CONTINUATION SHEET

Minutes of the HOUSE TAXATION Committee at 3:41 PM on Thursday, February 15, 2012 in 783-DSOB.

Brownback's tax reform bill, the major differences being the phasing out of specific taxes over a period of years in lieu of the Governor's shorter schedule. (Attachment 1) He stood for questions.

Luke Bell testified in support of HB 2747 because the bill provides "comprehensive, equitable and meaningful income tax relief for all Kansas taxpayers and creates economic development opportunities for Kansas families and businesses". (Attachment 2) He stood for questions.

Doug Wareham testified in support of HB 2747. (Attachment 3) He stood for questions.

Jason Watkins testified in support of HB 2747, requesting the Department of Transportation funds not be jeopardized. (Attachment 4) He stood for questions.

Dan Murray testified in support of HB 2747, pointing out that his organization supports reduced taxes for small businesses, citing that an abundant amount of small businesses has been lost in recent years. (Attachment 5) He stood for questions.

Written only testimony in support of HB 2747 was presented by Kent Eckles, Kansas Chamber. (Attachment 6)

Secretary Barbara Rankin testified as neutral for HB 2747, by advocating the needs of the Department of Transportation, the backbone of economic development and job creation in Kansas. She cautioned the Committee on reducing funds to KDOT, specifically citing a shortfall to the T-WORKS program. (Attachment 7) She stood for questions.

Robert Vancrum presented neutral testimony for HB 2747, emphasizing the need to maintain sufficient funding for the Kansas Department of Transportation. (Attachment 8) He stood for questions.

After all questions from the Committee were answered, Chairman Carlson closed the hearing on HB 2747.

The next meeting of the Committee is scheduled for 3:30 pm, February 16, 2012, in 783-DSOB to hear testimony in opposition to HB 2747.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:25 pm.
