2023 Kansas Statutes

17-76,108. Distribution in kind. Except as provided in an operating agreement, a member, regardless of the nature of the member's contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than cash. Except as provided in an operating agreement, a member may not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a limited liability company to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed exceeds a percentage of that asset which is equal to the percentage in which the member shares in distributions from the limited liability company. Except as provided in the operating agreement, a member may be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a limited liability company. Except as provided in the operating agreement, a member may be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a limited liability company to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed is equal to a percentage of that asset which is equal to the percentage in which the member shares in kind from a limited liability company to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed is equal to a percentage of that asset which is equal to the percentage in which the member shares in distributions from the limited liability company. Later that the percentage in which the member shares in distributions from the limited liability company. History: L. 1999, ch. 119, § 47; January 1, 2000.