come together and grow as a winning team was a sight to see. They will remember this championship for the rest of their lives.

Gentlemen, thank you for the thrill, the memories and most of all for the fourth national championship for Pittsburg State and I am sure it will not be the last.

The Gorillas are in the house.

Coach Beck was presented with framed House certificates for his selection as coach of the year and one for the team's national championship.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Sub HB 2178 approved on February 14, 2012.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Loganbill, HR 6004, A resolution proclaiming and celebrating the 125th anniversary of the founding of Bethel College, North Newton, Kansas, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Loganbill are spread upon the Journal:

One hundred twenty-five years ago Bethel College was just an ambitious dream. Bethel College would serve Mennonites throughout North America and offer seminary training for ministers and missionaries and also offer a complete liberal arts education.
Today that dream still holds true for the students who come to Bethel. Higher education, with an emphasis on service, is a hallmark of one’s Bethel College experience. Bethel graduates continue to serve the wider community all over the world. Bethel graduates have become missionaries, ministers, professors, teachers, inventors, artists, doctors, authors, museum directors, scientists, farmers, and legislators. Service was and is a core value of a Bethel College education. Today the Kansas House of Representatives is honoring that core value.

We have with us today the president, Dr. Perry White and two past presidents: Dr. Douglas Penner was president from 1995 to 2002 and LaVerne Epp was president from 2002 to 2005.

Mr. Speaker, I would be remiss if I did not mention the Bethel College – KU connection. The late basketball coach Otto Unruh, attended Bethel but transferred to KU where he played for Coach Phog Allen. Coach Unruh returned to Bethel to coach. In the fall of 1941 he invited Coach Allen and the KU Jayhawks to Bethel to help open Memorial Hall. Unfortunately, the Threshers lost to the Jayhawks 61 – 28. There is also a story of a “kidnapping” of a Newton High School basketball player from the 1948 Newton High School “Dream Team” by an overzealous KU alum. That basketball player went on to play for Bethel. Coach Allen is said to have remarked “Bethel? Bethel? What in the world do you want to go to Bethel for?”

Please join me in recognizing Bethel College as it celebrates its 125th anniversary.

Lord,
We give thanks that it is Friday, and in a few hours we will be on our way.
Please grant us a good weekend,
as we spend time with family and friends.
We ask for protection for those who travel, and help us all, our stress to unravel.
However, we recognize that before we leave,
there are still actions and decisions to achieve.
So give us direction, insight and clarity.
for solutions of which we can all agree, and for this poor poetry to end.
I pray in Your Son’s Name, Amen.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: Sub HB 2470 started out good, and then it got better. The actions of the Judiciary Committee to remove the RE-registration fee required of scrap metal dealers are a welcome change. Now, a dealer will only have to pay a renewal fee after their ten year registration period ends. Sub HB 2470 actually reduces the cost of doing business for some Kansas businesses. Glory be! INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS
There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Moxley and Tietze are spread upon the Journal:

The International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) had its beginning in 1948 after World War II as a two-way cultural exchange program to improve understanding among people. In the more than 55 years since its founding over 9,300 U.S. participants have lived and worked with families in over 100 countries and over 22,000 participants from other countries have lived with more than 55,000 American families who were their hosts.

In 1974 the IFYE name was officially changed to the International Four-H Youth Exchange to more accurately reflect the organization's constituency and mission.

It is our honor to introduce to you eight very special young people. The pages, 16 and 17 year olds from Kenya, and their school principal are here as guests of the U.S. Department of State. In order to come, each had to submit an essay on the qualities of leadership to the American Embassy in Nairobi, and then be interviewed. They are sponsored by Kansas 4-H Youth Development. When they go back to Kenya, they will put into practice a project they have developed while traveling here.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: Thousands of Kansas families depend upon the protection of collective bargaining to protect their middle class life, much as a single homeowner depends on their neighborhood association to fight city hall. HB 2531 rigs the process and denies workers a fair hearing before labor boards.

Equal justice under law requires a fair and impartial judge. HB 2531 removes fair and impartial as a requirement for service on labor boards deciding disputes between workers and employers. That is wrong. I vote NO on HB 2531.

Jim Ward, Ann Mah, Nile Dillmore

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on HB 2531. As Republican administrations took power after the election of 2010, many decided to begin punitive efforts against labor unions almost immediately.

John Kasich of Ohio was soundly defeated by a 2 to 1 margin on a measure to limit union rights by the very same voters who elected him Governor of Ohio. The voting public understands political manipulation. We should remain with the system that has served us well since 1993.

Janice L. Pauls

Mr. Speaker: HB 2531 disrupts the balanced process for appointment of judges that hear Workers Compensation cases. These cases need impartial judges that will give injured Kansans a fair shake, but HB 2531 will ensure the opposite.

At a time when this body should be working to restore the American Dream for the middle class, HB 2531 goes out of its way to put Kansas workers at a disadvantage and stack the deck in favor of big business. I vote no.

Paul Davis

Mr. Speaker: Placing the selection of Appeals Board members solely in the hands of a political appointee is fraught with potential for manipulation. Regardless of the political leanings of the Secretary of Labor, whether pro-business, pro-labor, conservative or liberal, compliance with these philosophies should not be the standard for judging injured workers in the workers compensation system.

HB 2531 is just another attack by the Chamber of Commerce against Kansas workers. It is not enough that our workers are asked to do more for less, they are now subject to re-victimization should they get injured on the job. I vote no.

Tom Burroughs
HB 2593, AN ACT concerning interstate banking; relating to commission approval; amending K.S.A. 9-532, 9-533 and 9-534 and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 9-535 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 120; Nays 1; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 4.
Nays: Dillmore.
Present but not voting: None.
Absent or not voting: Kleeb, McLeland, O'Brien, Victors.

HB 2685, AN ACT concerning water; relating to reservoir improvement districts, was considered on final action.

Nays: Brown, Carlson, Gregory, Hildabrand, Tyson.
Present but not voting: None.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Kelly and McCray-Miller are spread upon the Journal:

It is a pleasure for Rep. McCray-Miller and me to have Henry Williams from Independence with us this morning. Rep. McCray-Miller is a friend of Henry’s sister in Wichita and I first became acquainted with Henry a little over 10 years ago when Henry paid daily visits to the Assisted Living Center my mother lived in. You could tell that Henry was a special caring person with the desire to make each day just a little better for someone else. Henry certainly accomplished this for my mother who looked forward to his visits.

Henry has a love for boxing and was an active boxer during his military career. In 2000, after winning the Southeast Kansas Community Action Program Personal Responsibility and Achievement Award, Henry decided to use his love for boxing to give back to his community, especially the youth, by establishing the Uppercut Boxing Club and Tutoring center. Henry, through this club, has dedicated himself to focusing on the enabling of youth to build self-esteem, avoid delinquency and improve their ability to succeed in both school and life.

Through grants and assistance from the Kansas Health Foundation, SEK-CAP and many others Henry’s program has grown in prominence and it gained national recognition in the Fall of 2011 when Henry was selected from over 1,100 Community Action Programs around the United States to be the 2011 recipient of the prestigious Sargent Shriver Annual Achievement Award at the Community Action Program annual convention in San Francisco.

It is now a special honor to recognize Henry Williams, from Independence, for his accomplishments and the Uppercut Boxing Club for its dedicated service to the youth of Independence and Southeast Kansas.

Rep. Kelly and McCray-Miller presented Mr. Williams with a framed House certificate.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God of compassion and justice,

(78-68  Thank You!)

In all seriousness, on this Ash Wednesday,
I pray for these leaders and the great people of Kansas of whom they represent.
When we take the work of others for granted—please forgive us.
When we diminish the value of human life—please forgive us.
When we fail to treat all people with the respect which they deserve—please forgive us.
When we forget our need of one another—please forgive us.
When we forget the needs of the poor among us—please forgive us.
When our own desire for status or security dulls our senses, closes our ears, and blinds our sight—please forgive us.
Gift us with vision to see the world around us with new eyes;
to recognize the light of Your presence in every person;
to discern Godly wisdom in the midst of hard human choices;
Give us courage, I pray, to stand alongside those in greatest need;
to challenge easy solutions and false assumptions;
to work in partnership with others where we can make a difference together.
Today as we face the truth that we are made of dust and to dust we shall return, remind us of the common humanity that we share;
rekindle Your compassion in our hearts;
reinforce our resolve to seek Your wisdom in the responsibilities we hold and the choices that we make.
Please be with Representative Grange and his family in the passing of his father-in-law.
Bring comfort, grace and strength to them in the days ahead.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hermanson.

The team motto was, “Taking ourselves to another level.”
They had a 12-1 record including playoff wins over Lawrence, Shawnee Mission East, Olathe East and a thrilling 41-37 victory over defending state champions Wichita Heights in the championship game. It was their fourth championship appearance and first win.
Some of the team members present are: Scott Gourley, center and senior captain, who is headed to the Air force Academy; Jared Douglas, a senior captain, headed to William Jewel; Greg Fry, with 89 tackles, 3 interceptions, headed to Benedictine; Taylor Sheffield, a senior captain, with the biggest fumble recovery in Olathe South history on the one yard line in the fourth quarter; Zach Sheffield, a huge inspiration to all his teammates after he ruptured his kidney defending a deep throw against Shawnee Mission East; Remington Whitley, a junior, with 154 tackles; Matt Elliot, with over 500 yards receiving, 400 yards rushing, and a huge fourth and long reception on the final drive of the championship game; Frankie Seure, a junior quarterback who threw for 1,600 yards and a 99-yard touchdown pass in the championship game; and Head Coach Jeff Gourley, the Kansas City Star Metro Coach of the Year.
Coach Gourley was quoted as saying, “Do I feel confident? Absolutely, because we are the best team in this tournament bar none.” That confidence and leadership filtered down to every player in the program.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: When I left the chamber last evening I was undecided on Sub HB 2295. I have a friend who keeps me informed of changes regarding bow hunting in Kansas. Call it chance, divine intervention, or dumb luck but as I was driving home my truck violently introduced itself to a deer crossing the road. My truck did nor fare well but much better than the doe. The deputy working the accident said it was the second deer accident he worked that night. He described a growing problem with deer accidents. So I apologize to my bow hunting friend. I vote yes on Sub HB 2295.—Anthony Brown

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: I vote no on HB 2444. I do care about control in the classroom. I care about the health and safety of teachers and students who come to school to teach or learn and not be hurt by a child who is not allowed to be disciplined. I support local control and this IS an unfunded mandate. Local schools will pay for this bill not the state.—Bill Otto, Virgil Peck, Jr.

Mr Speaker: I vote to have my constituents protected from practices such as seclusion and restraint that should only be used with the proper training, ensuring safety, and only when absolutely necessary. This bill makes a rule out of existing voluntary guidelines. This legislature has always voted for life and to protect children from harm. The dangerous and deadly practices that this bill will curtail have resulted in national consequences of injuries and death to children. We have a responsibility to protect students with developmental disabilities from what I consider child abuse when not implemented properly. I vote YES on HB 2444.—Mario Goico, John Rubin.

Mr. Speaker: I vote no on HB 2444. The primary concern of our public schools should be the safety of students and staff. A safe learning environment leads to a quality education. HB 2444 does nothing to increase safety. There have been no substantiated formal complaints regarding seclusion or restraint since the guidelines were put in place in Kansas over six years ago. If the guidelines are not followed, parents already have remedies available to them. HB 2444 would increase government involvement in our schools and harm local control. —Greg Smith, Amanda Grosserode, Kelly Meigs, Jim Denning.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR SPEAKER: I vote aye on HB 2520. Who can manage money better--federal or state government? Healthcare policy is about who/what is covered. The Health Care Compact is about who decides, and governance reform. Interstate compacts predate the US Constitution; they simply transfer decision-making power and control of funds to the states. No sovereignty is yielded to a compact bureaucracy--if states don't reach agreement, they cannot be forced to do so. In receiving a lump sum federal payment and through better healthcare policy design at state levels, considerable savings could be used on other state programs, or returned to taxpayers through lower taxes. — Terril Lois Gregory

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: I vote yes on HB 2631. Unfortunately, Kansas does not cover dental services under Medicaid for adults. So today we should particularly praise dental care professionals at all levels who participated last weekend in the Kansas Mission of Mercy in KC providing free dental care, for those who in their practices provide charity care and for those professionals who have come together to bring us HB 2631, a comprehensive oral health initiative. They have taken care of 2,144 patients, $1.5 million in care and 1500 volunteers.—STAN FROWNFELTER, TOM BURROUGHS, BRODERICK HENDERSON, MICHAEL PETERSON, LOUIS RUIZ, VALDENIA WINN, KATHY WOLFE MOORE

Mr Speaker: During the past two years we have seen and heard a lot about the need for dental services throughout our state. HB 2631 includes several measures designed in increase access to important services. One provision will allow dental hygienists with advanced training to provide both preventive and some restorative procedures in nursing homes, schools, community health centers and FQHCs. Moreover HB 2631 was developed as a cooperative effort with many stakeholders including Oral Health Kansas, hygienists and dentists. I vote yes.—JIM KELLY

Present but not voting: None.
Absent or not voting: Grange, McLeland.
The bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: I vote No on HB 2660. My mother taught me to do a job correct the first time. This is the wrong direction. We should be looking at people who care for children not the building they are cared for in.—Bill Otto

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord,
We recognize that the days and discussions are getting longer;
thus requiring us to become a little bit stronger.
As the dialogue and conversation gets more intense,
it is easy for us to take offense.
So help us, Lord, today, to be careful in how we act and what we say.
Keep us mindful of these things:
to be more participative than directive, more enabling than performing,
more understanding than demanding.
Help us to maintain our discipline, integrity and courage…
and never lose our sense of humor.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Trimmer.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: Dance around it all you want. Cover your eyes and pretend it isn't so. HB 2437 will stop tens of thousands of Kansans from voting this year. HB 2437 creates barriers to voting that do not exist in any other state in the nation. HB 2437 violates federal voting law. The Secretary of State and our election offices cannot implement it in time for the primary election. To make registrants born out of state pay for a birth certificate is a poll tax. To require women to go through a three-step process to register to vote is unconscionable. Aliens lined up to vote? Ridiculous. I vote no. – Ann Mah

Mr. Speaker: HB 2437 will prevent many Kansans from voting who have voted without question for years, unless they are given ample time to obtain the necessary papers to stay registered. Implementation by June 2012 is clearly insufficient time. It particularly hits hard the infirm and elderly. To speed up this mandate is unthinkable. Those who were born out of state must produce their out-of-state birth certificate and that takes time, particularly for the infirm. In the 70th District alone, this most certainly impacts 20-40 Kansans. Mr. Speaker, I vote NO on HB 2437. — ROBERT BROOKENS

HB 2454, AN ACT concerning income taxation; providing a checkoff for the Kansas arts commission checkoff fund, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 95; Nays 29; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Grange.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: The full cost of this bill is not explained in the fiscal note. With every previous addition to the growing check-off list there is a corresponding decrease in donations to the previous funds. Those funds are: non-game wildlife improvement, Meals on Wheels, breast cancer research and military emergency relief. If there are no proponents to this legislation, I cannot see adding them to this check-off when I know that it will mean decreased donations to the other organizations. I simply cannot prioritize the Arts over these worthy organizations if this is not what the arts truly wants and did not ask for. Mr. Speaker, I vote no on HB 2454.--SEAN GATEWOOD, NILE DILLMORE

Sub HB 2477, AN ACT concerning compulsory school attendance laws; relating to educational alternatives; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 72-1111 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 83; Nays 41; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 99; Nays 25; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Grange.

The substitute bill passed.

HB 2533, AN ACT concerning children and minors; relating to mandatory reporting of suspected child abuse; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 38-2223 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 123; Nays 1; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Grange.

The bill passed.

Nays: Bollier.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Grange.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: Child abuse, particularly sexual abuse, is abhorrent. Regardless of laws in place, any moral person would report knowledge of such abuse. While I fully believe the intent of HB 2533 is good, I am concerned about raising the penalty level to felony, particularly for volunteers who have not been trained as mandatory reporters. Will Sunday school teachers be considered felons if not reporting a conversation overheard that involves sex with a minor? Must a doctor prescribing contraception to teens report possible statutory rape or face felony charges? I am not clear about these possible unintended consequences. Mr. Speaker, I vote "no" on HB 2533.--Barbara Bollier

Mr. Speaker: I vote AYE on HB 2533. The horrible events that occurred at Penn State have prompted this Legislature to address the inexcusable circumstance of failure to report suspected child abuse. Under HB 2533, such failure to report is severely penalized – as it should be. I cannot imagine the pain and suffering that a victim of child abuse and the victim’s family must endure. Hopefully, the action of the Kansas House today will help insure that the events that transpired at Penn State will not occur here.--Trent LeDoux

HB 2534, AN ACT concerning children and minors; relating to reporting of disappearance or death of a child; relating to interference with law enforcement; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5904 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 124; Nays 0; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

Nays: None.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Grange.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: The sad events surrounding the disappearance and subsequent death of a child in Florida served as the genesis of HB 2534. This bill establishes penalties for failure to report the death or disappearance of a child. By passing our own version of Caylee’s Law, the Kansas House takes the position that adults must be held accountable when they are in charge of a child. It saddens me that we have to seek a legislative remedy to what should be commonsense. Nonetheless, the safety of a child should concern us all. I vote AYE on HB 2534.--TRENT LEDOUX

HB 2557, AN ACT concerning commercial vehicles; requiring an annual commercial vehicle fee; amending K.S.A. 79-306d and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 8-1,152, 79-6a01, 79-6a02, 79-6a03, 79-6a04, 79-1439, 79-3425i and 79-5101 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6014—

A RESOLUTION designating the Honor and Remember Flag as the State of Kansas' emblem of the service and sacrifice by those in the United States Armed Forces who have given their lives in the line of duty.

WHEREAS, While war deaths have been a part of our heritage since the birth of this nation, the United States has not instituted an official symbol commemorating fallen servicepersons; and

WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag, created by Honor and Remember, Inc., is officially recognized to honor fallen members of the United States Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag's red field represents the brave men and women who sacrificed their lives for freedom. The flag's blue star is a symbol of active service in military conflict that dates back to World War I. The flag's white border recognizes the purity of sacrifice. The flag's gold star signifies the ultimate sacrifice of a warrior in active service who is not returning home and reflects the value of the life given. The folded flag element highlights this nation's final tribute to a fallen serviceperson and a family's sacrifice. The flag's flame symbolizes the eternal spirit of the departed; and

WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag recognizes all individuals who have died as a result of serving in the United States military dating back to the founding of our nation. The flag serves as a symbol of national gratitude for the hundreds of thousands of brave American men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice to preserve the freedoms we enjoy; and

WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag is a unifying symbol recognizing this nation's solemn debt to the estimated 1.6 million fallen servicepersons throughout history and the families and communities who mourn their loss: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we designate the Honor and Remember Flag as the State of Kansas' emblem of service and sacrifice by the brave men and women of the United States Armed Forces who have given their lives in the line of duty; and

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2684. Generally, I am very supportive of repealing statutes. However, in this case I do not agree. In the dictionary “ombudsman” is defined as “a government official who investigates citizens’ complaints against the government or its functionaries”. In my view, there is a need for a person whose job it is to investigate citizen complaints this department. I vote against repealing the ombudsman position. – TRENT LEDOUX

Prayer by Rabbi Zalman Tiechtel, The Rohr Chabad Center for Jewish Life, Lawrence, guest of Rep. Gordon:

Almighty G-d, Master of the Universe.
The members of this honorable House of Representatives of the State of Kansas, gather here today to do the people's business in good faith and with selfless dedication. In doing so, they fulfill a fundamental precept, which, according to sacred Biblical tradition, You first issued to Adam at the time of his creation and to Noah after the Great Flood - the commandment to govern by just laws.

At mankind's beginning, You issued forth seven universal commandments for all humanity to heed, which came to be known as the "Seven Noahide Laws". The last of those precepts is that every society legislate for itself a system of law, order and social justice, based on the recognition and acknowledgment of You, Almighty God, as the Sovereign ruler of all men and of all nations.

Almighty God , you created us all in love. Teach us to love all that is good and beautiful in this world.

Teach us to honor the dignity of difference, recognizing that one that is not in our image is nonetheless in your image. Never forgetting that the people not like us, are still people, Like us.

At this fateful moment in the human story, bless us all, that we may be a blessing to others.

Guide the nations of the world to honor you by honoring one another. So that by reaching out in love, we may turn enemies into friends and become your family on earth as you are our parent in heaven.
Beloved g-d, bless the members of this House of Representatives and guide their deliberations, that they may govern this great state with wisdom and justice, grace and compassion, bringing honor to your name and your blessing to humankind.

May they contemplate and bear in mind, as they engage in the enactment of just and benevolent law and public policy, that in doing so, they are fulfilling Your Godly will. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Hedke.

Owens, Jr. Mr. Jennings was recognized for his significant contribution to vocational education as a former AVTS instructor and for his community supported agriculture. Kansas Trivia Question – What Civil War general, whose last words were supposedly "they couldn’t hit an elephant from this distance," met his end at the Battle of Spotsylvania and has a Kansas county named after him?
Answer: Major General John Sedgwick
PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Meier are spread upon the Journal:

In his speech announcing the formation of Armed Forces Day, President Truman praised the work of the military services at home and across the seas. He said each branch is "vital to the security of the nation and to the establishment of a desirable peace."

Armed Forces Day was created in 1949 following the consolidation of the military services in the Department of Defense to honor Americans serving in the five U.S. military branches – the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, and Coast Guard. This morning, our Governor has signed a proclamation designating today, Thursday, March 1st, 2012, as Kansas Armed Forces Appreciation Day.

Today, 63 years after the formation of the Department of Defense and the first Armed Forces Day, the United States military service members are standing ever vigilant at their posts around the world to keep us safe. The military of the United States is deployed in more than 150 countries and they are working here at home to protect America from threats foreign and domestic. They are risking their lives in the mountains of Afghanistan. They are serving bravely providing security and peacekeeping missions in places like Djibouti, Kenya, Kosovo and the Sinai. They provide humanitarian assistance where the world, our nation, and Kansas have dire need. The Members of our Armed Forces are forging a better future for our Nation and the world.

Today, the National Guard and Reserve not only continue their support to emergencies at home and to active duty units that deploy, but are also deployed themselves. Kansas guardsmen and women make the extra sacrifice of leaving their full time jobs to deploy and their families are not afforded the support that military families on an active duty post receive.

This brings me to another group which deserves special thanks—the spouses of our service members, spouses who take care of the families and raise the children while their service members are at sea or stationed far away, and spouses who have left our shores to be in a faraway land with their service members. As the members of our all volunteer force carry out their missions, their families make their own sacrifices. Military families make a vital contribution to our nation in the support they give to our men and women in uniform. If they were unwilling to endure the absences, the moves between duty stations, and the worry, our service members would not be able to give their full attention to their missions.

The Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines, and Coastguardsmen who have answered the call to service deserve recognition and gratitude. They have endured the most difficult of conditions to protect America and her highest ideals.

I invite any Representative who has ever served in our Armed Forces to stand and any Representative who is a spouse of someone who served to stand.

Please join me on this special day -- Armed Forces Appreciation Day - and say thank you to those great Americans who proudly serve this great nation by volunteering to serve in our military!

Prayer by guest chaplain, Dr. Dave DePue, State Director, Kansas Capitol Commission, Topeka:

Father God, like your servant Solomon we look out over the millions of Your people that we are charged with governing: We realize the burden is too great for any one of us.

We remember that Solomon asked You for wisdom so that he could discern between right and wrong. Lord, You were impressed that Solomon did not ask for riches for himself, but wisdom to govern.

You gave this wisdom in abundance to Solomon through Your Word. You offer this wisdom to these in this House of Representatives. Here we are, receiving Your Word and acquiring wisdom and discernment on the matters before us today.

Now we can proceed to judge the merits of these policy questions before us: Questions regarding alcoholic beverages, defense, education, employment, finance, property and taxes.

