Constitutional Provisions Governing the Kansas Legislature

State of Kansas

KANSAS CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING LEGISLATIVE POWERS

Article 2.—LEGISLATIVE

§ 1. Legislative power.—The legislative power of this state shall be vested in a house of representatives and senate.

§ 2. Senators and representatives.—The number of representatives and senators shall be regulated by law, but shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five representatives and forty senators. Representatives and senators shall be elected from single-member districts prescribed by law. Representatives shall be elected for two year terms. Senators shall be elected for four year terms. The terms of representatives and senators shall commence on the second Monday of January of the year following election.

§ 3. Compensation of members of legislature.—The members of the legislature shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law or such compensation as is determined according to law.

§ 4. Qualifications of members.—During the time that any person is a candidate for nomination or election to the legislature and during the term of each legislator, such candidate or legislator shall be and remain a qualified elector who resides in his or her district.

§ 5. Eligibility and disqualification of members.—No member of congress and no civil officer or employee of the United States or of any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be eligible to be a member of the legislature. Any member of the legislature who accepts any appointment or election contrary to the foregoing shall be disqualified as a member of the legislature.

§ 6. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 7. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

The legislature shall be organized concurrently with the terms of representatives except that the senate shall remain organized during the terms of senators. The president of the senate shall preside over the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall preside over the house of representatives. A majority of the members than elected (or appointed) and qualified of the house of representatives or the senate shall constitute a quorum of that house. Neither house, without the consent of the other, shall adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excepted. Each house shall elect its presiding officer and determine the rules of its proceedings, except that the two houses may adopt joint rules on certain matters and provide for the manner of change thereof. Each house shall provide for the expulsion or censure of members in appropriate cases. Each house shall be the judge of elections, returns and qualifications of its own members.

§ 9. Vacancies in legislature.—All vacancies occurring in either house shall be filled as provided by law.

§ 10. Journals.—Each house shall publish a journal of its proceedings. The affirmative and negative votes upon the final passage of every bill and every concurrent resolution for amendment of this constitution or ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be entered in the journal. Any member of either house may make written protest against any act or resolution, and the same shall be entered in the journal without delay or alteration.

§ 11. This section was eliminated by the 1974 revision of this article.

§ 12. Origination by either house.—Bills and concurrent resolutions may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other.

§ 13. Majority for passage of bills.—A majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to pass any bill. Two-thirds (²/₃) of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, voting in the affirmative, shall be necessary to ratify any amendment to the Constitution of the United States or to make any application for congress to call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

§ 14. Approval of bills; vetoes.—(a) Within ten days after passage, every bill shall be signed by the presiding officers and presented to the governor. If the governor approves a bill, he shall sign it. (c) The rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert another proposition, nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule 28. Reconsideration of Pending Matters. When a question has been once put and decided it shall be in order for any Senator who voted with the prevailing side to move for a reconsideration thereof, but no motion for reconsideration of any vote shall be in order after the bill, resolution, message, report, amendment or motion, upon which the vote was taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, nor shall any motion for reconsideration be in order unless made on the same day on which the vote was taken or the next legislative day. Each bill or resolution appearing on the Consent Calendar shall remain thereon for at least two full legislative days before being considered under the order of business Final Action. At any time prior to the call for the vote under the order of business Final Action on a bill or resolution on the Consent Calendar, any member may object to the same as being controversial and the same shall be stricken from the Consent Calendar and take its place on General Orders in the usual order. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.

Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 26, 2009, during the 2009 regular session and on January 25, 2010, during the 2010 regular session.

(b) Bill introduction deadline for individual members. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by a member or members shall be introduced in either house of the legislature after the hour of adjournment on February 4, 2009, during the 2009 regular session and on February 10, 2010, during the 2010 regular session. Such deadline for the introduction of bills by individual members may be changed to an earlier date in either house at any time by resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in such house.

(c) Bill request deadline for certain committees. Except for bills to be introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no committee except the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall make a request to the office of the revisor of statutes for any bill to be drafted for sponsorship by such committee after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 30, 2009, during the 2009 regular session and on February 4, 2010, during the 2010 regular session.

(d) Bill introduction deadline for certain committees. Except as provided in (i) of this rule, no bill sponsored by any committee of either house of the legislature, except the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be introduced in either house after the hour of adjournment on February 6, 2009, during the 2009 regular session and on February 12, 2010, during the 2010 regular session. (e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 21, 2009, during the 2009 regular session and on February 27, 2010, during the 2010 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by the house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 25, 2009, during the 2009 regular session and March 31, 2010, during the 2010 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f); procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 4, 2009, during the 2009 regular session and after April 10, 2010, during the 2010 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702 and amendments thereto. This subsection (k) may be suspended for the consideration of a specific bill or bills not otherwise exempt under this subsection by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in the house in which the bill is to be considered.

Joint rule 5. Closure of meetings to consider matters relating to security. Any standing committee of the House of Representatives, any standing committee of the Senate, the Legislative Coordinating Council, any joint committee of both houses of the legislature, any special or select committee of the House of Representatives or the Senate, the House of Representatives in session, the Senate in session or a joint session of the House of Representatives and the Senate may meet in closed, executive session for the purpose of receiving information and considering matters relating to the security of state officers or employees, or both, or the security of buildings and property under the ownership or control of the State of Kansas.

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Monday, January 12, 2009—2:00 p.m.

In accordance with the provisions of the constitution of the State of Kansas and KSA 46-142(d), the 2009 Session of the Kansas Legislature was called to order by Secretary of State Ron Thornburgh.

Secretary Thornburgh introduced the Rev. Fred S. Hollomon, Topeka, Kansas, who will again serve as the Senate Chaplain and delivered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father,

Last year we were dealing With a shortfall in the millions, Now we hear it could amount To, believe it or not, a billion!

So it seems to me, O God, Our problem has really grown To where it'd be unwise To tackle it alone.

I think we need your help, O God, More than we did before, To even have a chance Our balance to restore.

There may be those who wonder, Lord, Whether it matters much to You What happens in these chambers And what it is we do.

Should there really be a doubt, Then once more we should recall The advice Ben Franklin gave In Constitution Hall.

When the convention was in trouble It was Franklin who advised, "If God knows when sparrows fall, Won't He help an empire rise?"

Please don't let the Chaplain, Lord, Be the only one who prays. Let there be a lot of praying During these ninety days.

Even research supports prayer, So for this session's sake Don't let us act surprised At the difference that You make! I pray in the name of Jesus, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Secretary Thornburgh.

Secretary Thornburgh appointed Pat Saville to serve as temporary Secretary of the Senate until such time as a permanent secretary is appointed.

Secretary Thornburgh requested the reader to call the roll of the Senate from the certified list of members-elect as submitted by the Secretary of State and recorded in the preorganizational meeting of December 1, 2008.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT MORRIS

Congratulations welcome to the Kansas Senate. For some, today is a landmark. The result of a dream, plus the hard work of a campaign, and the support of family and thousands of friends you never knew you had. For others, this ceremony is not new, but serves as a reminder of the responsibilities you bear because of the office you hold.

We are privileged to be here, to be able to serve the citizens of Kansas. I also feel very honored to have the opportunity to serve another term as your Senate President, and I look forward to working with all of you.

There is a phrase that has become very popular with self-help pundits: The universe rewards action. There are books, websites, blogs, and entire life strategies built around this concept.

I think the better version of this saying is attributed to Dante Alighieri, the 14th Century Italian poet, writer, literary theorist, moral philosopher, and political thinker. He said, "The secret of getting things done is to act."

What better guidance could we have at this critical point in our State's history? We face tremendous fiscal difficulties that have been further complicated by a faltering economy. We need to establish a statewide, comprehensive energy plan, we need to craft a new long term comprehensive transportation plan, and we must find a way to continue to provide the most basic government services to those most in need. Our choices are certain to be painful.

We have to act. Failure to take action is to fail the voters who sent us here. By failing to act, we would also be failing ourselves and each other. So let's work together, within our caucuses and across party lines. Let's meet these challenges head-on. By setting wise policies now, we can save future lawmakers from facing this same quandary in future legislative sessions.

But today is a day of celebration and recognition. While we enjoy the congratulations that come with earning a seat in the Senate, let's take a moment to recognize our closest advisors, our most enthusiastic cheerleaders and sometimes our most honest critics: our family members who are here to share this day with us.

To all our family members gathered in this chamber, in the galleries, and those who were unable to attend, we extend our thanks and gratitude for your sacrifice and support. Thank you.

REMARKS BY MINORITY LEADER HENSLEY

Mr. President:

On behalf of the Democratic caucus, I want to congratulate you, the Vice President, the Majority Leader and the other Republican leadership on your election to your respective offices.

I've enjoyed working with you in the past four years, and our caucus looks forward to working with you during this new term of office.

We pledge to work with you but also acknowledge that there will be those times in the process when we will, in the legislative vernacular, "agree to disagree."

I want to thank my fellow Democrats for electing me to once again serve as their leader. This is a high honor you have given me and I will do my best to represent you.

I also want to welcome everyone to my hometown, especially the new members of the Kansas Senate.

And, I want to welcome our family members to the Senate Chamber and thank them for their support during the "rough and tumble" of the recent election campaigns.

JANUARY 12, 2009

Speaking of the "rough and tumble" of campaigns, I told the President and Majority Leader this morning one of my favorite political stories from the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates when the two were running for the U.S. Senate from Illinois in 1858.

Stephen Douglas called Abraham Lincoln "two-faced." Whereupon Lincoln replied, "I leave it to my audience. If I were two-faced, why would I wear this one?"

I also thank our families in advance for their patience and understanding while we are away from them during our time spent here in this legislative session and the sessions ahead.

I want to take this opportunity to mention several "firsts" among the members of the Democratic caucus.

Today, marks the first time that the Senator from Wyandotte, Senator Haley, was on time for his own swearing in!

The new Senator from Douglas, Senator Holland and his successor in the House are the first Senator and House member duo from the community of Baldwin City since Abraham Lincoln was President.

The new Senator from Wyandotte, Senator Kultala, is the first female Senator to be elected and sworn in from Wyandotte County.

And, even more significant, the new Senator from Sedgwick, Senator Faust-Goudeau, is the first African-American woman in Kansas history to be elected and sworn in to the Kansas Senate.

Another first in our caucus is that our Executive Secretary, Carolyn Campbell, will be sworn in tomorrow as the first African-American in Kansas history to the Kansas State Board of Education.

It is an understatement to say that the 2009 session will confront all of us with many great and difficult challenges.

I told a group of Democrats yesterday that the challenges facing us this session are the most serious I've seen in my tenure, and this is my 33rd session.

The downturn in our national and state economy and the shortfall in our state's budget will set the stage for some really tough and unpopular choices.

And, tonight, we will hear from Governor Sebelius as to what she believes many of those choices will be.

But, political leaders and legislative bodies have been confronted with difficult challenges throughout the years.

Much to what I know is of interest to the Majority Leader, I have on occasion referred to Presidential history on this floor.

This year, 2009, marks the 200th anniversary of the birth of a man who was, in my opinion, the greatest of all American Presidents.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hardin County, Kentucky on February 12, 1809.

And, if we believe the challenges we will face are tough, they pale in comparison with a divided nation at war and in peril of its very survival while Lincoln was President.

But, he reminded his fellow countrymen, with words he thought few people would ever remember, that even in the darkest days of our nation's history, they should continue to highly resolve themselves to the cause that "government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

The challenges we face today do not even come close to putting government in peril. But, the decisions we make in response to those challenges will have a profound impact on the citizens we represent.

Let us make those decisions in a spirit of inclusion and bi-partisanship.

Let us work together to maintain the best possible safety net we can for the people of Kansas, particularly the most vulnerable among us.

Let us resolve ourselves to what another of my favorite Presidents once said. Franklin Roosevelt said, "The test of our progress is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much, it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little."

Again, my congratulations to everyone. Now it's on to the work of the people.

Senator Hensley

Heavenly Father,

In the garden of Gethsemane Your only begotten Son Prayed "Not my will, But thine be done."

So when we pray for anything, It seems that everyone Should pray "Not my will But thine be done."

When we introduce a bill, Before the process has begun, We should pray, "Not my will, But thine be done."

You have a way, O God, Of blessing anyone Who always prays, "Not my will, But only thine be done."

Help us to remember, Lord, That there are really none Who can say we've learned to pray, Until we pray, "Thy will be done."

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

WHEREAS, Sue Krische made the leap to the Senate in 1993, serving as session secretary to Senate Vice President and chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee Jerry Moran before later that year moving up the back steps and becoming the full-time Executive Secretary to Senate President Bud Burke; and

WHEREAS, Upon Senator Dick Bond's ascent to the office of Senate President in 1997, he tapped Sue Krische to serve as his Chief of Staff. Sue Krische continued in her role as Chief of Staff when Senate President Dave Kerr assumed the office in 2001 and when Senate President Stephen R. Morris did so in 2005. Sue Krische's intelligence, loyalty and discretion were the hallmarks of her service to all three Senate Presidents during her 12 years as Chief of Staff; and WHEREAS, Sue Krische's 12-year tenure as the senior staff to the Senate President is unprecedented. Her appointment and reappointment to this key role significantly altered the scope and definition of the position; and

WHEREAS, Sue Krische has been a tremendous asset to the Kansas Legislature throughout her years of service which have been marked by her well known unflappable calm, lowprofile approach, unfailing attention to detail and iron determination. Sue Krische's dedicated service to each Senate President has left an indelible mark on the office of Chief of Staff and her integrity and fairness will long be standards by which other "chiefs" will be measured: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and thank Sue Krische for the years of devoted service she gave to the State of Kansas and for the legacy of excellence she leaves after her many years as Chief of Staff to the office of Senate President; and

Be it further resolved: That we express heartfelt gratitude to Sue Krische for her tireless efforts on behalf of the Kansas Legislature and to wish for her a happy, healthy and eventful retirement. We also thank her family: husband Larry Krische, their eldest son John, his wife Lisa and their baby boy Ben; their twin sons Matt and Dan, with Dan's wife Amanda, their twin daughters Ellen and Julia and baby boy Sam. May you all enjoy many good times together in the years to come.

On emergency motion of Senator Morris SR 1804 was adopted unanimously.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRIS

The Congressional Medal of Honor is the highest award for valor in action which can be bestowed upon an individual serving in the Armed Services of the United States. It is generally presented by the President, in the name of Congress.

If the Kansas Legislature had such an honor, it most certainly would be bestowed upon Sue Krische. For valor in action.

I am not the only Senate President to benefit from having Sue Krische as a "wing man". Not only did Sue serve as Chief of Staff for an unprecedented three consecutive Senate Presidents, but she was the executive secretary for a fourth Senate President, a committee secretary for a Senate Vice President and served as a committee secretary and administrative assistant to two House Appropriations Chairmen.

I believe some of these distinguished former legislative leaders are here in the chamber today for this special recognition for Sue. To former Senate Presidents Bud Burke, Dick Bond and Dave Kerr, to former Senate Vice President, now Congressman Jerry Moran, and to former House Appropriations Chairmen Bill Bunten and George Teagarden, let's give a nice round of applause.

Back to you, Sue. It is hard to put into words how much I appreciate all you did for me for the past four years. It is hard to know how to thank you for all you have done through your many years of service to the Senate and to the Legislature. I was thinking back last night, and I cannot begin to count the number of primary campaigns, general election campaigns, the sheer number of candidates—both those who were elected and those who were not. The amount of money you helped raise. The events you helped coordinate. The votes you helped round up and count. The late night phone calls. The early morning meetings. The travel. The good times. The hard times. The times when the Kansas Senate seemed like the only thing in the world that mattered—and the times when the Kansas Senate seemed insignificant compared to life outside the dome.

Through all the good and bad, you remained the consummate professional. When everything else seemed uncertain, your loyalty, credibility and discretion were steadfast. You never sought the limelight, never expected the credit. Your quiet but effective style kept our staff together, and left us Presidents to focus on our jobs.

Thank you, Sue, for your wisdom and your expertise. Thank you for your willingness to do whatever the job required.

You have been an advisor, a confidante and a friend. I will miss you on my staff, but I look forward to remaining friends. I wish you the very best always, and I know the entire Senate joins me in saying farewell, good luck and God Bless.

President Morris introduced members of Sue's family: her husband, Larry Krishe; her twin sons, Matt and Dan with Dan's wife Amanda and their children, twin girls Julia and Ellen, and son Sam and Sue's brother-in-law, Father Vince Krische. Her oldest son, John with his wife Lisa and their son Ben were unable to attend.

In closing President Morris asked the family to take good care of Sue and thanked them for sharing her all these years.

Senators Hensley, Reitz and Vratil also paid tribute to Sue.

On motion of Senator D. Schmidt the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Thursday, January 15, 2009.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to give the following remarks:

MR. VICE PRESIDENT; GENTLE COLLEAGUES:

Let me thank each of you (especially the newest members of this body) for allowing me this annual plea without objection. After fifteen years now in this Legislature of commemorating the King holiday (and the weekend that will precede it), frankly, I am joyfully aware that some of us here are ALREADY in step with the concepts of Equality . . ." with Liberty and Justice for ALL. But then, there too, after all of these years, a decade and a half, sadly,

I realize that many of you all never, perhaps ever, will . . . And so sadly, after fifteen years of raising this Point, I realize that some here within the leadership of Kansas, will never be leaders, in your own Districts . . . in your own communities for that matter, for sharing the importance of this Holiday with your families and constituents. The Dr. King Birthday holiday truly epitomizes America's strength, which we as a productive country have, because of such rich diversity. You know, there are many holidays all over the world. Some (like Christmas and New Year's, etc.) shared with people of other countries and even other lands; some different but shared in their own way (like Independence or Labor Days, etc.) in other countries . . . but the uniqueness of this Holiday belongs strictly to the United States of America; it doesn't belong to my religion nor to yours; it doesn't belong to my political persuasion and it doesn't belong to yours, the King Holiday is red AND it's blue AND it's purple; it belongs to you, it belongs to me and to ALL of us UNIQUELY . . . as Americans. And once again I'm simply here to plead with each of you, as colleagues and as leading Kansans to claim with special pride Ownership of this Holiday and promote cultural awareness and inclusion throughout our borders. Give it your energy, CIVIC SERVICE energy. That force you exert, redoubling in your neighbor, will expand exponentially. Now, that's the greatest of all potential renewable energy sources! And you know last year, 2008, was a renewal year, Mr. Vice-President.

Personally, I have never really been more proud of this country.

The world watched our American democracy debate with issue after issue on CONTENT and NOT (well at least not to a large extent) on color or gender or age or race. Almost by chance (many would contend by necessity), Americans put a lot of "-isms" to rest; at least for awhile last year during our presidential election.

Where fear had divided, hope instead united and Americans judged the messages and not just the messengers, no matter their age or gender or race.

But despite this broadening in our national psyche, despite an unprecedented outcome in any previous presidential race, you know Mr. Vice-President that there is so much left to accomplish. To keep the spirit of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday alive and well this weekend should not be another "day off", but a "day on." Your leadership, no our leadership is required across our State in each of our cities and villages to remind our constituents, our neighbors and our friends that the legacy of Dr. King is the legacy of a united America. This holiday, which bears but one man's name, was accomplished by so many many people; who sacrificed and labored; time and resources and even reputation for the creed that is uniquely America. That we are all endowed by our Creator with inalienable rights; rights such as Liberty, Freedom and Justice . . . without partiality to one's color or one's creed. As the elected stewards of our great State, I pray that we exert our abilities to do our best to insure that in this, our time, and in this our place . . . that with God's grace . . . that we too can make a difference. Please. Have a reflective and active King Holiday.

Senators Barnett, Brownlee, Bruce, Brungardt, Colyer, Haley, Masterson, Morris, Pyle and Wagle were excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon: Heavenly Father, His name was Martin Luther King, Jr. He was born and lived in a land of racial prejudice. I know, because I lived there too. He followed his father into the gospel ministry. Like the rest of us, he was not perfect.

But he had a dream.

I believe that dream came from You, O God.

His roots as a Baptist preacher served him well.

He knew it was not Your will for one race to ostracize another.

What made him different was his weapon.

He did not come with a gun.

He refused to resort to violence

His weapon was passive resistance.

And to the surprise of his opposition he won.

The war was not won, but a strategic battle prevailed.

Today, people of all colors drink from the same fountain.

Today, people of all colors use the same rest rooms.

Today, people of all colors eat at the same restaurants

Today, people of all colors sit together on buses.

Today, people of all colors sit together in church.

No, prejudice has not been obliterated.

But the dream of one black Baptist preacher is slowly coming true.

The old song, "We Shall Overcome" marches on.

And I believe if Martin Luther King, Jr. was alive today, he would join me in proclaiming, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, among people with whom He is pleased."

I pray this in the name of Jesus Christ.

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HALEY

Mr. President:

Today, it is with a sense of great anticipation that I (or perhaps any legislator, for that matter) utter the complete title and name of "President Barack Obama" for the first time before the Kansas legislature.

(But, I imagine this won't be the only, or last, time I do invoke his name!) Earlier, many of us watched as President Obama took the oath of office and with it the decidedly arduous task of leading this nation out of what any sane person would agree are some difficult times for the United States of America. The mantra for the campaign for the first American of African descent to hold the office was clear: To provide "Change . . . We can believe in" and the resounding response from the majority of voting America was belief in the genuineness of the Obama appeal. Without recounting the issues of economy; or conflicts; or dependency here . . . polls suggest most Americans overwhelmingly want to see "change" to policies that have failed. We've got to do differently than we've done before. To meet these challenges, we've got to do better. America has to do better.

