§ 8. Organization and sessions.—The legislature shall meet in regular session annually commencing on the second Monday in January, and all sessions shall be held at the state capital. The duration of regular sessions held in even-numbered years shall not exceed ninety calendar days. Such sessions may be extended beyond ninety calendar days by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. Bills and concurrent resolutions under consideration by the legislature upon adjournment of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year may be considered at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year, as if there had been no such adjournment.

Joint rule 1. Joint rules; application and date of expiration; adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation. (a) Joint rules; expiration, adoption, amendment, suspension and revocation; vote required. Joint rules are adopted under the authority of section 8 of article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas and shall govern matters made subject thereto except when otherwise specifically provided by joint rule. Joint rules shall expire at the conclusion of the terms of representatives. Joint rules shall be adopted, amended, suspended and revoked by concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature. Concurrent resolutions adopting joint rules shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house.

(b) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules; previous notice; vote required. After one day's previous notice, joint rules may be amended, suspended or revoked by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house. Upon the filing of such notice in either house, a message shall be sent to the other house advising of the filing of such notice and the reading of the message shall constitute notice to the members of such house. If such previous notice is not given, the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house shall be required for the amendment, suspension or revocation of a joint rule.

(c) Amendment, suspension or revocation of joint rules at commencement of legislative session; vote required; conditions. Notwithstanding any provision of this rule to the contrary, no notice shall be required for the adoption of a concurrent resolution amending, suspending or revoking any one or more joint rules at the commencement of a legislative session, and adoption of any such concurrent resolution shall require only the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house, subject to the following conditions: (1) The concurrent resolution is sponsored by the speaker or the president, and (2) either (a) a copy thereof is mailed to each member of the legislature by deposit in the United States mails not later than 11:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the Monday on which the legislative session is to commence or (b) in lieu of mailing, copies of the concurrent resolution are made available to members on the first day of the legislative session and final action is taken on a subsequent legislative day.

Joint rule 2. Joint sessions. (a) Joint session called by concurrent resolution; vote required; time, place and subject matter. A joint session of the senate and house of representatives may be called by concurrent resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified in each house of the legislature or as may otherwise be prescribed by law. Any such resolution shall fix the time and place of the joint session, and the subject matter to be considered at the joint session. Joint sessions shall consider only such matters as are prescribed by law or by the concurrent resolution calling such joint session.

(b) Presiding officer at joint sessions; record of joint session; rules applicable. The speaker of the house of representatives shall preside at all joint sessions of the senate and house of representatives, and the clerk of the house of representatives shall keep a record of the proceedings thereof and shall enter the record of each such session in the journal of the house of representatives. The rules of the house of representatives and the joint rules of the two houses, insofar as the same may be applicable shall be the rules for joint sessions of the two houses.

(c) Votes in joint session; taking; requirements. All votes in a joint session shall be taken by yeas and nays, and in taking the same it shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate first to call the names of the members of the senate, and after which the clerk of the house of representatives shall in like manner call the names of the members of the house. Each member of the senate and the house of representatives present shall be required to vote on all matters considered in joint session, unless excused by a vote of a majority of the members of both houses present.

Joint rule 3. Conference committee procedure. (a) Action by house of origin of bill or concurrent resolution amended by other house. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned to the house of origin with amendments by the other house, the house of origin may: (1) Concur in such amendments; (2) refuse to concur in such amendments; or (3) refuse to concur in such amendments and request a conference on the bill or concurrent resolution.

(b) Concurrence by house of origin; concurrence prior to taking action on conference committee report by other house; final action; effect of failure of motion to concur. The house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution may concur in any amendments made by the other house, except that if the bill or concurrent resolution has been referred to a conference committee such action may only be taken prior to the taking of final action upon the conference committee report upon such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house. A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house shall be considered action on the final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal.
If the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has been appointed and action has not been taken upon the report of such committee by the other house and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby, but if the motion to concur is upon amendments to a bill or concurrent resolution for which a conference committee has not been appointed and such motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(c) Motion to nonconcur; when considered final action; effect of adoption of motion.
A vote in the house of origin of any bill or concurrent resolution on a motion to nonconcur or to refuse to concur in amendments to such bill or concurrent resolution by the other house which is not coupled with a request for the appointment of a conference committee shall be considered action on final passage of the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal, and the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed killed on the adoption thereof.

(d) House of origin refusal to concur or nonconcur; request for conference; procedure. When a bill or concurrent resolution is returned by either house to the house of origin with amendments, and the house of origin refuses to concur or to nonconcur therein, a conference may be requested by a majority vote of the members present and voting. Such request shall be transmitted to the other house by message which shall include the names of the conferees on the part of the requesting house. Upon receipt of any such message, the receiving house may, in like manner, approve such conference, and shall thereupon notify the requesting house by message stating the names of its conferees.

(e) Membership; appointment; chairperson; house of origin of substitute or materially changed bill or concurrent resolution; meetings of conference committee. Each conference committee shall consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house of representatives, unless otherwise fixed by agreement of the president of the senate and speaker of the house. Senate members shall be appointed by the president of the senate and house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The president or the speaker may replace any conferee previously appointed by such person. Not less than one member appointed from each house shall be a member of the minority political party of such house except when such representation for such house is waived by the minority leader of such house. In all cases, the first-named member of the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution assigned to the committee shall be chairperson of the conference committee. The house of origin of a substitute bill or substitute concurrent resolution shall be the house in which the bill or concurrent resolution in its original form was introduced. The chairperson of a conference committee on a bill or concurrent resolution the subject matter of which has been ruled to be materially changed shall be a member of the house which amended the bill or concurrent resolution to materially change the subject matter. Each conference committee shall meet on the call of its chairperson. All meetings of conference committees shall be open to the public and no meeting shall be adjourned to another time or place in order to subvert such policy.

(f) Conference committee reports; subject matters which may be included; report not subject to amendment; house which acts first on report; copies of reports; reports considered under any order of business. Only subject matters which are or have been included in the bill or concurrent resolution in conference or in bills or concurrent resolutions which have been passed or adopted in either one or both houses during the current biennium of the legislature may be included in the report of the conference committee on any bill or concurrent resolution except in any appropriations bill there may be included a proviso relating to any such item of appropriation. A conference committee report shall not be subject to amendment. The original signed conference committee report shall be submitted to and acted upon first by the house other than the house of origin of the bill or concurrent resolution. Except when a conference committee report is an agree to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed or is a recommendation to accede to or recede from all amendments of the second house electronic and paper copies of the report shall be made available to all members of the house considering the report not later than 30 minutes before the time of its consideration, except that if the report is more than six pages in length no paper copies will be required to be distributed to individual members provided that at least 10 paper copies of the report are made available to members at the clerk's or secretary's desk at the front of the respective house. By written notice, the majority leader may direct the clerk or secretary to increase from six pages to some greater number of pages the size of conference committee reports that need not be distributed by paper copies to individual members pursuant to this rule. The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present in the house at the time of consideration of the report shall be sufficient to dispense with distribution of copies of the conference committee report to all members of that house. Reports of conference committees may be received and considered under any order of business.

(g) Signatures required on conference committee reports. All initial conference committee reports other than an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by all of the conferees. All initial conference committee reports which are an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. If a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is not adopted, a subsequent conference committee report shall be signed by all conferees unless a subsequent conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed is adopted, in which case a conference committee report subsequent to the adoption of such report shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house. All other conference committee reports shall be signed by a majority of the conferees appointed in each house.

(h) Vote to adopt conference committee report final action; effect of failure of motion to adopt conference committee report. The vote to adopt the report of a conference committee, other than a report of failure to agree coupled with a recommendation for appointment of a new conference committee, shall be considered final action on the bill or concurrent resolution and the affirmative and negative votes thereon shall be entered in the journal. If the motion fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed. If the motion on a conference committee report which is an agreement to disagree coupled with a request that a new conference committee be appointed fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall not be deemed to have been killed thereby and remains in conference.

(i) Report of conference committee unable to agree; effect of failure to request new conference committee; effect of failure of motion to adopt report requesting new conference committee. If a conference committee upon any bill or concurrent resolution is unable to agree, it shall report that fact to both houses. Such report may request that a new conference committee be appointed thereon. If the committee so reports but fails to request the appointment of a new conference committee thereon the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to have been killed upon the adoption by either house of such report. If the motion to adopt a report requesting the appointment of a new conference committee fails, the bill or concurrent resolution shall be deemed to be killed.

(j) Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by conference committees and reports thereof; carryover from odd-numbered to even-numbered year. Bills or concurrent resolutions under consideration by a conference committee, or a report of which has been filed but no action taken thereon in either house, at the time of adjournment of a regular session of the legislature held in an odd-numbered year shall remain alive during the interim and may be considered by the committee and legislature as the case may be at the regular session held in the following even-numbered year.
Joint rule 4. Deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills. The senate and house of representatives shall observe the following schedule of deadlines in making requests for drafting and in the introduction and consideration of bills.

(a) Bill request deadline for individual members. Except for bills introduced pursuant to (i) of this rule, no request to draft bills, except those made by committees, through their respective chairpersons, shall be made to, or accepted by, the office of the revisor of statutes after the hour of 5:00 p.m. on January 31, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on January 30, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(e) House of origin bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered in the house in which such bill originated after the hour of adjournment on February 25, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and on February 24, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(f) Second house bill consideration deadline. No bill, except bills sponsored by, referred to or acted upon by the committee on ways and means of the senate, select committees of either house when so authorized, the committee on federal and state affairs of either house or the house committees on calendar and printing, appropriations and taxation shall be considered by either house, not the house of origin of such bill, after the hour of adjournment on March 23, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and March 21, 2012, during the 2012 regular session.

(g) Exceptions to limitation of (d), (e) and (f): procedure. Specific exceptions to the limitations prescribed in subsections (d), (e) and (f) may be made in either house by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of such house then elected (or appointed) and qualified.

(h) Deadline which falls on day neither house in session; effect. In the event that any deadline prescribed in this rule falls on a day that neither house of the legislature is in session, such deadline shall be observed on the next following day that either house is in session.

(i) Bills introduced in odd-numbered years after deadlines; effect. Bills may be introduced by members and committees in regular sessions occurring in an odd-numbered year after the times prescribed in (b) and (d) of this rule, but there shall be no final action thereon by either house during the session when introduced. Such bills shall be held over for consideration at the next succeeding regular session held in an even-numbered year.

(j) Modification of schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills; procedure. In any regular session a concurrent resolution may be adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members then elected (or appointed) and qualified of each house setting forth a different schedule of deadlines for introduction and consideration of bills for that session and the provisions of such concurrent resolution shall apply to such session notwithstanding provisions of this rule to the contrary.

(k) Bill consideration deadline; exceptions. No bills shall be considered by the Legislature after April 2, 2011, during the 2011 regular session and after March 31, 2012, during the 2012 regular session except bills vetoed by the Governor, the omnibus appropriation act and the omnibus reconciliation spending limit bill provided for under K.S.A. 75-6702 and amendments thereto. Journal of the Senate

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, January 9, 2012, 2:00 p.m.

In accordance with the provisions of the constitution of the State of Kansas and by virtue of his office as President of the Senate, Senator Stephen Morris declared the 2012 Senate to be in session.

President Morris welcomed the Rev. Fred S. Hollomon, who will again serve as the Senate Chaplain and delivered the following invocation:

Heavenly Father,

Lawyers have left their office,
Farmers have closed their gate.
We're headed for Topeka
Where it is time to legislate.

We've kissed the spouse and hugged the kids,
Again they'll have to learn to wait.
For House and Senate are in session,
And it's time to legislate.

Someone else must run our business,
In their hands they hold our fate;
While we labor in the State House,
And attempt to legislate.

Grant us wisdom, Lord, this session
As we start with a fresh new slate;
For constituents are waiting
To see what we'll legislate.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Morris.

President Morris introduced the new reader, Matthew Gleason, who is a second year law student at Washburn University.
The roll was called with forty senators present as follows:

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Some say that legislation
Requires the art of compromise;
Others say that compromise
Is just surrender in disguise.

But some maintain that compromise
Is really not a crime;
It's just one of many ways
Of simply buying time.

Still others say that compromise
Is just another way
Of one side cutting losses
To fight another day.

Many say the question is
This session what's our aim?
To just be forced to punt,
Or try to win the game?

So we pray for wisdom, Lord,
For what should be our aim?
Is this the session we should punt?
Or try to win the game?

I ask this in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Heavenly Father,

On July 9th in ’76
The first Chaplain was approved.
Since then many Chaplains
Into both Houses have been moved.

Some have been criticized
For the way that we have prayed,
Perhaps it was needed.
But most were not afraid.

My tenure has been 30 years,
And I really like my job.
Six Senate Presidents have I served,
None called me snob or slob.

We know You are our Boss, O God,
And we serve You above all;
Give us prayers the people need,
We are at Your beck and call.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to deliver the following remarks in honor of Martin Luther King's birthday:
Mr. Vice President and fellow members of the Kansas Senate:

Frankly, it is with some trepidation that I return to this annual oral, and written, appeal; this once yearly plea with each of you ... to pause, to reflect and to LEAD on this Holiday before us this weekend. Thank you for allowing this reiteration though, my eighteenth (18) consecutive.

This year though is a renewal year, Mr. Vice-President. An election year, both National and State, and a chance to keep right on doing what’s been working well for us all or to decide to go in a new direction and try something that we haven’t tried before and bring about change.

As we approach the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday weekend again, I fully realize that many of you are already in tune with the precepts of equality and of justice for all and live out the Spirit of the Holiday; to share with all Kansans, no all AMERICANS, a sense of brotherly and sisterly love regardless of race, creed, color, gender, orientation or income.

In this renewal year, in our Kansas, where power and perceived privilege can lob with callous disregard and forward offensive messages electronically that stereotype language or demeanor and degrade fellow Americans; where a “boys-can-still-be-boys” mentality set fire to an innocent man of a differing race without major impunity in KANSAS; and in our Nation where maids and other servants in OUR country take the blame for sexual and other assaults perpetrated against them by rich, perceived powerful, majority figures, yet, in our Nation and where people, who have done no wrong, can be stopped and questioned by police only because of the color of their skin ... and other atrocities too heinous to reiterate and too numerous to name are allowed ONLY because, we, Americans...allow ourselves to let income or race or religion empower and divide us from our fellow Kansans, our fellow Americans ... Mr. Vice-President.

In this renewal year, we can truly show leadership in our respective communities by mentioning to some of our constituent’s perhaps shocked surprise that the brotherhood of all humans is not a passing fad. The somber observance of the unique tapestry of culture and race that is America is the Spirit of the King Holiday and what a leader you have been OR you COULD be, fellow Senators, to make the Dream live and breathe ... in YOUR backyard.

Today, now on the Great Mall of the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C., now stands a Memorial to Dr. King. Impressive in its stature, it is a great rock. Hewn, emerging from the rock, is the image and likeness of the face and torso of Dr. King. An inspirational inscription is there and it reads: “Out of a mountain of despair, a stone of hope.” When we as humans find ourselves in despair, in injustice, we turn to family and/or to our faith and/or to our freedoms for comfort, for support, for resolution. Dr. King’s last book, entitled “Where Do We Go From Here?” poses a question that our leadership can begin to answer for all Kansans, that we are determined to unite and not to divide, this weekend and throughout the year. This Holiday doesn’t belong to my religion or to yours, it doesn’t belong to my race or to my culture or to my generation or to my gender exclusively or to yours ... it belongs to us all. No, we ALL have work to do in order to live out the dream of brotherhood and sisterhood of all of our earthly kin. The dream of Dr. King remains deeply rooted in the American psyche of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

I continue to hope the best for Kansas and, too, for America, the greatest State in the best country on the face of the globe. We as the elected leaders, as ambassadors of our respective fellow Kansans, if you will Mr. Vice-President, should not go throughout this Holiday with tongue-in-cheek or cast off appreciation of a time of reflection and of aspiration which will make our nation stronger. By so serving then one day it might be said of each of us that during our Time and in service to our State with God’s grace we too actually did make a difference.

Please! Have and hold a reflective, a reverent, a safe and productively active King Birthday.

On motion of Senator Emmer, the Senate adjourned until 8:00 a.m., Friday, January 13, 2012.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with twenty-nine senators present.
Senators Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Brungardt, Faust-Goudeau, King, Masterson, Morris, Ostmeyer, Schodorf and Wagle were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Today is Friday the thirteenth. To those who are superstitious it is not a welcome day. But most people will remind us of the expression T.G.I.F., “Thank God It's Friday”.

I'm not sure which word gets the most emphasis: God or Friday. I heard of the mother who, seriously or not, wrote on her son's shoes: TGIF. “Toes Go In First”. So I got to thinking Lord, how can we turn TGIF into a real gratitude for your blessings, Like....

TGIF “Thank God I'm Free!” or TGIF “Thank God It Floats” or TGIF “Thank God I'm Forgiven” or at “Sine Die”:
TGIF “Thank God It's Finished”.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator King was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Yesterday we observed the birthday anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., a Baptist preacher who had a dream that one day all people would be judged by the content of their character and not the color of their skin.
I grew up in the South before desegregation. We had separate toilets, separate water fountains, separate restaurants, separate motels, separate parts of the bus, separate schools, separate churches, separate everything.
A black man could cut a white man's hair, but could not shake a white man's hand.
A black woman could raise a white woman's children, but she could not enter a white woman's front door.
The only thing we really shared, O God, was the same Lord, and we couldn't do that together. Ironically, Lord, you spent much, if not most, of Your time with those who were segregated.
And it was You, Lord, Who gave us the Golden Rule which established the principle for human relations: “Do unto others what you would have them do unto you.”
And I thank You for who You are and for what You have done.

And I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,

AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Heavenly Father,
We make appointments with the doctor,
Appointments with our friends;
And appointments with constituents
Seem to never end.

We make appointments with the lobbyists
And members of the House.
Sometimes we have to make Appointments with our spouse.

We make appointments with advisors
And with the Governor, too.
We make appointments with most everyone,
Except, O Lord, with You.

We need some time with You, O God,
So we'll have no need to fret
That at Judgment Day You'll have to say
“I don't believe we've met.”

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were introduced and read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1803—

By Committee on Transportation

A RESOLUTION urging congress to amend the federal highway beautification act to allow businesses in small towns across Kansas to advertise with outdoor highway advertising signs.
WHEREAS, Outdoor highway advertising signs are very important to attract motorists to businesses and cultural activities in small towns in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The highway beautification act and the regulations promulgated thereunder allow the federal government to withhold federal highway funding if a state engages in so called “spot zoning” or allows nonconforming signs; and

WHEREAS, Many small town businesses have not had an opportunity to “grandfather in” their outdoor advertising signs under the federal highway beautification act because highways have been rerouted necessitating new signs; and

WHEREAS, Because of the “grandfathering” process, many small towns in other states have multiple outdoor advertising signs in rural areas without negative effects:

Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas:

That the highway beautification act should be amended to allow outdoor highway advertising signs in rural areas; and

Be it further resolved:

That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the United States department of transportation and the members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1804—

By Committee on Transportation

A RESOLUTION concerning transportation; requesting a multi-year federal transportation funding program at current funding levels.

WHEREAS, The Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users (SAFETEA-LU) which funds road construction in Kansas was set to expire on September 30, 2009, and has now been extended eight times; and

WHEREAS, A majority of funding for road construction in Kansas comes from federal sources; and

WHEREAS, A lack or reduction of federal funding would stop the Kansas department of transportation from beginning any new road construction projects, and would impact many current road construction projects; and

WHEREAS, A comprehensive long-term transportation funding program is necessary for the Kansas department of transportation to adequately plan and construct roads across the entire state:

Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas:

That we request Congress to pass a comprehensive multi-year plan to fund highway construction that maintains current funding levels; and

Be it further resolved:

That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the United States department of transportation and the members of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Many years ago
A Topekan wrote a book.
He called it “In His Steps”;
About the steps that Jesus took.

He said before we make decisions,
There's something we should do;
Always ask ourselves the question,
“How would Jesus do?”

It seems to me that legislators
Could reconstruct what Sheldon wrote,
And ask themselves the question,
“How would Jesus vote?”

They have access to the Bible,
Which is filled with Jesus' quotes.
They might be helped by asking,
“How would Jesus vote?”

Even those who are not Christians Appreciate what Christ promotes,
And might be helped by asking,
“How would Jesus vote?”

Perhaps constituents would be grateful,
At least they could take note;
If legislators asked themselves,
“How would Jesus vote?”

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Heavenly Father,

Senators are people, too;
They hurt, they bleed, they grieve,
They worry over failures,
Rejoice when they achieve.

They're objects of a lot of jokes,
People say they're crooks or worse,
Folks call them dumb or stupid;
They're maligned, reviled, and cursed.

Somehow they learn to take it,
But their families find it hard
To keep hearing that their loved ones
Are held in low regard.

For freedom of the press and speech
Senators are also glad.
But their children cannot understand
Why people say they're bad.

Senators knew before they came They'd be stuck with lots of darts.
But, Lord, they know that You will listen
To all that's on their hearts.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Senator Carolyn McGinn.

Nothing in this subsection shall require state tax receipts to be deposited in the contingency reserve fund when the contingency reserve fund balance exceeds fifteen percent of the preceding fiscal year's state tax receipts.

"(c) The legislature may provide, by law, for additional amounts of state tax receipts to be deposited in the contingency reserve fund.

"(d) (1) Withdrawals from the contingency reserve fund may occur in the current fiscal year only when the current fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts are less than the amount of actual state tax receipts collected or otherwise received in the preceding fiscal year. The amount subject to withdrawal shall not exceed the difference between the current fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts and the amount of actual state tax receipts collected or otherwise received in the preceding fiscal year except that such difference shall be reduced by the amount of the current fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts not collected or otherwise received as a result of any kind of tax reduction legislation enacted by the legislature and approved by the governor in the current or preceding fiscal year.

"(2) Withdrawals from the contingency reserve fund may occur in the ensuing fiscal year only when the ensuing fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts are less than the amount of estimated state tax receipts in the current fiscal year. The amount subject to withdrawal shall not exceed the difference between the ensuing fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts and the amount of estimated state tax receipts in the current fiscal year except that such difference shall be reduced by the amount of the ensuing fiscal year's estimated state tax receipts not collected or otherwise received as a result of any kind of tax reduction legislation enacted by the legislature and approved by the governor in the current or preceding fiscal year.

"(3) For the purposes of subsections (d)(1) and (d)(2), the attorney general shall be responsible for certifying whether any kind of tax reduction legislation was enacted by the legislature and approved by the governor and if so, the governor shall certify the amount of such reduction. Any withdrawal authorized by this subsection shall be provided for by law enacted in a separate bill that does not include any other matter except a statement that the conditions prescribed by this subsection exist and the authority to transfer a specific amount of money from the contingency reserve fund to the state general fund.

"(e) Amounts in the contingency reserve fund may be invested as provided by law and the earnings thereon shall be retained in the contingency reserve fund.

"(f) As used in this section, "state tax receipts" means receipts from any state income tax, sales tax, compensating use tax or other excise tax or tax in the nature of an excise tax, or estate or inheritance tax, or tax in the nature of an estate or inheritance tax, but shall not include receipts from any property tax, or tax in the nature of a property tax, or any tax on motor fuels.

"(g) The legislature may enact laws to carry out the purposes of this section."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

“Explanatory statement. The purpose of this amendment is to establish a contingency reserve fund in the state treasury.

“A vote for this amendment will:

(1) Establish a contingency reserve fund in the state treasury. Each year, if state tax receipts increase by more than three percent over the amount of the preceding year, a portion of the increase would be deposited in the contingency reserve fund. Additional amounts could be deposited in this fund by act of the legislature.

(2) Provide that amounts could be withdrawn from the contingency reserve fund when state tax receipts are less than the amount for the preceding year, other than amounts resulting from any tax reduction legislation.

(3) Provide that any withdrawal from the fund must be a separate bill containing only a statement that the conditions exist for the withdrawal and the authority to withdraw and deposit in the state general fund.

“A vote against this amendment would make no changes in current law concerning the state's finance.”

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the journals, together with the yeas and nays. The secretary of state shall cause this resolution to be published as provided by law and shall cause the proposed amendment to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in the year 2012 unless a special election is called at a sooner date by concurrent resolution of the legislature, in which case it shall be submitted to the electors of the state at the special election.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I'm praying this prayer on behalf of a yet to be identified legislator:

I work through the day
And do my own thing,
Then at night ask You to bless it!
And I know I was wrong
In not asking You first,
But then I'm too proud to confess it.

I file legislation
And push it real hard---
As for God I couldn't care less,
Then the whole thing collapses
And I'm down on my knees
Asking You to clean up the big mess.

Please help me to learn
To start with a prayer
And not wait until my plans fall apart.
For up until now
I've specialized in Hitching the horse to the back of the cart!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

Heavenly Father,

Severe weather has already claimed some lives and a great deal of home destruction in Alabama, with more predicted to follow.

Also, South Texas is expecting destructive weather today as strong hurricane weather moves up from the Gulf of Mexico.

Since all kinds of severe weather were experienced in our nation during 2011, I felt led to ask You, Lord, to protect the people from death and destruction. No doubt some of the Senators have relatives in the South East as well as Texas.

If it be Your will, O God, I pray that people and their belongings will be spared during this threatening onslaught.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hensley rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to introduce Elon Torrence, his wife, Polly, son and wife, Chuck and Carol Torrence, daughter, Mary Torrence and brother-in-law and wife, Joe and Darlene Pollom.

Senator Hensley made the following remarks:

With us today in the Kansas Senate is Elon Torrence, who is celebrating his 95th birthday.

His two daughters and three sons include Chuck Torrence, who works for Legislative Administrative Services, and Mary Torrence, who is Revisor of Statutes.

Elon is a leading figure of Kansas journalism, having worked for The Associated Press in Topeka for more than 35 years.

He’s a living link to some of the biggest and most colorful stories in Kansas in the past 70 years.

If you’ve heard about the 1951 flood in northeast Kansas that took out the Kansas Avenue bridge, just to the north of here, Elon wrote about it.
If you’ve read Truman Capote’s book, “In Cold Blood,” about the infamous 1959 murders of the Clutter family in Holcomb, Elon covered the trial of the killers.

He also covered the deadly Topeka tornado of 1966.

Some of you know about the infamous “Triple Play,” the big political scandal that unfolded in this building in January 1957. The chief justice of the Kansas Supreme Court retired, and Governor Fred Hall resigned. Hall was the last sitting governor to lose a primary, and minutes after the lieutenant governor was elevated to governor, he appointed Hall to the Supreme Court. Elon was there.

He had the best timing of any reporter in Kansas. He had a knack for checking in on meetings literally seconds before the main dispute or the loudest argument erupted or the most important vote occurred, even if the meeting had been going on for some time.

Elon was born in Bassett, Nebraska, and graduated from high school in Waterville, in Marshall County. He attended Baker University and graduated from the University of Kansas in 1939.

He worked for the Garden City Telegram before and after service in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II.

He came to Topeka in 1946, taking a job at the Topeka State Journal. A month later, he joined the Associated Press.

Before Elon retired early in 1982, the Parsons Sun praised him as a walking encyclopedia of knowledge about Kansas. It added, “There’s a question of whether Kansas can spare his services.”

But in retirement, Elon didn’t stop serving Kansas. He was a member of the board of the non-profit Delta Dental plan, and he became a member of the Governmental Ethics Commission in 1994 – serving 16 years.

And, he and his wife, Polly, have been married nearly 67 years.

On behalf of the Kansas Senate, we wish Elon Torrence a Happy 95th Birthday.

Senator V. Schmidt also paid tribute and relayed some of her experiences noting he was a member of her church and recently moved into her neighborhood.

Senator Schodorf rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to introduce Kelly Arnold, Sedgwick County Clerk.

Journal of the Senate

TWELFTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Wednesday, January 25, 2012, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

When the roll is called
On most any day,
It's easy to vote
Either Aye or Nay.

But when folks get angry
When I vote either way,
I dream of alternatives
To Aye and to Nay.

When I'm really not sure
Which way I should go,
I'm tempted to say,
“1 vote Yes and No.”

When either way I vote
I'll live to regret it,
I'd like to respond,
“Just forget it!”

If only a few items
Cause me to doubt,
A line item veto
Would really help it out.

But I'm quite aware
The reason I'm here
Is to make the hard choices
Which are bound to appear Juinuary 25, 2012  1383

Lord, give me the wisdom
To make the best choices,
And a thick skin to cope
With the critical voices.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Heavenly Father,
We may be old, we may be young,
We may be baby boomers
But one thing sure that we can use,
Is a healthy sense of humor.

Of all the blessings You bestow
On constituents and politicians,
A sense of humor does the most
To improve our disposition.

There comes a time when people whine
And get underneath our skin.
That's the time our sense of humor
Can turn a scowl into a grin.

When problems get so numerous
That joy seems out of style,
That's when a sense of humor
Can surprise us with a smile.

When we become the target of
A lot of nasty rumors,
That's when we really need
A healthy sense of humor.

We think a sense of humor, Lord,
Is a gift that comes from You....
From the way we humans sometimes act,
We're sure You have one, too!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,  AMEN

Heavenly Father,

On Kansas Day we thank You, Lord,
For the wonders of our State
Which we continue to enjoy
And which make our Kansas great.