Now Lord, I close by reminding these precious ones here of Your promise to Solomon and to us that if we walk in Your ways, keeping Your statutes and commandments, then You would prolong our days!

I hear and accept this promise in the Name of Your Son, Jesus. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Mah.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6015—

A RESOLUTION commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program.

WHEREAS, More than a century ago, hunters, anglers and trappers were among the first conservationists who realized America's natural resources were in peril and could not sustain unregulated harvest and habitat destruction; and

WHEREAS, Hunters, anglers and trappers, with other conservationists and ammunition companies, took it upon themselves to support laws to end the excessive harvest of fish and wildlife; and

WHEREAS, The first law supporting the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program was created on September 2, 1937, when President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act, which raises funds through a dedicated excise tax on sporting guns and ammunition. In 1950, the Federal Aid in Sport Fish Restoration Act was enacted and added to the wildlife and sport fish restoration program. Through this law, funds are provided for fish conservation and boating and fishing recreational programs in each state through an excise tax placed on certain fishing and boating equipment and fuels; and

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Dear Lord,
As we begin this week,
Help us to avoid…
  worrying about things over which we have no control;
  harboring resentment and anger over hurts real or imagined;
  disdaining the ordinary…or what we might call ordinary;
  focusing on what’s in it for me, rather than what’s in me for it;
  failing to appreciate what is because of might-have-beens, should-have-beens, or could-have-beens.
To do otherwise wastes time and energy and is non-productive.
  May our time, work, words and actions count for qualitative solutions.
  In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. DeGraaf.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Gregory are spread upon the Journal:

It is with great pride I bring the Baldwin City High School Real World Design Challenge Team again this year to recognize their 4th consecutive State Championship.
The Real World Design Challenge is an annual competition that provides high school students the opportunity to work on real world engineering challenges confronting the aviation industry as a team.
This year’s challenge was to design an efficient, low-carbon-emission and environmentally friendly personal light sport aircraft that could accommodate two team members and fly 200 miles in less than two hours at a cruise altitude of 1,000 feet above ground level minimum. The name “The Spirit of Baldwin City” comes from using the same air foil wing design of “The Spirit of St. Louis”. This would normally be a senior engineering project.

The winning team members of “Kansas Tornados” are 11th graders Kaitlyn Barnes, Abby Clem, Carrie Deitz, Mackenzie Johnson, Austin Kraus, and 9th grader Quint Heinecke. The team’s coach is Pam Davis and their mentors are Sandy Barnes, Ottawa; Mark Beyer, Wichita; Dr. Brandon Buerge, Newton; and Chris Hedden, Lawrence, and Susan Christensen. Paul Dorothy is the Superintendent of Schools.

The team will represent Kansas again in the national competition April 21st at the Smithsonian Air and Space Museum in Washington, D.C. Last year’s team won 3rd in the nation, and the 2010 team brought home the National Championship.

Join me in congratulating the team as state champions and wishing them success in Washington DC!

Rep. Gregory presented the team and coach with a framed House certificate.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Redeemer Lord,
At the beginning of Christ’s Sermon on the Mount,
He emphasizes the importance on BEING rather than doing – thus they are called the BE-attitudes – not Do-attitudes.

So give us wisdom and courage to be poor in spirit in a world that glorifies power and fame.
Give us wisdom and courage to mourn, because we know you are with us always.
Give us wisdom and courage to remain meek, and to be mindful of the truth that all we have and all we accomplish comes through You.

Give us the wisdom and courage to always do what is right, even when what is right is not what is popular or easy.
Give us the wisdom and courage to be merciful, even when it is difficult to forgive.

Give us the wisdom and courage to be pure of heart, even when we feel overwhelmed by a thirst for power.
Give us wisdom and courage to be peacemakers, in a world torn apart by competition and fighting.
Jesus, give us wisdom and courage to remain strong, as we attempt to BE all that You want us to be.

In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Goodman.

Kansas Trivia Question – Which county has the distinction of being Kansas’s flattest, with an east to west change in elevation of only 100 feet?
INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Kelly are spread upon the Journal:

It is a pleasure for me to have as my guest today the Sedan High Blue Devil Baseball team, the 2011 Class 2-1A State Champion with a perfect 26 – 0 record on the season that culminated with a come from behind 11 -10 victory over Pittsburg Clogan, the 2-1A champion for the previous seven years. This championship was the first for Sedan since 1973, and the first for 19 year veteran Sedan head coach Rick Chrisman.

Sedan won game one in Emporia on Friday evening over Mission Valley 11-7. Then in the first game on Saturday they came from behind to defeat league opponent Flint Hills 7-6 in extra innings. This win put Sedan into the state championship game against Pittsburg/Colgan. Because of weather conditions in the area the game was moved up and Sedan had to play back-to-back games and they immediately fell behind 5-0. Sedan battled back and the teams were tied going into the 8th, but in the top of the 8th Colgan all but put them away scoring 3 runs taking a 10-7 lead. However, true to form Sedan then scored 4 runs in the 9th to win the championship in an exciting manner with a suicide-squeeze to bring home the winning run from 3rd for the 11 -10 title game victory.

On the floor with me today I have head coach Rick Chrisman, Assistant Coach Mick Holt, bat boy Zach Chrisman and the four seniors Brady McCoy who was an All-State 1st team pitcher who recorded all 3 wins in the state tournament; Casey Holt also a 1st team All-State pitcher who never lost a game on the mound in his career at Sedan; Kolby Gorby another All-State 1st team outfielder who set the single-season home run record this year with 10 Home Runs; and Andrew Bell who scored one of the runs in the 8th against Colgan. In the galley please salute the rest of the Sedan Blue Devil team and all of those who came with them today to celebrate their championship.

Congratulations to the Sedan High School Blue Devils for their perfect season in route to the 2011 Class 2-1A State baseball championship. A great season … and a job well done.

Rep. Kelly presented a framed House certificate to the team and coach.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Kerschen, Phillips and Carlin are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks by Rep. Kerschen: The College of Agriculture has a long history of academic excellence at Kansas State University. The K-State Crops team has captured the title of national champion for the third year in a row. K-State teams have now won the championship in ten of the past thirteen years.

To win the 2011 national championship, the team won both Kansas City Board of Trade and Chicago CME Group Collegiate Crops Contests. K-State placed first at both contests in the plant and seed identification and seed analysis components of the competition.
Remarks by Rep. Phillips: Students competing at both contests included Scott Henry, senior, Goff; Levi Larkins, senior, Belvue; Chelsea Ahlquist, sophomore, Onaga; and Kim Kerschen, senior, Garden Plain, who was an alternate. Also competing as alternates in Kansas City were Michael Welch, sophomore, Haddam; Andrew Scherrer, sophomore, Matheson, CO; Neal Kaiser, sophomore, Lehigh; Hannah Christen, junior, Oregon, IL. All are agronomy majors at K-State.

In these contests, participants are required to identify 200 different plant or seed samples of crops and weeds; grade eight different samples of grain according to Federal Grain Inspection Service standards; and analyze ten seed samples to determine what contaminants they contain.

Chelsea Ahlquist, Scott Henry, and Levi Larkins all received high individual honors at the competitions.

Remarks by Rep. Carlin: The team is coached by Dr. Kevin Donnelly, K-State professor of agronomy. Dr. Donnelly is a K-State graduate who was raised on a farm in Dickinson County. Over the years he has called several other states home, but in 1998 returned to K-State in Wildcat Country as Assistant Dean in the College of Agriculture. In 2008 he became a full time professor in the Department of Agronomy and also won the North American Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture Distinguished Educator Award. In 2011 he received the K-State College of Agriculture David Mugler Excellence in Teaching Award and American Society of Agronomy Distinguished Editor Award.

Outside the classroom, in addition to coaching the Crops Team, he also plays a large role as co-advisor for the Wheat State Agronomy Club. He says working with students outside the classroom is just as rewarding as teaching. Congratulations!

We come in the precious name of Jesus to praise you for your faithfulness, to acknowledge your Grace and your mercy – to thank you for your kindness and favor you have shown the citizens of this great land. As we gather today to discuss the affairs of this grand state, we come to you the one true and living God and seek your guidance. We come to you because we know you are infinitely wise and desire to share that which will enable us to make wise decisions. We confess we are frail and prone to error and without your Divine intervention we will wander and go astray. So we come not because of our goodness but because of your Greatness. I approach the Throne of Grace on this day to lift up this assembly and ask that by your Spirit you would guide, direct and be glorified through every discussion, procedure and ultimate decision. We ask this in Jesus' name and for his sake. Amen

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Moxley and Wetta are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Moxley:
Turkey is the greatest example we have of a working democracy in the Muslim Middle East. The Turkish people have been a friend and partner of the United States for more than 80 years. It has been a staging post for our military and a huge importer of American products including Kansas wheat and aircraft.

Recently Turkey has actively joined much of the rest of the world in condemning the atrocities in Syria, with whom it shares a border. Turkey holds some of the world's greatest points of history, including Ephesus and Harran. Notably, the Fertile Crescent area of current day Turkey and Iraq is the birth place of Abraham the father of the three Abrahamic faiths Christianity, Judaism and Muslim.

I am proud to show a bond with the Turkish people who have been a true friend to America, who have proven that secular democracy can work in a Muslim country, and who have demonstrated care and restraint in dealing with their own people and also their neighbors.

Rep. Wetta:
We are here to celebrate our long and prosperous friendship with the Turkish people. After our visit to Turkey last year, we have gained a deeper respect and appreciation for our ally in part of the world that makes it crucial to have a friend at this time in history. It is beneficial to recognize the contributions of our friends and the value of maintaining relationships with allies of the state of Kansas, such as the contributions made by the Republic of Turkey and the value of our positive relationship with them. In pursuit of this noble goal, we would like to create the Kansan-Turkish Friendship Network. The purpose of this bipartisan leadership network is to focus on Kansan-Turkish relations and issues that concern Turkish Americans in Kansas, as well as to promote the cultural, educational, academic, political and economic relations between Kansas and the Turkish people. By coordinating the hospitality, cultural and educational events and exchanges this will facilitate and strengthen the development of those relationships.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection the following remarks of Rep. Rubin are spread upon the Journal:

The Kansas Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom, in conjunction with the Kansas Department of Agriculture and Kansas State University Department of Agriculture, has named Lucas Shivers, a sixth grade teacher at Bluejacket-Flint Elementary in Shawnee, as the 2012 Janet Sims Memorial Teacher of the Year. Mr. Shivers presents agriculture and environmental lessons reflecting his childhood on a traditional Kansas family farm. In his student-centered classroom, he integrates agricultural concepts within daily curriculum objectives.

Mr. Shivers brings ag-literacy to the forefront of his classroom by allowing students to understand the influence of agriculture in America's future of security, personal health and economic revival.

Integrating agriculture with hands-on activities, Mr. Shiver's students learn to think critically, exercise inquiry, solve complex problems and advance our society with projects like:

- engineering food and energy sources with Future City;
- achieving zero-waste classrooms with recycling and composting through Green Team;
- seeing agriculture's impacts in different parts of the world with Electronic Field Trips;
- designing ag-focused exhibits for Science City through Battle of the Brains competitions; and
- funding agricultural businesses through international micro-finance loans with KIVA.

Mr. Shivers seeks to grow students into an agriculturally-aware citizenry which also understands the foundation of agriculture in the history and economy of Kansas, in American democracy, the scope of agriculture in our global markets and the depth of agriculture in our personal lives.

Please join me in recognizing and congratulating Lucas Shivers as the recipient of the Kansas Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom's 2012 Janet Sims Memorial Teacher of the Year Award.

Rep. Rubin presented Mr. Lucas with a framed House certificate.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bill was introduced and read by title:

HB 2781, AN ACT creating the task force on obesity prevention and management,
The following bills were referred to committees as indicated:

Corrections and Juvenile Justice: HB 2779.
Education Budget: HB 2777.
Elections: HB 2780.
Local Government: HB 2776.
Taxation: HB 2778.

Speaker O'Neal announced the withdrawal of HB 2084 from Committee on Appropriations and rereferral to Committee on Local Government.

On motion of Rep. Meier, HR 6014, a resolution designating the Honor and Remember Flag as the State of Kansas' emblem of the service and sacrifice by those in the United States Armed Forces who have given their lives in the line of duty, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Meier are spread upon the Journal:

After joining the ranks of the Families of the Fallen with the death of his son in Fallujah, Iraq, George Lutz realized that there was no universally recognized symbol to acknowledge American service members who have fallen while in service to their nation.

He felt that all members of the military who volunteered their lives and made the ultimate sacrifice for their country and the defense of their fellow Americans, deserved to be honored and remembered.

After much deliberation, he came upon an idea of how to not only honor and remember each lost service member, but to educate the American people and millions who do not feel the burden of America’s defense each day. He designed the Honor and Remember flag and started travelling the United States presenting personalized flags to families and educating all those he came in contact with along the way.

George’s mission has grown into a Nationally Recognized organization that is embraced and officially endorsed by other National service organizations such as: the Vietnam Veterans of America, the Air Force Association, the Association of the US Army, the Association of the US Navy, the Military Officers Association of America, the American Gold Star Mothers, Inc., Bugles Across America, The Retired Enlisted Association, Sons of the American Revolution National Society, and many more.

As George’s mission brought him to Kansas, his message touched our own Gold Star families from Kansas, the Vietnam Veterans of America and various posts of the Veterans of Foreign War and the American Legion. They joined him and sponsored his visit to Kansas. In July 2010, I was invited to my own VFW Post 56 in Leavenworth, along with the director of the Governor’s Military Council to meet George Lutz, learn of his mission and add our signatures to his petition of States’ support.

I am very proud today, that all 125 of my fellow Representatives in the Kansas House, have co-sponsored this Resolution to recognize the Honor and Remember flag as Kansas’ emblem of service and sacrifice of those who have given their lives in the line of duty for their country.

I am very honored today to have Mr. George Lutz, Gold Star father of Corporal George Anthony Lutz II, and founder of Honor and Remember, Inc. here with us today to witness this Resolution.

We are joined by members of the MOKAN GOLD STAR families. These are some of the families who helped to promote awareness and assisted in supporting the recognition of the Honor and Remember flag for the state of Kansas. There are many in the gallery and joining me here at the well are: Dennis and Betty Wright, Gold Star Parents of Private Shawn Wright, Diana Pitts and Kathie Echols, Gold Star mother and grandmother of Corporal David Unger, Sun Rodgers, Gold Star Mother of Sergeant Ricky Rodgers, Amber Mena, wife of Sergeant Ralph Mena, Anita Dixon, Gold Star mother of Sergeant Evan Parker, and Belinda Paauwe, Gold Star mother of Sergeant Michael Paauwe.

We are also honored to have two veterans with us, who supported Mr. Lutz and the Honor and Remember tour when it came to Kansas in July of 2010 and continue their strong support today: Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) Jim Bertsch, of the American Legion Riders Post #370 in Overland Park KS and Colonel (Retired) Lynn Rolf Jr., of the VFW Riders Post #56 in Leavenworth KS.

And in the gallery, we have some very special guests: members of the Patriot Guard. They are the heroes that line our streets to welcome home our returning service members and to escort those who are making their final journey to their resting place. Our humble thanks go to these dedicated Americans.

Rep. Meier presented a framed House certificate to Mr. Lutz.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: While I favor the exemption of corrections officers from taking the safety training if they have been issued a certificate of firearms training, I oppose charging these individuals more than other law enforcement officers for the permit. I vote no on HB 2422. – ED TRIMMER

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Brandon Farrar, Annunciation Catholic Church, Baldwin City, and guest of Rep. Gregory:

That we exist—that anything with a beginning exists—demands that You do, almighty and ever-living God, for by itself that which has a beginning and an end, cannot explain its genesis and existence. Without You, eternal and infinite, finite creation is a contradiction.

You are life itself, from Whom we borrow ours without affecting Yours. Human life, then, is Your gift. We are but stewards, not owners, not proprietors, not authors—not even of our own life.

You are our Author, Who has generated our life and traced within our nature the content, the truth of the human person—the foundation of any just law and legitimate right. Rights, therefore, are not subject to the choice of individuals or the consent of any majority, for You, O God, with purpose made us. How can we not at anytime bear the character of Your substance and the transcription of Your grammar? We are Your creation, Your artwork, Your religious composition.

By nature we are religious beings, bearing Your image, bearing Your likeness, good and gracious God. Religion, then, is constitutive of our humanity, to which world cultures bear witness throughout humankind’s history. Moreover, merciful God, our own 20th century atrocities manifest the limitations, errors and devastation into which reason unaided by faith falls.

By Your providence, omniscient Lord, our beloved Country is grounded in the Christian Tradition, which professes Your Son human and Divine, Lord and Christ, dead and Raised. At its best, our Tradition seeks not that which is specific to the State, but eagerly desires to contribute to the good of the human family, uniquely qualified, as She is, to do so by the singular and perfect manner in which her God and Founder revealed what it means to be human.

Jesus revealed You, Lord, not only as transcendent, otherly and all-holy, but also did He reveal You as Father, and teach us to petition You for our needs, so that we might not only pray Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven, but enact that for which we plead.

Father, enlighten with Your Spirit these Your civil servants, Your creation, Your sons and daughters. Illumine their intellects and strengthen their wills to religiously pursue the Truth, without which humankind cannot be free and the common good cannot be had. Discipline their hearts, righteous Judge, to be in accord with the words their lips utter in this hall, in their homes and houses of worship. Protect them from falling into the awkward duplicity of excluding religion from the public sphere, while asking You, O God, to bless America. Confound any satisfaction with the mere protection of rights, and instill within them the desire to create legislation consonant with Your natural law and capable of inculcating virtue. Safeguard the liberty and justice pledged to all from the dictatorship of libertinism, and a compromised mandate of the sovereign majority. Make Kansas a light for our Nation, and our Nation a light for the world. In Jesus’ Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Prescott.

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives of the state of Kansas congratulates and commends the United States Congress in enabling the American public to participate in the celebration of this heroic leader and public servant, while inspiring millions throughout the world by memorializing his inspired leadership as General in defense of the United States and the liberation of Europe in World War II; and his enduring, visionary achievements as President in education, aviation, space and aeronautics, transportation and diplomacy for peace; and

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend the United States Congress for establishing the Dwight D. Eisenhower Memorial. This memorial celebration of General and President Eisenhower's impressive accomplishments will forever educate and inspire citizens from across America and throughout the world. It will also give Kansans, and others from the Midwest, a very special place just steps across the nation's Capitol; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Moxley.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:
HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6018—
By Committee on Energy and Utilities

A RESOLUTION opposing and exposing the radical and destructive United Nations Agenda 21.

WHEREAS, The United Nations Agenda 21 is a comprehensive plan of extreme environmentalism, social engineering and global political control that was initiated at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in 1992; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations Agenda 21 is being covertly pushed into local communities throughout the United States of America through the International Council of Local Environmental Initiatives through local "sustainable development" policies such as Smart Growth, Wildlands Project, Resilient Cities, Regional Visioning Projects and other "Green" or "Alternative" projects; and

WHEREAS, This United Nations Agenda 21 plan of radical so-called "sustainable development" views the American way of life of private property ownership, single family homes, private car ownership, individual travel choices and privately owned farms as destructive to the environment; and

WHEREAS, The United States federal government and no state or local government is legally bound by the United Nations Agenda 21; and

WHEREAS, According to the United Nations Agenda 21 policy, social justice is described as the right and opportunity of all people to benefit equally from the resources afforded us by society and the environment which would be accomplished by socialist and communist redistribution of wealth: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the destructive and insidious nature of United Nations Agenda 21 and hereby expose to public policy makers the dangerous intent of the plan; and

Be it further resolved: That the federal government and all state and local governments across the country should seek to be well informed of the underlying harmful implications of the implementation of United Nations Agenda 21 destructive strategies for "sustainable development" and that we hereby endorse rejection of its radical policies; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Seiwert and Hoffman are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Seiwert:
Good morning members of the House. Forty-seven years ago I graduated from St. Patrick’s Catholic School in Kingman, Kansas. This morning I would like to recognize this same school in my district, for receiving the Governor’s Award for Excellence in Education. To achieve this award schools must attain the “Standard of Excellence” in reading and mathematics and also make adequate yearly progress in both these subjects. This is the fourth consecutive year that St. Patrick’s has received this award. They are hoping to make it five by the end of the school year.

Out of all the elementary and middle schools in Kansas, St. Patrick’s was one of forty three schools to achieve this honor. For this I commend the students, teaching staff, principal, and parents of St. Patrick’s Catholic School.

St. Patrick’s is represented today by its principal Mr. Robert Lyall; the Parish priest, Father Benjamin Shockey, who led our prayer this morning; lead teacher, Mrs. Ann Vaughn; three students, Cole Walters, Allison DeWeese, and Joshua Campbell; and a parent, Mrs. Jennifer Campbell.

Congratulations to all of you!
Rep. Hoffman:

It is my pleasure along with my fellow representative to acknowledge the accomplishments of St. Patrick's School in Kingman KS. It is because of the dedication of the parents, staff, and students that St. Patrick's that has earned the the Governor's Award of Achievement not only this last year but for the last four years. No other school in the state can make that statement, so it is my pleasure to present this certificate to them on behalf of the House of Representatives for this great accomplishment. Please help me recognize the students and teachers of St. Patrick's.

Rep Hoffman presented a framed House certificate to the students.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. C. Holmes are spread upon the Journal:

With tornado season arriving early this year, we are all very concerned and watchful of these devastating storms.

Probably the most famous tornado associated with Kansas happened at the movies years ago. Our state is known all over the world for the tornado that swept Dorothy Gale and her little dog, Toto, into the Land of Oz.

When you travel The Yellow Brick Road, also known as Highway 54 through Liberal, watch for a Visitor's Complex that includes Dorothy's House and a large Land of Oz exhibit, along with a Kansas Visitor's Center, the Coronado History Museum and gift shops featuring all kinds of Land of Oz collectibles and souvenirs.

Unfortunately, one large part of the complex is missing. You see, on May 15, 2003, three tornadoes touched down in Liberal. One barely missed hitting Dorothy's House for a second time, but it completely destroyed Uncle Henry's large Barn! Local supporters hope to raise enough private funds to rebuild the barn in the future. It will contain facilities for workshops, demonstrations and additional exhibits.

In Liberal, it is quite an honor for a young lady to be “Dorothy.” These girls really work hard – giving tours of Dorothy's House and participating in most local events, welcoming visitors to our city. They will be in place to welcome our guests to Liberal when Liberal hosts the Kansas Sampler Festival, the first weekend in May of 2012 and 2013.

If you see a young lady in the Capitol today, dressed in a blue and white checkered dress and ruby red slippers, be sure to say “hello.” She just might click her heels together and remind you that there's “No place like home!”

