(2) Except as may otherwise be expressly provided by the board of regents, every obligation of the board of regents with respect to such bonds shall be an obligation of the board of regents payable out of any revenues or moneys of the board of regents derived from annual appropriations of the legislature. Subject only to any agreements with holders of particular bonds pledging any particular revenues, the board of regents shall use moneys derived from scientific research and development facilities to provide funds sufficient to pay principal and interest on any bonds issued pursuant to this act commencing after the date a project is completed and has been accepted by the board of regents. All such transfers during the fiscal years ending June 30, 2013, and June 30, 2014, June 30, 2015, and June 30, 2016, shall be considered to be revenue transfers from the state general fund. The aggregate of all such transfers from the state general fund during any fiscal year shall not exceed $10,000,000 and the aggregate of all such transfers from the state general fund under this section shall not exceed $50,000,000. The Kansas development finance authority and the board of regents shall enter into contracts with respect to the scientific research and

(c) Any resolution authorizing the board of regents to incur any obligation with respect to bonds issued by the Kansas development finance authority may contain such provisions as deemed appropriate by the board of regents for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of this act and securing such bonds, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders thereof, including, but not limited to, provisions:

1. Pledging all or any part of the revenues of the board of regents derived from scientific research and development facilities to secure the payment of the bonds or of any issue thereof, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist;

2. the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

3. limitations on the issuance of additional bonds or other obligations, the terms upon which additional bonds or obligations may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding or other bonds;

4. defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the board of regents to the Kansas development finance authority, the applicable bond trustee or the holders of the bonds, except that such rights and remedies shall not be inconsistent with the general laws of this state and the other provisions of this act; and

5. any other matters, of like or different character, which in any way affect the security or protection of the holders of the notes or bonds.

d) Any of the provisions relating to any bonds described in this section may be set forth in a trust indenture, loan agreement, lease agreement or other financing document authorized by a resolution of the board of regents or the board of directors of the Kansas development finance authority.

e) The bonds of each issue may, in the discretion of the board of directors of the Kansas development finance authority, be made redeemable before maturity at such prices and under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the board of directors of the Kansas development finance authority. Bonds issued on behalf of the board of regents shall mature at such time, not exceeding 30 years from their date of issue, as may be determined by the board of regents and the board of directors of the Kansas development finance authority. The bonds may be issued as serial bonds payable in annual installments or as term bonds or as a combination thereof. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate either fixed or variable, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment and at such place, and be subject to such terms of redemption as provided in the resolution of trust indenture. The bonds may be sold by the Kansas development finance authority, at public or private sale, at such price as the board of directors of the Kansas development finance authority shall determine.

(f) In case any officer of the Kansas development finance authority whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on any bonds or coupons attached thereto ceases to be such officer before the delivery thereof, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if such officer had remained in office until such delivery.

(g) Any bonds issued by the Kansas development finance authority pursuant to this section, and the income therefrom (including any profit from the sale thereof) shall at all times be free from taxation by the state or any agency, political subdivision or instrumentality of the state, including income and property taxes.

(h) Any holder of bonds issued under the provisions of this act, or any coupons appertaining thereto and the trustee under any trust agreement or resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds, except the rights under this act may be restricted by such trust agreement or resolution, may, either at law or in equity by suit, action, mandamus or other proceeding, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the state or granted under this act or under such agreement or resolution, or under any other contract executed by the board of regents pursuant to this act, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this act or by such trust agreement or resolution to be performed by the board of regents or by an officer thereof.

(i) The bonds shall be special, limited obligations of the Kansas development finance authority and the state shall not be liable for bonds issued by the Kansas development finance authority on behalf of the board of regents, and such bonds shall not constitute a debt of the state.

(j) Neither the board of regents, the board of the Kansas development finance authority nor any authorized employee of the board of regents or the Kansas development finance authority shall be personally liable for such bonds by reason of the issuance thereof.

(k) Nothing in this act shall be construed as a restriction or limitation upon any other powers which the board of regents might otherwise have under any other law of this state, and this act is cumulative to any such powers. This act does and shall be construed to provide a complete, additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws. The issuance of bonds under the provisions of this act need not comply with the requirements of any other state law applicable to the issuance of bonds. No proceedings, notice or approval shall be required for the issuance of any bonds or any instrument as security therefor, except as is provided in this act.

(l) Any of the provisions relating to bonds described in this section may be included in any contracts between the board of regents and the Kansas development finance authority relating to obligations of the Kansas development finance authority issued on behalf of the board of regents.