The first time I saw Flint Hills
I knew that I was hooked.
If heaven has a golf course,
This must be how it looks!

Blazing sunsets and waving wheat
Mesmerize our senses;
Farms and ranches provide our food,
Now and before the fences.

While Texas boasts it is the West,
Nothing can be seen
To match the flavor of Dodge City and Abilene.

From Liberal to Leavenworth,
From Galena to St. Francis,
We who love this state, can pray
Thank You, Lord, for Kansas!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ. AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

You work harder than anyone I know.
That bill you voted for will cost me a bundle, but you did the right thing.

Heavenly Father,

Some folks are quick to tell me As Chaplain of the Senate, No one needs more prayer Than the people who are in it.

But some Senators reply That the people over there Should listen to their Chaplain; Representatives need her prayer.

Both Houses do agree That on the second floor When it comes to praying No one needs it more.

While across the street the judges Say it's human nature That the people I should pray for Are in the Legislature.

But it seems that I remember When praying for redemption, It's always been Your custom, Lord, To provide for no exemptions.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I wonder what Jesus would do if He were a member of the Kansas Senate.

Of course I cannot presume to know exactly what He would do, but He gave us some hints the last time He was on earth. I think I would be safe to say that He would be full of surprises.

I think He would surprise a lot of people by the kind of folks with whom He would socialize.

I suspect He would surprise us at how much time He would spend with those who could not contribute and children who cannot vote.

In which case He probably would not be re-elected. However, He might surprise us in that, too.

On the other hand, before we decide to imitate Him, perhaps we should count the cost. The last time He was on this earth He completed only three years of His term! And that was to benefit others.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Upon the transfer of motorcycles, motorized bicycles, passenger vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, trucks or truck tractors, on which registration fees have been paid for the year in which the transfer is made, either (1) to a corporation by one or more persons, solely in exchange for stock or securities in such corporation, or (2) by one corporation to another corporation when all of the assets of such corporation are transferred to the other corporation, then in either case (1) or case (2) the corporation shall be exempt from the payment of registration fees on such vehicles for the year in which such transfer is made. Applications for transfer or registration shall be accompanied by a fee of $1.50. When the registration of a vehicle has expired at midnight on the last day of any registration year, and such vehicle is not thereafter operated upon the highways, any application for renewal of registration made subsequent to the anniversary or renewal date of any registration year following the expiration of such registration and for succeeding registration years in which such vehicle has not been registered shall be accompanied by an affidavit of nonoperation and nonuse, and such application for renewal or registration shall be received by the division of vehicles upon payment of the proper fees for the current registration year and without penalty.

The county treasurer upon presentation of evidence of ownership in the applicant and evidence the sales tax has been paid, if due, shall charge and collect a fee of $3 for each thirty-day sixty-day temporary license and issue a sticker or paper registration as may be determined by the director of vehicles, and the registration so issued shall be valid for a period of 30 60 days from the date of issuance.

(f) Any owner of any motor vehicle which is subject to taxation under the provisions of article 51 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated or any other truck or truck tractor where the annual registration fee has been paid and the vehicle is sold, junked, repossessed, foreclosed by a mechanic's lien or title transferred by operation of law, and the registration thereon is not going to be transferred to another vehicle may secure a refund for the registration fee for the remaining portion of the year by making application to the division of vehicles on a form and in the manner prescribed by the director of vehicles, accompanied by all license plates and attachments issued in connection therewith. If the owner of the registration becomes deceased and the vehicle is not going to be used on the highway, and title is not being currently transferred, the proper representative of the estate shall be entitled to the refund. The refund shall be made only for the period of time remaining in the registration year from the date of completion and filing of the application with and delivery of the license plate and attachments to the division of vehicles. Where the registration is secured under a quarterly payment annual registration fee, as provided for in K.S.A. 8-143a, and amendments thereto, such refund shall be made on the quarterly fee paid and unused and all remaining quarterly payments shall be canceled. Any truck or truck tractor having the registration fee paid on quarterly payment basis, all quarterly payments due or a fraction of quarterly payment due shall be paid before title may be transferred, except that in case of death, the filing of the application and returning of the license plate and attachment shall cancel the remaining annual payments due. Nothing in this subsection shall apply when registration is secured under the provisions of K.S.A. 8-1,101 to 8-1,123, inclusive, and amendments thereto. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this section, no refund shall be made under the provisions of this section where the amount thereof does not exceed $5. The division of vehicles shall furnish such blank forms as may be required under the provisions of this subsection as it deems necessary to be completed by the applicant. Whenever a registration which has been secured on a quarterly basis shall be canceled as provided in this subsection, the division of vehicles shall notify the county treasurer issuing the original registration of such cancellation so that the county treasurer may, and the county treasurer shall cancel the registration of such vehicle in the county treasurer's office and release any lien issued in connection with such registration.

(3) If the transferor is not a vehicle dealer, as defined in K.S.A. 8-2401, and amendments thereto, and a certificate of title has not been issued for the vehicle under this section or a certificate of title was not required under K.S.A. 8-135, and amendments thereto, the transferor shall make application to the division for a nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title, whichever is applicable, as provided in this section, except that in addition thereto, the division shall require a bill of sale or such transferor's affidavit, with at least one other corroborating affidavit, that such transferor is the owner of such nonhighway vehicle or salvage vehicle. If the division is satisfied that the transferor is the owner, the division shall issue a nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title, whichever is applicable, for such vehicle, and the transferor shall assign the same to the purchaser, who shall make application for a new nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title, whichever is applicable, as provided in subsection (c) or (d).

owner shall apply for a salvage title within 60 days after being notified by the insurance company.

(6) Every person acquiring ownership of a motor vehicle that meets the definition of a salvage vehicle, for which a salvage title has not been issued, shall apply for the required document prior to any further transfer of such vehicle, but in no event, more than 60 days after ownership is acquired.

(7) Every purchaser of a salvage vehicle, whether assigned a salvage title or a regular certificate of title with the form specified in paragraph (2) of subsection (b) attached, shall make application to the county treasurer of the county in which such person resides for a new salvage title, in the same manner and under the same condition as for an application for a certificate of title under K.S.A. 8-135, and amendments thereto. Such application shall be in the form prescribed by the director of vehicles and shall contain substantially the same provisions as required for an application under subsection (c)(1) of K.S.A. 8-135, and amendments thereto. In addition, such application shall provide a place for the applicant to certify that the vehicle for which the application for salvage title is made is a salvage vehicle, and other provisions the director deems necessary. Each application for a salvage title shall be accompanied by a fee of $10 and if the application is not made to the county treasurer within the time prescribed by K.S.A. 8-135, and amendments thereto, for making application for a certificate of title thereunder, an additional fee of $2.

(8) Failure to apply for a salvage title as provided by this subsection shall be a class C nonperson misdemeanor.

(e) A nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title shall be in form and color as prescribed by the director of vehicles. A nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title shall indicate clearly and distinctly on its face that it is issued for a nonhighway vehicle or salvage vehicle, whichever is applicable. (f) (1) A nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title may be transferred in the same manner and under the same conditions as prescribed by K.S.A. 8-135, and amendments thereto, for the transfer of a certificate of title, except as otherwise provided in this section. A nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title may be assigned and transferred only while the vehicle remains a nonhighway vehicle or salvage vehicle.

(2) Upon transfer or sale of a nonhighway vehicle in a condition which will allow the registration of such vehicle, the owner shall assign the nonhighway certificate of title to the purchaser, and the purchaser shall obtain a certificate of title and register such vehicle as provided in K.S.A. 8-135, and amendments thereto. No regular certificate of title shall be issued for a vehicle for which there has been issued a nonhighway certificate of title until there has been compliance with K.S.A. 8-116a, and amendments thereto.

(3) (A) Upon transfer or sale of a salvage vehicle which has been rebuilt or restored or is otherwise in a condition which will allow the registration of such vehicle, the owner shall assign the salvage title to the purchaser, and the purchaser shall obtain a rebuilt salvage title and register such vehicle as provided in K.S.A. 8-135, and amendments thereto. No rebuilt salvage title shall be issued for a vehicle for which there has been issued a salvage title until there has been compliance with K.S.A. 8-116a, and amendments thereto, and the notice required in paragraph (3)(B) of this subsection has been attached to such vehicle.

(B) As part of the inspection for a rebuilt salvage title conducted under K.S.A. 8-116a, and amendments thereto, the Kansas highway patrol shall attach a notice affixed to the left door frame of the rebuilt salvage vehicle indicating the vehicle identification number of such vehicle and that such vehicle is a rebuilt salvage vehicle. In addition to any fee allowed under K.S.A. 8-116a, and amendments thereto, a fee of $5 shall be collected from the owner of such vehicle requesting the inspection for the notice required under this paragraph. All moneys received under this paragraph shall be remitted in accordance with subsection (e) of K.S.A. 8-116a, and amendments thereto.

(C) Failure to apply for a rebuilt salvage title as provided by this paragraph shall be a class C nonperson misdemeanor.

(g) The owner of a salvage vehicle which has been issued a salvage title and has been assembled, reconstructed, reconstituted or restored or otherwise placed in an operable condition may make application to the county treasurer for a permit to operate such vehicle on the highways of this state over the most direct route from the place such salvage vehicle is located to a specified location named on the permit and to return to the original location. No such permit shall be issued for any vehicle unless the owner has motor vehicle liability insurance coverage or an approved self-insurance plan under K.S.A. 40-3104, and amendments thereto. Such permit shall be on a form furnished by the director of vehicles and shall state the date the vehicle is to be taken to the other location, the name of the insurer, as defined in K.S.A. 40-3103, and amendments thereto, and the policy number or a statement that the vehicle is included in a self-insurance plan approved by the commissioner of insurance, a statement attesting to the correctness of the information concerning financial security, the vehicle identification number and a description of the vehicle. Such permit shall be signed by the owner of the vehicle. Permits issued under this subsection (g) shall be prepared in triplicate. One copy shall be carried in the vehicle for which it is issued and shall be displayed so that it is visible from the rear of the vehicle. The second copy shall be retained by the county treasurer, and the third copy shall be forwarded by the county treasurer to the division of vehicles. The fee for such permit shall be $1 which shall be retained by the county treasurer, who shall annually forward 25% of all such fees collected to the division of vehicles to reimburse the division for administrative expenses, and shall deposit the remainder in a special fund for expenses of issuing such permits.

(h) A nonhighway vehicle or salvage vehicle for which a nonhighway certificate of title or salvage title has been issued pursuant to this section shall not be deemed a motor vehicle for the purposes of K.S.A. 40-3101 to 40-3121, inclusive, and amendments thereto, except when such vehicle is being operated pursuant to subsection (g). Any person who knowingly makes a false statement concerning financial security in obtaining a permit pursuant to subsection (g), or who fails to obtain a permit when required by law to do so is guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

(i) Any person who, on July 1, 1996, is the owner of an all-terrain vehicle, as defined in K.S.A. 8-126, and amendments thereto, shall not be required to file an application for a nonhighway certificate of title under the provisions of this section for such all-terrain vehicle, unless the person transfers an interest in such all-terrain vehicle.

(j) Any person who, on July 1, 2006, is the owner of a work-site utility vehicle, as defined in K.S.A. 8-126, and amendments thereto, shall not be required to file an application for a nonhighway certificate of title under the provisions of this section for such work-site utility vehicle, unless the person transfers an interest in such work-site utility vehicle.

On motion of Senator Emler, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Thursday, February 2, 2012.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

As we mature we take pride in our ability to exercise restraint.
We learn to roll with the punches; stay calm under pressure; or as Kipling put it, “To keep our heads when all around us others are losing theirs and blaming it on us.” Or in the current lingo, “Be cool, man.”

I believe that composure is an admirable quality most of the time. But you, Lord, have shown us there are times when keeping “cool, calm, and collected” is not always a virtue.

Even Jesus vented His wrath on the money-changers when He chased them out of the Temple because they were cheating the people.
So forgive us, Lord, when we are so stoic nothing outrages us. When in the presence of violence, we just “pass by on the other side.”
When we can tolerate injustice with no show of emotion and when we have reached that point, O God, we are no longer just composed, we are dead!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,
People send us messages
With different things to say.
Some call us with questions
All times of night and day.
Sometimes they are courteous
And understanding, too
But others are unhappy
With everything we do.
In politics we can expect
To get those kind of calls.
But there are other kinds of contacts
That drive us up the wall.
On the phone they are anonymous,
And some won't sign their name.
We have to take their brickbats
And we don't know whom to blame.
You know we're in a fishbowl, Lord,
Where all can watch us swim.
But it's true that even goldfish
Get to see who's watching them!
You know who they are, O God,
Tell them it's a shame;
For we pay no attention
To folks without a name!
I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,
In state government only the Governor has the power to veto. But centuries ago You exercised a veto with far more ramifications than the Governor's.

You vetoed hate and violence;
You vetoed sin and strife;
You vetoed greed and malice;
When Jesus gave His life.

But we are in your image,
Free will You've not denied,
And we still have within us
The power to override.

And it doesn't take much effort,
A lot less than two-thirds.
We can override Your veto
And never say a word.

A proud and stubborn silence
Will surely do the trick.
An absence of commitment
Will override real quick.

So, Lord, help us remember
For us the lamb was slain;
And faith will do our voting
Your veto to sustain.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

February 6, 2012

Pursuant to Article 1, Section 6(b) of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I am transmitting this day Executive Reorganization Order No. 41 to both houses of the Kansas Legislature. Simultaneously with this Order, I am transmitting the accompanying Governor’s Message.

Following nearly a year long process of stakeholder input and studying Medicaid, Lieutenant Governor Jeff Colyer, M.D. and I announced a comprehensive plan to reform Medicaid to improve the health of vulnerable Kansans while transforming Medicaid into a program that will be sustainable for years to come. A crucial component in the reform plan is to more efficiently administer the state agencies that administer the Medicaid program.

When Dr. Colyer and I came into office, Medicaid was spread across four state agencies, service was highly fragmented, and communication between agencies was a challenge. Following this reorganization, major Medicaid agencies will be consolidated from four to two and each more closely aligned with their core mission. The Kansas Department of Health and Environment Division of Health Care Finance will consolidate the financing arm of Medicaid. The former Department on Aging will become the Department for Aging and Disability Services, consolidating all disability waiver and mental health services from the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services into one agency that will manage the programmatic functions of Medicaid. This reorganization will transform the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services into the new Department for Children and Families which will focus, in a targeted way, on child and family welfare issues. The consolidations and transfers are summarized as follows:

1) The disability and behavioral health services section of the Kansas department for children and families as established by K.S.A. 75-3301, et. seq; K.S.A. 75-5375, et. seq; and other statutory and rule and regulation authority as set forth more fully in Executive Reorganization Order No. 41, is transferred to the Kansas department for aging and disability services.

2) All institutions, as defined by subsection (b) of K.S.A. 76-12a01 and the programs operated by such institutions shall be transferred from the Kansas department for children and families to the Kansas department for aging and disability services.

3) Parts of the health occupations credentialing program of the department of health and environment under the Kansas act on credentialing, K.S.A. 65-5001 through 65-5011 along with other statutory and rule and regulation authority as set forth more fully in Executive Reorganization Order No. 41, shall be transferred to and shall be administered by the secretary for aging and disability services.

4) The criminal history record check program, as authorized by individual credentialing statutes or rules and regulations, K.S.A. 39-969, K.S.A. 39-970, and subsection (b) of K.S.A. 22-4707, shall be transferred from the department of health and environment to the Kansas department for aging and disability services.

5) The psychiatric residential treatment facility licensure program of the department of health and environment under K.S.A. 65-501 et seq along with other statutory and rule and regulation authority as set forth more fully in Executive Reorganization Order No. 41, is hereby transferred to the Kansas department for aging and disability services and shall be a part thereof.

Kansas is asking providers and consumers of Medicaid to change the way they do business to improve outcomes for the most vulnerable Kansans while managing costs. This reorganization will enhance the Administration’s ability to serve those Kansans in an effective and efficient manner. I look forward to working with the Legislature to achieve these important goals for Kansans.

Sam Brownback
Governor

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,
Where were the men Sunday evening?
If the truth were told...
Most of them were probably Watching the Super Bowl.

A wife once said if she desired
Her husband to attract,
She'd walk in front of the TV
With a number on her back!

Yes, I watched the Super Bowl,
But I'm aware that I've been told
If we expect to please You, Lord,
You've provided a Super Goal.

Our goal is to serve constituents
And we play a Super Role
By providing opportunities
For the young and for the old.

In every free society
Predators take their toll
By convincing the vulnerable
To even sell their soul.

Lord, guide us through this session;
Make us wise and bold.
Show us how to use our time
To reach Your Super Goal!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Section 1. The following proposition to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for their approval or rejection: Section 1 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Kansas is hereby amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. System of taxation; classification; exemption. (a) The provisions of this subsection shall govern the assessment and taxation of property on and after January 1, 1993, and each year thereafter. Except as otherwise hereinafter specifically provided, the legislature shall provide for a uniform and equal basis of valuation and rate of taxation of all property subject to taxation. The legislature may provide by law to limit valuation increases on single-family residential real property which is owned by and the principal place of residence of a Kansas resident who is 65 years of age or older as of January 1 of the tax year, and the legislature may enact legislation to limit application of this provision and enact such other legislation as is necessary to administer this provision. The legislature may provide for the classification and the taxation uniformly as to class of recreational vehicles, as defined by the legislature, or may exempt such class from property taxation and impose taxes upon another basis in lieu thereof. The provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable to the taxation of motor vehicles, except as otherwise hereinafter specifically provided, mineral products, money, mortgages, notes and other evidence of debt and grain. Property shall be classified into the following classes for the purpose of assessment and assessed at the percentage of value prescribed therefor:

Class 1 shall consist of real property. Real property shall be further classified into seven subclasses. Such property shall be defined by law for the purpose of subclassification and assessed uniformly as to subclass at the following percentages of value:

1. Real property used for residential purposes including multi-family residential real property and real property necessary to accommodate a residential community of mobile or manufactured homes including the real property upon which such homes are located.............11½%
2. Land devoted to agricultural use which shall be valued upon the basis of its agricultural income or agricultural productivity pursuant to section 12 of article 11 of the constitution................................................30%
3. Vacant lots.................................................................................................12%
4. Real property which is owned and operated by a not-for-profit organization not subject to federal income taxation pursuant to section 501 of the federal internal revenue code, and which is included in this subclass by law.................................................................12%
5. Public utility real property, except railroad real property which shall be assessed at the average rate that all other commercial and industrial property is assessed..........................................................33%
6. Real property used for commercial and industrial purposes and buildings and other improvements located upon land devoted to agricultural use.......25%
7. All other urban and rural real property not otherwise specifically subclassified..............................................................30%

Class 2 shall consist of tangible personal property. Such tangible personal property shall be further classified into six subclasses, shall be defined by law for the purpose of subclassification and assessed uniformly as to subclass at the following percentages of value:
(1) Mobile homes used for residential purposes.................................................................11½%
(2) Mineral leasehold interests except oil leasehold interests the average daily production from which is five barrels or less, and natural gas leasehold interests the average daily production from which is 100 mcf or less, which shall be assessed at 25%.................................30%
(3) Public utility tangible personal property including inventories thereof, except railroad personal property including inventories thereof, which shall be assessed at the average rate all other commercial and industrial property is assessed.................................33%
(4) All categories of motor vehicles not defined and specifically valued and taxed pursuant to law enacted prior to January 1, 1985.........................30%
(5) Commercial and industrial machinery and equipment which, if its economic life is seven years or more, shall be valued at its retail cost when new less seven-year straight-line depreciation, or which, if its economic life is less than seven years, shall be valued at its retail cost when new less straight-line depreciation over its economic life, except that, the value so obtained for such property, notwithstanding its economic life and as long as such property is being used, shall not be less than 20% of the retail cost when new of such property.............25%
(6) All other tangible personal property not otherwise specifically classified........30%
(b) All property used exclusively for state, county, municipal, literary, educational, scientific, religious, benevolent and charitable purposes, farm machinery and equipment, merchants' and manufacturers' inventories, other than public utility inventories included in subclass (3) of class 2, livestock, and all household goods and personal effects not used for the production of income, shall be exempted from property taxation."

Sec. 2. The following statement shall be printed on the ballot with the amendment as a whole:

"Explanatory statement. This amendment would authorize the legislature to limit valuation increases of single-family residential real property which is owned by and the principal place of residence of a Kansas resident who is 65 years of age or older in certain circumstances.

"A vote for this proposition would authorize the legislature to limit valuation increases of single-family residential real property which is owned by and the principal place of residence of a Kansas resident who is 65 years of age or older.
The amendment would also allow the legislature to enact legislation to limit application of this provision and enact other legislation as necessary to administer this provision.

"A vote against this proposition would maintain the current system of property taxation which provides no such authorization to limit such valuation increases."

Sec. 3. This resolution, if approved by two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the Senate, and two-thirds of the members elected (or appointed) and qualified to the House of Representatives shall be entered on the

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: The Lyon County Republican Central Committee passed a resolution this past summer expressing their desire to move to the 2nd Congressional District. This was based on their concerns of community interests with the 1st district. There was also concern of the time and distance required to attend district meetings. I would like to commend the committee and the Senators who spent countless hours working on what they thought was the best possible solution. I felt that I needed to vote with the wishes of my constituents in my home county. – JEFF LONGBINE

On motion of Senator Emler, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Thursday, February 9, 2012.
Journal of the Senate

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, February 9, 2012, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
President Morris introduced as guest chaplain, Pastor Herman Hicks, Greater Pentecostal COGIC; President, Greater Wichita Ministerial League, Wichita, Kansas.

Eternal God,

We evoke your presence on this Kansas Senate Meeting. This Senate has some difficult decisions to make. They will make decisions today and in the next few months that will guide this State not only for now, but for years to come. Making decisions will not be easy. The economy is bad. Funds are low. Our State is losing jobs every day. People are hurting. So as this Senate make decisions that will affect your people, give them wisdom and boldness to do what is right.

Even when their decisions are not popular, guide them, protect them and may they trust you and allow you to direct their path, so their decisions will glorify you. Give them an ear to hear the people of this great State. But most of all give them an ear to hear from you. Bless them as they bless the people of the great State of Kansas.

In your Holy Name, Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

 Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

This Sunday marks the two hundred and third birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln who became the 16th President of the United States.

He was a man, who though not perfect, honored You, O God, as the author of the Bible and the One from whom he sought strength and wisdom.

I have not always respected President Lincoln, having been born and raised in the deep South which was totally segregated at the time. We were so proud to be southerners, that I remember as a child in southwest Georgia, the most disappointing news I had ever heard was when I was told that I lived in NORTH America!

Today, Lord, I have a great respect for Lincoln, considering him to be one of our greatest presidents, and a man who turned to You over and over again for wisdom, strength, and endurance.

I close my prayer, dear Lord, with a quote, that I think, summarizes his submission to You.

During the Civil War, Lincoln overheard someone say, “I hope the Lord is on the Union side.” To which President Lincoln responded, “...I know that the Lord is always on the right side. But it is my constant anxiety and prayer that I and this nation will always be on the Lord's side.”

This quote expresses my deep desire, also, as I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

There is an old saying: “Prayer changes things.”
But does it, Lord?
Does this seventy seconds we stand with heads bowed make a difference?
Would we really miss the invocation if we didn't have it?
What it really boils down to, God, is whether prayer really accomplishes anything?
Or even more to the point, do You, O God, really care about what happens in the State House.
Do You really care about clean-up amendments, or points of order, or resolutions, or conference committees, or rules suspended, or any other such things?
I believe You do, O God.
Jesus said the very hairs of our head are numbered. And although that is not a remarkable accomplishment on some of our heads, it shows Your remarkable attention to details.
Jesus also said, “The birds of the air do not sow or reap or stow away in barns, and yet Your Heavenly Father feeds them.”
So I will continue to believe what I have found to be true for a long time: “If it's worth worrying about, it's worth praying about.”
And I thank You for all the prayers You have answered, whether “yes” or “no” or “wait”. And I thank You in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

On Valentine's we hear a lot
About love that is so true.
But to know what love is all about
We must begin, O God, with You.

Your love is so much greater Than what we often see:
Like behavior meant for privacy
Splashed across TV.

People we don't even like
You can make us love.
You could even make the hawks
Learn to love the doves.

You can help Republicans
Love the Democrats.
You can even cause the Jayhawks
Learn to love the Wildcats.

There's not a single barrier
Your love cannot erase.
So on this day of Valentine.
We praise You for Your grace.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

(a) Classification of employers by the secretary. The term "employer" as used in this section refers to contributing employers. The secretary shall classify employers in accordance with their actual experience in the payment of contributions on their own behalf and with respect to benefits charged against their accounts with a view of fixing such contribution rates as will reflect such experience. If, as of the date such classification of employers is made, the secretary finds that any employing unit has failed to file any report required in connection therewith, or has filed a report which the secretary finds incorrect or insufficient, the secretary shall make an estimate of the information required from such employing unit on the basis of the best evidence reasonably available to the secretary at the time, and notify the employing unit thereof by mail addressed to its last known address. Unless such employing unit shall file the report or a corrected or sufficient report as the case may be, within 15 days after the mailing of such notice, the secretary shall compute such employing unit's rate of contributions on the basis of such estimates, and the rate as so determined shall be subject to increase but not to reduction on the basis of subsequently ascertained information. The secretary shall determine the contribution rate of each employer in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(1) New employers. (A) No employer will be eligible for a rate computation until there have been 24 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding the computation date throughout which benefits could have been charged against such employer's account.

(B) (i) For the rate year 2007 and each rate year thereafter, each employer who is not eligible for a rate contribution shall pay contributions equal to 4% of wages paid during each calendar year with regard to employment except such employers engaged in the construction industry shall pay a rate equal to 6%.

(ii) For rate years prior to 2007, employers who are not eligible for a rate computation shall pay contributions at an assigned rate equal to the sum of 1% plus the greater of the average rate assigned in the preceding calendar year to all employers in such industry sector or the average rate assigned to all covered employers during the preceding calendar year, except that in no instance shall any such assigned rate be less than 2%. Employers engaged in more than one type of industrial activity shall be classified by principal activity. All rates assigned will remain in effect for a complete calendar year. If the sale or acquisition of a new establishment would require reclassification of the employer to a different industry sector, the employer would be promptly notified, and the contribution rate applicable to the new industry sector would become effective the following January 1.

(iii) For purposes of this subsection (a), employers shall be classified by industrial activity in accordance with standard procedures as set forth in rules and regulations adopted by the secretary.

(C) "Computation date" means June 30 of each calendar year with respect to rates of contribution applicable to the calendar year beginning with the following January 1. In arriving at contribution rates for each calendar year, contributions paid on or before July 31 following the computation date for employment occurring on or prior to the computation date shall be considered for each contributing employer who has been subject to this act for a sufficient period of time to have such employer's rate computed under this subsection (a).

(2) Eligible employers. (A) A reserve ratio shall be computed for each eligible employer by the following method: Total benefits charged to the employer's account for all past years shall be deducted from all contributions paid by such employer for all such years. The balance, positive or negative, shall be divided by the employer's average annual payroll, and the result shall constitute the employer reserve ratio.

(B) Negative account balance employers as defined in subsection (d) shall pay contributions at the rate of 5.4% for each calendar year.

(C) Eligible employers, other than negative account balance employers, who do not meet the average annual payroll requirements as stated in subsection (a)(2) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, will be issued the maximum rate indicated in subsection (a)(3)(C) of this section until such employer establishes a new period of 24 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding the computation date throughout which benefits could have been charged against such employer's account by resuming the payment of wages. Contribution rates effective for each calendar year thereafter shall be determined as prescribed below.

(D) As of each computation date, the total of the taxable wages paid during the 12-month period prior to the computation date by all employers eligible for rate computation, except negative account balance employers, shall be divided into 51 approximately equal parts designated in column A of schedule I as "rate groups," except, with regard to a year in which the taxable wage base changes. The taxable wages used in the calculation for such a year and the following year shall be an estimate of what the taxable wages would have been if the new taxable wage base had been in effect during the entire twelve-month period prior to the computation date. The lowest numbered of such rate groups shall consist of the employers with the most favorable reserve ratios, as defined in this section, whose combined taxable wages paid are less than 1.96% of all taxable wages paid by all eligible employers. Each succeeding higher numbered rate group shall consist of employers with reserve ratios that are less favorable than those of employers in the preceding lower numbered rate groups and whose taxable wages when combined with the taxable wages of employers in all lower numbered rate groups equal the appropriate percentage of total taxable wages designated in column B of schedule I. Each eligible employer, other than a negative account balance employer, shall be assigned an experience factor designated under column C of schedule I in accordance with the employer's reserve ratio and taxable payroll. If an employer's taxable payroll falls into more than one rate group the employer shall be assigned the experience factor of the lower numbered rate group. If one or more employers have reserve ratios identical to that of the last employer included in the next lower numbered rate group, all such employers shall be assigned the experience factor designated to such last employer, notwithstanding the position of their taxable payroll in column B of schedule I.