May I direct your attention to the visitor's gallery. Ten of Liberal's finest goodwill ambassadors have joined us today.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr Speaker: I vote no on HB 2353. This bill seems to have pitted an ideological view of gun owner's rights with the ability for cities, counties and school districts to take reasonable and common sense approaches to occupant safety. But regardless of how this is weighed, it is just another supplanting of local authority, local judgment and local knowledge and expertise with a legislative mandate that will either cost the entity significantly or not result in any true increase in security.— Charlie Roth

Mr Speaker: We require public buildings to have a plan for a fire, yet when do we ever have anyone die in a public building due to fire, almost never, because we require a plan. Just in the last month this nation has had several die from shootings in public buildings. I had hopes that HB 2353 would require the same thing for armed intruders, but what we did was just exempt most public building from the bill. I support the right of citizens to defend themselves, but this bill (as it is now amended) does nothing to make our citizens safer. I vote yes on HB 2353 only because of the Smith amendment.—Bill Otto

Mr Speaker: HB 2353 allows the concealed carry of a handgun by licensed individuals in publicly owned buildings that do not provide adequate security. This bill offers liability protections for those buildings – both public and private – that allow self protection. Buildings not providing adequate security, yet prohibiting an individual’s right to self protection, are not provided liability protection in the bill. I vote YES on HB 2353.—Forrest J. Knox, Greg Smith, Reynaldo R. Mesa, Brett Hildabrand, Virgil Peck Jr., Dennis Hedke, Randy Garber, Charlotte O'Hara, Terrilos Gregory, Owen Donohoe, Jim Howell, Amanda Grossbode, Tom Arpke, Joseph Scapa, Connie O'Brien, Jana Goodman, John J. Rubin, Steve Huebert, Terry Calloway, Benny L. Boman, Willie Prescott, Arlen H. Siegfried, Pete DeGraaf, Richard Carlson, Marvin Kleeb, Kasha Kelley, Steven R. Brunk, S. Mike Kiegerl

Mr Speaker: As a gun owner since age 12, I am a strong supporter of our 2nd Amendment rights. I supported our current conceal carry law that provides local governments the ability to best determine the security needs within their public buildings. I vote no on HB 2353.— Dave Crum HB 2609, AN ACT concerning property tax; transferring moneys to the local ad valorem tax reduction fund; relating to revenues produced by property tax levies; mill levy adjustments; resolutions, publication requirements; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-2925b and 79-2959 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 101; Nays 23; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

Nays: Aurand, Bethell, Bollier, Bowers, Burgess, Carlin, Colloton, Flaharty, Gonzalez, Hill, Johnson, Mah, McCray-Miller, Mesa, Moxley, Roth, Ryckman, Schroeder, Shultz, Sloan, Spalding, Swanson, K. Wolf.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Landwehr.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR Speaker: I vote yes on HB 2609 because it restores (in a very modest amount) the local ad valorem tax reduction fund. I do not see the rest of the bill doing much other than the legislature (the Wizard) telling Dorothy of Kansas to not look behind the curtain to see who has been the true cause of property taxes going up.—Bill Otto

MR. Speaker: I vote no on HB 2609. Although I support the part of the bill that restores LAVTR transfers to counties to reduce property taxes, I could not support the other part of the bill. It will create significant cost and complication by adding a new tax calculation requiring local governments to adjust the mill levy rate every year. Also, in some cases the cost of the public notice would exceed the tax dollars raised by a mill levy increase. I applaud the effort of working toward transparency in government and to reduce property taxes, but at the implementation level this bill creates more mud than transparency. —Mike Burgess

On motion of Rep. Siegfried, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Hayzlett in the chair.

Heavenly Father,
Thank you for another day of life, and for the opportunity to lift up in prayer these men and women who serve our beloved state.
For these leaders, I pray for wise thoughts, discerning minds and open hearts.
I pray for their patience not only with procedure but with one another as they tackle the growing economic issues that threaten our livelihood.
I pray protection for their families as many will spend time away from home.
I pray that they will always choose what is right and what is good so that people from coast to coast, will take notice that this nation's heartland will always be the first to stand up for America.
I pray these things in the name of Jesus Christ, my Savior and Lord. Amen.

The 2011 Existing Businesses of the Year are At-Home Health Care in Emporia, RoadRunner Manufacturing LLC in Levant, The Main ARtery in Ulysses, Emily Hart Bridal in Leawood, The Wreath Depot in Tonganoxie, Kids Kingdom in Iola, Billy Vanilly in Topeka, and Grassland Gardens Nursery & Flower Farm in Miltonvale. Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded in January 1913 by 22 collegiate women at Howard University. These students wanted to use their collective strength to promote academic excellence and to provide assistance to persons in the need. FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Sub HB 2689, AN ACT concerning alcoholic beverages; amending K.S.A. 41-2612, 79-41a01 and 79-41a04 and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 41-2601 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 107; Nays 16; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: Kinzer, Peterson.

The substitute bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I enthusiastically vote yea on Sub HB 2689. This bill will eliminate the inequality in current law against dining rail cars. Douglas and Franklin counties will experience immediate positive economic impact from this legislation early this summer. The new destination attraction in Baldwin City will bring several local jobs, support patronage of area businesses and historical attractions, and increase tourism to the region. – Terril Lois Gregory

HB 2729, AN ACT concerning motor vehicles; relating to parks and recreation motor vehicle permits; amending K.S.A. 32-901 and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 8-134 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 84; Nays 39; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 2.

Present but not voting: None.
Absent or not voting: Kinzer, Peterson.
The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: HB 2729 eliminates the current 50% senior citizen and disabled persons fee discounts for both annual and daily park motor vehicle permits. Since this bill enacts overall park fee reductions only for those who utilize the vehicle registration process to get their park permits, and future increases will wipe out any reductions, this elimination of senior citizen and disabled person discounts will increase the park's bottom line on the backs of those least able to pay, folks on fixed incomes who have paid full freight for park permits for years. I vote no on HB 2729. – John Rubin, Joe McLeland, Terry Calloway, Charlotte O'Hara, Brenda K. Landwehr, Amanda L. Grosserode

HB 2769. AN ACT concerning property taxation; relating to exemptions; certain housing on military installations; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-201a and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

Nays: Fawcett, Swanson.
Present but not voting: None.
Absent or not voting: Kinzer, Peterson.
The bill passed.

"Sec. 15. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-32,143a is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,143a (a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2011, a taxpayer may elect to take an expense deduction from Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state for the cost of the following property placed in service in this state during the taxable year: (1) Tangible property eligible for depreciation under the modified accelerated cost recovery system in section 168 of the internal revenue code, as amended, but not including residential rental property, nonresidential real property, any railroad grading or tunnel bore or any other property with an applicable recovery period in excess of 25 years as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended; and (2) computer software as defined in section 197(e)(3)(B) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and as described in section 197(e)(3)(A)(i) of the internal revenue code, as amended, to which section 167 of the internal revenue code, as amended, applies. If such election is made, the amount of expense deduction for such cost shall equal the difference between the depreciable cost of such property for federal income tax purposes and the amount of bonus depreciation being claimed for such property pursuant to section 168(k) of the internal revenue code, as amended, for federal income tax purposes in such tax year, but without regard to any expense deduction being claimed for such property under section 179 of the internal revenue code, as amended, multiplied by the applicable factor, determined by using, the table provided in subsection (f), based on the method of depreciation selected pursuant to section 168(b)(1), (2), or (3) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended. This election shall be made by the due date of the original return, including any extensions, and may be made only for the taxable year in which the property is placed in service, and once made, shall be irrevocable. If the section 179 expense deduction election has been made for federal income tax purposes for any asset, the applicable factor to be utilized is in the IRC § 168 (b)(1) column of the table provided in subsection (f) for the applicable recovery period of the respective assets.

(b) If the amount of expense deduction calculated pursuant to subsection (a) exceeds the taxpayer’s Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated or apportioned to this state, such excess amount shall be treated as a Kansas net operating loss as provided in K.S.A. 79-32,143, and amendments thereto.

c) If the property for which an expense deduction is taken pursuant to subsection (a) is subsequently sold during the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) of the internal revenue code, as amended, and in a manner that would cause recapture of any previously taken expense or depreciation deductions for federal income tax purposes, or if the situs of such property is otherwise changed such that the property is relocated outside the state of Kansas during such applicable recovery period, then the expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) shall be subject to recapture and treated as Kansas taxable income allocated to this state. The amount of recapture shall be the Kansas expense deduction determined pursuant to subsection (a) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years remaining in the applicable recovery period for such property as defined under section 168(c) or (g) of the internal revenue code, as amended, after such property is sold or removed from the state including the year of such disposition, and the denominator of which is the total number of years in such applicable recovery period.

(d) The situs of tangible property for purposes of claiming and recapture of the expense deduction shall be the physical location of such property. If such property is mobile, the situs shall be the physical location of the business operations from where such property is used or based. The situs of computer software shall be apportioned to Kansas based on the fraction, the numerator of which is the number of the taxpayer’s users located in Kansas of licenses for such computer software used in the active conduct of the taxpayer’s business operations, and the denominator of which is the total number of the taxpayer’s users of the licenses for such computer software used in the active conduct of the taxpayer’s business operations everywhere.

e) Any member of a unitary group filing a combined report may elect to take an expense deduction pursuant to subsection (a) for an investment in property made by any member of the combined group, provided that the amount calculated pursuant to subsection (a) may only be deducted from the Kansas net income before expensing or recapture allocated to or apportioned to this state by such member making the election.

(f) The following table shall be used in determining the expense deduction calculated pursuant to subsection (a):

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. DeGraaf are spread upon the Journal:

Over the years, we have rightfully honored sport teams across the State that have honored us with their success! Today, I bring before you the best of B.E.S.T!!! - The Wichita Warriors Homeschool Robotics Team!!!
Constantly, the Wichita Warriors have outperformed other public, private, and homeschool teams from across the nation. Nine out of the last eleven years this team took 1st place. The Handout before you details their success.

Annually, schools across Kansas bring their bands, cheerleaders, friends, and families to fill the WSU - Wichita State University Koch Arena for a day long competition that involves more than robots fighting robots. BEST is an action packed, brains over brawn, national competition that inspires and motivates students towards careers in engineering, science, and technology. Each year the problem solving challenge is different, students are required to design their robot, devise a stagey, create a prototype, sell their vision to judges, keep documentation on the entire engineering process, raise funds, create sales booth, and having a winning robot… all in six weeks. If you want to learn more, the team has videos, information, and will demonstrate their robot on the 4th floor of south wing, this afternoon.

Today I’m asking you to help me recognize and celebrate a very cost effective engineering initiative.

Andy Schlapp is here today on behalf of WSU and the College of Engineering to receive my letter of appreciation to WSU for over a decade of investing in the lives of 1000’s of middle and high school students. Through WSU’s vision, partnership, and relentless commitment to excellence, Wichita is known as the place to be for aerospace engineering. I also make mention in my letter of the recent death of Dick Holloway, a pioneer and visionary in the BEST Program. We extend our appreciation to his family for his role and legacy, in all the lives he has touched in such a special way.

Also here with us today is David Alexander. David is a WSU graduate, an engineer, and the Chief Network Architect for Spirit Aero Systems. He and his wife, Bev, homeschooled their three children and have served as mentors and in various Leadership roles for the Wichita Warriors Homeschool Robotic team over the last 10 years. Their inspiration has guided the team to first place finishes year after year.

The real heroes and leaders of tomorrow are represented here today by a few of the members of this year’s Warriors Robotic team. This certificate commemorates the eleven years of local, regional, and national overwhelming success of the Wichita Warriors Homeschool Robotic Team and is being presented to this year’s Team Leader, Brett Harms.

Over and over again Kansas Homeschoolers have shown the nation that the Air Capitol of the World is producing successful, inventive, motivated, organized, and resourceful students who are ready to take on the challenges of our future.

Please join me in giving a rousing Kansas welcome and appreciation to WSU, the Alexanders, and the Wichita Homeschool Warriors.

Rep. DeGraaf presented the students a framed House certificate.

With us today are members Sarah Wright, MacKenzie McBeth, Savannah Wright, Suzie Wright, Cassie Hollenback and Kendra Howell. They are accompanied by Superintendent, Rob Reynolds; Athletic Director, Scott Dunham; and Coach, Leland Schaeffer.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: My father gave me two things, a last name and a strong sense of right and wrong. While this bill offers several desirable outcomes, it contains one strong dose of voter bitterness.

It smells when most business persons will pay nothing—no state income tax while their own employees will pay and while their senior citizen neighbors will pay. This favoritism is untenable in a fair and just society.

How can we vote for this and still look our wage-earning constituents in the eye? We should be ashamed. This is a matter of respect for each of our voters.

I vote no on H Sub for SB 177—Tom Moxley

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 177, only to move tax reform forward and expect the bill to improve in conference committee. The low ending balance in the House bill, as amended on the floor, is currently unacceptable. When the bill comes back from the conference committee it must have a responsible ending balance to provide for adequate liquidity for the State. Sufficient liquidity is necessary for the State to pay its bills on time. Adequate liquidity through a responsible ending balance will be required for me to support in final action. — Jim Denning, Kelly Meigs, Bob Montgomery, Joe Seiwert, Ron Ryckman, Trent LeDoux, Steve Huebert, Leslie Osterman, Amanda Grosserode, David Crum, Rick Billinger, Greg Smith

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 177 because I believe tax reform is critical to jumpstarting the economy. The evidence indicates that the byproduct of lowering rates is often increased revenue because of economic growth. Oklahoma is rapidly pursuing a tax plan that would drop the Oklahoma income tax rate from 5.25 to 2.5 in the first year. Kansas must act to remain competitive. While aspects of H Sub for SB 177 currently give me pause, and I will evaluate the final product of the conference committee, Kansas needs to move forward with responsible tax reform to keep our economy regionally competitive. – Peggy Mast, Jim Fawcett, Bill Wolf, Benny L. Boman, Terril Lois Gregory, Tom Arpke, Randy Garber, Dennis Hedke, Jim Howell, Kyle Hoffman, Pete DeGraaf, Joseph Scapa, Steven R. Brunk, Terry Calloway, Willie Prescott, Mike Burgess, Lana Gordon.

Mr. Speaker: Those who support H Sub for SB 177 are gambling the future of our great state for the purpose of political grandstanding and self promotion. I refuse to participate in this election year showboating. H Sub for SB 177 is fiscally irresponsible and intellectually dishonest. I chose a conservative and rational position and Mr. Speaker I vote no on H Sub for SB 177. – Nile Dillmore

Mr. Speaker: We cannot legislate the weather or scenery in Kansas, but we can protect the quality of life, which is what people find desirable about a state. Good schools; good early childhood programs; an affordable college education; good roads; quality services for veterans, seniors and the disabled; and healthy communities are what will bring people to Kansas and encourage them to stay. Mr. Speaker, I vote NO on H Sub for SB 177, which creates a permanent budget crisis, by reducing state revenues by billions of dollars, without any guarantee of job creation. – Ed Trimmer, Kathy Wolfe Moore, Annie Tietze, Sydney Carlin, Mike Slattery, Gail Finney, Louis E. Ruiz, Ponka-We Victors

Mr. Speaker: While I share the supporters of H Sub for SB 177 ambitions for our state, I refuse to support a scheme to increase taxes on the poorest of working families while condemning us to a budgetary crisis for year to come. I cannot and will not support a policy that will gut our ability to provide for our basic responsibilities, fund our children's education and assist those most in need. I vote no. – Melody McCray Miller, Valdenia Winn, Broderick Henderson

Mr. Speaker: Fiscal policy is an important tool in regulating and growing our economy. The original bill is a step in the right direction to improve economic conditions and to grow jobs. During our long discussions yesterday, we weakened this bill, and we heard some astonishing arguments. We were told that lowering the income tax is desirable, but eliminating it is unacceptable. We eliminated sales taxes on food to help the poor at a cost of $370 billion, while all of us could and should pay this tax, and the poor could be reimbursed or compensated more effectively. But, not to worry, we then allowed jurisdictions to opt out, which means in some parts of the state, everyone pays, and in other parts, no one does.

Even though the step towards fiscal sanity is shorter, I vote “aye” on H Sub for SB 177. – S. Mike Kiegerl

Mr. Speaker: Kansas needs to have a balanced, equitable, efficient and competitive tax system. There are opportunities to make changes consistent with those goals while maintaining commitments, including those to our education system, our workers and retirees, public safety and our social safety net. With our economy in an unmistakable improving trend, I disagree with the formulaic approach to income tax reduction as well as the timing of this tax reform. I vote no on H Sub for SB 177. -- Don Hill
Mr. Speaker: A constituent sent this note: “I'm urging you as a family of five living below the poverty level to PLEASE not cut the earned income credit! We use this income at tax time to pay off bills that we're not able to pay throughout the year. I know we're not alone in doing so. If this credit is cut or removed, you may be forcing many household to choose even more so over which to provide for their families—food, electricity, medical and prescriptions, etc.”

H Sub for SB 177 is a transfer of wealth from the poor to the rich. I vote no on H Sub for SB 177. – Ann Mah

Mr. Speaker: For those like me who believe that the surest way to stimulate the Kansas economy, grow jobs, broaden the tax base and increase revenues is to immediately enact significant reductions in personal income tax rates and eliminate the individual income tax in Kansas completely as soon as possible, the Governor's tax plan, rather than the House alternative, is the answer. H Sub for SB 177 will not substantially reduce, let alone eliminate, the Kansas income tax in the foreseeable future. The Governor's tax plan will. I vote no on H Sub SB 177. – John Rubin

Mr. Speaker: My constituents tell me that as the State emerges from recession they would like me to invest in economic development by restoring funding to K-12 and create a rainy day fund. If talk turns to tax relief they mention property tax relief first. This bill heads in the wrong direction. Also, this bill weakens the PEAK incentive that is proven to bring high wage jobs to Salina and Kansas. Throw in the 3% trigger on spending that will cause problems when inflation comes and you have an ideological stew that is unpalatable. I vote with my homies, I vote no on H Sub for SB 177. – Charles B. Roth

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 177 for tax reform in Kansas to grow the economy and jobs. If this bill goes to conference committee, I am confident we can arrive at equitable solutions to address concerns raised by amendments added by the committee of the whole. – Richard Carlson, Mario Gico

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 177. I do so with grave reservations. I am greatly disappointed that the House position all but abandons a pro-growth low income tax policy. I am supporting this bill because of the sales tax provision. There is a lack of other tax relief and this is the only strong provision but is likely to be ripped out later in the process. In reality this bill is not a sprint to zero income tax but rather an apathetic, dawdling saunter. – Anthony Brown, Brett Hildabrand

Mr. Speaker: When this bill comes back from Conference Committee, I may be able to support it. But until we know how KPERS reform turns out, I am not able to support a bill that leaves the State with an uncertain ending balance. Therefore, I vote NO on H Sub for SB 177 at this time. – Mitch Holmes

Mr. Speaker: I vote yes on H Sub for SB 177 because I believe tax reform is critical to jump starting the economy. The evidence indicates that the byproduct of lowering rates is often increased revenue because of economic growth. Oklahoma is rapidly pursuing a tax plan that would drop the Oklahoma income tax rate from 5.25 to 2.5 in the first year. Kansas must act to remain competitive. While aspects of SB 177 currently give me pause, and I will evaluate the final product of the conference
On motion of Rep. Siegfried, the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole, with Rep. Crum in the chair.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Father James Gordon, St. John Vianney Catholic Church, Maple Hill, guest of Rep. Kiegerl:

Heavenly Father, Creator of Heaven and Earth, and Creator of all life, we thank You for all the blessings that You have bestowed upon us and upon this great Nation of ours and upon this great State of Kansas. We also thank you for those Representatives that You have given us that truly acknowledge Your absolute rights over all men and women.

We call upon you now, in this urgent time of need for our country, to guide us to the true freedom for which our nation was founded for: That is the freedom to do good, with all the rights of life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness. We know that we cannot be truly happy unless we do the good You created us for by exercising our freedom well and responsibly.

We ask you for the grace to bring us back to the principles that have made this state and this nation great. We ask you to strengthen our understanding of traditional marriage; one man and one woman, we ask you to bring us back to virtuous morals in society, morals that kept us from killing a child in the womb through abortion. We ask you to defend us now in the fight for true religious freedom and freedom of conscience, that seems to be threatened now in the public sphere. We know that a truly formed conscience is what keeps order in the person and in society. We reiterate the words of St. Thomas More, who was once a Statesman and the Chancellor of England, who said. “when men forsake their own conscience for the sake of public duties, they lead their nation down a short road to chaos.”

He acknowledged his responsibility before all the men and women that he came to serve and his responsibility before God, who He knew would be his judge in all his decisions.
Therefore, we ask You for the grace for all those who serve You in public office to defend life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and to uphold the natural law and the rights of God.

We ask you to keep us one nation under God, and not one Nation without God.

We thank you for these men and women here whom we know you have blessed by giving them this awesome responsibility. We ask You for the necessary graces for them and bring many blessings upon them. We ask all this through Jesus Christ, Our Lord, Who lives and reigns with You forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Denning.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Smith are spread upon the Journal:

It is my pleasure to welcome members and staff of the Shawnee Mission West High School Marching Band to the House Chamber today. I am proud to be a Viking and a graduate of Shawnee Mission West. The band has represented the great state of Kansas a record seven times in the City of London, England's New Years Day Parade. They most recently were there on January 1, 2012. It is a great honor to be in the parade and bands are allowed to participate by invitation only. Even more amazing is that this trip is funded by the students through private fundraising efforts. The fact that the Shawnee Mission West Vikings have been invited seven times to represent Kansas in this parade speaks volumes of the dedication these teachers and students have to education and music. They are truly international ambassadors for the state of Kansas. Accepting this certificate on behalf of the band is the Director of Bands, Bill Thomas. Please recognize the achievement of my high school alma mater and of these outstanding teachers and students!

Rep. Smith presented a framed House certificate to Director Bill Thomas.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Gregory are spread upon the Journal:

I want to tell you about the Campus That Students Built.

Neosho County Community College used to use existing space in hospitals, shopping malls, and high schools and then their own metal building to offer education to Franklin County. It became abundantly clear that a new building would need to be built to accommodate a growing student body.

The Trustees of NCCC put in place a building fee, paid for by Ottawa campus students. This fee was saved for years until it had reached $1.2 million dollars for a campus down payment. The College wrote & received grants as well as private gifts toward new construction costs.

With this revenue the Trustees and President hired a fantastic team:

Kyle Trendel of Devore and Associates of Ottawa as the architects, Wendy Van Duyne of Bartlett & West as the engineers, and Josh Walker of Loyd Builders, for the contractor.

The College team was led by Ben Smith, Vice President for Operations and Dr. Brian Inbody, President of NCCC. Nine months from ground breaking, the campus opened in March 2011.

Together they built a 52,000 square foot campus, with no state aid or local tax support. The new campus cost $8.1 million, nearly all of it paid for by student fees, grants and gifts. This team achieved amazing quality for only $118 a square foot where it usually costs well over $230/ sq ft. The Ottawa campus has the latest in educational design, including a simulated hospital for health care programs, and a teaching and learning center that combines tutoring, advisement, computer access, library services, and great lounge space all in one.

These accomplishments lead to Neosho County Community College to be recognized from more than 350 nominations in the nation for the design, financing, and implementation of the Ottawa Campus. On January 31, 2012, The Bellwether Finalist Award from the Community College Futures Association through the University of Florida was presented to Neosho County Community College.

We are very proud of what they have accomplished in Franklin County. Please join me in recognizing President Imbody and the entire team for the Neosho County Community College Ottawa Campus.

Rep. Gregory presented a framed House certificate to President Imbody.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Chaplain John L. Paulson, Kansas State Firefighters Association, Oberlin, and guest of Rep. Schroeder:

I am honored to be in this “House of Leadership” as Chaplain for the 125 year old Kansas State Firefighters Association. Leadership should always go hand in hand with wisdom.

Last spring I saw a notable act of wisdom. The wise leader was a blackbird. He and his son landed at our bird feeder. The young bird was standing up to his knees in food, yet he didn’t eat.

Then I watched as the father took a piece of sunflower seed and gave it to his child. The father took another piece of sunflower seed, but his time, and each subsequent time, he held it a little lower. In this way, the father led his child to the source of food.

I thought this was a great illustration of how the Bible leads us to God as the source of eternal life. God is also a wellspring of wisdom.

For this reason I pray that you might eat of the bread of life and drink from God’s fountain of wisdom as you endeavor to lead this Great State of Kansas.

In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Carlin.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Burgess are spread upon the Journal:

No one ever wants to start the year at 0-3, but that is what happened this year for the Silver Lake Lady Eagles basketball team.

They suffered losses to Holton (who ended up second in 4A), Riley County (who was undefeated until the 3A sub-state championship game), and Jefferson County North (who ended up the 2A state champions).

After the first three losses, they started playing well, heading to the Tonganoxie tournament where they ended up taking first place even though they were playing larger schools.

At Sub-state, the Lady Eagles had to beat Rock Creek in the semi finals before they had to play the undefeated Riley County Falcons in the Sub-state finals. The Falcons had defeated the Eagles twice during the regular season. Needless to say, they didn’t beat the Eagles a third time.

At the State Basketball Tournament, the Eagles beat Garden Plain 55-49 in overtime. Then, they beat ACCHS 56-46.

