The state board of education shall:

(1) Determine the amount of the assessed valuation per pupil (AVPP) of each school district in the state and round such amount to the nearest $1,000. The rounded amount is the AVPP of a school district for the purposes of this section;
(2) determine the median AVPP of all school districts;

(3) prepare a schedule of dollar amounts using the amount of the median AVPP of all school districts as the point of beginning. The schedule of dollar amounts shall range upward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the highest AVPP of all school districts and shall range downward in equal $1,000 intervals from the point of beginning to and including an amount that is equal to the amount of the AVPP of the school district with the lowest AVPP of all school districts;

(4) determine a state aid percentage factor for each school district by assigning a state aid computation percentage to the amount of the median AVPP shown on the schedule, decreasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the median AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval above the amount of the median AVPP, and increasing the state aid computation percentage assigned to the amount of the median AVPP by one percentage point for each $1,000 interval below the amount of the median AVPP. (6) multiply each of the amounts computed under (5) by the applicable state aid percentage factor; and

(7) add the products obtained under (6). The amount of the sum is the amount of payment the school district is entitled to receive from the school district capital improvements fund in the school year.

c) The state board of education shall certify to the director of accounts and reports the entitlements of school districts determined under the provisions of subsection (b), and an amount equal thereto shall be transferred by the director from the state general fund to the school district capital improvements fund for distribution to school districts. (e) The provisions of this section apply only to contractual obligations incurred by school districts pursuant to general obligation bonds issued upon approval of a majority of the qualified electors of the school district voting at an election upon the question of the issuance of such bonds.

(f) Amounts transferred to the capital improvements fund of a school district as authorized by K.S.A. 72-6433, and amendments thereto, shall not be included in the computation when determining the amount of state aid to which a district is entitled to receive under this section.

(i) The bonds shall be special, limited obligations of the Kansas development finance authority and the state shall not be liable for bonds issued by the Kansas development finance authority on behalf of the board of regents, and such bonds shall not constitute a debt of the state.

(j) Neither the board of regents, the board of the Kansas development finance authority nor any authorized employee of the board of regents or the Kansas development finance authority shall be personally liable for such bonds by reason of the issuance thereof.

Sec. 288. Federal grants. (a) During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014, each federal grant or other federal receipt which is received by a state agency named in this act and which is not otherwise appropriated to that state agency for fiscal year 2014 by this or other appropriation act of the 2013 regular session of the legislature, is hereby appropriated for fiscal year 2014, for that state agency for the purpose set forth in such federal grant or receipt, except that no expenditure shall be made from and no obligation shall be incurred against any such federal grant or other federal receipt, which has not been previously appropriated or reappropriated or approved for expenditure by the governor, until the governor has authorized the state agency to make expenditures therefrom.

(b) During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2015, each federal grant or other federal receipt which is received by a state agency named in this act and which is not otherwise appropriated to that state agency for fiscal year 2015 by this or other appropriation act of the 2013 regular session of the legislature, is hereby appropriated for fiscal year 2015 for that state agency for the purpose set forth in such federal grant or receipt, except that no expenditure shall be made from and no obligation shall be incurred against any such federal grant or other federal receipt, which has not been previously appropriated or reappropriated or approved for expenditure by the governor, for fiscal year 2015, until the governor has authorized the state agency to make expenditures from such federal grant or other federal receipt for fiscal year 2015.

(c) In addition to the other purposes for which expenditures may be made by any state agency which is named in this act and which is not otherwise authorized by law to apply for and receive federal grants, expenditures may be made by such state agency from moneys appropriated for fiscal year 2014 and fiscal year 2015 or by this act or any other appropriation act of the 2013 regular session of the legislature to apply for and receive federal grants during fiscal year 2014 and fiscal year 2015, which federal grants are hereby authorized to be applied for and received by such state agencies: Provided, That no expenditure shall be made from and no obligation shall be incurred against any such federal grant or other federal receipt, which has not been previously appropriated or reappropriated or approved for expenditure by the governor, until the governor has authorized the state agency to make expenditures therefrom.

Senator Masterson moved the Senate adopt the Conference Committee Report on SB 171.

Citing Rule 28, upon the showing of five hands, a Call of the Senate was requested.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 21; Nays 15; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 4.

Absent or Not Voting: Donovan, Emler, Holmes, King.

The Conference Committee Report was adopted.