(E) Negative account balance employers shall, in addition to paying the rate provided for in subsection (a)(2)(B) of this section, pay a surcharge based on the size of the employer's negative reserve ratio, the calculation which is provided for in subsection (a)(2) of this section. The amount of the surcharge shall be determined from column B2 of schedule II of this section for calendar years 2012, 2013, 2014 and from column B1 of schedule II of this section for each calendar year after 2014. Each negative account balance employer who does not satisfy the requirements to have an average annual payroll, as defined by subsection (a)(2) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, shall be assigned a surcharge of equal to the maximum negative ratio surcharge from column B2 of schedule II of this section for calendar years 2012, 2013 and 2014. From calendar year 2015 forward each negative account balance employer who does not satisfy the requirements to have an average annual payroll, as defined by subsection (a)(2) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, shall be assigned a surcharge equal to the maximum negative ratio surcharge from column B1 of schedule II of this section. Funds from the surcharge paid according to this subsection (a)(2)(E), and amendments thereto, shall be used to pay principal and interest due on funds received from the federal unemployment account under title XII of the social security act, (42 U.S.C. § 1321 to 1324), in the following manner:

(i) For each calendar year 2012, 2013 and 2014, an additional 0.10% of the taxable wages paid by all negative account balance employers with a negative reserve ratio between 0.0% and 19.9% shall be designated an interest assessment surcharge and paid into the employment security interest assessment fund for the purpose of paying interest due and owing on funds received from the federal unemployment account under title XII of the social security act. The total surcharges assessed, including the additional 0.10% surcharge mentioned above, on such employers are listed in schedule II column B2. For the calendar year 2015, and each calendar year thereafter, the surcharge rate for negative balance employers with a negative reserve ratio between 0.0% and 19.9% shall be as listed in schedule II column B1.

(ii) For the calendar year 2012, and each calendar year thereafter, an additional surcharge on negative balance employers with negative reserve ratio of 20.0% and higher shall be designated an interest assessment surcharge and deposited in the employment security interest assessment fund. The additional surcharge shall be used for the purposes of paying interest due and owing on fund received from the federal unemployment account under title XII of the social security act. The total surcharge including the additional surcharge on such employers is listed in schedule II column B3 of this section.

(iii) For any succeeding year in which interest is due and owing on funds received from the federal unemployment account under title XII of the social security act, the secretary of labor may adjust the surcharge amounts necessary to pay such interest;
(iv) the portion of such surcharge used for the payment of such interest shall not be included in the calculation of such employers reserve ratio pursuant to subsection (a)(2). The portion of such surcharge used for the payment of principal shall be included in the calculation of such employers reserve ratio pursuant to subsection (a)(2); and

(v) if the amounts collected under this subsection are in excess of the amounts needed to pay interest due, the amounts in excess shall remain in the employment security interest assessment fund to be used to pay interest in future years. Whenever the secretary certifies all interest payments have been paid pursuant to this section, any excess funds remaining in the employment security interest assessment fund shall be transferred to the employment security trust fund for the purpose of paying any remaining principal amount due for advances described in this section. In the event that the amount transferred from the employment security interest assessment fund exceeds such remaining amount of principal due, the balance shall be used for the purposes of the employment security trust fund.

(3) Planned yield. (A) The average required yield shall be determined from schedule III of this section, and the planned yield on total wages in column B of schedule III shall be determined by the reserve fund ratio in column A of schedule III. The reserve fund ratio shall be determined by dividing total assets in the employment security trust fund for the purpose of paying any remaining principal amount due for advances described in this section. In the event that the amount transferred from the employment security interest assessment fund exceeds such remaining amount of principal due, the balance shall be used for the purposes of the employment security trust fund.

(B) Adjustment to taxable wages. The planned yield as a percent of total wages, as determined in this subsection (a)(3), shall be adjusted to taxable wages by multiplying by the ratio of total wages to taxable wages for all contributing employers for the preceding fiscal year ending June 30, except, with regard to a year in which the taxable wage base changes. The taxable wages used in the calculation for such a year and the following year shall be an estimate of what the taxable wages would have been if the new taxable wage base had been in effect during all of the preceding fiscal year ending June 30.

(C) Effective rates. (i) Except with regard to rates for negative account balance employers, employer contribution rates to be effective for the ensuing calendar year shall be computed by adjusting proportionately the experience factors from schedule I of this section to the required yield on taxable wages. For the purposes of this subsection (a)(3), all rates computed shall be rounded to the nearest .01% and for calendar year 1983 and ensuing calendar years, the maximum effective contribution rate shall not exceed 5.4%.

(ii) For rate year 2007 and subsequent rate years, employers who are current in filing quarterly wage reports and in payment of all contributions due and owing, shall be issued a contribution rate based upon the following reduction: for rate groups 1 through 5, the rates would be reduced to 0.00%; for rate groups 6 through 28, the rates would be reduced by 50%; for rate groups 29 through 51, the rates would be reduced by

(iii) In order to be eligible for the reduced rates for rate year 2007, the employer must file all late reports and pay all contributions due and owing within a 30-day period following the date of mailing of the amended rate notice.
(iv) In order to be eligible for the reduced rates for rate year 2008 and subsequent rate years, employers must file all reports due and pay all contributions due and owing on or before January 31 of the applicable year, except that the reduced rates for otherwise eligible employers shall not be effective for any rate year if the average high cost multiple of the employment security trust fund balance falls below 1.2 as of the computation date of that year's rates. For the purposes of this provision, the average high cost multiple is the reserve fund ratio, as defined by subsection (a)(3)(A), divided by the average high benefit cost rate. The average high benefit cost rate shall be determined by averaging the three highest benefit cost rates over the last 20 years from the preceding fiscal year which ended June 30. The high benefit cost rate is defined by dividing total benefits paid in the fiscal year by total payrolls for covered employers in the fiscal year.

(b) Successor classification. (1) (A) For the purposes of this subsection (b), whenever an employing unit, whether or not it is an "employing unit" within the meaning of subsection (g) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, becomes an employer pursuant to subsection (h)(4) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, or is an employer at the time of acquisition and meets the definition of a "successor employer" as defined by subsection (dd) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, and thereafter transfers its trade or business, or any portion thereof, to another employer and, at the time of the transfer, there is substantially common ownership, management or control of the two employers, then the unemployment experience attributable to the transferred trade or business shall be transferred to the employer to whom such business is so transferred. These experience factors consist of all contributions paid, benefit experience and annual payrolls of the predecessor employer. The transfer of some or all of an employer's workforce to another employer shall be considered a transfer of trade or business when, as the result of such transfer, the transferring employer no longer performs trade or business with respect to the transferred workforce, and such trade or business is performed by the employer to whom the workforce is transferred.

(B) If, following a transfer of experience under subparagraph (A), the secretary determines that a substantial purpose of the transfer or business was to obtain a reduced liability for contributions, then the experience rating accounts of the employers involved shall be combined into a single account and a single rate assigned to such account.

(2) A successor employer as defined by subsection (h)(4) or subsection (dd) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, may receive the experience rating factors of the predecessor employer if an application is made to the secretary or the secretary's designee in writing within 120 days of the date of the transfer.

(3) Whenever an employing unit, whether or not it is an "employing unit" within the meaning of subsection (g) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto, acquires or in any manner succeeds to a percentage of an employer's annual payroll which is less than 100% and intends to continue the acquired percentage as a going business, the employing unit may acquire the same percentage of the predecessor's experience factors if: (A) The predecessor employer and successor employing unit make an application in writing on the form prescribed by the secretary, (B) the application is submitted within 120 days of the date of the transfer, (C) the successor employing unit is or becomes an employer subject to this act immediately after the transfer, (D) the percentage of the experience rating factors transferred shall not be thereafter used in computing the contribution rate for the predecessor employer, and (E) the secretary finds that such transfer will not tend to defeat or obstruct the object and purposes of this act.

(4) (A) The rate of both employers in a full or partial successorship under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be recalculated and made effective on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the date of transfer of trade or business.

(B) If a successor employer is determined to be qualified under paragraph (2) or (3) of this subsection to receive the experience rating factors of the predecessor employer, the rate assigned to the successor employer for the remainder of the contributions year shall be determined by the following:

(i) If the acquiring employing unit was an employer subject to this act prior to the date of the transfer, the rate of contribution shall be the same as the contribution rate of the acquiring employer on the date of the transfer.

(ii) If the acquiring employing unit was not an employer subject to this act prior to the date of the transfer, the successor employer shall have a newly computed rate for the remainder of the contribution year which shall be based on the transferred experience rating factors as they existed on the most recent computation date immediately preceding the date of acquisition. These experience rating factors consist of all contributions paid, benefit experience and annual payrolls.

(5) Whenever an employing unit is not an employer at the time it acquires the trade or business of an employer, the unemployment experience factors of the acquired business shall not be transferred to such employing unit if the secretary finds that such employing unit acquired the business solely or primarily for the purpose of obtaining a lower rate of contributions. Instead, such employing unit shall be assigned the applicable industry rate for a "new employer" as described in subsection (a)(1) of this section. In determining whether the business was acquired solely or primarily for the purpose of obtaining a lower rate of contributions, the secretary shall use objective factors which may include the cost of acquiring the business, whether the employer continued the business enterprise of the acquired business, how long such business enterprise was continued, or whether a substantial number of new employees were hired for performance of duties unrelated to the business activity conducted prior to acquisition.

(6) Whenever an employer's account has been terminated as provided in subsections (d) and (e) of K.S.A. 44-711, and amendments thereto, and the employer continues with employment to liquidate the business operations, that employer shall continue to be an "employer" subject to the employment security law as provided in subsection (h)(8) of K.S.A. 44-703, and amendments thereto. The rate of contribution from the date of transfer to the end of the then current calendar year shall be the same as the contribution rate prior to the date of the transfer. At the completion of the then current calendar year, the rate of contribution shall be that of a "new employer" as described in subsection (a)(1) of this section.

(7) No rate computation will be permitted an employing unit succeeding to the experience of another employing unit pursuant to this section for any period subsequent to such succession except in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the secretary. Any such regulations shall be consistent with federal requirements for additional credit allowance in section 3303 of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, and consistent with the provisions of this act.

(c) Voluntary contributions. Notwithstanding any other provision of the employment security law, any employer may make voluntary payments for the purpose of reducing or maintaining a reduced rate in addition to the contributions required under this section. Such voluntary payments may be made only during the thirty-day period immediately following the date of mailing of experience rating notices for a calendar year. All such voluntary contribution payments shall be paid prior to the expiration of 120 days after the beginning of the year for which such rates are effective at any time. The amount of voluntary contributions shall be credited to the employer's account as of the next preceding computation date and the employer's rate shall be computed accordingly, except that no employer's rate shall be reduced more than five rate groups as provided in schedule I of this section as the result of a voluntary payment. An employer not having a negative account balance may have such employer's rate reduced not more than five rate groups as provided in schedule I of this section as a result of a voluntary payment. An employer having a negative account balance may have such employer's rate reduced to that prescribed for rate group 51 of schedule I of this section by making a voluntary payment in the amount of such negative account balance or to that rate prescribed for rate groups 50 through 47 of schedule I of this section by making an additional voluntary payment that would increase such employer's reserve ratio to the lower limit required for such rate groups 50 through 47. Under no circumstances shall voluntary payments be refunded in whole or in part.

(d) As used in this section, "negative account balance employer" means an eligible employer whose total benefits charged to such employer's account for all past years have exceeded all contributions paid by such employer for all such years.

(e) There is hereby established in the state treasury, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state, an employment security interest assessment fund, which shall be administered by the secretary as provided in this act. Moneys in the employment security fund established by K.S.A 44-712, and amendments thereto, and the employment security interest assessment fund established by 44-710, and amendments thereto, shall not be invested in the pooled money investment portfolio established under K.S.A 75-4234, and amendments thereto. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of K.S.A. 44-712, K.S.A. 44-716, K.S.A. 44-717 and K.S.A. 75-4234, and amendments thereto, or any like provision the secretary shall remit all moneys received from employers pursuant to the interest payment assessment established in section (a)(2)(E), and amendments thereto, to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the employment security interest assessment fund. All moneys in this fund which are received from employers pursuant to the interest payment assessment established in section (a)(2)(E), and amendments thereto, to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the employment security interest assessment fund. All moneys in this fund which are received from employers pursuant to the interest payment assessment established in section (a)(2)(E), and amendments thereto, shall be expended solely for the purposes and in the amounts found by the secretary necessary to pay any principal and interest due and owing the United States department of labor resulting from any advancements made to the Kansas employment security fund pursuant to the provisions of title XII of the social security act (42 U.S.C. § 1321 to 1324) except as may be otherwise provided under section (a) (2)(E), and amendments thereto. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, all moneys received and credited to this fund pursuant to section (a)(2)(E), and amendments thereto, pursuant to section (a)(2)(E), and amendments thereto, shall remain part of the employment security interest assessment fund and shall be used only in accordance with the conditions specified in section (a)(2)(E), and amendments thereto.

(f) The secretary of labor shall annually prepare and submit a certification as to the solvency and adequacy of the amount credited to the state of Kansas' account in the federal employment security trust fund to the governor and the employment security advisory council. The certification shall be submitted on or before December 1 of each calendar year and shall be for the 12-month period ending on June 30 of that calendar year. In arriving at the certification contributions paid on or before July 31 following the 12-month period ending date of June 30 shall be considered. Each certification shall be used to determine the need for any adjustment to schedule III in subsection (a)(3)(A) and to assist in preparing legislation to accomplish any such adjustment.

(a) For the purpose of providing revenue which may be used by the state, counties and cities in the enforcement of the provisions of this act, from and after the effective date of this act, for the privilege of engaging in the business of selling alcoholic liquor by retailers or farm wineries to consumers in this state or selling alcoholic liquor or cereal malt beverage by distributors to clubs, drinking establishments, public venues or caterers in this state, there is hereby levied and there shall be collected and paid a tax at the rate of 8% upon the gross receipts received from: (1) The sale of alcoholic liquor by retailers, microbreweries or farm wineries to consumers within this state; and (2) the sale of alcoholic liquor or cereal malt beverage by distributors to clubs, drinking establishments, public venues or caterers in this state.

(b) The tax imposed by this section shall be in addition to the license fee imposed on distributors, retailers, microbreweries and farm wineries by K.S.A. 41-310c and amendments thereto.

Sec. 16. K.S.A. 79-4102 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4102. The tax levied under K.S.A. 79-4101c and amendments thereto shall be paid by the consumer or user to the retailer, microbrewery or farm winery or by the club, drinking establishment, public venue or caterer to the distributor. It shall be the duty of each retailer, microbrewery, farm winery or distributor in this state to collect from the purchaser the full amount of the tax imposed by this act, or an amount equal as nearly as possible or practicable, to the average equivalent thereof.

Sec. 17. K.S.A. 79-4103 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4103. The person making the return shall, at the time of making the return, pay to the director of taxation the amount of tax imposed by K.S.A. 79-4101c and amendments thereto. The director of taxation may extend the time for making returns and paying the tax for any period not to exceed 60 days, under rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of revenue.

Sec. 18. K.S.A. 79-41a01 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-41a01. As used in K.S.A. 79-41a01 through 79-41a09, and amendments thereto:

Sec. 19. K.S.A. 79-41a02 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-41a02. (a) There is hereby imposed, for the privilege of selling alcoholic liquor, a tax at the rate of 10% upon the gross receipts derived from the sale of alcoholic liquor by any club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder.

(b) The tax imposed by this section shall be paid by the consumer to the club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder and it shall be the duty of each and every club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder subject to this section to collect from the consumer the full amount of such tax, or an amount equal as nearly as possible or practicable to the average equivalent thereto. Sec. 20. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-41a03 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-41a03. (a) The tax levied and collected pursuant to K.S.A. 79-41a02, and amendments thereto, shall become due and payable by the club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder monthly, or on or before the 25th day of the month immediately succeeding the month in which it is collected, but any club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder filing an annual or quarterly return under the Kansas retailers' sales tax act, as prescribed in K.S.A. 79-3607, and amendments thereto, shall, upon such conditions as the secretary of revenue may prescribe, pay the tax required by this act on the same basis and at the same time the club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder pays such retailers' sales tax. Each club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder shall make a true report to the department of revenue, on a form prescribed by the secretary of revenue, providing such information as may be necessary to determine the amounts to which any such tax shall apply for all gross receipts derived from the sale of alcoholic liquor by the club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder for the applicable month or months, which report shall be accompanied by the tax disclosed thereby. Records of gross receipts derived from the sale of alcoholic liquor shall be kept separate and apart from the records of other retail sales made by a club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder in order to facilitate the examination of books and records as provided herein.

(b) The secretary of revenue or the secretary's authorized representative shall have the right at all reasonable times during business hours to make such examination and inspection of the books and records of a club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder as may be necessary to determine the accuracy of such reports required hereunder.

(c) The secretary of revenue is hereby authorized to administer and collect the tax imposed hereunder and to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the efficient and effective administration and enforcement of the collection thereof. Whenever any club, caterer, drinking establishment, public venue or temporary permit holder liable to pay the tax imposed hereunder refuses or neglects to pay the same, the amount, including any penalty, shall be collected in the manner prescribed for the collection of the retailers’ sales tax by K.S.A. 79-3617, and amendments thereto.

(d) The secretary of revenue shall remit all revenue collected under the provisions of this act to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury. Subject to the maintenance requirements of the local alcoholic liquor refund fund created under K.S.A. 79-41a09, and amendments thereto, 25% of the remittance shall be credited to the state general fund, 5% shall be credited to the community alcoholism and intoxication programs fund created by K.S.A. 41-1126, and amendments thereto, and the balance shall be credited to the local alcoholic liquor fund created by K.S.A. 79-41a04, and amendments thereto.

(e) Whenever, in the judgment of the secretary of revenue, it is necessary, in order to secure the collection of any tax, penalties or interest due, or to become due, under the provisions of this act, the secretary may require any person subject to such tax to file a bond with the director of taxation under conditions established by and in such form and amount as prescribed by rules and regulations adopted by the secretary.

(f) The amount of tax imposed by this act shall be assessed within three years after the return is filed, and no proceedings in court for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period except in the cases of fraud. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, the tax may be assessed or a proceeding in court for collection of such tax may be begun at any time, within two years from the discovery of such fraud. No refund or credit shall be allowed by the director after three years from the date of payment of the tax as provided in this act unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, and no suit or action to recover on any claim for refund shall be commenced until after the expiration of six months from the date of filing a claim therefor with the director. Before the expiration of time prescribed in this section for the assessment of additional tax or the filing of a claim for refund, the director is hereby authorized to enter into an agreement in writing with the taxpayer consenting to the extension of the periods of limitations for the assessment of tax or for the filing of a claim for refund, at any time prior to the expiration of the periods of limitations. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Sec. 21. K.S.A. 79-41a04 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-41a04. (a) There is hereby created, in the state treasury, the local alcoholic liquor fund. Moneys credited to such fund pursuant to this act or any other law shall be expended only for the purpose and in the manner provided by this act.

(b) All moneys credited to the local alcoholic liquor fund shall be allocated to the several cities and counties of the state as follows:

which is paid into the state treasury during the period for which the allocation is made.

(2) Each city that has a population of 6,000 or less shall receive 46 2/3% of the amount which is collected pursuant to this act from clubs, public venues or drinking establishments located in such city, from caterers whose principal places of business are so located or from temporary permit holders whose permitted events are so located and which is paid into the state treasury during the period for which the allocation is made.

(3) Each county shall receive: (A) 70% of the amount which is collected pursuant to this act from clubs, public venues or drinking establishments located in such county and outside the corporate limits of any city, from caterers whose principal places of

ORIGINAL MOTION

Pursuant to Rule 56, Senator Emler moved to extend the time to April 27, 2012, for the Committee on Ways and Means to act on the appointment of Earl McVicker.
The motion carried.

On motion of Senator Emler, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Thursday, February 16, 2012.
The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil. The roll was called with forty senators present. The Vice President introduced as guest chaplain, Reverend Jon Sapp, Director of Evangelism & Collegiate Ministries, Topeka, who delivered the invocation.

Our Heavenly Father, we come to thank you today for the many ways You give us direction. Today, we pray for each of these that are assembled here in the Kansas Senate. In all the information and data that come their way, give them insight. Enable them to understand the wise directions they should choose as they formulate the policy decisions for our state. Guide them.

Our Father, the comfort of the present that these have worked so hard to achieve, can be seductive. Those fond memories of the past can be so tempting as to keep us here at where we are today. And so, our loving Heavenly Father, guide all of us forward into the future.

In regard to this future for which all of us are working, we ask You to give us planning wisdom, courage for implementation and endurance to carry out the plans that are being developed.

Oh God of our future, show us the way. Make our plans and the plans of this body wise as they serve the people of Kansas. We look to You this day for direction. Hear our prayer, in Jesus name....Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: Bryan was called into service on that fateful morning of August 6th, 2011 – this time to fly Navy Seals into an Afghan valley to cut off enemy combatants. His Chinook was hit by a RPG and all on the chopper perished. It was the single largest loss of life in the Afghanistan war.

When Bryan entered the Army he made an oath to support and defend the Constitution with his life. That is called SELFLESS SERVICE. It is not a coincidence that we as servants of the people have taken the same oath: I do solemnly swear…… to support and defend the Constitution …

No sign can commemorate the sacrifice that Bryan and Fallen Veterans have made to this nation more than our own daily actions - living up to that same oath we made - of Selfless Service to our country.

This sign will be a constant symbol and testimony to all who pass by Hays, through the heartland, that the cost of freedom belongs to us all but is paid, IN FULL, by only a few. Bryan and his fallen comrades have paid it for us. – ALLEN SCHMIDT

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Forgive us when we try to quarantine You from the world...to isolate You from the so-called practical side –
As if somehow You would be venturing out of Your field of expertise...
As if somehow You would undermine proven ground rules...
Or perhaps Your teaching would sound naive in the highly pragmatic world today.
Remind us in a way we cannot ignore nor fail to remember that there is no person so naive as one who tries to put God in a box with a tag reading “Open only on religious days.” Remind us that nothing has more practical effect than our view of our God and our fellow man – which happens to be Your field – and Yours alone!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,  AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

It's Black History Month,
And today is President's Day.
About which, O God
There's something I must say.

Being reared in the South
During racial segregation,
When I entered Seminary
I faced a different orientation.

So I resolved from that point on
To seek a new direction
Toward establishing friendship
And racial integration.

So we joined a Baptist Church
With a black congregation
And today we have friends
And a joyful association.

So I pray for our President,
The first one of his Race,
Keep him safe and well,
And bestow on him Your Grace.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Marshall and A. Schmidt introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1822—

A RESOLUTION recognizing the historical significance of Higley Cabin as the birthplace of our Kansas state song, "Home on the Range" and encouraging Kansas school children to support preservation of this historic site through the statewide "Coins for the Cabin" initiative.

WHEREAS, Dr. Brewster Higley, a frontier doctor, penned a six-verse poem titled "My Western Home" in 1872 near his home along the banks of Beaver Creek in Smith County, Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The poem was first published in The Smith County Pioneer in 1873; and was set to music later that same year by Kansans Daniel Kelley and the Harlan brothers; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Higley’s song became known as "Home on the Range" and quickly became a national treasure. In 1933, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt declared "Home on the Range" as his favorite song; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Legislature adopted Higley’s song as the Kansas state song on June 30, 1947; and

WHEREAS, Higley Cabin was named to the National Register of Historic Places; and has remained at its original location, and open to the public, for more than a century because of the foresight and generosity of landowners Pete and Ellen Rust; and

WHEREAS, Kansans, throughout the years, including members of the Smith County Rotary Club, the Rust family, the Ellen Rust Living Trust and area farmers, have volunteered their time and resources to protect Higley Cabin; and

WHEREAS, This year marks the 140th anniversary of Dr. Higley’s poem: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That the historical significance of Higley Cabin be recognized and revered as the birthplace of our Kansas state song, "Home on the Range"; and

Be it further resolved: That the Ellen Rust Living Trust and artist Gary Hawk be commended for their leadership on “Coins for the Cabin,” an effort to generate the financial resources needed to restore Higley Cabin and protect its rightful place in American history; and

Be it further resolved: That Kansas schoolchildren be encouraged by their teachers, parents, classmates and community leaders to partake in the statewide “Coins for the Cabin” effort and this opportunity to learn more about the significance of Higley Cabin to our state’s history; and

Be it further resolved: That Kansans everywhere join our state’s schoolchildren in supporting the “Coins for the Cabin” effort and this important opportunity to preserve Higley Cabin for future generations; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send two enrolled copies of this resolution to the Ellen Rust Living Trust, one enrolled copy to Mr. El Dean Holthus, one enrolled copy to Mr. Gary Hawk and one enrolled copy to the Kansas State Historical Society.

On emergency motion of Senator Marshall SR 1822 was adopted unanimously.

Senator Marshall introduced El Dean Holtus, his wife Kathy, Gary Hawk, his wife Beverly, Gerald Caspers, his wife Betty and Glen Caspers in recognizing the historical significance of Higley Cabin as the birthplace of our Kansas state song, “Home on the Range.” Also in attendance in support of the preservation of the historic site were: Susan Hawk, Debbie Smail, Alex Smail, Mark Obermueller, Lora Obermueller, Brecken Obermueller, Mike Franklin, T.C. Dolphin, Michael Smail, Keith Hooper, Mark Hooper, Pat Hooper, Michael Hooper, Esther Willis, Marcelline Vaughan and Danna Higley Conner. The guests were recognized with a standing ovation.

Senator A. Schmidt thanked Senator Marshall for his initiative on the Higley Cabin preservation. Because of the foresight of a number of special people, this relic of Kansas history, which has grown to international prominence, is still standing today in Senate District thirty-six, the District of former Senator Janis Lee from Smith County, who was in attendance and recognized. I simply want to say that we owe a great deal of appreciation to those who worked so diligently over the years to preserve our great history. It’s personally great, after years of military service, to live back home on the Range. Senator Reitz invited the chamber to join him in singing “Home on the Range.”

Journal of the Senate
THIRTY-FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, February 21, 2012, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Apple was excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

It's like this every session, Lord;
Would You help me, please?
I'm trying to establish
My priorities.

Do I study through the night
To help my bill to carry,
Or get the rest I need and hope
I will not be embarrassed?

Do I vote the party line
And upset some supporters,
Or break ranks with my colleagues
And pacify the voters?

Do I accept an invitation
To address important folks,
Or take my daughter out
For burgers, fries and cokes?

Do I meet with civic leaders
Discussing urban blight
Or make sure some little guy
Is getting treated right?

I have a lot more questions
But I have no time to spare.
I don't want to be accused of
A filibuster prayer!
I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

"Family or household member" also includes a man and woman if the woman is pregnant and the man is alleged to be the father, regardless of whether they have been married or have lived together at any time; and

(2) for the purpose of determining whether a conviction is a first, second, third or subsequent conviction in sentencing under this section:

(A) "Conviction" includes being convicted of a violation of K.S.A. 21-3412a, prior to its repeal, this section or entering into a diversion or deferred judgment agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging a violation of this section;

(B) "conviction" includes being convicted of a violation of a law of another state, or an ordinance of any city, or resolution of any county, which prohibits the acts that this section prohibits or entering into a diversion or deferred judgment agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings in a case alleging a violation of such law, ordinance or resolution;

(C) only convictions occurring in the immediately preceding five years including prior to July 1, 2001 shall be taken into account, but the court may consider other prior convictions in determining the sentence to be imposed within the limits provided for a first, second, third or subsequent offender, whichever is applicable; and

(D) it is irrelevant whether an offense occurred before or after conviction for a previous offense.

(d) A person may enter into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings for a violation of this section or an ordinance of any city or resolution of any county which prohibits the acts that this section prohibits only twice during any five-year period.