Except as otherwise provided by this section, the state treasurer shall credit the remainder of such amounts as follows: (1) Seven percent to the special county mineral production tax fund created under subsection (c) of this section; and (2) the remainder shall be credited to the state general fund. On and after July 1, 2012, and thereafter, except as otherwise provided by this section, the state treasurer shall credit the remainder of such amounts for oil and gas for any county which had $100,000 or more in receipts of the excise tax upon the severance and production of oil and gas as follows: (1) Seven percent to the special county mineral production tax fund created under subsection (c) of this section; (2) 12.41% to the oil and gas valuation depletion trust fund; and (3) the remainder shall be credited to the state general fund. If such amount of revenue collected or received for such preceding month is greater than the estimated amount of revenue for such preceding month, then the state treasurer shall credit 14.63% of the difference between the actual amount collected or received and the estimated amount of revenue to the incentive for technical education fund, and 85.37% of the difference between the actual amount collected or received and the estimated amount of revenue to the tuition for technical education fund. During fiscal year 2013, the amount credited to the incentive for technical education fund shall not exceed $1,500,000, and the amount credited to the tuition for technical education fund shall not exceed $8,750,000. The incentive for technical education fund and the tuition for technical education fund are hereby created in the state treasury. Any revenue collected or received from the tax imposed by this act during fiscal year 2013 shall be credited as provided in this section as in existence on the effective date of this act. On and after July 1, 2013, through June 30, 2014, the state treasurer shall credit the remainder of such amounts for oil and gas for any county which had $100,000 or more in receipts of the excise tax upon the severance and production of oil and gas as follows: (1) Seven percent to the special county mineral production tax fund created under subsection (c); (2) 6% to the oil and gas valuation depletion trust fund; and (3) the remainder shall be credited to the state general fund. On and after July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, the state treasurer shall credit the remainder of such amounts for oil and gas for any county which had $100,000 or more in receipts of the excise tax upon the severance and production of oil and gas as follows: (1) Seven percent to the special county mineral production tax fund created under subsection (c); (2) 8% to the oil and gas valuation depletion trust fund; and (3) the remainder shall be credited to the state general fund.

The mineral production tax refund fund shall be in such amount, within the limit set by this section, as the director shall determine is necessary to meet current refunding requirements under this act.

(c) There is hereby created a special county mineral production tax fund. On December 1, 1983, and quarterly thereafter, the director of taxation shall distribute all moneys credited to such fund to the county treasurers of all counties in which taxes were levied under K.S.A. 79-4217, and amendments thereto, for the severing and producing of coal, oil or gas from property within the county, in the proportion that the taxes levied upon production in each county bears to the total of all of such taxes levied in all of such counties. Such distribution shall be based on returns filed, with any adjustments or corrections thereto made by the director of taxation.

(d) The secretary of revenue shall make provision for the determination of the counties within which taxes are levied under K.S.A. 79-4217, and amendments thereto, for the severance of coal, oil or gas and shall certify the same to the director of accounts and reports.

(e) The director of accounts and reports shall draw warrants on the state treasurer payable to the county treasurer of each county entitled to payment from the special county mineral production tax fund upon vouchers approved by the director of taxation. Upon receipt of such warrant, each county treasurer shall credit 50% of the amount thereof to the county general fund and shall distribute the remaining 50% thereof to the treasurer of each school district all or any portion of which is located within the county in the proportion that the assessed value of coal, oil and gas properties within each district bears to the total of the assessed value of all coal, oil and gas properties within the county. Such assessed valuation shall be determined upon the basis of the most recent November 1 tax roll. The treasurer of each school district shall credit the entire amount of the moneys so received to the general fund of the school district.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I have been a strong advocate and leader for the construction of NBAF, and played an integral role in working with Homeland Security to select Manhattan as the preferred site. I remain committed to funding NBAF and fully support the issuance of additional state bonding. Unfortunately, I cannot support a budget with cuts to the Board of Regents that jeopardizes the core mission of Kansas State University and higher education across the state. So it is with much regret that I vote no against SB 171. – Tom Phillips

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on SB 171-motion to adopt CCR.

1. SB 171 does not contain a proviso to carve-out Intellectual and Developmental Disabled from KanCare.

2. The funds cut from Department of Corrections are far too severe and detrimentally affects public safety in the state of Kansas.

