

2012 Kansas Statutes

72-1393. Prohibition from adoption of certain rules and regulations concerning licensure of administrators, teachers or instructors or conditions of employment at two-year colleges or community junior colleges. The state board of education is hereby prohibited from adopting rules and regulations which require licensure of administrators, teachers or instructors in any community college or which require any such administrators, teachers or instructors to meet any other conditions for qualification for employment in any such community college.

History: L. 1975, ch. 360, § 2; L. 1975, ch. 359, § 2; L. 2005, ch. 69, § 10; July 1.