Sec. 16. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6604 is hereby amended to read as follows: 21-6604. (a) Whenever any person has been found guilty of a crime, the court may adjudge any of the following:

(1) Commit the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections if the current crime of conviction is a felony and the sentence presumes imprisonment, or the sentence imposed is a dispositional departure to imprisonment; or, if confinement is for a misdemeanor, to jail for the term provided by law;

(2) impose the fine applicable to the offense and may impose the provisions of subsection (q);

(3) release the defendant on probation if the current crime of conviction and criminal history fall within a presumptive nonprison category or through a departure for substantial and compelling reasons subject to such conditions as the court may deem appropriate. In felony cases except for violations of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, the court may include confinement in a county jail not to exceed 60 days, which need not be served consecutively, as a condition of an original probation sentence and up to 60 days in a county jail upon each revocation of the probation sentence, or community corrections placement;

(4) assign the defendant to a community correctional services program as provided in K.S.A. 75-5291, and amendments thereto, or through a departure for substantial and compelling reasons subject to such conditions as the court may deem appropriate, including orders requiring full or partial restitution;

(5) assign the defendant to a conservation camp for a period not to exceed six months as a condition of probation followed by a six-month period of follow-up through adult intensive supervision by a community correctional services program, if the offender successfully completes the conservation camp program;

(6) assign the defendant to a house arrest program pursuant to K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6609, and amendments thereto;

(7) order the defendant to attend and satisfactorily complete an alcohol or drug education or training program as provided by subsection (c) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6602, and amendments thereto;

(8) order the defendant to repay the amount of any reward paid by any crime stoppers chapter, individual, corporation or public entity which materially aided in the apprehension or conviction of the defendant; repay the amount of any costs and expenses incurred by any law enforcement agency in the apprehension of the defendant, if one of the current crimes of conviction of the defendant includes escape from custody or aggravated escape from custody, as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5911, and amendments thereto; repay expenses incurred by a fire district, fire department or fire company responding to a fire which has been determined to be arson or aggravated arson as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5812, and amendments thereto, if the defendant is convicted of such crime; repay the amount of any public funds utilized by a law enforcement agency to purchase controlled substances from the defendant during the investigation which leads to the defendant's conviction; or repay the amount of any medical costs and expenses incurred by any law enforcement agency or county. Such repayment of the amount of any such costs and expenses incurred by a county, law enforcement agency, fire district, fire department or fire company or any public funds utilized by a law enforcement agency shall be deposited and credited to the same fund from which the public funds were credited to prior to use by the county, law enforcement agency, fire district, fire department or fire company;

(9) order the defendant to pay the administrative fee authorized by K.S.A. 22-4529, and amendments thereto, unless waived by the court;

(10) order the defendant to pay a domestic violence special program fee authorized by K.S.A. 20-369, and amendments thereto;

(11) if the defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor or convicted of a felony specified in subsection (i) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6804, and amendments thereto, assign the defendant to work release program, other than a program at a correctional institution under the control of the secretary of corrections as defined in K.S.A. 75-5202, and amendments thereto, provided such work release program requires such defendant to return to confinement at the end of each day in the work release program. On a second conviction of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, an offender placed into a work release program must serve a total of 120 hours of confinement. Such 120 hours of confinement shall be a period of at least 48 consecutive hours of imprisonment followed by confinement hours at the end of and continuing to the beginning of the offender’s work day. On a third or subsequent conviction of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, an offender placed into a work release program must serve a total of 240 hours of confinement. Such 240 hours of confinement shall be a period of at least 48 consecutive hours of imprisonment followed by confinement hours at the end of and continuing to the beginning of the offender’s work day;

(12) order the defendant to pay the full amount of unpaid costs associated with the conditions of release of the appearance bond under K.S.A. 22-2802, and amendments thereto; impose any appropriate combination of (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11) and (12); or
(14) suspend imposition of sentence in misdemeanor cases.

(b) (1) In addition to or in lieu of any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution, which shall include, but not be limited to, damage or loss caused by the defendant's crime, unless the court finds compelling circumstances which would render a plan of restitution unworkable. In regard to a violation of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6107, and amendments thereto, such damage or loss shall include, but not be limited to, attorney fees and costs incurred to repair the credit history or rating of the person whose personal identification documents were obtained and used in violation of such section, and to satisfy a debt, lien or other obligation incurred by the person whose personal identification documents were obtained and used in violation of such section. If the court finds a plan of restitution unworkable, the court shall state on the record in detail the reasons therefor.

(2) If the court orders restitution, the restitution shall be a judgment against the defendant which may be collected by the court by garnishment or other execution as on judgments in civil cases. If, after 60 days from the date restitution is ordered by the court, a defendant is found to be in noncompliance with the plan established by the court for payment of restitution, and the victim to whom restitution is ordered has not initiated proceedings in accordance with K.S.A. 60-4301 et seq., and amendments thereto, the court shall assign an agent procured by the attorney general pursuant to K.S.A. 75-719, and amendments thereto, to collect the restitution on behalf of the victim. The chief judge of each judicial district may assign such cases to an appropriate division of the court for the conduct of civil collection proceedings.

(c) In addition to or in lieu of any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to submit to and complete an alcohol and drug evaluation, and pay a fee therefor, when required by subsection (d) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6602, and amendments thereto.

(d) In addition to any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to reimburse the county general fund for all or a part of the expenditures by the county to provide counsel and other defense services to the defendant. Any such reimbursement to the county shall be paid only after any order for restitution has been paid in full. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the court shall take account of the financial resources of the defendant and the nature of the burden that payment of such sum will impose. A defendant who has been required to pay such sum and who is not willfully in default in the payment thereof may at any time petition the court which sentenced the defendant to waive payment of such sum or any unpaid portion thereof. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose manifest hardship on the defendant or the defendant's immediate family, the court may waive payment of all or part of the amount due or modify the method of payment.

(e) In releasing a defendant on probation, the court shall direct that the defendant be under the supervision of a court services officer. If the court commits the defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections or to jail, the court may specify in its order the amount of restitution to be paid and the person to whom it shall be paid if restitution is later ordered as a condition of parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision.

(f) (1) When a new felony is committed while the offender is incarcerated and serving a sentence for a felony, or while the offender is on probation, assignment to a community correctional services program, parole, conditional release or postrelease supervision for a felony, a new sentence shall be imposed pursuant to the consecutive sentencing requirements of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6606, and amendments thereto, and the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure.

(2) When a new felony is committed while the offender is incarcerated in a juvenile correctional facility pursuant to K.S.A. 38-1671, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 38-2373, and amendments thereto, for an offense, which if committed by an adult would constitute the commission of a felony, upon conviction, the court shall sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure. The conviction shall operate as a full and complete discharge from any obligations, except for an order of restitution, imposed on the offender arising from the offense for which the offender was committed to a juvenile correctional facility.

(3) When a new felony is committed while the offender is on release for a felony pursuant to the provisions of article 28 of chapter 22 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, or similar provisions of the laws of another jurisdiction, a new sentence may be imposed pursuant to the consecutive sentencing requirements of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6606, and amendments thereto, and the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment for the new conviction, even when the new crime of conviction otherwise presumes a nonprison sentence. In this event, imposition of a prison sentence for the new crime does not constitute a departure.

(g) Prior to imposing a dispositional departure for a defendant whose offense is classified in the presumptive nonprison grid block of either sentencing guideline grid, prior to sentencing a defendant to incarceration whose offense is classified in grid blocks 5-H, 5-I or 6-G of the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes or in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes, prior to sentencing a defendant to incarceration whose offense is classified in grid blocks 4-E or 4-F of the sentencing guideline grid for drug crimes and whose offense does not meet the requirements of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, prior to revocation of a nonprison sanction of a defendant whose offense is classified in grid blocks 4-E or 4-F of the sentencing guideline grid for drug crimes and whose offense does not meet the requirements of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, or prior to revocation of a nonprison sanction of a defendant whose offense is classified in the presumptive nonprison grid block of either sentencing guideline grid or grid blocks 5-H, 5-I or 6-G of the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes or in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes, the court shall consider placement of the defendant in the Labette correctional conservation camp, conservation camps established by the secretary of corrections pursuant to K.S.A. 75-52,127, and amendment thereto, or a community intermediate sanction center. Pursuant to this paragraph the defendant shall not be sentenced to imprisonment if space is available in a conservation camp or a community intermediate sanction center and the defendant meets all of the conservation camp's or a community intermediate sanction center's placement criteria unless the court states on the record the reasons for not placing the defendant in a conservation camp or a community intermediate sanction center.

(h) The court in committing a defendant to the custody of the secretary of corrections shall fix a term of confinement within the limits provided by law. In those cases where the law does not fix a term of confinement for the crime for which the defendant was convicted, the court shall fix the term of such confinement.

(i) In addition to any of the above, the court shall order the defendant to reimburse the state general fund for all or a part of the expenditures by the state board of indigents' defense services to provide counsel and other defense services to the defendant. In determining the amount and method of payment of such sum, the court shall take account of the financial resources of the defendant and the nature of the burden that payment of such sum will impose. A defendant who has been required to pay such sum and who is not willfully in default in the payment thereof may at any time petition the court which sentenced the defendant to waive payment of such sum or any unpaid portion thereof. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose manifest hardship on the defendant or the defendant's immediate family, the court may waive payment of all or part of the amount due or modify the method of payment. The amount of attorney fees to be included in the court order for reimbursement shall be the amount claimed by appointed counsel on the payment voucher for indigents' defense services or the amount prescribed by the board of indigents' defense services reimbursement tables as provided in K.S.A. 22-4522, and amendments thereto, whichever is less.

(j) This section shall not deprive the court of any authority conferred by any other Kansas statute to decree a forfeiture of property, suspend or cancel a license, remove a person from office or impose any other civil penalty as a result of conviction of crime.

(k) An application for or acceptance of probation or assignment to a community correctional services program shall not constitute an acquiescence in the judgment for purpose of appeal, and any convicted person may appeal from such conviction, as provided by law, without regard to whether such person has applied for probation, suspended sentence or assignment to a community correctional services program.

(l) The secretary of corrections is authorized to make direct placement to the Labette correctional conservation camp or a conservation camp established by the secretary pursuant to K.S.A. 75-52,127, and amendments thereto, of an inmate sentenced to the secretary's custody if the inmate:

(1) Has been sentenced to the secretary for a probation revocation, as a departure from the presumptive nonimprisonment grid block of either sentencing grid, for an offense which is classified in grid blocks 5-H, 5-I, or 6-G of the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes or in grid blocks 3-E, 3-F, 3-G, 3-H or 3-I of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes, or for an offense which is classified in grid blocks 4-E or 4-F of the sentencing guidelines grid for drug crimes and such offense does not meet the requirements of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto; and

(2) otherwise meets admission criteria of the camp.

If the inmate successfully completes a conservation camp program, the secretary of corrections shall report such completion to the sentencing court and the county or district attorney. The inmate shall then be assigned by the court to six months of follow-up supervision conducted by the appropriate community corrections services program. The court may also order that supervision continue thereafter for the length of time authorized by K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6608, and amendments thereto.
(m) When it is provided by law that a person shall be sentenced pursuant to K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 21-4628, prior to its repeal, the provisions of this section shall not apply.

(n) Except as provided by subsection (f) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6805, and amendments thereto, in addition to any of the above, for felony violations of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5706, and amendments thereto, the court shall require the defendant who meets the requirements established in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, to participate in a certified drug abuse treatment program, as provided in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 75-52,144, and amendments thereto, including, but not limited to, an approved after-care plan. If the defendant fails to participate in or has a pattern of intentional conduct that demonstrates the offender's refusal to comply with or participate in the treatment program, as established by judicial finding, the defendant shall be subject to revocation of probation and the defendant shall serve the underlying prison sentence as established in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6805, and amendments thereto. For those offenders who are convicted on or after July 1, 2003, upon completion of the underlying prison sentence, the defendant shall not be subject to a period of postrelease supervision. The amount of time spent participating in such program shall not be credited as service on the underlying prison sentence.

(o) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (3), in addition to any other penalty or disposition imposed by law, upon a conviction for unlawful possession of a controlled substance or controlled substance analog in violation of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5706, and amendments thereto, in which the trier of fact makes a finding that the unlawful possession occurred while transporting the controlled substance or controlled substance analog in any vehicle upon a highway or street, the offender's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the streets and highways of this state shall be suspended for one year.

(2) Upon suspension of a license pursuant to this subsection, the court shall require the person to surrender the license to the court, which shall transmit the license to the division of motor vehicles of the department of revenue, to be retained until the period of suspension expires. At that time, the licensee may apply to the division for return of the license. If the license has expired, the person may apply for a new license, which shall be issued promptly upon payment of the proper fee and satisfaction of other conditions established by law for obtaining a license unless another suspension or revocation of the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle is in effect.

(3) (A) In lieu of suspending the driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state of any person as provided in paragraph (3), the judge of the court in which such person was convicted may enter an order which places conditions on such person's privilege of operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state, a certified copy of which such person shall be required to carry any time such person is operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. Any such order shall prescribe the duration of the conditions imposed, which in no event shall be for a period of more than one year.

(B) Upon entering an order restricting a person's license hereunder, the judge shall require such person to surrender such person's driver's license to the judge who shall cause it to be transmitted to the division of vehicles, together with a copy of the order. Upon receipt thereof, the division of vehicles shall issue without charge a driver's license which shall indicate on its face that conditions have been imposed on such person's privilege of operating a motor vehicle and that a certified copy of the order imposing such conditions is required to be carried by the person for whom the license was issued any time such person is operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. If the person convicted is a nonresident, the judge shall cause a copy of the order to be transmitted to the division and the division shall forward a copy of it to the motor vehicle administrator, of such person's state of residence. Such judge shall furnish to any person whose driver's license has had conditions imposed on it under this paragraph a copy of the order, which shall be recognized as a valid Kansas driver's license until such time as the division shall issue the restricted license provided for in this paragraph.

(C) Upon expiration of the period of time for which conditions are imposed pursuant to this subsection, the licensee may apply to the division for the return of the license previously surrendered by such licensee. In the event such license has expired, such person may apply to the division for a new license, which shall be issued immediately by the division upon payment of the proper fee and satisfaction of the other conditions established by law, unless such person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state has been suspended or revoked prior thereto. If any person shall violate any of the conditions imposed under this paragraph, such person's driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state shall be revoked for a period of not less than 60 days nor more than one year by the judge of the court in which such person is convicted of violating such conditions.

(4) As used in this subsection, "highway" and "street" means the same as in K.S.A. 8-1424 and 8-1473, and amendments thereto.

(p) In addition to any of the above, for any criminal offense that includes the domestic violence designation pursuant to K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 22-4616, and amendments thereto, the court shall require the defendant to: (1) Undergo a domestic violence offender assessment conducted by a certified batterer intervention program; and (2) follow all recommendations made by such program, unless otherwise ordered by the court or the department of corrections. The court may order a domestic violence offender assessment and any other evaluation prior to sentencing if the assessment or evaluation would assist the court in determining an appropriate sentence. The entity completing the assessment or evaluation shall provide the assessment or evaluation and recommendations to the court and the court shall provide the domestic violence offender assessment and any other evaluation to any entity responsible for supervising such defendant. A defendant ordered to undergo a domestic violence offender assessment shall be required to pay for the assessment and, unless otherwise ordered by the court or the department of corrections, for completion of all recommendations.

(q) In imposing a fine, the court may authorize the payment thereof in installments. In lieu of payment of any fine imposed, the court may order that the person perform community service specified by the court. The person shall receive a credit on the fine imposed in an amount equal to $5 for each full hour spent by the person in the specified community service. The community service ordered by the court shall be required to be performed by the later of one year after the fine is imposed or one year after release from imprisonment or jail, or by an earlier date specified by the court. If by the required date the person performs an insufficient amount of community service to reduce to zero the portion of the fine required to be paid by the person, the remaining balance shall become due on that date. If conditional reduction of any fine is rescinded by the court for any reason, then pursuant to the court's order the person may be ordered to perform community service by one year after the date of such rescission or by an earlier date.
specified by the court. If by the required date the person performs an insufficient amount of community service to reduce to zero the portion of the fine required to be paid by the person, the remaining balance of the fine shall become due on that date. All credits for community service shall be subject to review and approval by the court.

"Sec. 11. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 32-1049a is hereby amended to read as follows: 32-1049a. (a) Failure to comply with a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation means failure to:

(1) Appear before any district court in response to a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation and pay in full any fine, court costs, assessments or fees imposed;

(2) fully pay or satisfy all fines, court costs, assessments or fees imposed as a part of the sentence of any district court for violation of the wildlife and parks, parks and tourism laws of this state; or

(3) otherwise comply with a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation as provided in K.S.A. 32-1049, and amendments thereto.

Failure to comply with a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation is a class C misdemeanor, regardless of the disposition of the charge for which such citation, complaint or charge was originally issued.

(b) The term "citation" means any complaint, summons, notice to appear, ticket, warrant, penalty assessment or other official document issued for the prosecution of the wildlife and parks, parks and tourism laws or rules and regulations of this state.

(c) In addition to penalties of law applicable under subsection (a) when a person fails to comply with a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation or sentence for a violation of wildlife and parks, parks and tourism laws or rules and regulations, the district court in which the person should have complied shall mail a notice to the person that if the person does not appear in the district court or pay all fines, court costs, assessments or fees, and any penalties imposed within 30 days from the date of mailing, the Kansas department of wildlife and parks, parks and tourism shall be notified to forfeit or suspend any license, permit, stamp or other issue of the department. Upon receipt of a report of a failure to comply with a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation under this section, and amendments thereto, the department shall notify the violator and suspend or forfeit the license, permit, stamp or other issue of the department held by the violator until satisfactory evidence of compliance with the wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation or sentence of the district court for violation of the wildlife and parks, parks and tourism laws or rules and regulations of this state are furnished to the informing court. Upon receipt of notification of such compliance from the informing court, the department shall terminate the suspension action, unless the violator is otherwise suspended.
(d) Except as provided in subsection (e), when the district court notifies the department of a failure to comply with a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation or failure to comply with a sentence of the district court imposed on violation of a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism law or rule and regulation, the court shall assess a reinstatement fee of $50 for each charge or sentence on which the person failed to make satisfaction, regardless of the disposition of the charge for which such citation was originally issued. Such reinstatement fee shall be in addition to any fine, court costs and other assessments, fees or penalties. The court shall remit all reinstatement fees to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury and shall credit such moneys to the state general fund.

(e) The district court shall waive the reinstatement fee provided for in subsection (d), if the failure to comply with a wildlife and parks, parks and tourism citation was the result of such person enlisting in or being drafted into the armed services of the United States of America, being called into service as a member of a reserve component of the military service of the United States of America, or volunteering for such active duty or being called into service as a member of the Kansas national guard or volunteering for such active duty and being absent from Kansas because of such military service. The state treasurer and the director of accounts and reports shall prescribe procedures for all such reimbursement payments and shall create appropriate accounts, make appropriate accounting entries and issue such appropriate vouchers and warrants as may be required to make such reimbursement payments.

(f) Except as provided further, the reinstatement fee established in subsection (d) shall be the only fee collected or moneys in the nature of a fee collected for such reinstatement. Such fee shall only be established by an act of the legislature and no other authority is established by law or otherwise to collect a fee. The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,
No man we know is perfect,
Including Washington.
But we must thank You, Lord,
For the good things he has done.

He gave his soldiers Chaplains
And attendance was required
At every worship service
Which he specified.

Soldiers could not gamble
Nor get drunk or curse;
And if they disobeyed, O God,
Things would get much worse!

He encouraged fasting,
Thanksgiving and also prayer,
And the soldiers who refused
No doubt were very rare.

He added, “So help me, God”
To the inaugural oath,
No doubt hoping it would help
Each President's spiritual growth.

Since today is His birthday, Lord,
Once more we pay respect
To the Father of our Country,
Whom we should not neglect.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following bills and resolution were introduced and read by title:

SB 444, AN ACT concerning individuals with disabilities; relating to employment and competitive bids for state contracts; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 75-3739 and 75-3740 and repealing the existing sections, by Committee on Ways and Means.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1613—

By Committee on Federal and State Affairs

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION outlining the principles of the State of Kansas regarding immigration reform policies.

WHEREAS, Failure to update our federal immigration system separates and destablizes Kansas communities, and creates uncertainty, inefficiency and an uneven playing field for Kansas' citizens, businesses and economy; and

WHEREAS, The forced separation of working parents from their children weakens families and damages society; and

WHEREAS, Failure to address the system where it can be fixed – at the federal level – has left all states searching for solutions in ways that have been costly and divisive:

Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That the Legislature recommends the following basic principles as a guide for state and federal policy on immigration:

1. Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries – not Kansas and other countries. The Legislature urges the Kansas congressional delegation to take action to create a workable immigration system that upholds our values, our economic needs and moves us forward;

2. the Legislature respects the rule of law and supports law enforcement's professional judgment and discretion. Local law enforcement resources should focus on criminal activities, not civil violations of federal code;

3. strong families are the foundation of successful communities. The Legislature opposes policies that unnecessarily separate families. The Legislature champions policies that support families and improve the health, education and well-being of all Kansas children;

4. the Legislature acknowledges the important economic role immigrant Kansans play as workers, entrepreneurs and taxpayers. The immigration policies of Kansas must affirm its reputation as a welcoming and business-friendly state; and

5. immigration is an important part of our past and our future. As in the past, immigrants are totally integrated into communities across Kansas. We must adopt a humane approach to this reality, reflecting our values, history and spirit of inclusion and cooperation. The way we treat immigrants says a lot about our society being fair and just. Kansas should always be a place that welcomes people of goodwill. Our communities and our future will be best served by doing so; and

Be it further resolved: That the Legislature urgently calls upon the Kansas congressional delegation and the United States Congress to enact thorough, common sense, workable and humane reforms that reflect the realities of our country's workforce needs and represent America's values at its best; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate and each member of the Kansas congressional delegation.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: Today was a sad day on the Senate floor. The rules were abused to stifle debate. The Senate should pride itself on applying Senate rules fairly and in an unbiased manner, especially when it comes to germaneness. Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:
Heavenly Father,

Very deep within me
A battle scene unfolds:
A duel between two voices
For the capture of my soul.

One tells me not to worry
When I feel I have to lie.
But the other says that lying
I can never justify.

One says that my survival
Rests on a simple plan:
Remember that most people
Will cheat me if they can.

But the other one reminds me
If that's what I believe,
I'll live a life of misery,
For myself I will deceive.

I realize this battle
Will continue for my soul;
Please help me, Lord, to listen to
The voice YOU control!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ,  AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I voted yes on SB 272 creating multi-flex accounts because of the long-term water conservation impact of this water management method. The original bill was amended to allow those who were in severe drought areas and were approved for emergency water usage program to voluntarily join the multi-flex account program without reducing their quota by the over-usage amount. Although that emergency usage amount was significant, the reduction of water allocation and eventual usage by those who enroll in multi-flex accounts will dwarf the amount overused for those drought years. This was taken into careful consideration so that the long-term conservation of water would be the outcome. Thank you Mr. President. – ALLEN SCHMIDT

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I would like to explain my vote on SB 342. While I deplore the actions of those who do not obey laws in work areas along Kansas highways, and therefore put workers and other commuters in danger, and while I emphatically support all safety actions to protect our workers, I voted no on SB 342 because it does not include the proper signage to designate the changes in penalties with breaking the laws in so called “safety corridors.” Mr. President, many drivers may not be aware of these new penalties and we owe it to our citizens to post proper signs in these designated areas. Posting signs designating these changes may also, very well, serve as a deterrent to commuters breaking the laws. – Allen Schmidt

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Announcing adoption of HCR 5033.

INTRODUCTION OF HOUSE BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

HCR 5033 was thereupon introduced and read by title.

On emergency motion of Senator Emler, HCR 5033 was adopted by voice vote.

CONSIDERATION OF MOTIONS TO CONCUR AND NONCONCUR

Senator Bruce moved the Senate concur in House amendments to SB 83.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 17; Nays 22; Present and Passing 1; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Present and Passing: Steineger.

A call of the Senate was requested by five Senators. The President cited Rule 19 regarding passing on a vote. Senator Steineger stated his reason for the request and upon a voice vote, the explanation was accepted. The call of the Senate was lifted.

The motion to concur failed and SB 83 remains in conference.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote NO on the motion to concur in the House amendments to SB 83. This motion is an egregious effort to politicize judicial appointments. Our current judicial selection process allows for careful consideration of prospective judges and protects the rights of our citizens through subsequent retention elections.

The judiciary, as an independent and co-equal branch of government, was designed to provide stability against the political winds. This is particularly important at the higher level courts. Granting the Governor unilateral appointment power, subject to Senate confirmation, decimates a selection process that has worked well for many years and undermines the integrity and independence of the judicial branch of Kansas government. – Anthony Hensley

MR. PRESIDENT: I have and will continue to vote for the sanctity of life from conception to natural death. This bill is being characterized as a vote against that belief. I regret that, however this is a vote about process – the process of selecting appellate judges. While I do not subscribe necessarily to the current system as the ideal, likewise I do not necessarily believe the Federal system has served us better. I am in favor of finding and adopting the most effective process for Kansans. That being said, Mr. President, I say get on with it, but lets do it in the right venue with the right reasons in mind. This is not the right venue today. – Allen Schmidt

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote NO on SB 424. It would be “immoral” for me to vote for a certification requirement for the hire of law enforcement for “good moral character” without knowing how that “standard” would be consistently defined in statute. – DAVID HALEY

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 34; Nays 6; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote NO on Senate Bill 425. I recognize that we are moving towards e-filing for our Kansas Court system and that there will be additional costs associated with establishing, operating, and maintaining electronic document filing, storage, and management, but I am hopeful there will also be some savings for the court. A federal grant and a recommendation for appropriation of current fees should cover the initial costs in FY 2013 to establish the system. I am comfortable with fees for access of documents for maintenance and operations, but am concerned about additional filing fees that could increase the cost of a lawsuit by a minimum of $70 ($10 each for the petition, summons, return of service, journal entry of judgment, garnishment, release of garnishment and satisfaction of judgment). If fees must be used to fund the establishment of an e-filing court system, perhaps a minimal increase in attorney registration fees should be considered. – MARCI FRANCISCO

Senators Haley and Hensley request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Francisco on SB 425.

SR 1806, urging the United States Congress give Kansas an exemption to the federal freeze on more productive trucks and allow Kansas to determine the appropriate vehicle size limits necessary for the economic needs of the state.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 40; Nays 0; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The resolution was adopted, as amended.

HCR 5007, to amend the constitution of the state of Kansas by adding a new article 16 thereto, concerning health care.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 26; Nays 14; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

A two-thirds constitutional majority having not voted in favor of the resolution, HCR 5007 was not adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: We are in a battle. The battle about whether the rights of citizens shall be overridden by the Federal Government is raging. We as legislators in the State Senate representing citizens of the state of Kansas should be on the forefront of this battle to protect those rights. Therefore I vote in favor of HCR 5007. – STEVE ABRAMS

Senators Love, Lynn, Masterson, Olson and Pilcher-Cook request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Abrams on HCR 5007.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: HCR 5007 expresses a sentiment with which I heartily concur, to-wit: the federal government cannot mandate individuals purchase healthcare coverage. It is also, however, a waste of public funds, also called taxpayer dollars. The United States Supreme Court will decide whether The Affordable Care Act is constitutional. Once that decision is made, HCR 5007 will have no real purpose, but will have cost Kansans tens of thousands of dollars, which could better be used to reduce criminal recidivism.

Having said all the foregoing, the measure does not appear to be unconstitutional, immoral or unethical and many of my constituents desire the opportunity to vote on the issue. I therefore vote “aye”. – JAY EMLER

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote “NO” on HCR 5007. This HCR, regarding the so-called freedom from Healthcare Act, is a feeble, meaningless attempt to decouple Kansas from provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, signed into law exactly almost two years ago (nicknamed “Obamacare”).

We should, as a mature, responsible legislature with little time or taxpayer dollars, stop wasting our limited session on political posturing, especially on a federal program which will potentially benefit all Kansans; all Americans.

Grow up; move forward colleagues.....ahead!

This year, the U.S. Supreme Court will ultimately render a verdict affirming, or not the constitutionality of the Healthcare Act. I believe we, who desire a healthier, more financially secure America, will prevail. And will then, unobstructed finally, go to work....for America. We should not waste $164,000 of SGF today for a ballot issue that will be decided by the U.S. Supreme Court enacting the Supremacy Clause.

So when Obamacare is working well for the majority of this country, please do yourself two favors, O.K.? First: Continue to give credit, as Obamacare, to this Presidential Administration and to the visionary, brave, men and women of the last Congress for its passage, and Second: “What will the children think?” Our chaplain, Fred Holloman asked us to consider during a prayer last year, so when Obamacare is working and the stories of a healthier and more financially secure constituency abound, try not to hang your heads in shame when your children and grandchildren ask you: “Tell me why, again were you so against healthcare benefits...??” O.K.? – DAVID HALEY

MR. PRESIDENT: The supremacy clause of the United States Constitution says that no state law or state constitution can override federal law. Therefore, a statewide vote on this amendment would have no impact on the federal health care bill.

We can no more vote to stop implementation of federal health care than we could have voted to stop the 1965 voting rights act, anti-trust laws, Social Security or Medicare. To lead voters to believe a change to our state constitution will stop the federal health care bill from coming to Kansas is misleading and disingenuous. And it's a waste of taxpayer money.

If an amendment to our state constitution were allowed to trump federal law, there could be severe consequences for thousands of disabled and elderly Kansans who rely on programs like Medicare to receive the care they need. Not only would this amendment undermine the viability of our state Medicare program, it could trap clients on Medicaid.

I cannot mislead my constituents nor lead them down a path of unintended consequences. Mr. President, I vote no on House Concurrent Resolution 5007. – Laura Kelly

Senators Francisco, Hensley, Haley, Kultula, Owens, Reitz and Umbarger request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Kelly on HCR 5007.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: More than 350,000 Kansas residents currently rely on Medicaid to get the health care services they need to live healthy, independent lives. Among these clients are thousands of rural Kansans.

While I support aspects of this resolution, I fear that an amendment to our state constitution may unintentionally cause irreparable harm to our Medicare program and trap clients on Medicaid.

Until we know more about the affects a constitutional amendment would have on our citizens and their future well being, I felt it was prudent to vote against today's resolution. – Allen Schmidt

On motion of Senator Emler, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, February 29, 2012.
The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

I'd like to pray a special prayer
For the ladies in the Senate.
Senator Meyers in eighty-two
Was the only woman in it.

They used to be called the weaker sex,
But I want to make it clear
Wherever the alleged weakness is,
It ain't between the ears!