3. SB 171 sweeps $9.5 million from Kansas Endowment for Youth Fund. – Steven R. Becker

MR. SPEAKER: Manhattan has worked for the NBAF for the past several years. I carried legislation for the first $105 million in the House in 2009 for the Central Utility Plant construction. I could support NBAF again in its own legislation. But this budget fails our Regents Universities, our K-12 education system, the Judicial Branch, Public Safety, Mental Health, the elderly, early childhood, and borrows from our highway department again. I vote no on SB 171. – SYDNEY CARLIN

MR. SPEAKER: I cannot support a bill that penalizes our two community colleges that give the jobless hope for retraining, takes money away from controlling dangerous criminals, fails our disabled community, Tri-Valley clients and parents, harms KSU extension service and 4-H, transfers 300 million from KDOT for other spending hurting our two cement plants, ignores the underfunding of school equalization, takes money from early childhood programs and gives us no vote on Medicaid expansion that our two hospitals say is so vital to them. I vote No on SB 171 because we can do better. – ED BIDEAU

"New Sec. 6. (a) (1) Except as provided in subsection (a)(2), commencing with fiscal year 2018, in any fiscal year in which the amount of selected actual state general fund receipts from such fiscal year exceeds the selected actual state general fund receipts for the immediately preceding fiscal year by more than 2%, the director of legislative research shall certify such excess amount to the secretary of revenue and the director of the budget. Upon receipt of such certified amount, the secretary shall compute the excess percentage increase in selected actual state general fund receipts above 2%. Based on such excess percentage of calculated receipt growth, the secretary shall compute the income tax rate reductions to go into effect for the next tax year that would reduce by such certified amount the tax rates during the fiscal year after the next fiscal year according to the provisions of this section, as follows: (A) Rate reductions for individual income tax rates shall be applied to reduce the highest marginal income tax rate applicable to the current tax year, by such excess percentage minus 0.5%, and the lowest marginal income tax rate applicable to the current tax year by such excess percentage plus 0.5%, except that in no case shall such excess percentage plus 0.5% result in an income tax rate increase. In any such computation by the secretary pursuant to this subsection: (i) The resulting income tax rate shall be rounded down to the nearest 0.1%; and (ii) in any case in which the income tax rate for any individual marginal income tax rate is below 0.4%, such rate shall be 0%. Based on all such determinations, the secretary shall reduce individual income tax rates prescribed by K.S.A. 79-32,110, and amendments thereto, as required by this section; (B) upon all individual marginal income tax rates being reduced to 0% pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a)(1)(A), rate reduction next shall be applied for the surtax on corporations applicable to the current tax year by such excess percentage. In any such computation by the secretary pursuant to this subsection in which the surtax is below 0.4%, such surtax rate shall be 0%. Based on such determination, the secretary shall reduce the surtax on corporations prescribed by K.S.A. 79-32,110, and amendments thereto, as required by this section; and (C) upon the surtax on corporations being reduced to a rate which when combined with the normal tax rate on corporations is equal to or below the combined surtax and normal tax imposed on national banking associations and state banks or is equal to or below the combined surtax and normal tax imposed on trust companies and savings and loan associations, rate reductions shall be proportionately applied for the tax on corporations, the tax on national banking associations and state banks, and the tax on trust companies and savings and loan associations. Such rate reductions shall be first applied to the surtax until reduced to 0% and then applied to the normal tax for each such tax. In any such computation by the secretary pursuant to this subsection in which any such tax is below 0.4%, such tax rate shall be 0%. Based on such determination, the secretary shall reduce the surtax and the normal tax on corporations prescribed by K.S.A. 79-32,110, and amendments thereto, the surtax and normal tax on national banking associations and state banks prescribed by K.S.A. 79-1107, and amendments thereto, and the surtax and normal tax on trust companies and savings and loan associations prescribed by K.S.A. 79-1108, and amendments thereto, as required by this section. (2) In any fiscal year in which the amount of selected actual state general fund receipts for such fiscal year are 102% or less than the selected actual state general fund receipts from the immediately preceding fiscal year, the director of legislative research shall certify such amount and fact to the secretary of revenue and the director of the budget. Upon receipt of such amount and fact, the secretary of revenue shall not make any adjustment to the income tax rates for that tax year. (b) The secretary of revenue shall report any reduction in income tax rates prescribed by this section to the chairperson of the assessment and taxation committee of the senate, the chairperson of the taxation committee of the house of representatives and the governor, and shall cause notice of any such reduction to be published in the Kansas register prior to September 15 of the calendar year immediately preceding the tax year in which such reduction takes effect.