Now I know Mr. President that President Obama wasn't voting Kansans choice to bring about change. And I realize too that each of us here are serving by the benefit and at the mercy of those same voters. Many of them (but hopefully not many of you here) for purely partisan (and some worse) reasons don't want to see the Obama administration meet any measure of success.

The President, prophetically, has this to say; "The road ahead will be long. Our climb will be steep. We may not get there in one year or even one term, but America—we as a people will get there. There will be setbacks and false starts. There are many who won't agree with every decision or policy I make as president, and we know that government can't solve every problem. But I will always be honest with you about the challenges we face. I will listen to you, especially when we disagree. And above all, I will ask you join in the work of remaking this nation the only way it's been done in America for 221 years—block by block, brick by brick, calloused hand by calloused hand."

I call on us all to put aside the rancor or partisanship and to pull together for a change this session to restore the greatness that is a solvent compassionate Kansas and a stronger America under the new leadership of this President who has begun to bring about that change this country seeks and many feel that our country in so many ways desperately needs. Kansas does not exist in a vacuum; we are one of many. After all, ultimately we are now drawing closer as one America. Different races, different cultures, different religions, political parties and creeds maybe, but one America . . . United States of America.

"Ich bin America" "Yo soy America" "Je suis America"

"I am America." We are America.

God Bless the 44th President and his administration; great state of Kansas and the United States of America.

Thank you, Mr. President

On motion of Senator D. Schmidt the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, January 21, 2009.

SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Wednesday, January 21, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

In the going-on twenty-eight sessions I have served as Senate Chaplain I have observed literally hundreds of different Senators. I have often wondered how You, O God, would identify a good Senator.

Searching through Your Word, it is obvious that You consider the most important of all virtues is LOVE.

I have found four Greek words translated "love", but the one You consider most associated with You is the word, AGAPE, which means to desire to do that which benefits another the most. Sometimes it's to comfort, sometimes it's to correct, sometimes it's to help, sometimes it's to encourage.

There are at least eleven times in the New Testament where the superiority of love over all other virtues is expressed.

From time to time I would appreciate Your leading me to point out at least a few of these verses. I cannot do it without You.

By the way, to be fair, I will leave it up to the Senators to evaluate the Chaplains!

I ask this in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Vice President Vratil introduced as guest chaplain, Dr. Robert Meneilly, Pastor Emeritus, Village Presbyterian Church, Prairie Village, KS, who delivered the invocation:

Gracious God of all peoples everywhere, save this moment from being little more than protocol, as we pause to reverence your presence and providence in this sacred hall of government.

Give to these elected and devoted leaders who govern a keen sense of your will and the courage to do it. Keep them ever mindful that they are called to serve all of the citizens of Kansas as the doers of truth and justice. Enable each of these to do her or his work with integrity, intelligence and with a keen sense of personal responsibility. Give each of these the grace to hear one another, and where there is discord of politics or idealism may they respect each other's dignity and be open to reconciliation.

Senators Abrams, Barnett, Bruce, Brungardt, Colyer, Faust-Goudeau, Huelskamp, Masterson, Ostmeyer, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Taddiken, Wagle and Wysong were excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Yesterday while driving A sign caught my eye. It was short and so I read it As I passed it by.

"Well done" is better than "Well said" is how it read. Immediately a Bible verse (Matthew 25:21) Appeared within my head.

(And I paraphrase it) "Well done, my faithful servant, You've been faithful with a few. So more responsibility Will now be given you."

I've been a preacher, Lord, For fifty-seven years. Thousands of my words Have bombarded many ears.

But Jesus' commendation Was certainly not "Well said." "Well done" is what I want to hear When I leave this body dead.

I believe that every Senator Would like to hear You say, "Well done, my faithful servant" And for them is what I pray.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Heavenly Father,

Most every time someone discovers I'm Chaplain of the Senate; They have nothing good to say About anybody in it.

So every year I have a chance To speak at the Day of Prayer, I remind them "bad-mouthing never helps, So pray for all of them there."

When it comes to criticism, Years ago I found Most folks assume that others Have the easiest jobs around.

There's an old saying, Lord, Which may express your views: "Don't judge others until you've walked Thirty days in their shoes."

Thirty days in a Senator's shoes Should help the critics realize They don't have many reasons To sit around and criticize.

I pray in Jesus' Name,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

ELEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Tuesday, January 27, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present. Senator Teichman was excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Toward the end of many sessions When we seemed to reach a stalemate, I turned to quote from Ben Franklin For help as it was getting late.

Lord, I'd like to refer to him again, Before we reach the end, And seek the wisdom and inspiration Of the genius we know as Ben.

In April of seventeen eighty-seven He delivered a powerful speech To the Constitutional Convention Where a deadlock had been reached.

As Franklin began to close his speech, The eighty-one year old said that day, "God governs in the affairs of men", And then he went on to say . . .

"If God sees every sparrow fall, Then we shouldn't be afraid, For surely a nation cannot rise Without the Father's aid,"

(And Lord, I would paraphrase) "If You see every sparrow fall, Then shouldn't we take our chances, And trust that You can help us solve The deficits that plague Kansas?"

I pray in the Name of Jesus,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

TWELFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Wednesday, January 28, 2009-10:30 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

The reason we are here this morning We have a lot to do. We are facing a gigantic elephant Which is difficult to chew.

This elephant doesn't represent Any particular party. It's an elephant which represents A budget hale and hardy!

Some say it's common knowledge, An elephant in its prime Can only be consumed One bite at a time!

Others say that this won't work. This elephant in its prime Won't ever be consumed One bite at a time.

This elephant has a way of growing Faster than we can eat. If we don't find a better way, We'll only taste defeat.

Lord, You know this kind of elephant. You have tackled more than one. Reveal to us just what to do. To cause him to succumb.

I pray in the Name of Jesus, AMEN

THIRTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, January 29, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present. Senator Steineger was excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

There are some birthday presents we wish we could give Kansas on her 148th anniversary:

Plenty of rain but not too much. Safe streets and sober drivers. No drugs and no drop-outs. Unabused children and unbattered spouses. Zero unemployment. No damaging tornados. A balanced budget. No burglaries and no murders. Either K-State or KU become NCAA national basketball champions,

I am sure at least some of our aspirations exceed our expectations, but most of all we pray that Your will be done.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I respectfully vote "No" on Senate Substitute for SB 23. This bill is a failure to address the fundamental budget problem we face; we are spending more than we are receiving during an economic downturn of historic proportion. In my opinion this bill will result in dramatic reduction in services to our most needy and vulnerable Kansans or a tax increase.

While I am opposed to this bill for the reasons outlined above, I am most opposed to an earmark contained within the bill. The definition of an earmark is an item placed in a budget bill at the eleventh hour for the benefit of a select few. The earmark of over $6.6 million could be used to help fund our community mental health or reduce the waiting list for those needing developmental disabilities services. The hearts must be warmed across Kansas of the people who advocate for big government because earmarks are alive and well under the dome at our state capital. Some may say this is not an earmark but just good fiscal policy. My response is that no matter how much lipstick you put on an earmark it is still an earmark. —PAT APPLE

Senators Barnett, McGinn, Reitz, Schodorf and Vratil request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Apple on Sub for SB 23.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

MR. PRESIDENT: This bipartisan compromise is a small start at correcting years of bad policy. The best way to ensure the future of our state and fix our budget crisis is to grow the Kansas economy. We should be first out of the recession—not last.

We didn't have to be in this position even with this recession. Previous budgets grew several times faster than the rate of inflation. If it grew at just 5% or had a rainy day fund, we would be talking about giving every Kansas family a $500 rebate instead of closing schools and raising taxes.

Some had months and years to make the necessary cuts, but refused to lead. By waiting, it forced more painful and unnecessary cuts that harm students, damages essential programs, and hurts our economy.

The previous version of SB 23 hurt the neediest Kansans, closed prisons and harmed schools. It created the possibility of a major tax increase at the height of the recession which would devastate jobs.

Kansans want smaller, more effective government that encourages jobs and growth. They want us to retool how government functions so that it can serve Kansans better.

While imperfect the bipartisan compromise is a small start in the right direction.—JEFF COLYER

Senator Brownlee requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Colyer on Sub for SB 23.

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote Aye on Substitute for Senate Bill 23.

With a budget shortfall unprecedented since I began serving in the Kansas Legislature, it is more important than ever that Democrats and Republicans work in bipartisan cooperation. Unfortunately, the drafting of this bill as it left committee did not involve this cooperation.

Without a seat at the table, a majority of Senators felt it necessary to form a coalition.

Together, we drafted a bipartisan alternative that responds in part to our budget problems and has a reasonable chance of becoming law. While this bipartisan approach is based on tough choices, we strived to keep the commitment we made to K-12 education while preventing local property tax increases, to protect our most vulnerable citizens, and to maintain public safety. Essentially, we've taken the first step to finding solutions necessary to resolve our budget shortfall without causing major hardships in the midst of the current fiscal year.

Collaboration, not confrontation, is what our constituents expect and deserve from us. I urge all members of the Kansas Senate, regardless of party, to work together as we move forward in our consideration of the 2010 budget.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Kelly, Kultala and Lee request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on Sub SB 23.

MR. PRESIDENT: The budget crisis we are facing now in Kansas has been years in the making—years of overspending that is. For years many of us have been warning that this day was coming and we are heartened that many now recognize the need for fiscal responsibility. The road to a balanced budget is not easy—but it is necessary and long overdue. I vote aye.—TIM HUELSKAMP

Senators Abrams, Brownlee, Haley, Kelsey and Petersen request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Huelskamp on Sub SB 23.

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote aye on this legislation which makes cuts to the '09 budget. This action would not be necessary had sound fiscal policy been followed in previous years. Deficit spending, as well as poor management of revenue in good economic times has brought about these difficult budget issues. Those voting for budgets in prior years need only briefly look back to see how the state got in this situation.—DENNIS PYLE

MR. PRESIDENT: Today is a historic day. Given the difficult task we have of balancing our budget, this body is about to pass S Sub for SB 23 which results in a 3.8 million dollar tax increase.

I believe this signals to Kansans across the state this bodies willingness to increase revenues.

Today we had a bill introduced in Ways and Means that would increase fees by 50% for the state water plan fund.

I predict that this is only the beginning, and that with the passage of this tax increase the pressure for additional tax increases will only grow stronger.—MARK TADDIKEN

Senators Barnett, McGinn and Schodorf request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Taddiken on Sub SB 23.

FIFTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Monday, February 2, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present. Senators Hensley and Pyle were excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Last week I was thinking About what I should pray. A sense of humor crossed my mind, But is this the appropriate day?

There's so much on their mind, O God, With controversial bills; Perhaps each waking moment Is probably more than filled.

On the other hand . . . It may be just the time Humor is what they need To loosen everybody up, Even help them to succeed.

So when the mood gets tense And tempers start to flare, I pray that someone will step in And spread some humor there.

And if I may be bold, O God, If there's anyone who can; It's the Senator in charge of humor, Senator Donovan is the man!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1606-

- By Senators Abrams, Apple, Barnett, Brownlee, Bruce, Brungardt, Colyer, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Huelskamp, Kelly, Kelsey, Kultala, Lee, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Morris, Ostmeyer, Owens, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, D. Schmidt, V. Schmidt, Schodorf, Steineger, Taddiken, Teichman, Umbarger, Vratil, Wagle and Wysong
- A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION regarding the Kansas Legislature's opposition to the relocation of the Guantanamo Bay detainees to Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas or elsewhere within Kansas and urging the President of the United States and other members of the federal executive branch, to not consider Ft. Leavenworth or elsewhere in Kansas as a potential site for the relocation of the Guantanamo Bay detainees.

WHEREAS, Leavenworth County and the cities of Leavenworth and Lansing, Kansas and the State of Kansas strongly oppose the relocation of the Guantanamo detainees to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The Military Disciplinary Barracks at Fort Leavenworth, unlike Guantanamo Bay, is not isolated from the surrounding civilian population, and would pose numerous safety, security, and economic hardships on all of Leavenworth County, and would negatively impact the municipal services, the local economy, and the security of the cities of Leavenworth and Lansing and the state of Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Increased security of Fort Leavenworth would close Fort facilities that are now available for some use by the civilian community, including Sherman Airfield which is the only public use airport in Leavenworth County and the Munson clinic and other facilities that are used by veterans, military retirees and the public; and

WHEREAS, Security concerns also include the fact that railroad right-of-way that trains use crosses through the Fort property; the Fort is small and houses over 3,000 residents; there are no emergency medical services or surgical services at the Fort and the only clinic is utilized by active duty soldiers, retirees and their families for medical care; the two small hospitals in town and the veterans facilities are not equipped to handle the security associated with serving Guantanamo Bay detainees; and

WHEREAS, Security concerns would not only be felt locally, but also throughout the Kansas metropolitan areas and the state of Kansas by becoming a high profile target for terrorism as a result of such relocation; and

WHEREAS, The Leavenworth County Sheriff's Office, as well as the Leavenworth and Lansing Police Departments are not fully capable of handling an international terrorist incident and the inevitable non-violent protests that would occur outside the Fort's gates since protests are not allowed on military institutions; and

WHEREAS, The Leavenworth Community has, from its inception, embraced Fort Leavenworth and neither the community nor the post could exist without each entity's support and the local economy is dependent on the families who are stationed at the Fort to further their academic enrichment; and

WHEREAS, Fort Leavenworth has always served a dual-mission, because the Command and General Staff College and the Military Barracks are both located on post; it is critical to keep education as the primary focus of this installation and if Guantanamo Bay detainees are relocated to Fort Leavenworth the growth of the installation would cease and future expansion of military educational services would not occur; and

WHEREAS, 2009 marked the 100th year anniversary of the International Military Student program at Fort Leavenworth; the program can trace its inception back to 1894 and graduated its first international student in 1908; over the past century, 25 graduates have become Heads of State, 300 have become head of their nation's military and over 2,000 have become Generals; as a result there are military and political leaders around the world who were schooled at Fort Leavenworth, lived in the city adjacent to the Fort and made lifelong American friends; it is crucial, especially in the present state of international relations, that the international officers program at Fort Leavenworth remain strong and vital and if Guantanamo Bay detainees are relocated to Fort Leavenworth, many counties will not send military students and their families to America, impairing a significant contribution to international peace and understanding; and WHEREAS, The Military Disciplinary Barracks at Fort Leavenworth is a conventional

WHEREAS, The Military Disciplinary Barracks at Fort Leavenworth is a conventional prison with only a handful of segregation units and most prisoners in large pods containing cells opening into a common area and it would be highly inappropriate to house foreign detainees with United States military prisoners; and

WHEREAS, The state, counties and cities have the responsibility for the safety of our citizens, local schools, businesses, and mutual aid for surrounding communities related to the detainee prison facility being located in Kansas and opposed the likely changes and relocation of the Command and General Staff College; the restricted access the relocation could cause for railroad traffic, and the increased negative publicity for the community from potential sympathizers of the detainees: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That the Kansas legislature strongly opposes the relocation of the Guantanamo Bay detainees to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas or elsewhere within Kansas and that the Legislature underscores its commitment to provide any and all support necessary to ensure the Guantanamo Bay detainees are not moved to Kansas.

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State provide enrolled copies of this resolution to President Obama, Vice President Biden, the Kansas congressional delegation, and Governor Kathleen Sebelius.

On emergency motion of Senator D. Schmidt, SCR 1606 was adopted by voice vote.

Leavenworth guests introduced by Senator Kultala were Heather Morgan, Scott Miller, Ken Bernard, Lisa Weekly, Terry Weekly and Laura Gasbarre.

SIXTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Tuesday, February 3, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

If a legislator was asked "What is your most needed provision?" More than likely the answer would be, "The ability to make wise decisions."

But the question immediately arises, "What do you mean by 'wise' "? If we look for the best definition, You may be in for a surprise.

In the third chapter of the book of James (3:17) There are eight words made very clear: Pure, peaceful, considerate, submissive, Merciful, fruitful, impartial, sincere.

So it's obvious wisdom involves much more Than a simple definition. If your decision doesn't measure up, Then it can't be a wise decision.

Lord, help us to measure ourselves, Do our decisions involve eight descriptions? If not, they don't measure up To truly wise decisions.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1608-

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A PROPOSITION to amend article 15 of the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new section thereto, concerning equal rights for men and women.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Article 15 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is amended by adding a new section thereto to read as follows:

"§ 17. Equal rights. Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the state or any of its political or taxing subdivisions on account of sex."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

- "Explanatory statement. There is currently no constitutional provision specifically addressing equal rights of men and women. There are laws that prohibit discrimination in employment, housing and wages based on sex.
- "A vote for this proposition would amend the Kansas constitution to incorporate into it the prohibition of discrimination based on sex. The proposed constitutional amendment would prohibit the state or any of its political or taxing subdivisions from enacting laws discriminating against men or women based on sex.

"A vote against this proposition would not amend the constitution, in which case the current laws would remain unchanged but could be amended by future acts of the legislature or its political or taxing subdivisions or modified by judicial interpretation."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. Journal of the Senate

SEVENTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Wednesday, February 4, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present. Senator Wysong was excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I want to thank You for the book of Proverbs. Especially for some of my favorites: The man of integrity walks securely, but he who takes crooked paths will be found out.

When words are many, sin is not absent, but he who holds his tongue is wise. The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity.

For lack of guidance a nation falls, but many advisors make victory sure. One man gives freely, yet gains even more; another withholds unduly, but comes to poverty.

The Lord detests lying lips, but He delights in men who are truthful. He who walks with the wise grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm. A simple man believes anything, but a prudent man gives thought to his steps.

A patient man has great understanding, but a quick-tempered man displays folly. Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people.

I thank You in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

EIGHTEENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, February 5, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Today, I'm attempting to put myself in the place of a Senator.

I told my constituents, Lord, I would try to make a difference; I said I would do my best And serve them with all diligence.

But sometimes they forget, O God, I've only one of forty votes. So even if I vote their way, The bill just may not float.

Even if it passes, The House must also pass it; Which is another obstacle Considering this facet.

Besides, the Governor has the right To veto any bill Which makes it more possible That it will be killed.

If the veto is overridden It can still experience defeat, Being declared unconstitutional By the Court across the street.

However, I believe You helped me, Lord, To get here in the Senate, So I trust that You will help me To make a difference in it! I ask this in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senator V. Schmidt introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1811-

A RESOLUTION encouraging participation in the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women campaign.

WHEREAS, Friday, February 6, has been designated "National Wear Red Day for Women" by the American Heart Association, and this event is part of the Go Red for Women campaign, the American Heart Association's national call to increase awareness about heart disease, the leading cause of death for women, and that this movement celebrates the energy, passion and power women have to take charge of their heart health in order to live stronger, longer lives; and

WHEREAS, The color red and the red dress symbol have become linked with the ability all women have to improve their heart health, and the American Heart Association is encouraging everyone to wear red on February 6 in support of all women who have experienced heart disease or stroke; and

WHEREAS, Diseases of the heart are the nation's leading cause of death and stroke is the third leading cause of death. In 2007, heart disease killed 5,727 Kansans, and more women die of cardiovascular disease than the next five leading causes of death combined, including all cancers; and

WHEREAS, Increasing women's awareness of heart disease through this program is important because only 21% of women consider cardiovascular disease their greatest health risk. This lack of urgency about women's heart health contributes to the death of over 460,000 American females each year, with over 11 females a day dying from heart disease and stroke in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Many of the risk factors that can lead to heart disease, such as high blood pressure, high blood cholesterol and diabetes, can be controlled or prevented. Research has shown that men and women who lead healthy lifestyles, including making healthy food choices, getting regular exercise, maintaining a healthy weight and choosing not to smoke, can significantly decrease their risk of heart disease; and

WHEREAS, February is designated as American Heart Month, and women who contact the American Heart Association will be provided with information to learn their own personal risk for heart disease, using tools such as the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women Heart Checkup and by talking to their healthcare provider and obtaining information regarding free lifestyle programs to improve their health: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we support the efforts of the American Heart Association in reducing women's heart health problems and urge individual participation in the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women campaign; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to Linda J. De Coursey, American Heart Association, 5375 SW 7th Street, Topeka, KS, 66606.

On emergency motion of Senator V. Schmidt SR 1811 was adopted unanimously.

TWENTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Monday, February 9, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Some time ago I prayed about how You considered love the most important virtue. LOVE is the first fruit of the Spirit the apostle Paul lists in his letter to the Galatians. The second fruit of the Spirit is JOY. (Ephes.5:22)

James said in his New Testament letter, "When you experience many trials, Count them all as joy, And face them with a smile." (1:2)

When I first read that, Lord, I almost replied, "You surely must be kidding," Until James clarified.....

The testing of our faith Leads to maturity, (1:3-4) And maturity's what we need To gain security.

And surely in this session We have to spend a while Dealing with some issues Which qualify as trials!

Lord, thank you for assuring us As we endure our trials, They contribute to maturity, And hopefully help us smile.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Quite frequently we hear a Senator say, "I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended" and some resolution be passed.

I would like to be able to move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended and each of the ten commandments be obeyed.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one shall have any other gods before You.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one shall worship any hand made image.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one will misuse the name of God.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that everyone will keep the Sabbath Day holy.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that everyone will honor their parents.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one shall commit murder.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one will commit adultery.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one shall steal.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one gives false testimony against their neighbor.