A woman no longer has to prove
She's Kassebaum or Thatcher,
The question's not, “Can she keep up?”
But, “Can anybody catch her?”

So bless these ladies in the Senate:
Huntington and Kelly;
Kultala and Faust-Goudeau;
Pilcher-Cook and Schmidt,
Teichman and Francisco.
Schodorf and Lynn,
Wagle and McGinn.

Bless each one of them,
I know they understand
To represent their district well,
They don't have to be a man.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, AMEN
The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

In recognition of Military Appreciation Day, Vice President Vratil introduced guest chaplain, Military Chaplain Major Michael Shellman, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, who delivered the invocation.

Members of the Kansas Senate, I thank you for the opportunity to be here today. As I have come to offer the invocation today on this Military Appreciation Day, I not only stand here as an active duty military Chaplain and officer, but I stand here also as one representing our military men and women who courageously serve our great country. It is with a grateful heart for these defenders of freedom that I now invite you to join me in prayer for our leaders, both military and civilian, and for those they both serve:

Almighty God, I come before your presence with joy and thanksgiving on this day of appreciation for our military personnel.

God, there are many of Kansas’s sons and daughters who are serving in the military both here and those who are deployed. I pray for their safety, strength of body and of character, and for their leadership. Help them in the moment of decision, You would be with them to guide, protect and assist. As they serve, so their families are also serving. I pray for Your protection and provision to be with them as well.

Be here also in our Kansas communities. Strengthen us that we may in turn strengthen others around us. Help us to support our Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines who are also sons and daughters of Kansas and may our actions reflect our support as well. Bless us now in this hallowed chamber, God bless our military, and God bless America.

In the name of Jesus I pray, Amen.

SPECIAL REMARKS

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: Armed Forces Day was created in 1949 by President Harry Truman following the consolidation of the military services in the Department of Defense to honor Americans serving in the five U.S. Military branches – the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force and Coast Guard. This morning, our Governor has signed a proclamation designating today, Thursday, March 1, 2012, as Kansas Armed Forces Appreciation Day.
Today, 63 years after the formation of the Department of Defense and the first Armed Forces Day, the United States military service members are standing ever vigilant at their posts around the world to keep us secure. The military of the United States is deployed in more than 150 countries and are working here at home to protect America from threats foreign and domestic. They are risking their lives in the mountains of Afghanistan and serving bravely providing security and peacekeeping missions in places like Djibouti, Kenya, Kosovo and the Sinai, among others. They provide humanitarian assistance when and where needed across the world.

Today, the National Guard and Reserve not only continue their support to emergencies at home and to active duty units that deploy, but are also deployed themselves. Kansas Guard and Reserve members make the extra sacrifice of leaving their full time jobs to deploy.

Mention must also be made of the families who support our military members as they serve. Many here in this chamber have served or have immediate family members serving right now.

Please join me on this “Kansas Armed Forces Appreciation Day” in saying thank-you to those Americans who serve to protect what we often take for granted – our security and our right to meet here today. – Allen Schmidt

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,
Another week-end has arrived,
Senators headed home
To spend some time away
From the old green dome.

But leisure time will be quite rare,
For constituents must be told
About issues which are getting hot
Over eggs that are getting cold.

They'll spend some time with family,
But not much I am afraid,
For a lot of it will deal with
The calls that must be made.

And there's e-mail to answer,
And family chores to do;
Not to mention business
Which must be tended to.

But grant them, Lord, a little time
To prop their feet up high,
And fold their hands and close their eyes,
And heave a heavy sigh.

Help them to find a quiet place
Where they cannot be found.
Re-charge their worn-out batteries
Before Monday rolls around.
I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 1615 —

By Senators Pilcher-Cook, Abrams, Apple, Bruce, Donovan, Kelsey, King, Longbine, Love, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, McGinn, Merrick, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pyle, A. Schmidt, Taddiken, Umbarger and Wagle

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging President Barack Obama and the United States Department of Health and Human Services to rescind its "preventive services" rule under the "Affordable Care Act," specific services in violation of religious liberty and the free exercise thereof.

WHEREAS, The First Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees that Congress shall make no law prohibiting the free exercise of religion; and

WHEREAS, Many employers in this country are organizations founded on deeply-held religious beliefs; and

WHEREAS, The law has always protected the rights of those employers and their employees not to take actions which would violate their conscience and those religious beliefs without penalty; and

WHEREAS, On January 20, 2012, the United States Department of Health and Human Services announced its new rule requiring almost all employers, including employers with deeply held religious beliefs, to provide health insurance coverage that includes specific services in violation of religious liberty and free exercise thereof; and

WHEREAS, On February 10, 2012, the United States Department of Health and Human Services announced a change to its new rule to require all insurance companies, including the self-insured and organizations owned by those with deeply held religious beliefs, to provide health insurance coverage that includes specific services in violation of religious liberty and the free exercise thereof; and

WHEREAS, As a result of the modification to such rule, employers will still be compelled to purchase and provide such health insurance coverage, albeit indirectly as these services and products cannot be free and must still be paid for by passing the costs to the purchaser, in violation of such employer's conscience and the conscience of the dedicated employees of the employer or to cease providing health insurance coverage altogether and incur a penalty for doing so; and

WHEREAS; As a result of the modification to such rule, the self-insured and health insurance companies will be compelled to purchase and provide specific services in violation of religious liberty and the free exercise thereof in violation of such health insurance company's owner's conscience and the conscience of the dedicated employees of the health insurance company or to cease providing health insurance coverage altogether and go out of business; and

WHEREAS; By being compelled to purchase and provide such health insurance coverage, such employers and health insurance companies are in effect being compelled to purchase and provide specific services in violation of religious liberty and the free exercise thereof to others; and

WHEREAS; The United States Department of Health and Human Services' rule is being used to force the private sector to pay for government-mandated controversial entitlements with funds from the private sector; and

WHEREAS; The United States Department of Health and Human Services' rules are not accountable to the people as such rules are still being modified and can be changed at any time without a vote of Congress, thereby lacking clear protection of the people; and

WHEREAS; The United States Department of Health and Human Services' rule is government coercion of religious people and groups to violate their most deeply held convictions; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Health and Human Services’ final rule is a direct threat to the religious freedom of all citizens of the United States; and

WHEREAS, If the federal government can dictate what health services must be provided to employees of religious groups, when these “health services” violate basic tenets of the faith of the religious groups, the federal government is, in fact, dictating what tenets of faith are acceptable; and

WHEREAS, If the federal government can dictate the tenets of faith or religious groups, such government is in violation of the First Amendment by denying religious freedom; and

WHEREAS, The rules force health insurance companies to provide these health services consisting of specific services in violation of religious liberty and the free exercise thereof without a co-pay, misleading the insured that these are free services; and

WHEREAS, Coercing religious ministries and citizens to pay directly for actions which violate their conscience is an unprecedented incursion of freedom of conscience; Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas and the House of Representatives concurring therein: That we urge President Barack Obama and the United States Department of Health and Human Services to rescind the recently announced rule that mandates “health services” in health insurance policies, mandating coverage of specific services and products that violate the religious tenets of a large portion of the population of the United States and which is a direct violation of the United States Constitution.

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this concurrent resolution to President Barack Obama, to Kathleen Sebelius, Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services and to each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with thirty-seven senators present. Senators Abrams, Masterson and V. Schmidt were excused.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:
Heavenly Father,

Can one still make a difference?

One Senator hoped to make a difference, The first time that one ran. There were things that needed changing, And one came with a plan.

But it only took one session For reality to set in. One only has one vote to cast, And it takes twenty-one to win!

Even if both houses pass it, The Governor may not like it, And it only takes one stroke Of his veto pen to strike it.

But hopefully the shock wears off And one comes to realize That numbers don’t always measure One person’s influence size.

How one conducts one’s self Has a lot to do With how much influence one can have Before one’s term is through.

Maintaining one’s integrity Wins one great respect. And makes one’s single vote Have a lot more effect.
And once they begin to see
The power of prayer unfold,
The impact of one's influence
Is something to behold!

So to keep one from discouragement,
Show how it's not odd
How one can make a difference
When that one connects with God!

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Research has discovered some basic principles which underlie the thinking of our founding fathers.
Here are quotes from seven of our founders which reveal their principles involving government...
God guides and controls the universe and the affairs of mankind.
God has revealed His truth through the Scriptures.
God has ordained human government to restrain the sinful nature of humanity.
Governments are formed by covenant or compact of the people in order to safeguard human rights.
Governments have only such powers as are delegated to them by the people.
The best way to prevent governments from usurping power is to separate powers and functions into legislative, executive, and judicial branches.
Human nature being what it is, a free enterprise economy is the best way to give people an incentive to produce and develop national prosperity.
Thank You, Lord, for calling men as founders of our nation who adhere to the principles that are either derived from or compatible with the Bible.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senator McGinn introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1830—

A RESOLUTION recognizing the need to protect animals and children from the danger of antifreeze poisoning.
WHEREAS, For six wonderful years, Nikko, a Shiba Inu, and Aaron Coash, a 12-year-old Kansas boy were best friends. They competed in dog shows together and brought happiness to older adults in nursing homes. However, one day when Aaron returned home from school, Nikko was not there to greet him. The dog had wandered off on an ill-fated adventure and ended up drinking antifreeze. Nikko’s health quickly declined and after a week of pain due to the antifreeze poisoning, the dog died; and

WHEREAS, Antifreeze poisoning kills an estimated 10,000 animals and more than a thousand children each year, according to the Humane Society of the United States. The main component of antifreeze is ethylene glycol, which tastes sweet and attracts pets and children. The poison attacks the kidneys and by the time symptoms are evident, the kidneys are already failing. A mere teaspoon of antifreeze can kill a small dog; and

WHEREAS, In order to protect children and pets, 17 states in the U.S. (Arizona, California, Georgia, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New Mexico, Oregon, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin) have signed into law or enacted law requiring the addition of a bittering agent to antifreeze; and

WHEREAS, The addition of a bittering agent such as denatonium benzoate would render engine coolants and antifreeze bitter-tasting and unpalatable; and

WHEREAS, Consumers are often not aware that in some states bulk sales of antifreeze are not required to have a bittering agent. This means that a trip to the local refueling station will bring home untreated antifreeze. The bittering agent, denatonium benzoate, adds only a minimal cost increase to manufacturers, about two to three cents per bottle; and

WHEREAS, Aaron Coash has requested a bill for introduction in the Kansas legislature that would require all antifreeze sold in the state of Kansas to contain a chemical that turns its sweet taste bitter. He is calling it Nikko’s law, in honor of his dog: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the need to protect animals and children from the danger of antifreeze poisoning and commend Aaron Coash for his efforts in proposing Nikko’s law; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator McGinn.

On emergency motion of Senator McGinn SR 1830 was adopted unanimously.

Senator McGinn introduced senate page Aaron Coash, who was recognized for his proposal of Nikko's law, in honor of his dog.

Senators Brungardt, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hensley, Holland, Kelly, Kelsey, Kultala, Longbine, Marshall, McGinn, Morris, Owens, Reitz, A. Schmidt, V. Schmidt, Schodorf, Teichman, Umbarger and Vratil introduced the following senate resolution which was read:
SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1831—

A RESOLUTION requesting that Governor Sam Brownback, the Secretary for Aging and Disability Services, the Department for Aging and Disability Services, the Secretary of Health and Environment and the Department of Health and Environment delay the implementation of the statewide KanCare program until July 1, 2013.

WHEREAS, Delay until July 1, 2013, will allow Governor Brownback’s administration to receive necessary stakeholder and public input on the implementation of the KanCare program by Managed Care Organizations; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will allow the appropriate state agencies the opportunity to determine whether the state of Kansas home and community based service programs, especially the services for the developmentally disabled, and community mental health programs should be included within the KanCare program; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will give more time for the members of the Kansas Legislature to study and determine, during the interim period after the 2012 regular session, the 2013 regular session and the interim period after the 2013 regular session, how medical care and long-term services and supports should be administered to low-income, the disabled and the elderly citizens of our state; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will give more time for the members of the Kansas Legislature to study and determine, during the interim period after the 2012 regular session, the 2013 regular session and the interim period after the 2013 regular session, how the proposed KanCare program would affect the operation of hospitals, pharmacies, doctors, dentists, nursing homes and long-term care providers in rural Kansas communities; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will give more time for the members of the Kansas Legislature to study and determine, during the interim period after the 2012 regular session, the 2013 regular session and the interim period after the 2013 regular session, how the proposed KanCare program would affect the operation of all hospitals and adult care facilities throughout Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will allow the members of the Kansas Legislature the opportunity, during the interim period after the 2012 regular session, the 2013 regular session and the interim period after the 2013 regular session, to gather information on proposed KanCare programs, hold important committee meetings and provide oversight on the KanCare program so that appropriate case management practices are employed to ensure proper medical and long-term care decisions are made; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will allow the members of the Kansas Legislature and the Kansas Commissioner of Insurance and Insurance Department sufficient time to review and assess the pending United States Supreme Court ruling on the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 124 Stat. 119 through 124 Stat. 1025, and to determine how the ruling will impact the implementation and operation of the KanCare program in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will allow all appropriate state agencies to obtain required federal waivers, to write appropriate implementation plans, and to communicate these implementation plans to the thousands of service providers and consumers of services in Kansas; and

WHEREAS, Such delay will allow the members of the Kansas Legislature the opportunity to ensure that the thousands of medical and long-term care providers under the state Medicaid plan have been properly trained to carry out the implementation and day-to-day requirements of the KanCare program and further ensure that the Managed Care Organizations in KanCare have put in place adequate procedures to ensure proper timing in the billing of claims and that timely payments to all providers have been made and properly accounted for: Now, therefore,

_Cit_ Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we urge Governor Sam Brownback, the Secretary for Aging and Disability Services, the Department for Aging and Disability Services, the Secretary of Health and Environment and the Department of Health and Environment and all other appropriate state agencies to delay the implementation of the statewide KanCare program until July 1, 2013, in order to ensure that all participants and enrollees will continue receiving quality services under Medicaid programs and to ensure that all providers operate in a most efficient system;
and

_Cit_ Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of Kansas, the Secretary for Aging and Disability Services and the Secretary of Health and Environment.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. VICE PRESIDENT: On behalf of the fallen firefighters and their families of the State of Kansas, I vote YES on SB 250. – OLETHA FAUST-GOUDEAU

MR VICE PRESIDENT: I support SB 250 because of the clear message it sends to our firefighters and their families in the case the firefighter is killed or dies in the Line of Duty. This bill provides an essential bridge in family health coverage by continuing that coverage for up to eighteen months. I understand this is an unfunded mandate for municipalities and have discussed this with several city leaders and the League of Municipalities and have received the support from most, since we reduced the coverage from five years to eighteen months and as only four firefighters have died in the Line of Duty in Kansas in nearly ten years. Mr. Vice President, this type of support for the families of those fallen in the line of duty represents a small price for us but a huge support to those who serve us as firefighters. – ALLEN C. SCHMIDT
SB 353, AN ACT concerning barbers; relating to the powers of the board; fees; licensure; amending K.S.A. 65-1819 and 65-1820a and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 65-1817 and 65-1824 and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 40; Nays 0; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The bill passed.

On motion of Senator Emler, the Senate adjourned until 2:30 p.m., Thursday, March 8, 2012.
The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-eight senators present.
Senators Merrick and Schodorf were excused.

The President introduced guest chaplain, Military Chaplain Major Lawrence Dabeck, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, who delivered the invocation.

Almighty God, You are the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow.  You are the One eternal constant and You change not.

But not so with us Lord.  We are pulled this way and that.  We are daily beset by forces from without and by frailties from within.  We come to You to make us steady.
Ground us today Lord in this great chamber to be steady in our convictions and to be constant in our compassion.  Help us to season justice with mercy.  In short, help us to be like Your Son the Lord Jesus Christ.

We come to You this afternoon with empty hands.  We cannot do this thing for ourselves, for, “who is sufficient for these things?”  Surely not us.  Steady our boat in the midst of our storms; command again to the wind and the waves, “Peace, be still,” and thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ, in whose name we ask for Your peace,  AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS
The following concurrent resolution was introduced and read by title:

By Senators Holland, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Haley, Hensley and Steineger

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging congress to pass an amendment to the United States constitution to abolish corporate personhood.

WHEREAS, Government was established to provide a social contract between naturally born persons; and
WHEREAS, The founders of the republic and the signers of the United States constitution clearly and emphatically intended freedom of speech to mean freedom to communicate with and by naturally born persons either directly or through the free press; and
WHEREAS, Free and fair elections are essential to democracy and effective self-governance; and
WHEREAS, Corporations are entirely human-made legal fictions created by the express permission of the citizens of this country and its government; and
WHEREAS, Corporations can exist in perpetuity, can exist simultaneously in many nations, need only profit for survival and exist solely through the legal charter imposed by the government; and
WHEREAS, Corporations are not mentioned in the United States constitution, have never been granted constitutional rights nor have ever been granted authority that exceeds that of the citizens of this country; and
WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court ruled on January 21, 2010, in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, that corporations have the same first amendment rights as naturally born persons, and that corporations can spend unlimited amounts of money on elections; and
WHEREAS, Large corporations have used their so-called rights to overturn democratically enacted laws passed at municipal, state and federal levels aimed at curbing corporate abuse, thus rendering local governments ineffective in protecting citizens against corporate harms to the environment, to health, to workers, to independent business and to local and regional economies; and
WHEREAS, There is an unequal playing field that allows corporations to spend without limit to influence elections, candidate selection and policy decisions and to sway votes; and
WHEREAS, Large corporations own most of America's mass media and use that media as a megaphone to loudly express such corporations' political agenda and to convince the citizens of this country that the citizen's role is that of consumer, rather than a sovereign citizen with rights and responsibilities within our democracy, and this forces citizens to toil to discern the truth behind headlines and election campaigning; and
WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court is misguided in principle, and wrong on the law, because in a democracy the people rule: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein: That congress is hereby urged to immediately transmit to the several states for ratification an amendment to the United States constitution to abolish corporate personhood by establishing that the term "person" refers only to naturally born persons, returning our democracy, our elections and our communities to America's naturally born persons, thus reclaiming our sovereign right to self-governance; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to each member of the Kansas Congressional Delegation.

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1832—

A RESOLUTION designating the Honor and Remember Flag as the State of Kansas' emblem of the service and sacrifice by those in the United States Armed Forces who have given their lives in the line of duty.

WHEREAS, While war deaths have been a part of our heritage since the birth of this nation, the United States has not instituted an official symbol commemorating fallen servicepersons; and

WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag, created by Honor and Remember, Inc., is officially recognized to honor fallen members of the United States Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag's red field represents the brave men and women who sacrificed their lives for freedom. The flag’s blue star is a symbol of active service in military conflict that dates back to World War I. The flag’s white border recognizes the purity of sacrifice. The flag’s gold star signifies the ultimate sacrifice of a warrior in active service who is not returning home and reflects the value of the life given. The folded flag element highlights this nation’s final tribute to a fallen serviceperson and a family’s sacrifice. The flag’s flame symbolizes the eternal spirit of the departed; and

WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag recognizes all individuals who have died as a result of serving in the United States military dating back to the founding of our nation. The flag serves as a symbol of national gratitude for the hundreds of thousands of brave American men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice to preserve the freedoms we enjoy; and
WHEREAS, The Honor and Remember Flag is a unifying symbol recognizing this nation’s solemn debt to the estimated 1.6 million fallen service persons throughout history and the families and communities who mourn their loss: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we designate the Honor and Remember Flag as the State of Kansas’ emblem of service and sacrifice by the brave men and women of the United States Armed Forces who have given their lives in the line of duty; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send fifteen enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator A. Schmidt.

On emergency motion of Senator A. Schmidt SR 1832 was adopted unanimously.

Senator A. Schmidt made the following remarks:

Today in our presence are the family members of our brothers and sisters who have given their lives in service to our Nation. We have had several occasions to honor such service in this chamber and to show our deep respect and sense of honor for their service and sacrifice as well as the sacrifice of their families. Today we honor their service and sacrifice by adopting a symbol known as the Honor And Remember Flag as the Kansas emblem for their sacrifice. A replica of that flag is on your desk. It has already been endorsed by Vietnam Veterans of America, the Air Force Association, the Association of the US Army, Association of the US Navy, Military Officers Association of America, American Gold Star Mothers, Bugles Across America, the Retired Enlisted Association, Son's of the American Revolution National Society, and many more. This morning the Kansas House adopted the Flag on a unanimous vote. If we adopt this flag today we will be the 10th state to do so.

The flag was designed by George Lutz, Gold Star father of Corporal Anthony Lutz II who gave his life in Fallujah, Iraq. George has traveled the country with this symbol and his message. If I can quote from his comments to the Governor this morning, “The Honor and Remember Flag is a symbol of gratitude when there are no words to say. It replaces no other flag and it flies below any flag that it flies with because it is the foundation of all service – love of country.” Not much more needs to be said, so let me introduce the Gold Star Family members, those who have lost loved ones in service to our nation: Fellow Senators, I would like to introduce the family members who we refer to as GOLD STAR mothers, fathers, grandparents of our fallen Veterans.

Dennis and Betty Wright, Gold Star Parents of Private Shawn Wright, Diana Pitts and Kathie Echols, Gold Star mother and grandmother of Corporal David Unger, Sun Rodgers, Gold Star mother of Sergeant Ricky Rodgers, Amber Mena, wife of Sergeant Ralph Mena, Anita Dixon, Gold Star mother of Sergeant Evan Parker, and Belinda Paauwe, Gold Star mother of Sergeant Michael Paauwe.

I would also like to point out other veterans and members of the Patriot Guard who often escort our fallen members of the military on their final journey to their resting place. Our humble thanks to them and to all our Gold Star Families with us here today.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

In the twenty-fifth chapter of Matthew we read about the judgment scene where Jesus identifies with those to whom the righteous had ministered on earth.
Perhaps if Jesus were on earth today He might put it in contemporary terms.

I was a different color and you showed me respect.
I had aids and you cared for me.
I was a battered wife and you wept with me.
I was homeless and you took me in.
I was a pregnant teenager and you prayed for me.
I was a nursing home resident and you visited me.
I was a single mother and you encouraged me.
I was unemployed and you helped me.
I was a wounded veteran and you saluted me.

Lord, may we all be found among those to whom Jesus could speak these words.

I pray in His Name. AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Monday, March 12, 2012, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

We would like to pray today for that one constituent whose voice is hard to hear, because his problem is not on anyone's agenda:

He cannot leave his job
So he can speak to us in person.
No one here can speak for him
Which makes his problem worsen.

Contributions he can't make;
He's far too deep in debt.
Just to phone Topeka
Might leave some bills unmet.

But there are things that bother him
Which he would like to share
With someone in the Capitol
Who hopefully will care.

So if we get a letter
That took some time to write,
And paper's rather cheap,
And the spelling's not just right.

Let us take some time to read it,
Though a meeting we'll be missing.
No doubt he'll be quite grateful
For he needs someone to listen.

We will probably be busy,
Major issues face us all.
But help us pay attention
To that lonely voice who calls.
I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

The Senate was called to order by Vice President John Vratil.
The roll was called with forty senators present.
The Vice President introduced as guest chaplain, Reverend Thom Belote, Shawnee Mission Unitarian Universalist Church, Overland Park, Kansas, who delivered the invocation:

We pause for a moment of inspiration as we prepare to lead and legislate on behalf of Kansans of a beautiful diversity of faiths. Help us to strive to be as good and as wise as our God would have us be. Help us to be as fair and as judicious as our democracy demands.

God of our own faith, may we realize in our deliberations and discussions that it is a strong faith that is not threatened when others practice their own faith and follow their own conscience in personal matters, but it is a weak and insecure faith that is threatened by those who differ from us. May we confidently embrace Jefferson's words on religious liberty, that “truth is great and will prevail if left to herself; that (truth alone) is the proper and sufficient antagonist to error.”

Help this legislative body to deliberate with sincerity, disagree with integrity, and debate with civility. Help each member to honor the power and privilege of his or her position by respecting all, honoring difference, and trusting the moral agency of all those on whose behalf each of you serves. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Vice President John Vratil.

Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,
Though we know that it will happen
We always feel the sting
Of continually getting blamed
For almost everything!

It seems that it must be
A part of human nature,
When something has gone wrong,
To blame the legislature.

People seldom think to ask
Which way we cast our vote.
If they don't like the bill we passed,
We ALL become the goat.

Please help the people realize, O God,
We EXPECT to take the blame
For every vote we've ever cast
Since the day we came!

But no one likes to take the blame
For things we did not do.
Like everyone we want to be Treated fairly, too!

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE
Senator Morris rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to introduce his granddaughter, Savannah Tasset, and her friend, Clara Bartlett, who were serving as pages.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. President: I vote "NO" on HB 2468. As anyone who has ever rooted for the underdog when Perry Mason brought in that piece of previously undiscovered evidence for the defense knows, there is a decided difference between the resources available to the tax payer supported prosecution and the resources availed to an often hasty and/or underfunded defense. There's a reason only a few states have a reciprocity of evidence...

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Umbarger, Marshall, Apple and King introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1834—

A RESOLUTION honoring and commemorating the Sisters of Mercy Hospitals in Kansas.

WHEREAS, Mercy Health Center, Fort Scott, celebrated its 125th year anniversary last year, on March 1, 2012, Mercy Hospital of Independence will celebrate its 85th year anniversary and Mercy Maude Norton of Columbus was established in 1917; and

WHEREAS, Mercy Hospital in Fort Scott was established when Sr. Theresa Dolan and Sr. Mary Delores Drew arrived in Fort Scott intending to establish a school only to learn the community was in desperate need of a hospital instead. A small 10-bed hospital had been prepared and was waiting for operation. There had not been a hospital in the area for more than 30 years, and the closest one was 90 miles away in Kansas City. Mercy Hospital of Independence was founded in 1927 by the same order of the Religious Sisters of Mercy. Maude Norton Memorial City Hospital was established in 1917 and in November of 2009, the hospital joined with Sisters of Mercy Health System. In January of 2012, the hospital became known as Mercy Maude Norton of Columbus; and

WHEREAS, Once a 10-bed hospital in downtown Fort Scott, the current Mercy Hospital now stands strong on a hill at the south end of Fort Scott. The state-of-the-art facility opened in 2002 following a $2.2 million capital campaign; a testimony to the philanthropic support from individuals whose lives have been touched by the exceptional care at Mercy. Mercy now operates physician clinics in three counties in southeast Kansas; Bourbon, Linn and Crawford, as well as a multi-specialty clinic where patients see physician specialists who travel to Fort Scott to limit the need for patients to travel out of town; and

WHEREAS, Mercy's Independence-based facilities offer full-service primary inpatient and outpatient care; physician services through the Mercy Physician Group; home health services; outpatient rehabilitation; community fitness; and retail pharmacy services. In addition, Mercy sponsors a rural outreach health clinic, located in Cherryvale, which has just relocated and expanded to offer additional services, extended hours and a second provider; and

WHEREAS, The Maude Norton Memorial City Hospital was established in 1917 by the terms of William Norton's will. His home, located at 200 North Kansas Avenue, was donated to the city of Columbus for use as a hospital. It was dedicated to the memory of his daughter Maude, who died in a swimming accident in 1905. The Norton home, considered a mansion during that period, served as the hospital until 1952, when it was demolished and replaced by a more modern building. Several additions and remodeling projects have taken place over the years, but the hospital retains the charm and atmosphere unique to a period of time considered by many to be the Mercy "good old days"; and

WHEREAS, Over the years other service lines have been added to accommodate patients' growing health care needs. Mercy Home Health, Mercy Imaging Services, cancer care services, Mercy Urgent Care, Mercy Rehabilitation Services and Health for Life all focused around providing convenient access to the quality services Mercy patients have grown to appreciate. Mercy's plans for this decade include providing patients access to an even larger network of providers and services as well as incorporating the latest technology to make health care easier; and

WHEREAS, For 125 years Mercy has been steadfast yet dynamic; committed to and seeking out methods to serve the health care needs of the Fort Scott, Independence and Columbus communities and far beyond: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we commend and congratulate the Sisters of Mercy Hospitals in Kansas for the compassionate and caring service that they have given to the citizens of rural Kansas over the last 125 years; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to each Sisters of Mercy Hospital in Kansas and Lynn Britton, CEO, Mercy Health of St. Louis, MO.

On emergency motion of Senator Umbarger SR 1834 was adopted unanimously.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote No on SB 311. I support and respect the Pawnee County officials, community leaders and citizens in their consistent and unyielding support for the state institutions housed in their county. I am disappointed that their efforts to keep the Isaac Ray facility for its intended purpose (forensic evaluations) is left at risk by intended appropriations in SB 311. I fought to change SB 311 direction by amending it on the floor. I was unable to execute that action but was able to raise Pawnee County concerns on the Senate floor and gain support for a hearing with Pawnee County officials. Mr. President, I will continue my support for this effort. – Allan C. Schmidt

SB 314, AN ACT concerning the department of wildlife, parks and tourism; relating to licenses; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 32-906, 32-919 and 32-988 and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 23; Nays 17; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. President: I want to thank the Senate body for its thoughtful consideration of SB 314. Coincidentally, we have brought this for your consideration on the 75th Anniversary of the Wildlife and Sports Restoration Program, often referred to as Pittman Robertson/Dingle Johnson. Pittman Robertson was passed in 1937 and Dingle Johnson was passed in 1950.

