

2012 Kansas Statutes

58a-418. Reference to written statement or list. A trust instrument which establishes an inter vivos trust and which directs the trustee to distribute trust assets may refer to a separate written statement or list of items of personal property, other than money, evidences of debt, documents of title, securities, and properties used in trade or business, which are assets of the trust estate, and may direct the trustee to make distribution of such items as indicated in the written statement or list. The trustee may distribute such items in accordance with the written statement or list. Such written statement or list either must be in the handwriting of the settlor or be signed by the settlor, and must describe the items with reasonable certainty. The writing may be referred to in the trust instrument as one to be in existence at the time of the settlor's death, prepared before or after execution of the trust instrument, and altered by the settlor after its preparation. Transfer of items of personal property pursuant to this section shall not be considered testamentary or be invalidated due to nonconformity with the provisions of chapter 59 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto.
