

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-628. Same; rates and terms for services; appeal; hearing. Whenever any party which shall receive water from such corporation shall consider its rates or terms for its services and facilities to be unreasonable or discriminatory, such other party or parties may appeal to the corporation commission, and if such commission shall consider the complaint to require action by it, it shall notify such corporation and the complainant or complainants and conduct a hearing thereon in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act within a county in which any of the works of any such corporation may be located. If the commission decides that such rates or terms are unreasonable or discriminatory, it shall fix rates and terms for the services and facilities of such corporation which shall be binding upon the parties until further order of the commission.

History: L. 1933, ch. 155, § 4; L. 1988, ch. 356, § 50; July 1, 1989.