The Call of the Senate was lifted.
EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: I vote no on SB 171. This budget imposes a $66 million cut over the next two years on the Kansas Board of Regents and post-secondary education institutions. This $66 million cut comes at a time after Governor Brownback toured our state telling Kansans the funding for Kansas universities was a core responsibility of the state that must be protected. In fact, during the tour he touted his budget as holding higher education harmless. If the Governor signs this bill into law, he will have reneged on his commitment to higher education and his tour will have been nothing more than a political charade.—ANTHONY HENSLEY

Senator Kelly requests the record to show that she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Hensley on SB 171.

Mr. Vice President: I vote NO on SB 171. There have been many questions asked about the adequacy of this budget to fund a variety of state responsibilities including corrections, education, health, transportation and services for those with disabilities. The response: we have the opportunity to revisit decisions on funding when the legislature comes back into session in January, the mid-point of the fiscal year. Yet, for several years now, the legislature has passed a single bill that includes the changes for the current year along with the future budget; those bills have passed on the last day of the session. We find ourselves here in June, adopting a supplemental budget that, if signed, will be in effect for just days of FY 2013. We have shown that we need to budget for a full year of expenditures; I do not believe that this budget gives us that assurance for FY 2014.—MARCI FRANCISCO

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Message to the Senate of the State of Kansas:

Enclosed herewith is Executive Directive No. 13-441 for your information.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

SB 246 approved on June 7, 2013.

June 15, 2013

Message to the Legislature of the State of Kansas

I want to thank every member of the Kansas Legislature for your hard work, during the 2013 session. This two-year budget will provide state agencies and school districts a greater level of funding certainty, allowing them to extend their planning horizons and strengthen their focus on improving services. Having a strong ending balance for three straight years will help us weather the uncertainty of a federal government that continues to have major budget problems. Your commitment to fiscal responsibility will ensure every taxpayer dollar will be used in an effective and efficient manner.

Pursuant to Article 2, Section 14 of the Constitution of the State of Kansas, I hereby return Senate Bill No. 171 with my signature approving the bill, except for the items enumerated below.

Department of Administration

Refund of Past FICA Payments for Medical Residents

Section 29(f) is vetoed in its entirety.

In my original budget I had recommended that from the state’s share of FICA refunds originally made on behalf of medical residents, $25.0 million be swept to the State General Fund and that $10.0 million of that be devoted to construction of a new medical education building for the Medical Center. The timing of the refunds has been much slower than ever anticipated and the state has not yet received its full share of the refunds from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). We are going to pay the medical residents their share received to date, but I veto this sweep of the state’s share so it does not occur prior to full settlement with the IRS.

Department of Corrections

Transfer of State Resources

Section 44(c), 44(d), 44(e), 44(f), 45(b) and 173(h) are vetoed in their entirety.

I have grave concerns about the impact of this budget on public safety. Eliminating the $1.9 million in current year budget lapses and the sweep of $750,000 from the Kansas Correctional Industries will allow the Department of Corrections to use these resources to soften the impact of their reduced funding and protect critical components of our corrections system.

Office of the Attorney General

Fee Sweeps to the State General Fund

Section 87(h), Section 87(i), Section 88(g), Section 88(h) and Section 88(i) have been line-item vetoed in their entirety.

The Court Cost Fund and the Medicaid Prosecution Revolving Fund receive money from various litigation settlements handled by the Attorney General in which the defendant is ordered to reimburse the state’s litigation costs. Sometimes, the balance in these litigation recovery funds exceeds the actual cost of operating the state’s litigation and, at those times, it is proper to remove the “excess” and place it in the State General Fund for other uses. The critical issue is not whether that is done but how and when. This approach provides stability and planning ability so the agency can operate the recovery litigation professionally and in a cost-efficient manner without worrying whether sufficient funds are available in the short-term to make payroll. Most importantly, it also ensures the state’s recovery litigation is focused exclusively on obtaining just litigation outcomes and not on the need to generate immediate funds to pay the current bills. In addition, sweeping the money paid by Kansans who seek to permit to carry a concealed firearm pursuant to the Kansas Personal and Family Protection Act into the State General Fund transforms these dedicated permit fees into a general “gun tax” on Kansans who are exercising their Second Amendment Rights. For these reasons, I veto the sweeps that exceed my recommendations applied to the Attorney General’s Office.