(c) As used in this section, "selected actual state general fund receipts" means receipts from the following taxes and fees: Individual and corporation income taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-32,110, and amendments thereto, financial institutions privilege taxes imposed under article 11 of chapter 79 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, and amendments thereto, retail sales taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-3601 et seq., and amendments thereto, compensating use taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-3701 et seq., and amendments thereto, cigarette and tobacco product taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-3301 et seq., and amendments thereto, cereal malt beverage and liquor gallonage taxes imposed under K.S.A. 41-501 et seq., and amendments thereto, liquor enforcement taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-4101 et seq., and amendments thereto, liquor drink taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-41a01 et seq., and amendments thereto, corporation franchise taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-5401, and amendments thereto, annual franchise fees charged pursuant to law and mineral severance taxes imposed under K.S.A. 79-4216 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(b) During the entire tax year a taxpayer filing single, head of household, or married filing separate, or the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse if married filing jointly, must be domiciled in this state. For purposes of this credit, "domicile" shall not include any correctional facility, or portion thereof, as defined in K.S.A. 75-5202, and amendments thereto, any juvenile correctional facility, or portion thereof, as defined in K.S.A. 38-2302, and amendments thereto, any correctional facility of the federal bureau of prisons located in the state of Kansas, or any city or county jail facility in the state of Kansas.

(d) The amount of the credit shall be $125 for every exemption claimed on the taxpayer's federal income tax return, except that no exemption shall be counted for a dependent unless the dependent is a child under 18 years of age.

(e) The credit allowed under this provision shall be applied against the taxpayer's income tax liability after all other credits allowed under the income tax act. It shall not be refundable and may not be carried forward.

(f) (1) Every taxpayer claiming the credit shall supply the division in support of a claim, reasonable proof of domicile, age and disability.

(2) A claim alleging disability shall be supported by a report of the examining

(a) "Barrel" for oil measurement means a barrel of 42 U.S. gallons of 231 cubic inches per gallon, computed at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit.

(b) "Director" means the director of taxation.

(c) "Gas" means natural gas, and all other raw, unrefined gas or gases, all constituent parts of any such gas or gases and refined products derived from any such gas or gases, including, but not limited to, methane, ethane, propane, butane and helium, taken from below the surface of the earth or water in this state, regardless of whether from a gas well or from a well also productive of oil or any other product.

(d) "Gross value" means the sale price of oil or gas at the time of removal of the oil or gas from the lease or production unit and if oil or gas is exchanged for something other than cash, or if no sale occurs at the time of removal or if the director determines that the relationship between the buyer and the seller is such that the consideration paid, if any, is not indicative of the true value or market price, then the director shall determine the value of the oil or gas subject to tax based on the cash price paid to one or more producers for the oil or gas or based on the cash price paid to producers for like quality oil or gas in the vicinity of the lease or production unit at the time of the removal of the oil or gas from the lease or production unit.

(e) "Lease number" means the number assigned by the director of taxation to identify each well, lease or combination of wells within a lease.

(j) "Remove" or "removal" means the physical transportation of coal, oil or gas off of the lease or production unit or from the mine where severed; and if the manufacture or conversion of crude oil or natural gas into refined products occurs on the premises where severed, oil or gas shall be deemed to have been removed on the date such manufacture or conversion begins.

(k) "Secretary" means the secretary of revenue.

(l) "Severed" or "severing" means: (1) The production of oil through extraction or withdrawal of the same from below the surface of the soil or water, whether such extraction or withdrawal shall be by natural flow, mechanical flow, forced flow, pumping or any other means employed to get the oil from below the surface of the soil or water and shall include the withdrawal by any means whatsoever of oil upon which the tax has not been paid, from any surface reservoir, natural or artificial, or from a water surface; (2) the production of gas through the extraction or withdrawal of the same by any means whatsoever, from below the surface of the earth or water; and (3) the physical removal of coal from the earth.

(m) "Taxpayer" means any person liable for the taxes imposed by this act.

(n) "Disruption of production" means, in the case of oil, a continuous 24-hour period during which a well is not producing. In the case of gas, a continuous one-hour period during which a well is not open to the pipeline shall be deemed to be a disruption of production. Missed production hours shall be considered production hours if the operator can demonstrate that any lost production is subsequently recovered during later production hours.

