

2021 Kansas Statutes

50-718. Obtaining information under false pretenses. Any person who knowingly and willfully obtains information on a consumer from a consumer reporting agency under false pretenses is guilty of a severity level 7, person felony and upon conviction shall be punished in the manner provided by law.

History: L. 1973, ch. 85, § 153; L. 2000, ch. 181, § 12; July 1.