Department of Administration

Sweep of the Curtis State Office Building Maintenance Reserve Fund

Section 111(t) has been vetoed in its entirety.

A lease agreement with the Public Building Commission and the State of Kansas was executed upon construction and occupancy of the Curtis State Office Building. Within that contract and the bond documents issued on the construction of the building was a provision that the building’s reserve fund would accrue a balance up to $2.5 million. It is bond counsel’s opinion that transferring cash from this fund would be a reportable material default to the Securities Exchange Commission and would hinder the state’s ability to issue future bonds related to NBAF, the KBI lab at Washburn and the Department of Agriculture’s move to the Kansas State University campus. I therefore find it necessary to veto this provision.

Elimination of Vacant Positions

Section 111(w) and Section 112(s) have been vetoed in their entirety.

In FY 2010, agencies’ headcounts totaled 23,957.98, excluding the Regents. In FY 2012, we drove that number down to 22,208.57. My administration remains committed to reducing the size of state government and we will continue those efforts in the next year. We went through a lengthy exercise last year to eliminate old vacant positions. Moreover, the language in these sections will drive agencies to spend more on overtime as they will be kept from filling positions open for only 120 days. In some locations, such as at Larned State Hospital and Topeka Correctional Facility, we face challenges in recruiting and retaining staff at critical agencies and this language does not grant them any flexibility. For these reasons, I veto these provisions and will continue to work with agencies to restructure them in a targeted and strategic manner.

Department of Commerce

Sweep of the Reimbursement and Recovery Fund

Section 123(l) and Section 124(j) are vetoed in their entirety.

The Reimbursement and Recovery Fund of the Department of Commerce is primarily used to finance the operations of America’s Job Link Alliance (AJLA). AJLA is a consortium of state workforce agencies and program operators that collaborate to reduce costs in the development of workforce development software needs for member states. Sweeping the pooled resources from the Reimbursement and Recovery Fund in FY 2014 and FY 2015 would violate our obligation to those states and necessitate reimbursement to them, so I must veto both of these transfers.

University of Kansas Medical Center

Enrollment Management

Section 167(e) and 168(e) are vetoed in their entirety.

The University of Kansas School of Medicine campus in Salina was created to address the critical shortage of physicians, particularly in rural Kansas. This innovative medical education program is aimed at students with a strong desire to practice in rural areas. I understand the Legislature’s concern that this program as well as the Wichita campus not be disproportionately impacted by budget cuts. According to the University of Kansas Medical Center (KUMC), the language in this provision will require undesirable reductions to its Wichita campus, while a veto will keep current student levels the same. KUMC has committed to me how they will manage their budget cuts if these provisions are removed. The Center will still impose a variety of operational changes to manage this funding loss:

Plan and impact if the Proviso is vetoed:

Student reductions (in Kansas City only):
- 20 Nursing students
- 5 Health Professions students
- 4 Residency (GME) positions
- 2 MD/PhD student positions
I therefore veto these constraints on the Medical Center’s management of its programs.

Department of Corrections

Budget for Corrections

Section 174 is vetoed in its entirety.

The Department of Corrections plays a key role in maintaining our state’s public safety. Because I consider it inadequate, I veto the FY 2015 budget and look forward to working with the 2014 Legislature in finding the Department sufficient resources to ensure public safety is not imperiled.

Kansas Water Office

Weather Modification

That portion of Section 193(c) that reads as follows has been line-item vetoed.

“Weather modification program.................................................................100,000

Provided. That any unencumbered balance in the weather modification program account in excess of $100 as of June 30, 2013, is hereby reappropriated for fiscal year 2014.”

Support for this program has declined at the local level and the ongoing drought in western Kansas has exacerbated the continued declines of the Ogallala Aquifer. In 2012, I signed into law policies that will provide greater opportunities to conserve and extend the life of the Aquifer, such as Local Enhanced Management Areas (LEMA). As a result, I encourage the use of future State Water Plan Fund dollars in support of LEMAs and other related conservation efforts.

Salary Cap

Limitations on Agency Operations

Section 199 and 200 are vetoed in their entirety.

I applaud the Legislature’s efforts to reduce the size and cost of state government. However, when salary restrictions are applied, they must be done so in a consistent manner, except when some inconsistency is justified. The language in these sections impacts agencies inconsistently and punishes those agencies that were working most diligently to drive down costs. Additionally, this policy restricts the ability of state agencies to best manage the reduced resources provided by this budget. While I veto these provisions, this action does not spend additional State General Fund resources.