In the Championship game, the Eagles faced Burlington. They were down by double digits with four minutes left in the game before they made a comeback to push the game into overtime where they took care of business by winning 51-47.

It is my distinct pleasure to welcome the 2012 Girls 3A State Basketball Champions: the Silver Lake Eagles Girls Basketball Team, their head coach, Tyler Stewart; assistant coach, Loren Ziegler; Principal Brad Womack; Athletic Director, Warren Bledsoe; and Superintendent, Dr. Randy Freeman.

Because of time constraints, I will only be able to introduce the seniors: Jamie Pfannenstiel, Perry Krogman, Becca Holder, Quinn Barker, Kayla Thayer, Kylie Bledsoe and Kaci Campbell.

Rep. Burgess presented a House certificate to Coach Stewart.

It is an honor to offer Resolution 6019 recognizing the Kansas State Firefighters Association. The Association was established in 1887, 125 years ago, in Minneapolis, KS.

Each of us most likely has a friend, neighbor, or family member that is a firefighter willing to put oneself in harm’s way for our protection and who’s department is a member of the Kansas State Firefighters Association. The Association currently has 660 member departments representing over 16,000 firefighters.

Thank you to the Kansas State Firefighters Association for their dedication to the safety and education of all firefighters.

Congratulations on the Kansas State Firefighter Association 125 year anniversary.

(1) If any person charged with a crime and held in jail solely by reason thereof shall not be brought to trial within 90 days after such person's arraignment on the charge, such person shall be entitled to be discharged from further liability to be tried for the crime charged, unless the delay shall happen as a result of the application or fault of the defendant, or a continuance shall be ordered by the court under subsection (e).

(2) If any person charged with a crime and held to answer on an appearance bond shall not be brought to trial within 180 days after arraignment on the charge, such person shall be entitled to be discharged from further liability to be tried for the crime charged, unless the delay shall happen as a result of the application or fault of the defendant, or a continuance shall be ordered by the court under subsection (e).

(3) If any trial scheduled within the time limitation prescribed by subsection (1) or (2) is delayed by the application of or at the request of the defendant, the trial shall be rescheduled within 90 days of the original trial deadline.

(4) After any trial date has been set within the time limitation prescribed by subsection (1) or (2), the defendant fails to appear for the trial or any pretrial hearing, and a bench warrant is ordered, the trial shall be rescheduled within 90 days after the defendant has been surrendered or appeared in court after apprehension or surrender on such warrant. However, if the defendant was subject to the 180-day deadline prescribed by subsection (2) and more than 90 days of the original time limitation remain, then the original time limitation remains in effect.

(5) For those situations not otherwise covered by subsections (a), (b) or (c), the time for trial may be extended beyond the limitations of subsections (1) and (2) for any of the following reasons:

(a) The defendant is incompetent to stand trial. If the defendant is subsequently found to be competent to stand trial, the trial shall be scheduled as soon as practicable and in any event within 90 days of such finding;

Not more than one continuance may be granted the state on this ground, unless for good cause shown, where the original continuance was for less than 90 days, and the trial is commenced within 120 days from the original trial date;

(d) Because of other cases pending for trial, the court does not have sufficient time to commence the trial of the case within the time fixed for trial by this section. Not more than one continuance of not more than 30 days may be ordered upon this ground.

(6)(f) In the event a mistrial is declared, a motion for new trial is granted or a conviction is reversed on appeal to the supreme court or court of appeals, the time limitations provided for herein shall commence to run from the date the mistrial is declared, the date a new trial is ordered or the date the mandate of the supreme court or court of appeals is filed in the district court.

(g) If a delay is initially attributed to the defendant, but is subsequently charged to the state for any reason, such delay shall not be considered against the state under subsections (a), (b) or (c) and shall not be used as a ground for dismissing a case or for reversing a conviction unless not considering such delay would result in a violation of the constitutional right to a speedy trial or there is prosecutorial misconduct related to such delay.

(h) When a scheduled trial is scheduled within the period allowed by subsections (a), (b) or (c) and is delayed because a party has made or filed a motion, or because the court raises a concern on its own, the time elapsing from the date of the making or filing of the motion, or the court’s raising a concern, until the matter is resolved by court order shall not be considered when determining if a violation under subsections (a), (b) or (c) has occurred. If the resolution of such motion or concern by court order occurs at a time when less than 30 days remains under the provisions of subsections (a), (b) or (c), the time in which the defendant shall be brought to trial is extended 30 days from the date of the court order.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Paul Tessaro, pastor, St. Paul Lutheran Church, Clay Center, and guest of Rep. Swanson:

Heavenly Father,

We thank You for Your presence with us today, for bringing us to the beginning of this new week. Thank you for the opportunities to serve You in this new day and new week. Grant wisdom and strength to our Representatives as they make difficult decisions in these times of uncertainty and struggle for many. We pray the same wisdom and strength for our Senators and Governor Brownback.

We pray for Your blessing to be upon all areas of our state, on our farms and fields, on our cities and towns and each of our citizens. Grant peace, safety and prosperity according to Your divine will.

We pray also for our nation's armed forces who are serving to keep and restore peace. Protect them, lead them and give them success as they serve to bring stability in many areas. Guard also their families as they anxiously await the return home of their loved ones.

Father, we pray also for the family and friends of Don Dunn. Please bring them comfort during these difficult times.

As we go through life we are often faced with difficult decisions, sometimes there is no clear solution, sometimes we are forced to choose the lesser of two evils. In those situations, let us, as Luther stated, “Sin boldly.” Not because we promote sin, but because Your grace is sufficient for difficult situations, and for all of life. In that grace we pray, live and have our being. In Jesus' name. Amen.
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Calloway.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: We vote yes on H Sub for SB 294 but believe that the deficiencies in this budget can and must be corrected later in the process. We shouldn't have to choose between adequately funding K-12 and fully supporting KDOT's T-Works. Funding early childhood programs through the CIF is unnecessarily restrictive and funds should be restored at omnibus. If we demand the courts be efficient then we must provide resources to begin transitioning to e-filing, and swift access to justice will be threatened if we won't fund additional court personnel. This budget is only a start. Improvement is possible. – Don Hineman, J. Robert Brookens, Vern Swanson, Rich Proehl, Charlie Roth, Ron Worley, Kay Wolf, Don Hill, Sheryl Spalding, Tom Moxley, Barbara Bollier

Mr. Speaker: This is a budget of misguided priorities and missed opportunities. It fails to restore any cuts schools have endured in recent years. It cuts funding for children's programs and eliminates funding for programs for seniors and the disabled, all while adding $1 million to the Legislature's own budget and growing a $500 million ending balance. If we can afford new tax cuts for big businesses and the wealthiest Kansans, we can afford to properly fund public education and essential state services. Unfortunately, this budget ignores those needs. For that reason, I vote NO on H Sub for SB 294. – Bill Feuerborn, Jerry Henry, Stan Frownfelter, Janice L. Pauls, Ed Trimmer, Valdenia Winn, Melanie Meier, Annie Kuether, Judith Loganbill, Gail Finney, Vincent Wetta, Ann Mah, Doug Gatewood, Louis Ruiz, Bob Grant, Sydney Carlin, Melody McCray-Miller, Jerry Williams, Eber Phelps, Barbara W. Ballard, Annie Tietze, Mike Slattery, Harold Lane, Geraldine Flaharty, Nile Dillmore, Paul Davis, Kathy Wolfe Moore, Tom Burroughs

On motion of Rep. Kinzer, Committee of the Whole report, as follows, was adopted:

- Committee report recommending a substitute bill to H Sub for SB 259 be adopted; also, on motion of Rep. Grange be amended on page 4, following line 38, by inserting:

On page 6, in line 21, by striking "(b)" and inserting "(a)"

Also, on further motion of Rep. Grange, H Sub for SB 259 be amended on page 24, following line 3, by inserting:

"Sec. 29. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 74-4927 is hereby amended to read as follows: 74-4927. (1) The board may establish a plan of death and long-term disability benefits to be paid to the members of the retirement system as provided by this section. The long-term disability benefit shall be payable in accordance with the terms of such plan as established by the board, except that for any member who is disabled prior to the effective date of this act, the annual disability benefit amount shall be an amount equal to 66\(\frac{2}{3}\)% of the member's annual rate of compensation on the date such disability commenced. Such plan shall provide that:

(A) For deaths occurring prior to January 1, 1987, the right to receive such death benefit shall cease upon the member's attainment of age 70 or date of retirement whichever first occurs. The right to receive such long-term disability benefit shall cease (i) for a member who becomes eligible for such benefit before attaining age 60, upon the date that such member attains age 65 or the date of such member's retirement, whichever first occurs, and (ii) for a member who becomes eligible for such benefit at or after attaining age 60, the date that such member has received such benefit for a period of five years, or upon the date of such member's retirement, whichever first occurs.

(B) Long-term disability benefit payments shall be in lieu of any accidental total disability benefit that a member may be eligible to receive under subsection (3) of K.S.A. 74-4916, and amendments thereto. The member must make an initial application for social security disability benefits and, if denied such benefits, the member must pursue and exhaust all administrative remedies of the social security administration which include, but are not limited to, reconsideration and hearings. Such plan may provide that any amount which a member receives as a social security benefit or a disability benefit or compensation from any source by reason of any employment including, but not limited to, workers compensation benefits may be deducted from the amount of long-term disability benefit payments under such plan. However, in no event shall the amount of long-term disability benefit payments under such plan be reduced by any amounts a member receives as a supplemental disability benefit or compensation from any source by reason of the member's employment, provided such supplemental disability benefit or compensation is based solely upon the portion of the member's monthly compensation that exceeds the maximum monthly compensation taken into account under such plan. As used in this paragraph, "maximum monthly compensation" means the dollar amount that results from dividing the maximum monthly disability benefit payable under such plan by the percentage of compensation that is used to calculate disability benefit payments under such plan. During the period in which such member is pursuing such administrative remedies prior to a final decision of the social security administration, social security disability benefits may be estimated and may be deducted from the amount of long-term disability benefit payments under such plan. If the social security benefit, workers compensation benefit, other income or wages or other disability benefit by reason of employment other than a supplemental benefit based solely on compensation in excess of the maximum monthly compensation taken into account under such plan, or any part thereof, is paid in a lump-sum, the amount of the reduction shall be calculated on a monthly basis over the period of time for which the lump-sum is given. As used in this section, "workers compensation benefits" means the total award of disability benefit payments under the workers compensation act notwithstanding any payment of attorney fees from such benefits as provided in the workers compensation act.

(C) The plan may include other provisions relating to qualifications for benefits; schedules and graduation of benefits; limitations of eligibility for benefits by reason of termination of employment or membership; conversion privileges; limitations of eligibility for benefits by reason of leaves of absence, military service or other interruptions in service; limitations on the condition of long-term disability benefit payment by reason of improved health; requirements for medical examinations or reports; or any other reasonable provisions as established by rule and regulation of uniform application adopted by the board.

(D) Any visually impaired person who is in training at and employed by a sheltered workshop for the blind operated by the secretary of social and rehabilitation services and who would otherwise be eligible for the long-term disability benefit as described in this section shall not be eligible to receive such benefit due to visual impairment as such impairment shall be determined to be a preexisting condition.

(2) (A) In the event that a member becomes eligible for a long-term disability benefit under the plan authorized by this section such member shall be given participating service credit for the entire period of such disability. Such member's final average salary shall be computed in accordance with subsection (17) of K.S.A. 74-4902, and amendments thereto, except that the years of participating service used in such computation shall be the years of salaried participating service.

(B) In the event that a member eligible for a long-term disability benefit under the plan authorized by this section shall be disabled for a period of five years or more immediately preceding retirement, such member's final average salary shall be adjusted upon retirement by the actuarial salary assumption rates in existence during such period of disability. Effective July 1, 1993, such member's final average salary shall be adjusted upon retirement by 5% for each year of disability after July 1, 1993, but before July 1, 1998. Effective July 1, 1998, such member's final average salary shall be adjusted upon retirement by an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) The percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers as published by the bureau of labor statistics of the United States department of labor minus 1%; or (ii) four percent per annum, measured from the member's last day on the payroll to the month that is two months prior to the month of retirement, for each year of disability after July 1, 1998.

(C) In the event that a member eligible for a long-term disability benefit under the plan authorized by this section shall be disabled for a period of five years or more immediately preceding death, such member's current annual rate shall be adjusted by the actuarial salary assumption rates in existence during such period of disability. Effective July 1, 1993, such member's current annual rate shall be adjusted upon death by 5% for each year of disability after July 1, 1993, but before July 1, 1998. Effective July 1, 1998, such member's current annual rate shall be adjusted upon death by an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) The percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers published by the bureau of labor statistics of the United States department of labor minus 1%; or (ii) four percent per annum, measured from the member's last day on the payroll to the month that is two months prior to the month of retirement, for each year of disability after July 1, 1998. department of labor minus 1%; or (ii) four percent per annum, measured from the member's last day on the payroll to the month that is two months prior to the month of death, for each year of disability after July 1, 1998.

(3) (A) To carry out the legislative intent to provide, within the funds made available therefor, the broadest possible coverage for members who are in active employment or involuntarily absent from such active employment, the plan of death and long-term disability benefits shall be subject to adjustment from time to time by the board within the limitations of this section. The plan may include terms and provisions which are consistent with the terms and provisions of group life and long-term disability policies usually issued to those employers who employ a large number of employees. The board shall have the authority to establish and adjust from time to time the procedures for financing and administering the plan of death and long-term disability benefits authorized by this section. Either the insured death benefit or the insured disability benefit or both such benefits may be financed directly by the system or by one or more insurance companies authorized and licensed to transact group life and group accident and health insurance in this state.

(B) The board may contract with one or more insurance companies, which are authorized and licensed to transact group life and group accident and health insurance in Kansas, to underwrite or to administer or to both underwrite and administer either the insured death benefit or the long-term disability benefit or both such benefits. Each such contract with an insurance company under this subsection shall be entered into on the basis of competitive bids solicited and administered by the board. Such competitive bids shall be based on specifications prepared by the board.

(i) In the event the board purchases one or more policies of group insurance from such company or companies to provide either the insured death benefit or the long-term disability benefit or both such benefits, the board shall have the authority to subsequently cancel one or more of such policies and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to release each company which issued any such canceled policy from any liability for future benefits under any such policy and to have the reserves established by such company under any such canceled policy returned to the system for deposit in the group insurance reserve of the fund.

(ii) In addition, the board shall have the authority to cancel any policy or policies of group life and long-term disability insurance in existence on the effective date of this act and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, to release each company which issued any such canceled policy from any liability for future benefits under any such policy and to have the reserves established by such company under any such canceled policy returned to the system for deposit in the group insurance reserve of the fund. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no premium tax shall be due or payable by any such company or companies on any such policy or policies purchased by the board nor shall any brokerage fees or commissions be paid thereon.

(4) (A) There is hereby created in the state treasury the group insurance reserve fund. Investment income of the fund shall be added or credited to the fund as provided by law. The cost of the plan of death and long-term disability benefits shall be paid from the group insurance reserve fund, which shall be administered by the board. Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, for the period commencing July 1, 2005, and ending June 30, 2006, each participating employer shall appropriate and pay to the system in such manner as the board shall prescribe in addition to the employee and employer retirement contributions an amount equal to .8% of the amount of compensation on which the members' contributions to the Kansas public employees retirement system are based for deposit in the group insurance reserve fund. For the period commencing July 1, 2006, and all periods thereafter, each participating employer shall appropriate and pay to the system in such manner as the board shall prescribe in addition to the employee and employer retirement contributions an amount equal to 1.0% of the amount of compensation on which the members' contributions to the Kansas public employees retirement system are based for deposit in the group insurance reserve fund. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, no participating employer shall appropriate and pay to the system any amount provided for by this subsection for deposit in the group insurance reserve fund for the period commencing on April 1, 2010, and ending on June 30, 2010, and the period commencing on April 1, 2011, and ending on June 30, 2011, and ending on June 30, 2012.

(B) The director of the budget and the governor shall include in the budget and in the budget request for appropriations for personal services a sum to pay the state's contribution to the group insurance reserve fund as provided by this section and shall present the same to the legislature for allowances and appropriation.

(C) The provisions of subsection (4) of K.S.A. 74-4920, and amendments thereto, shall apply for the purpose of providing the funds to make the contributions to be deposited to the group insurance reserve fund.

(D) Any dividend or retrospective rate credit allowed by an insurance company or companies shall be credited to the group insurance reserve fund and the board may take such amounts into consideration in determining the amounts of the benefits under the plan authorized by this section.

(5) The death benefit provided under the plan of death and long-term disability benefits authorized by this section shall be known and referred to as insured death benefit. The long-term disability benefit provided under the plan of death and long-term disability benefits authorized by this section shall be known and referred to as long-term disability benefit.

(6) The board is hereby authorized to establish an optional death benefit plan for employees and spouses and dependents of employees. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, administrative law judges appointed on and after July 1, 2006, shall serve a term of office of four years. Administrative law judges hired before July 1, 2006, may continue as administrative law judges under the classified service under the Kansas civil service act at the salary provided under the civil service act or may elect to be appointed to a term and receive the annual salary equal to 75% of the salary prescribed for a district judge if the currently employed administrative law judge within 60 days of the effective date of this section notifies the director in writing that the administrative law judge elects to serve an appointed term of office rather than continuing in the classified service. The term of office for an administrative law judge who elects a term of office shall begin on the date the written election is received by the director and the first term of office for such person shall be for two, three or four years as specified by the secretary so that administrative law judges appointed under this subsection serve staggered terms. Thereafter, any such person if reappointed as an administrative law judge shall be appointed for a term of four years.

Following the completion of a term, an administrative law judge who wishes to be considered for reappointment to such judge's position shall be deemed to have met the qualification requirements for appointment as administrative law judge and shall be considered for renomination by the workers compensation administrative law judge nominating and review committee. Following the completion of a term, an administrative law judge who wishes to be considered for reappointment to such judge's position shall be deemed to have met the qualification requirements for appointment as administrative law judge. If such administrative law judge wishes to be considered for renomination by the workers compensation administrative law judge nominating and review committee, such administrative law judge shall submit an application as provided in subsection (d).

Administrative law judges shall have power to administer oaths, certify official acts, take depositions, issue subpoenas, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, accounts, papers, documents and records to the same extent as is conferred on the district courts of this state, and may conduct an investigation, inquiry or hearing on all matters before the administrative law judges. All final orders, awards, modifications of awards, or preliminary awards under K.S.A. 44-534a, and amendments thereto, made by an administrative law judge shall be subject to review by the board upon written request of any interested party within 10 days. Intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the time computation. Review by the board shall be a prerequisite to judicial review as provided for in K.S.A. 44-556, and amendments thereto. On any such review, the board shall have authority to grant or refuse compensation, or to increase or diminish any award of compensation or to remand any matter to the administrative law judge for further proceedings. The orders of the board under this subsection shall be issued within 30 days from the date arguments were presented by the parties.

If an administrative law judge has entered a preliminary award under K.S.A. 44-534a, and amendments thereto, a review by the board shall not be conducted under this section unless it is alleged that the administrative law judge exceeded the administrative law judge's jurisdiction in granting or denying the relief requested at the preliminary hearing. Such an appeal from a preliminary award may be heard and decided by a single member of the board. Members of the board shall hear such preliminary appeals on a rotating basis and the individual board member who decides the appeal shall sign each such decision. The orders of the board under this subsection shall be issued within 30 days from the date arguments were presented by the parties.

(B) If an order on review is not issued by the board within the applicable time period prescribed by subsection (i)(h)(1), medical compensation and any disability compensation as provided in the award of the administrative law judge shall be paid commencing with the first day after such time period and shall continue to be paid until the order of the board is issued, except that no payments shall be made under this provision for any period before the first day after such time period. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict any other remedies available to any party to a claim under any other statute.

(C) In any case in which the final award of an administrative law judge is appealed to the board for review under this section and in which the compensability is not an issue to be decided on review by the board, medical compensation shall be payable in accordance with the award of the administrative law judge and shall not be stayed pending such review. The employee may proceed under K.S.A. 44-510k, and amendments thereto, and may have a hearing in accordance with that statute to enforce the provisions of this subsection.

Each assistant director and each administrative law judge or special administrative law judge shall be allowed all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred while in the actual discharge of official duties in administering the workers compensation act, but such expenses shall be sworn to by the person incurring the same and be approved by the secretary.

In case of emergency the director may appoint special local administrative law judges and assign to them the examination and hearing of any designated case or cases. Such special local administrative law judges shall be attorneys and admitted to practice law in the state of Kansas and shall, as to all cases assigned to them, exercise the same powers as provided by this section for the regular administrative law judges. Special local administrative law judges shall receive a fee commensurate with the services rendered as fixed by rules and regulations adopted by the director. The fees prescribed by this section prior to the effective date of this act shall be effective until different fees are fixed by such rules and regulations.

All special local administrative law judge's fees and expenses, with the exception of settlement hearings, shall be paid from the workers compensation administration fee fund, as provided in K.S.A. 74-712, and amendments thereto. Where there are no available funds or where the special local administrative law judge conducted a settlement hearing, the fees shall be taxed as costs in each case heard by such special local administrative law judge and when collected shall be paid directly to such special local administrative law judge by the party charged with the payment of the same.

Except as provided for judicial review under K.S.A. 44-556, and amendments thereto, the decisions and awards of the board shall be final.
Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 44-555c is hereby amended to read as follows:

No board member may receive additional compensation for official services performed by the board member. Each board member shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of such official duties under the same circumstances and to the same extent as judges of the district court are reimbursed for such expenses.

(d) Applications for membership on the board shall be submitted to the director of workers compensation. The director shall determine if an applicant meets the qualifications for membership on the board prescribed in subsection (b). Qualified applicants for the board will be submitted by the director to the workers compensation board and employment security boards nominating committee for consideration.

(f)(1) Upon being notified of any vacancy on the board or of the need to appoint a member pro tem under subsection (i), the nominating committee shall consider all qualified applicants submitted by the director for the vacant position on the board or the member pro tem position and nominate a person qualified therefor. The nominating committee shall be required to reach unanimous agreement on any nomination to the board. With respect to each person nominated, the secretary either shall accept and

(h) The members of the board shall annually elect one member to serve as chairperson.

(i) If illness or other temporary disability of a member of the board will not permit the member to serve during a case or in any case in which a member of the board must be excused from serving because of a conflict or is otherwise disqualified with regard to such case, the director shall notify the workers compensation and employment security boards nominating committee of the need to appoint a member pro tem. Upon receipt of such notice, the committee shall act as soon as possible and nominate a qualified person to serve as member pro tem in such case in accordance with subsection (f). Each member pro tem shall receive compensation at the same rate as a member of

The findings of fact and conclusions of law of the board shall be made a part of the final order. The board shall mail a copy of the final order of the board to all parties to the proceeding within three days following the issuance of the final order.

The secretary shall furnish a copy of such rules and regulations to any individual requesting them. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements furnished by the secretary without cost to the employer in places readily accessible to individuals in the service of the employer.

(b) Determination. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection (b)(1), a representative designated by the secretary, and hereinafter referred to as an examiner, shall promptly examine the claim and, on the basis of the facts found by the examiner, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid. If the examiner determines that the claim is valid, the examiner shall determine the first day of the benefit year, the weekly benefit amount and the total amount of benefits payable with respect to the benefit year. If the claim is determined to be valid, the examiner shall send a notice to the last employing unit who shall respond within 10 days by providing the examiner all requested information including all information required for a decision under K.S.A. 44-706a and amendments thereto. The information may be submitted by the employing unit in person at an employment office of the secretary or by mail, by telefacsimile machine or by electronic mail. If the required information is not submitted or postmarked within a response time limit of 10 days after the examiner's notice was sent, the employing unit shall be deemed to have waived its standing as a party to the proceedings arising from the claim and shall be barred from protesting any subsequent decisions about the claim by the secretary, a referee, the board of review or any court, except that the employing unit's response time limit may be waived or extended by the examiner or upon appeal, if timely response was impossible due to excusable neglect. In any case in which the payment or denial of benefits will be determined by the provisions of subsection (d) of K.S.A. 44-706a, and amendments thereto, the examiner shall promptly transmit the claim to a special examiner designated by the secretary to make a determination on the claim after the investigation as the special examiner deems necessary. The parties shall be promptly notified of the special examiner's decision and any party aggrieved by the decision may appeal to the referee as provided in subsection (c). The claimant and the claimant's most recent employing unit shall be promptly notified of the examiner's or special examiner's decision.