The Kansas House passed a resolution that expresses the unselfish commitment that sportsmen and women have had to preserving the natural resources of the United States. Kansas is no exception. Since 1950, when Pittman Robertson was passed, Kansas sportsmen and women – in partnership with Fish and Game, Wildlife and Parks, and now Wildlife Parks and Tourism – have created outdoor recreation opportunities and the diversity of those opportunities are second to none in North America.

Our seniors are paying the excise tax on the sporting equipment they buy, but if we cannot show them as a hunter or angler we cannot guarantee their money is coming back to Kansas. – Ralph Ostmeyer

Senators Bruce, Francisco, Haley, Morris, A. Schmidt, Umbarger, Vratil and Wagle request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Ostmeyer on SB 314.

Mr. President: By passing SB 314 we have opened a great potential of giving back to Kansans in wetlands conservation, aquatic education, wildlife restoration, boat safety and many other conservation programs. Through the Senior lifetime hunting and fishing pass we will be bringing back millions of dollars we have already paid out on the Federal excise taxes paid for fishing and hunting equipment purchased. This is a responsible way to conserve, protect, and extend the great sporting environment of Kansas.

I support SB 314 because it helps us ensure we hand the great Kansas sporting outdoors to the next generation. Thank-you, Mr. President. – Allen C. Schmidt Senators Abram, Bruce, Francisco, Haley, Masterson, Morris, Owens, Petersen, Vratil and Wagle request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Schmidt on SB 314.

CHANGE OF REFERENCE

The President withdrew SB 373; HB 2520 from the Calendar under the heading of General Orders and referred the bills to the Committee on Federal and State Affairs.

On motion of Senator Emler, the Senate adjourned until 8:00 a.m., Friday, March 16, 2012.
The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-six senators present.
Senators Brungardt, Kelsey, Love and Steineger were excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

Even though we complain about the intense schedule, the unjust criticism, and the frustrations. I doubt there are any of us who don't experience a touch of awe as we view this imposing edifice from ninth street.
There is so much history here, Lord. While we assemble day after day, every once in a while we may seem to hear the echoes of debates reaching back into the nineteenth century. And we might even sense the presence of outstanding Senators of the past who have sat where we sit and stood where we stand.
Over the years there have been at least thirty-one who have gone on to Congress. Three of them are serving there today. Fifteen of our forty-one governors once served in this chamber. It is entirely possible that future Congressmen and Congresswomen are standing here as we pray.
And now we are in the process of restoring the State House, as much as possible, to its original appearance. (Pardon me, Lord, as I share my hope that restoration to its original appearance doesn't apply to the restrooms!)
Never let us, O God, lose the sense of history that permeates this place.
I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

violating or continuing to violate this act or any such rule, regulation or order, and for such other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interests of the insurer's policyholders, creditors and shareholders or the public may require.

(b) No security which is the subject of any agreement or arrangement regarding acquisition, or which is acquired or to be acquired, in contravention of the provisions of this act or of any rules and regulations or order issued by the commissioner of insurance hereunder may be voted or counted for quorum purposes, and any action of shareholders requiring the affirmative vote of a percentage of shares may be taken as though such securities were not issued and outstanding. However, no action taken at any such meeting shall be invalidated by the voting of such securities, unless the action would materially affect control of the insurer or unless the courts of this state have so ordered. If an insurer or the commissioner of insurance has reason to believe that any security of the insurer has been or is about to be acquired in contravention of the provisions of this act or of any rule, regulation or order issued by the commissioner of insurance hereunder the insurer or the commissioner of insurance may apply to the district court of Shawnee county or to the district court for the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business to enjoin any offer, request, invitation, agreement or acquisition made in contravention of K.S.A. 40-3304, and amendments thereto, or any rules and regulations, or order issued by the commissioner of insurance thereunder to enjoin the voting of any security so acquired, to void any vote of such security already cast at any meeting of shareholders, and for such other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interests of the insurer's policyholders, creditors and shareholders or the public may require.

In determining the amount of the civil forfeiture, the commissioner of insurance shall take into account the appropriateness of the forfeiture with respect to the gravity of the violation, the history of previous violations, and such other matters as justice may require.

(b) Whenever it appears to the commissioner of insurance that any insurer subject to this act or any director, officer, employee or agent thereof has engaged in any transaction or entered into a contract which is subject to K.S.A. 40-3306 and amendments thereto and which would not have been approved had such approval been requested, the commissioner of insurance may order the insurer to cease and desist immediately any further activity under that transaction or contract. After notice and hearing the commissioner of insurance also may order the insurer to void any such contracts and restore the status quo if such action is in the best interest of the policyholders, creditors or the public.

(c) Whenever it appears to the commissioner of insurance that any insurer or any director, officer, employee or agent thereof has committed a willful violation of this act, the commissioner of insurance may cause criminal proceedings to be instituted by the district court for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located or if such insurer has no such office in this state, then by the district court for Shawnee county against such insurer or the responsible director, officer, employee or agent thereof. The clerk of the court shall send a certified copy of the order of expungement to the Kansas bureau of investigation which shall notify the federal bureau of investigation, the secretary of corrections and any other criminal justice agency which may have a record of the arrest, conviction or diversion. (5) This section shall not apply to any inactive insurance agent during the period of such inactivity. For the purposes of this paragraph, "inactive period" or "period of inactivity" shall mean a continuous period of time of not less than two years and not more than four years starting from the date inactive status is granted by the commissioner. Before returning to active status, such inactive insurance agent shall:

Invocation by Reverend Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

At this stage of the session
Sometimes we may admit
Some of us could tend to be Less considerate.

So Help us to remember
When we arrive, O God,
To be sure to give the doormen
At least a friendly nod.

And to our secretaries
Help us to kindly speak,
And not postpone a hearty thanks “Till Secretaries” Week.

And keep us all from treating
The clerks like furniture,
But show appreciation
For the hours they endure.

Don't let us take for granted
Our interns and our aides,
And the reader is a person
Who deserves an accolade.

And don't forget the people
Working in and on this place;
Most of them seem pleased
When I greet them face to face.

I know I could go on and on Mentioning people we ignore.
But my minute is almost gone
So I will say no more.

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

   thereto, shall be known and may be cited as the professional employer organization registration act.

   (b) The provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, shall take effect and be in force from and after January 1, 2014.

   New Sec. 2. As used in sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto:
   (a) "Client" means any person who enters into a professional employer agreement with a professional employer organization.
   (b) "Co-employer" means either a professional employer organization or a client.
   (c) "Co-employment relationship" means a relationship which is intended to be an ongoing relationship rather than a temporary or project-specific relationship, and wherein the rights, duties and obligations of an employer which arise out of an employment relationship have been allocated between the employer and a professional employer organization as co-employers pursuant to a professional employer agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto. Under a co-employment relationship:

   (1) The professional employer organization is entitled to enforce only those employer rights, and is subject to only those employer obligations, that are specifically allocated to the professional employer organization by the professional employer agreement or by the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto;

   (2) the client is entitled to enforce those employer rights, and is obligated to provide and perform those employer obligations, that are allocated to such client by the professional employer agreement or by the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto; and

   (3) the client also is entitled to enforce any employer right, and is obligated to perform any obligation of an employer, that is not specifically allocated to the professional employer organization by the professional employer agreement or by the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto.

   (d) (1) "Covered employee" means an individual having a co-employment

(2) The term "covered employee" shall include individuals who are officers, directors, shareholders, partners or managers of the client, or members of a limited liability company that is a client, if: (A) The professional employer organization and the client have expressly agreed in the professional employer agreement that such individuals are covered employees; (B) such individuals satisfy the provisions of paragraph (1); and (C) such individuals act as operational managers or perform day-to-day operational services for the client.

(e) "Department" means the department of labor.

(f) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association or any other form of legally recognized entity.

(g) "Professional employer agreement" means a written contract entered into between a client and a professional employer organization that provides:

(1) for the co-employment of covered employees;
(2) for the allocation of employer rights and obligations between the client and the professional employer organization with respect to covered employees; and
(3) for the professional employer organization and the client to assume the responsibilities required by the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto.

(h) (1) "Professional employer organization" means any person engaged in the business of providing professional employer services. A person engaged in the business of providing professional employer services shall be considered a "professional employer organization" regardless of such person's use of the term staff leasing company, administrative employer, employee leasing company or any name other than professional employer organization in describing such person's business.

(2) For purposes of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, the following shall not be considered a "professional employer organization," or as providing "professional employment services":

(A) Arrangements wherein a person, whose principal business activity is not entering into professional employer agreements, and which does not hold itself out as a professional employer organization, shares employees with a commonly owned company within the meaning of section 414(b) and (c) of the internal revenue code;
(B) independent contractor arrangements by which a person assumes responsibility for the product produced or service performed by such person or such person's agents and retains and exercises primary direction and control over the work performed by the individuals whose services are supplied under such arrangements; and provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto.

(l) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of labor.
(m) "Temporary help services" means services consisting of a person:
(1) Recruiting and hiring such person's own employees;

such employees finish an assignment.

used by generally accepted accounting principles.
New Sec. 3. (a) Nothing in the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, or in any professional employer agreement shall:
(1) Affect, modify or amend any collective bargaining agreement, or the rights or obligations of any client, professional employer organization or covered employee under the national labor relations act, 29 U.S.C. § 151 et seq., or the railway labor act, 45 U.S.C. § 151 et seq.;
(2) diminish, abolish or remove the rights of covered employees as to a client, or the obligations of such client to a covered employee, whether existing prior to or after the effective date of the professional employer agreement, including, but not limited to, rights and obligations arising from civil rights laws guaranteeing nondiscrimination in employment practices;
(3) affect, modify or amend any contractual relationship or restrictive covenant between a covered employee and any client in effect at the time a professional employer agreement becomes effective, nor prohibit or amend any contractual relationship or restrictive covenant that is entered into subsequently between a client and a covered employee. A professional employer organization shall have no responsibility or liability in connection with, or arising out of, any such existing or new contractual relationship or restrictive covenant unless the professional employer organization has specifically agreed otherwise in writing; or
(4) create any new or additional enforceable right of a covered employee against a professional employer organization that is not specifically provided by the professional employer agreement or by the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto.
(b) (1) Nothing in the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, or in any professional employer agreement shall affect, modify or amend any local, state or federal licensing, registration or certification requirement applicable to any client or covered employee.
(2) A covered employee who is required to be licensed, registered or certified pursuant to local, state or federal law or rules and regulations shall be deemed to be an employee solely of the client for purposes of any such license, registration or certification requirement.
(3) A professional employer organization shall not be deemed to engage in any occupation, trade, profession or other activity that is subject to licensing, registration or certification requirements, or is otherwise regulated by a governmental entity solely by entering into and maintaining a co-employment relationship with a client or covered employee who is subject to such requirements or regulations.

(4) A client shall have the sole right to direct and control the professional or licensed activities of covered employees and of the client’s business. Such covered employees and clients shall remain subject to regulation by the regulatory or governmental entity responsible for licensing, registration or certification of such covered employees or clients.

(c) With respect to a bid, contract, purchase order or agreement entered into with the state or a political subdivision of the state, a client's status or certification as a small, minority-owned, disadvantaged or woman-owned business enterprise, or as a historically underutilized business, shall not be affected because the client has entered into a professional employer agreement with a professional employer organization, or uses the services of a professional employer organization.

New Sec. 4. (a) A person engaged in the business of providing professional employer services pursuant to co-employment relationships in which all or a majority of the employees of a client are covered employees shall be registered pursuant to this section.

(b) A person who is not registered pursuant to this section shall not offer or provide professional employer services in this state, and shall not use the names PEO, professional employer organization, staff leasing company, employee leasing company, administrative employer or any other name or title representing professional employer services.

(c) Each applicant for registration shall submit an application to the secretary in such form and manner as prescribed by the secretary. The application shall contain the following information:

(1) The name or names under which the professional employer organization conducts business;

(2) the address of the principal place of business of the professional employer organization, and the address of each office the professional employer organization maintains in this state;

(3) the professional employer organization’s taxpayer or employer identification number;

(4) a list, by jurisdiction, of each name under which the professional employer organization has operated in the preceding five years, including any alternative names, names of predecessors and, if known, successor business entities;

(5) a statement of ownership, which shall include the name and evidence of the business experience of any person that, individually, or acting in concert with one or more other persons, owns or controls, directly or indirectly, 15% or more of the equity interest of the professional employer organization;

(6) a statement of management, which shall include the name and evidence of the business experience of any individual who serves as president, chief executive officer or otherwise has the authority to act as senior executive officer of the professional employer organization; and

(7) a financial statement setting forth the financial condition of the professional employer organization or professional employer group, which shall comply with the provisions of subsection (h).

(d) (1) Each professional employer organization operating within this state as of the effective date of this act shall complete its initial registration not later than 180 days after the effective date of this act. Such initial registration shall be valid until 180 days from the end of the professional employer organization’s first fiscal year that is more than one year after the effective date of this act.

(2) Each professional employer organization not operating within this state as of the effective date of this act shall complete its initial registration prior to initiating operations within this state. If a professional employer organization not registered in this state becomes aware that an existing client, not based in this state, has employees and operations in this state, the professional employer organization shall either decline to provide professional employer services for those employees, or notify the secretary within five business days of the professional employer organization's knowledge of this fact and file a limited registration application pursuant to subsection (g), or a full registration if there are more than 50 covered employees employed by such client. The secretary may issue an interim operating permit for the period of time the application is pending if the professional employer organization is currently registered or licensed by another state, and the secretary determines it is in the best interests of the potential covered employees.

(e) Within 180 days after the end of a registrant’s fiscal year, such registrant shall renew its registration by notifying the secretary of any changes in the information provided in such registrant’s most recent registration or renewal. A registrant’s existing registration shall remain in effect for the period of time the renewal application is pending.

(f) Professional employer organizations in a professional employer group may satisfy any reporting and financial requirements of this section on a combined or consolidated basis, provided that each member of the professional employer group guarantees the financial capacity obligations required by section 6, and amendments thereto, of each other member of the professional employer group. In the case of a professional employer group that submits a combined or consolidated audited financial statement, including entities that are not professional employer organizations or that are not in the professional employer group, the controlling entity of the professional employer group under the consolidated or combined statement must guarantee the obligations of the professional employer organizations in the professional employer group.

(g) (1) A professional employer organization is eligible for a limited registration if such professional employer organization:
   (A) Submits a written request for limited registration in such form and manner as prescribed by the secretary;
   (B) is domiciled outside this state, and is licensed or registered as a professional employer organization in another state;
   (C) does not maintain an office in this state, or directly solicit clients located or domiciled within this state; and
   (D) does not have more than 50 covered employees employed or domiciled in this state on any given day.

(2) A limited registration is valid for one year, and may be renewed.

(3) A professional employer organization requesting limited registration under this subsection shall provide the secretary with such information and documentation as required by the secretary to show that the professional employer organization qualifies for a limited registration.

(4) The provisions of section 6, and amendments thereto, shall not apply to applicants for limited registration.

(h) At the time of initial registration, the applicant shall submit the most recent audit of the applicant or such applicant's parent holding company, which audit shall not be older than 13 months. Thereafter, a professional employer organization or professional employer group shall file on an annual basis, within 180 days after the end of the professional employer organization’s or parent holding company’s fiscal year, a succeeding audit. An applicant may apply to the secretary for an extension of time to submit such audit, but any such request shall be accompanied by a letter from the auditor stating the reasons for the delay and the anticipated audit completion date. For the initial application, if the closing date of the audited financial statements required by this section is older than three months from the date of the application, the application also shall include updated, though unaudited, financial statements for the most recent quarter. The financial statement shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and audited by an independent certified public accountant licensed to practice in the jurisdiction in which such accountant is located, and shall be without qualification as to the going concern status of the professional employer organization. A professional employer group may submit combined or consolidated audited financial statements to meet the requirements of this section. A professional employer organization that has not had sufficient operating history to have audited financials based upon at least 12 months of operating history shall meet the financial capacity requirements of subsection (f) and present financial statements reviewed by a certified public accountant.

(i) The department shall maintain a list of professional employer organizations registered under this section, and such list shall be readily available to the public by electronic or other means.

(j) The secretary, to the extent practical, shall permit the acceptance of electronic filings, including applications, documents, reports and other filings required by the secretary under this section. The secretary may provide for the acceptance of electronic filings and other assurance documents by an independent and qualified entity approved by the secretary that provides satisfactory assurance of compliance acceptable to the secretary consistent with, or in lieu of, the requirements of this section and section 6, and amendments thereto. The secretary shall permit a professional employer organization to authorize such entity approved by the secretary to act on the professional employer organization’s behalf in complying with the registration requirements of this section, including electronic filings of information and payment of registration fees. Use of such an approved entity shall be optional and not mandatory for a registrant. Nothing in this subsection shall limit or change the secretary's authority to register or terminate registration of a professional employer organization, or to investigate or enforce any provision of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto.

(k) All records, reports and other information obtained from a professional employer organization under this section, except to the extent necessary for the proper administration of the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, by the secretary, shall be confidential and shall not be published or open to public inspection other than to employees of the department in the performance of such employee's official duties.
New Sec. 5.  (a) Upon filing an initial application for registration, a professional employer organization shall pay a fee in an amount not to exceed $1,000.

(b) Upon filing a renewal application for registration, a professional employer organization shall pay a fee in an amount not to exceed $500.

(c) Upon filing an initial or a renewal application for limited registration, a professional employer organization shall pay a fee in an amount not to exceed $500.

(d) Upon filing an initial or a renewal application for registration, a professional employer group shall pay a fee in an amount determined by the secretary and adopted by rules and regulations.

(e) The secretary shall adopt rules and regulations establishing the fees to be charged pursuant to this section in such amounts as deemed reasonably necessary by the secretary for the administration of the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, subject to the limitations on fee amounts set forth in subsections (a), (b) and (c).

(f) There is hereby created the professional employer organization fee fund. The secretary shall remit all moneys received from fees or penalties to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the professional employer organization fee fund. All expenditures from the professional employer organization fee fund shall be for the purposes of the administration of the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, and shall be made in accordance with appropriation acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the secretary, or the secretary's designee.

New Sec. 6.  Except as provided by subsections (g) and (j) of section 4, and amendments thereto, each professional employer organization, or collectively each professional employer group shall either:

(a) Maintain positive working capital upon registration as reflected in the financial statements submitted to the secretary with the initial registration application and each renewal application; or

(b) for a professional employer organization or professional employer group that does not have sufficient positive working capital as required in subsection (a), submit a bond, irrevocable letter of credit or securities with a minimum market value in an amount equal to the sum of the amount that would be necessary for such professional employer organization or professional employer group to comply with subsection (a) plus $100,000 to the secretary at such time as the professional employer organization or professional employer group does not have sufficient working capital. Such bond shall be held by a depository designated by the secretary securing payment by the professional employer organization of all taxes, wages, benefits or other entitlement due to or with respect to covered employees, if the professional employer organization does not make such payments when due.

New Sec. 7.  (a) No person shall knowingly enter into a co-employment relationship in which less than a majority of the employees of the client in this state are covered employees, or in which less than half of the payroll of the client in this state is attributable to covered employees.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, or in the professional employer agreement, in each co-employment relationship:
(1) The client shall be entitled to exercise all rights and shall be obligated to perform all duties and responsibilities otherwise applicable to an employer in an employment relationship;
(2) the professional employer organization shall be entitled to exercise only those rights and obligated to perform only those duties and responsibilities specifically required by the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, or in the professional employer agreement. The rights, duties and obligations of the professional employer organization as co-employer with respect to any covered employee shall be limited to those arising pursuant to the professional employer agreement or as required by the provisions of sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, during the term of co-employment by the professional employer organization of such covered employee; and
(3) the client retains the exclusive right to direct and control the covered employees as is necessary to conduct the client’s business, to discharge any of the client’s fiduciary responsibilities or to comply with any licensure requirements applicable to the client or to the covered employees.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in sections 1 through 11, and amendments thereto, the co-employment relationship between the client and the professional employer organization, and between each co-employer and each covered employee, shall be governed by the professional employer agreement. Each professional employer agreement shall include the following:
(1) The allocation of rights, duties and obligations as described in this section;

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: This bill eliminates the requirement for a referendum to allow corporate swine facilities and instead puts the decision to permit or deny in the hands of County Commissioners. An amendment to provide for another choice for commissioners to request a referendum instead of the “up” or “down” vote failed in committee and again failed on the Senate floor. I vote against HB 2502 because it takes away that provision for citizens to register their vote. – ALLEN C. SCHMIDT

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I am voting for HB 2631 because it does provide some additional dental capabilities that are critically needed to service Medicaid patients and citizens in underserved rural communities. However, this bill does not go nearly far enough. We need to move forward with a comprehensive plan to get needed dental care to our rural communities. In lieu of actually gaining more dentists in rural communities that are in critical shortage, we should be developing the mid-level dental practitioner – not opposing it. We should be increasing the number of dentists accepting Medicaid, not sitting silent.

Mr. President, we can't continue to look the other way when dental needs (particularly for children and elderly) in rural communities are without critical dental care. This is an issue that degrades overall health and well-being on a significant scale throughout the state but particularly in rural underserved areas. – ALLEN C. SCHMIDT

MR. PRESIDENT: It's imperative to promote jobs in our state. When the state mandates unnecessary regulations on child care organizations, causing fears of harassment to providers, it drives child care providers out of business. Fewer child care providers are driving up costs, and when the costs of child care are too high, it prevents parents from working. This legislation corrects some of the overreaching problems from a past bill so I am voting for it. However, while it is vital for Kansas to protect the health and safety of children, it is also vital to ensure economic and financial stability for families. Let's promote common-sense reforms that won't put child care organizations at risk of going out of business. – MARY PILCHER-COOK

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senator Vratil introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1840—

A RESOLUTION congratulating and commending Grace Schram for being named one of the top two youth volunteers in Kansas for 2012 by the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards.

WHEREAS, Grace Schram, 13, a resident of Leawood and an eighth-grade student at Leawood Middle School, has achieved national recognition for her exemplary volunteer service by receiving a 2012 Prudential Spirit of Community Award; and

WHEREAS, Grace has raised more than $20,000 to build two fish ponds in Africa and a home for 12 orphaned boys in Haiti through sales of her music. Thanks to Grace's efforts, two villages in South Africa and Malawi now have sustainable food and revenue sources and orphans in a small Haitian town near Port au Prince have a roof over their heads; and

WHEREAS, Grace has been singing and writing music since early childhood. Applying these talents to help children who were less fortunate, Grace decided to make a CD of original songs and sell them to family members and friends with the goal of raising $1,000 to build one fish pond in Africa. Grace researched how to make a CD, and with the help of friends and family, she found a recording studio that would give her a discount on studio time. Six months later, Grace released her finished product, "Showers from God"; and

WHEREAS, Because of her efforts, Grace was nominated by Leawood Middle School for the Prudential Spirit of Community Award. This prestigious award, presented by Prudential Financial, Inc., in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals, honors young volunteers across America who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to serving their communities. As a state honoree, Grace received $1,000, an engraved silver medallion and an all-expense paid trip in early May 2012 to Washington, D.C., where she will join other honorees from each of the other states and the District of Columbia for several days of national recognition events; and

WHEREAS, The success of the state of Kansas, the strength of our communities and the overall vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon the dedication of young people like Grace who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we congratulate and commend Grace Schram for being named one of two state recipients of the Prudential Spirit of Community Award, we honor her outstanding record of volunteer service, peer leadership and community spirit, and we extend our best wishes for her continued success and happiness; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Vratil.

On emergency motion of Senator Vratil SR 1840 was adopted unanimously.

Senator Vratil introduced and congratulated Grace Schram for being named one of the top two youth volunteers in Kansas for the 2012 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards. Also in attendance were the following family members: Jon and Jill Schram, parents, Cooper, brother, Lucy, sister, and grandparents, Jim and Carol Washington.

The Senate acknowledged Grace Schram's achievement with a standing ovation.

Senator Merrick introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1841—

A RESOLUTION commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Wildlife and Sport Fish Recreation Program.

WHEREAS, More than a century ago, hunters, anglers and trappers were among the first conservationists who realized America's natural resources were in peril and could not sustain unregulated harvest and habitat destruction; and

WHEREAS, Hunters, anglers and trappers, with other conservationists and ammunition companies, took it upon themselves to support laws to end the excessive harvest of fish and wildlife; and

WHEREAS, The first law supporting the Wildlife and Sport Fish Recreation Program was created on September 2, 1937, when President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act, which raises funds through a dedicated excise tax on sporting guns and ammunition. In 1950, the Federal Aid in Sport Fish Restoration Act was enacted and added to the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program. Through this law, funds are provided for fish conservation and boating and fishing recreational programs in each state through an excise tax placed on certain fishing and boating equipment and fuels; and

WHEREAS, Since its 1937 inception, the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program has provided more than $14 billion to support fish and wildlife restoration and management; and

WHEREAS, For 75 years, the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program has been driving the restoration and management of our fish and wildlife resources. It has been justly called the most successful conservation management program in the world. America's hunters, shooters and anglers should be proud that they have held the program on their shoulders for 75 years; and
WHEREAS, The Senate of the state of Kansas recognize that the primary authority to protect and manage fish and resident wildlife within their borders rests in the state fish and wildlife agencies: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That the Senate of the state of Kansas recognize America's sportsmen and sportswomen; hunting, shooting, angling and boating industries; state fish and wildlife agencies; and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for their leading role in restoring healthy populations of fish, wildlife and other natural resources, both game and non-game, to the abundance we see today through the Wildlife and Sport Fish Restoration Program in this 75th anniversary year of America's greatest conservation story; and

Be it further resolved: That an enrolled copy of this resolution be provided to the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism Operations Office, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, all Kansas Congressional offices and local, regional and national media sources.

On emergency motion of Senator Merrick SR 1841 was adopted unanimously.

Senator Haley introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1842—

A RESOLUTION recognizing the misuse and abuse of prescription drug medications as a major threat to public health and safety in Kansas and nationwide.

WHEREAS, Drug abuse in the United States increasingly means the misuse and abuse of prescription drug medications. Drug overdose is now the second most common cause of accidental death in the nation, killing more than gunshot wounds and behind only traffic accidents; and

WHEREAS, Prescription drugs are a substantial factor in a growing number of American deaths considered to be drug induced. Emergency room visits and unintentional overdose deaths involving prescription drugs have increased sharply; and

WHEREAS, Barry R. Grissom, United States Attorney, District of Kansas, has declared that "prescription drugs are being used, misused, and abused at an alarming rate" and that he is "seeing more cases of accidental poisoning, addiction and overdose deaths. It is not an overstatement to call this an epidemic in the truest sense of the word. It has become a major threat to public health and public safety."; and

WHEREAS, Unused prescription narcotics at home contribute to drug abuse and risks of accidental deaths of children and the elderly. The 2010 Monitoring the Future survey found that six of the top 10 substances abused by high school seniors are prescription drugs. Federal studies show that many teens use the prescription drugs because they think they are safer than illegal drugs; and

WHEREAS, The second leading source of abused prescription drugs is the home medicine cabinet. The number one source is friends and relatives, who often get the prescription drugs from other people’s medicine cabinets. This demonstrates the importance of disposing unused prescription medications rather than leaving them in a medicine cabinet at home; and

WHEREAS, Americans that participated in the U.S. Department of Justice Drug Enforcement Administration’s third National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day on October 29, 2011, turned in more than 377,086 pounds of unwanted or expired medications for safe and proper disposal at the 5,327 take-back sites that were available in all 50 states and U.S. territories. When the results of the three prior Take-Back Days are combined, the Drug Enforcement Administration and its state, local, and tribal law-enforcement and community partners have removed 995,185 pounds of medication from circulation in the past 13 months; and

WHEREAS, Kansas Attorney General Derek Schmidt announced on November 15, 2011 that Kansans had turned in 3,809 pounds of unused prescription drugs during the National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day on October 29, 2011, which was the highest total amount of medications collected in Kansas since the program began in 2010. Local law enforcement officials collected the unused medications at 60 locations throughout Kansas; and

WHEREAS, The Drug Enforcement Administration has scheduled another National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day which will take place on Saturday, April 28, 2012, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. This is a great opportunity for those who missed the previous events, or who have subsequently accumulated unwanted, unused prescription drugs and need to safely dispose of those medications; and

WHEREAS, It must be recognized that a drug cabinet full of old or unused prescription medicine is a health hazard, increasing the risk of poison and abuse among adults, teenagers and children across the state and across the nation: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we recognize the misuse and abuse of prescription drug medications as a major threat to public health and safety in Kansas and nationwide; and

Be it further resolved: That we encourage Kansans all across the state to participate in the National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day on Saturday, April 28, 2012 to safely dispose of unused prescription medications; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Senator Haley, Barry R. Grissom, United States Attorney, District of Kansas and the Kansas State Board of Pharmacy.

On emergency motion of Senator Haley SR 1842 was adopted unanimously.

Such credit shall be taken in 10 equal, annual installments, beginning with the year in which the taxpayer places into service the new renewable electric cogeneration facility.

