

2012 Kansas Statutes

25-1125. Residence determination. The place of residence for registration purposes, so far as the same shall apply to the provisions of this act, shall be construed to be the place at which the voter last resided prior to his temporary absence from his county upon such election day and to which he has the intention of returning, as a place of fixed residence, as stated in K.S.A. 25-1119.

History: L. 1967, ch. 208, § 12; July 1.