(2) The examiner may for good cause reconsider the examiner's decision and shall promptly notify the claimant and the most recent employing unit of the claimant, that the decision of the examiner is to be reconsidered, except that no reconsideration shall be made after the termination of the benefit year.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute, a decision of an examiner or special examiner shall be final unless the claimant or the most recent employing unit of the claimant files an appeal from the decision as provided in subsection (c). The appeal must be filed within 16 calendar days after the mailing of notice to the last known addresses of the claimant and employing unit or, if notice is not by mail, within 16 calendar days after the delivery of the notice to the parties.

(c) Appeals. Unless the appeal is withdrawn, a referee, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm or modify the findings of fact and decision of the examiner or special examiner. The parties shall be duly notified of the referee's decision, together with the reasons for the decision. The decision shall be final, notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute, unless a further appeal to the board of review is filed within 16 calendar days after the mailing of the decision to the parties' last known addresses or, if notice is not by mail, within 16 calendar days after the delivery of the decision.

(d) Referees. The secretary shall appoint, in accordance with subsection (c) of K.S.A. 44-714, and amendments thereto, one or more referees to hear and decide disputed claims.

(e) Time, computation and extension. In computing the period of time for an employing unit response or for appeals under this section from the examiner's or the special examiner's determination or from the referee's decision, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

(f) Board of review. (1) There is hereby created a board of review, hereinafter referred to as the board, consisting of three members. Except as provided by paragraph (2) of this subsection, each member of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years as provided in this subsection. Two members shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate as provided in K.S.A. 75-4315b and amendments thereto. Except as provided by K.S.A. 46-2601, and amendments thereto, no person appointed to the board, whose appointment is subject to confirmation by the senate, shall exercise any power, duty or function as a member until confirmed by the senate. One member shall be representative of employees, one member shall be representative of employers, and one member shall be representative of the public in general. The appointment of the employee representative member of the board shall be made by the governor from a list of three nominations submitted by the Kansas A.F.L.-C.I.O. The appointment of the employer representative member of the board shall be made by the governor from a list of three nominations submitted by the Kansas chamber of commerce and industry. The appointment of the public representative member of the board, who, because of vocation, occupation or affiliation may be deemed not to be representative of either management or labor, shall be made by the members appointed by the governor as employee representative and employer representative. If the two members do not agree and fail to make the appointment of the public member within 30 days after the expiration of the public member's term of office, the governor shall appoint the representative of the public. Each member shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate as provided in K.S.A. 75-4315b, and amendments thereto. Except as provided by K.S.A. 46-2601, and amendments thereto, no person appointed to the board, whose appointment is subject to confirmation by the senate, shall exercise any power, duty or function as a member until confirmed by the senate. The appointment of each member of the board shall be made by the governor from a list of three nominations submitted by the workers compensation and employment security boards nominations committee. Not more than two members of the board shall belong to the same political party. No board member shall serve more than two consecutive terms.

(2) The terms of members who are serving on the board on the effective date of this act shall expire on March 15, of the year in which such member's term would have expired under the provisions of this section prior to amendment by this act. Thereafter, members shall be appointed for terms of four years and until their successors are appointed and confirmed.

(3) Each member of the board shall serve until a successor has been appointed and confirmed. Any vacancy in the membership of the board occurring prior to expiration of a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term in the same manner as provided for original appointment of the member. Each member shall be appointed as representative of the same special interest group represented by the predecessor of the member.

(4) Each member of the board shall be entitled to receive as compensation for the member's services at the rate of $15,000 per year, together with the member's travel and other necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of the member's official duties in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the secretary. Members' compensation and expenses shall be paid from the employment security administration fund.

(5) The board shall organize annually by the election of a chairperson from among its members. The chairperson shall serve in that capacity for a term of one year and until a successor is elected. The board shall meet on the first Monday of each month or on the call of the chairperson or any two members of the board at the place designated. The secretary of labor shall appoint an executive secretary of the board and the executive secretary shall attend the meetings of the board.

(6) The board, on its own motion, may affirm, modify or set aside any decision of a referee on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case; may direct the taking of additional evidence; or may permit any of the parties to initiate further appeal before it. The board shall permit such further appeal by any of the parties interested in a decision of a referee which overrules or modifies the decision of an examiner. The board may remove to itself the proceedings on any claim pending before a referee. Any proceedings so removed to the board shall be heard in accordance with the requirements of subsection (c). The board shall promptly notify the interested parties of its findings and decision.
(7) Two members of the board shall constitute a quorum and no action of the board shall be valid unless it has the concurrence of at least two members. A vacancy on the board shall not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the board.

(g) Procedure. The manner in which disputed claims are presented, the reports on claims required from the claimant and from employers and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with rules of procedure prescribed by the board for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not such rules conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings and decisions in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing upon a disputed claim shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed. In the performance of its official duties, the board shall have access to all of the records which pertain to the disputed claim and are in the custody of the secretary of labor and shall receive the assistance of the secretary upon request.

(h) Witness fees. Witnesses subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall be allowed fees and necessary travel expenses at rates fixed by the board. Such fees and expenses shall be deemed a part of the expense of administering this act.

(i) Court review. Any action of the board is subject to review in accordance with the Kansas judicial review act. No bond shall be required for commencing an action for such review. In the absence of an action for such review, the action of the board shall become final 16 calendar days after the date of the mailing of the decision. In addition to those persons having standing pursuant to K.S.A. 77-611, and amendments thereto, the examiner shall have standing to obtain judicial review of an action of the board. The review proceeding, and the questions of law certified, shall be heard in a summary manner and shall be given precedence over all other civil cases except cases arising under the workers compensation act.

(j) Any finding of fact or law, judgment, determination, conclusion or final order made by the board of review or any examiner, special examiner, referee or other person with authority to make findings of fact or law pursuant to the employment security law is not admissible or binding in any separate or subsequent action or proceeding, between a person and a present or previous employer brought before an arbitrator, court or judge of the state or the United States, regardless of whether the prior action was between the same or related parties or involved the same facts.

(k) In any proceeding or hearing conducted under this section, a party to the proceeding or hearing may appear before a referee or the board either personally or by means of a designated representative to present evidence and to state the position of the party. Hearings may be conducted in person, by telephone or other means of electronic communication. The hearing shall be conducted by telephone or other means of electronic communication if none of the parties requests an in-person hearing. If only one party requests an in-person hearing, the referee shall have the discretion of requiring all parties to appear in person or allow the party not requesting an in-person hearing to appear by telephone or other means of electronic communication. The notice of hearing shall include notice to the parties of their right to request an in-person hearing and instructions on how to make the request.

As we pray, please remember the family of Rep. Ward Cassidy, who lost his brother-in-law.
Father, we bless Your Holy name this morning. We give You all honor and glory for who You are.
Your Word says, pray much for others; plead for God’s mercy upon them; give thanks for all He is going to do for them. Pray in this way for kings and all others who are in authority over us, or are in places of high responsibility, so that we can live in peace and quietness, spending our time in godly living and thinking much about the Lord.
So, Father, we pray for Your highest will for others, Lord, especially for our leaders; and we thank You for all You are doing for them through our prayers. Because of these prayers, we are able to live in peace and quiet, thinking much about You.
We ask You to give them wisdom, boldness, and cover them with truth. May their decisions and lives be lived in total accordance to and with Your will. In Christ’s Name, we pray,
Amen

Mr. Speaker: While H Sub for SB 259 does trigger HB 2194, providing a mechanism to pay down the unfunded liability in the existing K培ERS system, and adds additional funding from Expanded Lottery Revenue Funds also for unfunded liability reduction, I must vote no. The bill includes a defined contribution component that is not only unnecessary but also costly to the state and the taxpayer. I do not believe ideology should trump reason. – Ed Trimmer, Bill Feuerborn, Annie Tietze, Melanie Meier, Janice L. Pauls, Bob Grant, Louis Ruiz, Jerry Williams, Melody McCray-Miller, Mike Slattery, Judith Loganbill, Annie Kuether, Geraldine Flaharty, Harold Lane, Valdenia Winn, Sydney Carlin
Mr. Speaker: It gives me great pleasure to vote yes on H Sub for SB 259. In my opinion this landmark Legislation will set the baseline for future KPERS reform. The detailed analytical thought process, dedication and determination of our Committee and the support staff is displayed in this legislation. During this process we will continue to work together to provide a simple, balanced and fair retirement plan for future public sector employees. My hope is 30 years from now, they will be saying, “what a great retirement system, I wonder how it happened?” – John C. Grange, Charles B. Roth

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on H Sub for SB 259 because I believe the defined contribution plan amendment added to the bill will only worsen the existing KPERS unfunded liability issue. While I am pleased that we will be dedicating 75% of future gaming revenues to pay off the UAL, and we have included enough provisions from the KPERS Study Commission proposal to effectively trigger the key provisions of HB 2194 to begin addressing the UAL in earnest, I cannot cast a vote for a bill that potentially could make the situation worse. – Ann E. Mah, Eber Phelps

Mr. Speaker: I have concerns about the amendment offered to this bill that allows new Tier 3 employees to choose a defined contribution plan. This will not aid our efforts to reduce the unfunded actuarial liability. Despite this, I vote Yes on H Sub for SB 259 to move this process forward and hope that the bill can be improved so that we achieve the most important goal of eliminating the unfunded actuarial liability. – Paul Davis, Barbara Ballard

In addition, the secretary may adopt rules and regulations limiting the times and areas for hunting and taking deer, antelope, elk and wild turkey and limiting the number of deer, antelope, elk and wild turkey which may be taken pursuant to subsection (a).

(c) Falsely obtaining or using a permit authorized by this section is a class C misdemeanor.

Evidence of tenancy, if requested, shall be provided to the department and may include, but is not limited to, natural resource conservation services records, farm service agency records, or written agricultural contract or lease documentation.

(3) "Regular season" means a statewide big game hunting season authorized annually which may include one or more seasons restricted to specific types of equipment.

(4) "Special season" means a big game hunting season in addition to a regular season authorized on an irregular basis or at different times of the year other than the regular season.

(c) The fee for big game permits and game tags shall be the amount prescribed pursuant to K.S.A. 32-988, and amendments thereto.

(d) Big game permits are valid throughout the state or such portion thereof as provided by rules and regulations adopted by the secretary in accordance with K.S.A. 32-805, and amendments thereto.

(e) Unless otherwise provided by law or rules and regulations of the secretary, big game permits are valid from the date of issuance and shall expire at the end of the season for which issued.

(f) The secretary may adopt, in accordance with K.S.A. 32-805, and amendments thereto, rules and regulations for each regular or special big game hunting season and for each management unit regarding big game permits. The secretary is hereby authorized to issue big game permits pertaining to the taking of big game. Separate big game permits may be issued for each species of big game. No big game permits shall be issued until the secretary has established, by rules and regulations adopted in accordance with K.S.A. 32-805, and amendments thereto, a regular or special big game hunting season.

(g) The secretary may authorize, by rule and regulation adopted in accordance with K.S.A. 32-805, and amendments thereto, regular landowner or tenant hunt-on-your-own-land big game permits. Members of the landowner's or tenant's immediate family who are domiciled with the landowner or tenant may apply for resident big game permits as landowners or tenants, but the total number of landowner or tenant regular hunt-on-your-own-land permits issued to a landowner or tenant and a landowner's or tenant's immediate family members for each big game species shall not exceed one permit for each 80 acres owned by such landowner or operated by such tenant. your-own-land big game permits for that unit have not been authorized. A landowner or tenant is not eligible to apply for a big game permit as a landowner or as a tenant in a management unit other than the unit or units which includes such landowner's or tenant's land. Any big game permits not issued to landowners or tenants within the time period prescribed by rule and regulation may be issued without regard to the 50% limitation.

(l) The secretary may issue deer hunting permits to nonresidents, subject to the following limitations:

(1) The total number of nonresident deer permits that may be issued for a deer season in a management unit and which may be used to take antlered deer shall be established with the goal of meeting demand for those permits, using a formula developed by the department that will consider adjustment factors, including deer population trends, deer-related vehicle accidents, age structure in the harvest, deer damage, landowner desire for nonresident deer permits, general public desires and health of habitat. The 2008 permit numbers shall be based on the adjustment factors and an average of nonresident demand for permits in each management unit from the previous six years, establishing at least a 10% increase but not more than 50% increase in permit numbers in each management unit, except in unit 16, where permit numbers shall not increase more than 100%. In subsequent years, the formula shall be used to determine permit allocations based on demand and the adjustment factors.

(2) Nonresident deer permits may be restricted to a particular deer species.

(3) Nonresident deer permits shall be restricted to two adjacent deer management units.

(4) Nonresident deer hunters shall select one season at the time of application.

(5) For an additional fee, nonresident deer hunters applying for a whitetail either sex archery or muzzle loader permit in a designated mule deer unit may also apply for one of the limited number of mule deer stamps. If they are successful in both drawings, they would be issued a permit that will allow them to take either a whitetail deer or a mule deer in that unit.

(m) A big game permit shall state the species, number and sex of the big game which may be killed by the permittee. The secretary may require any big game permitee to provide survey information at the conclusion of the open season.
Prior to April 1, 2013, the secretary shall develop and implement a combination antlered and antlerless deer permit and adopt rules and regulations for the administration thereof.

The permittee shall permanently affix the carcass tag to the carcass of any big game animal immediately after killing and thereafter take such killed game to a check station as may be required in the rules and regulations, where a check station tag shall be affixed to the big game carcass if the kill is legal. The tags shall remain affixed to the carcass until the carcass is processed for storage or consumption. The permittee shall retain the carcass tag until the carcass is consumed, given to another or otherwise disposed of.

The provisions of this section do not apply to big game animals sold in surplus property disposal sales of department exhibit herds or big game animals legally taken outside this state.

When election day came on November 5, 1912, hundreds of women worked at the polls all day, and sat up far into the night for the returns. They felt their efforts were sufficiently rewarded when the final count showed 175,246 votes for the amendment and 159,197 against; and
WHEREAS, Kansas’ action inspired and reinvigorated the national suffrage movement, which culminated in the passage of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States in 1920, assuring all women in the nation the right to vote; and

WHEREAS, 2012 will mark the 100th anniversary of women’s suffrage in the state of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Angels at Sunset Centennial are to be recognized and given special emphasis for their continuing efforts and influence in the Kansas women’s suffrage movement in the late 1800s. The Kansas Angels at Sunset Centennial worked diligently to achieve success even when it appeared that the sun would set on their efforts; and

WHEREAS, In commemorating the Kansas Angels at Sunset Centennial, Kansans will be celebrating the basic inclusive principles of democracy, the long and arduous road to achievement of women’s suffrage, and the continually expanding roles of women in public and private life; and

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commend and recognize the diligent and instrumental efforts of the Kansas Angels at Sunset Centennial in their role in the women’s suffrage movement in Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That we recognize the centrality of women’s suffrage to democratic values, express appreciation to those who have prepared public exhibits on women’s suffrage in the state capitol and encourage all Kansans to visit, enjoy and learn from such displays and exhibits;

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6021—

A RESOLUTION standing in opposition to the provisions in the National Defense authorization act for fiscal year 2012 which authorize military detention and trial of United States citizens and lawful residents in direct violation of the United States Constitution and the constitution of this state.

WHEREAS, On Dec. 31, 2011, President Barack Obama signed the Conference Report to House of Representative Bill H.R. 1540, the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA), into law; and

WHEREAS, The NDAA contains provisions repugnant to, and destructive of, the constitutions and Bill of Rights of the United States of America, and this state, directly violating the U.S. Constitution’s Article I, Section 9 [Habeas Suspension Clause], Article III, Section 2, Clause 2 [Trial by jury of all crimes except impeachment], Article III, Section 3 [Treason Clause], Article IV, Section 4 [guarantee of a Republican Form of government] the 4th Amendment [Protection against unreasonable search and seizure] 5th Amendment [Right to grand jury indictment and due process], 6th Amendment [Right to speedy and public trial], 8th Amendment [Protection against cruel

American citizens and lawful resident aliens, at the discretion of the President or a subordinate within the Department of Defense; and violation of the federal government's duty of allegiance to protect U.S. citizens anywhere in the world; and

WHEREAS, "Any person having knowledge of any treasonable project is bound to disclose it to the President, or to a United States judge, or to a Governor of a State or a enemies foreign and domestic; and

WHEREAS, Laws not passed in "pursuance" of the Constitution are null and void from their inception; and

WHEREAS, The above noted injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these states, are nearly identical to many of the long train of abuses and usurpations that compelled our forefathers to take up arms and to separate from Great Britain, as enumerated in The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America, of July 4, 1776: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That for the above and forgoing reasons, this Legislature expresses its belief that the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal year 2012 (NDAA) is unconstitutional in authorizing the President to use war powers, the "law of war," and/or martial law in the United States and its territories over any person, including citizens or lawful resident aliens of the United States not in the military forces, and over citizens or lawful resident aliens of the United States, who are not in the military forces, anywhere in the world; and

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature expresses its sense that all provisions of the NDAA which are unconstitutional, including as noted herein above, were and are null and void from their inception and are not enforceable in this state, and it is the express policy of this state's Legislature that no officer, employee, or agent of the state will implement, enforce or otherwise support, directly or indirectly, any of the above noted unconstitutional provisions, and that a violation of such policy will be deemed a violation of their oath of office and employment agreement, and will subject them to disciplinary action up to and including termination; and

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature recognizes its duty to interpose itself between unconstitutional usurpations by the federal government or its agents and the people of this state, as well as the duty to defend the unalienable natural rights of the people, all of which is consistent with the 9th and 10th Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and with our oaths to defend the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of this state against all enemies, foreign and domestic; and

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature directs the Congressional delegation of this state to commence immediately efforts to repeal the unconstitutional sections of the NDAA, to wit, sections 1021 and 1022, and any other section or provision which will have the same or substantially the same effect on the United States, its citizens, and lawful resident aliens; and

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature directs the Congressional delegation to introduce, support, and secure the passage of legislation which clearly states that Congress not only does not authorize, but in fact prohibits the use of military force, military detention, military trial, rendition, or any other power of the "law of war" against U.S. citizens and lawful resident aliens; and

Be it further resolved: That within 10 days from the passage hereof, a copy of this resolution shall be mailed, by certified mail with a return receipt, to each and every member of this state’s Congressional delegation by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, and, in compliance with federal law regarding acts of "misprision of treason," (page 20, Gard. Inst., 326; 1 U.S. St. L. 112, 119.), to the governor and Supreme Court Chief Justice of this state to effect notification of a possible "conspiracy against the United States," to wit: the attempt by Congress and the President to arbitrarily and indefinitely suspend the Bill of Rights outside the requirement of an invasion or rebellion as required by U.S. Constitution, Article I, Section 9, Clause 3, which states: "The Privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in Cases of Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it.,” and by subjecting the American people to the "law of war," including military force, detention, and trial, and/or the institution of martial law, rather than under the laws of the United States, pursuant to the detention and trial requirements of U.S. Constitution, Article III, and of the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Eighth Amendments; and

Be it further resolved: That the House of Representatives, recognizing its oath-bound duty to defend the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of this state, to secure the people’s unalienable natural rights to "Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness,” as alliterated in the Declaration of Independence of July 4, 1776, adopts this resolution.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Steve Spencer, pastor, Augusta United Methodist Church, and guest of Rep. Crum:

Loving and gracious God, thank you for the blessing of this day, for your presence and activity in our lives, and for overall health and well being.

Lord, you have blessed us to live in a land of promise—where we can worship you freely, govern ourselves justly, and live out our days in peace.

You have blessed us with men and women set apart to lead your people and govern your land. I ask your blessing on their lives, and on their families, who also sacrifice, so that these leaders can serve in this chamber.

I pray, Lord, that as they face the challenges and stresses of this day, as competing interests and needs may arise, that they seek your wisdom and guidance to choose what is best for the people of Kansas. May they find confidence to lead our state guided by the values and principals established in your Word and lived out by your Son.

Lord, in the expanse of time, our days here are but a few. May the time we do have be marked by seeking justice, loving mercy and walking humbly with you. Hear now this prayer as it is prayed in the name of your son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. McCray-Miller.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Pottorff are spread upon the Journal:

For over 85 years, Junior League of Wichita has served the needs of the community through numerous service projects and volunteer hours. A delicious part of the Junior League legacy are their cookbooks. Proceeds from their newest cookbook, Pinches and Dashes, will put their financial and volunteer resources to work on the substantial problem of child abuse in our community.

Help me welcome members of the Junior League of Wichita who are in the gallery.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on HB 2764. I have supported a review and expansion of our autism Medicaid waiver. However, this bill results in a much more dramatic expansion of our Medicaid program at a time when the Federal government is cutting back on entitlement funding. – DAVID CRUM

MR. SPEAKER: At this point in time HB 2764 offers false “hope and change” for children with autism. The bill is based on what the Affordable Care Act will or will not do without any conclusive facts on the essential care package which will be required at the Federal level. The state may bear the cost of this action for years to come.

We have individuals in this administration as well as members of the legislature who want to address the matter with decisions made on good policy and not on emotion. This bill will be enacted before the ACA is determined to be Constitutional. It is irresponsible to pass this legislation at this time.

I vote “No” on HB 2764. – PEGGY MAST, RICHARD BILLINGER, JIM KELLY, CARYN TYSON

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on HB 2764. I cannot support more mandated healthcare coverages for consumers and businesses. I know this is an emotional issue. Despite what was said I do love children...especially mine. – SCOTT SCHWAB

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
A week and a half ago,
I stood beside the tomb of Mother Theresa and read the following quote, “God has not called me to be successful.
He has called me to be faithful.”
I immediately thought of these leaders.
It is so easy for them to get caught up in being successful in terms of getting a bill passed or rejected, in unifying their party, in getting votes from the other side, among many other things.
But the reality is that
You have called them to be faithful.
And, because being faithful to their own principles and convictions, or to the desires of their constituents, or to their party is often in conflict, it is important they realize they are to be faithful to You and to Your teachings, principles and guidelines.
If they do this, their success will then be determined by You and for eternity.
This is my prayer for them, in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ, Amen.
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Kelly.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Sub HB 2055; HB 2465, HB 2469, HB 2472, HB 2473, HB 2509, HB 2588, HB 2612, HB 2737 approved on March 26, 2012.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6022—
A RESOLUTION designating March 27, 2012 as American Diabetes Association Alert Day.

WHEREAS, The state of Kansas recognizes that healthy citizens are essential for strong communities to thrive; and

WHEREAS, Diabetes is a devastating disease that affects nearly 26 million Americans, including 8.6% of Kansas adults. More than 179,000 Kansans have been diagnosed with diabetes and over 90% of those Kansans have type 2 diabetes, which can be prevented or delayed. If current trends continue, one out of every three American adults will have diabetes by 2050; and

WHEREAS, The prevalence of diabetes is significantly higher among Kansas adults 18 years and older who are obese (16.1%) as compared to those who are not obese (5.4%). Obesity is one of the most well-established and modifiable risk factors for diabetes; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 79 million, or one in three American adults, have pre-diabetes, which means their blood sugar is higher than normal, but not high enough to be classified as diabetes. Without intervention, those with pre-diabetes are at a much higher risk for developing type 2 diabetes. The American Diabetes Association estimates that the total cost of diagnosed diabetes in the United States is over $174 billion. Studies suggest that when additional costs for gestational diabetes, pre-diabetes and undiagnosed diabetes are included, the total diabetes-related costs in the United States could exceed $218 billion; and

WHEREAS, Early detection and disease management can help prevent complications of diabetes, including cardiovascular disease, blindness, nervous system damage and kidney failure; and

WHEREAS, The 24th annual American Association Diabetes Alert Day is Tuesday, March 27th, 2012, a one-day "wake-up" call asking the American public to "join the million challenge" by encouraging Americans to take the diabetes risk test to find out if they are at risk for developing type 2 diabetes and if they are at high risk, to speak with their health care provider; and

WHEREAS, The American Diabetes Association has encouraged community organizations to use March 27th as a way to educate individuals to recognize their risk for type 2 diabetes, manage their risk and take action to create a future free of the disease; and

WHEREAS, The partnership between the American Diabetes Association, Kansas Diabetes Action Council and Kansas Department of Health and Environment Diabetes Prevention and Control Program provides statewide leadership to prevent and control diabetes and reduce its impact on Kansans: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize March 27, 2012 as American Diabetes Association Alert Day in the state of Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Crum.