I move that an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that no one covets anything belonging to their neighbors.

Most of all, I move an emergency be declared, the rules suspended, and that everyone obey the two greatest commandments: You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your mind, with all your strength, and with all your soul, and love your neighbor as yourself.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Wednesday, February 11, 2009—4:00 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.

The roll was called with forty senators present.

Vice President Vratil introduced as guest chaplain, Rev. Leon Parker, First Baptist Church of Lyndon, who delivered the invocation:

Almighty God,

It is my prayer to you today that each member of this decision making body will recognize your presence in this place.

When there are issues to be determined and decided and the lines are unclear, I pray that your wisdom will be searched out and that you will make your desire and will very plain to those who seek it.

We are thankful for the men and women who serve us in this state where so many frustrating issues regularly come before them. As we thank them for their leadership and commitment, we thank you for your guidance. May they not lean to their own understanding but to your might and leadership to them. Lead our leaders through the fields of uncertainty and difficulty to places of greater understanding and peace of mind in their decisions.

Please hear our prayer and be gracious to our plea. We serve in each of our positions to bring honor and glory to your name. May we know how best to do that.

It is in the name of Jesus Christ that I pray. Amen

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, February 12, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present. Senator Donovan was excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon: Heavenly Father, This day is the 200th birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln who is on top, or near the top, of the list of great American Presidents. And yet, while President, he was vilified probably more than any of our Presidents. Here are just a few of the worst remarks he had to endure: "Vain, weak, hypocritical" His call for troops was denounced as "illegal, inhuman, diabolical" "Idiot, baboon" "Some leaders would be glad to find him hanging from the post in front of the White House." "Gorilla" "Feeble, cowardly, shameful." "No hope for the country except the death of the President and a new administration." "Both conservatives and radicals agreed that Lincoln was a failure as a President" "Tenfold a greater traitor to his country than any southern rebel." You know, O God, that I took each of these quotes from a reliable biography of Lincoln. These are just a few of the vilifications aimed at a man now considered to be one of our greatest presidents. We know that Lincoln often consulted You for wisdom. We thank You for leading him through the bitter criticisms to become the man who issued the Emancipation Proclamation and, among many other accomplishments, left us the Gettysburg Address.

I pray this in the Name of Jesus Christ.

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1819-

A RESOLUTION commemorating the bicentennial of President Abraham Lincoln's birth. WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809, in Hardin County, Kentucky, to Thomas Lincoln and Nancy Hanks, in a one-room log cabin, making him the first president born outside the original Thirteen Colonies; in 1816, the Lincoln family was forced to move due to economic hardship to Perry County, Indiana, where his mother died when he was nine years old; in 1830, after more economic difficulties, the family settled on public land in Macon County, Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Lincoln began his political career in 1832, at age 23, with an unsuccessful campaign for the Illinois House of Representatives, as a member of the Whig Party; in 1834, he won election to the Illinois House, where he served four consecutive terms and was admitted to the bar in 1836; two years later, he made his first protest against slavery, stating that the institution was "founded on both injustice and bad policy." On November 4, 1842, Lincoln married Mary Todd in Springfield, Illinois, and they had four sons, only one of which, Robert Todd Lincoln, survived into adulthood; and

WHEREAS, In 1846, Lincoln was elected to one term in the U.S. House of Representatives after which he returned to Springfield to resume his law practice, which involved extensive travel on horseback from county to county. As a lawyer, he earned the nickname "Honest Abe" because he refused cases he could not conscientiously defend. Opposed to the 1854 Kansas-Nebraska Act, Lincoln's re-entry into public life came when he gave a speech to a crowd in Peoria, Illinois, outlining his moral, political and economic arguments against slavery that he would continue to uphold throughout his career; and

WHEREAS, In the 1856 election, Lincoln was instrumental in forming the new Republican Party and, in 1858, he accepted the Republican nomination for U.S. Senate and delivered his famous speech, "A house divided against itself cannot stand. I believe this government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free." His opponent was Illinois Democrat Stephen A. Douglas and the campaign featured the Lincoln-Douglas debates; while Lincoln lost the election, his speeches in these debates transformed him into a national political figure; and

WHEREAS, In 1860, Abraham Lincoln was nominated as the Republican Party's candidate for President and on November 6, 1860, he defeated his rival Douglas, among others, and was elected 16th President of the United States and the first President elected from Illinois. On February 22, 1861, President-elect Lincoln, visiting Independence Hall in Philadelphia en route to his inauguration, raised a new American flag containing 34 stars after the admission of Kansas as the 34th state less than one month before, on January 29, 1861; and

WHEREAS, On December 20, 1860, South Carolina seceded from the Union and was followed by ten other southern states; the eleven states declared themselves to be a new nation, the Confederate States of America. At Lincoln's inauguration on March 4, 1861, a sizeable garrison of federal troops was present, ready to protect the capital from Confederate invasion; and

WHEREAS, President Lincoln's tenure in office was occupied primarily with the defeat of the Confederate States of America in the nation's Civil War and he closely supervised the war effort, especially the selection of top generals. He was also successful in uniting the factions of the Republican Party, bringing leaders of each faction into his cabinet and forcing them to cooperate. He introduced measures that resulted in the abolition of slavery, issuing his Emancipation Proclamation in 1863 and promoting the passage of the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution, which passed Congress before his death and was ratified by the states later in 1865; and

WHEREAS, The Battle of Gettysburg was a Union victory, it was also the bloodiest battle of the Civil War causing massive casualties to the Union Army. On November 19, 1863, at Soldiers' National Cemetery in Gettysburg, Lincoln delivered brief remarks not only to dedicate the grounds of the cemetery, but also to consecrate the living in the struggle "that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth;" and

WHEREAS, In 1864, the National Union Convention nominated Lincoln for President and Andrew Johnson, a Democrat from Tennessee, for Vice President in order to broaden the war coalition. They ran on the Union Party ticket, uniting Republicans and pro-Union Democrats, and easily won the 1864 election in a landslide. In his second inaugural address on March 4, 1864, President Lincoln said, "Fondly do we hope, fervently do we pray, that this mighty scourge of war may speedily pass away;" and

WHEREAS, On April 9, 1865, after four years of Civil War, an estimated 630,000 deaths and over 1 million casualties, General Robert E. Lee surrendered the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia to General Ulysses S. Grant, in the town of Appomattox Court House, Virginia. President Lincoln gave instructions to "Let them down easy;" and

WHEREAS, On April 14, 1865, while attending the play Our American Cousin at Washington's Ford Theater, President Lincoln was shot by John Wilkes Booth and never regained consciousness. He died on April 15, 1865. At Lincoln's death, Secretary of War Edwin Stanton remarked, "Now he belongs to the ages. There lies the most perfect ruler of men the world has ever seen." Lincoln was the first President to be assassinated or to lie in state and his body was carried by train in a grand funeral procession through several states on its way home to Illinois, which later adopted as its state nickname Land of Lincoln; and

WHEREAS, Historians have ranked Abraham Lincoln one of the greatest Presidents in our nation's history. Inscribed on the Lincoln Memorial are the words: "In this temple, as in the hearts of the people for whom he saved the Union, the memory of Abraham Lincoln is enshrined forever." Beneath these words, the 16th President—the Great Emancipator and preserver of the nation during its greatest crisis—sits immortalized in marble: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate February 12, 2009, as the bicentennial of the birth of President Abraham Lincoln; and

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: In an economic downturn, all budgets are difficult, no matter whether we are talking for a family, a business, or the state. The 09 budget before us is no different. There is, in this recession budget, something for everyone to hate.

I am glad to see that monies remain for WCGME, for Physical Disabilities, and further there is inclusion of a rolling waiting list. There are monies for DOC to allow WCF to stay as a viable entity.

I'm glad to see that schools don't have a $127 cut. Unfortunately the Senate budget of $33 cut went to a $66 cut in BSAPP. That will be exceptionally difficult in the last 3-4 months of this fiscal year when most of the contracts are already mostly fulfilled. Therefore, most of the labor cuts will be for cooks, janitors and paraprofessionals.

Further, we have no knowledge of how much, when or even if a Federal Stimulus bill will be available. We cannot and should not rely on any proposed Stimulus bill.

I have no doubt that the 2010 budget will have to be cut 10% or even 15%. But for 09, this is too much.

Having said this, I vote Nay.—STEVE ABRAMS

Senator Ostmeyer requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Abrams on House Sub for Senate Sub 23.

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on the conference committee report on House Sub for Senate Sub 23.

This lopsided compromise will strike a devastating blow to Kansas school districts, forcing draconian cuts and unfair choices during the waning months of the current school year.

Ironically, while slashing funds for our K-12 school children, the report allowed an entity of the Kansas Board of Regents to circumvent the budget process, ask for and receive nearly $3 million in new funding for graduate medical education. While educating Kansas doctors is important, it is unjust to increase funding for one program while asking other equallyimportant programs to do more with less.

While the bipartisan budget plan approved by the Senate was based on tough choices, it strived to keep the promise we made to our children for school funding. Now, in just the third year, this conference committee report will effectively reverse our obligation to the children of Kansas in an incredibly irresponsible manner.—LAURA KELLY

Senators Hensley and Lee request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Kelly on House Sub for Senate Sub 23.

MR. PRESIDENT: In spite of the disparity of the issue of providing $2.9 million to the WCGME program and not reducing the Base Aid reduction below the $66 per student level I will vote AYE on both Bills 161 & 23. WCGME is a very worthwhile program, but not at the expense of the Base Aid per student funding.—BOB MARSHALL

MR. PRESIDENT: This is not the bill that I want to support. The cuts to education are more than what the schools in my district can afford and still maintain a quality education. Because of their size they are already functioning as highly efficient schools. These cuts will no longer allow my schools to be efficient and effective but will harm the very programs that are so badly needed by these students. However, my fear is that if this bill doesn't pass the consequences of future negotiations will hurt my schools more. The longer we take the less time schools will have to face the cuts they will eventually have to make. So, Mr. President, it is time to do what is right and not what I want. Therefore, I vote yes.—RUTH TEICHMAN

On motion of Senator D. Schmidt the Senate adjourned until 8:00 a.m., Friday, February 13, 2009.

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Friday, February 13, 2009—8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-five senators present. Senators Barnett, Colyer, Donovan, Lynn and Masterson were excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Seldom does Friday the 13th fall between Lincoln's birthday anniversary and Valentine's day. We have three days I call the trilogy of three L's: Lincoln, luck and love. I prayed about Lincoln yesterday. Today, O God, I want to contrast the luck of Friday 13th to the love of Valentine's day.

Luck involves superstition. Love should involve the Supernatural. Superstition deals with black cats. The Supernatural deals with golden moments. Black cats deal with fear. Golden moments deal with cheer. Fear produces nightmares. Cheer produces sweet dreams. Nightmares produce more fear. Sweet dreams produce peace. People who live by luck usually live in fear. People in love with You, O God, live in peace.

And for that we are most thankful.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: Comments were made that indicated that those who oppose this bill don't care about the health of citizens, or are in the pocket of big tobacco.

I would suggest there is another reason.

Is it desirable to protect all of the state's citizens from those vices that have a negative impact on themselves or other citizens?

Is smoking the only individual right that some people choose to engage in even when they know it's to their detriment and even knowing that it might have a negative impact on others around them? How about gambling, or drinking alcohol?

So, the question becomes, does the force of government require every individual who enjoys a vice that is legal to then submit to having their rights subsumed within the concept of "the state knows what is best."

Just as there are already many laws regarding cigarettes, there are many laws concerned with the use of alcohol and regulating gambling. Should we continue to try and regulate them out of existence?

The State cannot, nor should it be in the business of infringing on the rights of its citizens, even when those rights are counterproductive to good health and well being of that same citizen.—STEVE E. ABRAMS

Senator Ostmeyer requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Abrams on SB 25.

MR. PRESIDENT: This vote reminds me of the child who says he may be sitting down on the outside but he is standing up on the inside. I vote yes for the health of Kansans. However, to exempt casinos is wrong.

Additionally, honey attracts more support than the sharp words of the bill's author. I vote yes on SB 25.—KARIN BROWNLEE

MR. PRESIDENT: Like most of my constituents, I support a statewide smoking ban in public places. My community has made a similar decision on the local level which improved our quality of life.

Clearly the health impact of smoking on Kansans is severe. The data that smoking harms every Kansan exposed to it is overwhelming. I see this on a daily basis in my medical practice. It is a clear safety concern and has economic consequences.

This bill is imperfect and does not have the right balance. There has been hypocrisy from many sides. I am particularly troubled that this body has exempted state-owned businesses for economic reasons while denying private businesses—with which the state competes—the same consideration.

The debate has not been civil and less senatorial than Kansans expect from us. I believe the tone of the debate probably cost this body from coming up with a balance that would be supported by the vast majority of Kansans.

I hope we can work together with our colleagues in the House to find resolution to an issue that affects all Kansans.—JEFF COLYER

MR. PRESIDENT: I do have a strong belief in smaller government with an emphasis on personal and local control. There are compelling arguments on both sides so I must choose what I believe is the right thing to do for my district and for the entire state. As a former healthcare marketing director, my vote today is for the health of Kansan's and a commitment to public health for our citizens. My constituents expressed their support of a statewide indoor clean air act. We have reached a tipping point within our state and the citizens of Kansas have tipped towards the fact that this is a public health issue that concerns everyone. I am proud of the leadership my district took by enacting their own ordinances. This bill reflects a commitment to public health and will strengthen our initiative to receive the National Cancer Institute designation. This is testimony to our progressive and innovative policy on behalf of all the citizens of Kansas. So I vote yes to a healthy Kansas, yes to public health, and yes to SB 25. Thank you, Mr. President.—JULIA LYNN

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote NO. Yesterday, out of one side of the mouth, it was stated that if I disagreed with SB 25 as it stood I was "in the pocket of big tobacco" and against health, yet out of the other side of the mouth voted to exempt "our" business, casinos, from the bill. I oppose this bill, not because I am in the pocket of tobacco, but because I am in the pocket of the people. How dare we openly recognize the negative effects of this bill by exempting our "state owned" business, but not consider the livelihood of our constituents who sent us here. I am not opposed to any kind of smoking ban, just this hypocritical one we have before us today.—TY MASTERSON

Senator Ostmeyer requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Masterson on SB 25.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Wednesday, February 18, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

There is no doubt that we are caught in a serious dilemma. The whole country is.

There is an old saying that "When the going gets tough, the tough get going." That's probably true, O God, but going where?

Abraham Lincoln was caught in perhaps the worst situation any American President has ever experienced. At least North Kansas and South Kansas are not involved in a bloody war!

But to answer the question "Where do we go when the going gets tough?" I would like to remind myself and the Senate of a confession President Lincoln made, "I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere to go but prayer. My own wisdom and that of all about me seemed insufficient for the day." O God, I earnestly pray that no one in the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of our state government will ever consider You irrelevant in times like these.

It's obvious "honest Abe" did not.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby return House Substitute for Substitute for Senate Bill No. 23 with my signature approving the bill, except for the items enumerated below.

With these line-item vetoes and accompanying allotments, the total reduction in the Fiscal Year 2009 budget, passed by the Legislature, will be $300 million. These cuts were achieved through a strategic and responsible approach to successfully meet the budget challenges we face as a state in these difficult economic times.

I have already proposed a balanced budget for Fiscal Year 2010, and it is now time for the Legislature to turn its focus to the future, and join me in developing shared solutions to overcome the even greater challenges that lie ahead.

Department of Administration

KPERS Debt Service

Section 37 (t) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

Although the Legislature recognized the budgetary savings arising from restructuring several bond issuances, the restructuring of the KPERS bond cannot occur until approved by the State Finance Council. Since a meeting of the Council scheduled to discuss this issue did not occur, that approval has not yet been given. For this reason, I find it necessary to veto this portion of the bill that lapses the debt service. This will ensure the monies remain in the Department's budget so that the state does not fail to meet its obligations to make debt service payments.

Department of Education

Reductions to Schools

Section 53 (a) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

Section 53 (b) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

Drastically reducing state aid to schools, with only three months left in the school year, leaves children, parents and teachers in a needless financial predicament. Similarly, reducing funding for special education services in the middle of the school year is pointlessly punitive to those students in need of additional assistance. The state also must preserve special education funding to ensure we can access federal stimulus funds requiring maintenance of effort in special education spending at the state level.

Through allotment authority, I intend to follow the lead of the bipartisan efforts in the Legislature to reduce school funding by only $33 per pupil, instead of the more severe $66 per pupil as agreed to in conference committee on SB 23.

University of Kansas Medical Center

Wichita Center for Graduate Medical Education

Section 66 (e) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

The revised fiscal year 2009 budget already includes $2.5 million in additional funding for the Wichita Center for Graduate Medical Education. I will be asking the Kansas Board of Regents to make a full and comprehensive recommendation for WCGME funding in the FY 2010 budget and look forward to working with the Legislature to act on their proposal.

Health Care Stabilization Fund

Transfer Limitation

Section 86 (b) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

With this veto and accompanying allotment, I am restoring my original budget recommendations to limit transfers to the Heath Care Stabilization Fund, helping to preserve State General Fund balances.

Kansas Bioscience Authority

Transfer Limitation

Section 86 (h) has been line-item vetoed in its entirety.

With this veto and accompanying allotment, I am restoring my original budget recommendations to limit transfers to the Kansas Bioscience Authority, helping to preserve State General Fund balances.

Approved: February 17, 2009

Signed: Kathleen Sebelius

Senators Huelskamp, Abrams, Apple, Barnett, Brownlee, Bruce, Brungardt, Donovan, Emler, Kelsey, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Morris, Ostmeyer, Owens, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, D. Schmidt, Taddiken, Teichman, Umbarger, Vratil and Wagle introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1828-

A RESOLUTION urging the Kansas Congressional Delegation to oppose legislation that disenfranchises workers by removing their right to a private ballot union election.

WHEREAS, The right to a private, secret ballot when voting on external representation is fundamentally inherent in our representative Republic and shall not be infringed upon; and

WHEREAS, Passing the Employee Free Choice Act (EFCA; H.R. 800/S. 1041 as introduced in the 110th Congress) will replace a federally supervised private ballot election with a system that facilitates coercion and intimidation, known as "card check", whereby employees publically sign cards to vote for unionization; and

WHEREAS, 79% of the American people support a worker's right to a federally supervised secret ballot election when deciding whether or not to join a union; and

WHEREAS, Agreement in opposition to the EFCA is overwhelming; with 77% of Republicans, 82% of Democrats and 79% of independents believing in protecting private ballots; and

WHEREAS, In July 2002, before a United States House of Representatives subcommittee, a union employee testified that those who would not vote for a union in a public "card check" program were threatened with termination, deportation and loss of 401(k) and health benefits; and

FEBRUARY 18, 2009

WHEREAS, Chairman of the United States House of Representatives Education and Labor Committee, Representative Miller (D-CA), a staunch supporter of the American "card check" bill, sent a letter to Mexican government officials which stated, "... we feel that the private ballot is absolutely necessary in order to ensure workers are not intimidated into voting for a union they may otherwise not choose."; and

WHEREAS, The Employee Free Choice Act's mandatory binding arbitration provisions deny workers the right to participate in the collective bargaining process between employees and the union: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we find so-called "card check" legislation such as the Employee Free Choice Act to be detrimental to the rights of workers and an offence against democratic principles and that we urge all the members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation to support worker freedom by opposing the EFCA and any of its components in 2009 and in future years; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

(4) The project presents significant phasing or technical complexities, or both, requiring the use of an integrated team of designers and constructors to solve project challenges during the design or preconstruction phase.

(5) The use of an alternative project delivery method will not encourage favoritism in awarding the public contract or substantially diminish competition for the public contract.

(e) When a request is made for alternative delivery procurement by a state educational institution, the institution on behalf of the state board shall publish a notice in the Kansas register that the procurement committee will be holding a public hearing with the opportunity for comment on such request. Notice shall be published at least 15 days prior to the hearing.

(g) When it is necessary in the judgment of an institution to obtain project services for a particular project as described under this act, the institution shall publish a notice of the request for qualifications and proposals for the required project services at least 15 days prior to the commencement of such request in the Kansas register in accordance with K.S.A. 75-430a, and amendments thereto, and in such other appropriate manner as may be determined by the institution.

(b) Prior to completion of the construction documents, but as early as during the schematic design phase, the construction manager or general contractor shall be selected. The project design professional may be employed or retained by the institution to assist in the selection process.

(c) The institution shall publish a notice of the request for qualifications and proposals for the required project services at least 15 days prior to the commencement of such requests in the Kansas register in accordance with K.S.A. 75-430a, and amendments thereto, and in such other appropriate manner as may be determined by the institution.

(d) The state board shall solicit proposals in a three stage qualifications based selection process. Phase I shall be the solicitation of qualifications and prequalifying a minimum of three but no more than five construction managers or general contractors to advance to phase II. Phase II shall be the solicitation of a request for proposal for the project, and phase III shall include an interview with each proposer to present their qualifications and answer questions.

(1) Phase I shall require all proposers to submit a statement of qualifications which shall include, but not be limited to:

(A) Similar project experience;

(B) experience in this type of project delivery system;

(C) references from design professionals and owners from previous projects;

(D) description of the construction manager's or general contractor's project management approach;

(E) financial statements; and

(F) bonding capacity.

