

2012 Kansas Statutes

19-4903. Same; establishment by Kansas development finance authority; intergovernmental agreements between authority and county; property acquisition and bond issuance for plan projects by statewide projects development corporation. The board of county commissioners, with or without the establishment of a redevelopment district under K.S.A. 19-4901, and amendments thereto, on its own initiative or in cooperation with a redevelopment authority or one or more developers, may request and approve the establishment of a redevelopment district by the Kansas development finance authority pursuant to K.S.A. 74-8921 and 74-8922, and amendments thereto, covering all or any part or parts of property located within a federal enclave in Johnson and Labette counties. Upon establishment of such a redevelopment district, the Kansas development finance authority may enter into one or more intergovernmental agreements with the board of county commissioners to assist in the redevelopment of the property by the exercise of those powers contained in K.S.A. 74-8905, and amendments thereto, and in addition to those purposes stated in subsection (v) or K.S.A. 74-8904, and amendments thereto, the Kansas statewide projects development corporation may act to acquire and convey property and to issue bonds on behalf of Johnson or Labette county for redevelopment plan projects approved by the authority and Johnson or Labette county for the redevelopment district established to cover all or part of the property located within a federal enclave in Johnson and Labette counties.