Gracious and Loving Creator…
Eternal God, You have created all things and placed each of us here to be a part of your purpose and your will for Kansas!
It is through our lives given over to You that we see what we can be and what we can become!
God you know our hearts….you know that the greatest thing we can accomplish this day is to put away any partisan differences that can get in our way of compromise and work together towards productive and healthy improvements in the lives of all Kansans!
May we this day and everyday forward work together in a way that respects our fellow legislators and in such a way that we make this day a stronger Kansas, a more resilient Kansas, a more compassionate Kansas.
Send Your Spirit upon the Members of this people's House to encourage them in their official tasks. Be with them and with all who labor here to serve this great State and its people.
Assure them that whatever their responsibilities, You provide the grace to enable them to be faithful to their duties and the wisdom to be conscious of their obligations and to fulfill them with integrity.
Remind us all of the dignity of our work and teach us to use our talents and abilities in ways that are honorable and just and are of benefit to those we serve.
May all that is done this day be for Your greater honor and glory!
Lord Open the floodgates of heaven this day and let it
In the name of the one in whom we live and have our very being the only being that had a lasting impact that part of us that honors you with our lives, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Bethell are spread upon the Journal:

It is my privilege to have before this body today the Sterling High School Black Bears men's basketball team. The Black Bears basketball team had an overall league record of seven wins, four losses and an overall record of 21 wins and four losses. This record took them to the 2A Championship game against the Meade Buffaloes which they won with the decisive score of 71-49.

This is the first class championship for the Black Bears in the history of the school. With us today are William Anderson, Principal of Sterling High School; Derek Schneider, Head Coach; Tyson Bauerle, Assistant Coach; Wes Laudermilk, Assistant Coach; and the Black Bears team. I would like the seniors to step forward for recognition.

I have a remembrance for the Principal, Coaches and the School, and I will see that the members of the team receive a remembrance as well.

Rep. Bethell presented framed House certificates to the Principal, Coaches and School.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Crum, HR 6022, A resolution designating March 27, 2012 as American Diabetes Association Alert Day, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Crum are spread upon the Journal:

Nearly 26 million Americans exhibit diabetes, seven million of which are undiagnosed. Those in Kansas exhibiting diabetes number 179,000.

The estimated annual cost to our state back in 2007 was $1.5 billion.

The greatest risk factor for diabetes is obesity.

One in three children born today will face a future with diabetes if current trends continue.

Complications of diabetes include cardiovascular disease, stroke as well as neuropathy and loss of sight when the disease is not properly controlled. Therefore tight control of diabetes is very important.

Minority populations including African Americans, Latinos and Native Americans have an increased risk of developing type 2 diabetes.

Our state recognizes the partnership between the American Diabetes Association, Kansas Diabetes Action Council and the Kansas Department of Health and Environment's Diabetes Prevention and Control Program to provide statewide leadership to prevent and control diabetes.

Therefore, I move HR 6022 to recognize March 27, 2012 as American Diabetes Association Alert Day in the state of Kansas.

FINAL ACTION ON BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

HB 2561, AN ACT concerning economic development; concerning the STAR bonds financing act; relating to the provisions regarding STAR bond projects; extending the sunset date; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 12-17,179 and repealing the existing section, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

Mr. Speaker: I vote NO on HB 2561. Star Bonds are a form of failed economic policy that Kansas should distance itself from. It is time for government to stop picking winners and losers and instead promote economic policies and a lower tax structure that all Kansans can benefit from. Star bonds are a form of centralized planning that favors a few at the expense of other taxpayers and businesses. These bonds divert needed money from police, fire, roads, and other core functions of government for 10, 20, and even 30 years. Mr. Speaker, I vote NO, choosing to support the taxpayers who voted me in office. – Pete DeGraaf, Virgil Peck, Jr, Randy Garber, Charlotte O'Hara, Owen Donohoe, Connie O'Brien

Mr. Speaker: HB 2561 goes against my principles of free enterprise and limited government. By redirecting tax revenue to a particular business, STAR bonds create an unequal playing field. STAR bonds favor a few at the expense of other taxpayers and businesses. These bonds divert money needed for core functions of government for decades into the future. It is time for government to stop picking winners and losers and instead promote economic policies and a lower tax structure from which all Kansans can benefit. Mr. Speaker, I stand with the voters that elected me. I vote NO on HB 2561. – JIM HOWELL, DENNIS HEDKE, TERRILOIS GREGORY, BRETT HILDABRAND, GREG SMITH, KELLY MEIGS, AMANDA GROSSERODE, JANA GOODMAN, LANCE Y. EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I have told this body my concern about the consequence of this proposed constitutional amendment. I fear it is over-broad for what it proposes to fix. I am fine with its intent; I fear its unintended consequences. I'm told this bill really does nothing but re-state the constitution, so why are we doing this.....and then I also remember being told if I'm uneasy with what I'm about to do, I ought to follow my instincts and not do it. I vote NO on HCR 5006. – J. ROBERT (BOB) BROOKENS
MR. SPEAKER: The intention of this resolution appears good. But I am truly concerned about the usurpation of the function of the executive branch. As we learned but a few years ago, the executive branch needs some leeway in redirecting appropriations and making allotments. I fear unintended consequences of this constitutional amendment and as has often been said: “When in doubt vote no.” I vote no on HCR 5006. – TOM MOXLEY

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6026—
By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A RESOLUTION requesting the Kansas Department of Health and Environment to conduct a study regarding tobacco harm reduction.

WHEREAS, States have pursued for decades policies intended to encourage citizens who smoke to quit, and to discourage others who do not smoke from starting; and

WHEREAS, While cigarette smoking rates have declined substantially over the period from 1965-2004, the rate of decline has slowed in recent years and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that approximately 19% of Americans continue to smoke cigarettes, which remain the most popular form of tobacco in the United States; and

WHEREAS, While cigarettes are the most popular form of tobacco, questions have been raised with regards to the relative risk of various forms of tobacco; and

WHEREAS, While no tobacco product has been shown to be safe, questions have been raised whether smokeless tobacco might present less risk of disease and premature death than cigarettes; and

WHEREAS, Numerous public health organizations, such as the Institute of Medicine, the American Council on Science and Health, the Royal College of Physicians and the World Health Organization have recognized that there is a continuum of risk among tobacco product types, and that the risks associated with cigarette use are substantially higher than those associated with the use of non-combustible products; and
WHEREAS, While abstaining from all tobacco is clearly the best, most effective way for smokers to reduce their risk of disease and premature death, it is appropriate for the health community to consider whether those who will not abstain can reduce their risk of disease and premature death by switching from cigarettes to other tobacco products; and

WHEREAS, Research shows that 85% of U.S. smokers are unaware that smokeless tobacco products might present less risk than cigarettes; and

WHEREAS, The risk of death and disease associated with the use of smokeless tobacco products has been argued by some health researchers to be at least 90% less than the health risks associated with cigarette smoking; and

WHEREAS, The states of Kentucky and Indiana have previously recognized the concept of relative risk of tobacco products; and

WHEREAS, The public can only make wise health choices about their behavior when they have access to adequate and accurate health risk information regarding tobacco products or other health issues: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the state of Kansas: That the Kansas Department of Health and Environment (KDHE) should undertake an analysis and study of the subject known as Tobacco Harm Reduction (THR) and should determine whether THR should be included as one component of a comprehensive tobacco control strategy, complementing current efforts to increase smoking cessation and reduce smoking initiation; and

Be it further resolved: That KDHE report back to the 2013 Legislature regarding the following issues:

1. The relative risk of death and disease from use of cigarettes versus non-combustible (smokeless) tobacco products;
2. Whether the state of Kansas should further explore efforts to promote the concept of Tobacco Harm Reduction if KDHE determines that there is significantly less risk of disease or death resulting from use of smokeless tobacco products versus cigarettes;
3. Whether the public is entitled to know and would benefit from an awareness of accurate information regarding the relative health risks from use of smokeless tobacco products versus cigarettes;
4. Whether the public would benefit from the state of Kansas actively promoting release of accurate information regarding the relative risk of disease and death from use of smokeless tobacco products versus cigarettes; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Environment.

On motion of Rep. Siegfreid, the House adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Thursday, March 29, 2012.
Journal of the House

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 29, 2012, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.
Rep. LeDoux was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Jess Allen, pastor, Lamont Wesleyan Church, and guest of Rep. Mast:

As we prepare for this legislative session today I bring words from King David in Psalm 61:1-4 (NLT)

1 O God, listen to my cry! Hear my prayer! 2 From the ends of the earth, I cry to you for help when my heart is overwhelmed. Lead me to the towering rock of safety,

3 for you are my safe refuge, a fortress where my enemies cannot reach me. 4 Let me live forever in your sanctuary, safe beneath the shelter of your wings!

In these times when people are thinking differently about you and our world we are in desperate need of your wisdom and involvement in all we do. I ask Father that you would lift up these men and women as each day they make decisions that have far reaching impact. The weight of these decisions can take a high toll on not just their public life, but also on their private life.

As they are reminded Father of responsibility toward our state, I pray that they will find peace in the midst of the daily challenge of building consensus and I ask for restoration of broken relationships. May your Spirit of power, love, and self-discipline rule in this chamber. In Jesus name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Dillmore.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for HB 62 because of the bill's unintended consequences. One of the side effects of high dose chemotherapy for advanced or metastatic cancer is sterilization. An oncologist who knows that and has an objection to sterilization could, under this bill, refuse cancer treatment to a woman and refuse to refer her to someone who will treat her, potentially resulting in the death of the woman.

– JUDITH LOGANBILL, ANNE KUETHER

MR. SPEAKER: Seeking medical help involves not only the provider but also the patient. This bill deprives the patient of the right to a referral for the treatment or information they might need. If this wasn't a concern, nationally recognized organizations would not feel the need to include that referral in their policy statements. We represent all Kansans, patients and health care providers. I vote no on H Sub for SB 62. – ANNIE TIEZE, GAIL FINNEY, BARBARA BOLLIER, CHARLIE ROTH, ED TRIMMER, LOUIS RUIZ, HAROLD LANE, GERALDINE FLAHARTY, BRODERICK HENDERSON, MELODY MCCRAY-MILLER, SYDNEY CARLIN, VALDENIA WINN, PAUL DAVIS, BARBARA BALLARD

H Sub for SB 142, AN ACT concerning civil procedure; relating to exercise of religion, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 91; Nays 33; Present but not voting: 0; Absent or not voting: 1.

Present but not voting: None.

Absent or not voting: LeDoux.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: The State of Kansas Constitution holds one of the strongest codified definitions of religious liberty. So, we know that H Sub for SB 142 is not about religious freedom and it's not just about cities and counties.

H Sub for SB 142 will affect every Regent's university that protects sexual orientation. It will affect every State of Kansas employee who is currently covered by the policy protecting state employees from discrimination based on sexual orientation.
H Sub for SB 142 is unnecessary and discriminatory. I vote no. – MELODY McCRAY-MILLER

Mr. Speaker: Over the years we have seen a lot of gotcha bills. H Sub for SB 142 is one of those bills. It implies that people's religious freedom is at risk. However, what it really does is discriminate against certain people. This may warrant a post card during the election cycle, but we still have to vote “NO.” – BOB GRANT, ED TRIMMER

Mr. Speaker: As a minority woman I have been discriminated against my whole life. Therefore, I oppose anything that legalizes discrimination, and that is why I am voting no on H Sub for SB 142. – PONKA-WE VICTORS

Mr. Speaker: I strongly support protecting the constitutional right to freedom of religion and agree with the vast majority of what is contained in this bill. But this bill has a provision that has the effect of nullifying the ability of a city or county to craft an anti-discrimination ordinance that reflects the desires of their particular community. This is the antithesis of local control and for these reasons I vote NO on H Sub for SB 142. – PAUL DAVIS, GAIL FINNEY, ANNIE TETZKE, ANNIE KIEHER, BARBARA BALLARD, TOM SLOAN, CHARLIE ROTH, SYDNEY CARLIN, LOUIS RUIZ, ANN MAH, NILE DILLMORE, GERALDINE FLaHARTY, HAROLD LANE, BRODERICK HENDERSON, MIKE SLATTERY, JUDITH LOGANBILL, VALDENIA WINN, BARBARA BOLLIER

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6027—

A RESOLUTION designating March 30 as "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day."

WHEREAS, Members of the United States Armed Forces began serving in an advisory role to the Government of the Republic of South Vietnam in 1961; and

WHEREAS, In 1965, United States Armed Forces ground combat units arrived in Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, By the end of 1965, there were 80,000 United States troops in Vietnam, and by 1969, a peak of approximately 543,000 troops was reached; and

WHEREAS, On January 27, 1973, the Treaty of Paris was signed, which required the release of all United States prisoners of war held in North Vietnam and the withdrawal of all United States Armed Forces from South Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, On March 30, 1973, the United States Armed Forces completed the withdrawal of combat units and combat support units from South Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, More than 58,000 members of the United States Armed Forces lost their lives in Vietnam and more than 300,000 members of the Armed Forces were wounded; and

WHEREAS, The Vietnam War was an extremely divisive issue among the people of the United States and was also a conflict that caused a generation of veterans to wait too long for the United States public to acknowledge and honor the efforts and services of such veterans; and

WHEREAS, Members of the United States Armed Forces who served bravely and faithfully for the United States during the Vietnam War were often wrongly criticized for the policy decisions made by four presidential administrations in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of a "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" would be an appropriate way to honor those members of the United States Armed Forces who served in South Vietnam and throughout Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That March 30 shall hereby be designated as "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" in the state of Kansas in order to honor and recognize the contributions of veterans who served in the United States Armed Forces in Vietnam during war and during peace; and

Be it further resolved: That the people of Kansas are encouraged to observe "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" with appropriate ceremonies and activities that provide the appreciation Vietnam War veterans deserve but did not receive upon returning home from the war; and

Be it further resolved: That local communities are encouraged to promote opportunities for such veterans to assist younger veterans returning from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan in rehabilitation from wounds, both seen and unseen, and to support the reintegration of younger veterans into civilian life; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Mah.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Meier and Grange are spread upon the journal:
Remarks by Rep. Meier:

March 30 marks the anniversary of the date of the withdrawal of US combat units from the former South Vietnam in 1973 under the Treaty of Paris. In many cases, our veterans were not welcomed back with gratitude and were too often blamed for the failings of the war.

This is why Kansas and other States across the union have established March 30 as “Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day”. Communities across the State have followed our lead and begun actively recognizing our Vietnam Veterans. Cities such as Leavenworth, Kansas which issued a proclamation recognizing their local Vietnam Veterans, and included them as part of their televised City Commission meeting this week.

We have with us in the Capitol today members of the Danny J. Petersen Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 604 from Topeka, and Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 75 from Leavenworth, and Vietnam Veteran, Wayne Bollig, from the Kansas Commission on Veterans Affairs.

Our own House member and Vietnam veteran, Rep. Grange, will tell us more about the Welcome Home effort. And we would like to invite down to the well any other Vietnam veterans serving in the House of Representatives or spouses of Vietnam Veterans in the House at this time.

Remarks by Rep. Grange:

In 2000, Ramos began a campaign for a Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day. To raise awareness, he rode his bicycle from his home in California to Washington, D.C., asking that March 30 be proclaimed as our national Welcome Home day.

In 2007 the United States Congress unanimously passed House Resolution 189 proclaiming March 30 as national Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day. Later the US Senate followed suit. The Kansas Legislature is proud to join in this recognition.

More than 58,000 members of the United States Armed Forces lost their lives and more than 300,000 were wounded in Vietnam. The establishment of a “Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day” serves as a small way to honor these men and women who served our country in Vietnam throughout the war.

I would now like to ask that veterans of any other US war or combat operation stand and be recognized.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Gregory, HR 6020, A resolution commemorating the Kansas Angels at Sunset Centennial, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Gregory are spread upon the Journal:

Kansas has experienced two wars of great significance: The civil war, who’s first shot was fired in Kansas during the Battle of Black Jack near Baldwin City, and the war women fought for their freedom to vote for their Congressional Representatives.

At the Wyandotte Constitutional convention of 1859, a suffragette reportedly urged... women to revolt and refuse to marry if men didn’t grant them their rights. Although she did not gain full voting rights, her speech did garner the right to vote in school elections.

In 1867, Kansas was the first state in the Union to consider full suffrage for women.

In 1887, Gov. John A. Martin signed into law the right for women to vote in municipal elections, making Kansas the first state in the nation to grant such voting rights to women. That election gave us the first woman mayor in America, from Argonia, and 5 city councilwomen from Syracuse.

In 1912, Kansas granted full suffrage to all women. It inspired and reinvigorated the passage of the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution in 1920, assuring all women in the nation the right to vote.

The Author of "Angels at Sunset," Tom Mach, brought to my attention the need to honor these courageous Kansas women. I am happy to present him with a limited edition House of Representatives mug depicting the Centennial celebration of Kansas Women’s Suffrage.

One hundred years ago women had no voice in Kansas. Today we do! And we applaud the pioneer women of the past who changed not only their future, but every Woman standing before you today.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

MR. PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on House amendments to SB 334 submits the following report:

The House recedes from all of its amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as introduced, as follows:
On page 2, following line 3, by inserting:

"Sec. 2. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 8-247 is hereby amended to read as follows: 8-247. (a) (1) All original licenses shall expire as follows:

(A) Licenses issued to persons who are at least 21 years of age, but less than 65 years of age shall expire on the sixth anniversary of the date of birth of the licensee which is nearest the date of application;

(B) licenses issued to persons who are 65 years of age or older shall expire on the fourth anniversary of the date of birth of the licensee which is nearest the date of application;

(C) any commercial drivers license shall expire on the fourth anniversary of the date of birth of the licensee which is nearest the date of application;

(D) licenses issued to an offender, as defined in K.S.A. 22-4902, and amendments thereto, who is required to register pursuant to the Kansas offender registration act, K.S.A. 22-4901 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall expire every year on the date of birth of the licensee; or

(E) licenses issued to persons who are less than 21 years of age shall expire on the licensee's twenty-first birthday.

(2) All renewals under: (A) Paragraph (1) (A) shall expire on every sixth anniversary of the date of birth of the licensee; (B) paragraph (1) (B) and (C) shall expire on every fourth anniversary of the date of birth of the licensee; (C) paragraph (1) (D) shall expire every year on the date of birth of the licensee; and (D) paragraph (1) (E), if a renewal license is issued, shall expire on the licensee's twenty-first birthday. No driver's license shall expire in the same calendar year in which the original license or renewal license is issued, except that if the foregoing provisions of this section shall require the issuance of a renewal license or an original license for a period of less than six calendar months, the license issued to the applicant shall expire in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

(b) If the driver's license of any person expires while such person is outside of the state of Kansas and such person is on active duty in the armed forces of the United States, or is the spouse or a person who is residing with and is a dependent of such person on active duty, the license of such person shall be renewable, without examination, at any time prior to the end of the sixth month following the discharge of such person from the armed forces, or within 90 days after residence within the state is reestablished, whichever time is sooner. If the driver's license of any person under this subsection expires while such person is outside the United States, the division shall provide for renewal by mail, as long as the division has a photograph or digital image of such person maintained in the division's records. A driver's license renewed under the provisions of this subsection shall be renewed by mail only once.

(c) At least 30 days prior to the expiration of a person's license the division shall mail a notice of expiration or renewal application to such person at the address shown on the license. The division shall include with such notice a written explanation of substantial changes to traffic regulations enacted by the legislature.

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), every driver's license shall be renewable on or before its expiration upon application and payment of the required fee and successful completion of the examinations required by subsection (e). Application for renewal of a valid driver's license shall be made to the division in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of revenue. Such application shall contain... all the requirements of subsection (b) of K.S.A. 8-240, and amendments thereto. Upon satisfying the foregoing requirements of this subsection, and if the division makes the findings required by K.S.A. 8-235b, and amendments thereto, for the issuance of an original license, the license shall be renewed without examination of the applicant's driving ability. If the division finds that any of the statements relating to revocation, suspension or refusal of licenses required under subsection (b) of K.S.A. 8-240, and amendments thereto, are in the affirmative, or if it finds that the license held by the applicant is not a valid one, or if the applicant has failed to make application for renewal of such person's license on or before the expiration date thereof, the division may require the applicant to take an examination of ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in the operation of a motor vehicle as provided in K.S.A. 8-235d, and amendments thereto.

(2) Any licensee, whose driver's license expires on their twenty-first 21st birthday, shall have 45 15 days from the date of expiration of such license to make application to renew such licensee's license. Such license shall continue to be valid for such 45 15 days or until such license is renewed, whichever occurs sooner. A licensee who renews under the provisions of this paragraph shall not be required by the division to take an examination of ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in the operation of a motor vehicle as provided in K.S.A. 8-235d, and amendments thereto.

(e) (1) Prior to renewal of a driver's license, the applicant shall pass an examination of eyesight. Such examination shall be equivalent to the test required for an original driver's license under K.S.A. 8-235d, and amendments thereto. A driver's license examiner shall administer the examination without charge and shall report the results of the examination on a form provided by the division.

(2) In lieu of the examination of the applicant's eyesight by the examiner, the applicant may submit a report on the examination of eyesight by a physician licensed to practice medicine and surgery or by a licensed optometrist. The report shall be based on an examination of the applicant's eyesight not more than three months prior to the date the report is submitted, and it shall be made on a form furnished by the division to the applicant.

(3) The division shall determine whether the results of the eyesight examination or report is sufficient for renewal of the license and, if the results of the eyesight examination or report is insufficient, the division shall notify the applicant of such fact and return the license fee. In determining the sufficiency of an applicant's eyesight, the division may request an advisory opinion of the medical advisory board, which is hereby authorized to render such opinions.

(4) An applicant who is denied a license under this subsection (e) may reapply for renewal of such person's driver's license, except that if such application is not made within 90 days of the date the division sent notice to the applicant that the license would not be renewed, the applicant shall proceed as if applying for an original driver's license.

(5) When the division has good cause to believe that an applicant for renewal of a driver's license is incompetent or otherwise not qualified to operate a motor vehicle in accord with the public safety and welfare, the division may require such applicant to submit to such additional examinations as are necessary to determine that the applicant is qualified to receive the license applied for. Subject to paragraph (6) of this subsection, in so evaluating such qualifications, the division may request an advisory opinion of the medical advisory board which is hereby authorized to render such opinions in addition to its duties prescribed by subsection (b) of K.S.A. 8-255b, and amendments thereto. Any such applicant who is denied the renewal of such a driver's license because of a mental or physical disability shall be afforded a hearing in the manner prescribed by subsection (c) of K.S.A. 8-255, and amendments thereto.

(6) Seizure disorders which are controlled shall not be considered a disability. In cases where such seizure disorders are not controlled, the director or the medical advisory board may recommend that such person be issued a driver's license to drive class C or M vehicles and restricted to operating such vehicles as the division determines to be appropriate to assure the safe operation of a motor vehicle by the licensee. Restricted licenses issued pursuant to this paragraph shall be subject to suspension or revocation. For the purpose of this paragraph, seizure disorders which are controlled means that the licensee has not sustained a seizure involving a loss of consciousness in the waking state within six months preceding the application or renewal of a driver's license and whenever a person licensed to practice medicine and surgery makes a written report to the division stating that the licensee's seizures are controlled. The report shall be based on an examination of the applicant's medical condition not more than three months prior to the date the report is submitted. Such report shall be made on a form furnished to the applicant by the division. Any physician who makes such report shall not be liable for any damages which may be attributable to the issuance or renewal of a driver's license and subsequent operation of a motor vehicle by the licensee.