Firms submitting a statement of qualifications shall be capable of providing a public works bond in accordance with K.S.A. 60-1111, and amendments thereto, and shall present evidence of such bonding capacity to the procurement committee with their statement of qualifications. If a firm fails to present such evidence, such firm shall be deemed unqualified for selection under this subsection.

(2) The procurement committee shall evaluate the qualifications of all proposers in accordance with the instructions of the request for qualifications. The procurement committee shall prepare a short list containing a minimum of three and maximum of five qualified firms, which have the best and most relevant qualifications to perform the services required of the project, to participate in phase II of the selection process. If three qualified proposers cannot be identified, the selection process shall cease. The procurement committee shall have discretion to disqualify any proposer that, in the procurement committee's opinion, lacks the minimal qualifications required to perform the work.

(3) Phase II of the process shall be conducted as follows:

(A) Prequalified firms selected in phase I shall be given a request for proposal. The request for proposal shall require all proposers to submit a more in depth response including, but not be limited to:

(i) Company overview;

(ii) experience or references, or both, relative to the project under question;

(iii) resumes of proposed project personnel;

(iv) overview of preconstruction services;

(v) overview of construction planning;

(vi) proposed safety plan;

(vii) fees, including fees for preconstruction services, fees for general conditions, fees for overhead and profit and fees for self-performed work, if any.

(4) Phase III shall be conducted as follows:

(A) (i) Once all proposals have been submitted, a negotiating committee shall interview all of the proposers, allowing the competing firms to present their proposed team members, qualifications and project plan and to answer questions. Interview scores shall not account for more than 50% of the total possible score.

(ii) A negotiating committee shall be composed of the head of the institution for which the proposed construction project is planned, or a person designated by the head of the institution, and two other persons designated by the head of the institution for which the proposed project is planned.

(B) The negotiating committee shall select the firm providing the best value based on the proposal criteria and weighting factors utilized to emphasize important elements of each project. All scoring criteria and weighting factors shall be identified by the institution in the request for proposal instructions to proposers. The negotiating committee shall proceed to negotiate with and attempt to enter into a contract with the firm receiving the best total score to serve as the construction manager or general contractor for the project. If the negotiating committee be unable to negotiate a satisfactory contract with the firm scoring the best total score, negotiations with that firm shall be terminated, and the committee shall undertake negotiations with the firm with the next best total score, in accordance with this section.

(C) If the negotiating committee determines that it is not in the best interest of the institution to proceed with the project pursuant to the proposals offered, the negotiating committee shall reject all proposals. If all proposals are rejected, the state board may solicit new proposals using different design criteria, budget constraints or qualifications.

(D) The contract to perform construction management at-risk services for a project shall be prepared by the institution and entered into between the institution and the firm performing such construction management at-risk services. A construction management at-risk contract utilizing a cost plus guaranteed maximum price contract value shall return all savings under the guaranteed maximum price to the institution.

(E) The institution shall publish a construction services bid notice in the Kansas register and in such other appropriate manner for the construction manager or general contractor as may be determined by the institution. Each construction services bid notice shall include the request for bids and other bidding information prepared by the construction manager or general contractor and the institution. The institution may allow the construction manager or general contractor to self-perform construction services provided the construction manager or general contractor submits a bid proposal under the same conditions as all other competing firms. If a firm submitting a bid proposal fails to present such evidence, such firm shall be deemed unqualified for selection under this subsection. At the time for opening the bids, the construction manager or general contractor shall evaluate the bids and shall determine the lowest responsible bidder except in the case of self-performed work for which the institution shall determine the lowest responsible bidder. The construction manager or general contractor shall enter into a contract with each firm performing the construction services for the project and make a public announcement of each firm selected in accordance with this subsection.

Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, February 19, 2009—10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Too often we discover Legislators are maligned Too often by the people They expected to be kind.

No doubt there are occasions When some have said or done Things which they should not Have done to anyone.

When we happen to be the victim Of an unprovoked attack, What course are we to take? How should we react?

The apostle Paul told us To forgive them what they've done; Just as God's forgiven us, Forgive the guilty one.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

It is my sincerest belief that the people of Kansas have entrusted to the legislative branch the exclusive power to appropriate the people's money.

Senate Bill 134 represents an attempt to diminish and erode this body's authority by permitting the judicial branch to raise and appropriate state funds as it sees fit.

Rather than forfeit our responsibilities, this body should make the conscious and necessary decision to properly fund the third branch of government at such a level as to allow for justice to be realized by our constituents.

The appropriate remedy for a decrease made to the court's budget from SGF dollars should be a supplementation by docket fee funds set at a level the legislature alone sees fit. —TERRY BRUCE Senators Abrams, Brownlee, Colyer, Huelskamp, Kelsey, Masterson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Taddiken and Wagle request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Bruce on SB 134.

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote yes on SB 134. It is wrong for us in the legislature to treat a coequal branch of government as just another "agency." This is about a separation of powers. When we as the Legislative Branch fail to adequately fund another branch we put on the backs of that branch's workers our failure, thereby rendering them unable to perform the vital function of a co-equal branch and deprive the citizens of our state access on a timely basis to judicial redress.

The "Emergency Surcharge" sought by the Judicial Branch is required and for the Legislative Branch to continue to revisit its disagreement with the court over the "School finance formula" decision is just wrong! This is not about teaching the court a civics lesson. A vote against SB 134 would be a more egregious violation of the constitutional separation of powers than any accusations directed against the courts in the school finance debate. Mr. President, I vote yes.—THOMAS C. OWENS

(3) "Video recording" means to capture the visual and audio components of an event in a manner that allows the event to be observed through that medium.

(b) (1) Effective July 1, 2009, except as provided in subsection (c), if a place of detention is equipped with one or more rooms capable of making a video recording, a video recording shall be made of a custodial interrogation conducted in such place of detention when the interrogation concerns an off-grid felony, a nondrug severity level 1 through 5 felony or a drug severity level 1 felony crime. The recording shall include the advice of rights. The recording shall not end until the interrogation is concluded. If the defendant elects to make or sign a written statement during the course of a custodial interrogation, the making and signing of the writing shall be recorded.

(2) Effective July 1, 2010, except as provided in subsection (c), a video recording shall be made of a custodial interrogation conducted in any place of detention when the interrogation concerns an off-grid felony, a nondrug severity level 1 through 5 felony or a drug severity level 1 felony crime. The recording shall include the advice of rights. The recording shall not end until the interrogation is concluded. If the defendant elects to make or sign a written statement during the course of a custodial interrogation, the making and signing of the writing shall be recorded.

(c) A video recording of a statement under subsection (b) is not required if the oral, written or sign language statement was made:

(1) During an interrogation that was not recorded as required by subsection (b) because video recording was not feasible;

(2) spontaneously and not in response to a question;

(6) at a time when the interrogators are unaware that an offense covered by subsection (b) has occurred; or

(7) at a time when the person being interrogated is not a suspect for the offense to which the statement relates while the person is being interrogated for an offense other than an offense specified in subsection (b).

(d) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant was subjected to an interrogation in violation of this section, the defendant shall be entitled to a jury instruction on the failure to record the interrogation. If the defendant requests such an instruction, the court shall instruct the jury that it is the law of Kansas to make a video recording of a custodial interrogation of a person suspected of committing the offense charged and because of the absence of any recording of the interrogation in the case before them, they should weigh evidence of the defendant's alleged statement with great caution and care.

(e) Every video recording required under this section shall be preserved until the defendant's conviction for an offense relating to the statement is final and all direct and habeas corpus appeals are exhausted, or until the prosecution of offenses related to the recorded statement is barred by law, whichever occurs later.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: If you want to transfer income to the working poor, there are fairer and better ways to do it. The state minimum wage affects only a small number of Kansans mostly teenagers. A better way is the federal Earned Income Tax Credit which gives monthly payments to the neediest American families without concentrating the burden on just a few businesses. These issues are better addressed at the federal level.—JEFF COLYER

Senator Lynn requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Colver on SB 160.

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote yes on Senate Bill 160 to bring Kansas' $2.65 minimum wage in line with the federal minimum wage. This bill would provide true and immediate relief to the estimated 17,000 Kansans currently earning less than the federal minimum wage.

Kansans value work, but that value is not reflected in a state minimum wage that is the lowest in the nation, out of line with our neighboring states, and lower than rates in the US Territories of Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The time is right for the legislature to make this change because paying decent wages has positive economic benefits across the board: for the workers who can better provide food and shelter for themselves and their families, for the merchants who receive the dollars those workers spend, and for the employers who may save money through reduced employee turnover and a more productive workforce.

I am pleased that we are taking this significant step to protect and value our workers that is long overdue.—MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Hensley, Kelly and Kultala request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on SB 160.

SB 162, An act concerning school districts; relating to disability history and awareness. On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 39, Nays 0, Present and Passing 1, Absent or Not Voting 0.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: History of the Haley family as chronicled by my late uncle Alex Haley in "ROOTS", an America saga tells of my fore father son of a white farm owner and black slave, he was born a slave, considered a "property" of his father and the farm; merely % of a human being. This man, though a slave, became so proficient at the art of breeding and training gamecocks or "roosters" at fighting that throughout the state folks who heard of his extraordinary ability at winning cockfights called him, simply, "Chicken George". Chicken George had a winning record by all accounts that would put most professional sports franchises to shame. Before the NFL, the NBA, the NHL or MLB existed in this country, many Americans entertained themselves with the new archaic and definitely barbaric "sport" of "cockfighting." And Chicken George's father-master gave his son-slave money from the gambling; the "pot" the winnings that he earned in his craft. What did the slave-son do when he could? Gave this money back to his master-father in

What did the slave-son do when he could? Gave this money back to his master-father in order to buy his freedom; his liberty first and then the liberty and freedom of his wife. Now, no one in this Legislature has a greater affiliation with the enhancement of penalties for extreme animal cruelty than David Haley. None of you nor anyone in the House can take that from my legacy in Kansas. But I vote "NO" today because the generations of freedom that my family has enjoyed in this country at largely in part to gamecock fighting, ironically.

Since David Haley is a product of a stable foundation generations old, Senator David Haley can not vote for a bill which outlaws that which long ago made me free. Most folks may call him "Chicken George" if he were alive today, I would have to call him "great-great-great-great grandpa." So symbolically, I VOTE "NO" on SB 238.—DAVID HALEY

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Wednesday, February 25, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present. Senator Wysong was excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Last Sunday was the 277th anniversary of the first president of our nation, George Washington.

I was so impressed with what President Calvin Coolidge said to the 69th Congress on February 22, 1927:

"Washington was the directing spirit without which there would have been no independence, no Union, no Constitution, and no Republic. His ways were the ways of truth. His influence grows. In wisdom of action, in purity of character he stands alone. We cannot yet estimate him. We can only indicate our reverence for him and thank the Divine Providence which sent him to serve and inspire his fellow men."

Lord, all I can do is to add my gratitude and I'm sure the gratitude of this Senate for the way You guided and inspired the man who came to be known as the Father of our Country.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

By Senators Taddiken, Abrams, Barnett, Brownlee, Bruce, Brungardt, Colyer, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Huelskamp, Kelly, Kelsey, Kultala, Lee, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Morris, Ostmeyer, Owens, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Reitz, D. Schmidt, V. Schmidt, Schodorf, Steineger, Teichman, Umbarger, Vratil and Wysong

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the Environmental Protection Agency to authorize the use of higher blends of ethanol in non-flex fuel vehicles.

WHEREAS, Kansas has supported the production and use of ethanol blends for over twenty years, but is approaching an ethanol blend "wall" which will curtail ethanol production in the state; and

WHEREAS, The United States Environmental Protection Agency has not yet approved the use of ethanol blends in excess of ten percent in non-flex fuel vehicles, although the EPA has the ability to approve the use of higher ethanol blends in such vehicles and nonflex fuel vehicles can run safely using blends in excess of E1O; and

WHEREAS, The 2007 Federal Energy Bill requires the increased use of ethanol, a requirement that could be addressed through the use of higher ethanol blends, such as blends up to E20 in non-flex fuel vehicles; and

WHEREAS, Numerous studies have shown favorable emissions data through the use of blends up to E20 in comparison with unleaded gasoline; and

WHEREAS, Authorizing the use of higher blends of ethanol in non-flex fuel vehicles will double or triple the use of American-grown ethanol; and

WHEREAS, Kansas will benefit significantly through the increased production of ethanol and related job creation, in addition to the benefit enjoyed by Kansas drivers and fuel consumers through the use of additional ethanol blends at lower cost and through greater fuel efficiency in some vehicles using ethanol blends; and

WHEREAS, Kansas, as well as the entire country, continues to strive for energy independence and increasing the use of ethanol and other biofuels is one more approach toward self-sufficiency: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That we strongly support and urge the prompt authorization and implementation by the United States Environmental Protection Agency, and other appropriate federal agencies, of the use of higher levels of ethanol blends in non-flex fuel vehicles; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of State is directed to provide an enrolled copy of this resolution to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation and the secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, February 26, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I hear some people say that they don't understand the Bible. It's true that some portions of scripture are not as plain-spoken as others. But I would like to thank You, O God, for instructions that any adult and most children can understand. The book of James is one of those:

Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry. James 1:19b

Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world. James 1:27

As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead. James $2{:}26$

Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers, this should not be. James $3{:}10$

When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your own pleasures. James 4:3

Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Come near to God and He will come near to you. James 4:7b-8a

Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins. James 4:17.

These are just a few of the examples of how You speak clearly to our needs, O God. Help us all to pay attention!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Our Heavenly Father we thank You that You have urged us to come boldly to the throne of grace, that we might obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

As we come to You I pray that we might find each of these things, grace, mercy and help.

We know we need mercy, for in many ways we have all failed before You and for that we ask mercy and forgiveness.

We need grace, for we need Your undeserved favor today.

We need Your help in time of need, for our state and our nation face critical issues and Your help is needed.

I pray for these good men and women assembled here today, for I know they have come here with the earnest desire to serve the people of this state.

I am honored to pray for them and to ask You to bless them and give them the wisdom and courage needed to make wise and sometimes difficult decisions in our behalf.

And so I pray, Father bless them with wisdom, strength and peace today and every day.

In Jesus Name, amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, March 5, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.

President Morris introduced as guest chaplain, Rev. Dr. Donald C. Bakely, United Methodist Church, Kansas City, Kansas, who delivered the invocation:

Lord, it is you who has called us together to serve those who need us. And now we turn to you because we need your guidance. We need your wisdom when our wisdom doesn't stretch as far as it should.

When we look across this room, we see a house full of differences different beliefs, different strengths, different hopes and causes, different pains and different answers.

It is so easy for us to see those differences and to concentrate on the potential conflicts in them. It is easy for us to become trapped by our desire to persuade others to accept our ideas.

Ĥelp us to see these differences as gifts from a loving God, as a warehouse of ideas from which we can shape the answers to the needs of our people. Help us to recognize the enormous strength in this room. Help us to use it to make Kansas strong, wise, and helpful. Give us the wisdom to see the truth, the courage to follow it, and the kindness to ease the pain of those who hurt.

We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

If the senate is not in session and will not be in session within the 30-day time limitation, the president of the senate shall convene the senate for the sole purpose of voting on such appointment and no other action shall be in order during such session. In the event a majority of the senate does not vote to consent to the appointment, the governor may appoint another of the six persons whose names were submitted to the governor pursuant to subsection (a) and such subsequent appointment shall be considered by the senate in the same procedure as provided in this article. If the governor fails to make such subsequent appointment within 15 days after the senate vote on the previous appointee or if all six persons whose names were submitted to the governor pursuant to subsection (a) have been considered by, but did not receive the consent of, the senate, then the chief justice of the supreme court shall make the appointment from such nominees.

The commission may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

- "Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to require persons appointed by the governor or the chief justice to the office of justice of the supreme court to be consented to by the senate. A procedure is established whereby senate consent would occur within 30 days of receiving the appointment. If the senate does not consent by a majority vote, the supreme court nominating commission would submit six more names to the governor. The governor would then select an appointment which would again go to the senate for consent. The same nomination, appointment and consent procedure would be followed until a valid appointment is made. If the senate fails to vote on the appointment within 30 days, it will be considered that the senate has consented to the appointment.
- "A vote for this proposition would provide a procedure whereby the senate, by majority vote, would consent to the appointment, by the governor or chief justice, of supreme court justices.
- "A vote against this proposition would continue in effect the current provision whereby the supreme court nominating commission nominates three persons for the office of the supreme court and the governor appoints one of such persons."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2010 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1613-

- By Senators Wagle, Abrams, Brownlee, Bruce, Colyer, Donovan, Huelskamp, Kelsey, Lynn, Masterson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, D. Schmidt, Steineger and Taddiken
- A PROPOSITION to amend section 24 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas, relating to appropriations.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Kansas, two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives concurring therein:

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 24 of article 2 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 24. Appropriations. No money shall be drawn from the treasury except in pursuance of a specific appropriation made by law. The executive and judicial branches shall have no authority to direct the legislative branch to make any appropriation of money or to redirect the expenditure of funds appropriated by law, except as the legislative branch may provide by law or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

- "Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to clarify that the executive and judicial branches shall not direct the legislative branch to make any appropriation of money or to redirect the expenditures of funds appropriated by law, except as the legislative branch may provide by law or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States.
- "A vote for this amendment would clarify that section 24 of article 2 of the Kansas Constitution provides that neither the judicial branch nor the executive branch can force the legislative branch to appropriate money, except as the legislative branch may provide by law or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States. The amendment would also prohibit the judicial branch from ordering a change in how money is spent after it has been appropriated by the legislative branch, except as the legislative branch may provide by law or as may be required by the Constitution of the United States. If money is appropriated for a particular purpose the judicial branch could not stop that money from being spent for that purpose.
- "A vote against this amendment would provide no change to the Kansas Constitution and the existing order that directs the legislative branch to make an appropriation of money shall remain in effect."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in November in the year 2010 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: SB 275 clarifies that the only method to perfect a security interest in implements of husbandry is by filing a financing statement with the Secretary of State. Since enactment of the titling statutes, all lenders in Kansas and all segments of the agricultural industry have known that implements of husbandry are not required to be titled by law. The Kansas Department of Revenue has never required the titling of implements of husbandry. It would not serve the public interest to interpret the law in any other manner.

This bill will not impair the property rights of any person in Kansas who currently owns a tractor or other implement of husbandry, or a lender who has complied with existing law by perfecting a lien against that implement by filing a UCC financing statement. SB 275 does not change existing law. It clarifies it. I vote aye on SB 275.—MARK TADDIKEN

Senators McGinn, Ostmeyer and Teichman request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Taddiken on SB 275.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: Kansas needs a forward-looking comprehensive energy plan to meet the future needs of our citizens and position us to take advantage of upcoming opportunities rather than tie us to increasing expenditures associated with carbon production. Much of S Sub for Sub HB 2014 is not forward looking, it is not comprehensive, and does not comprise a plan. The bill does not establish a clear and coherent direction for the department of administration with regard to energy efficient performance standards for state owned and leased facilities. The change in the definition of an electric cooperative will allow removal of protections for individual ratepayers. The discussion on the bill started with energy policy but turned into a discussion about the construction of coal plants. This year the Kansas Senate acted to clean up indoor air; we should be doing the same for our outdoor air.— MARCI FRANCISCO

Senator Hensley requests the record to show he concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Francisco on S Sub for Sub HB 2014.

HB 2147, An act regulating traffic; concerning the removal of certain vehicles from highways; amending K.S.A. 8-1603 and 8-1605 and K.S.A. 2008 Supp. 8-2118 and repealing the existing sections.

Heavenly Father,

In two former invocations I thanked You for LOVE and JOY, two fruits of the Spirit. Today I thank You for PEACE, another fruit of the Spirit.

Love is the attitude Which we should express For You and our neighbors, For whom we are blessed.

Joy is celebration For all that You do, And the close relationship We have with You.

Peace is serenity Which we shouldn't think odd, All three are products of one nation under God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, Who trod this sod, And help us remain One nation under God.

When the Holy Spirit Within us dwells, All three fruits Are ours as well.

And for this I thank You in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Journal of the Senate

FORTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Tuesday, March 10, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil. The roll was called with thirty-six senators present. Senators Hensley, Masterson, Morris and Steineger were excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Two of Your most faithful servants in the history of our nation were named Webster: Daniel, for what he spoke.

Noah, for what he wrote.

Daniel served as Secretary of State for three presidents: Harrison, Tyler, and Fillmore. He is considered one of the greatest orators in American history.

I marvel at his prediction of the future of our country. He stated this sometime in the first half of the 19th century: "If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible, our country will go on prospering and to prosper; but if we and our posterity neglect its instructions and authority, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us and bury all our glory in profound obscurity."

Noah was the author of Webster's Dictionary. In 1832 he published his History of the United States of America in which he wrote: "The moral principles and precepts contained in the Scriptures ought to form the basis of all of our civil constitutions and laws... All the miseries and evils which men suffer from vice, crime, ambition, injustice, oppression, slavery and war, proceed from their despising or neglecting the precepts contained in the Bible."

Thank you, Lord, for raising up these two men in the 19th century who understood that obedience to the precepts of the Bible is necessary for a nation to maintain its greatness.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Wednesday, March 11, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

In previous prayers I've dealt with Love and Joy and Peace The fourth fruit of the Spirit Is PATIENCE that won't cease.

