

2012 Kansas Statutes

82-205. Existence and custody of property; second certificate. No person, firm or corporation shall issue any elevator or warehouse certificates or receipts for any of the commodities mentioned in this chapter unless such property is actually in the elevator or warehouse or structure mentioned therein as the place where such commodity is stored, and it shall remain there until otherwise ordered by the lawful holder of such certificate or receipt, subject only to the lien of the warehouseman thereon and his or her right to enforce the same. No second certificate or receipt shall be issued for the same property or any part thereof while any other or prior certificate is outstanding and in force, nor shall any such commodities be sold, encumbered, transferred or removed from such elevator, warehouse or other structure wherein the same was stored at the time such certificate or receipt was issued by the warehouseman or any agent or employee thereof without the written consent of the holder thereof endorsed thereon.
