

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-5336. Same; costs uncollectible, paid by board. All costs accrued at the instance of the state, when it is the successful party, and which the attorney general certifies cannot be collected from the defendant, shall be paid out of any available funds in the state treasury to the credit of the board.

History: L. 1967, ch. 432, § 36; July 1.