(f) If the driver's license of any person expires while such person is outside the state of Kansas, the license of such person shall be extended for a period not to exceed six months and shall be renewable, without a driving examination, at any time prior to the end of the sixth month following the original expiration date of such license or within 10 days after such person returns to the state, whichever time is sooner. This subsection (f) shall not apply to temporary drivers' licenses issued pursuant to subsection (b)(3) of K.S.A. 8-240, and amendments thereto.

(g) The division shall reference the website of the agency in a person's notice of expiration or renewal under subsection (c). The division shall provide the following information on the website of the agency:

(1) Information explaining the person's right to make an anatomical gift in accordance with K.S.A. 8-243, and amendments thereto, and the revised uniform anatomical gift act, K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 65-3220 through 65-3244, and amendments thereto;

(2) information describing the organ donation registry program maintained by the Kansas federally designated organ procurement organization. The information required under this paragraph shall include, in a type, size and format that is conspicuous in relation to the surrounding material, the address and telephone number of Kansas' federally designated organ procurement organization, along with an advisory to call such designated organ procurement organization with questions about the organ donor registry program;

(3) information giving the applicant the opportunity to be placed on the organ donation registry described in paragraph (2);

(4) inform the applicant that, if the applicant indicates under this subsection a willingness to have such applicant's name placed on the organ donor registry described in paragraph (2), the division will forward the applicant's name, gender, date of birth and most recent address to the organ donation registry maintained by the Kansas federally designated organ procurement organization, as required by paragraph (6);

(5) the division may fulfill the requirements of paragraph (4) by one or more of the following methods:

(A) Providing such information on the website of the agency; or

(B) providing printed material to an applicant who personally appears at an examining station;

(6) if an applicant indicates a willingness under this subsection to have such applicant's name placed on the organ donor registry, the division shall within 10 days forward the applicant's name, gender, date of birth and most recent address to the organ donor registry maintained by the Kansas federally designated organ procurement organization. The division may forward information under this subsection by mail or by electronic means. The division shall not maintain a record of the name or address of an individual who indicates a willingness to have such person's name placed on the organ donor registry after forwarding that information to the organ donor registry under this subsection. Information about an applicant's indication of a willingness to have such applicant's name placed on the organ donor registry that is obtained by the division and forwarded under this paragraph shall be confidential and not disclosed.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any offender under subsection (a)(1)(D) who held a valid driver's license on the effective date of this act may continue to operate motor vehicles until the next anniversary of the date of birth of such offender. Upon such date such driver's license shall expire and the offender shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

(i) The director of the division of vehicles shall submit a report to the legislature at the beginning of the regular session in 2012 regarding the impact of not requiring a written test for the renewal of a driver's license, including any cost savings to the division.

Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 8-2,101 is hereby amended to read as follows: 8-2,101. (a) In every store, shop or other place defined in this act as a "pharmacy" there shall be a pharmacist-in-charge and, except as otherwise provided by law, the compounding and dispensing of prescriptions shall be limited to pharmacists only. Except as otherwise provided by the pharmacy act of this state, when a pharmacist is not in attendance at a pharmacy, the premises shall be enclosed and secured. Prescription orders may be written, oral, telephonic or by electronic transmission unless prohibited by law. Blank forms for written prescription orders may have two signature lines. If there are two lines, one signature line shall state: "Dispense as written" and the other signature line shall state: "Brand exchange permissible." Prescriptions shall only be filled or refilled in accordance with the following requirements:

(1) All prescriptions shall be filled in strict conformity with any directions of the prescriber, except that a pharmacist who receives a prescription order for a brand name drug product may exercise brand exchange with a view toward achieving a lesser cost to the purchaser unless:

(1) the prescriber, in the case of a prescription signed by the prescriber and written on a blank form containing two signature lines, signs the signature line following the statement "dispense as written," or

(2) the prescriber, in the case of a prescription signed by the prescriber, writes in the prescriber's own handwriting "dispense as written" on the prescription, or

(3) the prescriber, in the case of a prescription other than one in writing signed by the prescriber, expressly indicates the prescription is to be dispensed as communicated, or

(4) the federal food and drug administration has determined that a drug product of the same generic name is not bioequivalent to the prescribed brand name prescription medication.

(b) Prescription orders shall be recorded in writing by the pharmacist and the record so made by the pharmacist shall constitute the original prescription to be dispensed by the pharmacist. This record, if telephoned by other than the physician shall bear the name of the person so telephoning. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as altering or affecting in any way laws of this state or any federal act requiring a written prescription order.

(c) (1)—Except as provided in paragraph (2), no prescription shall be refilled unless authorized by the prescriber either in the original prescription or by oral order which is reduced promptly to writing and filled by the pharmacist.

(2) A pharmacist may refill a prescription order issued on or after the effective date of this act for any prescription drug except a drug listed on schedule II of the uniform controlled substances act or a narcotic drug listed on any schedule of the uniform controlled substances act without the prescriber's authorization when all reasonable efforts to contact the prescriber have failed and when, in the pharmacist's professional judgment, continuation of the medication is necessary for the patient's health, safety and welfare. Such prescription refill shall only be in an amount judged by the pharmacist to be sufficient to maintain the patient until the prescriber can be contacted, but in no event shall a refill under this paragraph be more than a seven day supply or one package of the drug. However, if the prescriber states on a prescription that there shall be no emergency refilling of that prescription, then the pharmacist shall not dispense any emergency medication pursuant to that prescription. A pharmacist who refills a prescription order under this subsection (c)(2) shall contact the prescriber of the prescription order on the next business day subsequent to the refill or as soon thereafter as possible. No pharmacist shall be required to refill any prescription order under this subsection (c)(2). A pharmacist shall not be subject to liability for any damages resulting from the refilling of a prescription order by a pharmacist under this subsection (c)(2) unless such damages are occasioned by the gross negligence or willful or wanton acts or omissions by the prescriber.

(d) If any prescription order contains a provision that the prescription may be refilled a specific number of times within or during any particular period, such prescription shall not be refilled except in strict conformity with such requirements.

(e) If a prescription order contains a statement that during any particular time the prescription may be refilled at will, there shall be no limitation as to the number of times that such prescription may be refilled except that it may not be refilled after the expiration of the time specified or one year after the prescription was originally issued, whichever occurs first.

(f) Any pharmacist who exercises brand exchange and dispenses a less expensive drug product shall not charge the purchaser more than the regular and customary retail price for the dispensed drug.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as preventing a pharmacist from refusing to fill or refill any prescription if in the pharmacist's professional judgment and discretion such pharmacist is of the opinion that it should not be filled or refilled

(b) Except as otherwise provided by the pharmacy act of this state, when a pharmacist is not in attendance at a pharmacy, the premises shall be enclosed and secured.

New Sec. 3. (a) The pharmacist shall exercise professional judgment regarding the accuracy, validity and authenticity of any prescription order consistent with federal and state laws and rules and regulations. A pharmacist shall not dispense a prescription drug if the pharmacist, in the exercise of professional judgment, determines that the prescription is not a valid prescription order.

(b) The prescriber may authorize an agent to transmit to the pharmacy a prescription order orally, by facsimile transmission or by electronic transmission provided that the first and last names of the transmitting agent are included in the order.

(c) (1) A new written or electronically prepared and transmitted prescription order shall be manually or electronically signed by the prescriber. If transmitted by the prescriber's agent, the first and last names of the transmitting agent shall be included in the order.
(2) If the prescription is for a controlled substance and is written or printed from an electronic prescription application, the prescription shall be manually signed by the prescriber prior to delivery of the prescription to the patient or prior to facsimile transmission of the prescription to the pharmacy.

(3) An electronically prepared prescription shall not be electronically transmitted to the pharmacy if the prescription has been printed prior to electronic transmission. An electronically prepared and transmitted prescription which is printed following electronic transmission shall be clearly labeled as a copy, not valid for dispensing.

(4) In consultation with industry, the state board of pharmacy shall conduct a study on the issues of electronic transmission of prior authorizations and step therapy protocols. The report on the results of such study shall be completed and submitted to the legislature no later than January 15, 2013.

(5) The board is hereby authorized to conduct pilot projects related to any new technology implementation when deemed necessary and practicable, except that no state moneys shall be expended for such purpose.

(d) An authorization to refill a prescription order or to renew or continue an existing drug therapy may be transmitted to a pharmacist through oral communication, in writing, by facsimile transmission or by electronic transmission initiated by or directed by the prescriber.

(1) If the transmission is completed by the prescriber's agent, and the first and last names of the transmitting agent are included in the order, the prescriber's signature is not required on the fax or alternate electronic transmission.

(2) If the refill order or renewal order differs in any manner from the original order, such as a change of the drug strength, dosage form or directions for use, the prescriber shall sign the order as provided by paragraph (1).

(e) Regardless of the means of transmission to a pharmacy, only a pharmacist or a pharmacist intern shall be authorized to receive a new prescription order from a prescriber or transmitting agent. A pharmacist, a pharmacist intern or a registered pharmacy technician may receive a refill or renewal order from a prescriber or transmitting agent if such registered pharmacy technician's supervising pharmacist has authorized that function.

(f) A refill is one or more dispensings of a prescription drug or device that results in the patient's receipt of the quantity authorized by the prescriber for a single fill as indicated on the prescription order.

(1) A prescription for a prescription drug or device that is not a controlled substance may authorize no more than 12 refills within 18 months following the date on which the prescription is issued.

(2) A prescription for a schedule III, IV or V controlled substance may authorize no more than five refills within six months following the date on which the prescription is issued.

(g) Prescriptions shall only be filled or refilled in accordance with the following requirements:

(1) All prescriptions shall be filled in strict conformity with any directions of the prescriber, except that a pharmacist who receives a prescription order for a brand name drug product may exercise brand exchange with a view toward achieving a lesser cost to the purchaser unless:

(A) The prescriber, in the case of a prescription manually or electronically signed by the prescriber and prepared on a form containing two signature lines, signs the signature line following the statement "dispense as written";
(B) the prescriber, in the case of a written prescription signed by the prescriber, writes in the prescriber's own handwriting "dispense as written" on the prescription;
(C) the prescriber, in the case of a prescription other than one in writing signed by the prescriber, expressly indicates the prescription is to be dispensed as communicated; or
(D) the federal food and drug administration has determined that a drug product of the same generic name is not bioequivalent to the prescribed brand name prescription medication.
(h) If a prescription order contains a statement that during any particular time the prescription may be refilled at will, there shall be no limitation as to the number of times that such prescription may be refilled except that it may not be refilled after the expiration of the time specified or one year after the prescription was originally issued, whichever occurs first.
(i) Prescription orders shall be recorded in writing by the pharmacist and the record so made by the pharmacist shall constitute the original prescription to be dispensed by the pharmacist. This record, if telephoned by other than the prescriber, shall bear the name of the person so telephoning. Nothing in this section shall be construed as altering or affecting in any way laws of this state or any federal act requiring a written prescription order.
(j) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), no prescription shall be refilled unless authorized by the prescriber either in the original prescription or by oral order which is reduced promptly to writing and filled by the pharmacist.
(2) A pharmacist may refill a prescription order issued on or after the effective date of this act for any prescription drug except a drug listed on schedule II of the uniform controlled substances act or a narcotic drug listed on any schedule of the uniform controlled substances act without the prescriber's authorization when all reasonable efforts to contact the prescriber have failed and when, in the pharmacist's professional judgment, continuation of the medication is necessary for the patient's health, safety and welfare. Such prescription refill shall only be in an amount judged by the pharmacist to be sufficient to maintain the patient until the prescriber can be contacted, but in no event shall a refill under this paragraph be more than a seven day supply or one package of the drug. However, if the prescriber states on a prescription that there shall be no emergency refilling of that prescription, then the pharmacist shall not dispense any emergency medication pursuant to that prescription. A pharmacist who refills a prescription order under this subsection (j)(2) shall contact the prescriber of the prescription order on the next business day subsequent to the refill or as soon thereafter as possible. No pharmacist shall be required to refill any prescription order under this subsection (j)(2). A pharmacist shall not be subject to liability for any damages resulting from the refilling of a prescription order by a pharmacist under this subsection (j)(2) unless such damages are occasioned by the gross negligence or willful or wanton acts or omissions by the prescriber.
(k) If any prescription order contains a provision that the prescription may be refilled a specific number of times within or during any particular period, such prescription shall not be refilled except in strict conformity with such requirements.
(l) Any pharmacist who exercises brand exchange and dispenses a less expensive drug product shall not charge the purchaser more than the regular and customary retail price for the dispensed drug.

(m) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as preventing a pharmacist from refusing to fill or refill any prescription if in the pharmacist's professional judgment and discretion such pharmacist is of the opinion that it should not be filled or refilled.

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 65-1683 is hereby amended to read as follows: 65-1683.

(a) The board shall establish and maintain a prescription monitoring program for the monitoring of scheduled substances and drugs of concern dispensed in this state or dispensed to an address in this state.

(c) The board shall promulgate rules and regulations specifying the transmission methods and frequency of the dispenser submissions required under subsection (b).

(d) The board may issue a waiver to a dispenser that is unable to submit prescription information by electronic means. Such waiver may permit the dispenser to submit prescription information by paper form or other means, provided that all information required by rules and regulations is submitted in this alternative format.

(e) The board is hereby authorized to apply for and to accept grants and may accept any donation, gift or bequest made to the board for furthering any phase of the prescription monitoring program.

(f) The board shall remit all moneys received by it under subsection (e) to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the non-federal gifts and grants fund. All expenditures from such fund shall be made in accordance with appropriation acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the president of the board or a person designated by the president.

If the review identifies patterns or other evidence sufficient to create a reasonable suspicion of criminal activity, the advisory committee is authorized to notify the appropriate law enforcement agency.

(2) If a review of information appears to indicate that a violation of state or federal law relating to prescribing controlled substances and drugs of concern may have occurred, or that a prescriber or dispenser has knowingly prescribed, dispensed or obtained controlled substances and drugs of concern in a manner that is inconsistent with recognized standards of care for the profession, the advisory committee shall determine whether a report to the professional licensing, certification or regulatory agencies charged with administrative oversight of those persons engaged in prescribing or dispensing of controlled substances and drugs of concern or to the appropriate law enforcement agency is warranted.

(A) For purposes of such determination the advisory committee may in consultation with the appropriate regulatory agencies and professional organizations, establish criteria regarding appropriate standards and utilize volunteer peer review committees of professionals with expertise in the particular practice to create such standards and review individual cases.

(B) The peer review committee or committees appointed herein shall have authority to request and receive information in the prescription monitoring program database from the director of the prescription monitoring program.

(C) If the determination is made that a referral to a regulatory or law enforcement agency is not warranted but educational or professional advising might be appropriate, the advisory committee may refer the prescribers or dispensers to other such resources.

(e) The board is hereby authorized to provide data in the prescription monitoring program to public or private entities for statistical, research or educational purposes after removing information that could be used to identify individual practitioners, dispensers, patients or persons who received prescriptions from dispensers.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
We come together again to finalize decisions that need to be made.
Some of these decisions are difficult and we don’t know which path to take… well, we each know of a path we want to take – but we need Your help to come to consensus. You have given us the power to choose freely as well as the intelligence to choose wisely.
Inspire us to make the right decisions whether we totally agree with each other or not. The important thing is that we choose Your path. After we have carefully weighed the reasons on all sides from a human point of view, help us to rely on your grace for divine help.
In Your Son’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Burroughs.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Mah are spread upon the Journal:

According to the General Aviation Award website, for nearly 50 years, the General Aviation Awards Program has recognized a small group of aviation professionals in the fields of flight instruction, aviation maintenance, avionics, and flight safety for their important contributions to the aviation community. The selection process begins with local offices. Panels of aviation professionals select national winners from the pool of regional winners.

The awards highlight the important roles these individuals play in promoting aviation safety, education, and professionalism. National winners will be recognized during AirVenture-Oshkosh in July.

The 2012 National Aviation Maintenance Technician of the Year is Marvin Hornbostel. Marvin, of Junction City, is a recipient of the FAA’s Charles Taylor Master Mechanic and has been working more than 50 years as an airframe and powerplant technician.

His passion for airplanes started early. Growing up during World War II, his dream was to fly B-17s. Of course, the war didn't wait for him but when his dad gave him his first rubber band powered balsa model airplane, his future was decided. He began his career in aviation with the United States Army at Fort Rucker, Alabama, where he received basic aviation maintenance training followed by two years of service in Germany. After discharge, he worked with a maintenance contractor at Fort Riley, Kansas, performing maintenance on Army aircraft. Thirty-two years later, he retired as the shop supervisor.

During his years at Fort Riley, Marvin spent his spare time working on general aviation aircraft while learning all he could about fabric covering. His first complete restoration in 1968 was a 1941 Taylorcraft. Two of his restored aircraft have been award winners at airshows in Oshkosh and Blakesburg, Iowa.

After retiring in 1990, he continued restoring fabric aircraft at his home in rural Junction City. Within a short time, his ability to work with fabric covering became widely known and turned into a business. Marvin now provides summer jobs for students interested in aircraft restoration from Kansas State University’s Aviation School. He also works with the Junction City High School Guided Study Program to provide hands-on training to students interested in aviation maintenance. Additionally, he provides work experience and mentorship to Army aviation maintenance technicians to help them transition into civilian careers.

Marvin serves on the Junction City Airport Aviation Advisory Board and is president of EAA Chapter 1364, the “Wing Nuts.” With a grant from The Greater Manhattan Community Foundation, he was instrumental in starting a Youth Aviation Education Program in the local chapter. The group participates in EAA’s Young Eagles Program, has built a flight simulator, and is presently constructing a Bowers Fly-Baby. Please help me welcome the 2012 Aviation Maintenance Technician of the Year, and my uncle, Marvin Hornbostel.

Rep. Mah presented a framed House certificate to Marvin Hornbostel.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Message to the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas:

The following message from the Governor regarding HB 2505, which will become law without the governor's signature, was received and read.

The passage and signing of the Dodd-Frank Act was an unprecedented expansion of federal power over the nation's economy and the states by the Obama Administration. While serving as a United States Senator, I vigorously opposed and voted against the Dodd-Frank Act. Today the consequences of this wayward legislation are being felt here in Kansas. We are being coerced by unelected federal bureaucrats to enact bills such as SB 345 and HB 2505 that set up new regulatory frameworks not desired by Kansas voters. These federal officials are threatening to do harm to our state's economy if we do not acquiesce in passing state laws dictated from Washington. Because we have little choice but to let these bills go into effect, I will allow them to become law without my signature. By not affixing my signature to these bills, however, I want to send a clear message that I have serious concerns about their constitutionality. Because of this, I have requested that Attorney General Derek Schmidt conduct an immediate review of Dodd-Frank in order to begin the process of defending Kansas from this unconstitutional incursion of federal authority over the states. Pursuant to Article 2 Sec. 14 of the Kansas Constitution and KSA 45-305 SB 345 and HB 2505 have been delivered to the Secretary of State without my signature.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Mr. Nathan Boldt, Associate Minister, Tyro Christian Church, and guest of Rep. Peck:

Dear Heavenly Father,
We exalt You as our Perfect Sovereign God. We thank you for the way you have blessed our nation in the past, we give you the credit for the freedoms we have today, and we ask for continued blessings in the future. But we understand that is a silly request when/if we “okay” sin and immorality. Therefore, at this time, we want to say sorry for sometimes thinking of more ways to pad our pockets than thinking of the poor and sick. But most of all, we say sorry for every individual in this room, including myself, who has not lived and surrendered 100% of our lives to your Son Jesus Christ. Our prayer is that these men/women make decisions today that would honor you and be pleasing to You. Give the leaders of our state direction and compassion in their voting and their living. We pray for help in developing a state that upholds with reverence Your Word and looks to You for guidance.

Today, we thank you for literally sacrificing Your Son to ravaging wolves here on this planet. For all the blood that was shed that covers our sins, we thank you eternally. Can't wait to be home with You, Father. In Christ Your Son Jesus' name we pray, and all God's people said, “Amen.”

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Feuerborn.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Bollier are spread upon the Journal:

As we stand in the Kansas House of Representatives today, I believe it is appropriate for all of us to reflect upon the money used to support this team that has earned its way to a state championship. Honestly, how does participation in a sports team in high school benefit a Kansas student’s education?

For me as a former swimmer at Shawnee Mission East, it is clear that the journey a team takes on its way to a state championship title is built upon certain educational foundations. Hard work…self-sacrifice…time management…commitment: these are values that must be present to succeed as a team. We in the legislature believe in you as you excel in both the classroom and the pool, and we put the state’s money behind that belief. You, the young people of Kansas, are privileged to have the opportunity to learn these values in your high school, and our hope is that you will extend those lessons learned into your adult lives. A state championship does not come easily, and each member of the team must reach his maximum potential at just the right time. We are proud of you!

It is an honor and privilege for me to recognize today the Shawnee Mission East Boy’s High School 2012 Swim and Dive Team State Champions. Your team captains will now be presented with a certificate to place in your school. I would also like to officially congratulate your coach, Wiley Wright, who has dedicated 27 years to the success of this swim and dive program. I would also like to recognize the one young woman who helped your team along the way, your manager. Congratulations to all of you!

Rep. Bollier presented a framed House certificate to the team.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wootton was born on January 7, 1925, in Lamar, Missouri to Tom and Essie Wootton; and WHEREAS, Mr. Wootton joined the army during World War II. Two days before being shipped overseas, he married Wanda Thomas on February 20, 1944. During the war, he served in the U.S. army medical corps in New Guinea, the Philippines and Japan; and

WHEREAS, After his tour of duty, Mr. Wootton returned home to Missouri where he was hired as a teacher at Hard Scrabble High School. After one year, he moved to Milford, Missouri and continued to teach. However, Mr. Wootton did not have a teaching degree, so while at Milford, he decided that if he was going to continue to teach, he should get a degree; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wootton and his family moved to Pittsburg, Kansas so he could attend Pittsburg State University. Mr. Wootton earned both a bachelor's and master's degree in education. After graduating in 1953, he began teaching English at Shawnee Mission High School; and

WHEREAS, In 1968, Mr. Wootton became the chief lobbyist and political director of the Kansas national education association. During his tenure, he started the KNEA political action committee, which assisted political candidates running for office. He also started the "Check the Record" publication that reported the voting record of legislators; and

WHEREAS, In 1980, Mr. Wootton left KNEA and joined Governor John Carlin's staff as a policy staff member and legislative liaison. He served on the governor's staff for eight years; and

In 1992, he replaced George Gomez as a member of the Kansas house of representatives for the 57th district. He served in the Kansas legislature until 1994 when he chose not to run for reelection; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wootton was diagnosed with a brain tumor in 2006. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Wanda; daughter Karen Harmon; son Mark Wootton and his wife Rochelle Vigurs; daughter Kate Wootton and her husband Arthur Short Bull; and son Stephen Wootton and his wife Mary Lou Emery. Also surviving Mr. Wootton are two grandchildren, Ann Wootton and Claire Emery-Wootton: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we honor Bob Wootton for his great work and dedication to the state of Kansas and extend our deepest sympathy to his family and friends; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative S. Gatewood.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. S. Gatewood are spread upon the journal:

I am here today to honor someone that has given their entire life to bettering his country, state and community. Bob Wootton started his public service in World War II, and one of the last things he did was serve in this body. When Bob passed this country and state lost a tireless advocate. Today I have with me, Wanda Wootton. We all know how much our families sacrifice so that we can do this job, and Wanda has been doing it since before the Second World War I think we owe her a big thank you.

I want to thank you that this great state still opens each session of this House with prayer. Your Word tells us that where two or three are gathered together in Your name, there You are in the midst of them. So I thank You that You are with us in this House right now.

