

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-5230. Establishment of branch office in state by out-of-state savings and loan, when. Subject to such prohibitions, limitations and conditions as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe, the commissioner may allow any state chartered savings and loan association having its home office in a state other than Kansas to establish and operate a branch office in the state of Kansas if the law of the state where the home office of the association is located permits the establishment and operation of such branch offices in that state by associations with home offices in Kansas. Such regulations shall not exceed the authority granted to federally chartered savings and loan associations to operate a branch in a state other than Kansas.