In scripture it is used to mean Your attitude, Lord, toward us. You exercise much patience And neither fuss nor "cuss".

The great preacher, Chrysostom, Said it's the grace of a man Who refuses to avenge himself When obviously he can.

One writer says it's persistent patience Which refuses to surrender in defeat, Which continues to keep on trying, Until the victory is complete.

What does patience mean to us Who have a deficit to fill, When compromise is difficult, And progress is uphill?

We must be patient with each other, And debate with some constraint; To be grateful when they're agreeable, And be patient when they ain't!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, March 12, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Should we let the Bible Affect the way we vote? Or should we let its influence Be rare and remain remote?

Our founding fathers did not flinch From using Bible quotes; Whether while debating Or deciding how to vote.

Blackstone's Commentaries set The foundation for legal minds. He was the second most quoted source By the Founders in their time.

Blackstone said the laws of God Should not suffer contradiction, But the law that You revealed, O God, Is Your jurisdiction.

I know, O God, that legislators Will seek help all around. I only pray they'll search Your Word And find what Blackstone found.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

(d) Each grid block states the presumptive sentencing range for an offender whose crime of conviction and criminal history place such offender in that grid block. If an offense is classified in a grid block below the dispositional line, the presumptive disposition shall be nonimprisonment. If an offense is classified in a grid block above the dispositional line, the presumptive disposition shall be imprisonment. If an offense is classified in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I, the court may impose an optional nonprison sentence upon making the following findings on the record:

(1) An appropriate treatment program exists which is likely to be more effective than the presumptive prison term in reducing the risk of offender recidivism; and

(2) the recommended treatment program is available and the offender can be admitted to such program within a reasonable period of time; or

(3) the nonprison sanction will serve community safety interests by promoting offender reformation.

Any decision made by the court regarding the imposition of an optional nonprison sentence if the offense is classified in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(e) The sentence for a second or subsequent conviction of K.S.A. 65-4159 and amendments thereto, manufacture of any controlled substance or controlled substance analog shall be a presumptive term of imprisonment of two times the maximum duration of the presumptive term of imprisonment. The court may impose an optional reduction in such sentence of not to exceed 50% of the mandatory increase provided by this subsection upon making a finding on the record that one or more of the mitigating factors as specified in K.S.A. 21-4716 and amendments thereto justify such a reduction in sentence. Any decision made by the court regarding the reduction in such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(f) (1) The sentence for a third or subsequent felony conviction of K.S.A. 65-4160 or 65-4162, and amendments thereto, shall be a presumptive term of imprisonment and the defendant shall be sentenced to prison as provided by this section. Such term of imprisonment shall be served in a facility designated by the secretary of corrections in the custody of the secretary of corrections to participate in an intensive substance abuse treatment program. The intensive substance abuse treatment program shall be determined by the secretary of such intensive treatment program. The intensive treatment program shall be determined by the secretary of such intensive treatment program, the offender shall be returned to the court and the court may modify the sentence by directing that a less severe penalty be imposed in lieu of that originally adjudged within statutory limits. If the offender's term of imprisonment expires, the offender shall be placed under the applicable period of postrelease supervision.

(2) If the defendant has previously completed a certified drug abuse treatment program, as provided in K.S.A. 2008 Supp. 75-52,144, and amendments thereto, has been discharged or refused to participate in a certified drug abuse treatment program, as provided in K.S.A.

March 12, 2009

2008 Supp. 75-52,144, and amendments thereto, has completed an intensive substance abuse treatment program under paragraph (1) or has been discharged or refused to participate in an intensive substance abuse treatment program under paragraph (1), such defendant's term of imprisonment shall not be subject to modification under paragraph (1).

The sentence under this subsection shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(g) (1) Except as provided further, if an offender carries a firearm to commit a drug felony, or in furtherance of a drug felony, possesses a firearm, in addition to the sentence imposed pursuant to the Kansas sentencing guideline act, the offender shall be sentenced to:

(A) An additional 12 months imprisonment;

(B) if the firearm is brandished, an additional 15 months imprisonment; and

(C) if the firearm is discharged, an additional 24 months imprisonment.

(2) The sentence imposed pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be presumed imprisonment.

(3) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to violations of K.S.A. 65-4152, 65-4160 or 65-4162, and amendments thereto.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the term "brandish" means, with respect to a firearm, to display all or part of the firearm, or otherwise make the presence of the firearm known to another person, in order to intimidate that person, regardless of whether the firearm is directly visible to that person.

Sec. 4. K.S.A. 2008 Supp. 60-4104 is hereby amended to read as follows: 60-4104. Conduct and offenses giving rise to forfeiture under this act, whether or not there is a prosecution or conviction related to the offense, are:

 $(\hat{2})$ The time limitation herein may be extended by the court only upon an additional, affirmative showing of excusable neglect by the defendant.

Sec. 2. K.S.A. 22-3412 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-3412. (a) (1) For crimes committed before July 1, 1993, peremptory challenges shall be allowed as follows:

(A) Each defendant charged with a class A felony shall be allowed 12 peremptory challenges.

(B) Each defendant charged with a class B felony shall be allowed eight peremptory challenges.

(C) \vec{E} ach defendant charged with a felony other than class A or class B felony shall be allowed six peremptory challenges.

(D) Each defendant charged with a misdemeanor shall be allowed three peremptory challenges.

(E) The prosecution shall be allowed the same number of peremptory challenges as all defendants.

(F) The most serious penalty offense charged against each defendant furnishes the criterion for determining the allowed number of peremptory challenges for that defendant.

(G) Additional peremptory challenges shall not be allowed when separate counts are charged in the complaint, information or indictment.

(H) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the provisions of this section shall apply. In applying the provisions of this section, the trial court may determine the number of peremptory challenges to allow by reviewing the classification for the crime charged, or nearest comparable felony, as it was classified under the criminal law in effect prior to July 1, 1993. If the severity level of the most serious crime charged raises the potential penalty above that of another crime which was classified higher under the criminal law in effect prior to July 1, 1993, the defendant shall be allowed the number of peremptory challenges as for that higher classified crime under the prior system.

(I) The trial court shall resolve any conflicts with a liberal construction in favor of allowing the greater number of peremptory challenges.

(b) After the parties have interposed all of their challenges to jurors, or have waived further challenges, the jury shall be sworn to try the case.

(c) Immediately after the jury is empaneled and sworn, A trial judge may empanel one or more alternate or additional jurors whenever, in the judge's discretion, the judge believes it advisable to have such jurors available to replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become or are found to be unable to perform their duties. Such jurors shall be selected in the same manner, have the same qualifications, and be subject to the same examination and challenges and take the same oath and have the same functions, powers and privileges as the regular jurors. Such jurors may be selected at the same time as the regular jurors or after the jury has been empaneled and sworn, in the judge's discretion. Each party shall be entitled to one peremptory challenge to such alternate jurors. Such alternate jurors shall be seated near the other jurors, with equal power and facilities for seeing and hearing the proceedings in the case, and they must attend at all times upon the trial of the cause in company with the other jurors. They shall obey the orders of and be bound by the admonition of the court upon each adjournment, but if the regular jurors are ordered to be kept in custody during the trial of the cause, such alternate jurors also shall be kept in confinement with the other jurors. Upon final submission of the case to the jury, the alternate jurors may be discharged or they may be retained separately and not discharged until the final decision of the jury. If the alternate jurors are not discharged on final submission of the case and if any regular juror shall be discharged from jury service in any such action prior to the jury reaching its verdict, the court shall draw the name of an alternate juror who shall replace the juror so discharged and be subject to the same rules and regulations as though such juror had been selected as one of the original jurors.";

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "AYE", along with a unanimous Senate, on SB 54, which compels the planning and the placing of a mural on one of our newly renovated Capitol walls. The landmark legal case of Brown vs. Board of Education is one of the few items in Americana for which Kansas is really and truly known.

My father, who contributed as a Kansas City attorney to the Brown pleadings, and I, as a law student in Washington D. C. and a staffer for former Senator Dole, took exceptional pride once when President Reagan remarked at a White House ceremony on Kansas and his own knowledge of the Brown decision. It speaks volumes for our unique legacy. In 2004, both President George W. Bush and then presidential candidate US Senator John Kerry came, on the SAME day, to Topeka to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the US Supreme Court's decision underscoring the gravamen of the premise that "separate is NOT equal" in public education and overturning the 1896 decision of Plessy vs. Ferguson which argued "separate could be equal."

Kansas is best known world-wide for the Brown decision and that, second only perhaps to the "Wizard of Oz", this is our State's best identifying legacy. This history, like the John Brown mural, is who we really and truly are and, at our best, who I personally hope Kansans always aspire to be.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on SB 260. Due to the economic down times that we are experiencing here in the State of Kansas and due to the jobs that are being lost and the people who are filing bankruptcy and due to the practice of the insurance companies raising premiums on the basis of low credit scores, I believe that we will have more and more uninsured drivers on our roads and highways. I have received numerous letters, e-mails, and phone calls about this issue this session, and it is a serious one. SB 260 will add further damage.—OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

FORTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Friday, March 13, 2009—8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.

The roll was called with thirty senators present.

Senators Abrams, Barnett, Brownlee, Brungardt, Colyer, Faust-Goudeau, Haley, Kelsey, Masterson and Pyle were excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Praying for the Senators Is what I like to do They have responsibilities And plenty of problems, too.

Some of them live in Topeka, And can go home every night. Some who live not far away Commute before daylight.

Some who live quite far away Rent here a place to sleep. Others with several children Commute home every week.

Farmers, Physicians, and Attorneys Are almost half those in it. All of them have other jobs Besides being in the Senate.

This is just the beginning Of what I need to pray. I'll save the rest of my prayer For another day.

I pray in the Name of Jesus,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Monday, March 16, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.

The roll was called with forty senators present.

President Morris introduced as guest chaplain, Rev. Howard Cupp, Westside Christian Church, Topeka, Kansas, who delivered the invocation:

God of our dreams and our disappointments, our fears and our frustrations: we give thanks for the blessings that fill our lives, especially now for the guidance and empowerment that you offer for just and fair leadership.

We find ourselves in a difficult and confusing time. Perhaps we are learning the inadequacy of our cherished ways of doing things. Perhaps, after sowing seeds of injustice, we are reaping a harvest of crumbling institutions. We confess our need for your guidance if we're to find our way through and beyond these trying times to a life of justice and abundance for all our citizens.

So I pray that you will grant these men and women the power, the desire, and the grace truly to listen—and hear—you and one another, that this body might become a representative community, rather than armies of opposing parties and interests, and rise above the desire for power and control, to lay a good foundation, through laws, budgets, and programs, for a life of justice and abundance—not just for a privileged majority—but for all who call Kansas home.

Bless their efforts, God, to serve you and all their constituents faithfully. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-FIFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Tuesday, March 17, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil. The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present. Senators Hensley and Wysong were excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I'd like to begin by quoting one of St. Patrick's prayers:

"I rise today, through God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me, God's eye to look before me, God's ear to hear me, God's hand to guard me, God's way to lie before me and God's shield to protect me."

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated in many ways. As for me, it is a good time to thank You for making saints out of sinners.

You made a saint out of a sinner named Peter; You made a saint out of a sinner named Paul. You've made saints out of so many sinners, Only You know the names of them all.

You made saints out of sinners in Corinth, A city known for its sin. You made saints out of sinners in Athens Who were never the same again.

We celebrate the day of St. Patrick, And rejoice over the life of St. Paul, But when sinners become saints in Topeka, It's the biggest celebration of all!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: I vote "No" on the Conference Committee Report on the House Substitute for SB 238.

Although I honestly believe that knowledge is empowering and that every woman, even during the anxiety associated with a crisis pregnancy, should have as much information about her abortion as possible . . . this bill increases both the cost (by providing an ultrasound per procedure) and the coercion (with an additional "waiting period" and "offer" to "view a picture"), to add to the already potentially distressed patient. Further, this bill once again codifies a misnomer by confusing the medically correct term "fetus" with the invasively inflammatory term "unborn child".—DAVID HALEY

On motion of Senator Schodorf the Senate nonconcurred in the House amendments to SB 84 and requested a conference committee be appointed.

The Vice President appointed Senators Schodorf, Vratil and Hensley as a conference committee on the part of the Senate.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Thursday, March 19, 2009—2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

One of Your faithful ministers Named John Witherspoon Entered our fight for freedom Not a day too soon.

President of Princeton, He signed our Declaration And in the Continental Congress Helped to save our nation.

To be a statesman and a patriot, He encouraged three elements. They were extremely effective, And have remained so ever since

"True and undefiled religion" Has to be maintained; Profanity and immorality Must not become ingrained.

If anyone opposes That for which God stands, He must be considered Not a statesmanlike man.

We thank You, Lord, for molding Men like Witherspoon; You brought him to America. Certainly not too soon.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "no" on HB 2002. It seems to have become legislative sport to treat Johnson County schools differently from others. On special education reimbursement, all six Johnson County school districts receive less than 70% of excess costs even though by law they should receive 92%. Some districts receive about 200%. In this bill we are not allowed the opportunity to have a second count date for our fast growing school districts. This again carves out our schools to be treated differently, perhaps unfairly.—KARIN BROWNLEE

Senators Lynn and Colyer requested the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Brownlee on HB 2002.

HB 2010, An act concerning state board of healing arts; relating to storage, maintenance and transfer of medical records and delegation of practice; creating medical records maintenance trust fund; amending K.S.A. 2008 Supp. 65-28,127 and 65-28,128 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "NO" on HB 2060. As I indicated during yesterday's General Orders debate, I continue to find it absurd that this Senate is writing a "blank check," and/ or imposing an unfunded mandate on our County jails, especially during these times of economic uncertainty. We don't even have a firm fiscal estimate on bedspace.

This bill does nothing to increase public safety. It just creates a bunch of so called "feelgood = get-tough-on-crime" provisions for somebody's future campaign literature fodder.

As a true fiscal conservative, I'm not going to fall for the costs of this charade.—DAVID HALEY.

If the applicant again fails to satisfactorily complete the examination, the applicant may retake the examination following a waiting period of not less than six months following the date of the third examination, except that following a waiting period of not less than two years following the date of the third examination, the applicant will be treated as a new applicant and new examination and waiting periods shall apply.

New Sec. 7. (a) An applicant who applies for a public adjuster license in this state, who is currently licensed as a public adjuster in another state based on the individual's passage of a public adjuster examination, shall not be required to complete any pre-licensing examination.

(b) An individual licensed as a public adjuster in another state, based on the individual's passage of a public adjuster examination, who moves to this state shall make application within 90 days of establishing legal residence in this state to become a resident licensee pursuant to section 5, and amendments thereto. No pre-licensing examination shall be required of that individual to obtain a public adjuster license.

(c) An individual who applies for a public adjuster license in this state and who was previously licensed as a public adjuster in this state, shall not be required to complete any pre-licensing examination, if the individual's application for licensure as a public adjuster is received within 12 months of the cancellation of the applicant's previous license in this state and if, at the time of cancellation, the applicant was in good standing in this state.

New Sec. 8. (a) Unless denied licensure pursuant to section 10, and amendments thereto, a nonresident individual shall receive a nonresident public adjuster license, if:

(1) The individual is currently licensed and in good standing as a resident public adjuster in that individual's home state;

(2) the individual has submitted the proper request for licensure, has paid the appropriate fee required by section 5, and amendments thereto, and, if required by the commissioner to do so, has provided proof of financial responsibility in accordance with section 11, and amendments thereto;

(3) the individual has submitted to the commissioner the appropriate completed application for licensure; and

(4) the individual's home state awards nonresident public adjuster licenses to residents of this state on the same basis.

(b) The commissioner may verify the public adjuster's licensing status through the producer database maintained by the NAIC.

(c) As a condition to continuation of a public adjuster license issued under this section, the licensee shall maintain a resident public adjuster license in the licensee's home state. The nonresident public adjuster license issued under this section shall terminate and be surrendered immediately to the commissioner, if the home state public adjuster license terminates for any reason, unless the public adjuster has a new home state and has been issued a license as a resident public adjuster in the new home state. Notification to the state or states where the nonresident license is issued must be made as soon as practicable, but no later than 30 days of a change in the new home state resident license. The licensee shall include in such notification the licensee's new and old addresses. A new home state resident license is required for a nonresident license to remain valid, and the new home state must have reciprocity with this state, in order for the nonresident license to remain valid.

New Sec. 9. (a) An individual who has met the requirements for licensure under this act shall be issued a public adjuster license. A public adjuster license shall remain in effect, unless revoked, terminated or suspended, as long as the request for renewal is timely submitted and a license renewal fee of $100 is paid and any other requirements for license renewal are met by the due date. The licensee shall inform the commissioner by any means acceptable to the commissioner of a change of address, change of legal name or change of information submitted on the application within 30 days of the change.

(b) A public adjuster shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (9) of K.S.A. 40-2404, and amendments thereto.

(c) A public adjuster who allows such person's license to lapse may, within 12 months from the due date of the renewal, be issued a new public adjuster license upon the commissioner's receipt of proof that the licensee has satisfactorily completed the renewal process and the licensee's payment of a reinstatement fee of $100. The new public adjuster license shall be effective the date the commissioner receives such proof and the reinstatement fee.

(d) A licensed public adjuster that is unable to comply with license renewal procedures due to military service, a long-term medical disability or some other extenuating circumstance, may request an extension of time to comply with those procedures.

(e) The public adjuster license shall contain the licensee's name, city and state of business address, personal identification number, the date of issuance, the expiration date and any other information the commissioner deems necessary.

(f) In order to assist in the performance of the commissioner's duties, the commissioner may contract with non-governmental entities, including the NAIC, to perform any ministerial functions, including the collection of fees and data related to licensing that the commissioner may deem appropriate.

New Sec. 10. (a) The commissioner may suspend, revoke or refuse to issue or renew a public adjuster's license for any of the following causes:

(1) Providing incorrect, misleading, incomplete or materially untrue information in the license application;

(2) violating:

(A) Any provision of chapter 40 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, or any rule and regulation promulgated thereunder;

(B) any subpoena or order of the commissioner;

(C) any insurance law or regulation of another state; or

(D) any subpoena or order issued by the regulatory official for insurance in another state;

(3) obtaining or attempting to obtain a license through misrepresentation or fraud;

(4) misappropriating, converting or improperly withholding any monies or properties received in the course of doing insurance business;

(5) intentionally misrepresenting the terms of an actual or proposed insurance contract or application for insurance;

(6) having been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony;

(8) using fraudulent, coercive or dishonest practices or demonstrating incompetence, untrustworthiness or financial irresponsibility in the conduct of business in this state or elsewhere;

(9) having an insurance license, or its equivalent, denied, suspended or revoked in any other state, province, district or territory;

(10) forging another's name to an application for insurance or to any document related to an insurance transaction;

(11) cheating, including improperly using notes or any other reference material, to complete an examination for an insurance license;

(12) knowingly accepting insurance business from an individual who is not licensed but who is required to be licensed by the commissioner;

(13) failing to comply with an administrative or court order imposing a child support obligation upon the applicant or license holder; or

(14) failing to pay state income tax or comply with any administrative or court order directing payment of state income tax.

(b) In addition, the commissioner may deny, suspend, revoke or refuse renewal of a public adjuster's license if the commissioner finds that the interests of the public are not properly served under such license. Any action taken under this section which affects any license or imposes any administrative penalty shall be taken only after notice and an opportunity for a hearing conducted in accordance with the Kansas administrative procedure act.

(c) In lieu of any action under subsection (a), the commissioner may:

(1) Censure the individual; or

(2) issue an order imposing an administrative penalty up to a maximum of $500 for each violation, but not to exceed $2,500 for the same violation occurring within any six consecutive calendar months from the date of the original violation, unless such person knew or should have known that the violative act could give rise to disciplinary action under subsection (a). If such person knew or reasonably should have known the violative act could give rise to any disciplinary proceeding authorized by subsection (a), the commissioner may impose a penalty up to a maximum of $1,000 for each violation, but not to exceed $5,000 for the same violation occurring within any six consecutive calendar months from the date of the original violation.

(d) The commissioner shall remit all such fines collected under subsection (c) to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund.

(e) The commissioner shall retain the authority to enforce the provisions of and impose any penalty or remedy authorized by this act against any individual who is under investigation for or charged with a violation of this act, even if the individual's license or registration has been surrendered or has lapsed by operation of law.

New Sec. 11. (a) Prior to issuance of a public adjuster license and for the duration of the license, the commissioner may require the applicant to furnish evidence of financial responsibility, in a format prescribed by the commissioner, by means of:

(1) A surety bond executed and issued by an insurer authorized to issue surety bonds in this state, which bond:

(A) Shall be in such reasonable amount as the commissioner may require;

(B) shall be in favor of the commissioner and shall specifically authorize recovery by the commissioner on behalf of any person in this state who sustains damages as the result of erroneous acts, failure to act, conviction of fraud or conviction of unfair practices in the applicant's capacity as a public adjuster; and

(C) shall not be terminated unless at least 30-days prior written notice has been filed by the insurer with the commissioner and given to the licensee.

(2) An irrevocable letter of credit issued by a qualified financial institution, which letter of credit:

(A) Shall be in such reasonable amount as the commissioner may require;

(B) shall be to an account of the commissioner and subject to lawful levy of execution on behalf of any person to whom the public adjuster has been found to be legally liable as the result of erroneous acts, failure to act, fraudulent acts or unfair practices in the applicant's capacity as a public adjuster; and

(C) shall not be terminated unless at least 30-days prior written notice has been filed by the issuer with the commissioner and given to the licensee.

