

2016 Kansas Statutes

21-5921. Tampering with public notice. (a) Tampering with public notice is knowingly and without lawful authority altering, defacing, destroying, removing or concealing any public notice posted according to law, during the time such notice is required or authorized to remain posted.

(b) Tampering with public notice is a class C misdemeanor.

History: L. 2010, ch. 136, § 146; July 1, 2011.