(c) If the amount of an annual installment of a tax credit allowed under this section exceeds the taxpayer's income tax liability for the taxable year in which the annual installment is allowed, the amount thereof which exceeds such tax liability may be carried over for deduction from the taxpayer's income tax liability in the next succeeding taxable year or years until the total amount of the annual installment of the tax credit has been deducted from tax liability, except that no such tax credit shall be carried over for deduction after the 14th taxable year succeeding the taxable year in which the first annual installment is allowed.

(2) A taxpayer must comply with the terms of the agreement described in subsection (d)(1) to receive an annual installment of the tax credit awarded under this act. The secretary of commerce, in accordance with rules and regulations of the secretary, shall annually determine whether the taxpayer is in compliance with the agreement. Such agreement shall include, but not be limited to, operation of the new renewable electric cogeneration facility during the tax years when any installments of tax credits are claimed by the taxpayer. If the secretary determines that the taxpayer is in compliance, the secretary shall issue a certificate of compliance to the taxpayer. If the secretary determines that the taxpayer is not in compliance with the agreement, the secretary shall notify the taxpayer and the secretary of revenue of such determination of noncompliance, and any tax credits claimed pursuant to this section for any tax year shall be forfeited.

(A) The amount of carryforward credits applied against the tax liability of any member or members of a unitary group shall not exceed in the aggregate 15% of the carryforward credits available during the taxable year in which the carryforward credits are first applied against the tax liability of any member or members of any such group. Such limitation shall be effective for the taxable year in which the carryforward credits are first applied against a member or members of the group and the six immediately succeeding taxable years. A corporation that has entered into a separate agreement with the secretary of commerce shall have 54 months to comply with the capital investment and job creation requirements set forth in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 79-32,141, and amendments thereto.

Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-32,160a is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-32,160a. (a) For taxable years commencing after December 31, 1999, and before January 1, 2012, any taxpayer who shall invest in a qualified business facility, as defined in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto, and effective for tax years commencing after December 31, 2010, and before January 1, 2012, located in an area other than a metropolitan county as defined in either K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 74-50,114 or 74-50,211, and amendments thereto, and also meets the definition of a business in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 74-50,114, and amendments thereto, shall be allowed a credit for such investment, in an amount determined under subsection (b) or (c), as the case requires, against the tax imposed by the Kansas income tax act or where the qualified business facility is the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed and the facility has facilitated the creation of at least 20 new full-time positions, against the premium tax or privilege fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-252, and amendments thereto, or as measured by the net income of financial institutions imposed pursuant to article 11 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, for the taxable year during which commencement of commercial operations, as defined in subsection (f) of K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto, occurs at such qualified business facility. In the case of a taxpayer who meets the definition of a manufacturing business in subsection (d) of K.S.A. 74-50,114, and amendments thereto, no credit shall be allowed under this section unless the number of qualified business facility employees, as determined under subsection (d) of K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto, engaged or maintained in employment at the qualified business facility as a direct result of the investment by the taxpayer for the taxable year for which the credit is claimed equals or exceeds two. In the case of a taxpayer who meets the definition of a nonmanufacturing business in subsection (f) of K.S.A. 74-50,114, and amendments thereto, no credit shall be allowed under this section unless the number of qualified business facility employees, as determined under subsection (d) of K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto, engaged or maintained in employment at the qualified business facility as a direct result of the investment by the taxpayer for the taxable year for which the credit is claimed equals or exceeds five. Where an employee performs services for the taxpayer outside the qualified business facility, the employee shall be considered engaged or maintained in employment at the qualified business facility if: (1) The employee's service performed outside the qualified business facility is incidental to the employee's service inside the qualified business facility; or (2) the base of operations or, the place from which the service is directed or controlled, is at the qualified business facility.

(b) The credit allowed by subsection (a) for any taxpayer who invests in a qualified business facility which is located in a designated nonmetropolitan region established under K.S.A. 74-50,116, and amendments thereto, on or after the effective date of this act, shall be a portion of the income tax imposed by the Kansas income tax act on the taxpayer's Kansas taxable income, the premium tax or privilege fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-252, and amendments thereto, or the privilege tax as measured by the net income of financial institutions imposed pursuant to article 11 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, for the taxable year for which such credit is allowed, but in the case where the qualified business facility investment was made prior to January 1, 1996, not in excess of 50% of such tax. Such portion shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

1. Two thousand five hundred dollars for each qualified business facility employee determined under K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto; plus

2. One thousand dollars for each $100,000, or major fraction thereof, which shall be deemed to be 51% or more, in qualified business facility investment, as determined under K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto.

(c) The credit allowed by subsection (a) for any taxpayer who invests in a qualified business facility, which is not located in a nonmetropolitan region established under K.S.A. 74-50,116, and amendments thereto, and effective for tax years commencing after December 31, 2010, and before January 1, 2012, located in an area other than a metropolitan county as defined in either K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 74-50,114 or 74-50,211, and amendments thereto, and which also meets the definition of business in subsection (b) of K.S.A. 74-50,114, and amendments thereto, on or after the effective date of this act, shall be a portion of the income tax imposed by the Kansas income tax act on the taxpayer's Kansas taxable income, the premium tax or privilege fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-252, and amendments thereto, or the privilege tax as measured by the net income of financial institutions imposed pursuant to article 11 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, for the taxable year for which such credit is allowed, but in the case where the qualified business facility investment was made prior to January 1, 1996, not in excess of 50% of such tax. Such portion shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

1. One thousand five hundred dollars for each qualified business facility employee as determined under K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto; and
2. One thousand dollars for each $100,000, or major fraction thereof, which shall be deemed to be 51% or more, in qualified business facility investment as determined under K.S.A. 79-32,154, and amendments thereto.

(d) The credit allowed by subsection (a) for each qualified business facility employee and for qualified business facility investment shall be a one-time credit. If the amount of the credit allowed under subsection (a) exceeds the tax imposed by the Kansas income tax act on the taxpayer's Kansas taxable income, the premium tax and privilege fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-252, and amendments thereto, or the privilege tax as measured by the net income of financial institutions imposed pursuant to article 11 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, for the taxable year, or in the case where the qualified business facility investment was made prior to January 1, 1996, 50% of such tax imposed upon the amount which exceeds such tax liability or such portion thereof may be carried over for credit in the succeeding taxable years until the total amount of such credit is used. Except that, before the credit is allowed, a taxpayer, who meets the definition of a manufacturing business in subsection (d) of K.S.A. 74-50,114, and amendments thereto, shall recertify annually that the net increase of a minimum of two qualified business facility employees has continued to be maintained and a taxpayer, who meets the definition of a nonmanufacturing business in subsection (f) of K.S.A. 74-50,114, and amendments thereto, shall recertify annually that the net increase of a minimum of five qualified business employees has continued to be maintained.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, any taxpayer qualified and certified under the provisions of K.S.A. 74-50,131, and amendments thereto; which, prior to making a commitment to invest in a qualified Kansas business, has filed a certificate of intent to invest in a qualified business facility in a form satisfactory to the secretary of commerce; and that has received written approval from the secretary of commerce for participation and has participated, during the tax year for which the exemption is claimed, in the Kansas industrial training, Kansas industrial retraining or the state of Kansas investments in lifelong learning program or is eligible for the tax credit established in K.S.A. 74-50,132, and amendments thereto, shall be entitled to a credit in an amount equal to 10% of that portion of the qualified business facility investment which exceeds $50,000 in lieu of the credit provided in subsection (b)(2) or (c)(2) without regard to the number of qualified business facility employees engaged or maintained in employment at the qualified business facility. The credit allowed by this subsection shall be a one-time credit. If the amount thereof exceeds the tax imposed by the Kansas income tax act on the taxpayer's Kansas taxable income or the premium tax or privilege fees imposed pursuant to K.S.A. 40-252, and amendments thereto, or the privilege tax as measured by net income of financial institutions imposed pursuant to article 11 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, for the taxable year, the amount thereof which exceeds such tax liability may be carried forward for credit in the succeeding taxable year or years until the total amount of the tax credit is used, except that no such tax credit shall be carried forward for deduction after the 16th taxable year succeeding the taxable year in which such credit initially was claimed, and no carryforward shall be allowed for deduction in any succeeding taxable year unless the taxpayer certifies under oath that the taxpayer continues to meet the requirements of K.S.A. 74-50,131, and amendments thereto, and this act. In no event shall any credit allowed under this section that expired during any taxable year prior to the taxable year commencing January 1, 2011, be revived under the provisions of this act.

(f) For tax years commencing after December 31, 2005, any taxpayer claiming credits pursuant to this section, as a condition for claiming and qualifying for such credits, shall provide information pursuant to K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-32,243, and amendments thereto, as part of the tax return in which such credits are claimed. Such credits shall not be denied solely on the basis of the contents of the information provided by the taxpayer pursuant to K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-32,243, and amendments thereto.

(g) This section and K.S.A. 79-32,160b, and amendments thereto, shall be part of and supplemental to the job expansion and investment credit act of 1976, and amendments thereto.

"Sec. 3. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-4501 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4501. The title of this act shall be the homestead property tax refund act. The purpose of this act shall be to provide ad valorem tax refunds to: (a) Certain persons who are of qualifying age who own or rent their homestead; (b) certain persons who have a disability, who own or rent their homestead; and (c) certain persons other than persons included under the provisions of (a) or (b) who have low incomes and dependent children and own or rent their homestead.
Sec. 4 K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-4502 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4502.
As used in this act, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:
(a) "Income" means the sum of adjusted gross income under the Kansas income tax act, maintenance, support money, cash public assistance and relief, not including any refund granted under this act, the gross amount of any pension or annuity, including all monetary retirement benefits from whatever source derived, including but not limited to, all payments received under the railroad retirement act, except disability payments, payments received under the federal social security act, except that for determination of what constitutes income such amount shall not exceed 50% of any such social security payments and shall not include any social security payments to a claimant who prior to attaining full retirement age had been receiving disability payments under the federal social security act in an amount not to exceed the amount of such disability payments or 50% of any such social security payments, whichever is greater, all dividends and interest from whatever source derived not included in adjusted gross income, workers compensation and the gross amount of "loss of time" insurance. Income does not include gifts from nongovernmental sources or surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency, nor shall net operating losses and net capital losses be considered in the determination of income. Income does not include veterans disability pensions. Income does not include disability payments received under the federal social security act.

(b) "Household" means a claimant, a claimant and spouse who occupy the homestead or a claimant and one or more individuals not related as husband and wife who together occupy a homestead.

(c) "Household income" means all income received by all persons of a household in a calendar year while members of such household.

(d) "Homestead" means the dwelling, or any part thereof, whether owned or rented, which is occupied as a residence by the household and so much of the land surrounding it, as defined as a home site for ad valorem tax purposes, and may consist of a part of a multi-dwelling or multi-purpose building and a part of the land upon which it is built or a manufactured home or mobile home and the land upon which it is situated. "Owned" includes a vendee in possession under a land contract, a life tenant, a beneficiary under a trust and one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.

(e) "Claimant" means a person who has filed a claim under the provisions of this act and was, during the entire calendar year preceding the year in which such claim was filed for refund under this act, except as provided in K.S.A. 79-4503, and amendments thereto, both domiciled in this state and was: (1) A person having a disability; (2) a person who is 55 years of age or older; (3) a disabled veteran; (4) the surviving spouse of active duty military personnel who died in the line of duty; or (5) a person other than a person included under (1), (2), (3) or (4) having one or more dependent children under 18 years of age residing at the person's homestead during the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which a claim is filed under this act. The surviving spouse of a disabled veteran who was receiving benefits pursuant to subsection (e)(3) of this section at the time of the veterans' death, shall be eligible to continue to receive benefits until such time the surviving spouse remarries.

When a homestead is occupied by two or more individuals and more than one of the individuals is able to qualify as a claimant, the individuals may determine between them as to whom the claimant will be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the secretary of revenue whose decision shall be final.

(f) "Property taxes accrued" means property taxes, exclusive of special assessments, delinquent interest and charges for service, levied on a claimant's homestead in 1979 or any calendar year thereafter by the state of Kansas and the political and taxing subdivisions of the state. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common and one or more of the persons or entities is not a member of claimant's household, "property taxes accrued" is that part of property taxes levied on the homestead that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant's household. For purposes of this act, property taxes are "levied" when the tax roll is delivered to the local treasurer with the treasurer's warrant for collection. When a claimant and household own their homestead part of a calendar year, "property taxes accrued" means only taxes levied on the homestead when both owned and occupied as a homestead by the claimant's household at the time of the levy, multiplied by the percentage of 12 months that the property was owned and occupied by the household as its homestead in the year. When a household owns and occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued shall be the sum of the taxes allocable to those several properties while occupied by the household as its homestead during the year. Whenever a homestead is an integral part of a larger unit such as a multi-purpose or multi-dwelling building, property taxes accrued shall be that percentage of the total property taxes accrued as the value of the homestead is of the total value. For the purpose of this act, the word "unit" refers to that parcel of property covered by a single tax statement of which the homestead is a part.

(g) "Disability" means:

(1) Inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, and an individual shall be determined to be under a disability only if the physical or mental impairment or impairments are of such severity that the individual is not only unable to do the individual's previous work but cannot, considering age, education and work experience, engage in any other kind of substantial gainful work which exists in the national economy, regardless of whether such work exists in the immediate area in which the individual lives or whether a specific job vacancy exists for the individual, or whether the individual would be hired if application was made for work. For purposes of the preceding sentence (with respect to any individual), "work which exists in the national economy" means work which exists in significant numbers either in the region where the individual lives or in several regions of the country; for purposes of this subsection, a "physical or mental impairment" is an impairment that results from anatomical, physiological or psychological abnormalities which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques; or

(2) blindness and inability by reason of blindness to engage in substantial gainful activity requiring skills or abilities comparable to those of any gainful activity in which the individual has previously engaged with some regularity and over a substantial period of time.

(h) "Blindness" means central visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with the use of a correcting lens. An eye which is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees shall be considered for the purpose of this paragraph as having a central visual acuity of 20/200 or less.

(i) "Rent constituting property taxes accrued" means 15% of the gross rent actually paid in cash or its equivalent in 2007 or any taxable year thereafter by a claimant and claimant's household solely for the right of occupancy of a Kansas homestead on which ad valorem property taxes were levied in full for that year. When a household occupies two or more different homesteads in the same calendar year, rent constituting property taxes accrued shall be computed by adding the rent constituting property taxes accrued for each property rented by the household while occupied by the household as its homestead during the year.

(j) “Gross rent” means the rental paid at arm’s length solely for the right of occupancy of a homestead or space rental paid to a landlord for the parking of a mobile home, exclusive of charges for any utilities, services, furniture and furnishings or personal property appliances furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement, whether or not expressly set out in the rental agreement. Whenever the director of taxation finds that the landlord and tenant have not dealt with each other at arm’s length and that the gross rent charge was excessive, the director may adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount for the purposes of the claim.

(k) "Disabled veteran" means a person who is a resident of Kansas and has been honorably discharged from active service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or Kansas national guard and who has been certified by the United States department of veterans affairs or its successor to have a 50% permanent disability sustained through military action or accident or resulting from disease contracted while in such active service.

Sec. 5. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-4508 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4508. (a) Commencing in the tax year beginning after December 31, 2005, the amount of any claim pursuant to this act shall be computed by deducting the amount computed under column (2) from the amount of claimant's property tax accrued and/or rent constituting property tax accrued.

Upon request by the division, such claimant shall provide a copy of the statement of property taxes levied upon the property claimed as a homestead. The amount of personal property taxes levied on a manufactured home or mobile home shall be set out on the personal property tax statement showing the amount of such tax as a separate item. (c) Every claimant who is a homestead renter, or whose claim is based wholly or partly upon homestead rental at some time during the calendar year, shall supply to the division, in support of a claim, a statement prescribed by the director certifying the amount of gross rent paid and that ad valorem property taxes were levied in full for that year on the property, all or a part of which was rented by the claimant. When such claimant reports household income that is 150% or less of the homestead rental amount and such claimant has failed to provide any documentation or information requested by the division to verify such household income in support of a claim as required pursuant to subsection (a), within 30 days of such request, such homestead property tax refund claim shall be denied. (d) The information required to be furnished under subsections (b) or (c) shall be in addition to that required under subsection (a).

Sec. 8. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-4522 is hereby amended to read as follows: 79-4522. During the service of the enhanced penalty, the judge may order the person on house arrest, work release or other conditional release.

assessments and costs imposed pursuant to this section. Any assessments and costs shall be required to be paid not later than 90 days after imposed, and any remainder of the fine shall be paid prior to the final release of the defendant by the court.

order that the person perform community service specified by the court. The person shall receive a credit on the fine imposed in an amount equal to $5 for each full hour spent by the person in the specified community service. The community service ordered by the court shall be required to be performed not later than one year after the fine is imposed or by an earlier date specified by the court. If by the required date the person performs an insufficient amount of community service to reduce to zero the portion of the fine required to be paid by the person, the remaining balance of the fine shall become due on that date.

(f) Prior to filing a complaint alleging a violation of this section, a prosecutor shall request and shall receive from the:

from the division a record of all prior convictions obtained against such person for any violations of any of the motor vehicle laws of this state.

violation of an ordinance of any city or resolution of any county which prohibits the account, but only convictions or diversions occurring: (A) On or after July 1, 2001; and

(B) when such person was 18 years of age or older. Nothing in this provision shall be the limits provided for a first, second, third, fourth or subsequent offender;

(5) multiple convictions of any crime described in subsection (h)(1) or (h)(2) arising from the same arrest shall only be counted as one conviction; and

(6) a person may enter into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings for a violation of this section, and amendments thereto, or an ordinance which prohibits the acts of this section, and amendments thereto, only once during the person's lifetime.

(i) Upon conviction of a person of a violation of this section or a violation of a city ordinance or county resolution prohibiting the acts prohibited by this section, the division, upon receiving a report of conviction, shall suspend, restrict or suspend and restrict the person's driving privileges as provided by K.S.A. 8-1014, and amendments thereto.

(j) (1) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as preventing any city from enacting ordinances, or any county from adopting resolutions, declaring acts prohibited or made unlawful by this act as unlawful or prohibited in such city or county and prescribing penalties for violation thereof.

(2) The minimum penalty prescribed by any such ordinance or resolution shall not be less than the minimum penalty prescribed by this section for the same violation, and the maximum penalty in any such ordinance or resolution shall not exceed the maximum penalty prescribed for the same violation.

(3) On and after July 1, 2007, and retroactive for ordinance violations committed on or after July 1, 2006, an ordinance may grant to a municipal court jurisdiction over a violation of such ordinance which is concurrent with the jurisdiction of the district court over a violation of this section, notwithstanding that the elements of such ordinance violation are the same as the elements of a violation of this section that would constitute, and be punished as, a felony.
(4) Any such ordinance or resolution shall authorize the court to order that the convicted person pay restitution to any victim who suffered loss due to the violation for which the person was convicted.

(k) (1) Upon the filing of a complaint, citation or notice to appear alleging a person has violated a city ordinance prohibiting the acts prohibited by this section, and prior to conviction thereof, a city attorney shall request and shall receive from the:

For the purpose of this subsection, entering into a diversion agreement pursuant to K.S.A. 12-4413 et seq. or 22-2906 et seq., and amendments thereto, shall not constitute plea bargaining.

(m) As used in this section, "imprisonment" shall include any restrained environment in which the court and law enforcement agency intend to retain custody and control of a defendant and such environment has been approved by the board of county commissioners or the governing body of a city.

county in which such city is located by filing within 14 days after such denial, a notice of appeal with the clerk of the district court and by filing a copy of such notice with the city clerk of the involved city. Sec. 8. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 8-1001 is hereby amended to read as follows: 8-1001. (a) Any person who operates or attempts to operate a vehicle within this state is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of this act, to submit to one or more tests of the person's blood, breath, urine or other bodily substance to determine the presence of alcohol or drugs. The testing deemed consented to herein shall include all quantitative and qualitative tests for alcohol and drugs. A person who is dead or unconscious shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the person's consent to such test or tests, which shall be administered in the manner provided by this section.

(b) A law enforcement officer shall request a person to submit to a test or tests deemed consented to under subsection (a): (1) If the officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person was operating or attempting to operate a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, or to believe that the person was driving a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in K.S.A. 8-2,128, and amendments thereto, while having alcohol or other drugs in such person's system, or was under the age of 21 years while having alcohol or other drugs in such person's system; and one of the following conditions exists: (A) The person has been arrested or otherwise taken into custody for any offense involving operation or attempted operation of a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, or for a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567a, and amendments thereto, or involving driving a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in K.S.A. 8-2,128, and amendments thereto, while having alcohol or other drugs in such person's system, in violation of a state statute or a city ordinance; or (B) the person has been involved in a vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage or personal injury other than serious injury; or (2) if the person was operating or attempting to operate a vehicle and such vehicle has been involved in an accident or collision resulting in serious injury or death of any person and the operator could be cited for any traffic offense, as defined in K.S.A. 8-2117, and amendments thereto. The traffic offense violation shall constitute probable cause for purposes of paragraph (2). The test or tests under paragraph (2) shall not be required if a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe the actions of the operator did not contribute to the accident or collision. The law enforcement officer directing administration of the test or tests may act on personal knowledge or on the basis of the collective information available to law enforcement officers involved in the accident investigation or arrest.

(c) If a law enforcement officer requests a person to submit to a test of blood under this section, the withdrawal of blood at the direction of the officer may be performed only by: (1) A person licensed to practice medicine and surgery, licensed as a physician's assistant, or a person acting under the direction of any such licensed person; (2) a registered nurse or a licensed practical nurse; (3) any qualified medical technician, including, but not limited to, an emergency medical technician-intermediate, mobile intensive care technician, an emergency medical technician-intermediate defibrillator, an advanced emergency medical technician or a paramedic, as those terms are defined in K.S.A. 65-6112, and amendments thereto, authorized by medical protocol or (4) a phlebotomist.

(d) A law enforcement officer may direct a medical professional described in this section to draw a sample of blood from a person:

(1) If the person has given consent and meets the requirements of subsection (b);
(2) if medically unable to consent, if the person meets the requirements of paragraph (2) of subsection (b); or
(3) if the person refuses to submit to and complete a test, if the person meets the requirements of paragraph (2) of subsection (b).

(e) When so directed by a law enforcement officer through a written statement, the medical professional shall withdraw the sample as soon as practical and shall deliver the sample to the law enforcement officer or another law enforcement officer as directed by the requesting law enforcement officer as soon as practical, provided the collection of the sample does not jeopardize the person's life, cause serious injury to the person or seriously impede the person's medical assessment, care or treatment. The medical professional authorized herein to withdraw the blood and the medical care facility where the blood is drawn may act on good faith that the requirements have been met for directing the withdrawing of blood once presented with the written statement provided for under this subsection. The medical professional shall not require the person to sign any additional consent or waiver form. In such a case, the person authorized to withdraw blood and the medical care facility shall not be liable in any action alleging lack of consent or lack of informed consent.

(f) Such sample or samples shall be an independent sample and not be a portion of a sample collected for medical purposes. The person collecting the blood sample shall complete the collection portion of a document provided by law enforcement.

(g) If a person must be restrained to withdraw the sample pursuant to this section, law enforcement shall be responsible for applying any such restraint utilizing acceptable law enforcement restraint practices. The restraint shall be effective in controlling the person in a manner not to jeopardize the person's safety or that of the medical professional or attending medical or health care staff during the drawing of the sample and without interfering with medical treatment.

(h) A law enforcement officer may request a urine sample upon meeting the requirements of paragraph (1) of subsection (b) and shall request a urine sample upon meeting the requirements of paragraph (2) of subsection (b).

(i) If a law enforcement officer requests a person to submit to a test of urine under this section, the collection of the urine sample shall be supervised by: (1) A person licensed to practice medicine and surgery, licensed as a physician's assistant, or a person acting under the direction of any such licensed person; (2) a registered nurse or a licensed practical nurse; or (3) a law enforcement officer of the same sex as the person being tested. The collection of the urine sample shall be conducted out of the view of any person other than the persons supervising the collection of the sample and the person being tested, unless the right to privacy is waived by the person being tested. When possible, the supervising person shall be a law enforcement officer. The results of qualitative testing for drug presence shall be admissible in evidence and questions of accuracy or reliability shall go to the weight rather than the admissibility of the evidence. If the person is medically unable to provide a urine sample in such manner due to the injuries or treatment of the injuries, the same authorization and procedure as used for the collection of blood in subsections (d) and (e) shall apply to the collection of a urine sample.

(j) No law enforcement officer who is acting in accordance with this section shall be liable in any civil or criminal proceeding involving the action.

(k) Before a test or tests are administered under this section, the person shall be given oral and written notice that: (1) Kansas law requires the person to submit to and complete one or more tests of breath, blood or urine to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both;

(2) the opportunity to consent to or refuse a test is not a constitutional right;

(3) there is no constitutional right to consult with an attorney regarding whether to submit to testing;

(4) if the person refuses to submit to and complete any test of breath, blood or urine hereafter requested by a law enforcement officer, the person may be charged with a separate crime of refusing to submit to a test to determine the presence of alcohol or drugs, which carries criminal penalties that are equal to the criminal penalties for the crime of driving under the influence;

(5) if the person refuses to submit to and complete any test of breath, blood or urine hereafter requested by a law enforcement officer, the person's driving privileges will be suspended for one year for the first or subsequent occurrence;

(6) if the person submits to and completes the test or tests and the test results show:

(A) An alcohol concentration of .08 or greater, the person's driving privileges will be suspended for 30 days for the first occurrence and one year for the second or subsequent occurrence; or

(B) an alcohol concentration of .15 or greater, the person's driving privileges will be suspended for one year for the first or subsequent occurrence;

(7) if the person is less than 21 years of age at the time of the test request and submits to and completes the tests and the test results show an alcohol concentration of .08 or greater, the person's driving privileges will be suspended for one year;

(8) refusal to submit to testing may be used against the person at any trial on a charge arising out of the operation or attempted operation of a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both;

(9) the results of the testing may be used against the person at any trial on a charge arising out of the operation or attempted operation of a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both; and

(10) after the completion of the testing, the person has the right to consult with an attorney and may secure additional testing, which, if desired, should be done as soon as possible and is customarily available from medical care facilities willing to conduct such testing.

(1) If a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has been driving a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in K.S.A. 8-2,128, and amendments thereto, while having alcohol or other drugs in such person's system, the person shall also be provided the oral and written notice pursuant to K.S.A. 8-2,145, and amendments thereto. Any failure to give the notices required by K.S.A. 8-2,145, and amendments thereto, shall not invalidate any action taken as a result of the requirements of this section. If a law enforcement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has been driving or attempting to drive a vehicle while having alcohol or other drugs in such person's system and such person was under 21 years of age, the person also shall be given the notices required by K.S.A. 8-1567a, and amendments thereto. Any failure to give the notices required by K.S.A. 8-1567a, and amendments thereto, shall not invalidate any action taken as a result of the requirements of this section.
(m) After giving the foregoing information, a law enforcement officer shall request the person to submit to testing. The selection of the test or tests shall be made by the officer. If the test results show a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .08 or greater, the person's driving privileges shall be subject to suspension, or suspension and restriction, as provided in K.S.A. 8-1002 and 8-1014, and amendments thereto.

(n) The person's refusal shall be admissible in evidence against the person at any trial on a charge arising out of the alleged operation or attempted operation of a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both. The person's refusal shall be admissible in evidence against the person at any trial on a charge arising out of the alleged violation of section 2, and amendments thereto.

(o) If a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in K.S.A. 8-2,128, and amendments thereto, and the test results show a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .04 or greater, the person shall be disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle, pursuant to K.S.A. 8-2,142, and amendments thereto. If a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in K.S.A. 8-2,128, and amendments thereto, and the test results show a blood or breath alcohol concentration of .08 or greater, or the person refuses a test, the person's driving privileges shall be subject to suspension, or suspension and restriction, pursuant to this section, in addition to being disqualified from driving a commercial motor vehicle pursuant to K.S.A. 8-2,142, and amendments thereto.

(p) An officer shall have probable cause to believe that the person operated a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, if the vehicle was operated by such person in such a manner as to have caused the death of or serious injury to a person. In such event, such test or tests may be made pursuant to a search warrant issued under the authority of K.S.A. 22-2502, and amendments thereto, or without a search warrant under the authority of K.S.A. 22-2501, and amendments thereto.

(q) Failure of a person to provide an adequate breath sample or samples as directed shall constitute a refusal unless the person shows that the failure was due to physical inability caused by a medical condition unrelated to any ingested alcohol or drugs.

(r) It shall not be a defense that the person did not understand the written or oral notice required by this section.

(s) No test results shall be suppressed because of technical irregularities in the consent or notice required pursuant to this act.

(t) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the admissibility at any trial of alcohol or drug concentration testing results obtained pursuant to a search warrant.

(u) Upon the request of any person submitting to testing under this section, a report of the results of the testing shall be made available to such person.

(v) This act is remedial law and shall be liberally construed to promote public health, safety and welfare.

(w) As used in this section, "serious injury" means a physical injury to a person, as determined by law enforcement, which has the effect of, prior to the request for testing:

(b) Sentences expressed in the sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes represent months of imprisonment.

