

2018 Kansas Statutes

9-806. Failure to engage in business; reapplication required. Any newly organized bank or trust company which did not begin business within 120 days after a certificate of authority has been issued to such bank or trust company by the commissioner shall not engage in the banking business or the business of a trust company without again obtaining a certificate of authority from the commissioner.

History: L. 1947, ch. 102, § 9; L. 2015, ch. 38, § 27; July 1.