

2012 Kansas Statutes

38-540. Commitment to home by district court. Any boy or girl over whom the judge of the district court is by law given jurisdiction and authority, may be committed to such home in the discretion of said court.

History: L. 1967, ch. 242, § 5; L. 1976, ch. 145, § 178; Jan. 10, 1977.