

2012 Kansas Statutes

76-12b03. Same; findings; respite care. No person shall be admitted to an institution except for the purpose of diagnosis and evaluation unless the superintendent has found such person to be a person with intellectual disability, in need of care and training and that placement in the institution is the least restrictive alternative available. An admission for respite care shall not require a finding that a person is in need of training.

History: L. 1984, ch. 339, § 3; L. 2012, ch. 91, § 70; July 1.