Moving Forward

Public safety is unquestionably a core function of state government. The services provided by the Kansas Department of Corrections are a critical component of protecting our citizens. I will do everything I can to minimize the impact of the reduced funding on public safety. However, I ask that you carefully and thoughtfully consider whether or not this reduction was appropriate when you return.

The people of Kansas expect excellence in higher education. Our Regents system fuels the engine of our economy by providing a highly skilled workforce and nurturing the next generation of Kansas teachers, doctors, business people and others. I encourage you to spend the next several months examining university budgets more closely and working with their leadership teams and the Board of Regents to craft a shared vision for higher education in Kansas; a vision that you are confident both maintains our high standard of excellence and uses resources efficiently.

SAM BROWNBACK
Governor

VETO SUSTAINED

No motion having been offered to reconsider, President Wagle announced the Governor's veto on SB 171 was declared sustained.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Announcing the House herewith transmits a veto message from the Governor on HB 2120.

AN ACT concerning crimes, criminal procedure and punishment; relating to DNA evidence; relating to statute of limitations; relating to possession of a firearm during a drug felony; amending K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-2511, 21-5107, as amended by section 1 of 2013 House Bill No. 2252, 21-6403 and 21-6805 and repealing the existing sections., which was received on May 23, 2013 and was read before the House on May 24, 2013.

WHEREAS, Public Safety is one of the primary roles of state government; and

United States* renders the "Hard 50" law unconstitutional and will, according to the Attorney General of Kansas "virtually guarantee" that dozens of violent offenders will receive significantly weaker sentences; and

WHEREAS, The Attorney General of Kansas has requested the Governor call a Special Session of the Legislature; and and awaits the pleasure of the House of Representatives.

On emergency motion of Senator Bruce SR 1701 was adopted unanimously.

Messages from the Governor

As you know, on July 24, 2013, Attorney General Derek Schmidt formally requested that I call a special session of the Kansas Legislature for the purpose of repairing Kansas’s “Hard 50” sentence in the wake of the June 17, 2013 decision of the United States Supreme Court in Alleyne v. United States.

There is broad and bipartisan consensus across all of our state’s law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies urging me to adopt the recommendation of Attorney General Schmidt. Likewise, there is broad and bipartisan support among the leaders of this Legislature that a special session is necessary and is in the best interests of public safety.

As the Attorney General has written, the “Hard 50” sentence “is a vital public safety tool enacted by the Legislature more than a decade ago to remove the ‘worst of the worst’ killers from society for at least 50 years.” Legal experts and prosecutors across Kansas agree and have advised me that the Alleyne decision renders our “Hard 50” sentence unconstitutional because under current law, it is imposed by a judge rather than by a jury.

Attorney General Schmidt has further advised that a relatively simple procedural fix allowing the jury to make the necessary factual findings, if adopted by the Legislature, will cure the constitutional defect. Until such a cure is enacted, however, all criminal defendants who would otherwise be eligible to receive the “Hard 50” sentence upon conviction will instead receive a maximum sentence of only 25 years. Due to the constitutional and statutory requirement that the state bring criminal defendants to trial in a speedy manner, this has created a situation where time is of the essence.

Enacting a Legislative cure during the 2014 regular session of the Kansas Legislature as would likely occur in the ordinary course of our legislative calendar will, in the words of Attorney General Schmidt, “virtually guarantee” an increase in “the number of convicted killers who will be eligible for parole after only 25 years instead of after 50 years.” This fact led the Attorney General to opine that the current circumstance does in fact rise to the level of an “extraordinary occasion” sufficient to justify this office exercising its authority to call the Legislature into special session pursuant to Article 1, Section 5 of the Kansas Constitution.

As such, in my considered judgment, in reliance upon the advice of the Attorney General of the State of Kansas and the bipartisan consensus of the law enforcement community across Kansas, I find that these circumstances present a real and present danger to the public safety of the citizens of Kansas and does, in fact, constitute an “extraordinary occasion” justifying a special session of the Legislature.

I am confident that the Legislature can and will act quickly, with resolve and narrow focus, to protect the safety of all Kansans by restoring to prosecutors the immediate ability to seek the “Hard 50” sentence for those criminals convicted of the “worst of the worst” kinds of crimes.

