Senator Francisco made a motion that SB406 be passed out favorably as amended; Senator Teichman seconded. Motion carried.

The hearing for SB271- concerning ownership of pore space was re-opened. Tamera Lawrence, assistant revisor, reviewed background from the previous meeting and referred to Professor David Pierce's responses to the Committee that were delivered to each senator. The revisor answered questions from the Committee. She referred to a proposed balloon amendment based on Professor Pierce's suggestions. (Attachment 4) Discussion followed.

Senator Francisco made a motion to adopt the proposed balloon amendments for SB271, Senator Teichman seconded. Motion carried.

Chairman Ostmeyer will have SB271 “blessed” to discuss more thoroughly later.

The hearing was opened for SB314-eliminating the fishing & hunting license exemptions for person 65 years of age or older. Tamera Lawrence gave an explanation of the bill. Due to time constraints, opponents were given a chance to testify first.

Paul White from Marion, Kansas, opposes the SB314 because many users do not presently pay fees. This bill proposes a hardship of a large number of retirees. (Attachment 5)

Jim Snyder, Silverhaired Legislature, opposes the SB314 because he felt it punishes older people. (Attachment 6)

Janice DeBoer, KAAAA, opposes the SB314 because it targets the baby boomer group and hits those on fixed incomes the most. (Attachment 7)

CONTINUATION SHEET

Minutes of the Senate Natural Resources Committee at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, February 17, 2012, in Room 159-S of the Capitol.

Written testimony was passed out in opposition of SB314 by: Patricia Stoneking, President, Kansas Rifle Association (Attachment 8); Joe Gresier, Yates Center (Attachment 9); and Ron and Navella Richey, Topeka, Kansas. (Attachment 10)

Robin Jennison, KDWPT, was a proponent of SB314 because lots of people benefit from the federal funds that are affected by the state funds. He discussed how federal funds would be assessed. (Attachment 11)

Chairman Ostmeyer concluded the hearing today because of time constraints. He will ask that SB314 be “blessed”.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:35 a.m.