Such records shall be preserved during the entire period during which they are subject to inspection by the director, unless the director in writing previously authorized their disposal.

(b) The amount of taxes imposed by this act is to be assessed within three years after the return is filed. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, the tax may be assessed or a proceeding in court for collection of such tax may be begun at any time, within two years from the discovery of such fraud. No refund shall be allowed by the director after three years from the date the return was filed, or one year after the assessment is made, whichever is the later date unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. The periods so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the periods previously agreed upon. In consideration of such agreement or agreements, interest due in excess of 48 months on any additional tax shall be waived.

(d) No refund of mineral severance tax shall be allowed by the director or by any court of this state based on any administrative or judicial claim, petition, pleading, cause of action or request for relief that has been or may be filed on or after July 1, 1983, alleging that any constituent part of gas and any refined products derived from any such gas are not taxable pursuant to the provisions of K.S.A. 79-4216 et seq., and amendments thereto.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: With regret I vote Aye on HB 2059 because it recognizes that funding for education, higher education, social safety net, public safety, and state employee pay and retirement program contributions must be increased. It also recognizes that the path to zero income taxes must be slowed. Equally importantly, it at least offers the hope that investments can be made to preserve our drinking water supplies and halt the raids on the Dept. of Transportation's funds to maintain our highways and bridges. – Tom Sloan

The Senate adopts the Conference Committee report on SB 171.

Announcing adoption of SCR 1614.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS

On motion of Rep. Davis, SCR 1614, A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION relating to the 2013 regular session of the legislature and providing for an adjournment thereof, was introduced and adopted.

On motion of Rep. Vickrey, the House adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Thursday, June 20, 2013.
Journal of the House

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, June 20, 2013, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to SCR 1614 with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Josh Fredlund, Wanamaker Woods Church of the Nazarene, Topeka:

Heavenly Father, I want to thank you for each person in this room and the work that they accomplished for the state of Kansas in this session. God I pray that you will give them rest as they head back to their home and the people that they serve. I pray that you will continue to bless this great state through the work of the men and women whom have been elected as well as those that they represent. I pray for travel mercies as they head home. In Jesus name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Weber.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Vickrey are spread upon the Journal:

Last year we were stunned at the loss of Representative Bob Bethell in a car accident at the close of session. In recognition of Representative Bethell's years of service and sense of fairness, a new award was presented to his widow, Lorene, commending Bob as statesman of the year.

Webster's early dictionary defines statesman as “One versed in the arts of government; usually, one eminent in political abilities, later adding the phrase: A leader considered above partisan politics.”

Alexander Pope, in his Moral Essays (1720) elaborated:

“Statesman, friend to truth, of soul sincere,
In action faithful, and in honor clear,
Who broke no promise, served no private end,
Who gain'd no title, and who lost no friend.”

This year we received equal nominations for this new award, and it was decided to grant two awards, to Representatives Arlen Siegfried and Jan Pauls. Arlen and Jan serve as co-chairs of the Weekly Legislative Prayer Breakfast during session. They both are faithful in urging others to pray for their colleague who is speaking at the mic. They champion an air of civility in committees and on the floor. They work hard at treating others fairly and with respect.
A root word for statesman is stature. Often seen as tallness, the word is also used in the Scriptures by Luke (2:52) when he says of Jesus at age twelve: “He increased in wisdom and stature with God and man.” Jan and Arlen have increased in favor with their peers here in the Statehouse.

Congratulations to both of you.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Rep. Weber addressed a few remarks to the members of the House announcing his resignation and thanking all the members for their support.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Announcing the Senate herewith transmits a veto message from the Governor on SB
171. “AN ACT making and concerning appropriations for fiscal years ending June 30, 2013, June 30, 2014, June 30, 2015, June 30, 2016, June 30, 2017, and June 30, 2018, for state agencies; authorizing certain transfers, capital improvement projects and fees, imposing certain restrictions and limitations, and directing or authorizing certain receipts, disbursements, procedures and acts incidental to the foregoing; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 2-223, 12-5256, 55-193, 72-8814, 74-50, 107, 74-8963, 74-99b34, 75-2319, 75-6702, 76-3, 107, 76-775, 76-783, 76-7, 107, 79-2959, 79-2964, 79-3425i, 79-34, 156, 79-34, 171, 79-4227, 79-4804 and 82a-953a and repealing the existing sections”, which was received on June 15, 2013 and was read before the Senate on June 20, 2013.

