

2016 Kansas Statutes

74-3241. Rights of persons and institutions retained; applications for participation in certain programs continued in effect. (a) On July 1, 1975, persons who, prior to said date, had qualified for and been designated as state scholars pursuant to the provisions of article 68 of chapter 72 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, or had been awarded tuition grants pursuant to the provisions of article 61 of chapter 72 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, or had received a loan from an eligible lending institution guaranteed under the provisions of article 74 of chapter 72 of the Kansas Statutes Annotated shall retain all benefits or rights which had accrued to or vested in such persons prior to July 1, 1975.

(b) Persons or institutions participating in grant programs or having been allocated funds under any of the federal higher education acts described in K.S.A. 72-6210[*] shall retain all benefits or rights which had accrued to or vested in such persons or institutions unless revised or nullified in accordance with law.

(c) All applications made pursuant to any of the programs or acts referred to in this section submitted to the state education commission prior to the effective date of this order shall continue in effect and shall be deemed to have been made or submitted to the state board of regents and shall be deemed sufficient for the purpose thereof. Any application for grants of federal funds included with or in a state plan or pursuant to any federal legislation submitted to any federal agency by the state education commission prior to the effective date of this order shall continue in effect and shall be deemed to have been made or submitted by the state board of regents subject to revision or nullification in accordance with law.
