

2012 Kansas Statutes

82a-929. Same; state responsibility for water. The state of Kansas hereby recognizes its responsibility and jurisdiction to protect, conserve, and control all waters affecting the people of the state, including those waters impounded in projects constructed pursuant to programs of the federal government.

History: L. 1965, ch. 558, § 3; May 12.