

2016 Kansas Statutes

75-5957. Same; eligibility requirements for institutional-based long-term care services. On and after July 1, 1996, the eligibility requirement that applicants for institutional-based long-term care services shall not have income in excess of a maximum amount equal to 300% of federal supplemental security income shall no longer be applied to applicants for institutional-based long-term care services.

History: L. 1996, ch. 271, § 20; July 1.