“I want to thank every member of the Kansas Legislature for your hard work during the 2013 session. This two-year budget will provide state agencies and school districts a greater level of funding certainty, allowing them to extend their planning horizons and strengthen their focus on improving services. Having a strong ending balance for three straight years will help us weather the uncertainty of a federal government that continues to have major budget problems. Your commitment to fiscal responsibility will ensure every taxpayer dollar will be used in an effective and efficient manner.”

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby return Senate Bill No. 171 with my signature approving the bill, except for the items enumerated below.

Department of Administration
Refund of Past FICA Payments for Medical Residents
   Section 29(f) is vetoed in its entirety.
   In my original budget I had recommended that from the state’s share of FICA refunds originally made on behalf of medical residents, $25.0 million be swept to the State General Fund and that $10.0 million of that be devoted to construction of a new medical education building for the Medical Center. The timing of the refunds has been much slower than ever anticipated and the state has not yet received its full share of the refunds from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). We are going to pay the medical residents their share received to date, but I veto this sweep of the state’s share so it does not occur prior to full settlement with the IRS.

Department of Corrections
Transfer of State Resources
   Section 44(c), 44(d), 44(e), 44(f), 45(b) and 173(h) are vetoed in their entirety.
   I have grave concerns about the impact of this budget on public safety. Eliminating the $1.9 million in current year budget lapses and the sweep of $750,000 from the Kansas Correctional Industries will allow the Department of Corrections to use these resources to soften the impact of their reduced funding and protect critical components of our corrections system.

Office of the Attorney General
Fee Sweeps to the State General Fund
   Section 87(h), Section 87(i), Section 88(g), Section 88(h) and Section 88(i) have been line-item vetoed in their entirety.

The Court Cost Fund and the Medicaid Prosecution Revolving Fund receive money from various litigation settlements handled by the Attorney General in which the defendant is ordered to reimburse the state's litigation costs. Sometimes, the balance in these litigation recovery funds exceeds the actual cost of operating the state’s litigation and, at those times, it is proper to remove the “excess” and place it in the State General Fund for other uses. The critical issue is not whether that is done but how and when. This approach provides stability and planning ability so the agency can operate the recovery litigation professionally and in a cost-efficient manner without worrying whether sufficient funds are available in the short-term to make payroll. Most importantly, it also ensures the state’s recovery litigation is focused exclusively on obtaining just litigation outcomes and not on the need to generate immediate funds to pay the current bills. In addition, sweeping the money paid by Kansans who seek to permit to carry a concealed firearm pursuant to the Kansas Personal and Family Protection Act into the State General Fund transforms these dedicated permit fees into a general “gun tax” on Kansans who are exercising their Second Amendment Rights. For these reasons, I veto the sweeps that exceed my recommendations applied to the Attorney General’s Office.

Department of Administration
Sweep of the Curtis State Office Building Maintenance Reserve Fund

Section 111(t) has been vetoed in its entirety.

A lease agreement with the Public Building Commission and the State of Kansas was executed upon construction and occupancy of the Curtis State Office Building. Within that contract and the bond documents issued on the construction of the building was a provision that the building’s reserve fund would accrue a balance up to $2.5 million. It is bond counsel’s opinion that transferring cash from this fund would be a reportable material default to the Securities Exchange Commission and would hinder the state’s ability to issue future bonds related to NBAF, the KBI lab at Washburn and the Department of Agriculture’s move to the Kansas State University campus. I therefore find it necessary to veto this provision.

Elimination of Vacant Positions

Section 111(w) and Section 112(s) have been vetoed in their entirety.

In FY 2010, agencies’ headcounts totaled 23,957.98, excluding the Regents. In FY 2012, we drove that number down to 22,208.57. My administration remains committed to reducing the size of state government and we will continue those efforts in the next year. We went through a lengthy exercise last year to eliminate old vacant positions. Moreover, the language in these sections will drive agencies to spend more on overtime as they will be kept from filling positions open for only 120 days. In some locations, such as at Larned State Hospital and Topeka Correctional Facility, we face challenges in recruiting and retaining staff at critical agencies and this language does not grant them any flexibility. For these reasons, I veto these provisions and will continue to work with agencies to restructure them in a targeted and strategic manner.

Department of Commerce
Sweep of the Reimbursement and Recovery Fund
Section 123(l) and Section 124(j) are vetoed in their entirety.

