

2021 Kansas Statutes

24-1112. Same; special assessments. Assessment of benefits to the lands ceded to this state which were lawfully made under the laws of Missouri shall be effective from and after the time such lands become a part of this state the same as though made under the laws of this state, and shall thereafter be used as a standard for the purposes for which originally made and in making further special tax levies against such land to pay obligations of the former Missouri district.

History: L. 1949, ch. 251, § 12; April 14.