Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

Section 1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of other statutes, when a child is removed from the custody of a parent, any a grandparent shall may receive preference consideration when evaluating what custody, visitation or residency arrangements are in the best interests of the child.

- (b) In deciding whether to give custody to a grandparent, the court should be guided by the best interests of the child and should consider all relevant factors including, but not limited to, the following:
  - (1) The wishes of the parents, child and grandparent;
- (2) the extent to which the grandparent has cared for, nurtured and supported the child;
- (3) the intent and circumstances under which the child is placed with the grandparent, including whether domestic violence is a factor and whether the child is placed to allow the parent to seek work or attend school; and
  - (4) the physical and mental health of all individuals involved.
- (c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to actions filed under the Kansas adoption and relinquishment act, K.S.A. 59-2111, et seg., and amendments thereto.
- (d) This section shall be part of and supplemental to the revised Kansas code for care of children.
- Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the statute book.