The Reimbursement and Recovery Fund of the Department of Commerce is primarily used to finance the operations of America’s Job Link Alliance (AJLA). AJLA is a consortium of state workforce agencies and program operators that collaborate to reduce costs in the development of workforce development software needs for member states. Sweeping the pooled resources from the Reimbursement and Recovery Fund in FY 2014 and FY 2015 would violate our obligation to those states and necessitate reimbursement to them, so I must veto both of these transfers.

University of Kansas Medical Center

Enrollment Management

Section 167(e) and 168(e) are vetoed in their entirety.

The University of Kansas School of Medicine campus in Salina was created to address the critical shortage of physicians, particularly in rural Kansas. This innovative medical education program is aimed at students with a strong desire to practice in rural areas. I understand the Legislature’s concern that this program as well as the Wichita campus not be disproportionately impacted by budget cuts. According to the University of Kansas Medical Center (KUMC), the language in this provision will require undesirable reductions to its Wichita campus, while a veto will keep current student levels the same. KUMC has committed to me how they will manage their budget cuts if these provisions are removed. The Center will still impose a variety of operational changes to manage this funding loss:

Plan and impact if the Proviso is vetoed:

Student reductions (in Kansas City only):

• 20 Nursing students
• 5 Health Professions students
• 4 Residency (GME) positions
• 2 MD/PhD student positions

I therefore veto these constraints on the Medical Center’s management of its programs.

Department of Corrections

Budget for Corrections

Section 174 is vetoed in its entirety.

The Department of Corrections plays a key role in maintaining our state’s public safety. Because I consider it inadequate, I veto the FY 2015 budget and look forward to working with the 2014 Legislature in finding the Department sufficient resources to ensure public safety is not imperiled.

Kansas Water Office

Weather Modification

That portion of Section 193(c) that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed.

“Weather modification program...........................................................................................................................................$100,000
Provided, That any unencumbered balance in the weather modification program account in excess of $100 as of June 30, 2013, is hereby reappropriated for fiscal year 2014.”

Support for this program has declined at the local level and the ongoing drought in western Kansas has exacerbated the continued declines of the Ogallala Aquifer. In 2012, I signed into law policies that will provide greater opportunities to conserve and extend the life of the Aquifer, such as Local Enhanced Management Areas (LEMA). As a result, I encourage the use of future State Water Plan Fund dollars in support of LEMAs and other related conservation efforts.

Salary Cap
Limitations on Agency Operations
   Section 199 and 200 are vetoed in their entirety.
   I applaud the Legislature’s efforts to reduce the size and cost of state government. However, when salary restrictions are applied, they must be done so in a consistent manner, except when some inconsistency is justified. The language in these sections impacts agencies inconsistently and punishes those agencies that were working most diligently to drive down costs. Additionally, this policy restricts the ability of state agencies to best manage the reduced resources provided by this budget. While I veto these provisions, this action does not spend additional State General Fund resources.

Moving Forward
   Public safety is unquestionably a core function of state government. The services provided by the Kansas Department of Corrections are a critical component of protecting our citizens. I will do everything I can to minimize the impact of the reduced funding on public safety. However, I ask that you carefully and thoughtfully consider whether or not this reduction was appropriate when you return.

   The people of Kansas expect excellence in higher education. Our Regents system fuels the engine of our economy by providing a highly skilled workforce and nurturing the next generation of Kansas teachers, doctors, business people and others. I encourage you to spend the next several months examining university budgets more closely and working with their leadership teams and the Board of Regents to craft a shared vision for higher education in Kansas; a vision that you are confident both maintains our high standard of excellence and uses resources efficiently. “

There being no motion to reconsider SB 171, the President ruled the veto sustained.

Announcing the Senate herewith transmits a veto message from the Governor on SB 37. “AN ACT concerning the Kansas home inspectors’ professional competence and financial responsibility act; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 58-4501 and repealing the existing section.” which was received on April 11, 2013 and was read before the Senate on May 8, 2013.

“SB 37 provides an opportunity to determine if the Kansas Home Inspectors Registration Board should be made permanent. Central to this issue is whether or not the potential harm inflicted upon the citizens of Kansas by unscrupulous home inspectors warrants the expansion of government and increased regulation that was applied in 2008 to this segment of the private sector. Also, the sunset that was added to the statute in 2009 allows us to reconsider the efficiency, effectiveness, and necessity of the board. Sunset dates are an important tool of limited government and should only be removed under very limited circumstances.”