(b) Where the commissioner has required an applicant to furnish evidence of financial responsibility pursuant to subsection (a):

(1) The issuer of the evidence of financial responsibility shall notify the commissioner upon termination of the bond or letter of credit, unless otherwise directed by the commissioner;

(2) the commissioner may ask for the evidence of the public adjuster's financial responsibility at any time the commissioner deems relevant; and

(3) the authority to act as a public adjuster shall terminate automatically if the evidence of financial responsibility terminates or becomes impaired.

New Sec. 12. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Biennial due date" means the date of birth of any public adjuster who is required to complete continuing education credits and report the completion of the continuing education credits to the commissioner, except that such due date shall not be earlier than two years from the date of the public adjuster's initial licensure under this act.

(2) "Biennium" means, for any public adjuster who was born in an odd-numbered year, the two-year period starting with the public adjuster's biennial due date in 2011 and each two-year period thereafter. For any public adjuster who was born in an even-numbered year, such term means the two-year period starting with the public adjuster's biennial due date in 2012 and each two-year period thereafter.

(b) An individual, who holds a public adjuster license and who is not exempt under subsection (d), shall satisfactorily complete a minimum of 12 hours of continuing education courses, which shall include 11 hours of property/casualty or general continuing education courses and one hour of ethics, reported on a biennial basis in conjunction with the license renewal cycle. Only continuing education courses approved by the commissioner shall be used to satisfy the requirements of this subsection.

(c) Unless suspended, revoked or refused renewal pursuant to section 10, and amendments thereto, a public adjuster's license shall remain in effect as long as the education requirements for a resident public adjuster are met by such public adjuster's biennial due date.

(d) The continuing education requirements of this section shall not apply to licensees holding nonresident public adjuster licenses who have met the continuing education requirements of their home state and whose home state gives credit to residents of this state on the same basis.

New Sec. 13. (a) No public adjuster shall charge, agree to or accept as compensation or reimbursement any payment, commission, fee or other thing of value equal to more than 10% of any insurance settlement or proceeds.

(b) A public adjuster shall not pay a commission, service fee or other valuable consideration to a person for investigating or settling first party claims in this state, if that person is a business entity or is an individual required to be licensed under this act and is not so licensed.

(c) A person shall not accept a commission, service fee or other valuable consideration for investigating or settling first party claims in this state, if that person is a business entity or is an individual required to be licensed under this act and is not so licensed. (d) No public adjuster shall require, demand or accept any fee, retainer, compensation, deposit or other thing of value, prior to settlement of a claim.

New Sec. 14. (a) Public adjusters shall ensure that all contracts for their services are in writing and contain the following:

(1) Legible full name of the public adjuster signing the contract;

(2) permanent home state business address and phone number of the public adjuster;

(3) the public adjuster's license number;

(4) title of "public adjuster contract";

(5) the insured's full name, street address, insurance company name and policy number, if known or upon notification;

(6) a description of the loss and its location, if applicable;

(7) description of services to be provided to the insured;

(8) signatures of the public adjuster and the insured;

(9) the date the contract was signed by the public adjuster and the date the contract was signed by the insured;

(10) attestation language stating that the public adjuster is fully bonded pursuant to this act; and

(11) full salary, fee, commission, compensation or other considerations the public adjuster is to receive for services to be rendered by the public adjuster for or on behalf of the insured.

(b) The public adjuster contract may specify that the public adjuster shall be named as a co-payee on an insurer's payment of a claim. If the compensation is based on a share of the insurance settlement, the exact percentage shall be specified. Compensation provisions in a public adjuster contract shall not be redacted in any copy of the contract provided to the commissioner.

(c) If the insurer, not later than 72 hours after the date on which the loss is reported to the insurer, either pays or commits in writing to pay to the insured the policy limit of the insurance policy, the public adjuster shall:

(1) Not receive a commission consisting of a percentage of the total amount paid by an insurer to resolve a claim;

(3) be entitled only to reasonable compensation from the insured for services provided by the public adjuster on behalf of the insured, based on the time spent on a claim and expenses incurred by the public adjuster, until the claim is paid or the insured receives a written commitment to pay from the insurer.

(d) A public adjuster shall provide the insured a written disclosure concerning any direct or indirect financial interest that the public adjuster has with any other party who is involved in any aspect of the claim, other than the salary, fee, commission or other consideration established in the written contract with the insured, including, but not limited to, any ownership of, other than as a minority stockholder, or any compensation expected to be received from, any construction firm, salvage firm, building appraisal firm, motor vehicle repair shop or any other firm that provides estimates for work, or that performs any work, in conjunction with damages caused by the insured loss on which the public adjuster is engaged. As used in this subsection, the word "firm" shall include any individual or business entity.

(e) A public adjuster contract may not contain any contract term that:

(1) Allows the public adjuster's percentage fee to be collected when money is due from an insurance company, but not paid, or that allows a public adjuster to collect the entire fee from the first check issued by an insurance company, rather than as percentage of each check issued by an insurance company;

(2) requires the insured to authorize an insurance company to issue a check only in the name of the public adjuster;

(3) imposes collection costs or late fees; or

(4) precludes a public adjuster from pursuing civil remedies.

(f) Prior to the signing of the contract the public adjuster shall provide the insured with a separate disclosure document regarding the claim process that states:

(1) Property insurance policies obligate the insured to present a claim to the insured's insurance company for consideration;

(2) there are three types of adjusters that could be involved in that process, and they are as follows:

(A) A company adjuster who is an employee of an insurance company, represents the interest of the insurance company, is paid by the insurance company and will not charge the insured a fee;

(B) an independent adjuster who is hired on a contract basis by an insurance company to represent the insurance company's interest in the settlement of the claim, who is paid by the insured's insurance company and will not charge the insured a fee; or

(C) a public adjuster who does not work for any insurance company but works for an insured to assist in the preparation, presentation and settlement of a claim. An insured engages a public adjuster by signing a contract agreeing to pay the public adjuster a fee or commission based on a percentage of the settlement, or other method of compensation;

(3) the insured is not required to hire a public adjuster to help the insured meet the insured's obligations under the policy, but has the right to do so;

(4) the insured has the right to initiate direct communications with the insured's attorney, the insurer's adjuster and the insurer's attorney, or any other person regarding the settlement of the insured's claim;

(5) the public adjuster is not a representative or employee of the insurer;

(6) the salary, fee, commission or other consideration is the obligation of the insured, not the insurer.

(g) The contracts shall be executed in duplicate to provide an original contract to the public adjuster and an original contract to the insured. The public adjuster's original contract shall be available at all times for inspection without notice by the commissioner.

(h) The public adjuster shall provide the insurer a notification letter, which has been signed by the insured, authorizing the public adjuster to represent the insured's interest.

(i) The insured has the right to rescind the public adjuster contract within three business days after the date the contract was signed. The rescission shall be in writing and mailed or delivered to the public adjuster at the address in the contract within the three business day period.

(j) If the insured exercises the right to rescind the contract, anything of value given by the insured under the contract will be returned to the insured within 15 business days following the receipt by the public adjuster of the rescission notice.

New Sec. 15. (a) A public adjuster shall maintain a complete record of each transaction as a public adjuster. The records required by this section shall include the following:

(1) Name of the insured;

(8) name of public adjuster who executed the contract;

(9) name of the attorney representing the insured, if applicable, and the name of the claims representatives of the insurance company; and

(10) evidence of financial responsibility in the format prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) Records shall be maintained for at least five years after the termination of the transaction with an insured and shall be open to examination by the commissioner at all times.

(c) Records submitted to the commissioner in accordance with this section that contain information identified in writing as proprietary by the public adjuster shall be treated as confidential by the commissioner and shall not be open for inspection under the Kansas open records act.

(d) The provisions of subsection (c) shall expire on July 1, 2014, unless the legislature acts to reenact such provisions. The provisions of subsection (c) shall be reviewed by the legislature prior to July 1, 2014.

New Sec. 16. (a) A public adjuster is obligated, under the public adjuster's license, to serve with objectivity and complete loyalty, the interest of the insured only and to render to the insured such information, counsel and service, as within the knowledge, understanding and opinion in good faith of the public adjuster, as will best serve the insured's insurance claim needs and interest.

(b) A public adjuster shall not solicit, or attempt to solicit, an insured during the progress of a loss-producing occurrence, as defined in the insured's insurance contract.

(c) A public adjuster shall not permit an unlicensed employee or representative of the public adjuster to conduct business for which a license is required under this act.

(d) A public adjuster shall not have a direct or indirect financial interest in any aspect of the claim, other than the salary, fee, commission or other consideration established in the written contract with the insured, unless full written disclosure has been made to the insured as set forth in section 14, and amendments thereto.

(e) A public adjuster shall not acquire any interest in salvage of property subject to the contract with the insured, unless the public adjuster obtains written permission from the insured after settlement of the claim with the insurer as set forth in section 14, and amendments thereto.

(f) The public adjuster shall abstain from referring or directing the insured to get needed repairs or services in connection with a loss from any person, unless disclosed to the insured:

(1) With whom the public adjuster has a financial interest; or $\left(2\right)$ from whom the public adjuster may receive direct or indirect compensation for the referral.

(g) The public adjuster shall disclose to an insured if the public adjuster has any interest or will be compensated by any construction firm, salvage firm, building appraisal firm, motor vehicle repair shop or any other firm that performs any work in conjunction with damages caused by the insured loss. As used in this subsection "firm" shall include any business entity or individual.

(h) Any compensation or anything of value in connection with an insured's specific loss that will be received by a public adjuster shall be disclosed by the public adjuster to the insured in writing, including the source and amount of any such compensation.

(i) Public adjusters shall adhere to the following general ethical requirements:

(1) A public adjuster shall not undertake the adjustment of any claim if the public adjuster is not competent and knowledgeable as to the terms and conditions of the insurance coverage, or which otherwise exceeds the public adjuster's current expertise;

(2) a public adjuster shall not knowingly make any oral or written material misrepresentations or statements which are false or maliciously critical and intended to injure any person engaged in the business of insurance to any insured client or potential insured client;

(3) no licensed public adjuster may represent or act as a company adjuster or independent adjuster on the same claim;

(4) the public adjuster contract shall not be construed to prevent an insured from pursuing any civil remedy after the three-business day revocation or cancellation period;

(5) a public adjuster shall not enter into a contract or accept a power of attorney that vests in the public adjuster the effective authority to choose the persons who shall perform repair work; and

(6) a public adjuster shall ensure that all contracts for the public adjuster's services are in writing and set forth all terms and conditions of the engagement.

(j) A public adjuster may not agree to any loss settlement without the insured's knowledge and consent.

New Sec. 17. (a) The public adjuster shall report to the commissioner any administrative action taken against the public adjuster in another jurisdiction or by another governmental agency in this state within 30 days of the final disposition of the matter. This report shall include a copy of the order, consent to order or other relevant legal documents.

(b) Within 30 days of the initial pretrial hearing date, the public adjuster shall report to the commissioner any criminal prosecution of the public adjuster taken in any jurisdiction.

The report shall include a copy of the initial complaint filed, the order resulting from the hearing and any other relevant legal documents.

New Sec. 18. The commissioner shall promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this act. The commissioner shall adopt such rules and regulations by July 1, 2010.

New Sec. 19. If any provisions of this act, or the application of a provision to any person or circumstances, shall be held invalid, the remainder of the act, and the application of the provision to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected.";

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Friday, March 20, 2009—8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil. The roll was called with twenty-eight senators present. Senators Barnett, Brownlee, Brungardt, Colyer, Haley, Holland, Kelsey, Masterson, Pyle, Steineger, Wagle and Wysong were excused. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Continuing a prayer I prayed a week ago— Praying for the Senators Whom I think I know.

I continue to hear folks say (What drives me up the wall) "They're all crooks anyway" With emphasis on the "all".

Of course that's far from true, And it says a whole lot more About the character of the critics Than the Senators they deplore.

Except for maybe lawyers, There a lot more jokes About the "politicians" Than any other folks.

Good humor is refreshing But these critics have no clue About Senators' responsibilities, And all else they have to do.

There is more to pray about, But I limit what I say To little more than a minute So they can start their day.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Monday, March 23, 2009—10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

While the economy is getting worse And the Dow Jones has been falling, Way out in South West Kansas The rain has NOT been falling.

Some parts have seen no helpful rain Since summer of two thousand eight. Farms and ranches need some moisture Before it is too late.

Elijah prayed and saw the rain For forty months to stop. Then Elijah prayed for rain And the ground produced its crop.

My name is not Elijah, But I do believe in prayer; So I pray that rain will fall Where needed everywhere.

For one reason or another It may not be Your will, But if it is, I pray My prayer You will fulfill.

Thanking You in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Except at the option of the employee or member and except employees or members enrolling in a group policy after the close of an open enrollment opportunity, no individual employee or member of an insured group and no individual dependent or family member may be excluded from eligibility or coverage under a policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits both with respect to policies issued or renewed within this state and with respect to policies issued or surging in this state. For purposes of this section, an open enrollment opportunity shall be deemed to be a period no less favorable than a period beginning on the employee's or member's date of initial eligibility and ending 31 days thereafter.

(2) An eligible employee, member or dependent who requests enrollment following the open enrollment opportunity or any special enrollment period for dependents as specified in subsection (3) shall be considered a late enrollee. An accident and sickness insurer may exclude a late enrollee, except during an open enrollment period. However, an eligible employee, member or dependent shall not be considered a late enrollee if:

(A) The individual:

(i) Was covered under another group policy which provided hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits or was covered under section 607(1) of the employee retirement income security act of 1974 (ERISA) at the time the individual was eligible to enroll;

(ii) states in writing, at the time of the open enrollment period, that coverage under another group policy which provided hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits was the reason for declining enrollment, but only if the group policyholder or the accident and sickness insurer required such a written statement and provided the individual with notice of the requirement for a written statement and the consequences of such written statement;

(iii) has lost coverage under another group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits or under section 607(1) of the employee retirement income security act of 1974 (ERISA) as a result of the termination of employment, reduction in the number of hours of employment, termination of employer contributions toward such coverage, the termination of the other policy's coverage, death of a spouse or divorce or legal separation or was under a COBRA continuation provision and the coverage under such provision was exhausted; and

(iv) requests enrollment within 30 days after the termination of coverage under the other policy; or

(B) a court has ordered coverage to be provided for a spouse or minor child under a covered employee's or member's policy.

(3) (A) If an accident and sickness insurer issues a group policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expenses and makes coverage available to a dependent of an eligible employee or member and such dependent becomes a dependent of the employee or member through marriage, birth, adoption or placement for adoption, then such group policy shall provide for a dependent special enrollment period as described in subsection (3)(B) of this section during which the dependent may be enrolled under the policy and in the case of the birth or adoption of a child, the spouse of an eligible employee or member may be enrolled if otherwise eligible for coverage.

(B) A dependent special enrollment period under this subsection shall be a period of not less than 30 days and shall begin on the later of (i) the date such dependent coverage is made available, or (ii) the date of the marriage, birth or adoption or placement for adoption.

Such policy may impose a preexisting conditions exclusion, not to exceed 90 days following the date of enrollment for benefits for conditions whether mental or physical, regardless of the cause of the condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received in the 90 days prior to the effective date of enrollment. Any preexisting conditions exclusion shall run concurrently with any waiting period.

(B) Such policy may impose a waiting period after full-time employment starts before an employee is first eligible to enroll in any applicable group policy.

(C) A health maintenance organization which offers such policy which does not impose any preexisting conditions exclusion may impose an affiliation period for such coverage, provided that: (i) such application period is applied uniformly without regard to any health status related factors and (ii) such affiliation period does not exceed two months. The affiliation period shall run concurrently with any waiting period under the plan. (D) A health maintenance organization may use alternative methods from those described in this subsection to address adverse selection if approved by the commissioner.

(E) For the purposes of this section, the term "preexisting conditions exclusion" shall mean, with respect to coverage, a limitation or exclusion of benefits relating to a condition based on the fact that the condition was present before the date of enrollment for such coverage whether or not any medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received before such date.

In any event, the employee or member shall have the option to be issued a conversion policy which meets the requirements set forth in this subsection in lieu of the right to continue group coverage.

(j) The continued coverage and the issuance of a converted policy shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) Written application for the converted policy shall be made and the first premium paid to the insurer not later than 31 days after termination of coverage under the group policy or not later than 31 days after notice is received pursuant to paragraph (20) of this subsection.

(2) The converted policy shall be issued without evidence of insurability.

(3) The employer insurance carrier shall give the employee and such employee's covered dependents reasonable notice of the right to continuation of coverage. The terminated employee or member shall pay to the employer insurance carrier the premium for the eighteenmonth continuation of coverage and such premium shall be the same as that applicable to members or employees remaining in the group. Failure to pay such premium shall terminate coverage under the group policy at the end of the period for which the premium has been paid. The premium rate charged for converted policies issued subsequent to the period of continued coverage shall be such that can be expected to produce an anticipated loss ratio of not less than 80% based upon conversion, morbidity and reasonable assumptions for expected trends in medical care costs. In the event the group policy is terminated and is not replaced, converted policies may be issued at self-sustaining rates that are not unreasonable in relation to the coverage provided based on conversion, morbidity and reasonable assumptions for expected trends in medical care costs. The frequency of premium payment shall be the frequency customarily required by the insurer for the policy form and plan selected, provided that the insurer shall not require premium payments less frequently than quarterly.

(4) The effective date of the converted policy shall be the day following the termination of insurance under the group policy.

(5) The converted policy shall cover the employee or member and the employee's or member's dependents who were covered by the group policy on the date of termination of insurance. At the option of the insurer, a separate converted policy may be issued to cover any dependent.

(6) The insurer shall not be required to issue a converted policy covering any person if such person is or could be covered by medicare (title XVIII of the United States social security act as added by the social security amendments of 1965 or as later amended or superseded). Furthermore, the insurer shall not be required to issue a converted policy covering any person if:

(A) (i) Such person is covered for similar benefits by another hospital, surgical, medical or major medical expense insurance policy or hospital or medical service subscriber contract or medical practice or other prepayment plan or by any other plan or program, or

(ii) such person is eligible for similar benefits (whether or not covered therefor) under any arrangement of coverage for individuals in a group, whether on an insured or uninsured basis, or

March 23, 2009

(iii) similar benefits are provided for or available to such person, pursuant to or in accordance with the requirements of any state or federal law, and

(B) the benefits provided under the sources referred to in clause (A) (i) above for such person or benefits provided or available under the sources referred to in clauses (A) (ii) and (A) (iii) above for such person, together with the benefits provided by the converted policy, would result in over-insurance according to the insurer's standards. The insurer's standards must bear some reasonable relationship to actual health care costs in the area in which the insured lives at the time of conversion and must be filed with the commissioner of insurance prior to their use in denying coverage.

(7) A converted policy may include a provision whereby the insurer may request information in advance of any premium due date of such policy of any person covered as to whether:

(A) Such person is covered for similar benefits by another hospital, surgical, medical or major medical expense insurance policy or hospital or medical service subscriber contract or medical practice or other prepayment plan or by any other plan or program;

(B) such person is covered for similar benefits under any arrangement of coverage for individuals in a group, whether on an insured or uninsured basis; or

(C) similar benefits are provided for or available to such person, pursuant to or in accordance with the requirements of any state or federal law.

(8) The converted policy may provide that the insurer may refuse to renew the policy and the coverage of any person insured for the following reasons only:

(A) Either the benefits provided under the sources referred to in clauses (A)(i) and (A)(ii) of paragraph (6) for such person or benefits provided or available under the sources referred to in clause (A)(iii) of paragraph (6) for such person, together with the benefits provided by the converted policy, would result in over-insurance according to the insurer's standards on file with the commissioner of insurance, or the converted policyholder fails to provide the requested information;

(B) fraud or material misrepresentation in applying for any benefits under the converted policy; or

(C) other reasons approved by the commissioner of insurance.

(9) An insurer shall not be required to issue a converted policy which provides coverage and benefits in excess of those provided under the group policy from which conversion is made.

(10) If the converted policy provides that any hospital, surgical or medical benefits payable may be reduced by the amount of any such benefits payable under the group policy after the termination of the individual's insurance or the converted policy includes provisions so that during the first policy year the benefits payable under the converted policy, together with the benefits payable under the group policy, shall not exceed those that would have been payable had the individual's insurance under the group policy remained in force and effect, the converted policy shall provide credit for deductibles, copayments and other conditions satisfied under the group policy.

(11) Subject to the provisions and conditions of this act, if the group insurance policy from which conversion is made insures the employee or member for major medical expense insurance, the employee or member shall be entitled to obtain a converted policy providing catastrophic or major medical coverage under a plan meeting the following requirements:

(A) A maximum benefit at least equal to either, at the option of the insurer, paragraphs (i) or (ii) below:

(i) The smaller of the following amounts:

The maximum benefit provided under the group policy or a maximum payment of $250,000 per covered person for all covered medical expenses incurred during the covered person's lifetime.

(ii) The smaller of the following amounts:

The maximum benefit provided under the group policy or a maximum payment of $250,000 for each unrelated injury or sickness.