As of 8:00 A.M., September 3, 2013, pursuant to Article I, Section 5 of the Kansas Constitution, I hereby call the Kansas Legislature into special session.

Signed: SAM BROWNBACK

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND SENATE RESOLUTIONS

Senators Hensley, Faust-Goudeau, and Haley introduced the following Senate resolution, which was read:

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1703—

A Resolution commemorating August 28, 2013, for being the 50th anniversary of the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom.

WHEREAS, The March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom took place on August 28, 1963, in Washington, D.C., and was attended by an estimated 250,000 people, making it the largest demonstration ever seen in the nation's capital and one of the first to have extensive television coverage that pre-empted regularly scheduled programming; and

WHEREAS, The year of 1963 was noted for racial unrest, civil rights demonstrations and nationwide outrage sparked by media coverage of police actions in Birmingham, Alabama, where attack dogs and fire hoses were turned against protestors, many of whom were in their early teens or younger; and Martin Luther King, Jr., was arrested and jailed during these protests, writing his famous "Letter From Birmingham City Jail," which advocated civil disobedience against unjust laws; and

WHEREAS, The March on Washington represented a coalition of several civil rights organizations, each of which generally had different approaches and different agendas. The "Big Six" organizers were James Farmer, Congress of Racial Equality; Martin Luther King, Jr., Southern Christian Leadership Conference; John Lewis, Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee; A. Philip Randolph, Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters; Roy Wilkins, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; and Whitney Young, Jr., National Urban League; and

WHEREAS, The stated demands of the march were the passage of meaningful civil rights legislation; elimination of racial segregation in public schools; protection for demonstrators against police brutality; a major public-works program to provide jobs; passage of a law prohibiting racial discrimination in public and private hiring; a $2 an hour minimum wage; and self-government for the District of Columbia, which had a black majority population; and

WHEREAS, President Kennedy originally discouraged the march, for fear that it might make the Congress vote against civil rights legislation in reaction to a perceived threat; however, once it became clear that the march would go on, he supported it; and

WHEREAS, The march began at the Washington Monument and ended at the Lincoln Memorial, and turned out to be both a protest and a communal celebration. The heavy police presence turned out to be unnecessary, as the march was noted for its civility and peacefulness; and

WHEREAS, The speakers included five of the "Big Six" civil rights leaders, because James Farmer, who was imprisoned for a protest in Louisiana at the time, had his speech read by Floyd McKissick; other speakers included Walter Reuther, President of the United Auto Workers, and several Protestant, Catholic and Jewish religious leaders; and

WHEREAS, The two most noteworthy speeches came from John Lewis and Martin Luther King, Jr.; King's speech, which he started with prepared remarks, remains one of the most famous speeches in American history. He warned fellow protesters not to "allow our creative protest to degenerate into physical violence. Again and again, we must rise to the majestic heights of meeting physical force with soul force." But then he departed from his script, shifting into the "I have a dream" theme he had used on prior occasions, speaking of an America where his children "will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character;"

WHEREAS, The march is widely credited for the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965; and

WHEREAS, The March on Washington's 50th anniversary was commemorated last week with several events in Washington, D.C., and culminated with a rally on August 28, 2013, at the Lincoln Memorial, which featured speakers including members of the King family, Congressman John Lewis, former Presidents Jimmy Carter and Bill Clinton, and President Barack Obama: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate August 28, 2013, for being the 50th anniversary of The March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom, which was held on August 28, 1963, in Washington, D.C.; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Senator Anthony Hensley, 318-East, State Capitol building, Topeka, Kansas 66612.

On emergency motion of Senator Hensley SR 1703 was adopted unanimously.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Madam President: While I very much respect the intellectual firepower that Mr. Stegall would bring to the Kansas Court of Appeals, I doubt his ability, as Justice Frankfurter so aptly said, for "putting his passion behind his judgment instead of in front of it". I am voting against Mr. Stegall's nomination to the Court of Appeals.—TOM HOLLAND

Madam President: My vote in confirmation of Caleb Stegall to serve on the Kansas Court of Appeals is affirmative yet bears explaining. I have worked to thoroughly review the information we were provided and that which I have been able to obtain independently in an effort to be assured that he is qualified – by virtue of his experience – to serve in this capacity. My reservation in supporting Mr. Stegall lies in the process that led to his nomination. We, as Senators, cannot tell our constituents that we are confirming the most qualified applicant for the position. Because the names of the other applicants were never revealed, we cannot be assured there weren't more experienced and potentially better suited nominees. The previous selection process allowed for greater transparency and thus more confidence with our constituents that judicial selection is carried out with the highest of integrity.—Vicki Schmidt

Senator McGinn requests the record to show she concurs with the “Explanation of Vote” offered by Senator Schmidt on the appointment of Caleb Stegall.