Father, the people in this house make decisions that affect every Kansan. As they struggle with the issues of the budget, of education, and of redistricting; please give them wisdom and understanding to be able to understand and consider all the alternatives. Help them to be able to see and understand each other’s position, and help them to work together to achieve the result that is the best for all involved. Help them to withstand the pressures from special interest groups and influential constituents and provide the best decision for all.

Father, please be with each one as they debate and consider these difficult issues. The next few weeks will be very stressful as they consider the issues before them. Give each one wisdom, understanding and a willingness to work together. May their decisions be the correct ones for the continued well-being of Kansas.

Please remember our doorman, Jim Weaver, in your thoughts and prayers.

I ask these things in Thy name O Lord. Amen.

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending the 2011-2012 University of Kansas men's and women's basketball teams.
WHEREAS, The University of Kansas has had the honor of being home to two of the finest sports programs in the nation. Over the course of the last year, the players and coaches involved with the men's and women's basketball programs have shown what can be accomplished with hard work and dedication both on and off the basketball court and their continued efforts act to strengthen the university's proud athletic traditions that have been in place at KU since the days of coach Forrest "Phog" Allen; and

WHEREAS, The KU women's basketball team managed to pull off a long series of early season wins last fall under the leadership of coach Bonnie Henrickson and, despite losing their leading scorer in the middle of Big 12 Conference play and having to work their way through an incredibly competitive string of Big 12 Conference games, the lady Jayhawks secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2000. From there the women's team then managed to make it all the way to the Sweet 16, tying the program's best NCAA finish; and

WHEREAS, The KU men's basketball team was declared to be in a state of rebuilding by many in the sports community after losing six of last year's players, but that did not stop them from having one of their best seasons yet. The Jayhawks defeated some of the top teams in the nation during their regular season and secured their eighth consecutive Big 12 Conference Championship title before making it all the way to the NCAA Tournament finals where they emerged as national runner-up. The team's Final Four appearance was the 14th in KU's storied history; and

WHEREAS, KU men's Head Coach Bill Self was named Big 12 Coach of the Year and Naismith College Coach of the Year and the players' classroom accomplishments were honored by being declared the winners of Inside Higher Ed's annual academic competition; and

WHEREAS, Both KU teams truly demonstrated an "ad astra" spirit, refusing to let their seasons and their spirits be diminished from the adversity they faced: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend the University of Kansas men's and women's basketball teams on their outstanding 2011-2012 seasons. Their great athletic and academic achievements are sources of pride for the University of Kansas, the city of Lawrence and the state of Kansas. We wish all of the team members, coaches and staff the best of luck in future endeavors, both on and off the court; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send three enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative O'Neal.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Meier, HR 6031, by Representatives Meier, Alford, Arpke, Aurand, Ballard, Bethell, Billinger, Bollier, Boman, Bowers, Brookens, Brown, Bruchman, Brunk, Burgess, Burroughs, Calloway, Carlin, Carlson, Cassidy, Collins,
A RESOLUTION recognizing April as the month of the military child.

WHEREAS, Former secretary of defense, Caspar Weinberger, established April as the month of the military child in 1986; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 1.7 million American military children and over 33,000 Kansas military children; and

WHEREAS, These military children face unique challenges and make daily sacrifices for the service of their military parents; and

WHEREAS, Despite the burdens they shoulder, military children show incredible strength, character and resolve in their ability to adapt and thrive in often difficult circumstances; and

WHEREAS, Military children have incredible opportunities to see the world, learn about different cultures first hand and meet people of various races, nationalities and religions; and

WHEREAS, The United States military strives to provide the best educational facilities and instructors for its military children; and

WHEREAS, Military children embody the community ideals of patriotism, loyalty, responsibility and courage: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the month of April as the month of the military child and congratulate and commend the military children of Kansas for the sacrifices they make, the challenges they overcome and the contributions they make to the state of Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Meier.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Carlin, Meier and Goodman are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks by Rep. Carlin:

April is the national month of the Military Child. This special celebration is a legacy of former Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger and was established to underscore the important role children play in the Armed Forces community.

Throughout the history of organized warfare, military spouses and their children have followed all military forces. Referred to as “little travelers,” military children have been found in literature dating back to the early nineteenth century and though the origin of the term, "military brat," is unknown, some believe that the label originally stood for "British Regiment Attached Traveler." American “military brats” date back to the birth of the United States and here today stands a group of American “military brats,” including our own Representatives Meier and Goodman.

The U.S. Department of Defense reports that there are almost two million American children and teenagers who have had at least one parent deployed in a war zone since 2001, and parents of over nine hundred thousand children have been deployed multiple times. Even when not deployed to a combat zone, the training and preparation for war involves significant dangers and time away from family. Military children must live with the reality of risk to one or both parents. A military brat understands and accepts that in the line of duty, the service person within his family may be killed or injured, so today we like to say that BRAT is an acronym that stands for "Brave, Resilient, Adaptable, and Trustworthy."

Our BRATs here today are:

Military Children from Fort Leavenworth: Madison Stebbins, Emma Stebbins and Ellie Stebbens.

And their sponsors: Command Sergeant Major Scott Haworth and Major General Lee Tafanelli.

Remarks by Rep. Meier:

In addition to the absence of a parent, children of active duty military service members must endure a transient lifestyle, routinely leaving friendships behind and being unable to see extended family on a regular basis. They must change schools and often the move is in the middle of the school year. I am very proud that Kansas recognizes the special challenges military children face in moving and was the first state to enter into The Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children in 2008. At least 35 states are now a part of this effort to address the issues that arise when a child moves from one state school system to another with different curriculum and graduation requirements. I will always remember when I moved in the middle of the 9th grade and ended up studying the same thing the second semester that I did in the first because the two states had the same curriculum but did not cover it in the same order. I thought at the time that it was particularly unfortunate that I had to dissect a second smelly frog!

And today, with the heavy deployment of our Reserve Forces, children in reservist and National Guard families do not even have the company of peers experiencing the same situation, like the military child that lives on a base surrounded by other military families. An extra worry these children can also face is new financial hardship in addition to the absence of a parent. Often there is a shortfall in family income from civilian employment with the extra money from a monthly drill, to full time active duty which often pays much less.

Remarks by Rep. Goodman:

However, the military child actually has an advantage and head start in life. Besides being brought up in a patriotic and disciplined environment, they are exposed to a wide range of regional cultural differences in the United States and foreign cultures and languages while living overseas. Military children tend to cultivate resilience, exceptional social skills, proficiency in foreign languages, and a high level of multicultural and international awareness. They learn to make new friends quickly and adapt to change. They are friends with children of all cultures and see the world as an adventure rather than something unknown and frightening.

Somewhere in the history of the military brat, someone declared the official flower of the military child as the dandelion. A dandelion is a plant that puts down roots almost anywhere, and is almost impossible to destroy. The dandelion is an unpretentious plant, yet good looking with the habit of being where you least expect it. It is a survivor in a broad range of climates. Kansas recognizes that the care of military children sustains our fighting force, and strengthens the health, security, and safety of our state and nation's families and communities.

Closing by Rep. Meier:

Please help me celebrate the Month of the Military Child and recognize their representatives here.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Our Heavenly Father,
Thank You for the weekend—and for this new week to start afresh.
Your Word says that Your mercies are new every morning—
we want to avail of these new mercies today.
As we attempt to work together on several issues that are difficult, it appears that many of the issues deal with territory—like district boundaries or budget appropriations.
We tend to want to claim our territory – our turf.
Help us to realize today, Lord, that You own it all…
and have loaned it all to us,
for which we are stewards.
Grant us wisdom to know how to do that.
Help us to seek You out and Your solutions.
And as Your Word puts it in Psalm 16:7:
“The wise counsel God gives when I’m awake is confirmed by my sleeping heart.
Day and night I’ll stick with God…”
Help us all to sleep well tonight because we followed the wise counsel You gave us today.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Garber.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS OFFERED ON A PREVIOUS DAY

On motion of Rep. Finney, HR 6029, A resolution in memory of Representative Jonathan Wells, was adopted.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Finney and McCray-Miller are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks by Rep. Finney:

Representative Wells was a personal mentor to me and someone I truly respected and admired. He was a very distinguished man and an impeccable dresser.

I first met him when I was in middle school at Allison Junior High where he was the principal. He ran a tight ship and all of the students stood at attention when he spoke. As a child, I seen him as a father figure and often wished that he would become my stepdad, until I found out he was married.

During my last re-election campaign, Representative Wells helped me out tremendously with my campaign. He went door-to-door for me, handed out flyers, put up signs and provided me with a lot of good advice.

I consider him a great person and I will always remember him.

Remarks by Rep. McCray-Miller:

Jonathan “Joe” Wells, Representative Wells was a “man before his time a renaissance man”. For those of you that did not have the opportunity to serve with Representative Wells you missed a treat! That also goes for those that did have an opportunity to serve with Representative Wells. I first knew Representative Wells through my father who also served with Mr. Wells in the House and they grew up in and around the same town in Oklahoma. When becoming a teacher I did my pre-service teaching under Mr. Wells when he was Principal of East High in Wichita, KS. I believe in recognizing a person for their hard work and accomplishments. I’m glad to have the opportunity to do that today regarding Rep. Wells.

"Section 1. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 58a-411 is hereby amended to read as follows: 58a-411. (a) A noncharitable irrevocable trust may be modified or terminated upon consent of the settlor and all qualified beneficiaries, even if the modification or termination is inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust. A settlor's power to consent to a trust's modification or termination may be exercised by an attorney in fact under a power of attorney only to the extent expressly authorized by the power of attorney or the terms of the trust; by the settlor's conservator with the approval of the court supervising the conservatorship if an agent is not so authorized; or by the settlor's guardian with the approval of the court supervising the guardianship if an agent is not so authorized and a conservator has not been appointed. This subsection does not apply to irrevocable trusts created before, or to revocable trusts that became irrevocable before, January 1, 2003.

(b) A noncharitable irrevocable trust may be terminated upon consent of all of the qualified beneficiaries if the court concludes that continuance of the trust is not necessary to achieve any material purpose of the trust. A noncharitable irrevocable trust may be modified upon consent of all of the qualified beneficiaries if the court concludes that modification is not inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust.

(c) A spendthrift provision in the terms of the trust is not presumed to constitute a material purpose of the trust.

(d) Upon termination of a trust under subsection (a) or (b), the trustee shall distribute the trust property as agreed by the qualified beneficiaries.

(e) If not all of the qualified beneficiaries consent to a proposed modification or termination of the trust under subsection (a) or (b), the modification or termination may be approved by the court if the court is satisfied that:

1) If all of the qualified beneficiaries had consented, the trust could have been modified or terminated under this section; and

2) the interests of a qualified beneficiary who does not consent will be adequately protected.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 58a-1013 is hereby amended to read as follows: 58a-1013. (a) Instead of furnishing a copy of the trust instrument to a person other than a qualified beneficiary, the trustee may furnish to the person an acknowledged certification of trust containing the following information:

1) That the trust exists and the date the trust instrument was executed;

2) the identity of the settlor;

3) the identity and address of the currently acting trustee;
(4) the powers of the trustee;
(5) the revocability or irrevocability of the trust and the identity of any person holding a power to revoke the trust;
(6) the authority of cotrustees to sign or otherwise authenticate and whether all or less than all are required in order to exercise powers of the trustee; and
(7) the trust's taxpayer identification number; and
(8) the manner of taking title to trust property.

(b) A certification of trust may be signed or otherwise authenticated by any trustee.

c) A certification of trust must state that the trust has not been revoked, modified, or amended in any manner that would cause the representations contained in the certification of trust to be incorrect.

d) A certification of trust need not contain the dispositive terms of a trust.

e) A recipient of a certification of trust may require the trustee to furnish copies of those excerpts from the original trust instrument and later amendments which designate the trustee and confer upon the trustee the power to act in the pending transaction.

f) A person who acts in reliance upon a certification of trust without knowledge that the representations contained therein are incorrect is not liable to any person for so acting and may assume without inquiry the existence of the facts contained in the certification. Knowledge of the terms of the trust may not be inferred solely from the fact that a copy of all or part of the trust instrument is held by the person relying upon the certification.

g) A person who in good faith enters into a transaction in reliance upon a certification of trust may enforce the transaction against the trust property as if the representations contained in the certification were correct.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.
Rep. LeDoux was excused on verified illness.

Reps. Johnson and Sloan were excused later in the day on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Richard Sundermeyer, pastor, Family Life Church of the Nazarene, Topeka:

Almighty God, as the hours wind down on this year’s session of the Kansas Legislature, we are reminded afresh and anew of our deep need for Your leading in everything we consider as a legislative body. Yes, we can make decisions on our own, but that is all they will be – humanity’s limited wisdom and insights.

May this day be one that finds all of us willing to be led by Your presence and inspiration affording us the ability to unite for the greater benefit of this great state.

May this day be one that enables us to move beyond past differences into a united body only doing what is best for everyone, great and small alike.

May this day be one that challenges the best in each other not willing to settle for good enough just for the sake of expediency.

May this day be one that seeks justice for the oppressed, provision for the disadvantages, and hope for those without hope.

May this day be one that will only advocate for and accept what is right even when it costs us greatly in terms of influence, support or votes.

May this day be one that will cause You to look down on this body with a great big smile of approval because we did the right thing.

We thank You for giving us this day.
In Jesus name I pray these things, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Schroeder.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6032—
By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A RESOLUTION opposing and exposing the radical nature of United Nations Agenda 21 and its destructiveness to the principles of the founding documents of the United States of America.

WHEREAS, The United Nations Agenda 21 is a comprehensive plan of environmental extremism, social engineering and global political control that was initiated at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in 1992; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations Agenda 21 is being covertly pushed into local communities throughout the United States of America through the International Council of Local Environmental Initiatives through local "sustainable development" policies such as Smart Growth, Wildlands Project, Resilient Cities, Regional Visioning Projects and other "Green" or "Alternative" projects; and

WHEREAS, This United Nations Agenda 21 plan of radical so-called "sustainable development" views the American way of life of private property ownership, single family homes, private car ownership, individual travel choices and privately owned farms as destructive to the environment; and

WHEREAS, The United States federal government nor any state or local government is legally bound by the United Nations Agenda 21, the influence of the International Council for Local Environmental Initiatives has now infiltrated approximately 600 local and regional entities in the United States, with as many as 54 of such entities withdrawing enrollment during 2011, due to the negative consequences experienced through implementation of Agenda 21; and

WHEREAS, According to the United Nations Agenda 21 policy, social justice is described as the right and opportunity of all people to benefit equally from the resources afforded us by society and the environment, which would be accomplished by redistribution of wealth: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the destructive and insidious nature of United Nations Agenda 21 and hereby expose to public policy makers the dangerous intent of the plan; and

Be it further resolved: That the federal government and all state and local governments across the country should seek to be well informed about the underlying harmful implications of the implementation of United Nations Agenda 21 destructive strategies for "sustainable development", and that we hereby endorse rejection of its radical policies; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

Journal of the House

SIXTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, May 3, 2012, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.
Rep. LeDoux was excused on verified illness.
Rep. Sloan was excused on legislative business.
Reps. Billinger and Weber were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. David Epps, National Day of Prayer Coordinator, of Topeka:

Gracious Lord and sovereign God over Kansas, I ask Your divine favor on the proceedings of this body today. Bestow blessings of health and prosperity for those serving here so they can conduct the business of the state without hindrance. Fill them with wisdom and knowledge to act as Your agents of blessing.

On this, the 61st annual National Day of Prayer, I call upon You to extend Your mercy to us. Give us in the state of Kansas a recognition of Your holiness and our utter failure to act, speak, and think according to Your standards. Humble us, forgive us, and empower us to not only pass righteous legislation, but to live righteous lives.

When we encounter drought and desperation, economic shakings and the shakings of the earth, acts of violence and the violent acts of nature, ridicule from the ignorant and rebuke from the self-righteous, remind us of Your promise that, if we will humble ourselves and pray, seek Your face and turn from our wicked ways, then You will hear us from heaven, forgive us, and heal our land.

I pray in the name of Your Son, Jesus, amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Roth.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Smith are spread upon the Journal:
Today is a day of celebration while remembering a somber anniversary. I would also like to honor the achievements of a special group of people.

May 3, 1989, my daughter, Kelsey Ann Smith, entered the world. She would have been 23 today. To celebrate her birthday I have had placed on your desk a package of Skittles. Skittles were Kelsey’s favorite candy and she had a habit of eating them in pairs. Two of the same color was the only acceptable way to eat them.

On June 2, 2007, Kelsey was kidnapped from an Overland Park store parking lot, sexually assaulted, and murdered. Her whereabouts were unknown for four days. After a massive search by law enforcement, the community and intensive media coverage, Kelsey’s body was located. Cell phone technology was crucial in recovering her.

This June 2 will mark the 5th anniversary of Kelsey’s death.

On July 23, 2009, Kelsey’s killer pled guilty to her murder and is now serving a life sentence without the possibility of parole in the custody of the Kansas Department of Corrections.

On April 17, 2009, Kansas passed the “Kelsey Smith Act,” a law making quick access to cell phone “locate” information by law enforcement possible.

This body is the first group of special people I would like to honor. Because of your work the Kelsey Smith Act has saved lives in Kansas. Six other states have passed a similar act using your legislation as a template. If you ever wonder if being here really makes a difference, it does. Your work has saved lives and will continue to do so. You have my sincere thanks.

The second group of people I would like to honor are up here with me. These are the board members and volunteers that make the Kelsey Smith Foundation a success. The Kelsey Smith Foundation has been recognized by the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Parents of Murdered Children and other organizations for its work in educating youth and young adults. Over 18,000 people have participated in the Foundation’s Safety Awareness Seminar across the United States. Without these people the Foundation would be lost. An organization is only as good as those who work to make it successful. They are Marla Brems, Karen Green, Dean Lytton, and Karen Woods.

The last person I would like to honor is my wife, Kelsey’s mother, Missey. Her hard work and passion for helping others make the Foundation as successful as it is. She is featured in this month’s “Her Life” magazine. I would like to present this framed certificate to her, In Memory of Kelsey.

Please recognize the achievements of these folks, as well as your own accomplishment of the Kelsey Smith Act.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God in Heaven,
In the midst of this wrap-up session, perhaps there are several who are feeling like this old adage:
We have an important job to do and Everybody is sure that Somebody will do it.
Anybody can do it, but Nobody has done it.
Somebody is angry about this,
because it is Everybody’s job.
Everybody thinks that Anybody can do it, but Nobody realizes that Everybody won’t do it.
Help us not to end up with Everybody blaming Somebody, when Nobody does
what Anybody can do.
As we work together today to accomplish the work for which we have been elected, help us to dialogue—
keeping in mind that two monologues do not make a dialogue.
Help us to listen—
keeping in mind that mouth and ears cannot be engaged at the same time.
And grant us wisdom—
keeping in mind that communication and collaboration can bring resolution.
In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Moxley.

Today is the State of Kansas Law Enforcement Memorial Service, and the name of Sgt. David E. Enzbrenner will be added to the memorial monument located on the grounds of the State Capitol Building.

We have with us today, the family of David Enzbrenner: David’s wife, Kerri; and his three daughters Avery, Abbi, and Celia. The Kansas House of Representatives wishes to express our deepest sympathy to Sgt. Enzbrenner’s entire family.

New Sec. 10. (a) If a pupil submits an application for free meals under the national school lunch act on or before the date on which the enrollment of the school district is calculated and it is later determined by the school district or the department of education that the pupil should not have been eligible for free meals, the district or the department shall notify the state board of such determination. Except as provided in subsection (b), upon receipt of such notice, the state board shall recompute the adjusted enrollment of the district and the general fund budget of the district based on the adjusted enrollment of the district excluding the at-risk pupil weighting, medium density at-risk pupil weighting and high density at-risk pupil weighting, if any, assigned to such pupil.

(b) The high density at-risk pupil weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board by multiplying the number of at-risk pupils by .10. The product is the high density at-risk pupil weighting of the district.

(c) If a school district becomes ineligible for high density at-risk pupil weighting because enrollment of at-risk pupils in the district falls below the requirements of subsection (a), the high density at-risk pupil weighting of the district shall be the greater of: (1) The high density at-risk pupil weighting in the current school year; (2) the high density at-risk pupil weighting in the prior school year; or (3) the average of the high density at-risk pupil weighting in the current school year and the preceding two school years.

The high density at-risk pupil weighting of each school district shall be determined by the state board as follows:

   (ii) multiply the amount determined under clause (i) by .7;
   (iii) multiply the number of at-risk pupils enrolled in the district by the product determined under clause (ii). The resulting product is the high density at-risk pupil weighting of the district.

(B) If the district has an enrollment of 50% or more at-risk pupils, the state board shall multiply the number of at-risk pupils by .105. The resulting product is the high density at-risk pupil weighting of the district.

(C) If the district has an enrollment of at least 35.1% at-risk pupils and an enrollment density of at least 212.1 pupils per square mile, the state board shall multiply the number of at-risk pupils by .105. The resulting product is the high density at-risk pupil weighting of the district.

Sec. 12. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 72-8814 is hereby amended to read as follows: 72-8814. (a) There is hereby established in the state treasury the school district capital outlay state aid fund. Such fund shall consist of all amounts transferred thereto under the provisions of subsection (c).

(b) In each school year, each school district which levies a tax pursuant to K.S.A. 72-8801 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall be entitled to receive payment from the school district capital outlay state aid fund in an amount determined by the state board of education as provided in this subsection. The state board of education shall:
   (1) Determine the amount of the assessed valuation per pupil (AVPP) of each school district in the state and round such amount to the nearest $1,000. The rounded amount is the AVPP of a school district for the purposes of this section;
   (2) determine the median AVPP of all school districts;
   (3) prepare a schedule of dollar amounts using the amount of the median AVPP of all school districts as the point of beginning. The schedule of dollar amounts shall range upward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the highest AVPP of all school districts and shall range downward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the lowest AVPP of all school districts;
   (4) (A) determine a state aid percentage factor for each school district by assigning a state aid computation percentage to the amount of the median AVPP shown on the schedule, decreasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the median AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval above the amount of the median AVPP, and increasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the median AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval below the amount of the median AVPP. Except as provided by K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 72-8814b, and amendments thereto, the state aid percentage factor of a school district is the percentage assigned to the schedule amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district, except that the state aid percentage factor of a school district shall not exceed 100%. The state aid computation percentage is 25%.

(B) (i) For levies imposed by a school district pursuant to a resolution adopted and published under this section prior to July 1, 2012, and such resolution either was not protested or that it was protested and an election has been held prior to July 1, 2012, the state aid computation percentage is 25%.

(ii) For levies imposed by a school district pursuant to a resolution adopted and published under this section prior to July 1, 2012, and the protest period had not expired prior to July 1, 2012, or such resolution was protested and the election was not held prior to July 1, 2012, the state aid computation percentage is 15%.

(iii) For levies imposed by a school district pursuant to a resolution adopted on or after July 1, 2012, the state aid computation percentage is 15%; and

(5) determine the amount levied by each school district pursuant to K.S.A. 72-8801 et seq., and amendments thereto; and

(6) multiply the amount computed under (5), but not to exceed 8 mills, by the applicable state aid percentage factor. The product is the amount of payment the school district is entitled to receive from the school district capital outlay state aid fund in the school year.

(c) The state board shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the entitlements of school districts determined under the provisions of subsection (b), and an amount equal thereto shall be transferred by the director from the state general fund to the school district capital outlay state aid fund for distribution to school districts, except that no transfers shall be made from the state general fund to the school district capital outlay state aid fund during the fiscal years ending June 30, 2012, or June 30, 2013. All transfers made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection shall be considered to be demand transfers from the state general fund.

(d) Payments from the school district capital outlay state aid fund shall be distributed to school districts at times determined by the state board of education. The state board of education shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the amount due each school district entitled to payment from the fund, and the director of accounts and reports shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer payable to the treasurer of the school district. Upon receipt of the warrant, the treasurer of the school district shall credit the amount thereof to the capital outlay fund of the school district to be used for the purposes of such fund.