(B) Payment of benefits at the rate of 80% of covered medical expenses which are in excess of the deductible, until 20% of such expenses in a benefit period reaches $1,000, after which benefits will be paid at the rate of 100% during the remainder of such benefit period. Payment of benefits for outpatient treatment of mental illness, if provided in the converted policy, may be at a lesser rate but not less than 50%.

(C) A deductible for each benefit period which, at the option of the insurer, shall be (i) the sum of the benefits deductible and $100, or (ii) the corresponding deductible in the group policy. The term "benefits deductible," as used herein, means the value of any benefits provided on an expense incurred basis which are provided with respect to covered medical expenses by any other hospital, surgical, or medical insurance policy or hospital or medical service subscriber contract or medical practice or other prepayment plan, or any other plan or program whether on an insured or uninsured basis, or in accordance with the requirements of any state or federal law and, if pursuant to the conditions of paragraph (13), the converted policy provides both basic hospital or surgical coverage and major medical coverage, the value of such basic benefits.

If the maximum benefit is determined by clause (A)(ii) of this paragraph, the insurer may require that the deductible be satisfied during a period of not less than three months if the deductible is $100 or less, and not less than six months if the deductible exceeds $100.

(D) The benefit period shall be each calendar year when the maximum benefit is determined by clause (A)(i) of this paragraph or 24 months when the maximum benefit is determined by clause (A)(ii) of this paragraph.

(E) The term "covered medical expenses," as used above, shall include at least, in the case of hospital room and board charges 80% of the average semiprivate room and board rate for the hospital in which the individual is confined and twice such amount for charges in an intensive care unit. Any surgical schedule shall be consistent with those customarily offered by the insurer under group or individual health insurance policies and must provide at least a $1,200 maximum benefit.

(12) The conversion privilege required by this act shall, if the group insurance policy insures the employee or member for basic hospital or surgical expense insurance as well as major medical expense insurance, make available the plans of benefits set forth in paragraph (11). At the option of the insurer, such plans of benefits may be provided under one policy.

The insurer may also, in lieu of the plans of benefits set forth in paragraph (11), provide a policy of comprehensive medical expense benefits without first dollar coverage. The policy shall conform to the requirements of paragraph (11). An insurer electing to provide such a policy shall make available a low deductible option, not to exceed $100, a high deductible option between $500 and $1,000, and a third deductible option midway between the high and low deductible options.

 $\left(13\right)$ The insurer, at its option, may also offer alternative plans for group health conversion in addition to those required by this act.

(14) In the event coverage would be continued under the group policy on an employee following the employee's retirement prior to the time the employee is or could be covered by medicare, the employee may elect, in lieu of such continuation of group insurance, to have the same conversion rights as would apply had such person's insurance terminated at retirement by reason of termination of employment or membership.

(15) The converted policy may provide for reduction of coverage on any person upon such person's eligibility for coverage under medicare (title XVIII of the United States social security act as added by the social security amendments of 1965 or as later amended or superseded) or under any other state or federal law providing for benefits similar to those provided by the converted policy.

(16) Subject to the conditions set forth above, the continuation and conversion privileges shall also be available:

(A) To the surviving spouse, if any, at the death of the employee or member, with respect to the spouse and such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, otherwise to each surviving child whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, or, if the group policy provides for continuation of dependents' coverage following the employee's or member's death, at the end of such continuation;

(B) to the spouse of the employee or member upon termination of coverage of the spouse, while the employee or member remains insured under the group policy, by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, with respect to the spouse and such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates at the same time; or

(C) to a child solely with respect to such child upon termination of such coverage by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, if a conversion privilege is not otherwise provided above with respect to such termination.

(17) The insurer may elect to provide group insurance coverage which complies with this act in lieu of the issuance of a converted individual policy.

(19) A converted policy which is delivered outside this state must be on a form which could be delivered in such other jurisdiction as a converted policy had the group policy been issued in that jurisdiction.

(20) The insurer shall give the employee or member and such employee's or member's covered dependents: (A) Reasonable notice of the right to convert at least once during the eighteen-month continuation period; or (B) for persons covered under 29 U.S.C. 1161 et seq., notice of the right to a conversion policy required by this subsection (d) shall be given at least 30 days prior to the end of the continuation period provided by 29 U.S.C. 1161 et seq. or from the date the employer ceases to provide any similar group health plan to any employee. Such notices shall be provided in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner of insurance.

(k) (1) No policy issued by an insurer to which this section applies shall contain a provision which excludes, limits or otherwise restricts coverage because medicaid benefits as permitted by title XIX of the social security act of 1965 are or may be available for the same accident or illness.

(2) Violation of this subsection shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by K.S.A. 40-2407 and 40-2411, and amendments thereto.

(1) The commissioner is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 27. K.S.A. 2008 Supp. 40-3209 is hereby amended to read as follows: 40-3209. (a) All forms of group and individual certificates of coverage and contracts issued by the organization to enrollees or other marketing documents purporting to describe the organization's health care services shall contain as a minimum:

(1) A complete description of the health care services and other benefits to which the enrollee is entitled;

(2) The locations of all facilities, the hours of operation and the services which are provided in each facility in the case of individual practice associations or medical staff and group practices, and, in all other cases, a list of providers by specialty with a list of addresses and telephone numbers;

(3) the financial responsibilities of the enrollee and the amount of any deductible, copayment or coinsurance required;

(4) all exclusions and limitations on services or any other benefits to be provided including any deductible or copayment feature and all restrictions relating to pre-existing conditions;

(5) all criteria by which an enrollee may be disenrolled or denied reenrollment;

(6) service priorities in case of epidemic, or other emergency conditions affecting demand for medical services;

(7) in the case of a health maintenance organization, a provision that an enrollee or a covered dependent of an enrollee whose coverage under a health maintenance organization group contract has been terminated for any reason but who remains in the service area and who has been continuously covered by the health maintenance organization or under any group policy providing similar benefits which it replaces for at least three months immediately prior to termination shall be entitled to obtain a converted contract or have such coverage continued under the group contract for a period of 18 months following which such enrollee or dependent shall be entitled to obtain a converted contract in accordance with the provisions of this section. The employer insurance carrier shall give the employee and such employee shall pay the employer insurance carrier the premium for the continuation of coverage and such premium shall be the same as that applicable to members or employees remaining in the group. The converted contract shall provide coverage at least equal to the conversion coverage options generally available from insurers or mutual nonprofit hospital and medical service corporations in the service area at the applicable premium cost. The group enrollee or enrollees shall be solely responsible for paying the premiums for the alternative coverage. The frequency of premium payment shall be the frequency customarily required by the health maintenance organization, mutual nonprofit hospital and medical service corporation or insurer for the policy form and plan selected, except that the insurer, mutual nonprofit hospital and medical service corporation or health maintenance organization shall require premium payments at least quarterly. The coverage shall be available to all enrollees of any group without medical underwriting. The requirement imposed by this subsection shall not apply to a contract which provides benefits for specific diseases or for accidental injuries only, nor shall it apply to any employee or member or such employee's or member's covered dependents when:

(A) Such person was terminated for cause as permitted by the group contract approved by the commissioner;

(B) any discontinued group coverage was replaced by similar group coverage within 31 days; or

(C) the employee or member is or could be covered by any other insured or noninsured arrangement which provides expense incurred hospital, surgical or medical coverage and benefits for individuals in a group under which the person was not covered prior to such termination. Written application for the converted contract shall be made and the first premium paid not later than 31 days after termination of the group coverage or receipt of notice of conversion rights from the health maintenance organization, whichever is later, and shall become effective the day following the termination of coverage under the group contract. The health maintenance organization shall give the employee or member and such employee's or member's covered dependents reasonable notice of the right to convert at least once within 30 days of termination of coverage under the group contract. The group contract and certificates may include provisions necessary to identify or obtain identification of persons and notification of events that would activate the notice requirements and conversion rights created by this section but such requirements and rights shall not be invalidated by failure of persons other than the employee or member entitled to conversion to comply with any such provisions. In addition, the converted contract shall be subject to the provisions contained in paragraphs (2), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (13), (14), (15), (16), (17) and (19) of subsection (j) of K.S.A. 40-2209, and amendments thereto;

(8) (A) group contracts shall contain a provision extending payment of such benefits until discharged or for a period not less than 31 days following the expiration date of the contract, whichever is earlier, for covered enrollees and dependents confined in a hospital on the date of termination;

(B) a provision that coverage under any subsequent replacement contract that is intended to afford continuous coverage will commence immediately following expiration of any prior contract with respect to covered services not provided pursuant to subparagraph (8)(A); and

(9) an individual contract shall provide for a 10-day period for the enrollee to examine and return the contract and have the premium refunded, but if services were received by the enrollee during the 10-day period, and the enrollee returns the contract to receive a refund of the premium paid, the enrollee must pay for such services.

(b) No health maintenance organization or medicare provider organization authorized under this act shall contract with any provider under provisions which require enrollees to guarantee payment, other than copayments and deductibles, to such provider in the event of nonpayment by the health maintenance organization or medicare provider organization for any services which have been performed under contracts between such enrollees and the health maintenance organization or medicare provider organization. Further, any contract between a health maintenance organization or medicare provider organization and a provider shall provide that if the health maintenance organization or medicare provider organization fails to pay for covered health care services as set forth in the contract between the health maintenance organization or medicare provider for any amounts owed by the health maintenance organization or medicare provider for any amounts owed written contract between the health maintenance organization or medicare provider organization and the provider or if the written contract fails to include the above provision, the enrollee and dependents are not liable to any provider for any amounts owed by the health maintenance organization or medicare provider organization. Any action by a provider to collect or attempt to collect from a subscriber or enrollee any sum owed by the health maintenance organization to a provider shall be deemed to be an unconscionable act within the meaning of K.S.A. 50-627 and amendments thereto.

(c) No group or individual certificate of coverage or contract form or amendment to an approved certificate of coverage or contract form shall be issued unless it is filed with the commissioner. Such contract form or amendment shall become effective within 30 days of such filing unless the commissioner finds that such contract form or amendment does not comply with the requirements of this section.

(d) Every contract shall include a clear and understandable description of the health maintenance organization's or medicare provider organization's method for resolving enrollee grievances.

(e) The provisions of subsections (A), (B), (C), (D) and (E) of K.S.A. 40-2209 and 40-2215 and amendments thereto shall apply to all contracts issued under this section, and the provisions of such sections shall apply to health maintenance organizations.

(f) In lieu of any of the requirements of subsection (a), the commissioner may accept certificates of coverage issued by a medicare provider organization in conformity with requirements imposed by any appropriate federal regulatory agency.";

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I support a constitutional amendment which would help protect Kansans in times of crisis. We should have learned in the 90's and after 9/11. If we had an emergency fund, we could better protect schools and the most vulnerable. Kansas is only one of a few states that does not have a rainy day fund, and consequently we are in a bigger budget crisis than most states. A rainy day fund would mitigate the pressures to increase taxes and cut safety net programs in the heat of a recession.

Every family should have an emergency fund. Kansas should as well. There is no better day to prepare for the next crisis than now. A rainy day fund would not harm the current state budget as it has appropriate safety valves and would not take effect until 2011. A rainy day fund is essential to fiscal responsibility, getting out of the recession, keeping taxes low, and protecting schools and the most vulnerable.—JEFF COLYER

Senators Abrams, Apple, Barnett, Emler, Lynn, Petersen and Vratil request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Colyer on SCR 1614.

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote No on SCR 1614. While I believe it would be good public policy for our State to have a budget stabilization fund, the process provided by SCR 1614 makes no fiscal sense. SCR 1614 requires the State to put aside millions of dollars each year without regard for revenue intake. If implemented this year, when we are struggling to find enough dollars to fund vital services for our most vulnerable citizens, to provide access to health care for our poorest Kansans, and to keep our public safety programs viable, we would have had to make even more draconian cuts. I offered an amendment that would have established a budget stabilization fund with transfers made any year the State experienced an increase over the previous year's revenues. If that amendment had passed, I would have been an enthusiastic supporter of SCR 1614.—LAURA KELLY

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Kelly on SCR 1614.

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on Senate Concurrent Resolution 1614, which should be referred to as the 2009 budget destabilization bill. Instead of returning unused state tax dollars to hardworking Kansans, this bill will mandate that millions of dollars be placed into an interest-bearing fund—a fund which will not be made available to reimburse local taxpayers or to the state for maintaining vital programs and services. These transfers will be made even when state revenues are declining.

Furthermore, SCR 1614 would require a $\frac{3}{2}$ majority vote to transfer money out of the fund only when the balance exceeds 5 percent of total state revenues. It's likely that this mandatory 5 percent will not be met for at least 20 years.

SCR 1614 will only create an additional burden on the state legislature by further restricting its constitutional ability to collect and transfer money, even in times of need. Our founders created a representative democracy for a reason. In times of financial crisis it's vital that the legislature be able to make economic decisions that are in the best interest of our state and its residents without requiring an extraordinary majority.—JANIS LEE

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on HB 2214, just as I voted no on SB 260, which has been incorporated into HB 2214. I don't have to tell you that we are experiencing down times here in the State of Kansas. Many people are losing their jobs. When people have to choose between paying the rent and buying groceries, of course, they are going to fall behind on some bills and their credit scores will be lowered. Raising premiums on the basis of those low credits scores only adds insult to injury. Due to that practice, I believe that we will have more and more uninsured drivers on our roads and highways, not because they are deadbeats but only because life has beaten them down for the moment. I have received numerous letters, e-mails, and phone calls about this issue this session, and it is a serious one. HB 2214 will further damage the situation, stressing people's budgets even more, and I cannot support it.—OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

FIFTIETH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS Tueday, March 24, 2009—10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

During General Orders Senators address the Chair. There are at least two reasons For addressing the person there.

There has to be an authority Who keeps procedure in line. Senators addressing the Chair Help debates to remain benign.

O God, these rules of order Should be a model of what we do. The way that we treat each other Should be the same as we treat You.

The Lord sits on His Throne, And we can never afford To say something to each other That we should not say to the Lord.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 39, Nays 1, Present and Passing 0, Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Abrams, Apple, Barnett, Brownlee, Bruce, Brungardt, Colyer, Donovan, Emler, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Hensley, Holland, Huelskamp, Kelly, Kelsey, Kultala, Lee, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Morris, Ostmeyer, Owens, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Reitz, Schmidt D, Schmidt V, Schodorf, Steineger, Taddiken, Teichman, Umbarger, Vratil, Wagle, Wysong.

Nays: Haley.

A two-thirds constitutional majority having voted in favor of the resolution SCR 1611 was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I support SCR 1611. This constitutional amendment confirms that the right of individual Kansans to keep and bear arms is paramount and a guarantee of liberty.

Our legislative intent is clear and is similar to the that of our founding fathers. In The Federalist Papers Number 29, Alexander Hamilton did not view the right to keep arms as being confined to active militia members but individuals.

"Little more can reasonably be aimed at with the respect to the people at large than to have them properly armed and equipped"

James Madison in Federalist No. 46 wrote: "Besides the advantage of being armed, which the Americans possess over the people of almost every other nation, the existence of subordinate governments, to which the people are attached, forms a barrier against the enterprises of ambition,"

March 24, 2009

Tench Coxe published his "Remarks on the First Part of the Amendments to the Federal Constitution," in the Federal Gazette, June 18, 1789. He was a contemporary of Madison pointed out that the individual right to bear arms is the preservation of individual liberty. He said: "the people are confirmed by the next article in their right to keep and bear their private arms."—JEFF COLYER

Senators Abrams, Lynn and Petersen request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Colyer on SCR 1611.

MR. PRESIDENT: I reluctantly vote "No" on Senate Concurrent Resolution 1611. The substance of SCR 1611 (or the individual right to keep and bear arms) does not, in my mind, outweigh the procedure of SCR 1611. The litmus test of Gun Rights should not be the qualification for otherwise good public officials to be elected. . . or not. By submitting this question to the November general election candidates who do not share my view of our codified Kansas constitution's language regarding gun ownership may be unduly prejudiced in their attempt to join or rejoin our democracy. Diversity of thought and inclusion are crucially important concepts; enough for me to be unique in insuring the SCR's less than unanimous passage here, now.—DAVID HALEY

MR. PRESIDENT: For many years, the citizens of Kansas have operated under the assumption that they possess an individual, Constitutional right to gun ownership. And we celebrated the decision last summer of the U.S. Supreme Court in Heller vs. D.C. confirming this individual right is enshrined in our U.S. Constitution.

However, we remain troubled. The Heller decision was a very narrow 5-4 vote and could be overturned by a new Justice appointment to the Court. And now we learn that the Kansas Supreme Court, in a unanimous decision more than 100 years ago, ruled there are no individual rights to gun ownership in our Kansas Constitution.

We can no longer await or hope for the right decision from the Judiciary. Instead, it is time to allow Kansans a voice on this matter. By offering this proposed Constitutional Amendment, our citizens will have the final say—shall we have an individual right to gun ownership in Kansas, or shall the state control and dictate who may own or use a gun.

Mr. President, I am very hopeful that the majority of Kansas will agree—the power shall rest with the citizens, not with the government.—TIM HUELSKAMP

Senators Abrams, Lynn, Ostmeyer and Petersen request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Huelskamp on SCR 1611.

MR PRESIDENT: I vote Aye. The City of Salina v. Blaksley, 72 Kan. 230, 83 P. 619 (1905), interpreted Section 4 of the Kansas Bill of Rights as guaranteeing no individual right to keep arms or to bear arms. The court held "It deals exclusively with the military. Individual rights are not considered in this section." To drive home this point, the court concluded: "The defendant was not a member of an organized militia, nor of any other military organization provided for by law, and was therefore not within the provision of the Bill of Rights, and was not protected by its terms." The court also applied this holding to the Second Amendment. Blaksley thus judicially repealed the right to bear arms by holding it only belongs to the military while on duty. This is at odds with the constitution's words and with history. The U.S. Supreme Court rejected this erroneous "collective right" holding on the Second Amendment in District of Columbia v. Heller, 128 S. Ct. 2783 (2008). The Kansas Egislature and the people of Kansas should also reject this erroneous application to the Kansas Bill of Rights by exercising their right to amend the Kansas Constitution.—MIKE PETERSEN

Senators Apple, Bruce, Colyer, Huelskamp, Kelly, Kelsey, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, Ostmeyer, Pilcher-Cook, Schodorf, Steineger, Taddiken and Teichman, request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Petersen on SCR 1611.

The substitute bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I stand in strong support of Senate Substitute for House Bill 2126, that contains the Kelsey Smith Act.

The Kelsey Smith Act will honor the life of a young lady who tragically lost her life at the hands of her abductor in June of 2007. Nothing we do will change the outcome of that terrible day. We can, however, strive to make Kansas safer by requiring wireless telecommunication carriers to cooperate with law enforcement when there is risk of death or serious bodily harm.

The system usually works but in this instance, it did not. Hopefully another family will not have to wait four days to locate a missing loved one. This bill will also disseminate critical contact information to our 911 centers. The Kansas Bureau of Investigation will lead this effort.

This bill will also convene a legislative task force to evaluate our current 911 system to ensure we will have adequate funding and state of the art equipment across Kansas.—PAT APPLE

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR PRESIDENT: I vote NO on SB 242. While I support lowering property taxes on vehicles in Kansas, I do not support doing that on the backs of our local units of government. It is inappropriate that the legislature reduces the amount of revenues collected by local units of governments in order to increase the revenues coming to the state and to lower the property tax burden on vehicles. If SB 242 were to pass, local units of government would be left with very little option other than to increase the property tax burden on our homes and businesses.—JANIS K. LEE

Senators Francisco, Hensley and Kelly request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Lee on SB 242.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote yes on Senate Substitute for HB 2354 because the bill maintains funding for education, helps make health care more available and affordable, moves our budget near the point that expenditures equal revenues and helps keep Kansans at work.

We all recognize that the stimulus spending money that allows our budget to balance this year only represents a pain killer that eases the pain, but does not provide a cure. We know that eventually, everyone will share that pain.

Mr. President, the Kansas Legislature has made progress during an extremely challenging time. Working together, I am confident Kansas will return to a state of steady growth and prosperity.—JIM BARNETT

Senators Lynn and Schodorf request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Barnett on S Sub for HB 2354.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on this budget proposal. In these difficult times, it does not strike the right balance supporting essential services like schools, safetynet clinics, and law enforcement.

We are looking at a cliff in the next two years. This budget is not based on sound economic projections.

And we have made minimal effort to make a transition to more stable funding. We are sowing the seeds of a budget crisis that may actually be worse than what we imagined. It is setting up a perfect storm to raise taxes on working Kansans and cut critical programs at the height of the recession.

We made no attempt to reform the giant HMO called Medicaid, encourage excellent schools, or adopt more effective state programs.

Most importantly, there has been no consideration of the long term economic impacts on Kansas. We should use the breathing room gained from the stimulus package to stimulate economic growth rather than planning to raise taxes on working Kansans and businesses and cut programs for the most needy.—JEFF COYLER

Senators Brownlee and Faust-Goudeau request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Colyer on S Sub for HB 2354.

March 24, 2009

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote no on Senate Substitute for House Bill 2354. As amended by committee, the money committed to keeping our promise to fully fund the second phase of the state employee pay plan was drastically reduced. This plan would have improved the way Kansas compensates its state employees by bringing thousands of state employees' wages up to market. Unfortunately, by reducing this funding the Kansas Senate has not only broken our promise, but has essentially balanced the state budget on the backs of Kansas' dedicated state employees and their families.