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby return Senate Bill No. 171 with my signature approving the bill, except for the items
enumerated below.”
There being no motion to reconsider SB 37, the President ruled the veto sustained.

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:
WHEREAS, Public Safety is one of the primary roles of state government; and
WHEREAS, K.S.A. 21-6620 through 21-6625, the “Hard 50” law, is an important tool used by Kansas prosecutors to protect the public from many of the most vicious murderers; and
WHEREAS, Experts in the field believe the United States Supreme Court’s ruling in Alleyne v. United States renders the “Hard 50” law unconstitutional and will, according to the Attorney General of Kansas “virtually guarantee” that dozens of violent offenders will receive significantly weaker sentences; and
WHEREAS, The Attorney General of Kansas has requested the Governor call a Special Session of the Legislature; and
WHEREAS, As Governor, I have a responsibility to the victims, their families, and their communities to see that justice is served and the citizens of Kansas are protected from violent criminals, now and in the future:

Legislature of the State of Kansas into Special Session to Protect the Safety of the Citizens of Kansas at the Capitol in Topeka, Kansas, on the 3rd day of September, 2013, at the hour of 8:00 o’clock a.m., to enact legislation by 5:00 o’clock p.m. on the 5th day of September 2013 to respond to the ruling of the United States Supreme Court in Alleyne v. United States.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

God in Heaven,
with our leaders being called back into a special session
to deal with certain issues,
I am reminded of the record in the Old Testament
when the King of Israel summoned the leaders to discuss a very serious issue.
The words of advice given to those leaders from Your prophet, Isaiah were:
“In repentance and rest is your salvation;
In quietness and trust is your strength.”
I pray this advice for our leaders today that they will recognize that You, O God, can bring wisdom, strength, and resolution.
Grant them this, I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Boldra.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor Brownback's Message Regarding the Special Session for Repairing Kansas' “Hard 50” Sentence

As you know, on July 24, 2013, Attorney General Derek Schmidt formally requested that I call a special session of the Kansas Legislature for the purpose of repairing Kansas’s “Hard 50” sentence in the wake of the June 17, 2013 decision of the United States Supreme Court in Alleyne v. United States.

There is broad and bipartisan consensus across all of our state’s law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies urging me to adopt the recommendation of Attorney General Schmidt. Likewise, there is broad and bipartisan support among the leaders of this Legislature that a special session is necessary and is in the best interests of public safety.

As the Attorney General has written, the “Hard 50” sentence “is a vital public safety tool enacted by the Legislature more than a decade ago to remove the ‘worst of the worst’ killers from society for at least 50 years.” Legal experts and prosecutors across Kansas agree and have advised me that the Alleyne decision renders our “Hard 50” sentence unconstitutional because under current law, it is imposed by a judge rather than by a jury.

Attorney General Schmidt has further advised that a relatively simple procedural fix allowing the jury to make the necessary factual findings, if adopted by the Legislature, will cure the constitutional defect. Until such a cure is enacted, however, all criminal defendants who would otherwise be eligible to receive the “Hard 50” sentence upon conviction will instead receive a maximum sentence of only 25 years. Due to the constitutional and statutory requirement that the state bring criminal defendants to trial in a speedy manner, this has created a situation where time is of the essence.

Enacting a Legislative cure during the 2014 regular session of the Kansas Legislature as would likely occur in the ordinary course of our legislative calendar will, in the words of Attorney General Schmidt, “virtually guarantee” an increase in “the number of convicted killers who will be eligible for parole after only 25 years instead of after 50 years.” This fact led the Attorney General to opine that the current circumstance does in fact rise to the level of an “extraordinary occasion” sufficient to justify this office exercising its authority to call the Legislature into special session pursuant to Article 1, Section 5 of the Kansas Constitution.

As such, in my considered judgment, in reliance upon the advice of the Attorney General of the State of Kansas and the bipartisan consensus of the law enforcement community across Kansas, I find that these circumstances present a real and present danger to the public safety of the citizens of Kansas and does, if fact, constitute an “extraordinary occasion” justifying a special session of the Legislature.

I am confident that the Legislature can and will act quickly, with resolve and narrow focus to protect the safety of all Kansans by restoring to prosecutors the immediate ability to seek the “Hard 50” sentence for those criminals convicted of the “worst of the worst” kinds of crimes.

As of 8:00 A.M., September 3, 2013, pursuant to Article I, Section 5 of the Kansas Constitution, I hereby call the Kansas Legislature into special session.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Announcing adoption of SR 1701.
