

2012 Kansas Statutes

72-1123. Same; providing instruction to all students. All students may receive instruction in Braille reading and writing as part of their individualized education plan. No student shall be denied the opportunity for instruction in Braille reading and writing solely because the student has some remaining vision.

History: L. 1991, ch. 118, § 2; July 1.