Madam President: The Governor has done a disservice to the citizens of Kansas by closing the selection process to the public eye. No longer can a voter or a Senator know who is being considered. Even Mr. Stegall said "no one seat of power should grow too large." The lack of transparency cries partisan rubber stamp. Mr. Stegall's ideological statements and no judicial experience gives me cause to question his independence. I vote "NO" on confirmation of Caleb Stegall to the Kansas Court of Appeals.—Pat Pettey

Madam President: I vote "NO", regrettably, on the appointment to the Kansas Court of Appeals. The Legislature's 2013 change from time honored merit-based selection to direct gubernatorial appointment, pending Senate confirmation, historically vests today. During the last thirteen (13) years in the Kansas Senate, I have had the honor and the privilege to consider and vote on literally hundreds of appointments and have voted against, I believe, only one. Before today..... But today I am compelled to vote to not confirm a person who I honestly believe is competent and qualified to serve on the Kansas Court of Appeals. This shift from merit selection to direct executive branch judicial appointments, along with residual shortcomings such as no public awareness of other potential nominees, threatens the independence and autonomy of Kansas' branches (Legislative, Executive, Judicial). Worse, in this case, this process will now see a worthy nominee seated on the Bench as an anomaly to his peers who might, understandably, always view him and his opinions as a product of politics and not from a review of trial court errors or of Kansas law. It troubles me that future attorneys who aspire to the State's higher court might now first consider burnishing their political involvement credentials before insuring their legal substance and procedural ability in order to attempt to curry favor, and nomination, from some future governor and Court.—David Haley

Madam President: I was and am opposed to the current legislative appointment process for the selection of Court of Appeals judgeships. However, I am respectful of the democratic process and it is the law. This vote has nothing to do with the process change but only as to whether the candidate is qualified for judgeship. After personally meeting with Mr. Stegall, attending the confirmation hearing and reading the informational materials provided by Legislative Research, and the candidate, I vote aye.—Kay Wolf

Madam President: I vote NO on the confirmation of Caleb Stegall's appointment to the Kansas Court of Appeals. Until today, I have never seen the Senate consider a gubernatorial nomination to the Kansas Court of Appeals. This is not because I missed votes on such matters, but it is because the nomination of Court of Appeals judges previously went through an open, fair and non-partisan process that selected individuals based on merit and not based on political ideology and partisan political patronage. The appointment of Caleb Stegall demonstrates the worst kind of political cronyism that is alive and well under Governor Brownback. The process in which this nomination has come before the Kansas Senate, and thereby the people of Kansas, has been disgracefully lacking in any transparency as the applicants for this nomination were, and remain today, kept secret by Governor Brownback so as to avoid public scrutiny.
An editorial written by two Kansas Republicans said it best, "We cannot let Kansas be the place where the judiciary is under any cloud of suspicion that the selection process is based on anything other than merit and that the judges are answerable to anything other than the law, including the Constitution."—Anthony Hensley

Madam President: I vote NO on the confirmation of Mr. Caleb Stegall to the Kansas Court of Appeals. I have been pleased to hear good reports of his work and contributions but I have also learned of the many ideological issues he has addressed and his suggestion for the use of forcible resistance. I do not believe that a nominee should be required to have judicial experience, but in this case I feel I would need to be able to review some judicial rulings to positively say that he could be an impartial member of the bench and that he is basing his decisions on existing law. I also believe that we should separate our concerns for the process from the review of individual nominees for the position. However, Mr. Stegall, through presentation of testimony, actively supported changes to the process. His argument that every Kansan should have an equal voice in the process of choosing those who would interpret our laws means little if there is very limited involvement and should be weighed against the reduction of the involvement of knowledgeable citizens in the process and in elimination of an important protection of separation of powers.—Marcia Francisco
