

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-519. Succession to property and records where function transferred divided; conflicts determined by governor. In all cases where, under the provisions of this act, part or all of the powers, duties and functions of any existing state agency are divided between any existing or newly created state agency, board or officer, each such agency, board or officer shall succeed to all property and records, which were used for, or pertain to, the performance of the powers, duties and functions transferred to it. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of property or records arising under this section shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.