(c) The sentencing guidelines grid is a two-dimensional crime severity and criminal history classification tool. The grid's vertical axis is the crime severity scale which classifies current crimes of conviction. The grid's horizontal axis is the criminal history scale which classifies criminal histories.

(d) The sentencing guidelines grid for nondrug crimes as provided in this section defines presumptive punishments for felony convictions, subject to the sentencing court's discretion to enter a departure sentence. The appropriate punishment for a felony conviction should depend on the severity of the crime of conviction when compared to all other crimes and the offender's criminal history.

(e) (1) The sentencing court has discretion to sentence at any place within the sentencing range. In the usual case it is recommended that the sentencing judge select the center of the range and reserve the upper and lower limits for aggravating and mitigating factors insufficient to warrant a departure.

(2) In presumptive imprisonment cases, the sentencing court shall pronounce the complete sentence which shall include the:

(A) Prison sentence;

(B) maximum potential reduction to such sentence as a result of good time; and

(C) period of postrelease supervision at the sentencing hearing. Failure to pronounce the period of postrelease supervision shall not negate the existence of such period of postrelease supervision.

(3) In presumptive nonprison cases, the sentencing court shall pronounce the:

(A) Prison sentence; and

(B) duration of the nonprison sanction at the sentencing hearing.
(f) Each grid block states the presumptive sentencing range for an offender whose crime of conviction and criminal history place such offender in that grid block. If an offense is classified in a grid block below the dispositional line, the presumptive disposition shall be nonimprisonment. If an offense is classified in a grid block above the dispositional line, the presumptive disposition shall be imprisonment. If an offense is classified in grid blocks 5-H, 5-I or 6-G, the court may impose an optional nonprison sentence as provided in subsection (q).

(g) The sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3415, prior to its repeal, aggravated battery against a law enforcement officer committed prior to July 1, 2006, or a violation of subsection (d) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5412, and amendments thereto, aggravated assault against a law enforcement officer, which places the defendant's sentence in grid block 6-H or 6-I shall be presumed imprisonment. The court may impose an optional nonprison sentence as provided in subsection (q).

(h) When a firearm is used to commit any person felony, the offender's sentence shall be presumed imprisonment. The court may impose an optional nonprison sentence as provided in subsection (q).

(2) If because of the offender's criminal history classification the offender is subject to presumptive imprisonment or if the judge departs from a presumptive probation sentence and the offender is subject to imprisonment, the provisions of this section and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6807, and amendments thereto, shall apply and the offender shall not be subject to the mandatory sentence as provided in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5823, and amendments thereto.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section, the term of imprisonment imposed for the violation of the felony provision of K.S.A. section 2, K.S.A. 8-2,144, 8-1567, subsection (b)(3) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5414, subsections (b)(3) and (b)(4) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5823, 21-6412 and 21-6416, and amendments thereto, shall not be served in a state facility in the custody of the secretary of corrections, except that the term of imprisonment for felony violations of section 2 or K.S.A. 8-2,144 or K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto, may be served in a state correctional facility designated by the secretary of corrections if the secretary determines that substance abuse treatment resources and facility capacity is available. The secretary's determination regarding the availability of treatment resources and facility capacity shall not be subject to review. Prior to imposing any sentence pursuant to this subsection, the court may consider assigning the defendant to a house arrest program pursuant to K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6609, and amendments thereto.

(j) (1) The sentence for any persistent sex offender whose current convicted crime carries a presumptive term of imprisonment shall be double the maximum duration of the presumptive imprisonment term. The sentence for any persistent sex offender whose current conviction carries a presumptive nonprison term shall be presumed imprisonment and shall be double the maximum duration of the presumptive imprisonment term.
(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, as used in this subsection, "persistent sex offender" means a person who:

(n) The sentence for a violation of criminal deprivation of property, as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5803, and amendments thereto, when such property is a motor vehicle, and when such person being sentenced has any combination of two or more prior convictions of subsection (b) of K.S.A. 21-3705, prior to its repeal, or of criminal deprivation of property, as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5803, and amendments thereto, when such property is a motor vehicle, shall be presumptive imprisonment. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(o) The sentence for a felony violation of theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary as defined in subsection (a) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has no prior convictions for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3701 or 21-3715, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary as defined in subsection (a) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto; or the sentence for a felony violation of theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has one or two prior felony convictions for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 or 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto; or the sentence for a felony violation of burglary as defined in subsection (a) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has one prior felony conviction for a violation of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 or 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto, shall be the sentence as provided by this section, except that the court may order an optional nonprison sentence for a defendant to participate in a drug treatment program, including, but not limited to, an approved after-care plan, if the court makes the following findings on the record:

(1) Substance abuse was an underlying factor in the commission of the crime;
(2) substance abuse treatment in the community is likely to be more effective than a prison term in reducing the risk of offender recidivism; and
(3) participation in an intensive substance abuse treatment program will serve community safety interests.

A defendant sentenced to an optional nonprison sentence under this subsection shall be supervised by community correctional services. The provisions of subsection (f)(1) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6824, and amendments thereto, shall apply to a defendant sentenced under this subsection. The sentence under this subsection shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(p) The sentence for a felony violation of theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has any combination of three or more prior felony convictions for violations of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 or 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto; or the sentence for a violation of burglary as defined in subsection (a) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto, when such person being sentenced has any combination of two or more prior convictions for violations of K.S.A. 21-3701, 21-3715 and 21-3716, prior to their repeal, or theft of property as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5801, and amendments thereto, or burglary or aggravated burglary as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5807, and amendments thereto, shall be presumed imprisonment and the defendant shall be sentenced to prison as provided by this section, except that the court may recommend that an offender be placed in the custody of the secretary of corrections, in a facility designated by the secretary to participate in an intensive substance abuse treatment program, upon making the following findings on the record:

1) Substance abuse was an underlying factor in the commission of the crime;
2) substance abuse treatment with a possibility of an early release from imprisonment is likely to be more effective than a prison term in reducing the risk of offender recidivism; and
3) participation in an intensive substance abuse treatment program with the possibility of an early release from imprisonment will serve community safety interests by promoting offender reformation.

The intensive substance abuse treatment program shall be determined by the secretary of corrections, but shall be for a period of at least four months. Upon the successful completion of such intensive treatment program, the offender shall be returned to the court and the court may modify the sentence by directing that a less severe penalty be imposed in lieu of that originally adjudged within statutory limits. If the offender's term of imprisonment expires, the offender shall be placed under the applicable period of postrelease supervision. The sentence under this subsection shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(q) As used in this section, an "optional nonprison sentence" is a sentence which the court may impose, in lieu of the presumptive sentence, upon making the following findings on the record:
1) An appropriate treatment program exists which is likely to be more effective than the presumptive prison term in reducing the risk of offender recidivism; and
2) the recommended treatment program is available and the offender can be admitted to such program within a reasonable period of time; or
3) the nonprison sanction will serve community safety interests by promoting offender reformation.

Any decision made by the court regarding the imposition of an optional nonprison sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(r) The sentence for a violation of subsection (c)(2) of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5413, and amendments thereto, shall be presumptive imprisonment and shall be served consecutively to any other term or terms of imprisonment imposed. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(s) The sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5512, and amendments thereto, shall be presumptive imprisonment. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(t) (1) If the trier of fact makes a finding that an offender wore or used ballistic resistant material in the commission of, or attempt to commit, or flight from any felony, in addition to the sentence imposed pursuant to the Kansas sentencing guidelines act, the offender shall be sentenced to an additional 30 months' imprisonment.
(2) The sentence imposed pursuant to subsection (t)(1) shall be presumptive imprisonment and shall be served consecutively to any other term or terms of imprisonment imposed. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

(3) As used in this subsection, "ballistic resistant material" means: (A) Any commercially produced material designed with the purpose of providing ballistic and trauma protection, including, but not limited to, bulletproof vests and kevlar vests; and (B) any homemade or fabricated substance or item designed with the purpose of providing ballistic and trauma protection.

(u) The sentence for a violation of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6107, and amendments thereto, or any attempt or conspiracy, as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5301 and 21-5302, and amendments thereto, to commit such offense, when such person being sentenced has a prior conviction for a violation of K.S.A. 21-4018, prior to its repeal, or K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6107, and amendments thereto, or any attempt or conspiracy to commit such offense, shall be presumptive imprisonment. Such sentence shall not be considered a departure and shall not be subject to appeal.

Sec. 24. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 22-2802 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-2802. (1) Any person charged with a crime shall, at the person's first appearance before a magistrate, be ordered released pending preliminary examination or trial upon the execution of an appearance bond in an amount specified by the magistrate and sufficient to assure the appearance of such person before the magistrate when ordered and to assure the public safety. If the person is being bound over for a felony, the bond shall also be conditioned on the person's appearance in the district court or by way of a two-way electronic audio-video communication as provided in subsection (14) at the time required by the court to answer the charge against such person and at any time thereafter that the court requires. Unless the magistrate makes a specific finding otherwise, if the person is being bonded out for a person felony or a person misdemeanor, the bond shall be conditioned on the person being prohibited from having any contact with the alleged victim of such offense for a period of at least 72 hours. The magistrate may impose such of the following additional conditions of release as will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for preliminary examination or trial:

(a) Place the person in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise such person;
(b) place restrictions on the travel, association or place of abode of the person during the period of release;
(c) impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required, including a condition requiring that the person return to custody during specified hours;
(d) place the person under a house arrest program pursuant to K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6609, and amendments thereto; or
(e) place the person under the supervision of a court services officer responsible for monitoring the person's compliance with any conditions of release ordered by the magistrate. The magistrate may order the person to pay for any costs associated with the supervision provided by the court services department in an amount not to exceed $15 per week of such supervision. The magistrate may also order the person to pay for all other costs associated with the supervision and conditions for compliance in addition to the $15 per week.

(2) In addition to any conditions of release provided in subsection (1), for any person charged with a felony, the magistrate may order such person to submit to a drug and alcohol abuse examination and evaluation in a public or private treatment facility or state institution and, if determined by the head of such facility or institution that such person is a drug or alcohol abuser or is incapacitated by drugs or alcohol, to submit to treatment for such drug or alcohol abuse, as a condition of release.

(3) The appearance bond shall be executed with sufficient solvent sureties who are residents of the state of Kansas, unless the magistrate determines, in the exercise of such magistrate's discretion, that requiring sureties is not necessary to assure the appearance of the person at the time ordered.

(4) A deposit of cash in the amount of the bond may be made in lieu of the execution of the bond pursuant to subsection (3). Except as provided in subsection (5), such deposit shall be in the full amount of the bond and in no event shall a deposit of cash in less than the full amount of bond be permitted. Any person charged with a crime who is released on a cash bond shall be entitled to a refund of all moneys paid for the cash bond, after deduction of any outstanding restitution, costs, fines and fees, after the final disposition of the criminal case if the person complies with all requirements to appear in court. The court may not exclude the option of posting bond pursuant to subsection (3).

(5) Except as provided further, the amount of the appearance bond shall be the same whether executed as described in subsection (3) or posted with a deposit of cash as described in subsection (4). When the appearance bond has been set at $2,500 or less and the most serious charge against the person is a misdemeanor, a severity level 8, 9 or 10 nonperson felony, a drug severity level 4 felony or a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567 or section 2, and amendments thereto, the magistrate may allow the person to deposit cash with the clerk in the amount of 10% of the bond, provided the person meets at least the following qualifications:
(A) Is a resident of the state of Kansas;
(B) has a criminal history score category of G, H or I;
(C) has no prior history of failure to appear for any court appearances;
(D) has no detainer or hold from any other jurisdiction;
(E) has not been extradited from, and is not awaiting extradition to, another state;
and
(F) has not been detained for an alleged violation of probation.

(6) In the discretion of the court, a person charged with a crime may be released upon the person's own recognizance by guaranteeing payment of the amount of the bond for the person's failure to comply with all requirements to appear in court. The release of a person charged with a crime upon the person's own recognizance shall not require the deposit of any cash by the person.

(7) The court shall not impose any administrative fee.

(8) In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure appearance and the public safety, the magistrate shall, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the crime charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; whether the defendant is lawfully present in the United States; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, mental condition, length of residence in the community, record of convictions, record of appearance or failure to appear at court proceedings or of flight to avoid prosecution; the likelihood or propensity of the defendant to commit crimes while on release, including whether the defendant will be likely to threaten, harass or cause injury to the victim of the crime or any witnesses thereto; and whether the defendant is on probation or parole from a previous offense at the time of the alleged commission of the subsequent offense.

(9) The appearance bond shall set forth all of the conditions of release.

(10) A person for whom conditions of release are imposed and who continues to be detained as a result of the person's inability to meet the conditions of release shall be entitled, upon application, to have the conditions reviewed without unnecessary delay by the magistrate who imposed them. If the magistrate who imposed conditions of release is not available, any other magistrate in the county may review such conditions.

(11) A magistrate ordering the release of a person on any conditions specified in this section may at any time amend the order to impose additional or different conditions of release. If the imposition of additional or different conditions results in the detention of the person, the provisions of subsection (10) shall apply.

(12) Statements or information offered in determining the conditions of release need not conform to the rules of evidence. No statement or admission of the defendant made at such a proceeding shall be received as evidence in any subsequent proceeding against the defendant.

(13) The appearance bond and any security required as a condition of the defendant's release shall be deposited in the office of the magistrate or the clerk of the court where the release is ordered. If the defendant is bound to appear before a magistrate or court other than the one ordering the release, the order of release, together with the bond and security shall be transmitted to the magistrate or clerk of the court before whom the defendant is bound to appear.

(14) Proceedings before a magistrate as provided in this section to determine the release conditions of a person charged with a crime including release upon execution of an appearance bond may be conducted by two-way electronic audio-video communication between the defendant and the judge in lieu of personal presence of the defendant or defendant's counsel in the courtroom in the discretion of the court. The defendant may be accompanied by the defendant's counsel. The defendant shall be informed of the defendant's right to be personally present in the courtroom during such proceeding if the defendant so requests. Exercising the right to be present shall in no way prejudice the defendant.

(15) The magistrate may order the person to pay for any costs associated with the supervision of the conditions of release of the appearance bond in an amount not to exceed $15 per week of such supervision. As a condition of sentencing under K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-6604, and amendments thereto, the court may impose the full amount of any such costs in addition to the $15 per week, including, but not limited to, costs for treatment and evaluation under subsection (2).

Sec. 25. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 22-2908 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-2908. (a) In determining whether diversion of a defendant is in the interests of justice and of benefit to the defendant and the community, the county or district attorney shall consider at least the following factors among all factors considered:

(1) The nature of the crime charged and the circumstances surrounding it;
(2) any special characteristics or circumstances of the defendant;
(3) whether the defendant is a first-time offender and if the defendant has previously participated in diversion, according to the certification of the Kansas bureau of investigation or the division of vehicles of the department of revenue;
(4) whether there is a probability that the defendant will cooperate with and benefit from diversion;
(5) whether the available diversion program is appropriate to the needs of the defendant;
(6) the impact of the diversion of the defendant upon the community;
(7) recommendations, if any, of the involved law enforcement agency;
(8) recommendations, if any, of the victim;
(9) provisions for restitution; and
(10) any mitigating circumstances.

(b) A county or district attorney shall not enter into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint if:
(1) The complaint alleges a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567 or section 2, and amendments thereto, and the defendant: (A) Has previously participated in diversion upon a complaint alleging a violation of that statute or an ordinance of a city in this state which prohibits the acts prohibited by that statute; (B) has previously been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a violation of that statute or a violation of a law of another state or of a political subdivision of this or any other state, which law prohibits the acts prohibited by that statute; or (C) during the time of the alleged violation was involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in personal injury or death;
(2) the complaint alleges that the defendant committed a class A or B felony or for crimes committed on or after July 1, 1993, an off-grid crime, a severity level 1, 2 or 3 felony for nondrug crimes or drug severity level 1 or 2 felony for drug crimes; or
(3) the complaint alleges a domestic violence offense, as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5111, and amendments thereto, and the defendant has participated in two or more diversions in the previous five year period upon complaints alleging a domestic violence offense.

(c) A county or district attorney may enter into a diversion agreement in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint for violations of article 10 of chapter 32 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, if such diversion carries the same penalties as the conviction for the corresponding violations. If the defendant has previously participated in one or more diversions for violations of article 10 of chapter 32 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, then each subsequent diversion shall carry the same penalties as the conviction for the corresponding violations.

Sec. 26. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 22-2909 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-2909. (a) A diversion agreement shall provide that if the defendant fulfills the obligations of the program described therein, as determined by the attorney general or county or district attorney, such attorney shall act to have the criminal charges against the defendant dismissed with prejudice. The diversion agreement shall include specifically the waiver of all rights under the law or the constitution of Kansas or of the United States to a speedy arraignment, preliminary examinations and hearings, and a speedy trial, and in the case of diversion under subsection (c) waiver of the rights to counsel and trial by jury. The diversion agreement may include, but is not limited to, provisions concerning payment of restitution, including court costs and diversion costs, residence in a specified facility, maintenance of gainful employment, and participation in programs offering medical, educational, vocational, social and psychological services, corrective and preventive guidance and other rehabilitative services. If a county creates a local fund under the property crime restitution and compensation act, a county or district attorney may require in all diversion agreements as a condition of diversion the payment of a diversion fee in an amount not to exceed $100. Such fees shall be deposited into the local fund and disbursed pursuant to recommendations of the local board under the property crime restitution and victims compensation act.

(b) The diversion agreement shall state: (1) The defendant's full name; (2) the defendant's full name at the time the complaint was filed, if different from the defendant's current name; (3) the defendant's sex, race and date of birth; (4) the crime with which the defendant is charged; (5) the date the complaint was filed; and (6) the district court with which the agreement is filed.

c) If a diversion agreement is entered into in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567 or section 2, and amendments thereto, the diversion agreement shall include a stipulation, agreed to by the defendant, the defendant's attorney if the defendant is represented by an attorney and the attorney general or county or district attorney, of the facts upon which the charge is based and a provision that if the defendant fails to fulfill the terms of the specific diversion agreement and the criminal proceedings on the complaint are resumed, the proceedings, including any proceedings on appeal, shall be conducted on the record of the stipulation of facts relating to the complaint. In addition, the agreement shall include a requirement that the defendant:

(1) Pay a fine specified by the agreement in an amount equal to an amount authorized by K.S.A. 8-1567 or section 2, and amendments thereto, for a first offense or, in lieu of payment of the fine, perform community service specified by the agreement, in accordance with K.S.A. 8-1567 or section 2, and amendments thereto; and

(2) participate in an alcohol and drug evaluation conducted by a licensed provider pursuant to K.S.A. 8-1008, and amendments thereto, and follow any recommendation made by the provider after such evaluation.

d) If a diversion agreement is entered into in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging a domestic violence offense, as defined in K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5111, and amendments thereto, the diversion agreement shall include a requirement that the defendant undergo a domestic violence offender assessment and follow all recommendations unless otherwise agreed to with the prosecutor in the diversion agreement. The defendant shall be required to pay for such assessment and, unless otherwise agreed to with the prosecutor in the diversion agreement, for completion of all recommendations.

e) If a diversion agreement is entered into in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging a violation other than K.S.A. 8-1567 or section 2, and amendments thereto, the diversion agreement may include a stipulation, agreed to by the defendant, the defendant's attorney if the defendant is represented by an attorney and the attorney general or county or district attorney, of the facts upon which the charge is based and a provision that if the defendant fails to fulfill the terms of the specific diversion agreement and the criminal proceedings on the complaint are resumed, the proceedings, including any proceedings on appeal, shall be conducted on the record of the stipulation of facts relating to the complaint.

(f) If the person entering into a diversion agreement is a nonresident, the attorney general or county or district attorney shall transmit a copy of the diversion agreement to the division. The division shall forward a copy of the diversion agreement to the motor vehicle administrator of the person's state of residence.

(g) If the attorney general or county or district attorney elects to offer diversion in lieu of further criminal proceedings on the complaint and the defendant agrees to all of the terms of the proposed agreement, the diversion agreement shall be filed with the district court and the district court shall stay further proceedings on the complaint. If the defendant declines to accept diversion, the district court shall resume the criminal proceedings on the complaint.

(h) Except as provided in subsection (h), if a diversion agreement is entered into in lieu of further criminal proceedings alleging commission of a misdemeanor by the defendant, while under 21 years of age, under K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 21-5701 through 21-5717, and amendments thereto, or K.S.A. 41-719, 41-727, 41-804, 41-2719 or 41-2720, and amendments thereto, the agreement shall require the defendant to participate in an alcohol and drug evaluation conducted by a licensed provider pursuant to K.S.A. 8-1008, and amendments thereto, and follow any recommendation made by the provider after such evaluation.

(i) If the defendant is 18 or more years of age but less than 21 years of age and allegedly committed a violation of K.S.A. 41-727, and amendments thereto, involving cereal malt beverage, the provisions of subsection (g) are permissive and not mandatory.

(j) Except diversion agreements reported under subsection (j), the attorney general or county or district attorney shall forward to the Kansas bureau of investigation a copy of the diversion agreement at the time such agreement is filed with the district court. The copy of the agreement shall be made available upon request to the attorney general or any county, district or city attorney or court.

(k) At the time of filing the diversion agreement with the district court, the attorney general or county or district attorney shall forward to the division of vehicles of the state department of revenue a copy of any diversion agreement entered into in lieu of further criminal proceedings on a complaint alleging a violation of K.S.A. 8-1567, and amendments thereto. The copy of the agreement shall be made available upon request to the attorney general or any county, district or city attorney or court.

Sec. 27. K.S.A. 22-2910 is hereby amended to read as follows: 22-2910. No defendant shall be required to enter any plea to a criminal charge as a condition for diversion. No statements made by the defendant or counsel in any diversion conference or in any other discussion of a proposed diversion agreement shall be admissible as evidence in criminal proceedings on crimes charged or facts alleged in the complaint. Except for sentencing proceedings and as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of K.S.A. 22-2909, and amendments thereto, and as otherwise provided in K.S.A. 8-285 and 8-1567 and section 2, and amendments to these sections, the following shall not be admissible as evidence in criminal proceedings which are resumed under K.S.A. 22-2911: (1) Participation in a diversion program; (2) the facts of such participation; or (3) the diversion agreement entered into.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Announcing passage of HB 2709.

INTRODUCTION OF HOUSE BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

HB 2709 was thereupon introduced and read by title.

On motion of Senator Emler, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Wednesday, March 21, 2012.
The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris. The roll was called with forty senators present.

The President introduced Reverend Aaron Roberts, Colonial Church, Prairie Village, Kansas, who delivered the invocation:

Good morning – I spent last night volunteering in a family homeless shelter in Overland Park, and as we come together in prayer this morning, I ask that all of us join our prayers with those who are “longing for home” in this state of Kansas. If you are a person of prayer, will you join me?

God, you have made a great nation of us. In this room today, bless these leaders with wisdom. Reveal your righteousness to every person in this Senate, and make them agents of compassion to join together to be good news to the poor, care for the common good, and be just and civil and humble in their duties.

Place your Spirit of unity in this place. As each honorable Senator here is blessed to serve, may he or she be blessed to be a blessing to all the families in Kansas – inclusive of all. May your will be done on Earth as it is in heaven. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: Many of my colleagues oppose S Sub for HB 2117 on the pretext it costs too much. Their No votes are cast after most of them supported amendments to deliberately increase its cost. Such absurdity is analogous to burning down your own house and then begging for charity on the grounds you're homeless.

Consistently, this body gives lip service to the desperate need for tax reform and its members continuously cry for fairness while claiming they are the champions of the downtrodden. To do so, and vote No, is a farce; the results of which not only lead to failure but serves as an insult to those who seek gainful employment, desire a prosperous state and truly believe the pursuit of happiness is not found in political rhetoric or government largess but is instead a natural right.

I vote Yes on S Sub for HB 2117 because I want a prosperous state with a better future for all Kansans. To vote no is to embrace a philosophy of failure and creed of ignorance, the inherent virtue of which will lead to the equal sharing of misery. – TERRY BRUCE

Senators Abrams, Apple, Pilcher-Cook, Donovan, Love, Lynn, Marshall, Masterson, Merrick, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pyle and Wagle request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Bruce on S Sub for HB 2117.

Senator Brungardt moved to reconsider the action on S Sub for HB 2117 and the bill was returned to Final Action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 29; Nays 11; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: After analysis and reconsideration, I still vote “NO” on the badly flawed tax bill S Sub for HB 2117.

Standing firm in my convictions is a hallmark of consistency which I strongly believe makes my constituents proud of my representation.

Voting one way one hour then, after political pressure and back room dealing, voting the exact opposite way in the next hour may be confusing to many of your constituents.

But proudly, Mr. President, that's something my constituents, when they read today's Senate Journal, don't have to worry about. – DAVID HALEY

S Sub for HB 2157, AN ACT concerning income taxation; relating to apportionment of business income by certain taxpayers; election thereof; requirements; credits; amending K.S.A. 79-32,141 and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-3279 and 79-32,160a and repealing the existing sections; also repealing K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-32,160f, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 23; Nays 17; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

The substitute bill passed, as amended. S Sub for HB 2200, AN ACT concerning school districts; relating to the amount of base state aid per pupil; relating to the local option budget; amending K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 72-6410 and 72-6433 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 31; Nays 9; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nays: Kelsey, Lynn, Masterson, Merrick, Olson, Ostmeyer, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Taddiken.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I support S Sub for HB 2200, because our school districts have cut tens of millions from their budgets. While the cap was not lifted on the local option budget, this bill will provide much needed funding until such time as the Governor's education plan passes to provide for sustainable funding for all Kansas school districts.

– TERRIE HUNTINGTON

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: S Sub for HB 2200 takes a “status quo” approach to school finance. The Senate had an unprecedented opportunity to consider bold proposals put forth by our Governor to fundamentally fix a broken system, yet deliberately chose an unsustainable future for our children. Even though it’s a step in the right direction to allow a public vote I must vote NO and will continue to support legislation that corrects the finance formula that penalizes our efforts to create quality public education.

– JULIA LYNN

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I am supportive of increasing the funding for our K-12 education system by increasing the state base aid per pupil. However, I cannot support increasing local property taxes by increasing the local option budget authority of local school boards.

Hopefully when this bill returns from the conference committee the increased LOB authority will be removed so that I too can vote to increase funding for our schools. Until such time, I vote no on S Sub for HB 2200. – MARK TADDIKEN

Senators Masterson, Ostmeyer and Pyle request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Taddiken on S Sub for HB 2200.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I am pleased to once again vote in favor of additional, and much needed, funding for our K-12 schools and our children. Several of my Johnson County Senate colleagues join in that support. Contrary to the argument frequently made, this vote shows that Johnson County legislators will support additional funding for schools even when the school districts receive additional local option budget authority. Education is the most important function of state government; we must give it first priority in our budgeting process. —JOHN Vratil

Senators Huntington and Owens request the record to show they concur with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Vratil on S Sub for HB 2200.

S Sub for HB 2241, AN ACT concerning taxation; relating to the local ad valorem tax reduction fund; distribution to political subdivisions; amending K.S.A. 79-2961 and K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 79-2959 and repealing the existing sections, was considered on final action.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 38; Nays 2; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Nays: Donovan, Steineger.

The substitute bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: While I am pleased to support the reinstatement of the local ad valorem tax reduction fund, especially with my amendment that ensures these funds will be used to lower property taxes, the Senate missed an essential opportunity to provide $28 million in new property-tax relief for low-income families, the disabled, and fixed-income seniors. The Senate defeated by one vote an amendment that would have more than doubled the property tax relief available to these poorest of Kansas taxpayers through the Homestead Property Tax Relief program. This amendment, which was unanimously endorsed by the Senate Taxation Committee, would have prevented fixed-income seniors from being taxed out of their homes, would have encouraged working families with children to remain in their Kansas homes instead of leaving for lower-tax states, and would have ensured that property taxes did not unfairly punish disabled taxpayers. Kansas taxpayers deserve better than a property tax system that punishes fixed-income retirees and working families. With yesterday's defeated amendment, we missed a golden opportunity to help these Kansas taxpayers.—JEFF KING

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: It is a relief this body has given the people of Kansas the ability to vote for or against property taxes for education. In that regard, I would like to vote for this bill. However, when the Legislature is under threat of another lawsuit that is speeding down the tracks, we simply cannot continue the status quo, so I have no alternative but to vote against this legislation. I regret the governor's education plan did not receive the priority and attention it deserved.—MARY PILCHER-COOK
EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote No on S Sub for HB 2241, state aid to municipal governments. Kansas is a bottom heavy state. Kansas taxpayers are forced to pay more for local government than almost any other state in the nation. This due to an excessive number of counties, cities, townships, an other local units of government. It makes no sense for state government to subsidize our outdated and inefficient system of local units, without working towards a modernization and consolidation of our local government structure. – CHRIS STEINEGER

Senator Donovan request the record to show he concurs with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Steineger on S Sub for HB 2241.

It is also the state agencies' responsibility to ensure safe industry practices are adhered to along with long-term monitoring for contamination. These responsibilities must be funded and kept in place. Thank you Mr. President. — ALLEN SCHMIDT