In addition, the Children's Initiative Fund, the purpose for which is to fund vital early childhood education programs, has been unnecessarily raided to fund other health care programs. While I agree that it's vital the State find a way to fund health insurance for the 8,000 Kansas children who are currently living without coverage, such funding should have been secured through a more stable funding source such as the State General Fund, rather than the Children's Initiative Fund.—LAURA KELLY

Senators Hensley, Kultala and Lee request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Kelly on S Sub for HB 2354.

On motion of Senator D. Schmidt the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 24, 2009.

Subsequent to either a court review or a hearing, the court shall issue an appropriate order with findings of fact. The order of the court shall be provided to the attorney general, the person and the secretary.

(c) If, after a hearing, the court is convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the person is not appropriate for final discharge, the court shall continue custody of the person with the secretary for placement in a secure facility, transitional release program or conditional release program. Otherwise, the court shall order the person finally discharged. In the event the court does not order final discharge of the person, the person still retains the right to annual reviews.

(d) At any time during which the person is on conditional release and the professional person designated by the court in the treatment plan to monitor the person's compliance with it determines that the person has violated any material condition of that plan, that professional person may request the district court to issue an emergency ex parte order directing any law enforcement officers to take the person into custody and return the person to the secure commitment facility. Any such request may be made verbally or by telephone, but shall be followed in written or, facsimile or electronic copy form delivered to the court not later than 5:00 p.m. of the first day the district court is open for the transaction of business after the verbal or telephonic request was made.

The attorney general shall have the burden of proof to show probable cause that the person violated conditions of conditional release. The hearing shall be to the court. At the conclusion of the hearing the court shall issue an order returning the person to the secure commitment facility, to the transitional release program or to conditional release, and may order such other further conditions with which the person must comply if the person is returned to either the transitional release program or to conditional release.

(f) The final discharge shall not prevent the person from being prosecuted for any criminal acts which the person is alleged to have committed or from being subject in the future to a subsequent commitment under this act.

Sec. $\vec{7}$. K.S.A. 59-29b67 is hereby amended to read as follows: 59-29b67. (a) An order for outpatient treatment may be entered by the court at any time in lieu of any type of order which would have required inpatient care and treatment if the court finds that the patient is likely to comply with an outpatient treatment order and that the patient will not likely be a danger to the community or be likely to cause harm to self or others while subject to an outpatient treatment order.

(b) No order for outpatient treatment shall be entered unless the head of the outpatient treatment facility has consented to treat the patient on an outpatient basis under the terms and conditions set forth by the court.

(c) If outpatient treatment is ordered, the order may state specific conditions to be followed by the patient, but shall include the general condition that the patient is required to comply with all directives and treatment as required by the head of the outpatient treatment facility or the head's designee. The court may also make such orders as are appropriate to provide for monitoring the patient's progress and compliance with outpatient treatment. Within any outpatient order for treatment the court shall specify the period of treatment as provided for in subsection (a) of K.S.A. 59-29b66 or subsection (f) of K.S.A. 59-29b69 and amendments thereto.

(d) The court shall retain jurisdiction to modify or revoke the order for outpatient treatment at any time on its own motion, on the motion of any counsel of record or upon notice from the treatment facility of any need for new conditions in the order for outpatient treatment or of material noncompliance by the patient with the order for outpatient treatment. However, if the venue of the matter has been transferred to another court, then the court having venue of the matter shall have such jurisdiction to modify or revoke the outpatient treatment order. Revocation or modification of an order for outpatient treatment may be made ex parte by order of the court in accordance with the provisions of subsections (e) or (f).

(e) The treatment facility shall immediately report to the court any material noncompliance by the patient with the outpatient treatment order. Such notice may be verbal or by telephone but shall be followed by a verified written or, facsimile or electronic copy notice sent to the court, to counsel for all parties and, as appropriate, to the head of the inpatient treatment facility designated to receive the patient, by not later than 5:00 p.m. of the first day the district court is open for the transaction of business after the verbal or telephonic communication was made to the court. Upon receipt of verbal, telephone, or verified written or, facsimile or electronic copy notice of material noncompliance, the court may enter an ex parte emergency custody order providing for the immediate detention of the patient in a designated inpatient treatment facility. Any ex parte emergency custody order issued by the court under this subsection shall expire at 5:00 p.m. of the second day the district court is open for the transaction of business after the patient is taken into custody. The court shall not enter successive ex parte emergency custody orders.

(f) (1) Upon the taking of a patient into custody pursuant to an exparte emergency custody order revoking a previously issued order for outpatient treatment and ordering the patient to involuntary inpatient care the court shall set the matter for hearing not later than the close of business on the second day the court is open for business after the patient is taken into custody. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the patient, the patient's attorney, the patient's legal guardian, the petitioner or the county or district attorney as appropriate, the head of the outpatient treatment facility and the head of the inpatient treatment facility, similarly as provided for in K.S.A. 59-29b63 and amendments thereto.

(2) Upon the entry of an ex parte order modifying a previously issued order for outpatient treatment, but allowing the patient to remain at liberty, a copy of the order shall be served upon the patient, the patient's attorney, the county or district attorney and the head of the outpatient treatment facility similarly as provided for in K.S.A. 59-29b63 and amendments thereto. Thereafter, any party to the matter, including the petitioner, the county or district attorney or the patient, may request a hearing on the matter if the request is filed within 5 days from the date of service of the ex parte order upon the patient. The court may also order such a hearing on its own motion within 5 days from the date of service of the notice. If no request or order for hearing is filed within the 5-day period, the ex parte order and the terms and conditions set out in the ex parte order shall become the final order of the court substituting for any previously entered order for outpatient treatment. If a hearing is requested, a formal written request for revocation or modification of the outpatient treatment order shall be filed by the county or district attorney or the petitioner and a hearing shall be held thereon within 5 days after the filing of the request.

(g) The hearing held pursuant to subsection (f) shall be conducted in the same manner as hearings provided for in K.S.A. 59-29b59 and amendments thereto. Upon the completion of the hearing, if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the patient violated any condition of the outpatient treatment order, the court may enter an order for inpatient treatment, or may modify the order for outpatient treatment with different terms and conditions in accordance with this section.

(h) The outpatient treatment facility shall comply with the provisions of K.S.A. 59-29b69 and amendments thereto concerning the filing of written reports for each period of treatment during the time any outpatient treatment order is in effect and the court shall receive and process such reports in the same manner as reports received from an inpatient treatment facility.

New Sec. 4. (a) In addition to any other power provided by law and as a complete alternative to all other methods provided by law, the governing body of any municipality may create a district as provided by this act for the purpose of financing projects. Under this section, a municipality may create a district, or may modify a district previously created under this section, upon receipt of a petition that is signed by the owners of all of the land area within the proposed district, and is both (1) seeking financing only by assessments and (2) not seeking the issuance of full faith and credit bonds pursuant to this act. The petition shall contain:

(A) The general nature of the proposed project;

(B) the estimated cost of the project;

(C) the proposed method of financing the project;

(D) the proposed amount and method of assessment;

- (E) a map of the proposed district; and
- (F) a legal description of the boundaries of the proposed district.

(b) Names may not be withdrawn from the petitions by the signers thereof after the governing body commences consideration of the petitions or later than seven days after the filing of such petition with the clerk of the municipality, whichever occurs first. The petition shall contain a notice that: (1) The names of the signers may not be withdrawn after such a period of time; and (2) the signers consent to any assessments to the extent described therein without regard to benefits conferred by the project.

(c) Upon filing of the petition pursuant to this section, the governing body may proceed without notice or a hearing to make findings by resolution or ordinance as to the nature, advisability and estimated cost of the project, the boundaries of the district and the amount and method of assessment. Upon making such findings, the governing body by majority vote may authorize the project in accordance with such findings as to the advisability of the project. The resolution or ordinance shall be effective upon publication once in the newspaper.

(d) The district boundaries and the method of financing for the project shall not require that all property that is benefited by the project, whether the benefited property is within or without the district, be included in the district or be subject to an assessment.

(e) Following authorization of the project, the ordinance or resolution establishing the district shall be submitted for recording in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the district is located.

New Sec. 5. (a) In addition to any other power provided by law and as a complete alternative to all other methods provided by law, the governing body of any municipality may create a district as provided by this act for the purpose of financing projects. As an alternative to the requirements and procedures described in section 4, and amendments thereto, under this section, a municipality may create a district, or may modify a district previously created under this section, upon receipt of a petition that is signed by the owners of more than 55% of the land area within the proposed district, and signed by owners collectively owning more than 55% by assessed value of the land area within the proposed district. Under this section, the petition may be seeking financing in whole or in part by a proposed community improvement district sales tax authorized by section 7, and amendments thereto, or seeking the issuance of full faith and credit bonds authorized by section 12, and amendments thereto, or both. The petition shall contain:

(1) The general nature of the proposed project;

(2) the estimated cost of the project;

(3) the proposed method of financing the project including, if applicable, the issuance of full faith and credit bonds;

(4) the proposed amount and method of assessment, if any;

(5) the proposed amount of community improvement district sales tax, if any;

(6) a map of the proposed district; and

(7) a legal description of the proposed district.

(b) Names may not be withdrawn from the petitions by the signers thereof after the governing body commences consideration of the petitions or later than seven days after the filing of such petition with the clerk of the municipality, whichever occurs first. The petition shall contain a notice that: (1) The names of the signers may not be withdrawn after such a period of time; and (2) if applicable, the signers consent to any assessments to the extent described therein without regard to benefits conferred by the project.

(c) Upon filing of the petition pursuant to this section, the municipality shall adopt a resolution to give notice of a public hearing on the advisability of creating or modifying the district. Such resolution shall be published at least once each week for two consecutive weeks in the newspaper and shall be sent by certified mail to all owners. The second publication of such resolution shall occur at least seven days prior to the date of hearing and the certified mailed notice shall be sent at least ten days prior to the date of hearing. Such resolution shall contain the following information:

(1) The time and place of the hearing;

(5) the proposed amount of the community improvement district sales tax, if any;

(6) the proposed amount and method of assessment, if any;

(7) a map of the proposed district; and

(8) a legal description of the proposed district.

(d) The hearing on the advisability of creating or modifying the district may be adjourned from time to time. Following the hearing or any continuation thereof, the governing body by majority vote may create the district by adoption of an ordinance or resolution. Such ordinance or resolution shall authorize the project, approve the estimated cost of the project, contain the legal description of the district, contain a map of the district, levy the community improvement district sales tax, if applicable, approve the maximum amount and method of assessment, if applicable, and approve the method of financing including, if applicable, the issuance of full faith and credit bonds. Such ordinance or resolution shall become effective upon publication once in the newspaper. (e) The district boundaries and the method of financing for the project shall not require that all property that is benefited by the project, whether the benefited property is within or without the district, be included in the district or be subject to an assessment or the community improvement district sales tax.

(f) Following authorization of the project, the ordinance or resolution establishing the district shall be submitted for recording in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the district is located.

New Sec. 6. (a) In addition to any other power provided by law and as a complete alternative to all other methods provided by law, the governing body may make, or cause to be made, projects identified in the petition submitted pursuant to either section 4 or section 5, and amendments thereto, and may levy and collect special assessments upon property in the district and provide for the payment of all or any part of the cost of the project out of the proceeds of such special assessments. If special assessments shall be levied to finance all or a portion of the cost of a project, the municipality shall follow the procedures in K.S.A. 12-6a01 et seq., and amendments thereto, to levy such assessments except that no assessments may be levied against the municipality at large and annual installments of the assessments may be levied as provided in subsection (b).

(b) If the method of financing for the project includes payment from the sources described in subsections (c) or (e) of section 9, and amendments thereto, the ordinance or resolution of the municipality that authorizes the levy of special assessments may provide that the annual installments of such assessment for any year may be reduced or eliminated to the extent that, prior to the date the municipality certifies the tax levy of the municipality to the county clerk pursuant to K.S.A. 79-1801, and amendments thereto, the municipality has received sufficient funds from the sources described in subsections (c) and (e) of section 9, and amendments thereto, to pay the debt service on any bonds issued under the provisions of this act, and amendments thereto, for the project which would have been paid by such annual installment. The municipality is not required to refund any prepayment of assessments after such prepayment is made to the municipality, and any prepayment of assessments under this section shall be in compliance with the provisions of K.S.A. 10-115, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 7. (a) In addition to and notwithstanding any limitations on the aggregate amount of the retailers' sales tax contained in K.S.A. 12-187 through 12-197, and amendments thereto, any municipality may impose a community improvement district sales tax on the selling of tangible personal property at retail or rendering or furnishing services taxable pursuant to the provisions of the Kansas retailers' sales tax act, and amendments thereto, within a community improvement district for purposes of financing a project in such district in any increment of .10% or .25% not to exceed 2% and pledging the revenue received therefrom to pay the bonds issued for the project or to reimburse the cost of the project pursuant to pay-as-you-go financing. In the event bonds are issued to finance a project or refunding bonds issued therefore, the community improvement district sales tax imposed pursuant to this section shall expire no later than the date such bonds shall mature. In the event pay-as-you-go financing is utilized, the community improvement district sales tax shall expire 22 years from the date the state director of taxation begins collecting such tax or when the project bonds or pay-as-you-go costs have been paid. Except as otherwise provided by the provisions of section 3 et seq., and amendments thereto, the tax authorized by this section shall be administered, collected and subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 12-187 through 12-197, inclusive, and amendments thereto.

(b) Upon receipt of a certified copy of the resolution or ordinance authorizing the levy of the community improvement district sales tax pursuant to this section, the state director of taxation shall cause such tax to be collected in the district at the same time and in the same manner provided for the collection of the state retailers' sales tax. All of the taxes collected under the provisions of this act shall be remitted by the secretary of revenue to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury, and the state treasurer shall credit 2% of all taxes so collected to the community improvement district sales tax administration fund, which fund is hereby established in the state treasury, to defray the expenses of the department of revenue in administration and enforcement of the collection thereof. The aggregate amount of moneys credited to the community improvement district sales tax administration fund shall not exceed $60,000 in any state fiscal year. The remainder of such taxes shall be credited to the community improvement district sales tax fund, which fund is hereby established in the state treasury. All moneys in the community improvement district sales tax fund, which fund is hereby established in the state treasurers of those municipalities which are qualified to receive disbursements from such fund for the amount collected within such municipality. Any refund due on any community improvement district sales tax collected pursuant to this section shall be paid out of the community improvement district sales tax authorized by the state treasuring from collections of the community improvement district sales tax authorized by this section. Community improvement district sales tax fund created pursuant to section shall be deposited in the community improvement district sales tax fund readed by this section. Community improvement district sales tax fund created pursuant to section shall be deposited in the community improvement district sales tax fund created pursuant to section 10, and amendments thereto.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, copies of all retailers' sales and use tax returns filed with the secretary of revenue in connection with a district for which sales or use tax revenues, or both, are pledged or otherwise intended to be used in whole or in part for the payment of bonds issued to finance costs of a project, shall be provided by the secretary of revenue to the bond trustee, escrow agent or paying agent for such bonds upon a written request of the municipality within 15 days of receipt by the secretary of revenue. The bond trustee, escrow agent or paying agent shall keep such retailers' sales and use tax returns and the information contained therein confidential, but may use such information for purposes of allocating and depositing such sales and use tax revenues in connection with the bonds used to finance costs of a project. Except as otherwise provided herein, the sales and use tax returns received by the bond trustee, escrow agent or paying agent shall be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-3614, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 8. No suit to set aside the assessments or otherwise question the validity of the proceedings for the creation of the district or the authorization of the project shall be brought after the expiration of 30 days from the publication of the ordinance or resolution creating the district. No suit to set aside the community improvement district sales tax shall be brought after the expiration of 30 days from the publication of the ordinance or resolution declaring the intent to impose the community improvement district sales tax. No protest petition pertaining to the issuance of full faith and credit bonds, as described in section 12, and amendments thereto, shall be brought after the expiration of 60 days following the date of the public hearing described in section 5, and amendments thereto.

New Sec. 9. The cost of all or a portion of any project authorized pursuant to this act shall be paid from all or any of the following sources:

(a) A pledge of special assessments imposed in the district pursuant to this act which have been paid in full prior to the date set aside by the governing body as provided in K.S.A. 12-6a10, and amendments thereto.

(b) A pledge of special assessments imposed in the district pursuant to this act, to be paid in installments.

(c) A pledge of all of the revenue received from the community improvement district sales tax authorized by section 7, and amendments thereto.

(d) A pledge of a municipality's full faith and credit to use its ad valorem taxing authority for the repayment of full faith and credit bonds issued pursuant to section 12, and amendments thereto.

(e) Any other funds appropriated by the municipality for the purpose of paying project costs including the principal and interest of bonds issued pursuant to this act.

New Sec. 10. A separate fund shall be created for each district and such fund shall be identified by a suitable title. Community improvement district sales tax remitted to the municipality pursuant to section 7, and amendments thereto, special assessments paid to the municipality pursuant to this act, proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this act, and any other moneys appropriated by the governing body for the purpose of paying project costs, including the principal of and interest on bonds issued pursuant to this act, shall be credited to such fund. Such fund shall be used solely to pay the cost of the project through either the issuance of bonds or pay-as-you-go financing, and shall not be limited by the estimated cost amount listed in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the project. In the event moneys remain in the fund after the expiration of the community improvement district sales tax, such moneys shall continue to be used solely to pay the cost of the project. Upon payment of all project costs and principal of and interest on any bonds issued for such district, the municipality shall have the authority to spend any moneys remaining in such fund for the purposes for which local sales tax receipts may be spent.

New Sec. 11. (a) Any municipality may issue special obligation bonds in one or more series to finance any project in accordance with the provisions of this act. Such bonds shall be made payable, both as to principal and interest solely from a pledge of the sources of funds described in subsections (a), (b), (c) and (e) of section 9, and amendments thereto. The municipality may pledge such revenue to the repayment of such bonds prior to, simultaneously with or subsequent to the issuance of such bonds, except for any revenues received under the provisions of subsection (e) of section 9 and amendments thereto, which revenues are subject to annual appropriation.

(b) Bonds issued pursuant to this section shall not be general obligations of the municipality, give rise to a charge against its general credit or taxing powers, or be payable out of any funds or properties other than any of those set forth in subsections (a), (b), (c) and (e) of section 9, and amendments thereto, and such bonds shall so state on their face.

(c) Bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be special obligations of the municipality and are declared to be negotiable instruments. Such bonds shall be executed by the authorized representatives of the municipality and sealed with the corporate seal of the municipality. All details pertaining to the issuance of the bonds and terms and conditions thereof shall be determined by ordinance or resolution of the municipality. The provisions of K.S.A. 10-106, and amendments thereto, requiring a public sale of bonds shall not apply to bonds issued under this section. All bonds issued pursuant to this section and all income or interest therefrom shall be exempt from all state taxes except inheritance taxes. Such bonds shall contain none of the recitals set forth in K.S.A. 10-112, and amendments thereto. Such bonds shall contain the following recitals: The authority under which such bonds are issued; that such bonds are in conformity with the provisions, restrictions and limitations thereof and that such bonds and the interest thereon are to be paid from the money and revenue received as provided in this section. Such bonds shall mature in no more than 22 years.

(d) Any municipality issuing bonds under the provisions of this section may refund all or part of such bonds pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 10-116a, and amendments thereto. (e) Bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be in addition to and not subject to any statutory limitation of bonded indebtedness imposed on such municipality.

New Sec. 12. (a) Any municipality may issue full faith and credit bonds in one or more series to finance any project in accordance with the provisions of this act and to refinance or refund any notes or bonds issued pursuant to this act. Bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be general obligations of the municipality and give rise to a charge against its general credit and taxing powers, and such bonds shall so state on their face. Such bonds shall be made payable, both as to principal and interest solely from a pledge of the sources of funds described in section 9, and amendments thereto, including a pledge of a municipality's full faith and credit to use its ad valorem taxing authority for the repayment thereof in the event all other authorized sources of revenue are not sufficient. The municipality may pledge such revenue to the repayment of such bonds prior to, simultaneously with or subsequent to the issuance of such bonds.

(b) Bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be general obligations of the municipality and are declared to be negotiable instruments. Such bonds shall be executed by the authorized representatives of the municipality and sealed with the corporate seal of the municipality. All details pertaining to the issuance of the bonds and terms and conditions thereof shall be determined by ordinance or resolution of the municipality. The provisions of K.S.A. 10-106, and amendments thereto, requiring a public sale of bonds shall not apply to bonds issued under this section. All bonds issued pursuant to this section and all income or interest therefrom shall be exempt from all state taxes except inheritance taxes. Such bonds shall contain the recitals set forth in K.S.A. 10-112, and amendments thereto. Such bonds shall mature in no more than 22 years. Any municipality issuing bonds under the provisions of this section may refund all or part of such bonds pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 10-427, and amendments thereto.

(c) The amount of the full faith and credit bonds issued and outstanding under this act which exceeds 3% of the assessed valuation of the municipality shall be within the bonded debt limit applicable to such municipality.

(d) If, within 60 days following the date of the public hearing described in section 5, and amendments thereto, a protest petition signed by 5% of the qualified voters of the municipality is filed with the municipality's clerk in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 25-3601 et seq., and amendments thereto, no full faith and credit bonds shall be issued until the issuance of the full faith and credit bonds is approved by a majority of the voters voting at an election thereon. The failure of the voters to approve the issuance of full faith and credit bonds shall not prevent a municipality from issuing special obligation bonds.";
